Can the ranks of the 55th battalion be filled before a start is made in a campaign for recruiting for the 64th? GRAPHIC STORY OF GERMAN ENTRANCE INTO WARSAW

Rotterdam, Aug. 11.—A remarkable story of the German entry into Warsaw is contained in the Yeastische Zeitung and Berliner Morgenpost by a highly-placed officer. It confirms in every particular the reports of the completeness with which the Russians remove everything that would be of the slightest use to their enemy, and provides a telling and accurate picture of the city immediately after the evacuation.

Even while the fighting was proceeding in the streets, the inhabitants slipped their coffee stovetops at cafes only a few houses away from the barricades. The officers.

"Quickly our car runs along the road of the Russian retreat toward Warsaw. Soldiers' beds and burned ruins and villages lay past on both sides of the road. Wrecks of carts, soldiers' coats, cartridge cases, hats and shoes, and breadcrumbs, also many fresh graves, mark the road along which the Russian army went for its re-organizing. Felled trees placed across the road as obstacles had to be removed by our men.

"German soldiers are standing on the green walls of the forts in which fighting took place this morning. They are marching into the town. Along the high sides of the road thousands of people are standing, watching the retreat of the German troops. Then we go through an old gate into old Warsaw.

"All the windows and balconies of the big palace-like houses are occupied. A heavy head had lain upon the town, probably anxiety of the last few days as to what would now be done in the world's history and what would happen when the Russians withdrew. The anxiety has not yet disappeared, but the people are breathing again. There are in the town German soldiers accustomed to order and discipline, commanded by German officers who, notwithstanding all the experience of the war, have not lost their sense of justice and chivalry.

Beauty of Warsaw on View.

"Everywhere one turns one sees bright faces and roses are thrown by the soldiers. A fine rain does not keep the beauties of Warsaw indoors, although they have on diaphanous blouses. They have come out to watch this historic event. The cafes are crowded with brilliantly-dressed people, neighboring the shops are open. Picture postcards, with views of the city, are being a lively sale.

"Suddenly we come to a plain, completely empty of people. The only noise here is the sipping of bullets and explosives from the other side of the river. Fighting is still going on. On this side are the Germans; on the other, the Russians. On the other side are trenches, and on this side our men are lying behind street barricades and corners of houses are firing across the river. The Russians return a lively fire. Machine guns rattle from both sides. Now and then comes a greeting from the biggest of the towers. Here is all the activity of the big town and scarcely 100 yards away a struggle for life and death is being fought.

"It is an extraordinary scene there in front of us. The Russian positions on the opposite bank are clearly visible with the naked eye. Guns roar and shells crash into the walls. We turn round and have in front of us the life of the big city. At your corner is a big cafe. Men and women are sipping their coffee as if it were peace-time. Many of them reading newspapers and a few houses away death is seeking its prey. On a balcony is a lady with highly-painted face and fashionable dress with a book in her heavily-jeweled hand. Now and then she casts a glance at the fighting on the other side of the Vistula. We can scarcely tear ourselves away from this spot.

Everything Destroyed.

"Thin smoke rises on the other side of the river where the Russians are continuing their work of destruction. The public buildings are empty. All furniture, even to spittoons, has gone. There are empty walls and empty rooms, and there is a gaping emptiness. The Russians felt they would have to give up this fortress perhaps for ever.

"Evening comes, lights appear, and the various occupations of the city are continued as usual. We leave the town with difficulty, marching our way through columns of men and road trains. Still long streams of refugees continue to flow away from Warsaw. We still hear the rattle of machine guns and now and then the fire of a big field gun.

"The air becomes clearer. No longer the smell of burning is conceived. We breathe again and repeat to ourselves, 'Warsaw, the impregnable, has fallen.'

The first request in the will of Russell Green, of Chicago was a fund of $50 for the care of his dog Nally.

BUYING "SKATES"

Kentville, N. S., Aug. 14.—Dr. McNally, of Berwick, one of the witnesses at today's sitting of the Davidson war contracts commission, which has been held this week investigating purchases in Kings county last year of horses for the first Canadian contingent, related a conversation which he had with W. P. McKay, the government buyer at Berwick at the time of the sale last year.

McNally said today that McKay asked him whether he thought that the horses which he had purchased for the government were a good class of animals. McNally then told McKay that some of the horses were all right but that he had also bought a lot of old skates which he should be ashamed to send out of the country.

McKay replied that he expected to "get stung" in some of his purchases.

John Burns, who sold a horse to the government for $150, denied today that his horse was 20 years old.

Several venerable nags which were purchased by the government officials were told of today's sitting.

The commission adjourned until Tuesday, when it will meet at Wolfville.

