SIR LOMER GOVIN GETS AUTOMOBILE. Presentation From a Number of Admirers Yesterday. Lofor Willis Again in Charge at Sydney—Steamer Loading Rails for Prince Rupert—Irish Pastor for Halifax

HALIFAX, N. S., June 23—Rev. Robert Power, who came to this country from Ireland three months ago and who was received by the Presbyterian General Assembly at its recent meeting, will be called to the Coburg Road church in this city. This was decided unanimously at a meeting of the congregation this morning to leave at 6:00 tons of rails at the D. I. and S. Co.'s pier for Prince Rupert.

MONTRÉAL, June 23—Sir Lomer Gouin, premier of the province of Quebec, was this evening presented with a handsome six cylinder automobile by a number of his Montreal friends and admirers, who had raised the price of the machine within two days. The presentation took place at the St. Denis Club, when speeches were made in both French and English, and after the ceremony Sir Lomer took a trial spin in the machine with several of his friends.

SYDNEY, N. S., June 23—E. Lofor Willis takes charge at the Sydney Hotel tomorrow as manager, and W. E. Lofor Willis, who has been in charge for the past three months, leaves for his summer hotel (The Cedars) on the St. John river.

At Renforth yesterday Miss Jennie Elizabeth Nelson, daughter of Mr. Elizabeth Nelson, of this city, was married to Charles Ketchum Cowan, of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Herbert Whalley. After the ceremony the young couple took the train for St. John. They will spend their honeymoon in a trip through the Maritime Provinces, after which they will return via Boston, Buffalo and New York to their home in Manchester, N. H. where Dr. Hoefler practices and where the newly wedded couple will reside.

"An Arab school," said a traveler, "is one of the most interesting places in Cairo to visit. The children, with the schoolmaster, sit upon the floor or the ground in a semicircle, and each has a tablet of wood which is painted white and upon which the lessons are written. When the latter are learned they are washed out and replaced by other lessons."

The newly married couple had just moved into their new home. On the morning after their arrival a baker called to solicit their trade. He found the young wife in the kitchen. After explaining that his wagon delivered once a day the baker asked, "And may we have your trade, madam?" "Yes," she replied timidly. "We will give you a trial."

"They say that the Joneses are a very happy couple." "But Jones is a traveling man and he is seldom at home." "Exactly," Cleveland Leader.

ROGUSH MR. METZ IN POLICE GALLERY. Controller Has His Picture Taken and Forgets to Recover It. Official Telephones to Remove Photograph as He is Innocent, But 'That's What They All Say.'

Controller Metz was at his desk yesterday furiously signing short term bonds when a reporter drifted in and by the course of his interrogations casually inquired: "What do you think of the Duffy case?" "Duffy case? Duffy case?" abstractedly inquired the Controller, drawing his mind from finance with an effort.

When the reporter drifted back into the Controller's office, Metz was smiling nervously. "Ha, ha! A good joke," he asserted. "Yes, it's on me. I smile every time I think of it. No, I hadn't thought about it until you mentioned the case of that very, very unfortunate young person who has his picture taken, it was quite remarkable. I happened to be in Police Headquarters, and just for a large mind you, I was the one that suggested it—I had then photographed me and take my measurements and my finger prints, and then they filed the whole collection in the proper places, and I was just about to take them all back when I heard a noise—and I went out to see about it and forgot all about my picture."

MONCTON, June 23—Alderman J. T. Forbes, local government superintendent of bridge, for Westmorland county, by working about Bend View square this evening suffered a stroke of paralysis. His condition tonight is critical.

HALIFAX, N. S., June 23—The conciliation board appointed by the Dominion Government to adjust the differences existing between the United Mine Workers and the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Co., met today at Florence. HALIFAX, N. S., June 23—The Cookville infantile case came up again today before Police Magistrate Jordan. Some seven or eight witnesses examined, but nothing new was brought out. The magistrate, however, considered the evidence sufficiently strong to warrant him sending the prisoner up for trial. They were therefore taken to Dorchester jail, where they will remain until the Supreme sitting of the Supreme Court then to stand their trial.

