The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

I'm not going to launch into a tirade against flirtations.

We hear a deal of talk nowadays against the promiscuous kissing of babies.

Why not make the ban broader and protect against promiscuous kissing in general?

Now don't be scared away by that, young folks.

I believe with all my heart that the woman who keeps her first kisses for the man she marries is going to find great happiness in being able to bring him that privilege, but the girl who has the exceptional fitness to keep to that ideal will do it anyway, and the other girls won't, no matter what anyone says, so I'm not going to talk about that.

The custom I'm protesting against is merely the promiscuous and meaningless use of the kiss as a casual greeting among members of my own sex.

This is an age of extravagance not only of money but of habits and manners.

Promiscuous kissing is one of these habits.

And a bad one, to my way of thinking at least.

A kiss seems to me like one way of saying "I love you," and I think it should be kept for the occasions and the people when and for whom it really does express such a state of mind, and not used as a sort of "Howdy do" to any friend whom you meet after a little period of separation.

"Oh, dear, I actually dread the going back to college for one thing," I heard a young girl say at the close of her Easter vacation.

"Why, what is that?" I inquired in wonderment. "I thought you could hardly wait to be back."

"Well, on most accounts I can't," she said, "only Miss Cameron, please don't think I'm silly, but I simply hate the first day because all the girls whom I know the least bit expect me to throw my arms about their necks and kiss them, and when I turn my cheek or hold out my hand they think I'm horrid and stuck up. And really I'm not the least bit stuck up and I'm really glad to see them, only I'd so much rather shake hands."

I assured her that far from thinking her silly I had great sympathy for her, having suffered in a similar fashion quite frequently.

These same effusive ladies doubtless are the kind of people who sign the most casual note: "With love," thereby making the expression meaningless and valueless when they use it to some one whom they really do love.

Maybe I'm a sentimentalist, but the name of the most beautiful thing on earth—love—and the seal of that most beautiful thing—a kiss—seem to me quite too sacred things to be put to such casual use.

And for that reason I have a special and very warm brand of admiration and respect for the kind of people who think a good American hand-shake enough of a greeting for any ordinary occasion and "Yours sincerely" enough of an ending for any ordinary note.

Ruth Cameron

Facts for Weak Women

Nine-tenths of all the sickness of women is due to some derangement or disease of the organs distinctly feminine. Such sickness can be cured—is cured every day by

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

It Makes Weak Women Strong. Sick Women Well.

It acts directly on the organs affected and is at the same time a general restorative tonic for the whole system. It cures female complaint right in the privacy of home. It makes unnecessary the disagreeable questioning, examinations and local treatment so universally insisted upon by doctors, and so abhorrent to every modest woman.

We shall not particularize here as to the symptoms of those peculiar affections incident to women, but those wanting full information as to their symptoms and means of positive cure are referred to the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser—1008 pages, newly revised and up-to-date Edition, sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only; or, in cloth binding for 50 stamps.

The Ugly Rhinoceros.

Flabby and Stumpy, Yet He is as Quick as a Flash—Noted for His Keen Scent—The Stupid Looking Brute Has a Nose That Makes Up for His Almost Useless Little Eyes—He can Wheel at Full Speed like a Polo Pony.

At first sight the African rhinoceros appears to be heavily handicapped by nature as regards his anatomy. His flabby, loutish body, short, stumpy legs, small, unblinking, piglike eyes and prehensile upper lip all combine to give him an air of stupid ineptitude. Yet let him once scent danger, and how quickly is this idea dispelled. If lying down at the time, he is on his legs and facing the cause of disturbance in a flash. If satisfied that the danger is real, he turns in a second and is galloping up wind at a pace that compares favourably with that of a good horse.

To avoid obstructions he can turn and wheel at full speed like a polo pony and is capable of keeping up the pace for miles. In a straight race between a rhinoceros and a horse over two miles of the average country in which the former is met with, consisting, as it usually does, of black cotton soil and ordinary veld; the rhino would be fully able to hold his own.

Being very sure footed, obstinate, cracks in the ground and small holes which would cause a horse to stumble, if not come to grief altogether, have no effect on him whatever, and he will gallop down one side of a khor and up the other, leaving loose stones and debris rattling, but without one false step.

His great physical defect is his sight, his eyes being of very little use to him, and the hunter may walk straight up to him in open country till within 100 yards and, without exercising very much care, can by stalking, should the ground be fairly favorable, easily get within twenty yards of him before firing, always provided the approach is made from the leeward side. Any advantage he may lose owing to his bad eyesight is fully made up to him by his sense of smell.

The phrase "a nose like a fox terrier" is often applied to keenness of scent. This should rather be "a nose like a rhinoceros." There is very little chance of getting on terms with him if the approach is made from windward.

