BIRDS RETURN TO ANCESTRAL HOME

New York Herald Sees Humor in Canadian Imports of Hungarian Turkeys.

The New York Herald, commenting humorously upon the report that Canada is importing turkeys from Hungary for the Christmas dinner table and that these Hungarian birds are being sold at lower prices than the Canadian-grown turkeys, says that for the confirmed peasant this news must offer additional evidence that the world is at sixes and sevens. "Turkeys are as native to North America as skylarks are to the Old World," continues the Herald. "Once the wild turkey was common all the way from southern Canada down to Mexico. The Colonial farmer whose land included a patch of woods had a wild turkey run at his door. There are some left in unsettled sections of Canada, in our own South and Southwest and in Mexico. "The Hungarian birds that are to be in state on the dining room tables of the Dominion are undoubtedly descendants of the noble North American turkey. Europe first became acquainted with these birds when the Spaniards brought them over from Mexico in the sixteenth century. Others from further north were probably introduced in England. Turkeys were not known in Europe before the discovery of the New World. Guinea

REGAIN PRESTIGE GERMAN DREAM

Hope of 'Day' to Come is Shown in Unveiling of a Statue from South Africa.

Hamburg, Dec. 10.—(By Mail)—"Stood in Dar-es-Salaam 1908-1918; stood, re-erected in Hamburg 1922 to this above inscription appears on the bronze statue of Hermann von Wissmann, one-time Governor of German East Africa, whose memorial was recently unveiled here after being transferred from its original site in that former German colony. The blank date line speaks volumes. It embodies Germany's dream of one day regaining her lost prestige as a colonizing power. It signifies the confidence, born of determination, that she will some time recover the colonies swept away from her by the international adjustments following the World War. The Germans hope some day to fill this blank with a date, but only such date as marks the return of East Africa to the fold of the Fatherland, when von Wissmann's monument can go back to the shores of the Indian Ocean. Speakers at the unveiling ceremonies urged renewal of the vows to carry on in Germany's political fight for the return of her war-lost possessions overseas. They said von Wissmann, as personified in the statue, was merely in Hamburg "on leave of absence home."

Dr. Theodor Seitz, who is president of the German Colonial Society, whose representations through the foreign minister for reconstruction were responsible for bringing the monument back to Germany. It was decided that here, at Germany's gateway to the world, the memorial could serve a mission by inspiring travelers with the colonial glory that was Germany's, and by proclaiming her determination to regain that "place in the sun." Von Wissmann was born September 4, 1853, and died June 15, 1906. As an infantry lieutenant in 1874 he made the acquaintance of Kari Pogge, who became one of Germany's illustrious explorers. Pogge aroused Von Wissmann's interest in Africa, and together they set out from Germany in 1879 for an expedition across that Continent. They started from the Angola district in western Africa and explored together the Kasai River, the falls of which bear Von Wissmann's name. After they reached Nyangwe, on the Luabala River, Von Wissmann proceeded alone to Zanibar by way of Tanganyika Lake, Tabora and Sadani. On the Congo he had his first experience at suppressing an Arab rebellion, and further in the journey he made the acquaintance of the renowned Arabian leader Tippu Tippi, the monarch of Uganda. From 1883 to 1885 Von Wissmann made further explorations on the Kasai, and in 1886-87 accomplished his second trans-Continental expedition in that section of the country. As first imperial German Commissioner for East Africa it fell to Von Wissmann to deal with the great Arabian uprising under Buechiri and Bana Heri in 1890, which he quelled within a year. Through the organization of defense troops he made a safe passage for caravans through Tabora to the Tanganyika and to Kilimanjaro Mountain. It is said that this was accomplished in the face of severe opposition from the English. It won for him the title of nobleman of the German Empire and appointment as Governor of German East Africa, in which capacity he served during 1895 and 1896. In that office Von Wissmann became the sworn enemy of slave traders, whose widespread traffic he worked energetically to wipe out. His shrewdness led the natives to call him "the man with a dozen heads." The statue re-erected here is in life

FIRE 1,200 SHOTS TO MAKE AN ARREST Machine and Riot Guns are Brought Into Action. Follansbee, W. Va., Dec. 30.—Joseph Jones, 39 years old, was taken into custody after state police and deputy sheriffs had riddled his house with 1,200 bullets from machine guns and riot guns. He is charged with having threatened to shoot his wife unless she signed over her real estate. When the police broke into the house they found Jones lying in the dining room with a bullet in his leg. The prisoner was taken to a hospital at Wheeling. His condition is not serious. Jones barricaded himself in the house after his wife fled from the building to the home of a neighbor. She telephoned to the sheriff, charging that her husband had been drinking, and used a revolver to force her to sign a deed to her local property. Jones opened fire when Sheriff Stevens approached the house. The latter obtained reinforcements. Hundreds of persons, massed on a hill, watched the deputies batter the house with machine gun fire. Jones replied at brief

JIMMY'S "JEWEL" LADEN FINGERS CAUSE UNDOING Boy, 8, Overlooked by Santa Claus, Helps Himself to Nine Cheap Sparklers. Jimmy Lehme, 8 years old, gazed hungrily into a lunchroom window at Eighth avenue and Thirtieth street, New York, at a display of baked apples and pies of many varieties. Jimmy wore no overcoat, and his soiled and tattered coat was fastened about the neck with a huge safety pin. On his fingers he wore nine rings, which sparkled faintly in the glare of the window lights. He was ruminating on how he could best convert sparklers into food when he felt a heavy hand laid gently on his shoulder. Jimmy looked up guiltily into the face of Detective Fred Gloss of the West Thirtieth street station, who had seen the boy's fingers "blaze," and after a brief examination the two left for the police station, where four more rings and a watch and chain were found in his pockets, and where Jimmy told of the acquisition of his wealth. "Me an' me tree brudders at two sisters live with me fadder at 564 West Forty-ninth street," he said. "Me fadder's got a new mudder for us. I don't know her name. Santy Claus didn't leave nuttin' at our house. When I was goin' down Eighth avenue I seen re-rings in a five-an-ten and jes' took 'em. Nobody seen me." He said he found the watch. Detectives endeavored to get in touch with Jimmy's father, but he was not at home. The boy was charged with juvenile delinquency and sent to the Children's Society for the night. Success and Prosperity in The New Year We desire to extend to our numerous customers and friends the sincere wish that the New Year will hold for you health, happiness and prosperity. We also wish to take this opportunity of thanking for your liberal patronage extended us during 1922, an look forward with pleasure to enjoying your confidence in 1923. FIFTEEN MINUTES OF RADIO EACH DAY

By Edward N. Davis Formerly Technical Electrical Expert For U. S. Government

Lesson No. 194. POINTS TO REMEMBER.

