Lake Placid, N. Y., Jan. 5.—Distances and conditions under which the Lake Placid Diamond Trophy Championship, new skating event of world-wide interest, recently sanctioned by the International Skating Union of America, will be skated here February 9, 10 and 11, following the United States national and international, and the Canadian skating events at St. John, N. B., are announced. The distances include the 200 and 400 yard dashes, the one-half mile, three-quarters mile, one mile and three miles.

Those skaters who were highest point winners at the last preceding United States National, the Canadian National and the International Amateur Outdoor Speed Skating Championships are eligible to compete in the Lake Placid Diamond Trophy Championship event. The amateur speed skating champions of other countries including national or international open championship events under conditions similar to the American International may be declared eligible.

On the same dates as the Diamond Trophy Championship will be the Lake Placid Silver Cup Competition, the details of which are soon to be announced. This event is open to all amateur skaters in good standing who are not eligible to compete for the Diamond Trophy.

Inquiries concerning the Diamond Trophy Championship are now being received from points throughout the Eastern, Middle West and Western States in this country and from principal Canadian centres.

Curling Bouspiel.

Fredericton, N. B., Jan. 5.—The Fredericton Curling Club have decided to hold the proposed New Brunswick bond issue in Fredericton and January 17, 18 and 19, have been used as the Lake Placid trophy, indicative of the curling championship of New Brunswick, will be competed for and it is expected that about 120 curlers will be here.

The following clubs have signified their intention of competing in the championship: Bathurst, Newcastle, Chatham, Sackville, Moncton, St. Stephen, Thickett, Carleton and St. Andrew's of St. John, and Fredericton.

St. John in Marysville.

Captain Irvine Wade announced his line-up for Marysville as follows: Goal, Titus; point, Mark Wade; cover, Edgar Wade; wing, Clarence Wade; forward, Brewster centre, I. Wade (captain); sub, Miller, C. Wade, Hanson, "Bingo" Harrison and Lee Harrison.

Credit to "Red" Stuart.

Montreal, Jan. 5.—"Red" Stuart, former maritime province hockey star, was the shining light in last night's National Hockey League match, in which St. Patrick's defeated the Ottawa Senators, champions of the world, according to the general consensus of sporting opinion. Jackson, another maritime player on the substitute list of the Irish, did not get a chance to play. The Toronto Globe says:

"To 'Red' Stuart, one time star of maritime province hockey, must go the vast amount of the credit for the great defence man turned in the greatest game of his career, and, after starting throughout, scored the winning goal forty-five seconds before the final whistle blew. It is the ruler rather than the exception that the C. H. A. senior teams provide the keenest competition in the land, but for once the professionals must be given at least an equal edge in this department, as both teams threw everything they had into their play and cut out a withering, killing pace that had the fans amazed. They kept it up, too, until the bitter end, but with St. Pat's gradually falling near the close. Stuart's rush, however, came at an opportune time, when the visitors were having a big edge on the play and appeared almost certain of victory. It was the consensus of opinion that it was the most thrilling and best played game seen here in the last two years."

NEW BRUNSWICK BOND ISSUE

Probably for a Million and a Half Dollars.

Two Moncton Delegations Heard by Government in Fredericton—February 28 or March 2 for Opening of Session of Legislature.

(Canadian Press.)

Fredericton, N. B., Jan. 5.—New Brunswick, it was said today, would probably soon make an issue of $1,600,000 of bonds. The funds, Premier Foster said, were for expenditures for the development of electric power, and had been authorized by the legislature in 1919. He said that the government would act in dealing with hydro-electric development. Whether the bonds will bear 5 1/2 or 6 per cent interest, and whether they will be short or more extended term bonds, the premier said, would probably be decided by the government tomorrow.

Two delegations from Moncton were heard by the government last night. A. E. Triton, president of the Moncton Co-operative Creamery, Limited, headed one delegation asking for financial assistance for the company to extend the scope of its work, suggesting a loan or guarantee of bonds of $10,000 or $15,000.

Algerman Stone headed a civic delegation asking the government to take steps to assist unemployment in Moncton, suggesting that the government should make a further allotment to that city from the housing act funds and also assist a project for the erection of a modern, large public market in that city. No decision has been reached as yet in either matter, consideration being promised.

Because of a meeting at St. John tomorrow when hydro-electric matters will be discussed by representatives of the city of St. John and the New Brunswick Power Company with Premier Foster and the members of the provincial hydro-electric commission, it is not expected that the meeting of the government will extend longer than today.

Thursday, Feb. 29, was named today by Premier Foster as the probable date for the opening of the New Brunswick legislature. He said that the legislature would not open earlier than that date, but intimated there might be a delay until Thursday, March 2. Either one of these dates, he said, seemed certain.

So far no decision has been reached as to whether to hold by-elections before the session to fill the three vacant seats.

CANADA'S SHIP RECORD FOR 1921

Gain Over 1920 Except in Coastwise Service—More Than 1,700,000 in Crews.

(Canadian Press)
Ottawa, Jan. 5.—Exclusive of ships engaged in the coastwise trade but inclusive of those engaged in traffic on inland waters, the total tonnage of ships entering and leaving Canadian ports during the fiscal year ended March 31, 1921, was 51,618,630 tons, as compared with 46,483,253 during the previous year, according to a statement issued by the department of customs and excise. During 1921 the total tonnage engaged in the coastwise trade entering and leaving Canadian ports was 56,225,509 tons against 60,552,655 tons in 1920. During the 1920 period 104,074 tons of shipping was built and 27,022 tons registered. During 1921, 84,263 tons of shipping with a value of $5,466,373 was sold to other countries. In 1920 the tonnage sold to other countries was 53,407. The value was $1,919,477.

The statement shows that in 1921, the first year for which statistics are given, 87,230 tons of shipping was constructed in Canada. This industry reached its highest peak in 1915 when 188,098 tons reached the ocean. From 1915 the tonnage constructed each year gradually declined until in 1920 only 10,733 tons passed from Canadian yards. After 1896 the amount increased until another peak was reached in 1920. In 1918, 93,912 tons of shipping was constructed, and the figures given show that more than tripled in 1919 and more than tripled in 1920.

Of the total of 230 vessels built in the fiscal year ended March 31, 1921, 139 steamers and eighty-one vessels. The sailing vessel tonnage was 15,664. During the period under review 6,204 steamers and the British flag entered Canadian ports as against 7,796 steamers and 1,078 sailing ships registered under foreign flags. During the same period 6,284 British steamers and 2,248 sailing vessels registered under the British flag entered Canadian ports as compared with 7,483 steamers and 1,263 sailing vessels registered under foreign flags. Total sailing vessels both foreign and British, including Canadian, entering and leaving Canadian ports during the period numbered 34,640 with crews numbering 873,040 men. Vessels engaged in traffic on inland waters numbered 60, 183 with crews totalling 911,901 men, making a grand total of shipping, exclusive of coasting vessels, of 94,773 vessels entering and leaving Canadian ports in 1921. These vessels carried crews numbering 1,784,941 men.

REPORT THAT TAXATION WAS DISCUSSED

(Canadian Press)
Fredericton, N. B., Jan. 5.—The provincial government spent a part of this morning discussing taxation and assessing matters with Dr. W. C. Kierstead, professor of political economy at the U. N. B., who has acted as taxation expert for the government in the past. It is understood that some new schemes of taxation are under consideration, some being likely in the immediate future because of the decline in provincial revenues due especially to the decline in the lumber industry. It was said that some announcement would probably be made during the next meeting, which is expected to be held at the latter of the elections.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THE THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

SWEEP IN PATH OF CRASHING TIMBERS

Ice Storm in "Way Down" Terrific Incident.
With a mighty roar, the dam blew up and the mighty volume of log-laden water rushed down the ravine. Crunching, crushing, tumbling and tossing, thousands of tons, swept onward—destroying everything in their path. A mile down the valley lay Jemous, the courageous, helplessly-bound in the path of the log-flood.
Beside the broken dam stood the rattled Deceas, watching the fighting lumbermen, watching the freedom-crazed waters, little suspecting that his sweet heart lay below, doomed by the torrent she herself had unleashed by dynamiting the dam.
The she learned what she had done! Never was there such a race as that between the mad and the maddened, wild death by horseback to catch the crest of the flood. Then, perilous log riding in the midst of the tunnel.
How the love-inspired girl rescues her sweetheart from the jaws of a entranced water, little suspecting that her sweet heart lay below, doomed by the torrent she herself had unleashed by dynamiting the dam.

A LETTER FROM CHARLES RAY

Dear St. John Boys—
Ever fall for love? Whoa! Not so fast. Better watch your step. You know, the high cost of loving is some thing more than just a few dollars about 600 green flags. Then there's candy, flowers, and what-not. Say, ain't I know. I was nineteen and making $18 per week when Cupid got careless with his arrows and caught me a wicked job. Then my troubles began. Say, Pal, it's a woful tale and there's something more to it than meets the eye. I'll show you all about it in "Nineteen and Phyllis," at the Imperial tonight and tomorrow. Don't bring your lady friend. She might get embarrassed—and yet, she mightn't, so you had better bring her after all. So long until show-time.
Yours sympathically,
CHARLES RAY.

