London, Aug. 28.—The British official statement on the East African war theatre reports further advances of the British and Belgian forces against the Germans. The text follows: "In East Africa the enemy has been driven back eight miles in the Tindi area. In the Kilima area the enemy has partly withdrawn towards the Mbanikuru Valley. Belgian columns are moving south from Kilossa.

"At Mpepos, sixty-five miles southwest of Mahenge, our columns have invested a considerable German force, in the southern area we are approaching Tundera, the enemy's supply centre."

BOBUS FOR THE FEMALE TEACHERS IN CITY SCHOOLS

A special meeting of the school board was held last evening, at which it was decided to grant the female teachers a bonus of $60 extending over a period of six months, dating from July 1, 1917, to December 31, 1917, $80 of this bonus being paid on October 1 and $10 a month for the remaining three months.

Those present at the meeting were R. B. Emerson, chairman; Trustees Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Taylor, Nagle, Coll, Day, Smith, Green, Russell, Dr. H. S. Bridges, Secretary Leavitt and Miss Reid, stenographer.

When the meeting had been called to order by the chairman, R. B. Emerson, Mr. Russell moved that the action of the committee in purchasing $60,000 worth of Alberta province five year bonds be confirmed. These bonds yield 6 1/4 per cent yearly. This motion was carried.

$100 Increase Proposed.

The consideration of increasing the female teachers' salaries, which was the chief business of the evening, was then brought before the board. Earlier in the year it had been proposed that the female teachers' salaries be raised $100 a year. Thomas Nagle was the first to offer any suggestion last night, and he moved that the salaries of all the female teachers of the staff be increased $100 a year, dating from April 1, 1917, and that the minimum salary for the reserve teachers be $400 per annum, instead of $300 as it is at present. There are at present about 191 female teachers on the staff and this would mean an increase of $19,100 for a year, but up to the end of the Christmas term it would mean only $13,370. This motion was seconded by Mr. Smith.

Mr. Russell moved that a bonus of $80 should be granted the female teachers to be paid on the last of December. G. E. Day's amendment was that a bonus of $70 should be paid the teachers, $30 on October 1 and $10 a month for the remaining three months. This amendment was carried.

But it soon became apparent that the disaster was not as great as it had appeared. A fur auction in New York was organized and has been held twice a year ever since with increasing success. New York is also a great fur manufacturing centre. Even before the war more fur manufactures were made there than in London, Moscow or Paris, and the industry has now been so expanded that it is now a great demand for fur clothing elsewhere than in the wilds of Canada to buy furs direct from the trappers. This means a great saving to the fur dealer who has made the move in time to keep the designers busy, while different kinds of furs go in and out of style. For example, many years ago there was a great demand for Russian squirrel, from which a wrap made like a Mexican poncho, with a hole for the head, was made. This passed out of fashion 20 years ago and with it the Russian squirrel. This year squirrel is coming back, and you can see great quantities of the little grey skins in the dealers' storehouses. The Russian squirrel, unlike any of the American squirrels, has a soft, silky coat. The favorite fur coat this year will be a loose-fitting one falling to the hips. It is made in Hudson seal, trimmed with martens, mole and kolinsky. Coats falling below the knees are generally made of seal skin also, and are belted at the waist. Long coats are often made of caracul trimmed with Hudson seal.

Furs One Will Wear or Want To

Will Be Fashionable But Expensive Dealers Are Preparing

Drawing Upon the Countries of Earth for Rare and Beautiful Peltries for Women's Comfort and Adornment

Furs are to be very fashionable this fall and very expensive. The dealers of New York are busily preparing to meet this happy combination of circumstances; they are drawing upon all the fur producing countries on earth for the rare and beautiful peltries that wealthy women demand. A glimpse of the show-rooms of one of the big importers is truly impressive. You may see, according to Frederick Haskin in the Pittsburgh Gazette-Times, for example, a rack perhaps 40 feet long, loaded with silver fox skins and representing an investment of nearly $100,000, for each raw skin is worth from $250 to $1,000. There are long tables piled high with the fur of red fox—windrows of soft, fluffy reds and browns. Mink and marten and sable hang in rich glossy festoons from the roofs, as do bunches of the ermine, snow-white, save for the faint golden tinge on the sides. There are great stacks of Australian raccoon, which is to be a popular fur this fall, and South American guanaco, which will be much worn by little girls.

