THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 9, 1874
Local and Other Items.

Look out for the comet, for thereby hangs a tail.

FAMILY PHYSICIANS are carefully noting the promising state of the green apple crop.

SUNDAY MAGAZINE and GOOD WORDS for July now on hand at Anderson's bookstore.

It is said that the prettiest girl in Elora is a newspaper carrier. She carries them in her bustle.

REMEMBER the laying of the corner stone of the new Wesleyan Church at 4.30 this afternoon, and the strawberry festival in the Drill Shed this evening at 7 o'clock.

THE WESLEYAN FESTIVAL.—We learn that Col. Clarke has kindly consented to allow one of the splendid Battalion Bands to be present at the Wesleyan Festival in the Drill Shed this evening.

L. O. L.—Prince Arthur Lodge, Guelph, will meet at the rooms on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock and from thence proceed to St. George's church, at 10 o'clock, where the Rev. Mr. Desroche will preach.

RECEIPTS for the preservation of furs during the hot weather abound in all the papers, but the old plan promulgated by Punch long ago is the best. This is to pull out all the hair with tweezers and varnish the skin. In the fall remove the varnish and carefully stick all the hairs in their old place.

BURIED ALIVE.—Malcolm McDonald was buried in a low 30 feet deep in Lucknow, on the 7th inst. He was repairing a curb at the bottom; the curb gave way, and about twenty feet of gravel fell in and covered the unfortunate man. He leaves a wife and four children. The body has not yet been found.

THE FARM.—The Herald is very important for the publication of the evidence lately taken at the Provincial Farm by the Government Committee. Of one thing we are sure, that the Herald will not be consulted in the matter, but we may say that if deemed advisable, the evidence will be published at the proper time.

DAMAGE BY THE STORM.—During the severe storm on Tuesday a barn on the farm occupied by John Wright, about a mile from Fergus, was struck by lightning and burned to the ground in a few minutes. Dr. Orton, M. P., who was in the house at the time, was knocked down by the shock, but was not hurt.
In Douglas the hail storm was unusually severe, smashing the windows in almost every house.

NEW BUSINESS.—We learn that Mr.
Ernst Hornbostel is about completing arrangements for the manufacture in Guelph of Fire and Burglar Proof Safes.
Being an experienced practical workman in that particular branch of business, we have no doubt that Mr. Hornbostel's safes will be equal to any manufactured in the country, and will have a ready sale. We trust he will meet with every encouragement in starting this new business in Guelph.

A COMPLIMENT TO THE CHAMPIONS.— The Hamilton Times remarks: "We have watched with interest the success of the Maple Leaf Base Ball Club, of Guelph, which has been contesting the field at the tournament in Watertown, N. Y. The Canadians have defeated all comers, and carried off the $500 prize.
Fourteen American Clubs competed, among them the champion amateur club of that country. The Maple Leaf had before attained the Championship of Canada, and, as the result of this week's work, it stands ahead of all amateur clubs on the continent. At a period when so much pride is taken in athletic superiority, Canada has a right to congratulate Guelph upon this prominent achievement."

STEAMER CORNITHIAN AGREED.—On Tuesday evening about 5 o'clock the Canadian Navigation Company's steamer Cornithian was struck by a heavy squall while coming down the Cascade Rapids above Courteen and grounded. Two hundred and fifty passengers were on board, many of whom became frightened, and were ferried to the shore whence they took a special train to Montreal. On receipt of the news of the accident, the steamer Bohemian was despatched to the scene of the disaster to render all the assistance possible. It appears the steamer had passed the first pitch of the Cascaes and was running comparatively smooth water when a heavy squall struck her from the north. It is supposed the pilot bore up a little to the north to get its force, and that the boat ran slightly out of the channel. A few minutes after, she struck the bottom at, and then bumped along for a short distance until she escaped. She carried eighty to the south, but the Captain ordered all hands to the other side when she sighted. There was but little screaming among the ladies, although a rush for life preservers was made by many.
About an hour and a half afterwards the steamer, which had previously remained stationary, swung slightly round, and a number of passengers were ferried over to the main land, where they took the train for Montreal at Vaudreuil. All the baggage and freight on the steamer is unharmed. There is no water in the steamer's hold. Praise is due to the officers, who remained cool and collected during the trying emergency. All the cargo and freight from the steamer have been successfully removed.

