FINE NEW CHURCH AT KENTVILLE OPENED

Handsome Structure Replaces Old St. James Church—First Services Held Sunday Many Memorials Dedicated

Sunday was a memorable one in the history of St. James Parish, Kentville. For many years the members and workers have been putting forth every effort for a new church, as the picturesque old edifice was rapidly nearing the end of its usefulness as a church. Today on a valuable corner in the residential section of the town, stands a magnificent church of Gothic architecture, built of colored stone from a nearby quarry. Surrounding the church is a stone coping two feet high, and nearby is the beautiful Parish Hall. The interior of the new church is handsomely finished with white rough or stippled plaster and finely furnished. The chancel fixtures are especially fine, being the memorials of the late Rev. Canon and Mrs. Brock, consisting of the brass pulpit, lectern and eagle, reading desk and handsome altar cross.

The impressive services began at 8 o'clock a. m., with communion, partaken of by a large number of parishioners.

At 11 o'clock Mattins, the sermon was delivered by Archdeacon Vroom after which the dedication of Memorials took place. This impressive service was conducted by His Grace Archbishop Worrell, assisted by the rector, Rev. A. M. Bent, Archdeacon Vroom, Halifax; Rev. Roland Bent, rector at Bedford; Rev. R. F. Dixon, Wolfville, and Rev. Gordon Brown, Cornwallis.

The memorials dedicated included a silk flag, presented by Mrs. F. A. Masters, in memory of her son, the late Joseph Duncan, who gave his life in the great war, the flag being carried by Alexander Douglas, who preceded the procession from the Parish Hall to the church and up the aisle to the chancel, followed by the white-robed choir of forty voices, led by the organist, A. H. Morash; also a handsome service book, the gift of Mrs. Lewis and Deaconess Alice Webster, and a handsome prayer book, given by Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Morton.

The Memorial Altar, a handsome design in oak of modern architecture, was presented to the new St. James church by Judge and Mrs. Barclay E. Webster as a memorial to their only child, the late Lieut. Beverly Webster of the 4th Kings Own Royal Regiment, British Infantry, who lost his life in the Boer War.

The fine memorial triple window on the western front is the gift of the late Charles Smith, long resident at Kentville. The design is in lovely coloring showing the Apostle St. Paul, in the centre, and St. Andrew and St. Matthew, one on either side. The inscription reads: "To the Glory of God in loving memory of Charles Smith, a long member of this Parish, Warden for sixteen years." Another handsome window dedicated is in about the centre of the edifice on the north side, facing Main street. This was the gift of the family of the late John G. Byrne, a devout and faithful adherent of the church. The inscription is "In Loving Memory of John G. Byrne, wife and family." This is also a triple window with patron saint, Saint James, in centre, and Saint Peter and Saint John on either side.

Another memorial window will be placed in the sanctuary of the church by Mrs. Masters, in memory of her husband, the late Frederick A. Masters, for many years an office holder in the church.

At 3 o'clock the baptismal service took place, when 20 infants received the rite of baptism.

At the 7 o'clock service His Grace Archbishop Worrell administered the rite of confirmation to 40 candidates.

The music for the day was of a high standard and the chancel was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and flowers.

THE CHAMPION BLUENOSE

ABOUT BOOKS

(By The ACADIAN'S Reviewer.)

Harwood Steele, son of one of the "originals" of the Mounted Police force, thoroughly familiar through tradition and environment with the record and ideals of the force, combines his knowledge with narrative art of a very high order in the production of his novel "Spirit-of-Iron" (McClelland & Stewart). Steele's skill in plotting compares favorably with that of Sir Gilbert Parker. Hector Adair, the hero, moves steadily through a series of situations of increasing difficulty with increasing obstacles and opposition to overcome, until in the grand crisis it looks as if he could not possibly emerge victorious. Yet he does, and perhaps even more convincingly here than earlier in the story. Not only is the whole plot a masterpiece of construction, but individual scenes are among the most tense and dramatic in Canadian fiction. Examples are the arrest of Wild Horse, Hector's suppression of the report of his drinking, Hector's interview with his prospective father-in-law, and the death of Moon, the Indian maiden who loves Hector. Great skill in plotting, highly successful characterization, and subject matter of historical and national interest should insure the novel a wide and successful sale.

Rarely does one have the opportunity of enjoying humor as refreshing and wholesome as that found in Norris Hodgins' "Why Don't you Get Married" (McClelland & Stewart). The volume is a series of delightful essays and sketches, of which the title piece, though very important, is only one. Even the humor based on nonsense is clever, and there is a great deal of sense and wisdom along with the humor in the major part of the book. An excellent illustration of humorous wisdom or wise humor is "Cultivating a Taste for Olives". Good specimens of clever humor are "On Buttons", "Scientific Stuff", and "On Paint". The reader feels that there is nothing in the volume that he would care to have missed and that he would enjoy more of the same kind.

ACADIA SEMINARY ART SCHOOL

Arrangements are being made by Lewis E. Smith, the director of the Art Department, whereby the people of Wolfville will have the privilege of seeing an interesting exhibition of some seventy sketches in oils by the famous "Severn" group of Canadian painters of Toronto. Notable amongst these are sketches of Nova Scotia by G. E. H. MacDonald, A. R. C. A., and paintings of Newfoundland and the West by Lawrence Harris, O. S. A., and A. Y. Jackson, O. S. A. These examples of Modern Art will be shown here some time in November.

Nine of the young people of Wolfville are now studying in the studio. Miss Gwendolyn Hales is taking a special course in Color and Commercial Design, and Bob Chambers is taking up illustration and his work is meeting with favor by the public through the columns of the Echo and Chronicle. Two examples of his latest work are on view in Blakeney's window, showing work on the new Acadia foundation.

The Freshmen Class at Acadia held an enjoyable party in the gymnasium building on Friday evening. Games were played and refreshments served—which delicacies the Sophomore class had not succeeded in confiscating as is the custom. The chaperones were Dr. and Mrs. Wheelock and Professor and Mrs. Perry.

BLUENOSE AGAIN WINS

For the third consecutive year the "Bluenose", champion of the Nova Scotia fishing fleet, has been able to vanquish the fastest fishing schooner in the United States. The races this year were of special interest as the United States contender "Columbia" was known to be a very fast boat. Both races were very closely contested and showed the vessels to be equally matched.

The first race was held on Monday and was sailed in comparatively light winds. The Bluenose led from the start, and although she lost the lead at one point, was able to recover it again and won by the narrow margin of one minute and twenty-three seconds. On account of fog and no wind on Tuesday there was no race. Wednesday the race was started but had to be called off on account of lack of wind.

Yesterday was real racing weather, the wind blowing as hard as twenty-five or thirty knots at times. The Bluenose again took the lead and held it throughout the entire race. The Columbia, however, put up a splendid fight and lost by the narrow margin of two minutes. The ACADIAN'S bulletin service on yesterday's race proved to be of great interest, there being a large number of persons in front of our window watching the exciting scenes, especially during the latter part of the race.

DEATH OF ESTEEMED WOLFVILLE LADY

At her home on Seaview avenue, on Sunday night, the death occurred of Mrs. Irene Fitch, relict of the late Geo. Fitch, and one of Wolfville's oldest and most highly esteemed lady residents. The deceased had reached the ripe age of 84 years and until within a very brief period had retained her mental and physical powers. Her death followed a brief illness and at the end came quite unexpectedly.

Mrs. Fitch was born in Wolfville and spent practically her whole life in her native town. She was a daughter of the late James L. Armstrong and a granddaughter of the late "Father" Harding, who was for many years the minister of the Wolfville Baptist church. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. (Rev.) H. F. Lafamme, of New York, Mrs. Burpee Wallace, of Prince Albert, Sask., and Miss Annie at home. An only son, Frank L. Fitch, predeceased her a few months ago in British Columbia. Mrs. (Rev.) G. O. Gates, of Wolfville, and Mrs. Maria Curry, of Nelson, B. C., are sisters.

Mrs. Fitch was a woman of sterling qualities, a faithful member of her church and always interested in work among the poor and unfortunate. One of the founders and teachers of the mission tabernacle of this place she exerted a strong influence for good among the poor of the community. She was indeed a "mother in Israel" and among very many her memory will be held blessed.

The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon from her late home, and in spite of most inclement weather was largely attended. Rev. Dr. DeWolfe conducted the service and spoke feelingly and in most appreciative terms of the departed.

Rev. Dr. MacDonald assisted in the exercises at the home and at the grave, his prayer being especially appropriate and comforting. Miss Evelyn Duncan sang sweetly "Does Jesus Care?" The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful, testifying to the sympathy and regard of many friends. Interment was made in Willow Bank Cemetery.

PROPOSED HARBOR IMPROVEMENT

Thomas J. Locke, District Engineer, and H. Putnam, Assistant, both officials of the federal government, were in town Friday, October 26th.

Accompanied by Ernest Robinson, M. P. they visited the government pier, examined the old government wharf, and the harbor facilities. A short time ago the Parrsboro Board of Trade obtained a pledge from the C. P. R. officials, that they would place a faster boat on the Wolfville-Parrsboro route next summer.

Mr. Locke's visit was to ascertain if the new boat could not come up to the town wharf at Wolfville, and to arrange that autos might be landed and shipped, thus increasing our tourist traffic.

FORMER WOLFVILLE LADY PASSED AWAY

News has been received of the death of a former highly esteemed lady resident of Wolfville, Mrs. Enoch L. Collins, who passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. (Rev.) W. R. Turner, Middleton, on Sunday last. She had reached the advanced age of 90 years and although feeble physically her intellect remained clear and she had been as well as usual up to the time of her death, which came after a few minutes' suffering.

