FIRST ENGLISH TRANSLATION OF GERMAN TREATY

This Treaty Shows That Germany Never Acquired Any Sovereign Rights in Shantung.

CHINESE-GERMAN TREATY OF 1898

Japan Obviously Cannot Return to China Something She Never Possessed—Economic Rights is All Treaty Gave.

New York, Sept. 17.—The Nation in its current issue prints what it says is the first complete and accurate English translation ever made of the Chinese-German treaty of 1898 by which Germany acquired rights in the Province of Shantung, together with the German text as obtained from the Chinese imperial maritime customs office at Shanghai.

This treaty, the Nation states, shows that Germany never acquired any sovereign rights in Shantung and the publication of the treaty is made as bearing on President Wilson's statement that Japan had promised "to return the sovereignty without qualification to China."

The treaty in an extended document signed by Li Hung Chang and Baron Von Heyking. Commenting upon it the Nation says that as Germany secured no sovereign rights in Shantung under the treaty, Japan obviously cannot return to China something she never possessed and that in retaining economic rights Japan is holding all the treaty gives her.

Digby Youth Kills Himself

Placed Muzzle of Gun in His Mouth, Joked and Bullet Passed Through His Brain Causing Instant Death.

Special to The Standard.

Digby, Sept. 17.—A shooting accident in which a boy of sixteen named Harry Kyleman lost his life took place here last night. The young fellow who was employed in the kitchen of the Winchester Hotel came into possession of a six calibre rifle last Sunday. He had been playing with it more or less all the week, and last night was flourishing it around the kitchen and pointing it at the inmates. A little after nine he sat on the kitchen table with the gun between his knees. He placed the muzzle in his mouth, at the same time remarking: "Isn't it queer that people sometimes kill themselves this way, when a click was heard and he fell backwards almost into the arms of the cook. Investigation showed that his trousers had caught the trigger and discharged the weapon. The bullet passed through his brain killing him instantly.

His father, Frank Kyleman lives in Brighton, and two half-brothers reside here.

NO SHORTAGE OF SUGAR EXCEPT IN A TEMPORARY WAY, SAYS REPORT

Winnipeg, Sept. 17.—That a trainload of sugar sent to the West with direction of the Board of Commerce had "not even been felt" because it seemed to have been hoarded under the impression that sugar was to go to a high price and that this trainload was followed by the shipment of numerous hundred tons from the Eastern Refinerie to British Columbia, Judge Harolson, chairman of the Board of Commerce, declared today in a statement on the sugar situation. The statement traces the action of the board in the matter of sugar and gives a summary of the sugar situation as the board found it, and as it now stands. No shortage of sugar except in a temporary way is anticipated by the refinerie, the report states.

MOVE TO SUSPEND FUNCTIONS OF MONTREAL'S CITY COUNCIL IS PROPOSED BY ALDERMAN

Under Present System of Conducting Affairs of City There Are Two Bodies, the Administrative Commission of Five Members and the City Council Consisting of Twenty Aldermen.

Special to The Standard.

Montreal, Sept. 17.—As the time for the convening of the provincial legislature draws near, a topic, old but ever new, crops up in Montreal, to wit, the future of Montreal's city council.

Under the present system of conducting the affairs of the city there are two bodies, the administrative commission appointed by the Provincial Government and consisting of five members and the city council of twenty aldermen. The administrative commission was appointed temporarily for the purpose of finding a means of checking the growing indebtedness of the city and supervising the expenditures, and the results obtained by this body have justified the appointment. The city's finances show notable improvement, the city's credit has come higher and business methods have been applied in administering the municipal affairs since the appointment of the commission.

However there have been frequent clashes between the two bodies and the aldermen are blamed for administrative tactics with the result that at a meeting of the council today one of the aldermen, A. J. J. G. G. G., gave notice of a motion for the suspension of the functions of the council until such time as the legislature may restore to Montreal a responsible government by elected representatives.

Mr. Crellman's motion declares that the administrative commission since its creation generally speaking has administered the affairs of the city in a manner acceptable and pleasing to the great majority of the citizens. The city council, however, has devoted most of its time to blocking the efforts of the commission, and has forfeited the confidence of the public, and so long as the commission is in existence the city will be better governed without a city council.

The motion also points out that the city would save a large sum in salaries. At the present time the mayor receives $10,000 a year and each of the twenty aldermen $1,500, a total of $30,000. Moreover, incidental expenses amount to many more thousands, and a civic election next spring will mean at least $50,000 additional Powers of Mayor.

Another feature in the motion is that it would have the legislature make the position of the mayor purely an honorary one. At present the majority powers are not nearly so wide as in the old days, having been considerably curtailed when the administrative commission was appointed, but despite the clipping of the wings there is a $10,000 a year salary that goes with the office.

This statement provoked a great demonstration, the audience raising and cheering.

Garibaldi Speaks of Fiume Affair

Would Not Think of Leading Movement to Set Italians Against Italians.

Rome, Monday, Sept. 15.—General Giuseppe (Peppino) Garibaldi, speaking to the Associated Press correspondent today said that he had arrived from America on the eve of D'Annunzio's coup in Fiume and that he had never thought, nor would he think, to participate in or lead any movement liable to set Italians against Italians.

