27TH YEAR

BIG MAJORITY FOR STRIKE BUT ACTION IS DELAYED

General Secretary Reported That 76,925 Had Voted for Strike, and 8773 Opposed—Leave Matters With Executive—Lloyd-George's Efforts at Peace-Making.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—At a great meeting of railroad men, held to-night in Albert Hall, attended by deputations from all parts of the United Kingdom, Richard Bell, M.P., general secretary of the Amalgamated Society of Railway Servants, and leader of the strike movement, announced the result of the ballot taken among the members of the society on the question of a strike.

Mr. Bell said the society had 97,831 members at the end of September, and that many men had joined recently, but did not ballot. He announced that 88,128 papers had been returned, of which 76,925 were for striking and 8773 were opposed to it.

Mr. Bell declared that the executive committee of the society was well satisfied with this result, but it had resolved that no further reference should be made to the situation pending the interview Nov. 8 between Mr. Lloyd-George, president of the board of trade, and representatives of the society. He said that he hoped the mandate would not be put into force, but he was satisfied that if it became necessary to take this step the men would stand by their colors.

The meeting adopted a resolution heartily pledging its support to any action the executive committee might deem necessary.

Would Be a Great Calamity. A general railway strike would be little less than a national catastrophe.

The interruption of traffic, whether more or less serious, involves the detention of hundreds of thousands of workers from daily occupation; a shortage of food supplies such as bread, meat, dairy products and vegetables; the dislocation of all kinds of manufacturing thru the blocking of raw material and delivered goods; and widespread disturbance of industrial and social relations.

No greater calamity short of an earthquake or war can be imagined. Peaceable, industrious community than a general railway strike with the suspension of passenger traffic in densely populated districts and the interruption of daily supplies of the necessities of life. When so much suffering and misery are inevitable from a strike the responsibility of the officers of the society is most serious if he does not succeed in averting a disastrous struggle.

Mr. Lloyd-George is the official representative of the government, empowered by law to employ means of conciliation, whether his services are solicited or not. He has not waited to be asked, but has taken the initiative in a friendly and amicable spirit before the contestants have exchanged ultimatums and entered into a destructive conflict. He would compel them to accept of compromise, but he can remind them that it is a public duty for them to avoid hostilities and that the policy of opinion will be against them if they are unconciliatory and are controlled by selfish interests.

The Two Forces. The railway chairmen and managers are less peaceable than the trade unionists in this controversy, and they have practical reasons for their aggressiveness. They consider it an irrepressible conflict and prefer to have it fought out at once because they are stronger now than they can hope to be in the course of a few years. The amalgamated Society and other railway unions are a minority of the whole of the railway, and the majority of the railway men remain outside the ranks of organized labor because they have superior chances for promotions as non-unionists. If a general strike comes on the companies can depend upon the loyal service of a large majority of their workmen, and are prepared to hire substitutes and drop all union men from their payrolls. They are convinced that victory will be easier now than it will be a few years hence, when the railway unions have been strengthened with thousands of recruits and a powerful labor federation has been formed. "We can beat them now," they explain relentlessly, "and we must fight when we have the certainty of success."

The only concession which will satisfy the trade unionists is official recognition, and the railway managers unite in condemning outside interference with internal administration as a ruinous compromise. Their reasoning does not lack force, their control over the situation would cease if Mr. Bell were admitted to every railway council room as the authorized representative of labor.

The non-unionists would swarm into the unions, and the demands of the men would gradually be forced upon the companies, to the cost of the shareholders. The companies cannot divide the responsibilities of management with the unions.

Unionists in Restraint. The trade unionists are less aggressive than the railway managers because they have more to gain by delay. A general muster for maneuvers enables them to display their forces and to

DOUBTER UPSETS SPIRITUALIST MEETING

Rev. Mr. Howland and Mrs. Rynex Deny They Are Practising as Real Mediums.

The "spiritual meeting" conducted by Rev. Clarence C. Howland at Broadway Hall last night was thrown into a state of uproar by the interruptions of Herbert Tweedie, one of the audience, who boldly denounced spiritualistic mediums, who, he said, used their alleged powers to gain money reward.

Mr. Tweedie, as it appeared, had spent many years in plumbing the depths of the occult, with the result that he had become decidedly "from Missouri" as regards the truth of spirit manifestations. Having risen suddenly in the body of the hall, he commanded instant attention.