A Great Fur Year

Down in the cellar the raw furs are stored in bales and stacks. There are great quantities of better quality than Quebec, of lynx and coyote and husky dog from western Canada, of creatures you never heard of from all the continents on earth. America and Russia lead, but there is hardly a country that does not contribute something. Most of the furs are of the very best quality, because of high ocean freight rates and heavy submarine insurance, but the well-to-do are not the only ones who will be interested in the fur trade. The Russian sable, for example, will be limited—Persian lamb, for example. This is the greatest year the fur auctioneer has ever known. Right after the war broke out the industry was somewhat disorganized. The fur auctions had always been held in London, and many of our native furs crossed the water and came back. Then, too, there was a large export trade, and the good part of the manufacturing was done in Europe. When shipments of all kinds ceased, the machinery of the fur business was necessarily thrown out of gear.

THE WAR

With the closing week of August military leaders look ahead to the end of the autumn campaign and are taking stock of this year's progress and its bearing upon the end of the war. The Allies can now count upon only about ten weeks of reliable fighting weather, and perhaps less, before the autumn rains will render large movements difficult and uncertain.

Mr. Frank H. Simonds, editor of the New York Tribune, in reviewing the campaign on the western front this year, says the British and French have no expectation of breaking through the German front in 1917. He thinks victory will come next summer. With the Russian collapse and the failure of the French to take Leon, he says, the western campaign settled down definitely to a series of attacks on limited fronts, following the Petain method, the chief purpose of which has been to recover ridges and other positions of advantage from the enemy, meantime inflicting upon him disastrous losses in men. By the tactics of Petain this has been accomplished with relatively small losses to the Allies.

It has caused the Germans to adopt during the closing phase of the first great battle of Verdun, holding their front lines lightly, concealing machine guns in shell holes and depending mainly upon their artillery to resist enemy attacks. Because of the Russian failure, Mr. Simonds says, Germany has been able to recall some troops from the East, but of greater importance is the fact that many thousands of men who were to be sent to the eastern front were not needed there and the Germans have been able to employ them against the British and French in the west. Therefore, he says, the chance for a decision in 1917 has definitely passed. While that is true, the Allies have won many important objectives, during July and August, and have inflicted upon the Germans much greater losses than they themselves have suffered. In conclusion Mr. Simonds says:

"The French failure to get to Leon emphasized the fact that Germany still had the men and guns. 'She will have neither next year. If the United States is able to put a considerable number of troops—say, a half million—on the Western front, the Allies will have the right to tremendous numbers as well as guns, and if Russia should rally the end would, in my judgment, come before this time next year; and by the end I mean not the fall of Berlin or the passage of the Lower Rhine, but the expulsion of the Germans from France and Belgium and the clear and unmistakable military decision which will dissipate the Prussian idea of victory through deadlock.

"When the war approaches German territory, the fact will be plain to the whole of Germany. Just long as the fighting is far away in France, Belgium and Poland, the German rulers can make a case for insisting upon peace based upon profits for Germany, or, at the least, peace by which Germany escapes all financial payments for her devastations in Belgium and France."

THE SOLDIERS' VOTES

When the bill regarding votes for soldiers was discussed in the House of Commons, The Times and The Telegraph published a fair summary of the debate. Hansard for August 24 arrived only yesterday, and because of the gross misrepresentation of Dr. Pugsley's attitude which the Standard has carried on, a verbatim report of Hon. Dr. Pugsley's speech was published in today's Telegraph. The Standard will now have an opportunity to publish it in full and by doing so it will completely disprove the editorial statements it has been making. If the Standard is afraid to place before the soldiers and their friends the exact words which Dr. Pugsley used it will be easy to draw the right conclusion. Dr. Pugsley never opposed giving votes to Canadian soldiers. In fact, from the first, he joined heartily in the proposal that they should vote, recognizing that they have earned that right many times over, and have, in fact, more right to vote than civilians at home.