(It was reported from Venice on September 12, that General Peppino Garibaldi was among the volunteers who had joined D'Annunzio at Fiume.)

General Garibaldi declared today that in his opinion D'Annunzio's action had been premature, that he should have employed real volunteers and not soldiers of the regular army and should not have gone to Fiume while the Italian military was in control of the seaport.

LOYD GEORGE WANTS A WORLD FREE OF POVERTY

Premier Was Given a Hearty Reception When He Spoke Before International Brotherhood Congress.

COMRADESHIP AND CO-OPERATION

A League of Nations Was Never More Needed Than at Present, Says Premier.

London, Sept. 17.—Premier Lloyd George spoke before the International Brotherhood Congress this evening, but, as was expected, did not touch upon many of the important questions, in which the nation is deeply concerned.

"The Premier was given an enthusiastic reception, and began by saying that a political platform was not in his mind."

"If I made a political announcement," he added, "I should feel that was outraging the hospitality of the Brotherhood."

He dwelt on the passing of the old order through the war, and alluded to the fact that the League of Nations was in a serious way for the first time since its formation in 1919.

"I am going to ask each manufacturer," he said, "to furnish me at the earliest possible date with a statement of the amount of newsprint being exported and the amount being imported to Canadian buyers. It is hardly fair that some companies should be called on to supply a large quantity of Canadian papers in excess of their percentage, while others supply very little."

George H. Montgomery, mill counsel, explained that, with permission of the federal trade commission, most United States customers had chosen to make their orders through the Canadian mills for their whole capacity.

Mr. Pringle replied that he was quite aware that the Abitibi mill had bought paper in the open market, at a loss in order to fill contracts. "However," he said, "it is to be hoped that the Canadian papers supplied. Also I want to know what mills can supply sheet news. Some of the smaller papers which use this form of newsprint are badly off for it."

Charles Burch New Bishop of New York

Election Took Place Yesterday — Three Candidates Opposed Him.

New York, Sept. 17.—Right Rev. Charles Sumner Burch, Suffragan Bishop of the New York diocese of the Protestant Episcopal church, was elected Bishop of New York, on the third ballot, at a special convention today. He succeeds the late Bishop David Greer.

The remaining candidates were Rev. Charles L. Stetson, rector of Grace church, who showed considerable strength in the early balloting; Right Rev. Nathaniel S. Thomas, missionary bishop of Wyoming, and Rev. H. P. Nicholson.

Bishop Burch's election was confirmed by the House of Bishops and the House of Clerical and Lay delegates at the general convention of the Episcopal church which will be held in Detroit on October 8th.

After the result of the third ballot had been announced, Dr. Stetson moved that the election be made unanimous and was seconded by Dr. Manning. Bishop Burch who was wearing a white stole, made a brief address in acknowledgment.

Licenses On Lots Of Crown Lands

Were Offered for Sale Yesterday at Fredericton—Fraser Companies Ltd. Were Largest Buyers.

Special to The Standard.

Fredericton, Sept. 17.—About thirty of the fifty licenses of crown lands were offered for sale by the department of lands and mines here today with E. H. Allen, of this city, as successful bidder. The highest price paid was by A. A. Corcoran, of Blackville, who bid $25 per acre to get lot 16 on Cabot River, consisting of three square miles. There were various buyers, among the largest being the Fraser Companies Ltd.

SPIRIT OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS TO SAVE MODERN CIVILIZATION

London, Sept. 17.—Lord Robert Cecil's assertion that "it is not the League of Nations covenant itself, but the underlying spirit, which, if we save 'humanity and civilization,' was the keynote of a discussion of the League by the International Brotherhood Congress today.

Professor George Gilbert Murray, of Oxford, explaining and defending the League, declared that "it does not put the world at the mercy of the 'Big Five' who are already there. Without the League the 'Big Five' would be so many robber chieftains."

He supported the provision requiring unanimity before action, adding: "I am sure that America, for example, would not give, say to France, Italy, Japan and a couple of smaller nations, the power to direct movements of American soldiers."

NEWSPRINT ENQUIRY OFF AGAIN UNTIL OCTOBER BUT PAPERS WILL BE GIVEN SUPPLIES

Some Mills Have Ceased to Manufacture Newsprint—United States Customers Had Chosen to Make Fixed Time Contracts and Canadian Mills Are Tied up to a Contract for Their Full Capacity.

Ottawa, Sept. 17.—The newswire enquiry is on again, off again, today's session before Commissioner R. A. Pringle having resulted in an adjournment to the second week in October. Today's feature was the announcement by the commissioner that Canadian papers are in a serious way for the first time since the war. The commissioner stated that the Canadian press supplied with paper. There is a lot of it in this country, and if the Canadian mills have been making contracts outside the country, it can't help that, it is a secondary question.

"I am going to ask each manufacturer," he said, "to furnish me at the earliest possible date with a statement of the amount of newsprint being exported and the amount being imported to Canadian buyers. It is hardly fair that some companies should be called on to supply a large quantity of Canadian papers in excess of their percentage, while others supply very little."

