CANADA IS EAGER TO ENCOURAGE BRITISH TRADE

A FEW POINTERS

British Firms Warned That They Must Study Local Conditions.

London, Jan. 23.—The board of trade journal today devotes much space to the question of openings for British trade in Canada.

Manufacturers of the United Kingdom are well aware of certain difficulties which characterize the Canadian market.

Proceeding to utilize this viewpoint the department emphasized that Canadian merchants when asked how British manufacturers could secure the greater portion of their business...

RETURNED MAN FEELS HIGH COST OF TOBACCO Overseas He Could Buy His "Smokes" at Reasonable Price, But Here He Cannot Afford What Has Become a Necessity to Him.

It is upon the returned soldier who has been able to buy his "smokes" at a reasonable price while overseas that the high price charged here for cigars and tobacco falls the hardest.

Opinion among the returned men is unanimous that the war tax upon cigars should be taken off and if necessary should be added to that already placed on a less necessary commodity.

The war tax of five cents on cigars, as it now stood, was exorbitant, but on the other hand suppose it was taken off the cigars and placed on something else.

George H. Gustar, secretary of West Toronto G.W.V.A., was heartily in favor of anything which would cheapen the price of tobacco and cigars.

Semi-Official Temps Complain Negotiations With Traitors Are Permitted.

Paris, Jan. 23.—Whether the effort of the great powers to tranquillize Russia was to succeed or fail has been in no way as yet indicated.

The semi-official Temps asserts that the supreme council's proposal permits traitors who withdrew Russia from the war and turned the entire German strength against France to be received on the same footing as the faithful.

PRICES MUST COME DOWN

Canada is now readjusting its business and all its people to after-the-war conditions.

The great thing is to get this readjustment over as quickly as possible, or as much of it as possible, immediately, and get back to normal on the way to normal.

The cost of living is the most pressing single item. How much work can be carried on depends on wages and prices depend on the cost of living.

The World is trying to help the public in this respect. The price of meats and dairy products must come down to let those who work live, even to let those who may have to take lower wages.

SASKATCHEWAN DEMANDS REDUCTION IN TARIFF

Regina, Jan. 23.—Demands for immediate substantial reduction in preferential and customs tariffs, including acceptance of the reciprocity pact with the United States, were made upon the federal government by the unanimous vote of the Saskatchewan Assembly.

Not only did the opposition support the measure, but Harris Turner, on behalf of the soldiers' representatives in the house, announced their support.

APPOINT COMMISSION

International in Composition Which Would Convene First Labor Conference.

Paris, Jan. 23.—Great Britain's plan for the actual working machinery to carry out the proposed internationalization of labor was outlined to the Associated Press by George Nicoll Barnes, minister without portfolio.

The international labor commission, or bureau, will not deal with purely internal problems of the nations. Capital and labor will still work out their local differences, as before.

AMERICAN LINES WILL REOPEN TORONTO OFFICES

It is expected that Toronto offices of American railroads, which were closed after the United States entered the war, will be reopened at an early date.

The following lines had offices here before the United States entered the war and will all reopen: The New York Central and its branches, the Michigan Central, Lake Shore and Michigan Southern; Boston and Albany; Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis; Lehigh Valley; Chicago and Northwestern; and Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha line; the Union Pacific System, comprising the Oregon Short Line Railroad; Oregon, Washington and Navigation Co., and the Southern Pacific.

Will Discuss International Labor, Punishments for the War, Indemnities and Internationalization of Ports and Waterways.

Paris, Jan. 23.—The council of the great powers today definitely set four main subjects to be presented at the full conference on Saturday—first, internationalization of ports, waterways and railways.

These subjects are not to be discussed in detail, but will be immediately referred to committees for study and report.

The American plans on the first topic are already well advanced. While there is no definite information on the second point, relative to responsibility, and punishments for the war, the sentiment in American quarters inclines to a negative attitude.

The subject of indemnities, will not be presented in the conference with the amounts claimed by each government, but a committee will be charged with the task of determining amounts and also of determining the probable maximum the enemy powers are able to pay.

The meeting tomorrow will have added importance in bringing together the supreme war council, with President Wilson, the premiers and foreign ministers, reinforced by Marshal Foch, Field Marshal Haig, General Pershing and General Diaz and the full membership of the war council at Versailles.

TO DISCUSS MILITARY OCCUPATION.

The subject for consideration is not Russia or Poland, as was supposed, but the status of the present military occupation of Germany, on which the council of nations will share with military leaders.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT.

The text of the official announcement reads: The president of the United States, the prime ministers and foreign ministers of the allied and associated powers and the Japanese representatives met this morning at the Quai d'Orsay.

"First—International legislation on labor." "Second—Responsibility and punishment in connection with the war." "Third—Reparation for war damage." "Fourth—International regime of ports, waterways and railways."

"In addition, the meeting began consideration of the procedure to be adopted with regard to territorial questions."

LATIN AMERICAN QUESTION.

It will probably be several weeks before any Latin American questions will be considered by the peace conference because of the more pressing nature of the European problem.

The boundary dispute between Guatemala and Honduras, in which Secretary of State Lansing was named as arbitrator, is said to be moving toward settlement and can probably be adjusted without reference to the peace conference.

Colombia's Aid to Enemy.

Should the status of the possible be changed as a result of a possible new international sea policy, it is expected that Latin American nations as a whole will make representations asking for modification of what is said to be regarded as a limitation of their rights of sovereignty by the United States.

Revision of the Sino-Japanese treaties of 1915, signed after the presentation by Japan of her 21 demands, will be asked at the peace conference by the Chinese delegation, according to an official statement issued here tonight by the China agency.

RADIAL TO RESUME AT FORMER RATES

Learned That Electric to Burlington Will Restart, to Balk the Hydro. BECK SPEAKS TODAY

Assured of Large Audience of Ratepayers to Hear Big Radial Scheme.

Hamilton, Jan. 23.—With Sir Adam Beck coming here tomorrow night to outline his scheme for the construction of an electrified line from Toronto to the Niagara River, via Hamilton, and Burlington solid for Hydro, it was learned tonight that the Hamilton Electric Radial Company was planning to resume service to Burlington at the old rates.

It was stated that the line would be running in the near future, but that the recommencement of the service would not be to help out the citizens of the municipalities thru which the company has laid its steel. The scheme is to withdraw the petition from the exchequer court of Canada, the corporation being confident that this will be an easy matter and then get the line working in order to make it all the harder for Sir Adam Beck and the Hydro commissioners to take it over.

A Stiffer Proposition.

"Here's the plan," said the World's informant. "The corporation now sees that it is in wrong, but in order to balk the plans of the Hydro people in taking over the line, or at least to make all the trouble they can for the Hydro Commission, they will start the cars going at the old rate, where they know that it would be an easy matter for the company to be absorbed by the Hydro when insolvent, but a stiffer proposition when its cars are running and doing business."

The World interviewed W. C. Hawkins, managing director and secretary of the Dominion Power and Transmission Company, in regard to the service being resumed, but he said: "Well, I never heard of it."

Interest Increases.

Interest in the scheme of Sir Adam's increases here daily, and he is assured of a large audience of ratepayers when he gives a first-hand explanation of his plans for building his ninety-mile electric line and giving a separate public utility service to the Beach and Burlington. The bylaw is now viewed in an altogether different light than when it was submitted in 1917 and the Dominion Power and Transmission Company can be thanked for this change of opinion. They have helped the World to mean to create the opposite effect.

Down in Burlington, the champions of Hydro, headed by Rev. Cleaver, are working like beavers to deal the death blow to the Gibsons. They are lining up their men for election day, when only those wearing the colors of Sir Adam Beck will be endorsed by the ratepayers.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

EAST YORK POULTRYMEN HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting and election of officers in connection with East York Poultry and Pet Stock Association was held last evening in Snell's Hall, Main street. George Patton, president, occupied the chair, and the following officers were elected: George Patton, president; Hon. G. S. Henry, Joseph Russell, M.L.A., Thomas Foster, M.P., Controllers; McBride, Robbins and Cameron, A.L.W.V. Hiltz, and Aid. Johnston, hon. presidents; C. Runley, first vice-president; George McKillop, third vice-president; F. Foster, secretary; F. C. Dawes, treasurer; J. P. Hadley, Dr. Wm. Baker, Thos. Currie, R. Y. Graham, M. Sullivan, G. C. Gandy, E. T. Hapley, A. Webster, James Hodge, E. Pickering, H. Broadbent and C. Ramsey, executive committee.

CHRISTMAS PARTY SEQUEL

The sequel to a Christmas party occurred in the county court yesterday, when Henry Lowe and Joseph Kelly were arraigned before Major Bruntton on a charge of assault. Kelly, a woman calling herself Jennie Little, and a young nephew of the latter had been spending a holiday at Lowe's home at Aurora. About 2 o'clock in the morning of Dec. 25, the party evidently decided to return to Toronto, but the Ford engine presented difficulties. Finally the men were compelled to call on W. L. Baabury, owner of a garage in Aurora. Baabury got out of bed and eventually succeeded in starting the machine, but met with less success, it is alleged, in collecting his fees. The festive party evinced some surprise when they discovered that Baabury was town constable as well as garage keeper. Whether fear of arrest or the wish to strike a policeman was responsible for the assault that followed the discovery is doubtful, but the constable was rendered unconscious and left in that condition by the celebrators. Oliver Whitmore found him some time later and managed to have him taken home. The evidence in court yesterday was of a doubtful quality and did not seem to assist the defendants. Major Bruntton, in summing up, felt that there was no doubt but that the assault was committed by one or other of the accused, and that the other must be an accessory before or after the fact. In view of the youth of Kelly, who is only 19, and the previous good character of Lowe, the magistrate fined each only $25 and costs.

DANFORTH

A high mass will be celebrated at 10 o'clock this morning, by Rev. Francis Sneath, for the late Mrs. M. Cronin, who died on Tuesday last after a lingering illness, in her 84th year, at her late residence, 3 Hartcourt avenue. The funeral will take place after the service at St. Hope Cemetery.

The late Mrs. Cronin is survived by her husband, John Cronin, her mother, aged 94, and Barry Cronin, M.A.F., Ger. and Mrs. M. K. Kelly, Mirza and Lillian. She was one of the first members of Holy Name Church and well known in the district.

RIVERDALE

According to R. G. Elliott, principal of Earl Grey School, Jones avenue, the double-class system inaugurated some time ago will shortly be discontinued. Additional rooms are being prepared in the building for the pupils, on account of the overcrowded condition at present prevailing. Two members of the teaching staff are absent suffering from influenza.

