ST. PHILIP'S HAS A NEW RECTOR.

CHURCH OFFICIALS REPUDIATED STATEMENTS RECENTLY MADE. Rev. C. Kendrick, M. A., Comes From St. George's, Toronto—A Bright Prospect for the Young Church.

The following statement was given out by the Bishop of Niagara at the Synod office this morning: "The Lord Bishop having summoned the wardens and delegates, the legal representatives of the congregation of St. Philip's Church, before him at the Synod office on Saturday, in connection with the disrespectful and incorrect conduct used at the vestry meeting recently by certain individuals, this conduct was repudiated, on behalf of the congregation, and much regret was expressed that such words should have been spoken and published. Thereupon the Bishop appointed as rector of St. Philip's Church Rev. C. Kendrick, M. A., late assistant at St. George's Church, Toronto, to whom the position had been offered by the Bishop a fortnight before. Mr. Kendrick will officiate on Sunday, May 3rd, and his appointment and acceptance, it is thought, will open up a very hopeful future for the congregation."

Rev. Mr. Kendrick has been for nearly four years assistant to Rev. Canon Cayley at St. George's Church, and has done very efficient work. He has held several parishes in Toronto churches, and was formerly the incumbent of a parish in St. John's, N. B. He is an energetic worker, and is a believer in the development of the social side of church life.

The young people have always had a special interest for him, as a brother of Prof. Kendrick, of the department of chemistry at the University of Toronto.

GAVE UP CHASE.

London Detectives Return Home—Say Moir is Hiding.

London, April 27.—Detectives Nickle and Egelton, Sergt. Green and P. C. Bolton returned from Guelph at midnight on Saturday and the chase after Pte. Moir, the slayer of Sergt. Lloyd, is given up for the present at any rate.

The police spent the last day of the chase in the vicinity of Georgetown. There were a number of rumors investigated, but not one was worth investigating. The country to the north of Berlin, from whence the last supposedly authentic clue came, will be watched still. It is the opinion of some of the officers that the fugitive is securely hidden in that vicinity—where he had a number of friends. He often drove to small hotels in that vicinity, and indulged in a carousal. He went with the definite object of seeing friends and those friends still living there.

The police have nothing to say concerning their future intentions.

THREE DROWNED.

Dunuchurch, Ont., April 26.—Three young men of this neighborhood, Thos. Bennett, Fred. King and Jacob Knoepf, were drowned in Abomee Lake, off Rocky Reef, this afternoon. They were employed by the Croft Lumber Co. The bodies have not been recovered yet, and no further particulars are known.

MOULDERS WARNED OFF FROM THE BUCK STOVE WORKS.

Brantford Summer Attractions—T., H. & B. Agent at Cainsville Dead.

(Special Despatch to The Times.) Brantford, Ont., April 27.—Alex. Miller and Jas. Houghton, two striking moulders, were allowed off on suspended sentences at the police court this morning for besetting the Buck Stove Works. Magistrate Livingston stated that the union men would have to keep clear of the vicinity in future, otherwise he would inflict a very severe penalty on the next offender.

An American promoter is in the city to-day when a deal with the Street Railway Company will likely be considered whereby Mohawk Park will be fixed up with extensive summer attractions.

Henry Foulger, a well-known grocer of Cainsville and agent of the T., H. & B. Ry. at that place, died yesterday of heart trouble. He was in his 52nd year and leaves a wife and family.

Bishop Williams, of Huron, yesterday morning confirmed 17 candidates at impressive services in Grace Church.

Russian Easter was celebrated yesterday in this city by the local foreign fraternality with the usual rites. There was no untoward conduct among the foreign element.

Shocked to Death. (Special Despatch to The Times.) Brantford, April 27.—A peculiar accident which resulted in instant death to Jonathan Marshall occurred at the power house of the Western Counties Electric Company, below Mohawk Lake, at half-past 5 o'clock on Saturday evening. Marshall was partially electrocuted, and was thrown by the force of a strong electric current to a solid cement floor 30 feet below where he was working. He fell on his head, the side of which was cut in by the force of the fall, and he expired in a couple of minutes. About 4:30 on Saturday afternoon a heavy

NEVILL RESIGNS.

St. Catharines Rector Who Had Trouble Over Choir.

(Special Despatch to The Times.) St. Catharines, Ont., April 27.—Rev. R. Barrington Nevill, M. A., rector of St. Barnabas' Church, surprised his congregation yesterday morning by announcing that he intended his resignation to Bishop DuMoulin to take effect immediately. Mr. Nevill received considerable notoriety the first Sunday after he entered upon his duties as rector, by expelling all the ladies from the choir on the charge that there were flirts among them. The congregation then divided and he has not since been able to heal the division. About a month ago he sought to effect an arrangement by which Rev. F. C. Piper, of Thorold, would assume charge of the parish as acting rector, on condition that he (Nevill) should be granted leave of absence until the end of the year, at which time he was to resign. Both congregations interested became so antagonistic at the proposed arrangement that it fell through before it was laid before the Bishop. Mr. Nevill then declared from his pulpit and through the press that he had no intention of resigning, hence the surprise at his announcement yesterday.

SCHOOLBOY KILLED.

Tall Chimney at Buffalo Falls on Children at Play.

Buffalo, April 27.—While a number of school children were playing in the yard of public school No. 35, on Swan street, this morning, a tall chimney on an adjoining building was blown over by a heavy gust of wind, falling in the midst of a number of the pupils.

William Pinzel, 14 years old, residing at 454 North Division street, was caught under the debris and crushed to death. Hugh Doherty, aged 16 years, received a fractured skull, and Leroy Hodges, aged 14 years, received many lacerations and is internally injured.

A number of other children received minor bruises and cuts. Doherty and Hodges were taken to the hospital, where it was said they might not recover.

GRIMSBY NEWS.

What Are Detectives Doing?—Mr. Pettit's Death.

Grimsbey, April 27.—(Special)—There is much guessing here about the prolonged visit of two detectives from Toronto who have been in this vicinity for two or three weeks, dividing their time between Grimsbey and Beauville. Rumor says that their business is connected with the visit of an alleged eloping couple, from the United States.

Mr. Charles Pettit, a well known bar-rister of this place, died yesterday. He had been ill two or three months, with Bright's disease, and was about 40 years of age and married a daughter of Mr. H. H. Hager. He leaves no family.

EMERSON-VESTA.

Juggler's Sweet Dream of Love is Over.

It looks as if the Nettie Vesta-Eddie Emerson wedding is off. Emerson left early yesterday morning for Scranton, Pa., without having succeeded in making the New York opera singer his wife. After he left Miss Vesta took a spin in a benzine buggy with some other performers, and she seemed to soon forget all about Eddie. In the evening she left for Ottawa to fill the part of the star of a theatrical troupe. What right had he to make such an offer?

And Mr. Barrow is willing to stake his reputation that he is a better engineer than any of the applicants. But the trouble is he has been working for too small a salary, and the aldermen can't forgive him for that.

Fatal Leap

New York, April 27.—Despondent over financial troubles Long Wund, 40 years old, a Chinaman, committed suicide early to-day by jumping from the roof of a six-story tenement house in Eighth avenue. He was almost instantly killed. Long was a member of the firm of Long, Sin Ti & Co., dealers in art curios in Fifth avenue. The demand for Chinese curios disappeared almost entirely as a result of the recent financial crisis in this country, according to one of the dead man's friends, and Long became despondent.

THE MAN IN OVERALLS

Now that the campaign is on every Liberal in the city should be a reader of The Times. Get the news and views straight.

With Mr. Hendrie Toronto comes first and Hamilton second.

Will the hotel men have to "cough up" for the Tory reptile fund?

Then again the Executive Committee may insist that the new engineer shall be a Tory. Mr. Barrow says this is a queer world.

I wish my Labor friends could do something to get the moulders back to work. I feel sorry to see them walking the streets so long.

Why doesn't Ham. Regan come out straight and tell the temperance people how he feels about the three-fifths business? Is he ashamed to own up or just afraid?

If it were Hamilton detectives instead of London detectives who were playing hide-and-seek with murderer Moir all over the country, how some of my contemporaries would be going for Chief Smith.

The higher a salary you ask the better chance you have of getting to be City Engineer.

Mr. Studholme has had a chance at it. Now let Mr. McClement have a chance. He's a pretty good talker.

Mr. Churchill's defeat was a bad blow to free trade, what was Runciman's victory? Early answer required.

"The City Beautiful" in Y. M. C. A. Hall to-morrow evening. Going?

I don't think the Mayor would touch Cataract power though it was fifty per cent. cheaper.

You should see the way Chairman Sweeney is fixing up the Jolley Cut. There will be a rebellion among the Highlanders if he doesn't watch out.

The Reorganization Committee is disappointed that none of the applicants for Barrow's job asked $5,000 a year.

Yes, Mr. Turfiff is a western man and he showed up the fallacies of the Tory slanderers in true western style.

No, Maude, I told you before that there will be no open air band concerts this summer. The Hydro-electric power scheme will need all the money.

That 10 per cent. reduction offered by Mr. Hawkins simply is the Mayor's feeblest. What right had he to make such an offer?

And Mr. Barrow is willing to stake his reputation that he is a better engineer than any of the applicants. But the trouble is he has been working for too small a salary, and the aldermen can't forgive him for that.

THE HEAVENS WEPT

While the Funeral Service of Dead Premier Was Held.

London, April 28.—The funeral services of the Church of England were solemnized in Westminster Abbey at noon to-day over the body of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the late Premier of Great Britain, who died April 22, in the presence of a large number of people representing the political life of England.

After the service a short procession moved from the Abbey to Easton station, where a special train took the coffin to Scotland.

It was a typical gloomy London day and a dismal rain was falling when the simple cortege made its way through the streets.

Westminster Abbey and the railroad station each had its crowd of spectators, who found shelter from the weather under a sea of umbrellas.

Flags all over London were at half mast and the church bells tolled as the coffin was borne on its last journey through the streets of London.

STARTS MAY 20.

Turbina in Race Horse Form, Says Manager Goodearle.

Manager Goodearle, of the Turbine Steamship Co., is in this city to-day and announced that the big turbine will start regular trips between here and Toronto on or about May 20th. She is in the best condition she has ever been in, says Mr. Goodearle, and is in "race horse" form.

The manager also announced that he has a great many picnics and moonlight excursions already booked for her, and that applications for more were coming. Her engineers have been shifted, and three men who come from the place where the Turbinia was built, Glasgow on the Clyde, are to make up the first, second and third of the engineer's staff.

Mr. Goodearle stated that he intended to make Hamilton his headquarters this year, and would be installed in a home here inside of a month.

BISHOP M'EVAY.

Report of Appointment as Archbishop Confirmed.

Ottawa, April 27.—Information from a source closely in touch with the papal representative here further confirms the report that Archbishop O'Connor, of Toronto, will shortly resign and will be succeeded by Bishop McEvay, of London.

The archbishop's resignation is said to be even now before Pope Pius, and upon being officially accepted Archbishop O'Connor will retire to monastic life.

The change proposed is but one of the several designed to place men of the greatest ability in all responsible posts of the church.

In the event of Bishop McEvay declining the office, Bishop Scollard, of Sault Ste. Marie, will be the second choice.

$26,500 IN LINENS.

A Gigantic Linen Sale Starts at the Right House Wednesday.

At the Thomas C. Watkins store will commence, on Wednesday morning, a tremendous sale of household linens, sheetings and pillow cottons at prices greatly below special Right House values.