"Children should not play with edged tools, nor ignorant people try to interpret the Bible," he dissonated, amid murmurs of dissent from a number of auditors who did not relish the interruption. He proceeded to charge Mrs. Rynex with professing to give messages from the dead.

"I didn't say so," interjected that lady tartly, and to his query as to whether she could deliver messages to any person, she returned a shrewd rejoinder. Mr. Tweedie created disorder by the assertion that every authority on spiritualism held that the dead were not in communication with the living.

Mr. Howland here took occasion to explain that the meeting was not a spiritualistic meeting. Mr. Tweedie, having challenged Mrs. Rynex to give a "single message from the dead," Mr. Howland went on to say that he had never affirmed or denied the existence of occult or spiritualistic powers, also leaning that way.

Mr. Tweedie aroused further resentment in a portion of the audience by the plain, unvarnished tale of his experiences with mediums. He had gone to one, supposed to be of the best, and had "got the worst kind of rot." "You got exactly what you look for yourself," was a pointed shaft of repartee from Mrs. Rynex, speaking with much clearness and directness.

Rev. Mr. Howland, who stepped in the midst of the tumult, explained that he was not personally responsible for anything Mrs. Rynex might do. In an appeal for liberal contributions, he asserted that he was "trying to right a great wrong done to Mrs. Rynex. There was ready opportunity to go across the line, and they could not be brought back for such a petty offence, but such an action was against their principles. Mrs. Rynex was entirely innocent of any wrong."

Her Occult Powers. "Call me what you like," was the invitation of Mrs. Rynex, who said she had never professed to be a medium. All she knew was that certain powers had been born in her, for she had "seen things all her life." In proof of these psychic qualities, she mentioned that she had once gone into a deep trance at Roscoe's Point, and had come to a Methodist clergyman, had come to preach her funeral sermon.

Rev. Mr. Howland challenged Mr. Tweedie to a debate. The gambit thus thrown down, was taken up, and at the meeting next Thursday night the struggle of intellectual gladiators will take place.

OVERCOME BY SMOKE. Aged Woman Carried From Burning House on Seaton Street.

A small fire, caused by a defective chimney, brought the firemen to Mrs. Erastus Wiman's residence, 202 Seaton-street, at 11.30 last night. The blaze started in the wall between the kitchen and dining room and spread between the walls up to the second storey.

How to Relieve the Situation

Have you read in The World how Canadian shippers are unable to get cars to ship Canadian products to market?

The Canadian railways have not half enough, not one-quarter enough, cars for the local demands.

Have you also read how the Canadian banks have had, owing to the world-wide money stringency, to limit advances to their grain-buying customers? They can advance so much, but when the buyers get loaded up, when they cannot get shipped out the wheat that they have bought, the banks have to shut down. "Ship what wheat you've bought, get the money for it, and pay us back, and we'll give you some more," is what the banks say.

And the wheat buyer says, "But I can't get cars!" WHERE ARE THE CARS—THE ENGINES? THEY ARE BUSY SHIPPING OUT UNITED STATES FARM PRODUCTS, AND NEGLECTING CANADIAN BUSINESS. THEY ARE RELIEVING THE UNITED STATES STRINGENCY AND AGGRAVATING THE STRINGENCY HERE.

The only relief in sight in the United States to-day is the cash that is forthcoming the moment they can get their wheat and meat on the ships in Atlantic ports. And they are busy shipping, AND THE CANADIAN ROADS ARE BUSY HELPING THEM.

If we had a minister of railways, a government equal to the situation, HE AND THEY WOULD FORTHWITH PREVENT EITHER THE GRAND TRUNK OR THE CANADIAN PACIFIC HANDLING A SINGLE POUND OF FOREIGN TRAFFIC UNTIL EVERY BUSHEL AND POUND OF CANADIAN PRODUCE WAS CARED FOR AND RUSHED TO MARKET.

All the best equipment of our two big roads—engines, cars, men, sidings, etc.—is busy with United States traffic. All the highest and best executive officials of these roads are busy looking after thru U. S. traffic; and the Canadian traffic is left to inferior equipment, inferior men and inferior treatment.

AND YET THE RATES COLLECTED ON THIS THRU UNITED STATES BUSINESS ARE NOT ONE-HALF OF LOCAL RATES CHARGED CANADIANS.

"But anything is good enough for fool Canadians!" That is the point of view of the so-called Canadian railway magnates in Montreal, who boss the Canadian railways. And the Canadian Government sit, either asleep or silent, afraid to help their own people.

