Canadians In Front Trenches; Germans Only Eighty-Five Yards Away For Seven Days Dominion Sons Have Been Fighting; Losses Small

Chief Troubles Frostbites -- Some Trenches Knee Deep With Water--Prussian Guards Charge but Whole Company is Mowed Down

Toronto, March 2.—The World has the following cable from its correspondent in Northern France: For seven days the Canadians have been fighting against the Prussian guards and the Saxons in the first-line trenches. They have shown themselves splendid soldiers, and the losses, contrary to reports, have been surprisingly small.

Sixty-three were disabled, owing principally to frost bites. In their first engagement the men acted like old soldiers, being cool under heavy fire, while their discipline was good generally. They fought for twenty-four hours, and then were relieved for that period by British troops. The Canadian battalion was separated from the enemy by only eighty-five yards, while others were 700 yards apart.

Some of the trenches were knee deep in water, and many of the men suffered from exposure. Other trenches are quite dry, and the dug outs are snug.

Until moved up to the front, the Canadians in the reserve trenches were under every variety of gunfire from "Jack Johnsons" to 18-pounders.

According to an officer who has just returned to the base, the men conducted themselves admirably. The infantry would have welcomed a bayonet charge to relieve the monotony of the work in the trenches, but this was impossible, owing to the wire entanglements and the muddy field separating the trenches.

On one occasion the Prussian Guards charged the Canadians, but were caught by the wire entanglements before the Canadian trenches, and a whole company was mowed down. From each company crack shots were chosen as snipers, and they did effective work.

Two Toronto men shot eight men in a German patrol. Every man was cool, and in a few hours after getting into it, fought as though fighting was an everyday occurrence. At first the strain was terrible, but the men soon got used to it.

They were instructed to keep their heads low, which they did. The men suffered from the cross fire until British artillery silenced the German guns. The men were so close to the Germans that the enemy tried to throw hand grenades, but failed. "Our machine guns were great," said the officer.

BELIEVED ALL NOW IN FIGHT.

Ottawa, March 2.—The list of casualties among the Canadian contingent, announced during the night, bore grim testimony to the participation of our troops in the firing line and by now the whole division is thought to be engaged.

The fatal casualties up to date number 123. This includes those who died at Salisbury Plain as well as the men of the Princess Patricia's and the regular division who have been killed in action.

UPHOLDING TRADITIONS

Toronto, Ont., March 2.—The Mail and Empire prints the following special cable: London, March 1.—In the fire-swept battle zones of Flanders, Canada's sons are upholding the highest traditions of British arms. For days they have been under fire, most of them in reserve trenches, where they are constantly shelled without opportunity of replying. Everywhere they have been complimented on their coolness.

After the novelty and tense excitement of the first experience, the boys say it is dull in the trenches. In some places, the trenches are knee deep in mud and water, as a result of which a number of men have been returned to the base ill. The casualties have not been heavy and there have been no bayonet charges so far as I can ascertain.

Russians Carrying Fight to the Enemy

On Offensive Now in Bukovina and Southeastern Galicia—Artillery in Carpathians Mows Down Massed German Attackers

Petrograd, March 2.—Victorious in their operations against the Germans in northern Poland, the Russians have now resumed the offensive in Bukovina and southeastern Galicia, on the extreme left wing of the 700 mile battlefield. They have already captured Sadowa, a few miles north of Gornowitza, the capital of Bukovina, and Kolomea, a Galician railway center, while at the same time they are bringing such a heavy pressure to bear on the Austro-German forces about Stanislaw, that the evacuation of this city is imminent.

In northern Poland the losses suffered by the Germans have been so severe that they are now making no infantry attacks their activities being confined to artillery bombardments of the fortress of Osowiec and the Russian positions northwest of Grodno.

The great number of prisoners taken by the Russians along the Niemen-Bobru-Narew front, has been increased by 10,000 captured at Przasnysz, and 1,300 at Grodno; in addition the Russians have captured about thirty machine guns along this front, together with ten cannons and enormous booty.

In the Carpathians, the Germans and Austrians during the last two days have made numerous attacks upon the Russian front near Lukow Pass. These assaults were made in mass formation and as a result the attacking forces suffered heavy losses from the Russian artillery fire. All the attacks were repulsed.

THE ALLIES' NEW GRIP ON GERMANY

United States to Send Note To Britain and France

HOLD-UP OF SUPPLIES

Will Ask What Means Are To Be Taken—Some New York Newspapers Are Critical of Plan Announced By Asquith

Washington, March 2.—The United States will send a note to Great Britain and France in answer to the one received yesterday, inquiring what means will be taken in carrying out the policy of holding up supplies being carried to and from Germany. President Wilson's call yesterday that the British-French note outlined in very general terms a policy, but did not define the means of carrying it into effect.

SOME NEW YORK PAPERS CRITICIZE

New York, March 2.—The Times says editorially: "As a military measure, the value, to the allies, of blockade of Germany would be very great. The full force of that argument would be appreciated and the counter-argument that it would be cruel to deprive the German people of the means of subsistence, lacks conviction. Measures that tend to shorten a war cannot be cruel. If, through the pinch of want, Germany were forced to make peace in May, the procedure that brings her to terms could not justly be called more cruel than leisurely tactics of measures that tend to shorten the war for a year."

"Neutral nations will not complain of measures that tend to shorten the war, but they may be expected to protest to England, as they have protested to Germany, against any trade embargo that would cut off the perfectly well understood quality of an effective and binding blockade. Their sense would demand conditional consent to a declaration of war to prevent all commerce with Germany."