BLEMISHES THAT ARE BEAUTIFUL. There is no question whatever that in a great number of cases so-called blemishes and marks on a woman's face give character to the latter, and may almost be regarded, from the contrast between the blemish and its surroundings, as aids to beauty.

How very often, in recalling the face of some woman we have known and liked, we first of all think of some mole or slight mark, and it is a notable fact that most very beautiful women have some such distinguishing mark. In one such case the right eye-brow shows a broken line and a scar, but this fact, far from detracting from the world-renowned beauty of the owner, seems to give a peculiar character to the face. It might be noted that the smooth faces absolutely without blemish are very few indeed most in fact.

NINE TOURISTS MET DEATH ON LAKE KILLARNEY

KILLARNEY, June 23.—A large row boat, carrying five Americans and four English tourists and four Irish boatmen, was swamped in a gale while crossing Lower Killarney Lake this afternoon. All of the tourists and two of the boatmen were drowned. The victims were Mrs. A. A. Hillier and son of Tacoma, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Longhead of Longhead, Boston; Miss M. H. Chapman of Cotuit of Massachusetts (twice not known); Rev. B. Barton and sister of London; and Miss Florence Wilkinson and cousin, Edward, of Essex; boatman, Don Tooney and Cox, Gieson. None of the bodies was recovered tonight.

The boat was a four-oared craft, used for taking visitors about the lake. Most of the passengers were guests of the Great Southern Hotel. The party started out this morning eight o'clock. When the lower lake was reached, it was found that a heavy wind from the northwest was blowing. Several other boats which had started over the same course put back. It was not long before anxiety began to be felt concerning the boat which had continued on the course and searchers who put out, when the wind died down a little, discovered her overturned, with two of the boatmen clinging to the keel. The Rev. Mr. Barton and two of the women could be seen in the distance supported by an oak. They sank before the rescuers could reach them. The others had already disappeared. The two boatmen who saved were too exhausted to give an account of the accident.

BOSTON, Mass., June 23.—The names of two of those drowned today in Lake Killarney are undoubtedly Robert C. Fouchard, head of the teaming firm of C. THE RETURN OF HUSBAND.

A husband and wife came from show a certain provincial town, but unfortunately they quarrelled, and the exhibits were equally divided between them. The wife decided to continue business as an exhibitor at the old address, but the husband went on tour. After some years wandering the provincial returned, and a reconciliation took place, as the result of which they became business partners once more. A few mornings afterwards the people of the neighborhood were sent into fits of laughter on reading the following notice in the paper:

"By the return of my husband, my stock of freaks has been permanently increased.—London Tit-Bits.

A NEW EXPOSURE.

An eight-year-old youngster recently came to her father after church service on Sunday and astonished him by asking:

"Daddy, have I any children?"

"The old man dropped his newspaper and regarded her in amazement.

"What?" he demanded.

"Have I any children?" doggedly repeated the child.

"Well, I should hope not," replied the father. "May I ask the reason of this startling question?"

"Why, in church this morning," explained the youngster, "the minister preached about children's children, and I wondered if I had any."—Lippincott's.

CHINESE CAPTURED WITH WHITE GIRLS

One Laundryman Held on 17-Year-Old's Statement.

Girls Had Been Seen by Detectives Making Rounds of Brooklyn Downtown Wash Houses.

NEW YORK, June 24.—Three girls who looked very much like many other Brooklyn girls were walking in Washington street, Brooklyn, yesterday morning. Two were all in black. They appeared much like a pair of young women who earn their living by work in the city shops, but they were strolling at a leisure when most working girls are at work.

Among the loiterers in the street were Carberry and Doyle, detectives of the Brooklyn central office squad. They saw the three girls stop in front of a Chinese laundry. Carberry, having in mind the fate of Ertle, who was just about the age of the oldest of the trio, it did not seem exactly right that these girls should wander there. He proposed to Doyle that they trail the young girls, and the policemen were astonished and surprised as they saw the girls enter one after another of the Chinese laundries of the downtown section of the borough.