REMEMBER THAT:

The sensitiveness of the average vacuum tube will be considerably improved by the use of a grid condenser and grid leak.

Radio-frequency amplification used in conjunction with a coil antenna is of considerable value in reducing interference as it combines the directional properties of this type of antenna with the selectivity in tuning afforded through the use of this form of amplification.

The velocity attained by sound waves in air is approximately 330 meters per second or 1,083 feet per second.

Amplifying transformers used for radio-frequency amplification are designed for operation over a limited range of wave lengths so that when amplification on a given wave length is desired, a transformer must be selected which includes this particular wave length in the band of wave lengths for which it is designed.

In regenerative circuits utilizing the "tickler" coil as a "feedback" circuit it is important that the proper polarity exist between the "tickler" coil and the secondary coil, as otherwise the energy fed back to the grid circuit from the plate circuit would weaken instead of strengthen the original oscillations.

When the resistance in the filament circuit is reduced and the current through the filament increases, the flow of electrons is increased until the "critical point" is reached.

CUBAN LIQUOR SHIP PUZZLES OFFICIALS

Steamer With Cargo for St. Pierre Entered a Florida Port in Distress.

Washington, Dec. 29.—It is expected that the Harding Administration in the next few days will come to a decision regarding the status of the Cuban steamer Miguel Ferrer, which is lying in the harbor at Fernandina, Fla., with a cargo of 5,000 cases of liquor aboard, which, according to the ship's papers, was bound for the fishing village of St. Pierre, off the south coast of Newfoundland.

Gland Cure a Huge Fraud,
Declares Doctor Matas—
Transplanting Methods
Recommended Only by Charlatans.

New Orleans, La., Dec. 29.—Dr. Rudolph Matas, head of the medical department of Tulane University, former president of the American Medical Association of the United States, following his return from the recent congress of French surgery in Paris, declared that the so-called transplanting of glands, animal or human, as a means to restore lost youth, was one of the most gigantic frauds ever perpetrated upon the race, and that it was the duty of the medical profession and newspapers to warn against what he described as the charlatans who are exploiting the gland theory.

In Paris, Dr. Matas met the most renowned surgeons of Europe, and he declared that these surgeons are unwilling to take any stock in the theory of gland efficiency in the restoration of youthful powers. Dr. Matas said: "A gland transplanting, as a means of restoring youthful powers to the old, men or women, is a gigantic fraud. The idea that aged persons, who have lost physical powers through natural processes, can be made young again by the grafting of a goat or a monkey gland, or a human gland, is too ridiculous to be discussed seriously."

"The doctors who claim to be able to restore physical vigor by operations involving the application of animal glands are unscrupulous quacks, and the newspapers should warn the public against them. A man is as old as his arteries. When these begin to harden and to grow tough, when the head becomes bald or the hair gray, when the bones grow brittle, making him young again is stretching the impossible into a thorough falsehood."

Ottawa. Patents have been granted by the Government to a lighting engineer by the name of Johnson, on a new lamp for burning ordinary kerosene oil. This lamp produces a vapor from the oil which makes a blue flame that incandesces a mantle, and thus creates a very strong, soft, pure white light. As it consumes only 6 per cent oil mixed with 94 per cent air, it is exceedingly economical. Said to be very simple to operate, odorless, noiseless, and dangerless.

O. K. Johnson, 248 Craig St. W., Montreal, also wants local distributors and has a very unique selling plan to offer agents. He is even offering to give one free to the first user in each locality who will help introduce this new light.

Dr. Matas, who was an active participant at the Paris conference of surgeons, said that while the conference made no attempt to discuss the gland theory, the matter was raised when Voronoff, the Russian surgeon, attempted to introduce the subject. Voronoff has been an ardent defender of the gland theory, but according to Dr. Matas the Paris conference refused to express any confidence in his methods, nor was he allowed to speak.

"In an informal way," Dr. Matas said, "leading surgeons of Europe discussed the gland theory, or, rather, the extensive propaganda which has been waged in support of it, but every surgeon ridiculed the argument that the transplanting of glands can restore lost vitality."

Refused to Hear Voronoff.

"The Paris congress of surgeons refused to hear Voronoff," Dr. Matas said, "because the awakened minds of the world know the idea of restoring youth to the aged is pure fallacy. The effect of new glands, under the idea of surgery, is much like a drink of good whiskey—it stimulates for the time, then dies, and the patient thereafter is worse than before."

"Gland grafting might stimulate temporarily in the case of a young man, but there is no hope for the old man, and with the young man, bear in mind, the stimulation is only temporary, and affects only the special organism to which it is applied. It will not make the hair grow on a bald head, as some of the quacks claim; it will not revivify arteries that have become hard; it will not under any circumstances, even in the case of a young man, establish procreative powers."

"There can be no generative powers from a goat or a monkey gland, or any sort of gland transplanted by surgical operation, because there can be no fertilization. The medical sharks have declared otherwise, but their declarations are false."

"It is a great pity that there are persons in the world willing and eager to squander their money and their time and imperil their self-respect on the experiments of these unscrupulous doctors, and it is the duty of the profession to urge upon newspapers especially the necessity of exposing this newest and greatest of American fakes. 'Some men are old at twenty-five, others at sixty-five, but in any case it depends upon the arteries, and of the arteries there is one thing of which science is absolutely sure: When an artery loses its flexibility there is nothing that will restore it. To say that glands—human glands, goat glands, monkey glands, or glands of any sort—will do it is preposterous.'"

Eight-year-old Girl Killed by Automobile When Crossing Street.

Hartford, Conn., Dec. 30.—The shop windows in the village of South Glastenbury weren't so bright as in Hartford the crowds weren't so large or so gay and the toys were pitiful by contrast so eight-year-old Frances Thomas stole away from South Glastenbury and came here to get the real Christmas spirit.

She found it, too. She joined the happy throng that jammed main street sidewalks and from window to window and from shop to shop she went, gazing unbelievably upon the brilliance of the window displays and wondering what mysteries might be found within the shops themselves. Little Frances was a part of the sidewalk crush; she shared its gaily and exuberance. It was a real Christmas adventure—alone in a strange city. Frances was glad she came.

The little girl, as she had moved along with the sidewalk stream, had clung close to the windows. When she reached Athenum street, however, she suddenly started across the sidewalk to the curb, with a view to crossing

Gillen Admits He Ran Down Man Who Blocked His Road—District Attorney Satisfied With Explanation.