Thomas C. Watkins to-morrow night's advertisement will tell the whole bargain story. The sale will eclipse any sale ever held in Hamilton.

It will last for 10 days only. Don't miss the saving store to-morrow night. It will mean many dollars saved to householders, boarding housekeepers and hotelkeepers.

Muskegon, Mich., April 27.—Mr. and Mrs. Willard Stone and Boyd Ward were drowned in Muskegon Lake about 11 o'clock last night, when their boat was overturned by the high waves.

Miss Ethel Stewart clung to the boat, and drifted a mile to the shore. All four of the party belong at Lakeside, a suburb of Muskegon.

THREE TORIES IN WENTWORTH.

WANT TO REPRESENT NORTH RIDING AT TORONTO.

Ex-Mayor Dickson Says the Convention Was Run by a Clique—R. A. Thompson Will Soon Be Ready for Work.

North Wentworth political situation is becoming decidedly interesting. Already there are three Conservative candidates in the field for the honor of representing the riding in the Legislature at Toronto. G. C. Wilson, who was defeated by R. A. Thompson in the last general election, was the choice of the convention, but ex-Mayor J. W. Dickson says—and said at the time—that the convention was run by a clique and not in accordance with the constitution. He claims that if a ballot had been taken, as required, Mr. Wilson would not have received the nomination.

On Saturday Mr. Dickson announced himself as a candidate against Mr. Wilson. He has begun an active campaign which he proposes carrying on under his own supervision.

Charles Collins is the third Dundas man in the field, all three of the Conservatives being residents of the Valley City.

Mr. R. A. Thompson, the unanimous choice of the Liberals, has regained his health sufficiently to return to his home. His organization work is in good hands, and the Liberals are confident of victory.

In South Wentworth Candidate Regan has not yet met the demands of the voters' league reference to the three-fifths clause in the local option act.

FATHER O'REILLY.

Loved Priest of Oakville Died Early This Morning.

Many people in Hamilton will deeply regret the death of Rev. Father O'Reilly, which took place at his home, the Presbytery at Oakville, this morning at 4.15. Deceased was a native of County Cavan, Ireland, and was 84 years of age. He came to this country when a young man and was ordained by Bishop Crinon about 28 or 29 years ago, in this city. During the quarter century of his ministry he had been stationed at Galt, Macon, Caledonia, St. Patrick's of this city, St. Mary's, of Brantford, and six years ago was appointed by Bishop Dowling to Oakville Parish. He was an earnest and zealous worker wherever his field of labor was and was beloved by all. Six months ago, or so, Father O'Reilly made a misstep while walking on the verandah at his home, and had been ill ever since. Rev. J. S. O'Leary, who has been looking after the parish during his sickness, and Mr. Louis Coty, brother of Rev. Father Coty, of St. Patrick's Church, were with him at the end.

The change proposed is but one of the several designed to place men of the greatest ability in all responsible posts of the church.

In the event of Bishop McEvay declining the office, Bishop Scollard, of Sault Ste. Marie, will be the second choice.

MYSTERIOUS TROUBLE MAKER IN LARGE CITY CHURCH.

His Pranks Last Night Might Easily Have Caused a Panic.

From time to time for months past some mischief makers have been causing trouble at First Methodist Church, and their pranks of last night might easily have caused a panic. One Saturday night or early Sunday morning last summer the church was entered, and the cushions were removed from about 18 pews, and carried away up into the tower, involving a great amount of labor. Mr. Bristowe, the church officer, discovered the mischief, and had everything in place again by the time of the Sunday service. Since that time the organ keys have been plugged, the pulpit furniture has been tampered with and various small depredations have been committed.

Last night, after the congregation had gathered and the service begun, Mr. Bristowe, as usual, went to the rear to see that the choir room door was locked, and the Sunday school all right. He Is Mayor's Stand on Cataract's Offer.

Little Business for Council This Evening.

Power Question Not to be Dealt With.

The power question will not be dealt with by the Council to-night, but will stand over until the first meeting in May. This morning City Solicitor Waddell received a copy of the amended contract from Solicitor Lobb, of the Hydro-Electric Commission, and this will be submitted to the aldermen to-night. Very likely it will be referred to the special power committee, which will probably meet this week to take it up. It is believed that there will be very little opposition in the Council to the Fire and Water Committee's recommendation for an informal conference with the Cataract people. General Manager Hawkins will then have an opportunity of submitting to the aldermen the offer, which he announced through the papers on Saturday, to give the city power ten per cent. cheaper than the Hydro Commission's lowest price to Toronto or any place west of Hamilton.

"I don't take much stock in it," said Mayor Stewart, when asked what his opinion was of the company's latest offer. The company, he says, is not bound by any offer it may make through the newspapers. When the company made an official offer to the city he said he would be prepared to say what he thought of it. He does not think the method the company is pursuing is decent competition. It should make its best offer and then be through with it, he says.

There is very little on the City Council's programme to-night to provoke discussion. Some objection may be taken to the Sewer Committee's recommendation to pay $1,800 for a trenching machine. While the council already authorized the purchase of the machine, this is considerably more money than it intended to pay for it. The Fuel Committee will also be asked to endorse the action of the Fire and Water Committee in refusing all applications from the county for water services.

Mayor Stewart to-night will place before the Council a letter he has received from W. A. H. Duff, solicitor for Miss Jeanette Lewis, promoter of the Children's Hospital scheme, asking an audit of the books. The letter is as follows: "Miss Jeanette Lewis has handed me your letter of the 22nd, and instructs me to say that she has no intention of sending her bank book and papers to Mr. Walter Anderson as any person else for the purpose of auditing her accounts in connection with the Children's Hospital. The amount of deposit to the credit of this fund in the Bank of Hamilton is:

Tickets . . . . . $3,076.78
Donations . . . . . 355.79
Total . . . . . $3,432.57

"On Wednesday afternoon I will have the bank book here and will be pleased to show them to the trustees if they wish to examine them."

The Mayor said he was quite satisfied that Miss Lewis when she considered the intruders from a fanlight, but he had evidently been watched, for the door behind which he took his place was locked upon him, and tables and chairs taken from the Sunday school room were piled against it. He was held there prisoner until almost the end of the service, when one of the members of the choir went out and Mr. Bristowe was able to attract his attention, and they forced the door. This upset the chairs and a great crash followed. The congregation was much startled, but the closing hymn was almost over and perfect order was maintained. The intruders had also locked the choir doors and the rear gallery doors, and had put out the lights in the entrance. The pastor and church officials are at a loss to know who is causing the trouble or what the object can be.

DELaware Park Survey

For the week commencing on the 27th April we desire to call special attention to the lots fronting on Delaware Avenue. These lots are 40 ft. by 100 ft. and as the sidewalk on the north side will be about 15 feet to the south of the street line, these lots are practically 115 feet deep.

THE HAMILTON TIMES

MONDAY, APRIL 27, 1908.

THE ADVOCATE OF MONOPOLY.

When the Hamilton Herald discovered by the terms of the Hydro-Electric contract, to which it had been laboring to commit the city, that it had been misled by Adam Beck's "assurances," and that instead of a definite agreement with a Government guarantee of a fixed sum per horse-power, Hamilton would be expected to abide strictly by the terms of the Power Act, that it would not be able to tell in advance the price of power, nor the extent of the enormous liability which it must assume, and must be fettered for 30 years in an absolute power monopoly, it made an appearance of protest. This, however, was due evidently more to wounded self-pride than to any desire to protect the city's interests, and it is once more eagerly at work in an effort to betray the city to further Beck's ends. What it lacks in reason, it seeks to make up by shouting "Catastrophes!" at any one who would preserve the city from being committed to such an unheard of arrangement and would insist upon the elimination of the dangerous and oppressive features of the contract which it has sought to impose upon us.

The Times, the other day, protested against the attempt to bind the city to a 30-year contract for power at unknown prices with the proviso that Hamilton must not buy electricity from any other source during the term; and we ridiculed the idea—as who would not?—of calling that sort of thing "ensuring competition." The monopoly organ, on Saturday, in a peculiar way, attempted to show that the Times was wrong, because, it argued that the Spectator had contended that competition would be assured by the existence of the Hydro-Electric lines. What the Herald did not make clear, however, was that when the Spectator spoke of the Hydro-Electric assuring competition, it was dealing with the case on the supposition that Hamilton would not enter the scheme, and would not, therefore, contract itself out of the right to buy electricity from the cheapest source, no matter what it might be. The monopoly organ's quotation from the Spectator in no way tells against the Times' contention or makes more attractive the 30-year monopoly fetters to which the city is asked to submit.

Feeling the weakness and absurdity of its contention, the Herald then set out to argue that a 30-years monopoly contract by which the city is prevented from sharing in the advances of science and discovery—during which time it must remain excluded from any opportunity that offers from any other source—it not "such a dreadful thing," and goes on to point out that Hamilton has already bound itself for 30 years in the street railway contract. That is hardly a parallel case. Hamilton leases a franchise and taking no chances of risk or loss receives therefor a large sum of money annually, according to terms stipulated by it. But accept the illustration; surely it does not lie in the Herald's mouth to hold up this 30-year contract as an argument in favor of the Hydro-Electric contract plus its monopoly terms with the chances of outlay all against us. The Herald, the great denouncer of the street railway contract, is surely in dire straits to apologize for the outrage proposed in this electric monopoly when it is driven to swallow itself in this manner. But we do not need to go to 30-year contracts to find warnings against such folly. The city is fully convinced; it had an illustration in our 10-year electric light contract. Where will be found the level-headed business man who would enter upon a 30-year contract to purchase a commodity at an unknown figure, binding himself that he shall not, during the term, purchase any similar goods from any other source of supply, no matter how advantageously?

The fact may as well be faced. There will be no competition in prices of power under the Hydro-Electric scheme. Those who enter it must absolutely sign away their right to enjoy competition. They must tie themselves up for 30 years; and they must agree to pay whatever the price may be—under a management in which they have no voice—and to bear the cost of all contingencies, and to carry all liabilities. Will any honest aldermen, in possession of his senses, give the city up to that?

THE MAN WHO DOES THINGS.

At the Liberal meeting on Saturday night Mr. Turfiff, M. P. for East Assiniboia, paid a well-merited tribute to Mr. Adam Zimmerman, our energetic West Hamilton member of Parliament, for the way in which he looked after Hamilton's interests at Ottawa. He may not speak as often in the House as some other members, he said, but he (the speaker) never went through the departments without finding Mr. Zimmerman somewhere in them getting something or doing something for his constituents. Before Mr. Turfiff spoke Mr. Zimmerman took occasion to refer to some statements of the Spectator in connection with the reversion wall. He said previous Governments had given away the water front to private individuals for private docks, and what should have belonged to the whole citizens passed from their hands, and they could not even get to the bay front without passing over private property and getting the consent of the owners. The building of the reversion wall was an effort, in some degree, remedy that anomalous state of affairs, and when completed, it would stand as a monument to the public spirit and foresight of ex-Ald. John M. Eastwood. In reply to the Spectator's objections to the request of the city that the Government should do something to protect and strengthen the city dock, Mr. Zimmerman said he would ask nothing for Hamilton that was not right and proper. He might have added that the Spec. did not need to go out of its way to get a slap at the Government at the expense of the interests of Hamilton. Speaking of the imposing new Drill Hall, he said that the Government first proposed to put up an $8,000 addition to the old hall, but he said, No. Hamilton would have to get a building suited to its growing needs. It possessed two of the best, he would say, the two best, regiments in Canada, and they should get the best of accommodation. The result was the handsome structure now nearing completion. Then again, owing to the increase in business at the city Post Office, the employees became too cramped for room. He made it his business to have improvements made and the accommodation increased at considerable expense, so that now those employed there have every convenience and comfort in the performance of their work. Referring to the Spec's sneer about the underpaid letter carriers, Mr. Zimmerman said he had repeatedly interested himself on their behalf, and the Government intended bringing in a comprehensive measure dealing with the whole civil service. As to the piers, if he were to wait until the Spec. asked him to move he would be slow indeed. When they were last damaged he had a Government engineer on the job within forty-eight hours.

