SHORT STORY.

One Virginian Night.

COMPLETE IN THIS NUMBER.

Most of the wedding guests were in the parlor. In one corner of the sitting room were the hero and the heroine. Of what? Oh, nothing much, only of each other. The room was bare of furniture, for dancing; she sat on a footstool clasping her hands around her knees and looking down at him; and he sat on a music book, for the sake of his clothes, at the heroine's feet, for the sake of her. A red-headed girl and her escort were over in the opposite corner, and she made complimentary remarks about the heroine in a stage undertone. The heroine was greatly pleased, but the heroine despised the red-headed girl and considered them superfluous. "It does not stop talking about me," said the heroine, "I shall go away."

The room was bare of furniture, for dancing; she sat on a footstool clasping her hands around her knees and looking down at him; and he sat on a music book, for the sake of his clothes, at the heroine's feet, for the sake of her. The heroine was greatly pleased, but the heroine despised the red-headed girl and considered them superfluous. "It does not stop talking about me," said the heroine, "I shall go away."

be satisfied with this. I don't suppose I should, but it seems so worth dying for; it would mean a life worth having lived." His voice was so low that she could hardly hear him. "Yes," she answered. "Such a night as this, dearest, is worth dying for; it would mean a life worth having lived." His voice was so low that she could hardly hear him. "Yes," she answered. "Such a night as this, dearest, is worth dying for; it would mean a life worth having lived." His voice was so low that she could hardly hear him. "Yes," she answered.

"And now I can look at you in the starlight without fear and without reproach." "No, you can't. I can look at you in the starlight, but you, poor thing, have to be circumspect, as though there were a dozen people around because the road is narrow and on your driving depends the unbrokenness of two very nice necks—and it's so unromantic to break a girl's neck." The heroine held the hero's left hand between hers. At times he had to snatch it suddenly away, to save them from driving over the edge of an unprotected bridge or down into a more than usually encroaching ditch; for driving a not-over-well-horse with one hand requires more care than the hero was willing to give, when the heroine was beside him.

"Some one will see," she said gently, but not moving from him. "Please me, how good do you think people's sight is?" he asked. "But it is getting lighter," she protested. "Oh-h!" she laughed. "I wish I hadn't spoken. A long while before them, and when they got to the top they saw the waning moon just rising to the east and dimming the stars. "And you are coming back with me, too, aren't you?" he asked when they were half-way to town. "Why are you never content?" she reproached him. "When you have something, you are always worrying about something else."

"But you will, won't you?" he persisted. "Please don't ask me! No, I don't believe I can. There will be plenty of room in the trap, and it would be silly for you to drive away out in the country, again with me." The train was late. It was the night train in Virginia; it was when any one is going away. The bride sat on a bench, near the stove, which kept the other girls clustered around her, sitting down and getting up again to see out into the darkness of the room with the men. At times couples went out on the platform to see and watch the moon and the long shadows it cast across the country. Then the hero was glad he had not awaited the course of events. He paid no attention to the heroine's discomfiture; the bride was his friend and he felt that she would understand. "May't I?" he asked again. "You're a nice married lady now, and can say."

"You may as well go on talking as some of the moon gazers came in. "Then it is all settled!" he said in an undertone. She nodded, moved slightly away from him, and talked to others with vivacity. The hero knew the safest way now was to act as though there were only one course open. He thought the train would never come, and when it came it did not hasten away again as a well-regulated train should, but loitered about, puffing and panting like a broken-winded old horse that has been overdriven. When the heroine was safe in the hero's backboard, at last, he sighed. "That was such a sigh," she said. "Now I am perfectly happy," he said.

"Are you, dear?" she answered. "I don't believe I have ever seen you perfectly happy before. It's worth something to make you so." She put out her hand and took his again, and he gave it, though there were still corners to turn. He was willing to drive by faith. The trap took the other road, and for a time the heroine did not get worried. The moon, descended in them, was not yet the full moon of that earlier in the summer, so soon chased the glorious night away. When the road dipped into the hollows it was cool—so cool that she here doubled the rug and wrapped it all around the heroine's knees—and she did not protest at his depriving himself, but leaned a little more toward him, and thanked him. The horse travelled steadily along. He seemed to know that this was one of the times when a horse should show his sagacity. Up the long hill, into the warm upper air, the horse walked.