IN WALL STREET

New York, Jan. 5.—(10:30)—Further divergence of speculative sentiment was shown by the conflicting movement of leading issues at the opening of today's stock market. Possing of the General Motors common dividend caused that stock to react fractionally to 8-8, a new record. Other motor shares and subsidiaries were lower. Sugars forfeited part of yesterday's gains and equipment and foreign oil eased. Baldwin and Mexican Petroleum reacted a point. United Fruit, Union Bag, California Petroleum preferred and National Cloak and Suit preferred represented the constructive side of the market at gains of 1/4 to 1 1/2 points. Preliminary quotations for the more important foreign exchanges were lower. German marks showing especial heaviness.

TIE-UP ON THE RAILWAY WORSE

More Snow Adds to Cape Breton Trouble.
Just Digging Out Well when Another Heavy Fall Comes—Rain Adds to Other Troubles of the Citizens of Halifax.

(Canadian Press)
Sydney, N. S., Jan. 5.—With the three day blockade of the C. N. R., Antigonish county still unbroken, strong prospects of further and worse trouble is held out by snow which again commenced to fall heavily over eastern Nova Scotia at noon. Reports from Antigonish are that snow has commenced to fall heavily there, and that the railway gangs are unable to get the stalled trains and plows moving either forward to Mulgrave or back to New Glasgow. Conditions are becoming worse there at every mile.
No train from the mainland has reached Sydney since midnight Thursday. An engine and plows have been buried in drifts at Harbor An Boche since Monday evening. The Halifax express due here Tuesday morning is still at Antigonish. A local express service between Sydney and Point Tupper is being operated with each passenger equipped as far as possible here, but the mainline subdivision is completely stalled.
Telephone service with Glace Bay was re-established this morning. Train lines have been cleared from Sydney to Dominion No. 4, about a mile from Glace Bay, but will be speedily snowed out again if the present snowfall continues for any length of time.
The storm has also affected the collieries, in some cases preventing the miners from getting to work, and in others holding up surface operations until the heavy roads could be cleared of snow.
Amherst, N. S., Jan. 5.—Light snow began to fall at eight a. m. and has steadily increased. The temperature is gradually rising.
Bad weather, N. S., Jan. 5.—With all but the main streets of Halifax blanketed with snow, and again snowing to fall here before noon today threatened to turn the streets into veritable swimming pools. The snowing has been a service which was three days digging itself out from the blizzard of Friday and Saturday.

DAIL MEETING WAS AT ONCE ADJOURNED

Times Man Kidnapped.
Dublin, Jan. 5.—A. B. Kay, correspondent of the London Times, was kidnapped last night by three armed men in a grocery shop. There has been no word of him since his disappearance and no explanation of his seizure. The correspondents who gathered for this morning's session of the Dail Eireann demanded that the other newspapers in the city should publish the names of the kidnapers. Kay's friends pointed to an article he wrote recently from Cork, saying that he had been kidnapped by three men of that city favored ratification of the Irish treaty, as a possible reason for his abduction. The article was written at that time to leave Cork on the threat that he be "put in a vault with corpses and other newspapermen." The information he had been taken to Cork and that he may be returned here today. It was declared later that the kidnaping occurred during the afternoon and that it had been expected Kay would be returned by night, but that the night of greater part of this forenoon had gone by without his reappearance. Kay was five other English newspapermen, his companions said, when three armed men entered, presented their pistols and ordered them to bring him back unharmed in the evening, warning them to say nothing in the meantime. Before the Dail met the correspondents here held a meeting and formulated the objections to the Dail authorities against the kidnaping. The American and Irish correspondents joined the English newspapermen in signing the protest. After adjournment of the Dail had been moved, Desmond Fitzgerald, Minister of Propaganda, declared the kidnaping, but was overruled by the Speaker, who declared the adjournment.

Michael Collins told the correspondents that he had sent two of his best men to rescue the kidnaped Kay, and that the kidnapers would be severely punished. Collins expressed the opinion that the Cork men were responsible for the kidnaping. The carrying off of Kay created for the first time as much interest as the fight over the treaty. Some of the English correspondents, at a meeting following the adjournment, expressed themselves as favoring a boycott of the Dail if that body took no action regarding the kidnaping. The other correspondents objected to this course and the boycott suggestion was voted down. Another meeting of the correspondents was arranged to be held later in the day.

Captain Bentley is at present seriously ill at his South West Point, where he has a cargo of pulp bound for Norfolk, Va., from St. George.

SHOULD WAKE THEM UP.

Chatham World.—The money pay teachers' salaries has been obtained on a note signed by some of the teachers. Perhaps the citizens, having learned a lesson by standing back and allowing town elections to go by default, will take the trouble, next spring, to see to the election of a council that will manage the finances in such a way as to preserve the town's credit. The situation is a disgrace to all concerned.

BIG MEN ARE CALLED TO COURT IN BANK INQUIRY

Among those summoned are: Sir Montagu Allan, D. C. Macarow, Hon. C. C. Bullantyne, Norman J. Davies, Lorne C. Webster and Farquhar Robertson.

INDIA'S STRANGE GODS.

India is a land of "strange gods," and some of them are very strange, indeed. One encounters them all over the country, but it is only in the holy cities that their presence in force is felt. Of course, the grotesque shapes of the most popular gods are soon familiar, but their odd lines are painted on the fronts doors of houses or daubed on any spare wall.
Here is, for instance, Ganesh, god of plenty, god of birth. His characteristics are a monstrously developed stomach and an elephant's trunk, which do undoubtedly give him a jovial appearance. As he is also the god of learning, most Indian books contain a little dedication to him on the fly-leaf.

No less familiar is Hanuman, god of the monkeys, who has risen from the role of a holy monkey to being the god of settled home life. No city of any pretensions is complete without a temple in his honor.
But the two supreme gods are Vishnu, the Preserver, and Shiva, the Destroyer. Vishnu is said to have come down on earth nine times. He has had a many-sided past, having taken the forms of a fish, a tortoise, a bear, and a lion, thereby increasing the popular regard for these animals. As such he had hundreds of thousands—and his life was a queer mixture of feats and strength and of love.

He is easily identifiable, for he is painted bright blue and stands majestically on a snake. With many other gods, his images are treated very humbly. Every day he is anointed from slens, dressed and bathed, and his feet are washed and put to rest in a bed of flowers.
But he is best known in his human shape of Krishna. As such he had hundreds of thousands—and his life was a queer mixture of feats and strength and of love.

MONTREAL STOCK EXCHANGE.

B., to Nassau, B. W. I. They said their investigation had shown that there was nothing to warrant the detention of the vessel. The master of the steamer said the trip would take two weeks or more and that he would have to call at other United States ports for coal and water.

THREE GREAT CONFERENCES
The meeting of the Allied Supreme Council in Cannes today will divide public interest with the conference at Washington and the controversy in Dublin. It is quite probable that the discussions at Cannes on the question of reparations and the proposed international economic conference will do much for the restoration of Europe in regard to matters of finance and trade, and the matters of vast importance also to the United States and Canada.

With regard to the Washington conference the news continues to be of a most encouraging nature, and there is no reason to doubt that before final adjournment a great work for world peace and rehabilitation will have been accomplished. Difficulties which appeared almost insurmountable before the conference met are found to be far less formidable when these concerned gather around a friendly conference table.

CO-OPERATION NEEDED.
We hear much about co-operation, in theory. There is an excellent opportunity in St. John today to put it into practice. The number of unemployed men and women is large. The serious phase of the situation is that so many heads of families are idle. In order to meet the situation there must be a willingness on both sides. Those who have some work that could be done and paid for now, as well as later, must be willing to work as well as to give value in work for the wages paid. The Times has heard more than one citizen tell of giving work to somebody out of work, only to find the cost of the job out of all proportion to what it should be. In these cases the men who got the work did not appreciate the fact that real sympathy lay behind the offer of work, and they proceeded to charge as much and make the job last as long as possible. Obviously such a course would discourage the employer and make the case of the workless worse than before. If one gives money the other should give value. By this method of co-operation much work could be provided to tide over the winter months.

THE BUSINESS OUTLOOK
There is a hopeful tone to the Toronto Globe's annual financial survey and industrial review, published Monday. Men prominent in the industrial, commercial and financial affairs of the Dominion are contributors, and their views are based on personal study and knowledge of conditions and prospects. Commenting on the review, the Globe says: "The one outstanding fact in Canada's industrial experience during an exceptionally difficult year is the great decline in the value of field crops, and, in a lesser degree, of animals and dairy products. The field crops of the Dominion in 1921, when a famishing world was calling for grain, were worth $1,371,700,000. In 1920 there was a shrinkage of slightly over eighty millions, but during 1921 the field crops were worth only $1,017,375,000—over half a billion less than two years ago. The volume as a whole increased, chiefly in the case of wheat, but the restoration of Europe's war-devastated fields made the European consumer less dependent on imported supplies—especially of cereals—and brought down the price of food-stuffs almost to pre-war levels."

TOO EASY TO WED IN NEW YORK
New York, Jan. 5.—Asserting that getting a marriage license in New York is easier than buying a theatre ticket, two judges in general sessions have come out in favor of a measure which would require publication of the names of persons obtaining licenses and prohibiting the ceremony for a month during which any objections could be registered. This, it was asserted, would check run-away and bigamy.