Dealing with the labor legislation of the Dominion Government, Mr. Zimmerman briefly touched on the organization of the Labor Department, the fair wage bill, which did away with the sweating system, and the Lemieux Act, which had proved such a blessing to the sons of toil, preventing strikes and lock-outs and industrial waste, with their attendant suffering and misery. This act was being copied all over the world, and it would be a question of only a short time when it would become law in the United States. The Lord's Day Act had secured to every workman one day of rest out of the seven.

INQUIRY WILL BE PROMPT.

The other day the Mail and Empire intimated that inquiry into Major Hodgins' statements regarding the Transcontinental work classification had been refused; while in its Parliamentary report it made it clear that Sir Wilfrid Laurier was acquainting himself with the facts with a view to inquiry. Next day the principal headline of its report of the matter was: "Laurier Forced to Probe Charges." The reader of the Parliamentary proceedings, however, then learns that Sir Wilfrid himself gave notice on Monday (to-day) he would move for the appointment of a committee of five members to investigate the charges made by Major Hodgins, former engineer of the National Transcontinental Railway at Kenora, against the commission. The Premier presented the correspondence which he had had with the National Transcontinental Commission dealing with the insinuations made by Major Hodgins at some length, and requesting that the matter be referred to a committee of the House for investigation. A letter from Chief Engineer Lumsden, denying any knowledge of wrongdoing in connection with the work, was also presented.

The course of the organs in endeavoring to make a scandal of the statements of this discharged employee, and their attitude in seeking, in defiance of the facts, to represent the Government and the Commission as striving to prevent inquiry, are at least significant. It indicates more eagerness to put the Government in a false position than to protect the country. In due time the facts will be disclosed. The prompt action of the Commission and of the Government forbids the suspicion that they have anything to hide. How keen is the Tory appetite for scandal! With it, it takes the place of patriotism, policy, principle and ability.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Chub Collins is in serious danger of gaining the enmity of the Tory machine. The Spectator tells him that Whitney wants Wilson, and shouldn't that end it? Few will blame Engineer Barrow for objecting to be dealt with as a mere convenience in educating the higher-salaried man to whom it is sought to give his job. Now, with a disposition to be reasonable on both sides, the aldermen and the street railway people should not find it difficult to arrive at an agreement mutually beneficial. Toronto Saturday Night's excuse for Whitney's gerrymander is that "it could have been so much worse." And, therefore, it thinks his forbearance merits some encomium. Scarlet fever is very prevalent this year. There were 529 cases in Ontario, with 15 deaths, in March, against 235 cases and 5 deaths in March last year.

Terrified as we are of smallpox, there were only 2 deaths out of 85 cases, while diphtheria caused 27 deaths. Some of the Tories are very far from being pleased with the Liberal leader, A. G. MacKay. The probability is that the Liberal leader is not losing sleep in trying to win their approval.

The Toronto World, asks the Ontario public to admire it because it says: "We were the only paper in Toronto to describe the proposed reduction of hotel license as a trick of Robert John Fleming devised to sidetrack the Beck power policy." Isn't the World mistaken? Was it not probably a scheme to induce those crazy Doukhobors to go back to the West? The bank statement for March would indicate that we are overcoming the financial pinch. For the first time in many months there is an increase in deposits, demand deposits being more than eight and a half millions greater for the month. The increase in loans on Canadian commercial paper amounts to $3,768,000. As compared with March, 1907, however, it is still $34,000,000 below the mark. On the whole, the statement is a most encouraging one.

The Ontario Railway and Municipal Board, in its annual report, is very severe on Toronto City Council in respect to street railway matters. It says the Street Railway Company has been "prevented from carrying out the Board's order [as to new lines and more cars] by the obstruction of the city." The Board also seems to take the view of the Street Railway Company against increasing congestion at King and Queen and Yonge streets. Perhaps, by and by, the Toronto ward aldermen will begin to exercise a little common sense.

Some objection is found in England against the action of the Canadian Immigration Commissioners in London in refusing to sanction the sending out of 50 persons by the Church Army, he having regarded them as unfit. The English people may as well learn, sooner or later, that Canada, while welcoming all proper immigrants, not likely to become a burden on her people, refuses to have a dumping ground for culls. We have our own burdens to carry.

Perhaps, by and by, the public may come to understand the Tory view of that railway land grant by Whitney, and his guarantee of $2,500,000 bonds, both in violation of his pledges, and both sprung upon the Legislature in its closing hours. The Toronto Mail and Empire authoritatively states that "the Conservative members who disapproved of the Canadian Northern guarantee are entitled to respect." In the same oracular manner, it declares that in censuring Whitney for this betrayal, "Mr. MacKay's attitude is insincere and discreditable." Bad man, that MacKay!

The Toronto News, in a laudatory article on Whitney's school legislation, claims great praise for the weight he has given the Public School interests in his councils, and makes much of the value of the Advisory Council. The sycophantic organ and the educationists have different views on the matter, however. Only last week the Public School representatives, at the Educational Association, protested that while they represented 95 per cent. of the pupils and teachers, they had only a say of 25 per cent. And the Advisory Council members bitterly complained against the provision which forbade them to lay any new matter before the Minister.

The Pioneer (Prohibitionist) says the three-fifths clause "was the boulder placed on the track to derail the local option train," and it presents an array of arguments in favor of the repeal of that Whitney measure, pointing out that even with this handicap, local option is rapidly gaining. Meanwhile, Whitney and Hanna sit pat. But if the Pioneer continues to hammer away, perhaps they may become willing to be convinced—and by. For, you see, it will be much easier to secure the repeal of local option, carried under the present disadvantages, when the three-fifths vote is not required to restore licenses.

Mr. Turfiff, M. P. for East Assiniboia, made an illuminating address at the Liberal Club meeting on Saturday night. With the aid of maps he showed the immense progress the Northwest had made under Liberal rule, and exposed some of the Tory land deals, as well as showed the hollowness of the cry of graft in connection with the Government's administration of that great country. His remarks on immigration should give the workmen some idea of the benefit to the east of the filling up of the west. Mr. Turfiff is a fine platform speaker and his address was much enjoyed by the large audience.

The engineers of the Hydro-Electric Commission have freely admitted that Hamilton was in a position to obtain electric power on specially advantageous terms, the Cataract Company being able to generate and furnish power to our people at prices with which none could compete. It has been said, however, by the Hydro-Electric advocates here that while the company doubtless could furnish electricity cheaper than all competitors, it was not inclined to do so. The Hydro engineer has interpreted the Cataract Company's offer in his own way so as to make it appear that its price might be higher than the Hydro estimate. The Cataract Company responds by an open offer of power at 10 per cent. less than that of the best the Hydro people can do. That looks like competition, of which we would have some were we tied up to the Hydro monopoly contract.

OUR EXCHANGES

Sitting Out. (Toronto Globe.) People are already forming the verandah habit. Couldn't Disturb Him. (Ottawa Free Press.) G. W. Fowler tried vainly to provoke Mr. Pappas to passion by his persistent attacks yesterday. He was more than that to disturb the Minister of Public Works. Gallant John Smith. (Toronto Star.) John Smith, M. P. P., will not run again for Peel County. Seventy-seven years old and having been a member of the House since the latest defender of woman suffrage in the Legislature. Why Whitney's Uncandor? (A. G. MacKay, M. P. P.) With reference to the C. N. R. guarantee, the Premier, in response to information called for, assured the House that, taking into consideration the former guarantee, the interests of the Province that the subsequent guarantee, with its securities, should be given. In looking afterwards into the act of 1904, which secures the original guarantee, I find there is a mortgage on the whole line of the then railway, including station houses, etc. In view of this, I confess the Premier's assurance was somewhat strong indeed. The credit for Government legislation goes to the Government; the discredit they would willingly visit on the Opposition, no matter how little is the opportunity given to understand the merits or demerits of the measure.

Jackal Organship. (Ottawa Free Press.) "All my time, my money and my newspaper can do will be done to achieve the election of Messrs. Frupp and Champagne," is a remark the proprietor of the Ottawa Journal is reported to have made at a Conservative meeting the other night. Thus endeth the much-vaunted independence of the Ottawa Journal. Lately the public has got on to the "curves" of our contemporary, but it has for long years been trading under false pretences.

Would Play the Same Game Again. (Halifax Recorder.) Abuse, varying in character from the tame, half-timid accusations of Mr. R. L. Borden, to the defamatory billingsgate of Mr. Bennett, has been the only weapon which Toryism has wielded since the righteous indignation of an outraged public hurled the party from power in 1896. Certainly their campaign of abuse and innuendo, and the hypocritical character of the defamers, Hon. Alexander MacKenzie, a man of spotless integrity of character, economized in public expenditure in order to tide over the disastrous period during which this country suffered from a depression affecting the cry against him that he was hoarding the country's money, and largely helping to produce the hard times. "Put us in office," they cried, "and we will give the cash to freely circulate and relieve the distress." And the relief the Scotsman was literally lied and scandalized out of office, to be succeeded by a gang who added scores of millions to the national debt in less than a generation. Now the same lot, the Tories, are again making a free Laurier administration because of a free trade expenditure which is not added to the debt of the country. But—why talk of consistency in connection with a pack of place-hungry wolves?

Trouble Over Tupper. (Vancouver Saturday Sun.) You have seen consternation suddenly seize a flock of barnyard fowl for no apparent reason? There will be a startled "cha tuck, tuck" from the big red rooster, followed by a long drawn out warning note; chickens scurry beneath the protesting wings of the clucking hen, while the general cackle and ructions all round. The uninitiated observer seeks vainly for an explanation, but the farmer's boy knows it means "hawk."

The general public is wondering what all the clucking and cackling in the Tory camp in Vancouver means just now. The insider knows it is the shadow of the Tupper hawk which has alarmed the chickens and geese of the Tory yard and thrown it into confusion. Over in Victoria the ambition bug is working overtime. As the prospect of a Federal election draws near Premier McBride is said to be growing restive in the confined and cramped atmosphere of Provincial politics. A cabinet position in Ottawa is supposed to have greater allurements for him than the Premiership of British Columbia. The Premier, it could be effected, would leave the Premiership open to Attorney-General Bowers, who controls the party machine in Vancouver. So the word has gone forth to the faithful in this city. But as the shadow of the Tupper hawk up the chimney of the Ottawa power portfolio dim for Premier McBride, Tupper would go to Ottawa only as a Cabinet possibility and British Columbia could not command two portfolios, so there you are.

SUNDAY SALES.

Decision of High Court of Ontario by Mr. Justice Clute.

