CANADIANS ADVANCE NEARER CITY OF LENS; BRITISH AND FRENCH REPEL FOUR ATTACKS

WHEN GERMANY RESTORES THE DAMAGE TO NATIONS ALLIES WILL TALK PEACE

London, Aug. 4, via Reuter's Ottawa Agency—Right Hon. David Lloyd George was the principal speaker at a distinguished gathering held this afternoon in Queen's Hall to hear leading statesmen discuss the issues and outlook of the war on its third anniversary. The prime minister, who followed Baron Sonnino, Italian minister of foreign affairs, said:

"Baron Sonnino, in addition to being the strong man of Italy, is one of the outstanding figures of European statesmanship, one whose wise counsel and whose resolute will are guiding Italy firmly and safely through the cataclysm of war to a greater destiny than she has ever attained amongst the nations of the world."

Greeted Serbian Leader.

"May I also join you, Sir, in greeting the honored and august leader of the Serbian people, the heroic victims of Teutonic barbarity, waiting patiently and fighting tenaciously and courageously for the hour of liberation, which is assuredly coming."

"This is the third anniversary of the greatest war the world has ever witnessed. What are we fighting for? Do we fight for the most dangerous conspiracy ever plotted against the liberty of nations, carefully, skilfully, insidiously, clandestinely planned in every detail with ruthless, cynical determination. Those who have read the revelations which recently appeared, at the meeting in Berlin a few weeks before the war, must have read with a shudder the account of the meeting of the confederates before the signing of the treaty—one of the most sinister episodes in the whole history of human or womanly conduct. It was a man brigandage. Should there be any German soul who is preparing for an invasion? Who would have thought that we had not gone to war—follow it for the last three years, and the justification for our entry into it will be plain. Do not be blinded, do not be discouraged by unfortunate episodes, while realising the one central fact—that we have checked the ambition of Germany."

Why Not Make Peace?

"There are people who say 'but the peril is now past; why, therefore, do you not make peace. The Kaiser now bears new those resounding phrases about the world power of Germany.' He talks modestly about the world power of Germany. Who would have thought that we had not gone to war—follow it for the last three years, and the justification for our entry into it will be plain. Do not be blinded, do not be discouraged by unfortunate episodes, while realising the one central fact—that we have checked the ambition of Germany."

Chastity Business.

"This is not all. War has a chastity business; but it is not as grim as a bad peace. There is an end to the most horrible war. A bad peace goes on and on, staggering from one war to another. What do they mean? Do they mean peace when they talk it? The truth is—and I have followed closely every line they have uttered, and I have watched their papers—the Prussian war lords have not yet abandoned their ambitions. They are only discussing a postponement of the realization of these."

Present State.

"You will ask, how are we getting along? The roads that have been constructed, these are up and down in our hands, and no doubt the lines are passing through. I am not sure that we have improved the darkest level, but again, the valley can see the sun."

THE SALUTING POINT

Laurier, Pugal ey and Lemieux Review Their Battalions.

"WE WILL TRIUMPH," SAYS THE KING

London, Aug. 5.—King George, writing to the lord mayor of London, thanking him for his reiteration of loyalty and expression of confidence in the efficiency of the fighting forces says: "Three years of war, with all they have meant to every home in the British Empire, have served to weld more closely than ever the bonds of unity and steel the hearts of the whole nation in their firm resolve to secure the sacred principles of justice, freedom and humanity. It is for these we fight, and by God's help we mean to triumph."

STRIKE ON THE CARAQUET AND GULF SHORE R.R.

Bathurst, Aug. 5.—In these days of the increasing cost of living and advancing wages the employees of the Caraque and Gulf Shore railway received a rude jolt a few days ago when they were given notice that their wages would be reduced. The employees, not realising the magnitude of the strike, went on strike. The trainmen refused to move a train from Bathurst, and the road was so completely tied up that the new manager, W. B. Cronk, found himself up against it. The vice-president and general manager was obliged to notify the employees that the old schedule or one similar would be restored. Then the strike was called off. The new manager has another difficulty on his hands. The railroad has boated freight rates and the shippers are objecting. It is understood that freight rates have been practically doubled in many cases and several of the large shippers along the line have cancelled their orders for a re-adjustment is hoped for.

Some idea of the extent of the increases may be obtained by comparing the old rates with the new. A car of pulpwood under the old conditions could be shipped from Tracadie to Bathurst for $18. The new rate is $34. A car of four going into Tracadie now makes it necessary for the dealer to add 25 cents per barrel to his old figures in order to pay the increased freight.

Shippers favor Canada adopting a law similar to that of the United States which forbids railroads to increase freight rates without the consent of the federal government. The Caraque and Gulf Shore railway is a great convenience to Gloucester county, and was built largely through the instrumentality of the late Senator Burns and other wealthy men of the county. It starts from Gloucester Junction and runs east along the Bay de Chaleur to Pukouche, with a branch line to Shippegan, and south down the Gulf shore to Tracadie, near the Northumberland border.

The high cost of material and supplies has affected the road in common with others, and it is said that the shippers would not have objected to a reasonable increase in rates.

BOYS FROM THE DOMINION REACH POINT WITHIN 1,000 YARDS OF LENS CENTRE

Bulletin—British Headquarters in France, and Belgium, Aug. 5, (By Associated Press)—The Canadians last night made an advance on a front of a thousand yards to a depth of 200 yards towards Lens, and consolidated the new position. The Germans delivered a heavy counter-attack at 5 o'clock this morning in the neighborhood of Hollebeke.