BEACHES

Capt. (Rev.) J. Farrell, C.E.F., Calgary, recently returned after three years' service overseas, delivered an interesting address on the work of the chaplains in France at a missionary meeting in Beach Avenue Methodist Church, last evening. Rev. J. W. Stewart also spoke on the work of the Methodist missions in China. There was a crowded attendance. Rev. A. P. Addison, pastor, presided.

SEEDS FOR SCHOOLS.

J. A. Hill, principal of Frankland School, together with the principals of Park, Ogden, Niagara and other city schools, met in the administration building, College street, to discuss the purchase and distribution of seeds to the pupils in their home gardens during the coming spring.

Mr. Hill pointed out that the need of increased food production would be much greater during the coming year than last season. The war is not yet over, and the allied countries would require supplies from other countries. The pupils should be encouraged to plant vegetable seeds in their home gardens. A working plan was formulated, and the seeds will be ordered from the wholesale houses done up in packets, and sent direct to the schools in readiness for distribution to the children.

BEDFORD PARK

Bedford Park West Ratepayers' Association held a reorganization meeting on Jan. 21, at which the following matters were discussed: Postal delivery, light and sidewalks. The question of the new school will be discussed as soon as the school trustees can get the date fixed. Fire protection will be asked from the city council.

TODMORDEN

Under the auspices of the War Auxiliary of School Section 27, Todmorden, a lecture will be given in Torrens Avenue School on Friday evening next by Alexander MacGregor, entitled "From the Old Country to Muddy York (now Toronto) in 1832." The Traveler's Log-Book and Journal.

Lieut. F. Hunter, C.E.F., will also deliver a short address on vocational training. The proceeds will be devoted to the funds of the auxiliary.

A new ratepayers' association will shortly be organized in Todmorden, according to the statement of E. Collett, president of the Eastdale Ratepayers' Association, who pointed out that George Potter and a committee of local ratepayers have the matter at present in hand.

H. Camp, W. Smallbridge, Jr., Duncan B. Hood and H. Swaby have been appointed delegates to the Amalgamated Ratepayers' Association of York County by the North Eastcourt and Fairbank Ratepayers' Association for the ensuing year. A well-attended meeting of the Willow Mothers' Home and School Club was held in Withrow Avenue School recently, Mrs. John Reddick, president, occupied the chair.

A pleasing feature of the proceedings was the presentation by the organization of a grand piano to the school. Mrs. Reddick made the presentation and R. M. Spier, principal, suitably acknowledged the gift on behalf of the school.

The following artists contributed to a musical program: Laura Grady, May Kinber, Miss Todd and Dorothy Eford. During the proceedings Geo. W. McGill, former assistant master, paid a surprise visit, having just arrived from overseas. He left Canada on the third Tuesday in 1916 and arrived in Toronto three years afterwards, on the third Tuesday in 1919. Tea was served by the teaching staff, and an enjoyable time was spent.

The Women's Auxiliary of the G. W. V. A., Riverdale branch, gave a moving picture matinee yesterday afternoon at the Broadview Theatre, Broadway, and Gerrard, in aid of the funds of the association. There was a good attendance.

EARLSCOURT

J. Cooper, grocer, of Earlscourt avenue, Earlscourt, was knocked down by an auto truck when crossing northward street in front of the public school last night and severely injured, three of his ribs were broken and his mouth was lacerated. He was taken to his home and is progressing favorably. The name of the auto truck was not discovered.

The organization meeting of the Silverthorn branch of the Great War Veterans has been postponed until Monday evening when the election of officers will take place and the association be placed on a permanent footing. The executive committee of the Earlscourt G.W.V.A. will attend with the president, T. H. Barclay, and Secretary C. T. Lacey.

SCARBORO

At the annual meeting of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Scarborough, held last evening the congregation voted a handsome war bonus to their pastor, Rev. Harvey Carmichael. During the past year St. Andrew's celebrated its Centennial, and incidentally, it is the second oldest church in the county. The financial report shows the total receipts of the church for the year to be $6,200. The sum of $448 was collected for missions, and a special fund, amounting to $2,200 as a Centennial offering, was raised to devote to the work of Miss Ethel Glendonning, who is the representative of St. Andrew's in the foreign mission field. The new managers elected are: Frank Weir, A. Paterson and J. Thomson.

LEASIDE

A minstrel show under the supervision of J. Emson was held in St. Cuthbert's Parish Hall, Leaside, last night, in aid of the church debt. There was a good attendance of the congregation and friends.

"All hangars and other buildings at Leaside will remain intact for some time to come," said G. Wishart, of the imperial munitions board, aviation department, to The World yesterday. "There was only one building sold and taken down—the repair shop—since the armistice. The equipment and furniture will, however, be disposed of shortly," he said.

Robertson, of the Robertson Advertising Service, one of the pioneer advertising and business writers in Canada.

was issued under the title of "Business," published and edited by J. S. Robertson, and at the end of the sixth year was sold to the MacLean Co. and was the basis of what has since become the MacLean Magazine. The first business college to offer a course in advertising to students was the British American Business College, and Mr. Robertson was the teacher. Later the Y.M.C.A. embodied this subject in their evening classes, with Mr. Robertson as teacher for several years.

TOO MANY PADRES AT THE FRONT NOW

Methodists Protest Against Sending More Ministers Overseas.

ON WILD GOOSE CHASE

Returned Minister Says Trip is Waste of Time and Money.

Strong protests are being received by the Methodist Army and Navy Board against the overseas trip of Hon. Lieut.-Col. Rev. Dr. F. T. H. Morrison, general superintendent, Hon. Capt. O. Hezlewood, and Rev. Dr. T. Albert Moore, secretary of the army and navy board, and secretary of the Methodist social service committee.

One of the most outspoken protests received is from Capt. (Rev.) F. T. Cook, who is scattered with other general superintendents with the C.E.F. Capt. Cook says: "These men will probably be away from Canada three months. They have gone at the expense of the Methodist Church. They don't know what they have gone for or what is expected of them. It came as a surprise to learn that the Methodist Church had sent useful men on such an errand. I had thought we were thru with that phase of our blundering."

"There are plenty of Methodist chaplains already over there who are better able to deal with the questions involved and who are already free to do anything that is to be done. The Methodist ministers and probationers in the C.E.F. are scattered all over England and France, and it will only be possible to meet a very small percentage of them."

"There is no phase of the returned soldier problem that cannot be better studied and handled at home than across the seas. It is here that they have lived and will live again. Then why a commission overseas to do a work that can better be done at home?"

"What will come of the commission? Introductory ceremonies, followed by sight-seeing around the camps, to be followed in turn by an entertaining account of personal experiences. Following this there will probably be introductions to some military celebrities, to whom the whole thing will be a bore. A great many wise things will be said and the commission will be increasing in wisdom and self-estimation as the days go by. After consulting with the officials of English churches, who by the way are as much in the dark as themselves, a little tour of the continent may be completed and the homeward journey begun."

"On arrival in Canada, a circuit of lectures will be arranged, a suffering public will be treated to another rehearsal of the war."

"It may be a very interesting trip for the commission, but will have no bearing upon the solution of the returned soldier problem. That problem is at home, and the church will be aided by falling over itself and the work right at its doors to do wild-catting in Europe."

Rev. Dr. Creighton, when asked for his opinion of the matter, said: "If a mistake has been made in sending a commission overseas, then it would seem that the responsibility for leadership and inspiration rests upon chaplains who have had the privilege of service overseas, with all that is involved in such service."

COUNCIL HAS DONE BEST FOR RUSSIA

London, Jan. 23.—There is no reason to suppose "that this wise and high-minded offer will be rejected by any Russian government," says the Daily News in commenting on the action of the supreme inter-allyed war council in asking representatives of all Russian governments to meet delegates of the allied and associated powers in Prince's Islands for discussion of the Russian question.

"It affords them all a chance to escape from a future fall of menace," the paper adds. "It relieves them from threats of foreign interference which would have made fiercer class antagonisms and accentuated the material miseries that have so long tormented the hapless Russian people. But it is not only Russia that President Wilson has probably saved by this resolution, it is the hope of the league of nations."

"The Times" says: "Whether the policy declared will work no one, least completely confident. But at any rate, the conference will be free from self-reproach for they will feel sure that they have done everything that was possible to reach a settlement by agreement."

The Manchester Guardian says that the decision of the conference is at the best augury, the displays an admirable spirit of compromise among the powers themselves, it adds, and it is "the first act of the great drama of the establishment of a world's peace."

Depends on Bolsheviks.

"We hope that there will be a response inspired by the same spirit from the Russian people," says the Westminster Gazette. "Whether that is to be so or not will depend in the main on the Bolsheviks. They can, if they so desire, make all the good will of the peace conference nugatory or they can make the meeting in the Sea of Marmora the birth of a new Russia. Whatever the answer, the allied will have the satisfaction of having taken a sane and courageous course. If Russia declines the friendly hand that is now held out, there are other resources open to civilization the none of them hold a title of the promise of the experiment that is now made."

COAL MEN ARMED AT DROP IN PRICE

Unable to Figure Out Why Hamilton Undersells Toronto.

IS THERE A SURPLUS?

Mild Weather and Small Sales Given as Reason for Reduction.

The World's story yesterday that coal of all kinds was selling at $2 a ton in Hamilton rather than in Toronto caused the local fuel commissioner to get busy, and a meeting of the dealers to see what was afoot, was held in the city last night. They expressed surprise that Hamilton was underselling them and stoutly maintained that there was no surplus for the drop in price. Further, they said, there would be no drop in price here until April, when the spring schedule went into effect.

It is probable that the Dominion fuel commissioner will visit Hamilton to look into the situation and into the market in the immediate vicinity of Toronto. Meanwhile the local dealers are somewhat panicky at the turn things have taken in the direction of lower prices.

One dealer said that brokers could be found who would get in large consignments of coal with a resulting slump, and that in such cases this commodity would be sold at temporarily reduced rates.

Profits in Quantities.

J. A. Glover, secretary-treasurer of the Standard Fuel Co., stated that only those who had over large amounts of buckwheat coal could at the present moment afford to sell at the low price. "It is often happened with the small sizes, but rarely, if ever, with the standard varieties. As a matter of fact, said Mr. Glover, all coal was sold on the same basis, and strange too it might seem at a superficial glance the dealer who sold at cheap rates was the man who had the largest stock of coal.

