Austrian Subjects, Who Are of Italian Descent,

Are Maltreated by Their Fellow Countrymen of Austrian Nationality and Lineage.

ROME, May 25.—The bad feeling on the part of the Italians against Austria, which has been latent here since the Austrian occupation of Northern Italy, in spite of the twenty-one years' alliance between the two countries, has been revived by an incident which has just occurred at the Universitas National, where a number of students of Italian nationality, but Austrian subjects, were set upon and beaten by the Austrian students.

The Italians in Italy, as well as those subject to Austria, are urging the institution of an Italian university at Trieste. The incident has had an echo in the chamber of deputies. Replying to questions on the subject Minister Bacelli said that the matter was one concerning the internal affairs of Austria and did not concern Italian subjects. The government could not intervene because subjects of Austria, although of Italian origin, were being maltreated in their own country.

FIRE AT SALISBURY.

SALISBURY, May 25.—One of the most disastrous fires that ever occurred in this vicinity broke out early Saturday evening, and in an incredibly short time totally consumed a grist mill and tannery owned by Albert Price, and a house and two barns, with horses, cattle and farm implements, belonging to Watson Parkin. Neither man held any insurance.

About 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon the roof of Price's grist mill caught from a spark from a chimney. Flashed by a strong northeasterly gale, the flames spread rapidly. A man on a bicycle quickly summoned help from Salisbury, about a quarter of a mile away, but the bucket brigade arrived before the blaze was not only in complete control of a tannery adjoining the grist mill, but had leaped across an intervening space of about one hundred yards and seized the house and barns of Watson Parkin. All efforts made to save these were unavailing, and in about half an hour everything was burned flat.

So fierce were the flames that the occupants of the house could save nothing but their clothing. In the barns were two fine horses, eight head of cattle, sixteen pigs and all Mr. Parkin's farm implements. It was impossible to save any of them. Mr. Parkin is a brother of Dr. Geo. B. Parkin, the famous educationalist, who is now engaged in arranging the details of the Cecil Rhodes Oxford scholarships. It is understood that Dr. Parkin only recently paid off a heavy mortgage resting on the place.

Great sympathy is felt for Mr. Price, whose loss is particularly heavy, as he went to great expense to furnish the grist mill, which has only been running about a week, going to the extent of mortgaging his farm to buy machinery for the mill, which is now a total loss.

A meeting of the Graduate Nurses' Association will be held at the General Public Hospital on May 30, at four p. m. It is the purpose of the association to have a register open to all the graduate nurses, of any hospital on the payment of a small fee. A full attendance is requested of all nurses desiring to register. Those unable to attend will please write to Miss Stewart, 165 Charlotte street, St. John, N. B., before May 30.

COUNTY COURT.

A Heavy Criminal Docket Before Judge Forbes.

List of the Cases—The Grand Jury—His Honor's Opening Remarks.

The May session of the County Court, Judge Forbes presiding, opened this morning. The criminal docket is one of the largest in the history of the court, but the offenses, as a rule, are not serious, the one against Peter Devine being perhaps the most serious of the lot. The others are assaults and stealing cases.

When court opened Judge Forbes spoke of the death of the erior, J. Powers, who had for many years faithfully discharged his duties. The vacancy caused he would fill by the appointment of Constable Kenneth McLeod.

When the names of the jurors had been called and reported Judge Forbes addressed the grand jury.

Judge Forbes said that while the list of cases on the criminal docket was a long one, none of the cases were of a very serious nature. The two most important had happened outside the city, while those belonging to St. John were chiefly due to the want of care of assaults and stealing. He thanked the jury for their attendance and hoped they would get through with their work this afternoon. He took up each case on the criminal docket separately and briefly reviewed them to the jury. In the case against McKinnon and Brown for stealing rope from Glasier's boat, Judge Forbes said that Brown had admitted his offence and had been disposed of under the speedy trials act. McKinnon denied the charge and would appear to answer to it.

The grand jurors are Douglas McArthur, Timothy Collins, John White, William Tait, John E. Armstrong, James Ryan, Edward Bates, Robert A. Payne, George E. Salmon, Joseph Court, Isahah M. Holder, Andrew J. Myles, Thomas Bell, Charles S. Phillips, Thomas P. Sutherland, George A. Chamberlain, John W. Montgomery, Frank Watson, A. J. Patterson, Jr., John B. Eagles, William J. Dalton, J. H. White, J. A. Tilton, William G. Estabrook.