Canadian Headquarters in France, via London, Aug. 5. —(By Stewart Lyon, Special Correspondent of the Canadian Press)—Another forward movement to the southwest of Lens has been made with a minimum of loss. For the best part of two weeks in the Cite Du Molin our patrols and those of the enemy have been living an uneasy life almost side by side, with only a few tumbling down walls by them. Yesterday (Saturday) afternoon small attacking parties set out from that part of the Cite Du Molin, already in our hands, and drove in the enemy's patrols along a front of over a thousand yards.

German Casualties. The Germans, for the most part, scuttled back toward Lens, but a number were caught under our fire and killed. A new outpost line was established and prepared for a counter-attack. No counter-attack has been made up to the time of filing this despatch. This advance carries the Canadians well within a thousand yards of the centre of Lens, on the western front of the city. At Avion and Leauville, on the south front, our outposts are now about a mile from the centre, and in the northwest sector, opposite St. Laurent, our line is about fifteen hundred yards from the heart of Lens. The net is fast closing.

Today religious services were held at various points within the corps areas to mark the beginning of the fourth year of war, and to pledge anew the services of the sons of Canada in the light of freedom and democratic government. A remarkable story is told concerning the cool bravery of one of our artillery observation officers. The post from which he had been observing the effect of our gun fire was an excellent one for the purpose. The German gunners, knowing it was being put to use as an observation post, determined to destroy the building, began shooting at it early in the morning with five point nine shells, their most effective projectiles. They continued firing on the structure throughout the day, using, in all, considerably over 300 rounds, at a cost of many thousands of dollars. The building rocked and swayed under the impact of bursting shells, but only twice during the day did the observer leave his post. Once he did so to report that the top of his periscope had been carried away by a burning shell. On the second occasion he told his battery commander, over the telephone wire, that the Bosche had forced him out for a few minutes by throwing part of an adjacent building upon that in which his post was located. His devotion to duty under constant peril, the nature of which can be fully appreciated by men who have seen and heard heavy shells explode within a short distance of them, enabled our gunners to continue their work on a day when aeroplane observation was impossible.

AUSTRO-GERMANS OCCUPY TOWN OF DWINA WATER

Petrograd, Aug. 4.—The Russian war office statement says that a battle between Russians and Teutons is raging to the northeast of Kimpolung, in southern Bukovina. The Austro-Germans have occupied the town of Dwina Water. The high cost of material and supplies has affected the road in common with others, and it is said that the shippers would not have objected to a reasonable increase in rates.

BRITISH COUNTER-ATTACK THROWS GERMAN FORCES FROM TOWN OF HOLLEBEKE

London, Aug. 5.—The Germans made an attack early today along the Ypres-Comines Canal and gained footing in Hollebeke, only to be thrown out immediately by a British counter-attack, says the official statement from British headquarters in France, issued tonight. At other points assaults by the Germans failed. The statement follows:

"After shelling heavily our positions south and north of the Ypres-Comines Canal the enemy launched an attack this morning on both sides of the canal and succeeded momentarily in getting a footing. His troops were ejected at once. We captured several prisoners. Elsewhere the enemy attacks failed."

"A hostile party was repulsed last night south of Quent (south-east of Arras)."

Further Progress. London, Aug. 5.—Further progress has been made by the French north of the Bixchoote, on the Flanders battle front, says today's British official report. The Germans worked up a heavy bombardment of the Entente lines last night in the Hollebeke region. Only raiding operations are reported from other sections of the front. The text of the statement reads: "The enemy's artillery developments were greater during the night in the neighborhood of Hollebeke and the Ypres-Comines canal north of the village. The French troops made further progress north-west of Bixchoote. A German raiding party was repulsed last night south of Arleux-en-Gohelle. Our troops carried out a successful raid east of Vermeles. Early this morning a hostile attack upon a post held by Portuguese troops was driven off with loss to the enemy."

Paris, Aug. 5.—The official communication from the war office today reads: "In Belgium the artillery activity was intermittent. To the north of the Aisne the night was marked by German attempts on various points of the front. The attacks, with small successes on the Casemates plateau, were easily repulsed."

German Attacks Shattered. Paris, Aug. 4.—The official communication issued by the war office tonight reads: "In the region of St. Quentin our artillery carried out effective area of destruction to the east of Cauchy on the enemy's trenches. To the east of Cerny two German attacks, started about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, were shattered by our fire before they were able to reach our lines. On both banks of the Meuse the artillery was especially active in the sectors of Avocourt and Doumout."

Belgian Statement. "Belgian communications. Owing to the bad weather the artillery activity was rather restricted on the whole front."

MANY PLACES OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY OF WAR

Special to The Standard. Fredericton, Aug. 5.—The citizens of Fredericton met at City Hall Saturday afternoon in compliance with the proclamation of His Honor, Lieut. Gov. Ganong urging an observance of the third anniversary of Great Britain's participation in the war. Resolutions reaffirming the unalterable determination of Canadians to carry on the war to a successful conclusion were adopted unanimously.

Saturday afternoon was not a half holiday in the city, the banks, government offices and business houses remaining open as usual. At Christ church Cathedral there were a celebration of the Holy Eucharist and prayer of intercession at 8 a. m. At 11 a. m. there were also special prayers and an address by His Lordship Bishop Richardson and again at 4 p. m. there was an intercessory service. There was a memorial service at the Methodist church in honor of two members of the congregation who have made the supreme sacrifice on the battlefields of France. They were Lieut. Guy Yerra, who was killed in April last, and Capt. Huber Patterson Osburn, who was killed with the flying corps last month.