The girls went into a yellow wash house in Adams street in the shadow of the Adams street police court, whence after some minutes converse with the clothes washers, they emerged and took their way to a similar place in Willowby street near by, where, apparently having acquaintance with the Chinese inside, they chatted for a minute or two and passed on. Thence they went to an Atlantic avenue laundry of Oriental proprietorship, where they lingered for a time, and afterward to a neighboring drug store and made small purchases. The detectives were becoming more and more interested. They had seen many times girls going to the Chinese laundries apparently for some other purpose than to leave or withdraw clothing and they had been told by Brooklynites of sad sights seen at night by homegoing citizens of the Borough from the Chinese laundries who found at late hours young girls coming from Chinese places that were in front signs saying that they were laundries.

From Atlantic avenue the three girls went to a laundry in Hoyt street and then to another laundry in the same street, 148. Here only two of the girls entered, the third remaining outside the window. Inside the strollers, detectives as they passed saw three Chinamen, two in native garb, the third in the clothes of a Christianized Chinese. The policemen saw the youngest of the girls with a Chinaman pass beyond a curtain and in a few moments they entered and without ceremony went also beyond the screen. They arrested all three Chinese and the three girls, and while they held, the shop next a neighbor to telephone to the nearest station, that in Butler street, for a patrol wagon, which came with two other policemen. The six prisoners were hustled to the State street headquarters and thence to the Adams street court.

In court the girls said that they were Rose Bennett, aged 22, of 68 Fifth avenue, Brooklyn; May Bennett, 19, of 87 Hicks street, and Ruth Lafayette, 17, of 17 Hicks street. The Chinese said that they were Hong Kee (in American clothes), Hong Tong and Lou Toy, all street of the Hoyt street address. All the girls by this time were weeping, a weakness impossible to the stolid Celestials. Ruth Lafayette, who said that she hailed from Montana, was hysterical. The officers expelled it convict at least one Chinaman of a serious charge, but the magistrate discharged all three men.

The officers say that the Lafayette girl had told them of doing in another laundry, where she had received 40 cents, she said, and on her declaration they arrested Don Tooney, 24 years old, of 308 Adams street, whom the magistrate held in $1,000. The three girls were held in $100 each on witness. The girls agreed, the Brooklyn headquarters men said, in statements that Rose and May were sisters, May having lately left home and gone to live with Ruth Lafayette, and that Rose was a good girl. May and Ruth, they said, were out of work.

The examination of the prisoner was set for tomorrow.

WHAT DID IT.

Banks—"I had a new experience while I was at Brighton last week, one you might call unaccountable. I ate a hearty dinner, finishing up with a Welsh rabbit, a mince pie, and some lobster a la Newburg. Then I went to a place of amusement. I had hardly entered the building before everything swam before me."

Banks—"The Welsh rabbit did it."

Banks—"No, it was the lobster."

Banks—"I think it was the mince pie."

Banks—"No; I have a simpler explanation than that. I never felt better in my life. I was at the Aquarium.—Exchange.

FOUGHT UNDER NELSON.

The name of James Hexton, who for seventy-six years has resided in Queensland, was among the list of old-age pensioners recently approved by the Home Secretary. Hexton is said to be the first white man born in Queensland, first seeing the light at the home of Dr. Ballow, whose residence stood on the site of the present Royal Navy, and fought under Nelson, and also had the honor of being the first pilot in Moreton Bay. He met his death by being taken by a shark.

DR. PUGSEY DISCUSSES MR. BRODER'S STATEMENT

Limiting British Preference to Imports Through Canadian Ports, He Regards as a Most Beneficial Move.

Hon. William Pugsey arrived in the city early last evening from Rothesay, where he spent the afternoon. He will return to Ottawa this morning. When seen by The Sun last night the Minister stated that his principal object in coming was to confer with the harbor committee of the Common Council in the matter of the transfer of foreshore lots at Sand Point.

THE QUEBEC BANQUET.

At the banquet tendered me in Quebec a few nights ago I referred to the policy of the government in the respect and was pleased to notice the unanimous expression of approval from the large number of influential citizens present. If their views may be taken as indicative of the trend of Canadian public opinion, and I think they may, the government can rely upon having the enthusiastic support of the people of Canada in the carrying out of this truly national policy.

