FOR PUBLIC OWNERSHIP

R. L. Berden and W. F. Maclean
At Toronto Junction.

Opening Meeting in the South York Campaign a Great Success—Kilburn Hall Filled to the Doors—Conservative Leader Emphasizes People's Ownership of G.T.P. and Candidate Devotes His Time to Public Ownership.

Toronto Junction, Oct. 6.—Last night Kilburn Hall was filled to its utmost capacity with electors of South York to hear R. L. Berden speak in the interests of the county generally and the Conservative candidate, W. F. Maclean, in particular. Mr. Berden's entry into the hall was the signal for a tremendous shout of enthusiasm, and three cheers and a tiger greeted the leader when he rose to speak. Public ownership of public utilities was the topic kept well in the foreground of the discussion. Mr. Berden, dealt in his usual clear and forcible manner, with the application of the principle to the proposed Transcontinental Railway, and noted a strong and growing sentiment in its favor.

The paramount issue was the transportation question was the paramount issue, the leader observed, as he plunged into an analysis of the contract entered into by the Government with the Grand Trunk Railway. He showed that the bargain was made with a subsidiary company known as the Grand Trunk Pacific, and explained that the old Grand Trunk Railway desired to keep itself unhampered so that it might convey its traffic to United States ports, as it had in the past. Bad as the bargain of 1903 was for the people, in the amended bargain of 1904 there was not one concession to the people, but many concessions to the G.T.P. Mr. Berden went into the contract in detail, urging that the Government had failed to secure favorable rates for the people other than those provided by the regulations respecting other carrying companies.

W. F. MACLEAN.
Conservative Candidate in South York.

Mr. Berden's declaration that the people should build the other tenth of the transcontinental railway and own the whole road was received with cheers. He declared for making Government-owned roads free from political control and partisan management.

South York's Candidate.

The candidate, Mr. W. F. Maclean, he observed, was a man of progressive and advanced ideas—a man who had the courage of his convictions, and one who was not afraid to express in and out of Parliament that which he believed to be in the interests of the country. Mr. Berden had not always seen eye to eye with Mr. Maclean, but they were none the less friends for that, and he respected him for his advanced ideas.

Mr. Berden having dealt at length with the other issue of the campaign, closed amid deafening cheers.

Public Ownership.

Mr. Maclean's speech was confined almost exclusively to the question of public ownership, and he said, in the course of his exhaustive speech, that the Conservative party had taken up the question and that the Liberals said they did not believe in it. Speeches were also delivered by A. E. Kemp, J. W. St. John, M.P.P., and Councillor Syme. The meeting closed with the usual cheers.

Quebec Bears Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

Quebec, Oct. 6.—Notwithstanding a downpour of rain Sir Wilfrid Laurier was the subject of an enthusiastic reception last evening. He was tendered a dinner at the Auditorium Cafe. As the Premier emerged from the hall there was a big display of fireworks, band playing, etc. A very large crowd in carriages and on foot followed him to St. Roch, which forms part of Quebec East, which the Premier has represented in Parliament for a number of years. He spoke in Jacques Cartier Hall. The Premier made a long speech, going principally over the same ground he did at Sorel. He predicted a great victory for the Liberal party. Several other leading Liberals addressed the meeting.

Aylesworth For Durham.

Bowmanville, Oct. 6.—Word was received here yesterday afternoon from Ottawa that A. B. Aylesworth K.C. had consented to run in Durham as the Liberal candidate. It is understood that Robert Beith pressed him to do so, though Mr. Beith declines to be interviewed on the matter. It is said in well-informed Liberal circles that Mr. Beith has been promised a seat in the Senate, and has taken this means of making his calling and election sure. A. B. Aylesworth, if he looks to Durham for his seat, will not have a pasture amid roses.

POLITICAL POINTERS.

Peter Christie of Manchester, Ont., has accepted the Conservative nomination in South Ontario.

Conservatives of Quebec Centre nominated Dr. W. A. Verge Wednesday as standard bearer for the party.

The Liberals of the County of La Vall Wednesday nominated Camille Paquette as their candidate for the Commons.

The Conservatives of Laprairie-Naperville Wednesday nominated Max Coupal, notary, as their candidate for the Commons.

G. F. Hodgins, merchant of Shawville, was chosen as the Liberal candidate for Pontiac, at their convention at Campbell's Bay, Wednesday.

A. Blumenthal, a prominent Jewish resident, was Wednesday night nominated and accepted as an independent labor candidate in St. Lawrence division of Montreal.

Kingston Conservatives nominated Capt. John Gaskin, ex-mayor and formerly manager of the Montreal Transportation Co., as the candidate in the coming elections.

Hamilton Conservatives held their convention Wednesday. They decided to run Frank C. Bruce in West Hamilton, and Samuel Barker in East Hamilton. Both candidates made short speeches.

Hon. Robert Rogers of Manitoba, who is in Toronto, expects the Conservatives to win every one of the ten seats in Manitoba. This will mean the defeat of Hon. Clifford Sifton in Brandon.

The Liberal-Conservatives of the County of Halton met in convention in Milton Wednesday, when David Henderson was again chosen to carry the Conservative standard in the approaching Dominion elections.

James Kennedy, who represented West Peterboro in the last Parliament, will be the Conservative candidate, again. This was decided yesterday when Mr. Kennedy and a number of Peterboro Conservatives saw Mr. Borden at the Albany Club.

Mr. Borden continues his Ontario tour. The following are his dates: Wingham, Oct. 6; Dunnville, Oct. 7; Newwood (afternoon), Oct. 8; Peterboro (night), Oct. 8; Picton, Oct. 11; Beekville, Oct. 12; Cornwall, Oct. 12. From Alexandria he opens the Quebec campaign for a week, thence to the Maritime Provinces till the close of the campaign.

At a convention in Mitchell Wednesday afternoon of the South Perth Reform Association, attended by nearly a full representation of delegates, G. H. McIntyre of St. Mary's was chosen as the Liberal candidate for the House of Commons. D. K. Erb, the late member, was nominated, but declined. The names that went to ballot were those of Mr. McIntyre and T. H. Rice, editor of The Mitchell Recorder. The vote stood 109 to 33.

TORONTO RAILWAY INDICTED.

Grand Jury Brings in a True Bill For Killing and Maiming.

Toronto, Oct. 6.—The Grand Jury yesterday brought in a true bill against the Toronto Railway Co. for maintaining a common nuisance, under the following indictment prepared by County Crown Attorney Drayton:

That the company, without lawful excuse, unlawfully neglected and omitted to take reasonable precaution and care to avoid danger to human life in the operation of their cars upon the streets of Toronto, which were of such a design and without proper and sufficient fenders, guards, brakes and appliances, as would cause danger in human life and by improperly, illegally and negligently maintaining, operating and running their cars, in consequence whereof the lives, safety and health of the public and foot passengers were endangered.

And that the said Toronto Railway Co., in manner aforesaid, unlawfully did commit a common nuisance, thereby endangering the lives, safety, health, property and comfort of the public, and causing grievous bodily injuries to certain individuals, namely, William John Lee, James E. Duggan, Haskin Muckleston, Abel Haskin, David Hall, Florence Dixon, Lorne Millard, Josephine E. Mara, Samuel Brinbain, John Dixon, Emmanuel P. Vale, Marion Solomon, Mary Kelly, William Pettigrew, Clarence Matheson, Appollo Churchhill, Mary McCabe, John B. Hunter, Anne Kelly, Alexander Ross, Alice Peatty, John Falaldeen, Byrel Edna Gordon, Kathleen Cockburn, Nettie Brown and Thomas Kennedy.

The case will not be tried until the next sessions in December.

THE ELKS TO-NIGHT

The Elks' lodge will be formally inaugurated in Chatham to-night. The London Elks will be down in force to institute the lodge, and a splendid banquet will follow at the Hotel Garner. Mr. Garwright, the London basso, and local musical talent will contribute numbers.

CLEAN SWEEP IN MANITOBA

Conservatives Will Carry
the Ten Seats — Mr.
Rogers' Prediction.

Mr. Borden's Railway Policy Immensely Popular in the West—Most Encouraging Outlook.

Toronto, Oct. 5.—"The Conservatives will probably carry the ten seats in Manitoba in the Dominion contest," said Hon. Robert Rogers, Minister of Public Works, of Manitoba, to a reporter here to-day.

"That means that Mr. Sifton will be defeated."

"Certainly. We are out to carry every seat, and he will not be passed by."

"Is Mr. Borden's railway policy meeting with favor in the West?" "It is one of the greatest issues in the campaign, both in Manitoba and the North-west Territories, and throughout the whole West the people are strongly in favor of a Government-owned railway. It is only natural that Mr. Borden's policy should be popular, for if it is adopted it will be to the lasting advantage of the country; and the Western people recognize the value to the country of a great transcontinental railway owned by the people."