Sussex Held Meeting. Special to The Standard. Sussex, Aug. 5.—Sussex and vicinity observed the third anniversary of the war last evening by holding a citizens' meeting at Riverside Park, at which His Worship Mayor McKenna presided.

On motion of Judge Jomah, seconded by Rev. Jabez Rice the following resolution was adopted: "That on this, the third anniversary of the declaration of a righteous war, this meeting of the citizens of Sussex determine to continue to the struggle in maintenance of these ideas of liberty and justice which are the common and sacred cause of the Allies."

The resolution was seconded by Rev. Jabez Rice, who spoke in both French and English. Judge R. W. Hewson followed with the oration of the evening. His address was adopted. The National Anthem and cheers for the King.

"East of Cernovitz, in the region of Balaia, we captured Doljok wood. "Southwest of Balaia the enemy occupied the villages of Molodis and Kotulganaki. West of the Zereht the enemy in an engagement captured 100 prisoners. An immense crowd was present. It was a beautiful moon-

Petrograd, Aug. 6.—Premier Kerensky has returned to Petrograd and withdrawn his resignation. He attended a ministerial meeting on Saturday evening, and afterwards conferred with various political leaders. Peace for Russia is inconceivable, Foreign Minister Terechenko asserted at the political conference, which is described as the most momentous assemblage within the country's history of the past 800 years. Russia must prepare to fight throughout the coming winter, the foreign minister asserted, and Alexander Kerensky alone has the nation's confidence.

Special to The Standard. Hillsboro, Aug. 5.—The citizens of Hillsboro observed the third anniversary of the war Saturday by holding a picnic at Taylor's Hill. Addresses were delivered by various speakers. Refreshments were served by the women and the proceeds will be devoted to patriotic purposes. Chatham Observes. Special to The Standard. Chatham, Aug. 5.—A war anniversary meeting was held in the Opera House last night. Mayor Snowball presiding. Alderman Cassidy moved and Ald. Mesereau seconded a resolution. The above gentlemen and Rev. Father Roche, Rev. J. J. Pinkerton and W. S. Loggie, M. P., made eloquent, forceful and earnest addresses. Mr. Loggie came from Ottawa to be present. He is strongly in favor of the military service bill and urged that we do not relax our efforts to see that the necessary men are forthcoming. Our duty demands that we be not weary in well doing. He moved that we extend our sympathy to the bereaved relatives of the fallen, our appreciation and admiration for the wounded, returned, and confidence in the courage and perseverance of the men in the trenches. The resolution was unanimously adopted by a standing vote. Ald. Mesereau, Rev. J. J. Pinkerton and Father Roche regretted the small attendance. Certificates of appreciation were presented to returned soldiers present by the Mayor with congratulatory remarks.

The "Spirit Of The Hive"

If you have read Maeterlinck's "The Life of the Bee" you know the "Spirit of the Hive"—the spirit of working together — cooperation.

The "Spirit of the Hive" is the spirit that St. John must have to grow as it should

St. John is fast becoming a "beehive" of industry and the spirit of co-operation is growing—yet there are some who join in the shouting—who cry "Buy in St. John" and then quietly sidestep and follow their old practice of ordering goods by mail or going to distant cities for things they could buy at home.

"BUY IN ST. JOHN" movement is to help St. John, there must be no more lip-loyalty and much more of the sincere, earnest
"THIS MEANS ME" Spirit.

The idea or policy of preaching without practicing tends to prejudice every movement—lessens every wave of progress.

Instead of the cry "THIS MEANS YOU" let the real booster say: "THIS MEANS ME," and then act accordingly. Then helping St.
John will not be an idle thought without form and void, but a spirit that will bear fruitful results.

Buying in St. John is just as profitable, just as advantageous, and much more satisfactory than buying in distant markets. St. John markets offer equal goods, equal values, equal variety and better service.

"BUY IN ST. JOHN" because you make your living here, because it is your home, because your prosperity is dependent upon the prosperity of St. John, because wherever you live in the St. John district, the City of St. John is your metropolis, your market place.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE EMPIRE—Every fighting unit we can send to the front means one step nearer peace.

SIR ROBERT ANNOUNCES AN ELECTION

"An election is necessary."
This is the summary of Sir Robert Borden's answer to the delegates from the War Convention who waited on him on Saturday and asked for an extension of Parliament and a Union Government.
In asking for a parliamentary extension after the measure framed to secure that end had been vigorously opposed by Liberals in the House, the War delegates practically proposed that the Premier should use his majority in the House and force the extension "by brute force"—a course which Liberal newspapers and Liberal politicians had been loud in condemning before the fate of the measure was finally decided.
It will be remembered that the extension proposal had a scant majority of twenty in the House of Commons and, as Sir Robert himself announced, unless there was a much stronger sentiment in its favor, the Government would not be justified in approaching the Imperial Parliament to ask that the life of Parliament be prolonged.
Consequently there is to be an election with probably a union government before the appeal to the country is made. Well, it is deplorable that while the issue of the Empire war still hangs in the balance the people of Canada should be divided on the question of whether we shall continue in this war to the finish or quit now when the Empire's need is greatest, but, seemingly, there is no alternative.
In the contest to come the Government stands for winning the war. That is and will be the only issue worth consideration. Those who oppose the Government, no matter what name they may give themselves, oppose conscription and the other war measures the Government has taken or will take.
The issue must be clearly defined. Anti-conscriptionists must not be permitted to draw herrings across the trail to hide their own disloyalty. Since there is no other way, since all attempts to secure an extension until after the war have been frustrated by the action of Laurier and his friends and supporters, the Government must accept the challenge.
Sir Robert Borden and his win the war supporters will not shrink the least. An election will find, on one side, a united body of British-Canadians prepared to sink all political differences before the duty of the hour. On the other side will be the Lauriers, Oliviers, Pugsleys, Coppes, Bourassas, Lavergnes, Marsils and Martins who have done nothing to help in the war effort and who are now willing that Canada shall quit altogether. With the country divided in such fashion no loyal Canadian will hesitate as to his choice.