WHERE CANADA STANDS
(Ottawa Journal)
Trade is improving; national revenues are being maintained; bank deposits reveal a plentiful possession of money; prices are getting lower, and unemployment is but normal. If by keeping our heads we can tide over the present winter there is every prospect that another year will see us out of an inevitable after-war depression and well on the way along the path of prosperity which only the grossest errors on our own part can prevent Canada from reaching.

THE WISE GIVER.
(By John Godfrey Saxe.)

Let other pens with pious ardor paint
The selfish virtues of the cloistered
In lettered marble let the stranger read
Of him who dying, did a worthy deed.
And left to charity the cherished store
Which, to his sorrow, he could hoard no more.
I remember the noble man who gave
His generous dollars while the donor lives;
Gives with a heart as liberal as the palms
That to the needy spread his honored aims.
Gives with a head whose yet unclouded light
To worst-hated objects points the giver's sight;
Gives with a hand still potent to enforce
His well-aimed blows, and direct its course;
Such is the giver who must stand confessed
In giving gloriously and not in need.

LIGHTER VEIN.
Lets Him Out.

A process has been discovered whereby old leather may be converted into gelatin. Such transformation offers ready means of utilizing many articles after their value to every one but the junk man appears to be gone. The head coverings are sometimes made of leather, it would appear that at last the junk man confident that his candidate will win in an election may literally back up his confidence with the time-honored promise that he will cut his own hair in the event that his man loses.

MANY GIRLS ARE IDLE.
(London Letter)

The wholesale reduction of government staffs, abnormally swollen during the war, coupled with the prevailing strike conditions, have caused a deplorable amount of unemployment among business girls in London. Happily the majority of them are not solely dependent on their earnings, or it is to be feared that the dearth of suitable jobs would frankly drive them to the streets. Some of them, including many that are really competent and efficient, admit quite frankly that they have been seeking employment for more than twelve months, fruitlessly answering advertisements all the time. A friend of mine, who recently inserted an advertisement in one single paper, tells me he received more than one hundred replies. One of the girls he interviewed mentioned, more over, that in the case of another post for which she made application, there were 250 applicants. Some of the girls told him bluntly that they were afraid to apply for the position, as they had been in government employment, so great is the prejudice in London business circles against what is known as the "Whitehall Flapper." Unfortunately, it is exceedingly difficult to separate the sheep from the goats. Some of these ex-government workers are as good as their work as any one could possibly desire. Indeed, the fact that is utterly hopeless. One wonders how even a government department put up with such incompetent staffs. Technical men in the commercial departments of many of Germany's leading corporations, according to the German press, are being sent to the United States. Some of these Western Electric Company, who has just returned from a trip of industrial investigation in the United States, in that country, it is said, are as badly off as their brothers in office. Draftsmen handling projects requiring expert knowledge received 1,647 marks in November, engineers in responsible jobs drew 1,228 marks, and factory engineers 2,389 marks. These figures are an increase over the October scale of market. The wages paid in July, during this time the mark was valued at less than half a cent in the American market. Employees on hour rates and piece-work are in worse straits than those paid by the month. Experts in the former group are at present getting about 8.05 marks an hour; trained workmen, who fall to reach the expert standard, receive 5.75.

LOW WAGES IN GERMANY.

Today the German worker can put it all over the Chinese worker in the matter of low salaries. COASTY IMMIGRATION

Immigration.—When the partisans of unrestricted immigration come to deliver their assaults upon the Federal Government to give an impulse to the immigrants, it will be opportune for the representatives of the more stable elements to be prepared to establish with facts from the recent census, that up to the present time the immigrants have taken more from the country than they have given. The bureau of statistics stated recently that in twenty-five years two-thirds of the immigration of this country has paid an enormous price have mysteriously down from the country, others to cross the border into the United States.

THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., THURSDAY, JANUARY 5, 1922

RECENT WEDDINGS

Tracey-Riley.
The residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Haslam, 219 Charlotte street, West End, was the scene of a pretty wedding last evening when their niece, Miss Hazel J. Riley, was united in marriage to Gordon L. Tracey, of Rosedale (N. B.). The house was prettily decorated for the occasion, the color scheme being pink and white and, during the ceremony, the bride and groom stood beneath an arch of evergreen, decorated with wedding bells. The bride was beautifully attired in a costume of white crepe de chine, with a full skirt and orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. She was given in marriage by her uncle, W. G. Haslam.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Heaney, B. A., pastor of the Carleton Methodist church, in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The wedding march was played by Miss Olive Kingston.

After the ceremony, the wedding supper was served and later in the evening one of the guests, William Webber, general agent of the C. P. S. lines, entertained the company with vocal solos and readings. He was accompanied, on the piano, by William McLeod, of Montreal. The wedding presents were numerous and gave evidence of the high esteem in which the young people are held by a wide circle of friends.

The out-of-town guests included Mrs. Odour Tracey, of Rosedale, mother of the bridegroom, and Mrs. James D'Arcy, of Digby (N. S.).

The bride is a graduate of the Fisher Memorial Hospital training school for nurses at Woodstock (N. B.), and has practiced her profession in several towns in the province.

After a short honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. Tracey will make their home in Rosedale, Carleton county, where the bridegroom is engaged in farming.

A quiet wedding was solemnized last evening at the Methodist parsonage in Carmarthen street when Harold Stevens, son of Edward Stevens, of Grand Bay, and Miss Emily Corbett, of this city, daughter of William Corbett, of McKimleyville, Northumberland county, were united in marriage. Rev. E. E. Styles officiated at the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Stevens will reside in the city.

Doctor at 82 Finds Mothers Prefer His Formula to New-Fangled Salts And Coal Tar Remedies for Babies

Judgment of 1892 vindicated by world's approval of Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin, a simple vegetable compound for constipation—So safe, thousands give it to babies in arms—Now has largest sale in the world.

WHEN a man is in the 83rd year of his age, as I am, there are certain things he has learned that only time can teach him. The basis of treating sickness has not changed since I left Medical College in 1875, nor since I placed on the market the laxative prescription I had used in my practice, known to druggists and the public since 1892, as Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin.

Then the treatment of constipation, biliousness, headaches, mental depression, indigestion, sour stomach and other indispositions that result from constipation was entirely by means of simple vegetable laxatives, herbs and roots. These are still the basis of my Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin, which is a combination of Egyptian Senna and other mild laxative herbs with pepsin.

Recently new medicines have been brought out for constipation that contain calomel, which is mercury, salts of various kinds, minerals, and coal tar. These are all drastic purgatives, many of them dangerous, and the medical profession is warning the public against them. Certain coal tar products will depress the heart; certain salts give rise to intestinal poisoning, impaction and rupture of the intestines. If grown people want to use them no one can deny them the privilege, but they should never be given to children.

The simpler the remedy for constipation, the safer for the child and for you, and the better for the general health of all. And as you can get results in a mild and safe way by using Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin, why take chances with pills and powders and strong drugs, even if disguised in candy? My remedy, too, costs less than most others, only about a cent a dose. A bottle such as you can find in any drug store, will last a family several months, and all can use it. It is good for the babe in arms because pleasant to the taste, gentle in action, and free from narcotics. In the proper dose, given in the directions, it is equally effective at all ages. Elderly people will find it especially ideal.

The formula of Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin is on the cover of every bottle, and the ingredients have the endorsement of the U. S. Pharmacopoeia.

In remembrance of my 83rd birthday I have set aside the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars to be given away in half-ounce bottles of my Laxative Syrup Pepsin. Only one Free Trial bottle to a family. All are constipated now and then, and here is an opportunity for you and others to try Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin FREE OF CHARGE. Ask for your free bottle today, simply sending name and address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 24 Front Street, Bridgeburg, Ont. Do not postpone this.

CANADA SET 27,000 SOLDIERS ON FARMS

Lent Them $85,000,000 to Purchase Properties, Buildings and Stocks.

Chicago, Jan. 5.—Twenty-seven thousand Canadian ex-soldiers have been settled on farms by the Canadian government and $85,000,000 has been lent to these men by their government, according to a letter sent to the Horse Association of America here by John Barnett, chairman of the Soldiers Settlement Board of Canada.

"Aggregated roughly, this means that we have placed a population of 125,000 people on these lands," he said.

"Our settlers have been placed partly on free Crown lands and partly on lands purchased by this Board and resold to him. In no case has a settler been required to possess more than $500. We have, therefore, advanced practically the full purchase price of the lands we have bought, and in addition have advanced up to $8,000 for permanent improvements, such as buildings, fencing, &c., and stock and equipment."

"The risk is necessarily great, but has been taken largely as a re-establishment venture."

"We have been in operation over three years, and the national results are already very great. Some 600,000 acres that were previously raw and entirely uncultivated have been brought under cultivation. Last year soldier settlers produced field crops worth easily $15,000,000, to which must be added the value of poultry and dairy products."

"Out of the $85,000,000 already expended $10,000,000 has been returned to the public treasury. Of the payments, more than 90 per cent was paid."

