The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

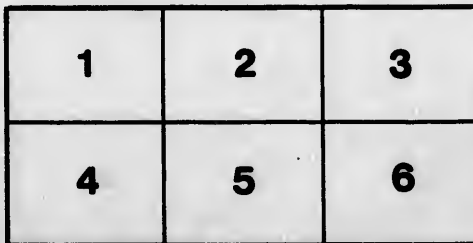

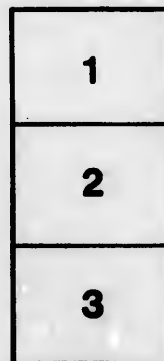

Anglican Church of Canada
General Synod Archives

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol  $\rightarrow$  (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol  $\nabla$  (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole  $\rightarrow$  signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole  $\nabla$  signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaires. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

PRAYERS

TO BE USED AT ALL MEETINGS OF THE SOCIETY, AND OF

Prevent us, O Lord, in all our doings with Thy most gracious favour, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works, begun, continued, and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy Holy Name, and finally, by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O merciful God, who has made all men, and hatest nothing that Thou hast made, nor wouldest the death of a sinner, but rather that he should be converted and live; Have mercy upon all Jews, Turks, Infidels, and Heretics, and take from them all ignorance, hardness of heart, and contempt of Thy Word; and so fetch them home, blessed Lord, to Thy flock, that they may be saved among the remnant of the true Israelites, and be one fold under one Shepherd. Prosper, O Lord, the labours of those Societies of the Church in the land of our Fathers, which Thou hast deigned to use in the promotion of this object, and which have nourished the Church in the Colonies: and bless in like manner with Thy Holy Spirit and Providential succour the Society in whose cause we are now met, and the undertakings which we have now in hand. "Prosper Thou the work of our hands upon us; O prosper Thou our handy work," for the sake, and through the merits of the same Thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

Our Father, which art in Heaven, Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation: But deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, For ever and ever. Amen.

CONSTITUTION

OF

The Church Society of the Diocese of Montreal.

INCORPORATED BY THE STATUTE OF CANADA, 14 AND 15 VICTORIA, CAP.
171, FOR PROMOTING THE FOLLOWING OBJECTS, VIZ:—

1st.—The encouragement and support of Missionaries and Clergymen of the United Church of England and Ireland, within the Diocese of Montreal, including the creation of funds towards the augmentation of the Stipends of poor Clergymen, and towards making a provision for those who may be incapacitated by age or infirmity, and for Widows and Orphans of the Clergy of the said Church in the said Diocese.

2nd.—The encouragement of Education, and the support of Day and Sunday Schools in the said Diocese, in conformity with the principles of the said Church.

3rd.—Granting assistance, where it may be necessary, to those who may be preparing for the Ministry of the Gospel of the said Church within the said Diocese.

4th.—Circulating in the said Diocese the Holy Scriptures, and such publications as have the sanction of the Church, viz:—Prayer Books, Homilies, Catechisms, Collects, and Canons, with the addition of Books, and Tracts circulated by the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, in London.

5th.—Obtaining and granting aid towards the erection, endowment and maintenance of Churches according to the establishment of the said Church in the said Diocese, the erection and maintenance of Parsonage-Houses, the setting apart of Burial Grounds and Church Yards, the endowment and support of Parsonages and Rectories according to the said establishment, and the management of all matters relating to such endowments.

His Excellency the Governor General, if a member of the Church of England, shall be requested to become the Patron of the Society.

The Lord Bishop of the Diocese of Montreal, shall be the President of the Society, and shall be "ex officio" Chairman of all meetings of the Society, and of all Committees thereof, at which he may be present. The Vice-Presidents shall consist of such Chairmen of the different District Associations of the Society as are hereinafter provided for, and such others as shall be nominated at the General Annual Meeting of the Society, from among its members.

BY-LAWS.

I.

The Corporation shall be composed and consist of the Lord Bishop of the Diocese, and other members appointed by the Charter, all Clergymen officiating in the Diocese, and of such other members of the Church of England as shall be elected into the Corporation at the General Meetings of the Society. The latter, however, shall not be eligible for election as members of the Corporation, unless they shall pay annually the sum of $5 to the Treasurer of the Society, or of any District Association of which they shall be members, or shall pay once for all the sum of £12 10s. to the Treasurer; in the latter case they become members for life, and in the former so long as they shall continue to pay the sum of $5 above specified. All such payments shall be made in advance for one year, from the 1st of January in each year.

II.

OFFICERS.

The Treasurer, the Secretary, the Auditors, and the necessary Officers of the Society shall be appointed by the Central Board.

The Secretary may be allowed a salary and travelling expenses under the direction of the Central Board. The Secretary may appoint an Assistant, subject to the approval of the Central Board, provided said appointment shall not entail any additional burden on the Society.

The appointment of the Treasurer and Secretary shall not be for any specified period, but they may be removed at the pleasure of the Central Board.

III.

TREASURER.

The Treasurer shall receive all subscriptions, donations, rents, issues and profits, payable to the Society, for which purpose a paid Collector or Collectors may be employed. Such monies shall be deposited in such Bank or Banks as shall from time to time be indicated or approved of by the Central Board.

No money shall be paid by the Treasurer without the authority of a resolution of the Central Board, certified by the Secretary, expressing the

The Treasurer shall also have the custody of all deeds, bonds, securities, and other documents relating to the property of the Society, (which, after registration, shall be deposited in one of the approved Banks, unless otherwise specially ordered by the Central Board,) and shall submit his accounts at the stated periodical Meetings of the Central Board.

IV.

SECRETARY.

Minutes of all Meetings of the Society shall be taken, and at each Meeting of the Society, the Minutes of the preceding Meeting shall be read by the Secretary, and signed by the Chairman.

The Secretary shall conduct the correspondence of the Society, take Minutes of the proceedings of the Meetings of the Central Board, and prepare the Annual Report of the Society, to be submitted to the Central Board.

V.

MEETINGS OF THE SOCIETY.

The Society shall meet annually at Montreal, on the third Tuesday in January, whereof not less than fifteen days' notice shall be given by the Secretary, in two of the leading City Newspapers, and elsewhere as may seem to him expedient. Special Meetings of the Society may be called at any time by the President, on his own authority, or in his absence from the Diocese, or in the event of a vacancy in the See, by any two of the Vice-Presidents and five other Members of the Society, by a written order to the Secretary, who shall notify the same in the manner hereinbefore provided in respect of the Annual Meetings.

VI.

THE CENTRAL BOARD.

There shall be a Central Board for the management of the general business of the Society, consisting of the President, the Vice-Presidents, and the other Officers of the Society, all officiating Clergymen of every Church, &c, or Chapel of the United Church of England and Ireland, and of such other persons, being Members of the Church of England, as shall be elected in the manner following :—

The subscribers of the Society in every Parish, Chapelry, or Mission shall send one Representative to the Central Board, and shall also send one additional Representative for every £20 in the city, and £10 in the country subscribed annually to the General Funds of the Society.

No Clergyman, or Representative shall be entitled to vote at the Central Board unless he shall have paid the annual subscription of $5.

It shall be the duty of the Secretary to give notice, on the 1st October in every year, to the different Parishes, &c., of the number of Representatives which they are entitled to elect for the ensuing year, and each Clergyman shall forward to the Society the names of the Representatives of his Parish, District, or Mission, some time before the 31st December.

The Board shall meet in the City of Montreal, on the 1st Wednesday of every month. Special Meetings may be called by the President, or in his absence from the Diocese, or in the event of a vacancy in the See, by two of the Vice-Presidents and four Members of the Board, by a written order to the Secretary. Not less than six Members present shall form a quorum. When a sufficient number of Members to form a quorum shall not assemble at any meeting duly summoned, the members present may adjourn to another day, and so on toties quoties until a quorum shall be found, and business may then be proceeded with.

The Central Board shall have authority to make such rules as may be necessary for the government of its own affairs, provided that none of them be contrary to, or inconsistent with, the spirit of the Constitution or By-laws of the Society. The Central Board shall report to the Annual Meeting a statement of its proceedings, and a detailed account of all monies received and expended during the preceding year, and no grant shall be made to any country Church or Mission situated within the limits of any District Association, unless the application be forwarded through the District Association in which such Church or Mission may be situated, nor unless the annual subscriptions for the current year shall have been paid to the Treasurer of the Society of the District Association.

VII.

PAROCHIAL AND DISTRICT ASSOCIATIONS.

In order more fully to carry out the objects of the Society, each rural Parish, Mission or Chapelry, in the person of its Clergyman, and all subscribers of 5s. per annum, and upwards, shall be an Association, in correspondence through its Chairman, (the Clergyman,) with the Central Board, and may be denominated the Parochial Committee of the Church Society, of whom five shall be a quorum. The Committee shall meet at such periods as they shall themselves decide to be most convenient, inviting the co-operation of all the parishioners in their deliberations and designs. They shall collect subscriptions and donations in such manner as they shall deem most effective, and endeavour by every means in their power to augment the resources of the Society. One-half of all monies collected must be transmitted to the Treasurer of the Society, the other half may be expended within the Parish, Mission or Chapelry for such objects only as are specified in the

And where three or more Clergymen may desire it, a District Rural Association may be formed, with the approbation of the President of the Society, the same to be composed of the Clergy resident within the bounds of the same, and all other Members of the Church, who shall contribute 5s. per annum, in aid of the Society's funds.

Any officiating Clergyman resident within the bounds may be elected by such District Association as Chairman, with whom shall be associated as composing a Committee of Management, the Clergy of the several Parishes or Missions within the bounds of such District, one or two Laymen from each of the same, a Secretary and Treasurer. A General Meeting of each District Rural Association shall be held in each year, at such time and place as may be agreed upon at a previous Quarterly Meeting of the Committee of Management, and Quarterly Meetings of the Committee of Management, not less than five to form a quorum, shall be held for the transaction of the business of the Association.

The Rural Parochial Association shall communicate to the Secretary of the Parent Society, a minute statement of the receipts and expenditure within the sphere of their operations, embodied in the form of a Report, at least one month before the General Meeting of the Church Society.

VIII.

LAY COMMITTEE.

A Lay Committee, consisting of not less than thirteen members, of whom the Treasurer shall be one, shall be chosen at the annual Meetings of the Society, from among the Members of the Society, of whom three shall be a quorum for the transaction of business.

The proceedings of the Lay Committee shall be reported monthly to the Central Board.

The clerical and other Members of the Central Board may attend at any of the General Meetings of the Committee, and may propose and discuss matters therein, but have no vote.

It shall be the duty of this Committee to recommend to the Central Board the best means of carrying out the following objects:—

First,—The securing to the Clergymen now resident and doing duty in the Diocese, a sufficient and permanent income, and providing, with the least possible delay, for the increase of their number, so as to meet the increasing exigency of the population.

Second,—The building, in every place where it may be required, a Church of brick or stone upon a well-considered plan, as to dimensions, external form and internal arrangement keeping in view the probability of its requiring enlargement.

Third.—The assisting of the different Parishes and Missions in the Diocese, in the erection of a residence for the Clergyman, by loan, to be repaid by instalments.

Fourth.—The procuring an adequate and permanent support for all the Institutions, Authorities, and Functionaries, suitable and appertaining to the Establishment of the Church of England in this Diocese.

Fifth.—The encouraging the formation of a Local Endowment Fund, at every station or place having a Church or Clergyman.