SENATOR ROCHE AGAIN

Senator Roche of Halifax has been making speeches in the Canadian Senate and this is what he said.
It had been stated that there were still in Canada 1,600,000 men of military age who do not wish to go to war for fear of losing their lives. Where there were so many people taking this view a measure such as the conscription military service should be submitted to the people for their sanction. Men taken under conscription would be conscripted and would go to the front under officers who would regard them merely as food for powder. Without an election conscription could be applied to Canada only by armed force.
Canadians should get this gentleman right.
Senator Roche is that mighty rich person who, when approached by a delegation of Halifax citizens asking for a subscription for the Canadian Patriotic Fund, flew into a rage, denounced the war and those who had gone to the front, said the soldiers who volunteered had done so of their own free will and should look after themselves and, finally, ordered the delegation from his premises.
Subsequently, when publicity was attracted to his actions, this wealthy Senator from his boardroom sent a pittance to the Patriotic Fund, which the Patriotic Fund should have returned to him if it did not.
Moreover, Senator Roche was, for twenty-five years, Halifax agent of the Hamburg-American steamship line, a German corporation which was and still is a tool of the Kaiser. Presumably he acquired a part of his pile of dollars through his connection with that company.
Today, Senator Roche is a member of the Canadian Senate, drawing $2,500 of the people's money while using his Senate membership to make what can only be termed pro-German speeches. Is there any good reason why such a condition should continue?
If his name cannot be deprived of his seat in the Canadian Senate he should at least be provided with a muzzle.

RATTLING THE BONES.

The esteemed and courteous Telegraph uses the Valley Railway case to take a side swipe at The Standard. It says: "Two directors of The Standard got between them about $142,500 from Valley Railway contractors." The use of The Standard in this connection is to convey the insinuation that this newspaper profited as the result of those payments. That insinuation is untrue. Not one cent of any such money found its way to this office.
But while we are on the subject of contractors and payments, does the Telegraph remember a little matter of five cents a yard rake-off in connection with harbor dredging in which one of its own directors figured? Was that money, or any part of it used to purchase plant, editors and staff to maintain a newspaper organ in the interests of Mr. Pugsley and his friends? Or was it used for the mere purpose of rendering deficits?
This newspaper has no wish to deal

CARVELL AND CONSCRIPTION.

Frank B. Carvell, Liberal member for Carleton-Victoria, supported the conscription measure of the Borden Government. In his speech in the debate on the second reading he is reported in Hansard as saying: "The men whom we shall send from Canada from now on may be the deciding factor between success and failure."
Yet Mr. Carvell, a few days later voted for a general election in Canada in which the issue will be conscription and the contesting parties conscriptionists and anti-conscriptionists. If the anti-conscriptionists win, where will Canada then get the men who "may be the deciding factor between success and failure."

Mr. Carvell supported conscription. For that he is entitled to whatever credit he can claim for his action. But he did not stop there. He, later, supported a line of policy which may endanger the success of conscription and will certainly delay it if not defeat it altogether. In the light of his second performance who can say that he was sincere in the first?

WHY DIDN'T CARVELL SPEAK?

Saturday's session of the Valley Railway enquiry developed that it was the virtuous Mr. Carvell who dictated the agreement by which Valley Railway contractors bound themselves to make payments which Mr. Carvell today calls "graft." If Mr. Carvell was as honest when he dictated the agreement as he claims to be today that was the time for him to speak. If he had gone to the Government or the directors of the Valley Railway Company and told them what he knew he could have stopped the proceedings then and there. But he kept silent. Why?

WHO IS THE LEADER?

Liberal newspapers which have been clamoring for leadership at Ottawa now have a splendid opportunity to tell the country who is leading the Liberal party? Is it Laurier, or Graham, or Pugsley, or Bourassa, or Mederic Martin, or Tancred Marsil? In a time like this, when the Liberal party is so split and shattered that its best friends would have difficulty in recognizing it, any information on the subject of leadership would be decidedly interesting.

up our banners," the Rev. R. A. Armstrong delivered a powerful and expressive sermon. In addition to the war veterans there were present His Honor Lieutenant-Governor G. W. Ganong, Premier W. E. Foster, Mayor Hayes and the commissioners. Special music marked the service. During the service Father Duke acted as deacon, Father Howland sub-deacon, and there were present in the sanctuary Father Courtenay, Father Allen and Father Walker.
Father Casey delivered a powerful and impressive sermon. He referred to the education which was the cause of the present conflict, on account of the tendency of the people in Europe to forget that there was a God. The doctrine of materialism was practiced and preached in Germany without respect to the Divine Ruler.

is terrible, but the waste of food in times of peace is colossal. Rich and poor alike eat tons of food that has little food value—and this useless food breaks down the so-called eliminating organs and depletes the physical and mental powers. Shredded Wheat Biscuit is all food, prepared by a process which makes every particle thoroughly digested. It is 100 per cent. whole wheat. CARVELL AND CONSCRIPTION.