ONLY 1,000 CASES FIELD COMFORTS

Compared With 15,000 For Red Cross—An Appeal For the Soldiers in the Field Whose Need is Urgent able to give each man of my unit either cigarettes or tobacco. As you state your funds will not always permit you to send something for every man, but if you could see the disappointed faces of those who fail to get a present you would understand how hard it is for the person who has the thankless task of distributing the presents. The men often grumble in their disappointment that no one can get anything unless he has a pull with the Quartermaster. So you see the delicate position we officers are in. For instance a few days ago I received from you some twenty pipes. I put them in my pocket and went out amongst the boys and tried to slip one out to a man who was in need of one. Before I had gone very far I was surrounded on all sides and soon got rid of all my pipes and had to leave forty hands empty.

From this it is clear that there is a great need of further contributions. It should be both a duty and pleasure for the Canadian public to see that their troops are supplied with everything needed for their comfort. There should be no empty hands in our Canadian contingents.

So far over 15,000 cases of Red Cross and other hospital supplies for the sick and wounded have been shipped from Canada, but just a little over 1,000 cases of "Field Comforts" for the men who are as yet unrounded. It is natural, of course, that the sick and wounded should arouse sympathy but the soldiers on active duty should not thereby be forgotten.

A second winter campaign seems at present inevitable. It will result in great hardship and distress to the men in the trenches.

We shall have a much larger number of men at the front than last winter and there is an urgent necessity for an increased contribution of "Field Comforts". We can perform no more patriotic service than that of keeping our soldiers in fighting trim.

Field comforts or money to purchase them can be given to the National Service Committee, through the Field Comforts Association of St. John or through the Central Shipping Department at 77 King street, East Toronto.

OUR BROTHERS CALL

"The men in the trenches believe that they are not being backed up by the people at home as they should be. The need of more men does not seem to be as yet understood here. It cannot be impressed upon all too greatly, if we have already seen men in the streets from car and carriage windows who should be wearing uniforms. Every man who is fit is wanted, and wanted now."

THE WAR NEWS

All eyes are again turned to the Balkan countries. The King of Roumania called a cabinet meeting yesterday, to meet the leaders of all political parties in the country and discuss the situation. The Serbian national assembly and the parliament of Greece meet today. The Serbian premier will report on the Bulgarian situation, and in the Greek parliament the Venizelos cabinet, favorable to the Allies, will assume the reins of power. The King favors continued neutrality, but whether he Venizelos will sway the feeling of the country remains to be seen. The London Daily News thinks that Roumania may make a sudden move that will force the situation and the rumor that Germany was sending a message to Roumania making an attack on Roumania makes the situation all the more interesting. The Austrians have resumed the offensive against Serbia, and tried to cross the Danube, but have been repulsed. The Turks are said to be seriously troubled over the state of affairs at the Dardanelles. One of today's cables says that Bulgaria has recalled an agent sent to Constantinople to negotiate with the Turks. The next few days may be big with fate, so much depends upon the action taken by the Balkan countries. The Russians are still making a successful retirement before the Austro-German armies, taking their artillery and munitions with them; and it is pointed out that so long as they can avert an actual defeat and the destruction of some of their armies they will make it impossible for the enemy to detach any large force for service elsewhere, and this, of course, will make the French and British breathe easier in the west. It was feared that the fall of Warsaw would be followed by a terrific German drive in the west, but if it was planned it seems to be ground for the report that they aim now to relieve Turkey, and this makes of vastly greater significance the attitude to be assumed by the Balkan states. The Italians hope to clear the road to Trieste early in September, and their success thus far encourages the belief that their plans will succeed. They may also need very valuable assistance in the struggle against Turkey. The interesting statement is made that the Newfoundland overseas forces have been ordered to Egypt. A rumor comes from Shorecliffe that some Canadians may also do there, but that is still a matter of pure speculation. Saturday was national registration day in the United Kingdom, and gave a considerable impetus to recruiting. The National Service League follows it up with a manifesto, calling public meetings everywhere to urge men to give their services to their country, and calling upon the government to "place the nation under orders." This is coming very close to conscription, and illustrates very clearly the need of more men for Kitchener's armies.

