THE LONELY GUARD, BY NORMAN INNES.

CHAPTER VIII I slipped alone that evening in high ill-humor—matter of those jewels stuck in my gorge. Earlier, Count Otto von Wagon had offered to do his best to procure me an invitation to sup with himself and his cousins. Had suggested that any small concession I might make to their prejudices would be amply repaid, and had gone so far as to hint that my presence at the ladies' table would relieve him of no little embarrassment. But my temper was such that I could meet his overtures for conciliation neither favorably nor fairly. Giving him no credit for good intention, I curtly refused his offer, once more hinted broadly that my position in Rohm differed widely from his and assured him that it was impossible for me to make the smallest advances towards a better understanding with the Countess.

Eczema, Salt Rheum.

Eczema or Salt Rheum, as it is often called, is one of the most agonizing of skin diseases. It manifests itself in little round blisters, which contain an extremely irritating fluid. These break and subsequently a crust or scale is formed. The intense burning, itching and smarting, especially at night or when the part is exposed to any strong heat, are almost unbearable. The pre-eminent success which Burdock Blood Bitters has met with in permanently curing a disease of such severity is due to its wonderful blood cleansing and purifying properties. No other remedy has done, or can do, so much for those who are almost driven to distraction with the terrible torture, as thousands of signed testimonials can testify to.

THE VIKING'S BRIDE, NICKEL'S NEW FEATURE

Sparkling in its freshness, entirely out of the ordinary in subject and absolutely faultless photographically the Nickel's new programme last evening caught the fancy as no show has for weeks. A Yankee Man 'O' Woman's Fight for Love did not appear on the bill as the major portion is devoted to a fast encounter, which the Nickel's management considered rather too strenuous for its youthful and lady patrons, so it was replaced by The Viking's Bride, a charming romance of 1,000 years ago, and the Bogie Man's Cave, a pictorial version of a childhood fantasy.

Musically the feature last evening was Mr. Keyes' rendering of the high-class ballad As Long as the World Rolls On, which he will sing tonight for the last time. Mr. Maxwell, who is making a continued hit is today booked for the Scotch march-song Bonnie Jean. Last evening the orchestra was particularly brilliant and the incidental effects brought forth many a laugh, especially in the tuncel scene.

A weak Stomach, means weak Stomach nerves, always. And this is also true of the Heart and Kidneys. It's a pity that electric continue to drug the Stomach or stimulate the Heart and Kidneys. The weak nerves, not the organs themselves need this help. This explains why Dr. Shoop's Restorative has, and is promptly helping so many sick ones. It goes directly to the cause of these diseases. Test this vital truth, and see. Sold by all Drug-gists.

Dr. J. B. Corbin, Toronto, N. S., presided, and those present included Drs. C. A. Hodgett, J. H. Elliott and C. H. Lewis of Toronto; Judge Barron, Stratford; Dr. J. D. Lafferty, Calgary; Philip Roy, Edmonton; and J. E. Robertson of Prince Rupert Island.

CONFESSED TO MURDER

Man Troubled With Uneasy Conscience Gives Himself up to Police.

Montreal, March 25.—The police in this city were notified tonight that a man named William Sangster gave himself up in New York, and had confessed to a crime committed near Montreal several months ago. Sangster, who was then named Peter Upson and Joe Lamerole, he had attacked a young man named Pierre Delorme and had shot Delorme when he refused to give up his money.

Sangster stated that his conscience had troubled him since committing the deed, hence his confession. The crime to which he confessed was committed on Oct. 23, Pierre Delorme, a young farmer, was returning from market in the early evening. In the wagon ahead of his parents, who noticed three men sitting by the side of the road. The old couple were not molested, but when their son drove up the highwaymen jumped up and demanded his money. When Delorme offered resistance, he was shot twice, one bullet entered behind the right ear. The noise of the shooting frightened his horses and they ran away from the robbers, and were later stopped by the parents of the unfortunate young man. He was found in the bottom of the wagon bleeding profusely and barely conscious. He was taken back to Montreal but died shortly after. Before dying he told of the attack on him by the three robbers. The confession of Sangster has cleared up the mystery and he will be brought here to stand his trial. His two associates are already in prison, having been sentenced some time ago for burglary.

If you have Catarrh rid yourself of this repulsive disease. Ask Dr. Shoop of Radio, W.F., to mail you free a trial box of his Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Remedy. A simple, single test, will surely tell you a Catarrh truth well worth your knowing. Write today. Don't suffer longer. Sold by all Drug-gists.

THE ESSENCE OF THE BILL. Briefly, the bill is as follows: It provides for the gradual reduction by one-fourth that is, by from 80,000 to 32,000 of the 95,700 licenses now in force.

COMPENSATION. Licenses, suppressed, will be compensated by means of a levy from the "free" part of twenty years, and the fund will be vested in a central authority.

THE LICENSING JURISDICTION. Licensing jurisdiction is to be retained in the hands of the justices, but in boroughs with a population of over 25,000 there will be set up an appeal authority.

A FORM OF LOCAL OPTION. The people of a locality are to have the power of saying that no new license shall be granted at all. Clause 2 of the bill confirms this power on the parochial electors in every licensing district.

REGISTRATION OF CLUBS. The registration of all clubs will have to be renewed annually in order to afford an opportunity for notices of objection to be submitted to and considered by the licensing justices.

A GROTESQUE PROPOSAL. The debate on the bill was a lively one. Mr. Balfour offered strenuous opposition to the measure. He referred to the time limit as a grotesque proposal.

THE TEMPERANCE FEELING. The attitude of temperance reformers to the bill is decidedly favorable. They would like it to have become more drastic, but they accept it with gratitude as a decided step forward.

THE PERIL OF KINGS Try It. By persistent practice of such little exercises as the following may the formidable results be attained.

That some twenty rulers, elective as well as hereditary, have been assassinated within the past forty years, is largely due to a bravery which in some instances has closely approached foolhardiness.

Soon after receiving his knighthood last year, Sir William S. Gilbert, the dramatist, went to Giza at the Mansion House, London. Knowing that he would have to be presented to the Lord Mayor by name, the new knight kept repeating to himself on the way, "Do not forget that you are Sir William, because it is important."