Waterloo Tournament.

From the Waterloovian Morning Despatch of the 6th.

Old Prob. did his very best on Friday to favor the base ball tournament and all interested therein. The rain of the night before left everything in the finest condition possible for the comfort of all.
At an early hour the crowds began leaving for the grounds in every class of vehicle available except wheelbarrows and velocipedes, and the result was an immense crowd on the qui vive to witness the games to be played between the first class clubs billed for the occasion.

The "lamps" didn't shine, but the sun did, over crowds of "fair women and brave men," bound to witness the contest between the Maple Leafs of Guelph, and the Ku Klux, of Oneida Castle, who, though unique as Ku Klux, yet are not Uniques. Both clubs came on the ground looking finely, and prepared for business to the minute, which was begun by the choice of Mr. Frank Mosher of the Rochester team, Mr. S. J. Walls scoring for the Ku Klux, and Mr. Matthew Tinker for the Maple Leafs. The Ku Klux won the toss, the Maple Leafs going to the bat at 10 o'clock precisely.

The first innings started off in a business like manner, giving some indication that a decent match was to be played, the whitewash being freely used on both sides, the score 0. The second inning again coated the Maple verdure with the whitening fluid and also shed it copiously upon the Ku Klux. In the third inning the Leafs opened with a score of seven runs, the Ku Klux miffing badly. Our representative for the Dominion are a fine looking body of athletes, and play as though they meant it; the last half of the inning again totaling a cipher for the three K's, who worked hard but without avail so far. The fourth inning blurred the Leafs and introduced the obnoxious "goose egg" to the Ku Klux, the Southern patronymic. Score 7 to 0, the Maple folly still waving in the advance. The fifth inning increased the score of the Maples to eleven points and added another round 0 to the record of the Klan, their scorers having an easy time of it. The sixth inning was keeping his record. Inning No. 6 immersed the Leafs in the kalsomining fluid, the Ku Klux of the Kastle coming carefully up to four runs, breaking up the "goose egg" score nicely. A thorough baptism of whitewashing for the verdure of the Maple in the seventh inning, and an inning of the same for the three K's left the game 11 to 4 in favor of the Guelphs. In the 8th inning the score of the Maple Leafs increased one; the Klux scoring a cipher.
The 9th and last inning footed up 13 for the Leafs and naught for the K's. Score 13 to 4. Time some two hours.

The only really exciting thing during the whole game was the running down of one of the Maple Leafs between the 2d and 3d base by one of the Ku Klux.
The rapid doubling of the runner and quick passing and re-passing of the ball, and the short base running race for the victory were worth seeing.
(The score here follows, which we gave already.)

MAPLE LEAF VS. NASSAUS.
At 10 o'clock on Saturday, the ground was cleared for the regular business, the game between the Nassaus of Brooklyn and the Maple Leafs of Guelph, Ontario.
An immense crowd had assembled to witness this game, the two clubs having a fine reputation. Mr. V. Longhain, of the Flyways, was chosen umpire, Mr.
Matthew Tinker scoring for the Maple Leafs and Mr. P. H. Trotter for the Nassaus. The Leafs won the toss and sent the Nassaus to the bat. No better weather could be asked; the sky being clouded and the atmosphere cool. The first inning scored two runs for the Nassaus and one for the Maple Leafs, both sides evidently watching their opportunities, carefully to detect, if possible, a weak point in the play of their adversaries. The first of the second inning added 7 to the score of the Nassaus, and at the close of the inning, the Maple Leafs having scored 5 runs, the game stood 9 to 6 in favor of the Nassaus. The third inning opened with a goose egg for the Leafs, and closed with a ditto for the Nassaus. The fourth inning laid another egg in the Nassaus' nest, and scored one for the Leafs, 9 to 7. Brooklyn ahead. The fifth inning, however, was for the Nassaus. A violent rain storm closed the game at the first half of the fifth inning, and broke up what promised to be the most exciting game of the tournament thus far. The contest will be renewed between the same clubs this afternoon at an interesting hour, may be expected; both clubs are in fine condition and are splendid players.