GOOD SHOOTING AT THE INDOOR RANGE CONTINUES

In order to make the hours for the staff more reasonable the rifle range at Chipman Hill, will be open after this at ten o'clock in the morning instead of nine and will close not later than eleven o'clock at night. For the present it will also be closed for an hour at noon and at supper time.

The practice rifle company has arranged for the use of the range on Tuesday evening for target practice and drill and may also secure Friday evenings. They will use the building instead of the customs house this evening for an evening of target practice.

Some excellent scores were made yesterday on the indoor range. In the prone shooting S. L. Day was first with ninety-four out of a possible 100; G. Stibald second with ninety-two and Pte. J. F. Turnbull third with eighty-two. Comrade McCallan was the highest standing shot with a score of ninety-two. Among the firemen, Walsh was high man with a score of sixty-five and among the boys, with the pistol F. G. Wilson led with seventy-four.

One of the highest scores yet made was produced this morning by J. T. Downey, C.S.M., 26th Battalion, who put on ninety-five out of a possible 100.

HOPE FOR PEACE WITH RUSSIA

Germans See Nation's Position Hopeless Unless This is Done By May

London, March 2.—The Copenhagen correspondent of the National Zeitung states that the "firm opinion prevails in Germany that peace will be made with Russia by the end of May. The feeling in Germany is that the nation's position is hopeless, he says, unless Germany can conclude a separate peace.

"It is believed here that Roumania welcomes the ascendancy of the Triple Entente in the Dardanelles as a solution of a delicate problem and possible disquietude in Russia alone eventually took charge in Constantinople. Consequently it is thought the present naval operations must exert great influence on Roumania, whose future attitude, many persons believe here, is intimately connected with the Italian policy.

"Beyond this, the friends of the allies welcome the successful demonstrations for two reasons: First, because it reduces the German naval activity to its proper perspective and second, because it will impress the Balkans with the strength of the allies."

ALREADY AT WORK ON BOMBS

The next move, according to the police, was to place bombs in the home of Andrew Carnegie, the Rockefellers, and Cornelius Vanderbilt. So far had the plot, proposed, according to the police, toward this end, that the manufacture of the bombs had already been started.

With these and other capitalists disposed of, the anarchists planned, according to the police, to invade the financial district and lay their bombs in the city's biggest banks, thereafter a general programme of looting was to be inaugurated.

And may also secure Friday evenings. They will use the building instead of the customs house this evening for an evening of target practice.

PANIC IN THE CHURCH ADVERTED

Immediately the cathedral, in which 800 persons sat at worship, became alive with detectives whose presence had been unsuspected by the bomb-thrower.

GERMANS DRIVEN BACK A MILE

Heavy Fighting in Woevre District—Driving Rain and Snow Storms in West Flanders

Paris, March 2.—Fighting in the midst of a driving rain and snow storms is in progress over a considerable section of the battlefield in France and West Flanders. In Belgium a gale swept in from the North Sea, causing much suffering among the Belgian troops, who hold a position on the coast. Despite the severe weather, which makes range finding difficult, a desultory artillery duel continues along the northern end of the line.

In Champagne, fighting is at close quarters. Close to 125,000 men have been engaged there in the last week's fighting for trenches. The German lines in the Woevre district, north of Post-A-Mousson, have been forced back about a mile.

The Germans are delivering attacks both on the north and south of the Fecht River in Upper Alsace in an attempt to drive the French from their elevated positions.

Avon, Ont., May 14th, 1912. "I have used 'Fruit-a-tives' for Indigestion and Constipation with most excellent results, and they continue to be my only medicine. When I started about six years ago to use them, I took four at a dose, but gradually reduced the dose to one tablet at night. Before taking 'Fruit-a-tives,' I took salts and other pills, but the treatment was too harsh. I thought I might as well suffer from the illness as from these treatments. Finally, I saw 'Fruit-a-tives' advertised with a letter in which some one recommended them very highly, so I tried them, and I have no hesitation in recommending them."

Rheumatism

A Home Cure Given by One Who Had It

In the spring of 1893 I was attacked by Muscular and Inflammatory Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally, I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted and even bedridden with Rheumatism, and it effected a cure in every case.

I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatic trouble to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-looked for means of curing your Rheumatism, you may send the price of it, one dollar, but understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when positive relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today.

SUN LIFE OF CANADA

IN STRONG POSITION

Annual Statement Reveals Highly Favorable Features

In spite of world-wide business depression, Canada's largest assurance company has just closed a highly satisfactory year. Total assurances on the books of the Sun Life of Canada now amount to $218,299,000, assurances written during the year totalling over $32,167,000. It is gratifying to Canadians to note that new business written during the year in Canada amounted to $15,988,000, an increase of $886,000 over the figures for 1913. During the year the Sun Life of Canada paid out to policyholders in death claims, matured endowments, profits, etc., the sum of $6,161,000, bringing the total payments to policyholders since organization to over $48,200,000. Other features which are worthy of note are an increase of no less than 15 per cent. in assets, which now stand at over $64,187,000; an increase of 18 per cent. in net surplus to $6,608,000, and an increase to 6.71 per cent. in the average rate earned on the company's investments. It is also noted that the increasing scale of policy dividends will be maintained in accordance with which five-year and reserve dividend policies will receive larger dividends during 1915 than those received by similar policies in 1914.