"We are going very slowly," the heroine said. "Yes," he answered, and she said no more. The moonlit landscape stretched out at their feet. It was hard to believe that anything so wild or so wide could exist amid such beauty. The hero turned to the heroine. "It seems to me now, dear, as if, even if we were married, I should Poison-Laden Blood Cause of Spring's Ills.

By Awakening the Action of the Liver Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills Ensure the Purifying of the Blood and Prevent Disease.

The blood is the great fluid medium which conveys nutrition to the tissues of the body and carries away the waste matter of ashes produced by the fire of life. But the blood is only laden with nutrition when the digestive system performs its duty of extracting it from the food. And the blood can only be freed of the poisonous waste matter when the liver is properly doing its work as a filter of the blood. The tendency to overeating and the lack of fresh air and exercise during the winter season are the conditions which most frequently cause the breaking down of the liver and the consequent loading of the blood with impurities in the spring. There is no means in the world whereby the blood can be made pure except through the filtering process carried on by the liver and kidneys. There is no more effective means of insuring the healthful and vigorous action of these organs than Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Torpid, sluggish action of the liver is sure to be accompanied by clogging of the kidneys and bowels,

SYMPTOMS:

- Billiousness, Pains in the Back, Muddy Complexion, Constipation, Deposits in the Urine, Feeling of Weight and Oppression, Wind in the Stomach and Bowels, Headache and Indigestion, Tired Feelings, Pains Under Left Shoulder Blade, Despondency, Bad Temper.

the upsetting of the digestive system, and the rise of such dreadfully painful and fatal diseases as Bright's Disease, Appendicitis, Rheumatism and Diabetes. To begin with, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills cleanse the kidneys and intestines thoroughly and well. Then, by their direct and specific action on the liver, they insure the purification of the blood and cause a healthful flow of new bile, the only means by which constipation is actually cured. If you would be cured of indigestion, billiousness, constipation and avoid all the dangers which lie in wait for those whose blood is loaded with poison, we say to you, without fear of contradiction, that these results can best be accomplished by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. You are not experimenting when you use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, for their action on the liver is certain and definite. Few Medicines have been so thoroughly tested and so enthusiastically endorsed by the great public of this continent.

MORNING NEWS IN BRIEF.

Local. Conditions on the Marsh Road are very bad. Between Kierstead's and the One-Mile House, there are places where the road is flooded twelve to fifteen inches. On Sunday last some milkmen from Loch Lomond vicinity could not reach the city because of the flooded roads. Several set to work and cut drains by which the water was drawn off. There was a bit of excitement in the Pugsley building yesterday afternoon, all about a little fire. But the difficulty was that for some time the source of the trouble could not be located. There was smoke-plenty of it, but no apparent cause. The sounding of a fire alarm was discussed but just then the fire was located—burning paper in a basket down stairs. The spring exodus to the west has begun and already quite a number of families have left for the new provinces. Those who are leaving are not only the young men but entire families who hope to better themselves in the golden west. The 100th anniversary of Nelson's victory at Trafalgar will be celebrated by the Sons of England here. It is also understood that St. George's Society will strictly observe the day, October 21st is the centennial.

General.

Hon. R. Prefontaine, minister of marine, Sir Montagu Allan, and a large number of prominent citizens left Montreal last night by special train for Halifax to inspect the new Allen line turbine steamer Victorian which will arrive this week. Henry L. Woodward, an attorney of New York city, and Charles A. Brown, a traveling salesman for the National Supply Company, of Toledo, Ohio, committed suicide in their rooms at the Hollenden hotel, Cleveland, Ohio, some time during yesterday. The bodies of both men were found this afternoon. The coroner's verdict in each case gives responsibility over domestic and business troubles as the cause of the suicides.