Continuing, Mr. Rogers stated that over 9,000 new names had been added to the voters' lists since the last local elections, and of these 7,000 had been put on by the Conservatives.

THE PEACE CONFERENCE.

War Affects the Working Class More Than Any Other.

Boston, Oct. 6.—The International Peace Congress has adopted resolutions calling upon Russia and Japan to end the present war and upon the signatory powers of The Hague Convention to press upon the Governments of Russia and Japan the importance of putting an end to the strife.

Duty of Business Men.

The duties of business men in the cause of attaining universal peace was the subject discussed last night at a public meeting in Tremont Temple.

John Lund, former President of the Norwegian Parliament; Thomas Shupe of Liverpool; Walter Bassell of London; George Arnhold of Dresden, and Geo. F. Pasbody of New York, were among the speakers.

As It Affects Labor.

Every labor union in the city was represented at a workingmen's public mass meeting in Faneuil Hall.

The keynote of the gathering was war affected the working class of the world more than any other class, that working people should band themselves together and insist that war, both industrial and political, should cease.

Samuel Gompers and prominent labor representatives of Great Britain, France, Belgium and Germany spoke.

A set of resolutions adopted endorse the declaration for international peace made by the American Federation of Labor at the Baltimore Congress, in 1887.

C.P.R. Annual Meeting.

Montreal, Oct. 6.—The twenty-third annual meeting of the C.P.R. was held here at noon yesterday, and was largely attended. The annual report was considered very satisfactory in every respect, and although the earnings did not show up as well as was expected in some quarters, yet it was found very satisfactory when the adverse conditions existing during the year were taken into consideration.

Sir William Van Horne, chairman of the board of directors, was in the chair. All the directors of the company were also present. The annual report was adopted and the shareholders also authorized the increase of the capital stock by $25,000,000, making the total of the ordinary capital stocks $110,000,000. The old board of directors were all re-elected.

Malicious Officiousness.

London, Oct. 6.—(C. A. P.)—Lord Roberts wrote a private letter to Mr. Bunbury, which letter was used by the Courtenay Company to advertise their emigration agency. W. P. R. Preston drew Lord Roberts' attention to the use of the letter was being made of, and Lord Roberts requested that its use in such a manner, be stopped. Mr. Bunbury, writing to The Truth, says it was malicious officiousness, and that Mr. Preston seized upon Courtenay's circular as a temporary weapon to attack those who belong to the party of his political opponents.

Ontario Winners At St. Louis.

St. Louis, Oct. 6.—Ten first prizes were won yesterday at the World's Fair Sheep, Goat and Swine Show by Ontario entries. The winners were: J. C. Ross of Jarvis, T. H. Shore of Blenheim, Hastings Bros. of Cross Hill, J. T. Gibson of Denfield (two first prizes), D. Douglass & Son of Mitchell, Ira Jackson of West Miller, and H. Brethorne of Burford. The only other Canadian winning a first prize yesterday was J. A. McGillivray.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 6.
MR. BORDEN ON GOVERNMENT
OPERATION OF RAILWAYS.

"The Government made a change in the contract permitting this stock to be transferred to the Grand Trunk Railway. When questioned about this in the House, Mr. Fielding's reply was one that ought to be remembered by every Canadian. He replied that they would have preferred the contract as it stood, but the Grand Trunk Railway had insisted upon this change."

"It was a strange condition of affairs that any Government in this country should be so far under the control of any corporation, however great, that it was obliged to agree to stipulations at the dictation of that corporation."

"Speaking of the Intercolonial Railway, Mr. Borden said that the Conservatives' policy was to extend and develop it and to free it from partisan influence. It was said that the Intercolonial could not be successfully conducted as a business enterprise. Why could it not? It was a paying concern to-day in Nova Scotia and in the greater part of New Brunswick. Were they not making a success of the telephone business in England? Were they not conducting their own railways in Australia, where an eminent Canadian had been called upon and had completely changed the system in use?"

"Some say," said Mr. Borden, "that the people of Canada cannot operate this railway free from party influence. Well, I say it is at least worth while for the people of Canada to try, and if the Conservative party is returned to power that Conservative Government will try the experiment and see if it cannot be accomplished, and I say further, that the greater you make the International Railway, the less will people submit to partisan management, such as we have sometimes found in the past. The larger an enterprise looms before the people of this country, the more it affects the interests of the people by being extended, for example, into your own interests, the more likely it will be that public sentiment in this country will require more efficient management, and a management more free from partisan influence than that which we have had in the past."—R. L. Borden, at Orillia.

AN IMPARTIAL CRITIC.

"The Presbyterian," the religious weekly published by the Westminster Company, and formerly edited by Rev. J. A. Macdonald, now of the Globe, can hardly be accused of Conservative leanings; indeed it has had a tendency in quite the opposite direction. It speaks out now, however, in no uncertain tone as to the provincial situation, and in an article headed "Our Bitter Shame," gives voice to the following sentiments—

"The revelations of political corruption in Ontario made during the past weeks in the election courts have been such as to bring the blush of shame to the cheek of every honest and self-respecting man. We have been accustomed to speak with complacency of Ontario as the premier province and as setting the pace for all the other provinces of the Dominion in agricultural, commercial, educational and religious activities, but it has long been painfully evident that there is another side to the shield, and that side by side with these things there has been a steady degradation of the standards of political morality that recalls Tammany in its palmy days. It is not a case in which one side can afford to cast stones at the other. The 'tu quoque' argument will do nothing to heal the disease. We cannot close our eyes to the seriousness of the situation. It is one which every man who is jealous of the good name and welfare of his country must honestly face, and in which he must do what he can to arrest the virus before the case becomes hopeless."

"Decent men have stood aside, busied in their own affairs, and allowed to go on until the stench of it all has become intolerable. But the public conscience is at last fully aroused to the depths into which we have sunk. Men who have stood aside have waked up to the fact that the situation cannot be met by mutual recrimination and that it is one in which decent men, irrespective of party affiliation, must join hands in an effort for clean methods of administration, so that the will of the people shall not continue to be balked by the tricks of party heeled."

"It is not our function to suggest a course of action in the crisis. But it must be made plain that no man or body of men that has been guilty of debauching the electorate can continue to hold the confidence of the people. And there are some things that ought to be done. To make the fate of the parties to depend on the issue of the bye-elections in the vacated constituencies would be simply to invite another carnival of corruption and a repetition of the scenes of which respectable men on both sides have become nauseated. The hint has been thrown out that a dissolution may take place and that prohibition may be made an issue in an appeal to the country. It is to be hoped that there are no grounds for the latter surmise. To drag prohibition by the heels into the political arena as a forlorn hope would be properly resented by those who have consistently stood for it in the past. The fate of this party or that is immaterial. What is essential is that the aroused public conscience shall assert itself, not in mere denunciation but in act; that men of ability and character, who have hitherto stood aloof, shall come to the front willing to serve their country, and that those who have covered the name of Ontario with infamy shall receive the reward of their deeds. If the events of the past weeks serve the purpose of arousing a too long sluggish public conscience, and bringing about a better and cleaner state of affairs, the experience, bitter and humiliating as it has been, will not have been in vain."

When "The Presbyterian" says "no bye-elections," it says that Ross should go to the country. There is no other possible interpretation. Its words as to prohibition should be a warning to temperance workers who might be tempted to support Ross in some such characteristically shifty move as is outlined by the Toronto magazine. Ross will take good care not to become the servant of the temperance party, but he will use the temperance cry to make the temperance party his servant—that is, of course, if temperance people are willing to be made tools of the cunning but unprincipled leader of the Liberal party in Ontario.

NOT LIKELY.

Hamilton Spectator.
It was in evidence before Justices Boyd and Tetzlaff that Hon. J. M. Gibson was informed of the contemplated trip of the Minnie M. and requested to stop it. He did not appear at the trial to say anything against that evidence, yet the judges have not one word to say of the attorney-general, who was clearly an accessory before the fact.

MILITARY FEVER IN DUNDAS.

Dundas Star.
Our news has been considerably curtailed this week on account of the Seventy-seventh regiment having depleted our working staff, every kid and man in town that could be induced to go having donned a red coat and gone away for the annual drill.

Most sensible people want to know the reason why. Well, the reason why Vito Tonic has cured so many severe cases is because it builds up the tissue of which the human body is made; it is a natural tonic, composed of herbs, barks and fruits. Messrs. Gunn & Co., druggists, keep it in stock.

BIG CONTRACT FOR WAGONS

Manager Landon Closes a $100,000 Transaction With a Large Chicago Firm.

Splendid Progress of the Maple City Factory—Popularity of the Chatham Wagon.