PRESIDENT WILSON DISCUSSED THE TERMS OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Addressed Meeting at San Francisco—A New International Policy for the Protection of Chinese Integrity.

San Francisco, Calif., Sept. 17.—Discussing at length the Shantung provision of the Peace Treaty, President Wilson said in an address here today that he had been assured by the great powers that under the League of Nations there would be a new international policy for the protection of Chinese integrity.

The Powers, said Mr. Wilson, had Japan's promise to return Shantung to China, and intended to see that it was fulfilled under the league.

He said he had asked colleagues at Versailles specifically whether they meant under the League to inaugurate a new policy towards China and they told him they did.

Far from being detrimental to China's interest, declared Mr. Wilson, the treaty really was the first in the world's history to do something for China's benefit. In all previous instances of acquisition of Chinese territory, he said, the United States had not even protested.

The President's declarations were received with applause and cheers by the 1,600 women present at the women's luncheon at which he spoke. There were cries of "No, no," when he asked whether it would be wise to go to war over Shantung. There is no other way, he said, to secure the immediate return of the province to China.

Mr. Wilson also discussed the Monroe Doctrine, Article Ten, and the right of withdrawal of the league, repeating previous arguments against reservations on these points and declaring some of the changes proposed involved merely a question of literary style.

Turning to the objection that Great Britain has six votes in the league assembly, Mr. Wilson said it so happened that "our one vote is just as powerful as their six." There is no case in which the assembly could vote on any important subject except admission of new members without a decision first having been made by the council in which there was an equality of votes.

Denouncing "hypocritized Americans" the president repeated his charge that a pro-German propaganda was spreading in the United States. He said opponents of the treaty were desiring the same ends Germany was desiring but asserted in confidence that the treaty would be accepted.

DIFFERENCES OF OPINION SHOWED AT CONFERENCE

Minimum Wage and the Right to Economize Were Questions Before National Assembly.

RECOGNITION OF LABOR UNIONS

Manufacturers Conceded the Justice of a Minimum Wage for Women and Minors.

Ottawa, Sept. 17.—Minimum wage and the right to organize were before the National Industrial Conference this afternoon and brought some sharp differences of opinion, although manufacturers conceded the justice of a minimum wage for women and minors. Advocacy of a particular policy on the part of labor has, indeed, generally brought strong opposition from the employers.

The recommendations of the Royal Commission on industrial relations for bettering labor conditions in Canada, which have been supported by the labor group, have been somewhat roughly handled at times by their opponents, and the resolution on shortening the hours of labor went to the committee at noon today with both sides apparently unmoved.

John R. Shaw, of Woodstock, the last speaker in the afternoon's debate, thought the Royal Commission should have been composed of men with practical knowledge of the things they were going to report upon, "instead of being composed of lawyers," the best men in the labor and employer groups had stayed away from that commission's fittings, because they did not want their time taken up by "listening to a lot of windbags."

The resolutions on the right of labor to organize; recognition of labor unions and the right to collective bargaining, was before the conference at adjournment tonight, and there is every prospect of a stiff fight on these questions tomorrow. The employers concede the first right, as it has been recognized by the Peace Conference and the government here, but they want to protect the right of the worker or to organize if he does not wish to do so. In regard to recognition, it means a close shop principle all over the Dominion, the employers are opposed, and their attitude toward collective bargaining is also.

The debate on the right to organize and the recognition of labor unions, together with adoption of the principle of collective bargaining will occupy most of tomorrow morning, it was expected.

Many speakers on both sides are ready to take the floor. It is expected that the subjects dealing with the establishment of point plant and industrial councils will also be productive of warm arguments.

Official Figures Of Those Missing

London, Sept. 16.—(Canadian Associated Press cable).—The Canadian Press is officially informed that the total number of desertions in the Canadian Forces since August, 1914, and not accounted for, is 1,723.

When it is remembered that over 6,000 troops came overseas from Canada, this is considered below the average. It must also be borne in mind that included in this number are those who deserted from the first contingent of about 25,000 men, a high proportion of whom were men born in the British Isles.

Many of those who had served in the Home Forces. Shortly after the arrival of the first contingent in England a considerable number of those who had deserted and in many cases it is understood they re-enlisted in their old British regiments. Thus at the beginning of the war in 1914, there was a much higher proportion of desertions (than in any year since).

On an average about fourteen deserters a month are being accounted for, so that number is likely to be considerably reduced.

The total number missing in battle, casualties and not accounted for since the beginning of the war is 161.

THE NATIONAL INDUSTRIAL CONFERENCE COULD NOT STOP THE HEADACHES

Hopes of Unanimous Agreement in the Conference, So Evident in Opening Day, Has Faded.

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 17.—Hopes of unanimous agreement in the National Industrial Conference, as high and confident in the early hours of its deliberations, rapidly faded today. There are three overwhelming questions before the gathering: (1) Universal acceptance of the eight-hour day, or the forty-four hour week. (2) Recognition of organized labor as collective bargaining; and (3) The minimum wage.

HON. H. N. ROWELL REPLIES TO BITTER ATTACK MADE UPON HIM BY MR. MURPHY SOMETIME AGO

Branded Hon. Mr. Murphy's Accusations as Absolutely False—Gave Inside History of Ontario Liberal Party—Said Bourassa's Campaign Hurt Recruiting Movement in Quebec.