Sixth.—The management and superintendence of all lands belonging to the Society.

Seventh.—It shall also be the duty of the Lay Committee to investigate all applications for grants of money, and to report thereon to the Central Board. Every application for aid in the erection of a Church must contain the following information :

1. The precise situation, especially with reference to the nearest Church, and the amount of population within five miles of the Church.
2. The title of the ground on which the building is to be erected,—copies to be produced.
3. The size of the building, the number it is intended to accommodate, and the probable number of the congregation that will be likely to attend it.

The supposed cost of the building, the progress it has made towards completion at the time of application, and the amount of contributions on the spot in money or labour.

IX.

BOOK AND TRACT COMMITTEE.

At the Annual Meetings of the Society seven Members of the Society shall be chosen, to form a general Book and Tract Committee for the ensuing year.

X.

SERMONS.

Such Sermons as the Lord Bishop of the Diocese shall direct, shall be preached in each year in each Parish, Chapelry, and Missionary Station, on such days as the Bishop shall appoint, in favour of some one or more of the objects of the Society, and a collection made in aid thereof, which shall forthwith be transmitted to the Treasurer of the Society, and no grant or benefit from the Society shall be obtained for any object within any Parish, Chapelry, or Missionary Station within which such Sermon or Sermons shall not have been so preached, and such collections shall not have been made.

BY-LAWS.

No alteration or amendment in the Constitution or By-laws of the Society shall be made, unless the general nature of such alteration or amendment

At all Meetings of the Society, of the Central Board or of Committees, the Chairman, in case of an equality of votes, shall have a double or casting vote.

Whereas some Members of the Church, who are not unmindful of the great spiritual wants of their own neighbourhood, still feel constrained, in pious gratitude for the blessings they enjoy, to allot something, however small, from the means with which a Gracious Providence has blessed them, towards the spread of the Glorious Gospel among the nations which still sit in darkness; the Society will gladly receive and forward to the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, the Church Missionary Society, or the London Society for the Promoting Christianity among the Jews, whatever sums may be given for the conversion or instruction of the Heathen or the Jews.

THE CHURCH SOCIETY.

The Annual Meeting of this Society was held in the Union Sales' Room, on Tuesday Evening; the LORD BISHOP OF MONTREAL (Dr. FULFORD) in the Chair; the BISHOP OF NEW YORK being seated on HIS LORDSHIP'S right hand, and the HON. GEORGE MOFFATT on the left. The room was densely crowded, and many had to go away, who could not get admission. The proceedings were opened with the usual prayers.

His Lordship, the Bishop of the Diocese, on taking the chair, remarked that he was happy once more to meet the members and friends of the Society to celebrate another anniversary, and hoped so large a meeting was an earnest of still greater future progress in the good works undertaken by the Society. In these times, when their ears were every day pained by the recital of sad accidents elsewhere, and the tales of suffering and sorrow everywhere present around us, it was a privilege which should not be lightly esteemed to be enabled to participate in the efforts of the Society to promote its great object—the eternal welfare of their fellow-creatures. Last year they had to lament a falling off in the revenues of the Society, and during the course of this year, he had heard it spoken of as failing to accomplish the objects for which it was founded. He felt, however, that this was a mistaken view: he knew that it only wanted a greater, proper effort to be made in its behalf to secure it a satisfactory success. And now they found, at the end of the year, that the revenue had nearly doubled. But they would hear these details more fully in the Secretary's report, and the remarks of the gentlemen who were to address them. He would not detain them farther, but call upon the Secretary to read the Annual Report.

The Report having been read, the Rev. J. Scott moved the first resolution for the adoption of the Report:

“That the Report now read be adopted and printed, under the direction of the Secretary.”

He said: Aside from the gratifying fact that there appeared so large an increase in the sums collected for the different objects of the Society during the past year over those which preceded it, there was, he apprehended another cause for satisfaction which was even greater than that: it was the fact that there had evidently been a large increase of interest on the part of the laity. It was, he believed, owing to that mainly, if not altogether, that they were to attribute the improved condition of the funds of the Society. This appeared to him to be manifestly evident from the general report to which they had just had the pleasure of listening, and it was the truth, as he had experienced in his own Parish. As his Lordship was aware, the limits of his Parish had been very greatly reduced during the past year by taking from it a considerable part of a new mission, and yet what had been left to him had, through the increased interest of the laity, (which he thought was chiefly caused by the visits among them of the Rev. Mr. Bond) during the past year raised a larger sum for the Society than was raised by the whole the year before. And he had had one very gratifying instance of such awakening interest. A member of his congregation had recently presented to it a beautiful, harmonious, and sufficiently powerful organ, as a grateful acknowledgement of that Providential goodness which had attended him during a life of successful enterprise. Such examples of munificence, he was aware, were not unfrequently to be met with among the opulent inhabitants of a city, who were daily, and almost hourly, drilled into benevolence by the imperious demands of charity; but with them, in the country, they were rare, for the habit of giving had there as yet to be formed. But this beginning of such pious liberality would, he trusted, be hereafter more frequently followed for the same reason that the law was commanded to be proclaimed of old, viz: that the people may hear, and learn, and do. He begged to move the adoption of the Report.

The Ven. ARCHDEACON LOWER seconded the resolution. He felt that the Report required very little support from him, when, as his Lordship had announced, it shewed that the funds of the Society had nearly doubled in amount, and that in a year which he learned was one of unexampled depression in business circles. This was but another proof of a truth he had remarked elsewhere, that times of commercial disaster were not by any means the worst times in which to advocate the claims of God's Church. In the Old Country, he had been frequently asked, when urging such claims, how he could have the heart to ask for donations at such a time? But his conscience was always easy, as he knew none could do too much for the good cause, and he found it was in seasons of adversity that God opened the hearts of the people. He felt it would be unbecoming in him, a comparative stranger, to dwell at any length on the claims of the Society on their liberality--both in its missionary work, and in its home work of spreading the Gospel through the present missions--as no doubt they had been frequently and eloquently urged upon them before, by those who had been laboring among them as their pastors. But, if the Bishop would permit him, and they would bear with him, he would say a few words on the subject. First, then, they should bear in mind that it distributed the Scriptures among the people, and, although he was no very ardent advocate of the universal distribution of Bibles without the living voice of God's minister to preach the Gospel, and impress its importance on those who received it, yet, when they read of the great benefits conferred on, the great comfort derived by the inhabitants of many an humble isolated cottage home from the possession of a copy of God's Word, one could not but be convinced of the blessedness of such a work. If that Word were sent out by them, asking God's blessing on the work, they might expect great good to follow. Again, the Society gave aid to young men preparing for the Ministry. If they had to fear anything, it was the evil done by an ignorant and ill-informed Ministry. The good which the people derived from their ministrations depended in a great measure on their learning, ability, and the grace of God animating their hearts. This too, therefore, was a most important work deserving of hearty support. The Society was also engaged in sending out missionaries, in building churches, in purchasing glebes, and founding endowments. He might dwell on each of these objects, but he would refrain now. There was one thing which gave peculiar interest to their present position and the exertions they were now called upon to make. They had just lost their Clergy Reserves, from which they had heretofore derived some aid to their funds. He was not acquainted with local politics,—perhaps if he were better informed he would not say what he now felt constrained to say, that lands solemnly set apart for a Protestant Clergy had been wrested by degrees, piece by piece, from them by a series of measures which he could not but feel to have done a grievous wrong. They must feel a great injury had been done them. At all events, they were certain that they were poorer now than they were before that measure was passed, and greater exertions were required on the part of the members of the Church. He did not refer to this to awaken feelings of anger on a by-gone subject, but rather to show the necessity for increased effort. He had heard laymen say that they were not sorry the Reserves were gone, and when asked why, they had said, now the Clergy will have to appeal to the laity, and they will receive a generous response. Those who said this assumed a grave responsibility—they pledged themselves to do more than formerly for the support of the Church. In Montreal they were bound to give the Society the heartiest support. As the chief city in the Province, they should give freely and liberally, not for themselves, but for their poorer brethren in the country parishes. The wealth which had been in so great a measure centred here, with which God had blessed them, should flow forth to fertilize those less favored spots, where the people were yet poor. There was another consideration which to him was possessed of great force. There were many emigrants from the old country settled in those parts of the Diocese. To them the means of grace had been afforded without any direct demand on them for contribution. It was all furnished to them out of the reserves arising from taxation, to them appearing in a measure free. Now such persons coming to this country found they were not able to set foot within a church without paying for their sitting, and it took them some time to accustom themselves to these payments. Their first feeling would be to rebel against the exaction, and to them assistance would at first require to be extended. The Secretary had, in his report, very properly commended the Society to their contributions and their prayers. As a Minister of God, he might be allowed to dwell a little on this latter cause. They were very familiar with such expressions, as "Except the Lord build the house," &c.: they were repeated constantly in their ears. It was not for want of frequent or impressive repetition, but it was necessary to impress them profoundly with these great truths. All should pray for the Society in private, and in their family prayers also, and do it constantly. He remembered on one occasion, urging the duty of prayer on members of the Church for the success of the venerable Society for the Propagation of the Gospel. Among his hearers was a friend occupying a distinguished social position, and now holding a high diplomatic post. He was a man not easily moved by a passing emotion, but one who, when convinced, was prompt to act on his convictions. When passing an evening with him not long after—the servants and children were called in at an early hour, ere retiring for the night, for family prayers, and when he (the Archdeacon) officiated at his request, he was struck with the appearance of a manuscript prayer for the Propagation Society, recently written into the form used by his friend at his family devotions. If those then present would thus act on the many excellent hints thrown out on that occasion, how large would be the sums contributed, how great a blessing might be hoped to result from the prayers they would offer up?

The resolution being put from the Chair, was carried by acclamation.