MORE FIELD COMFORTS NEEDED

The Times prints today an appeal from the National Service Committee for field comforts for the soldiers at the front. It is pointed out that, while 15,000 cases of supplies for the sick and wounded have been sent, only 1,000 cases of field comforts have been received and forwarded. The difference is too great. Men need comforts, while they are in camp and in the trenches, before they are wounded. As an illustration, an officer who went from St. John to Shorecliffe lost his little trunk and found himself without anything, but a few articles in a satchel. Doubtless he could afford to replace the lost articles, but the men in the ranks who must carry their whole kit, and who if they have signed off part of their pay for the benefit of those at home must purchase absolute necessities—doubtless not enough for that at times—should not be forgotten by the people whose battles they are fighting. There is a Soldiers' Comforts Association in St. John which, since its organization not long ago, has been doing a most valuable work, and there should be branches in other cities and towns, in order that the attention of the people could be more generally directed to the needs of the soldiers, and larger quantities of field comforts collected and sent forward. There is here an opportunity for everybody to give assistance, for the more comfortable the men can be made the more efficient will be their service in the field. The appeal of the National Service Committee, which will be found on another page of today's Times, tells what is meant by field comforts, and the Field Comforts Association of this city has a depot to receive them.

BOOSTING THE SINGLE TAX

Canadians will learn with a good deal of interest that the single-tax movement is making progress and exciting a great deal of attention in South America. There is to be a conference in Buenos Ayres of delegates from commercial, industrial and other organizations to consider a draft of municipal tax regulations along single tax lines. A special correspondent of the Square Deal, Toronto, writing from Buenos Ayres, tells of addresses before the Students' Society on single tax subjects, and adds the following general information, which shows that the movement is vigorous, and not confined to Argentina: "We have over a dozen open-air orators engaged in pounding doctrines into the people. Several addresses every Sunday. A remarkable interest shown by the masses. You know, of course, the so-called Socialist party here has land value taxation as first plank in its platform. The main competitors of that party, the Radicals, have just offered us their official organ for our propaganda. The great Democratic Progressive party, with Governor Carrasco and Ugarte at their head, are leaning over their shoulders to their credit legislation in the provinces of Cordoba and Buenos Ayres, exempting improvements throughout the whole of the districts. In the province of Cordoba this measure, according to recent declarations of Governor Carrasco, is to be extended to include the towns, cities, and all municipal bodies. As the provinces of Buenos Ayres and Cordoba are at the eastern and western boundaries of the Argentine, the movement can scarcely be described as a distinctly local one. We have recently organized a South American Single Tax Committee, of which a good deal will soon be heard. It has representatives from four South American republics, and will work to cover the remaining republics and hold a Single Tax Congress in this city next year."

How long will Col. Montgomery Campbell have to wait for his battalion?

What will be the attitude of the new Greek cabinet toward the war? Premier Venizelos is for the Allies. The Roumanians are famous fighters. If they join the Allies the troubles of Austria will be still more serious. Premier Borden is said to be resting in England. Premier Borden should be working in Canada—or send Gen. Hughes home to work. The commercial travellers of the maritime provinces have collected funds for three motor ambulances. They have sustained their record of success in all their undertakings. The United States has replied to Austria's note, and flatly rejects the Austrian contention that America should not permit the export of munitions of war in any quantity, however large. What can Austria do about it? The Italians have sunk an Austrian submarine. One would like to know how many German submarines the British have accounted for, but the admiralty is not giving out much information on that point. Allied aeroplanes have passed over Constantinople and dropped bombs. The anxiety of the Turk is not without cause. French armies have been winning new laurels against those of Germany in the west.

The Kaiser may as well understand that the Allies will not ask for peace, but will dictate the terms of peace when Germany has been utterly defeated.

The Times prints today a second letter on the subject of respect for the national anthem and what it signifies. Far too little respect is paid to the anthem, and it is especially noticeable at this critical time in the history of the Empire.

LIGHTER VERIN

The Great Demand "Tee a splendid scheme to make money." "What is it?" "I've arranged a rubber pop bottle for use at baseball games. No good, you could only sell them to the umpire. What the fans want are pop bottles filled with shrapnel." Honest, Anyhow "So you are marrying the man of your choice?" "Not exactly the man of my choice; rather the man I could get." No Trouble "What's the matter Having trouble with your car?" "Not at all," retorted the man underneath. "I just crawled in here to play a game of solitaire." Cutting He—Do you know, I have lately fallen into the habit of talking to myself. She—I wondered why you were looking so bored. Selfish Viewpoint "Don't rock the boat!" said the careful man. "Don't worry," replied the serene egotist. "I can swim." The Obdurate Goliath "Why is Mrs. Duffley wiping her eyes? Has she been crying?" "No. The golf expert told her to keep her eye on the ball, and she drove into the stream."

Playing the Game

Wife (angrily, to tipsy husband) "I'll talk to you in the morning." Husband—"Goo! H' sport. Then I'll (hic) be able to talk, too!" Honest Grief At the funeral of Baron Lionel de Rothschild, father of the recently deceased Lord Rothschild, a poor old man went loudly and bitterly. "Why are you crying?" inquired a bystander. "You are no relation of Rothschild." "No," howled the mourner; "that's just why I'm crying."