Robert A. Payne was chosen foreman. The petit jurors are Reverdy Steeves, W. S. Cody, Daniel H. Sprague, Edward Walsh, David Watson, Michael Higgins, William H. Myles, Peter McIntyre, Sanford H. Belyea, Hugh Ryan, James Dalzell, Patrick Casseley, Basil Vanwart, John C. Leonard, M. Douglas Austin, James Wales, Thomas Logan, John R. Richards, Thomas W. Robert, Solomon McConnell, William J. Estabrook.

The criminal docket is as follows: King v. Philip Bushfan and James Burns, assault.
King v. George Paulen, assault.
King v. William Dugan, theft.
King v. David Hennessey, assault.
King v. Henry Lockhart, assault.
King v. William Hanlon, assault.
King v. Joseph Verry, theft.
King v. Joseph Sullivan, theft.
King v. Lizzie McCordock, Kate Beets and Donald Anderson, theft.
King v. Peter Devine, manslaughter.
King v. William Little, attempt to have carnal knowledge.
King v. Charles McKinnon, theft.
The civil docket is:
Rankine vs. Seely, H. W. Robertson, Non-jury.
MacNutt vs. Geldart, Scott E. Morrill, James Hunter vs. City of Moncton, Scott E. Morrill.
MacNutt vs. Chase, Scott E. Morrill.
Machlan vs. Bowes, Chapman & Tilley.
Belyea vs. Hatfield, G. H. V. Belyea.
Scott E. Morrill presented a request for naturalization from Morris John, an alien. The request was ordered filed until the last day of court.

The grand jury returned shortly after one o'clock and reported that two bills had been found in the cases against Peter Devine, William Dugan, Joseph Sullivan, David Hennessey, Philip Bushfan and James Burns, Henry Lockhart, William Hanlon. The court adjourned until half-past two o'clock. This afternoon the Lancaster cases, those against Lockhart and Hanlon will be taken up.

THINKS RELIANCE WILL WIN.

NEW YORK, May 25.—Not a possible chance for the America's cup is conceded by a member of the New York Yacht club, who wagered $1,500 to $1,000 that the Reliance will win in one, two, three or in the series. David Barrie, Sir Thomas Lipton's commercial manager in this country, took the short end of the bet. The transaction came about through a discussion of the possibilities that the challenger has for "lifting" the cup at this third trial. The New Yorker expressed his assurance that defeat would again be the portion of Sir Thomas. Mr. Barrie was somewhat astonished when the American made the bold assertion that the Shamrock III, would not take one of the series of races, but when the offer was made to back the opinion at the odds quoted, promptly covered the money. Mr. Barrie acknowledged that the wager had been made, but refused to name the member of the New York Yacht club whose money he hopes to win.

BURIED TODAY.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Mackey was held at half past eight o'clock this morning from her home on Main street. The body was taken to St. Peter's church, where Rev. Fr. Borgman celebrated requiem high mass. The body was interred in the new Catholic burying ground.
A meeting of the central committee, I. O. F. will be held at eight o'clock this evening at Chapman & Tilley's office.

F. M. SCLANDERS

Says Canadian Manufacturers Are Facing a Crisis.

Scarcity of Labor—Vary Few Apprentices—Enmity Toward Employers—Beset With Difficulties.

(Toronto World.)
The manufacturers of Ontario are in a crisis that the general public is entirely ignorant of, is the opinion of F. M. Sclanders of The Farming World, who has just returned from an extended tour in Western Ontario. Activity, he said, was not an indication of prosperity. The manufacturers were in the hands of the men who had gone beyond all reason in their demands. Taking advantage of the scarcity of labor, the men were pressing for advances which would render it impossible for Canadian industries to compete with those of the Old Land, where the average wage was from $3 to $4 a week. The only parallel to Canada's jump into industrial prominence was Japan's jump into Western civilization. The stagnation of building all over the province would have a most detrimental effect on this movement.

Another thing he had noticed was the attitude of employers to employers. They seemed to look upon them as their natural enemies and displayed, in many cases, a criminal carelessness for their employers' machinery and property. A significant fact was that there were few boys being apprenticed now. They learned one small accomplishment, such as painting, and started at once as men, at $1.65 or $1.75 a day. They were doing just the one thing, and were not learning a trade. One firm he visited had not seen a boy for two years.

BESET WITH DIFFICULTIES.