The Right Rev. the Provisional Bishop of New York proposed the second resolution. He had great pleasure in doing so, although he would say frankly he had not come to Montreal to make speeches, but to warm himself by their fires, and to testify the great sense of gratitude he felt for their respected Bishop, who had come to New York and preached and taken part in the services of Consecration, by which the office and duties of the Episcopacy had been conferred on him. When, on the previous morning, a little after the peep of day, he had turned his face northward in the face of a keen, cold wind, and during a snow storm, he felt he was doing something heroic—something like attempting the north-west passage. But, if the undertaking had been still greater, he would have gladly come on such a mission, to shew his sympathy with the efforts of the Church in the Colonies, and in Great Britain herself, and his respect for his brethren around him, and especially for him who presided over their diocese and the meeting. It was something of itself to set foot again on the soil of Her Majesty's dominions—that Queen whom he had prayed for upon the sea and on the land, whom he hoped to pray for again—their Queen, God bless her! (applause.) He was about betraying a secret of his—the profound sympathy which he entertained for England in her gallant resistance of that despotic and barbaric power who had attempted to crush a weaker power, and acquire a dangerous supremacy in Europe. (Applause.) In speaking thus he did not act inconsistently with his antecedents. He was one of the Committee of the Convention (the highest legislative body of their Church in the United States) who introduced the English deputation into the lower House of that body at its last sitting, and Chairman of that which accompanied them to their ship when they departed. He was one of those who introduced delegates from Toronto to the floor of the Convention on that occasion, when was seen what had never been witnessed before—a clergyman from a British Colony speaking and taking part in the deliberations of that body as one of its members. "Coming events cast their shadows before;" and he had then remarked to one of that delegation that he hoped the time was not far distant when they would have a synod, not of Toronto alone, but of the whole Reformed Catholic Church throughout the world. (Applause.) Was it not, indeed, matter of congratulation that the Church in the Colonies and the United States looked up to the Mother Church of Britain as with them constituting but one body? Ought they not to feel the necessity for peace and harmony between the people of the two countries? and what better bond for it could they have? If the Churches are one the nations will be one also. If they wished to know the feelings of the people—the educated, influential classes in the United States—towards Britain, they must not look into the newspapers. (Laughter.) Ask any of those educated classes—ask the Ministers of God, and they would find a profound sympathy with England and respect for her. Those who read Shakspeare, and Milton, and Hooker, could not feel otherwise. How could he describe the feelings with which he had visited the humble Church of Hooker, and other places of interest in England! And his feelings were shared by all educated men in the United States,—a feeling which those born in England, or who frequently visited it, could not comprehend. England was to those who visited it like himself, classic ground. Surely, amid the many trials which beset them in this age, it was worth something to turn to what was encouraging. Look at the present condition of the Church in England as compared with what it was twenty years ago. It had lost a few individuals it was true—some of them men of talent, but it had built 2000 new churches; it had founded twenty new bishoprics; it had established training schools; it had done more, made greater progress than during any similar period since the reformation. It had gained infinitely more than it had lost; it had been quickened into new life, it now raised a more vigorous protest than ever against its great opponent—Rome. The colonies of Britain which encircled the globe, were all new fields, where its missionaries were at work—and talking of unity, the members of their church might take hands and form a girdle round the earth. He had felt this unity forcibly from the fact that one-half of his labors for these many years had been performed among people who seldom came within the four walls of the church. He had labored among the poorer classes who had emigrated from the British Isles to the United States, among them many members of their church. But a large proportion of those who thus needed and received succor were not of their communion, yet sternly as they opposed the claims and resisted the encroachments of the communion to which they belonged, they never refused to assist their poor. And while speaking of that church he might remark, (though not often indulging in any comments upon her conduct,) she had made an appeal to the primitive church—an appeal she had been making year after year, but on each occasion with a more flattering voice—and the decision of that church was against her. She must take back her appeal, or succumb to the truth and the growing intelligence of the world. There was something profoundly interesting in the present aspect of affairs throughout the world. Our race was going forth colonizing all parts of it, and wherever a colony was sent, their missionaries went with it, hand in hand. In olden times colonization was carried but short distances, now for thousands of miles. From the British Isles to both shores of this continent, and to Australia, China and India. From the Atlantic States to the Pacific and from China to California. There were now from 60,000 to 80,000 Chinese in California, and their former missionary to China had been sent among these emigrants as the most promising field for his labors. Two Christian nations were marching into the heart of Turkey as the allies of its people. Will it be possible for Mahometans to maintain longer their contempt and hatred of Christians? He believed not. He believed Christian teaching would be listened to in Mahometan homes. It seemed as if the old heathen world was about to be broken up and give way before the advancing tide of Christianity. One word before he sat down respecting their position in Canada. He sympathized with all that had been said by the Archdeacon about the injustice of recent legislation as he understood the matter. But if the difficulties to be overcome were great, they must only rouse themselves to make the greater effort. The "spirit more stirs to rouse a lion than to start a hare." The clergy were the stewards of God's mysteries, and it was required of a steward that he should be faithful. The laity were also stewards of the portion of this world's goods which God had given them, they must be faithful too. They lived but a little time on earth, and were so unfortunate as to do much evil. Each day they had to confess new sins to God. What a comfort for them when they laid down their head in the last sleep, if they were blessed with the remembrance that they had assisted to rear one temple to God, where long, long after they had passed away God's word would be preached, and His Sacraments administered by His servants,—or that they had furnished the means to send one of his Ministers forth to do these duties among the poor and ignorant, thereby in a measure preaching it themselves. What a pleasure must it be for those who spend so much on themselves to give something for such objects as those. Oh! that God would put it in their hearts to give bountifully out of that which He had entrusted to them.

HON. GEORGE MOFFATT seconded the resolution, which was unanimously carried.

"That this meeting desires to express its thankfulness for the continued maintenance of unity between the Church of England and the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and for the great extension of the Christian Church in every part of the world, through their increased missionary efforts."

REV. CANON GILSON moved the next resolution. It appealed at once to the feelings of all those present. Their presence there in such numbers showed how deep an interest they took in the welfare of the Society. He hoped in another year that interest would be still farther increased, and as they had been informed that the funds were doubled this year, he hoped they would be again doubled next year—that there would be a twofold sum in the treasury, and twofold gratitude in their hearts. Such a contribution would not be beyond the ability of churchmen, nor beyond the necessities of the case. Public meetings and sermons were excellent in their places, but they could not supply the place of united and systematic efforts, and individual exertions in each parish and family. In saying this he did not speak at random. For a very long time the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel had a triennial royal letter authorising sermons to be preached in every church on its behalf, and meetings were occasionally held in its favor. Nevertheless, its finances were languishing. A new plan of operation was adopted; systematic efforts were put forth. Each clergyman was invited to found a parochial society; collecting committees were appointed to canvass for subscriptions from door to door. Information was circulated through publications and at quarterly meetings. The funds rapidly increased. Prayers were offered up from many a christian family and many a christian heart. As an instance of the progress made, he would remark that in Stafford Deanery before the change the sum subscribed had been about £9 per annum. It had risen to £70 to £80 very shortly under the new system, and the year before he left the place he had sent in over £100. The year 1850 closed with much depression in commercial circles, and the friends of the Society feared a falling off in its revenue; but a larger number of parochial societies were formed in that year than in any previous, and there was an increase of £8000 in the subscriptions, no less than £5000 coming from parochial associations. They required some such systematic effort here. It was not for him to suggest the details of a new scheme of labor, but he might refer to one or two things. They should remember in all they did that the Church was one. The several congregations were not to be regarded as separate isolated bodies, but as parts of a great whole. They should labor for the good of the whole. They should feel themselves bound together in one fellowship, and this feeling should lie at the foundation of all their efforts. The next point he wished to refer to was that it was the duty of every person baptised into the Church to take a part in the labors and contribute his share to the promotion of the object of the Society, the extension of the Kingdom of Christ among men. There was one other principle he wished to insist upon, that their labors and their giving must be systematic; not that false system which limited contributions to a certain sum deemed respectable, like the now almost exploded guinea system of England, and the still too prevalent five dollar system of Canada—but one based on the rule of God's law that each should give in proportion to what had been given him, whether out of a princely revenue or the wages of a poor laborer. Let these principles be acted on, let them act as one body, let each take his share of the burden, and let their giving be systematic, and he was sure they might hope, as he had before said, to find a double amount in the treasury and double gratitude in their hearts at the end of the coming year.

FENNINGS TAYLOR, Esq., seconded the resolution. He said that the objects adverted to in the resolution had been so forcibly and eloquently stated by the Rev. Canon who had preceded him, that he did not feel himself called upon to allude to them further than to state his conviction, that the hour of the Church's greatest need, would be found to be the period of her members' greatest effort, for he was persuaded that none of her children, none whose brows had been bathed with the dew of her baptism, on whose foreheads had been crossed the ensignia of her soldiery, would be unmindful of their spiritual mother, in time of her trial, or prove recreant to themselves, their faith and their God. He was glad of the opportunity of adding his wishes to the prayer of the Right Rev. Prelate who had preceded him, that no cause should arise to disturb the harmony now existing between his country and ours. Let us glory in our separate traditions, and pursue without strife our distinct paths to futurity, for while each may revere the sovereign power of his own country, both should remember that they are the sons of the same church, and in this character they should pray that no root of bitterness should spring up along our borders, that the waters which separate our countries should bath no hostile shores, but that our hearts, like those waters, should ever mingle in peace. He thanked the Right Rev. Prelate for his allusion to the war now going on in the East, accompanied as it was by the expression of his sympathy with the allied forces. Perhaps it might not be a stretch of fancy to regard the British army in Turkey as a Missionary army, carrying with it the germs from which a pure Christianity would hereafter overspread the land, it would at all events consist with the purposes for which we are here assembled to breathe the prayer that when the shout of battle, and the shock of arms shall have subsided in peace, that then another and a better voice shall be heard in the homes of Islam, and another and a better influence shed over Mahometan countries than that which is now diffused by the waning light of the crescent—the voice of redemption and the light of Christ's Holy Church. He had been requested to state that a collection would be taken up, and to make an appeal to their charity. He had never done such a thing in his life, but he would tell them an anecdote which, as illustrating the pleasures conferred upon poor people in backwoods' settlements by sending missionaries among them, might induce them to give. A poor Irish family came to Canada and settled in the backwoods, where there was no Church within reach of them. They labored hard, and their riches and family increased together, until the latter increase was looked upon with some alarm, since there was no school to which they could send their children, no church where they could worship, no minister to console, no sacraments to comfort them; but at last themselves, with the nearest settlers, raised funds, with some aid from without, to rear a little Church, and get a Missionary to visit them. Among the gifts from the old Country was a bell, which was duly raised to its place. On the morning when the first service was to be held in their Church, the good wife was early astir, preparing her family for their attendance upon their new Sabbath duties. In the midst of her laudable occupation the sound of the bell was borne cheerily to their ears, bringing back reminiscences of the well-remembered times when she in her youth had worshipped in the old Church at home. Her heart overflowed with gratitude, and bursting into tears, she cried—"Come, husband, children, let us fall on our knees, and thank God that we hear the music of the old world in our new home."

The Resolution was then put and carried;

"That this meeting, grateful for the amount of improvement visible in the funds of the Society during the past year, wishes, nevertheless, to record its sense of the importance of some more systematic means being adopted for obtaining a complete list of Subscribers in every congregation, in order that the Society may possess the means of carrying on its several works more efficiently throughout this Diocese, and especially by providing funds for the payment of additional Missionaries in the more destitute settlements."

A collection having been taken up,

J. C. BAKER, Esq., proposed the next Resolution:—

"That the thanks of the meeting be given to the members of the Central Board, who have kindly assisted in carrying on the work of the Society, and to the Officers for their services during the past year."

Mr. BAKER said:—He was sure that no person could question the propriety of giving to the Officers of the Society and the Members of the Central Board the small reward of a vote of thanks for the zealous discharge of a laborious duty, and it would perhaps have been sufficient if he had contented himself with reading the resolution intrusted to him; but he hoped the meeting would bear with him, if he ventured to make some remarks upon the importance of their trust and the difficulties of their labor.