A business deal, involving the largest amount of money ever connected with a single transaction in this city, was negotiated here last week when the Chatham Mfg. Co. sold 2,000 wagons to the International Harvester Co., of Chicago, Ill.

This stands as a record not only for the amount of money involved, but also for the amount of work required in its fulfillment. The deal was negotiated by General Manager W. R. Landon, acting for the Chatham Mfg. Co., and H. H. Hannon, Toronto, and A. E. McKinstry, Chicago, acting for the International Harvester Works. Mr. Hannon is the manager of the Canadian business and A. E. McKinstry is of the sales department of the Harvester Co. The 2,000 wagons are to be delivered within the next twelve months and the amount of money required for its consummation will be in the neighborhood of $100,000. The wagons will be sold in Ontario, Quebec and the Maritime Provinces. This is an immense business transaction and a large amount of money is at stake, yet the deal was made quietly enough and the General Manager, while well satisfied, doesn't appear to consider that he has done anything wonderful.

Since Mr. Landon took charge of the Chatham Mfg. Co. it has had an era of unusual prosperity. The works have been increased and the capacity of the factory doubled. The Chatham wagons, too, have won a Dominion reputation.

CITY'S TASTE FOR LITERATURE

Sarcastic Comment Thereon by Chairman Sheldrick of the Library Board.

Philharmonic Society to Utilize Auditorium—Other Business of Short Session.

"The people apparently are asking for a high class of literature," remarked Albert Sheldrick, chairman of the Library Board, at the meeting last night.

Secretary W. J. J. Twohey had just finished reading the Librarian's report in which Miss Barassian stated that the public were asking for Sir Henry Morgan, Buccaneer, Love Letters of an American Girl, The Prodigal Son, etc.

There were present at the meeting Chairman Albert Sheldrick and Messrs. W. J. Twohey, M. A. J. W. Humphrey, Capt. Smith, Dr. Charteris, and William Anderson.

Janitor Xavier Roesch wrote asking for an increase in salary. He has been receiving $14 a month and his salary was increased to $20 a month till January.

All spoke highly of Mr. Roesch's work. J. W. Humphrey reported that the Macaulay Club had rented the Auditorium for one night. He asked to be empowered to rent it to them at the same price as last season if the club wished the hall. The request was granted.

The Philharmonic Society made application for the use of the hall for practicing.

Mr. Sheldrick said that it would be out of the question to think of renting the hall for such use before nine o'clock. Mr. Humphrey agreed. It was finally decided to offer the hall to the Society at $2 a night, provided the sessions didn't begin before nine o'clock.

The janitor reported that the heater in the men's reading room was too small. There was a larger one in the hall. He asked that the two be interchanged.

The room committee was given power to have this done. The room committee were also empowered to get prices on about 75 new chairs for the auditorium. The same committee was given power to pay for the new books ordered when their invoice arrived.

You say you have used everything for that obstinate case of constipation, Vito Tonic? You have not tried Vito Laxative Fruit Pills, otherwise you would be cured. Messrs. Gunn & Co., druggists, keep them in stock; price 25 cents.

A HOPELESS CASE.

"Has George ever hinted that he has thought of you as a possible wife?" asked the anxious mother. "No," replied the fair girl, with a faraway look in her eyes, "and I'm afraid he never will."

"Why," said the mother, "I thought—"

"Never mind what you thought, mamma," interrupted the daughter. "Only last night he complained of feeling weary, and it was not yet 9 o'clock."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

HAPPIEST MAN IN UNCLE SAM'S NAVY.

"I am the happiest man in Uncle Sam's Navy. I must have got the pills from always sitting on the guns, for I have to get on them to clean them, as I am first-class gunner's mate in the after turret."

"I could not do any work when I had the pills, my shipmates did it for me. I certainly was in a bad condition; to-day there is no man on board the ship in better condition than I am, and I can certainly thank Pyramid Pile Cure for the world of good it has done me. I used so many different medicines and spent lots of money until I used this remedy; it is the only one of the whole lot that did me any good."

"The first box nearly cured me, and I don't think I ever felt better in my life, that I thought I got the real stuff at last. To make sure of a cure I used a number of boxes, also two boxes of Pyramid Pills and one and one-half boxes of Pyramid Ointment, and I still have four boxes of Pyramid Pile Cure left, that I keep in case I meet anyone that is a sufferer of piles. I thank Pyramid Pile Cure a million times." Julius A. Koester, U. S. Flagship Kearney.

The wonderful cures effected by this remedy are subject for remark among members of the medical profession everywhere. A little book describing the causes and cure of piles is published by the Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., and we advise every sufferer to send for it. It is a singular fact that one out of every four suffers from this distressing complaint, and another peculiar feature is that it is no respecter of persons, attacking both those of high and of low degree, the laborer and the millionaire, the scrubwoman and the lady of fashion. We have pleasure in recommending Pyramid Pile Cure, to all such, as it possesses many, and since it is sold by all druggists generally for the low price of fifty cents a package a prompt and speedy cure is easily within the reach of everyone.

THE GOAT WAS NOT ENLIGHTENED.

A well known physician who is somewhat skeptical as to the soundness of Christian Science doctrine tells this story of an ardent Eddytite and her little boy: The mother was crossing the field with her small son when a goat appeared and came toward them threateningly, to the dismay of the youngster, who shrank in terror behind his mother's skirt. Remembering her beliefs she tried to reassure him.

"Why, George," she said, soothingly, "as the goat continued to advance, 'don't you know that you're a Christian Science little boy, that there's no such thing as pain, and that it would be useless for the goat to try to hurt you? Don't you know that?'"

"Yes," wailed the doubting believer between his sobs, "I know it, and you know it, but the goat don't know it!"—Harper's Weekly.

MONARCHS WHO ARE MASONS

Three monarchs — namely, Edward VII., the Kaiser and King Oscar — belong to-day to the craft, and in each instance, they have since their accession to the throne, ceased to be active members and have severed their connection with the lodges to which they belonged finding the obligations of sovereignty incompatible with those of the brotherhood. Thus, during the last year of Queen Victoria's reign, the discovery that an atheistic Mason lodge, known as the Hiram Lodge, had been constituted in London, under a charter from the Grand Orient of France compelled the then Prince of Wales, in his capacity as Grand Master of the English Rite, to issue a somewhat violent and abrupt decree directed against French Masons, denouncing them as beyond the Masonic pale, and prohibiting any Masonic intercourse with them. True, it was in keeping with the attitude assumed by the Grand Lodge of England, in 1877, when the Grand Orient of France banished, so to speak, the Almighty from its lodges, excluding in the most rigorous fashion from its ceremonies all acknowledgement of or reference to the Grand Architect of the Universe. But in view of the role played by Masonry in the political life of France, where most of the leading statesmen, from the President of the Republic and the Premier downward, are members of the craft, it was, to say the least, awkward, and it is easy to see that if circumstances were to arise necessitating the issue of another such attack upon French Masons by the English Grand Lodge, the connection of King Edward with the latter would not merely endow the manifesto with an official and international character, but would be calculated to impair the friendly relations between the two governments.

AN AWKWARD SITUATION.
This danger was brought home to the King within a few weeks after his accession, for among the earliest petitions which he received after becoming King was an appeal signed, not only by a large number of Turkish Free-Masons, but likewise by thousands of other members of the craft, calling upon him to use his influence to secure the freedom of a brother Mason, ex-Sultan Murad, who, "for the last quarter of a century has been imprisoned at Constantinople on the pretext of a mental malady" by his younger brother, the present ruler of the Ottoman Empire. It was, perhaps, fortunate that a few days before this petition reached its destination, Edward had surrendered the Grand Mastership of the order in England to his brother, the Duke of Connaught, since otherwise his Masonic obligations would have forced him to take some steps in behalf of Murad which might have clashed with the political interest of his kingdom.

Emperor William, on succeeding to the throne, with the object of avoiding just such quandaries as these, hastened to sever his connection with the craft, nominating his cousin and brother-in-law, Prince Frederick Leopold, the Grand Master of the French Rite, and the Grand Master of the Swedish Rite, while King Oscar of Sweden showed similar prudence. Napoleon III., however, neglected to take this precaution when he became Emperor of the French, and it was owing to his Masonic obligations that he gave such powerful support to the United Italy party south of the Alps, in defiance of French interests. For it is hardly necessary to point out that it was to the advantage of France that Italy should remain divided up into a number of petty sovereignties, instead of constituting one united kingdom that would necessarily become a menace and a danger to France.