Canada was an industrial infant, and her infancy was beset with difficulties. There was the transportation difficulty. Manufacturers were often compelled to wait on their goods for days. There was the difficulty of getting malleable iron. It would seem that the industrial situation had been aggravated by some manufacturers, who had put themselves in the hands of their men by accepting all orders that came in. The men took advantage of the knowledge that delayed delivery would cause great disappointment to the foreign buyer, to make demands that cut up profits.

Speaking of the agricultural situation, he thought it reasonable to expect that there would be considerable distress in the West this year. He thought the immigrants were not counting on being able to do very much more than prepare the land for next year's crop. He attributed much of the scarcity of labor here to the short term of employment offered by the Ontario farmer. The hired man was employed for but six or seven months, and was turned away in the winter. The man would then go to the woods or would look for work on the farm. The farmer, where he would find better wages and shorter hours, with the result that he was lost to the farm. There was no accommodation on most farms for married laborers. This was the very class that was needed. They were stable, and their wives and children could be put to a hundred and one uses. The Ontario farmer was not fully alive to the fact that winter dairying paid better than the summer dairying.

HOW TO ATTRACT IMMIGRANTS.

He suggested that the government, to attract agricultural immigrants to Ontario, should give them the option, instead of taking up 160 acres in the Northwest at once, of taking up 250 acres after spending two years here. It would give them, he said, sufficient knowledge of Canadian conditions, so different from those of the Old Land, to ensure their success in the Northwest, if, at the end of that time, they desired to move.

According to Secretary Young of the Manufacturers' association, the scarcity of labor is no new thing to manufacturers. Two months ago he sounded the members of the association and found that 11,000 mechanics were wanted in Ontario. The dearth in fact existed in the metal trades, though it is also felt very much in building, furniture and other trades. Nearly every large manufacturer feels the pinch, and cannot obtain men, though they are willing to pay the highest rate of wages. On a recent Saturday, one city paper had a list of 110 mechanics wanted, while a Montreal paper followed closely with a list of 90. The scarcity is felt principally in Ontario, though it is by no means confined to this province. The Maritime Provinces feel it to a lesser degree.

In this city, the fact that the plant of the "new" plant is chronic is evident by the erection by many firms of permanent signs, asking for help.

WOULD-BE LYNCHERS FOILED.

NAMPA, Idaho, May 25.—A mob attacked the city jail shortly before midnight in an attempt to lynch two negroes, James T. Quarles and Henry Williams, who were involved in a shooting affray at a ball game Sunday afternoon which resulted in the probably fatal wounding of Policeman Grogan. The mob got inside the jail but were forced to retire after a lively scrimmage with a dozen special officers.

DEATH OF MRS SHAMPIER.

The death took place last night at her home, 248 Guilford street, West End, of Mrs. Jacob Shampier, at the age of 64 years. Mrs. Shampier was only ill from Friday of last week, suffering from pleuro-congestion. Her husband and one daughter, Miss Bertha Shampier, who lives at home, and a brother, Stephen Morrill, of North End, survive. Mrs. Shampier was a member of the Carlton Baptist church, where she was a faithful and valued worker in the Sunday school and Women's Missionary Aid Society. She will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends, and much sympathy is felt for the bereaved relatives.
H. Williams and A. M. McLellan, of Moncton, were in the city today.

CANADA AND U. S.

American Naval Board Wants Coaling Station in Alaska.

Because Canada Shows a Threatening Spirit in Regard to the Boundary.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Admiral Dewey, as president of the general board, has made a report to Secretary Moody, of the U. S. Navy, recommending the immediate establishment of a coaling station at Dutch Harbor, Alaska, and the erection there of a coal depot with an initial capacity of 5,000 tons. The estimated cost of the work is about $51,000. The president has approved the plan and preliminary steps on the work have been taken already. Rear Admiral Bradford, in his report recommending this new coaling station, said: "Attention is also invited to one of the great political questions of the day, viz.: the settlement of the boundary between the territory of Alaska and the Dominion of Canada. Here is abundant evidence going to show that the spirit of Canada on this matter may be considered as threatening. Between Alaska and the continental limits of the United States is located the domain of a foreign country. The territory separating Alaska has good harbors and ample interior waters and this fact alone constitutes a great strategic advantage to a possible opponent. It certainly constitutes a strong reason why the sinews of war, whichever they may be, should be stored in Alaska."