It was an unpleasant truth, but it could not be doubted, that the generous aid so long given by the Home Societies would be gradually withdrawn, and we must not look beyond the Province for support. A recent Act of our Legislature had an important bearing upon the interests of the Church; but he did not allude to the Clergy Reserves Act with any intention of discussing its merits, though he might say, in passing, that a large party in the country considered that it violated that great constitutional principle of all countries, making any pretensions to civilization, which declared that property, whether of individuals or of corporations, should be held inviolably sacred, and from the manner in which the remarks of several of the speakers had been received, he perceived that the feelings of the meeting were in unison with those of the party to which he had referred. But whatever differences of opinion there might be upon that point, there could be none as to the fact, that we had in that Act an emphatic declaration, on the part of our legislators, that religion was no concern of the Government, and it was in this view that he referred to the subject. The Church must, therefore, look to itself for support. Religion could not be pursued by individuals or even by small communities. Whatever might be said to the contrary, it was a matter of public interest. A polluted moral atmosphere was as dangerous to man's moral welfare, as the pestilential airs of a plague-infected locality were to his physical health. But perhaps he had said as much upon this topic as became an humble member of a profession which at best only required correct outward conduct, without assuming the higher ground of investigating men's motives. There were, however, potent reasons to induce all to bear the common burden, which he might bring forward. Among these was the fact that the Bible and the Prayer Book were the forerunners of education, leading to intellectual and moral enlightenment, and few could be so dead to all patriotism as not to prefer being citizens of a country characterised by these qualities, rather than of one distinguished by their absence. If, however, any could be found for whom this was too large a view, reasons could be found even within the range of his narrow vision. Our material advancement depended much upon the class of immigrants enticed to our shores, and the best and most wealthy settlers would shrink from encountering comparative heathenism. Hence the encouragement of religion throughout the land would desirably tend to improve the material condition of the country, and consequently of every individual citizen. It was also necessary for the securing of an efficient Clergy that the Church should act as a body. It was very plausible to say that men, unlike children, were quite competent to choose their teachers; but although in large cities public sentiment might so correct itself that the minister could discharge his duty efficiently under such circumstances, yet his Lordship knew how peculiar was the situation of many of the Clergy of his Diocese. In many cases the minister would be dependent for his bread upon preserving the favor of three or four, and in some instances of one or two men, and it was exposing human nature to too great temptation to place men under circumstances so dangerous to their independence. He had alluded to these matters in speaking to the present Resolution, because the efficiency and the very existence of the Society depended upon the manner in which the Central Board discharged its duty. Moneys were collected in all parts of the Diocese to be distributed by the Board, and it was extremely difficult to avoid giving dissatisfaction. Many places might seem to a superficial observer entitled to aid, when in reality money would be almost thrown away upon them. The Board had to see that personal influence and local interest did not prejudice the interests of the Church at large, and an amount of investigation was required, of which we had little idea. From enquiries he had made, he believed the Board had succeeded better than could have been expected, and he considered the Chairman of the Lay-Committee entitled to particular thanks. He believed the Officers of the Society had so discharged their trust as to inspire increased confidence in the Society, and he had therefore much pleasure in moving the resolution.

The Rev. CANON BANCROFT seconded the resolution. The least they could do was to thank the Central Board and Officers for their services during the past year, and it was encouraging to know so much had been accomplished. It was cheerful to see so many present. Those who, like himself, had been members of the Society from the beginning, could remember when the meetings of the Society consisted only of a few clergymen on the platform and a few more with some ladies gathered below. What a contrast to that meeting. Then clergymen came in to get rubbed up and there were none but themselves to animate them. That was chilling, withering. Man required sympathy, and it was hard to leave the minister to toil up the steep hill of life alone with no one to hold up his hands when they grew weary. Now, laymen were taking a prominent part in their proceedings. He had ever contended they would never be successful until that was the case. As regarded the loss of the Reserves he felt they could do God's work and get to Heaven with or without them or any other assistance, but they had to meet many hardships. Even before they lost them they seemed most unfairly divided. While Upper Canada with a large prosperous Protestant population doubling itself every few years had the great bulk of them, we, in Lower Canada, with a few people scattered here and there amid a French Catholic population and requiring much more assistance, had the merest pittance. He saw in his mind's eye many missions which must be abandoned for some years for lack of resources. And he could not but feel deeply for the young men who were being educated for the Ministry. When they asked a young man to undertake the duties of the Ministry now, they indeed asked him to endure a life of poverty. It was vain to hope that parents could bring up their children for this service if there was not some prospect of a reasonable provision for their subsistence. While everything was going up enormously in price the services of Ministers were no better paid than they were ten years ago. Labouring men struck for higher wages. Ministers could not—they would be accused of greediness and covet-ousness. But their faces had a careworn look—they were troubled about matters which ought not to be allowed to disturb them, they were obliged to devote a portion of their time, which should wholly be consecrated to their pastoral labors, to other occupations to eke out their scanty salaries. He did not speak for himself, for, thank God, he was placed amid an affectionate and liberal people who had never allowed him to want, and he was assured never would. In the United States the same complaint had been made. They preached sermons and exerted themselves about other matters and they all flourished; but they did not like to beg for themselves, and so they remained poor, and in difficulties. How few ministers liked—for himself, he could hardly bring himself—when reading the offertory to read those passages relating to the minister's salary. He might be wrong, but he could not help feeling thus. This was a thing the laity must look to. They must see that the Clergy were properly supported if they hoped the Church would flourish. They must set the example in the town too, and give liberally, for they must remember that however low were their subscriptions, the country people would set their mark just under them. If they would but set themselves vigorously at work they might hope that, whatever their present difficulties—which were, no doubt, very great—they would shortly attain to a more vigorous and healthy growth than even while they had the Reserves. Those churches which must be abandoned for the present would yet have done their work—no money and no labour would have been lost on them if through the preaching in them one soul had been saved for one soul was of more value than the whole world. They had, after all, much reason for encouragement. They all remembered when there was but one Diocese in all Canada, now there were three, and likely very shortly to be two or three more. And many of the aged clergy must remember how their late Bishop used to go about to many places and find but half a dozen or a dozen communicants, where there were now large congregations. He trusted God would incline their hearts to the work. He hoped all there would remember the closing remarks of the Right Rev. Prelate, (the Bishop of New York); how great a satisfaction it would be for us when we laid our heads in the dust that we had lived for Christ or done the work he had given us to do.

This motion was also carried by acclamation.

Mr. Justice McCORD then moved, that the Lord Bishop should leave the chair, and the Hon. Mr. Moffatt take it, which having been done, he moved a resolution of thanks to his Lordship for his conduct in the chair. He said his Lordship, as well as himself, had no doubt often found good texts of Scripture and of law marred by an unwise commentary; and he felt now that any comment on this resolution was needless, as he knew every one there was prepared to adopt it most heartily. He should, therefore, say nothing more.

The Rev. Mr. PYKE seconded the resolution, which was carried by acclamation.

The Lord Bishop thanked the meeting for the kind manner in which, as on so many previous occasions, his name had been received. He should best consult his reputation as an orator, as well as his own ease, if, after the very interesting and eloquent speeches they had already heard, he was brief. Those there assembled, though a larger number than on previous occasions, were yet but a few of the members of the Church even in the city, with a very few from a distance among them. If there had been anything said that night (and he believed there had been much) which was worthy of being dwelt upon, those present should take care to inculcate the views thus put forth on those they met elsewhere, so that those who were absent might also have the benefit of what had been said. His friend who had moved the vote of thanks to the Central Board had remarked upon the difficulty of pleasing everybody. He remembered a Chancellor of the Exchequer, in England, saying that his greatest difficulty was with a small surplus. He could get on better with a small deficit. When he had but a small surplus there were so many claimants for benefits from it that he made more enemies by his necessary refusals than friends by what he had to distribute. The Central Board, with the small amount at their disposal, were in a somewhat similar position. They were not able to meet nearly all the claims upon them. And some were necessarily dissatisfied, and with reason,—not that the Central Board did not give what they had not, but that more had not been placed at their disposal by the 30,000 members of the Church of England in the Diocese. Out of that number only 1,100 or 1,200 were subscribers to the Society. The Church was one body, having many members; if one member suffered would not the others suffer also, and if one portion of the Church was neglected would not all of them languish? If they properly exerted themselves there should be 5,000 subscribers instead of 1,100, even though some of them gave very small amounts. Allusion had been made to the necessity for increased Missionary effort, and one of the first things he should ask from the Central Board, when it next met, would be funds to send out two more travelling missionaries; and this system must be more and more extended. When vacancies occurred in missions now served by incumbents drawing revenues from the Clergy Reserves, or Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, they would be filled by travelling missionaries. The previous system had been based upon a mistaken idea. Ministers had been sent among their people in the same manner as a settled parochial clergy, while they were in reality missionaries, not paid by their flock, but by the benevolence of people in the Mother Country. That system must stop with the decease of the present incumbents. Missionaries only would be employed in any settlement until the people provided a very large portion of the funds necessary to support their clergyman themselves. It was not by an occasional effort, by an occasional prayer, or by acclama-tions at a meeting that they could hope for success ; it was by long and patient endurance in well-doing. They read how in the Crimea a handful of light cavalry, with the bravery for which they were so justly celebrated, had attacked and defeated a large body of Russians ; but that act, brave, and in a measure successful as it was, did not win the fortress of Sebastopol. That could be only taken after long and wearisome exertions kept up day after day for a lengthened period, and in the midst of terrible privations. So they must do here if they hoped to triumph in the accomplishment of their objects. They could not triumph over the enemies within by one prayer or one effort. As had been justly remarked by the Archdeacon, they would find that times of depression were not the worst in which to raise funds for such objects. It is prosperity that hardens, and adversity that opens and softens the heart. He prayed they might learn wisdom from both prosperity and adversity, and turn all to a good account. And here he would close his remarks, but he wished to return his thanks to the Right Reverend Prelate who had come there from his distant home to manifest his interest in their welfare. He was glad to hear his words of sympathy, glad to claim with him and his fellow-churchmen in the United States one common ancestry, not only of race but of Church—a bond of union which he hoped would knit them more and more closely together every year. He might mention as an incident they might be glad to know, that the communion plate in the church where the Bishop had so long served was a gift of a British Queen, and this was not a solitary instance of such heir-looms in the church of the United States. His Right Rev. brother had spoken to them of England as to him classic ground, and the churchmen in the United States looked up to England with her glorious past as they did in Canada, as to a common mother. But if England's past was glorious, had they not reason to hope, nay, to believe, that the future of the Church in the United States as well as in England, was destined to be still more glorious. It should be the wish of every true Christian as of all the lovers of the two countries, that the churches might be more and more knit together as the greatest and most powerful witness against the corruptions of the Church of Rome, and the greatest promoter of true Christianity. He concluded by congratulating those present upon the very interesting meeting which had taken place, and dismissed them with the benediction.

The collection taken up amounted to something more than £20.

REPORT.

1855.

THE Central Board, in presenting a Report of the Society's operations during the past year, acknowledge with thankfulness the increased interest manifested in behalf of the Society, throughout the Diocese generally, and the enlarged means of usefulness which have been placed at its disposal. The grounds of congratulation will appear from the following statement, giving an account of the receipts of the Society, for the year ending 6th January, 1855:—

Total amount of Investments now made for the Widows' and Orphans' Fund, £1757 10s.

By comparing the above statement with the Treasurer's Account for the year ending January 6th, 1854, it appears that there is an increase in the amount raised for the Society in the present year of £118 13s. 2½d. in the annual subscriptions from Montreal, and £74 10s. 10d. in the remittances from Parishes and Missions in the Country.

From nine Missions in the Country, no Subscriptions have been received, owing in some cases to the great exertions which have been made for local improvements.

In the collections after Sermons for Missionary purposes, there has been an increase of £52 9s. 5½d.

The total income of the Society, from ordinary sources, is £266 17s. 9½d. more than last year.

The contributions for local purposes as distinct from the funds of the Society, and expended for various purposes in the several parishes where they were raised, amount to £7601 7s. 8½d. The sum of £126 14s. 6d. of the amount subscribed to the Church Society has been expended in the different missions as allowed by By-law No. 7; this sum, not having passed through the Treasurer's hands, is not included in his accounts. £58 have been received towards endowments, in addition to grants of land, and the proceeds of Books sold by the Book and Tract Committee amount to £62. The total amount raised within the year for Church purposes is £8624 10s. 4d.