Together, such a showing in view of adverse conditions, is most encouraging and indicates that this conservatively managed company is in an even stronger position today than at any time in its forty-four years' history.

Uncle—My dear boy, it's a fact that the microbes on paper money have caused many a death before now. Nephew—Well, uncle, you might let me have a five or two; I'm very tired of life.

Thug and Thief Description of German Crown Prince

ONLY WAY TO WORLD'S PEACE

French Officer Writes to Montreal From the Front—"More Blood-thirsty Than Attila's Huns"

He writes as follows:

"For a long time I have been wanting to write you a real letter, but I have never had the time. Now I am settled down in the woods—without a house, neither for the men nor for myself—at eighteen hundred meters from the enemy, the days are quieter, and I will try to write a little longer than usual.

"You know that I used to be on the colonel's staff; in war time it is more interesting to command a battery than to carry messages. I obtained command of the battery on October 8. At that time we went into the trenches only two days before the first of November. (You know that the French have mockingly called the Germans. Alboches—Boches for short. On December 21 we left with the other batteries of our division, and on the 24th, just before midnight mass and the supper which follows (we were then still able to attend mass), I had received orders to leave the next day with a battery, detached from our regiment. We started out to occupy a rather difficult position near another regiment in a neighboring division. Comfortable Under Difficulties

"We were obliged to encamp in the woods, in an uninhabited spot. My men dug up the earth, and in these cavities, which were covered with wood and earth, we sheltered ourselves. Our cannons were almost within sight of the enemy, though hidden by branches of trees. When we had a little time to spare we improved our shelter by laying tarpaper and waterproof canvas on the roof, and finally became very well sheltered. I have a very nice little hut, with a good stove, and a comfortable bed. Before our shelters were completed we had to get our meals at a half demolished village; many times during the day, when the reverberating boom of the 'marmites' (the name for the big projectiles) would begin, the chef would run and hide in the cellar, upsetting everything in his way. Coming back from the village at night, in the pitch darkness and dense fog, was difficult indeed. It is very different now; we have good huts and a well-organized village, fifty meters away from our cannons, which are always aimed upon the enemy; I have a stove to keep me warm, a table on which to write, an oil lamp and a comfortable cot. The kitchen is but ten steps distant and the lieutenant's quarters are fifteen paces beyond the kitchen. We have a very beautiful view; a better spot for spending the summer could not be desired. I have a cupboard and a row of shelves made of broken-up boxes, and so I am really quite comfortable.

"The winter is drawing to its close, which makes it bearable for us artillerymen, but terrible for the infantry—what an awful life for them!

"One starts a letter one day and finishes it three days later. I cannot even send you this letter, having no stamps. I hope to get some news from you some day soon; and you will tell me of the noble effort of Canada to help England and France to triumph over these never-to-be-again barbarians who are more blood-thirsty than Attila's Huns. THE WAR NEWS

Great Britain and France have declared that if they can prevent it "no commodities of any kind except those now on the sea shall henceforth be imported into the German Empire."

Today's cables confirm previous statements that the Russians are again strongly on the offensive along the whole eastern line, and pressing back at important points both the Germans and Austrians.

Canadian troops are now in some of the advanced trenches of the British position and are giving a splendid account of themselves.

BRITISH EFFICIENCY

Mr. C. Arnold Slade, an American artist, who has visited the British headquarters in France, estimates that there are 170,000 British troops in France and Belgium.

GERMAN FALSEHOODS

Readers of the United States press must be considerably amused by stories told by the friends of Germany.

AMERICAN OPINIONS

One Admiral Bowles, formerly of the United States navy, and recently the head of the Fore River Shipping Co., says he is convinced that Germany will be ultimately successful in the war.

Quite different views are expressed by a prominent Bangor man in a letter to the Commercial. He says:—

"The end may probably be reckoned now in months rather than in years. Germany and Austria will be beaten. Austria will be split in two. Russia will get a part. What may be called Slavic Austria will go in part to Rumania and in part will form a new Slavic state or states. Italy, as well as Roumania will enter the war. Italy will get the upper Trans-Adriatic, including Trieste, Alsace and Lorraine will go back to France, which may also receive as indemnity the five billion francs she paid to Germany in 1871.

This writer points out that the excess of population of the Allies over Germany and Austria is nearly a hundred millions, not including India, while their wealth is billions greater.

It is safe to say that the views of the last mentioned writer contain vastly more truth than those of the man who has come back from Germany, not unwilling, it appears, to circulate the misinformation which the Germans are so anxious to have circulated in the United States.

The German attempt to blockade the British Islands has thus far proved to be a miserable failure.

Italy has demanded another apology from Turkey, this time for the arrest of an Italian agent and the seizure of his correspondence at the port of Jeddah.

In the opinion of The Standard the Hon. William Pugsley appears to be the only issue now before the people of this part of Canada.

Mr. J. Hamilton Ferns, chief assessor of Montreal, delivered a very interesting address last night on the subject of taxation, and it remains to be seen whether the citizens will take his advice, and get together and provide a better assessment system for St. John, or whether they will continue to play at cross purposes and by failing to get together perpetuate the present system, or get a worse one.

The total receipts of the Patriotic Day were about $5,000. This is a splendid tribute not only to the generosity of the citizens but to the organization effected by the ladies of the Royal Standard Chapter, Daughters of the Empire, and those associated with them.

The British House of Commons yesterday listened uncomplainingly to the prime minister's statement showing the enormous cost of the war, which has averaged $7,500,000 per day.