AN EXCELLENT SHOW. Jerome K. Jerome's comedy, The Maestro of Woodbarrow, gave the Harkins company an opportunity of showing their ability in what was called the legitimate, as compared with the very funny farce Brown's in Town. They stood the test very well and good acting there was. The piece was staged in Mr. Harkins' unique and bold style and nothing was lacking to make the performance the success it undoubtedly was. It will be put on again at the matinee this afternoon. Tonight the company will appear in the great drama entitled In His Power. From first to last the audience is held in rapt attention. The time is during the French and German war, Captain Hastings, an English officer, in the pay of the French government, is entrusted with a despatch of vital importance to the French general. Having recently been married he stops at his home before starting for the front. Eugene Lyon, a German spy, knows of this despatch, and determines to get it through Captain Hastings' wife, who has known Lyon before her marriage, and believes herself to be in his power through letters he holds. She assists him to drug her husband and get a copy of the despatch. The second act is in the spy's apartments. This is the strongest act ever put on the stage. The meeting of Hastings and Eugene Lyon is intense and holds the audience to the end. The last act takes place during the commotion in Paris. Miss Van Duser, Mr. Jones, Mr. Macklin and Mr. Morrison have the leading parts. On the passage out from London and Antwerp, two children died on board the steamer Lake Michigan. One died from blood poisoning, and the other of pneumonia. The Lake Michigan, which arrived at five o'clock yesterday afternoon, had on board a large number of young men who will settle in the west.

Provincial. The Minto, which went ashore on Pamunee Island Reef while coming into Georgetown, P. E. I. Monday afternoon and is now in Georgetown. The steamer is uninjured and will resume work on the golden west. The Halifax city council passed a resolution at a special meeting yesterday to borrow $5,000 for the purpose of clearing the city streets and to clean Water street, which is in a dangerous condition for teams.

ONE BOX OF DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS CURED DROPSY.

Dropsy is not a disease in itself, as many people believe, but is an evidence of very severe kidney trouble. Dropsy is caused by watery particles oozing through the walls of the arteries when they are distended by unusual pressure, which can only be caused by obstructions in the kidneys. The symptoms of Dropsy are puffiness under the eyes, swelling of the feet and ankles, urine changed in character and appearance, smothering feeling from exertion or excitement. The only rational method of treating this disease is to reach the kidneys and restore them to a healthy condition. The most successful remedy for this purpose is Doan's Kidney Pills. Read what Miss Agnes Croelmann, Upper Smithville, N. S., says of them: "I caught a cold, which settled in my kidneys, and turned to dropsy. My face, limbs, and feet became bloated, and I pressed my finger on them and would make a white impression that would last fully a minute before the flesh regained its natural color. I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and found by their use that I was cured in a very short time. I have never had any trouble with it since." Price 50 cents per box, or 3 for $1.25. OF WORLD'S MARKETS

Easier Rates in Europe Followed by Advance in New York—Effect of the Attraction of Foreign Capital on the American Exchange Market—Decreasing Trade Balance and Gold Imports

(Boston Transcript, Saturday.)

The important developments in international money and exchange affairs which have followed the reduction of the London bank rate a fortnight ago have brought into great prominence the inter-relationship of the money markets of the world...

Such a movement of capital from Europe to the United States as has been going on during the past month would have been followed by a corresponding fall in the exchange on London and the consequent rise in the rate of interest...

There was never a time when the four great markets of the world were more closely allied than at present. That the increase in the foreign trade and the increasing belief abroad in the stability of our securities has gradually brought us into close touch with financial Europe...

But by no means does it follow that the million of new dollars which were announced last week had been placed abroad. The placing of foreign capital with us, not only for a three or six months' period in the money market in New York...

Among the recent commodities to come under the influence of market shortages are carpets. The long expected has happened, and during the last few weeks manufacturers in England and the United States have advanced their prices...