The following grants have been voted by the Central Board during the past year:—

For Missionary purposes,.....	£270	0	0
To Book and Tract Committee, for 1854 and 1855,.....	75	0	0
To Parsonage at Stanbridge,.....	50	0	0
To Church at Mannich's Corner, Russeltown,.....	50	0	0
To purchase of Glebe at New Glasgow,.....	60	0	0
To Church at Petite Nation,.....	25	0	0
To Church at Upton,.....	25	0	0
To Church at Churchville, Dunham,.....	50	0	0
	£605	0	0

The following appropriations are yet unpaid:—

La Petite Nation Church,.....	25	0	0
New Glasgow Endowment,.....	25	0	0
Russeltown Church,.....	25	0	0
North Shefford Church,.....	50	0	0
Upton,.....	25	0	0
Churchville,.....	50	0	0
Book and Tract Committee,.....	50	0	0

To meet the above grants, it has been necessary to sell £100 of the £200 funded stock remaining at the last Report. The greater part of the £100 now remaining unsold will be required to pay the amount of a special appropriation which the Society is bound to pay on demand. It is therefore evident that we must now depend on the annual contributions of the friends of the Church; and they must, if the many demands on the Society are to be met, and the Church fostered and strengthened by its instrumentality, no longer confine themselves to the minimum sum which will render them eligible for election as the members of the Society; and it is earnestly hoped they will consider the necessities of the Church, and contribute to its support, as God hath prospered them. "If thou hast much, give plenteously; if thou hast little do thy diligence gladly to give of that little."

In accordance with a resolution of the Central Board, passed 7th June, 1854, the Lord Bishop appointed the Rev. W. Bond to visit the Missions in the Missisquoi District, to advocate the claims of the Society. On his return, the Rev. W. Bond reported to the Central Board, that he had visited 9 Missions, viz: Philipsburg, Stanbridge, Bedford, Frelighsburg, Dunham, Cowansville, West Brome, Frost Village, and West Shefford; and held 10 meetings, at which were set forth "the unity of action in the Church, by the Church Society; the objects of the Society; the benefit of the Central Board; the care of the Society, to give the laity due weight through the Lay Committee; the capacity of the Society for carrying out far more extended plans of Missionary operations; the work the Society had accomplished; the fact that soon the Church in this Diocese might be left unaided by the Mother Church; and, finally, the fact, that, if those spoken to held back, God would employ others, and deprive them of the privilege of being fellow-workers with Him."

In one of the Missions visited, the Clergyman had had to contend with extraordinary difficulties and discouragements, and if facts were needed to shew how much the Society's aid is required at times, they may abundantly be found in the self-denial and laborious work of the Missionary of that place. The Rev. W. Bond acknowledges the kindness and consideration experienced at the hands of the Clergy. Arrangements were made by which travelling expenses were saved. Much trouble was taken to call meetings, and secure attendance, and much satisfaction was expressed with the action of the Central Board, in this matter.

The Society's obligation to the Rev. W. Bond for his kindness in performing this work was acknowledged by a vote of thanks from the Central Board.

The following extracts are taken from the Reports received from the different Parishes and Missions:—

ABBOTSFORD AND ROUGEMONT.

Rev. F. Robinson returns the following contributions from Abbotsford: Annual Subscriptions, £3 12s. 6d.; Widows' and Orphans' Collections, £2 2s. 1d.; Missionary Collections, 17s. 11½d.; Local Contributions for repairs on Church and Church-yard fence, £21 3s. 9d.; Ladies' Society, £4 3s. 6d.; incidental expenses, £1 15s.; towards Clergyman's Salary, £12 15s.

From Rougemont, Widows' and Orphans' Collections, £1 8s. 2½d.; Missionary Collections, 16s. 9d.; incidental expenses, £3 15s.; towards Clergyman's Salary, £15. Total, £67 9s. 9d.; being an increase of £10 2s. 8d. over last year's return.

AYLMER AND HULL.

Rev. J. JOHNSTON states that the Sunday Collections in Christ's Church, Aylmer, for the year, are about £12. Repairs of Hull Church £5; Pew rents, due next Easter, and to be paid towards the support of Clergyman, £30; Collected by Clergyman and friends of the Church, towards the purchase of a house and glebe, £30; Collected for Sunday School Library, £3; Collection after Sermon, for Widows and Orphans, £2 5s.; and for Missionary purposes, £2 15s. Total, £85.

BEDFORD.

The Rev. J. JONES states that £6 17s. 6d. have been subscribed to the Church Society, £1 11s. 8d. for Widows and Orphans; and £1 5s. 6d. for Missionary purposes; and for local purposes, £1 10s. 6d. Making a total of £11 4s. 9d.

BERTHIER.

Rev. W. MERRICK reports: We have raised £12 11s. 8d. for the Church Society; the whole of which we remit. As regards the other objects, I feel thankful that so much has already been effected, though with the matter of the finishing of the Church the present amount may be considered only as a commencement. I pray God that an increasing spirit of liberality may be excited, and that further efforts may be made to build up the Church of the Redeemer in this place. We have had no sermons as yet. Neither of the periods appointed having fallen, since my coming to the Mission.

The following sums have been raised for local purposes: furnishing Church, £16 13s. 10d.; liquidation of debt, £10; Insurance, &c., £7 18s. 1d.; Communion Service, £4.; Sunday School Library, £5 14s. 5d.; Rent of Clergyman's house, £10.; Donation to Clergyman, £18. Total, £84 17s. 7d.

BROME.

In consequence of the Rev. R. LINDSAY's absence, no collections have been made on account of the Church Society. The following account of other items in the Mission, have been received, which is very encouraging. Subscription for Church Society, £1 17s. 6d.; Collection for Widows and Orphans, £15 6s.; and for Missionary purposes, £2 10s. For local purposes: a gift of land, 50 acres, from the Rev. R. Whitwell towards endowment of Mission; from Colonel Knowlton for school house, donation in land and lumber and bricks, £250; other donations for same purpose, £50; Repairs of Church £12 10s. Making a total of £317 13s., besides Rev. R. Whitwell's donation of land towards endowment of Mission.

BUCKINGHAM.

Rev. W. Monnis reports, that the Churchwardens have entered into a contract for finishing the Church at Buckingham for the sum of £60. They have collected £20, which added to the sum of £25 which has been given us by the Lord Bishop, a debt of £15 only will remain on the Church: the work will be completed in a few days, which will give us 12 additional pews. It is also proposed to build at no distant period a parsonage house near the Church.

No appeal has been made to our people at La Petite Nation for subscriptions to the Church Society, as they have by great efforts erected the frame of a Church in Papineau Ville, and have further subscribed in materials what will place the Church in a state fit for Divine Service.

Subscriptions, £5 8s. 9d.; collected for Widows and Orphans, £3 17s. 6d.; for Missionary purposes, £1 13s. 9d. Total, £31.

CATHEDRAL.

The DEAN OF MONTREAL reports, that at the Cathedral the following sums have been raised during the year, viz: subscriptions to Church Society, £135 7s. 6d.; Collections Widows and Orphans, £30; Missionary purposes, £37; pew rents and offertory, £1548 3s. 11d.; for National School, £20; for charities, £88 10s. 3d. Total, £1859 1s. 8d.

CHAMBLY.

The Rev. J. P. WHITE writes us follows: In transmitting the report of what has been done in this Parish for the Diocesan Church Society, I feel thankful for the prosperity of the good cause; and it is pleasing to find a small increase in the subscription list, and a larger amount contributed after the two Annual Sermons. During the year, the Church portico has been renewed, and a Vestry room constructed, which some ladies of the congregation nicely furnished; other improvements in the Church are also contemplated; and an organ has been ordered. For the past, then, I thank God, and take courage for the future. But not until the conviction be yet more deeply impressed upon the members of the Church here, that all we have belongs to God, and is only lent to us for a time, shall we be found faithful. And it is to be hoped that all the members of our Church in this Diocese, as brethren drawn together in one common cause, may by their contributions and prayers so co-operate in the great work contemplated by the Church Society, as that by its increased means of usefulness, the legitimate wants of the Church shall be supplied, and the saving truths of the Gospel made fully known throughout our Diocese.

The following are the amounts collected during the year: for Church Society, £32 17s. 4½d.; for Widows and Orphans, £4 15s. 4½d.; for Missionary purposes, £6 10s. 7½d.; Clergyman's stipend, £65; incidental expenses of Church, £21; Insurance on Church property, £7 10s.; Sacramental Collections, £10 4s. 1½d.; Parochial Lending Library, £2 6s. 4½d.; for Books for Sunday School, £3 2s.; Renewal of Church portico, £6 1s. 3d.; Construction of Vestry room, and other local purposes, £33 11s. 4d. Total £192 18s. 5½d.

CHRISTIEVILLE.

Rev. J. A. McLEOD reports, that £9 7s. 2d. had been raised for the Church Society, viz: Annual Subscriptions £5 10s.; Donation to Widows' and Orphans' Fund, £2 10s.; collected after Annual Sermon for Widows and Orphans, £2 19s. 10d., and for Missionary purposes, £1 2s. 4d.; collected at Communion, £11 19s. 3d.; Subscriptions for the poor, £17. Total £41 1s. 5d.

CLARENCEVILLE.

The Rev. CANON TOWNSEND reports, that the Annual Subscriptions amount to £9 12s. 6d.; of which one-half was reserved to aid in the purchase of a furnace for warming the Church. There was collected after the Sermon, for Widows and Orphans, the sum of £2 1s. 9d. and for Missionary purposes, £2 6s. Total, £13 19s. 3d.

CLARENDON.

The Rev. J. S. SYKES reports, that on his arrival in the Mission, a Committee was formed to carry out the objects of the Society, when it was resolved, on the motion of Mr. J. Hodgins, seconded by Mr. Thos. Wilson; That this meeting having considered the purchase of a Glebe, and the erection of a Parsonage to be requisite and necessary both for the comfort of the Clergyman and the convenience of the people, do hereby agree to purchase of Mr. John Dale, the seven acres of land now offered by him at £10 per acre, and the house thereon at a fair valuation: also that a subscription list be given to each member of the Committee, and a collection made forthwith.

There had been collected for local purposes, £114 0s. 10½d.

COTEAU DU LAC.

The Rev. J. MOUNTAIN returns the names of 67 subscribers, contributing £15 17s. 1½d.; of which £6 19s. 10d. were expended in the parish; £2 6s. 3d. were collected for Widows and Orphans, and £2 11s. for Missionary purposes.

The following are the contributions for local purposes: Sacramental collections, £2 14s. 5d.; repairs, &c., £2 10s.; Church expenses, £6 10s. 10½d.; Parochial Library, £3 16s. 6d.; towards Clergyman's Salary, £9 2s. 6d.; Pew rents, £16. Total amount collected, £61 8s. 8d.

COWANSVILLE AND CHURCHVILLE.

The Missionary holds Divine Service at Cowansville, every Sabbath; Churchville, once a fortnight; West Brome once a fortnight, and East Farnham once a fortnight. The congregations are good, and an increasing interest is being awakened in favour of the Church of England.

At Cowansville the people have subscribed above £510, towards the erection of a Church and Parsonage.

At Churchville the friends have subscribed £450, for a new and beautiful Church in that place, the walls are already up, and it is expected that the building will be ready for consecration during the next summer.