Frank B. Carvell, Liberal member for Carleton-Victoria, supported the conscription measure of the Borden Government. In his speech in the debate on the second reading he is reported in Hansard as saying: "The men whom we shall send from Canada from now on may be the deciding factor between success and failure."
Yet Mr. Carvell, a few days later voted for a general election in Canada in which the issue will be conscription and the contesting parties conscriptionists and anti-conscriptionists. If the anti-conscriptionists win, where Methodist Service.

The Methodist churches in the city united Saturday afternoon in a service at Centenary church in commemoration of the third anniversary of the war. The chief feature of the service was an admirable address on "Patriotism" by Rev. Henry Peana, pastor of Carmarthen street Methodist church. He picked out the words "Justice" and "Liberty" from the resolution in the notice issued by His Worship Mayor Hayes, and drew several lessons from the example set by the empire to illustrate the qualities of justice and liberty. Prayers of intercession were also offered by several of the pastors and laymen present.

About one hundred and fifty of the veterans in charge of Joseph Dryden, and headed by the City Cornet Band, attended the pontifical benediction at the Cathedral. The parade was viewed from the Cathedral yard by the clergymen. During the parade of the veterans Arthur Godson, under several national and patriotic selections on the chimes. Among the numbers played on the chimes were God Save the King, O Canada, Rule Britannia and the Red, White and Blue. At the conclusion of the sermon by Rev. Patrick Casey, S. J., of Boston, His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc sang pontifical benediction. During the service Father Duke acted as deacon, Father Howland sub-deacon, and there were present in the sanctuary Father Courtenay, Father Allen and Father Walker.

ANOTHER CARVELL EXPOSURE FALLS TO THE GROUND

F. C. Macneil Places Facts Concerning Quarantine Tug Before the Public.

August 6th, 1917.
To the Editor of The Standard.
St. John, N. B.

Dear Sir:

On Saturday the Telegraph published an article headed "A Shady Transaction," copying from the Sackville Tribune some passages from Hansard of July 23rd, from which it would appear to the uninitiated that I was receiving from the department of agriculture at Ottawa something for which they were not getting a quid pro quo, and out of which I was making a large profit, or as Mr. Carvell states in his usual fair way, "a big steal." I care very little what Mr. Carvell or what men of his type think of me, but in order that the public may know the real facts of the case, I would like to retrace on your valuable space in order to relate his false statements made on the floors of the house, and to put this matter right before my friends and the public generally.

When the department of agriculture wanted a boat for the service mentioned, I, as well as others, quoted them prices, and I was awarded the contract at $500 per month. Not only was I to supply a tug boat, but I was to take charge of a scow the department had for fumigating purposes, tow her out to incoming steamships, to prevent any contagious or infectious wharfage during summer months when she was not in use, and keep a man to watch her. The department also required the tugboat to have a steam-heated compartment on deck which had to be built and paid for out of my contract price. Apart, therefore, from making $400 per month, I made considerably less than half that amount.

Now thus far is there anything "shady" in this transaction? When I received the contract I started making arrangements to perform the service, and finally concluded an agreement with Mr. Elkin, who can corroborate the statement that he has been paid considerably more for his boat than the amount mentioned by Mr. Carvell. Was not this a straight business proposition? Is there anything crooked or underhand about it? I leave it to the better judgment of the public to reply.

Now insofar as the necessity of this service is concerned, the department at Ottawa know as Mr. Carvell should know, that unless the quarantine doctor at this port under the aegis of meeting incoming steamers in winter time, in order to examine them, to prevent any contagious or infectious cases being landed in St. John, he could not do his work and the government would be criminally negligent. Mr. Carvell states that the boat is tied up at the wharf most of the time. This is a misstatement, which the quarantine doctor at this port can also contradict. Every boat coming here during the winter months Dr. Reid, I expect, and the public know that with the increased traffic to this port during the winter months Dr. Reid's dock is kept continually busy during the winter months in all sorts of weather. Such a boat has always been employed, not only under a Conservative regime, but when Mr. Carvell's own party were in power, and it is absolutely necessary for the safety of the port.

The public is however getting used to Mr. Carvell's coarse characterizations and such words as "steal," "graft," etc., flow glibly from his tongue but mean very little to those who understand his nature.

I have, Mr. Editor, given you the whole facts of the case to which I am willing to make a sworn affidavit, am willing to stand or fall by the judgment of the public.

Again thanking you for allowing me space to explain my position in this matter.

Very truly,
F. C. MACNEIL.

MEMORIAL TABLET WAS UNVEILED

Impressive Service at St. George's Church, West Side, Yesterday Morning.

A handsome memorial tablet and baptismal font were unveiled at St. George's church, West Side, at the morning service yesterday, with appropriate ceremonies. The unveiling took place at the left of the chancel, where the font and memorial had been previously set up by two of the church wardens, James Martin and S. T. Waters, and directed the unveiling the pastor, Rev. W. H. Sampson, read the names inscribed on the tablet, drawing attention to the fact that out of the 33 members whose names were on the roll only one had paid the supreme sacrifice. After the reading of the names the National Anthem was sung by the congregation. The pastor took his text from Psalms 46:10: "Be still and know that I am God," and dealt on the questions created by the war.

"THE DREAMLAND" THEATRE SITE

With Adjoining Land Purchased by Mrs. Davidson.

Mrs. R. H. Davidson, the well known proprietress of Dreamland Theatre, has given a marked illustration of her success in business. Formerly she was only the tenant of the property known as the Dreamland Theatre, which is located in Fredericton. During the past few days Mrs. Davidson has purchased the building and its site as well as the angle of land running north from it along the I. C. R. track nearly to Queen street.

It is understood that Mrs. Davidson will follow this act of business enterprise by renovating and otherwise improving the theatre some time during the summer, but not at present. It would not be surprising if in another year or so there would be still further improvements owing to the meteoric popularity which the Dreamland enjoys.