The independent Toronto Star presents a few editorial remarks regarding the soldiers' vote bill which the Standard should print for the benefit of its subscribers. The Star says:— In Canada there has been no obstruction of war measures and comparatively little criticism. The Government has had a free hand. Lack of adequate food control in Canada is due, not to Parliamentary obstruction, but to the feebleness and timidity of the Government. We do hear complaints of obstruction at Ottawa, and threats of closure. But they relate not to war measures, not to measures designed to help the Government, but to the nature of the gerrymander. Parliament is unanimous in its desire to facilitate voting by soldiers and sailors. The measure is delayed by discussion over provisions intended to give the Government unfair advantages in taking the vote. One of these was meant to allow blocks of soldiers' votes to be handled by politicians, and slipped in wherever a politician needs them. In taking the vote, one of these was meant to allow soldiers were domiciled in a place where there are plenty of votes for the Government to spare, then these votes could be handed over to a candidate in a close constituency. When this shameful attempt was opposed, the opposition was called obstruction, and the closure was threatened.

But the Standard will not print this. It will continue the practice it pursued when it suppressed Gould's evidence about Fleming and Conzolino's evidence about Tennant and the war resolutions of the western Liberal convention. One result of the Standard's policy of suppression and distortion is that in order to distribute it in New Brunswick the directors are compelled to give it away. Even then free distribution is resisted by a great many people in this province, proof being found in the unclaimed Standards which are so numerous in country post offices. The truth of this statement will be recognized instantly by people in scores of parishes who know that the free distribution has been a pitiful failure and who have helped to make it so by refusing to receive, even gratis, a newspaper of that type.

A few truly horrible remarks on women's dress from the Philadelphia Public Ledger:—"Skins are to be shorter and scander. Such is the prophecy of that mysterious mistress, Fashion, whose edicts those of Fate, none may resist. The question has already been raised by masculine censorious morning, who naturally know nothing of the matter, how a restricting process can go on with due regard to that modesty which, as the Gaelic proverb has it, is the beauty of women. The obvious answer is that modesty is hard to define. It resides rather in the wearer than the gown. The standard of one age is not the standard of another. Have not those who made the loudest outcry against the short skirt already learned to appreciate its fitness? If abbreviation is to be carried still further, women may be trusted to make it alike pleasing to the eye and satisfying to the moral sense."

Even in the matter of soldiers' votes, the Borden government could not refrain from playing cheap partisan politics. The independent Ottawa Citizen says:—"The refusal of the government to permit the Liberals to name half the officers to take the soldier vote overseas will not convince many of the desire of the administration to permit their political opponents any privileges which it can withhold from them. And likewise it may give rise to other thoughts connected with the taking of the soldier vote."

England is our most pitiful adversary. England is particularly the enemy to be struck down.—The Kaiser. And, says the New York Sun, "as a press agent for England Wilhelm is a great success."

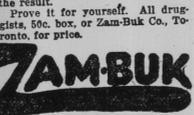

A Wooden Cross. (By Clinton Scotland.) Somewhere, in No Man's Land, a wooden cross, Swept by the rain and beaten by the sun's Pathetic rays, and yet how small a loss; Among the many thousand crosses— one!

How small a loss, you say; but may I but say! To a fair maid who cannot see for tears The flush of spring upon the hawthorn spray! It means the tragic darkening of the year."

Are those personal attacks upon Dr. Pugsley in the Standard dictated by Lieutenant Colonel John B. M. Baxter?

HERE'S A SECRET

If you want to cure that skin disease of yours, you can only do so by using an ointment so refined as to be capable of penetrating to the root of the disease. Zam-Buk is capable of doing this, whereas ordinary ointments remain on the surface skin. Besides its wonderful power of penetration, Zam-Buk is such a strong germicide that germs cannot live where Zam-Buk is applied. Thus, all germs, both on the surface and in the underlying tissues, are destroyed. Then the herbal essences, of which Zam-Buk is composed, promote the growth of new tissue, and a complete and permanent cure is the result. Prove it for yourself. All druggists, 50c. box, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price.

PYRO ROOFING UNAFFECTED BY HEAT, COLD, SUN OR RAIN

Not made with a Coal Tar Composition Nothing but Felt and Trinidad Lake Asphalt

PYRO is a first-class roofing in every respect, and its advantages over other prepared or "Ready" roofings is due to the fact that there is no coal-tar used in PYRO. This means that it does not dry up and become brittle under exposure to the heat of the sun. For this reason it retains its strength and pliability almost indefinitely, instead of becoming hard and cracking, as do roofings made of substitutes for natural asphalt. Put up in rolls containing 108 square feet, with cement and tacks—all ready to put on the roof.

