Mysyrazovs Appata!—There is a report current in the city to the first that on Saturday night, or Su day moning last, the sentry on duty at the Ordeance Whart discovering a man skulling on the premises i amediately challenged—"Who goes there?" and received the usual reply—"A friend!" It being of course the duty to keep intelopers clear of the yard and wharf, he clust d with the transgressor—hair agagia and receiving the same answer, which was repeated three times. The addict has by this line got undicently sear to see the person, who is described as being a tall man, about to attack him with a weapon of some kind; the sentry brought his piece to the charge and ran the beginned up almost to its extreme end into his antagonist, who immediately fell. The sentry then proceeded towards the Guard House to give the alarm, returned limitalists? with the setjenit and a file of the guard, but they could discern nothing of the man whethat been stabbed, although a large pool of blood was seen on the aptet at which the many ful.

Some twenty years since, I formed a travelling acquaintance, upon a steamhout on the Hudson river, with a gentliman, who, on hat occasion, related to me some incidents of the first voyage of Fgrrow to Albary, in his astambout, the Clermont, which I have never met with elsewhere.—The gentleman's name I have but; but I urged him, at the time, to publish what he related; which, however, so far as I know, be has sever done.

By the Rev. A. Drany Campacts, A. M., Incumbent of Trinity Church, Montreal. To be had at all the Book Stores. September 20, 1850. This Lecture is sent forth to the Chr. t the earnest request of my Congregation others, who regard it is calculated mportant light on a subject of great interest the Church of large; and especially in a section the Church of large; and especially in a section of the Lord's sine pand where much ignorance prevails with Romanists and members of the true Catholic faith, on the squatted, claim of antiquity, so proudly assumed by the Church of Rome.

I believe that the positions laid down in this Lecture are incontrovertible, and that no ingenuity of the learned Doctors of the mystical Babylon. can weaken, much less overthrow the simple hiscommitted to my charge.

The one point aimed at, and to which my argument is solely directed, was the establishment of this alleged fact, that the Creed now possessed and held by the Church, of which I am an humble Minister, and held by most of the orthodox Churches of the Reformation, was "The Ancient Catholic Faith" of the Church of Christ; and Bannah, Kefr, Muir, 14th do, Troon, Gilleepies & Co, coals Heitannin, Inch, 6th do, Bullast, N I Wilson & Co, bellisst. British Queen, Lord, 2nd do, Bristol, C H Ross, do Dominics, Murphy, 4th do, Hull, Pemberton Bros. Catholic Faith, but a mera novelty, and her Calmis to Santy San that, if this fact was ascertained by incontroverti-rect, I will cheerfully amend them; but having examined them carefully, with different authoriies. I have no reason to anticipate any error

My guide in this Lecture has been the rule of Vincentius, believing, with the Accient Fathers, that to be "araly and properly Catholic" which was believed "everywhere, always, and by all."
"In ipsa Catholics ecclesis magnopere curundum est, ut id teneamin quod ubique, quod semper, quod ab omnibus creditum est; boc est stenim vert proprieque Carbulicum."-- Fincent. Lirui Cont. Bares, cap. 3.

The remarks of Archbishop Usher, in a Sermon reached in the year 1624, on the "Universality the Church of Christ and the Unity of the Catholic Faith," professed therein, will not be out of place here. In answer to "the question so rife in the mouths of our adversaries; where was your Church before Luther the this eminent Prelate replies: - Whereunto an answer may be re-turned, that our Church was even there subere it now is. In all places of the world where the ancient foundations were retained, and there commen principles of feith, upon the profession whereof men have ever been wont to be admitted by bap-tism into the Church of Christ, there we doubt not but our Lord had his subjects, and we our fel-low-servants: for we bring in no new faith, nor no new Church." o new Church."

I would further add, that this Lecture pro to no originality of argument: the positions in it have been ably laid down and maintained by many of the writers of the sixteenth and seventeenth Church within the last half century; but by none with greater power than by my dear brother in Christ, the Rev. Robert McGlee, to whom the Church is deeply indebted for his unwearied labors in the vineyard of the Lord of hosts. No less reparkable in all his writings for sound piety, exenderness which flows out in all his writings b tenderness which flows out in all his writings to-wards his "beloved Roman Catholic brethren."

I have endeavored in this Lecture to be influ-enced by this tenderness of regard and of deep anxiety for my fellow subjects of the Romish persuasion; while fithfulness to God and his truth, must eyer oblige me to blow the warning trumpet with no uncertain sound; consequenthe and errors of this fallen Church must be claimed and condemned in no extenuating but in plain terms: Should this Lecture fall into the hands of any members of that Church, I bessech shall low to me, and every tongue shall confess to God; so, then, every one of us shall give account of himself to God."

If this Lecture should be the humble instrument of leading one of my dear Roman Catholic brethren to sparch for, and walk in, the ancient paths—of reclaiming one poor misguided wanderer from the ancient landmarks—of establishing one halting invester on the road to Zion, or of confirming the strong in the uncient faith, and strengthening their hands to fight the Lord's lattice in these latter day struggles of the Church. A Not unto us, O Lord—not unto us, but unto Thy name give glory, for Thy mercy and Thy truth's nake."—Paalm cay. 1 TRINITY CHUNCH. 13 112.18 1
