ANOTHER DAY WITH THE STRIKE
OUTLOOK NOT IMPROVED

Even More Serious at Glasgow and Belfast, in Report

SIGNS OF DISCORDS

Some Belief that Absence of Strike Pay Will Cause Collapse—Proposed Government Course—Labor Men in Full Control in Belfast

London, Jan. 31.—There was still no prospect early today of any betterment in the labor situation in the United Kingdom. If anything, the situation both at Glasgow and Belfast, has become more serious, particularly in the latter city. The strike movement is spreading to the large industrial establishments and there are indications of coming disorders which may entail the proclamation of martial law. The seriousness of the situation is not being ignored by the government. It was the subject of a discussion at a special meeting of the cabinet held yesterday, while the board of trade is also active in an effort to bring about settlements, but up to the present time without success.

The view taken by the government is that any government interference now would be unwise and perhaps dangerous. The strike movements are local and against the advice of the respective union leaders. Moreover, there is infinite variety in the various demands advanced in the different localities, while many of the alleged grievances are of a trivial character, such as concerning intervals of a few minutes for lunch etc. It is generally believed that the absence of strike pay for the men will soon bring about the collapse of the movement.

The problem in view for the government ministers is how to re-establish the authority of the trade unions and to meet to the greatest possible extent the necessities of the community.

London, Jan. 31.—The peace conference so far has had two replies to its invitation to the various Russian governments for a conference at the Hague. In one of these the government of North Russia formally refuses to meet with the Bolsheviks. The Omsk government under Admiral Kolchak, while less categorical in its reply, expresses strong reservations.

Nothing official in connection with the invitation has been received from the Russian Soviet government.

Bolsheviki Forces Cause The British and Russians to Give Way

Seeking To Surround or Cut Through Allies

Concentrating Considerable Number of Troops in Vagar River Section—The Winter Roads Help to Bring Reinforcements to Enemy

Archangel, Jan. 31.—(By the Associated Press.) The Bolsheviks are concentrating a considerable number of troops in the territory between the Vologda railway and the line of the Vagar River, apparently with the object of either surrounding the Allied column in this sector, or cutting through to isolate the column to the eastward, on the Dvina. There are numerous winter roads through the swamps in this sector, and the Allied scouts report enemy reinforcements arriving from the south over several of these roads.

An enemy force of approximately 1,000 men began an attack at 8:15 o'clock yesterday morning on the British and Russian position west of Terevoe, attacking with such violence that the defence was obliged to evacuate the village of Alexiefskaya.

One of the Allied airplanes flew over Shumkurk yesterday. It reported that the town had not been burned, as refugees had said.

The village of Shegovarsk, on the Vagay, evacuated several days ago, has been occupied by enemy infantry and cavalry with five guns. The Dvina, near Fulgus, the Allied artillery yesterday dispersed an enemy patrol. In the Ouga sector the Allied troops yesterday raided the village of Perstema, killing nine of the enemy and capturing nine, without losses to the Allied raiders.

Matter of Future Of The German Colonies

Supreme Council Meeting

Mention of "Loot Peace" Attributed to Wilson—Reported That Agreement Has Been Reached on the Colonies Question

Paris, Jan. 31.—(By the Associated Press.)—The crisis in the peace negotiations over the disposition to be made of Germany's colonies seems to have passed, momentarily at least. It is too early to say that President Wilson's view has prevailed in its entirety, but in American quarters there is confidence that a compromise plan, which has been accepted in principle, will be worked out with details which will be acceptable to the American viewpoint.

The supreme council of the peace conference today will have before it the very plain statement made by President Wilson at Wednesday's late session. So particular was Mr. Wilson to have an exact record of what he said that soon after entering the meeting he summoned one of his stenographers and kept him at his side during the session.

The net result of the last two days of discussion on the subject of the colonies, in the opinion of many Americans here, is to clear the atmosphere generally and to force a clear definition of aims on all sides.

Another Report
Paris, Jan. 31.—The Paris correspondent of the Daily News sends a dispatch regarding negotiations on the former German colonies.

It is understood that the premiers of Australia, New Zealand and South Africa have agreed upon a scheme respecting what powers should be delegated under the mandatory system, and urging this scheme strongly upon the conference. It would provide practically for freedom of administration, on the present dominion plan.

Mr. Balfour has also prepared a strong memorandum on the Wilson system, pointing out the various difficulties in its application and possible ways of overcoming them.