"The prices of coal are still going down, but at times were handicapped by conditions of which special interests might not be aware. In a concise presentation of the subject Wesley E. Barker said that they were met for an informal discussion of the coal situation on the streets of Queen street, midway between Bay and York streets, and the alternative suggestion of the extension of University Avenue from Queen street to Queen south. There seems to be an absolute unanimity of opinion that such a street extension in every case means a devaluation of the property which it touches. The poor arrangement of transportation makes it imperative that there should be a genuine road improvement, that a thoroughfare somewhere between Yonge and Simcoe streets. The New Union street cars use Front street and handle the traffic only with great difficulty. Private vehicles must find their way north on York, Bay or Yonge street in every case, means a devaluation of the property which it touches. He received representatives of the press last evening at the hotel of G. G. "China has made wonderful progress," Dr. Morrison observed, "in the last few years, but after all she is not a land of miracles. I have heard it stated in English papers, for example, that the custom of foot-binding has been abolished. As a matter of fact it is practiced by millions of people, but I am glad to say it is beginning to fall into disuse. NATIONAL CHORUS AT MASSEY HALL

Efrem Zimbalist Enchants Large Audience With His Magic Violin.

Last night's concert in Massey Hall was one of the most enjoyable ever given by the National Chorus, so it was given by the choir itself did not contribute more to the program than the great attraction, however, was undoubtedly the remarkably gifted violinist, Efrem Zimbalist, whose playing was of a sterling character. He the piano art of Joseph Hoffmann, that it must steadily forge ahead among those who appreciate lofty and pure expression and faultless technical ability. His first suite included "Balance Scales in E major, and his easy and confident bearing and delicate tone at once arrested attention. The large work was given with full and thrilling effect, the result of exquisitely sympathetic purity of treatment and interpretation. The lively allegro followed, and then the great artist's soul was again prominent in the "Bethoven's Concerto in G major, played with marked chastity and spirit. The Haydn-Auer Vivace in D minor was a study in rapid technique. In his second suite, "Tor Aulin's very dainty and attractive Minuet in E minor was the first movement, and then he took part in Dr. Ham's Berceuse in G major, with boys' voices and a lady soprano. IF HE DIED-- The Business Would Die

How often have you heard some such statement made about a particular business? It means—that one man, either through technical knowledge, or through his ability as an executive, controls, for the time being, the destiny of the firm. If he died, creditors would become anxious, inquisitive or even troublesome. Many contingencies might arise to threaten the stability of the business.

Unless—his life was insured in favor of the firm.

It is possible to so insure "his" life that the storm can easily be weathered and the business successfully carried on without him.

The matter is very clearly dealt with in a book we have published, entitled "Personality in Business." It would be well worth your while to send for a copy and read it. You may have one of the asking.

MONTENEGRO KING APPEALS TO HIS PEOPLE

Paris, Jan. 23.—The minister for foreign affairs of Montenegro has made public the following note:

The King of Montenegro, learning of the tragic incidents now desolating his country, is anxious to stop the shedding of blood and has addressed a note to his people, as follows:

"To my beloved people: I beg you to remain quietly in your homes and not oppose by arms troops which seek to establish the political forms of the future of our country."

"I have received the highest assurances from high representatives of allied countries that very soon a true opportunity will be afforded the Montenegrin people to pronounce freely on the political forms of their future government. For my part, tell them I shall adhere to that decision with pleasure."

The message was approved by the peace conference yesterday, which authorized that it be sent to Montenegro.

ALAND ISLANDS PROTEST TREATMENT BY FINLAND

Paris, Jan. 23.—The Aland Islands, an archipelago belonging to Finland, in the mouth of the Gulf of Bothnia, have sent a deputation to Paris, consisting of two members of the general council of the archipelago, and M. Sundblom, deputy for the Aland islands in the Finnish diet.

When Finland became independent, the Aland population asked the King of Sweden to re-establish the ancient bonds uniting the Aland islands to Sweden. The Swedish Government proposed to Finland that a plebiscite be taken to settle the question, which then could be submitted to the peace congress for ratification.

The deputation expresses itself strongly against the Finnish government's treatment of the islands in sending Military Governor von Bonsdorff there with Finnish-speaking troops and in treating the islanders as rebels. The delegation today expressed the hope that they would find in the conference and the French public support for their cause.

SALVATION ARMY TAG DAY IS TODAY

Large Sums Looked for in Tambourine and Envelope.

ALL FOR SOLDIERS Every Cent Goes to Help Those Who Helped Canada.

Today is tag day for the Salvation Army campaign. A thousand workers will cover the city and it is hoped that by night thirty or forty thousand will be rolled up for the cause. The hope is based upon the thought that appreciating the need, the public will make it to a great extent a paper instead of a silver contribution. When the Salvation Army is in the street with their boxes, bills and not coin will go into the mouth open to receive them.

Yesterday afternoon at headquarters the mercury rose by leaps and bounds when the mail came in from outside places with assistance to the fund. Forty-three hundred and sixty-two tags were counted. A new clerk had to be put on the desk before the day was over, so constant was the stream. This does not mean that the objective is too low. It will still take a long pull, and a pull together to go over the top, but Colonel Dinnick and his teams are depending on Toronto to maintain its reputation for generosity.

For Patriotic Causes. Perhaps the public generally does not understand that the money collected is for soldiers and their dependents. The assurance is given over and over again that every cent is to go in this patriotic cause. How much this fund is needed was shown at the noon-day meeting when Sergeant Turley told the campaigners that within the last two weeks 397 soldiers registered for the campaign. A third of the returned men are unemployed. A man wearing the Monsie medal had walked twenty-five miles to search for his missing brother who was taken to the Salvation Army. He was given ten dollars at once and employment the following day.

It was stated that Toronto is the only city in Canada where the Great War Veterans are not able to give accommodation to all who may apply. The Veterans Association, Ontario manager for the Bell Telephone Company, was elected president of the board of trade for the ensuing year and E. Hay treasurer. The speakers at the afternoon meeting were: J. H. G. Alderson, elected first and second vice-presidents respectively. The following members will compose the board: Mr. J. D. Allan, A. L. Auld, Hugh Blair, C. A. Bogert, James A. Catto, W. F. Cockshutt, M.P., W. E. Evans, W. J. H. Fox, J. G. H. Arthur Hewitt, J. S. McLean, W. W. Near, J. Allan Ross, R. G. Stanton, C. O. Stillman and C. W. Wilkinson.

A Toss-up. A skin-plum mounted on popples from Lena and enclosed in a small black frame was auctioned by Commissioner Richards at the noon-day meeting. The interest in the auction was high. It was bid up to $3.00 and then was bid down to $2.00. J. Gibbons won for $225. When called upon for a speech Mr. Gibbons said he was not a speaker but he thought he would make money talk.

In introducing Rev. Logan Grogan, R. Dunbar spoke of him as a man on the side of service. Mr. Grogan has lost an arm on the farm, he gave his son to the war—a son who will never return. The fifty-five years of age and had served in the first world war. Mr. Grogan told of the comfort given by the Salvation Army to the men overseas. Its variety and genial atmosphere is giving it a new lease on life. He thought that the army had done so well through the war could be trusted to do well with the money in peace.

You must appeal for large sums, said E. R. Wood, the man above all others who understands the financial situation of Toronto. He knew that heads of firms were willing to do as much as was required. Only that morning he had been told by a man that he would double his subscription of a thousand and that the firm would do even more if on Friday morning the campaign had fallen down. Toronto people only require to be told what to do in the matter of giving.

Teams working on the industrial section of the campaign are in most cases reporting 100 per cent returns. Only the firm whose name was not given was reported to be doing the "measly" thing. The firm is large and the envelope handed in as total returns contained two dollars. One of the collectors, himself an employer, said it was not only the privilege but the duty of the firm to collect. The firm returned out of 200 only two refusals were given.

The total announced last night was $121,812.50. For failing to attach a 1-cent war stamp to a package sold in his store S. Pardo was fined $50 and costs by Magistrate Denison in police court yesterday morning.

TERMINAL MEN SEEK INCREASE IN WAGES

Gang checkers, door checkers, store loaders and porters employed in the terminals of the street railways running into the Toronto yards demand an increase in wages. The officials of the roads when questioned as to their views said that it would be impossible for the companies to make any increase, as the men are now working under the McAdoo scale of wages.

James B. Miller, secretary of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks and Freight Handlers, which has during the past few months grown to be of considerable strength, forwarded the new schedule to the proper railway officials. The demands are that gang checkers receive $3c an hour, door checkers 41c, store loaders 45c and porters 45c an hour. Time and one-half for overtime and double time for Saturdays and holidays is also demanded.

CANADIANS ON EVE OF TRADE CRISIS

Retiring President of Board of Trade Emphasizes Need for Construction.

Completion of the various public works in the City of Toronto and also the elimination as far as possible of the foreigner in Canada's immigration formed the gist of a fine address delivered yesterday before the annual meeting of the board of trade by C. A. Bogert, its retiring president. Mr. Bogert pointed out that Canada was about to experience the greatest commercial crisis in her history, and that the construction programs should be carried out to the letter at the earliest opportunity. He stated that after the shipbuilding boom in the Dominion had reached its height a general decline in shipping might follow, the speaker was confident that the Canadian manufacturer could meet this emergency with his customary resourcefulness. Above all else the Dominion must secure the right kind of immigration, the speaker stated that thru overproduction wheat might fall to one dollar a bushel.

FIRE PROMOTIONS LEAD TO HOT WORDS

Interview Between Chief and McBride Approaches "Free-for-All."

The action of Fire Chief Smith in making public promotions in his department in connection with the establishment of the double-platoon system, before first sending them to the board of control, was strongly criticized by Controller McBride yesterday. The interview between the chief and the controller very nearly became a "free for all." The controller was in his best fighting trim and on more than one occasion during the meeting of the board waxed very hot. After arguments had been advanced by both sides and abuse handed out liberally the matter was left over until the next meeting of the board.

The question of imposing a fee for park privileges of $1 for each permit given for an amusing an exceptional system, before first sending them to the board of control, was strongly criticized by Controller McBride yesterday. The interview between the chief and the controller very nearly became a "free for all." The controller was in his best fighting trim and on more than one occasion during the meeting of the board waxed very hot. After arguments had been advanced by both sides and abuse handed out liberally the matter was left over until the next meeting of the board.