RIDEOUT-NEVERS

A quiet wedding took place at the home of Ernest Akseillem's Lincoln on Thursday, August 13, when her daughter, Wilma Blanche Nevers was united in marriage to Wilford Almon Rideout of Peel, N.B. Rev. J. A. Cory officiating. After the wedding supper, Mr. and Mrs. Rideout left on the C. P. R. for St. John on a short trip through Nova Scotia. The bride's going away suit was a tailored suit of navy blue serge with black and white picture hat. They will return to Lincoln for a few days before leaving for Florenceville, N. B., where they will reside, the bridegroom being the principal of the Florenceville Consolidated School for the ensuing year.

Daniel Elhatton, a young man, was drowned at Bathurst yesterday while in swimming. The victim and his young cousin, Daniel O'Neil, were swimming in the channel when he suddenly sank. As no one was in the vicinity, young O'Neil had to pole the boat half a mile to get assistance. The body was found in eight feet of water, but life was extinct. It is thought that the young man was seized with cramps, as he sank suddenly without giving any outcry. Coroner Duncan decided to have an inquest, which was necessary. He is survived by one sister and four brothers.

McRobbie FOOT FITTERS KING ST. REV. DR. MOORE FINDS NEW SUNDAY VICES Toronto Paper Waxes Sarcasitic at Expense of Sabbath Observation Regulation (Toronto World). Rev. Dr. Moore has returned from San Francisco all loaded up with new wrinkles on Sunday observance from the big western fairs. An exhibition of Toronto observing Sunday under the regulation of Doctor Moore's Alliance would draw the biggest crowds of the century. It could not be done with moving pictures, for the alliance would allow nothing to move. One of the latest ideas is to prevent anybody looking up at a flying machine on Sunday. This is a new form of wickedness, but the principle is familiar to those who have been trained in Scotland, where the window blinds are pulled down all day Sunday lest an unhallowed ray of the sun might penetrate the sanctimonious gloom inside. William Black in one of his delightful stories draws a picture of a little Scottish town enduring the miseries of "the Sabbath". It is exceedingly wicked to hire a bathing costume, on Sunday, and bathing, like sliding would be prohibited if the alliance had full power. It is to be feared that San Francisco does not conform to the Sunday blue laws of the Toronto Alliance. Dr. Moore warns all and sundry that vice is rampant at the Panama Fair. Probably they have a midway duplicating the aggregation that lies east of our own grand stand. Meanwhile the island aviation hangar is to be investigated on Sunday. Dr. Moore has been mercifully deprived by nature of that sense of humor which would prevent him prosecuting his duties with the necessary gravity and concern he now devotes to them; otherwise we fear he would be unable to sustain the heavy responsibilities of his office.

Morning War News by Cable

London, Aug. 15.—Having recovered from the check inflicted on him early in the week by the Russians, General Von Below, commanding that portion of the army of Field Marshal Von Hindenburg operating to the west of the River Dvinsk, again has taken the offensive and, according to the official report published by Berlin today, has beaten the Russians in a battle in the vicinity of Kozlovo, and pushed them back in a northeasterly direction, taking over 2,000 prisoners.

To the south before Kovno the Russians, according to the same source of information, made an unsuccessful sortie from Kovno, which the Germans are now approaching.

In the Polish sector the various German armies are slowly drawing in their line and advancing from the northwest and south on Brest-Litovsk. While they continue to take comparatively small batches of prisoners they make no claim to the capture of artillery or booty, which is considered by military observers as a fair indication that Grand Duke Nicholas' armies continue their orderly retreat, and that for a long time to come will be able to prevent the Germans from detaching any part of their army for large ventures elsewhere.

The only evidence of activity outside of Poland and the Baltic provinces is on the Serbian frontier, where a bombardment of Belgrade by the Austrians and a counter-bombardment of Semlin and Panscova by the Serbians, has been resumed. According to Nish, Austrian attempts to cross the Danube near the Serbian and Rumanian borders have been repulsed, but it is believed by the military experts here that this region will be the scene of the next Austro-German offensive. There is some speculation in military circles as to whether Rumania, as well as Serbia, will be attacked because of Rumania's refusal to allow munitions of war to pass through to Turkey, which is being pressed both on her Caucasian and Dardanelles fronts.

There is no late news from the Dardanelles, but information is hourly expected of a new movement, of which the landings by the Allies last week were the preliminaries.

Artois, the forest of the Argonne and the Vosges Mountains continue to be the scenes of activity on the western front, but no serious battles are in progress in any of these regions.

An Athens despatch says that allied aeroplanes had flown over Constantinople and caused damage at Galata by dropping bombs.