Reported Agreement
Paris, Jan. 31.—The agreement by the Allied council of ten on the colonial question, says a Havas Agency statement today, provides that territories which are sufficiently civilized to be governed by their own people, should be returned to the people of the League of Nations, obtaining either national independence or living under a protectorate of one of the great powers. Arabia and Mesopotamia are considered to be examples of the class.

In the case of the peoples insufficiently developed for self-government, the statement explains, the league shall choose the power most suitable to govern, under certain guarantees to be fixed either by the peace conference or the league. Provisionally the African and the Far Eastern colonies shall be left as they are in control of the powers now occupying them.

As regards Asiatic Turkey, the statement adds, the four great powers are to undertake its administration at once, and the council of ten has asked the Versailles council to submit a report as to the best troops for the occupation of this Turkish area.

Australia Satisfied
Paris, Jan. 31.—The only government continuing to make formal objection yesterday afternoon to the compromise plan of administering the German colonies was the Australian government, says the Paris edition of the London Daily Mail. Her delegates were declared to regard the ownership of New Guinea as vital to the existence of Australia.

Premier Clemenceau, however, the newspaper adds, promised Australia its full support in safeguarding her position.

IN RUSSIA.

The New York Sun wants the Allies to get out of Russia or get into it in earnest. This appears to be fairly sound advice. The Sun, noting that the Allied troops in Archangel province had found it necessary to withdraw to new positions, and that they are a comparatively small number facing an apparently superior force of the Bolsheviks, says:— "This situation cannot last. Either the foreign troops in Russia must be sufficiently strong to defend the country against the Bolsheviks and carry out their mission or they will be annihilated. If we are to maintain an American army in Russia, or an international army, it must be large enough to insure at least its own safety. There are two courses open to us. One is to increase the expeditionary forces in Russia to the strength necessary for the proper performance of their duty and the saving of their lives. The other is to remove forces now there, if necessary destroying the stores they were originally sent there to guard. There is one thing we cannot do in honor, justice or decency. That is to leave in Russia, facing an implacable enemy on his own ground, a handful of men fighting a hopeless fight under the most difficult conditions, foredoomed to defeat. To do this would be to betray those men to death or worse, and that betrayal would shame forever a nation which should hold the lives of its citizen soldiers dear."

The whole Russian situation is very difficult, and there does not seem to be any hope of a conference between the rival factions there that would end in the restoration of order throughout the country. The Allies are giving them time and opportunity to get together, but, if they refuse, what course will be pursued? If the Allied leaders have fully made up their minds they have not yet taken the world into their confidence.

ACTIVITY IN HALIFAX.

The St. John Rotarians who visited Halifax this week were impressed by the business activity prevailing in that city. Great numbers of men are employed in reconstruction work following last year's great disaster. In the new shipbuilding plant preparations are being made to lay the keel of a vessel. Many men are employed at the new terminals. Street traffic is heavy, merchants report increasing business, and on every hand are evidences of prosperity. The hotels are constantly crowded, houses are scarce and rents high, and for every tenement that is vacated there is keen competition by house hunters. The Halifax board of trade, has a very large membership and is very active, and there is also a Commercial Club with several hundred members. The citizens of Halifax are wide awake to their advantages and opportunities in regard to trade and industry, and they pull together. That is an example other cities might consider worthy of emulation. The St. John visitors were given every opportunity to see for themselves the important works now in progress in the sister city, with guides who were filled with enthusiasm regarding Halifax and its future.

DR. J. A. MACDONALD.

Dr. J. A. Macdonald, former editor of the Toronto Globe, who went to Japan in 1917, has returned to Canada. He is planning, after a period of rest, to put his experiences in the east into lecture form, and later publish a book. The Toronto Globe says: "Dr. Macdonald, while in Japan, delivered a course of lectures at the Imperial University in Tokyo. He also visited Manchuria and spent a short time in South China. He became acquainted while in Japan with the Marquis Okuma, who is known throughout the east as the Gladstone of Japan, and with other men in public life who helped him to an understanding of the Japanese viewpoint regarding world politics. Dr. Macdonald is confident that the future relations of Japan and China will not be those of an exploiting strong nation taking advantage of the helplessness of one less efficiently organized and governed, but rather of intimate cooperation by two independent governments, such as that on the North American continent between the two English-speaking peoples."