Ottawa, Sept. 17.—Debates on the address—drawing along at intervals since the opening of the session—concluded in the house today. Its final stage was marked by a reply by Hon. Mr. Rowell to the famous charges made against him in the house by Mr. Murphy eighteen months ago. Mr. Rowell declared the accusations to be false and untrue. He denied that he had ever received a cent for acting as leader of the Ontario opposition and asserted that he had accepted the position at financial loss. It was a falsehood, too, he said, that he had taken part in a conspiracy to supplant Sir Wilfrid Laurier. He declared further that he had not attended the Roman Catholic Church in Quebec, as had been charged, but had nothing but praise for members of the Roman Catholic Church who had gone to the front and served faithfully in the trenches.

Mr. Archambault strongly criticized the government for its policy in regard to recruiting in association. Joseph Archambault had a series of questions to ask the government in regard to the National Industrial Conference, when the House opened this afternoon. He wanted to know why, in issuing invitations to the conference, the National Labor Union of the Province of Quebec had been ignored. Why had the evidence taken before the Mathers' Commission not been printed and laid before the conference? Was it the intention of the government to have the evidence distributed before the conference closed? Was it the intention to have the evidence printed before any legislative recommendation by the conference?

Hon. A. A. Maclean replying for the government promised to submit the questions to the Minister of Labor and to give an answer at the earliest date.

Sir-General Griesbach, referring to newspaper reports that the sale of the West Indies to the United States has been proposed asked if the government had considered any measures for incorporating the island and the island of Newfoundland in the Dominion.

Hon. Mr. Doherty replied that the government had no official information of any proposal to sell the West Indies.

Mr. Miles asked if it was correct that Greece had placed an order for $35,000,000 worth of manufactured goods in Canada, and if so, whether the purchases were being financed by the Dominion.

Hon. Mr. Maclean replied that the government was not officially aware of any such order. No financial arrangements at least had been made in this direction.

Mr. D. B. McKenna asked if it was correct that the $25,000,000 credit to Roumania had been exhausted. If so, what was the security for the credit.

Mr. Doherty promised the information tomorrow.

Mr. Joseph Archambault continued the debate on the address, referring in opening to the pleasure that the visit of the Prince of Wales had given to the people of Canada. The Prince, he said, might have scandalized some of the members of the government side by his use of the French language. He referred to those members who "if God Almighty was French would be Atholists."

Mr. Archambault said that he proposed to discuss the high cost of living. He was most anxious to bring this matter up while the Prime Minister and his travelling colleagues were paying a visit to this country. As far as this session of parliament was concerned, he declared that it had been called to please members because the Prime Minister returned any increase of the seasonal indemnity.

A calling of a session at the present time and in view of the financial condition of the country was outrageous. However, since we were here he discussed something useful.

He proposed, Mr. Archambault, to deal with the question of profiteering because he was convinced that it existed in Canada in its most active form.

Nothing, Mr. Archambault went on, had been collected from the packers under the order-in-council limiting their profits to seven per cent. He charged that the Prime Minister and the President of the Council had never let an opportunity escape to FINDS PARIS GAY AGAIN Youthful Veterans, Their Uniforms Doctored, Making Love in Luxembourg Gardens.

Paris, Sept. 13.—I expect there are many men not long out of khaki, who are having the sensation which came to me yesterday, when I traveled to France for the first time since peace was made with Germany, on my way to the hillsides of Alsace. It is the same old feeling of the hillsides of Alsace that I had when I was in the trenches. There were no lines in them; nothing stirred there. The apple has lifted, and the country is clean again.

It was a memory five years old that came back to me when I passed through Orel, for just five years back almost to the day I was taken up here with crowds of French and British soldiers in the retreat before the living tide which was sweeping down on Paris before the German tanks. I have been making a pilgrimage to the Marne. Why recall those scenes which rose one's blood?

Paris outwardly has its old self.

Paris in this September of 1919 seems to have forgotten the war after its years, its agonies, its agonies of the trenches. Why recall those scenes which rose one's blood?

I had at the beginning of my journey a feeling of something having lifted—a great thing that had passed into the dark caves of memory. It is the same old feeling of the hillsides of Alsace that I had when I was in the trenches. There were no lines in them; nothing stirred there. The apple has lifted, and the country is clean again.

They will be carried on under the joint auspices of the New Brunswick Department of Agriculture and certain of the banks which will lend the money for the purchase of the necessary animals. Following is the constitution and rules that will govern these clubs:

(a) To create a deeper interest among our farm boys and girls in the business of sheep raising.

Each pair will be marked with a number, and members will draw a number for each sheep corresponding to that number shall be his or hers, subject to rules of club.

Each member must care for his sheep in person and supply the bank with a record of wool sold, lambs sold or retained for breeding, and a record of methods of handling his sheep. Special forms will be supplied for this purpose.

Members who wish to do so may pay cash for sheep at time of delivery or the member may give notes for twelve (12) months, endorsed to the satisfaction of the bank by parents or guardian and bearing interest at six per cent (6 per cent).