If lying down, he almost invariably does so with his nose pointed down wind, consequently the hunter approaching, as he naturally should, from the leeward side, has only the quarry's defective sight and hearing to contend with.

In the daytime the rhino bird, or oxpecker (Buphaga africana), acts as a protection to him, sleeping and waking. There is a superstition among the natives that these small birds perform the duties of sentry. To a certain extent this is true. They are always flitting about and hanging on to him, feeding on the ticks with which he swarms, and on the approach of danger flutter about with little honking cries, which have the effect of rousing

Twitching of the Nerves

Wonderful cure brought about by DR. A. W. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

It is only by watching the symptoms of nervous exhaustion and applying restorative treatment that you can ever hope to ward off locomotor ataxia and paralysis.

Mrs. E. J. Vanderburgh, of Eastern Welland Ave., St. Catharines, Ont., states: "For twenty-one years I was badly afflicted with heart trouble, nervousness and cramps in the limbs, also twitching of the nerves and nervous headaches. I became weak, debilitated and emaciated. My condition was distressing and I was made worse through worry and loss of sleep.

"I tried a hundred remedies in vain. After having used half a dozen boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food my old troubles had entirely vanished, and I was enjoying better health than I had since girlhood."

Such cases as this prove the wonderful efficiency of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food. It cures in Nature's way by enriching the blood and for this reason enriching the blood and its benefits are lasting. 50 cts. a box, all dealers, or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Rheumatic Families

Inherit a Tendency to Disease.

Medical opinion confirms the view that rheumatism and gout are transmitted from one generation to the other.

Only by combating nerve and blood weaknesses can these be prevented. If they exist in the family, they develop quickly when the blood becomes impure or the nerves weak.

Mr. E. E. Hollister, St. John's, says: "Early in life I was occasionally troubled with aching pains in the back. Later my joints became stiff in bad weather, and lately gouty conditions.

"These troubles I knew were very common in my family. I can recall how stiffened up my grandfather was from enlargement of the joints.

"A specialist in New York told me that only by maintenance of the most vigorous conditions could these family predispositions be prevented. Because of his advice five years ago, when Ferrozone was first introduced into this colony, I began a systematic building up of my system. The New York specialist's opinion was justified in my case, and I presume it is generally true.

"Before six months had passed I had gotten rid of every vestige of rheumatism and my health too was visibly improved."

For rheumatism, gout and general bodily weakness there is no remedy like Ferrozone; try it, 50c. per box, six boxes for $2.50, all dealers or The Catarrozone Co., Kingston, Ont.

him and, if continued, cause him to rise up and look around.

It is almost impossible to calculate correctly what the action of a rhino will be on becoming aware of danger. No two of them seem to behave in the same way in similar circumstances.

On the whole, it is safe to say that if only disturbed he will retreat, but should he be actually annoyed and see his enemy he will retaliate and charge.

Serious loss and delay are often caused by a rhino charging a caravan. Yet this action is nearly always forced upon him and occurs through stupidity rather than premeditated malice. The head of a caravan, say, of 300 porters, extending over two or three miles of country, passes to windward of a rhino. He gets the scent and moves up wind and perhaps nears the centre of the caravan, when, being thoroughly alarmed, he turns off a little to strike the tail end.

Being now puzzled and seeing at last, as he thinks, the original cause of his annoyance, he charges straight through, on his way horning a load or two hastily cast aside by the porters on his approach. He then passes on to leeward of the caravan and, being at last delivered from the annoying scent, moves on into more peaceful territory. Yet a person who had not watched his progress from the start would think that he had come from a mile or more away with the deliberate intention of exterminating the caravan.

On the whole, it may be said that the disposition of the rhino is on a par with that of most animals and many human beings—they wish to be left alone, and unless worried they will not make trouble.—London Field.

BRONCHITIS

Cold, Coughs, Catarrh and Throat Trouble.

Every sufferer from coughs, colds, bronchitis, and all throat and chest ailments needs a soothing, healing medicine, which goes direct to the breathing organs in the chest and lungs, attacks the trouble at its source, disperses the germs of disease, and cures the ailment thoroughly. And this medicine is "Catarrozone."

The germ-killing balsamic vapor mixes with the breath, descends through the throat, down the bronchial tubes, and finally reaches the deepest air cells in the lungs. All parts, soothed with rich, pure, medicinal essences, whereas if a liquid or tablet remedy were used, the affected parts could not be reached, and the harm would result through benumbing the stomach with drugs.

"CATARRHOZONE"

A Breathable Direct Medicine

No medicine brings such prompt relief, exerts such an invigorating influence, or so thoroughly and speedily cures throat troubles as "Catarrozone." Doctors, hospitals, sanitarians—all say that for those who suffer from changeable weather, for those who are predisposed to catarrh, lung trouble, deafness, or bronchitis, no treatment is so indispensable as "Catarrozone."