FORCED INTO WAR.
Napoleon was a mason of the Italian Rite, and he had joined the order in his youth, while living in Italy, and at a moment when the Italian lodges were the life and soul of the movement in favor of the unification of Italy, with Rome as its capital. When he ascended the throne of France he found it convenient to forget his obligations. But Mazzini, who was one of the principal dignitaries of the Grand Orient of Italy, and other influential Italian Masons lost no time in reminding him of his solemn pledges, giving him to understand that the enmity of the craft, and even punishment in the shape of death, would inevitably overtake him unless he lived up to his promises. Not merely threats, but bona fide attempts upon his life, began to follow one upon another with startling rapidity, until in 1859, he, to the dismay of all his most sensible counselors and friends, embarked France in a costly and wholly unnecessary war with Austria, for the purpose of driving her out of Lombardy, and of uniting the latter, as well as the Grand Duchy of Tuscany, the Duchy of Parma and a number of other petty sovereignties of the Peninsula, to what was then known as the Kingdom of Sardinia. He likewise gave very material support to the movement which resulted in the overthrow of the Kingdom of Naples and its absorption by what is now the Kingdom of Italy. Napoleon's Masonic friends demanded that he should help them to secure possession of Rome. But he realized that his subjects would not tolerate his taking part as sovereign of France in any movement that had for its object the overthrow of the temporal sovereignty of the Pope, and that he would risk revolution and the loss of his throne if he continued any longer to yield to the demands of his Italian fellow Masons.

RESIGNED HIS OFFICE.
It was then that he caused his cousin, Prince Murat, to become Grand Master of the French Free Masons, and proclaimed his intention of protecting the craft in France in order to make it clear, both in his own dominions and in Italy, that he ceased to be a Mason or to be bound by his obligations of such, al-

The Start

In married life is generally made on an equal footing of health in man and wife. But how soon, in many cases, the wife loses the start and fades in face and falls in health, while her husband grows more rugged and robust.

There is one chief cause for this wifely failure and that is, the failure of the womanly health. When there is irregularity or an unhealthy drain, inflammation, ulceration or female weakness, the general health is soon impaired.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures womanly diseases. It establishes regularity, dries unhealthy drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"A little over a year ago I wrote to you for advice," says Mrs. Elizabeth J. Fisher of Diana, W. Va. "You advised me to use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' which I did, and my health is now as good as new. I was troubled with female weakness and bearing-down pains. Had a very bad pain nearly all the time in my left side, nervousness and headache. Was so weak I could hardly walk across my room. Could not sit up only just a little while at a time. My husband got able to help me. I used three bottles in all and it cured me. Now I do all my housework. It is the best medicine I ever used."

The Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

though he would remain a friend of a token of his good will to the latter he issued a decree, bearing the date of 1862, legally recognizing and authorizing the existence of the Order of Free Masons in France. It is an irony of fate that this very fraternity should have become one of the chief factors in bringing about his downfall and have constituted one of the chief obstacles to any monarchical restoration in France.

To what extent the Masons on the Continent of Europe interfere in politics may be gathered from the fact that after the collapse of the Boulanger bubble those of his adherents who belonged to the order were subjected to severe disciplinary measures by their lodges, not because they had taken part in a political movement, but because they had happened to be on the losing side. In Italy, after Crispi's first visit to the late Prince Bismarck at Friedrichsruhe, he invoked the support of the Grand Orient at Rome for the Triple Alliance, which was very unpopular among the people. As a reward for his services in the matter, the late Signor Lemmi, the Grand Master of the craft, was granted by the Cabinet of the day the monopoly of purchasing the foreign tobacco needed by the Italian Government, the sale of tobacco to King Victor Emmanuel's dominions being a state monopoly. This enabled Lemmi and his Masonic confederates to realize enormous fortunes within the space of a few years.

MASONS IN EUROPEAN POLITICS.
It was in the third and fourth decades of the nineteenth century that the Masons of Italy, Austria, France, Spain and Portugal first commenced to devote their attention to politics. This was due to the severity of the various monarchical Governments in dealing with persons professing liberal and radical views. The men found that it was not behind the closed doors of Masonic lodges, duly tiled, that they could make their voices heard and give free expression to their political opinions without peril of imprisonment, and even worse. But, while this association between politics and Masonry has served the personal ends and ambitions of many of the statesmen who were members of the craft, it cannot be said to have furthered the real interests and aims of the fraternity, which has for its primary object universal brotherhood, and one may recall the bitter resentment excited in France by two speeches of Adriano Lemmi, the Grand Master of the Orient of Italy, delivered at Naples and at Rome, in which he proclaimed his ardent hope of seeing ere long the flag of his country floating over Corsica.

It was different over the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries. Thus we find King Louis XVI., who met with his death on the scaffold, and his two younger brothers, who reigned over France as Louis XVIII. and Charles X., respectively, figuring as Masons and belonging to a lodge known as "The Three Brothers." King Charles' son, the Duc de Berri, was likewise a prominent Mason. So, too, was King Louis Philippe, and also his eldest son, the Duke of Orleans, father of the late Comte de Paris. King Frederick the Great was initiated, while still heir apparent at Brunswick in 1738, and subsequently founded a lodge of his own at his chateau of Rheinsberg. His connection with the order remained very close and intimate throughout his reign, among the proofs thereof being a notable letter addressed by him to the poor before his death to the lodge in Berlin known as the "Royal York of Friendship." Both of Frederick the Great's successors were Grand Masters of the Grand Orient of Prussia.

FORTY THOUSAND MILES IN A CANOE

Forty thousand miles in a two-and-a-half ton canoe! Such is the remarkable voyage which has just been accomplished by Captain John C. Voss, a native of British Columbia, and for many years master of Nova Scotia ships. By covering the distance in three years, three months and twelve days, he has broken the American record.

Captain Voss began his journey from Victoria, British Columbia, on 21, 1901, having as his sole companion Mr. Lutton, a son of the former proprietor of the Winnipeg Free Press. By those who witnessed the start fears were naturally expressed for the safety of a craft which draws but twenty-four inches of water, and which her skipper had done his best to make seaworthy by adding a leaden keel of 3 cwt., and constructing a cabin as a protection from adverse winds.

The Tilikum (or Friend) fore and aft rigged, possessing three masts and a canvas armor of thirty-eight yards. She was built by a North American Indian long deceased, and the skull of the dead builder was carried aboard throughout the voyage. Whether regarded as a talisman or not, it could not have acted as a charm against the perils of the sea, while the experienced belf Captain Voss had no romantic voyage was yet uncompleted.

MATE AND COMPASS LOST.
Mr. Lutton had been taken off the canoe at one of the intermediate calling places, and Captain Voss had engaged another mate. Most unfortunately the latter fell overboard twelve hundred miles from Sydney, and carried with him the only compass of which the canoe could boast. Thus deprived, Captain Voss had to discover land.

According to the captain's narrative after setting sail in British Columbia, he rounded the coast of Vancouver Island, thence entering the North Pacific, and by steering a southerly course, crossed the equator about 122 west longitude. He established most friendly relations with the natives of the Penrhyn Islands and even the cannibals of this and adjacent groups in the South Pacific manifested no hostile feeling during a stay of seventeen days.

From the capital of Fiji to Sydney was a run of eighteen hundred miles, and it was on this part of the trip that the fatality to the canoe's mate occurred, the man having been shipwrecked before this part of the trip was begun.

The voyage round the Australian coast was attended by an unexpected incident at Melbourne. Here the frail craft was damaged by the negligent use of a crane, and Captain Voss brought an action for damages, which he won.

From Melbourne he went up to Ballarat, where he took part in a regatta conveying the canoe for this purpose to an altitude 1,400 feet above sea level.

The course from Melbourne was to Adelaide, thence to Hobart, and to the most southerly point of New Zealand. While coasting here the captain was all but deprived of his mate, who was washed overboard, but happily was picked up.

BRAVING HEAVY SEAS.

It must not be supposed that hitherto the Tilikum had experienced nothing but smooth seas. She had encountered at times very rough weather, and when the canoe put in at Christchurch her skipper was able to give before an assemblage of 7,000 people, a demonstration of the value of which the boat had lived through heavy seas. He had put the anchor to a practical test off the Australian coast, for it had enabled him to weather a four days' gale. He gave a second exhibition at Wellington.

From Auckland he went an eighteen days' trip to the New Hebrides, and, his health having failed somewhat, the adventurous voyager made for Thursday Island, in the Torres Straits hoping to obtain some form at least of medical aid. The island was, however, found to be uninhabited. A run of 2,000 miles across the Indian ocean brought the Tilikum to Rodriguez Island, which is a cable station, and where the canoe was re-provisioned.

Subsequently Captain Voss landed at Durban, South Africa, and went on to Ladysmith, Colenso, Pretoria and East London. From Cape Town he voyaged to St. Helena, and reached Pernambuco on May 21, exactly three years from the date of his first sailing.

The arrival at the Azores was delayed owing to the indisposition of Captain Voss, who naturally was suffering from long confinement to so restricted an area as the deck of his canoe and from want of exercise.