FIND WOMAN HAS SMALLPOX IN HOSPITAL

Eight Other Patients Quarantined—Disease Contracted in North York.

Eight patients in one of the general wards at St. Michael's Hospital are under quarantine and will have to remain so for some time. There was general consternation around the corridors of the hospital on Saturday morning when the small-pox ambulance drew up at the door, and preparations were made for the removal of a patient. Visitors in the hall scurried away as the cot was brought in and even some of the help were not on hand as the isolation officials carried Mrs. May Cooper of Holland Landing down to the ambulance, which hurried its second charge inside of three days to the Swiss Cottage Hospital.

Altho Mrs. Cooper has been in the hospital since Oct. 15, she undoubtedly contracted the disease at her home. There is a mild epidemic in the upper section of North York. Five cases have been discovered and isolated up there. The last one was discovered yesterday afternoon, when John Curtis of Queensville took ill and before night his house was quarantined. His case is not considered very bad.

Mrs. Cooper was taken into St. Michael's on Thursday, Oct. 16, and has been in the same ward since her admission. The disease did not manifest itself until Friday, when it was decided to remove her to the isolation quarters. It is not thought that the other patients in the ward will be affected.

There are now two patients under care at the Swiss. On Wednesday last, Henry J. Hudson, aged 38, contractor, was taken in, suffering from smallpox.

MANY BOSTON RALLIES CLOSE LIVERLY CAMPAIGN

Both Sides Are Confident of Victory When Polls Close Tomorrow—Canada Interested.

BOSTON, Nov. 3.—The state campaign closed last night with numerous rallies in Boston, Cambridge and vicinity. The Republican and Democratic forces issued statements expressing confidence in the outcome of the voting Tuesday.

Senator Lodge, in an address at Cambridge, quoted authorities in Canada to show that the Dominion is not anxious for a trade arrangement with the United States.

In his statement to-night Chairman Buckley of the Whitney management said: "From all reports to-night vote will be cast and I believe that this fact is more favorable to the Democratic than to the Republican chances. We claim the vote will be too absurd to describe consideration."

Gen. Chas. W. Bartlett, who was defeated for the Democratic nomination for governor four weeks ago, and who is a candidate for the office on anti-merger nomination papers, issued the following statement: "I have been in the election room, by myself, and George Fred Williams, asking for Democratic support and registering his reasons for continuing the contest."

Saved Her Life!

Wife and Mother Restored to Her Anxious Family.

ST. JOHN, N.B., Nov. 3.—At one time it was feared that Mrs. J. Grant of 23 White-street, would succumb to the deadly ravages of advanced kidney trouble. My first attacks were backache and kidney trouble began to ache. For six years that dull, gnawing pain has been present. When I exercised myself it was terribly intensified. If I caught cold the pain was unbearable. I used most everything, but nothing gave that certain grateful relief that came from Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut. Instead of being bowed down with pain, today I am strong, enjoy splendid appetites, sleep soundly. Lost properties have been installed into my blood; cheeks are rosy with color, and I thank the day that I heard of so grand a medicine as Dr. Hamilton's Pills.

Every woman should use these pills regularly because good health pays, and its good, vigorous health that comes to all who use Dr. Hamilton's Mandrake and Butternut Pills.

LIBERAL LEADER SPEAKS BREAKS NO NEW GROUND

Sermon to Orangemen—Barbers Begin Fight for Early Closing.

HAMILTON, Nov. 3.—(Special.)—Hon. A. G. MacKay, leader of the opposition in the legislature, addressed the Liberals of the city in the Arcade Hall Saturday evening. He gave about the same speech as he delivered in Toronto, having little fault to find with the government's power project, except that it did not go far enough and provide for steam-generated power for municipalities too far from water power to reap the benefit. James Buchanan, president, and the other speakers were: Adam Zimmerman, M.P.; Col. J. M. Gibson and G. G. Inwood.

After an illness lasting only 24 hours, Mrs. Harding, wife of George Harding, 201 East King-street, died to-day from nervous prostration. She leaves a husband and three small children.

Stephen Blain, 184 South Emerald-street, a retired farmer, died to-day.

Thomas Gallagher, found guilty of stealing a watch and chain, has been identified by the police as Thomas Murphy, who was released only on Oct. 6 last, after doing five years in Kingston Penitentiary for house-breaking.

Fined for Giving Liquor.