Before her marriage the deceased was Miss Susan Amelia Sharpe, of Cambridge. She was a woman of rare Christian attainment, whose life has been spent in saving others. Besides her aged husband, who has the sympathy of a host of friends, she is survived by two sons, Dexter S. Collins, of Port Williams, and Fred Collins, of Boston, and two daughters, Mrs. A. C. Starr, residing in Halifax, and Mrs. Turner, of Middleton.

The funeral services, which were held on Tuesday afternoon, were conducted by Rev. J. G. Hockin, and the interment was in Pine Grove Cemetery.

WOLFVILLE GIRL MARRIED

The marriage of Miss Gertrude, daughter of the late C. H. Borden, of Wolfville, and Mr. Harold Forsythe Finnemore, of Montreal, was solemnized at 1:30 o'clock on Monday, October 22nd, in St. George's church, Moncton, N. B. Rev. Canon Sissam was the officiating clergyman. The bride, who was given in marriage by Dr. B. C. Borden, of Mt. Allison, wore a travelling costume of brown duvetyn with hat to match and carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Finnemore left immediately after the ceremony on the Ocean Limited for a short trip in the Laurentians. They will reside in Montreal.

A NEW BOOK BY A NOVA SCOTIAN SCHOLAR

Among the Studies in History, Economics and Public Law edited by the Faculty of Political Science of Columbia University is a volume by Ross William Collins, Ph. D., entitled "Catholicism and the Second French Republic". Dr. Collins is a native of Port Williams, Nova Scotia, and a graduate of Acadia University in the class of 1912. He is now Instructor in History in Syracuse University. This book, a volume of 360 pages, is just off the press. It is a learned and thorough discussion of one of the most important questions that agitated France during the troubled period from 1848 to 1852. Dr. Collins' attitude towards the problem is critical, but unbiased, as an historian's should be. In his introduction he reviews the conditions in France, the breaking down of the union between church and state, the Romantic and Liberal Catholic movements, and the struggle for liberty of instruction, that explain the situation of the French Catholics at the beginning of the Second Republic. In the succeeding chapters he enters minutely into the various phases of the question that affected the relation between church and state during the four years, showing finally how the church was made one of the instruments to found the Second Empire. To the student of history the book is a fascinating one. Dr. Collins' style is lucid and forceful, and his knowledge of his subject is evidently exhaustive. The appended bibliography showing the sources of his information is in itself most valuable. His keen understanding of character and of its influence in the shaping of national destiny is evident throughout the whole volume, but especially in his studies of Louis Napoleon and of Pope Pius IX.

Mary Kinley Ingraham.

MOST SUCCESSFUL BANQUET

Held by Wolfville Board of Trade—Splendid Addresses by Premier Armstrong and H. J. Logan, M. P.

The banquet Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Wolfville Board of Trade was one of the most successful functions of its kind ever held in Wolfville. The banquet was held at Acadia Villa Hotel and there were about fifty present. The out-of-town guests included Premier Armstrong, H. J. Logan, M. P. for Cumberland county, F. G. J. Comeau, general freight and passenger agent of the D. A. R., Col. Innes, of Kentville, Mayor Murray and C. G. Yeaton, of Hantsport.

After all had done justice to the good things served, President Edson Graham, who presided, stated that the object of the gathering was to stimulate an interest in the tourist business, and that the Board of Trade had invited Premier Armstrong to be present to tell what the government was doing to assist in this business. He stated that the meeting was a purely business one for the purpose of discussing the tourist problems, such as judicious advertising, transportation, hotel accommodations, etc. Visitors tell us that we have an ideal vacation country and it is up to us to advance the business all we can.

Premier Armstrong was the chief speaker of the evening and his words were listened to with great attention. He agreed with the chairman that the subject to be discussed was purely a business one and stated that the tourist business could only be advanced by the cooperation of all concerned. He said that there was no place in which he would sooner speak on the tourist subject than in Wolfville, a beautiful town with beautiful surroundings. He made fitting reference to the late Hon. L. E. Baker, of Yarmouth, who had instituted the tourist business in Nova Scotia.

The speaker stated that the matter had been brought to the attention of the legislature last winter and he traced the steps that had been taken which led up to the formation of the Nova Scotia Tourist Association. As showing what the tourist business could be made to benefit our province he cited what had been accomplished in Maine, Florida, California, British Columbia, Banff and Quebec. Last year Quebec had 600,000 tourists who spent approximately fifty million dollars in the province, and he stated that the only advantage Quebec had over Nova Scotia was its proximity by land to the United States. In natural advantages, scenery and historical associations Nova Scotia does not take second place to Quebec. It is estimated that tourists left in Canada last year 108 millions of dollars.

The speaker also told of the vast sums that were being spent on advertising the advantages of Maine, Florida, British Columbia, etc., as tourist resorts. Nova Scotia is backward in this respect. We are not the only country that has tourist assets and if we want people to know about them we must advertise as the other places are doing.

Nova Scotia has been first in many things but we must not rest on our oars now. We must go ahead and achievement can only be secured by co-operation. Last year 65,000 tourists in Nova Scotia left here six millions of dollars. This could be doubled if properly developed. There is a splendid future for our province and we ought not be pessimistic or neglect to boost.

The next speaker was H. J. Logan, M. P. for Cumberland county, who stated he was a great believer in Boards of Trade. He spoke of the great advantages Wolfville has as a tourist centre and promised to do all he could to assist the local member in helping our town. He referred to the promised better boat service between Wolfville and Parrsboro next summer and to the contemplated changes in the docking facilities at both ports. He suggested to the Premier that he call a convention immediately at Halifax of representatives from all parts of the province to consider the tourist question.

Mayor Phinney, after pleading for co-operation to protect the big game which was one of Nova Scotia's biggest assets to attract tourists, moved a vote of thanks to the two distinguished speakers.

Mayor Murray, of Hantsport, who heartily associated himself in the special effort to secure increased tourist business, seconded the motion, which was passed by a standing vote.

Col. Innes, of the Soldiers' Settlement Board, told in a very interesting story of what his organization is doing, and especially the survey work, or stock-taking, they now were rushing through in Kings and Hants counties, and the very useful information they were gathering. He also added that the scope of their colonization scheme included capital for development purposes.

The next speaker was Mr. Comeau, of the D. A. R., who in a few words traced the growth of the tourist business in Canada. He stated that he was authorized by Mr. Geo. E. Graham to say that the "Bluenose" would be in operation again next year. He also said that negotiations had been entered into to secure a new boat for the Wolfville-Parrsboro service. He mentioned a number of big organizations in the United States who are looking to Nova Scotia as a vacation resort for their employees.

The final speaker was Arthur Hunt Chute who urged action on the part of all to help our country.

OUT OF PROPORTION

(Antigonish Castlet)
Nova Scotia has twice as many automobiles in proportion to her population as either England or France. Are we then, better off than the people of those countries? Not at all. We are poorer, but more extravagant. In those countries, a man who could have a two thousand dollar house and a three thousand dollar automobile, would be considered fit to be locked up.

Food of The Gods.

Isn't it interesting to know that the botanical name for chocolate is theobroma, "food for the gods"? Especially as it really has its name before. Most chocolate was originated. Rather prophetic.

Petitbire Biscuits are a dainty addition to the afternoon tea.

The fruit season—some of the finest examples of proper preserving can be found in Moir's fruit centred chocolates, such as those containing cherries, pineapple and peach. You'll notice how these centres have the flavor of the fruit itself. And they don't leak like other kinds.

On a cold morning a good pilot biscuit that has been soaked over night makes a bracing dish, fried in bacon fat.

BETTER HARBOR FACILITIES NEEDED

Wolfville citizens should take immediate steps in the direction of securing the advantage of the improved Minas Basin service that has been promised by the D. A. R. for next season. Provision should be made for the new boat, when she is put on the service, to come up to the town wharves instead of calling at the Government Pier as has been done in the past. Now that harbor improvements have been effected at a considerable cost this should be easily possible, and the change would prove to the great advantage of the public and aid very materially to the volume of business that could be secured for the boat.

In order, however, that we may get the advantage of this change it will be necessary that a berth is always in readiness for the steamer as her daily calls will necessarily require to be brief. This should not be at all difficult as the government already owns a wharf in the inner harbor, which, if put in condition, would very well supply the required accommodation. It should not be a very great undertaking to secure the interest of the government in this matter as having already expended a considerable amount it naturally follows that no objection could reasonably be made to a request to put the wharf in condition for use.

We understand that some time ago a business man in town offered a very substantial rental for the use of this wharf provided the necessary repairs were made, and we presume the offer is still open. If so this would justify a considerable expense on the wharf in addition to the fact that such work as is proposed would be of great benefit to the business interests not alone of Wolfville but of the section generally. With proper docking facilities at this port and accommodation for loading and unloading automobiles and other freight the Minas Basin steamer would become a real convenience and a means of promoting a profitable traffic between the various points along the route.

ENCROACHING ON THE STREETS

The Mayor and Councillors of a town are for the time the regularly appointed custodians of public property and responsible to the people for its proper care and safe keeping. Any encroachment upon these public rights they are naturally obligated to prevent.

From time to time in the past history of this town the street line has been trespassed upon until now in many sections our streets fall considerably short of their original width. This has been found by surveys which show that in the case of some of our public thoroughfares there is a very noticeable variation. Originally these streets must have been of uniform width, but with the insufficient records which are available it is now impossible to determine when the encroachment was made and by whom, or from which side. Some day these corrections will have to be made, at public expense, and in the mean time due precautions should be taken to prevent a recurrence of the difficulty.