"Thus far the number of men who have abandoned their efforts represents 7 per cent of our aggregate settlement. In the cases of abandonment, and despite the collapse in markets, we have salvaged and foreclosed more than 500 cases, representing an investment of more than $2,000,000, without any financial loss."

Mr. Barnett in his letter mentions that the power furnished these farmers has in a great majority of the cases been horses, preferably mares. He says: "With the shortage of personal capital, each settler had to be furnished with such power equipment as would enable replacement with practically no cash outlay. This meant supplying as largely as possible to our settlers mares, in hope that the increase would in time payments, but also afford a source of revenue."

"Feed can be obtained from the farm itself, and no monetary outlay is involved. Power machinery, we felt, would involve for upkeep and fuel supply a cash outlay that few settlers could be reasonably expected to meet."

"We felt, also, that the use of horse power, rather than motor power, would enable our settlers to utilize more of the by-products of the farm."

The Missionary Aid Society of the Central Baptist church held a meeting in the schoolroom of the church yesterday afternoon, with Miss Allen, the president, in the chair. Mrs. J. J. Gillies gave a talk on Baptist medical mission work in India. Other addresses were given by Mrs. H. D. Everett and Mrs. Bradley.

BRITISH NOBILITY FACE HARD TIMES

Heavy Taxation Drives Ancient Families to Dispose of Ancestral Homes.

London, Jan. 5.—Examples of the financial difficulties of various British noble families are cited by "The Daily Express."

"I have no motor car, nor am I likely to have one," writes the countess, in reply to a candidate for Maldon District Council, who asked her to lend him her car.

"I have a pony and trap; otherwise it is Shank's mare. I have had to give up my Parliamentary candidature because I have not the money to serve."

"We landed people have gone under in the revolution now in progress."

The Countess of Warwick is not the only member of the aristocracy compelled to make sacrifices in these stringent days. On August 4 the Duke of Portland, who owns nearly 200,000 acres and half a dozen noble residences, announced that the heavy weight of taxation made him contemplate leaving Welbeck Abbey, his famous seat in Nottinghamshire. He prophesied a wholesale closing down of the historic homes of England if the present rate of taxation continue.

The Marquis of Northampton, who also called attention to the plight of landed proprietors, caused a surprise in October by declaring that he had to live on borrowed money. Lord Hindlip, owing to the burden of taxes, gave up Handlip Hall, Worcester-shire, the home of three generations of his family.

The Duke of Devonshire sold Devonshire House in 1919 and Stowe House, among others who have parted with town and country properties during the last year or so have been the Duke of Bedford, the Duke of Westminster, the Duke of Rutland, the Duke of Grafton, the Duke of Marlborough, Lord Leconfield, Lord Londesborough, Lord Portman and Lord Causton. The Earl of Denbigh and the Earl of Harrington sold estates in North Wales and Cheshire during 1920.

LLOYD'S

Famous Register of Shipping Had Birth in London Coffee House.

London, Dec. 31. — (By Canadian Press.) — Lloyd's is a name known throughout the civilized world, yet probably few people know anything of the origin of the parent business organization carried on under it. Lloyd's Register of Shipping had its birth in a London coffee house in 1720, but the man who gave the magic of his name to it, Edward Lloyd, had been dead eight years when the first insurance company was launched. It seemed the natural thing that the scheme of insurance should have been born and nursed in Edward Lloyd's place of entertainment. His coffee house was patronized chiefly by shipping men, and when Lloyd's List was founded the name of the departed coffee house man was regarded as worth using in this connection.

Lloyd's News, the forerunner of Lloyd's List, was launched in Edward Lloyd's lifetime, and was published but more particularly in the interests of the coffee house. It lasted only six months, but it was the seedling from which Lloyd's insurance sprang. Lloyd's List was not published until some years after Mr. Lloyd's death.

Sidney Boulton, chairman of Lloyd's, addressing the Insurance Institute of London recently, said if insurance men were indebted to Edward Lloyd for nothing but his name, that was a priceless gift. It was no exaggeration to say that the name of this humble "coffee man" was more often on the lips of men than any other name in the commercial world. It must have strange fascination about it, Mr. Boulton said, for it had been appropriated by shipping and insurance companies all over the world without any other ostensible reason than that of its natural charm.

Lloyd's List, founded in 1720, is the oldest existing newspaper in the world, except the London Gazette, and has continued without a break down to the present time. Lloyd's, today, consists of 1,086 underwriting members, ninety-four non-underwriting members, 393 sub-

"I noticed a little pimple on my baby's face. I thought it was from the sun but it kept getting worse and the skin was red and very hot. He could not sleep or rest the eruption itched and burned so, and it caused him to scratch. I was quite discouraged."

"I saw an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. I bought more and after using two cakes of Cuticura Soap and two and a half boxes of Cuticura Ointment he was healed." (Signed) Mrs. S. D. McGuire, Clarkburg, Ont., Dec. 18, 1918.

Use Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum for every-day toilet purposes. Soap 25c, Ointment 25c and 50c. Sold throughout the Dominion. Canadian Depot: Lyman, Limited, St. Paul St., Montreal. Cuticura Soap shaves without messcribers, eighty-two associates, and 1,600 substitutes. There are 1,400 agents and sub-agents all over the world, those at the most important places being empowered to settle and pay claims. The premium income for last year was upward of $20,000,000, of which $18,000,000 was for marine and $12,000,000 for non-marine. Lloyd's is the largest insurance institution in the world.

One might wonder how the company system of insurance had its birth in a coffee house, but in Edward Lloyd's day insurance was effected through bankers, merchants and money-lenders, who carried on insurance in addition to their ordinary vocations, and the coffee house furnished a convenient place in which to deliver the policies. Previous to the institution of this popular place of refreshment insurance policies were taken around by the merchants' or the ship-owners' clerks or by brokers appointed for the purpose, to the offices of the bankers, merchants and money-lenders, scattered throughout the city. This tedious method lasted about 100 years.

Then coffee houses came into vogue. Some of them were the resort of poets, politicians and actors, while others were frequented by commercial men, and these latter gradually came to be subdivided, certain of them being identified with special classes of business. Lloyd was one of the pioneers in the coffee house—the precursor of company insurance—and doubtless he lent the strength of personality to the evolution of the latter, then slowly taking shape. That he died before the first insurance company was formed yet left behind a name to conjure with in the new business is a striking testimony to his ability and strength of character.

Edward Lloyd not only left his impress on the London of his time, but he left a name to be handed down through the centuries, gathering strength with the years.

PULPWOOD GROWING PAYS

"It will not be difficult to demonstrate to the paper manufacturer that he can afford to grow trees for pulpwood, when he is paying $30 per cord for peeled wood," said Dr. Hugh P. Baker, secretary of the American Paper and Pulp Association, before the Yale Forest Club at New Haven.

"It is my belief that we are passing out of the sentimental stage in forestry, and that in the next five years we are going to see the beginning of a real economic development in forestry. That is, the time has come when it is going to pay in dollars and cents to grow trees. In another year, as business becomes better, and our industries come back to reasonable production, we are going to come again to the condition which faced us a year ago, that wood for our industries will cost us more than it costs to grow it. When we can demonstrate to the paper manufacturer, for instance, that he can afford to grow pulpwood, we are going to see the same sensible turning to forestry that we have seen in the turn to better banking methods and better methods of manufacture."

Liquor Leaks, is Ignited and Firemen and Police are Called—Operator Escapes.

(Toronto Mail and Empire) A leak in a still in operation in a rear room on the second floor of 969 1/2 Queen street west, which ignited from a gas jet and set fire to the room, resulted in the discovery on Saturday of an extensive plant for the manufacture of "home brew" whiskey, together with an unusually large quantity of liquor, alcohol and various ingredients. As a result, the police are hot on the trail of the operator, who made a sudden exit through a back window just before the firemen arrived.

RUSSIA MAY SHOW HIDDEN WEALTH

British and Germans in Big Struggle for Trade.

Berlin, Jan. 5.—The interest of the continental trade on the whole is attracted by Russia, which is considered as the land of promise for the time when that country opens its gates to unrestricted trade. Then, the nation best prepared for this opportunity will carry home the bacon.

The boards of foreign trade, installed by the government, having failed absolutely owing to chronic lack of money, trade now is carried on only in an unofficial way, tacitly tolerated by the Soviet. This traffic is transacted by peddlers who are compelled to smuggle goods across the border, and these may be considered as the harbingers of legal business.

Contrary to general belief, Russian people have stored up wealth, peasants especially, which they hold in the form of the Soviet. These peasants, who are longing for all kinds of commodities without choice, are able and willing to pay the prices asked. Especially chemical and pharmaceutical preparations at present are indispensable owing to epidemics raging throughout Russia, and they are worth their weight in gold.

The first to grasp this opportunity after the war established warehouses in Revel, getting enormous profits. They were dispossessed by clever British business men, who were farsighted enough to monopolize the whole trade by controlling the three main harbours: Riga, Reval and Helsinki. Lately the British are finding keen competition in German firms which are valuing themselves of German business men familiar with the Russian conditions from many years' experience.

Once in the air, the airplane was operated by wireless and was made to circle a large flying field and descend. The descent was accomplished by pressing a wireless key on the ground which released underneath the airplane a roll of wire with a weight at the end. This weight switched off the engine and moved the rear surfaces of the plane into position for a smooth landing.