WHY THIS VOLUBILITY?

The following appeared in last night's Globe: "Mayor White today told the Globe he was running a lone hand, and while he would be very glad to receive the support of the league and its friends, he did not propose going into any combine for the election of league candidates or any other candidates for aldermanic honors."

GOOD GOVERNMENT.

In Boston there is a Good Government Association which, since its formation, has done much to promote honesty and efficiency in the conduct of civic affairs. It has been instrumental in bringing out and securing the election of good men as aldermen, suppressing the grafters and compelling officials to pay strict attention to their duties.

This sudden and unusual volubility on the part of the mayor is both interesting and instructive. He has given the League notice. The League should take notice. If Mayor White has no interest in electing a strong board of aldermen selected on a definite platform of reform, he is entirely out of sympathy with the League, and for them to head their list of candidates with his name under such circumstances would be to confess their own weakness.

CAMPAIGN TRAGEDIES.

The Toronto World writes a just and reasonable report against winter election campaigns in Canada; indeed its way of putting the case is really starting. The World says the unwritten tradition in Canada, would fill a large volume. Every mid-winter election claims its victims, not only among those who bear the brunt of the campaigning, but among the electors who simply go to the polls to vote.

REFORMING DRUNKARDS.

The grand jury in Toronto, like that of St. John, has followed up on the treatment of drunkenness by the courts, and has handed in the following remarkable recommendation: "We strongly approve of the system of spanking for drunkenness after the first offence. We would suggest spanking without incarceration and without the option of a fine. Every other sentence should include spanking."

WHAT DO WE READ?

An English Writer Makes Some Philosophical Observations About Books and Writers.

(Augustine Birrell, in The Speaker.) We live in uneasy, uncomfortable self-orienting days. We cannot let anything alone for five minutes. We are forever peering and prying into our roots and foundations. Do we believe in the truths of our holy religion? How come it, that we Japanese, and their presumably inferior faith, or no-faith, yet consent to count the square with our blood? What is religion? What is patriotism? What is empire? A self-conscious age if ever there was one, has not escaped the infection.

IN THE REALMS OF SCIENCE.

Professor Brieger of the Berlin Medical Institute was busily at work in his laboratory, surrounded by a formidable array of chemical and bacteriological apparatus. A distinguished foreign physician called upon him and watched his absorbing labor with interest. The professor's attention seemed to be anxiously, but still hopefully, concentrated on a vessel which was enveloped in smoke and steam.

NOT A MASTERPIECE.

SYSTEMIC CATARRH SO LITTLE UNDERSTOOD

Claims Many Thousands. A Tragedian's Thanks to Peruna.

ROBERT DOWNING, THE FAMOUS TRAGEDIAN.

In speaking of Peruna, Robert Downing, the famous tragedian, says: "I find Peruna a preventative against all sudden summer flues that sweep upon one in changing climates and water. It is the finest traveling companion and safeguard against malarial influences. You may notice that persons in poor health always find the heat most intolerable; this I avoid by using Peruna. I know by the thermometer that the weather is hot, yet I have felt the least heat this summer than ever. The cooling action of Peruna on the mucous membrane makes it invaluable to actors and singers, as it does away with that tendency to sudden hoarseness so apt to overtake one on emerging from a hot dressing room to a draughty stage. "To sum it up, Peruna has done me more good than any tonic I have ever taken."—Robert Downing.

LEGISLATURE.

Hon. Dr. Pugsley Makes a Statement re Central Railway.

Mr. Hazen Considers Government Policy --- Hon. Dr. Pugsley Speaks About the Coal Policy and Other Matters.

Fredericton, March 28—The house met at 3 o'clock.