Making his course, after thirty days' sickness, to the English coast, Captain Voss spoke two English vessels, one of which he boarded. Good weather prevailed in the North Atlantic and the twenty-two days' run ended on Friday night, September 2, at Margate, where Captain Voss was welcomed by a large concourse. He shook hands with at least 500 people, who had watched the Tilikum enter the harbour and had pressed forward to congratulate him.

It is understood Captain Voss intends to publish the story of his voyage in book form.

He is forty-six, and a typical specimen of the British seaman.

PECULIARITIES OF THE GREAT GEORGE SAND.

George Sand, or Mme. Dudevant, the famous French woman writer, scandalized her literary friends by wearing men's clothes. "A long gray overcoat," she herself says she wore, "a woolen tie and—a pair of boots." These boots were her joy. "I longed to sleep with them. On their little iron-shod heels I was firm on my feet and trotted from one end of Paris to the other."

It was this outward mannishness that won for her the title of "Illustrious Hybrid." However, her hands were beautifully feminine. "It was," says one who knew her, "a delicate hand, all grace, tact, firmness and flexibility. One could not dream of a more perfect combination of the French working class woman's and the aristocratic or royal lady's hand." It will be recalled that George Sand boasted: "The blood of kings is mixed in my veins with the blood of the poor and lowly." She was, as she termed it, "astride" of the two classes, the peasantry and the aristocracy.

TOURING THE WEST

Frank M. Bechard has reached Glacier, B. C., on his way west. Writing The Planet from that place, he says:

"On my way to Victoria. The last time I wrote, I believe, was from Edmonton and ever since then have been very busy driving through the country looking at farms, and good stock and shooting ducks. One has here to believe that there are so many. There are thousands of them in the ponds that dot the country. I am still meeting good friends at every place. At Calgary I met my old friend, Will McNaughton. He's as fat as a seal and the same old Will. Hugh Neilson has the finest furniture store this side of Winnipeg. Bruce Cameron, W. Shupe, W. ANOTHER FIRE

The firemen had still another run at ten minutes to two o'clock this afternoon—this time to the Binder Twine factory. The alarm was sent in by telephone from Taylor's mill, and shortly after box 23 was rung. The firemen responded very promptly and found the fire in the office of the Binder Twine Company. There was no one in the office at the time and it is supposed the fire caught from a coal oil stove. One line of hose was laid and the flames were soon extinguished, not, however, before the inside of the office was ruined. It will have to be completely renovated. Fortunately no important papers were destroyed. The loss will be considerable. The hose worked perfectly and there were no breaks. Chief Pritchard feels confident that there will be no more trouble from hose breaking. All of the hose will be tested this evening and all that does not stand a hundred pound pressure will be thrown aside for second class duty.

IT IS THIS WAY ABOUT

Austin's Clothing
FOR MEN

It's hard for the hypercritical to get points on which to put up a good argument against Austin Clothing for Men. The man who knows from having worn the clothing, has all the best of the argument. He knows that it fits and wears and is stylish. He knows too, that clothing that isn't as good inside as it looks outside, tells a story that won't hang together long. A man necessarily buys a suit or an overcoat "sight unseen" as far as interior workmanship goes—the careful staying and stitching, and hand-work that alone assure good, permanent results. Austin clothing is built that way—and the tailors that make it know that Austin specifications are as rigorous and unyielding as the laws of the Medes and Persians.

They're wearing Browns a great deal nowadays, and our new suits show many very handsome patterns.

Double and Single-Breasted Sack Suits in Brown mixtures, at $7.50 to $13.50.

Fancy Cheviots, in Grey mixtures, also Fancy Plaids and Worsteds, double and single-breasted, $10.00 to $15.00.

The Overcoat Question needs to be settled soon. We have some possible answers here:

Covert Cloth Top Coats in medium olive effects, and Oxford Greys, $7.50 to $12.00.

The Long Belted Coat in handsome patterns. Tweeds and Fancy Cheviots, 48 and 50 inch length, $9.00 to $16.00.

The Rain Coats that do double duty as an overcoat for dress wear and a Rain Coat in the rainy weather. Dark Olive and Grey mixtures. Special values, $7.50 to $14.00.

BIG FIRE

Large Portion of Mahler's Apple Factory Destroyed by Flames Last Night.

One of the largest fires that Chatham has had for some time occurred last evening when part of Mahler's apple factory on Park Street was completely destroyed.

The fire started after seven o'clock and an alarm was immediately sent in from box 43, on the corner of Park and Prince Streets. Shortly afterwards the same alarm was sent in from box 26 on the corner of King and Princess Streets. The firemen responded promptly but it seemed to be their unlucky night. First of all the tire on one of the back wheels of the truck broke when they were going down King Street. This delayed the men on the truck considerably because they had to go to the fire at a pace little better than a walk. Then when they did finally get there two lengths of hose broke and considerable time was lost replacing these. Apart from these few accidents good time was made. The drying kiln building, was doomed before the firemen arrived and could not be saved, so their attention was turned to saving the surrounding buildings of which there were four. At one time it looked as if the office would be burned too, but it was saved by the firemen. The large main building was also in danger several times but the flames were successfully confined to the one building.

The hose which broke was some more of that which was recently damaged by acid in the hall. It was tested about six weeks ago and stood the test then. As it happened there were two streams playing on the fire and on each of these lines there was one bad length of hose and both broke. When the firemen came back they tested the rest and now all of the hose on the wagon doing first duty has stood a lot of a 100 pound pressure. The hose that broke last night has been laid aside.

The building was completely destroyed and the loss will be about $700, partly covered by insurance. The fire originated in one of the furnaces, it is supposed, although it is not known what started it. There was a large crowd of spectators and the sight was a pretty one to everyone possibly, except Mr. Mahler. The building was dry and burned like matchwood, shooting up big flames of fire. The men had the fire extinguished at nine o'clock.

Two alarms were sent in from two different boxes. People who pull boxes should be careful not to send in another alarm when one is being sent in, for the firemen do not know which to respond to.

The damage to the truck wheel is slight and will be repaired this afternoon. The firemen should have extra wheels at the Hall to use in such cases as this. Some of the firemen got their faces burned at the fire.

At about 1.45 this morning the firemen were again called out. This time to Jack Glassford's Hotel—The Rutley House. Some one had evidently thrown a burning cigar stub too near the building and the fire was the result. The east corner was burned up the outside of the building. The flames were extinguished before much damage was done.

The fire was noticed by the Hadley Company's watchman, who sent in the Hadley Company's private box. Mr. Glassford sent around a box of choice cigars to the firemen this morning.

Mr. Mahler's fire has not affected his business. He is still buying apples and can take as many as are offered by the farmers.

Portuguese Slaughtered.

Lisbon, Oct. 6.—The Minister of Marine announced in the Chamber yesterday that a detachment of Portuguese troops belonging to a column operating in Portuguese West Africa against the Cuanhamas was surprised by the tribesmen while crossing the Cuanene River. The detachment, which numbered 499 officers and men, lost 254 killed, including fifteen officers, and fifty wounded.

Fallacies Force Him Out

Montreal, Oct. 6.—A sensation was sprung yesterday, when judgment was rendered in the celebrated Canadian and Cape Breton inquiry, by Captain Salmon ruling that the entire responsibility of the accident was on the R. and O. Navigation Company, and then stating that, owing to political interference in the case, which delayed the rendering of the judgment, he had resigned his position. He considered that pressure was being brought to bear upon the court by one of the parties concerned, to the prejudice of the other.

THE CENSUS TO-MORROW

The success of the Sunday School census to be taken to-morrow afternoon from 2 to 6 depends now upon the fidelity of the hundred and sixty workers to whom the territory has been allotted, and as they are working from the highest motive, that of Christian service, that fidelity is assured.

The executive thought of having headquarters in one of the Sunday school rooms where the "pairs" might report for duty, get information and supplies, etc. This has been abandoned, and the whole responsibility for the proper working of each section now devolves upon each pair of visitors. If, however, any information, advice or supplies are desired these can be had at the store of the secretary, G. J. Peace, where some of the committee also will be in attendance.

Each pair, therefore, will proceed to its territory as early on Friday afternoon as possible and follow the suggestions given in the visitors' charts, especially the one which reads "Do not miss a single house! If the people are out, call again." The hotels are to be visited by one pair of callers, so that these are to be omitted by the street visitors.

Duplicate copies of the record will be taken by using the sheet of carbon paper supplied. Nothing is to be torn from the book of record, and as soon as complete it is to be left with the superintendent or at G. J. Peace's store.