For certain cure, for relief in an hour, use Catarrozone, the only direct, breathable medicine. Two months' treatment, guaranteed, price $1; smaller size, 50c.; at all druggists, or the Catarrozone Company, Kingston, Ont.

Have They a Lease of Life ?

If men's whole time is absorbed in their occupation that they cannot give a moment to better things in life,—to charity, to education, to civic duty,—it's not because they cannot find time for it, or they don't approve of it; it's simply because they are in the habit of saying: "there is plenty of time or we'll do it to-morrow. Ruberoid Roofing

Trade Mark Registered

Made in Canada

Beware the So-Called "Rubber Roofings"

There are countless substitutes for the genuine Ruleroid which are advertised as "rubber roofings." Beware of them. For rubber in a roofing would rot in a single summer. "Rubber roofing" is either a fraud, on its face, because it contains no rubber; or it is a roofing so poor as to be almost valueless. The genuine Ruberoid contains no rubber.

Ruberoid roofing is waterproof, like rubber. It is flexible, like rubber. But the resemblance ends there.

For, unlike rubber, it remains waterproof and flexible when exposed to the sun, the rain, the heat, the cold, the air.

Rubber rots after slight exposure. Ruberoid retains its life and durability under the severest weather conditions.

Rubber decomposes rapidly under the action of fumes and gases and acids, while Ruberoid resists them. Ruberoid roofing has, in fact, been used to line vats in which acids are kept.

Ruberoid contains no rubber. It contains no tar. It contains no asbestos. It is not an asphalt roofing.

Protection Against Fire

Ruberoid is almost protection against fire. Hot coals thrown on a Ruberoid roof will set fire neither to the roofing nor to the sheathing underneath.

Ruberoid is tasteless. It is odorless. It can be used on roofs from which drinking water is gathered.

And because of these wonderful properties there are to-day 300 or more substitutes to deceive you.

These substitutes have names which sound like Ruberoid. Before

RUBEROID

(Trade Mark Registered)

Be sure to look for this registered trade mark which is stamped every four feet on the under side of all genuine Ruberoid. This is your protection against substitutes which many dealers brazenly sell as Ruberoid. Ruberoid is usually sold by but one dealer in a town. We will tell you the name of your Ruberoid dealer when you send for our free book.

they are laid, they look like Ruberoid. But none of them can copy the vital element which gives to Ruberoid its properties. No other maker of roofing can use our exclusive processed Ruberoid gum.

This processed gum, too, is the basis of Ruberine cement which goes with every roll.

By means of Ruberine cement you can join the seams and edges of the roofing together, and make a one-piece roof—sealed against leaks—sealed against the weather.

Ruberoid can also be had in attractive colors, suitable for the finest residence. These colors, Red, Brown, Green, are not painted on the roofing—they are a part of it. They do not wear off or fade.

But before deciding on any roofing, for any purpose, please ask for our free book. This book is really a gold mine of practical roofing knowledge. It tells what we have learned in twenty years of tests, not only about ready roofings, but about shingles, tar, tin, iron and other roofings.

LAI D UP FIVE YEARS

Until Half a Bottle of Father Morrissey's Liniment Cured His Shoulder.

Mr. Jos. J. Roy, a prominent smith of Bathurst, N.B., July 16, 1909: "I cannot let this opportunity pass without letting you know what benefit I received from your Liniment. For five years I had a sore shoulder, which prevented me from working or from sleeping at night. I had tried everything possible and still could find no relief, until I was advised to try a bottle of your Liniment, which I purchased without delay. I only used one half of the bottle when I was completely cured, and now I feel as if I never had a sore shoulder. I would advise anyone suffering from Rheumatic pains to give your Liniment a trial, for I cannot praise it too highly."

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES DAN-DRUFF.

The Investment Trust Co., Ltd.

Announcement is made elsewhere in this issue of a public offering of $1,250,000 of the 7 per cent. cumulative preferred stock of the Canadian Cement & Milling Co., Ltd., which represents the consolidation recently put through by Mr. A. J. Nesbitt, of the Investment Trust Co. of Montreal, of eight of the larger flour mills of the Province of Ontario. The offering of preferred stock carries with it a bonus equal to 50 per cent. of the Common stock, which will mean that the subscriber will receive for every two shares of the preferred stock allotted to him, a bonus of one share of the Common stock.

The Companies that are included in the new consolidation have been in operation a great many years and in most instances have come right along from very small beginnings to the point where they were one and all, important factors in the trade which they were catering.

An interesting feature in connection with the offering, is that interests who have had an opportunity of looking into the business the various Companies are doing, have already taken up in firm subscriptions well over $800,000 of the preferred stock, and have asked that their allotment should be guaranteed to them. This will leave only 110,000 shares of $400,000 available for the public.