Each member must, wherever possible, show their sheep and lambs at the special club members' fair in the fall. Prizes will be offered to members exhibiting the best.

The ewes and their progeny shall be the property of the member.

The Department of Agriculture will supply instruction bulletin, etc., relating to care and management of sheep and forms for sending in all other reports.—Agricultural Gazette.

Why He Was Leaving.

A prosperous grocer had occasion to engage a new errand-boy. Trade was very brisk and the lad had a great deal of work to do in delivering parcels in different parts of the town.

"Well, Johnny, how did you get on yesterday?" asked the grocer on Monday morning.

"Oh, fine," replied Johnny, "but I'm leaving at the end of the week."

"Why, Johnny, what's now?" queried his master. "Are the wages too high or low?"

"I'm no stranger any fault with the day," replied the boy, "but the fact is, I can't do a good horse out of a job here."

Why all this Precaution? JUST wherein lies the reason for the use of vegetable preparations for infants and children? Why are any but vegetable preparations unsafe for infants and children? Why are Syrups, Cordials and Drops condemned by all Physicians and most laymen? Why has the Government placed a ban on all preparations containing, among other poisonous drugs, Opium in its variously prepared forms and pleasing tastes, and under its innumerable names? These are questions that every Mother will do well to inquire about. Any Physician will recommend the keeping of Fletcher's Castoria in the house for the common ailments of infants and children.

The False and the True. Advertising by the use of large space, the expenditure of huge sums of money have placed on the market, have put in your home, perhaps, many articles that today have been discarded, as you will readily admit. Do you recall anything that has more modestly appealed to the public than has Fletcher's Castoria, modest in all its claims, pleading at all times—and truthfully—for our babies? The big splash, the misleading claims may win for a time, but the honest truth-telling advertiser is like the old story of the tortoise that beat the hare. Mothers everywhere, and their daughters, now mothers, speak frankly, glowingly, enthusiastically in praise of Fletcher's Castoria. Speak of it lovingly as a friend that has brought comfort, cheer and smiles to their little ones. There are substitutes and imitations as there are for the diamond, for anything of value. One might almost say that that which is not copied has no value. So you have had the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and a copy of the genuine wrapper kept constantly before you that you may guard against the false and the untrue.

Political Gossip Throughout Canada

Prohibition Plebiscite—Party No. 4—What the Opposition Missed—Liberal Luck Canada and Peace Treaty—Farmers and Liberals. Prohibition Plebiscite. Montreal Gazette: Premier Hearns of Ontario, points out that if the voters do decide in the referendum next month, the bar will be restored. The forecasters do not regard a return to the former order as a probability, but no one can be certain what the voters will do. A restoration of the retail licensing system in Ontario would encourage the reactionaries in the other provinces and they would begin agitating with vigor. The whole country is deeply interested in the coming vote in Ontario. Party No. 4. Montreal Gazette: Meantime the Canadian Labor Party (Ontario Division) has been organized, apparently as an aid for the Liberal opposition. It had its origin in Toronto, and is warmly approved by Liberal advance guard. The statement of the objects or platform is broad enough and vague enough to give almost anybody a place to stand. They include the securing for producers by hand and brain the full fruits of their industry and the most equitable distribution thereof, and generally to promote the political, social and economic emancipation of the people and more particularly of those who depend directly upon their own exertions by hand or by brain for the means of life. The new organization will be party No. 4 appealing to the voters of the province. What the Opposition Missed. L'Evenement: The great argument of the Opposition was that our entry into the League of Nations would multiply our obligations as a nation in which other countries may engage in the future. But the Opposition did not sufficiently realize the fact that the principal object of the league is precisely to diminish conflicts which can bring about war, and so maintain the peace of the world. In their eagerness to put up opposition they did not reflect that the military obligations resulting from admission to the League of Nations will become urgent only in very rare cases, or in the event of such a general conflagration that we would be bound to accept the national existence, or that of the Empire as a whole. The principal conclusion to be drawn from the Commons' debate is that there are members and journalists alike who need to develop their knowledge of international law and show a little more logic.

Liberal Luck. Montreal Gazette: The sequel to the recent election of a new Legislature in Prince Edward Island has been recorded. The Liberal Government has resigned and acted, with Mr. J. H. Bell as premier, has taken its place. Mr. Bell is a Liberal, and his success leaves only one province in Canada under the administrative control of Conservatives. Quebec an old Conservative stronghold, first went over to the enemy and state, British Columbia, Manitoba and New Brunswick followed. Nova Scotia which was Liberal in provincial affairs so long and steadily that even some Liberals wonder at their luck. Alberta and Saskatchewan were lined for the Liberals when they came into being as provinces, and have had no chance to change. The cause of the low barometer in Conservative fortunes have been different in different provinces. Some had good Liberal administrations and some had Conservative ones in control of their affairs. The Frenchman can only claim Quebec as their doing. Race pride or peculiarity of the small state is producing the several situations.