General Cadorna, Italian commander-in-chief, has plans for a new offensive against the Austrians along the Isonzo river, and the Italian general staff are hopeful of being in Trieste by September.

A national registry of all persons in Great Britain and Ireland between the ages of 15 years and 65 was made yesterday. The recruiting offices were besieged by young men anxious to get ahead of the enumerators and enlist. Others sought to evade the enrolment, and the departure of a body of Irishmen from Glasgow for parts of the home country where the registration did not apply, was marked by a noisy demonstration. In parts of England many young men hastened their marriage so as to be listed as "married" on the national list.

VACANT LOT GARDENS REDUCE FOOD PRICES

Regina, Aug. 14.—The vacant lot gardening movement has been exceedingly popular in Regina during the present year and it is estimated that more than 2,000 lots are under cultivation to market gardening in excess of those of last year. Some of the retail merchants are co-operating with the vacant lot gardeners in the matter of the sale of their produce, one of the largest departmental stores even having gone to the extent of setting aside a portion of its basement as a market. The result has been a material reduction in the cost of vegetables.

OPERA HOUSE

The fourth and last week of the engagement of Jere McAuliffe and the Honan Musical Company starts tonight at the Opera House. A brand new programme will be offered, with many novelties and musical features. Jere himself will appear in a lively comedy sketch, "The Claim Agent," supported by Lillie Leslie and the company. He will also sing several of his own parodies.

There will be complete changes of programme on Wednesday and Thursday. "O'Reilly the Cabaret" will be repeated and on Friday and Saturday when the big Revue will be presented, matinee every day.

Souvenir photographs of Jere McAuliffe will be presented to everybody attending either the Friday matinee or night performance.

Hints for the Cook

A Quick Dessert

When an emergency arises where a dessert must be prepared quickly, open a can of peaches, apricots, raspberries or any available fruit. Put it in a rather large kettle with a close fitting cover. While it is heating mix one pint of prepared flour with 1 beaten egg and 1 scant cup milk. Drop this like dumplings in a stew over the fruit. Cover closely and steam from 10 to 15 minutes. Unless the fruit is juicy there is danger that it will burn on the kettle while the dumplings are cooking.

Serve the dumplings and fruit together with sugar and cream, or with a hard sauce.

Recaloped Lamb

Use finely minced lamb and 1/2 quantity of ham, 8 tablespoons of melted butter, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 8 hard boiled eggs, chopped fine, chicken stock to moisten it, 1/2 cup of cream, little grated nutmeg, if liked sherry to flavor. Butter the shells, add a layer of cracker crumbs and bits of butter. Bake 15 minutes.

Joseph Proulx, a Laconia machinist and former music band leader, has constructed a brass violin, which, he says, produces as mellow and musical notes as an ordinary violin.

Baby's Health

In the summer depends almost entirely upon his food. You cannot give baby dairy milk; it is quickly contaminated, and frequently swarming with dangerous germs.

Take care to give baby a food that is suited to his age, powers of digestion and changing needs. Give him a food that is pure, free from contamination and one that will not go sour.

FISHING CRAFT LOST EIGHTEEN OF HER CREW

Separated From Schooner in Heavy Fog—All Picked up by Other Vessels

Boston, Aug. 14.—With only five of her crew of twenty-three men on board, the fishing schooner Mary, Capt. "Bal" Whelan, arrived at T. Wharf, with her colors at half mast. The vessel was tied up only a short time when the schooner Helder, B. Thomas, Capt. Herbert Nickerson, arrived at the same pier with fourteen of the missing men, and was received that the other four men of the crew had been rescued by the schooner Annie Perry, which is still on the fishing grounds.

The men brought in by the Thomas immediately rejoined their vessel. From the story told by the fishermen it appears that the Mary was fishing on the South Channel grounds. At one o'clock on Sunday nine dories, each with two men, put out from the vessel to haul trawls. Soon after the heavy fog shut in and the men were unable to locate their vessel. The Mary cruised about in the vicinity of where the men were last seen and picked up one dory. Until that time the captain, cook and spare hand were the only ones on board. For hours Capt. Whelan searched the locality for his men, but without avail. Nothing remained to do but return to Boston, as the vessel was short-handed and unable to continue fishing.

At 10 o'clock on Sunday the schooner Philip P. Manta picked up seven dories containing fourteen of the Mary's crew, and yesterday they were transferred to the Thomas, as the Manta had not finished and intended to remain out a few days longer. The men were all in good condition, and suffered no great hardships, as the weather was moderate during the time they were in the dories.

EDWARD SEARS.