The question of a new dry dock was also taken up. This people believe to be urgently required on the St. Lawrence, the fact that there are now some eighteen steamers coming to Quebec and Montreal told me that the government was being urged to enter the dry dock at Lévis. I enjoyed very much my visit to the port, and was greatly pleased with the warm reception I met with from the citizens. During the afternoon our party was taken by steamer to St. Michel by Mr. Talbot, M. P., who represents the constituency in parliament. While there I inspected the department at that place. Although notice of my visit was very short the town was decorated with bunting upon our arrival and the reception we met with was most gratifying.

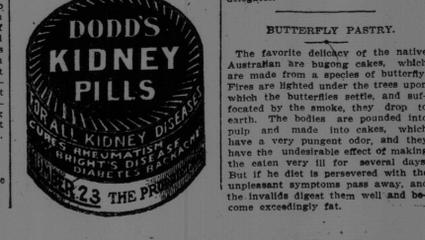

One thing which particularly impressed me during my visit to Quebec, concluded Dr. Pugsey, was the hopeful feeling of the people, who seemed to be thoroughly alive to the fact that a splendid future of progress and development awaits the city as a result of the completion of the National Transcontinental.

WOMAN SENT UP FOR TRIAL

OTTAWA, Ont., June 23.—In the Hall police court this morning several witnesses testified that Mrs. Lajoie, the Aylmer woman charged with cruel and inhuman treatment of her 8-year-old daughter, had habitually starved and cruelly beaten the unfortunate child. Medical evidence showed that she was covered with bruises, and in an extremely emaciated condition from lack of food, when taken from home to a hospital in the city. The mother declared that she hated the child enough to poison her, and that she had done so. The inhuman mother beat her savagely with a heavy club, declared the child had been kept for hours with her knees as a punishment for some "frivolous offence. Frequently the little girl had been searching in the yard for potato peelings and scraps of meat, with which to appease her hunger. The child herself is still in hospital, and did not give evidence. The mother was committed for trial.

SOCIETY WEDDING AT MONCTON YESTERDAY

MONCTON, June 23.—The first Baptist wedding was the scene of a charming affair at 10 o'clock this afternoon when Miss Jennie G. Harris, daughter of Charles J. Harris, was united in marriage to Isaiah D. Ward, Sunny Brae. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. S. Bard, pastor of the Lewisville Baptist Church, in the presence of a large number of friends. The bride was attended by Miss Ethel Wood, while the groom was supported by Geo. P. Harris brother of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Ward left on the C. P. R. on a wedding trip to Boston and New York.

THE FAVORITE DELICACY OF THE NATIVE AUSTRALIAN IS BUNNY CAKE, which are made from a species of butterfly. Fires are lighted under the trees upon which the butterflies settle, and suffocated by the smoke, they drop to earth. The bodies are pounded into pulp and made into cakes, which have a very pungent odor, and they have the undesirable effect of making the eater very ill for several days. But if he diet is persevered with the unpleasant symptoms pass away, and the invalids digest them well and become exceedingly fat.

PAINTED HIS HORSE WITH VIVID GREEN

Samuel Roebuck "Didn't Like White," Says Witness.

Weekly Manufacturer Thought He Had Sixty-Five Children and Kapt House Full of Perambulators.

NEW YORK, June 24.—That Samuel Roebuck, a manufacturer of window screens and weather strips, who died on February 9, leaving an estate valued at more than $1,000,000, once painted a valuable white horse a vivid green, the testimony of a witness at a hearing yesterday in Brooklyn before Surrogate Ketchum, who is trying to determine whether Roebuck was of sound mind when he drew up any one of the three wills that have been filed for probate.

Briefed and sworn in a green horse, Roebuck also had the cellar and several rooms of his home filled with baby carriages. Witnesses declared that the manufacturer believed he was the father of sixty-five children and that on his return home he frequently pushed one carriage before him and dragged another in his wake.