With the maple sap running while January is still with us, as a Quebec despatch announced yesterday, we are given a further reminder of the mildness of this winter and a foretaste of the joys of spring. With the war over, with an indication of some reduction in living expenses and with the soldier boys soon coming home, we should be in a different frame of mind than that of a year ago. But to some there is the task of house-hunting and moving to take a bit of the joy out of life, and decision must be made tomorrow.

It may be true that since war industries ceased fewer people can afford to eat bacon. And yet, if the price were lowered there might be some increase in consumption of that product. That experiment is at least worth trying.

At the Rotary Club luncheon in Halifax on Wednesday at which the lieutenant-governor presided and Rev. E. Leslie Pidgeon of Winnipeg was the speaker, and forty Rotarians from St. John and Charlottetown were present, the guests included the president of the Longshoremen's Association. At the great banquet in the evening, which Premier Murray described as one of the most impressive he had attended in Halifax for many years, several labor leaders were among the guests of the club. President Wright of the Halifax Rotary Club, at the Rotary conference yesterday, said he felt that labor leaders and business men should try to get each other's point of view, and that there should be more of a get-together spirit all round. Prof. Sexton yesterday laid much stress upon the same suggestion, in the course of an able address on problems of reconstruction. The sentiment was heartily approved.

The strike situation in Belfast, as described today, is an extraordinary one. We are told that the city is virtually governed by a committee of labor leaders whose word is law. Happily they are not of the Bolshevik type, but restrain the workmen from committing excesses. The government has not intervened, and business is at a standstill. Disorder may come later, but just now there appears to be a lull of endurance.

If Sweden, which was rather pro-German than otherwise in the war, can beat out Canada in the British lumber market, large hopes that had been entertained in relation to a great market for our lumber in Europe will not be fully realized. Special representation of Canadian lumber interests in that market will be the more necessary.

A cut of 66-2-3 per cent in ocean freight rates from South Atlantic and Gulf ports to Europe in American bottoms follows a deep cut in the rate from North Atlantic ports, and indicates a general downward movement.

DAILY FISH BULLETIN
Issued by Canada Food Board

FRANCE'S FISH SUPPLIES.

Lack of ocean transportation facilities has tended to cause a decrease in Canada's exports of fish to France. The decrease in our fresh salmon sales since 1911 has been considerable. We sell no codfish to our European Ally. The supply of this fish comes almost entirely from the French fishing fleet. The Trade Commission reports that there are export possibilities for Canada where France is concerned in clean white boned codfish, skinless codfish, haddock, hake, pollock, skate, flounders, kippered herring in tins, kippered, blosters, smoked herring, salmon and lobsters.

THRIFT RECIPES
Issued by the Canadian Food Board.

GINGERBREAD.

2 1/2 cups flour,
1/2 teaspoon salt,
1/2 teaspoon soda,
1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder,
1 teaspoon ginger,
1 cup molasses,
4 tablespoons fat,
1/2 cup hot water.
Sift together the flour, salt, soda, baking powder and ginger. Mix the molasses and the fat softened in one-half cup of hot water. Add the liquid to the dry ingredients and stir well. Bake in a shallow pan or in muffin pans for twenty minutes or more in a moderate oven. Shredded coconut or chopped almonds or peanuts may be sprinkled over the top of the gingerbread in the pan before baking.

SHELL CASING CLOTH TO CLOTHE WOMEN

London, Jan. 31.—From the casing of explosive charges to the adornment of fair women is the destination of millions of yards of yarn which were destined for the making of shell cloth for the big shells. In the coming season many women will don shell cloth costumes, coat frocks and skirts which but for the armistice would have ended in the flash of high explosives.
The surplus yarn, which is similar to that from which women's costume cloths were made before the war, is sufficient to manufacture 2,400,000 yards of serge. It will be turned into cloth by the end of February, and the product be made into costumes which will be on sale in the early summer at standard prices.
The colors of the serge will be black, blue, brown and saxe.

MANUFACTURERS' HOT.

Manufacturers in the United States are beginning to exhibit panic over the government's delay in adjusting claims in connection with munitions orders. Some authorities go so far as to say that, unless a settlement is made very soon, there will be many financial failures, with industrial depression. Congress has failed to act resolutely, and what with red tape and official delays, the outlook is not bright. The manufacturers say that they quickly responded to the call for speed in the war emergency, and to get speed went ahead without the formal contracts that legislation called for. Orders were undertaken on telegraph or even telephone instructions, and now the government holds up payments on everything but formal contracts. It is said that orders involving $1,600,000 for munitions and other material are involved.