The following is the score of the match for the $500 prize between the Eastons and Maple Leafs:

The Famine in Calcutta.

Cheney, Wyoming, July 8th.—A war party, supposed to be the Northern Sioux, who attempted to capture a party of soldiers, were followed out of Wind River Valley by the Shoshone scouts, and traded to their camp, some seventy-five miles north-east from Cape Brown. A party of troops were sent after them.
They attacked the Indians on the 3rd inst., killing and wounding about fifty, who proved to be the Sioux, and capturing over 100 head of horses. Three soldiers were killed and three wounded.
These Indians have been committing depredations along the frontier for some time.

Milwaukee, July 8.—At Gravesville, Wis., yesterday, a man named Thomas Lofie murdered his wife, knocking her down with a hammer. He then cut her in a horrible manner, and concealed her body under the house, covering it with rags. On being arrested he said he killed her so she should not abuse his children any more.

Baltimore, July 8.—Gov. Groome has commuted the sentence of Charles Henry Jones, sentenced to be hanged on August 7th, to twenty-one years imprisonment.

Detroit, July 8.—To-day is the second of the bird shooting tournament. Hall, of Saginaw, and Custy, of Detroit, divided the $100 prize; Smith, of Buffalo, took the $75 prize; Caldwell, of Detroit, $50; and Colburn, of Detroit, $30.

Richmond, Va., July 8.—The twelfth shows 286 local unions, with a membership of about 5,000.

London, July 9.—The Times' Paris correspondent telegraphs that Mac-Mahon in his forthcoming message will probably state that he could not accept the resignations of the Ministers because they defended his power, and he wished to save the country from a new ministerial crisis. He will request the Assembly to hasten the action on financial measures, and then adjourn for the summer months, and on the re-assembling proceed to definitely organize his powers.

Parliament will be prorogued on the 8th 800,000 natives are now employed on the rail works, a million less than three weeks ago. Half a million are still subsisting on the charity of the Government and the public.

New York, July 9.—The Golden Age of this morning has an article saying that Plymouth Church has adopted the policy of silence. It sees the character of one whose good name is bound to defend from every aspersions assertion, brought under grave and terrible suspicion, and while millions in agony of sympathy for him, intreat it to open its lips and speak its sentiments, it persistently holds its tongue.

Cricket Match.
BRIGADE VS. GUELPH CLUB.
On Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock the wickets were pitched at the Guelph eleven of the town club and a team was in attendance, and the Band of the 29th Battalion discoursed excellent music.

The game lasted till about six o'clock, and ended in the defeat of the Brigade by the following score:

The Halton Reform Demonstration.

Wednesday the 8th was a great day among the Reformers of Halton. The arrangements for the picnic, which came off on that day, had been in progress for some time. It was a sort of a holiday throughout the county, and the weather being very favorable, there was a splendid turnout—about 3,000 persons being on the ground, half of whom were ladies. Martin's Grove near Milton was the scene of the festivities. The trees formed a most refreshing shade, and the effect of the sylvan scene was greatly heightened by the many motes which were fastened to their trunks.

The chair was occupied by Mr. John White, late member for the county, and among the public men present were Hon. O. Mowat, Hon. A. McKellar, Messrs. J. Rymal, M.P., R. Smith, M.P., D. B. Chisholm, M.P., W. Barber, M.P.P., K. Chisholm, M.P.P., Dr. Robertson, Mayor of Milton, W. D. Lyon, Warden of the County, &c., &c. An excellent band was in attendance. Among the curiosities on the ground was Mr. McKellar's celebrated "canoe-couch damask," which has furnished a-text so often to the distinguished quartette who form the Opposition in the Legislature of Ontario. It was a somewhat faded piece of furniture, and did not bear on its face any evidence of the extremely luxurious tastes attributed to the Minister of Agriculture.