There is no possibility of any firm continuing in business and selling Tea of the quality of "SALADA" for less money. You can get "SALADA" Brown Label from your grocer at 85c a pound; Blue Label at 45c, and Red Label at 35c a pound, and these teas are from the choicest gardens in the Island of Ceylon.

LIGHTER VEIN.

The lady of the house was explaining things to the new maid.

"An' what's this, missus?" asked the girl, indicating a metal bottle.

"That is a bottle which will keep things either hot or cold whichever you desire," replied the mistress.

"Well, for the land sake," ejaculated the girl. "How is it gwin to know whether you want things hot or cold?"

When E. H. Southern and Julia Marlowe were playing in a western city last season an old couple stepped up to the box office and the man said:—

"Playin' Shakespeare here, they tell me."

"Yes, sir, replied the ticket seller."

"What's the show tonight?"

"As You Like It."

"Well, that's what I call accommodation," said the native. "Seen as you give us our choice, mother and me'll have 'Romeo and Juliet.'—Chicago News.

A salesman had taken a large order in the north of Scotland for a consignment of hardware, and endeavored to press upon the canny Scottish manager who had given the order a box of Havana cigars.

"Now," he replied. "Don't try to bribe a man. I couldn't take them—and I am a member of the kirk."

"But will you accept them as a present?"

"I couldn't," said the Scot.

"Well, then," said the traveler, "suppose I sell you the cigars for a nominal sum—say sixpence?"

"Well, in that case," replied the Scot, "since you press me, and no' liking to refuse an offer well meant, I might 'll tak twa boxes."

Queen requests are often received for prescriptions which might puzzle either doctor or chemist far more skilled than the proprietor of the ordinary drug store.

"If we're right," the public will grab these as offered. If they do, they will be getting goods at close to the first cost.

A Great Blessing to be Freed of Indigestion For Years He Suffered After Almost Every Meal—Attributes Complete Cure to Use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. The experience of many people who suffer from indigestion is like that of the writer of this letter. Stomach medicine may bring some relief, but chronic indigestion is almost invariably the result of derangement of the liver, kidneys and bowels. All these can be actually cured until these organs are set right. With the liver sluggish there is constipation, and the food ferments in the bowels instead of being digested. This is the source of pain and suffering, and the cause of such dread diseases as appendicitis, peritonitis, and kidney disease. It is much better to be on the safe side and prevent such ailments by the timely use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Mr. J. D. E. Barrett, Nelson, B.C. and formerly of Tillamook, Nnd. writes:—"For several years I was a great sufferer from indigestion. The least bit of food caused me considerable trouble, and often I could scarcely eat a meal a day. The many remedies I tried proved futile until I began the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and after using about eight boxes I was completely cured. "Since that time I have not been troubled with indigestion, which I consider a great blessing. I feel grateful for this cure, and shall gladly answer any inquiries from persons suffering as I did." MEAT PIE, SAME AS "MOTHER MADE" By Caroline Coe Meat Pie—Combine any left-over meat and vegetables and put into a baking dish. Over this pour any gravy you may have. Then make a biscuit crust and place it over the top of the baking dish. Put in oven and bake until the crust is brown. Biscuit Crust—1 cup flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1-2 teaspoon salt, enough milk to make a soft dough (about 1-4 to 1-2 cup) 4 level teaspoons butter. Mix and sift the dry ingredients. Then rub in the butter until the mixture looks like meal. Add milk gradually. When all is moistened turn out on to a floured board; roll out to about 1-4 inch in thickness and spread over the top of the dish.

OUR KHAKI BOYS AT THE IMPERIAL

26th Regiment on The Screen—Fine Vaudeville and Hilarious Comedy

The Imperial registered a tremendous success yesterday with its new programme. Naturally, the chief factor in it was the motion pictures of the 26th Battalion, Second Overseas Expeditionary Force, mobilized in this city from all parts of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island. Needless to state, the soldiers themselves were out in force to see their living pictures as well as their sweethearts and relatives from all sections of the city. The picture was more than 1,000 feet long and depicted Col. McAvity and his immediate staff, the officers of the 26th regiment in complete number and a parade of the men on King square in which the film showed every man as distinctly as if he posed for his picture in a studio. Then there were spirited scenes in Manchester's Field, Lancaster, where Col. McAvity and his officers put the men through some exciting evolutions and their charge across the field with a half mile of glittering bayonets, elicited tremendous applause. There were other views of the soldiers and throughout the whole reel of pictures, there were numerous titles and subtitles, which fully explained the pictures to those not familiar with the officers and men. It was a splendid picture of the soldier and doubtless the showing of it today and again on Wednesday, will be greeted with more large crowds.

The other big feature of the bill was a two-reel comedy "His New Job" introducing the king of comic pantomime, Charles Chaplin, late of the Dury Lane Theatre, London, and also a member of Fred Karno's great British troupe of fun-makers. This was a most hilarious affair and the crowd was sopping with laughter before it was over. The "Hassard's Helen" served up more of those railway thrills and the Hearst-Selig Weekly depicted among other things, the attempted dynamiting of the Vancouver bridge, with pictures of the German, Vanhorn, also the effect of the Zeppelin raid in England and some splendid scenes of the Italian earthquake disaster.

Reddy and Currier, a refined singing and happy programme, was much favored with their budget of late popular songs and standard selections. Miss Currier is an accomplished harpist and on a splendid instrument, rendered a number of difficult and tuneful selections. The act is quite in keeping with the vaudeville show at the Imperial and will be greatly enjoyed throughout the week.