SHAMEFUL STATE

"Mrs. McRoberts and two other women are up in the jail there shivering without a bit of fire," remarked O. L. Lewis this morning. "It's a shame and an outrage," he continued and he spoke warmly. "The fault is that of the Property Committee of the County Council. They haven't appointed anyone to look after the boilers. The janitor doesn't know anything about the boilers and very rightly he refuses to monkey with them. He's not going to risk any such accident as happened at Stanley Barracks and has no desire to blow the jail up just in case the county might need the jail at some future time. The cold storage treatment to which those three women have been subjected is owing to the negligence of the Property Committee of the County Council in not having appointed a man. I have been over to see the sheriff about the matter and something will be done but if anything happens to these three women by reason of the want of fire, the county may be liable for a pretty sum for damages."

JUST BREATHE.

When Worn Out Don't Take a Stimulant; Just Breathe.

Don't take a stimulant; just breathe. This is the advice of a doctor who does not believe in the old medical policy of mystery, but who undertakes philosophically to explain to any patient why such and such a remedy should be beneficial, says the Philadelphia Telegraph.

"When you are 'let down,'" continued this physician, "don't take a cocktail; just breathe. Put your finger on your pulse and get its rhythm. During eight beats draw in the breath, breathing deep and low and forcing the diaphragm down first, then filling the upper lungs. Then exhale this breath during four beats of the pulse."

"Now, if you are working with a piece of machinery, say a typewriter, what do you do to make it run more smoothly? You don't put a lot more oil on it and gum and clog it all up. You clean it first. You can best clean the blood by breathing. The blood passes through the lungs, and it needs and expects to find plenty of fresh air with oxygen in it. If it can't find perfectly fresh air it needs more air which is not perfectly fresh. It needs to be cleaned by contact with the air."

"Once in awhile hold the lungs full of breath as long as you can without expulsion. In doing this you are simply cleaning the machine. You are cleaning the blood. At the same time you are giving that little flip to the action of the heart and the nervous system which you thought you were giving when you took the cocktail. In the latter case you didn't clean the machine. You simply ran it a little faster and gummed it up a little more. You can get the same results, the same feeling of exhilaration and of accomplishment, without taking the cocktail, and at the same time the machine will steadily improve in its running quality. Breathe the best air you can get and plenty of it. It is as necessary as food. The heart and lungs act involuntarily. In hurried business life they become too involuntary. In that case don't take a cocktail; just breathe."

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Don't volunteer too much information.

What a lot of time we waste wondering why.

People whose reputations depend upon their clothes have to keep dressed up all the time.

One of the greatest virtues and the hardest is the moral courage to practice self denial.

Courtesy—oh, how that lubricates life! And good nature—what an asset of happiness is that!

Some folks are determined to dominate or die, and as there are few who rise to the first degree there are many who fall to the second.—Schoolmaster.

The Voice of Experience.

The wedding is to occur soon, and she was telling her mother about her plans.

"When Fred is out late at night," she said, "I shall not scold him. I shall try to be reasonable. I think I shall go so far as to keep a light burning for him to make him cheery when he returns."

Her mother was silent.

"Don't you think it would be a good idea to keep the light burning?" she persisted.

"Well, it might do very well for the first month or so. But after you have paid a few gas bills you'll probably conclude that it will be just as well to put the matches where he can find them and turn the light out."

His Occasional Wish.

"Why don't you ever want to go to a wedding?" snapped Mrs. Enpeck.

"I don't believe you've been to a wedding since you attended your own."

"No," mildly responded Mr. Enpeck.

"I haven't. And," he added softly to himself, "I sometimes wish I hadn't attended that one."

Merely Wished to Know.

"Miss Passy," he said, "there is something I have for some time wished to ask you."

"Oh," she gasped, "I'm so glad—that is, I mean, is it anything personal?"

Passenger (on ocean liner of the future)—Will you please direct me to my stateroom? It's No. 727. Clerk—It's about half a mile aft. Take trolley car on starboard promenade.

MAKES MEN SOUND AND STRONG

Detroit Specialist Making Men's Diseases a Specialty for Years. Will Accept Your Case, Giving Individual Treatment. You may Use it in the Privacy of Your Own Home.

You May Pay When You are Cured.

A Detroit Specialist who has 14 diplomas and certificates from medical colleges and state boards of medical examiners, and who has a vast experience in doctoring diseases of men, is positive he can cure a great many so called incurable cases;

DR. S. GOLDBERG.

The possessor of 14 diplomas and certificates, who wants no money that he does not earn.

In order to convince patients that he has the ability to do as he says, Dr. Goldberg will accept your case for treatment, and you need not pay one penny until a complete cure has been made; he will accept for treatment, he not only cures the condition itself, but likewise all the complications, such as rheumatism, bladder or kidney troubles, heart disease, physical and nervous debility, lack of vitality, etc.

The doctor realizes that it is one thing to make claims and another thing to back them up; so he has made it a rule not to ask for money unless he cures you, and when you are cured, he feels sure that you will willingly pay him a small fee. It seems, therefore, that it is to the best interests of everyone who suffers to write the doctor confidentially and lay your case before him, which will receive careful attention, and a correct diagnosis of your case will be made free of charge; if you have lost faith with him, as you have everything to gain and nothing to lose; you must remember that one penny need be paid until you are cured. All medicines for patients are prepared in his own laboratory to meet the requirements of each individual case. He will send a booklet on the subject, which contains the 14 diplomas and certificates, entirely free. Address him simply, Dr. S. Goldberg, 205 Woodward Ave., Room 147, Detroit, Michigan. Medicines for Canadian patients, Windsor, Ont., consequently there is no duty to be paid.

Lloyds Investigates Fires.

A special committee, appointed by Lloyds to enquire into the causes of fire aboard ship, has made its report, and as a result of a careful analysis of places or ports, at which fires have occurred, the committee finds that the greater number have occurred in ports, the actual figures showing 403 fires in port out of 927 cases, including all shipboard fires between Jan. 1, 1902, and Sept. 30, 1903. The list comprises numerous cases in which the losses to underwriters by fire and water, freely used in the efforts to extinguish it, have been very disastrous.

In 75 cases of investigated fires on steamers, the causes so far as can be determined, were as follows: Accidents and carelessness, 29; defective arrangements as to boilers and bunkers, 17; defect in electrical arrangements, 4; lamps and lamp explosions, 10; spontaneous, 8; cabin stoves, 3; not discovered, 4.

In view of the number and importance of these fires and of the vast size and great value of the cargoes now carried, and of the increased carrying capacity of merchant vessels, the committee is of the opinion that the means employed ordinarily for the extinction of fires on board ships are inadequate and obsolete, and that the various port and dock authorities should be required to include in their equipment chemical apparatus of the most improved type.

The Gros Life Saving Belt.

According to experiments at La Rochelle, France, a man wearing a Gros life belt fell overboard and sank. He immediately rose to the surface and continued to float, head and shoulders out of the water, and both arms in the air. This new life saving belt is composed of a series of four small flat sacks, circular in shape and connected by a tube. Both ends of the tube are enclosed in small metallic cylinders, each of which contains a charge of carbide of calcium. The belt is invisible and can be worn by a passenger during the entire voyage without inconvenience. It has been estimated that only about two seconds elapse from the instant the water touches the carbide until the sacks or pouches are filled with sufficient gas to keep a man afloat.

THIS IS A TALE WITH A MORAL

Juliana Sandburg Suffered Six Years with Dyspepsia and was Cured by One Box of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

"For over six years I was troubled with Dyspepsia and Headache," says Juliana Sandburg, of 221 John street, North, Hamilton, Ont. "Nothing I ate would agree with me. 'I tried several remedies but could not get any relief. Then I was advised to use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets and I bought one box. After taking part of it I found relief and by the time I had finished the box I was completely cured."

That was a case of long suffering quickly cured. Just think of suffering for six years with permanent relief within easy reach all the time. How many other Canadians are still complaining of Stomach Troubles? They too can find a lasting cure in Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

There is room on the ocean of life for any number of friendships.

One of Sheridan's Dodges.

It is related of Richard Brinsley Sheridan, the dramatist and statesman, that, always in debt, he had among his creditors the brothers Challe, who were the partners in a wine firm in 1775. One day when he was giving a dinner party to some distinguished people Sheridan sent for one of the brothers, told him he was now able to settle his account and invited him to the dinner party, asking him to come before the hour for some private conversation. Challe arrived early, and he was no sooner in the house than Sheridan sent off a servant with a note to the clerk desiring him, as Mr. Challe was favoring him with his company, to send as soon as possible three dozen of burgundy, two dozen of claret and two dozen of port, with a dozen of old hock. The unsuspecting clerk sent the wine, with which the guests were so pleased that they asked where it came from. Sheridan, turning toward Challe, said, "I am indebted to my friend here for all the wine you have tasted and am always proud to recommend him." It was not until the following morning that Challe realized the double meaning in Sheridan's words. The debt was canceled.

The Lonely Library.