The board carried a resolution by Cont. McBride that the commission be requested to bring in a report as to the cost of establishing bowling greens in various parks at the expense of keeping the same, and the number of permits issued for the last year.

The board of control left the following recommendations to the housing committee: "That the housing committee be requested to consider the advisability of recommending legislation to be submitted for consideration to provide for the regulation of apartment houses and the failure of owners of some apartment houses to rent accommodation therein to people with children."

The board struck out the recommendation of the legislation committee to apply for legislation to transfer the assessment work from the fire and movie houses, which are now received by the government, to the municipalities in the event of refusal of the assessment to provide for the regulation of apartment houses and the failure of owners of some apartment houses to rent accommodation therein to people with children."

Another recommendation of the legislation committee was to provide for the establishment of a pension fund for the purpose of paying retiring allowances in respect of civic employees. "What I want to see established is some sort of a civil service examination and a pension fund," said the controller.

The report of the committee of legislation recommending new forms of revenue came before the board. Mayor Church thought that they should get the Toronto street railway, which pays no taxes on their rolling stock. Controller Maguire said that the banks and trust companies should be compelled to pay the city some part of the tremendous profits they are making. Among the recommendations adopted are: A poll tax of $5 on every unassessed sale of twenty-one and under sixty. The levy of a fee of five cents for each foot of frontage for passing on subdivisions of property. The sale of the city's unrequired property.

WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT. Ex-President Taft's tour of Ontario will close with a great mass meeting at Massey Hall Saturday night, at which Torontonians will show their appreciation of this great jurist and statesman. It is Up to Toronto.

Worse and worse!
Last evening the Salvation Army appeal only resulted in the receipt of less than half of the required $250,000. This is a wretched showing for the reputedly open-handed and generous city, and it requires explanation.
Is there an impression that the work being done by the Salvation Army and that it is a totally wrong impression. There never was more need of this hut work than at the present moment, when the troops in the field have more leisure than at a time when hostilities were not merely in suspension.
Is there an impression that the Salvation Army is a late comer and is trying to make a reputation at the eleventh hour? The army could be further from the truth. The Red Shield was in the forefront from the very first, and if the public have not heard about it it is because of the modesty of the army, and if appeals have not been made earlier it is on account of the self-denial of those in the army who gave all they had, even their lives, if necessary.
Is it possible that the people of Toronto have got into the habit of thinking of the army as an agency of small things and its finances as matters of small economies, pennies and silver collections and jumble sales? That also is an error. The army has handled big propositions, and is doing absolutely gigantic work in some directions. In this army hut work there is a cause which should enlist the greatest enthusiasm of every social worker and every sympathizer with the man in khaki. Large amounts are needed, and larger still would be needed but for the fact that every cent contributed goes to the object in view. The Salvation Army gives its services, so that the most effective work can be got out of a dollar by the Salvation Army of any agency at the seat of war.
Toronto should realize all this and reflect the confidence reposed in the Salvation Army through the world by subscribing liberally and intelligently today, and facing the appreciation of the army's work on record with a contribution which will not be unworthy of the cause nor of the city.

The Modern Midas.

While gold production, from low grade mines at least, may for a time be unprofitable, there is little question but that gold in the near future is sure to appreciate. The world at present is on a paper money basis; in time it will get back to the gold standard. The state banks of Europe, for example, show circulation and deposits alike swollen to a magnitude out of all proportion to their gold reserve. Here in Canada a bank note is no longer redeemable in gold, but the government by suspending specie payments has practically guaranteed all bank circulation.
This means that treasury and bank vaults alike will have to acquire more gold, also they may come themselves for the present with keeping their reserves of gold and placing gold as a commodity under severe license restrictions. They cannot restore the gold standard as we had it before the war without largely increasing their reserves. The gold miner has only to bide his time.
It is quite improbable that enough additional gold will be produced to sustain the present inflation. In the future as in the past the reconstruction period will be followed by a contraction of currency, and a startling rise in the purchasing power of gold. But the tendency which may make the contraction either drastic or violent. The industrial machine of the world has been geared up so high that care must be taken in slowing down.
The British Empire is the greatest gold producer of the world, and the one empire vitally interested in adhering to the gold standard. Nearly every other nation, even the United States, might view international bi-metalism with complacency. England, who is the great trader and carrier of the world, has long insisted upon the gold standard, and as we have seen, in the British Empire gold can be produced in enormous quantities.
Yet the proposal to bounty gold production in South Africa finds little favor with British statesmen and financiers. The United States Government has also declined to pay a bounty to the gold producer.
To the ordinary person who never sees or handles a gold coin, who dreams of a gold mine as a fountain of inexhaustible wealth, the claim of the gold miner for government help seems almost grotesque. Bounties have been paid to the oil men upon the oil that gushes from the earth, to the steel manufacturer, to the ship builder, to the zinc miner, even now and then to the farmer, but the ordinary citizen has looked upon the man with a gold mine as a combination of Croesus, and the man who broke the bank at Monte Carlo! Yet scarcity of labor, increased wages, high cost of explosives and the drop in the price of gold as compared with other commodities, have combined to make the gold miner more or less despondent. He may have good times ahead, but for the moment he must recall the unfortunate Midas who starved to death because everything he touched turned into gold!

The Bolshevik Orator.

One must listen to a Bolshevik speech to understand the gulf that exists between the propagandists of continental Europe and their followers and the sanity and common sense of the west. The Bolshevik orator waves aside all our views, our experiences and our achievements with placid confidence. The Anglo-Saxon mind, he declares, is sentimental and incapable of appreciating the discipline and dictatorship of the proletariat. It is mere sentiment that drives us to individualism and the right to personal freedom. It is only sentiment that inspires our aversion from bloodshed, and presumably it is only sentimental prejudice that makes us object to having our throats cut. There is no God but economics, and Karl Marx is his prophet. The great revelation came from Marx, and these youthful orators almost go on their knees as they talk about the new theory of history and the light on the struggle of the classes that Marx gave to the world. Marxism was not grasped by the Anglo-Saxon because our ideology sprang out of and was a reaction from an entirely different condition and order of affairs. We lacked intellectualism and were really of no account, and were scarcely justified in lumbering the earth with our presence. The Bolshevik orator frankly told his audience that one Bolshevik was worth a million of them. The audience was suitably amused, which is something the Bolshevik does not understand, for he is usually very young, very ardent and entirely lacking in humor.
Unfortunately his shallow, fallacious ideas take root in the uncultivated, unthinking minds which compose most of his audience, and they ferment and brew the hate and destruction which these novices think is the last word of wisdom. They declare that all history is a record of class conflict, and that the final struggle is now on; because as the proletariat is the lowest class when it conquers all the others there will be no other class to use up and conquer it. Folly of this sort is yet strong enough to drench the west with blood, and unless these men are educated and shown what history does teach, the evil is bound to spread. Every class carries within itself the seed of all other classes, and if they were destroyed would recreate them. The Bolshevik orator has not sufficient constructive faculty to perceive this. Nor has he logic enough to see that the Marx' ideology was a reaction from the tyranny and despotism in which Marx flourished.

"WHY DON'T YOU GET AFTER HIM?"

THE WIFE BY JANE PHELPS

Ruth is a Bit Dismayed at What She is to Do.
CHAPTER CXLVI.

Brian had just breathed the words "I hope when Ruth had said she wished she might meet his friends overseas, and whose society he seemed to crave. But Ruth had heard, and she had all she could do to keep from throwing her arms around her husband and telling him that if her work stood between them in any way she would stay with him. She had decided to remain at home and take care of the house while he took care of her. But she glimpsed his tired face and restrained herself. There was much to tell, much to talk about. She would wait until morning.

After breakfast—at which she and her husband were seated—she noticed a woman who rarely wore now save on Sunday, but which in the first days of their married life she affected when in the house—reminded her of a woman she had once seen at breakfast.
"I have a lot to tell you after breakfast, dear."
"Why the fluff ruffles this morning?"
"Perfectly. Do you like my gown?"
"It's great! A woman never looks so well as when she dresses as if she were going to a party." The color in Ruth's cheeks was brilliant as she said this.
"The women who did war work all wore mannish costumes."
"Yes, and they looked all right for that kind of work. They were wonderful. But if they let themselves get into the habit of wearing such mannish things—at least when a man was around."

She watched Brian covertly as he read his paper. She noted the new strength in his face, thought she could read new purpose in the very way he read his morning paper. His concentration was different from the desultory way in which before the war he had scanned the news. It was a risk. Supposed he failed? Was his profession, so failed also to make the home place he seemed to think he could make it if she "stood out from under," as he once, in the long ago, had expressed it.

She thought made her turn hot, then cold. She would then have lost her position. Too well she knew that never would she find another where she would be so happy and contented, where she would be treated with the consideration Arthur Mandel had accorded her. They had little Harvey to think of now; for his sake they must keep going at least decently.
Then came another thought. She would lose Rachel. Dear old Mammy who made everything so comfortable for her, and who idolized the baby. A wave of the old repugnance swept over her as she thought of again washing dishes and wiping up floors. She had saved quite a sum. Brian had also saved something—fall in the cost of living. The high cost of all that was needed in the household. It would take some time for Brian to establish himself again. If only he had waited and not taken that horrid dingy office. Perhaps he could sublet it and take the one she had looked at? She had given up the option, but perhaps it was still vacant.

She longed, yet dreaded, to have breakfast over. She almost wavered in her determination to leave Mandel when the thought of how she would miss her work swept over her. The lovely stuff, being the plans for beautifying some old mansion grow under her hands. It was not going to be easy for her.
She would miss Mandel with his kind thought of her. "Mammy" was always deferred to her judgment; Miss Sweet, her little blond secretary,

IDA ON THE JUVENILE COURT

By IDA L. WEBSTER.
We had our attention turned to the juvenile court again yesterday, and it was some "turn" we might tell you. A woman with three small kiddies was on the elevator in the city hall. Two of the youngsters were hanging on to her skirt, while the third and smallest one was cuddled closely in her arms. Naturally, as most children are, they were afraid of the elevator, and its inborn habit of jerking. Just as naturally we did our best to help her out with them—that is we tried to be gentle and kind (no matter how tough it might have been on our constitution), but the wee ones simply would not stop crying, so there was only one thing to do, and that was to get off and walk.