The capital of the new Company will consist of $2,000,000 of 7 per cent. cumulative preferred stock, of which only $1,250,000 will be issued now; of the authorized amount of $2,000,000 of Common stock, $1,250,000 will be issued, and of the total of $1,000,000 of 6 per cent. first mortgage bonds authorized, only $750,000 are being taken out at the present time. The majority of the men who have helped to make the various companies included in the consolidation, pre-eminently successful, will besides having a very substantial financial interest in the new company, be actively identified with it, either as directors or officials.

The Board of Directors is a very representative one, including as it does, Mr. J. P. Black, the Director of the Dominion Textile and Montreal Cotton Co.'s; Mr. J. D. Flavell, President of the Flavell Milling Co.; Mr. C. S. Wilcox, the President of the Hamilton Steel and Iron Co.; Mr. George Goldie, of the Goldie Milling Co.; Mr. J. W. McConnell, Director of the Quebec Railway, Light, Heat and Power Co., and the Canadian Power Co.; Mr. E. V. Tillson, President of the Tillsonburg Co., Ltd., and W. A. Strouger, Secretary of the Millers Association.

The large amount of additional capital that has been placed in the Treasury of the new Company, besides permitting the erection of a new mill and a line of elevators, will leave cash available for working capital of over $500,000. On its first full year of complete operations, leading officials estimate that the new Company based on its increased output and the savings to be effected by the consolidation, should show net earnings of approximately $200,000. This after providing for the payment of the 6 per cent. interest on the bonds would be equal to about 13 per cent. on the preferred stock, and after the payment of the 7 per cent. dividend on the preferred, would leave a surplus available of about 6 per cent. on the Common.

Pianos and Organs. Intending purchasers would do well to call and see our Stock before buying. Terms and prices to suit. CHESLEY WOODS, The White Piano & Organ Store.—mar26/10.

The Recital Last Night.

A large and fashionable audience, including His Excellency the Governor and Lady Williams and suite, greeted Mr. Mark Hambourg at the College Hall last evening. The coming of this world-famed artist to this city has been looked forward to with pleasurable anticipation, and last night's recital more than fulfilled the high expectations of our music-loving people. Mr. Hambourg opened his programme with the familiar "Toccata and Fugue in D Minor" by Bach, which we usually hear on the organ. The arrangement by Tausig adapts it to the capabilities of the piano, and the interpretation by Mr. Hambourg showed him to be a master of the piano as well as of the fugue. He evokes the sympathies of his audience at once, and held them with increasing tension to the close of the recital. The singing quality of his tone, especially in the softer passages, the delicacy of his touch, and the more than all, the appeal of the soul through the music, held his listeners in thrall. Their appreciation, hearty and sincere, was given to the conclusion of each number, while the absolute silence during the playing betokened their interest and enjoyment. In the "Fugue" it was interesting to note how the different voices, as they entered in subject or answer, were given with clearness and definiteness, the accompanying voices being subservient in tone and spirit to the leading voice. Beethoven's so-called "Moonlight Sonata" was the second number. The Adagio, so easy and yet so difficult to play well, was rendered with smoothness and great expression; the Scherzo was given with brightness and the Finale with brilliancy. The second part of the programme consisted of the "Polonaise in E Flat," which received most sympathetic treatment by Mr. Hambourg. The Nocturne in G Major was most beautifully interpreted, and the same may be said of the Study in E Flat Minor, and the Prelude in A Flat. These three showed the softer side of music and the audience was startled by the brilliant Study in G Flat and Prelude in E Flat Minor. The two latter, with the Polonaise in E Flat, were most effectively interpreted, and Mr. Hambourg had to reappraise again and again the audience's enthusiasm and prolonged plaudits of his delighted listeners. The Polonaise, with the last number of Part III. of the programme, appealed most strongly to the audience. Into the form with its Polish characteristics, the recitalist seemed to enter with all his soul, and as his fingers swept the keys and the audience's attention was attracted by the harmonies forth broadcast, as he massed chord upon chord, and with utter abandon, worked up the movement to a glorious climax, the enthusiasm of his audience could not be restrained, but burst forth into applause that made the hall ring again. Part three opened with the Study in G Flat, "The Waves," by Chopin, a piece whose technical difficulties did not appear because of its wonderful rendering, so smoothly, yet without effort, and with such a beautiful variety of the keyboard, Mr. Hambourg's "Volkslied" or "Folk-song" was a composition of simple and popular character, taking its relation to the music of the people in its title. It was a simple and received a most sympathetic rendition and appreciative applause. The closing number was an extract from the incidental music composed by Mendelssohn for "A Midsummer Night's Dream" and arranged by the composer for the piano. The pianist, the Abbe Franz Liszt, the portion selected was that which is now so well-known as Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," and this is itself tended to excite the interest of the audience as well as in the excellence of the rendition, was the most artistic that has been the good fortune of our citizens to enjoy. A word as to the personality of the virtuoso may be pardoned. Mr. Hambourg gave no exhibition of fireworks of piano-playing or of high artistic temperament. He came before his audience as a man of thoughtful and intellectual countenance, of modest, dignified bearing, of high artistic temperament. He appealed to the highest and noblest qualities of the persons before him, and that is why he brought forth from them the best they could give in intelligent and sympathetic appreciation. It was with pleasure the audience learned that Mr. Hambourg would give another recital on Wednesday evening, when, among the pieces, he would play Handel's "Hercules Blacksmith," and a movement from Chopin, which will include the celebrated "Marche Funebre." No doubt many of our citizens will take advantage of that occasion to hear the greatest artist in instrumentation that has ever visited us.