New York, Dec. 30.—The puzzling death of Phillip Carberry, 34 years old, an automobile salesman of Mineola, whose bruised body was found on the road near the Clarence H. Mackay estate at Roslyn, L. I., on Monday night, has been solved. Lester J. Gillen of Hempstead, told District Attorney Weeks of Nassau County that he had run down a man standing in the road, presumably Carberry, in the belief that he was a robber who was trying to hold him up.

According to Gillen, who is a member of a well-to-do family, he and three friends were motoring from Sea Cliff to Hempstead when the killing happened. The friends were Joseph Cuttie, a golf professional; Raymond Porrier, an expert accountant; and Thomas J. Hartnett, an electrician. They came upon a Ford standing athwart the road, with two men near it. Gillen said he and his friends thought the men looked suspicious, so he turned out and sped past the car.

Gillen and his friends went to a nearby cottage to telephone the police, but failed to put through the call, so their story went. Then they turned around and went back. They saw the Ford and the two men again as they neared the spot. This time they said, one man stood in the middle of the road, his hands stretched out as if to stop them. Fearing a hold-up, Gillen put on full speed and dashed ahead, he admitted, his right hand striking the man and knocking him down. Later Gillen telephoned to Thomas J. Cuff, a former United States District Attorney, who notified District Attorney Weeks. Yesterday morning Mr. Cuff took the automobile party to the office of the District Attorney. Mr. Weeks indicated his satisfaction with their explanation. Russell Webber, a Mineola photographer, told the authorities that he and his wife, while driving from Glen Cove to Mineola, came across the Ford and two men. According to Webber, one man asked for help, saying that his friend, who was lying at the roadside had been shot by robbers who had held them up. Webber said that he took a pistol with three blank cartridges away from the man who accosted him. He surrendered the weapon.

Leon Jankowski, a fireman on the estate of Henry C. Phillips, told the authorities that Carberry was one of two men who had stopped him while he was riding a bicycle on the same road on Monday night and beat him badly about the face.

SIBERIAN TOURS ARE FILLED WITH MANY TROUBLES

Journey from Shanghai to Berlin on Trans-Siberian Railway is Described as Wretched in Service. London, Dec. 2.—(By Mail) An interesting account of a journey from Shanghai to Berlin across Siberia and Russia on the Trans-Siberian Railway is given by a German traveler in a recent number of the "German Gazette," according to a Berlin correspondent of "The London Times." The whole journey from Kharbin to Berlin took sixteen days and eighteen hours from October 31 to November 17. The journey by sea, even with the recently accelerated services, takes from twenty-seven to thirty days. The traveler attributes his success in overcoming the difficulties which beset the efforts of foreigners journeying on the Trans-Siberian Railway to the support of the official representatives of his country in Peking, Chita and Moscow, who, greatly interested in his experiment, did all in their power to help him. It took him two months to obtain the indispensable permission from Moscow. Hard travelers who had believed it sufficient to obtain Soviet consular visas at Kharbin paid heavily for their error; most of them had to spend several months in some deserted spot in Siberia awaiting permission to proceed further, and in the end to retrace their steps. The stage from Kharbin to Manchuria station, on which a fortnightly service is run, was made comfortably. At this station there is an inspection, and then by the Chinese customs officials, and then by the authorities of the Far Eastern republic. The latter is very tedious. Firearms may only be imported with a license, which is difficult to obtain, but even this permission, if granted, is subject to the condition that the traveler must provide immunity against his confiscation. The express of the Far Eastern republic runs on the second stage of the journey between Manchuria and Chita, and is provided with a restaurant and sleeping cars, but the fittings are extremely bad and the carriages filthy. As the electric light is permanently out of order, the traveler has to content himself with candles, which he must procure for himself before entering the train, as attacks by the irregular "white" hands are frequent. Dinners and various delicacies being provided throughout the journey, and fresh meat is taken in at intermediate stations. The tea is good, so are the wines from the Caucasus and the Crimea. The food, according to the traveler, is considerably cheaper than in pre-war days.

THE WONDER OF THE SUN Stockholm, Dec. 12.—(A. P. by Mail) "The sun can keep on shining at the present rate for another 86,000,000,000 years, and if human culture is to perish it will not be for lack of sunshine." This startling and whimsical statement was made in the course of a recent lecture by Dr. Svante Arrhenius, the Swedish authority on astrophysics, in which he explained certain theories and discoveries regarding solar conditions. "Suppose the sun were a mass of coal," said Dr. Arrhenius in order to illustrate his problem. "Giving forth heat energy at the present rate, it would then have lasted only 4,000 years, or about half as long as the period of known human history. But since there were living things of some kind on earth at least 1,000,000,000 years ago, and since there has evidently been very little deterioration of the sun during that period of time any theory of the expenditure of solar energy must provide for upwards of one hundred billion years."

Why Prudential Insurance costs less There is a difference in rates for life insurance. Some are higher than others. A high grade Prudential life insurance policy costs less. Because, Prudential operating expenses, through careful management, are lower. Careful selection of risks result in lower death rate. Large and continuously increasing volume of business reduces the per policy cost of insurance. Prudential policyholders share in all profits of the Company. Prudential is a Mutual Company. Ask the Prudential service man about plans and rates. The Prudential protects you, your family, your home, your business, your estate. The Prudential Insurance Co. of America Edward D. ### GOOD CHEER FROM 'PHONE FOLK TO NEEDY HOMES

Telephone Staff Supplied 25 Large Chests of Edibles and They Were Distributed This Morning.

Twenty-five homes in the city were made happy this morning through the thoughtfulness and kindness of the employees of the New Brunswick Telephone Company, who took a tangible means of conveying New Year greetings in the form of large well filled cases of edibles.

A few days ago the staff of about 800 men and women made ready for the continuance of this good work. A night was set aside for a general assembly and the recreation hall was appropriately decorated for the occasion. With the arrival of the members of the staff came large quantities of four kinds of edibles and before the evening was far advanced the hall resembled a grocery store.

Many of the articles were distributed on Christmas trees so as all could see the results of their efforts. A committee was organized to look after the distribution and packing of the food. Money which had also been contributed was used to purchase gifts as well as other essentials. O. J. Fraser was appointed general chairman, and had as his assistants Miss M. Butler, Miss M. Josephine, Miss A. Ryan, Miss G. Holmes, Miss P. Vincent, and Miss L. Duplissea and Messrs. J. W. Duncan, E. A. Nason, A. C. Lemmon and S. B. Ebbett.