WHAT DR. PUGSLEY SAID ABOUT THE SOLDIERS' VOTE

(Hansard, Aug. 24) Mr. Pugsley—I beg to move, seconded by the hon. member for Welland, that section 2 be amended by striking out the words "whichever or not" immediately before the words "ordinarily resident" in line twenty-two of page one. The hon. member who has the honour of the question is allowed to select his constituency in any part of Canada. Let me appeal to the committee to consider for a moment what the result of that will be. I am told that in the Canadian expeditionary forces there are several thousands of British subjects who have never been residents of Canada, and there may be more before the election. In many instances they are the sons of Canadian parents who have been in the country since birth. They are entitled to the vote, and they are entitled to be counted in the constituency in which they are residing. I think that it is a very serious matter to allow a man who has never been in Canada at all, and who has never been a resident of Canada, to be counted in the constituency in which he is residing. I think that it is a very serious matter to allow a man who has never been in Canada at all, and who has never been a resident of Canada, to be counted in the constituency in which he is residing. SUFFERED TERRIBLY For Days and Nights From DIARRHOEA

Diarrhoea arises from many causes such as a change of diet, change of water, change of climate, catching cold, the eating of unripe fruits or anything that will cause an excess of bile. On the first sign of any looseness of the bowels it should not be neglected, but should be looked after immediately, for if not diarrhoea, dysentery or some other serious bowel complaint may ensue.

Miss Florence Harfield, 928 Lakeshore, Toronto, Ont., writes: "I was troubled with a violent attack of diarrhoea. I suffered terribly with it for four days and nights, and finally I became so weak I did not think I could stand it any longer. My sister advised me to try a bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. I did so, and after I had taken three doses I felt a whole lot relieved. I kept on taking it, and by the time I had taken six doses, the diarrhoea had completely stopped. It did not leave me constipated. I think it a wonderful remedy, as it is so quick to act. I will recommend it to all my friends."

There are so many spurious "Strawberry" preparations sold that you should see that the name "Dr. Fowler's" is on every bottle you buy. Price 85c. Manufactured only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

For Acid Stomachs Use Magnesia

Quickly Stops Sour Burning Feeling and Makes Digestion Painless.

The almost universal use of magnesia by physicians and specialists in the treatment of stomach troubles, is due to the fact that it stops food fermentation and neutralizes the acid—the direct cause of nearly all stomach troubles. Of the many forms of magnesia such as oxides, citrates, carbonates, sulphates, etc., the most suitable and efficient, and the one prescribed by leading specialists is bisulphated magnesia, a transparent of which in a little warm water immediately after eating will instantly neutralize the acid, stop fermentation, and thus ensure painless normal digestion. Care should be taken to get bisulphated magnesia, as its action is infinitely more effective. It is also, by the way, usually stated by druggists in convenient compressed tablets as well as in the ordinary powder form. Stomach sufferers and dyspeptics who follow this plan and avoid the use of pepin, charcoal, soda mint, drugs and medicines are invariably astonished to find that the stomach, relieved of the irritating acid and gas, soon regains its normal tone, and can do its work alone without the doubtful aid of artificial digestants.

THE local owner now has disposed of six players: Barber, to the Cubs; Fes-ter, to the Athletics; Schupp, to the Yankees, and the pair Mack; however, Dunn has signed a young southpaw named Howard McFall, so he is starting early to build his 1918 machine.

It looks as if the Giants must depend almost entirely on the pitching of three star left handed—Schupp, Sallee and Benton—to sweep them this year. These southpaws have won, collectively, forty games this year, and have suffered only thirteen defeats. Schupp's record is sixteen won and six lost. Sallee's thirteen and four and Benton's eleven and three. Sallee has won ten in a row. Benton, who had won nine straight, was charged with a defeat when the Cardinals beat the Giants in the second game on Saturday. Benton relieved Tressan in the seventh frame with the score tied, and in the eighth Cruise scored the winning run on a pop fly, which should have been eaten by either Holke or Hardten. Hard luck for the Rubel!

Baltimore in American League? The latest rumor circulated regarding the transfer of the Washington franchise to Baltimore is not improving the close of the present season. For the last two years the stockholders of the Washington club have lost money, and as the situation at the capital is not improving some definite action is expected to result. It is said that Jack Dunn, president of the club this season, but does not seem to be much of a hitter. Connie Mack, no doubt, will give them a good trial in next spring, and if they do not show the required amount of class Dunn probably will get them back again.