FALSE PRETENCES

Is the Charge Against George Bridges in a Piano Case

HOPEWELL HILL, A. Co., May 25.—On Tuesday last George Bridges was arrested by Provincial Keith at St. John and brought before stipendiary Magistrate Stuart of Riverview to answer a charge of having by false pretences, in December last, obtained the signature of R. Chester Peck of Albert to a blank paper and, by writing a promissory note above his name, connected it with a valuable security. The preliminary examination occupied from Wednesday until Friday afternoon and excited considerable interest. By the evidence of the prosecutor, Mr. Peck, and his wife, it appeared that Bridges, who represented himself as an agent for J. R. Davis, procured assent to store a piano in Mr. Peck's house for two months, representing that it would be a great accommodation to him, as the roads were not in a condition to take it to Harvley, where he thought he could sell it. After the piano was stored, Bridges told Mr. Peck he would require his signature to a certain paper to show the insurance company when and where it was so stored, asking that he sign both at the foot and also within about three inches of the top of the paper, leaving a space above blank. Mr. Peck declined to write his name, reasoning with the agent that he should not require him to sign a blank paper if it could be improperly filled up. The agent, however, assured him that he would give him a document showing the whole transaction, and that the piano was not purchased. Mr. Peck's wife was present when the blank was ultimately signed, and testified that her husband told Bridges that should the space above be filled in, and his representations proved false, he would prosecute him criminally. The prosecutor, hearing a few days later that Mr. Turner, collector of customs at Harvley, had been over-reached by the same agent, wrote to Mr. Davis that he would sign the piano, and asking him if it was all right. Mr. Davis' reply informed Mr. Peck that he (Mr. Davis) had a promissory note against him for $25. Criminal proceedings followed. The case is postponed until Thursday. Mr. Bridges having secured bail. L. P. D. Tilley of St. John represented the accused, the clerk of the peace prosecuting. C. A. Peck is defending the civil suits that grew out of the transaction.

VILLAGE SWEEP BY FIRE.

Sixty Houses at Tilt Cove Destroyed—Hundreds of People Homeless.

A disastrous fire occurred at Tilt Cove, Notre Dame Bay, Newfoundland, on Monday last, by which about sixty houses were destroyed and from three to five hundred people rendered homeless. The fire originated in a house of one of the employees of the Copper Company there, and in a short time gained such headway that the residents were unable to cope with the flames, and the whole village was practically wiped out. It could not be learned whether there was any insurance or not. Most of the residents lost their furniture and effects and as a result there will be lots of suffering as the weather there is as yet very wintry.

THE CARNEGIE LIBRARY. John Flood's Tender at $42,750 Recommended For Acceptance.

The committee of the common council having in hand the Carnegie library matters met this morning when the tenders for the erection of the library were opened. Those present were His Worship Mayor White, Deputy Mayor McGoldrick, Alds. Maxwell and Robinson and architect Fairweather. Several tenders were sent in for portions of the work, but were not considered, as the advertisement was for tenders for the whole work. Those considered were:

- Sproul & Burley 58,488
- James Myles 48,769

The committee decided to recommend the acceptance of John Flood's tender at $42,750.

JUNE BRIDES. Already great preparations are going on among the fair sex as the wedding season approaches. To those who are going into housekeeping attention is directed to the large advertisement of Amland Bros., the well known Waterloo street furniture dealers, who are now busy refurnishing new homes with stylish furniture and carpets at the lowest prices in the Maritime Provinces. This firm will also cut, match and sew all carpets purchased free of charge. Any person who wishes to save money, should not fail to call upon the above firm, as they are experts in that line of business.

CLARY'S FAREWELL. The concert in Portland Methodist church on the 4th of June will probably be the farewell appearance of Madame Clary, as she is not likely ever to be heard here again, and this will be the only opportunity our people have ever had to hear her with pipe organ accompaniment. The price of admission is very low indeed, so that all will have an opportunity to hear the great contralto. Mrs. Spencer and Mr. Kelly have made a great success throughout the provinces, and they, too, will be heard at the concert in solos, duets, and in trios with Clary.

WHY THEY REJOICE. The residents of Charlotte street, West End, received a severe shock last week, when it became evident that the sidewalks on that street were to be repaired. They are now, however, on the road to recovery, since, part of the street being mended, the sand has been carted away and the laborers have departed. The work has stopped, and the very cream of the street for roughness remains untouched. This is a source of great delight to pedestrians and residents in that vicinity.

THE HALF HOLIDAY.

Dealers in the Market Want to Share in the Benefits.