Twenty-five large tea chests were packed. The weight of these averaged between 150 and 200 pounds, and each contained a bushel of potatoes, head of cabbage, four turnips, two dozen carrots, a half dozen beets, a half peck of apples, a half dozen oranges, a pound of candy, a pound of nuts, package of rolled oats, package of breakfast cereal, pound of soda biscuits, four cakes of soap, seven pounds of beef, two cans of condensed milk, one can of beans, one dozen of other goods, and each chest contained a pound of tea, six pounds of sugar, twenty-four pound bag of flour, a pound of butter, two loaves of bread, as well as boxes of home cooked doughnuts, cookies, etc.

Each morning the large cases were placed in four of the company's sleighs and distributed. Through the co-operation of the associated Charities the most needy cases were learned of and to them were assigned the New Year's gifts. The drivers of the teams on their route to headquarters told of the many blessings bestowed on the employees for their generosity, and in some cases of tears of happiness about the arrival of the welcome packages.

SPEEDY RUN FROM HERE TO THE COAST

Minnesota Passengers Making Southampton to Hong Kong in 37 Days via the C. P. R.

Montreal, Dec. 30.—From Southampton, England, to Hongkong in thirty-seven days is a fact. The distance is something more than 11,700 miles. Seven passengers who crossed the Atlantic on the C. P. steamship Minnesota are endeavoring to complete the trip in the thirty-seven days, and as they are now safely at sea between Vancouver and Hong Kong on the steamship Empress of Russia, which is due at Hong Kong well within the time limit, there is every chance that the trip will be concluded within the time.

The railway trip across Canada was made in excellent time. The Minnesota arrived at St. John at 12:25 p.m. on Dec. 28, and the passengers for the west, including the seven heading for the Orient, left that city at 8:30 p.m. on the same day, arriving at Montreal in time to catch the next morning's train for Toronto. At 10 o'clock that night they left for Vancouver, where they arrived at 10:30 on the morning of the 29th, and is due to arrive at Hong Kong on January 19.

"MAN ON THE ROOF" AND HIS TROUBLES MANY

Radio Workman Puts in a Period of Difficulty, Humorous After it is All Over.

The best may slip and the most cautious fall; He's more mortal than that never erred at all. —Pomfret.

He was mortal; he had no doubt of that as he stood a veritable block of ice in Main street and tried to blow a twinge of life into his benumbed fingers; the Christmas throngs passed him unheeded; he was almost too cold to move, but—

Media was to blame for the whole affair—for an hour or more crowded with more excitement than had ever been his lot during the span of his existence. Here's his story.

Episode One—The Ascent.
Over in the North End near Douglas avenue, a radio enthusiast encountered trouble with his aerial equipment and sent for a workman to repair it. In due time he arrived and was shown through a window on to the roof of the house in which the set operated. From here it was necessary for him to climb by a light ladder to an adjoining house and there he commenced work. As the operation progressed a wind sprang up which developed in velocity from minute to minute. When Our Hero completed his job and proceeded to descend he found that the breeze had made free with his means of descent and had deposited the ladder some feet away on the first roof. He was marooned.

Episode Two—Christmas Greetings.
His first thought was to seek other avenues of escape; but they were closed. Then he concentrated his attention on the window of a doctor's office across the street and waited. In a few minutes the doctor appeared. "Yoo-Hoo!" waved back the doctor. "Yoo-Hoo!" he waved across the street and disappeared from sight. "Men usually get very friendly this time of year," he smiled.

Meanwhile the breeze strengthened. The man was beginning to feel the effects of the exposure. From time to time he attempted to attract the attention of people passing along the street. Venturing as near as he dared to the cap of the roof and—being a radio man—he started to broadcast his distress signals.

Bracing himself against the stiffening wind with the aid of the chimney—"Yoo-Hoo!" he transmitted from a throat that was beginning to become husky. "Yoo-Hoo!" came back the hearty greetings from those who were within earshot. Things were beginning to look serious. The general public absolutely refused to look seriously on his predicament. The public were a stupid lot anyway; now, if only—

"His!" he exclaimed as his eyes rested for a moment on the hefty form of the traffic cop on duty at the street intersection. Here was sure salvation! At the first shout the cop looked up Main street; at the second, he looked down Main street; at the third he looked out Douglas street.

Meanwhile the wind had assumed the proportions of a young gale; the workman was chilled to the bone and it was not with difficulty that he managed to keep himself from being blown to the ground. The policeman's sense of hearing was evidently a bit off, so the marooned one decided to try his sense of touch.

He started to slip pieces of gravel and small chunks of ice at him. A few fell wide of the mark but he finally registered a direct hit on the back of the Bobby's neck. The guardian of the peace swung around and seeing a couple of lads loping off in the direction of Indiantown started in pursuit.

MONTREAL'S FIRE RECORD FOR 1922 A BAD ONE

Montreal, Dec. 29.—Eight Montrealers lost their lives, 138 were burned, injured or overcome by gas and 800 animals were burned to death as a result of fires in this city during the last 12 months. The large number of fires in big institutions, particularly Catholic ones, is one of the particular causes of the heavy loss of life and property.

Bank Clearings a Little Under 1921—Healthy Increase in Harbor Revenue and Gain in Building—The Taxes at City Hall.

A sign that St. John has passed the low mark in industrial conditions is indicated by the summary of the year's business in various public departments and services. Although there was a slight decrease in the bank clearings, as compared with 1921, the figures for 1922 are a slight falling off, a generous surplus in the earnings of the harbor department and a healthy increase in the amount of the building permits issued are reassuring.

GIVES EMPLOYEES HIS MILION A YEAR BUSINESS

H. A. Dix of New York Puts His Views Into Practice—Not First Generous Act. New York, Dec. 30.—It is twenty-seven years since Henry A. Dix founded a business that now yields a revenue of more than $1,000,000 a year. Three years ago he planned to sell it and this week he finally got rid of it. He gave it to his 400 employees, entrusting six of them with the charge. Instead of accepting money for the lead, he lent them $250,000 with which to do business.

From now on the firm of H. A. Dix & Sons, in the Dix Building, 116 West Fourth street, will be run by its employees according to their own views. Mr. Dix and his sons have withdrawn entirely from financial control and all of the profit will go to the workers. So the firm may not lose the value of his long experience, Mr. Dix has consented to sell it to the chairman of the Board of Directors, but the post is purely advisory and no salary or emolument goes with it.

"I have arranged that they shall have class A common stock as soon as they have completed three years in any of the four plants."

This is not the first act of the kind Mr. Dix has to his credit. Several years ago he gave his large country estate near Mount Kisco as a maintenance fund for his employees. He had completed three years in any of the four plants."

"When my father began business twenty-seven years ago, he said that workers generally got nothing but wages for their services and he felt such a system was wrong. He thought it was his duty to build up a business for another man should have some share other than mere wages in the business they have helped to create."