To the Editor of the Times: Sir,—Readers will remember that about a year ago Judge Morson, the junior of the three county judges of York, Ontario, reversed a conviction by Magistrate Kingsford against John Devins, a restaurant keeper, for selling on Sunday candies, peanuts and other eatable articles to be carried off the premises. It was pointed out to the public at the time that this judgment was going to result in an immense increase in Sunday business, inasmuch as it implied, if it did not declare, that any man holding a restaurant license, and doing a restaurant business, might also carry on a confectionery business, a fruit business, a grocery business, and a business in all sorts of eatable articles, and could sell freely any or all classes of these things on Sunday, over the counter, to be carried away and used as the purchaser might desire. It was evident that large numbers of shop keepers and their employees were going to be deprived of their Sunday rest and other privileges if this interpretation of the law were to remain unchallenged. The matter was therefore brought to the attention of the Attorney-General of Ontario, the Honorable J. J. Foy, and, recognizing the serious import of the judgment, he requested Magistrate Kingsford to grant a "stated case," and requested County Crown-Attorney H. L. Drayton, K.C., to take charge of the case in its preparation, and in its argument before the High Court. The case was duly granted and came before Mr. Justice Clute of the High Court on Friday, 10th April. The case was known as "The King vs. Weatheral." Weatheral held a restaurant license and did business at Toronto Island, selling refreshments of various kinds, and among other things he sold on Sunday, 9th June, 1907, "candies, popcorn, peanuts and soft drinks." The questions submitted to the court were as follows: 1. "Does the mere fact that Weatheral holds a restaurant license empower him to sell on Sunday, candies, popcorn, peanuts and soft drinks, notwithstanding the statute (Lord's Day Act)?" To this question Mr. Justice Clute replied "No." Unlike some judgments this does not lack in clearness. "Can a bona fide restaurant keeper sell candies, popcorn, peanuts or other commodities not in connection with any meals served on the premises, but done up so as to be taken away by the purchaser on the 'Lord's Day'?" To this question Mr. Justice Clute replied "No." Unlike some judgments this does not lack in clearness. "Can a bona fide restaurant keeper sell candies, popcorn, peanuts or other commodities not in connection with any meals served on the premises, but done up so as to be taken away by the purchaser, taking this to be the meaning of the question, I answer again 'No.'"

WISE WORDS TO SOLDIERS.

Fine Address by Archdeacon Forneret to Thirteenth.

An ideal Sunday brought out the largest parade of the 13th Regiment for a Sunday service in the history of the regiment. The turnout was so large that it could not be accommodated in the All Saints' Church, yesterday morning. It was indeed a pretty and fascinating scene to watch the scarlet coats of the regiment and the soldierly bearing of the men as they walked on their way to the church, and the march down Main street on the return was just as imposing. Owing to the increased strength of the companies the regiment had to march in column of half companies, which gave it the appearance of an extraordinary parade. Many of the men had to appear in the khaki uniform, there being a shortage of the scarlet tunics. This did not detract from the splendid appearance, however, and Col. Moore expressed himself as delighted with the turnout of the men, when the regiment returned to the Drill Hall. Archdeacon Forneret, the chaplain, gave a forceful and inspiring sermon and his remarks were listened to with rapt attention. He chose as his text, Hebrew xii, 28, "Serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear." The Archdeacon said it gave him great pleasure to have the privilege of once more addressing the Thirteenth. He took as an object lesson the beautiful ceremonial of the "Trooping of the Color," and asked if this was just a mere ceremonial. He considered there was a lesson to be learned from it. It has always inspired loyalty and reverence in the hearts of men. Reverence to the flag was not as important as the reverence that all should pay to God. What is reverence? It is respectful awe, loyal and wholesome fear. Everyone ought to pay reverence to God, for all the mercies. He has shown, God is a spirit and we should worship in spirit and in truth. Jesus Christ is the true expression and arch-conception of God. Archdeacon Forneret called upon the men to reverence God's holy name. Reverence is the attitude of one's mind toward God, which might be destroyed by immoral thoughts. It is a disgraceful thing to hear the way men of the present time take the name of God in vain, and shows a horrible familiarity that should not exist for one moment. Men should shun this temptation, and reverence the name of God. There are many who are familiar with the name of God, who are not at all familiar with the house of God. "There are a good many men in this regiment," said the speaker, "who come

TO CHURCH ONLY ON PARADE, AND THEY DO NOT WORSHIP IN THE RIGHT SENSE.

What is more, they do not have the proper reverence for God's house. A good many do not come to church simply because they have no interest in it. They are practically godless men through no efforts of their own. Then again, some feel that their lives are inconsistent, and they would not be doing themselves justice by going to church. Yet they do not want to change their present mode of living. They would rather go on as they are, with a lust for worldly pleasure. There were some, declared the speaker, who stayed away from church because they were indifferent. It would not be said that they were immoral, but they were simply taken up with the affairs of this life, and cared for little else. They have wrong ideas as to what the church stands for, and are apt to look upon it as a place for entertainment. It is not for that purpose at all. It is and always will be for worship. The speaker called upon every man to reverence the Sabbath day, which was set apart by God for man. Many consider it a day of rest, of idleness, amusement and self-indulgence. These people miss the real purpose of Sunday. It was made for rest and worship. Reverence for God's Word—the Bible—was another point the speaker brought out. To read the Bible thoroughly, in the opinion of the speaker, would keep many a young man in the straight and narrow path. "Never sell your lips with anything that is in the nature of a joke or conundrum," said the Archdeacon, "that reflects on the sacredness of the Bible." "Also reverence your body," said the speaker. "It was given you that you might have the privilege of serving Him in this life, and as you use this body of yours, so will it count for or against you in the world that is to come." Archdeacon Forneret said he was proud of the high moral tone of the regiment, and hoped that it would be maintained in the years to come. The march to the Drill Hall was down Main street, and it was witnessed by thousands of people. At the Drill Hall Col. Moore expressed his entire satisfaction at the splendid turnout. The parade state was as follows: Lt. Col. Moore, Col. Hendrie, Col. Logie, Major Tidswell, Majors Mewburn and Ross, Capt. Donville (Adjutant), Major Herring (Paymaster), Col. Griffin and Capt. Carter (Surgeons); Major Lester (Quartermaster), Major Forneret (Chaplain), Staff-Sergeants 12, Buglers 46, Brass Band 55, Bearers 15, Signallers 4, A 66, B 62, C 60, D 52, E 52, F 44, G 47, H 54; total, 573.

COWS DYING FAST.

A Mysterious Disease Attacks Herd of Mr. Henry Boulton. Belleville, April 26.—Henry Boulton, a farmer living between here and Kingston, lost twenty fine milk cows in a very short time from some mysterious disease. The animals became paralyzed in the fore legs, after which the hind legs became affected. The Government inspector is investigating into the matter. Up to date Mr. Boulton has received no word as to the cause of the disease. Messrs. W. S. Brewster, South Brant, and James A. Ross, Monk, were nominated by the Conservatives for the Legislature on Saturday.

Keep Cascarets in your pocket. Take one as soon as you need it. It is old fashioned and wrong to take harsh doses of physic.

We all live unnaturally. Our food is too fine, too rich and too plentiful. We eat too little fruit, too few green vegetables. We don't exercise enough. The result is, our bowels get clogged; for Nature intended us to live in a different way. What shall we do? Shall we walk ten miles a day? Shall we diet ourselves? Shall we seek for more laxative, and less costive effect in our food? Or shall we take Cascarets? One way will serve just as well as the other. Cascarets are vegetable laxatives. Their action is as natural as the action of fruit, of coarse food or of exercise. They are gentle. They persuade the bowels—never drive them or irritate them. They are candy tablets, and the dose is one at a time—just as soon as you know that you need it. It is wrong to take harsh physic and to wait till you need a big dose. It is better to keep at your best, every hour of every day. And one Cascaret at a time is sufficient. That means to keep clean inside. Cascarets are candy tablets. They are sold by all druggists, but never in bulk. Be sure you get the genuine, with CCC on every tablet. The price is 50 cents, 25 cents and Ten Cents per Box.

WENTWORTH'S NEW MINISTER.

Rev. Mr. Quarrington Began His Duties Yesterday.

Rev. F. E. Howitt on Signs of the Times.

Former Hamilton Man at MacNab Presbyterian.

Rev. Walter Quarrington, the new pastor of Wentworth Street Baptist Church, entered upon his duties yesterday by preaching two thoughtful and inspiring sermons. In the morning, Mr. Quarrington selected his text from the 4th chapter of Colossians, 10th and 11th verses: "Aristarchus, my fellow-prisoner, saluteth you, and Marcus' sister's son to Barnabas (touching whom ye received commandments: if he come unto you, receive him); and Jesus, which is called Justus, who are of the circumcision. These only are my fellow-workers unto the kingdom of God, which have been a comfort unto me." These three men, Mr. Quarrington said, were Paul's intimate companions while in prison, and in writing a letter to the Colossians Paul mentions his three friends. He did not say much about them, but what he did say was meaningful. As these men had obtained the privilege from their own government to become prisoners (to be released when they wished to), and share the same burdens as Paul, and receive the same punishment as he did they were able to link themselves to him, and, by doing so, comfort him and he them. Jesus was called Justus, the greatest test to be applied to a Christian as to the genuineness of their religion, Mr. Quarrington said, is, are they pleasing to live with and do they prove a comfort to the home? The greatest test of life are they a comfort in the community? Apart from the home, the Christian should turn their attention to the church and in church life there should be perfect harmony, all serving together, if beneficial results are to be obtained.

Christians should be united in church life to do their duty, and prove a comfort to the home, and be to them, and Mr. Quarrington said he was confident he would find that the members of Wentworth Street Baptist Church would unite heart and hand in their efforts to support their pastor in their work in the furtherance of God's word.

In the evening Mr. Quarrington selected his text from Jeremiah: "Then I told them of the hand of my God which was good upon me; as also the King's words, which he had spoken unto me. And they said, let us rise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for this good work." The work the Christian is engaged in, that of spreading the gospel and bringing men the knowledge of the word as it is in Jesus Christ is God's work, and because it is His work it becomes the work of the true followers of Jesus Christ. God wants to mould and fashion men into an image of His Son, Jesus Christ. There is nothing which builds up such noble citizenship as the Christian, and the work of the kingdom of God, and if they would build up the nation they must build up the kingdom of God. There is nothing more needed in the kingdom of God than men and women to make the work of God prosper; men and women who shall rise up in the strength of God. It is for Christians to invest the talents God has given them, Mr. Quarrington said, to the best advantage, and although God does not expect as much from a man with one talent as from a man with five, He expects that the talents He has given will be used with beneficial results.

The reception to Mr. and Mrs. Quarrington will be held on next Thursday evening. Rev. Messrs. Sycamore, Triggerson, McDiarmid, Brown, Bracken, Wilson and Livingston have been invited.

Signs of the Times.

A large congregation attended St. George's Church last evening to hear Rev. F. E. Howitt preach an eloquent sermon on "Signs of the Times." The text was taken from Matthew xxiv, 24 and 25. He said there would be great manifestations and signs in the world—manifestations that were unexplainable by which Satan would try to win the people from the Lord; manifestations so severe that they would arouse the elect; would astound them and tend to draw them away from the faith, if possible. Many of the people, he said, were indifferent, and to such the manifestations would appeal. The Lord had warned them, but they would not listen, and would be drawn away, and they would help to draw others away. Multitudes would be led aside by manifestations, and if possible would deceive the elect. Satan would work great lying miracles to draw away the Lord's followers. Satan, he says, tries to rule the world by imitation. He tries to imitate God, and by his imitations bring about the downfall of man. Those manifestations will grow more pronounced as the world draws to a close. Every religion has followers; it is one of the signs of the times that some will believe in any absurd new religion. For example he took the Holy Dreamers out west, who believe in killing people, yet they have followers, although many of them have been arrested. If one watches the leaders of these new religions in many cases he will see that immorality is the basis of their teachings, to make sin appear good and satisfy the natural desires of a natural man—the finding of affinities and such.