Altho given a permit for men to be in his bar for the purpose of repairing the brass work, George Midwinter of the Wellington Hotel, was fined $40 Saturday for distributing liquor amongst them.

The engagement of Stanley Lucas, son of E. A. and Mrs. Lucas, Rowan-hurst, Duke-street, to Mary, only daughter of George F. and Mrs. Glasco, 308 Dundas-st., is announced.

"As the boys say, 'the poor man is being handed a lemon,'" declared Rev. F. W. Hollinsake, in preaching to the Orangemen this afternoon at Zion Tabernacle. He went on to say that the poor man was being squeezed on all sides, including the tons and the neck, the hotelmen, who, in turn, took it out of the consumer. Landlords ran up rents as fast as they could, and science; bakers practised deception, farmers were holding up the milkmen, and the coal operators were holding up the poor man, the consumer, had to pay. What was needed was an old-fashioned, temperance liquor amongst them.

Temperance League Meeting.

Bennett's Theatre was crowded this evening, and hundreds were turned away from the meeting held under the auspices of the Central Temperance League. Mayor Stewart presided. Some 25 pictures were shown, and Rev. P. W. Elliott delivered a temperance address.

Last night was the first of the early closing nights amongst the barbers. The fourmen will not be presented at the work for anyone entering the shop after 11 o'clock, and some of the master barbers, declaring that they would keep open till 12 o'clock. As it was a stormy night, there was little doing after 11 o'clock and no clash occurred.

Mr. Harry Halford, John-street barber, has sent in a bill for $5 to the which he gave to a shave and a hair cut to a customer. The bill was presented at the house of the murderer of Andrew Rodzyk, when the murderer of Andrew Rodzyk was brought to the court house to be tried. Mr. Halford was offered $1 by Sunfield, thru the sheriff, but the boss barber would not accept that. He wants remuneration for the "risk that he took." The bill will be presented at the next meeting of the joint committee by the clerk, Mr. Halford says he will sue if he does not get the full amount.

Another Letter Received.

Another letter has been received in this city from Mrs. Tamillo, the wife of the condemned murderer. In her letter she states that she intends to write to her husband about the children and to tell him a letter that she sent to Chicago by him. Mrs. Tamillo says in her letter: "When in Hamilton I was living with Mrs. Betpkor, but he never caught anything, and always had that woman in the boat. He will not kick things up now, as he does not want to get hanged. . . . For all that he did to me, I am not a bit strong."

Mrs. Tamillo, mother of Jake, is back in Chicago and feels badly over her son's predicament, she says.

GOLD RING IN THE WASTE CAUSED MEN'S ARREST

Evidence on Which Detective Reburn Had Two Fesserton Men Sent Up for Trial.

BARRIE, Nov. 3.—The evidence on which John McDonald and William Craddock of Fesserton were recently committed for trial by Magistrate Raderburn would form the basis for an excellent Sherlock Holmes story in real life.

On the night of Oct. 15 W. W. Carter's mill at Fesserton was destroyed by fire, evidently of incendiary origin.

Provincial Detective Reburn was dispatched to the scene on Oct. 16. His first clue was some waste taken from the axle box of a car. In the waste a gold ring was found. A foot-print was also discovered, and on the strength of these and other considerations, John McDonald and William Craddock were arrested.

The ring had evidently been rubbed off the finger while wiping oil off the hands.

Detective Reburn has returned after submitting his case at the preliminary hearing at Barrie.

RESOLVING LIQUOR PROBLEM.

Two Meetings of Canadian Temperance League Held Yesterday.

"In the votes of the Christian men and women of the country lies the doom of the liquor traffic," said Miss Belle Kearney at the meeting of the Canadian Temperance League in Massey Hall yesterday afternoon.

The chair was occupied by School Inspector, F. Chapman, who spoke of the problem. Canadians had to face in the immigration of 300,000 people, largely foreigners, to our country in one year. Canadians had to face in one year to learn that Canada had her laws and views of Sunday observance, and the sanctity of the Sabbath should be observed. Not less important was it that there should not be imported with this immigration habits of appetizing the liquor traffic.

Miss Belle Kearney is the well-known women's organizer and lecturer of the Women's Christian Temperance Union. The basic principle, said she, of liquor traffic was revenue. The influx of the traffic touched many different people. Christian editors placed liquor advertisements in their papers. Christian doctors prescribed liquor to their patients. Shavers defied the liquor laws. Christian men rent their saloons. The Christian, not infrequently, the oldest and most respected, at the same time uses personally intoxicating liquor. On Christian men, the liquor traffic had a most exterminating effect.