REPORT FOR SEASON, 1909.

Your officers desire to compliment the League on the completion of another year in our history, and to submit the following report for the past season.

Six of the seven clubs of 1908 entered for last year's contests, and the place made vacant by the retiring of the Saints was filled by a team of ex-pupils from St. Bonaventure's College. A well-fought series of games followed, and the termination of the fixtures showed the order to be: Stars, Collegians, B. I. S., St. Bonaventure's, Fellidians, T. A., and C. E. I. The championship for the year, with the accompanying cup and medals, thus went to the big prize-winners of the League, the Stars, who richly deserved the coveted position, their play all through being full of the determination which has always peculiarly characterized that club.

The champions of the season previous, the B. I. S., dropped to third place, while the Collegians landed second position honours. We congratulate the latter club on reaching this place, the highest it has yet attained. For a number of years the team has been deservedly noted for giving a good exhibition, but an undue share of the ill-luck of the game always attended it. We trust last season's success will serve as an inducement for renewed energy to be put in this club during the coming summer.

The Fellidians and C. E. I. moved towards the reverse end, and the Total Abstinence representatives transferred the spoons to the last mentioned Club. The new-comers, the St. Bonaventure's, made an excellent showing for their first year, and are to be congratulated upon the position reached, due mainly to very fine forward combination for a new Club.

The total receipts from the Championship Competition were $766.85, as compared with $1,020.10 for the year previous. In this connection, however, it is only fair to say that particularly unfavourable weather conditions prevailed on the nights of a number of the most important matches, so that games which otherwise would have yielded big gate-money only produced average receipts.

The Brigade Division contests were as spirited and interesting as ever,

S. S. "BEOTHIC"

Arrives With "Erik."

THEY HAVE $30,000 AND 7,000 RESPECTIVELY

At 10 o'clock last night the S. S. Beothic, Capt. Joe Barbour, and the Erik, Capt. Job Kean, arrived, the former ship towing the latter. As yesterday the Erik has a broken shaft, the ship met with the mishap on Thursday last, the 21st inst., and Friday night the Beothic sighted her. The weather was fine and calm and the Beothic made an average of 9 knots.

The accident to the Erik occurred about 70 miles off Indian Harbour on the Labrador coast, where the ship had gone in search of old seals. It was while butting through the floe to get to a pan of seals that the shaft broke. It was a fortunate thing that the Beothic appeared on the scene for otherwise the ship might have been disabled and the crew would have been in a perilous position. The Erik has on board round 27,000 seals, young and old, equalling in weight 9,000.

The Beothic was with the other ships of the "Venture" fleet when the big patch of seals was struck on the 18th, and cleaned up 27,000 before the seals were all up after this Capt. Barbour who is considered to be the best hunter of old seals, of all the commanders, determined to fill up if possible with old seals. He had his seals iced down, and started in pursuit of the old hoods. The ship forced her way down below the Round Hill islands on the Labrador coast. They saw plenty of old seals, but the ice was loose and the seals were too wary talking to the water before the ship could get within a "three ball shot" of them. Nevertheless Capt. Barbour did well, and secured 3,000 old ones. On the 21st several gunners were out and did very good work. Other steers were in the water, and it is thought will secure good fares if the weather continues fine.

The Beothic has the weight of about 35,000 seals, and Capt. Barbour is to be congratulated on his success this season. If similar weather to that which prevailed here yesterday obtained north of the ship she would kill a deal of seals. The Beothic did not see the Aurora but reports the Bloodhound for 6,300 old and young; Diana, 3,000 young, 2,000 old; Adventure, 6,000 young, 2,500; Ranger, 5,000 old and young, and the Neptune which was seen Monday week with the weight of 15,000.

MADE THE BLOOD RICH AND RED.

Miss Cynthia Hutchinson, Hancerville, B. C., writes: "My system was so completely run down that my friends as well as myself thought I could never get better. All medicines failed to help me. A trial of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food benefited me and at the end of a month people scarcely knew me I had improved so much. The blood was enriched, color improved, my flesh was added and I got strong and well."