Hon. Mr. Pugsley, in reply to Mr. Hazen said: Of the shares of stock held by C. N. Skinner in the N. B. & C. Railway Co., which are founders' shares authorized by act of the legislature, an amount of $200,000 is held by him in his own right and the remainder in trust to use the same for the purpose of the company in procuring an assignment from the Central Railway Co. of the Dominion subsidy for the railway from Chipman to Fredericton which the Dominion government had by contract agreed to pay to the Central Railway Company, also for the acquiring of 2,200 outstanding shares of the Central Railway Company of the par value of $200,000 held by parties in the United States to qualify persons whom it might be regarded as in the interests of the undertaking to have as directors and to pay amounts due for costs, expenses, charges, and services in organizing the company, etc. Likewise in acquiring coal areas held by the Provincial Coal Company. In order to remove a misapprehension under which some hon. gentlemen opposite seem to be labouring, I may say that these shares are not entitled to participate in the earnings of the company until after payment of interest on the guaranteed bonds, principal and interest of the government loans and all other interest charges and liabilities of the company.

Mr. Hazen resumed the budget debate. In the course of his speech he said that the government's water policy had proved a failure, and that with an increased revenue the government had not spent enough on agriculture and education. The controllable expenditure was increasing, while the other services were starved. The present government was responsible for an increase of $1,162,000 in the debt since 1894. With a revenue $80,000 greater than last year, a surplus of only $5,000 was claimed, which was not a true surplus at all. He charged that the government had acted most weakly in the fishery policy. Continuing, he said: "Almost every year, in the course of the budget debate, the premier has told us of some great scheme by nor expected to put much money into the enterprise. The government had careful surveys made of the proposed line of railway from Chipman to Fredericton, and it was thought best to first build the section from Chipman to the coal fields at Newcastle, and the contract was let for that work, the idea being to develop the coal areas along with the construction of the railway. I am free now to say that had we foreseen the difficulties and the expense of keeping up the bridges of the Central railway we might have recommended commanding the railway at Fredericton and extending eastward to the coal fields. It being 6 o'clock, the house took recess.

The hon. reassembled at 8 o'clock, and Hon. Mr. Pugsley continued his speech.

Two More Witnesses Examined --- Campbell Says He Delivered Cormier's Message.

The second session of the inquest being held by Coroner Kenney, into the cause of the death of William James Cormier, the only witness examined last night and two more witnesses, Wilfrid Campbell, car checker, and I. B. Merriman, train dispatcher, were examined today.

Wilfrid Campbell said that on Wednesday evening, March 22nd, he was sent by Coroner to deliver a verbal message to Engineer Worden, driver of engine 2104. Campbell had asked him to tell Worden to come up and get orders for engine 992. Campbell went to the engine ten by fifteen past five o'clock, the first time he (the witness) could not remember just what he said to Worden, but that Worden did not come to the engine. This was about 8:30 p. m., he thought. The accident took place about 9:30 p. m. He was at the engine when a body between the van and tender and engine was struck by the train. Rogers, continuing the witness to having the message signed by any- one, told Worden that he had a message from the station when the engine was started between 9:16 and 9:30. Between 9:30 and 9:45, the witness was the engineer or conductor in charge must have been on duty at 8:30 p. m. He has no recollection of having absolute right over the train order. A verbal order is not valid. The witness considered Cormier an efficient operator, but he did not know if he had his duties previous to the accident in the afternoon. The signal, either a semaphore or tower, should be displayed by the signalman in the afternoon. The signal was not in order. Mr. Mallin-Watson, his order (No. 21) was given the reply B. D. signal displayed was not in order. There is no signal at West St. John. The signal on Wednesday evening from Coroner to the witness was not in order. Mr. Mallin-Watson did not remember the exact time of the accident, but during February, reporting the signal. The completed the witness's evidence, and the inquest was adjourned until this evening at 7:30.

TOO MANY MILLIONS.

Ottawa, March 28—The Canadian Home Corporation, which wants to build a canal and part railway, on which to portage the boats in a somewhat similar manner to the old Chicago scheme, between Georgian Bay and Lake Ontario, near Toronto, came before the railway committee with its scheme today. It was knocked out without a single supporter. The supporters of the scheme said it would cost about $45,000,000.