Overhanging sign-boards and projections and other encumbrances should also be given attention. Where these exist and cannot be removed the necessary precautions should be taken to prevent rights being secured, such as the payment of a nominal rental or other consideration. Some day, if Wolfville continues to grow, the removal of many of the unsightly objects which now obstruct our streets will be deemed as worthy of consideration, and when that time comes we should be in a position to have consideration for the needs of the times and the tastes of the people, without undue demands upon the municipal treasury.

THE NEWSPAPER

The newspaper, like a hotel, is a private enterprise dependent on the public for support, but notwithstanding this, like the hotel, it has the right to exercise selection; like the church, each newspaper ministers to its own constituency and makes little effort to please all. The Presbyterian clergyman does not expect Episcopalians to attend his services, and his sermons presumably do not meet the wishes and beliefs of Roman Catholics. One newspaper constituency clamors for one kind of news, and another is grossly offended by its publication; like the college, it is free to admit what conforms to its standards and, like the college, its standards are multifarious; like the private school, it may exclude certain sects, races or occupations from its corps of teachers as well as from its body of pupils. The newspaper has the universal prerogative of selection; the public has the right to compel the press to be the medium through which it acquires this knowledge. If the newspaper selects its news wisely the public supports it; if it makes an injudicious selection, if it suppresses what ought to be printed in the interests of public welfare, the public withdraws its support and the newspaper goes to the wall. Wherever the evil exists, it quickly cures itself without the exercise of compulsion.

BAD ADVERTISING

The apple growers of this section suffered a very heavy loss because of the unusually severe windstorm which occurred a few weeks ago and blew off a large per centage of the crop. Perhaps the most serious result, however, was the consequent heavy shipments of windfall fruit which was shipped to the English markets. Complaints are being received from fruit dealers regarding these shipments which arrived in very bad condition being covered with earth and partially rotten. Naturally the result will be that Nova Scotia fruit will be materially prejudiced in the overseas markets with the result that future prices will be affected thereby. Not until some organization exists that is able to competently deal with such conditions will the interests of the industry be properly safeguarded. Intelligent and honest co-operation on the part of the growers should prove a very effective cure for this and other evils which hinder the prosperity of the people of this Valley.

REQUIRES ATTENTION OF CITIZENS

At the next meeting of the Town Council the ordinances recently drafted for the control of future building operations in Wolfville will be up for enactment. When a few weeks ago citizens were invited to meet with the Council to discuss the proposed by-laws there was a very meagre response. This was most unfortunate as the contemplated changes are important and should interest the community generally. Anything that tends to promote or discourage building activities in Wolfville is a matter of most serious moment to our citizens, and they cannot afford to consider it otherwise than worth attention. If, as has been suggested, some of the proposed conditions will make building more expensive than is otherwise necessary and perhaps retard the carrying out of plans already made the wisdom of adopting these sections may very reasonably be questioned.

SAYS NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING DIRECT AVENUE TO MINDS OF CUSTOMERS

Power Company Expert Declares not to Make Use of it is to Neglect Firm's Interest—Advertising Dollars Bring Back More Than Anything Else.

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 24—“There is no royal road in public utility advertising, but you will find the advertising columns of your hometown newspaper the direct avenue to the minds of your customers,” said Arthur W. Hawks, Jr., manager publication and advertising department, Consolidated Gas, Electric Light and Power Company, Baltimore, Md., in the course of an address delivered here before the American Gas Association.

With reference to the experience of his company, and the desirability of newspaper advertising in preference to other forms, Mr. Hawks stated that “it pays better to advertise in newspapers and costs less than any other way known.” Explaining why nearly all of the Baltimore company's advertising is done in newspaper columns, Mr. Hawks said that it was for the reason that the company had found its “advertising dollars go further and bring back more than any other place we put them.”

“If you use this newspaper space to tell your customers the truth about your company,” continued Mr. Hawks, “to tell them in a way that will make them understand what you are doing for them day by day, that you understand what you have to do, why you have to do it, and how to do it, you will accomplish two things—you will make your service more valuable to your customer and your customer more valuable to your company.”

“In Baltimore we have done a great deal of newspaper advertising. We believe in newspaper advertising space as a form of energy, so useful, so flexible and so cheap as to be almost in the class with the commodities we manufacture—gas and electricity. Not to make use of it would be to neglect an agency as useful to the utility as gas and electricity are to our customers. We are so convinced that it is doing so much for us that we are going to use more of it than ever.”

“It may perhaps, be useful to state to you the principles on which we have built a campaign of newspaper advertising that has been of longer duration, broader scope and more helpful to the Baltimore Company than any other advertising it has done. We have called the advertisements the ‘Good Public Service Series.’

“Good public service demands efficient production and efficient use. We must have the co-operation of our customers. The simplest way to get it is to deserve it and ask for it through newspaper advertising. Nobody will do it for you. Publicity is not automatic. The newspaper itself must advertise if it wishes to succeed, and the most successful newspapers are successful advertisers.”

THE LIFE OF TRADE

Probably never in the history of the newspaper business have the manufacturers of the country exerted such concerted action to advertise their wares as they have done during the past two or three years. What is good for the national advertiser is likewise good for the local advertiser though there are those who cannot see it. Advertising is the channel through which the life of trade flows and it has been amply proven time and time again that the merchant who persistently and honestly advertises his goods week in and week out is the merchant who does the largest trade in his district.

DON'T CUT IT OFF

While riding on a train recently, William Wrigley, the famous gum manufacturer, was approached by a man who addressed him as follows:

“Pardon me, Mr. Wrigley, but do you know that you are wasting a lot of money?”

Mr. Wrigley, anxious to learn things about his own business, asked in return, “How?”

“Why, in advertising,” the man replied. “Your product is so well known that you do not need to advertise.”

“My good man,” Mr. Wrigley answered, “do you know what would happen if we were to cut the engine off this train?”

“The train would coast along for a while, and then stop, I suppose.”

“Exactly,” replied Mr. Wrigley, “and that's just what my business would do if I cut off advertising.”

Keeping friends

One of the most important things in life is keeping your friends. You have to win friends first, and having won them you have to keep them.

Friendships demand attention, and there is nothing more binding than the little acts of remembrance that take so little time and mean so much.

In a dozen and one ways you may use Greeting Cards to keep friends as a present reality, rather than a past possibility. Even if someone lives across the continent or over great waters, a “Hello” written on a Greeting Card will strengthen the bond of interest.

The idea of using Greeting Cards lays claim to meeting the need and the interest of men of affairs and charming women enmeshed in the obligations of social life.

SPORT FOR GIRLS ADVOCATED

Under the heading of "Healthier Women" the London Times of recent date says:

"The remarkable change in the health of young women which has come about since girls took up games and outdoor recreation is referred to by Dr. J. M. N. Campbell, of Guy's Hospital. Chlorosis, the anaemia of young women, was for a long time in this and other countries. The interesting fact is adduced that this disease is rapidly disappearing both from Europe and America. The phenomenon has much more than a medical interest, for it is the opinion of Dr. Campbell that the greater amount of exercise and the more ready access to fresh air enjoyed by women today are largely responsible for the diminution of this malady. What used to be known as 'the green sickness' in fact is yielding to rational methods of life. It is pointed out that a similar fall has been observed in Sweden, in France, in Vienna, and in America. In Sweden and Finland, the disease diminished rapidly and suddenly some time between 1892 and 1902, since when it has diminished more slowly. It has now almost disappeared. In America the change for the better took place about 1900-1902. In England it was rather later. That was the time when the first insistent demands for an outdoor life and regular exercise for school girls and even for grown women began to be made."

A Washington man has engraved the alphabet on a pinhead. A man foolish enough to waste his time that way could probably put his brains on the point of the same pin and have sufficient room left to build a fence around them.

GILSON FURNACE

"Makes Many Warm Friends"

A New and Better Heating System at a Sensational Price

Costs Less to Buy

The Gilson is the lowest priced efficient heating system on the market. You pay less for the furnace—less for the installation—no expense for pipes.

Costs Less to Use

You can heat every room in your house with the Gilson Pipeless Furnace on less fuel than it takes to run your stoves. Your family will no longer shudder at the thought of getting undressed in a cold bedroom. And this cast-iron furnace uses surprisingly little fuel. Users say it saves from 25 to 40 per cent. With fuel at present prices, think what that means!

Installed in a Morning

I can install this modern heating system in your home in less than a day—any home, old or new. No walls to rip up. No mutilated partitions. No muss or fuss. Just one register on the main floor. I'll start first thing in the morning and by afternoon your Gilson will be ready to protect you against winter's cold.

Guaranteed to heat your whole house

All you need is enough cellar excavation to accommodate the furnace. I not only give you my personal guarantee of satisfaction but also Gilson's of Guelph will stand back of me. This proven heating plant also leaves the cellar fine and cool—you can store vegetables alongside it, if need be, without harm.

Let me give you an Estimate—FREE

The Gilson Furnace costs you nothing. It saves its price in fuel and in doctors' bills, in furniture and draperies, in convenience. The comfort it brings is a bonus of satisfaction. I want to prove these facts to you. Telephone or come and see me and I will gladly quote you on the size of Gilson Furnace you need, show you where it should be installed and demonstrate its economy to you. We are going to have another winter of high-priced coal and wood. All the more reason why you should get in touch with me at once.

The Most Phenomenal Success in the Heating Business in Canada

Only placed on the market a year ago, the Gilson furnace has had an astounding success. It has taken the trade by storm. Over 400 of the best hardware men and tinsmiths in Ontario alone—men who KNOW furnaces—have taken on the Gilson because it appeals to them as the best heating plant made.