SERGEANT CORBETT ILL.—Sergeant Corbett of the police station has been ill for some time and is at present unable to leave his home.

President interviewed several of the prominent football authorities on the subject of getting a team to pay us a visit. The result of his negotiations will be submitted at a later date. We thank the members of clubs generally for their hearty support on all occasions.

On behalf of the Officers,
 Respectfully submitted,
MARK CHAPLIN,
 President.
W. J. HIGGINS,
 Secretary.

Mrs. Tucker's Idea of the Candidates.

SHE WANTS THEM TO GET UP AND TALK.

Mrs. Tucker says we men are soft and easy. She says anyone can haul the wool over our eyes. The idea she says of men coming out for the Council and pawing off a lot of pastboard pictures of their phizognomies with a lot of soft talk underneath. She can't see the difference between the General Elections and the Municipal vote, for she believes that every candidate should get up and make the promises with their mouths. She says its a chance to get even with the man whom you don't like, for you can kick down the doors, and interrupt during the speech, and you can haul out hear, hear, when you should keep your trap closed. Mrs. Tucker says she delights in seeing candidates gobbling off two tumblers of water when they are thinking of what they're going to say next; and she takes great pleasure out of the chairman introducing the candidate, especially when the candidate is so well known to you, that he owes you an apology for wearing out your beaver hat at funerals. Oh, yes, the candidates are good value at election times and that's the only value you get for your money, so get it.

She says we ought to vote for the best man, never mind whether he is nice or not. Some one said a "nice man" is a good name for a fool. Nice men are fine at an outing, or to pick up your parcel when you drop it unintentionally, but Mrs. Tucker says they

Football League.

The annual meeting of the Nfld. Football League took place at the office of Mark Chaplin last night when the election of officers took place. Mr. J. P. Blackwood occupied the chair. The following officers were elected: Mr. Chaplin, President; E. M. Jackman, V.P.; W. J. Higgins, Secretary; C. Ellis, Treasurer; J. H. Jardine and J. P. Croft, Auditors. The St. John's Casual Football Club was admitted to the League. The T. A. team has withdrawn from the League. The question of bringing out a team from England will come up at next meeting. The rule in reference to players appearing in only one division of the League will be strictly enforced. All the clubs were represented at the meeting last night and it looks as if the season will be a prosperous one.

FOR THIRTY DAYS.—Const. Thos. Greene drove in from Long Pond yesterday afternoon with a prisoner who is to serve 30 days in the Penitentiary. He assaulted the proprietor of the "Tale" store recently and was sentenced by Mr. Furneaux, J.P.

Human Remains Found

During the past few days men excavating for the widening of Harvey Road have come across what they believed to be human bones, which they dug out of the earth at the southern end of the Parade Ground. Last evening the men who are laying the water main across Cabot Street while digging up the ground just west of Mr. Peter Saunders' property, discovered some bones a few feet under the earth, and later a curious boy discovered quite near the place where the bones were found a part of a coffin with more bones near it. The woodwork of the coffin was very rotten, and after they had dug around it a little, an ornament which had evidently capped a tombstone was unearthed. This represents a hand cut in freestone with the index finger pointing upwards. A part of an old sword was discovered, and Head Dawe who lives near took charge of these relics. Some years ago this section was all taken up by meadow land. There was never known to have been a cemetery there and there is much conjecture as to when the body was placed there and by whom.

Mr. John Coaker Out.

Mr. John Coaker, of Mullock St., was waited on last night by a number of influential citizens and was presented with a requisition largely signed asking him to become a candidate for the coming Municipal Election. Mr. Coaker, after thanking the deputation for the honour conferred on him, informed them that he was willing to accede to their request and would outline his policy in a few days through the columns of the Evening Telegram. Mr. Coaker is one of our leading citizens and by his strict attention to business and courteous manner has won the admiration of his fellow workers, hence their desire in asking him to become their representative at the City Board.

MILLS AT TILLSONBURG, LINDSAY, TORONTO, LONDON, MITCHELL, SEAFORTH, FERGUS, EMBRO, WOODSTOCK, AYR, GALT.

OBJECTS OF CONSOLIDATION.

The Canadian Cereal & Milling Co. was formed to acquire as going concerns the milling properties of the following companies: The Tillson Company, Tillsonburg; The Flavelle Milling Company, Ltd., Lindsay; P. McIntosh & Son, Toronto; Walter Thomson & Son, Ltd., London; Jas. Wilson & Son, Fergus; D. R. Ross & Son, Embro; Woodstock Cereal Company, Ltd., Woodstock; Goldie Milling Company, Ltd., Ayr.

All the properties are in good physical condition, and the Company at its inception will have the following output per twenty-four hour day: 2,350 bbls. oatmeal and rolled oats; 2,200 bbls. flour; 100 " split peas; 450 " rolled wheat; 155 " pot barley; 340 tons of feed; and a total elevator capacity of 700,000 bushels.