The Lord says in the last days Satan will muster all his forces and work miracles to deceive. Satan has changed his tactics. He was like a roaring lion, ruling by terror, horror and misrepresentation God. There is a spirit of intolerance at present. Materialism was at one time the bane of Christianity, but now the people want a miracle or something supernatural. Satan, instead of roaring like a lion, tries to appear as an angel of light, and try this method with many from true faith. Those signs will amaze them, and they will say, "Are these things of God?" New sects have sprung up, miracles of healing by touch, absent treatment, mesmerism, hypnotism and electricity have come. Although there might be an element of truth in some of these things, they were being used by Satan to deceive.

St. Andrew's Church. In the above church yesterday morning Rev. J. A. Wilson, B. A., preached an interesting sermon on Sunday observance. He chose for his text Nehemiah xiii, 17: "What evil thing is this that you do, and profane the Sabbath day?" The question contained in the text was called forth from Nehemiah by the fact that the Jews on their return to Jerusalem had neglected their religion, and were engaged in all forms of worldliness—money-making and business. They had given up the Lord's day to all sorts of worldliness. Nehemiah reproved them for this in the words of the text. The same question may be asked of us in Canada. We see a great deal that might make us wonder. He was pained to see in the papers of a number of men and boys who were found last Sunday playing craps. Often we see things in Monday's papers that make us blush and ask if Canada is really what it claims to be—a Christian country. When we know of the thousands who think more of pleasure on Sunday than of pleasing God, it is time for us to think. When we see factory wheels turning seven days a week, not for clean and proper purposes, but for mere money making greed, it is time to think. When we see the alleys strewn with empty whiskey bottles on Sunday mornings, it is time to think. When we see the newspapers speak of the bottle brigade being out on Saturday night and Sunday morning, it is time to ask why the people are breaking the Lord's day. Mr. Wilson then spoke of the institution of the Sabbath as a blessing to mankind, and referred to the good work of the Lord's Day Alliance.

Rev. Inkster Here. Rev. John Inkster, of London, and an old Hamilton boy occupied the pulpit in MacNab Street Presbyterian Church at both services yesterday. Large congregations turned out to honor him, and his sermons were listened to with interest. Not for clean and proper purposes, but for mere money making greed, it is time to think. When we see the alleys strewn with empty whiskey bottles on Sunday mornings, it is time to think. When we see the newspapers speak of the bottle brigade being out on Saturday night and Sunday morning, it is time to ask why the people are breaking the Lord's day. Mr. Wilson then spoke of the institution of the Sabbath as a blessing to mankind, and referred to the good work of the Lord's Day Alliance.

The choir, under the direction of Mr. Victor Hutchison, sang very acceptably at both services. This was Mr. Hutchison's first Sunday in the capacity of leader, and also for the quartette, Miss Tallman, Miss Horne, Mr. Peacock and Mr. Hutchison, and they are to be congratulated upon the success of their work. The congregation was delighted with the singing at both services.

St. John Anniversary.

The anniversary of St. John Presbyterian Church was celebrated yesterday. In the morning Rev. Dr. Milligan, of Toronto, preached an excellent sermon on Prayer. The church was filled to its utmost capacity and special music was provided for the occasion. Dr. Milligan's subject was based on the verse "Ask and ye shall receive." The spirit of prayer and the fruits of prayer were taken up by him one by one. He explained just exactly what prayer was and how it should be delivered to the Lord. It was something, he said, that was unending. As long as the earth lasted, so long should prayer last. It goes on without alteration, and has, since the days when Christ walked the earth, healing the sick, the halt and the blind by prayer. He spoke of the work of the apostles as the result of prayer, simple and earnest. Many there are who do not believe in prayer, he said, and many of them are godly and well living persons, but the Church of the Lord has chosen the right path and to it prayer is everlasting and so should it be. The choir and the quartette gave excellent music.

Close of Feast of Blossoms.

The Feast of Blossoms came to a very successful close on Saturday evening. It can be safely said that no entertainment of its kind has ever been put on in the city that has attracted more attention from the artistic public. The arrangement of the decorations was a dainty bit of artistic work that was commended by all who took advantage of the opportunity of seeing the exhibition. The Banners of the Empire are congratulating themselves on the splendid manner the public responded to the efforts put forth by them, and the financial results are sure to be satisfactory.

ST. GEORGE'S AT CATHEDRAL.

Annual Sermon Preached by Rev. Canon Cody.

Representatives of Other Benevolent Societies Present.

People of Canada Have Magnificent Opportunity.

The annual sermon to the sons of St. George was preached last evening by Rev. Canon Cody, of St. Paul's Church, Toronto, to a congregation that filled the whole church, many being compelled to stand.

Canon Cody preached a thoughtful and impressive sermon. What God will make of us, what He is to us, so shall we be, said Canon Cody. God is the Rock of Ages, the name that is applied to God has great implied thoughts. God is, and will be the same always while we are for the time being only what we are now. The aspect of God's character which most appeals to us is His strength; His power is immortal, eternal and everlasting. He instils strength into his followers and those who believe in Him as the strong man instils strength into the sick and the weak by merely associating himself with them. The greatest thing to be feared in this present time is the unequal social conditions. We have seen our best laid schemes and our fortunes fall as nought through the blunders of some one insignificant person, but it is and always has been so—the prophets of Israel say the same thing. The superficial is all that has changed in the world's make-up and that of its tenants. Underneath everything is the same, and requires the same attention that God and the Son gave to it when Christ was on the earth. The principal thing is not to be afraid of death, not to be afraid of life, but to hold them in awe. This is the way the true worshippers of God understand Him, they fear Him not, but they hold Him at awe.

Speaking of "smart men" Canon Cody said, God forbid that smart men shall become the ideals of the Canadian citizen. This would be the most terrible calamity of our civilization. Analyzing a smart man he said he meant by that term the man who makes the quick turn around the corner without preparing for what may be around the sharp bend for him to bump against, and those whose one thought is "money, to make and save money." The Rock of Ages-God is what is held out to all of us. Its shelter and impregnable security promise a safe haven for those who shall follow the Lord. The years may come and go, but we need have no alarm, we are in the shelter of the Rock of Ages and all that it implies is the protection of God. You men of St. George's have as your motto: "Faith in Salvation" and have a great future before you with that motto to guide you. There is an inspiration for every man who lives in Canada. You have a magnificent opportunity; let us have a high ambition to match it. Here we have honesty in justice, freedom in politics and righteousness in the land. Let us use conscientiousness or all shall be as naught. The sins of this country are not so much gross sins as they are the sins of inability and mismanagement, but there is for one thing to mar the splendid record, too much perjury in the law courts of Canada.

Special music was rendered by the choir. Rev. Canon Abbott conducted the services. Representatives of St. Andrew's Society, the I.P.B.S., the Sons of England and the Sons of Scotland joined in the service.

Britain's Storm.

Snow Eight Feet Deep and Traffic Disorganized. London, April 27.—A remarkable blizzard, the worst experienced in the south of England since 1881, continued practically all over the United Kingdom throughout Friday night and Saturday, until Saturday midnight. It was accompanied by a violent northerly gale and a low temperature, and in many places the snow drifts are eight feet deep. Railway traffic has been seriously delayed and telegraph and telephone systems are completely disorganized. Trains and cars and motor cars have been snowed up in every section of the country. Many of the outlying districts are isolated and some deaths from exposure are reported.

Enormous damage has been done, especially to the young fruit crops. London, where much snow has fallen during the past week, was bathed in sunshine yesterday though it is still very cold.

Killed His Sister.

In Struggle to Save Murderer Two Persons Killed. Fort Worth, Texas, April 27.—At Gilmore, Saturday night, Ben Holland a negro while intoxicated, shot and instantly killed his sister, Jennie Marble.

A crowd of several hundred negroes gathered and was preparing to lynch him when Constable Cumble, carrying a double barreled shot gun appeared and attempted to disperse the crowd. Instead of dispersing the mob closed in on the officer who clubbed his gun and started to fight his way out with his prisoner. In the struggle that ensued both barrels of the constable's gun were discharged, Joseph Mitchell and an unknown negro man being instantly killed.

Last of the Season.

As this will probably be the last week of roller skating at the Alexandra the management desires to let all patrons know, so as to give them an opportunity of having the last real good skate until next September, when the rink will again open for business. There will be a band in attendance on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings only, and these will be the only sessions, and these will be a large crowd at each one is looked for.

PETITION IS LARGELY SIGNED.

DUNDAS LIKELY TO GET ITS NEW HIGH SCHOOL.

Houses in Course of Erection Damaged by Storm—Sick Boy Rescued a Small Girl From Drowning.

(Special Despatch to the Times.)

Dundas, April 27.—This town seems to be assured of a new high school. Twice, chiefly on account of divisions of opinion as to site, by-laws to raise the necessary money by issuing debentures, have been defeated. A majority of the rate-payers, however, have now signed a petition asking the Town Council to provide the necessary funds, $16,000, without submitting a by-law, the building to be erected on the present site. A special meeting of the Council has been called for to-night to take up the petition, and for other business.

On Friday, afternoon the town was visited by a heavy wind and rain storm, which sprang up very suddenly. In a few minutes the gutters were flooded with water. The wind was a fierce one, but seems to have done but little damage, excepting to a new, good-sized frame house in course of erection by Jos. Rowe, on John street. The roof was completed and the siding on the west end up to within a foot or two of the roof. The gale moved the whole building to a slant of about three feet. It is thought that it can be put into an upright position again without tearing down.

When coming down the Greenville mountain into Dundas on Saturday morning, William Henderson, an ex-Councillor of West Flamboro, had the shafts of his buggy demolished by his horse stumbling and falling. The horse was badly scared about the front knees and on its neck.

A. W. Parmenter (Warren), at one time one of the town's well-known citizens, was in town on Friday, calling on some old-time friends. Mr. Parmenter has been living in Toronto, and notwithstanding his advanced years, is looking hale and hearty.

On Saturday came word from Albion, Pa., of the death of Joseph (Bunker) Boyle, and yesterday his sister, Mrs. Gould, left to look after his burial. The report is that his death is a sudden one.

Street watering will be gone on with this season, as usual, the requisite number of signatures having been secured, notwithstanding the refusal of a number owing to the unsatisfactory service last year.

The wife of Joseph Walker, of Bollock's Corners, died on Saturday and the burial took place to-day. The cause of death was consumption.

JUVENILE TEMPLARS.

At the weekly meeting of the International Juvenile Temple, held in the C. O. O. F. Hall on Saturday afternoon, the following officers were elected, after a keen competition for the ensuing term.

Nellie Morrison, Past Chief Templar. Dean Boniface, Chief Templar. Clara Beadford, Vice-Templar. Tom Macnaughton, 355 James Street north, Secretary-Treasurer.

Miss Daisy W. Madden, Assistant Secretary. Walter Seddon—Chaplain. Mabel Russell, Marshal. Nellie Rowan, Guard. Jeannie Wands, Sentinel. Lizzie Smith, Pianist.