On Wednesday, the Imperial will present Ouida's well-known novel "The Dan" by the Thannhouser Co. in four reels.

TORONTO ONT.

Lady Violet Ryvers, wife of Lord Randolph, whose mother, the dowager Lady Ryvers, is bitterly opposed to the match. The role of the young wife received into the house of her cold and scornful mother-in-law was difficult and trying, but Miss Adams easily fulfilled the demands upon her ability. Mr. Young appeared as Lord Randolph and especially popular "Thorne and Orange Blossoms" will continue until Thursday when "The Banker's Child" will be the presentation.

GEM OPENS WEEK WITH ATTRACTIVE PROGRAMME

Stirring Two Part Drama, Bright Comedy and New Play Weekly—The "Jenny" Bus Shows in Operation

A two-part feature of exceptional interest was given at the Gem Theatre yesterday "The Seratch of the Pen," a high pitch of excitement. This feature will be repeated today.

The Pathe News Weekly contained the first showing of the "Jenny Bus" in St. John. This vehicle has caused a furore in American cities, and it was interesting to see it in pictures at the Gem Theatre. There were some excellent scenes from the war some-pictures of interest to all admirers of the Allies or sympathizers with them in their cause. In addition a comedy bright and snappy, gave pleasure, while the orchestra had a new and attractive programme of musical novelties.

ANOTHER WEEK OF PROMISE IS BEGUN

Appealing Play at Opera House and More Entertaining Vaudeville

A sweet, appealing story of love and romance, based on the marriage of a pretty girl from the "middle classes" into titled society is the theme of the play "Thorne and Orange Blossoms" presented at the Opera House last night to an appreciative audience by the Young Adams Co. The story is well told, and as enacted by the players at the Opera House, all the better points were clearly defined. It is replete with stirring scenes, with a high sense of emotion and pathos, although a scintillating vein of humor runs through the piece.

The play was well staged, a scene in the streets of London being especially well mounted. The parts were distributed to excellent advantage, Miss Adams adding further to her laurels in the role.

The Mutual Weekly is featured in the picture programme, and contains a series of remarkably good war scenes. BOSTON DOES WELL FOR BRITISH AID

Large Sum For Rel of Raised at Enthusiastic Gathering—Sir Geo. E. Foster a Speaker

(Christian Science Monitor, Boston, Friday, Feb. 26)

A large sum of cash and pledges, the exact amount of which was not given, was raised at a mass meeting in aid of the British Imperial relief fund at Tremont Temple last night.

Nearly 1,000 persons attended the meeting and enthusiasm ran high throughout. The speakers were Sir Geo. E. Foster, Canadian minister of trade and commerce; Dr. W. Peterson, president of McGill; Rustom Rustomjee, a former Bombay publicist, and Rev. Paul Revere Frothingham, pastor of the Arlington street church. Bishop Lawrence was to have been a speaker, but he was unable to be there and a letter was read expressing his regrets.

G. Herbert Winderler, president of the fund, presided. He told of the relief work and what needs had to be met. "We have sent over to the fund in London," he said, "sums amounting to $30,000, and have contributed to the owners' families fund $25,000, and a like sum to the Canadian patriotic fund in Ottawa. We are also daily contributing in no small degree to the support of families in New England, whose bread winners have gone to the front, and the demand is every day increasing."

Sir George Foster told what Canada

shall keep nations from breaking the peace." Rev. Mr. Frothingham spoke of the 100 years of peace between the United States and Canada, saying that the two nations are now more friendly and closely knit than ever.

President Peterson of McGill defended so-called British navalism.

Rustom Rustomjee spoke on the "Indian Aspects of the War." He told of the support India is giving its emperor in sending native troops to Europe.

The Belgian relief fund is now $221,000.00, and the Red Cross total $110,441,000. Children are to canvass houses in the Hebrew section of the city for contributions to the Jewish relief fund.

Britain's Plans Disclosed

No Commodities of Any Kind to or From Germany, Says Asquith—Combined Fleets Back of This—Stirring Speech on War Situation

London, March 1, 10.10 p.m.—If the combined fleets of Great Britain and France can prevent it, no commodities of any kind, except those necessary on the seas, shall henceforth, until the conclusion of the war, reach or leave the shores of Germany.

This is England's answer to Germany's submarine blockade, and it is to be effective forthwith.

Referring to the German naval campaign against British shipping, Premier Asquith declared that Germany had violated systematically all the conventions intended for the mitigation of warfare.

Germany, he declared, was not blockading and could never blockade English shores. Referring to the attack on the Dardanelles, the premier said that there had been no impairment of strength of the Allies in France, or in England as a result of withdrawal of men for service in the campaign against Turkey.

Mr. Asquith ridiculed what he called the German blockade, and asked: "Where is the German fleet?" It had been seen on the sea only twice since the war began, he said.

"The plain truth is that the German fleet is not blockading, cannot blockade and never will blockade the English shore," the premier continued.

"The measures to be adopted by France and Great Britain, however, will not involve risks to neutral vessels or neutral lives. Every good druggist sells Catarrhose, large outfit $1.00; small size 50c; trial size 25c.

remember that this phase of the war was not initiated by us. We do not propose to assassinate their seamen, or destroy their ships." The Allies will hold themselves free to capture goods of presumed enemy origin or destination.