ESTIMATED EARNINGS.

Leading officials who have made an examination of the output of the different concerns estimate that the new company on its first year of complete operation, based on the increased output and the savings to be effected through consolidation, should show net earnings of approximately $200,000. After providing for the payment of 6 per cent. interest on the bonds, this would be equal to about 13 per cent. on the preferred stock, and after the payment of the 7 per cent. cumulative preferred dividend would leave a surplus of about 6 per cent. on the common stock. The economies of consolidation will result from the concentration of management, the standardizing of brands, the elimination of a large amount of freight charges.

COMPANY'S STRONG FINANCIAL POSITION.

The large amount of additional capital being placed in the treasury of the new company, besides permitting of the erection of a new mill and a line of elevators, will provide it with ample working capital of over $500,000.

Most of the men who have helped to make the companies included in the consolidation pre-eminently successful, besides retaining a very substantial financial interest in the new company, will be actively identified with it. Mr. J. D. Flavelle of the Flavelle Milling Co. will be President. Mr. George Goldie, of the Goldie Milling Co., Vice-President and Managing Director, with headquarters in Toronto.

CONTRACTS.

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 43 of the Companies' Act, Chapter 79, Revised Statutes of Canada, 1906, the following contracts are noted: Agreement between James Wilson & Sons and A. J. Nesbitt, dated March 10th, 1910; agreement between Woodstock Cereal Company, Limited, and A. J. Nesbitt, dated 10th March, 1910; agreement between D. R. Ross and A. J. Nesbitt, dated 10th March, 1910; agreement between the Tillson Company, Limited, and A. J. Nesbitt, dated 10th March, 1910; agreement between the Flavelle Milling Company, Limited, and A. J. Nesbitt, dated 10th March, 1910; agreement between P. McIntosh & Sons, Limited, and A. J. Nesbitt, dated 10th March, 1910; agreement between Walter Thompson & Sons, Limited, and A. J. Nesbitt and Canadian Cereal & Milling Company, Limited, dated 5th April, 1910.

Application will be made to have the securities of the Company listed on the Montreal and Toronto Stock Exchanges.

Prospectus and forms of application may be obtained from the Investment Trust Company and members of the Montreal and Toronto Stock Exchanges.

Application may be sent to

WHY PEARY ATTACKED COOK.

Special to Evening Telegram.
 NEW YORK, April 25.
 At a farewell luncheon tendered him at the Brooklyn Club today, Commander Robert E. Peary, who will sail for Europe to-morrow, took occasion to explain why he attacked the claim of Dr. Cook so strongly on his arrival from his polar trip. He said three weeks before I got back to civilization I had the fullest information of what had been done by another in the Arctic regions and when and where and what would be claimed by this man. The telegrams I sent which caused me to be criticised were sent deliberately and after full consideration. That was my position. I knew that a deliberate attempt was to be made to defraud the country, and as an officer of the U. S. navy, I felt that I must give warning in order that I might escape a charge of being an accessory to the crime. My position is still unchanged and will not be changed hereafter.

A half hour after its escape the dirigible dropped at Weilburg and was smashed to pieces.

 An Aerial Derby from London to Manchester is in prospect for Wednesday. Both Graham White who failed in his attempt last week and Louis Paulham, the Frenchman, who has arrived here, are planning to start for the $50,000 prize on that morning. M. White is confident that the repairs which he had to have made to his machine will be finished in time to permit him to ascend simultaneously with the Frenchman. The Frenchman contemplates a continuous flight though according to the rules of the contest, two stops are allowed. Both men will use Farman Biplanes. This prize is offered by the Daily Mail. The offer has been open several years, but has not yet been won.

Another Hambourg Recital Wednesday.

Mr. Mark Hambourg, whose marvellous artistry conquered the audience whose good fortune it was to hear him last night, has consented to give another recital at the Methodist College Hall on Wednesday evening. In order that everyone may have an opportunity to hear this marvelous master, fifteen rows of seats will be sold at 50 and 75 cent prices. The front rows will, of course, remain at the original price. An entire change of programme will be offered. Seats are now on sale at Hutton's Music Store.

Address to Electors.

Gentlemen,—I beg to announce that I have at the request of some hundreds of taxpayers of the city consented to allow myself to be put in nomination in the forthcoming Municipal Election.

I may say, gentlemen, that I am not rushing into this matter blindly. I have given it very serious thought and study, for the past six months and feel now that I consider myself second to none so far as knowing the wants and requirements of a long-suffering people is concerned.

The point, gentlemen, about the Municipality that I wish to impress upon you is that I will do my best, my very best, to give you more light, more information, as to the inner workings of that body.