There is a movement on foot among the stall holders and others in the country market to have the market closed on Saturdays during June, July and August at one o'clock and keep open on Friday evenings. A Star reporter this morning talked with many of the market merchants and in almost every case they were strongly in favor of the early closing. Some were rather indifferent, but were perfectly willing to join with the others in favor of the closing. In no case was a man met with who was opposed to the scheme.

Market Clerk Dunham is of the opinion that it would be a good thing for the country people as it would happen that while Friday would be the general market day they would have the benefit of that day's rush as well as a half day Saturday to clear any stock left over.

Several of the leading butchers have consulted many of their customers and are greatly encouraged with the success they have met with.

Messrs. O'Neill Bros. and S.Z. Dickson are enthusiastic over the scheme, while Thos. Dean is decidedly in favor of it as, it is also understood, is James Minehan, who is at present in Fredericton.

W. S. HARKINS' SUCCESS. A Good Company Presents Pleasing Plays to Crowded Houses.

It is good to see W. S. Harkins in town with a theatrical company, for it means enjoyment for all patrons of the Opera House. It was pleasant to see Mr. Harkins himself in the cast in the opening play yesterday afternoon, and the applause that greeted his first appearance showed his great personal popularity.

The Opera House was crowded beyond its seating capacity at both afternoon and evening performances. In the afternoon A Man of the World, and in the evening My Friend From India was produced. The first-named is a society play which develops strong situations and delightful comedy; the latter a clever farce-comedy that runs over with fun.

Mr. Harkins has a strong company, every member of which does good work, while the leaders are clever and serious or comic role, are clever and accomplished. Mr. Harkins, Miss Lilla Vane, Miss Riker, Miss Taylor, Mr. Meek, Mr. Deyo and several others are well-known and liked by St. John audiences, and the company will be equally popular before the engagements end.

Mr. Harkins always puts on plays that are pleasing, and there is no exception on this tour.

A Man of the World will be the bill tonight, with Mr. Harkins in the leading role. This play also introduces Miss Vane, Miss Riker, Mr. Deyo, Mr. Meek and Stephen Gratten—a strong actor—in parts well suited to them all. Some elegant gowns are worn by the ladies.

A number of theatre parties have been arranged for tonight and there will, no doubt, be a large house.

REFUSED TO SERVE. Judge Forbes Sent Constable After James Ryan as Grand Jurymen.

When the county court opened this morning the sheriff reported to Judge Forbes that James Ryan, one who had been summoned to serve on the grand jury, had not appeared, and had refused to come. Judge Forbes at once ordered that a constable be sent to tell Mr. Ryan that the court ordered him to appear immediately. The constable was instructed to arrest Mr. Ryan on the spot if he refused to come. Constable McBriarty went on the mission and shortly afterwards returned with the announcement that Mr. Ryan had absolutely refused to come. Judge Forbes stated that Mr. Ryan would be brought to court, there would be no doubt about that. He would look into the case and would show Mr. Ryan that he could not defy the court. The judge will consider whether or not he will impose a heavy fine or send Mr. Ryan to jail.

PECULIAR ACCIDENT. Near South Bay station yesterday, a party stepped aside on an embankment to let the train pass. A collie dog, which remained on the track, was struck by the train and thrown against a lady, who was in the party. She rolled down the embankment against a wire fence. She was not injured, but the dog was killed.

J. H. Fairweather returned from Fredericton today.

POLICE COURT.

The McLean-Wilbur Stealing Case—Other Minor Offences.

Magistrate Ritchie had his hands full this morning and the whole forenoon was spent in hearing the different cases. The courtroom was crowded, most of the spectators being interested in the charge against Jack McLean and his brother, Charles, for stealing $381 from W. J. Wilbur. Daniel Mullin appeared for the prisoners.

Mr. Wilbur, who was the first witness, seemed to be afflicted with a very poor memory and the magistrate spent five minutes in asking questions. He said that he came to the city on Saturday afternoon and went to the Grand Union hotel. He had been drinking and could not do so after going to the hotel. In his trousers pocket he had a pocket book with one fifty dollar bill, some twenties, tens, two fives and a one. He went to his room, but did not know what time it was. He got up at five o'clock on Sunday morning, looked at his money and went downstairs. He had breakfast about eight o'clock and some time between that and half past ten he was introduced to Jack McLean by a house, whom he did not know.

He talked with McLean for a few minutes and went to bed at half past ten. Upon waking at half past eight in the evening his money was gone. Of the time between breakfast and half past ten Mr. Wilbur had no distinct recollection, although he did not remember drinking. He was dazed from the effects of Saturday's booze.