Canada and the Peace Treaty. L'Evenement: The Commons has unanimously declared in favor of the peace treaty. On certain clauses many criticisms were made in Parliament and in the press. Article 10, respecting the League of Nations, particularly provoked recriminations which were justified in the light of the fact that it endangers to a certain extent some of our political liberties. In order to avoid subsequent reproach and to reflect a phase of public sentiment, the Opposition is endeavoring to propose an amendment that approval of the treaty in no way consents to a diminution of the liberties of the Dominion. The amendment had been defeated, there remained nothing for the Opposition to do but rally to the Government after its expression of opinion, voiced by the Minister of Justice, that the League of Nations was a consultative body, whose decisions could not injure the autonomy of the Dominion. It remains to be seen whether the Government or the Opposition has the longest vision in this serious question.

Farmers and Liberals. Montreal Gazette: The effort to bring the United Farmers of Ontario and the Liberal Opposition into one camp for the coming provincial election does not show promising results. Mr. Dewar, the Liberal leader, was reported the other day, as referring to Mr. R. H. Halbert, president of the U. F. O., as "a farmer who has ceased farming and is now a paid agitator, going up and down the country creating unrest and disension." The sort of thing makes a weak span for a political bridge. The Toronto Globe also finds it well to say: "There is no sufficient reason for the growing hostility between Liberals and the U. F. O. It has its origin primarily in the undoubted fact that the U. F. O. leaders appear to be making a 'dead set' at the relatively few seats held by Liberals in the House, because these are largely seats in which the agricultural interest is strong, and are leaving the Government undisturbed in many constitu-

Halifax Man Declares Tanlac is Only Medicine That Ever Helped Him—Like Brand New Man, Now. "Well, sir, I have been trying for forty long years to find a medicine or treatment that would overcome my troubles, but all my efforts failed me completely until I commenced taking Tanlac," said Oswald Boullier, a well known carpenter who lives at 192 Agricola street, Halifax, while talking to a Tanlac representative the other day. "Yes, sir, Tanlac did the work for me after everything I tried had failed to do me any good at all," continued Mr. Boullier, "so you can't blame me for thinking it is the best medicine on earth. I suffered for forty long years, and when I commenced taking Tanlac my stomach was in such bad condition that everything I ate would give me indigestion and bloat me up with gas so that I would be perfectly miserable for hours at a time. I would have the worst cramping spells you ever heard of, and I would just be in agony while these spells lasted. I finally got to where I could not hardly ever retain anything I ate. Oh, I tell you I was in a bad fix and had lost so much in weight and got so weak and run down I could hardly get about. Why I got so nervous that such a thing as a good night's sleep was unknown to me. "Then Tanlac came along and I thought as I had tried everything else I might as well see what this medicine would do and believe me, Tanlac went right down after my troubles, and in a little no time I was feeling like a different man altogether. I have only taken four bottles so far, but I feel better in every way than I have for many years. At last I can come to eating I am 'all there' and I am not afraid to tackle anything that is put before me, either, I can eat meats, vegetables and just anything I want, and I never have a sign of stomach trouble or anything afterwards. In fact, I never have an ache or pain now, and Tanlac has completely over come my troubles, and I feel just the same all the time. I sleep like a log every night now and am gaining in weight every day. Tanlac has been a god-send to me and I think it is nothing more than my duty to let it be known to the world, so that others who suffer as I did, may be benefited by taking this wonderful medicine. Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Company and in F. W. Munro, under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—(Adv.)

FOURTEEN CLASSES JUDGED AT DOG SHOW YESTERDAY

Robert A. Ross Made a Host of Friends and His Judgment is Considered One of the Features of the Show.

Robert A. Ross, the judge, certainly won Toronto knick-knacks and admirers for the good work done yesterday at the second day of the eleventh annual show of the New Brunswick Kennel Club.

Fourteen classes were judged yesterday and last night, and the proof of Judge Ross' ability was shown in the fact that every competitor was thoroughly satisfied with the decisions handed out. Not only did Mr. Ross judge the entries, but in many cases set them up himself, getting better results than the owners were able to obtain.

Visitors who have attended most of the Upper Canadian shows are of the opinion that the local one is even superior to that of Montreal, and that the class of entries cannot be excelled by any in Canada. One of the features of the show is the way the local dogs are battling for premier honors. So many cases winning the special prizes over the pick of the Montreal show.

Today the judging of the remaining breeds will be concluded and probably motion pictures will be taken of the various winners. Tonight the cups and special prizes will be awarded the winners, terminating the show. All dogs will remain on the benches until the close of the evening show.

H. R. McCallan has donated a special cup, in addition to those already on the list, for the best provincial bred dog in any class. This cup will be awarded tonight.

THE HEART OF A DOG.

Where did they learn
 The miracle of love,
 These dogs that turn
 From foes and sleep at our light
 Whistled call.

Eager to fling
 Their all
 Of self and grace into glad following?

Not the wolf pack
 Taught, savage instinct love,
 For these lack
 The power to slay was to be hunger slain.

Once down, a prey,
 A stain
 Of crimson on the snow, a tuft of gray.

Was it from us
 They learned such loyal love
 Magnanimous,
 Meeting our injuries with trustful
 Are we not true,
 So wise,
 So broken-hearted when love's day is through?