Here are Some of the Reasons Why:—

- (1) A real cast-iron furnace—fire pot, feed section and radiator are heavier in construction than in any other furnace I know of.
- (2) Burns coal or wood. A splendid furnace for soft coal. Big roomy door makes it ideal for burning wood.
- (3) GUARANTEED FOR TWENTY-FIVE YEARS—The broadest and longest guarantee given with any furnace. Two-piece fire pot, straight-walled to prevent ashes lodging against the side and deadening the heat radiation.
- (4) Triangular duplex grates, easy to shake, and big roomy ashpit.

FOREWARNED IS FOREARMED

As an aid to car owners, who desire to prepare their cars for summer touring an auto firm has issued a list of hints and suggestions that should be of value.

Among the more important points to be checked up are the following: "Make sure that the generator and ammeter are functioning properly and that lighting circuit, starter and horn connections are secure.

"Lamps should have bulbs of equal candle power, have clean reflectors and be properly focussed.

"Test the steering gear to see that it does not bind at any point and is thoroughly lubricated.

"Examine the brakes. Be sure that they are free and do not drag with lever and pedal released and that they hold with pressure when pedal is depressed or lever drawn back. Brakes should be so adjusted that the car can be brought to a stop without grabbing.

"Keep the radiator clean. Flush the water circulating system to remove any rust or sediment deposits as these tend to heat the motor.

"Be sure that all hose connections are changed once a year. Hot water rots the rubber, loosens up the fabric which gets in the way of the water, cutting down the efficiency of the cooling system.

"Inspect wheels carefully and note any damage. Do they run true? Are the flange bolts tight?

"Inspect alignment of front wheels. With the wheel camber approximately correct, the wheels point straight ahead. The distance between the felloe bands of the front wheels in front of the axle should be 1/2 to 1/4 of an inch less distance than between the wheels back of front axle.

"Correct wheel alignment saves tire wear and should not be neglected.

"Proper inflation is as important as proper leads. Under-inflating results in flexing the layers of fabric which cause early deterioration of the tire.

"Do not change inflation pressure with change in atmosphere temperature. More damage results from trying to compensate for an increase in the tire temperature than is caused by the increase in temperature itself.

"Change your tires from time to time. One side of a tire may show more wear than the other. Turn it around.

"The electrolyte of the battery should cover the plates by a half inch. Never use anything but distilled water in the battery.

"Drain out all oil in motor and replace with clean oil every 500 miles. Always make sure that the gauge registers proper level and that pressure gauge indicates properly.

"Examine all spark plugs. Clean and set all points about one fiftieth of an inch, or the thickness of a 10-cent piece, and in replacing be sure they are set tight in cylinders.

"Look over the water cooling system and make sure that there are no leaks.

"Check timing of motor.

"Note operation of clutch and whether there is excessive play in clutch pedal.

"Called to the bar!" exclaimed the landlord's pretty daughter. "Why from what I remember of Master Montague, he didn't need much calling."

Items of Local Interest

The first snow reported in Nova Scotia this season fell at North Sydney on Saturday last.

A reception was held at Elderbank, Halifax county, on Oct. 23rd in honor of Rev. G. W. Miller and family.

The Acadia football team met defeat at the hands of the Moncton team in that city last Friday, the score being 3 to 0.

The death occurred at Halifax on Sunday of Miss Lillian Kathleen Proctor, aged 20 years, a former student at Acadia Ladies Seminary.

The Freshman class at Acadia defeated the Academy in a game of football on Monday by the score of 13 to 3. In a previous game played neither team was able to score.

At St. Andrews church last Sunday the services were conducted by Rev. Prof. Faulkner, of Pine Hill College. The addresses were scholarly and helpful and were much appreciated by large congregations.

Prof. Norman McLeod Rogers of Acadia, addressed a large audience in the Baptist church on Monday evening on the subject of the Early History of Canada. This lecture was given under the auspices of the United Mission Study Class. Mrs. C. G. Schuurman introduced the speaker of the evening.

Mr. W. A. Reid has begun the erection of a garage at the rear of the property which he recently purchased on Main street. The new structure will be of concrete and interlocking tile and thoroughly fireproof. The work is being done by L. E. Shaw Ltd., under the direction of Mr. J. A. Macpherson.

The opening services of the United Presbyterian and Methodist congregation at Middleton were held on Sunday last. Rev. J. A. Ramsey, of Moncton, a former minister of the congregation, was the preacher, and delivered three able addresses. Miss Evelyn Duncan, of Wolfville, assisted with the music rendering solos which were greatly enjoyed.

Mrs. Mary O'Leary, who for some time back made her residence at the home of Mr. Burton Croft, Newtonville, passed away on Friday last after an illness of some weeks duration. She was 76 years of age and had been a resident of Wolfville and vicinity for the greater part of her life. For many years she was employed at the home of the late J. W. Bigelow. She was while in health an active member of the Tabernacle congregation and Sunday School, and was a well known and respected resident of the community.

HERE'S HOPING IT'S TRUE

Since the preparation of our editorial on harbor improvement information with reference to proposed action in this direction has been received and will be found elsewhere in these columns. The Acadia is very glad to learn that a move is being made and will give it every possible support. It will not be wise, however, to be too sanguine until the work is actually in progress and in the mean time hearty co-operation of all who are interested—and who is not—may prove a very real factor in securing the object of our desire in the matter of better shipping facilities for this port.

United Fruit Companies Took First Prize at Imperial Fruit Show

OTTAWA, Oct. 29.—The awards to Canadian entries at the imperial fruit show, which opened Friday at Manchester, England, were received by cable by the Minister of Agriculture Saturday and announced by the Fruit Commissioner. In the overseas section four first prizes were awarded to British Columbia growers and two to Nova Scotia growers, while one first prize went to Quebec.

The United Fruit Companies of Nova Scotia, Limited, took first prizes in Blenheim and Stark varieties, and second in "another varieties". Morley Honey, of Abbotsford, Que., took first for Snows. The second prize for McIntosh was taken by MacDonald College, St. Annes, Que. The United Fruit Companies secured the Goodwin Limited silver cup (15 pounds) for the best entry by any Nova Scotia co-operative organization, and the Poppart Limited, prize of 10 pounds in gold for the best Nova Scotia exhibit in the overseas section.

IN JUDICIAL LANGUAGE

A judge was crossing to Ireland from Holyhead one stormy night, when he knocked against a lawyer suffering from sea-sickness. "Can I do anything for you?" asked the judge. "Yes," gasped the sufferer, "will your Lordship overrule this motion?"

The regular monthly meeting of the I. O. D. E. will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock, at the Parish Hall.

Meetings of the Wolfville Presbyterian and Methodist congregations will be held in their respective churches on Monday evening of next week to consider the question of co-operation pending the corporate union of the denominations.

THE SAME OLD WAY

Each day some man of science Proceeds to make us glad With some new scheme for putting Mosquitoes to the bad, But season after season We learn to our dismay That the skeeter he keeps busy In the same old way.

We warn the fools who fancy The "tips" they have are straight, That betting on the races Is worse than bucking fate. But what care they for warnings? They go with spirits gay, And the bookie hooks the money In the same old way.

We try to teach the lambkins To shun the bulls and bears; We warn him not to mingle Or mix with their affairs; But, thinking that he knows it, He goes with them to play And gets himself surrounded In the same old way.

Each day the busy doctors Announce some wondrous cure For some disease or trouble; That mortals must endure; Contagion, pleagues and fevers, They knock out day by day, But the undertaker's busy In the same old way.

DEATH OF AVONPORT LADY

The death of Mrs. Harris Carey, of Avonport, took place at Payzant Memorial Hospital, Windsor, Wednesday, Oct. 24. She leaves her husband, one daughter, Eva, and four sons, William, Murray, Truman and Roy, all at home; also her father, mother and two brothers at Parrsboro, and a sister, Mrs. DeAlder, of New Ross. The funeral service was held on Friday afternoon, from the Brooklyn Baptist Church, conducted by Mr. Bleasdel, pastor of the Avonport-Brooklyn circuit. The pall-bearers were Albert and Percy Starratt and Jack and Emery Borden, Avonport. The choir led in the singing of the hymns. A solo was sung by Mr. Rock, of Horton Bluff.

DANCING CLASS

We expect to open dancing classes the first week in November, and we will have separate classes for beginners and advanced pupils.

THE H. G. L. C. CORN BOIL

At last! Principal Silver announced at our club meeting of Sept. 24th that we were to have our corn boil, so long expected, on the following Saturday. On that night the boys met at 8 o'clock at the school house and after stripping 170 ears of corn, we started in the right-sewing bus. Our destination was at Mrs. Newcomb's, of Port Williams, who had so kindly invited us over. We had an enjoyable ride over, which was accompanied by songs and High School Yells. Shortly after arriving at Port Williams we soon had the corn boiling in the pots and every boy was anxious to have first try. After a first filling of corn we had cocoa and cake served by the Newcombs. The meal finished we were escorted to the house, where after singing old time songs, we departed with cheers and more High School Yells. We arrived home at 11 o'clock and all were of the same opinion that we spent a very enjoyable evening.