During the above stunt we learned that she was wending her weary way to the juvenile court, and that she had been doing the same thing off and on for over a week. Her boy had done some terrible thing at school, and the school window, and the commissioner, who is so well able to be a judge of such matters, had had her running through the city court, because it is necessary to inconvenience the parent of the child to such an extent. However, in quoting this instance we are merely respecting a well-known fact. Remands are the chief recreation of the juvenile court.
Cases which should be disposed of with alacrity are kept hanging around for days, and at the same time the people who are employed by Commissioner Boyd are wasting time also. They are supposed to report for duty about 9 o'clock. Very well, he begins the farce of conducting a court about the time of getting into the ground floor very often find the same folks still there. Time may not mean a thing to them, because they are paid by the hour, but we understand it is so popular with him he is stealing that much from the citizens of Toronto, because they are paying his salary, and what is more, they are paying it for him to do some work and to keep peace and contentment in that part of the city which comes under his supervision.
If a boy or a girl is the worst kind of a character it cannot be expected that his or her mother is to be dragged into the affair and kept there indefinitely. Then again if a commissioner is on the job he will not have any desire to waste his time or that of anyone else. Where there is efficiency there is always speed. The commission of the juvenile court and they have been in the city since its formation. There was some talk of an investigation by the city council, but that has all simmered down, and it is really too bad, because right there are our worthy aldermen and controllers might be able to do a lot of good for the city. If they would only take a keen interest in things which are so brazenly in need of attention surely they would be fulfilling all the duties which the municipality expects of them. The juvenile court needs a thorough cleaning out, and right now at the start of the year is the time to see that it is done.
It is almost a miracle that the commission of the juvenile court and they have been in the city since its formation. There was some talk of an investigation by the city council, but that has all simmered down, and it is really too bad, because right there are our worthy aldermen and controllers might be able to do a lot of good for the city. work together to make this change. Certainly things cannot continue as they are now, and the parliament buildings will soon be session. Right at this moment we cannot think of a woman other than Mrs. O'Sullivan, now superintendent of the Mercer Reformatory, who could fill the bill. However, if the woman we have just mentioned could be induced to take the position there is no question but what Toronto would then have the very best. It was not possible for us to get the lady on the phone, so that we have not been able to consult her before writing this article, but at the same time we have no hesitation in again saying that if Mrs. O'Sullivan could be prevailed upon to accept the appointment as commissioner of the juvenile court all would be well, as it is all very much the other way. In closing as the preacher say, we are calling upon Sam McBride to get busy on the case.

GOMPERS DEALS BLOW AT BERNE CONGRESS

British Trade Union Committee Agrees to Aid in Forming International Body.
Special to The Toronto World and New York Tribune by Chester Wright, Copyrighted.
London, Jan. 23.—Samuel Gompers and the American labor delegation, which met significantly yesterday at the conference of the parliamentary committee of the British Trade Union Congress, at the conclusion of a long session the British committee, led by Bowyer Mason, its secretary, announced the passing of the following resolution:
"That we are in favor of the invitation of the American Federation of Labor to take part in the formation of a new international body, and will appoint five representatives to attend the first meeting—time and place to be agreed upon."
The announcement added: "The following five delegates were appointed under the resolution: Lieutenant Colonel William Thorne, M.P., Alfred O'Connell, M.P., Charles W. Rowserman, M.P., Harry Gosling, president of the Transport Workers' Federation, and R. B. Walker, president of the Rural Workers' Association. The first named three were appointed delegates by Henderson to the congress in Switzerland, but resigned. It is generally agreed that they resigned because they believed the congress futile, ill-attended and ill-timed. By agreement, they are making no public statement on the subject, except to say individually that it was inconvenient to attend."
"The Americans leave tomorrow for Paris, and will there make a general confederation of labor proposition similar to the one accepted here today. It is predicted that the French will follow the British lead.
"It seems clear that the action taken today by the British Trade Union Congress committee deals a severe blow to Henderson's plans. The congress he had planned last month of whatever weight it might have had.

URGES CONSTANTINOPLE AS HOME OF LEAGUE

Special to The Toronto World.
Paris, Jan. 23.—Constantinople as the capital of the new league of nations is one of the ideas of Premier Venizelos, who is representing Greek aspirations and Greek claims at the peace conference. In fact, Venizelos thinks no better place could be chosen as its capital than the ancient capital of the Byzantine Empire.
"Why not?" said the famous Greek statesman, when the correspondent, in an interview at the Hotel Merceades, the Greek headquarters in Paris, asked him of the feasibility of such a plan. "Constantinople is the pivotal point of the continent of Europe. Asia and Africa, and the greatest problems in the reconstruction of the war will be those in the region of which Constantinople is centre."
"The straits it commands are the most important in the world and must be free to all nations."

INSTIGATOR OF POGROMS HAS BEEN ARRESTED

Paris, Jan. 23.—Gen. K. Mahomed Pasha, who is said to have been responsible for massacres of Greeks and Armenians, has been arrested, according to a report received here from Constantinople.

CHICAGO INVITES
SUNDAY SCHOOLS

International Council Debate
Venue of Next Year's Convention.

New York, Chicago, Cincinnati and Washington were referred to the new executive of the International Sunday School Council yesterday afternoon for the selection as executive headquarters.

Invitations for next year's meeting of the council were read from Chicago and St. Louis. The invitations were referred to the executive. A conference on various phases of religious education was held at the morning session. Rev. Dr. William E. Gardner declared that a larger organic conception of religious education was required so that a higher national plane of life could be generally attained. Rev. W. J. Knox made the point that the development of home religion would be a potent factor in producing a larger conception of religious education. Instruction in regard to the great missionary movements of the church was emphasized as important by Rev. Dr. Gilbert Glass. Broad-minded social experiments for the benefit of the people would be an important part of the Sunday schools to make religious education sufficiently comprehensive. Executive Salaries.

A twenty thousand dollar budget for the coming year's work was adopted. The chief items were salaries of $4,900 each for the executive and the educational secretary.

On the report of the committee on nominations, the following officers and executive committee were appointed for the coming year: President, Rev. Dr. W. E. Chalmers, New York; vice-president, Rev. Dr. J. C. Robertson, Toronto; secretary, Rev. Dr. George T. Webb, Richmond, Va. Executive committee: J. C. Robertson, G. T. Webb, W. R. Friend, E. H. Langford, H. H. Meyer, R. E. Magill, W. SEVERAL THOUSAND ARE OUT OF WORK

So Says Labor Official Regarding Situation in Toronto.

Captain A. C. Young of the department of labor at Ottawa is visiting Toronto with a view to finding out how many unemployed there are in Ontario, how many returned men, among the unemployed and why. He stated yesterday that his estimate of unemployed among returned men in Ontario was 5,000 from reports received from accurate sources.

Captain Young intends to find out whether the lack of employment lies at the door of unwelcome returned men or at that of the grasping manufacturer. Another subject under investigation is that relating to the recently discharged soldiers. It being reported that in many cases they have been discharged in Toronto, while ready belonging to a different part of Canada.

HAVE A THOUSAND MEMBERS TODAY

Scotchmen as factors of Canadian history today is to uphold and preserve the great traditions of his race for the race in the Canada that is yet to be. Rev. W. G. Black of Eglinton Presbyterian Church, so stated the responsibilities of the Canadian Scotchmen in the course of an interesting address delivered to the members of the Argyllshire Association at their monthly meeting in Foresters' Hall, College street, last night. It was the duty of the Scotchmen, Mr. Black declared, to have the equipment, the temperament and historical inheritance of a Scotchman as well as his responsibility to those who were so endowed.

Mr. Black gave an historical sketch of the Scotch race in Canada. Even as far back as the close of the 16th century the Scotch were attracted to the banks of the St. Lawrence. The fishing industries which flourished in that region. Since the battle of Culloden the Scotch have flocked to the cities of the United States and have been an important factor in the development of this country. It remained for those now resident here to so use the talents and energy of the Scotch of the future a happier and more prosperous country than that for which they were exiled.

In addition an enjoyable musical program was presented.

RETURNED MEN FEEL COST OF TOBACCO

Returned men feel the cost of tobacco is a burden. The cost of production is about five cents per pound, but the retail price is about 15 cents. This is a heavy load for men who have no money.

Another for lower prices. Editor World: Best wishes for success in crusade against high costs. Let me call attention to one fact. Prior to the war the tax on cigarettes was 32 cents a thousand, or three cents a package. At that time standard brands were selling at 10 cents a thousand, or one cent a package. Now the tax is 64 cents a thousand, or six cents a package. This means that the manufacturer has to add 32 cents to the cost of production. The result is that the consumer pays 64 cents for a package that cost only 32 cents to produce.

Last, and who will say that the particular brand of cigarettes is accustomed to use, either tobacco, cigarettes or cigars, is of the same quality now that it was before the war?

Another for lower prices. P.S.—I am convinced re-illeners are also in on this profiteering. Prior to the war the price of a standard brand of cigarettes was 10 cents a thousand, or one cent a package. Now the price is 15 cents a thousand, or 1 1/2 cents a package. This is a 50 per cent increase in price.

PROF. COLEMAN SPEAKS OF BIRD LIFE AT SEA

Prof. A. P. Coleman gave an extremely interesting address last night in the Y.M.C.A. auditorium on "Sea Birds," splendidly illustrated, before a large audience. He ranged from farthest north to farthest south over ground thoroughly familiar to him, which has his own hand, and where he has observed all the types of birds illustrated. Many of the lantern views shown were made from his original photographs taken in the fjords of Norway, or on the coasts of Labrador, or in the harbors of South America.

"In the barren lands you will find three or four land birds to the square mile," he said, "but on reaching the coasts one meets with tens of thousands of sea birds." He showed a series of lantern slides of the magnificent rugged coasts of the north, which formed a striking contrast with the species of birds to be met with at the end of the world. "Totally different types of birds are seen in the north and south," he said, "but gulls are ubiquitous and to be met with all over the world. They and cormorants are the scavengers of the seas. The characteristic birds of the north are elder ducks, gannets, murre and puffins, or sea parrots. In southern seas one meets with pelicans, cormorants and the King of birds, the lordly albatross. The cormorants were important commercially, as they furnished guano on their breeding grounds, a valuable fertilizer. The albatross lives on the wing, which has a spread of from 12 to 17 feet. OTTAWA CAME FROM BEHIND IN SLUSH

Rough Going and Pools of Water When Arenas Finish Behind.

Ottawa, Jan. 23.—Coming from behind in the third period, trying the score and then pressing ahead for the first and only time, Ottawa defeated Toronto by a score of 3 to 2 at the Arena tonight in the biggest hockey game of the season on the local ice in the National Hockey League. The outcome of the game, which was the closing fixture on the first half of the championship race, left the Ottawa second position and Toronto in the second. Had the blue shirts won tonight they would have led Ottawa for the place.