Mrs. Davidson has only been conducting the theatre for about three years but they have been three years of marked success and popularity. Mrs. Davidson formerly belonged to St. John and is a sister of Mrs. H. J. Sheehan.

Private Robert DeWitt is home from England and was heartily greeted Saturday at Shediac and today by many old friends. He escaped serious injury at the front but was buried several times in earth and debris and suffered from shell shock. He was one of those shipwrecked just before he landed in this country.

WAR PROBLEM LOOMS LARGE IN THE U.S.

Collapse of Russia Has Thrown Greater Burden, Financially and Otherwise on American Republic.

New York, Aug. 5.—The great war problem looms up larger and larger as the days pass. The first drawings under conscription have hardly been completed for an army of a half million men, when financial plans for another 500,000 soldiers take shape. Congress has been asked this week for an additional appropriation of six to eight billions of dollars.

The collapse of Russia has thrown a greater weight upon us. It is becoming more and more evident that America must furnish the surplus in men, money, munitions, aeroplanes and food to win the war.

The administration is backed by the whole country to go through with it. It has, in fact, become for this country as for the rest of the civilized world—a fight for existence.

The truth of this will impress itself more and more upon our people and every sacrifice will be willingly made.

The $5,000,000,000 army increases asked for by the secretary of war are intended to provide expenditures until July 1, 1918. Senator Smoot this week presented statistics to show that appropriations of the war session already aggregated $9,228,000,000; the $6,000,000,000 or more now asked for would run the amount to above $15,000,000,000, and additional loans to the Allies might easily carry the total up to $20,000,000,000 for the year.

Our best financial talent is needed now to steer the ship, and safe and economic action by Congress to apportioning methods of providing funds with care that the burden does not fall sharply upon industrial enterprise, which must be fostered to the utmost to relieve the strain of enormous expenditure. The reliance should be mainly upon bond issues, and the placing of these in the most widely distributed way must be sought earnestly.—Bache's Review.

Mr. Carvell—There were very many reasons advanced why you should pay the money.

Mr. Macdonald—Yes. Mr. Macdonald, further examined, said he had written out a document, providing for the payment of the $30,000 to Mr. Nagle. The document was dictated by Mr. Carvell, with the exception that a clause was added that in no case should Mr. Nagle pay a portion of the losses, if any, which the company might meet with in connection with the work.

This concluded Mr. Macdonald's evidence. A discussion ensued between Mr. Teed, Mr. Carvell and the commissioner relative to the scope of Mr. Blanchet's audit of Mr. Tennant's books. It was agreed that the audit should embrace all entries in Mr. Tennant's books subsequent to the payment to him of the money by the Nova Scotia Construction Company.

SCARCITY OF STEEL IS BECOMING MORE ACUTE

Will Be Serious Handicap for the Manufacturer—Pig Iron Marked Similar:

Toronto, Aug. 5.—In its summary of the iron, steel, metal and machinery markets for the week ending July 31, Canadian Machinery and Manufacturing News, Toronto, makes the following observations:—The steel and metal markets are making time pending developments in the price fixing situation at Washington. Until some announcement is made in this connection by the American Government it is not likely that there will be much activity. Consumers, hoping for a general decline in prices, are holding off and consequently business is quieter.

The question of the moment is, will steel prices decline, remain stationary or will a buying movement set in and cause a resumption of the upward movement, recently halted on account of the uncertain outlook? Consumers have perforce adopted a conservative attitude and are waiting developments.

Whatever may develop in regard to prices there is little doubt but that the scarcity of steel will become more acute as war requirements are bound to increase, thus diminishing available supplies for the private consumers. This will be a serious handicap, particularly for the manufacturers, whose plant operations will in consequence be curtailed and production correspondingly decreased.

NECESSITY TO EDUCATE PUBLIC IN BOND BUYING

Movement Begun in United States to Begin General Campaign—Employers Are Called on to Assist.

New York, Aug. 5.—The importance of educating the American public in government bond buying is being recognized, and action is being taken to organize an extensive campaign of education. Those who have spoken or written on the subject are urging people, rich and poor, to begin at once to lay aside a certain part of their earnings or income dividends, to be invested in the next loan. Employers are called upon to organize savings movements for this purpose among their workers.

An illustration of the workings of this has been given by Mr. Benjamin Strong, Jr., Governor of the New York Federal Reserve Bank, in a recent article in the Tribune. If, he says, an industrial organization employing 20,000 laborers earning $1,200 each per annum, each could afford $100 out of this, their employer could agree that $8 per month be deducted from each man's pay and deposited in the bank for future investment. Fifty dollars apiece in six months would total $1,000,000. As this was being accumulated, it could be invested in the government's short obligations, which in turn would be used to pay for the loan bonds when they were put upon the market. By this process no inflation would occur while the funds were accumulated, as would be the case if the movement became widespread.