A maid who was employed for several years in the Roebuck home, at No. 115 Seventeenth street, South Brooklyn, declared that on one occasion he had attempted to kill her and Mrs. Roebuck by turning on all the gas in their house when he was the only one awake. Roebuck, it was testified, had a window in his third room and was seen just as he was about to leap to the sidewalk.

Roebuck, who was nearly eighty years old when he died, drew his first will on March 23, 1898. In that, as in his second will, drawn February 26, 1905, he left the greater part of his property to his widow and to several children, a former wife, and a daughter, which bears the date of July 17, 1898, he leaves considerable of his property to Mrs. Elizabeth Bird, of Northampton, England, who, he declared, is his daughter. Until that will was filed in the surrogate's office none of his relatives in this country knew that he had a daughter in England.

All the testimony taken yesterday related to Roebuck's mental condition at the time he executed his last will in 1908. Several witnesses testified that they had been upon our arrival and within a short time before he signed the third will.

It was stated by Andrew Purcell, a florist of Fifth avenue and Eighteenth street, saw Roebuck painting his white horse green. When Purcell was asked to describe the animal's color, Roebuck said: "I'm tired of white. I think green a better color."

Kidney Suffering IN THE SPRING

Backaches and Tired Feelings Tell of Weak Kidney Action—Prompt Relief by Using DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS

No organs of the body are so susceptible to the quickly changing temperature of spring as the kidneys. Sudden cold waves mean chilling of the surface of the body, closing of the pores of the skin and overcrowding of the kidneys at a time when they are already overworked in an effort to free the system of the accumulated poisons of winter.

The tired, draggy feelings you experience and the weakness and pains in the back tell of a poisoned system and defective kidneys.

There is no treatment for kidney disease which will afford you relief so quickly as Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and none which will so certainly cure the most complicated forms of this disease.

There is a reason for this. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are unique. There are no substitutes or imitations which possess this principle.

Mrs. F. O. Bacon, Baldwin's Mills, Que., writes: "I was very sick last spring. The doctors said I must go to the hospital for an operation, but I didn't want to. My liver and kidneys did not act and I suffered terribly. I then began using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and nothing else, and am now fully cured and doing my own work for a family of seven."

A USEFUL IMPLEMENT.

Aunt Ann Arkwright, the bustling spouse of Uncle Joshua Arkwright, proudly showed him a silver implement which a friend had given her as a birthday present. It was shaped something like a spatula, but broadened considerably toward the handle. Uncle Joshua inspected it with some curiosity.

"What is it?" he asked.

"Haven't you any idea?" she said.

"No, not the least in the world."

"Well," said Aunt Ann, "it's a pie knife."

Uncle Joshua picked it up, inspected it critically and laid it down again.

"I haven't any use for it," he said, "as far as I'm concerned. It's too wide. I couldn't eat pie with 't without cutting my mouth.—Youth's Companion.

MARAUDING GYPSIES NOW LODGED IN JAIL

Provincial Inspector Greer and Posse of Pelterboro Constables Place 66 of Them Under Arrest.

PETERBOROUGH, June 21.—Provincial Inspector Greer, together with the high constables of Peterborough and a posse of constables, today went out in the vicinity of Bobcaygeon and rounded up the gang of gypsies who have been terrorizing the people of this district for the past few days. In all 66 were placed under arrest and landed in jail on various charges, larceny, threatening, fortune telling and other misdemeanors. This wandering band arrived in Ontario a few weeks ago and from every point they have visited complaints of their conduct have been received. Stealing chickens, robbing from stores are among the indictments against them. The women of the party were said to be even worse than the men and ladies who refused to have their fortunes told were threatened with all sorts of dire calamities. In most of the towns visited the tribe were given a certain time to leave the places where police protection is lacking in the gypsies departed themselves. Complaints reached the Ontario general department from Ormeau and also from Bobcaygeon and Detective Greer was placed on the case, with the results indicated.

CHARMING WEDDING AT GONDOLA PT. YESTERDAY

The Baptist church at Gondola Point was the scene of a brilliant event yesterday afternoon, when Miss May, youngest daughter of George Pettinell of Gondola Point, was united in marriage to Alvin Leslie Charters, St. Mary's, York county. The church was charmingly decorated with flowers and the seating capacity was taxed to the utmost.