Where did they learn
 The miracle of love?
 Though beauty burn
 In rainbow, foam and flame, these have not heard,
 Nor tres nor flowers,
 That word,
 Only our dogs would give their lives for ours.

Fern Hal Won Free For All

Good Races at Fredericton Fair Yesterday—Large Attendance at Exhibition.

Fredericton, Sept. 17.—In spite of threatening weather following the rain last night and this morning, this has been the biggest day yet at the Fredericton exhibition, more than 6,000 having paid admissions this afternoon, while tonight the crowds were larger than ever.

The show was complete for the first time, and with fine weather tomorrow and Friday should be two banner days. The amusement attractions gave their best performance today, while the Midway did a tremendous business. Because of the delay in getting the show started it is now planned to make Saturday one of the best days of the fair, and the show will remain absolutely complete until the closing last night.

There will be two more days' horse racing, with three races each day, the classes on Thursday being 2.15 trot, 2.18 trot and pace, and 2.25 trot and 2.18 trot.

Inter-annual racing over a muddy track, Fern Hal won the free-for-all at the Fredericton exhibition meeting here this afternoon, after Peter Farren had been his most favorite against the field in the betting, had been distanced the first heat, which was won by John A. Hal.

Fern Hal is owned by Dr. D. H. McAllister, ex-M. P. of Sussex, N. B., and has lately been racing in Aroostook County. During the afternoon the owner of Peter Farren, 2.07, offered to race either John A. Hal, 2.03 1/4, or White Sox, 2.03 1/4, for from $500 to $1,000 a side. W. G. Fenwick, of Bathurst, N. B., owner of John A. Hal, accepted to race, best two in three heats, but D. O'Keefe, of St. John, N. B., owner of Peter Farren, said it must be best three in five heats or not at all, they have not yet agreed upon terms.

Peter Farren acted so badly in the scoring that Starter Frank J. Power, of Halifax, N. S., advised John Johnston that he would have to take care of himself the next time down. The St. John pacer was still acting badly when the 2.09 trot was offered of the free-for-all, but Fred Cameron's mastery driving won for Fern Hal, leaving a five-year-old trotter by Thurgate to break the record in the straight heats with comparative ease.

The summary:
Free-For-All Pacing. Purse $400.
 Fern Hal, blk. m. by John A. Hal (Cameron) 2 1 1 2 1
 White Sox, b. m. by Delcoronado (Fenwick) 3 3 3 1 2
 John A. Hal, b. g. by John A. (J. Boutiller) 1 2 3 3 3
 Peter Farren, b. s. (Johnston) 2 1 1 4; 2:15 3-4, and 2:15.
2.25 Stake, Trotting. Purse $400.
 Bavis, gr. s. by Binanga (F. Boutiller) 1 1 1 1
 Sam McKinley, b. h. (Gerow) 3 2 4
 Harvest Hope, b. h. (Cameron) 5 3 2

 Forefeather, b. s. (Johnston) 2 5 5.
 Time—2: 11; 2:10 1/4, and 2:10 1/4.

The officials were the same as the previous day except that C. W. Bell, of St. John, who has never missed a race meeting here in more than half a century, was on hand and acted as one of the timers.

RUMANIA MUCH BENEFITED BY AID OF ALLIES

Rather Slow in Arriving, Has Resulted in Restoring Measure of Prosperity to Country.

BOLSHEVISTS DO NOT ALARM

Army of Greatly Harassed Kingdom Able to Cope With the Common Enemy

The Rumanian successes in Transylvania, the junction of the Czech-Slovak and Rumanian forces and receipt of the first stores promised the Allies for the Rumanian army have enormously improved conditions in Rumania, says the Bucharest correspondent of The London Times.

write as follows:

In speaking about the Bolshevists dangers six weeks ago, General Avram, who is moderate in his judgments, stated to me that he did for a moment contemplate that Bolshevists could break through Rumanian line once the soldiers ceased the gravity of the peril.

"We passed through such awful moments in 1917," said the general, "that nothing that can happen to us can approach those trials."

On the other hand, several fled officers, just returning from Transylvania, from states that were "clothed in rags and in course of" faintly nothing can so hearten the men as the arrival of the promised Allied equipment and rations.

Up to the present six food tons for the army have arrived from France, each composed of twenty wagons, and containing a very large amount of equipment; from Italy 600 outfits have been received, another ship is arriving now from Italy with rations and the solid One boat has arrived from England.

The newly clad and equipped Rumanian army will resemble what really is, a sort of international force against the Bolshevists. It is understood that the American Flying Club that Major Schroeder is preparing to break the world's one-man record with a machine equipped with the supercharger.

The Alerts and St. Peter's have arranged for a series of baseball games. The first game will take place on Saturday afternoon on the East End grounds.

"There is no place like home," sighed the bachelor.
 "That's a fact," said the family man, "there isn't!"

For the moment the greatest calamities of the Allied Kingdom, has passed through so many trials, times in so brief a space of time, the impossibility of settling down to normal financial and commercial conditions with the money standard presented to almost one-third of normal value.

It should certainly not be lost the Allies that, just as in Odessa the end of the German occupation, Rumania was worth one franc, and at the end of the Allied occupation, while today the franc has been sold for one franc, so in Rumania the lei was worth centimes at the end of the German occupation, while today the lei is quoted in Paris for 35 centimes.