THE HIGH SCHOOL FLOAT

On Sept. 26th, we were told that we were to enter a car in the O. D. E. parade, which was to take place on the following afternoon. The car, which was beautifully decorated with maple leaves, wreaths, wheat, wild asters, and bunting, was of a patriotic nature. About four feet above the car stood Kimba Lockhart, representing Canada; beside her, stood Olive Stackhouse, representing Nova Scotia; and seated on the pedestal was little Elizabeth Hughes, representing Wolfville. Four girls walked on each side of the car, representing the different seasons of the year. Spring being represented by Misses Mildred Crowell and Josephine Burgess; Summer by Misses Zelma Trethewey and Edna Doyle; Autumn by Misses Margaret Brady and Francis Sanford; and Winter by Misses Sarah Eye and Dorothy Dakin. The car was kindly loaned and driven by Mr. Spinney of N. H. Phinney & Co. The High School Clubs wish to thank him for his kindness. The judges unanimously voted first prize to the High School Float.

GOING TO CHURCH

Some go to church just for a walk. Some to stare, and laugh and talk. Some go there to meet a friend, Some their idle time to spend. Some go for general observation, Some for private speculation. Some to seek or find a lover. Some a courtesan to discover. Some go there to use their eyes, And newest fashion criticize. Some to show their own smart dress, Some their neighbors to assess. Some to scan a robe or bonnet, Some to prize the trimming on it. Some to learn the latest news. That friends at home they may amuse. Some to gossip false and true. Safe hid within the sheltering pew. Some go there to please the squire, Some his daughters to admire. Some the parson go to fawn, Some to lounge and some to yawn. Some to clean the parish doles. Some for bread and scraps for coals; Some because it ought gentle, Some to vaunt their pious zeal; Some to show how sweet they sing, Some how loud their voices ring. Some the preacher go to hear, His style and voice to praise or jeer. Some forgiveness to implore, Some their sins to vanish o'er. Some to sit, and dose and nod, But few to kneel and worship God. —Sunday Magazine.

In the Grade IX marks published in last week's paper the marks made by Clayton Tedford were omitted as they were unavailable at the time. His marks were as follows: English 67, Latin 58, French 69, Geography 82, Drawing 60, Arithmetic 56, Algebra 88, Aggregate 481. In Grade X the marks of Dorothy McKinnon were omitted for the same reason. Her marks were: History 60, Physics 66, Arithmetic 83, Algebra 72, Geometry 94, Aggregate 420. The marks of Olive Stackhouse in this grade are still unavailable.

DO YOU KNOW

That gloss and shine may be removed from garments by rubbing emery paper against the fabric hard enough to raise the nap. That instead of darning a rent in a garment of any cloth material, a piece of sticking plaster on the wrong side will be more effectual and avoid the unsightly appearance of a darn. That when stewing or boiling meat it will not become hard, nor take as long to cook if the salt is not added until about five minutes before serving. That to preserve the original flavor of most vegetables, one should use as little water as possible in cooking, and add a little sugar as well as salt. That a piece of garden hose pipe makes an ideal carpet beater. That the telephone mouth piece should be cleaned as regularly, perhaps more frequently than the other things in your house.

That for dusting, cleaning off the range, wiping up grease or liquids spilled on table or floor, etc., cotton waste has advantages over the unsightly rag. Just a handful that is burned when one has finished using and at a small cost. That cut Mums will keep for weeks if you add a dessertspoon vinegar to each pint of water. Nip the stems every day or two. That wild flowers, if before arranging in the vases are placed in hot water for an hour or so until the water is cold, they will last as long as any cultivated flower. That jardiniere plants that are not thriving may be helped by placing clothes pegs under the pots to insure better drainage. That sweet peas do better when running north and south. That a coat of varnish laid on as often as required (average twice a year) will preserve the pattern on oilcloth and linoleum and add years to its life. That its poor policy to draw the shades and keep the sunlight out, but in case of rooms with woodwork painted white, absence of sunlight will turn the paint yellow. That camphorated oil will remove white stains in furniture, and polish it at the same time. That when cutting wrapped butter you should cut through paper and all to get a clean, smooth cut. That enamel ware can be seasoned and will last much longer by placing it, when new, in warm water, allow it to come to the boil and then cool. That salt sprinkled over potatoes will prevent the growth of sprouts and keep the potatoes firm and solid. Of course they could not be used for seed.

That old newspapers make an excellent pad for the ironing board, add a good tight slip cover.

That if sheets are hung with the hems together and hem edge pinned to the line there will be less wear and tear.

That handkerchiefs washed in your room will look as if they had been ironed if after rinsing you stretch them tightly on a window pane or looking glass. A swinging mirror is to be preferred.

That if you get your boots soaking wet the quickest and best way is to pour hot oats into the laced up boots. The heat draws the wet out of the leather into the oats, which swells and keeps the boots in shape.

That old hair brushes which have become soft can be made quite hard by dipping them in a strong solution of alum.

That a leaf of common sage makes a very effective dentifrice. Rub it on the teeth once or twice a day, it will make them clean and white.

That if eye glasses are bathed in soapy water they will not steam' on going from a cold to a warm place in cold weather.

That talcum powder sprinkled on and rubbed into playing cards that have become sticky will make them good as new.

That if your umbrella has a steel rod and the handle comes off, fill the hole in the handle with powdered resin, heat the end of the rod and put it in the hole and it will stay as well as if you paid a man to do it.

That if snaps or press buttons on clothes are previously fastened they will pass through the wringer unhurt.

That a remedy for insomnia is to inhale deeply and slowly, counting the inhalations. If this hasn't done the trick by the time you've counted your one-hundred-and-fiftieth, try the next night sitting up with a sick neighbor and let us know how it works.

That a minister ran over time at church to-day—five minutes. He preached twenty-eight minutes. That made an hour and five minutes' service, which is too much. So some people say, and if our preacher doesn't watch they will be handing him his hat and saying what's his hurry. An hour and five minutes in church is an outrageously long time. I was wondering how these folks stood it to sit three hours at the theatre the other night, and two and a half hours at the movies, and I never heard of a dance one hour long, or a sixty-minute

Reliability--- the Pandora Record

The Pandora Range has been awarded the good will of thousands of housewives because they know it is dependable.

It is a reliable baker. The oven heats quickly. This is because it is built of Armco Iron with nickered surface, which radiates heat quickly. This construction, which makes the Pandora oven so economical of fuel and so easily cleaned, is exclusively McClary's.

The beauty of the deeply-carved body of cast-iron is enhanced by the durability which this lasting material assures.

The Pandora possesses the latest McClary's features. Ask your dealer to demonstrate them.

PORT WILLIAMS AND VICINITY

Rev. O. N. Chipman left on Monday for Toronto where he will attend the meeting of the Executive of the Canadian Foreign Missionary Board of which he is a member. Mrs. Chipman accompanied him as far as Lawrencetown, where she will visit relatives during his absence.

Mrs. Hunt, of Lawrencetown, spent the week end the guest of Mrs. S. L. Gates.

Mr. and Mrs. Weston Weaver, who have been the guests of his brother, Mr. Fred Weaver, and other relatives in the county, for the past month, left on Tuesday for their home in Bristol, Conn. As the weather had become so cold and uncertain they gave up their return trip via N. B. and Maine, motoring to Yarmouth to take the steamer there. Mrs. Hattie Beanson accompanied them and will spend a few weeks with friends in U. S.

Mrs. Bedford Chase and Mrs. Geo. Chase are visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. Ralph Donaldson, at Bridgetown.

Mrs. Justin Gates, Mrs. Neil Coulstan and Mrs. Ralph Newcombe, who have all been on the sick list, are now improving.

Miss Gwendolyn Fullerton has returned from a fortnight's visit with her friend Mrs. Childers, at Avonport.

Mrs. Harris, of Spa Springs, is visiting her daughter Mrs. Coulstan.

On Sunday morning last, the service of the Baptist church was taken by Rev. C. D. Hudson, of Canard. Rev. Chipman exchanging with him. This was the first time Mr. Hudson had had the opportunity of speaking in Port Williams. He was listened to with the closest attention and appreciation as he gave an inspiring sermon from the text, "my Grace is sufficient for thee".

Next Sunday evening Dr. Hutchins, of Acadia, will be the preacher in the pastors absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Coulstan, of Margretville spent the week end with their son, Mr. Neil Coulstan.

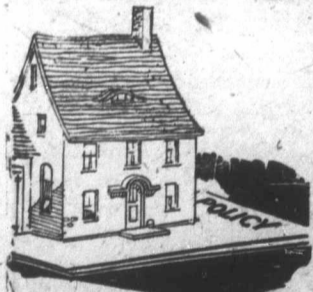

Port Williams has reason to be proud of the literary success of Ross William Collins Ph. D. in his new book entitled "Catholicism and the second French Republic", which is just off the press. The "Lily of the Valley" Division was re-opened on Monday evening for regular meetings. Mr. Henry Cogswell was elected as W. P. Mr. Chas. Newcombe was appointed as delegate to the meeting of the Grand Division at Halifax. Miss Francis Lockwood as substitute.

The annual meeting of the Women's Institute for Kings Co. met at Kentville on Thursday. Those present from Port Williams Institute were Mrs. G. H. Starr, Mrs. Carl Starr, Mrs. N. Taylor, Mrs. A. F. Newcomb, Mrs. O. G. Cogswell, Mrs. M. Regan, Mrs. R. Regan, Mrs. L. Leckie, Mrs. Chas. Partridge, of Wolfville, Mrs. Chas. Partridge and Mrs. G. Sanford, re-appointed Secretary. The question of procuring another county nurse was discussed as well as the supporting of the "Childrens Aid". The Institutes of the county have done valuable work along different lines for "Home and Country" during the past year. Mrs. O. G. Cogswell's name was placed on the Board of Directors, one being appointed from each Institute.