A pledge-signing appeal was taken part by the Rev. J. S. Robertson, the president; the Rev. J. S. Robertson, and the speaker for next Sunday, who was a Rev. J. S. Robertson.

At 8 o'clock the league held the third of the series of pledge-signing meetings in the Grandview, 250 Yonge-st., presided over by President Robertson. The Rev. Jeff McCombe was the principal speaker. These meetings are made effective by the family prayer, taken part in yesterday by Mrs. McCombe, Miss McLeod and the boy singer, Master Earl Ludlow.

Offers to Give $20,000.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—A well-known physician announced to-day that he had been informed by a respected and elderly resident of the city that if the city would make an interest upon $20,000 until his death he would donate that sum to the proposed hospital for the property of the hospital, as an endowment, upon his decease.

If We Could Look at the Heart of a Pale-Faced Person!

Few people ever stop to consider what pallor to the countenance means. In the first place it indicates an absence from the blood of the rich, red, life-giving elements so requisite to health; and in the second place it indicates a weakened heart action. These two things act and react. If we could look at the heart of one of these pale-faced people, we would see it flabby, weak and tired. No wonder they are easily tumbled, get out of breath quickly, have palpitation, are nervous and down-trodden. Their muscles are poor, their stomach disordered, and their lives are seldom free from misery.

Let them take Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills; there is no remedy to equal them for making pale faces rosy, weak hearts and shaky nerves strong. Milburn's Pills feel as well as ever I did. They are the best pills on earth.

REPLIES TO CHALLENGE.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 3.—Lieutenant-Governor J. Y. Saunders here last night answered the challenge to a duel issued by Donelson Caffery, son of the late United States Senator Donelson. The governor says he does not take back any statement he made, and while he cannot accept an offer to meet in a personal encounter, Mr. Caffery knows where to find him. A political speech caused the trouble.

INTERESTING YOUNG MEN IN WORK OF THE CHURCH. New Idea is to Be Worked Out in Connection With St. George's. An innovation in church work, especially something new in the bringing of young men together with a primary motive of interesting them in church work, was a 5 o'clock tea for young men only, which Canon Cayley and some others connected with St. George's Anglican Church on John-street inaugurated yesterday evening.

Queen Quality BOOTS. YOU know Lincoln's adage: "You can't fool all the people all the time," etc. Everybody has heard it and believes it. And it is true. Which is clinching proof for "Queen Quality" Shoes. For over a decade their sales have far exceeded those of other women's shoes.

Writing in The Chicago Daily Tribune, Sarah Otis makes some very sensible observations about woman's sphere, which we print below. She evidently does not agree with Emperor Wilhelm's idea of woman's proper orbit, the three K's: "Kinder, Kirche and Kuche" (children, church, cooking). One might add, "Kleider"—clothes!

BEER BUILDS BODIES. PURITY. Ontario beers are pure, above all else—far more pure than most of the milk sold in cities, because made under conditions of absolute hygiene. FOOD VALUE. HUNT STRUCK HOTEL LIKE KANSAS CYCLONE
 Husky Looking Fellow Sentenced to Four Months.

GUELPH, Nov. 3.—A husky looking young fellow named Hunt, of Palmerston, an ex-brakeman and fireman of the Grand Trunk, came down to Castle McNab, in charge of a constable, yesterday morning, to spend the winter. Hunt, it appears, while a very quiet fellow when sober, goes out on a toot occasionally. On Monday last he tackled the fluid extract of hope and got into a peck of trouble. He was out with the boys and had imbued rather freely, when—so he says—he was given some morphine pills. He then started out to paint the town.

By the time Hunt struck the Queen's Hotel he was going like a whirlwind and soon made the house look as if a cyclone had passed. He was arrested, and the mills of justice did not delay in turning him out on a four months' sentence.

AFTER THE JUDGE.
 Thamesville Residents Asked to Petition for His Dismissal.

CHATHAM, Nov. 3.—(Special.)—Daniel Newcombe of Thamesville on Saturday commenced a canvass of the local opinion town with a petition calling for the dismissal of Justice of the Peace Ingalls from office.