"The gravity of our immense task increases each month," he continued. "The call for men has been responded to nobly, both at home and throughout the empire."

The men drew back all save one, who adjusted a percussion instrument in the breech and kept the string of it in his hand.

"Open your mouths!" somebody whispered. "Guns thunder in succession."

A long, white flame shot out of the gun, accompanied by a report so loud it cannot describe it, and followed by a rattle of whizz. At the same time, the great cannon roared back on the wedges which had been set behind its wheels.

Our automobiles chugged up a winding lane into the hills and presently came to a stop in a forest. Chastly trucks of big wheels among black pines.

Through my binocular, despite the fading light of the cloudy afternoon, I beheld a magnificent panorama. At the bottom of the valley lay the poplar-bordered Aisne, so swollen with rain that it overflowed here and there into the meadows.

Two were shelling the German trenches and two the German batteries on the far-off slope.

The effect on the batteries was invisible to me, but the officers seemed to follow the shells perfectly, though the glasses were no better than mine.

"I shall give them the next one a trifle more to the left," remarked the officer, complacently.

After congratulating our new acquaintances on their marksmanship continued along the edge of the cliff through the woods to the right. We had

Lay Off Johnson-Willard Fight! Don't Bet a Cent, Fullerton's Warning To Boxing Fans

Expert Reviews Questionable Features of "Battle For Heavyweight Championship of The World," and Can't See It as a Contest For People to Get Excited Over

Jess Willard

How Jess Willard looks in training—Poses of white heavyweight who is to fight Jack Johnson, taken in training quarters near El Paso, Texas.

(By Hugh S. Fullerton). Whether Jack Johnson and Jess Willard fight at Juarez or Havana on March 6 or any other date, here is the next tip on the battle: Don't bet a cent!

The conditions surrounding the match are, to say the least, suspicious, the recent betting among those alleged to be close to the principals and the promoters is more so, and the entire atmosphere is bad. There are rumors and gossip among the sporting fraternity that hint at a big job being pulled off. I have heard it stated in several ways, but whether or not the match is on the level it is the best one of recent years to avoid in a betting sense.

Jack Johnson is not now, has not been in the last two years and never will be in condition to fight a good heavyweight. He has not fought "on the level" in a long time. His match with Jim Johnson in Paris was a cross between a joke and a scandal, and his match with Frank Moran was as bad. Johnson went into the ring against Moran in wretched condition, bloated rather than fat, and showing the effects of the life he has led for years. There is no evidence that he has slowed down in the pace he has been keeping. Those who saw him in London recently say he was still going as rapidly as his purse would permit.

Then he took a long sea voyage to South America, and those aboard the ship report that they did not see him training, and that he was living as high as possible on ship board. The same report comes from the vessel that brought him from South America. He has no training force, no sparring partners and he has done very little work. It is reported in Chicago among negroes and others who have been close to the big cotton-field that Jack is broke and needs the money. On that basis, reports have gone out that he has agreed to "hop" to Willard.

In justice (or, rather in reason), I must say I do not believe Johnson would lay down to anyone. He is an ignorant, conceited, spoiled negro. His vanity is beyond belief. If anyone could persuade him he would not lose his standing, he would be willing enough to hold him. I doubt whether money, even, would tempt him to throw away his title.

Nothing would be gained by arranging for Willard to lay down. Nine-tenths of the fight fans believe that Johnson, if he is even half way in condition, can whip Willard. From a sporting standpoint the fight is a joke. Johnson, in the condition he was when he fought Jeffries, could beat four Willards in an evening.

Some one has kidded Willard into taking himself seriously. He is a very bad, very awkward and strong fighter. He is old—from a ring standpoint. His footwork is a jest, and the only redeeming feature is that he is willing and a hard worker. He can hit almost as hard as Eddie McGoorty can, and has about one-half the skill in delivering blows. In plain English, if Johnson is in fit physical condition to punch a bag eighteen minutes, he can whip Willard.

whose only chance is to avoid being beaten until the negro gets so weary he cannot hold up his arms or move his legs.

The day after the "fight" (if it ever takes place) the entire country will be saying these same things. Why not say them now instead of "bunking" the public into thinking a great battle for the heavyweight championship is to be fought?

WOLGAST ROASTS RING CHAMPIONS

Former Title Holder Pays His Respects to Freddie Welsh—Says He is a Joke

Chicago, March 1.—"What do I think of the present day lightweights? Everybody seems to be asking me this question," says Ad Wolgast. "There is no such thing as a 138 pound division. You may call them lightweights, all right, but as far as making the weight is concerned, the class is a joke. I can name all the real weightmakers on one hand, and as for the rest, including Freddie Welsh, they belong in the welterweight division. Welters or lights, I still think I can beat them."

"Welsh, above all champions, is the biggest joke of them all. Bat Nelson hung the title of chess champion on me after I faced him; but, believe me, the Battler never saw the Englishman in action. He's the biggest frost fighting in the ring today, or any other day. "Charlie White is a good boy, but he lacks the 'pep' to make a real 'boss' of the division. I am ready to meet him any time some promoter says the word. He sneaked through on a popular decision when he met me before."

"White has everything a fighter needs except the ambition to fight. I always have said that he cares too much about his looks to be a top-notch, and I still think so. But give him a little aggressiveness and the old fighting instinct and he would be a 'boss' any time he looks up with Welsh in twenty rounds I'll take a ticket on Freddie. In ten, things must be different. "Willie Ritchie is impossible. He never was a great fighter and he got the luckiest kind of a 'break' when he won the title from me on a foul. Outside of Welsh he is the best preliminary boy that ever sneaked to the top without having the necessary championship ability. Both of these fellows would have made fine battlers against such men as Nelson or Gans—perhaps."