"From time to time he has tried to make changes which would recognize the human element in the success of a business concern. He shortened working days and made the week a five-day week. He inaugurated a system of dividend profits so that the employees should have their share of the turnover. He encouraged them to continue to grow and my father decided that instead of accumulating money he would give it to the employees. He thought it was his duty to build up a business for another man should have some share other than mere wages in the business they have helped to create."

BRIDEGROOM WAS TWICE KIDNAPPED

Boston, Dec. 30.—Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Raymond left Lynn this week on their wedding journey. The bride's father, the Rev. Howard G. Haggman, pastor of the Boston Street Methodist Church, had performed the ceremony, a group of Raymond's friends took him from the house and escorted him to Salem in an automobile.

After leaving him in Town Hall square, Salem, Raymond then had a taxicab and returned to the home of the bride's parents. The wedding guests were waiting for him, and the same group of friends again "invited" him from the house and escorted him to Lynn, where they left him. By the time Raymond returned to Lynn, he was in a taxicab and he had his leg bruised when it was struck by a truck.

A Stubborn Cough Losens Right Up
This home-made remedy is a very simple and quick result. It is a family supply and children love it.
To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex into a 16-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get 16 ounces—a family supply that is much better than any other you could buy ready-made for $2.50. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.
Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membrane.
To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guarantee to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

Lovers Who Murdered Husband Must Hang; Wife's Last Appeal Denied

Mrs. and Mr. Thompson

London, Dec. 29—Mrs. Edith Thompson must hang. With her lover, Frederick Bywater, who stabbed the woman's husband in the back as the couple were walking along the street, she must die on the scaffold for one of the most wilful cold-blooded murders England has known in years. The Lord Chief Justice, to whom both Bywater and the woman appealed, has denied their appeal and closed the case. The verdict of the jury will stand. The only hope of life to the pair is the Home Secretary, to whom appeal will be made at once. If he is disposed to ask leniency, it is understood that it will be because Mrs. Thompson is about to become a mother. Even then, it is expected, sentence of death will not be revoked, but a story of execution given until after the birth of the child. No sympathy is felt for Mrs. Thompson; but protest is general over the taking of the life of an unborn child. In spite of Mrs. Thompson's sex and of general disapproval of capital punishment, opinion of both men and women on both sides of the Atlantic has been that justice demands equal punishment for the two. If Bywater hangs, the woman denied having connived at the stabbing of her husband, but admitted having fed her husband ground glass on several occasions to "weaken" him so that if he had a heart attack he could not survive it. Letters in passionate terms, discussing means of doing away with Thompson, which passed between the two, were shown in court.

WILL DEMOLISH PRISON IN PARIS

Saint Lazare, for Women, is Both Famous and Notorious in French History—Founded as Leper House.

Paris, Dec. 10.—(A. P. by Mail)—The Saint Lazare prison for women, which is both famous and notorious in the annals of French history, has been ordered torn down by the municipality of Paris. It was in this prison that during the general war certain well known women spies in the pay of Germany were detained, often previous to execution. Mata-Hara, the Red Dancer, spent her last days in the building. Founded in 1110 as a leper house, five centuries later it was taken in charge by the monks of the order of Saint Victor who abolished the leper house feature, and used the building as a monastery. During this period of the building's history the great military and literary figures of France frequented the gardens. Then, for a brief thirty years, it was used as a political prison, and with the coming of the French revolution, in July, 1789, during the famine, the women of Paris, discussing means of doing away with Thompson, which passed between the two, were shown in court.

The Sunday school of St. John's Church was to hold a sleigh drive last evening, but the weather intervened, and the sleigh drive was given in the school room instead. Henry Morrison, Mr. Harrison, J. P. Brown and Rev. A. L. Fleming had charge of the programme. Refreshments were served and each child was given a big box of candy. The annual Christmas tree and treat for St. Andrew's Sunday school was held Thursday evening. The officers and teachers of the school served supper to about 200. The Christmas tree became the centre of attraction for supper and Santa Claus made his appearance. A. H. Murphy, superintendent of the school, was in the chair. Sots were given by Miss Jean Dowling and Stewart Fine. A large number of young folks attended the annual Christmas treat for the Victoria Street Baptist Sunday School. A delightful programme was carried out by the children. Rev. G. D. Hudson, in a short address, the distribution of gifts from a well laden tree followed the programme and Santa Claus was kept busy. Miss Zella Pearson was in charge and much of the success of the affair was due to her management. The annual Christmas treat of the Ludlow Street Baptist Church was held last evening. A literary and musical programme was carried out and great enjoyment. R. H. Parsons, superintendent of the school, had charge of the entertainment, assisted by the teachers of the school. C. Flewelling took the part of Santa Claus. The children of the Carlton Methodist Sunday school enjoyed their annual Christmas tree and treat yesterday afternoon and evening. A fine programme was rendered and games were played.

WAGE WAR ON HOUSE FLIES

Will Attempt to Reduce Their Number in England Through Sanitation and Health Propaganda. London, Dec. 19.—(Associated Press, By Mail)—The reduction of the number of house flies from myriads to a comparatively few has been accomplished in England through sanitation and health propaganda, according to a statement by Dr. E. Halford Ross, medical assessor at the Ministry of Pensions. Dr. Ross, toured the British Isles last summer, and in those places where previously there had been thousands of flies, they were completely exterminated, he declares. Some of the way villages and farm houses still sheltered the grubs and insects, but these locations were not numerous. There has been a very great decrease in the figures on infant mortality, as compared to 1911, and the improvement is credited by Dr. Ross to the relative absence of flies.

STORM BRIEFS

The total snowfall during the storm was thirteen and one-half inches, making the December total to date thirty-nine inches, a record for the month as far as the official records are concerned. Where the snow had been tramped yesterday the extreme cold early this morning caused it to hard that it needed cutting in many places before the sidewalks could be cleared. A newborn named Melancton, of Clarendon street, was found overcome by the storm in a snowbank in front of the Union station last evening. He was taken into the station and brought around by rubbing and hot drinks and then accompanied home. He suffered no serious injury. While taking a patient to the hospital about four o'clock yesterday afternoon, the city ambulance crew was stalled in a snowbank in front of the institution and was there for nearly two hours while two fire hoses were brought to drag it out. The British schooner Annie L. Spindler, out of Yarmouth, N. S., was breaking up last evening under a fierce north-west gale. The schooner is high and dry on the rocks off the Race Point coast guard station. The schooner has 600 cases of whiskey aboard. She was bound from St. Pierre, Miquelon, to Nassau. The crew were rescued by breeches buoy. The trawler Betonia cleared from St. Pierre seventeen days ago for New York and is now several days overdue. According to her former owner at Sydney he is confident she will turn up alright. Captain Olsen, of St. John, is captain of the trawler.