After the chairman had opened the proceedings by a speech, Mr. Barber, M.P.P. for the County, addressed the assemblage, and contrasted the present day, when it was easy to be a Reformer, with the time when it was dangerous for such to meet together. He referred in terms of praise to the more important acts which the present Local Government had carried, to its liberality in aiding railway enterprise, and to the encouragement it gave to all schemes for bringing immigrants to the country. He was followed by Mr. D. B. Chisholm, M.P. for the County. He said he wished to meet all his constituents on a common platform, and show them that he desired to treat all alike and do all in his power for the County which he represented. He heartily endorsed Mr. Barber's encomiums on the Premier of Ontario, who was not only an able lawyer and a wise and upright judge, but was emphatically a good man. Referring to the recent session of the Dominion Parliament, he denied the truth of the statement that but little had been done during that session. They had had to dispose of the case of Kiel, and did it, he thought, satisfactorily to the whole country. He expressed strong approval of the Election Bill which had been passed, and briefly referred to the Canadian Pacific Railway measure. He was anxious to do what he could for them all—Reformers or Tories. He claimed to be an independent member. He had promised to give Mr. Mackenzie's Government a fair and generous support, and he would continue to give them a fair and generous support so long as they had his confidence. He might sacrifice his constituency, but he would never sacrifice his consistency. He urged them to drop political asperities and party bickerings, to join in support of any good Government to secure the reforms which had already been obtained, and to bring about those still necessary.

Hon. Mr. Mowat then spoke at some length on the progress of the country, and the various measures which had been passed by the Government. He was followed by Mr. Crerar and Mr. McKellar, the latter whom rejoiced at meeting Mr. Chisholm on the same platform. He rejoiced at the circumstances, for there was a book which said that there was greater rejoicing over one—he should not say what—than over ninety and nine other persons. He therefore rejoiced to find Mr. Chisholm there with them, but he was afraid his conversion was not yet complete. He hoped it would be complete before they met again, and that they would hear no more about these "independent members."

Mr. Rymal's speech will appear tomorrow.

Grand Lodge of Canada. The nineteenth annual communication of the Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of Canada was held on Wednesday in the Music Hall, Toronto. There were also a large number of the craft present. M. W. Bro., W. M. Wilson, Grand Master, presided and delivered an address in which he announced that the long pending difficulties between the Grand Lodge and the Masons of Quebec had been happily arranged. The address then refers to the relations with other Grand Lodges. During the year dispensations had been granted for the formation of 19 new Lodges. After giving the financial statement, which is a very satisfactory one, he gives in detail the number of dedications, and the laying of corner stones of new buildings he had attended; also refers to the fraternal dead, the Masonic Asylum fund, &c.

THE BRIGADE CAMP.

Thursday, July 9th.

The chief business in camp yesterday forenoon was making up the rolls preparatory to the payment of the men by Paymaster Lays. In the afternoon the Brigade was out for drill, and had a good afternoon's work in going through a number of evolutions, which were performed in good style.

In the evening the Staff Officers and officers of the 90th entertained the Town Council, the Warden of the County, the three members of Parliament living in town, the Town Clerk and County Treasurer, the late Surgeon of the 90th, the members of the press, and two or three other gentlemen, to dinner. After doing full justice to a most excellent dinner provided by Mr. Ellis, of the American Hotel, caterer to the 90th Officers' mess, the single toast of "The Queen" was drunk with an enthusiasm at all times observable whether among volunteers or civilians in Canada. The company were also favored with some excellent songs and recitations by several gentlemen present, and the two hours at the disposal of the party were spent in a most pleasant manner, and all being highly delighted with the kindness and hospitality of the officers. Shortly after eight o'clock the company adjourned to the Y. M. C. A. CONCERT which was being held in the Exhibition Building. Here was gathered together a brilliant assemblage of the youth and beauty of the town, who were delighted during the evening by the beautiful music by the different Battalion Bands, who took their turn on the stand. The proceedings did not close till after ten o'clock, and the company, which was large, was highly gratified by the success of the concert, and the encouragement and countenance thereby given to the Y. M. C. A.