At the English universities the libraries are so little used that they have become famous as places of unbroken solitude. One yarn told to illustrate this is to the effect that an elderly fellow of Caius college, Cambridge, got tired of life and determined to put himself quietly and unostentatiously out of the way, so that the world in general and Caius college in particular should know him no more. Being a man with a great love for his university and a greater love still for his college, he made up his mind that no scandal should be caused by his sudden departure, so he debated in his mind the ways and means. His decision was an inspiration. He bought a decent length of rope and hanged himself in the college library. But his hopes were doomed to disappointment. He was discovered a year and a half later.

Long Cooking.

Of fresh foods the elephant's foot needs cooking the longest time, as it does not acquire its proper tenderness and succulence till it has been baked for about thirty-six hours. Next comes tripe, which requires from ten to fifteen hours of boiling before it becomes thoroughly digestible. Next come hams of good size, which require from six to seven hours. Of roast meats, a haunch of venison takes longer than any other joint—about three and a half hours. Of puddings, the Christmas pudding comes easily first, as it is boiled over and over again. Sometimes it is kept for months or years and undergoes several boilings. The average time is from six to eight hours. The vegetable which takes the longest time to cook is the onion.—London Mail.

Huxley on Darwin's Degree.

Huxley did not love degrees, but he had to have one. Anticipating the denning of the red gown he informed his friends that after the ceremony he would have to be treated as a person of respectability. "I have done my best to avoid that misfortune," said he, "but it's of no use." It was Oxford that paid him the compliment, as it had done to Darwin two years earlier. When Darwin was given the degree Huxley let him have no false idea as to the honor bestowed. "Canon Pusey," he declared, "has been making inquiry as to who are the blackest heretics on the list proposed. He was glad to assist in your case in order to keep out seven devils worse."

Near Side and Off Side.

When horses were first hitched to vehicles the driver never thought of riding himself, but walked by the side of the road as he held the lines. So as to have his right hand always ready he walked on the left side, and consequently the horse on the left side came to be known as the "near" horse, and the one on the right side was called the "off" horse. In that manner the terms "near horse" and "off horse" became general and still pertain to horses hitched as a team.

Reluctant to Give Up.

"Lead me $10, old man. I'm a little short."
"That won't help you any. You'll be just as short after getting the money."
"Nonsense, old chap! How do you make that out?"
"Why, after giving you the $10 I don't expect to see you any longer."

He Probably Took the Hint.

Young Tutter—Miss Clara, suppose that tomorrow evening I should call again and, having nerved myself up to it, suddenly, while we were conversing, I should without a word throw my arms around your neck and deliberately kiss you, what would you do? Miss Pinkley—Oh, Mr. Tutter, don't ask me to look so far ahead.

A Maddening Position.

The hardest thing a girl does is to refrain from asking a man a question that she knows will make him mad when she is just boiling with curiosity to know the answer.

Easy Remedy.

He—Here is your dressmaker's bill. She is becoming impatient for her money. He—Indeed. Then I must call tomorrow and order a new dress.

The Brute.

She—You married me for my money. He—Well, it's no use grieving over it now; it's all gone.

SONG OF LABOR.
Work, work, work,
In meadow, and mill, and mart;
Work, work, work,
Till the dew of labor start:
Where the sailors launch their ships,
And plow the waves apart,
Work with a song on the lips,
And work with a prayer in the heart.

Let the dreamer lie at ease,
And gaze at the bright blue sky,
Lulled by the murmuring bees,
As the summer winds go by.
Though the skies be cold and gray,
Be this thy heart's content,
That thine is the sweeter day
In useful labor spent.
Better to delve all day
With the blessing of peace at night,
Than to fritter the time away
With fingers idle and white.
For labor is God's good gift,
Though it be the curse of the fall;
And the hands that struggle and toil
Are the noblest hands of all.

NO CHANCE TO LEARN.
The family was planning at the breakfast table to attend, later in the day, the funeral of a deceased neighbor, but Isabel, aged 6, was very much to her distress, to be left at home.
"But I've never been to a funeral,"
the little girl pleaded. "I want to go to one just dreadfully."
"Never mind, sis," said the little maid's brother consolingly, "perhaps you can go to your own some day."
"Well," flashed Isabel indignantly,
"if I don't have a little practice I shan't know how to behave even at that one."—Lippincott's Magazine.

A REMARKABLE RECORD.
Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over thirty years, during which time many million bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of croup in thousands of homes, yet during this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturers in which it failed to effect a cure. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take, many children like it. It contains no opium or other harmful substance, and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult.

WHIPS THAT GROW ON TREES.
In the Island of Jamaica there grows a tree with the botanic name of Daphne Lagetto, from the branches of which native workmen make peculiarly strong and excellent whips, which have the handle and lash all in one piece. The handle consists of a part of the stem retaining the bark.
For the lash the stem is deprived of the bark and then split into strips, which are woven together in a flexible cord six or seven feet long. The proper taper is accorded by detaching more and more of the strips as the end of the lash is approached.

OWES HIS LIFE TO A NEIGHBOR'S KINDNESS.
Mr. D. P. Daugherty, well known throughout Mercer and Sumner counties, W. Va., most likely owes his life to the kindness of a neighbor. He was almost hopelessly afflicted with diarrhoea; was attended by two physicians who gave him little, if any relief, when a neighbor learning of his serious condition, brought him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which cured him in less than twenty-four hours.

groom, performed the ceremony. A quartet of happy young people will

A JAPANESE FAN.
Is it so warm in old Japan?
Do flowers flaunt out such riot
glare?
Hangs that soft golden mist so low?
Ah me, ah me, to journey there!
Inked out against the yellow glow
One sharp peak rises, blackly bare;
A stately swan steers up the sky—
Ah me, ah me, to journey there!
And see her as she furls her fan!
Was ever lady half so fair?
She beckons to me with her eyes—
Ah me, ah me, to journey there!

Were ever feet so dainty small?
Was ever coiled such shining hair?
Her hands are like curled lily buds—
Ah me, ah me, to journey there!
Fan-pictured, dear Japan, thy calm
Fills us of west with dull despair!
The palm leaves sift the sunlight through—
Ah me, ah me, to journey there!

Easy Stairs.

The very acme of ease is reached in stairs that have twelve to fifteen inches broad and risers five to seven inches high. The run or distance in most houses is too short to allow of this, but they should come as near it as the architect of the house will permit. It is so easy to climb such stairs that one hardly is aware of any effort.
Numbers of incurably broken down women owe their bad health to the steep stairs which they have been obliged to climb daily.

Gentlemen,—I fell from the bridge leading from a platform to a loaded loading a load of grain. The bridge went down as well as the load on my back and I struck on the ends of the fleshy would have broken it. Com-

LETTER BOX

A SERIOUS CHARGE.

To the Editor of The Planet:
Chatham, Ont.:

My Dear Sir,—On Sunday, Sept. 4th, the Orillia Lacrosse Club travelled from their home town to Chatham to be in your city to play a match game there with the Chatham Club on Monday, Sept. 5th, 1906.

This Sunday journey has been the occasion of strong protest and severe criticism in Orillia of the club of that town. The manager, John C. Miller, over his own signature in the Orillia Packet of Sept. 25th endeavored to defend the action of the Orillia Lacrosse Club. In that letter Mr. Miller says: "I have the assurance of Chatham's manager that the team practise lacrosse on Sunday afternoon." When in Chatham last week I made enquiries but could not find a single person who knew of such Sunday practice. I would be glad if you would let me know if such is the custom of your lacrosse club, or whether they did practice on Sundays at any time during the season. I cannot believe that such sport is allowed in Chatham, and believe that the manager of the Orillia Lacrosse Club made some mistake. It is a mistake, however, that ought to be rectified for the sake of the good name of Chatham, and it is only for that purpose that I am asking you for definite information. I shall send the Orillia papers the statement you send me, and thus meet the charges where they are made.

You are at liberty to publish this letter in your columns if you desire to do so.

Yours faithfully,
T. ALBERT MOORE,
Secretary Lord's Day Alliance.

It is needless to say that the statement that the Chatham club played or practised on Sunday is entirely without foundation. As a matter of fact such is prohibited by the C. L. A. Patrons of the game will remember that a big financial consideration was offered to Chatham by Chicago early in the season for a Sunday game there which was promptly turned down by the management.

This morning Financial Manager John McCoig, chairman of the club's executive, was interviewed by The Planet and emphatically contradicted the report that there had been any Sunday practice by the Chatham club. "Such a thing would not be tolerated for a moment," he declared, "and if there was anything in it—which I doubt—it might have been the morning runs or individual training of the players. But I don't believe it at all, as it was distinctly prohibited by our executive."

A GREAT NAVAL BATTLE

Russian Squadron Made a Sortie From Port Arthur.

General Stoessel Reports That Japanese Lost 10,000 Between Sept. 19 and 23—Alexieff Recalled and Will Be Director of Russian Foreign Policy—Jap Advance Fought Reported Driven Back Along the Line.