The challenge for a Provincial Bank team of St. John has been accepted and in all likelihood the game will be staged in the Loyalist probably Saturday of next week. The Bankers' line-up has not yet been seen, but it is expected that Stewart, former goal guardian of the University Collegiate School, will be in nets for the financial men.

MORE LATH MILLS.

Fredrick Gleason: Lath mills continue to spring up in various sections of the province and various mills are now being equipped for winter awing. This morning sawing laths was started at the Rabbit mill in the town of Fairville in the Fredericton area. W. D. Gunter of this city, and it was said that several million would be manufactured there. R. H. Carman of Barker's Point is preparing to erect a lath mill near his home, and it is expected that it will soon be in operation, too.

"My Boy was Starving to Death"

"As He Was Getting No Nourishment He Was Gradually Wasting Away."

"Here's a story which will interest every mother. Before my boy was born, I was in such delicate health that the doctor didn't think I would survive the ordeal. For weeks after he was born my life was despaired of, so I couldn't feed him and the poor little fellow was left to the care of friends. He wasn't naturally strong. No care was taken in choosing his food and his poor little stomach became so weakened that he couldn't keep anything on it. As he was getting no nourishment from his food, he was gradually wasting away. Finally, in desperation, we sent for a child specialist and he said that my boy was starving to death. He could not play like other children without having to lie down and rest. My sister who lives on a farm near St. J. said that she could fix him up if I would send him to her. While I hated being separated from him, I was ready to make any sacrifice to get him strong. He was away from me for three months and it was with feelings of great excitement that I awaited his return as my sister had written me that I would be surprised when I saw my boy. When my sister got off the train, I could not believe that it was my own boy that she was leading by the hand. I never saw such a change in any child. He was fat and rosy and full of life with a happy smile. 'What on earth have you done to him,' I said. 'Why,' she replied, 'I simply made him live out of doors, gave him good food—and here's the secret, I gave him three bottles of Carrol before he had taken half a bottle his whole appearance had changed. He got heavier, his face took on a colour and he would run round for hours at a time. The change in my boy is the most wonderful event in my life. I am a regular fan' for Carrol and never lose a chance to boost it. As I write I am looking out of the window and when I see that rosy, active, healthy child running round, I cannot believe that he was once a puffy, delicate boy.'

Carrol is sold by your druggist, and if you can conscientiously say, after you have tried it, that it hasn't done you any good, return the empty bottle to him and he will refund your money."

NORTH POLE SEEKS A NEW LOCATION.

London, Dec. 13—(A. P. by Mail).—The earth is wobbling on its axis, according to Colonel P. Jensen, a Danish astronomer who returned after a degree measuring expedition into Greenland. He reports that Greenland is moving westward at the rate of 20 yards a year. This seems to confirm the recent reports of surprising climatic changes at the North Pole. It is now established that there is a periodic shifting of the latitude of the North Pole. The movement is difficult to detect because of the small area of the Pole—about the size of a tennis court. Some authorities say that the poles are gradually changing their positions, and that this alteration of the world's axis will in time mean that regions which are at present ice-bound will become warm and habitable countries.

COMMON ACCORD ON REPARATIONS

Paris Conference to Decide Action in Case of German Default

To Meet January 2—Quayd'Orsay Silent as to Intentions on Guarantees—Cuno's Proposal Expected on December 30.

(Special Cable to the New York Times and Montreal Gazette.)

Paris, Dec. 26.—The conference of premiers which is to commence here on January 2 will be simply a conversation at which the four Allies will, in the continuation of their exchange of views, endeavor to discover grounds of common accord which will enable them to carry their views before a general conference such as has been proposed for Brussels, at which they will decide what they will do, together or separately, in case of Germany's default in payment being registered and referred to them by the commission on reparations on January 15.

Under the existing conditions of reparations payments, Germany has reverted to the schedule laid down in London, May 6, 1921, and on January 15, in fulfillment of the terms of that schedule, she must make a payment of 500,000,000 gold marks as a quarterly installment on the annual total of 2,000,000,000 which it was included should be placed at the disposal of the Allies for redemption of the reparations bonds that the scheme inaugurated.

It is admitted even here in France that it will be impossible to obtain that quarterly payment, but the fact that Germany signed an undertaking to pay in the basis of all M. Poincaré's argument that guarantees must be taken that she will pay some time, and to that end today in the conference, finance demands that these guarantees be of a kind which will produce revenue where reconstruction can be continued.

About how this revenue is to be obtained there is still here the same mystery as since August last has all surrounded the premiers' plans. At the Quai d'Orsay it is stated in excuse for the paucity of information that it would be most injudicious for the Government to disclose its intentions before the last minute.

But, as has become known, indications that even at this date difficulties are presenting themselves which are immensely complicating the premiers' task.

Raise Currency Problem. To give only one instance, the Government financial experts are daily struggling with the question of raising the franc in the event of France erecting a customs barrier between the coal fields and the rest of Germany.

THE COAL SHORTAGE. Editor Times-Star: Sir—Buckwheat cost is an attractive first class quality, a size smaller than pea and about five dollars per ton cheaper. A good deal of the pea that has been on the market is not any larger than some of the buckwheat.

I have several times pointed out the long the service of a ton of egg and stove coal, as well as the economy to yourself and its usefulness even in holding your kitchen fire.

Through the courtesy of the Globe Publishing Co. allowing the use of their furnace for two days and nights I have made an experiment with buckwheat on soft coal fire with a view to ascertaining its usefulness for keeping the fire in all night without attention. The result shows that if you will cover a good soft coal fire with buckwheat at about six p. m. the fire will not only stay in for about twelve hours, but maintain a good heat. It will probably require a little adjustment of drafts according to the different locations in which it is used. This will enable those who have been duped about keeping a soft coal fire at night. Every day I am receiving instructions from the fuel committee at Ottawa to urge upon our dealers and people to provide themselves with quantity of soft coal as a reserve.

GEORGE S. CUSHING, Fuel Administrator, Province of New Brunswick. St. John, Dec. 28.

THE COAL SHORTAGE. Editor Times-Star: Sir—Buckwheat cost is an attractive first class quality, a size smaller than pea and about five dollars per ton cheaper. A good deal of the pea that has been on the market is not any larger than some of the buckwheat.

I have several times pointed out the long the service of a ton of egg and stove coal, as well as the economy to yourself and its usefulness even in holding your kitchen fire.

