The postponement of the Coronation has been a little unfortunate as regards our account for the last month, as the expenditure incurred for preparation has only been partly met by a few gifts through the offertory. It was expected that the offertory at the intended Coronation Service would have provided for the outlay, or most of it at least, if not all. We have, however, remaining in hand nearly all that will be required, excepting flowers, for the event when it takes place. The flags prepared for this occasion will be available for use at any future time when any event occurs for which the decoration of the Cathedral may be thought proper.

The Rev. Canon Johnson died at Windsor on 28th May, aged 73.

Mr. Henry John Wickham has been elected by the Diocesan Synod a Lay member of the Cathedral Chapter, in succession to the late Hon. George William Allan.

The following are those who were confirmed on Wednesday evening, 4th June: Robert Goodall Trotter, Walter Carlile Jessop, Ross Auld Robertson, Edgar A. S. Chowne, Edward Porter, William Fearnley Smith, William George Amsden, James Ernest Curzon, William Richard Curzon, Louis William Klingner, Llewellyn Bertram Roden, Dudley Roden, Ernest Ronald Andras, Ronald Lane Hilton, Gordon Poyntz Ricketts, Arthur Frederick Brown, John William Faulkner (S. Stephen's), Harvey Nelson Barry (S. Anne's), Catherine Pauline Trotter, Charlotte Melinda Holmes, Blanche Margaret Hodge, Emma Plimsoll King, Amelia Marguerite Allen, Grace Louisa Sarge, Harriet Stanley Sarge, Margaret Elizabeth Ankers, Florence Martha Elaine Bradfield, Lilian Jeannette Platt, Elizabeth Russell, Evelyn Louise Amsden, Mary Frederica Taylor, Jessie Adeline Warren, Lillie Bell Jones, Ethel Annie Harniman, Mary Glaze, Mary Jane Farthing, Annie Fell, Rosina Grace Maddison, Alice Balfe Winstanley Maddison, Edith May Callow, Beatrice Dorothea Langstone, Sara Louise Barry (S. Anne's).

The Services on Sunday, 11th June, included thanksgiving for the restoration of peace, offered up here in unison with the churches throughout the Empire, including, for the first time, those vast territories which are added to it as the result of the war now concluded.

The Synod Service in the Cathedral this year was brighter and more impressive than usual, and much better attended than last year, though not all that it might have been in that respect. We were disappointed to see so few of the regular congregation present. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Canon Welch, Sub-Dean. The choir attended in full strength, and their portion of the service comprised two anthems. The service was intoned by the Rev. Canon Cayley, Precentor; the lessons were read by the Ven. Archdeacon of Peterborough and Rev. Canon Sweeny, and the prayers by Rev. Canon Macnab. The benediction was pronounced by the Rev. John Langtry, Bishop's Commissary. The service was also an echo of the Thanksgiving for peace of the previous Sunday.

The great event of the year, for which we, in common with all parts and peoples of the Empire, had been making great preparation, was to have taken place on 26th June, when the hearts and voices of one-fourth of the inhabitants of the world were about to unite in one acclamation in honor of our King, and join with him in the great religious ceremony appointed for that day; but it was ordered otherwise, and the intended services of the King's "Sacring" were changed into supplications to God for his restoration to health, a restoration which up to that time scarcely anyone had ventured to hope for. His Majesty's progress, since then, towards recovery has been so satisfactory that we may hope that the Coronation will not be long delayed.

The Annual Sunday School picnic took place on Thursday, 10th inst. at Bond's Lake, where few had been before, and which was generally declared to be a more pleasant place than any to which the school had made an excursion. The party mustered about 200 and filled five cars of the Metropolitan Railway.

Mr. David Orr has given to the Cathedral two Patens, decorated with engraving and enamel to match the Chalice presented a short time ago. Who will be the one to give a second Chalice?