HOARDING OF MONEY IS RELATED TO THRIFT

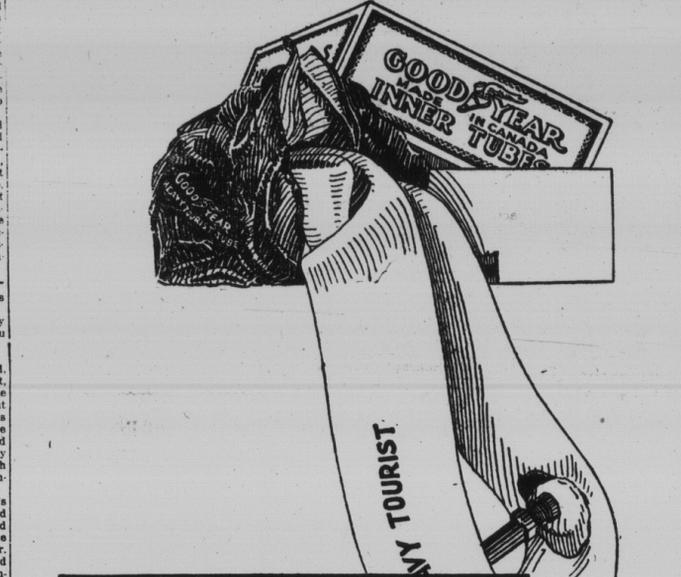

War Has Awakened Even the Oriental World—India Subscribes Over $130,000,000 of War Loan.

New York, Aug. 5.—It is to be doubted whether in this country we have a proportionately large body of hoarders. Hoarders is the first crude step towards thrift, because it is an ignorant method of attempting to provide for future contingencies by putting away present funds.

The Far East has always been the most fertile ground for the cultivation of hoarding (a crop, however, which rarely sprouts, and untold millions of gold and silver have been buried through the centuries and still lie untouched in that ancient soil).

But the war has awakened even the oriental world. A part of the last English war loan was undertaken to be raised in India and the result has been most satisfactory—over $130,000,000 having been already subscribed. The Statist thinks that this will induce the Government of India to provide, whenever possible, means of investment for the saving classes in India, which will be profitable to the natives and will save the body of the natives from the wasteful habit of hoarding. India hoards every year a very large sum—an average estimated close to $54,000,000 per annum.

This hoarding is pure waste. The greater part of it furnishes ornaments for the women; a smaller part is locked up in treasuries. But practically whatever becomes of it, it is waste.

Tubes That Reduce Tire Costs

Good tubes—Goodyear Tubes—will help you get that lower-tire-cost-per-mile that offsets your high gasoline cost-per-mile.

For the tube has a more than superficial bearing on tire costs. It may make or break a casing.

Consider the slow leak—a common feature of poor tubes. It is a nuisance, necessitating constant inflating. But it is more serious. It causes under-inflation—which ruins casings.

If tire costs matter to you—if greater mileage is desirable—choose tubes carefully. Choose Goodyear Tubes because they are fair to your tires.

Lamination is a quality-giving process. By it we insure air-tightness of a greater degree than is otherwise possible.

Fine rubber is rolled out thin as paper so that it can be rigidly inspected for leak-causing flaws. Then these transparent, perfect sheets are built up, layer on layer, into a Goodyear Tube. To perfect it we vulcanize the valve patch in instead of sticking it on.

The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. of Canada, Limited

Goodyear Tubes, along with Goodyear Tires and Two-Saver Accessories, are easy to get from Goodyear Service Station Dealers everywhere.

It returns no interest of any kind to those who hoard, and consequently continues the great poverty of the people.

PAIGE

The Most Beautiful Car in America

An Apology—And An Explanation

We feel that we owe an explanation to the thousands of Paige enthusiasts and prospective Paige owners whose choice is The Most Beautiful Car in America, but who have been unable to secure prompt deliveries.

The Paige-Detroit Motor Car Company has not failed to keep up with its production schedule. As a matter of fact we have already far exceeded the schedule we planned for ourselves last December.

Since January 1st we have been working our huge manufacturing equipment to full capacity. But in spite of these efforts we have never been for one day caught up with the demand for The Most Beautiful Car in America.

It is a significant fact that in the month of July just closed—a period unsettled by war conditions—the Paige-Detroit Motor Car Company was able to fill only 58 per cent. of the actual orders placed during the month.

There must be Good Reasons For This Overwhelming Popularity

The explanation is plain and unescapable. This unprecedented demand for The Most Beautiful Car in America is inspired by Paige mechanical excellence.

The greatest motoring value is the sum and substance of this explanation. With its mechanical excellence, its beauty, its durability, the Paige is easily sold and—most important of all—it stays sold.

This shortage in Paige cars is not merely a local condition. It is national. If you question this statement go to your nearest Paige dealer and he will confirm it.

But there are other reasons for Paige popularity. They go back of mechanical excellence, beauty and excess values. They are fundamental because they make such things possible. We refer to the sound economic and financial policies that are the foundation of the Paige structure.

In percentage of sales increase, The Most Beautiful Car in America has outstripped all competitors between $1,000 and $2,000 in price for the last six months.

NOTE—It is impossible for us to guarantee the following prices for any definite length of time.

Hillboro. At a recent meeting of the Hillboro Institute, Mrs. Wm. Robertson read a very helpful paper on "The Value of Self Control." She said our school teachers need far more encouragement and sympathy than we often give them, for, of all others, it is a profession where, if self control is not manifested, work is a failure.

Stomach Cramps COLIC

These are very painful, and their attacks are often sudden, and sometimes fatal. The principal seat is in the stomach and bowels, producing severe twisting, cramping pain, and often accompanied by vomiting. If you are troubled in this way, there is only one remedy to cure you, and that one is Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. It has a record of cures extending over 72 years, and we have yet to hear of a case where it has failed to either relieve or cure. Beware of imitations and substitutes sold by unscrupulous dealers for the sake of greater profits, as these no-name, non-reputation, worthless preparations may prove dangerous to your health.

Mrs. H. Miller, 725 Mark street, Fort William, Ont., writes: "Last summer my husband came home from work, and could hardly straighten up for cramps. The first thing I gave him was a dose of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and I hadn't repeated it very long until he was all right again. It is the only remedy I give my children in the summer for cholera or cramps in the stomach. I have never been without it in the house for the last two or three years."