Will Labor's Mighty Forces Form a New Party?

"Third Parties" in the United States have generally come to grief, but the scope of the new movement to organize "hand and brain" workers into a political unit and its appearance in a winter of unrest and discontent convince observers that history is likely to repeat itself in this instance. Samuel Gompers, a consistent opponent of the Labor-party idea, pleaded with New York leaders on the eve of his departure for Europe not to join the new government, but within a week, as The Evening Post (New York) notes, a New York Central Federated Union, the Brooklyn Central Labor Union and the Woman's Trade Union League had met in convention and created the most formidable of the local party organizations.

In an enlightening article in this week's LITERARY DIGEST—February 1st—all the particulars of this new political movement are shown. The platform adopted in New York is also presented. A new political labor party directly affects millions of men and women in this country. Don't fail to read about this latest development in our industrial life.

"Within The Law," Well Presented By Amateurs

Performance Under Auspices of L. & B. Society Proves Great Success—Crowded Houses at Each Performance

Frankly, it was a pleasant surprise that the production of "Within the Law" was an ambitious undertaking for a group of amateurs and one was not prepared to expect more than the usual average of amateur performances. A clever cast, skilful direction and training and lots of hard work resulted in something different. There was a smoothness and finish to the performance, an intelligent conception and interpretation of the various roles and a naturalness in the acting which would have done credit to a professional company. Several members of the cast were exceptionally good and all shared in the credit for the success of the performance. Both in the afternoon and evening the Opera House was filled to its utmost capacity with sympathetic and responsive audiences and the Irish Literary and Benevolent Society, under whose auspices the play was given, should profit handsomely by through the efforts of the company.

This well known play is built around the scheme for revenge evolved by a sleight who was sent to the penitentiary for three years for thefts which she did not commit, largely through the desire of the proprietor of the store to furnish a warning to others. The role of the sleight is an exceptionally heavy one for an amateur to undertake and Miss Vera King is to be congratulated on the measure of success which she attained in it.

J. R. McClosky, to whose efforts as director is due much of the credit for the finished performance, also scored a personal success in the role of the police inspector. His acting was natural and convincing and he secured some fine comedy effects.

As Joe Garson, the former forger who could not resist his criminal tendencies but whose love for Mary Turner led him to pay the price of his crime willingly in order to protect her, Guy C. Hansen fully sustained the reputation which he has won on other occasions. The restraint which marked his work and the easy way in which he secured his best effects raised his interpretation above the amateur class.

Miss Loyola Duffy also won laurels in the role of the girl crook. She was good in every scene in which she appeared and her work left little to be desired. To portray the slinky guttersnipe, with the veneer of refinement for which the role called at times, so well as she did, was no small accomplishment.

As Richard Gilder, E. R. Hansen had a part which kept him in the centre of the stage throughout the four acts and, especially in the stronger scenes, his acting was natural and consistent.

F. J. Joyce had one of the heaviest roles as the proprietor of the Emporium and his choice for this part was fully justified by the way in which he filled it.

In an unsympathetic role, F. Morris was excellent as the detective sergeant. W. J. O'Leary appeared as Gilder's lawyer and made the character dignified and impressive. J. W. E. Gale had a difficult role in that of "English Eddie" and filled it admirably. Miss Irene O'Brien appeared as the thiefing girl and Miss Vera George was a maid who acted as maid is expected to act in real life. W. J. Quigg, F. E. O'Donnell, A. Doland and George Stafford filled minor roles satisfactorily.

The careful and painstaking work in long and arduous rehearsals bore fruit yesterday in a performance which was gratifying to the audience and which should be equally so to each member of the cast, which was as follows:

Sarah, Edward Gilder's Private Secretary
Miss Edna O'Leary
Smithson, Floorwalker at "The Emporium"
P. A. Colahan
Richard Gilder... Edward Gilder's Son
E. R. Hansen

(Continued from page 1) The firm of printers ordered to instruct its employees to print the paper seems to have complied without demur, although one of the partners vainly protested. "The incident has created some anxiety as to further commandeering, and some egerness on the part of the printers to know who is to pay them. T GOODWIN DEAD

His Day Leading American Comedian—Was Very Popular and Much Married

New York, Jan. 31.—Nat C. Goodwin, actor, died at a hotel here early after a brief illness. He came to York on last Monday from Baltimore, where he had been playing. Death was due to a general breakdown, following an operation for the removal of his eye several months ago. He was in Boston in 1887.