"I do not know much about Joe Shugrue, but I suppose he is like the rest of the no-decision champs. They fight around the old home town all their life and pile up scores of paper verdicts without taking part in a real contest. The no-decision laws certainly have made fortunes for a lot of 'ham-and-egg' boys. There is a lot of difference between a popular and referee's decision."

LUDECKE WON WRESTLING MATCH

Harry Ludecke.

In McDonald's gymnasium last night about fifty wrestling fans assembled to witness a match between Harry Ludecke and an "unknown." The latter was a foreigner from New York, but failed to put in an appearance. Promoter McDonald explained that he had received word from him that he was held up by the immigration authorities, therefore he had decided to substitute his star pupil, Pauly Vasiliff, a Bulgarian. Some of the spectators were dissatisfied and demanded their money back, while others hissed them and called them poor sports.

The first match of the evening was between two locals O'Toole and Brooks and went fifteen minutes to a draw. The former had to concede considerable weight to his opponent, but despite this forced the match from the very beginning. He is a clever wrestler and exceptionally quick. Brooks also did well and gives promise of developing into a good wrestler.

The second match was a sparring exhibition between two of McDonald's pupils, Levine and Sullivan. They boxed three two minute rounds. They were both clever and received considerable applause.

The main match of the evening between Ludecke and Vasiliff was then started. For eighteen minutes the men went at it and during that time gave a fine exhibition. Ludecke won the fall with a head scissor and arm hold. His opponent is only a young fellow about 140 pounds in weight, and only a novice at the game, therefore his work called forth the plaudits of the assemblage. He is a clever and game wrestler and is expected to develop into one of the best men of his class in Canada. Dan McDonald is given credit for developing much clever mat artists in the short time he has had his school open. During the match the Bulgarian hurt one of his arms and his friends advised him to discontinue as he might injure it seriously. McDonald then announced that he awarded the match to Ludecke.

Is 83 Years Old And Her Heart Does Not Bother Her.

Thanks to MILBURN'S Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mrs. J. McLaren, Comamunda, Ont., writes us under date of February 9th, 1914. "Sixteen years ago I took bad with my heart and nerves, and was not able to do anything. I tried a good many doctors, but they did me no good; in fact one doctor gave me up to die. I heard about Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and I thought I would give them a trial, and after using a couple of boxes I saw that I was improving. I kept on using them for quite a long time. I am eighty-three years old and my heart does not bother me at all."

"I am raising a little girl who was never very strong, and the doctor said that she had palpitation of the heart, so I started to give them to her. She is now twelve years old, and they are doing her more good than I can possibly tell you. I would advise anyone who has a weak heart to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, as they have done wonders for us."

CALL FOR CANADIAN DOCTORS FOR SERBIA

Quebec, March 2.—Sir Lormer Gouin, premier of Quebec, has a letter from Georges V. Todorovitch, secretary of the Serbian royal legation, asking for the names and addresses of Canadian doctors who would volunteer to serve in the Red Cross hospitals of Serbia. The letter says Serbia is in dire want of physicians to attend wounded soldiers, and adds that the volunteers speaking various languages would be much appreciated. No restriction is put on any one but the letter says that doctors speaking English, French or German, would be of help in the campaign.

ROSS MUST PAY $100 OR GO TO JAIL FOR FORTY DAYS

Sentence For Ringing in False Alarm of Fire—Chinese Opium Case Tomorrow

Fred Ross, who was arrested on a charge of ringing in a false fire alarm was fined $100 or forty days in jail by Magistrate Ritchie in the police court this morning. Policeman O'Neill and Detective Killen testified. When the prisoner was asked to plead he said he had been drinking that day and had not been near Wright street. He said he considered that they arrested him because he had been caught ringing in a false alarm once before.

Three Chinese, Hun Wing and Chong You, charged with smoking opium and San Lee, charged with having opium in his possession, are at central station as the result of a raid made by Detective Killen, Policeman McBride and three special policemen last night on Lee's store, 87 Brussels street. Lee had attempted to leave the city earlier in the evening but was arrested and pipes and opium were found in his suitcase seized. They were valued at about $150. His place was raided and the other two Chinese taken, together with more opium and pipes aggregating in value another $150.

In the police court this morning the three were remanded. They were not asked to plead and no evidence was taken. The case is to be resumed tomorrow morning at nine o'clock. One of the Chinese had a cough and a friend asked the magistrate to allow him out on that account. He said that his friend had heart trouble and was afraid to stay in the cell. The magistrate said he would let him out on $500 bail, but the sum was not forthcoming and they were sent below.

Two men and one woman were fined 88 or two months in jail for drunkenness.

A boy arrested for using obscene language was reprimanded and allowed to go home accompanied by his mother.

BRACK UP OF THE HIGHLAND PIPE BAND BECAUSE OF WAR

Members Away to Fight for the King and Empire

Citizens who are lovers of Highland pipe music, will regret to hear that, owing to many of its members having gone to the front or going, the St. John Highland Pipe Band has disbanded. Piper Alex Campbell left the other night by C. P. R. for Montreal to go on the staff of Major Malcolm McAvity. Mr. Campbell was piper in D. Company, 88 Battalion, of which Captain MacArthur is in command. Mr. Campbell was formerly piper in the Argyle and Sutherland Highlanders, and piped that regiment through many a hard fight in the Boer war.