The death occurred at Lynn, Mass., of Mrs. Eliza Smith Abbott, who has reached the advanced age of 89 years. She had been in failing health for some time receiving devoted care from her brother Dr. M. C. Smith and wife who accompanied the remains to Church Street where a very large number of friends assembled at the home of Miss Annie Jacques to pay there last respect to one who has always been a kind friend and neighbour. Rev. G. D. Hudson of Canard, conducted the service, assisted by Rev. G. C. Brown of St. John's church. Mrs. O. G. Cogswell sang "There is no night in the Homeland". Interment was at Canard Cemetery beside her husband, who died in 1896.

Mrs. Fannie Collins, who has been visiting relatives at Starrs Point and Wolfville, was called to Middleton, last week by the sudden death of her mother Mrs. Enoch Collins.

Mr. Oscar Chase, who has been confined to his bed with an attack of pleurisy, is now improving. Dr. Margaret through its pastor and the Honorable John A. McDonald, M. P. P., as a committee, is instituting what no doubt will prove to be exceedingly interesting and immensely profitable to all who attend. This new activity will be a Public Forum. The Forum will be held fortnightly on Tuesday evenings.

PUBLIC FORUM AT CANARD
The First Cornwallis Baptist Church

The first lecture will be November 6th. The speaker will be Col. Rev. J. H. MacDonald. The subject will be: "Is the World Getting Better?"

Other speakers will deal with such questions as: Rural Problems. Our Public School System. Industrial Questions.

Various Phases of Farming. New Methods in Orchardng. and various other topics of importance to our rural life.

All speakers will be men fully qualified to deal with the subjects assigned them. It is hoped that these discussions will cover a course of about ten lectures and feel free to take part in discussing the questions of the evening.

The Committee hopes that people of all persuasions will attend these lectures and feel free to take part in discussing the questions of the evening.

GREENWICH

Mrs. Frederick Baker—nee Miss I. Hawley of Wolfville, was calling upon a few of her friends here last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Thomas Arbuckle—nee Miss Edith Reid—of Massachusetts, who with her husband has been spending most of the summer in Aylesford, visited her mother, Mrs. Annie Reid, a few days last week.

Mrs. Burpee Bishop entertained a few friends for tea and evening last Thursday.

Rev. D. B. Hemmeon, D. D., of Wolfville, was calling upon a few of our residents last Friday and remained up to attend the special meeting of the Community League, which was called for that evening, Mr. Hemmeon being President. There was a very good number present and it was decided to reopen for regular meetings on the evening of Friday, November 16th.

The President will deliver a lecture that evening, on an interesting subject, after business meeting of appointing new officers etc. A good nominating Committee was appointed, with Mrs. B. L. Bishop as Convenor, also a committee to arrange for a supper, or social, with Miss Lillian Bishop as Convenor, in connection with raising money for the piano fund, which we hope will be a good success.

Quite an unusual occurrence took place here Saturday morning during the strong gale of wind. Two of our gentlemen residents were on the roof of the hall, to examine for needed repairs, when their ladder was swept to the ground and they were left in a stranded condition. After a time they attracted the attention of a small boy, sending him for a man to replace the ladder.

Mrs. A. K. Forsythe returned home last Saturday afternoon from spending a week in Bridgetown, Annapolis Co., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chesley Forsythe.

A good many from here attended service at the Baptist church, Port Williams, last Sunday morning, and enjoyed a sermon by Rev. Mr. Hudson, of Upper Canard.

Miss Abbott, of Wolfville, accompanied by her sister Mrs. Crozier, visited Mrs. Lillian Bishop on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Edward Manning and Mrs. Charles Forsythe spent Monday in Kentville.

Miss Annie Pearson was the guest of her friend Miss Mildred Eye, Wolfville, Monday afternoon and over night.

Miss Bessie Fraser, who has been confined to her home with illness for several weeks, is now able to be around, her friends are pleased to know.

Miss Helen A. B. Marshall, Halifax, President of H. H. Marshall, Ltd. of that city, recently spent some time on a business trip to Boston, New York and Philadelphia. Miss Marshall made many friends in this place during her residence here the past two summers.

Miss Hilda Johnson left on Tuesday morning for Ohio, U. S. to spend some time there visiting relatives, etc. She will be much missed by friends here, who wish her a pleasant trip on her long journey.

Evelyn Forsythe, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Forsythe, one of our school girls who is attending school in Wolfville this year, we are glad to learn won second prize in writing at the Three Counties Exhibition, recently held in Kentville. Congratulations.

Miss Zoa McCabe, one of our young ladies, was very fortunate too in winning a few good prize, at the Three Counties Exhibition, on vegetables, etc. Congratulations to her also.

The baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cleveland, who has been ill, is now much better.

HANTSPORT HAPPENINGS

The Rev. F. H. Beals who so recently assumed the pastorate of the Baptist Church, was listened to with keen appreciation by a large congregation on Sunday evening, his address being both eloquent and practical. The music throughout the service was exceptionally good. The Male Quartette, "Oh, Son Give Me Thine Heart", was impressively rendered, as was also the Male Quartette, "What a Comforter", Lorenz, with soprano obligato, which was effectively rendered by Miss Marguerite Lawrence. The personnel of the Quartette was as follows, Messrs. Ivan Pulsifer, George Holmes, William Pulsifer and John Folker.

Miss Gladys Masters, of the teaching staff of the Hantsport schools, is confined to the house with an attack of laryngitis. Mrs. B. Davison is in charge of her room.

Messrs. A. A. Kirkpatrick and L. Sanford visited Halifax recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Reid, of Summerville, Hants Co., were recent guests of Mr. Reids parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Reid, Hants Border.

The citizens of Hantsport regret to learn of the resignation of Miss B. Coyle from the office of the Hantsport Branch of the Maritime Telephone Co. Miss Coyle has very efficiently filled this position for seven years.

Miss Kathleen Alley left on Tuesday for Detroit, Mich., where she intends remaining the winter.

The death of Mrs. James Burgess, occurred at Summerville, Hants Co. on Oct. 17th at the age of 91 years.

Mrs. Burgess had many recent visitors, having resided here a number of years with her nephew, Mr. J. E. Pentz proprietor of the Evangeline Hotel.

Mr. F. W. Porter spent the week end with his sister Mrs. Chase, of Woodville.

Mrs. W. Cohoon is in Lakeville, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Stanley Power.

The many friends of Mr. E. Blackburn, who underwent a serious operation at the Payzant Memorial Hospital, Windsor, on Tuesday, will be pleased to learn that there is an improvement in his condition.

Miss Quenie Stevens, of Wolfville, was home for the week end.

Mrs. Stanley Power (nee Lottie Cohoon) is seriously ill at her home in Lakeville. Her many Hantsport friends hope she may speedily recover.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist Church were entertained at the home of Mrs. C. Beazley on Thursday afternoon of last week. This most worthy organization are sewing at the present time for the Jost Mission Halifax. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

HANTSPORT AS A TOURIST RESORT

For some reason Hantsport has not heretofore profited to the extent that it should because of tourist travel to Nova Scotia. This is not due to any lack of natural advantages but rather to the fact that our people have not catered to these summer visitors who contribute to the material prosperity of our province.

Probably no other place in Nova Scotia is so well equipped by nature as a tourist resort as is this town. Its beautiful location and surroundings are freely commented upon by the comparatively few who come here to sojourn, and only require to be more widely known to attract. The climate here in summer is ideal and we possess facilities for boating and bathing which few towns enjoy. Many sections possessed of far inferior attractions are today reaping a rich harvest from the advent of summer visitors, and Hantsport, if its people so wish, may easily enjoy a similar experience. Next summer the home-coming of Nova Scotia's sons and daughters in large numbers is anticipated, and our town should be prepared to give them a welcome.

We need first of all a campaign of publicity which should be undertaken by the civic authorities without delay. The formation of an aggressive organization, whose duty it would be to see that necessary hotel accommodation is provided and other arrangements furnished for the entertainment of visitors, should also be appointed in order that we may be in readiness and create a favorable impression on their arrival.

This suggestion is made by the Hantsport ACADIAN with the hope that immediate steps may be taken to set in operation a project which is bound to result to the material benefit of our town and its people.

moved into town and are occupying the cottage of Mr. J. Wallace, William Street.

E. Blois has an ear of corn grown from his garden with fifteen distinct ears under the husk. Mr. Blois' garden is only in its infancy, but was much admired this summer.

Mrs. H. E. Steele was in town recently the guest of Miss Ella Smith. Mrs. Steele left to join Captain Steele at New Orleans.

Mrs. Bertha Davison, who has been visiting friends in Boston, Mass., has returned.

Several of our local sportsmen have been successful in securing game from the hunting grounds. The first moose of the season was brought into town on Saturday, being shot by Mr. W. Hawkesworth. It is a fine specimen, weighing over seven hundred pounds.

C. H. Dunbar spent the week-end at his home in town.

The many friends of Mr. T. Turner, who had the misfortune in having his arm broken over two months ago, will be pleased to know that he was able to sit up and have the splints removed Sunday.

The barge Andrew McDonald, Captain Nicholson, bound to New York, was in collision in Vineyard Sound last Saturday with the steamer Freeman, bound from Boston to Norfolk. Dense fog was the cause. Several of our Hantsport men are on the McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. Tremaine, Mrs. Harris and son motored from Halifax on Sunday and were guests at the home of Dr. E. Scott, Hants Border.

The many friends of Rev. J. C. Spurr are pleased to see him out again after his serious illness.

HANTSPORT SCHOOLS

Editor Hantsport ACADIAN.

Dear Sir:—In our Nova Scotia towns, the schools are the only common community interest. From the religious standpoint, the people are usually divided denominationally, and each person's interest is more or less in his or her own Church. But the schools serve the entire community and mark one object, at least, of common interest.