Goodwin in his prime was the greatest American comedian and had a great popular following. The public admired him and forgave him much, and there indeed much to admire and much to forgive. He was married many times divorced from all his wives but the one who survives him. His marital and less troubles got him into court frequently. In late years he figured in serious roles with a measure of success, but comedy was his forte. He had injured his work for some years past.

A Well Known Actress Tells How to Darken Gray Hair With a Simple Home Made Mixture.

Joley Williams, the well known American actress, who was recently playing at the Imperial Theatre in St. Louis, Mo., made the following statement about gray hair and how to darken it: "Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home, at very little cost, that will darken gray streaked or faded hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Oriz Compound, and 1/4 ounce of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost, or any druggist can put it up for you. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray haired person look 20 years younger. This is not a dye, it does not color the most delicate scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off."

Zam-Buk invaluable for eczema, both in the case of my baby and myself," says Mrs. L. Bonin of West Arichat, N.S. She adds: "Baby's skin was badly broken out, but repeated applications of Zam-Buk entirely cured it."

"In my own case, I had eczema on my hands, which made it very inconvenient for me to do my housework. Particularly was this so, as it aggravated the trouble so to put my hands in water. By using Zam-Buk, however, I soon got relief, and it was not very long before every trace of the trouble had disappeared. I really think no home should be without Zam-Buk."

DARKEN GRAY HAIR, LOOK YOUNG, PRETTY

Sage Tea and Sulphur Darkens So Naturally that Nobody can tell.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

TRY MAGNESIA FOR STOMACH TROUBLE

It Neutralizes Stomach Acidity, Prevents Food Fermentation, Sour, Gassy Stomach and Acid Indigestion.

Doubtless, if you are a sufferer from indigestion, you have already tried peppermint, bismuth, soda, charcoal, drugs and various digestive acids and you know these things will not cure your trouble—in some cases do not even give relief.

But before giving up hope and deciding you are a chronic dyspeptic, just try the effect of a little magnesia—not the ordinary carbonate, citrate, oxide or milk but the pure bisulphated magnesia which you can obtain from practically any drugist in either powdered or tablet form. Take a teaspoonful of the powder or two compressed tablets with a little water after your next meal, and see what a difference this makes. It will instantly neutralize the dangerous, harmful acid in your stomach which now causes your food to ferment and sour, making gas, wind, flatulence, heartburn and the bloated or heavy lumpy feeling that seems to follow most everything you eat.

You will find that, provided you take a little bisulphated magnesia immediately after a meal, you can eat almost anything and enjoy it without any danger of pain or discomfort. To follow and moreover the continued use of the bisulphated magnesia cannot injure the stomach in any way so long as there are any symptoms of acid indigestion.

BEGIN HOT WATER DRINKING IF YOU DON'T FEEL RIGHT

Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.

If you wake up with a bad taste, bad breath and tongue is coated; if your head is dull or aching; if what you eat sours and forms gas and acid in stomach, or if you are bilious, constipated, nervous, yellow and can't get feeling just right, begin bathing inside. Drink before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will flush the poisons and toxins from stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels and cleanse, sweeten and purify the entire alimentary tract. Do your inside bathing immediately upon arising in the morning to wash out of the system all the previous day's poisonous waste, gases and sour bile before putting more food into the stomach.

To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood, nerves and muscles became loaded with body impurities, get from your pharmacist a quarter pound of limestone phosphate which is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except for a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant.

Men and women who are usually constipated, bilious, headachy or have any stomach disorder should begin this inside bathing before breakfast.

children in the schools. The annual report of this bureau contains the following—

"A campaign for infant welfare opened the year. It was proposed to save the lives of one-third of the 200,000 babies and young children who would die in 1918 according to the experience of recent years, and quotas were assigned to each state. It is needless to say that so precise knowledge is available as to how nearly the goal will be reached in this first year. The effort is justified already by the popular educational result and by the far-reaching follow-up work already under way as a result of the weighing and measuring test of children of pre-school age. In response to requests from local committees on child welfare, the bureau has furnished to the Women's Committee of the Council of National Defense about 6,200,000 record cards, each one with blanks for the height and weight of the child and a scale of approximately normal heights and weights for children from earliest infancy to sixteen years. The children measured have, in fact, belonged with few exceptions to the group five years of age or under.