Feared Winter's Storm and Cold

But New Strength, Vigor and Power to Resist Disease Came Through

PSYCHINE

"Pronounced Si-ken"

Mr. George Pratt, a farmer, Clarendon, Ont., writes a recent letter regarding the recovery of his son from threatening Lung Trouble. During the winter of 1902, Mr. Pratt spent many anxious months caring for his son, who was then in a very precarious condition. "PSYCHINE is indeed a wonderful tonic. Two years ago my son Wilbert was run down, thin and emaciated. We thought he was going into decline, and we feared for his safety during the winter months. I thought he'd never see spring-time. He suffered much with Coughs and Colds and Pains in the Lungs. Fortunately I procured PSYCHINE for him, and with the usual good results. Today my son works hard with us on the farm, and if anything is more able for it than any of us."

DR. SLOCUM'S GREAT TONIC Psychine is pronounced Si-ken For sale by all druggists at $1 per bottle. For further advice and information, write or call at Dr. Slocum, Limited, 170 King Street, West, Toronto, Canada. $1.00 per Bottle.

A SPRING TONIC.

Something that will Make Rich, Red Blood and Drive Out Disease.

All physicians are agreed that everyone needs a fresh supply of new blood in the spring. The reason is plain—close confinement in overcrowded, imperfectly ventilated houses and work places, have clogged the blood with impurities. The liver is sluggish; the kidneys fail to perform their work perfectly. The impure blood is shown in a score of ways. You may only feel a little tired, or easily depressed, but these are more symptoms from which more serious trouble will follow. In other cases impure blood makes itself manifest in pimples and disfiguring eruptions, occasional headaches, a variable appetite, attacks of indigestion or rheumatism, pains in the back and limbs. But whatever the trouble, there is one sure way to get rid of it, and that is through the rich, red, new blood which comes from the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Every pill you take makes new, rich blood, braces the nerves, overcomes all weakness, drives the germs of disease from the body, and gives you vim and energy to resist the torrid heat of the coming summer. Mr. Chauncey Saulnier, Corberrie, N. S., says—"I was very much run down, and so weak that I could hardly work, as though my blood was little better than water. I tried several medicines, but they did not help me, until I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. It was simply astonishing how quickly these pills began to help me, and how much new life and vigor they put into me. They have made me as sound as ever I was. Good blood is the secret of health and strength. The secret of good blood is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills do not act upon the bowels, their whole mission is to make new, rich, health-giving blood, which strengthens every organ, drives every germ and drives disease from the body. Don't take anything but the genuine pills, which have the name 'Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People' printed on the wrapper. These pills do not act upon the bowels. The Dr. Williams' Medicine, sold in 50-cent boxes, and the pills will be sent to you for 25 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50.

BOARD OF TRADE.

Meeting Called to Increase Its Membership is Slimly Attended.

A meeting of the board of trade was held last evening for the purpose of discussing the resolutions prepared by Samuel Schofield, with the object of increasing the membership and influence of the board. Only eleven members were present, and it was not until twenty-five minutes past the hour of the meeting that the members assembled to form a quorum. The resolutions referred to were prepared some time ago and have already been published. The action of the board last night was not final, but will be further considered by the council.

The question of increasing the membership of the council to thirty was discussed at considerable length. Samuel Schofield in moving the resolution spoke briefly concerning the attendance at the various meetings of the board of trade. A greater increase was required, a deeper interest in its workings should be taken in order to assure the success of the board. He thought a change every year in the case of the president and vice-president would be a benefit to the board. There were many members who had been members for many years who were thoroughly competent to act as president. Mr. Austin had been a member and always taken an active interest in it for 23 years.

G. Fred Fisher seconded the resolution, which was carried unanimously.

The third resolution, referring to the mailing to each member, one week preceding to annual meetings, suitable ballot forms, enabling them to vote even if they were not able to be present, was carried. He thought the board also discussed at great length the resolution reducing the fee from ten to five dollars, and ask the city banks and large mercantile banks to give special annual contributions to aid in the work of the board.