The history of the Hantsport Public Schools is long and honorable. As a town Hantsport has always shown its interest in the Public School. One measure of a town's public spirit is its interest in Education.

To know the history of the growth of our school, to know what our fathers did to provide the means of Education, would surely be an added incentive to the present, and coming generation to not only maintain the standard of the Past, but to reach out after a higher standard.

There are a few of the older people, who have not yet passed on, who could furnish the information necessary for a history of our schools. What could form a better subject for an Essay by our present high school pupils than a History of the Hantsport Public School? The Town Council might do worse than offer a prize of five dollars for the best Essay on this subject. Such an Essay could be printed and become a permanent record.

A few years hence and some of the information necessary for such an Essay will be far harder to obtain. Some of the information that the present writer would like to obtain, would be answered to the following questions:

1. Was the Hantsport school house ever located on Holmes' Hill? If so, when?

2. Was William Parsons the first Principal of the school in the present building?

3. For how long were there two separate school buildings on the present grounds?

4. Who was Principal when the buildings were united as at present?

5. How many departments (teachers) were there when Mr. Saunders was Principal?

These and many more questions of interest, would be answered in an historical sketch of the growth and development of our schools.

The younger people find, as they grow up, institutions already established schools in operation and churches existing. They are unable to take these for granted and think that they always existed. To know the history of these institutions, to know that many of our privileges were purchased by sacrifice, and unremitting effort, on the part of a generation passed away, might arouse us to a sense of our obligation to hand on all these benefits unimpaired to the future. More than this it might encourage us to add some thing to the usefulness of our inherited institutions, and thus show our appreciation of the efforts of those who have passed on.

HISTORIAN.

KINSMAN-SPONAGLE

The marriage of Winnifred May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Sponagle, of Avonport, and Clarence L. Kinsman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kinsman, of Lakeville, King's Co., was solemnized at 8.45 a. m. on Tuesday Oct. 23, at the residence of Rev. A. B. Higgins, the officiating clergyman. The bride was becomingly gowned in a costume of copper coloured siltine Gorge with a long train. Both bride and groom were unattended. Amid showers of confetti and good wishes the happy couple left on the morning express for a trip around the South Shore. They will reside at Lakeville.

WINDSOR MAN DIES FOLLOWING SHORT ILLNESS

William M. Christie, K. C., Legal Man Well Known in Masonic Order, Passes On

The death occurred at the Victoria General Hospital, with unexpected suddenness Saturday evening, of William Medford Christie, K. C., of Windsor, a prominent member of the legal fraternity of the province and of the Masonic Order.

Mr. Christie's death followed an illness of only a week. On Tuesday last, accompanied by his wife, a son and daughter, he went to Halifax from Windsor to undergo an X-ray examination at the Victoria General Hospital.

As his condition was not regarded as serious, Mr. Christie and her son returned to their home on Wednesday, Miss Agnes Christie, remaining with her father. Alarming developments which occurred between that time and Saturday morning, resulted in a hasty summons sent to the members of his family at Windsor, who although they made all haste, were unable to reach his bedside before death occurred.

Mr. Christie was born in Truro, in 1852, but for the past half century, resided in Windsor where he first studied law in the office of the late, Henry and Aubrey Blanchard. Since being admitted to the bar of Nova Scotia, the deceased had practiced law at Windsor, for over forty years, he had been solicitor for that town and for many years acted as stipendiary magistrate.

He was a prominent member of the Masonic Order having held in the years 1912 and 1915, the position of Grand Master for Nova Scotia. He was a thirty-second degree member of the Scottish Rite, a Knight Templar and a member of Philae Temple of the Shrine. Mr. Christie was a leading Mason in all that made for the welfare of the Order. He was largely instrumental in securing for the aged Masons, the beautiful home in Windsor which so comfortably houses so many of its members to-day.

A Liberal in politics, he at one time contested Hants County in a bye-election and afterward was created King's Counsel. In all departments of civic life, Mr. Christie took an active interest. He was president and managing director of the Windsor Electric Light and Power Company and was one of the most active promoters of the development of hydro electric energy, acting as solicitor for the Avon River Power Company. He was also solicitor for east and west Hant's municipalities and was thoroughly posted on all matters relating to the cause of municipal administration.

He retained his respective civic offices until the end with courage and determination characteristic of a strong man, and his death has left a place in many public and private concerns, which will be hard to fill.

Mr. Christie is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Georgina Thompson, of Windsor, one son, Richard T. Christie, and two daughters, Miss Agnes, of Windsor, and Mrs. W. C. Robinson, of Youngsboro, Alberta, who returned home with her husband, after spending the summer with her parents in Windsor.

THE CHAMPION DESSERT APPLE

London, Oct. 27.—The Canadian McIntosh red apple is the champion dessert apple in the British empire, so the judges at the imperial fruit show which opened in Manchester yesterday adjudged, so far as the Manchester exhibition is concerned at any rate.

They also decided that Cox's orange pippins from British Columbia on the whole, are the best of the 16 exhibits from overseas and winners thereof of the Daily Mail's fifty guineas cup.

The various exhibits at the show were a picturesque revelation of what the great orchards of the dominions can produce in the way of apples by expert culture.

"OLD HOME SUMMER 1924" FOR NOVA SCOTIA

Announced by Premier E. H. Armstrong at Boston

At the Canadian Club Dinner held at the City Club at Boston, Mass., on the evening of October 10, Premier Armstrong of Nova Scotia was the principal speaker and received a most cordial and enthusiastic welcome.

The banquet was honored by the presence of Secretary of State Frederick W. Cook, representing Governor Channing H. Cox, and Hon. John A. Sullivan, representing the City of Boston. A fine program of entertainment was given.

At the close of Premier Armstrong's fine eloquent address which was frequently applauded, he spoke of the wonderful scenic beauty of Nova Scotia as the Tourist Playground for New England and invited everyone to come down next year. The Premier then dwelt at some length on the "Old Home Summer 1924" and read telegrams of approval from the Canadian Club of New York, Board of Trade and the Commercial Club of Halifax. He spoke in warm approval of the idea and cited the legislation passed by the Nova Scotia legislature two years ago, being specially created to develop the "Old Home Summer" idea. He promised the audience that he would do all he could to help the idea along and promised the support of the Government in the undertaking.

Secretary John F. Masters read a telegram from Premier James D. Stewart of Prince Edward Island, as follows:

"My heartiest greetings to all present at your banquet with kindly regards and best wishes to all those who remember their Island home and hope to revisit it next year. The idea is an excellent one and will have commission appointed as requested to prepare plans we sincerely hope that our returning relatives and friends may induce many American visitors to join them on their trip to the Garden of the Gulf in the "Old Home Summer of 1924".

This was received with great enthusiasm by all present, especially the members of the Club from the "Island".

A plan of organization has been suggested to Premier Armstrong providing representation from each County in the Province being a part of and associated with the main Committee at Halifax, toward the end of co-ordinating the whole plan, and allotting a week to each Town or County, to be mutually agreed upon.

We wish to say that there is the greatest interest in the "Old Home Summer 1924" throughout New England and the United States in general, also Western Canada. All the project now requires is that all the Boards of Trade and Tourist Associations communicate with Premier Armstrong with their approval and endorsement of the plan. The fine automobile highways of the Province now welcome the rush of travel next year, which will be the largest ever witnessed, not only in Nova Scotia but also throughout the Maritime Provinces.

Premier Armstrong also stated that he was authorized by Mr. George E. Graham (who was present at the Banquet), to state that the Flying Bluenose would be put on next year, which is good news.

On Tuesday, previous to the Dinner, Premier Armstrong was honored by a luncheon at the Algonquin Club, given by Governor Channing H. Cox, at which sixty persons, prominent in civic and political life were present, including officers of the Canadian Club. Premier Armstrong and Mrs. Armstrong were also received by Mayor James M. Curley and he was presented with a golden key representing the Freedom of the City while Mrs. Armstrong was presented with an autographed copy of the History of Boston.

NOT WORK, BUT WORRY

It is not the work, but the worry,
That wrinkles the smooth, fair face,
That blends gray hair with the dusky,
And robs the form of its grace;
That dims the lustre and sparkle
Of eyes that were once so bright,
But now are heavy and troubled,
With a weary, despondent light.

It is not the work, but the worry,
That drives all sleep away,
As we toss and turn and wonder
About the cares of day.
Do we think of the hands' hard labor
Or the steps of the tired feet?
Ah, no, but we plan and ponder
How to make both ends meet.

It is not the work, but the worry,
That makes us sober and sad,
That makes us narrow and sordid,
When we should be cheery and glad.
There's a shadow before the sunlight
And even a cloud in the blue,
The scent of the roses is tainted,
The notes of the song are untrue.

It is not the work, but the worry,
That makes the world grow old,
That numbers the years of its children
Ere half their story is told;
That weakens their faith in heaven
And the wisdom of God's great plan,
Ah! 'tis not the work, but the worry
That breaks the heart of man.

POOR BUSINESS

A Pictonian saw an advertisement in a Halifax Paper offering No. 1 Gravenstein apples at so much a basket direct from grower. It was so long since this chap had seen a No. 1 Gravenstein that he thought he would take a chance. He sent on the money and the apples arrived. They were not No. 1, the majority of them were windfalls and a few might have been No. 1's if they had not been bruised so much by falling from the trees, but the most of them, even if they had not been bruised, would not have graded above No. 2. Very few of the apples were ripe. The buyer was not very greatly put out personally, for he knew from previous experience that he was running a big chance when he sent for these apples, but he did think that the seller of those apples was a most short sighted man who was doing much injury to himself and to his neighbours, who was doing his little bit to prevent the building up of a home market for Gravenstein apples. There is a great market right here in the Maritimes for No. 1 Gravensteins direct from grower to consumer provided the grower will show common honesty. There should be enough selfishness among the apple growers to exert a public opinion and pressure that would prevent any of their number from ruining a good business.—Pictou Advocate.