ENTERTAINMENT TO-NIGHT. The arrangements for the Entertainment are progressing well, and everything will be in good shape by 7 o'clock. It is hoped that the ladies who have kindly promised to assist will be on hand at the Building in good time.

Instantly Killed by Lightning.

A YOUNG LAD AND TWO HORSES KILLED NEAR CARLISLE.

(From the Hamilton Times.)

On Tuesday afternoon about six o'clock, a very sad affair took place on Mr. Joseph Beatty's farm, lot 7, con. 10, East Flamboro, near Carlisle, whereby a young lad was instantly killed. His name was James Douse, the eldest son of Mr. James Douse, moulder, living on Barton street, near Locke, in town. The boy, who was aged 12, but a fine, tall and intelligent lad, was employed during the winter past on Mr. J. D. Bond's place, and we believe was up to the time of his death; but had yesterday gone over to Mr. Beatty's stables—just opposite—where he was at work about the horses. The first fall of rain and violence of the tempest had gone by, when he and a lad named Kearns took several of the horses to turn them out to pasture. Douse was leading two, and had just stepped with them from the door, when the place was instantly lighted up with the lurid glare of a scorching hot flash of zig-zag lightning which gave the earth a blow making it shake and stagger again, while the atmosphere suddenly became heavy and dark with stifling smoke, sulphurous gases and a burning and fearfully offensive smell. The bolt is described as one of terrific fury, and the crashing, smashing roar of heaven's artillery that followed it, rendered the scene a terrible one. Mr. F. and several others were in the barn at the stables, and at once rushed to the spot, where, as soon as the air cleared away, were found lying stone dead, two poor lad Douse and the horses. It was seen at a glance that he was beyond all assistance, and search was made for Kearns, who was found lying stunned a short distance off. He was brought to, but suffered violently from the shock he received. Douse's corpse was removed to shelter at once. The clothing of the boy had been ripped to shreds and blown all round the place where he fell. The corpse presented every appearance of the fury of the thunderbolt, which seems to have struck him on the left shoulder and breast, (scorching the chin and neck in passing), and then to have seared and scathed the surface of the body in all directions. The skin was frightfully disfigured and cut in spots, seams and scars, and covered with brown stained burns. The legs and portions of the limbs were spattered all over with spots about the size of ten cent pieces, yellowish in color, and as if made by drops of liquid fire, the heat of which must have been of the utmost intensity. The corpse, saving the face, was rigid, distorted and swollen, rendering a pitiful object the poor lad the merciless bolt had spent its force upon. The face was natural and of most peaceful expression, the features not indicating the slightest pain, alarm or other feeling.

Notes on the Recent Tournament.

The following letter was received yesterday by Mr. John Anderson:—

Kingston, July 7th, 1874.

DEAR SIR,—The great event has come off, and the Maple Leaf B. B. Club are now entitled to the proud title of Champions of the amateur Base Ball world, having proved themselves better than the best amateur teams the continent of America can scare up. Well, sir, of all the sick men you ever saw, those clubs that competed at the Watertown Tourney are the sickest, the Maple Leaf always excepted. Fancy the Eastons, with seven professional players in their team, and with thousands of dollars in pools invested to play two games in succession! So nothing remained but to stay over and play to-day. Well, the Association with an eye to business, called the game for 2 p. m. to-day, and advertised an amateur Championship match (outside of tournament) between the Nassau and Chelsea for 10 a. m. That put our President on his ear, as that meant for us to lose Cobourg match; Kingston being already lost. Sleeman went for Fowler and the rest of those fellows lively and told them we should start without playing the match, and if they would not pay us second money, which we had won, we would go without that. That settled it, and we got the time of games reversed. Pools sold mostly at $10 to $4 on Eastons against the field, and last night on the deciding game, pools sold at $5 to $3 in favor of Eastons. Yes, sir, those men are sick; in the game we took the lead and kept it, and outplayed them at every point, and but for a little wild play in the 8th innings the score would have been 13 to 4—remarkable, ain't it, that we should score exactly 13 in every game.