The spirit of friendly rivalry which prevailed showed that the members were taking great interest in the working of the Temple. Prior to the election five new members were admitted. With Mrs. F. W. Ambrose and Mrs. C. A. Hardie as assistants to Mrs. D. B. Smith, the superintendent, a bright and prosperous term is looked for.

Domain land surveyors will get increased salaries.

THE EDUCATIONAL ADDRESS BY MEMBER FROM WEST

J. G. Turriff, of East Assiniboia, Exposes the Crew of Tory Slanderers Who Are Working at Ottawa.

Splendid Presentation of the Development of the West Under the Clean Administration of the Liberals.

Mr. Zimmerman Gives an Effective Address Dealing With Local Matters and With the Liberal Labor Legislation.

Hamilton Liberals are in great excitement for the approaching Dominion elections was again demonstrated on Saturday night under the auspices of the League and enthusiastic crowd gathered to hear a spirited address by Mr. Turriff, member for East Assiniboia, and to receive Adam Zimmerman, the province's popular member.

At the least the Dominion Government could do was to build the revetment wall for the great injustice that was done in the past. I am sure that in future generations that work will stand as a great monument to the man who conceived it. Mr. Eastwood, who would have shelved the act for another session. In less than a month after the act had passed, the first application for a settlement of a labor trouble came from Nova Scotia.

Mr. Zimmerman said, "This is unquestionably the greatest piece of legislation ever passed in the world for labor. The act became law, after two and a half months' sharp criticism by the Opposition. They even went so far as to move an adjournment of the House, which would have shelved the act for another session. In less than a month after the act had passed, the first application for a settlement of a labor trouble came from Nova Scotia."

The conditions then as contrasted with the remarkable West of to-day. It was possible now to go from Toronto to Winnipeg in a little over forty hours. When he landed in the West there was not a single foot of railway there. Winnipeg was then a village of less than 2,000 people. The Winnipeg of to-day required no description.

What Lemieux Act Has Done. Mr. Zimmerman defined the provisions of the act, which provided for the employees of any public utility, for thirty days, which gave the Department a chance to investigate the trouble. It was not a compulsory arbitration act; it was a compulsory conciliation act; the arbitrators brought in the award. After it was brought in, if it was not acceptable, the employers had a right to declare a lockout, or the men had a right to strike. Mr. Zimmerman referred to thirty important cases that had been settled under this act in the short time it had been in existence. The labor question was one of the most serious problems confronting the world to-day. The Lemieux Act, he believed, was a move in the right direction, as a solution of the difficulty. Mr. Zimmerman declared that he did not believe in compulsion in any shape or form. This did not interfere with the rights of men or employers. Every one of the large thirty concerns that had appealed under the act accepted the award. No such record had ever been shown in the world before. While there was an impression abroad that the act only applied to public utilities, any manufacturing concern could appeal to the Department to investigate the trouble.

From 1901 to 1906 the average loss of time through labor difficulties was 442,076 days. What a blessing it was to have an act on the statute books that appealed to right thinking men. It prevented all the misery and trouble involved in labor difficulties. Mr. Zimmerman spoke of the street railway strike here, which was accompanied with so much bitterness and hatred. Such a thing was bad for the community, and if there was any way out of trouble of that kind, the man who made it possible to avoid it was a noble man. After reciting to many instances of where the act had been used to settle a strike, Mr. Zimmerman said, "We have one of God's noble men at the head of the Labor Department in MacKenzie King. There is no man living to-day who has done more for the interests of the labor people of this country than MacKenzie King."

Mr. Zimmerman spoke of the principle emphasized by Abraham Lincoln. It was better to settle before you went to war than after. Perhaps no greater evidence of the worth of this piece of legislation could be had than the commendation it had received from eminent men. President Roosevelt was so deeply interested in it that he sent a special commissioner to go into the whole question, and Mr. Zimmerman was one of the men who near future the Act would become law in the United States. Then there was the opinion of Dr. Charles Elliott, of Harvard University, who had declared that it was a move in the right direction, to solve one of the most difficult questions before the world to-day. Mr. Zimmerman in closing his address said time would not permit him to speak in detail of the slanders being waged by the Conservatives, but if they could not produce better evidence than they had been able to do so far, they had not a leg to stand on.

Mr. Zimmerman was enthusiastically applauded as he resumed his seat.

The Man From the West. The enthusiasm of the crowd broke loose again when Mr. J. G. Turriff, member for East Assiniboia, rose to speak. As the applause died away Mr. Turriff said: "I wish first to express my heartfelt and cordial thanks to the Liberal Club of Hamilton for the honor it has done me to-night in asking me to give a short address. When Mr. Zimmerman asked me if I would come, I said, 'Are you not a little afraid to take me up there? I have been so pounded and abused, and so many veiled insinuations hurled at me, that they will be looking for hoofs and horns growing on me.' I was glad to come, though, for more than one reason. I am a Western man, although I have lived in Ottawa for ten years, and I have not had the opportunity to meet the people of Ontario. I think one of the best things a man can do, is to meet the people of other parts, to find out about the country they live in, and thus better to do their duty, as members of Parliament and representatives of the country."

There is another reason. I want to tell you that there is not one other single member in the House of Commons to-day who, if he asks anything of the boys, they will be more ready to do it than for Mr. Zimmerman. I want to congratulate Hamilton on having such a member as the member from West Hamilton. He does not take up as much time talking as the Opposition, or even some of the Government side, but there is not another member who works harder than does Mr. Zimmerman.

Government Labor Legislation. Mr. Zimmerman said he had intended speaking on the evolution of the Labor problem, but as time would not permit he only dealt with the various acts passed by the Government to settle labor disputes. First, there was the Labor Department, established at Ottawa, which abolished the sweat shop evil, insisting on every man who had a contract paying a fair wage pertaining to the locality in which he was doing the work. In three years 935 appeals had been made to the department. Those who failed to comply with the regulations either had their contracts cancelled. The Labor Gazette, a paper published by the Government, was another important step. It should go into the hands of every employer of workmen, because it was brimful of facts and conditions all over the country.

Mr. Zimmerman referred to the Conciliation Act of 1903 and the Railway Dispute Act of 1903 as important pieces of legislation credited to the Laurier Government. Touching on the Lord's Day Act, he said, "No act ever placed on the statute books is leaving to a higher plane, not so much in keeping the Lord's Day as to give every man, woman and child one day's rest in seven."

Dealing with the Lemieux Act of 1907, Mr. Zimmerman said, "This is unquestionably the greatest piece of legislation ever passed in the world for labor. The act became law, after two and a half months' sharp criticism by the Opposition. They even went so far as to move an adjournment of the House, which would have shelved the act for another session. In less than a month after the act had passed, the first application for a settlement of a labor trouble came from Nova Scotia."

As to increasing the salaries of the letter carriers and other civil servants Mr. Zimmerman thought this would be legitimate. With other members he had been urging to have the salaries of the post-office employees increased. It was believed, though, that it would be only just to treat all officials alike, and with that in view, a Royal Commission was appointed. The commission sat for a year and then brought in its report.

Mr. Zimmerman said, "I am afraid of my children's children would never see the job finished. (Laughter.) Within forty-eight hours after the great storm some months ago I had the Government engineer on the job to see what damage had been done and investigate the depth of the canal. While the damage to the piers was serious the matter of the depth of the water was more serious still. Even with high water there is only twelve feet of depth in the canal. I might say part of the contract for the pier was set to-day and the Government engineer will be ready to start work on Tuesday next in the canal, so that shipping will not be interfered with. I don't think it is necessary for the Speaker to advise me when to act."

Mr. Zimmerman said, "This is unquestionably the greatest piece of legislation ever passed in the world for labor. The act became law, after two and a half months' sharp criticism by the Opposition. you cannot bring from $50,000 to 300,000 people into the country without getting some undesirable. No sensible man will say that it is possible to comb all the bad ones out. While some may be suffering in the cities, I want to say that during the last year, I don't think it can be successfully contradicted, that there has been one day, that every man in the Dominion of Canada, could not have secured work, if he had gone to the right place to get it. But these men drift into the cities and will not go out on the farms. Time and again in Winnipeg I have seen them refuse $25 a month and board to go on a farm. That is the class of men we do not want. The Minister of Interior is alive to the fact and doing his utmost to so amend the Inspection Act as to give the department greater control. They are becoming more careful and particular every day. It is hoped to soon have the Inspection Act in such shape as to keep out the undesirable.

As It Affects Labor. Mr. Turriff said there seemed to be a mistaken impression, that the Government was bountiful all classes of immigration. This was not so. The only ones coming under this were farmers, farm laborers and female domestic servants, and in cases in the past, for a time railway navvies. It was impossible to get men to build the railways, Mr. Turriff said in his opinion, whatever it might be worth, that the biggest boom that could happen to the skilled artisan would be to get into Canada, all the common labor needed. Skilled labor did not find work in the bush or the prairie. It was first necessary to have a navy to build the railway, followed by skilled labor of all sorts to do the work of building up the towns, but you could not have that labor unless you had the common labor. "You can't get the English speaking man, who will use the pick and shovel to any extent," said Mr. Turriff, "out in the west they will not handle the pick and shovel for any length of time. We must have some one or we don't have the railways or the towns. What we want is an active immigration policy, to fill the country up to make the demand for skilled labor. That is my opinion. I don't know whether you agree with me. Many labor men hold the view that the fewer men you bring in the higher the wages will be. Ten years ago, 16,000 men were coming in. Was there a great demand for skilled labor? Was more money being paid in those days than when we are bringing in a quarter of a million? If in the city of Hamilton, Toronto or Montreal you are suffering from a certain amount of surplus of labor—I won't call it labor—suffering from a certain kind of men that will not labor, I will say that a great factor in the prosperity you have had, is to a large extent to the active immigration policy in filling the country up with people."

The Scandal Skeletons. Mr. Turriff then took up some of the scandal skeletons the Tory party has been rattling. He referred to a statement made by Thomas Wallace, the defeated Conservative candidate in the Centre Tory election. Wallace had talked of the Government squandering the coal lands of the people, giving them away to the Toronto Globe, Messrs. Cox and Jaffray.

Mr. Turriff said that statistics showed that the Tory administration there were four men for every home, instead of three men tried a home-stand before one could be prevailed upon to stay. There was land selling at Portage la Prairie to-day at $45 an acre that men had left. It was almost impossible to buy good land for less than $200 an acre, even since the depression, while the same land could be secured for from $25 to $4 an acre under the Tory rule. What had made the difference? The land was good then, and the sun shone just as brightly. To a large extent it was the active policy inaugurated by Clifford Sifton to put the people on the land and keep them there. The value of land was made by the demand for it. The present Government in its administration of the land laws satisfied the settler, and enabled him to live on the land contented and prosperous. To-day there were a dozen men ready to cancel every entry of the farmer who did not do his duty. In the last three years of Conservative rule 1,800 people had settled there, as compared with 35,000 under Liberal rule in the last three years. Mr. Turriff explained that he did not mean to say that everything good that happened was to be credited to the Liberal Government. "But," he said, "when the Liberals came into power they inaugurated the policy for the people of that country and are continuing it. To this in a large measure is due the prosperity that Canada has experienced."