The prospects in this new Mission are most encouraging.

Subscriptions towards the support of the Clergyman, &c.: Cowansville, £21; Churchville, £10 10s.; Donations in money and useful articles, £30. For Church Society, £1 15s.; Clergyman's Subscription, £1 17s. 6d.; Widows and Orphans, 6s. 3d. Total, £1025 8s. 9d.

DUNHAM.

We have been completing the Tower of the Church during the past summer, at an expense of nearly £60: but a considerable amount of the funds for that object were raised last year, and the balance we have not raised yet on account of the great and general scarceness of the season.

Our Church, which has been in the process of building since 1847, is now nearly completed, and I hope hereafter that we may begin to do something more for general Church purposes.

There have been subscribed for the Church Society, £18 10s.; collected for Widows and Orphans, £2 18s. 9d.; for Missionary purposes, £1 17s. 1d.; collected at Clerical Association, £1 5s. for local purposes; support of Minister, £25; expenses of Lay Reader for 2 months, £4; an Organ presented by Wm. Baker, Esq., value, £100; local charities, £4; incidental expenses, £10. Total, £167 10s. 10d.

EDWARDSTOWN.

Rev. E. G. Surron states, that the ability to give in this Mission, during the past year, has been but feeble. The fires so prevalent in the country, during the summer, have caused many losses, and the crops have been almost a failure; on this account a willing mind has often existed without the ability, and the Missionary has often felt that it would be more becoming, certainly more congenial to his feelings, to have been able to give to, than to take from, them in their poverty. On the whole, the cause of the Church is progressing slowly but surely.

Annual Subscriptions to Church Society, £5 11s. 3d.; Collected for Widows and Orphans, 12s. 4½d.; and for Missionary purposes, 10s. 8d.; expended towards finishing the Church, £18 2s. 10d.; gifts to Missionary, £1 10s. 5d. Total, £25 7s. 6½d.

FARNHAM.

The Rev. W. Jones is happy to inform the Society, that notwithstanding his sphere of action has been diminished, and some of the best families added to the new Mission of Cowansville, yet by the blessing of God upon the various congregations, they have been enabled to increase their contributions. Although we have not added to our numbers, yet it is cause of unfeigned thankfulness to the Giver of all good, and at the same time ground for encouragement to renewed exertions, that amidst many removals, some few deaths and other trials, we have been enabled to assume an improved position, and to build up one another in love.

The Missionary's especial thanks are due to George C. Allsopp, Esq., Mr. S. M. Conant, and Mrs. J. B. Allsopp, who have acted as collectors for the past year.

The following sums have been collected: Annual Subscriptions, £5 13s. 9d.; for Widows and Orphans, 10s.; for Missionary purposes, £1 10s. 4d.; weekly offertory, £3 0s. 0½d.; towards Missionary's support, £5; donation from Captain Whitfield towards painting the Church, £5. Total, £20 14s. 1½d.

FROST VILLAGE.

Rev. D. LINDSAY states: Our subscriptions this year, for the Church Society, have much increased, for though the Mission has been divided since last Report, we have exceeded last year in amount. It is to be attributed to the interest awakened in the Society's operations by the visit of the Rev. Wm. Bond, (a deputation from the Society,) and if we can prove, next year, that good has been done with the money, we shall for the future have warmer supporters of the Society. We are engaged in providing for a Glebe, and the finishing of the exterior of the Church, and our local subscriptions in addition to the Church Society, make an amount for the year of £151 11s. 4d.; viz: Subscriptions to Church Society, £11 11s. 4d.; Collections for Widows and Orphans, £1 10s.; for Missionary purposes, £2 10s.; for paying debt on Church, and purchasing a Glebe, £82 5s.; for Steeple and Church, £18 15s.; Sewing Society, £10; Offertory collections and pew rents, £25. Total, £151 11s. 4d.

GORE.

The Rev. J. GRIFFIN reports, that £17 10s. 3d. had been subscribed, of which £16 2s. 9d. had been expended in the Mission; 15s. were collected for Widows and Orphans; and 15s. for Missionary purposes, and £2 5s. 11d. for local Church purposes. Total, £21 6s. 2d.

The Church, which was commenced sixteen years ago, has never been completed; consequently it has become so delapidated that the winter wind howls through the open walls, and rattles the huge, square, naked, arched sashes with every gust. It is proposed to raise funds for the erection of a new Church, rather than repair the old one which is so fallen to decay. A subscription list has been started for this purpose, and the inhabitants have subscribed in materials about £80.

GRANBY AND NORTH SHEFFORD.

The Annual Subscriptions to the Church Society amount to £6 16s. 3d., of which sum £4 6s. 10½d. have been transmitted to the Parent Society; collections after Sermons for Missionary purposes, £1 4s. 3d.; and for Widows and Orphans, 15s. 7½d.; the income from pew rents, collections, and subscriptions for local purposes, amounts to £40 7s. 3d., making a total for the present year of £47 3s. 6d.

In the Granby Mission, we, last year, made great efforts for the erection of a Parsonage, and succeeded in getting up the walls of a stone building, and covering it in. This year, the people have experienced great pecuniary pressure from the failure of crops, and have not been able to add to their former efforts in this particular; but through the liberality of other friends of the Church, the Incumbent has so far proceeded with the house as to make it fit for occupation.

In North Shefford, a substantial and handsome stone Church has been built, but the interior remains to be completed. There is no decline of zeal on the part of those who have thus far, in these Missions, co-operated with the Incumbent in the promotion of these objects. We look forward in hope and in dependance on God's blessing to the completion of these important, and, looking at our circumstances, it may be said, great undertakings.

GRENVILLE.

The Rev. C. FOREST reports, that £20 2s. 6d. had been contributed for local purposes by friends, viz: Burial Ground Fund, £6 10s.; 27 cords of wood to Clergyman, £10 2s. 6d.; expended on Parsonage by Incumbent, £3 10s. There were collected after the Sermon, for Widows and Orphans, £1 5s. Total £21 7s. 6d.

HEMMINGFORD.

The Rev. GERALD DE COURCY O'GRADY reports, that £3 16s. 3d. has been subscribed to the Church Society: collections after Sermons for Widows and Orphans—St. Pauls' Church, 7s. 5½d.; Roxham, 10s. 5d.; Hemmingford, 10s. 6d.; in all £1 8s. 4½d. And for Missionary purposes—St. Paul's Church, 4s. 6d.; Roxham, 8s. 4d.; Hemmingford, 3s. 8d.; in all 16s. 6d. The following are the contributions for local purposes—Third Annual Subscription for purchase of Glebe, £25; towards purchase of Melodeon, £4 16s. 3d.; contributed in labour at Parsonage House, £15; in labour at Glebe, £8 5s.; Donations to Parsonage in materials and cash, £3 15s.; a thank-offering, £1 5s.; Offertory collection, £1 2s. 3d.; collected for heating Church, &c. £2 1s. 2d. There was also a collection made by the Bishop's desire on the 31st December, which was appropriated by the people to the relief of the Widows and Orphans of soldiers fallen in the East—St. Paul's, 13s. 9d.; Roxham, £1 0s. 6d.; Hemmingford, £2 5s. 7½d. In all, £3 19s. 10½d.

The subscriptions to the Church Society are not as much as usual this year, for two reasons: 1st. This has been an uncommonly hard season, many families in the Mission not having raised enough grain to last their families half through the winter; and, 2nd, the people have been heavily taxed for local objects. Another sum of equal if not greater amount than the one I have set down has been collected by Mrs. W. B. Johnson for a Melodeon; but the particulars have not been sent in; we hope soon to be able to purchase one. The frame of the Parsonage House is now erected; the people have given a great deal of assistance. We intend, please God, to purchase brick, and get it drawn in the winter, and we shall proceed with the house in the spring. We have on hand over £40, including a grant from the Lord Bishop, of £20; we hope, with the assistance of the Society to have the house habitable by next winter.

Mr. Wilton of New York has again sent us his subscription to the Church Society, and we have also to thank him for his kindness in collecting for us £2 for a Melodeon.

We have purchased a carpet for the Chancel, at a cost of £3 16s., and we have been presented with a handsome altar-cloth. Total amount collected for the Mission, £118 1s. 7d.

HENRYVILLE.

The Rev. E. DUVEANER reports £54 13s. collected during the year, viz: Annual Subscriptions to Church Society, £4 15s.; for Widows and Orphans, 16s. 3d.; Missionary purposes, 17s.; towards Missionary's support, £20; Pew rents, £10; for Harmonium, £18 5s. Total, £54 13s.

HOHELAGA.

Subscription to Church Society, £1 17s. 6d.; Offertory, £1 0s. 9d.; Sunday Collections, £1 8s. 6½d.; for Missionary purposes, 5s. 7d. Total £4 12s. 4½d.

HUNTINGDON

Rev. J. NEVE reports as follows: Contributions for local purposes, viz: for enlargement of the Parsonage, £65; Repairs to the Church and incidental expenses, £11 19s. 6d.; Subscriptions towards Missionary's support, £43 5s.; Subscriptions to Church Society, 5s.; Collections, Widows' and Orphans' Sermon, £1 9s. 1d. Total, £121 18s. 7d.

LACOLLE.

Rev. C. MORICE reports, that £12 18s. 8d., have been raised for the Church Society, viz: Subscriptions, £9 15s.; Collections for Widows and Orphans, £1 10s.; for Missionary purposes, £1 13s. 8d.; and £25 for local purposes. Total, £37 18s. 8d.

LACHINE.

Rev. J. FLANAGAN reports: Subscriptions, £1 17s. 6d.; collected after Sermon, for Widows and Orphans, £8 17s. 6d.; do. for Missionary purposes, £14 1s. 3d. Total, £24 16s. 3d.

LAPRAIRIE.

Rev. R. LONSDALE reports, that the following sums were raised during the year: for the Church Society, £6 5s.; for Widows and Orphans, Laprairie, £1 18s. 4d.; La Tortue, 12s. 2d.; Longueuil, 12s. 6d.; St. Lambert, 2s. 6d. For Missionary purposes, Laprairie, £1 4s. 4d.; La Tortue, 12s. 9d.; Longueuil, 17s. 6d. For repairing Parsonage, £26; donation to Clergyman, £12 15s.; donation at La Tortue, £8 7s. 1d.; Church repairs, £4 8s. 5d.; donation at Longueuil, £1 15s. Total, £63 10s. 8d.

MASCOCHE.

The Rev. J. CORNWALL reports, that £7 12s. 6d. have been subscribed to the Church Society, half of which was paid to the Widows' and Orphans' Fund; £30 were contributed at Mascouche, and £7 10s. at Terrebonne for local purposes. Total, £45 6s. 6d.

MILTON AND SOUTH ROXTON.

Rev. G. SLACK reports, that there are no subscribers to the Church Society in his Mission. There was collected after Sermon, £1 7s. 6d.; and at the meeting of the Clerical Association, 11s. 3d. for Missionary purposes; for Widows and Orphans, £1 6s.; in South Roxton, £8 2s. 6d. were contributed for the support of Missionary. Total, £11 7s. 3d.

NEW GLASGOW.