Play took place on a water-covered sheet of ice, and the brilliant scoring that under the circumstances, and the stirring finish brought hundreds of spectators to their feet. The attendance was the smallest of the season at a local fixture in the big professional circuit. This was due to the fact that it was pouring rain. The majority dismissed to the match. Under the weather conditions it was a remarkably good hockey game emphasizing the grip which hockey has on the people of Ottawa. The result was in doubt until the bell rang, and then the night's play there was little to choose. Indeed, in the first and second periods, the Toronto had the better of it, and it was only the whirlwind finish pulled off by Eddie Gerard and his teammates, which enabled the Ottawa team to snatch a victory out of the fire.

Larry Cameron, former champion of the star speed merchant of the Ontario Ontario, made his debut with the Ottawa, and as was to be expected, he got a good reception from his ex-teammates. Play had only been in progress a few minutes when Cameron was tackled by Toronto on the right eye, inflicting a gash which required three stitches on the forehead. Cameron, however, was not fazed, and he was helped off the ice and attended by a doctor, after which he came back to the ice to play the match, with his face covered with court-plaster.

Praise Cameron.

Cameron played great hockey while he was on the ice and proved a big factor in the Ottawa victory. The result was a good account for Cameron, who returned on Saturday last from a tour of the West. Cameron was a champion of the Ottawa Thursday afternoon, and was used for some time in the first period after missing the home team. Cameron was not registered, in the replay these players will not be allowed to play for Goodyear.

Ottawa like a shot for their second goal and left the home team looking foolish. Cameron was effective, if not spectacular, at cover, stopping a pack of hot shots from the sticks of Cameron, Cleghorn and others. Cleghorn was also, both played good hockey on the line, while Meeking and Adams were busy in the first period for slashing at Niagara, and was then handed two penalties. Cleghorn was in the second period, Crawford smashed Jack Darrah in the neck and laid the Ottawa for a double major, putting him off for ten minutes, but during the latter half of the second and third sessions, Serf, Barlow of the Ottawa police department and the Toronto dressing room, and informed Coach Carroll that Crawford should not again be used. He announced that the Toronto Club put Duffy into the game again he would arrest him for assaulting Darrah. Crawford, however, was the troublemaker "Rusty" witnessed the final period from the bench. This left the Toronto with only eight players, as Corbett Denney and Dave Ritchie had been left in Toronto.

Those Ottawa Sports.

On two occasions the blue shirts were forced to play five against six, so serious were the penalties, but they managed to conduct a successful defence game. Ottawa also handled the bumps, however, as Alf Skinner received a bad job in the first period, and was put out of the game in the third. Unfortunately the casualties were numerous, none of the victims were seriously injured.

Until the third period the Ottawa played in very listless form, repeating their poor performances of last week. The defence was loose, failed to block the man they ought to have done, and the forwards lacked speed and staying power. Toronto, on the other hand, right back strong and showed quite a few flashes of what they could probably do on fast ice.

Praising Their Own.

Jack Darrah and Serf, Cleghorn were the best of the Senators. Eddie Gerard set up out of a sick bed to help his team and was a major factor in the third session, when his presence seemed to steady the whole squad in their efforts. Denney was useful until the final period, and then they came back with a vengeance. Denney threw away many chances thru shooting from away outside the defence. Boucher was the only man who checked up with his usual effectiveness, and at times he was really good. Benedict made some clever saves in the nets, but he did not have nearly as much as Lindsay to do. Lindsay played a stellar game in the nets for Toronto and Kerley, at point was probably the most valuable player on the ice. He went thru the

OVERTIME VICTORY TO BURLINGTON SIX

It took Burlington ten minutes' overtime to get a 4 to 2 win over McMaster in the intermediate game at the Arena last night. At full time each club had scored two goals and Burlington ran in the first overtime period.

It was close all the way, but far from the best of hockey. Both clubs showed that they would hardly know a coach if they were introduced to one, and it was a shuffle to get up the puck arrived within scoring distance. McMaster played a better team and deserves credit for their plucky effort. At that they passed better than the Burlington team was goalie Cole. This boy stops them with his legs wide open, but he gets them away and that is what counts in any kind of a hockey game. McMaster played six men and two half nets in their first game at the Arena, and when they trotted out with the regulation six players and only one half net last night, the bettors immediately asked for odds. It looked all off when the only half net broke.

Burlington had one good man outside himself in Galtman. He handled the best, stick-handler on the ice. The rest were much below junior standard. Doolittle, Cowie and Sellers were the best for McMaster. Lepofsky was good in the net.

There was no score in the first period and McMaster got the first tally of the game eight minutes after the second round opened. Burlington got one and each club scored in the third period.

Joe Wright Has Six Men From Last Year's Crew

New York, Jan. 23.—Pennsylvania has the brightest prospects for the development of a winning crew this year, among the candidates who have reported to Joe Wright, for preliminary are all men from the 1918 varsity combination, which was defeated only once, and that time in the final race of the year, when a crew from the University of Pennsylvania hand five men who rowed in the freshman crew last spring, so that Wright may be said literally to have plenty of material.

Wright is making an earlier start than usual in getting indoor practice underway, but he feels that it is necessary in view of the fact that there was no fall rowing last autumn. Wright is a great believer in hard work and plenty of it in the preliminary stages of the development of a crew, and this year's oarsmen are to see no exception to the general rule.

The action of the Pennsylvania faculty authorities in granting permission to revive rowing, but stipulating that all races in the future must be rowed on the home waters of one of the participating colleges, was gained solely at Poughkeepsie, and the vessel which are supposed to exist in Pennsylvania, representative on the board of stewards of the Intercollegiate Rowing Association, at the National Collegiate Athletic Association conference. Mr. Brown said, in defending the training table, that it was undesirable to have a "Poughkeepsie" where he hoped there would shortly be a revival of the annual regatta. But as was indicated, a somewhat different view of the situation.

KITCHENER WILL TAKE TO CANADIAN LEAGUE

Hustling City Would Back a Team in Lee's League—Prospects Bright.

Kitchener, Ont., Jan. 23.—Knotty Lee's solution in Western Ontario on his mission of reorganizing a Canadian Baseball League, met with success here this afternoon when he interested several Kitchener men in the venture.

It is formed this summer Kitchener will be on the map to represent the city in the original league was given birth.

While going the rounds here today Knotty Lee was impressed with the city's business activity, so many factories would immediately take advantage of this sort of pastime and amusement during the winter months.

Kitchener's experience in the old Canadian League makes a revival of the interest here quite easy for Knotty and strong backing will follow. Lee, while break into the employ of the Toronto Leafs, as their financial agent, and likely to be the manager of the club. The high standard of the old Canadian League will be the aim of the league, and that sort was considerably above the average played in the International League last season.

Summing up Lee's recruiting mission this week it seems an assured fact that a league of clubs has been assured for London, Guelph, Kitchener and Brantford. Tomorrow Mr. Lee will visit Mr. Nelson at Brantford, as well as several influential men in Hamilton.

BUFFALO MAN HEADS FIELD AT PINEHURST

Pinehurst, N.C., Jan. 23.—Frank S. Wright of Buffalo broke 74 out of 75 targets in the midwinter tournament at Pinehurst today, and now leads the great field of three birds, and with a total of 369 breaks out of the 375 targets so far thrown.

TO REVIVE THE HENLEY REGATTA

Canadian Associated Press Cable. London, Jan. 23.—Henley Regatta will be revived this year with a program, including races open to services representing the dominions and the allies.

Winipeg, Jan. 23.—At a meeting of the board of governors of the Manitoba branch of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, a resolution was passed directing the secretary to forward to the federal government at Ottawa a request that the daylight savings measure for the Dominion be re-enacted by this coming session.

Daylight Saving Popular in Sports

The campaign to secure more playgrounds for the thousands of young citizens who wish to take part in healthy athletics was given another boost last night when about fifty delegates turned out at the meeting at 25 College street. It was decided to organize into a permanent organization and press the need of the room to let athletics expand. The association will be formed by all the in evening sports bodies of the city having representatives on the executive, and a temporary executive was appointed last night to carry on until the new association is properly formed, and they will carry the fight to the right quarters until everything is going in full swing. Mr. J. Smith was appointed to interview the parks commissioner and get his estimate on what grounds are available.

PENNY ANTE

On two occasions the blue shirts were forced to play five against six, so serious were the penalties, but they managed to conduct a successful defence game. Ottawa also handled the bumps, however, as Alf Skinner received a bad job in the first period, and was put out of the game in the third. Unfortunately the casualties were numerous, none of the victims were seriously injured.

Until the third period the Ottawa played in very listless form, repeating their poor performances of last week. The defence was loose, failed to block the man they ought to have done, and the forwards lacked speed and staying power. Toronto, on the other hand, right back strong and showed quite a few flashes of what they could probably do on fast ice.

Kew Beach Presbyterian In-ternal Strife Ends Amicably

EXONERATE PASTOR Board Resigns in Body, Only to Be Re-instated.

The internal strife and disruption last week seemed imminent to the Kew Beach Presbyterian Church, yet with the annual meeting which was held last night all trouble was at an end and the church once more continued on its placid way. The recent troubles which have of late beset the church came to a head last night when over 700 members of the congregation attended to hear the report of the commission which had been investigating conditions there, and of whom Rev. Dr. G. C. Pilgion had been chairman.

In the report the commission entirely exonerated the pastor of the church, Rev. J. A. Stewart, because as the commission pointed out in its report there was no evidence to show that he had not performed his duties in a proper manner.

The meeting got off to a lively start when the chairman, Rev. James Wilson, ruled that no votes would be allowed the church adherents. This brought a storm of protest from the assembly, and the matter was put to a vote, whereby the chairman's ruling was thrown out. An investigation of the blue book, later showed that adherents were entitled to a vote, and that Mr. Wilson had acted without authority in his first ruling.

AERO CLUB OF CANADA WILL CONTROL FLYING

The Aero Club of Canada has received a cablegram from the Royal Aero Club of the United Kingdom, with which it is affiliated, which completes arrangements for the issuing of permanent pilot certificates. These certificates are known as the "A. I. C. A." certificates, issued by permission of the Internationale Federation Aeronaotique, the governing body of the world in matters pertaining to flying, having headquarters at Paris, France. An aviator's certificate issued by the Aero Club of Canada will now be recognized in every country of the world. Capt. James P. Beatty, acting president of the Aero Club, states that nearly 400 temporary aviators' certificates have been issued, and that the club, now having direct control for the entire Dominion, will replace the temporary certificates with permanent ones at once.