James Hanley, clerk of the hotel, gave evidence about hearing of the loss of the money.

The case was adjourned until half past two. While there is as yet no evidence against the prisoners, Detective Killen promises some for this afternoon.

James Cairns and James McInerney were arrested on Saturday for fighting on Erin street. From the evidence it appeared that Cairns had struck McInerney and the former was fined twenty dollars or thirty days. McInerney was let go.

John Magee was convicted for begging on King Square. He became quite inebriated at Officer Marshall, who gave evidence against him, and ended by shaking his fist and making awful threats. Magee got six months in the park.

Jimmy Almon was up for swearing on City Road, but Silas Perry, who made the arrest, did not appear. This is Perry's second failure. Almon was let go, as there was no one to testify against him.

Five drunks were disposed of for the usual amount.

George Hurder, the young man who was arrested for assaulting Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brown on a schooner at Rankin's wharf, said that he had been beaten first. His face looked bigger than a telephone company dividend, and, from appearances, he had run against something hard. Mr. Brown made a statement, but the case was postponed.

Charles W. Segee was fined forty dollars for the nuisance complained of by the board of health. As Mr. Segee agreed to move the barn in which his cows are kept to the other side of his land, the penalty will not be collected.

EXECUQUEUR COURT. Suit to Recover Damages to the Extent of $25,000.

In the Exchequer Court of Canada, held in the Admiralty Court rooms, Pugsley building, Princess Street, of this city, His Lordship Mr. Justice Burdidge presiding, hearing was begun this morning in the case of Wm. E. Edmund J. Simonds vs. King, on petition of right filed by the plaintiffs to recover damages to the extent of $25,000 for injury done on the property of the petitioner by reason of the operations connected with dredging and deepening of slip on the west side of the wharf constructed upon a site of what was formerly known as the Long Wharf, and by reason of the destruction and removal of a portion of wharf belonging to the defendant upon said property, and for injury done to the timber pond of the plaintiff under lease to Robert Wisely and Edmund J. Simonds. The witnesses examined this forenoon were Hurd Peters, C. E., Robert Wisely and Robert Carson. Their evidence was given to show whether this was a liability or not, and not as to the amount of the damages. A. Geo. Blair, Jr., solicitor for plaintiff; Wm. Pugsley, K. C., counsel for plaintiff; A. L. Freeman, K. C., solicitor for Robert Wisely and Edmund J. Simonds; Silas Alward, K. C., solicitor for the trustees of John P. C. Burpee; A. W. Macrae, solicitor for certain tenants; H. H. McAlpine, K. C., solicitor for the crown.

STRIKE SETTLED. The strike among the men employed by Flood & Bates at the new I. C. R. roundhouse is practically over. In all about forty men went on strike this morning the greater number of them decided to accept the $140 per day and returned to work. A few are still holding out but plenty of men are to be had and the work is not being in any way delayed.

OKLAHOMA FLOOD. OKLAHOMA, May 26.—It is now estimated that fully 200 houses along the banks of the Canadian river in this vicinity are under water. Some of them have been washed away. In the western part of the city, fifty houses are now under water. Several trains on the "Frisco" are waterbound.

TERRY MCGOVERN ILL. NEW YORK, May 26.—Terry McGovern will not be in condition to fight Abell at Fort Erie on Memorial Day, and Sam Harris, Terry's manager, has asked Manager Hermann, of the Canadian club for a two weeks' postponement. McGovern, who has been training at Johnson's Road house, New York, has been ailing since Friday. He did not work Saturday or Sunday. Feeling better yesterday, McGovern went out for a spin. After going a few miles he broke down completely and was scarcely able to get back to his quarters. Trainer Charley Mayhoad sent for a physician who said Terry was suffering from malaria and would have to stop training. Sam Harris said: "I can send him to Mount Clemens and get him in condition to fight two weeks after next Saturday, if they will put off the match until that time."

Making Friends

How to make the store better and more useful is our constant study. The business is growing faster than we expected and we know by that you are pleased. The organization is better today than ever before and the service is better. With all kinds of shopping concentrated in a bright, cheerful, comfortable place, there's nothing to hinder the crowds at all times. Silent as the forces of nature are the laws of trade. Concerning a store's usefulness, the public is the best judge. And when the business grows and keeps on growing, it is evident we are on the right side of every comparison.