"The co-operation of physicians in many states, counties and towns has made it possible to hold complete physical examinations of the children entered in the weighing and measuring tests. Such examinations were recommended by the bureau in its suggestions to local committees for conducting the tests, but were not made part of the brief test because the bureau realized how difficult it would be to secure physicians generally for this purpose now. In thousands of cases parents have learned, through the fuller physical examinations often given, that the baby had remediable defects of which they were unaware. Many instances are reported to the bureau of babies who have been saved much future suffering by the knowledge which their parents gained in the test and the care which was provided as a result."

Braves Are Sold. The controlling interest in the National League baseball team owned by Leonard Spink, announced yesterday. George will continue to act as manager.

Formerly manager of the National League baseball team to manage the Cincinnati Reds. The Boston club of the National League is trying to put through a three-cornered deal with the Giants and Pittsburgh. Manager McGraw said on Monday that so far as he knew there was little chance of the trade being negotiated. The Boston club wants to get rid of Charley Herzog and his large $100,000 contract. New York wants to get Wilbur Cooper, a left-handed pitcher, while the Boston club is anxious to get two or three good players. Boston figured that McGraw could use Herzog in a trade for Cooper.

According to Manager McGraw, there is little chance of Herzog coming back to the Giants. The New York leader said that if he believed that the return of Herzog would strengthen the club he would not hesitate to get him back. McGraw fails to see where Herzog would be any improvement.

McGraw said that he had already made an offer to the Pirates for Cooper, but the club was not inclined to part with the left-hander. New York has several players who could be used to advantage by either Boston or Pittsburgh, but a three-cornered trade which would satisfy the parties concerned would be difficult to negotiate.

The Boston club, it is stated, may have to release Herzog, because they have decided that they cannot carry him at the present contract price. It is certain that no club would take him in a trade unless this contract was in some way modified. Herzog last year signed a contract for two years at $100,000 a year.

The recent separation of the major and minor leagues has left the majors in a quandary about what to do with their surplus players. In the past, the youngsters who have been given a trial on the Southern trips have been farmed out to minor leagues under an optional agreement, whereby the majors could recall the players if necessary.

There will be so many players to be turned back to the minors after the spring training trips that it is certain that minors cannot afford to buy them all. If they are sold to the minors and later in the season the majors want them back they will be forced to pay higher prices than they paid in the first place, and the present system is going to entail extra expense to all concerned.

There are several major league club owners who advocate an extension of the player limit beyond twenty-one players, so that each club could carry a number of youngsters and develop them as the season goes along. If a major league club should run into a stretch of hard luck, as they often do, and have three or four players on the injured list at one time, they would be at a decided disadvantage under the twenty-one player limit. This is only one of the many situations which are sure to arise over the break if the majors and minors, and many baseball men believe that one season will be enough to show the minors that they are better off under the old terms of the national agreement.

The St. Louis club is trying to arrange a trade whereby they can snare Second Baseman Ray Schindler of

Sat Up in Bed To Get Her Breath

Palpitation of the heart, shortage of breath, inability to lie on the left side, feelings as if smothering, oppressed feeling in the chest, dizzy and faint spells, tired, weak, worn out feeling, involuntary twitching of the muscles, sleeplessness, restlessness, etc., all point to the fact that either the heart or nerves, or both, are not what they should be. Any of these conditions should be remedied immediately so as to avoid a complete breakdown of the whole system.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will bring energy to the weakened constitution, strengthen and regulate the heart, and tone up the tired, overstrained nerves.

Mrs. William Steves, Chemical Road, N. B., writes: "I have been a great sufferer from nerve troubles and palpitation of the heart, which was so bad I had to sit straight up in bed to get my breath. I could not lie on my left side at all. I tried doctor after doctor, also several different remedies, but got no help from them. My mother insisted on me trying Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. By the time I had used one box, I was feeling very much better. I took in all three boxes, and now I am in perfect health and can enjoy a good sound sleep, and can lie on my left side without any trouble."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are sold at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

We do Not Wish to Monopolize the Shoe Business of St. John

A report is being circulated that we are trying to monopolize the Shoe business of St. John. This we wish to deny. BUT, as we sell our merchandise so much cheaper than the average dealer, it is only reasonable that the intelligent, value-seeking public should come to us for their footwear. Therefore our business policy of Cut Price is not a monopoly, but a real public service. We note that of late several shoe retailers are making a practice of copying our advertisements and statements in such a way as to be misleading to the public. Eaton's Bootery is St. John's only and original Cut Price Shoe Store. This firm is backed by one of the most powerful Shoe-buying concerns in the Dominion of Canada. We guarantee to save you one-half to one-third on your Shoe Bills. A glance at the prices below will surely convince you of this:

A BIT DANGEROUS.