The Duke of Rothsay Chapter of the Imperial Order of the Daughters met yesterday afternoon at the residence of Miss Allison. The sum of $20 was voted to the free milk fund and $25 was given towards the purchase of a gramophone for the nurses' home of the St. John County Hospital.

At the session of the supreme court at Newcastle yesterday afternoon, the case of the King vs. William Stewart, was taken up behind closed doors. The jury brought in a verdict of guilty, with a recommendation for mercy.

A. B. McColig, of Kent, Ont., has been appointed to the senate by the new government. The constituency is represented in the house and in the cabinet by the Hon. James Murdoch. The long and honorable record of Mr. McColig coupled with the fact that there is a considerable industrial population in Kent are the reasons why the government made Kent its choice over other aspirants.

Striped of her sails, tied-up and unmanageable, the schooner Alexandria, bound from Ingonish to Gloucester, was driven ashore at Black Point, ten miles from Canso, at midnight on Monday in the midst of the blizzard then raging over Nova Scotia. The crew attempted to launch their one small boat, but a heavy comber dashed it to pieces. The schooner pounded heavily, filled with water and the spars went overboard. Captain Matthew Munro, tied a line about his waist, plunged into the water and swam through the icy water to the shore. He then managed to drag his crew five ashore, but after this, he collapsed. The men struggled through the snow drifts to a fisherman's cottage. The Alexandria, ninety-three tons, was owned by G. A. Cruickshanks, of North Sydney. When the crew left the shore there was nothing left of her except some wreckage.

NEWS NOTES ABOUT PROMINENT BAPTISTS

(Maritime Baptist)

Rev. Charles E. Stothard of Brown's Plains recently fell on the ice and sustained injuries which confined him to his bed for a week, and at this writing was still confined to the house, but hopes soon to be able to take up his work again.

Rev. W. B. Crowell has accepted a call to the pastorate of the churches at Grand Harbor and Seal Cove, Grand Mannan, and expects to take up his work with these churches early in the year.

The Royal College of Science, Toronto, Department of Nursing lists of graduates contains the name of Mrs. Olive Whitney, Whitneysville, N. B., who has many friends in Whitesville and vicinity. The reports indicate exceptional adaptability on the part of Mrs. Whitney in her chosen profession of nursing, and her many friends will please to congratulate her upon receiving a diploma for nursing from the Royal College of Science.

Rev. H. Osgood Morse was the preacher on Christmas Day at Charlotte street church, St. John West. Good congregations were present at both services. Christmas greetings were read from Rev. J. H. Jensen, the local pastor now of Lexington, Mass., and from Rev. C. R. Freeman, who takes up the work as pastor on the 22nd inst.

Rev. R. F. Allen of Glace Bay, C. B., received a call to the pastorate of the Victoria church in October. He resigned his Glace Bay pastorate to accept the call, but the Glace Bay church declined to accept the resignation and urged Mr. Allen to remain. After full consideration, Mr. Allen decided to press his resignation. Accordingly he will close his work in Glace Bay on the 8th inst. and begin his new pastorate on the 15th.

Chaplain Frank C. Rideout of Port Leavenworth, Kan., recently conducted an evangelistic campaign with Argentine Baptist church of Kansas City, Kan., for two weeks. The pastor of the church is Rev. Lyman Morse Denton, Ph.D., another maritime province man, who has ministered in the service of the Baptist churches in the United States.

Our genial brother, Deacon D. C. Clark of Charlotte street church, St. John, seemed to be the happiest man in the city about Christmas time. And there was good cause for this. He was very busy bringing glad tidings to others, especially to the two St. John Protestant Orphan Homes. A worthy object dear to him began to be realized on Christmas day when some of the United Baptist churches of New Brunswick made their first offering toward these homes, of which Deacon Clark is the president. The amount realized from these offerings is not known at present writing. The part, however, which particularly pleased Mr. Clark was that this was a recognition on the part of the churches of their obligation to these institutions. The United Baptist churches were the first to give this recognition. Mr. Clark hopes that the other Protestant churches may speedily follow the example thus set.

New York, Jan. 5.—Within the next few days Mrs. Enrico Caruso will move from her apartment in the Hotel St. Regis into the residence of Mrs. Harry H. An entire floor in the new home has been set aside for Little Gloria Caruso, who is to inherit a major share of the fortune left by the great tenor.

The lack of serviceable new cloth in the markets has put worn clothing at a premium. It is greedily bought by men and women who have turned and returned. Tailors are so busy with this sort of work that it frequently requires several weeks to have repairs made.

Plumbers and tinners and carpenters and painters utterly lack supplies. Small contractors can frequently supply workmen to make buildings, but of minor character, but they are seldom able to provide the required materials. This necessitates hours of search through the street stalls scattered along miles of boulevards. The capital, organization is still lacking.

Melbourne, Nov. 30.—(By Mail)—Australia wants 11,000,000 more inhabitants as soon as she can get them and prefers that they should be of good, white stock, preferably of British derivation. This additional population is regarded as necessary to develop the resources of the country.

In the light of those figures Australia can hardly be said to be entirely satisfied with the arrival of 20,000 former soldiers of the United Kingdom who have emigrated to Australia under the government emigration scheme since the war. This movement is a little too slow to suit Australia. Australian government officials point out that Great Britain expended nearly $15,000,000 in 1920 in public assistance to unemployed and others, and they add that much of this might have been saved if these idle persons had been transported to Australia, where they could have supported themselves.

France. Some of these operated automatically and others by wireless. The airplane, having been started by the mechanic, ascends automatically after it had attained sufficient speed. This was accomplished by increasing revolutions of a small fan located between the wings which put into motion a mechanism which, in turn, placed the control surfaces of the machine into position for ascent.

Once in the air, the airplane was operated by wireless and was made to circle a large flying field and descend. The descent was accomplished by pressing a wireless key on the ground which released underneath the airplane a roll of wire with a weight at the end. This weight switched off the engine and moved the rear surfaces of the plane into position for a smooth landing.

At another test an airplane was operated by wireless for an hour. It carried a pilot who took part in its operation until he desired to land, whereupon he took control.

PRESENTS HIS STOP TO TWO FAITHFUL BARBERS

New York, Jan. 5.—As a token of appreciation of thirteen years' honest and "faithful service," Aaron Rauch has presented his barber shop to two employees, Rubin Bratspief and Charles Caruso. Mr. Rauch explained that the two barbers never had lost a day, although the shop, conducted as a non-union organization, "was subjected to repeated attacks, physical as well as verbal."

"When the I. W. O. took a hand a few years ago," he added, "and began throwing bricks through the shop windows and assaulting the employees, these two, appearing to walk out through the front door, came back through the rear to a room to which I had retreated and where I temporarily ran the business until the trouble was over, the customers entering through a hall-way. I had always told Bratspief and Caruso that some day I would remember and reward their fidelity."

WHOLESALE PRICES SHOW INCREASE

Exceed November by 1.2 Per Cent—Down 45.7 Per Cent from Peak.

The index number of wholesale prices compiled by Professor H. Mitchell, of McMaster University, shows at the month of December, an increase of 1.2 per cent over the previous figure of 107.0 for November. This shows a decline of 45.7 per cent from the peak reached in May, 1920, and an advance of 11.8 per cent over the index number of 122.7 for December, 1921.

Among the twenty foodstuffs listed, advances were registered in beef, mutton, eggs and tapioca, while there were declines in flour, butter and sugar. Among the twenty manufactured commodities, advances were registered in wool, cotton, copper, tin, lead, white galvanized sheets, silver, silk and maple shavings. The index number for December shows a rise for the first time since May, 1920.

It should be noted that, with prices at practically an equilibrium, as they are in Canada, a rather heavy rise for January one or two commodities will send the number up or down. The present rise is due mainly to advances in foodstuffs more particularly meats.

TRADE REVIVAL MAY COME SOON

Much Depends on Final Result of Washington Conference.

Nations Want Goods—Bank of Commerce Says Betterment Will Come to Canadian Business if Conference Proves a Success.

The monthly commercial letter of the Canadian Bank of Commerce has the following interesting comment on the Washington Conference and its possible effect upon Canadian export trade:

Should the conference now sitting at Washington result in the leading nations pledging themselves to a programme of disarmament, there may be some hope that the present heavy burden of taxation, which is depressing industry and hampering the exchange of goods and services between the various countries of the world, will be sufficiently lightened to permit an accumulation of capital and to encourage it once more to flow into the accustomed channels of trade and commerce. If this takes place, Canada may look for some revival in her export trade, especially with Great Britain, which in the past has been one of her main customers, taking thirty-two per cent of her total exports during the last year. October last, as compared with thirty per cent in 1920 and forty-three per cent in 1919. There are many other nations in need of our surplus products which would be only too glad to purchase them if the present conditions they are unable to do so. Any measure of relief which the disarmament conference may bring will be a reduction of such problems.

