Divorce in Chicago.—Chicago is becoming metropolitan. There were two hundred and seventy-five divorces granted in that city, by the several courts, during the year 1865. The Chicago Journal says: "Of these one hundred and seventy-seven were applied for by wives, whose grounds of grievance against their husbands were: Drunkenness in fifty of the cases; desertion and cruelty four; drunkenness and cruelty forty-four; adultery eight; drunkenness, desertion, cruelty and adultery combined, two; bigamy two; other causes two..."

The New York papers relate a sorrowful case of death during the recent cold weather in that city.—"Mrs. Lafferty had four children, one of whom was an infant. At a late hour of the night she arose from bed, in order to cover her three children more carefully, and again retired with her infant at her breast. Next morning she was found frozen to death with the innocent babe endeavoring to suck from the breast of the dead mother. Her husband, being a night watchman, did not come home till daylight. So tightly were the arms of the mother closed around her infant, that it required the united efforts of two men to remove them from their cold embrace..."