Preserved RASPBERRIES

—Delicious and very Economical

HOW you will miss the fresh fruits next winter. Fruits preserved in tin promise to be unusually scarce on account of the high cost of metals. Every jar of berries that you can preserve at home will be a genuine economy, a real safeguard for you and your family.

Don't let the fact that sugar is slightly higher than in former years prevent you from preserving plentifully. A pound of sugar is enough for three quart jars of fruit. Divide the difference between the present price of sugar and the former price by three, and you will find it is less than a cent a jar. On the other hand the value of the jar of preserves is greater than ever before owing to the increased cost of other sorts of food.

Lantic Sugar

"Pure and Uncolored"

For preserving raspberries and all other fruits buy LANTIC SUGAR. LANTIC is specially advantageous for the early fruits in which the color is hard to preserve as the "FINE" granulation does away with long cooking. The fact that no artificial coloring is used in LANTIC SUGAR commends it to the fastidious housewife.

10, 20 and 100 lb. sacks.

Preserving labels free: Send a red ball trademark cut from a bag or from the top panel of carton and we will mail you a book of assorted preserving labels, gummed and printed ready to attach to the jar. Address

"GOD'S HALF ACRE"
UNIQUE among motion pictures. It gives intimate details of two classes of great institutions—homes for the aged and hospitals for crippled children. Contrasted with these pictures of life among the unfortunate are scenes of wealth and distinction. The outstanding performance of a great actress is depicted, and the notable responsible for its success are shown. In these widely different strata of society Henry Norman, the novelist, finds the material for his books, but the man depicting of all his types is Blossom, the little maid-of-all-work at Rainbow's End, the home for the aged. Quiet and demure beyond her years, he calls her "The Little Old Young Lady."

Mr. Murphy happened to be in his office at the time making out some bills, and when the boys entered the store they were surprised to meet the proprietor there. Mr. Murphy secured the two youngsters, called a policeman and gave them in custody on the charge of breaking and entering.

OVER ONE HUNDRED HOURS WITHOUT FOOD OR WATER. TWO FISHERMEN ARE SAVED

James Knight of Yarmouth, and Pearl Hardy of Annapolis, Lost in the Bay—Nothing to Eat from Tuesday Morning Till Saturday Afternoon—Land at Mispec and Are Cared For.

To be tossed about in the Bay of Fundy for more than one hundred hours, without food or water, the two Nova Scotia fishermen, James Knight and Pearl Hardy, who were lost in the Bay of Fundy, were rescued Saturday afternoon and are being cared for.

Lost at Sea. The two fishermen were members of the crew of the fishing schooner Rosaway. After breakfast on the schooner last Tuesday morning Knight and Hardy set out in a dory to fish. They had not been more than a couple of hours clear of the vessel when a dense fog set in, and soon after they missed hearing the fog horn sounded on the schooner to guide the men to safety.

Land at Mispec. The land they sighted was Mispec, and as they slowly rowed towards the shore they were met by Harold Stanley, William Stevens and the latter's brother. Knight and Hardy were in a pitiful condition when these residents of Mispec took them in care. The poor men were hardly able to get out of their dory, they were so exhausted. The Mispec men took the fishermen to their homes, where they were supplied with food and drink.

Arrive in St. John. Yesterday morning Knight and Hardy had recovered after their much needed sleep and with a good breakfast felt well able to journey again. Their endeavor was to reach St. John, and from here they could board the steamer for the city.

Nothing to Eat. In addition to the loneliness of being out in an open boat, far from land, with no compass, the unfortunate men had nothing to eat. When darkness cleared early Wednesday morning, the lost fishermen were still in a bad plight, for the fog was thick. They took turns on watch, hoping each minute to hear the welcome sound of a fog horn, which meant a possible rescue, but no such sound greeted their ears.

They Arrive Safe. All day Thursday and Friday they did not once see the sun. When the

R. K. Y. C. MORISON. SERVICE WAS WELL ATTENDED YESTERDAY

Upwards of Two Thousand Persons Heard Eloquent Address by Rev. Dr. J. A. Morrison.

Upwards of two thousand persons gathered on the shore at Crystal Beach yesterday morning for the annual church service under the auspices of the Royal Kanabecossal Yacht Club at eleven o'clock.

The day was all that could be desired from the standpoint of weather and many took advantage of that fact to spend a few hours on the river after the service. Commodore Chesley of the St. John Power Boat Club headed a large delegation from that organization. The Anglican service of intercession was used and the sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. A. Morrison, as the chaplain, Rev. Dr. G. M. Campbell, missed train connections on Sunday and was unable to be present.

Dr. Morrison was approached at a late hour on Saturday night and kindly consented to take Dr. Campbell's place and the large audience listened with rapt attention as the speaker traced the cause leading up to the present struggle and its progress to date. Dr. Morrison's oratorical powers are well known and despite the short time for preparation yesterday's sermon ranked among the best he has ever delivered and will linger long in the minds of those who were privileged to hear it.

Music was provided by an orchestra under the direction of Morton L. Harrison. The offering, which was a generous one, will be handed over to the Mayor's military fund. The names of the donors are: Rev. Dr. G. M. Campbell, Dr. Morrison, Dr. J. A. Morrison, Dr. J. C. Chesley, commodore of the St. John Power Boat Club, and the speaker, Dr. Morrison. Before the service closed Mr. Morrison thanked Mr. Morrison for his kindness in stepping into the breach and consenting to preach on such short notice.