Efforts to bring the cost of manufacturing products into harmony with the lowered scale of prices for agricultural produce are still in evidence. Faced with the inability to continue in business under the labor conditions imposed on it, an engineering firm in the maritime provinces has transferred its activities to a locality where the labor cost is forty-five cents per hour, as compared with the seventy-five cents which it had been required to pay. Further evidence of the endeavor to bring the domestic machinery of production and exchange into more active and satisfactory operation is shown by the effort to re-open activity in the building trades. These trades have reasonable assurances that much important work has already been planned, but the cost of building, and particularly the item of labor, is such as to make the execution of these plans impracticable. The actual volume of construction in Canada is diminishing largely as the result of the estimates of cost in some instances being substantially exceeded. Hopes of a reduction in the rate per hour paid for labor, and of an increase in efficiency have not materialized. It is clear now that the engaged in building and in the manufacture of building material that greater activity will not take place until the conditions are such as to justify the investment of capital in building. Even the high mortgage rate of twelve and eight per cent, in the chief urban centres does not attract capital under present conditions, and while the builders realize that the prospect of profit is too remote and the risk involved too great to warrant them paying such rates of interest in addition to the abnormally high municipal taxes to which improvements are subject, and which show no signs of abatement in the near future. Rents and carrying charges on property represent a large proportion of the cost of production and distribution of most commodities, and substantial reductions in these items are, it would appear, essential to renewed business activity.

The bank's index number of wholesale prices of exports which rose in November to 120.8, from 114.05 in October, which may be accounted for by the decline in the prices of butter, potatoes, silver and bituminous coal, balancing the marked improvement in the position of cattle, beef and sheep. Wheat and barley have rallied from the low point of early December. The index number for imports, which rose in November to 120.8, from 114.05 in October, and stands at 124.10 in this class of commodities, corn and rubber have risen, but sugar, anthracite coal and coke register substantial declines. The combined number for exports and imports continued to fall at the same rate as before, and this was 145.76 in the middle of December, a decline of 14.19 in November.

MAYOR-ELECT ASKS INVOICE OF CITY

George L. Oles Wants Facts on Youngstown Just as if He Were "Going to Buy It"

Youngstown, Ohio, Jan. 5.—George L. Oles, Youngstown's spectacular Mayor-elect, arrived home recently from a vacation in Florida, today, he said to "clean up the city" and to "fire any one who doesn't obey orders," when he takes office tomorrow.

Oles made political history here by running as an independent candidate, defeating the Republican incumbent by over 500 votes and the Democratic candidate by over 5,000. The city auditor received a request from Oles in Florida asking for a "thorough invoice" of the city, "just as if I were going to buy it."

"I want to know how much money the City of Youngstown owes," he wrote, "when they owe it to and when it is due. I want to know who owes the City of Youngstown, and when it is due. I want to know who owes the City of Youngstown, and when it is due. I want to know who owes the City of Youngstown, and when it is due."

Oles' competitor, Mayor Fred J. Warnock, defeated for re-election, issued a 2,000-word statement citing court decisions in an effort to show that Oles' premise to give his salary to charity constituted a bribe to the poor, and therefore disqualified him. Pleas for the courts were prepared, but were dropped, and no contest now is in sight.

Oles' first act as mayor will be to build up a flourishing business there in five years' time he said to start a market in Youngstown, to be his competitor, local politics and current topics soon won him a reputation.

During the Mayorial campaign Oles announced in his "ad" one day that he was going to run for mayor. He said later, "but people look it seriously and pretty soon I look it seriously, too."

GERMAN CHEMIST FORESEES RUIN

Other Nations Plotting to Hit Chemical Industry.

Berlin, Dec. 28.—Speaking as president of the Society for the Protection of the Interests of the Chemical Industry of Germany, Dr. C. Duisberg of the Parthenfabrik vorm. Friedrich Bayer & Co., expressed the opinion that the development of chemical industry in other countries purposed "the destruction of this branch of the German industry" through limiting production to domestic requirements. This, he said, would reduce it to about fifteen per cent of its present state.

Commenting on the statements of P. P. Garvan and Dr. C. H. Herby in the United States, and Victor Lefebvre in England, with reference to the peace-disrupting possibilities of an expansive German dye industry, Dr. Duisberg painted a dark picture of the future of the German people, which would follow the ruin of the chemical industry. He also declared that "it depends on us whether other nations will be able to say the preparation bill."

Although from an economic standpoint the actual situation of the German chemical market is not still to be considered satisfactory, prices have steadily advanced during the past three months, and something of a boom is to be expected. The textile industry is pumping heavier, and therefore the returns on the dyestuffs market are rather ample. Interest is concentrating upon the sale of German dyes and other chemicals, which have advanced by fits and starts as a result.

Export trade has improved with the continued downfall of the mark, but the effect of the recent sudden fall cannot yet be calculated. A great obstacle to the improvement of export trade was the auction on the Rhine as well as the increasing prohibition and the attitude of exclusion on the part of other countries. It now seems necessary on account of the English "safeguarding of industries bill" which came into force a short time ago.

FUR SALES ACTIVE. Consular Report Says Demand Keen at London Fall Sale.

An American consular report states that the anticipations of London brokers in their reports of the spring sale that the fur trade prospects were favorable, were fully confirmed by the results of the two subsequent auctions, despite the condition of many European currencies.

During the summer months dealers' stocks of furs became exhausted, consequently the fall sale witnessed a keen demand, and practically the whole quantity catalogued was cleared, prices in most cases being higher than at the spring sale. The largest proportion of furs was secured by the United States, but French buying was also heavy, and while a considerable quantity was bought for Germany the value of the mark militated against greater purchases being made. As to America, brokers report that orders were unusually few, "and the Americans present were chief interested in such articles as beaver, stone martin and mink."

Compared with the spring (April, 1921), sale prices realized at the fall auction showed an advance of 20 per cent for Australian red fox and mink, both of which met with keen demand; one of 20 per cent for tanners' wallaby, beaver, martin, and American opossum (the sale of which was excellent); 20 per cent for stone and beaver martin, largely bought on American account.

CANNED GOODS OUTLOOK. Toronto Globe.—A return to future buying is looked for by packers of canned goods for the 1922 output. One of the reasons for this is that the balance of the 1921 pack is getting low, and promises to be cleaned up entirely in most lines by the time the 1922 goods are ready. Business conditions are becoming more normal, and furthermore, to tempt early purchasers, it is believed the canner will quote attractive opening prices. On the whole, expectations are for a healthy market for the 1922 pack.

TREATED 842 FOR EFFECTS OF BAD LIQUOR

The 1921 Record for Kings County Hospital in New York.

New York, Jan. 5.—Dr. Mortimer D. Jones of Kings County Hospital said yesterday that 842 had been admitted to that institution in 1921 to be treated for alcoholic poisoning, mostly due to the deadly methods of manufacture. There was only one case of wood alcohol, he said, and none of the cases were due to home brew.

"These cases dropped to a minimum," he said, "in the first two months after the start of the police enforcement of the Mullan-Gage law, but they rose to maximum several months later. The highest figure was 108 for October. In November there were seventy-seven, and in December ninety-six. Thus far in January there have been twenty."

"The percentage of deaths is about the same as it was before prohibition, but, even though patients escape death, they are very much sicker than alcoholics used to be before prohibition. They are also slower in recovering, and the after-effects are worse."

BUSINESS IN NOVA SCOTIA

Halifax, N. S., Jan. 5.—Taking the telephone as the barometer of general business conditions, and representing the volume of business done in Nova Scotia during 1921 by 100, the business of the province increased to 140 in 1920 and fell back to 120 in 1921, says W. H. Hayes, assistant manager of the Maritime Telephone Company, who holds that the number of long distance and local calls fairly reflects the movement of general business. According to the telephone barometer, the amount of business done in Halifax during the latter half of 1921 increased 12 per cent, as compared with the first half.

HEAVY LOSS OF POTATOES.

Heavy damage from frost is reported as having been sustained by the potatoes in the pits and warehouses of British Columbia. Floods on parts of the Fraser River have flooded cellars prior to the freeze-up, and many of the growers have written of their anticipated potato profits this year as a total loss. Washington and Oregon are said to have suffered even worse than British Columbia. Most of the loss is believed to have fallen upon the farmer, as a large proportion of the potatoes in the province were still in the growers' hands.

PREPARING FOR SUPREME COUNCIL

Reparations and Economic Conference Discussed at a Preliminary Meeting in Cannes.

Cannes, Jan. 5.—Preparations went forward today for the opening of the Allied supreme council here tomorrow. A meeting was held today, at which the questions of reparations and the proposed international economic conference were discussed by Sir Robert Horns, chancellor of the British exchequer; Sir Laming Worthington-Evans, British secretary of state for war; Louis Loucheur, French minister of liberated regions and Premier Thaanis, of Belgium.

This was the first meeting of these four, and it was described as a preliminary conversation similar to that held by Premier Lloyd George and Premier Briand of France. It was explained that its purpose, as was the case with the premier's meeting, was to smooth out as many difficulties as possible in advance of the supreme council meeting. The experts of the various delegations also met this morning to arrange the agenda for the council.

NEW LABOR MOVE IN OLD COUNTRY

London, Jan. 5.—(Canadian Press Cable.)—The general council of the labor forces, known popularly as Labor's general staff, yesterday considered the situation some times created by a strong union starting a strike which seriously affected other unions having no voice in the dispute.