FOR THE SALVATION OF LIBERAL EUROPE

Italian Journal Says That is What Italy is Fighting For—The Task to be Faced by the Allies

In expressing gratitude for the sympathetic message which 120 prominent Englishmen sent to Italy the "Cordiere Della Sera" says:

"What gives most pleasure is the recognition of the honorable part played by Italy through out the long months of painful neutrality.

"Whatever could, or would, have contaminated it was transformed into an element of purification. Some day Italy's rectitude will be acknowledged by her very enemies. What makes us even prouder than our having realized the necessity of war is, perhaps, our having decided to fight at the moment when the decision was more honorable because more hazardous. As the author of the British message testily so emphatically, not only did this occur when there were no corpses to spoil, but when the powerful enemies which Italy must needs face were, from a military point of view, altogether superior.

The Task that Was Faced

"The Russian retreat across Galicia had already begun, and left no room for illusions. France showed no signs of taking the offensive; England was confining, with courageous British calm, the inefficiency of her over-hasty preparation as compared with nearly half a century's methodic and perfect preparation on the part of Germany.

"And Italy was facing war against an enemy which wielded an easy mastery in the Adriatic, and which without great effort, could offer resistance to the most formidable fortifications to be found in Europe.

"While fighting for our own defence and vital national interests we at the same time are fighting for the salvation of Liberal Europe. We are combating for ourselves and all.

"This ideal character of our war, overstepping the rigid line of Italy's necessity, proves that a pacific notion like Italy cannot go to war save for motives of law and that in safeguarding her own interests, she respects, now as ever, the sanctity of Justice, on whose altar she offers, not in vain, the holocaust of her heroic soul."

For variety, try Imperial Green Chalk Cheese. Something different and very tasteful.

VALOR OF THE INDIAN TROOPS

Fourth Indian Officer To Receive The V. C.

SILK'S DEVOTION TO MASTER

Stirring Deeds of Dusky Heroes Who Fought With Greatest Gallantry Against Fearful Odds at Ypres

Stirring descriptions of the heroic deeds of officers and men of the 57th Wilde's Rifles (Indian Army) at Ypres on April 26, are contained in the following accounts...

Devoid of Cover. Owing to the limited time at our disposal, it was impossible to reconnoitre the ground in a satisfactory manner...

The ground to be covered by the assaulting force was devoid of cover, rose slightly for the first few hundred yards, then dipped towards the German position...

The enemy, needless to say, had ample opportunity to register his guns—an unpleasant fact which was soon proved by the accuracy of his fire.

During the first few yards the casualties were fairly numerous from shrapnel and rifle fire, but the ground was covered by short, rapid rushes in line style.

On crossing the first ridge the regiment came under an absolute tornado of fire of every description, shrapnel, machine-guns, rifle and, last but not least, high explosive shells filled with asphyxiating gas.

From this point onwards men began to fall rapidly, but still the gallant regiment pushed on, losing, of course, to some extent its formation, partly owing to the heavy casualties and partly because the brigade on its right was crowding it out.

The murderous nature of the fire can be gauged by the fact that when the bottom of the slope was reached, at a point some 900 yards from the start, the commanding officer, Major Williams, had been wounded, also Captain Radford, Lieut. Bainbridge had been knocked out by an asphyxiating shell, and Captain Mahon had been hit in the knee, but refused to report himself wounded and carried on until the end of the attack.

In the face of these losses, the attack was pressed to a point about eighty yards from the German trenches.

Here, Major Duhan, Captain Mackie and Captain Banks, of the Guides, who was attached to the regiment, were all killed, as were also Subadar Badawa Singh and Jemadar Kirpa Singh.

Among the wounded at this point were Subadar Fatch, Jang Bahadar, Jemadars Ujjair Singh, Hajat Khan and Kala Khan.

Captain Banks' orderly, a Sikh named Bhan Singh, had been severely wounded in the face early in the action. In spite of this he insisted on following Captain Banks till he was killed.

In the face of the appalling fire, and severely wounded as he was, his one thought was to bring back the body of his officer. Weak as he was from loss of blood, he staggered along carrying the body until he fell from exhaustion, and was forced to give up the attempt.

Nothing daunted, however, he eventually managed to bring his master's accoutrements. For this act of devotion and gallantry Bhan Singh has received the Indian Distinguished Service Medal.

These casualties left the remains of the regiment with only two officers, Captain Mahon, already wounded, and Lieutenant Deedes. The latter, although suffering intensely from the effects of a gas shell, was on the left flank with his machine guns, endeavoring to open fire from an adjacent farm.

At this juncture the enemy let loose dense clouds of poisonous gas which, at that short distance, it was absolutely beyond the limits of human endurance to withstand, unprovided as our men then were with any form of protection against this devilish device.