Olivet Congregational Church Has Good Financial Year

The amounts raised during the year were as follows: Local church purposes, $2489.57; Home and Foreign Missions, $2513; Sabbath school, $379.52, a total of $6377.69.

The officers elected for the ensuing year are as follows: Trustees, Henry Wickson, Geo. Davis and R. Wightman; deacons, J. H. Wickson, H. Wyatt, R. Wightman, H. Lockley, H. Ames, J. M. Gardner; board of management, A. E. Malcolm, Geo. Alexander, C. H. Smith, E. Palmer, Mr. Shields, Mrs. Todd and Miss Myatt; musical committee, R. Foss, D. Scott, H. A. Ames, J. H. Wickson, Geo. Alexander, and A. G. Malcolm; auditors, G. S. Daddington and A. M. Robertson.

SHERIFF'S SALE OF LOTS.

Some 2,194 parcels of land will be placed under the hammer at the tax sale, which has been authorized to take place at the city hall on March 5, according to a printed list published by the treasurer's department. Judging from past experience, however, a large number will be withdrawn before the hour of sale, so that the number of parcels will not be so large as indicated.

R.A.F. BLANKETS CHEAP TO SEND TO SERBIA

Possibilities for splendid relief for Serbia are right at hand if the people of Toronto will but co-operate. Seventy thousand pairs of blankets are to be had from the R. A. F. owing to demobilization. These may be had for a fraction of what they otherwise would cost and then sent on to Serbia. The need in Serbia and Rumania is appalling. Ten thousand dollars would buy this wonderful wind-fall and seventy thousand otherwise shivering people would remember Toronto forever as their benefactor. The committee at 88 West King street are asking that they may get support so as to send the blankets speedily.

UNFAIR PENSIONS FOR TUBERCULOUS

Sanitaria Doctors Believe Medical Boards Are Wrongly Constituted.

An organization entitled the "Invalided Tuberculous Soldiers' Welfare League," has been formed at the Mountain Sanitarium, Hamilton, where soldiers suffering from tuberculosis receive treatment. The medical officers under whom they are placed believe that they are in the best position to judge what ought to be done for the soldiers.

They maintain that the sanitarium physicians' recommendations for pensions should receive greater consideration and that pensions should not be reduced beyond the amount recommended by them. A tuberculous specialist ought to be an advisory member on the pension board, or failing this, a specialist in this line ought to examine the patient and the board should accept his recommendation, and that as a general rule the pension awarded by the board twelve months after the man's discharge from the sanitarium, be of a permanent nature and no further reduction be permitted at any subsequent period.

MUCH STILL OWING

Charged with obtaining $600 by false pretences, Frank D. Jamieson, 1509 West Lundy street, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detective Croome, William Harrower, 564 Crawford street, complainant, alleges that he purchased a motor car from the prisoner and on paying $600 was given to understand that he bought the car outright. Later Harrower learned that there was a lien on the motor car.

OPINIONS AGREE

The opinion of one of the greatest tuberculous experts in this country, is that a man's permanent disability should be gauged by the amount of fibrous lung tissue which has developed in the area of involvement. This can never become less and while appreciating the fact that the first six months after discharge from the sanitarium is the most critical and thus necessitate a higher rate of pension than should be awarded permanently, it should be understood that a man's working capacity will never be greater than it is twelve months after discharge from the sanitarium.

The reduction of pensions beyond a certain point is considered false economy, as it results in the man having to overstrain himself to make a living, which invariably results in a breakdown and a return to the sanitarium for further treatment.

BATTALION COMFORT LEAGUE

The annual meeting of the 124th Battalion Comfort League was held last Friday afternoon in the Elm Street Methodist Church school room. The treasurer's report showed that almost $1,000 had been contributed and spent on comforts for the men of the battalion in France during the year. Capt. R. N. Burns, chaplain of the battalion, who returned from France recently, told how the influence of the women in Canada helped to uphold the line of battle in France and Flanders.

It was decided to continue the work of the league and the following were elected officers for the year: President, Mrs. E. M. Chadwick; vice-presidents, Mrs. J. B. Henderson, Mrs. W. G. Watson, Mrs. Charles Walker, and Mrs. Osley; secretary, Mrs. Allan Keith; treasurer, Mrs. C. Thompson; convener of sock committee, Miss Helen Pearce; convener of visiting committee, Mrs. McLaughlin.

SOCIETY

Conducted by Mrs. Edmund Phillips.

His Excellency the Duke of Devonshire was present at the private view of the official British naval photographs in Ottawa on Wednesday. The pictures are lent by the admiralty and exhibited in Ottawa under the auspices of the L.O.D.E.

Lady Blanche Cavendish and Miss Saunders will leave on Wednesday, Jan. 29, for Halifax and sail for England by the Aquitania for a short visit. Mrs. Warren gave a luncheon of 14 covers yesterday for some of the recent brides.

Mrs. Eric MacNeill, formerly Miss Alexander, received yesterday for the first time since her marriage in her flat at the west end of Heath street, over looking the ravine. The pretty and graceful bride looked very smart in Havana brown satin with tunic of georgette crepe of the same shade fastened to the corsage with large bronze buttons, a tiny collar of brown astrachan and a rope of pearls. The drawing-room was sweet with freezing and narcissi, which also decorated the table in the dining-room in a silver basket arranged on a polished table with real lace. MacNeill and Mrs. Schuyler being in charge, Mrs. Murray Alexander assisting the bride.

Mrs. Chase Hart, Clarendon avenue, gave a small bridge party yesterday for Miss Irene Case, when those playing gave the prospective bride a silver basket of pink roses. The hostess wore dark blue tulle and georgette crepe with diamonds. Miss Irene Case was very handsome in white silk flowered with mauve and a large white hat. The polished tea-table was centered with lace and a low silver basket of daisies and willow buds.

Veterans of The Great War

will, tonight and Saturday afternoon and evening, make a house-to-house canvass on behalf of the Salvation Army Fund.

This in itself is a magnificent tribute to the cause, because the Veterans know what the Salvation Army has done for them.

But isn't this voluntary work of theirs magnificent evidence of the calibre of the Veterans?

To go tramping around from house to house after a hard day's work is no sinecure, but they are doing it in the same unselfish way that they did their "big job" in France.

Be ready when they call at your house. Give them a generous subscription, and give in a good-natured way.

The officers, non-commissioned officers and men of the Depot Squadron Royal Canadian Dragoons gave an exceedingly pleasant dance last night in the "Oxide" Hall, College street. The platform, where the orchestra was stationed, was decorated with flags and a table for lemonade was arranged in the hall. Downstairs the guests played euchre and at eleven o'clock a buffet supper was served. Major and Mrs. Harring were present, the latter wearing a black satin gown with tulle and diamonds; some of the officers, committee and guests present were: Mr. W. H. Wardrope, Mr. J. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Beaton, the latter in black, Mr. Percy Arnold, Quartermaster Sergeant J. Travers, Sergeant Sutt, Mr. J. Adams, Private V. Grogan, Sergeant Simpson, Private H. Cooper, Sergeant-Major Walton, Sergeant Sutt, Quartermaster Gaylor, Sergeant Dowell, Mr. Le Bihan, (master of ceremonies), Mrs. Fraser, who wore gray and white silk; Miss Gwendoline McWhinney in cloth of gold veiled with black tulle; Herbert Baldwin, Mrs. Walton, the Misses Walton, Sergeant-Major McGuire, Mrs. McGuire in blue satin and lace, Mrs. Travers in yellow satin with black velvet tunic edged with fringe, Major and Mrs. Steele, Major Widgery, Mr. Barnshaw, C. Perhaps after supper they were more energetic and wakened up to the dance. It was not pretty manners not to dance with their guests.

DURING POLICE STRIKE

Further evidence of the number of places that were entered by thieves during the police strike was brought to light last night when Harry Feldman, 109 West Dundas street, and Samuel Niarman, 205 West Dundas street, were arrested by Acting Detective Croome. During the police strike the clothing store of Hodgson & Quinn, 241 1-2 Yonge street, was entered and between four and five thousand dollars' worth of cloth was stolen. Two men are already in custody charged with stealing the cloth while Niarman and Feldman are alleged to have received the stolen property and are held on charges of receiving stolen goods.

SHIPS AND SAILORS

At the regular meeting of Bond Street Congregational Church held at the men's club an illustrated lecture on "Ships and Sailors of the British Empire" was given by George S. Laing, a master mariner who has voyaged the world over. The lecturer convinced his large audience that on the British merchant marine had depended to no small extent the outcome of the war. Dr. G. W. Milnar presided.

CHILDREN PLAY WITH MATCHES

Fire, thought to have been caused by children playing with matches, partially destroyed the residence in Newmarket owned by E. F. Kane and occupied by John Welr yesterday. The fire brigade was summoned immediately and owing to their good work the blaze was extinguished. The loss is estimated at $500, which is covered by insurance.

SPAIN WAS NEUTRAL BY PUBLIC OPINION

Premier Says He Wished Personally to React Against Aggression.

Madrid, Jan. 23.—Count Romanones, the Spanish premier, was interpellated by Deputy Garcia, republican reformist, relative to his visit in Paris, the Moroccan question and the seizure of ships belonging to the central powers interned in Spanish ports.

The premier replied: "During the war, Spain was the object of constant aggression from the German submarines. I wished then to react against aggression, but found myself deprived of the support of public opinion. We, therefore, were compelled to be neutral and signed we can no longer be neutral. We must resume our present position as a neutral nation."

LIUT. OGDEN COCHRANE PASSES AWAY AT OTTAWA

Had Been Aide to Gen. Logie at Toronto Before Going Overseas.

Ottawa, Jan. 23.—Following a protracted illness, the death occurred in Ottawa this morning of Lieut. Ogdon Dunlop Cochran, a member of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

Lieut. Cochran enlisted with the 125th (Royal Grenadiers) Battalion, Toronto, and was for a time on the staff of Gen. Logie at Niagara and Toronto camps. Some two years ago he went to England, where he entered a cadetship in the Royal Horse Artillery, and it was while training for his commission with the R.H.A. that he received what finally proved to be a fatal injury.

The body will be taken to Toronto tonight, and the funeral will take place from the home of his mother, Mrs. David Dunlop, Highlands avenue, Rosedale, on Saturday afternoon.