While the transportation difficulties had been somewhat of a drawback, better facilities were assured this year. With the aid of dies, Mr. Turriff pictured the great growth in the wheat growing belt, and the possibilities in the future. In 1906 with eight and a half millions of acres under cultivation, a hundred million bushels of wheat were grown. The prospects were that in ten years there would be the time that manufacturers of Canada and Hamilton particularly, was forcibly impressed by the speaker. The price of wheat was likely to keep up, because the United States was more and more ceasing to be a factor, on account of the great growth of the population of the Republic. In a reasonably short time it would be consuming all its own wheat and ceasing to export.

The Immigration Question. Probably the most interesting portion of Mr. Turriff's address were his views on the immigration problem. In this question before, to an audience, where the labor element is so well represented as it is likely to be in the city of Hamilton, and while my views may not coincide with yours, I trust you will be as willing to allow me to have my views, as I am that you shall have yours," he said. "The first point I want to make is this: There has been much talk during the last six months, since the depression started, about immigration, and of the number of men brought into the country. I am willing to admit that there is some grounds for objections to some of the people coming into the country, but you cannot bring from $50,000 to 300,000 people into the country without getting some undesirable. No sensible man will say that it is possible to comb all the bad ones out. While some may be suffering in the cities, I want to say that during the last year, I don't think it can be successfully contradicted, that there has been one day, that every man in the Dominion of Canada, could not have secured work, if he had gone to the right place to get it. Was there a great demand for skilled labor? Was more money being paid in those days than when we are bringing in a quarter of a million? If in the city of Hamilton, Toronto or Montreal you are suffering from a certain amount of surplus of labor—I won't call it labor—suffering from a certain kind of men that will not labor, I will say that a great factor in the prosperity you have had, is to a large extent to the active immigration policy in filling the country up with people."

The Scandal Skeletons. Mr. Turriff then took up some of the scandal skeletons the Tory party has been rattling. He referred to a statement made by Thomas Wallace, the defeated Conservative candidate in the Centre Tory election. Wallace had talked of the Government squandering the coal lands of the people, giving them away to the Toronto Globe, Messrs. Cox and Jaffray.

Mr. Turriff said that statistics showed that the Tory administration there were four men for every home, instead of three men tried a home-stand before one could be prevailed upon to stay. There was land selling at Portage la Prairie to-day at $45 an acre that men had left. It was almost impossible to buy good land for less than $200 an acre, even since the depression, while the same land could be secured for from $25 to $4 an acre under the Tory rule. What had made the difference? The land was good then, and the sun shone just as brightly. To a large extent it was the active policy inaugurated by Clifford Sifton to put the people on the land and keep them there. The value of land was made by the demand for it. The present Government in its administration of the land laws satisfied the settler, and enabled him to live on the land contented and prosperous. To-day there were a dozen men ready to cancel every entry of the farmer who did not do his duty. In the last three years of Conservative rule 1,800 people had settled there, as compared with 35,000 under Liberal rule in the last three years. Mr. Turriff explained that he did not mean to say that everything good that happened was to be credited to the Liberal Government. "But," he said, "when the Liberals came into power they inaugurated the policy for the people of that country and are continuing it. To this in a large measure is due the prosperity that Canada has experienced."

MUSIC AND THE DRAMA

Henry Miller at last is to give local playgoers a treat toward which they have been looking for many months. The distinguished actor-manager will present Wm. Vaughan Moody's "The Great Divide," the long awaited great American play, as New York has pronounced it, at the Grand to-night.

Undoubtedly one of the greatest acts in vaudeville is the sketch "A Race for a Wife," which will be the headline attraction at Bennett's this week. In it two 110 horse power automobiles race on a treadmill platform across the stage for five minutes.

The announcement of the coming of the Dunsmore English Opera Company to the Grand on Tuesday next, in the celebrated comic opera, "The Barber of Seville," will be eagerly welcomed by the local theatre-goers.

Hamilton theatre-goers to-night will have their first taste of the vaudeville pot-pourri to be given at the Savoy this week, and the theatre will doubtless be filled to capacity.

was good, the singing being exceedingly pleasing. No local "gags" were introduced, and the work of the endmen was not up to the mark.

Brantford's New Theatre. Brantford, April 27.—The Finance Committee of the City Council last night decided on a fixed assessment of $6,000 for ten years on the new $30,000 theatre which will be erected here this summer.

TWO GEORGES TALK.

Primrose and Summers Tell of Incidents of Years Ago.

After the performance at the Grand on Saturday night, Mr. Geo. H. Summers, of the Summers Stock Co., entertained Mr. George Primrose, the minstrel, and a few friends at the Commercial Club.

Veromel Concert. Claude Cunningham, the celebrated baritone, who is to appear with Miss Veromel and Miss Hinkle in the Grand Opera House on the evening of Wednesday next, April 29, had a wonderful career.

CLAUDE CUNNINGHAM The Noted Baritone Who Will Sing at the Grand on Wednesday Evening

he was ten years old. At that age he became the soprano soloist of Trinity Episcopal Church in Columbus. Since then he has been singing professionally to the present day.

After spending a number of years in study abroad, he made his debut as an oratorio singer in the "Elijah" at the Crystal Palace, London, when still a very young man, and his success was instantaneous. He then sang in Europe and America in concert for several years and was chosen by Mme. Patti herself to accompany her as soloist on her last tour.

"Our Boys" Coming. It is an interesting story this comedy "Our Boys," which will be presented at the Grand on Friday next, by the Royal Alexandra English Players, who come direct from the beautiful Royal Alexandra Theatre, Toronto.

Small Houses for Primrose. George Primrose, the most famous minstrel in America, and one of the oldest burnt cork artists on the stage, played to poor business at the Grand on Saturday afternoon and evening.

FINE EDUCATIONAL ADDRESS.

should not be more than $2 a ton at the mines. The Government insisted upon having its piece of 30,000 acres of coal lands to give to the people of the country.

EXPLODES ANOTHER ONE.

Mr. Turriff said he had been accused of almost every crime on the calendar in connection with land matters. Whether this was because he was one of Mr. Sifton's officials—a friend and supporter of his—he did not know.

One of the alleged big scandals flaunted by the Opposition was the Saskatchewan Valley Land Co. deal. The Government since coming into power 12 years ago has sold two million acres of land, including 250,000 to the Saskatchewan Land Company.

The Government had given twenty million acres to the settlers and forty million acres to the railway, except for the right of way for the G. T. P., where the Government had not disposed of the land.

THE LAND VALLEY DEAL.

Mr. Turriff showed how under the Tory Government, E. B. Osler, the Conservative member for West Toronto, was given the land along the Saskatchewan valley, in 1891, for a railway that was operated for ten years, with two trains, and had only had three home-stand entries along the entire line.

The weather was comparatively clear in Southampton waters, but immediately the St. Paul turned into the Solent, which runs parallel to the Isle of Wight, she encountered a terrific snow blizzard.

Capt. Passow and his chief officer, with the American Line's regular pilot, were on the bridge, and a look-out man was posted in the bows.

The men of the cruiser gave a magnificent demonstration of discipline. At the captain's command they formed in line on the deck and stood in ranks while the cruiser settled down.

THE MUCK RAKERS.

"When you have to get down so low in politics as that, it is pretty low," said Mr. Turriff. He declared that the other charges in relation to the timber lands were equally as false.

In my opinion and in the opinion of many members of the House, although we once thought Mr. Ames a fair man, his one ambition seems to be to become the muck rake and scavenger of the Tory party, and he can come on now or at any time, and I am always ready for him," said Mr. Turriff.

PROF. CALDWELL GAVE INTERESTING LECTURE ON EDUCATION AND ETHICS.

Professor W. Caldwell, M. A., D. Sc., who lectured in Central Church on Friday evening gave an address in Centenary Church on Saturday evening on "Education and Ethics" before a fairly good audience, considering counter attractions.

WORLD OF SPORT

WHAT IS GOING ON NOW

WALSH BEAT HIS OWN MARK.

Coley and McQuaig Did Not Start on Saturday.

Toronto Ball Team Lost on Sunday—Jack Atkin Won Queen's County Handicap at Aqueeduct.

London, April 27.—The trial contest for the Marathon race in the Olympic games was won by Duncan, of the Salford Harriers, in 2 hours, 16 minutes, and 45 seconds Saturday.

Beale, of the Polytechnic Harriers, was second, time 2 hours and 17 minutes, and Lord, of the Wisbey Park Harriers, was third, time 2 hours, 18 minutes, and 4 seconds.

Duncan held the ten-mile and the four-mile championships. He was quite exhausted at the finish and had to be carried off the track.

This time beats Tom Longboat's record of 25 miles of 2 hours, 24 minutes, 24 seconds, by 7 minutes and 49 seconds, and is therefore phenomenal.

Longboat's chances for landing the big part of the Olympic prize do not look quite so rosy. Morrison's time in the Boston marathon was 2 hours, 25 minutes.

GRAND MENEDVY HSTVA Toronto, April 27.—With the approach of the Olympic trials there is a growing interest in amateur athletics in Toronto, and the Ammorios were crowded on Saturday night to witness the contests held under the auspices of the Toronto Garrison Athletic Association.

The runners and weight-throwers furnished excellent sport, but there were no sensational events. Con Walsh added another inch to the world's record for throwing a 56-lb. weight, but this has ceased to create surprise in athletic circles.

It would be more surprising if he failed to throw the weight several feet higher than any of his rivals. The big Irishman from Woodstock went up against three men, but the event soon ceased to be a contest. He threw the weight 15 feet 10 inches into the air, and as that was an inch higher than his last record, he decided to raise it to 16 feet. He failed in this attempt by a hair's-breadth.

The chief attraction of the evening was the three-mile race, but all the runners entered did not start. Tom Coley did an eighteen-mile run on Friday, in preparation for the Marathon, so he and McQuaig, the other Hamilton man, stayed out of the contest.

Early in the race, stollen fell behind, and it soon settled down to a fight between John Tait and Bredin Galbraith. For a while Harry Lawson kept close upon their heels, but before finishing the second mile they shook him off.

The race was a close one, and occasionally had a lead of several yards. In the last mile Tait increased his speed and when they reached the bell lap he passed the man from the Central Y.M.C.A. The final sprint proved to be a close one, and the fast West-End runner by about ten yards.

Tom Coley, who was to run Jack Tait in the three-mile handicap, gave, it is said, as an explanation for not starting in the race that he had run eighteen miles the day before, and was not in condition. He still claims he is not afraid of Tait.

Summary: 1,000 yards—1, Irving Parkes, West-end Y.M.C.A.; 2, Harry Smith, Central Y.M.C.A.; 3, Percy Selby, Garrison. Time, 2 mins. 25 secs.

One-mile regimental relay—1, 91st Highlanders, Hamilton; 2, Queen's Own Rifles. Time 3 minutes 59 3-5 seconds.

Two-mile walk—1, George Goulding, C.Y.M.C.A.; 2, Charles Skene, W.E.Y.M.C.A.; 3, W. R. Major, W.E.Y.M.C.A. Times 14 minutes 25 1-5 seconds.

60 yards hurdles—1, C. Bricker, West-end Y.M.C.A.; 2, W. Worthington, West-end Y.M.C.A.; 3, L. Kyle, West-end Y.M.C.A. Times, 7 4-5 secs.

Three-mile run—1, John L. Tait, West-end Y.M.C.A.; 2, Bredin Galbraith, Central Y.M.C.A.; 3, Harry Lawson, West-end Y.M.C.A. Times, 15 mins. 15 secs.