Our President means business. Yesterday, after playing the Nassau, the Eastons played the Chelsea, and we wanted to play the deciding game on the same day, so that we could get to Kingston to play to-day. Neither of the clubs, Eastons or Chelsea, would agree. We did not lose much by missing Kingston, as it rained like mischief all the afternoon, and we shall fetch Cobourg early to-morrow. Billy Smith took the starch out of those fellows in the throwing match. Allison and Parks, Cassidy and a few others thinking they had an awful soft thing. None of them ever dreamt of Smith, who threw about the seventh man, and put the ball about 10 feet over Allison's best throw. I guess he threw over 120 yards. I must now conclude as the boys are going to bed early. The train leaves Kingston at 4.30 a. m., and the station is two miles from this place.

I remain, Yours respectfully, MATTHEW TINKER.

Priceville Correspondence.

On Friday evening this vicinity was visited by a very severe thunder storm with heavy rain. Mr. Wright's house in this place was struck by lightning, causing considerable damage. A young man who was walking by at the time was knocked down and had his hair burned, but was not otherwise hurt. Our village people have been building side-walks, which are a great benefit and add much to the appearance of the place. Dominion Day was celebrated here by a picnic in Proton, which was well attended and passed off very pleasantly. Mr. Hastie, of Egremont, attended with his choir, which added very much to the entertainment, and deservedly received great praise. The Priceville Brass Band was also present and played with its usual animation a number of pieces. Several fishing parties went out in the morning and returned home in the evening with a lot of fine trout. Altogether the day passed off pleasantly, and there were no accidents of any kind. Business continues very good.

Special Notices.

IT IS NOT WHAT YOU EAT BUT what you digest that makes you strong. Unless the food taken is perfectly dissolved, assimilated and converted into pure blood, general nervous and physical prostration inevitably result; the whole system is impoverished; degeneration of the organs and tissues follows, and if there be hereditary predisposition to scrofula or consumption it will surely be developed and the constitution gradually broken down. The foundation of good health and a sound mind is a vigorous stomach and perfect nutrition. Dr. Wheeler's Compound Elixir of Phosphates and Calisaya is Nature's own remedy for derangements of the digestive organs, purely physiological, harmless, and positively certain to restore nervous and muscular force. jdwin Robert Arthurs, who was seriously hurt last week by a collision between his and another team, is in a fair way of recovering under the care of Dr. Carter.

The Acton Division Sons' of Temperance held their annual festival in their Hall, which was pretty well patronized. The Acton Brass Band was in attendance and played some of their best pieces. The entertainment was diversified with speeches, recitations, &c., and an enjoyable time was spent.

The Ball at the Royal Tennis was a grand success. The dancing being kept up till morning. Host Campbell had Mason's splendid quadrille band engaged, and the supper was all that could be desired.

Breakfast.—Epps's Cocoa.—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING. "By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills."—Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with boiling water or milk. Each packet is labelled "James Epps & Co., Homoeopathic Chemists, London."

Sam Slick didn't admire opera. "What's this?" he exclaims, "just look at that gal at the piano; first she sees what a crash it seems as if she would bang the instrument into a thousand pieces. I guess she's vexed at somebody, and she's peggin' the piano out of spite. Now she makes the singin'. See what faces she makes. She stretches her mouth open, and turns up the white of her eyes like a duck in a thunderstorm. She's in a musical ecstasy; she feels good all over. But, hello! what under the sun is she about now? Why, her voice is goin' down her throat and comes out as hoarse as a man's; and that dandy fellow along side of her is singin' the falsetto. Why, they've actily changed voices; the gal sings like a man, and the screamer a woman. This is science; this is taste; this is fashion; but hang me if it's natur."

THE NE PLUS ULTRA.—Everybody likes to see a well dressed head of hair, but no lady or gentleman can dress their hair with perfect satisfaction without the use of Bearina. Its perfume is exquisite; it gives to the hair a glossy rich appearance. Sold by all druggists.