Another of the boys going is Piper Frank Ross, of this city. He is a son of Mrs. John Ross of Waterloo street, and can be seen at the head of the Army Service Corps.

Other members are on the firing line by this time, having either gone with the first Canadian Highland troops or back into their former Highland regiment. Those that are left belonging to the band are only two or three, and home affairs have kept them back.

MANY OUT OF WORK YET BECAUSE OF STORM

Quebec, March 2.—Although Quebec is gradually recovering from the shock of last week's storm, there are yet hundreds of men and women out of work on account of eleven factories being shut down from lack of power, transmitting wires have not yet been replaced. The havoc from the storm is tremendous.

HE SAYS GOSSIP; THE COURT SAYS DRINKING

Walter Cooper, who was arrested recently on a charge of threatening to split his wife's head open with a stove lifter, was brought into court this morning and further remanded. He said he was a laborer, employed at the winter port sheds in West St. John. The gossip of neighbors, he said, was the cause of trouble in his home, as his wife paid too much attention to it. On the other hand the magistrate said he had information that his frequent application to the bottle was the direct cause of the family squabbles. He sent him below until his wife could appear and tell her side of the story.

DIED IN THE WEST.

A letter received last evening by Mrs. John H. Paris brought the distressing news that her sister, Mrs. Charlotte Ketchum Griffith had died on February 22 in Edmonton, Alta., after a week's illness from pneumonia. She was the wife of Dr. James E. Griffith, a native of Woodstock, who has been practicing in the west for some time. Mrs. Griffith was a daughter of the late Francis Ketchum of this city, and besides her husband and sisters, is survived by one son, Francis K., of Cambridge, Mass., and four daughters, Mrs. F. H. Dow, Misses Madeline and Charlotte Louise, of Edmonton, and Margaret K., of Cambridge, Mass. Frank Ketchum of the post office staff here is a nephew and Miss Alice Barr Ketchum a niece.

George Dalzell Writes Home To Parents in Fairville

Mr. and Mrs. George Y. Dalzell of Fairville have just received another letter of interest from their son George who is with the British imperial forces in France or Belgium, fighting the Germans. The letter is dated from the field post and of course, gives no indication of the location. He is with the 8th Royal Field Artillery and is telephone instructor at the 14th Brigade headquarters. He writes in part—

"We have been on the firing line some time. It is very interesting. You don't want to think too much what will happen to me as I don't care for my part and it is only for your sake that I worry. Your gloves arrived. They are excellent."

"As I am writing the shells are screaming all around us. They have been in front of us, behind us, both sides, but they will not come here, as my luck is in."

"I would not have missed this war for anything. The German is a crafty beast and it takes us all the time to steer clear of their shells but we have them beaten already."

"I get plenty to eat and am comfortable and have plenty of good warm clothes. Don't send a muffler as I have one, a dandy, given to me by a lady in England. Send paper and envelopes but not stamped. I saw in the newspaper about the bridge blown up at Vancouver. This paper is part of a Belgian day book."

Corporal Dalzell, though thirty-two years old, is not seeing active service for the first time. He was with the British army for three years in South Africa, part of the time in the Boer war. He was for five years in India and then on the reserve list for four years. When the call came to take up arms again he was in Prince Rupert, B. C.

In either the Battle of Mons or the Battle of the Marne in the present war he was thrown from his horse and trampled on as a result of which he was in Woolwich Hospital for a time but some weeks ago, having recovered he was again at the front. Corporal Dalzell's home is at North Head, Grand Falls, but the family recently came to Fairville to live.

From William Hayes.

William Hayes, of the C. A. S. C., in a letter to his mother, Mrs. Henry Hayes, 122 Market Road, tells of his detachment having received orders to leave for France on the following Sunday. The letter is dated from Tidworth and he says that "Shaggy and all the other St. John boys have left for different places," but whether in England or for the front he does not explain. He had just returned after six days leave, which he enjoyed in London.

At the meeting of the directors of the C. A. S. C., last evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, A. C. Gregory; vice-president, M. J. Doherty; treasurer, M. D. Brown, and secretary, W. H. Allingham.

LECTURE LAST NIGHT

In the rooms of the Father Mathew Association in St. Malachi's Hall, last evening, Rev. Dr. Bourgeois gave an interesting address dealing with Rome and the Vatican. He dealt with his subject in a remarkably entertaining way, and gave pleasure to all who heard him. His descriptions of Rome, the Vatican, St. Peter's with their works of art and sculpture, proved particularly instructive. Dr. Bourgeois told of having been in audience some eight or nine times with the late Pope Pius, and of having seen the present Pope Benedict on his elevation to the office of cardinal.

GIVEN A CHANCE

Thomas Davis, who was sentenced to nine months in jail recently on a charge of drunkenness and interfering with pedestrians, was given his freedom by Magistrate Ritchie this morning. He told Davis if he would take the "edge and sent the document to him within forty-eight hours that he could go. If the document was not forthcoming, Davis was to be re-arrested and made serve the full penalty.

PAINFULLY INJURED

Miss Adelaide Kiernin, of North End, was painfully injured last night in a fall down a flight of steps which rendered her unconscious for some time. She sustained severe injuries to her head, besides being badly shaken up. The young woman was attended by Dr. P. J. Hogan. Her friends are hopeful that her injuries will not prove serious.