The council decided to submit to all affiliated unions proposals for preventing such situations. It is understood that the council is asking the unions to undertake not to call a strike without consulting the council and to give the council powers to co-ordinate in the action of labor.

This is regarded as a preliminary move toward a far reaching plan for marshalling the trade union forces generally to resist attacks on the hours and wages of the workers. The willingness of individual unions to surrender their industrial liberty of action is said to be doubtful.

UNCHARTED SEAS AT OPERA HOUSE

An Exceptional Picture of a Thrilling Story of the Frozen North—Harold Lloyd, etc.

An unforgettable picture—that is the correct picture—of "Uncharted Seas," the picture adapted from the title page of John Fleming Wilson, which opened yesterday at the Opera House, for a run of two days. "This seemed to be the consensus of opinion, judging from the comments overheard after the audience left the theatre.

It is startling and beautiful, packed with thrills that succeed each other in a crescendo of interest; the stark appeal of the frozen North, the locale where the principals act out their drama, is gripping. And the deft acting of Alice Lake, lifts the picture far above the average.

It is no exaggeration to say that "Uncharted Seas" is unique and will long be unapproached. The story, which originally appeared in Mynsey's Magazine, is of three characters sent to Behring Straits to find an abandoned vessel holding ten millions of Klondike gold, and thus test a man's character to discover whether his cowardice holds an alloy of courage. The wife, the craven husband and the sincere admirer furnish the triangle.

The cast includes Alice Lake, supported by Rudolph Valentino (star in "The Sheik"). To make a good programme even better, Harold Lloyd is seen in a corking good comedy, "All Aboard."

For Social Service. Toronto, Jan. 5.—An innovation in the department of social service, University of Toronto, is a course of lectures designed to give city students who intend to take up social service work in the country an idea of the problems of rural life and rural communities. The lectures will be delivered by Alexander MacLaren, B. S. A., of Guelph, rural secretary for the social service council of Ontario.

KEEN INTEREST IN ROYAL WEDDING

People Plan Wedding Gifts for Mary Goldborough Hall, in York-shire, Their First Home, and Later Residence Harwood House, Which Has Many Royal Associations—Its History.

(Canadian Press)

London, Jan. 3.—Interest in the betrothal of Princess Mary and Viscount Lascelles continues to grow in this country, and the general public picks up news in connection with the future home-making of the royal lady and her non-royal lover with avidity. Plans for wedding gifts have taken possession of the people and the gifts will be as varied as the numerous groups of givers differ in their ideas with regard thereto.

To begin with, the princess and her husband propose to live during the early part of their married life at Goldborough Hall, Yorkshire. Goldborough Hall is a red-brick early Jacobean mansion standing in a park and gardens which have an area of over 100 acres. The village of Goldborough is near the old town of Knaresborough.

Goldborough Hall is the property of Lord Lascelles' father, Lord Harwood, who himself lived there for fourteen years. For the last twenty-six years the mansion has been occupied by W. R. Lamb, a Yorkshire magistrate, and his family. Mr. Lamb has arranged to give up possession on April 30, and the hall is to be prepared for the reception of Lord Lascelles and his bride next summer.

The future country residence of Princess Mary and her husband will be Harwood House, the home of the Lascelles family. It is a stately mansion commanding fine views of the natural beauties of Wharfedale. It has many royal associations, and the early Lords of Harwood were of royal descent. The name is said to be derived from Harwood—the wood of the soldiers—where a battle was fought between Danes and Saxons. The royal castle, which was built in the reign of Edward III, has long since been dismantled, but its ruins and the old church, with its wonderful sculptured tombs, remain. The present mansion was built in 1760 for Edwin Lascelles, who was created the first Baron Harwood in 1790. It took twelve years to build it, at a cost, it is said of $120,000.

Harwood House was enlarged and improved about sixty years ago, and it was then that the fine Italian garden on the south terrace was planned. The palladian front affords a sweeping view of wooded landscapes, and near at the gardens, which were laid out at a cost of $16,000. The grounds contain a famous "Tokay" vine, seventy feet long and twenty-four feet wide, which was planted in 1783. The State apartments are handsomely decorated and furnished. In Harwood House are wonderful painted ceilings by Rubens, Rose and Zucchi, plaques by Kaufman, and portraits by Reynolds, Hopper and Lawrence; also a collection of china—largely Sevres—valued at over $200,000.

The Prince of Wales stayed at Harwood House last summer, the king and queen were entertained there in 1908, when their Majesties visited Leeds to open the new university buildings. King Edward and Queen Alexandra were guests at Harwood House, as Queen Victoria had been before her accession to the throne.

Lord Lascelles' town residence is Cherterfield House, which he bought

Chesterfield House stands at the corner of Audley and Curzon streets. It has a rather gloomy exterior, with closed court-yard. When Lord Lascelles bought Chesterfield House it was the headquarters of the League of Nations and it was lent to the government as a residence for the Crown Prince of Japan during his recent visit to this country. The house was built for the fourth Earl of Chesterfield, the author of the famous "Letters to My Son." It was completed in 1749, and has remained practically unchanged.

USE FISH SCALES NOW IN INDUSTRY

By-products of the Sea Saved for Ready Outlets.

Washington, Jan. 3.—Dr. Hugh Smith says that the Bureau of Fisheries has continued to assist in increasing the saving and use of fisheries by-products. The report states that the production of scrap and meal from fishery products in the United States, including Alaska, was last year in excess of 125,000 tons. Continuing the report says, in part:— "As a result of the bureau's work on the Atlantic seaboard there was a large increase in the production of fish meal for stock feeding purposes, and menhaden and other interests are well pleased with the advantages accruing from the development of an additional outlet. The trade is energetically building up markets to care for the increased production.

On the basis of reports published by the Bureau of the Census the production of fish and marine mammal oils in 1920 amounted to 8,603,574 gallons, distributed as follows: Menhaden oil, 8,078,483 gallons; whale oil, 3,073,574 gallons; sperm oil, 418,787 gallons; herring oil, 198,979 gallons; cod and cod liver oil, 196,108 gallons; and all other, 1,060,322 gallons. LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Look years younger! Use Grandmother's recipe: Sage, Tea and Sulphur and nobody will know.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

That brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wetly's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair. Well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody will tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray will disappear, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

MESSAGE TO SPORTSMEN OF THE DOMINION

In response to a request by The Toronto Globe for a statement as to the outlook for sport in 1922 and a New Year message to the sportsmen of the Dominion, Judge J. A. Jackson of Lethbridge, Alberta, president of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, writes as follows:— "I would like to suggest to the people of Canada, and especially to those interested in amateur sport, this motto for the year 1922: 'Keep our playgrounds busy and our jails idle.' That clean amateur sport is an important factor in the peace, order and good government of our country is not realized by the people of Canada to the extent it should be. Many of our problems, social, moral and mental, as well as physical, will, in a large measure, be solved if we can keep our playgrounds busy in good, clean athletics. The correct attitude of mind and proper vent for surplus energy are necessary to keep our country in the peace, order and good government of our country as it is for the young. If father is a 'bench warmer,' his son is apt to be the same, and if the older brother is the victim of vicious habits, the lad will likely follow in his footsteps.

"We must have playgrounds for all, old as well as young. The question is becoming so large that it will soon be necessary for our various governments to take an active interest in the sports of the country.

"In all sports it is not forgotten that proper forms of sport should be provided for the boys in the country districts as well as in the city. This is a big factor in keeping our boys and girls on the farm. Let me wish every sportsman a happy and prosperous New Year. (Signed) J. A. JACKSON."

2,189,000 RUM PRESCRIPTIONS CHICAGO'S RECORD FOR 1921

Chicago, Jan. 3.—Charles A. Gregory, Prohibition Director for the Chicago district, announces that doctors in the district issued 2,189,000 liquor prescriptions in 1921.

At an average cost of $3 per pint for the liquor and $2 for each prescription, this liquor cost nearly $11,000,000 it is estimated.

WAS TROUBLED WITH HER STOMACH FOR FIVE YEARS

Mrs. Samuel Ward, Millersdale, Sask., writes: "I feel that I must write to you before another day passes and so happy and so grateful to your splendid medicine, Burdock Blood Bitters, for after an illness of five years I am today well."

I had stomach trouble so bad I could not bear the smell and taste of food of any kind, and got so thin and weak I could not work. I had four doctors attend me, but they did me no good. I was in no pain, but felt so ill, at times, I thought I would die, in fact, all my friends were sure I could not live many weeks.

This time last year I saw where a man was relieved of stomach trouble by Burdock Blood Bitters, so my husband got a bottle of "Wetly's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair. TO LECTURE AT PEOPLE'S SCHOOL

E. J. O'Brien, M. A., of New York to Help Great Movement at St. Francis Xavier.

Arrangements are being completed for a very interesting and useful programme for the People's School, which is to be held at the residence of St. Francis Xavier's College, in Antigonish, from January to March. Word has been received from E. J. O'Brien, M. A., of New York, editor of the Year Book of the American Short Stories, that he will lecture at the People's School as instructor of English. The following message has been received from Mr. O'Brien, which he proposes to conduct his work:

"The 'Lincoln-Heartsed Spirit'" "My coming to Antigonish is a free act of faith based on knowledge and sympathy for what the People's School is already achieving. What it has achieved is wholly due to the Lincoln-heartsed spirit which Antigonish and the Catholic people of eastern Nova Scotia embody in a manner more genuine and spiritually active than I know of elsewhere in the world.