INVESTING FOR THE FAMILY

Abraham Lincoln humorously said of a poor neighbor's assets, "He has a wife and two children which I should think were worth thirty thousand dollars to any man".

The family is the greatest wealth of every member of it—the first concern of the individual or of society. It is a golden investment and needs the same protection and care that any investment requires.

One of its best safeguards is good reading; one of the things that puts it in jeopardy is bad reading. The Youth's Companion has always been, in the matter of supplying reading, what a United States bond is to the investor. Its principle is guaranteed, and its interest is paid with every issue. Try this investment for your family.

The 52 issues of 1924 will be crowded with serial stories, short stories, editorials, poetry, facts and fun. Subscribe now and receive:

PROMOTING HEALTH

The Life Extension Institute health rules have proved very helpful to many in promoting and keeping good health:

1. Ventilate every room you occupy.
2. Wear light, loose and porous clothes.
3. Seek out-of-door occupations and recreations.
4. Sleep out if you can.
5. Breathe deeply.
6. Avoid overeating and overweight.
7. Eat some hard, some bulky, some raw foods.
8. Eat sparingly of meat and eggs.
9. Eat slowly.
10. Use sufficient water internally and externally.
11. Evacuate thoroughly, regularly and frequently.
12. Stand, sit and walk erect.
13. Do not allow poisons and infections to enter the body.
14. Keep the teeth, gums and tongue clean.
15. Work, play, rest and sleep in moderation.
16. Keep serene.

Some day, maybe, Peace will break out; and I of few of us will be adequately prepared.—New York Evening Post.

SINKS AND DRAINS

Use a little of Gillett's Lye when the kitchen or bathroom drains are clogged. It works wonders! Use it also for cleaning and disinfecting Closet Bowls; for softening water, making soap, cleaning dirty floors and greasy utensils. It has over 500 different uses and a can should be kept handy in every home. Avoid costly and dangerous substitutes. Insist on the genuine.

GILLETT'S 100% PURE FLAKE LYE

HIS VOICE IS SAFE

A noted tenor says quarreling injures the voice, therefore he will not marry. No woman seems inclined to quarrel with him over his decision.

If everybody went to church as they ought on Sunday there would be fewer auto fatalities recorded in the daily press on Monday morning. Sometimes we wonder if the Sunday casualties are not the result of the working of the divine law, "to remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy".

SOME WAYS TO KILL AN ASSOCIATION

Don't go to the meetings.
But if you do go, go late.
If the weather doesn't suit you, don't think of going.
If you do attend a meeting, find fault with the work of the officers and other members.

Never accept an office, as it is easier to criticize than do things.
Nevertheless, get sore if you are not appointed on a committee, but if you are, do not attend committee meetings.
If asked by the chairman to give your opinion regarding some important matter tell him you have nothing to say. After the meeting tell everyone how things ought to be done.

Do nothing more than is absolutely necessary, but when the other members roll up their sleeves and willingly and selflessly use their ability to help matters along, howl that the association is run by a clique.

Hold back on your dues as long as possible, or don't pay at all.
Don't bother about getting new members, let the secretary do it.
If you don't receive a bill for your dues, don't pay.

If you receive a bill after you've paid, resign from the association.

Don't tell the association how it can help you, but if it doesn't help you resign.

If you receive service without joining, don't think of joining.
If the association doesn't correct abuses in your neighbor's business, howl that nothing is done.
If it calls attention to abuses in your own, resign from the association.

CHOICE RECIPES

CRABAPPLE CATSUP.—One peck crab-apples, one pint vinegar, one and three-quarter pounds sugar, one tablespoon each cinnamon, cloves, pepper and salt. Cook all together. When done, bottle.

BENGAL CHUTNEY.—Thirteen green tomatoes, 13 apples, two ounces onions, one ounce ground ginger, one-half pound raisins, two ounces mustard seed, one-half or one-quarter pound salt, one teaspoon red pepper, one pound brown sugar, three pints vinegar.

SCHOOL LUNCH PIES.—Prepare a crust like biscuit dough, roll it to an eighth of an inch thick and cut with a small cutter. On half of the pieces put apple sauce, wet the edges, place the other half on top, pinch firmly together and fry in hot fat or butter. Drain and when cold wrap in waxed paper.

PEACH COBBLER.—Line a shallow pan with good, rich pastry, fill with ripe peaches cut into halves. Sprinkle with 1 cup sugar and one tablespoonful cornstarch moistened in water. Place top crust and bake. Serve with whipped cream or a milk dip in which nutmeg or cinnamon has been placed.

DATE GEMS.—One cup dates, seeded and chopped fine, two cups milk, two tablespoons melted butter, two teaspoons baking powder, three cups flour, one egg, well beaten. Mix egg and milk. Sift dry ingredients together, add chopped dates, and combine mixture. Beat hard and bake in well-buttered gem tins for about 20 minutes.

FRUIT PINWHEELS.—Two cups flour, two teaspoons baking powder, one tablespoon granulated sugar, two tablespoons butter, a little salt. Mix together with scant cup milk. Roll into squares one-half inch thick, spread with butter and sprinkle well with sugar and currants and a little cinnamon, and roll. Cut off in slices one-half inch thick and bake in a quick oven. Do not let slices touch.

THE GROCER'S TURN

Last evening I was talking
With a grocer, old and gray,
Who told me of a dream he had
"Twas just the other day,
While standing in his office
The vision came to view,
For he saw an angel enter
Dressed in garments white and new.
Said the angel, "I'm from Heaven,
The Lord just sent me down
To bring you up to glory
And put on your golden crown.
You've been a frierd to everyone
And worked hard night and day,
You have supported many
And from few received your pay,
And we want you up in glory
Where you desire to be."

So place your trusting hand in mine
And come along with me,
Then the angel and the grocer
Started up to glory's gate,
But when passing close to Hades
The angel murmured "Wait!"
I have a place to show you—
It's the hottest place in h—
Where the ones that never paid you
Do in torment always dwell.
And, behold, the grocer saw them,
His old patrons by the score,
And grabbing up a chair and fan
He wished for nothing more
But was bound to sit and watch them
As they'd sizzle, singe and burn.
And his eyes would rest on debtors
Whichever way they'd turn.
Said the angel, "Come on, grocer,
"There's the pearly gate to see."
But the grocer only murmured,
"This is Heaven here for me."

"Where will we raise our food when when all of the available farming area is taken up and worked to its fullest capacity?" asks a magazine writer. By that time we won't waste food on people with nothing to do but ask foolish questions, so there is no occasion for uneasiness.

"Mother Williams" of Broadway

(1) "Mother Williams" with her New York friends, and (2) at the Canadian Pacific Windsor Station.

Of course you have visited New York, and if you have been to New York you have been to Times Square; but while you were there did you notice the neat little old lady who was acting as sales agent for the "Billboard" outside the Putnam Building? If not you are not in the show business because everyone in the show business knows "Mother Williams." Likewise the police, for it is known to all of them that "Mother Williams" is on speaking terms with Commissioner Richard Enright, and more than one "coop" indebted to the old lady—she is seventy-two years old—for her intercession with the commissioner on their behalf.

The candles she burns at the "Church of Mother Divine" for her proteges are innumerable. Many a heartick girl has been stopped by "Mother Williams" and sent on her way with enough money to tide her over until the long-sought-for engagement was secured, and the same is applicable to actors, for on more than one occasion she has been seen to "slip them change." Nor has she cause to regret it, for with her it is always "just a little loan until you sign up." Today she probably knows and is known by more producers and actors than any other woman in the country, for few, if any on Broadway ever pass without a word of greeting for "Mother Williams" and a "God bless you" from her.

Her kind old Irish heart will respond to every tale of suffering for "Mother Williams" knows. Mary Bridget Ann Williams was born in Toronto seventy-two years ago, the daughter of a prominent real estate man. At the age of eight she lost her mother, after whose decease she accompanied her father on a tour of Europe that included a stay in Ireland and a four year visit to London. Returning to Montreal, Miss Williams later became a well-known and successful teacher of music, and it is with great pride that she points to several of the present day celebrities who received their fundamental training at her hands.

In 1887 Miss Williams found herself alone in the world. The following year she went to New York where she supported herself by her music until advancing age made it impossible to continue as a teacher. From then on, until she became a sales agent for the "Billboard" and was taken under the wing of its proprietor, she did as best she could, but always smiling, and giving, perhaps, more to the world than she received from it.

Recently she took a little journey under the protection of the Canadian Pacific Railway. For two weeks she visited her old friends in Montreal whence she had travelled with the primary object of caring for her father's grave. From there she went to Toronto where her mother's last resting place was ministered to. A wonderful, cheery old lady. Is it a wonder that they call her "Mother Williams" on Broadway?

Mahomet Could Have Sold Your Merchandise

You know the old story of Mahomet and the mountain--when the mountain wouldn't come to him he, like a sensible man, grabbed his Panama off the hall rack and went to the mountain--he wanted it badly enough to go after it.

That is precisely the situation today--the mountain--BUSINESS--will not come to you--you will have to go after it and go after it hard. YOU have one great advantage over the prophet--he had to take the going as he found it--you can pave the way with advertising.