We have made a great exertion during the past year, in this Mission, towards getting an endowment for the Church, and I am happy to say that through the Divine blessing we have very well succeeded. We have purchased a glebe of 66 acres, beautifully situated near our Church in this place, for the sum of £200, on which there is a large and excellent Parsonage house, with barn, stable, &c., and every other convenience. £40 of the purchase money was subscribed by the people here and at Kilkenny, in cash, and more assistance was promised by the people in the way of labour, &c. Henry Thomas, of Montreal, who was formerly a resident at New Glasgow, most generously gave us £10 towards the purchase of our glebe, and J. J. Gibb, Esq., most kindly executed the Deeds for us free of charge, and also gave us a handsome donation besides. With the assistance which the Church Society and other friends of the Church at Montreal have given us, we hope in a short time, through the blessing of God, to have our Parsonage and glebe entirely free from debt, and thus a handsome and valuable endowment will be gained for the Mission, and will greatly help to secure the blessings of the Church to future generations.

We have also received a very valuable acquisition to our Church here, during the past year, in the gift of a very handsome Font from Mrs. Adams, of Montreal.

ORMSTOWN.

Rev. M. BRETHOUR reports, that during the past year a sum amounting to about £90 has been raised and expended upon the new Church in the Mission.

RAWDON.

It is with great pleasure and thankfulness that I have to record an increasing desire on the part of the people of this Mission to aid the Church Society in its efforts to extend the blessings of religion.

Many families, by placing their subscription in the names of their children, are training them to become hereafter earnest supporters of the cause of Christ, and from the spirit which is beginning to manifest itself I have good hope that after a few years this Mission will become self-supporting, or may with its present assistance be divided, and thus the work of the Church be rendered more effective and extended to parts now peopling, but so distant as to be very seldom visited, while under the care of one Clergyman.

Contributions towards the support of the Missionary; Rawdon, in cash, £12 1c., in produce, £10; Kildare, in produce, £12 10s.

Thanksgiving sermon in accordance with the Bishop's letter applied to local charities. Rawdon, £1 5s. 4d.; Kildare, 18s. 7d. Offertory collections: Rawdon, £9 18s.; Kildare, £4 10s. Subscriptions to Church Society: Rawdon, £4 3s. 9d.; Kildare, £8 13s. 9d.; Village of Industry, 5s. Collection for Widows and Orphans: Rawdon, £1 3s. 9d.; Kildare, 16s. 3d. For Missionary purposes: Rawdon, £1 5s. 4d.; Kildare, 8s. 8d. Total, £54, 15s. 9d.

RUSSELTOWN AND MANNACH'S CORNER.

The Rev. J. FULFON states, that the new Church at Mannach's Corners is not yet completed, but that it will, D. V., be finished in the spring; a sufficient sum is guaranteed to meet the Society's grant which will enable us to complete the Church free from debt; 15s. were collected after Sermon, for Widows and Orphans; and 10s. for Missionary purposes; £133 2s. 6d. were collected for local purposes, viz: at Russeltown Church, covering the shed, &c., £6; Insurance, £1 12s. 6d.; incidental expenses, £1 10s.; new Church at Mannach's Corners, manual labour and team work, £24; materials, £42 10s.; cash paid, £29 10s.; towards a bell, £18; shed, £10. Total, £134 7s. 6d.

SABREVOIS.

The Rev. D. GAVIN writes: We have reason to bless God for His continued favour. Our contributions are larger than last year, though the times are harder. We have: Annual Subscriptions, £12 2s. 3d.; for local purposes, £3. Total, £15 2s. 3d.

SHEFFORD AND WATERLOO.

Rev. A. T. WHITTEN reports, that the following sums have been collected during the year: for Church Society at Waterloo, £8 13s. 9d.; at West Shefford, £2 16s. 3d.; for Widows and Orphans, £2; Missionary purposes, £3 8s.; for building a new parsonage barn, £47 18s. 1d.; for part of a Communion Service for St. Luke's Church, Waterloo, £4; for support of Clergyman, £30 8s. 4d.; chairs for chancel of Church at Waterloo, £3; for carpeting Church at West Shefford, £2 10s. Total, £104 14s. 5d.

SOREL.

The Rev. W. ANDERSON has great pleasure in giving a very favourable report of the amount raised for Church purposes in his parish this year. Although the Protestant population of the parish continues very seriously to diminish, yet the total sum raised in the year, for various Church purposes, is larger than for several years before collected. Annual Subscriptions to the Church Society, £14 4s. 9d.; collected for Missionary purposes, £5; for Widows and Orphans, £4; for local purposes the contributions were, towards Clergyman's stipend, £60; for poor, and incidental expenses of Church, £30; insurance on Church and Parsonage, £7 5s.; repairs and improvements of Church property, £30; Sorel Endowment Fund, £15; making a paid total of £180 9s. 9d. Miss Cuthbert has given the handsome donation of £50; and Mrs. E. A. Clarke, of £25, payable in five annual instalments, towards the Sorel Endowment Fund; the Lord Bishop has kindly promised to add to this amount from funds at his disposal; and it is also hoped that Church Societies will do the same. The Rector would further gratefully acknowledge the kind services rendered to the Church in other ways by the ladies of the parish, in particular Mrs. W. A. Hall, who has recently left Sorel, has for several years gratuitously played the organ, and the same disinterested services are still rendered, in the most efficient manner, by Miss A. Armstrong, aided in the choir by other ladies of the congregation. Total is £165 9d. 9s.

STANBRIDGE EAST.

The Rev. J. CONSTANTINE reports: Being engaged in the local work of building our Parsonage has precluded our being able to do more towards the general object of the Society, but another year we may hope to be able to make a more encouraging return. The Parsonage is a good and substantial work, and will compare with any other in this part of the Province. This year has also been a peculiarly hard one with us for advancing any Church work requiring pecuniary aid from the people, in consequence of the stoppage of the lumber trade, and the deficiency of the crops. The sum of £86 5s. has been contributed towards the Parsonage house, besides a considerable sum expended by the Missionary, for the same purpose. Subscription to Church Society, £1 17s. 6d.; Collection for Widows' and Orphans' Fund, 16s.; and for Missionary purposes, 15s. Total, £89 13s. 6d.

ST. ARMAND EAST.

The Rev. CANON REID reports, that £18 7s. 6d. has been subscribed for the Church Society; Collected for Widows' and Orphans' Fund, £2 13s. 4d.; expended for painting Church, &c., £89; a new bell, &c., £97 10s.; new chancel and furniture, paid by the Ladies' Sewing Society, £33 8s. 1d. Total £240 18s. 11d.

ST. GEORGE'S.

The Rev. CANON LEACH reports, that £101 8s. 11½d., had been subscribed to the Church Society; collected for Widows and Orphans, £30 9s.; and for Missionary purposes, £14 7s. 7½d.; and raised for local purposes, £1556 16s. 11d., viz: Widows and Orphans of soldiers, £42 15s. 5d.; Ladies' Benevolent Society, £26 9s.; Organ, £50; railing (Church,) £105 2s. 6d.; Clergymen's salaries and various expenses, £1050; poor, £225; Missionary (Sunday School,) £30; other collections Sunday School, £27 10s. Total, £1603 1s. 6d. The Society is indebted to Messrs. E. Shelton, H. Roe, M. H. Gault, D. Scott, and Mr. Beaufield, for acting as collectors.

ST. JOHNS.

The Rev. CANON BANCROFT reports, that the Annual Subscriptions for the present year have amounted to £38 4s. 9d., of which £17 4s. 10½d. have been expended in the parish, and £20 19s. 10½d. remitted to the Parent Society. After the Sermon for general purposes, £6 10s. were collected; and after that for Widows and Orphans, £8 7s. 9d., together with £1 from the Sunday School: making the whole sum contributed to the Church Society the present year, £54 2s. 6d.

In addition, £35 have been received from the Ladies' Association, towards the Endowment Fund, and a further sum of £8, produced by two lectures kindly delivered by Dr. Barber, of Montreal, for the benefit of the same Association. £5 10s. have been spent in adding to the Sunday School Library, and £225 for local purposes, making the whole amount £327 12s. 6d. A donation of 2 acres of land, by the Baron de Longueuil, for a burial ground is also gratefully acknowledged.

It is gratifying to be able to state that, notwithstanding the withdrawal of the military, and the commercial, and other changes which have occurred in the parish, the same spirit of liberality and affectionate regard for the interests of the Church continue to be manifested. At the Anniversary of the Parish Sunday School, held the Wednesday after Christmas, not less than 180 scholars, with 22 teachers, were present. The High School, conducted by the Rev. F. E. Judd, A. M., now numbers 85 scholars, and there are four other schools under the charge of parishioners, making in the aggregate about 225 that are receiving daily instruction.

Upon the whole, the Rector, in reviewing the past year, sees abundant reason for encouragement, and gratitude to God, at the prospects of the parish.

ST. LUKE'S.

Rev. CANON GILSON reports as follows : The District Church of St. Luke is at the present date, 20th Dec. 1854, unfinished. Divine Service has been held during the last six months in the school room. In such circumstances, the congregation can scarcely be considered a settled one. The burden, arising from the many expenses, connected with entering upon a new Church, is considerable. These facts will, it is hoped, be regarded as a sufficient explanation of the circumstance, that no returns of subscriptions and collections for the Church Society appear in this year's Report. May the future shew that the members of St. Luke's are not unmindful of the claims which this Society has upon the systematic support of every baptized member of the Church.

The following sums were collected for local purposes : incidental expenses, £36 9s. 9d. ; special offering of plate for Holy Communion, £20 ; Offertory, £10 11s. 4d. ; special collection for poor, £11 3s. 9d. ; Pew rents, £22 10s. ; Donations, £3 19s. ; 3d., and £1 17s. 6d. Subscription to Church Society. The sum of £1250 has also been raised within the diocese, towards the new Church. Total, £1356 11s. 7d.

ST. MARTIN.

Rev. T. A. YOUNG states, that £7 2s. 6d. have been subscribed to the Church Society ; the Collections after Sermons, for Widows and Orphans, and for Missionary purposes, amounted to £1 14s. 2½d. and £2 4s. 2d. £18 5s. were contributed towards support of Clergyman. Total £29 5s. 10½d.

ST. STEPHENS.

Rev. J. ELLEGOOD reports, £10 7s. 6d. had been subscribed to the Church Society, and one Life Subscription of £12 10s. ; Collected for Widows and Orphans, £6 7s. 1d. ; and for Missionary purposes, £8 9s. 6d. For local purposes, £242 1s. 3d., viz. : Sunday School, £7 18s. 9d. ; Sunday Collections, £70 ; Offertory, £14 2s. 6d. ; and Pew rents, £150. Total, £279 15s. 4d.

STUKELY.

The Rev. O. WETHERALL writes : " This mission which I received last March has done so far exceedingly well. Widows and Orphans and Missionary Sermons were unavoidably omitted, but next year I trust to have everything in better order. Our Church is progressing towards completion, and there has been collected this year £117 for that purpose. Our total collections amount to £155 17s. 6d., including £5 10s. 7½d. subscribed to the Church Society."

SUTTON.

Rev. H. MONTGOMERY states, that during the past year there has been expended in this Mission, £337 15s. 9d., the details of which are as follows :

Towards purchase of Parsonage, and repairs,	£194	1	2½
“ finishing vestry and school room,	56	12	11½

	337	15	9
Of this we have raised,.....	183	11	2

Which leaves us in debt,..... £154 4 7 and still to be increased by the removal of and additions to Parsonage, with the completion of vestry and school room, towards which we have a considerable sum subscribed, and hope to be able greatly to increase the amount of our subscriptions during the ensuing winter. In addition to the above, there have been subscribed to the Church Society, £4; collected for Missionary purposes, £1 7s. 6d.; and for Widows and Orphans, £1 5s.; towards support of Missionary, £10 10s. Total, £200 13s. 8d.