Through the courtesy of the Globe Publishing Co. allowing the use of their furnace for two days and nights I have made an experiment with buckwheat on soft coal fire with a view to ascertaining its usefulness for keeping the fire in all night without attention. The result shows that if you will cover a good soft coal fire with buckwheat at about six p. m. the fire will not only stay in for about twelve hours, but maintain a good heat. It will probably require a little adjustment of drafts according to the different locations in which it is used. This will enable those who have been duped about keeping a soft coal fire at night. Every day I am receiving instructions from the fuel committee at Ottawa to urge upon our dealers and people to provide themselves with quantity of soft coal as a reserve.

To Meet January 2—Quayd'Orsay Silent as to Intentions on Guarantees—Cuno's Proposal Expected on December 30.

(Special Cable to the New York Times and Montreal Gazette.)

Paris, Dec. 26.—The conference of premiers which is to commence here on January 2 will be simply a conversation at which the four Allies will, in the continuation of their exchange of views, endeavor to discover grounds of common accord which will enable them to carry their views before a general conference such as has been proposed for Brussels, at which they will decide what they will do, together or separately, in case of Germany's default in payment being registered and referred to them by the commission on reparations on January 15.

Under the existing conditions of reparations payments, Germany has reverted to the schedule laid down in London, May 6, 1921, and on January 15, in fulfillment of the terms of that schedule, she must make a payment of 500,000,000 gold marks as a quarterly installment on the annual total of 2,000,000,000 which it was included should be placed at the disposal of the Allies for redemption of the reparations bonds that the scheme inaugurated.

It is admitted even here in France that it will be impossible to obtain that quarterly payment, but the fact that Germany signed an undertaking to pay in the basis of all M. Poincaré's argument that guarantees must be taken that she will pay some time, and to that end today in the conference, finance demands that these guarantees be of a kind which will produce revenue where reconstruction can be continued.

About how this revenue is to be obtained there is still here the same mystery as since August last has all surrounded the premiers' plans. At the Quai d'Orsay it is stated in excuse for the paucity of information that it would be most injudicious for the Government to disclose its intentions before the last minute.

But, as has become known, indications that even at this date difficulties are presenting themselves which are immensely complicating the premiers' task.

Raise Currency Problem. To give only one instance, the Government financial experts are daily struggling with the question of raising the franc in the event of France erecting a customs barrier between the coal fields and the rest of Germany.

GRAND CARNIVAL WITH DOG DERBY

The Pas Annual Event to Have Added Attractions—Many Entries for Carnival Queen and Court Competition.

The Pas, Man., Dec. 30.—(By Canadian Press).—The Pas dog derby, an event which attracts international interest, will have as an added attraction this year a real northland carnival with festivities extending over a week. A carnival programme which will keep the visitors from the "outside" entertained every minute of their stay here has been arranged, including winter sports of every variety while dancing—moccasin and Indian dances—will be held every evening. An Indian village will also be open to the public and native sports will be carried on. The outsiders may also avail themselves of the thrill of riding behind a team of huskies in real northern fashion as a dog delivery will be in operation. Additional attractions during the derby period include dog races of one to 25 miles, skiing, snowshoeing, tobogganing and a bazaar. Native work will be on exhibit in a bazaar and a raw fur sale will be held for the public.

Numerous entries have been received from towns in Manitoba and Saskatchewan for the carnival queen and court contest which is being staged by the Dog Derby Association executive. The contest closes at noon on Feb. 1 and the queen and her court, comprising eleven girls obtaining the highest number of votes, will be brought to The Pas at the expense of the Association and outfitted in true northern fashion with caribou coats, etc., which they will retain. In addition the queen will be the recipient of a set of Arctic fox furs.

Local mushers are busy getting their dogs in shape for the derby, the main event of the week, which will be run over a 200-mile course, starting Feb. 22. Commencement of training was delayed owing to the late freeze-up and light snow fall, but as soon as the going was good mushers got their teams on the trail and The Pas is now a busy dog town, with trials of huskies rushing in every direction. Many new dogs are in training for the 1923 derby, with the racing men buying likely looking dogs at prices ranging from $80 to $100. Remarkable speed is being developed by some of the local men who have been doing from 50 to 100 miles daily in preparation for the big event.

Although entries do not close until the eve of the race, a number of prominent dog racers have already expressed their intention of competing and a big field is expected. As well as the local entrants, there is a probability of teams entering from Selkirk, Man., Big River, Sask., and the Porcupine, Ont., district, but no definite assurances as to this have yet been given.

C. B. Morgan, winner of both the 1921 and 1922 races, is entering a team again and has retained the services of Bill Grayson, a veteran dog musher, who drove Morgan's team to victory last February. The second team in the 1922 race was the Dupas-Bancroft entry, and it is possible that both these

Will New Year Bring Forgiveness
To Fallen Movie Idols? Perhaps

Los Angeles, Dec. 30.—When a movie king or queen loses his or her crown with a crash, must it lie in the gutter? Or can it be picked up again and donned quite as if nothing had happened? The public which made them what they are—will it forget and forgive? Maybe. And then again, maybe not.

Nobody knows—but "Fatty" Arbuckle is finding out. A storm of protest met the proposed return to the screen of the fat comedian, indicating that part of the public, at least, not yet forgiven or forgotten his part in the riotous party at which Virginia Rappe, movie beauty, met death. The movie contract of Mary Miles Minter, perennial "child actress" of the screen, whose passionate love letters to the slain movie director, William Desmond Taylor, were barred during investigation of his murder, has "not been renewed," her former employers say.

Mabel Normand, also involved in the notoriety surrounding the Taylor case

—she was the last to see the slain director alive—will also have to win back the allegiance of her public. When Wallie Reid, latest film idol to fall, recovers from influenza, will the public forget and forgive? A more lenient attitude has been shown Reid, because he voluntarily put up a brave fight to conquer drink and drugs almost at the cost of his life. But whether he will escape the storm of condemnation that faces Arbuckle, only Time will tell.

KING GETS RACE HORSES AS GIFT

London, Dec. 29.—King George received as a handsome and welcome Christmas present all the race horses owned by the late Lord Marcus Beresford, valued at more than $125,000. The loquacious came as a surprise to the King as it was believed Lord Marcus' horses would go with the remainder of the estate to his grand-nephew, the young Marquis of Waterford, whose family name is Beresford.

Lord Marcus was as close and trusted a friend of King George as he had been of King Edward. He was manager of King Edward's thoroughbred stud, and racing stable twenty years and held the same post for King George from 1910 to his death.

King George's stable has not been particularly successful recently, but it boasts of some of the finest blood on the English turf and Lord Marcus' horses are a great accession to it. Lord Marcus inherited a life interest in the estate of his nephew, Lord William Beresford, who died young. The estate, valued at $2,000,000, came from Lord William's American mother, Lily, Duchess of Marlborough, who married, finally, Lord William Beresford, V. C. This estate now passes to the Marquis of Waterford.