The trouble has arisen over the recent fines imposed on the thirsty citizens who stole the liquor from the wrecked G.T.R. train. It is claimed by many that the wide publicity given to the case was due to the fact that Solletor, an ex-brakeman and fireman of the G.T.R., son of the G.T.R. agent, on the stand to give evidence after the case was as good as lost. The facts thus came out, and Albertson was fined the same as the rest.

Mr. Courts, in a letter to The Planet of this city, refers to Squire Ingalls as "an incompetent justice of the peace, who outraged the feelings of a community by an improper conviction."

"FREE INFORMATION."
 This is what one of the most prominent physicians of to-day says: "That one ounce of sweet apricot of nitre, one ounce of compound vinosa, and four ounces of syrup of rhubarb mixed together and taken in dessert spoonful doses after meals and at bedtime in water will effect a permanent cure for the most severe cases of kidney, liver, bladder and urinary troubles. He claims that a few doses will positively cure the worst cases of backache and rheumatism arising from disordered kidneys and impure blood.

These drugs are of purely vegetable nature and inexpensive, and can be obtained at any drug store and mixed together at home.

WHAT HINDERS ROOSEVELT? On Saturday The World commented on the financial situation in the United States, and in expressing the view that the only thing that should be done in the way of restoring public confidence is to stop abuses and to punish the men guilty of financial fraud.

Generally speaking, the primary system would mean that the candidates for parliament would be named for their respective parties, not by the executive, but by a convention, but by a popular vote.

What, then, stands in the way of halting the masters of high finance, suspected, indeed believed to have been implicated in scandalous public wrongs, before the bar of retributive justice? According to The Post's correspondent it is that there are things that are known which are not susceptible of legal proof.

THE POST'S CORRESPONDENT states that the "getting of evidence so strong that it is both sentiment proof and technically proof is one of the present endeavors of the law officers, as it has been their endeavor for more than sixteen months past."

of the understanding in writing, or to find men who would admit that verbal directions for wrongdoing had been given, have been tasks impossible of accomplishment. Ryan, Whitney, Widener, Harriman and their associates could never have carried through their nefarious schemes in connection with the New York and other railway franchises without the help of lawyers skilled in corporation technicalities.

THE PRIMARY. In the west, there is a movement, supported by The Camrose Mail and other newspapers, to introduce the primary system. The primary system has been in vogue in the United States, and it is not strange that our new citizens who are coming to us, or returning to us, from the south should seek to introduce it here.

ALBANY, N.Y., Nov. 2.—Every railroad operating in New York State will be summoned before the public-service commission on Nov. 25 to show cause why they should not be directed by the commission to issue interchangeable mileage books of 1000 and 500 miles at a uniform rate of two cents and without any of the restrictions now placed upon the larger companies.

Beyond the Grave. Canon Welch's sermon yesterday morning at St. James' Cathedral treated of topics suggested by All Saints Day. The nature of the future life, he observed, in all ages had a peculiar fascination for certain minds.

It is said that the Robinson government was not able to get a lawyer-general now is to relieve the province of the debt by having the I.O.R. take over the New Brunswick Central. MAJORITY FOR STRIKE

William Grassman, the well-known theatrical lawyer, of the firm of House, Grassman & Voorhies of New York, made a flying visit to Toronto. He arrived Saturday noon and left again on Sunday evening.

When seen at the King Edward by a World reporter, he refused to divulge the object of his visit. He admitted, however, that he was here on theatrical business. He also admitted that he represented the new combination of theatrical managers, composed of Keith and Proctor, Oscar Hammerstein, Percy G. Williams and other leading vaudeville managers, who are going to invade the legitimate field.

He said he visited the Royal Alexandra Theatre, but refused to state anything further. When Mr. Solomon of the Royal Alexandra was phoned he admitted seeing Mr. Grassman. He also refused to talk on theatrical matters, but was willing to tell all he learned on his recent trip to New York about baseball.

Obstinate coughs yield to its grateful soothing action, and in the racking, persistent cough, often present in Consumption, it gives prompt and sure relief. In Asthma and Bronchitis it is a successful remedy, rendering breathing easy and refreshing, enabling the sufferer to enjoy freshening sleep and often effecting a permanent cure.

Mrs. C. Townsend, Lockport, N.Y., writes: "I feel it my duty to let you know of my experience with Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I was troubled with a cold and severe cough all the time, and chased three bottles, and it gave me great relief, and I do not cough at all. I do not know how to express my gratitude for what Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup has done for me." Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup 25¢ per bottle at all dealers.