VAUDREUIL.

The Rev. J. PRYKE states, that there is nothing particular to report for this parish during the past year. The Incumbent was presented a short time since with a handsome surplice by some ladies of the congregation. During the sickness which so generally prevailed through the country last summer, this parish was mercifully spared, not a single case of cholera having occurred amongst us. In consequence, a thanksgiving service was appointed for each Wednesday in Advent, at the several stations in this Mission: two of them were held, but the Bishop having in the meantime appointed Sunday the 31st December for a day of general thanksgiving throughout the whole Diocese, the remaining services were postponed till that day. Collections were taken up at the Services, as thank-offerings to be given to the Church Society as the annual collections for Missionary purposes for the ensuing year; the collections amounted to £2 10s. The collecting lists issued by the Society were used in this parish during the past year, and the Incumbent has much pleasure in bearing testimony to the zeal of the lady collectors whose efforts have proved very successful. The parish remits the whole of its contributions, £10, to the Parent Society. Collections after Sermons, for Missionary purposes, 16s. 4d, and for Widows and Orphans, £1 3s. 8d. Total £12.

MISSIONARIES.

WIDOWS' AND ORPHANS' FUND.

There is now placed to the credit of this fund, £1922 7s. 4½d., including £134 12s. 11d. collected during the past year.

It is a subject of thankfulness to the Almighty Disposer of Events, that there has been no demand on this fund during the past year.

The By-law, as amended at a general meeting, held third May, 1854, is given in the Appendix of this Report.

DEPOSITORY.

The usefulness of this Branch of the Society's operations has considerably increased during the past year. There have been issued from the Depository:

Bibles,.....	51
Prayer Books,.....	687
Hymn Books for Divine Worship,	881
Miscellaneous Books.....	100
Tracts,.....	3500
	5219

There is an increasing desire on the part of the Clergy to establish in the different missions small Depôts of books for sale, which the Committee are most anxious to encourage, from a deep conviction of their value in assisting Missionary and Parochial efforts.

EDUCATION.

In accordance with the arrangement made between the Lord Bishop of the Diocese, and the General Committee of the Colonial Church and School Society, noticed last year, a Report has been received of the operations of that Society, from which it appears "that £2060 have been expended, towards which the Parent Committee contributed £780, and of the remainder, £1000 have been subscribed in Canada, and £280 in the United States."

The new Model and Normal School has been removed to the building which has recently been erected in Bonaventure Street, upon which £1500 more have been expended, with accommodation for 180 boys, 120 girls and 50 infants, and is most efficiently conducted by Mr. Hicks.

There are fourteen other schools in the Diocese, in active operation, connected with this Society.

LAY COMMITTEE.

This Committee have carefully examined all applications for aid which have been laid before it, and have at all times, in the report made to the Central Board recommended such a distribution of the funds of the Society as would be most conducive to the further development of local efforts.

With confidence, the Central Board presents this Report of the operations of the Society during the past year.

Much has been done. Much more might be done if the means were placed at their disposal.

They acknowledge with gratitude and thankfulness the contributions which have been received, and which they have been the humble instrument of dispensing, in a manner they trust calculated to promote the glory of God, and the welfare of His Church.

An earnest appeal is made for increased assistance; let not that appeal be made in vain. Let all, united in one common cause, cooperate by their prayers and by their contributions, according as God hath prospered them, in advancing the important work contemplated by the Society.

APPENDIX.

BY-LAW.

To make provision for the administering and improving the Widows' and Orphans' Fund of the Church Society of the Diocese of Montreal.

I.

That all rents, issues, or profits of lands or tenements, held by the Society for the relief of the Widows and Orphans of Clergymen, and all moneys given or granted for the same purpose, unless special provision be made by the grantor or donor of the same for the distribution thereof otherwise, shall be put to the credit of a fund to be called the Widows' and Orphans' Fund.

II.

And that the Society shall and will put to the credit of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund yearly, and every year, a sum of money equal to One Pound Five Shillings for each duly recognized Clergyman in the Diocese, from the Fund for General Purposes, providing that fund will bear such a charge upon it; and that after the current and customary expenses of the Society are paid, the charges for the Widows' and Orphans' Fund shall be the first paid from the General Purpose Funds, and that such sum shall be put to the credit of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund on the first day of April in each year, on the Lord Bishop of the Diocese forwarding to the Treasurer a list of the Clergy duly recognised, signed with his hand.

III.

That each Clergyman, either Incumbent or Travelling Missionary, having Cure of Souls in this Diocese, in order to entitle his Widow and Children to claim the annuity hereafter provided, from the passing of this By-law, or from the time of his appointment in the Diocese, shall remit to the general fund of the Society the sum of £1 17s. 6d. per annum; shall observe the directions, from time to time given by the Lord Bishop of the Diocese, in respect to the collections to be made on behalf of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund, unless such Clergyman shall have been excused by the Lord Bishop of the Diocese in writing under his hand, from making such Collection or Collections in any Church, Chapel, or Station, served by him; but it is essential to the stability and prosperity of this fund, so as to meet the demands that may hereafter be made upon it, that every Clergyman in the Diocese should contribute towards its maintenance, it is hereby declared that any Clergyman refusing to become a subscriber, or neglecting to make the annual collections in his parish, or mission, (except as above stated,) shall not be entitled to any benefits of the fund for his widow or orphans. Should, however, any Clergyman fail to become a member, and afterwards desire to join it, he shall make application to the Central Board, through the Committee of management, and if the Board should favorably receive his application, it can only be on payment of all back subscriptions.

IV.

That a Managing Committee be annually chosen, (at the Annual Meeting,) to control the affairs of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund, consisting of five members of Society, two of whom shall go out annually, but eligible to re-election, and it shall be the duty of such Committee to prepare, for the consideration of the Society at its Monthly Meetings, all business relative to the management, investment and improvement of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund, and no matter connected with the management or investment of the said Fund shall be decided upon until it has first been submitted to such Committee for them to report thereupon to the Central Board.

V.

The Treasurer shall lay before the Central Board, at its Meeting in December in each year, a statement of all moneys invested, or in his hands, belonging to the Widows' and Orphans' Fund; and of all Moneys received and paid on account of the said Fund since the last annual statement. And the Secretary of the Lay Committee shall, at the same time, lay before the Society a statement of all Lands held by the Society by grants or otherwise, on behalf of the said Fund.

VI.

That from and after the passing of this By-law, the Society shall pay an annuity to the Widow of every Clergyman who at the time of his decease shall have been duly licensed to the Cure of Souls in this Diocese, and recognized by the Bishop, or have been placed on any retired List with the consent of His Lordship, and from the passing of this By-law, or from the time of his appointment in the Diocese, shall have been a subscriber as set forth in Rule 3. And who shall have complied with the requirements of this By-law, such annuity to be of Forty Pounds currency, payable in two equal half-yearly payments on the first day of January and July in each year; the first of such half-yearly payments, or such portion thereof as may have accrued from the day of the death of her husband, to be made on the day above mentioned, next following the death of her husband, so long as she shall remain a Widow. In the event of marrying again, the question of continuation of annuity to be re-considered. And in case such Widow shall, at her death or marriage, have four or more children by her late husband under the age of eighteen years, such annuity shall be paid to the guardians of such children; and should there be less than four children, then such a sum, not exceeding Ten Pounds, shall be paid as aforesaid for each, and that all annuities paid for children shall cease on the day at which they attain the age of eighteen years. And in case of a Clergyman deceased, leaving no Widow, but leaving children, then such children to enjoy the annuity as above provided. But as circumstances may occur to cause this fund to fluctuate in its amount, the Central Board may, on receiving a special report from the Managing Committee, respecting the funds of the Society, increase or diminish the annuity to the Widows or Orphans, should it appear advisable or necessary so to do.

VII.

As it is but just and equitable that when any member of this Association, who should in future marry a lady many years younger than himself, and thereby in the common course of events leave a Widow for many years drawing her pension, and so become a heavy burthen on the Fund, the following scale of fines shall be established as a rule of the Society, for all under such circumstances.

From 25 to 30.....	0	15	0	} For every year more than five years that the wife is younger than the husband.
30 to 40.....	1	10	0
40 to 50.....	2	2	0
50 to 60.....	3	3	0
60 to 70.....	4	4	0
70 and upwards....	6	6	0

VIII.

That the money already in the hands of the Treasurer, and the annual collections in the Diocese, together with the amount put to the credit of the Fund annually by the Society, for each of the Clergy, that these several sums shall be put out, as far as is practicable, at compound interest, and not used for the space of eight years.

And in the event of any Widow to be pensioned in the interval of the eight years, the pension to be paid out of general funds of the Society.

IX.

Every Widow, or the guardians of any of the Orphans of a Clergyman, desiring annuities from the Widows' and Orphans' Fund, shall apply by Memorial to the Church Society of the Diocese of Montreal for such annuity, setting forth the time of decease of such Clergyman, the name of such Widow, and the names and ages of each of the children as the case may be.

X.

Every Annuitant on the Widows' and Orphans' Fund shall, whenever he or she may be paid his or her half-yearly annuity, make one of the following declarations, in the presence of a Clergyman or Magistrate, which declaration shall be attested by the Clergyman or Magistrate before whom it is made:—

Declaration to be made by a Widow—

I —, do hereby declare that I am the widow of the late Reverend —, that I am entitled to an annuity from the Widows' and Orphans' Fund of the Church Society of the Diocese of Montreal, and that I am still a Widow.

XI.

Should any doubt hereafter arise as to the interpretation of this By-law, or the construction which should be put upon it, or upon any of its clauses, such doubt shall be referred to the Standing Committee, or to any other Committee that shall be appointed for that purpose by the Central Board, who shall make a report thereupon to the General Monthly Meeting of the Church Society of the Diocese of Montreal, and the decision upon such doubt shall be final.

The PATRONAGE OF THE RECTORIES in this Diocese is by an Act of the Legislature (14 & 15 Vic: c. 175) now vested in the Church Society.

At a general meeting, held on 5th October, 1852, it was resolved:—

Resolved,—That, in accordance with the terms of an Act passed, 14 & 15 Vict., c. 173, respecting the patronage of certain Rectories, established by letters patent in Canada, on a vacancy in any Rectory so established in the Diocese of Montreal, the Churchwardens of the Parish Church, having received notice of such vacancy from the Lord Bishop, shall proceed to summon a meeting of the Vestry, as constituted under the Church Temporalities Act, (notice of such intended meeting, having been affixed to the door of the Church on two previous Sundays,) for the purpose of choosing two or more Clergymen in Priests Orders, whose names shall be forthwith returned to the Bishop, in order that his Lordship may, if they shall be found otherwise canonically qualified, select one of them for institution to the said Rectory; and no informality in the manner of choosing such Clergyman by the Vestry, shall invalidate the institution, unless notice in writing shall have been sent to the Bishop, or his Commissary, within twenty-one days from the date of the nomination. But if no such nomination shall be made by the Vestry, and returned to the Bishop, or his Commissary, within three calendar months from the date of notice of the vacancy sent to the Churchwardens, then the right of presenting an Incumbent or Minister to the said vacant Rectory, shall rest absolutely with the Bishop.