Grain Production.

There seems to be considerable diversity of opinion as to the amount of grain which will be produced in this year. Even after getting into the matter carefully, in some disorganized state of things cannot be exact about any of its figures, but I believe it to be safe to state that 530,000 hectares (a 2,130,000 acres) of arable and land worked this year out of one and a half millions. This amount of sown to every grain except maize, has never produced 1,000,000 tons, this amount is absolutely needed for the internal consumption of the country, the quota being 600,000 tons for nourishment and 400,000 tons feed.

Of course, while there has great difficulty in obtaining sufficient seed, especially maize for sowing even greater difficulty has been found in obtaining machinery, horses and men for planting, extraordinary demands on depleted man force occasioned by renewed mobilization on three fronts came just at the wrong moment any extra effort.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 17.—For the first time since the organization of the National League, in 1871, Cincinnati has won the pennant. With the defeat went the last chance for the New York club to clinch the coveted flag for the season of 1919. One boat has arrived from England.

International Defence.

The newly clad and equipped Rumanian army will resemble what it really is, a sort of international defence against the Red, the grey-green, khaki, horizon blue and gray-green, this time, however, clothing men of one race, with here and there a uniform of the old gray-blue Rumanian cloth to remind us of the great war.

Of course, we rely on the Rumanian soldier to hold the Upper Danube, as the French and Greek troops are only guarding its lower reaches.

For the moment the greatest difficulties of the Allied Kingdom, which has passed through so many tribulations in so brief a space of time, continue to be the transport question and the impossibility of settling down to normal financial and commercial conditions with the money standard depreciated to almost one-third of its normal value.

It should certainly not be lost on the Allies that, just as in Odessa at the end of the German occupation, the ruble was worth one franc, and at the end of the Allied occupation six rubles were sold for one franc, so here in Rumania the leu was worth 25 centimes at the end of the German occupation, while today the leu is quoted in Paris for 35 centimes.

Economic State Declared Cause of Outbreaks In India

British Representative Attributes Trouble to Landlords' Extortion and the Poor Farming Methods.

New York, Sept. 17.—Economic conditions were the underlying cause of the recent outbreaks in India and the Punjab and not hatred of British rule, according to advices received by the Centenary Committee of the Methodist Episcopal Church from Clyde B. Stuntz, their representative in that region. Mr. Stuntz who is a son of Bishop Homer S. Stuntz, was placed in command of all vehicles by the British military authorities during the trouble and had unusual opportunities to study the situation.

In a letter which the committee has just received from him Mr. Stuntz declares mob violence first began at Amritsar; where two agitators were arrested by the British. The banks were attacked, white employees were killed or badly beaten and the offices looted. A woman's hospital was attacked, as well as the town hall and mission church, the hall and charrow being burned before the military gain of the upper hand.

From Amritsar the trouble spread to Lahore, where Mr. Stuntz was re-

Mr. Stuntz attributed the outbreak chiefly to the extortion of landlords and the primitive methods of farming, which have kept the natives in a state bordering on destitution. Mr. Stuntz, as the committee's representative, is doing everything in his power to alleviate the situation by teaching modern methods of farming and by getting money at reasonable rates for the tenant farmers. In furthering this work the committee proposes to expend $135,000.

very ashamed of their part in the rice, and in the disturbances that followed at least two men were killed instantly by rifle fire. In other parts of the Punjab the riotous outbreaks were not stopped until troops and airplanes appeared and martial law was proclaimed.

"Race hatred was not the cause of the trouble," writes Mr. Stuntz. "In their saner moments the natives are mighty glad to have the British there to insure peace and safety. In the majority of cases I find the people are

Backache only a Symptom

"It Seems as Though my Back Would Break."

This is a common expression among women, yet they toil on day after day heedless of the significance of this distressing symptom.

Backache is often a warning of some inward trouble that requires attention, and which unless relieved will sooner or later declare itself in more serious ailments.

If it is caused by female derangement Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is what you need. It quickly asserts its curative powers in all those peculiar ailments of women.

For more than thirty years this good old fashioned root and herb medicine has been restoring women to health.

The Splendid Recovery of Mrs. Fleet

Brantford, Ont.—"I have been a user of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and find there is nothing better for female troubles. I was taken sick with sharp pains in my right side and up over the hip to the back and the doctor said I would have to be operated on. I was in the hospital three weeks and did not get any better so I went home and took the Vegetable Compound. I stayed in bed three weeks more, then I was able to get up. Now I am all right and I have recommended your medicine to several friends and my daughter is taking it and all are pleased with the results from its use."

MRS. FRANK FLEET,
Brantford, Ontario.

Mrs. Hunt tells how it helped her

Detroit, Mich.—"I was in a general run-down condition, was very nervous and tired, had backache and other troubles. I suffered for several years, was not able to work at times and tried doctor's medicine with no results. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised, and after taking it a short time I was much better. I am still taking it myself and giving it to my daughter, and am glad to recommend Vegetable Compound at any time."—Mrs. M. E. Hunt, 1711 Division Ave.