The taxation, gentlemen, is another question that I have been carefully studying, and I feel that we are not getting full value in the way of improvements in proportion to the amount of taxes we are paying.

In connection with this appeal I might address my remarks as being mostly intended for the people of the Higher Grades, as they are the ones that have suffered for lack of improvements, as I may say, that I am one of them myself.

I particularly appeal to the people of the city generally.

Sincerely yours,
 JACOB BISHOP.

Atlantic Lodge, No. 1, I. O. O. F., St. John's, Nfld. April, 25, '10.

To Bro. E. G. Williams, Late Noble Grand of Atlantic Lodge, No. 1, I. O. O. F.

Dear Sir and Brother,

On receiving your intimation this evening that you are about to vacate the office of Noble Grand, we the officers and members of Atlantic Lodge (No. 1), were officially informed of your intended departure from Newfoundland, and take this opportunity of expressing our sincere regret on having to become separated from you.

The interest manifested by you in the responsible duties appertaining to the office of Noble Grand, has endeared you to us and gained the esteem and confidence of every Odd Fellow.

On behalf of the members of Atlantic Lodge, we beg to present to you a very slight token of their appreciation of the admirable and praiseworthy manner in which you have discharged the duties of the high and responsible position which you held.

Your high character, integrity and zeal have won for you the highest esteem of your brothers in Odd Fellowship so that you have reached the position—one that is not only a credit to yourself but to the Order to which you belong.

May you ever be animated by the pure principles of Odd Fellowship, and may the hand of Providence ever guide and direct you in your sojourn in a foreign land.

Wishing you health, happiness and prosperity, we are, on behalf of the members of Atlantic Lodge, No. 1, I. O. O. F.,

Fraternally yours,
 A. ERNEST WHITE, Vice-Grand.
 E. D. SPURRELL, Secretary.

Fads and Fashions.

Leghorn hats, faced with black velvet are shown in many smart and novel shapes.

Odd effects are gained in chiffon gowns by making them over a contrasting shade.

Many robe dresses are in evidence, with spots as big as a dollar forming the border.

"Indro" is a shanting of light weight and is very suitable for dressy summer frocks.

Brilliant satin or foulard linings replace those of self-color for coats and wraps.

Why Captain Strachan Was Nearly Dead

A few months ago you could have seen a man whose life was a life of misery, doubled up with pains in the back, painful stitches lying through him. He was given up as incurable. FIG PILLS cured him after three weeks' treatment. We guarantee you that FIG PILLS will cure you, or your money back. 25c. a box, at all drug stores.

Odd Fellows' Meeting.

The weekly session of the Oddfellows was held last evening. An account of the Lodge work at Grand Falls was given by the Noble Grand of Exploits Lodge, No. 2. Three candidates were installed. An address was presented to Bro. E. G. Williams, the N. G., who is leaving by the S. S. Florizel for the States. He was presented with a handsome pipe and an appropriate address.

Steel ornaments are very much used.

Contrasts of colour are again the thing.

Raffia is used for many smart shopping bags.

Rich embroidery is much in evidence this season.

Tussore and satin tailored costumes replace velvet.

The bib front is a distinctive feature of many dresses.

In foulards pin and polka dots and big color spots prevail.

White belts are worn with the most elegant lingerie gowns.

The dressy colored blouse is enjoying a revival this season.

Dots and rings are much employed in the new foulard designs.

The pretty fluffy jabots are prominent in the spring neckwear.

This is essentially a silk season with foulards to the front.

Tailor-made gowns of silk will be more in evidence than ever before.

On Louis XII. coats one sees three pocket flaps, one above the other.

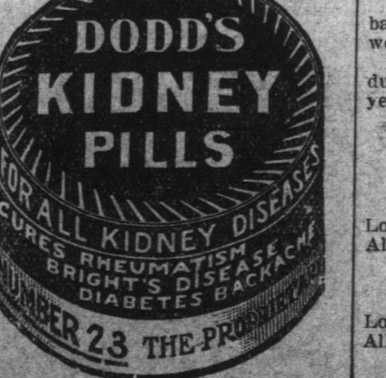

Taffeta has come back to us again, soft and supple, with a satiny sheen.

Peasant frocks of white linen are decidedly smart for the small daughter.

Everything in the way of changeable material will be much worn this season.

Mucha self trimming is used in bias bands, cordings, shirtings, and the like.

HOW CAN WE COUNTER-ACT

THE INCREASED COST OF LIVING?

A second's reasoning will supply the answer. Beef and pork are dear and getting dearer all the time, and the cost is out of proportion with their food value.

EAT MORE BREAD.

There is more nourishment in a shilling's worth of bread than a shilling's worth of beef or pork. But the problem is not done with yet. The shilling's worth of bread is not always the same value. Breadmade from contains more nourishment than any other, because it contains the greatest amount of gluten, the health-giving nutriment of wheat.