There have been numerous coasting accidents of late due to the especially heavy condition of the ice. In the old burying ground in the centre of the city little ones have been having a great time with their sleds and sleds, but the icy condition of the side-hill and the presence of so many gravestones in the path of the coasters make the sport dangerous. The smaller kiddies have been having a lot of minor casualties but unless steps are taken one of them may get a cracked skull.

BOYS GIVEN TREAT.

The boys of St. Patrick's Industrial School will remember Wednesday as a red letter day in the year 1919, as the result of a treat and entertainment given them under the auspices of the Y. M. C. I. The boys received a supply of candy, fruit, toys, gloves and sweaters from the institute through John Lunn, who was looking after the entertainment. In addition to Rev. C. F. Carleton, pastor of St. Joachim's church, Silver Falls, there were present His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc and Rev. A. P. Allen. The members of the school had prepared an interesting programme for the occasion and it was greatly appreciated by his lordship and all. The programme was under the supervision of Sister Benedict. PTE. GEO. RALPH DEAD IN ENGLAND

Sad News to Wife Here, First Received by Letter, Today is Officially Confirmed

Mrs. George Ralph of 111 Britain street today received an official telegram from Ottawa announcing that her husband, Private George Ralph, had died in the Lost Derby War Hospital in England. The first intimation which Mrs. Ralph had of her husband's death was conveyed in a letter of sympathy which she received a short time ago from a cousin residing in England. Her inquiries were made through Ottawa for confirmation and the telegram today revealed the last traces of hope.

Private Ralph, who was about thirty-four years of age, was employed with the C. F. R. at West St. John before enlisting. He went overseas with the 140th Battalion and was transferred to another unit with which he saw service at the front. He was taken ill last August but had recovered and it was thought that when the former illness may have been responsible for his death. Besides his wife he leaves four children.

W. S. HARKINS BEREAVED

News of Death of His Daughter Reaches St. John

Deep sympathy will be felt by their many friends here for Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Harkins in the loss of their daughter, Miss Lilla, who died on Monday night, Jan. 27, at the residence of her cousin, who is wife of Rev. W. J. Cox, in Philadelphia. A. K. Munde yesterday received from Mr. Harkins word of the illness of the latter's daughter, and today came the word of her death.

Miss Harkins, who was about twenty-five years of age, underwent a very serious operation a little more than a year ago and before she had fully recovered she entered Red Cross work. The strain proved too much for her and she was ordered by her physician to take a long rest. About a fortnight ago she went to Philadelphia to visit her cousin and while she was there the whole family was stricken with influenza, which she also contracted, the attack resulting in her death. Funeral service was held in Philadelphia and the body was taken to New York, where it was laid to rest in the family lot in Woodlawn cemetery. Besides her deeply sorrowing parents, Miss Harkins is survived by one brother.

HOME AFTER SERVICE WITH THE U. S. ARMY

Sergt. Charles V. Lynch, youngest son of the late David Lynch, Paradise row, and brother of David, Frank and Fred Lynch of this city, and Harry of Ottawa, arrived home late last night from Camp Jackson, South Carolina where he was on the technical instruction staff of the artillery forces mobilized at that point for overseas duty, an army of more than 60,000 men.

The St. John boy joined Uncle Sam's forces in Boston where he was engaged in engineering work following his graduation from the University of New Brunswick. At Camp Jackson he instructed in map making and topographical studies. He enjoyed the work immensely but was disappointed at being retained on this side of the water for faculty purposes as he was keen to get into the scrum.

Lieut. Harry Lynch, the Ottawa brother, returned a few weeks ago with 800 men in his command by the first trip of the Aquatania. He, too, was engaged in technical work during the war, being attached to one of the Canadian railway construction units where his excellent engineering training was highly valuable to the army. Lieutenant Lynch has returned to his duties in the Department of Marine at Ottawa, headquarters.