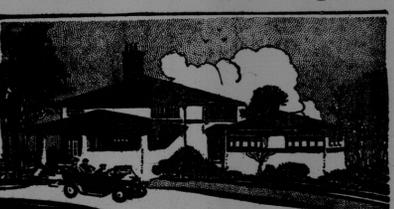

The French Colonials on the left of the Connaught Rangers received the full force of the gas, and were compelled to retire leaving many unconscious on the ground.

Danger of Amputation. Our men were falling fast from the effects of the gas and were also being Reluctantly then they were forced to abandon the fruits of their gallantry, and they retired leaving the ground covered with the bodies of their dead or unconscious comrades.

What is the 7th point?

Because you put it in your mouth we make Sterling Gum clean—no hand but yours can touch it. No gum, we believe, ever before had so much care put into its manufacture. This care is to insure the six features listed below.

The 7th point will not be announced for the present.

- 1 Crowded with Flavor. First of all, we gave our attention to flavor. The highest grade of pure extracts was naturally needed. After securing the flavor, a still greater problem remained. How were we going to drive that flavor fairly through and through—so that it stays in the gum? Right there was one great stumbling-block in the production of a high-grade chewing gum. It is a stumbling-block which we have removed through an exclusive process which makes the Sterling Gum permeate each stick—makes the gum, in short, "crowded with flavor"—cool, refreshing peppermint, or cinnamon—cinnamon that is fascinating in its delicious spiciness.
- 2 Velvety Body—NO GRIT. Next we set out to produce a gum that was absolutely free from grit. This was a matter of refining and refining the chicle—a long, tedious process. But worth the trouble as every gum chewer will agree. So Sterling Gum has a Velvety Body—NO GRIT. That is point 2. Rather important, too, isn't it?
- 3 Crumble-Proof. Heat, cold and humidity do their best to make gum crumbly. And they have their way very often, as you no doubt know. We decided that Sterling Gum must be "crumble-proof." After long experiment we finally made Sterling Gum by a new process. We—well, this isn't to be a lecture on science. The point is this: No matter when or where you buy Sterling Gum, you will find it "crumble-proof." You will find that each stick quickly becomes a velvety-bodied confection.
- 4 Sterling Purity. "Purity" is too often a vague claim. Sterling Purity is an actual fact. That means extreme purity of all ingredients—extreme cleanliness of plant and employes. Just one incident to explain our ideas on the subject. All gums use pulverized sugar—the same pulverized sugar that you put over your berries and cream in the morning. Clean, isn't it? Of course. But not as clean as we want it. So we buy our sugar in granulated form and do our own pulverizing. The difference is not apparent to the eye, but, nevertheless, it is there. It is attention to details like this which we sum up in Point 4, "Sterling Purity."
- 5 From a Daylight Factory. We make Sterling Gum in the sunlight where everything is spotless. During every working hour, the daylight streams through the broad, high windows of our factory. There are no dingy corners. Cleanliness everywhere. This environment, too, naturally has a wholesome effect on our employes. That insures Sterling Gum Point 6, "Untouched by Hands."
- 6 Untouched by Hands. But Sterling purity and a daylight factory need this Sterling 6th point to provide a genuine hygienic safeguard. A company rule makes each employe wear spit-and-sheen uniforms and caps—and gloves of white. These white gloves are fresh-laundered every morning. That insures Sterling Gum Point 6, "Untouched by Hands."
- 7 What? The 7th point of Sterling excellence we are keeping in reserve. We will not make it public for the present. But that 7th point is there for a very good reason. It is perhaps the most important of all 7 points of Sterling excellence. Let's see if you find Point 7 in the gum.