DOMINIONS' CLAIM TO PLACE IN LEAGUE

No Question as to the Stand Premiers Will Take on the Question.

(Special Cable by J. W. Dufosse.) Paris, Jan. 23.—The Dominion premiers are finding that a good deal of interest is being shown in the new international status of the British Dominions consequent upon their successful demand for direct representation as autonomous nations in the membership of the peace conference, and they have now to deal with the question of the representation of these countries in the forthcoming league of nations.

STORM IN QUEBEC HOUSE CENTRES AROUND MARTIN

Voice Disatisfaction at Appointment of Montreal Mayor to the Legislature.

Quebec, Jan. 23.—The dissatisfaction which has been voiced both in public and in the press of this province at the recent appointment of Mayor Martin of Montreal to a seat in the legislature council was echoed in the legislative assembly this afternoon and caused a mild sensation in government circles, when George Mayrand, Liberal member for Dorion-Montreal, intervened in the debate on the address when least expected, and entered a strong protest against the appointment.

He was just beginning to criticize the man who was appointed when he was called to order by the Speaker, who said that the rules of the house did not permit the critic to address a member of the upper house.

Mr. Lomer Gouin, in reply, said that the appointment had been made in the interests of the City of Montreal. He said he was just as indifferent to criticisms as he was to praise. He was not ashamed of any of his political acts, and he was not afraid of them. He had become premier with a serene mind, and he would leave with a serene mind, convinced that he had worked for the welfare of the province, history would record it, and the people would recognize the fact.

OTTAWA EXPLAINS PLAN TO RE-ESTABLISH TROOPS

Ottawa, Jan. 23.—The director of public information gives out the following: The whole question of re-establishing Canadian troops in civil life after demobilization had been considered, and various schemes are now practically complete. Sir Edward Kemp, minister of overseas forces, has taken great interest in the matter.

A conference laid down a general policy of co-operation, roughly divided into two sections. Section A deals with the settlement of soldiers on the land, section B the re-establishment in civil life of those who do not wish to go on the land. "Questionnaires" have been circulated to all overseas troops, each officer and man being invited to state what he most desires to do on discharge.

While awaiting discharge, troops are being sent to the Khaki College, which provides education and instruction in every field of knowledge from preparing soldiers for matriculation for the universities and the first and second year work of such institutions down to absolutely elementary education.

ASSEMBLY WILL APPOINT PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT

Berlin, Jan. 23. (A. P.)—The German National Assembly which will convene at Weimar on Feb. 6 is expected to be in session about two months. The first business before the assembly will be the selection of a provisional government because the present government considers its existence at an end with the convening of a constituent assembly.

NO NEW INDUSTRIES, IF WAGES INADEQUATE

London, Jan. 23.—The engineering trades committee of the ministry of reconstruction, which was appointed to compile a list of articles which were not made in the United Kingdom before the war and for which there is likely to be considerable demand after the war, has submitted a report wherein it strongly recommends the extension of special legislation and standardization, especially in the case of small manufacturers, who, it is believed, would do better to confine themselves to manufacturing new types of articles.

GALGARY CATTLE MARKET

Calgary, Alta., Jan. 23.—About 40 loads of cattle were on the market at the Calgary yards today, and prices were well to yesterday's figures. During the latter part of the market yesterday, quite a large number of prime steers were sold at figures ranging from $15.50 to $14.50. Today two steers made $15.00.

CORN PRICES RALLY AFTER FRESH BREAK

Shorts Rush to Snatch Profits—Country Offerings Are Scanty.

Chicago, Jan. 23.—Notwithstanding that under heavy liquidation and heavy selling today all deliveries of corn except January touched the low price this session, the market rallied owing largely to refusal of farmers and packers to accept bearish views. The market closed nervous 7-8 net lower to 3-4 advance, with February 1.29 to 1.29 1-2 and May 1.23 3-8 to 1.23 3-8. Oats finished 1-4 off to 1-8 up and provisions varying from 50 cents decline to a rise of 10 cents.

LESS PESSIMISM IN WALL STREET

Impending Industrial and Monetary Conditions Are, However, Causing Anxiety.

New York, Jan. 23.—Among traders and speculators on the stock exchange today a more hopeful sentiment prevailed, although there was increasing realization that the course of the securities market is largely dependent on impending industrial and monetary conditions.

The tense foreign labor situation found an echo in affairs at home, especially as affecting the textile trade, but the trend of money offerings of further relaxation of rates for time funds.

The weekly statement of the Bank of England was interesting in that it recorded the first large contraction of gold holdings by that institution in many months, offset, however, by increased liability reserves.

The stock market, however, was rattled by detailed comment, apart from the activity and strength of rails after their recent reaction. Extreme gains in that group ran from one to six per cent. but preferred leading, but selling off at the close.

ADANAC IS AGAIN IN BRISK DEMAND

Advance of Nearly Three Points on Buying Orders From Northern Camps.

While Adanac was the outstanding feature in trading on the Standard Exchange yesterday, transactions were well distributed, and the fact that a considerable proportion of the buying came from the northern camps indicated that bullish sentiment in that quarter is steadily growing. The day's turnover in all stocks amounted to 198,000 shares.

BONDS REMAIN ACTIVE IN MONTREAL MARKET

Stocks Are Dull and Heavy—Steels Off One to Two Points.

Montreal, Jan. 23.—Another strong and active bond market contrasted with a dull and heavy tone in stocks on the Montreal exchange today. The war loans continued to lead the way in bonds, but business was spread over an exceptionally large number of industrial issues and relatively speaking, the prominence of the bond department was greater than at any time since the recent revival in these securities got under way.

$5.00 for $4.00 and each Dollar worth more

GROWING!
GROWING!
GROWING!

What is $4.00 today? It is a question of purchasing power. What will $4.00 buy at present prices? Just over one third of a barrel of flour. Before the war flour was selling at $5.00 a barrel.

No one can say just how much more the purchasing power of the dollar will be in 1924, but you can see that the four dollars you put into War-Savings Stamps now, will grow, not only in number, but in value.

Your investment in War-Savings Stamps is like the snowball rolling down a slope. You give it a start and it grows by itself!

Your four dollars becomes five, and every dollar will be worth more. Whether you buy one W-S.S. each day, or each week, or each month, or only two or three in a year, your money is growing, growing, GROWING all the time. Those who cannot invest $4.00 at a time, can buy Thrift Stamps at 25 cents each. Sixteen of these on a Thrift Card will be accepted as $4.00 in exchange for a W-S.S.

LIVE STOCK MARKET.

A light run of cattle, 200 head in all with a market that held fairly steady were the feature of yesterday's trading on the Union Stock Yards Exchange.

As has been the case all winter, anything a little extra choice brought good prices and meat ready sale, but the week has been a fairly strenuous one and at the close a lot of cattle had accumulated, the great bulk of which are booked to one place or other at outside prices. Throughout the week there has been a fair inquiry for good to choice cows, but the medium cows have been hard to sell, and the bull trade was slow yesterday and all week, the heavy weight, bulls being the hardest to sell at from $9.50 to $10.50, not many at the latter price, and heifers and feeders were in good demand, stockers scarce, 50 to 55 lbs. being quoted at from $7 to $8.50, and $50 to $60 lbs. at $9 to $10. Real good calves were well sought after, but medium ones are slow.

The lamb trade is slow and weaker, only the heavyweight and good quality are wanted, and drovers at country points would be mighty well advised to get on the heavy lambs. Some of the latter have been on the market for a week, and are being sold at a discount. The hog market continues unsettled, and the hog selling in the open market according to supply and demand, some of the hog raisers report making 15c to 16c fed extra, some are making and extra bunches selling up to 17c. The run yesterday was 1421, not a bad run, in view of the market conditions.

SPLENDID PROGRESS BY DOMINION BANK

Striking progress in all departments is made evident in the report of the Dominion Bank for the year ended Dec. 31 last. Large gains are shown in total assets and deposits, and the net profits for the twelve months are in excess of those earned in 1913. The bank has closely followed its policy, inaugurated at the beginning of the year, of maintaining a large and ample proportion of liquid assets to guard against any contingency that might arise, and the result of this policy is shown in the material increase in commercial loans during the year.

Some of the salient features in the report are:—

Net profits for the year 1913, $1,086,498.35, an increase of $1,153,533 over 1912 profits. Net profits for 1914, $3,850,099 and 1915, $4,727,833, a percentage increase of 253.6 per cent. Total deposits, Dec. 31, 1913, were $96,107,000, an increase of $12,400,000 during the year. Cash assets at Dec. 31, 1913, were $28,438,000, an increase of $1,160,000 during the year and are now $29,598,000. The bank's liabilities at Dec. 31, 1913, were $84,400,000 and at Dec. 31, 1914, were $100,000,000. Commercial loans in Canada increased during the year from $15,000,000 to $27,000,000. The total assets of the bank at the end of the year were $132,966,000, an increase of $24,000,000 during the year.

BANK CLEARANCES

This week's bank clearances in Toronto were $16,000,000 in excess of the corresponding period of a year ago, and $19,000,000 greater than in 1911. Followings are the totals:—

His Business Facilities were Limited

NATIONAL TRUST COMPANY, LIMITED

The Story of the World's Greatest Gold Mine

The favorable situation of the Sovereign Porcupine Gold Mines can be seen from the fact that its northwest corner is also the southeast corner of the Hollinger Consolidated...

But this in itself would not be important were there not absolute identity in the formation on both properties.

Mere proximity to a producing mine is illusory as the position of the schoolboy who always kept "next to head" when he and another formed the whole class.

We take absolutely no stock in mere proximity. But we do rely with absolute confidence on the inherent merits of our own property.

Furthermore, we can establish by the reports and maps of the Ontario Bureau of Mines that the gold-bearing rock on the "Sovereign" is in all respects identical with that on a very important portion of the greatest gold mine in the world.

We have lately shown that the type of ore-bearing rock, which is common to the "Sovereign" and Hollinger Cons., has been proved highly productive on the latter in veins 14 and 15, and in shaft No. 14, within 500 feet of our ground.

The development of the "Sovereign," therefore, is not a mere experiment or plunge into the unknown. It is a legitimate solidly grounded and exceedingly promising mining operation.

Our knowledge of the geological formation on the SOVEREIGN PORCUPINE GOLD MINE property gives us great confidence as to the future of the SOVEREIGN. With the stock we are now selling at 25c a share the company will quickly prove up the property, and, will, we believe, make the shares worth several times this price.