The bride was charmingly arrayed in soft white silk, bearing a well and orange blossoms and carrying a bouquet of white carnations. She was attended by her sister, Miss Louise. The groom was supported by his brother, Lewis F. Charters of Fredericton. Little Miss Edith Keirstead and Grace Harrison acted as flower girls and were prettily dressed. Miss Jeana Morrison presided at the organ, while Messrs. Burger and Hay were the ceremonial ushers. Rev. J. D. W. Keirstead, D. A., of St. John performed the ceremony, being assisted by the Rev. Mr. McCutcheon, B. A.

After leaving the church about 40 guests were entertained at the house of the bride, where a sumptuous tea was served and congratulations were the order of the hour.

The happy pair were the recipients of many beautiful and valuable presents. They leave Rothesay today for a trip through the provinces. Upon their return they will reside in their new home at Fredericton.

THE ENGLISH UNEMPLOYED.

To solve the unemployment problem in England the curious suggestion is made to organize a big scheme for the recovery of the treasure lost to the English King John Lackland of Magna Charta fame in the Lincolnshire quicksands nearly 700 years ago. At a recent meeting of the Society of Antiquaries at Cambridge (says the London correspondent of The New York Sun), W. H. St. John Pope, vice-president of the Royal Archaeological Society, presented an exact reconstruction of the King John's fateful journey. The three most trustworthy chroniclers of the time agree that the catastrophe took place in the Well Stream, a sea arm which connected with the Wash, the bay which separates Lincolnshire from Norfolk.

On Oct. 11, 1216, King John, after raging furiously up and down England in his interminable quarrels with his barons, marched out of King's Lynn, Norfolk, where the townsmen had propitiated him with rich gifts. Three or four thousand knights and crossbowmen were with him, also a long train of wagons and pack horses.

This baggage train was to take a short cut across the Well Stream, which was fordable at low tide and provided a path five miles long over unobtainable sand to Long Sutton, where John with his horsemen would await its arrival. The convoy had only got half-way across when the tide set in with unexampled fury and engulfed them all, man and beast.

What was quicksand in 1216 is firm ground in 1908, reclaimed by tides and draining. In the wagons was the plunder of half a kingdom and the royal treasure of a king. It is certainly worth recovering.

SANDWICH MEN HAVE THEIR "GENTLEMEN"

Pick of the Craft Dress in Frock Coats and Top Hats and "Swells."

There are two distinct grades of sandwich men—those who carry the ordinary boards, and those who belong to what is termed the "gentlemen's brigade." These latter are the pick of the men who follow sandwiching as a means of regular livelihood, according to Cassell's Magazine. They must be tall and of distinguished appearance, as it were, for they are required to dress up as "swells" and go about the streets giving out handbills. They are usually fitted out with frock coat, top hat and the usual paraphernalia befitting such attire.

Public sympathy seems to go out to these supposed "gentlemen in distress," and consequently the sandwich contractor does not hesitate to play up this impersonation for all it is worth. It is rather an advantage to get into the "gentlemen's brigade" for occasionally persons of wealth become interested in these men and try to give them an opportunity of improving their condition.

Thus the "gentlemen's brigade" has helped to elevate the sandwich man's "profession" somewhat. It need not longer be a fearsome, bedraggled, rag-and-tatter calling, but if a man gets into the exclusive "gentlemen's corps" he can at least always be dressed well, even though the clothes he wears are those of every night sees the supposed "gentleman" stripped of all his finery like the wretched pig in the fairy tale.

AUTOMATIC TELEPHONES.

Saskatoon Was First City in Canada to Adopt the New Method.