MONDAY AT THE IMPERIAL With Our New Year's Compliments The Story Will Grip You: LADY JOCELYN LEIGH, a pretty, dainty miss, is the ward of the disolute King James I of England. Lord Carnal the King's foppish, black-hearted favorite, admires the beauty of Jocelyn and covets her. The King is influenced to favor the match, though Jocelyn hates Carnal. When Carnal slays Jocelyn's brother in a duel, she determines to flee from him at any cost. A ship loaded with young women destined to be the brides of the settlers of the new colony, Jamestown, is about to sail for America. Jocelyn boards this ship secretly, arriving in Jamestown, she finds that she must, like all the other fair voyagers, marry a settler. Captain Ralph Percy, a youthful soldier of fortune and the virtual military leader of Jamestown, is attracted to Jocelyn and marries her to get her out of her predicament. She has earned to love Ralph when Lord Carnal unexpectedly appears in Jamestown in pursuit of Jocelyn. She is captured by Carnal, but Ralph rescues her and they flee to sea, though Carnal manages to get on the same ship. The vessel is seized by pirates. Ralph succeeds in making himself the pirates' leader, but when the pirates wish to force him to attack a British man of war, he refuses to be disloyal to his country and blows the pirate ship to atoms, after making sure of Jocelyn's escape. Carnal, Ralph and Jocelyn get away in a small boat together, and are picked up by the man of war and taken to London. There Ralph is thrown into prison, and Carnal persuades the King to announce the supplicants of himself (Carnal) and Jocelyn, to take place immediately after Ralph is executed. A rival of Carnal's for the King's favor succeeds in releasing Ralph from prison, and gets the King's consent to a duel between Carnal and Ralph, the winner to get the girl. In a great sword fight Ralph kills Carnal and wins Jocelyn. Betty Compson, Bert Lytell, Theodore Kosloff, Raymond Hatton and Walter Long. A Good Old British Yarn. Elaborately Produced

Every One Has A Kind Word to Say of The Page (Internal) Pile Treatment.

Was About to Undergo Operation

Camden, N. J., 2817 Polk Ave. Mr. E. R. Page, Dear Sir:--You will have to excuse me for not answering your letter before, but I wanted to convince myself of the merit of your treatment before replying.

Now in regards to the treatment I cannot praise it too highly. After 7 months of continued pain I was surprised how quickly your treatment worked.

I tried several different kinds of treatments and I found them all wanting. I was on the verge of going to a doctor for an operation when I saw your advertisement.

It appeared to me because to rid yourself of piles you have to know what causes them.

It is now 6 months since I have taken your treatment and I have not had any trouble since.

I personally recommend this treatment to all pile sufferers. I wish you the best of success. I remain, gratefully yours, "HARRY SCHLECHTER."

Healed After Suffering Untold Agony.

My Dear Friends:--I received your kind favor. One week ago yesterday I was in bed helpless. Today I have cleaned my four rooms, cared for my children and feel fine. I am taking my medicine regularly and feel sure I would have been dead if I hadn't gotten some relief. I was bleeding so, and Oh! the agony. I cannot find words to express my thanks to you. I am feeling fine and do not know I ever had the piles.

A sincere friend, MRS. M. L. BUCKNER.

1824 Madison Ave., Kansas City, Mo.

Spent Hundreds of Dollars

Mr. E. R. Page, Dear Sir:--I have been bothered with Piles in a bad form for 20 years. Have spent hundreds of dollars and only got relief for a few days. I have used your Pile remedy and am healed. I feel better than I have for twenty years. Your Pile remedy is a God send to me. I cannot speak too highly about it. I have suffered great agony before using your treatment, and, thank the Lord I am well.

Yours truly, CHAS. HAYDEN.

418 Kentucky St., Bowling Green, Ky.

Something Wonderful

E. R. Page Co., Dear Sir:--I received your sample of the Pile remedy and was very well satisfied with it. But as my brother had some of your remedy he let me use it so I did not have to send for any. Your remedy has healed me of my piles. It sure is something wonderful. I also thank you for the sample. Your remedy helped me and I will advertise it as a very wonderful remedy.

Yours truly, LOUISE ZISHKA.

Lakefield, Minn.

Case of Long Standing

Dear Sir:--Mrs. Vincent can't thank you enough, for you have got the very medicine to heal Piles. Mrs. Vincent has had bleeding piles for 40 years. I am glad we saw your ad and got the medicine, for it is a sure help when it will heal a case like my wife had.

Gratefully, M. J. VINCENT.

1140 Drake St., Madison, Wis.

Had Both Protruding and Bleeding Piles

Mr. E. R. Page, Dear Sir:--I am glad to say your medicine has helped me and the last package has healed me. I have been two months without any medicine and have done a lot of hard work since. It is a wonderful remedy. When I sent for the first treatment I was not able to be on my feet and suffered terribly. It was the protruding and bleeding Piles together. At night I could not rest and I had given up to have an operation; but read of this remedy and so I gave it a trial. It has saved me from a lot of suffering and also many dollars. I can't say enough to praise the Page Pile Method. I am glad there is a remedy for piles as I do not think much of these operations. I am feeling fine and glad I found out about your wonderful medicine. Will always recommend it.

Yours respectfully, MRS. NINA YOUNGBLOOD.

Box 183, Sparta, Mich.

Little Boy Healed in a Week

Dear Sir:--After I had given three of the best doctors in this town a chance to do something for my little boy, they all failed and told me the knife was the only chance for him, so I let them all go and never did any more for the boy until I tried your treatment. It was not a week till his piles left him and they have never showed any signs since. Have recommended your treatment to others and they say they are going to order. I am doing all I can for you.

Yours ever, J. S. MCCLAIN.

108 Louisiana Ave., Knoxville, Tenn.

No Wonder He is Thankful

Mr. E. R. Page, Dear Sir:--I am very glad to say your Pile Treatment has entirely healed me of the terrible disease, I had suffered agony for ten years. I cannot tell you in words how much I thank you for your wonderful Pile Treatment. It is a God-send to those who suffer from this dreadful disease. I will be only too glad to give all the information and advice in regard to my case.

Sincerely, GEORGE F. VIRTUE.

Now thanks to you and your treatment, I have every reason to believe that my Piles and Fistula are healed. I have been troubled with piles for over 35 years. This is the second time I have had Fistula. At times the pain was awful, but I have had no return of it no more for some time.

Have recommended your treatment to people in Spring Valley and expect you will hear from them. Thanking you, I remain,