NO 500 HITTERS

Philadelphia, Aug. 25.—With the pitching improving every year the major leagues will never see a 500 hitter, according to Connie Mack's way of thinking. The Athletics' general also thinks that another 400 hitter is a rare possibility. Ty Cobb has a great chance to reach the mark this year, but it is doubtful if he will accomplish the feat. The nearest any player ever came to hitting 500 was in 1887, and "Tip" O'Neill of the famous St. Louis Browns was the man. That season "Tip" hit 492. But he had several big advantages. It took four strikes, instead of three, to retire a batsman, and while five called balls were necessary to get base, they counted as a base hit. Bender a Base Hit. One of the surprises of the present big league baseball season has been the work of Chief Bender, the former star pitcher of the Athletics. The other day he pitched a no-hit game against the Chicago Cubs only one hit. He pitched to only twenty-eight batters during the game. Bender was always looked upon as one of the game's greatest twirlers. Connie Mack once said that the Chief was the best money pitcher in the world. As pitcher of crucial game Bender has had few equals.

WILLARD TO DEFEND TITTE

Detroit, Aug. 24.—Possibilities of Otto having the next boxing match for the heavyweight championship of the world appeared a little better today when Champion Jess Willard told Matt Hinkel, a Cleveland promoter, that he would be glad to defend his title against the winner of the Fulton-Morris bout at Canton Labor Day. Hinkel visited Willard on Wednesday and made him the $250,000 offer. While Jess did not jump at it, he is considering it and has made a tentative promise to take it up.

THE HARDWARE MARKET

(Hardware and Metal, August 25.) Although a large number of important price changes, all in an upward direction, have taken place this week, there has been more or less of a halt in the upward trend of prices in iron and steel. This, of course, does not apply to manufactured products, which still show firmness and an upward tendency. The fact remains, however, that a weaker tendency has developed in the United States market, with a consequent shading of prices. This may be only temporary, but the general feeling is that a readjustment has begun and will proceed as rapidly as could be expected under present circumstances. Ingot metals generally are inclined towards weakness. Malleable fittings and bushings, cast bushings, cast plugs and unions is one of the important lines to move upward. Reaping hooks, hay knives and scythes are lines of harvest tools that have been increased in price. Other lines in which advances have taken place include well wheels, hose reels, stove casters, rat and mouse traps, plunger leathers, valve leathers, farrier's and blacksmith's hammers, stoppage pliers, cobblers' lasts. Declines were registered in bar copper and sheet copper. Bronzes and brasses are in very firm market, manufacturers are brushes experiencing difficulty in getting supplies of bristles for some classes. Linseed oil is in firm market, due to the upward tendency of faxseed. Business has been fairly good during the week.

CAN GET NO WORD OF WOUNDED SON

Roy Anderson In Casualty List On June 7, And Mother Does Not Yet Know Where or How He Is

Although her son was reported wounded on June 7 and the telegram notifying her of his injury promised to send further particulars Mrs. Annie Anderson of 42 Acadia street has not since heard a word from or about him. On that date Mrs. Anderson received a telegram saying that her son Roy Anderson was admitted to a hospital suffering from injuries sustained during a bombardment, but no particulars were given. She wired to Ottawa, but failed to get a satisfactory reply and called to England. She was told that the records showed that her son had been wounded on June 7, and she would be notified if there were any further particulars. She also advised to wire Ottawa to find out if they had anything definite. She complied with their suggestion and this morning received a telegram from Roy Anderson saying that he was again struck in the chest and arm. Captain Shore said that everything possible was done for him and he was removed to a field ambulance.

FORMER ST. JOHN CLERGYMAN ACCEPTS BANGOR CHURCH CALL

Rev. J. Edward Hand, now of Calais, has accepted a call to the rectory of St. John's Episcopal church and made his first appearance as rector-elect on last Sunday morning before a goodly congregation. Rev. Mr. Hand was formerly of St. John's church, St. John. He will begin his duties in Bangor on October 1. At a meeting of the wardens and vestry of St. Anne's parish in Calais on last evening he presented his resignation with the officers of the church who felt, however, that they have great opportunity for the display of his ability in the larger field at Bangor.