SASKATOON, June 24.—Saskatoon was the first city in Canada to adopt and install the automatic telephone system. This triumph of ingenuity reduces the process of telephoning to its minimum simplicity. It seems impossible that anything simpler could ever be required. On the front of the instrument there is a numbered, movable dial, and opposite each unit there is a circular hole. In making a connection all that is necessary is to place the forefinger in each of the holes opposite the numerals composing the number required, and in each case push the dial down as far as it will go; then, press the bell button and your connection is made. You depend for quickness and accuracy upon no operator. The whole process is automatic, and it works with scientific exactitude. It is never out of duty. Night and day it remains faithful, accurate and instant. While visiting cities in which the old telephone is still perpetuated, one is almost subdued by a sense of their antiquity. It is like stepping back into the past. Again we experience the old provoking delays; the exasperating misconceptions and disconnections—and through all waits the tranquil tone of the telephone girl, unmoved and immovable through all the vicissitudes of life—the acme of human self-possession.

It is not too much to say that the automatic telephone eliminates all the objections which made the former instrument the unfailing fountain of the professional jokemaker, and at the same time, the direct cause of much tropically luxuriant language from the lips of those sufficiently innocent to be sorry thereafter.

Saskatoon has no cause to regret that she was the first city in Canada to adopt the automatic telephone system.

ORDNANCE CORPS BUSY PREPARING FOR CAMPS

Large Quantities of Stores Being Shipped From St. John to Sussex, Woodstock and Newcastle—Advance Parties Leave on Saturday.

The St. John depot of the Ordnance Department is busy these days getting out supplies for the militia camps which open next Tuesday. Three camps will be held this year, viz: at Camp Sussex, at Newcastle and at Woodstock. All the equipment and various stores for these three camps are kept at St. John except when in use and are shipped from here when required. Last year, owing to the repairs to the ordnance building, a large part of the stores were kept at Sussex throughout the whole year, but now with the increased space there is plenty of room for everything at St. John. About the usual quantity of supplies will be sent to the camps. Any diminution of the number of men in camp affecting this only slightly.

The members of the Ordnance Corps stationed at St. John will leave for Camp Sussex on Saturday. The Army Service Corps will also go into camp on that day. They will be met by the advance parties of about a dozen men from each regiment, who will assist in erecting the tents and all the other work required to prepare for the comfort of a large camp.

The citizen soldiers go into camp on Tuesday afternoon and evening and it will probably be Wednesday morning before they are all settled down in camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson left on the Quebec express for a tour of Upper Canadian cities, and on their return will reside at Sackville.

RECORDER WILL DRAW UP THE AGREEMENT Under Which City Will Transfer Harbor Lots

Government Will Act as Intermediary—Terms Discussed at Meeting of Minister of Public Works With Harbor Board

Hon. Wm. Pugsley met the members of the Harbor Board at City Hall this morning and discussed with them the plans for the transfer of the harbor properties at West St. John between the city, the C. P. R. and the government.

Ald. McGoldrick presided, and there were present, the Mayor, Aldermen Baxter, Connor, Holder, and Ellis, the common clerk, Engineer Peter, and Recorder Skinner.

Mr. Peter presented to the committee the plans he had prepared of the section of the harbor involved after making extensive surveys. The plans and other information have been ready for some time, but this was the first opportunity of submitting them to the committee.

Mr. Pugsley urged on the board the necessity of hurrying the arrangements as much as possible in order that the harbor dredging should not be delayed. He offered to give Recorder Skinner authority from his department to proceed with the preparation of the necessary papers involved in the transfer.

He also intimated that he might have the work of dredging proceeded with pending the settlement of the terms of the transfer.

There was considerable discussion of the terms of the transfer and some changes in the property to be transferred were discussed. The objection that the grant to the C. P. R. would make it impossible for any other railway to reach the facilities was raised. It is proposed that the shore lots shall be transferred to the government and the government shall then transfer them to the C. P. R. in exchange for the 150 foot street which is needed for wharf sites.

It was finally decided to instruct the recorder to proceed with the drafting of an agreement setting forth the terms under which the city will transfer its lots to the government, the agreement to stipulate the work to be done in improving the lots and the time in which it is to be done. When this is completed it will be submitted to the Harbor Board and after being approved will be submitted to a special meeting of the common council for ratification.

In the meantime no dredging will be done on the 1500 foot strip.