56-lb. weight, for height—1, Con Walsh, Woodstock A.A.; 2, Holmes, Police A.A. Height, 15 ft. 10 in.

12-lb. shot—1, John Bowser, T.C.A.C.; 2, H. Geddings, Central Y.M.C.A.; 3, A. D. W. Kay, Varsity. Distance, 43 ft. 11 1/2 in.

One-mile relay—West-end Y.M.C.A. beat Central Y.M.C.A. Winning team, Calvin, Bricker, Joseph White, Lou Sebert and Irving Parkes.

JACK ATKIN'S CARTER.

He Made the Mile at Aqueeduct in 1.39 Flat.

New York, April 27.—Jack Atkin, winner of the Carter Handicap, Saturday duplicated his victory by easily winning the Queen County Handicap at Aqueeduct, defeating a high class field of horses. Jack Atkin was quoted at 7 to 2 in the betting, and he ran the distance, one mile, 1.39, the fastest time of the meeting. Riflemen, who finished second, met with a lot of interference, losing considerable ground, but came away strong at the finish. Restigouche and Welbourne were both added starters, with the former favorite all through the betting at 2 to 1.

over the long course, resulted in an easy victory for the second choice, Rocket. There were only four starters in this race. Thistledeale and Economy ran from the Colt stable, while Jimmy Gill was added and coupled with Rocket as the Hampton stable.

SADDLE AND SULKY. Jockey Ben Rigby, who went to Europe some years ago, and had considerable success in France, is reported to have died recently in Russia.

Tom Healey is driving the old sulker and one-time good horse, Dolly Spanker, to a cart. The old fellow has taken kindly to this form of training, and Healey hopes to get him to the races a good horse later in the season.

Maurice Welch bought Prefix for $500 at Baltimore last week, and Dion Kerr has added Rio Grande to his stable. Mr. Kerr rode his new purchase in the gentlemen riders' flat race Saturday, and was second. Rio Grande will be schooled for steeplechasing.

Layers at the New York tracks have been asked by the Pinkertons to request the clerks to not transact business, such as balancing up their sheets and cash, in home-going race trains. This has been a regular custom for years, and has become a nuisance which should have been stopped long ago. If some of the layers and their clerks could also be gagged and shackled on the way home it would help some with that portion of the public that cannot escape their offensive talk and manners.

FOUL TIPS. The Union League, the new outlaw organization, opened its season on Saturday with Philadelphia beating Brooklyn 5 to 2.

Henry E. Vance, 18 years old, dropped dead Saturday at Hopedale, Mass., just after reaching third base on a three-base hit, while engaged in a ball game between the Bridge and Hopedale Grammar School teams. Physicians said that the boy died from dilation of the heart.

The White Sox, of the Western Amateur League, request all players to turn out to practise on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights this week at 6.30, in the big ring at the Exhibition grounds, as the league opens Saturday. The team will likely be chosen to-night.

The Young Baysides defeated the Tiger Cubs on Saturday by a score of 9 to 0.

The Ascension ball team defeated the St. Pats. at Catter's Field by a score of 13-10. The battery for winners: Herb Taylor and Medley.

TRAP SHOOTING. Beattie High Man at H. G. C. Shoot on Saturday.

The Hamilton Gun Club held a spoon shoot on Saturday afternoon. Four spoon events of 25 birds each were shot, and the spoon was won by the victor.

The winners were Messrs. Barnes, Hunter, Upton, and Dr. Wilson. The scores: Targets 10 25 25 25 25

COMMENT AND GOSSIP

Efforts are being made to organize an east-end lawn bowling club. With some view a meeting will be held in the board room of the Victoria Curling Club to-morrow evening.

There is a good green on the east side of the curling rink and several rinks could be laid out. All interested are invited to attend the meeting.

Toronto Globe: Hamilton is about ready. Brantford has made a good beginning, and St. Catharines is so situated that the lacrosse lower can burst into bloom whenever desired, but there is yet no fourth team in sight to make up the C.L.A. senior series. Toronto offers no alluring prospect for another professional team when it already has two in the N.L.U.

During the fleet week in San Francisco there will be three important prize fights, and one battle will take place next Thursday night before the bluejeans arrive. The first fight is the 20-round battle between Champion Abe Attell and Brooklyn Tom Sullivan.

The other fights are Stanley Ketchell vs. Jack "Twin" Sullivan, 35 rounds, on the afternoon of May 9 at Cofirolli's Colma arena; Joe Grim vs. Al Kaufman, six rounds, on May 12, and Joe Gans vs. Boer Unholz, 20 rounds, Thursday night, May 14.

Ketchell is carded to whip Sullivan, but the fight will be one worth seeing. The Boer evidently reckons on the fact that Gans has gone back and may well take the short end in the betting because they think Joe has lost his deadly punch.

Toronto Mail: Hamilton wants the final Marathon race, and Messrs. R. B. Harris and Thos. Wright, of that city, interviewed President Stark, J. G. Merrick and Secretary Crow, of the C.A.A.U., here Saturday afternoon on the subject. The C.A.A.U. officials told the Hamilton people that Toronto had been selected by the general Olympic Committee for the race, and that they must get that committee to act if they wished for a change. It is likely, however, that the race will be taken from Toronto, as the C.A.A.U. officials believe it would detract from the interest in the final trials to be held here.

New York Telegram: Pitcher Mathewson's record in the two games against Brooklyn is little short of marvellous. In the first he struck out twelve men, and in the second eleven, a total of twenty-three for two games in succession, and very probably a feat that will not be equalled this year.

"Mike" Kelley, the Toronto manager, who witnessed the game, was as enthusiastic as the most rabid spectator over the work of the New York pitcher.

"He's a wonder," said Kelley, "nothing short of a king in the box."

Here is a touching little ode to the Merry Widow, which will be seen at Britannia Park ball games this spring: Hat. Widespread and flat. What Have they got Fixed in your frame? Beer. Sections of trees. Birds all aflame! Flowers. Wonderful bowers: Plants in the pot. What Have they put on this that: Gosh! What have they not? —Louisville Courier-Journal.

OPEN TO ALL THE BRITISH EMPIRE.

Canada Makes 67 Entries For "Daily Mail" Competition.

Four Hundred Teams Have Entered From All Parts—Valuable Cups and Other Prizes—One of the Greatest Events in the Shooting World.

One of the greatest rifle competitions in the world is the Daily Mail Empire Day contest. It is opened to Great Britain and all the British empire in celebration of Empire Day, and as the 24th comes on a Sunday this year the shooting may be done either on Saturday or Monday, the 23rd or 25th. The conditions provide that the contest will be divided into two sections:

(1) Open to rifle clubs in any part of the British empire outside the United Kingdom.

(2) Open to rifle clubs in the British Isles.

The Daily Mail offers a $500 cup, to be known as the Daily Mail Empire Challenge Cup, to the rifle club which makes the best score in the whole empire, this cup to be held for one year only, unless, of course, the same club should win it two years running. This imperial trophy is believed to be the largest silver cup ever manufactured.

Furthermore, the Daily Mail offers annually two $250 challenge cups to be won outright.

In several instances individual sections of the empire only require one or two more entries to bring them into this special prize list. These on April 15 were New Brunswick, Channel Islands, British East Africa, Malay and Straits Settlements, New Zealand, Tasmania, Transvaal.

The following is a list of the principal entries received up to April 2, in addition to the 100 entries from rifle clubs in the British Isles:

Table listing entries from various regions: Channel Islands (4), Malta (1), Canada (1), Alberta (7), British Columbia (11), Manitoba (14), New Brunswick (4), Nova Scotia (6), Ontario (10), Prince Edward Island (2), Quebec (7), Saskatchewan (6), Newfoundland (1), Bermuda (1), British West Indies (7), British Honduras (2), British Guiana (1), Egyptian Sudan (1), British East Africa and Uganda (3), South Africa (18), Cape Colony (18), Orange River Colony (2), Rhodesia (8), Transvaal (3), Zululand (2), India Burma and Ceylon (9), Straits Settlements (1), Federated Malay Straits (2), Hong Kong (1), Australia (32), New South Wales (14), Queensland (14), South Australia (9), Victoria (33), Western Australia (23), Tasmania (4), New Zealand (4), Fiji Islands (1), Ladies' rifles clubs (3).

The competition is fired under the following conditions: Ranges—200, 300 and 600 yards. Rounds—One sighting shot at each range. Seven scoring shots.

Position—Bisley positions: standing, kneeling or prone.

Team—Eight highest scores on day of the match to count as team. Any number of men from one unit may shoot.

All competitors to be bona fide members of the association under which they shoot, and Bisley rules for current year governing the conditions of the match.

HAMILTON TEAMS WON.

Printers and H. B. C. Bowlers Visited St. Catharines.

On Saturday afternoon two teams of bowlers representing the Printers and the Hamilton Bowling Club visited the St. Catharines B. C. and had a pleasant time. Both visiting teams were victorious. The Printers took three games straight. Following are the scores:

Table of bowling scores: Printers (Fitzgerald 174, 187, 151-512; Wareham 121, 138, 178-437; Robertson 182, 127, 162-471; Aitchison 154, 149, 165-468; Nelson 174, 188, 166-468). Total for Printers: 805, 809, 822-2436.

Hint to Secretaries

The Times is anxious to receive for publication reports of meetings of junior baseball, lacrosse and other athletic clubs, and secretaries are respectfully requested to send them in promptly, addressed to the sporting editor.

Correspondents are reminded that only one side of the paper should be written on.

As usual, the Times will supply score cards free to all secretaries of clubs. They may be secured by applying at the office.

OPEN TO ALL THE BRITISH EMPIRE.

Canada Makes 67 Entries For "Daily Mail" Competition.

Four Hundred Teams Have Entered From All Parts—Valuable Cups and Other Prizes—One of the Greatest Events in the Shooting World.

One of the greatest rifle competitions in the world is the Daily Mail Empire Day contest. It is opened to Great Britain and all the British empire in celebration of Empire Day, and as the 24th comes on a Sunday this year the shooting may be done either on Saturday or Monday, the 23rd or 25th. The conditions provide that the contest will be divided into two sections:

(1) Open to rifle clubs in any part of the British empire outside the United Kingdom.

(2) Open to rifle clubs in the British Isles.

The Daily Mail offers a $500 cup, to be known as the Daily Mail Empire Challenge Cup, to the rifle club which makes the best score in the whole empire, this cup to be held for one year only, unless, of course, the same club should win it two years running. This imperial trophy is believed to be the largest silver cup ever manufactured.

Furthermore, the Daily Mail offers annually two $250 challenge cups to be won outright.

In several instances individual sections of the empire only require one or two more entries to bring them into this special prize list. These on April 15 were New Brunswick, Channel Islands, British East Africa, Malay and Straits Settlements, New Zealand, Tasmania, Transvaal.

Position—Bisley positions: standing, kneeling or prone.

Team—Eight highest scores on day of the match to count as team. Any number of men from one unit may shoot.

TOY WARSHIPS.

In the old world the children of a great imperial and royal house turn naturally to the army or navy as a career from their very earliest years.

The chief personages on board this "warship" were Prince Edward of York—to give his commander his full title—and his younger brother, Prince Albert; and even the baby, Prince Henry, sometimes manifested a desire for a cruise.

But the little prince's training brig was far from being a toy in the strictest sense of the term. For Prince Edward will undoubtedly enter the navy, as his father did before him; and the good training brig, King Edward VII, was intended to initiate the youngster into life on board a real warship.