Those who are coming to this People's School have in the most profound sense a true nature of English-speaking Canada in their hands to mould and develop. Their problem is to link up the actual future of English-speaking Canada in their hands to mould and develop. DO YOU SMOKE TOO MUCH?

There are many men on whose heart and nervous system tobacco produces the most serious results. It causes palpitation, pain in the heart, irregularity of its beat, makes the hands tremble, sets the nerves on edge, causes shortness of breath, and loss of sleep. To counteract this demoralizing influence on the heart and nerves there is no remedy so equal as JO-BEL.

JO-BEL WILL DO IT

as testified to by so many of your own well known people who themselves have been happy by its use. For sale at all druggists. Price 90c. and $1.00 box.

HENRY FORD ON THE OUTLOOK FOR 1922

Iron Mountain, Mich., Jan. 3.—Industrial conditions during the new year will be determined largely by the trend of retail prices, Henry Ford declared here, in a statement on the outlook for 1922.

Price adjustments in many lines were made last year and were almost wholly responsible for the improvements recorded, the manufacturer said. There are still many lines, he added, in which this movement had not become apparent.

"Existing costs," he said, "are the chief factors in present market conditions. When prices are reduced business will boom."

The exhaustion of our timber supply is coming about not because we have used our forests freely, but because we have failed to use our timber-growing land. FEW MORE GET PLACES
Reports from the St. John Registration and Employment Office seem rather brighter this morning, four positions having been filled and two applications received for men to work in the country. Of the four jobs given out today, two are permanent and two temporary. There were only eight registrations this morning, six men and two women. This brings the grand total to 204 names and the total of women on the list to 21.

PUBLISHERS ORGANIZE
The printers and publishers of New Brunswick organized this morning into a section of the Retail Merchants Association, with the following officers—Chairman, Col. Alex. McMillan; 1st vice chairman, J. D. McKenna, Sussex; 2nd vice chairman, H. B. Avas, Sackville; Fred Stevens, Hartland. The association is in session again this afternoon and there will be a banquet this evening at Bond's.

BOARD SHIP AT HALIFAX.
Aboard the R. M. S. P. Chignecto when she arrived from the West Indies last night there were several military and naval rank and file on their way home to the old country. They were to sail on the Minnedosa, but, on account of the lateness of the Chignecto's arrival, their steamship had sailed before they arrived. All were in a hurry to get to England. There was some stoniness among the party, which consisted of one naval officer, one engineer officer, a sergeant of the R. A. M. C., with his wife, and twelve other ranks. Their trouble was fixed up by Captain W. V. R. Winter, senior supply and transport officer of the garrison here, who got in touch with Halifax and arranged to have the Minnedosa held there until the travellers arrive on the train which left here last midnight.

THE MCINTYRE CASE.
In the Bankruptcy Court this morning, before Francis Kerr, registrar, the examination of Peter McIntyre was continued, as to his methods of bookkeeping, mortgages on his property, bills of sale on his schooners and returns from his freights. He said that he owed his general creditors $80,000, the Provincial Bank $40,000 and his wife and son, Allan, $38,000. He said that Allan kept the books and that it was not until August that he realized that he could not pay his bills in full, although he had had checks protested against him in June. The son, Allan, was on the stand just before adjournment for lunch. At yesterday afternoon's session Mr. McIntyre denied that there was any partnership agreement between him and his son, Allan McIntyre. He said his son got half the proceeds of the business on account of his services, and some shares he owned in some ships. He had power of attorney to do business with the bank. Allan McIntyre testified that besides an automobile bought in 1916, he had only his home and shares in some of the ships.

Dr. F. R. Taylor, K.C., appeared for the trustee, J. A. Halston, of Halifax, and K. W. Wilson for some of the creditors, opposing the compromise offered; W. M. Ryan for the Provincial Bank; S. H. Tait for Spence & Company and W. H. Harrison for Mr. McIntyre, Allan McIntyre and James Lewis.

REGISTRATION FOR SKATERS
Frank White, maritime representative of the Amateur Skating Association of Canada, has received application forms for registration. He will distribute these to E. Sterling, physical instructor of the Y. M. C. I., and Captain Bowie, physical instructor of the Y. M. C. A., and retain some himself. He pointed out that every skater competing in the Canadian skating championships on Lily Lake on January 18 and 19 must be registered and they should attend to this at once. He feels that by placing them in the institutions mentioned and keeping some himself it will make it more convenient for the skaters and thus facilitate matters.

HERE AFTER AN INTERESTING TRIP
Steamer Canadian Leader Covers 33,000 Miles on Her Maiden Seven-month Voyage—Carried Varied Cargoes.

After a seven months' tour of the world, during which she traveled 33,000 miles, the steamer Canadian Leader, of the Canadian Government, Merchant Marine, arrived in port this morning. She is under the command of Captain Robertson, who has many friends in this port, having been here before in the Canadian Pioneer.

The leader left Montreal on May 29 last on her maiden trip. It is interesting to know that she is still in her temporary boilers and equipment with which she was furnished by her builders before being put into service. Captain Robertson is justly proud of the fact that her long initial voyage was not marred by a single accident.

The vessel first took a grain cargo to Antwerp. After discharging she loaded again and proceeded by the Mediterranean route to Madras where she again exchanged cargoes, carrying merchandise for Chinese ports. On her return she stopped at various ports along the route and discharged a cargo of rice at Cuba. At Cuba the Canadian Leader took on a cargo of 22,000 bags of raw sugar destined for this port. On her way, however, the big cargo was reloaded and discharged at New York. There the steamer was loaded with a general cargo for Upper Canada, including 1,743 cases of rubber. This cargo is now being discharged at McLeod wharf.

Captain Robertson, during his tour of the world, had an excellent opportunity to observe business conditions and said that they were no worse here than at any point at which he touched.

EMERGENCY FUND TO CREATE WORK
between $1,000 and $1,200. He said that the damage might have been averted had the proposed backing at the Thorne wharf been in place.

To Mr. Bullock's question the mayor said that the contract for this work had been signed with the Stephen Construction Co. and that work would be commenced soon.

Commissioner Frink said in 1911 an agreement was signed by the government of the city and the C. F. R. to develop on the west side by the federal government, but since 1916 nothing had been done although the covenant was still in effect. He moved that the agreement should be taken up by the council and the views of the council expressed to the government of Canada.

Carried.

Manufacturer Appeals.
Charles Brown of the D. F. Brown Paper Box and Paper Co. of this city appealed to the council against a charge of $250 a car on all freight unloaded from the city's siding in Water street. He also asked that local manufacturers be exempted from a tax on machinery. E. R. Olive, chairman of the board of assessors, was present during the appeal. Mr. Brown was introduced to the meeting by Commissioner Bullock.

Mr. Bullock said, regarding the charge on cars in Water street, that these regulations were put into effect in 1918 and when no side wharfage was charged. He said that since the regulation went into effect 712 cars had been charged for and all had been paid for.

Mr. Brown said that competitors outside the city could ship goods through the city and export by the D. A. R. to Nova Scotia without charge, while his company was compelled to pay $250 a car on goods sidetracked in Water street and carted to their warehouse in Canterbury.

Mr. Bullock said that the charge to the D. A. R. was taken up in their regular freight for their warehouse.

Mr. Brown said that his company averaged four to six cars a year of through freight for their warehouse.

Regarding the matter of taxation, the mayor said that while in Montreal he had ascertained that the per capita tax was about the same as here.

Mr. Brown said there were other things to consider. He thought that the city should either buy out the New Brunswick Power Company or put them out of business. He thought machinery of local manufacturers should be exempt. Had this been done this fall, he could have given work to fifteen or twenty men until next May.

Mr. Brown agreed to furnish to the assessors further particulars about outside competition.

Objects to Building.
A petition was presented signed by the property owners in Charlotte street between Princess and King streets, objecting to the erection of a wooden building in a lot opposite Trinity church. The petitioner explained that this lot was formerly occupied by a wooden structure owned by J. S. Seaton, but this had been torn down and a large 2-story frame building was being erected by Alfred Crowley.

As all the houses in the block affected were constructed of brick, stone or concrete, they asked that, in order to minimize the fire risk, a permit for the erection of a wooden building be withheld, or if issued be cancelled or withdrawn.

Commissioner Thornton said that the area in question was not in the 1st fire district and the building inspector had issued a permit. He said it was possible to extend the fire district to take in that area, but should he recommend such action he would have to have the support of the whole council. He held that the matter of possible damages to the building would be looked into. On this motion the matter was referred to itself, the building inspector and the city solicitor for a report.

Commissioner Bullock said that in one block in Orange street, which had formerly been built up entirely with brick or stone houses, a wooden dwelling had recently been erected on a vacant lot. While the new house was modern in all respects and a fine type of dwelling, he regretted that it had not been constructed of brick or stone. He thought that an amendment of the building laws might be made to cover such matters.