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM. The Editor of the Times: Sir:—I, for one, was very glad to see a loyal citizen's letter in Saturday's Times, but he is not the first to take up the matter of disrespect to the national anthem. Other citizens have done so, and it has also been brought to the attention of the public by St. George's Society, The Daughters of the Empire and others, and still the complaint continues; but I do not see why soldiers should be especially criticized for their want of respect. They are only citizens in uniform and therefore they do not act differently from what they have usually been accustomed to, though I freely admit their officers should specially instruct them to stand at attention in theatres and salutes in the open when God Save the King is played or sung. I wonder if "Loyal Citizens" himself always lifts his hat when the national anthem is played; if so, he is one of the few, as witness any evening on the squares when the band is playing. I do not see one citizen in 100 do so, although the public schools are supposed to teach this much loyalty. Why, then, should these same citizens when they don a uniform be expected automatically to act any differently? If few citizens will take the lead and honor our national anthem, others, including soldiers, will soon follow; then the conclusion of an entertainment will not witness putting on of wraps and a rush for the door while we are supposed to be reverently asking God to protect our king and empire. Let the press take this up, the picture houses asked to throw on the screen a request to remain standing during "The King," and commanders of military units urged to impress this on their men, and we will soon become one of the most loyal respectful cities in the empire. Yours truly, ANOTHER LOYAL CITIZEN.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES. The new wage agreement, made a few weeks ago with the miners of Wales, has not yet been completed, and resolutions were adopted yesterday at meetings of the men that, unless a settlement is soon effected, a renewal of the strike must be expected. A London financial report says that the amalgamation of the Maritime Oil Fields Co. and the New Brunswick Petroleum Co., the first of Edinburgh, the second of Montreal, is nearing completion. Peter Scheitold, an Austrian, was shot and killed on Saturday morning early by Henry Pearson, in Craig street, Montreal. Pearson took the man to be a burglar when he saw him creeping along the roof of a small shed. William Crippa was arrested in St. Stephen on Saturday on suspicion of stealing automobile equipment, gasoline, etc., from storehouses of dealers. It is said he lived in a camp some distance from the town, and was operating a motor boat at night. Some of the stolen property was found in his premises. A boy named Harold Mann was arrested with him. Edward MacEachern, a lineman employed with the New England Telephone Company in Calais, was killed on Saturday afternoon. He was at the top of a pole adjusting some wires when his hand came in contact with a live one and he was hurled to the pavement sustaining a fractured skull and other injuries. He died a few hours later. He was forty-five years of age, and is survived by his wife.

PLAN CONCERTED PATRIOTIC WORK

Feature of Municipalities Convention This Year—Interesting Programme Has Been Prepared

Much interest has been aroused through the province in the annual convention of the Union of New Brunswick Municipalities which will take place this year in Fredericton on August 25 and 26. An important feature in the conference this year will be a consideration of the part of the municipality in patriotic endeavor. A special effort is being made to have the best of the delegates, the desire being to establish a definite plan for the vigorous prosecution of patriotic action.
The arrangements are in the hands of J. King Kelly, K.C., Gen. M. McClelland, president and secretary respectively, of an executive committee, assisted by an active committee from the York municipal council and the Fredericton city council. They expect to have an attractive and profitable programme. Mr. Kelly said today that in view of the important matters to be considered there should be a large attendance.
Rates under the standard certificate plan will prevail on the C.P.R. and I. C. R.
Prominent public men will be heard before the convention, including Premier Clark, Attorney General Baxter, Hon. John Morley. NEED MONEY FOR PATRIOTIC FUND

Expenditure Much Greater Than Receipts—Sir H. B. Ames Will Address Public Meeting Here on Friday

The Patriotic Fund is running behind all over Canada, and special efforts must be made to keep the receipts up to the expenditure. In June $126,147 more was paid out than was taken in, and in July the excess was $116,000. In this province last month some $10,000 was paid out and only $6,000 taken in. This province has drawn altogether $75,000 from the fund and paid in $75,000—a deficiency of $5,000.
The executive of the local Patriotic Fund will meet in the board of trade rooms on Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock.
Sir Herbert Ames will arrive in the city on Friday, and will meet the local executive, the city representatives and the Patriotic Fund committee at four o'clock. At eight o'clock he will address a public meeting, probably in the high school assembly hall, on the fund and new plans for increasing it.
Lieut. Gov. Wood will arrive in the city tomorrow and attend these meetings.

ISLAND CROPS AND LIVE STOCK

Cold and Wet Weather Has Caused Heavy Losses—Hatches Plentiful But Cattle Scarce—Egg Production Increasing

(Special to Times)
Charlottetown, Aug. 16.—The crop report and live stock bulletin issued under date of August 10 by the provincial department of agriculture gives the following facts:
The hay crop is about the average. It is now about half in. Weather has been very favorable for saving it.
Wheat promises to be above the average. Oats will be considerably below the average, being damaged by excessive rainfall.
Barley will be heavy on high lands, but was drowned out in low lands. Peas will be an average crop.
The corn crop will be poor owing to cold weather.
Potatoes will be about an average crop.
The root crop will be considerably above the average.
Apples will be about half a crop; plums even less, cherries almost a failure. Late frosts and cold rainy weather are responsible.
Strawberries were below the average. Gooseberries will be likewise. Raspberries are plentiful and of excellent quality.
Live Stock
Horses are plentiful, but the demand is limited. Prices are lower than last year, ranging from $15 to $200.
The demand for good milk cows exceeds the supply. Prices have advanced. There is an increased demand for beef cattle. Pure bred short-horns are high, prices being from $100 to $150. Young cattle are scarce at during the last year many calves were killed for fox meat.
The wool number of sheep are being kept. Wool and lambs are very high in price.
There is a decrease of 4 per cent. in number of pigs, but quality is better.