London, Oct. 6.—A news agency here late last night sent out a despatch dated Tokio, Oct. 5, saying: "It is reported that the Russian squadron made a sortie from Port Arthur to-day and that a great naval battle occurred." No details are given.

Japs Lost 10,000.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 6.—Lieut. Gen. Stoessel (commander of the Russian military forces at Port Arthur), says the Japanese losses were 10,000 during the attacks on Port Arthur from Sept. 19 to Sept. 23. He reports that no incident occurred from Sept. 23 to Sept. 30, excepting outpost skirmishing.

Alexieff Recalled. St. Petersburg, Oct. 6.—In the absence of developments at the front, interest at St. Petersburg centres in the disposition to be made of certain improvement, civil and military officers. Rumor has it that Viceroy Alexieff has been reinstated in royal favor, and will upon his return from the Far East become the actual director of Russia's foreign policy. Friends of Gen. Kuropatkin are confident that he will be given at least temporary command of the two Manchurian armies.

Jap Advance Fought Driven Back.

Marlin, Oct. 2.—(Delayed.)—It is reported that the Japanese advance posts have been driven back all along the line between the Hun River and French Bessahu.

Japs Reckless Bravery Fattile.

London, Oct. 6.—The Daily Telegraph's Chefoo correspondent says that on Sept. 24 and 25 the Japanese made repeated and recklessly brave attempts to capture High Hill at Port Arthur. Owing to destruction of earthworks their advance was completely unopposed, and under the rays of the searchlight the Russian machine guns swept them down in masses.

"More troops, however, came on with fanatical bravery," the correspondent adds, "leaping over the bodies of their dead comrades. Then the Russians, emboldened by their success, sortied. The Japanese replied with machine guns. It was the first time the Japanese had been able to entice the Russians from their shelters, and they worked terrible havoc among them."

An Appalling Scene.

The scene next morning was appalling. The hillside was strewn with mingled Russian and Japanese bodies, some of them gripped with ghastly realism. Boulders were trickling with blood.

"A brief message was received to-day. It is in torn paper in Chinese, and signed by Gen. Stoessel. It states that all had been quiet since Sept. 25, and that the Japanese again had asked for and were refused a truce to bury their dead."

"An official Japanese statement admits the repulse and confesses the necessity of a resort to a passive siege."

"Enteric fever has broken out in the garrison at Port Arthur."

THEATRE OF WAR.

Tie Pass Russian Main Base and What May Be Looked For.

Tokio, Oct. 6.—It is evident that the country, which is embraced by an irregular triangle, the apex of which is Tie Pass, with the base running from Mukden to Fushan, on the upper reaches of the Hun River, will soon be the theatre of extended and extensive military operations.

Tie Pass Russian Main Base.

The Russians are apparently using Tie Pass as their main base and are constructing a series of defences to shield it from the south and east. Two roadways approach Tie Pass from the south. One is the main highway from Mukden to the other, which is smaller, starts at Fushan and winds through a flat country. Nineteen miles north of Mukden is the town of Yiliu, the south and eastern approaches to which are sheltered by sharp ridges, offering a natural protection. It is reported here that the Russians are strongly intrenching on these ridges and are erecting semi-permanent fortifications. The Yiliu River, which is shallow and fordable, runs through the town.

Russians Fortifying High Hill.

The Russians are reported to be fortifying the right bank of the river, between Yiliu and Tahaitun, fifteen miles to the northward. Several miles of ridges cross the road and it is said that the Russians are erecting works on many of these eminences between Tahaitun and Tie Pass. For some seven miles the country, generally speaking, is flat, although commanding the roadway from the eastward is a hill a thousand metres in height which the Russians are fortifying. A range of hills flanks Tie Pass on the eastward.

Kuropatkin's Object.

The Russians are holding Fushan with a heavy force, and it is believed they are erecting works along the road from that place to Tie Pass.

This defensive work of the Russians and the disposition of their forces strengthens the belief that General Kuropatkin merely intends to retard Field Marshal Oyama in his crossing of the Hun River and to give battle on the ground which he is now hurriedly fortifying.

Edmond On the Ocean.

New York, Oct. 6.—John E. Redmond, the Irish leader, sailed for Europe yesterday on the steamer Baltic.

PICTURE IN LOW TONES

Mr. Chamberlain's Gloomy Canvas of Present Condition.

Disintegration of the Empire Only Thing in Sight if Britains and Her Colonies Did Not Work Together—Says Mr. Balfour Should Not Delay Calling the Conference—One Blenheim in Premier's Proposal.

London, Oct. 6.—Joseph Chamberlain re-opened his fiscal campaign at Luxon, Bedfordshire, last night. He began his speech with an eloquent tribute to the late Sir William Vernon-Harcourt. On the fiscal question, Mr. Chamberlain said it was not a party question, but affected every vital interest of the country.

He dwelt at considerable length on the agricultural situation and painted a gloomy picture of present conditions, predicting that there is worse to come. He said agriculture had been crippled and land values had shrunk by hundreds of millions. The capital of farmers, he said, had fallen $1,000,000,000. There are a million less laborers in the country now than there were in 1851, and 13,000,000 people are unemployed, while the people of America, Germany and other foreign countries are prosperous and surpassing Great Britain in every line of business. He said to deny existing conditions was impossible, and to ignore them would be criminal.

Mr. Balfour's Speech.

Alluding to Mr. Balfour's Edinburgh speech, Mr. Chamberlain said he did not want the protection of 50 years ago, but he did want to make foreigners pay toll on shipments to the British market, where they competed with British workmen, and unless Great Britain and her colonies worked together there was nothing in sight but disintegration of the Empire.

Mr. Chamberlain said that Mr. Balfour's statement concerning a conference with the colonies marked a distinct advance; but Mr. Balfour should not delay; he should call the conference at once and see what terms could be made with the colonies.

Blenheim in Balfour's Proposal.

Mr. Chamberlain saw only one blenheim in Mr. Balfour's proposal; it was that the Premier seemed to think it would be necessary, after the conference had arrived at an agreement, to take a second election. Mr. Chamberlain saw the need of such a second plebiscite and foresaw needless and endless trouble if, before the agreement was submitted to the respective Parliaments, they had to wait till every legislator, at home and in the colonies, was re-elected.

Mr. Chamberlain said, predicted that if the fiscal policy be developed along the lines he indicated, then descendants would see a united nation of a hundred million, all carrying it on in all the corners of the globe.

The resolution in favor of a change in the present fiscal system was carried by a large majority, which closed the meeting.

50,000 On Verge of Starvation.

London, Oct. 6.—At a meeting of the Manchester City Council, yesterday it was announced that owing to the hard times and depression in the cotton industries, between 40,000 and 50,000 people in the poorer parts of the city were practically on the verge of starvation. Similar conditions prevail in London and other large cities of the United Kingdom, where the winter is expected to be one of the hardest in many years for the poorer classes.

A GOOD SPORT

Frank Grace, the Tecumseh Lacrosse player who was injured in the Orillia-Tecumseh game at Galt, has received a gentlemanly and sportsmanlike letter from John C. Miller, of the Orillia team, enclosing $15 as a recompense for the injury received by Grace. Grace was fouled by Hammond, one of the Orillia players. Miller has nothing but the kindest of feelings towards the Tecumseh team and the people here look upon him as a true sport.

NO DIFFERENCE.

No distinction is made as to the kind of Piles that Dr. Leonard's Hem-Roid cures.

The names Internal, External, Bleeding, Blind, Itching, Suppurating, etc., are simply names of the different stages through which every case will pass if it continues long enough.

Piles are caused by congestion or stagnation of blood in the lower bowel, and it takes an internal remedy to remove the cause.

Dr. Leonard's Hem-Roid is a tablet taken internally.

It is a permanent cure and no case of Piles has ever been found to fail to cure. Money back if it does. A guarantee with every package. Price $1.00 at any druggist's, or The Wilson-Frye Co., Limited, Niagara Falls, Ont.

LANDMARK MOVED

An old landmark has been moved from the valley. The little red house that was long a picturesque feature of lower Brooklyn was moved yesterday by Caleb Montgomery. The house was purchased by James Paul and moved to a lot on Wood's Survey, where it will be fitted up as a dwelling house. There is a by-law requiring house movers to get a permit to use the city streets. Caleb Montgomery forgot to get the permit and the moving operations were stopped by City Engineer Jones and Chief Holmes until the permit was secured.

Wife—When we go anywhere now we have to walk. When we were only engaged you always called a carriage.
Husband—That's why we have to walk now, dear.

Consumption can certainly be cured

Nearly all cases in the early stages. Many even when far advanced. Fresh air stands first. Good food next. Then a medicine to quiet the cough and control the inflammation—Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Ask your doctor about this advice.