It was decided to refer all resolutions passed to the council for consideration and action.

A GREAT SUCCESS.

The Anniversary "Tea" which was held by the ladies of Brussels St. church last evening, was a grand success. About 300 people sat down to supper in the vestry, and after partaking of the good things with which the tables were loaded, they adjourned to the main portion of the building where an excellent programme was carried out as follows:

Charlton, Smith, Belyea and Slader. Reading—Miss Grace Law. Gramophone Selections—Mr. John Frodsham. Vocal Solo—Mrs. Tingley. Vocal Solo—Dewitt Cairns. Vocal Solo—Bard Stowell. God Save the King. It is stated that the bill will stand small chance of passing, possibly for the reason that it would be extremely difficult to enforce such a law.

A Knock-Out. Chelsea, Mass., March 28.—"Tommy" Sullivan of Lawrence, knocked out Fred Douglas, of Savannah, G. A., at the Douglas A. A. tonight, the eighth round of a bout scheduled for 15 rounds. The fight was Sullivan's first, and on the opening occasions he showed his opponent. The blow which put an end to the fight was a clean one and was so powerful that Douglas remained unconscious for fifteen minutes.

Hart the Winner. San Francisco, March 28.—Marvin Hart was awarded the decision over Jack Johnson, in a twenty round contest early this morning that was the limit, but he was far from demonstrating that he is qualified to nose Jim Jeffries. Hart was as heavily punished as has been seen in the ring in a long time, but he was game and kept his opponent, the big colored man all through the fight.

Automobile. Automobile Fatality. Los Angeles, Cal., March 27.—In an automobile accident at Hollywood a suburb, yesterday, Mrs. Sherman Pease was instantly killed, and Sherman Pease, her husband, seriously injured. The car was crossing while running at full speed.

THE OAR. Sullivan-Durnan Match. Toronto, March 28.—The principal articles for the Sullivan-Durnan sailing race have been agreed upon. T. Galt, acting for Sullivan, suggested Aug. 28 as the date for the race, and J. Wright, of the Argonauts, as referee. Both these propositions were accepted by the Durnan party. Mr. Galt asks that $500, one-half of the stakes, be deposited with Francis Nelson, the stakeholder, on May 1, the second half on July 1, and the $250 guarantee to Sullivan be handed to Mr. Nelson on June 15. These details were agreed to. There are several minor details that are not yet settled.

SPORTING NOTES. Princeton opened her baseball season Saturday, defeating the Ursinus nine, 7 to 5. The Yale wrestling team won from Columbia in the Columbia gym Saturday night. The Elis took 4 of the 6 bouts. The Fordham College baseball team defeated Yale on the Fordham field Saturday, 10 to 1. Fordham outplayed Yale throughout. Yale tried several batters. At Buffalo Saturday Yale's relay team of four men defeated Cornell at the indoor meet of the Seventy-Fourth Regiment Athletic Association. Three-fifths of a second was clipped off the indoor record, the time being 7.58 2-5 for the two miles. The former record of 7.59 was held by Yale. The New York American League team was in a railway wreck down South, but no one was injured. "On April 4," remarked Jack Harper of the Reds, "all those stop-balls, smacks-twisters and cartwheel loops will be put back in the trunk with the moth balls and preserved for next winter's run of baseball fables. That is the afternoon when the pitchers quit dreaming of new discoveries and get back to old-fashioned deliveries." There are several pugilistic experts who seem to think that James White will give Jimmy Britt, whom he is booked to meet the latter part of this month in San Francisco, a better fight than most people think he will. There have been few that have come from the other side that have made good, but they seem to think that White is an exception.

WILLIAM WON HIS BET. (Harper's Weekly) A hotel proprietor in Baltimore tells an amusing story, in which the main figure is an old gentleman well known to the waiters in the hotels of the Monumental City for his aversion to the "tipping" system. One evening the old gentleman, having finished his dinner, was preparing to leave the hotel when the darkey who had served him bowed and said: "Thank you very much, sar."
