

RUSSIAN-GERMAN TREATY ELIMINATED FROM CONFERENCE

Soviet Russia Accepts Allied Conditions Relative to Foreign Debts and Confiscated Property—More Optimistic Feeling Prevails at Great Congress of European Statesmen and It Is Believed Something Real Will be Accomplished for Europe's Reconstruction.

Genoa, April 21.—The Economic Conference today made a great stride forward. The elimination of the Russo-German treaty from the controversy, and Soviet Russia's provisional acceptance of the Allied conditions concerning foreign debts and confiscated property of foreigners, produced a very definite hope that the greatest congress European statesmen have ever held will accomplish something real and tangible for the reconstruction of Europe, including Russia.

The demands of the Powers which have been accepted include the waiving by Russia of her counter claims, based on military intervention; recognition of war debts to the Government; the clear and definite recognition of the right of foreigners to have confiscated property returned to them or to be given proper compensation for it.

Answers Conciliatory.

The conciliatory nature of the answers of the Soviet Government contrasted to the optimism that the Bolsheviks earnestly seek an arrangement with the Powers by which Soviet Russia will be permitted to enter into the comity of nations. The clear and brief demands of the Allies, which afford a concrete basis for discussion, are compared here by the observers to the concrete United States proposals for naval limitation, which was introduced at the outset of the Washington Conference, and which gave the delegates to the Washington gathering an opportunity to concentrate discussion on something tangible and constructive.

The insistence of the Soviet on foreign financial aid as a necessary condition to Russia's salvation, serves to direct attention toward the United States, for it seems that they would like to see Richard Washburn Child, the United States Ambassador to Italy, attend the discussions on Russian affairs.

Need U. S. Assistance.

The sentiment regarding United States financial support was summed up today by former President Motta, of Switzerland, who said that, without assistance from the United States it would be very difficult for Europe to win out.

"We do not believe that America will forget the ties binding her to Europe," he declared. Simultaneously with today's developments here, press dispatches from the United States asserting that public opinion there did not expect any assistance would be given Europe until Europe put her house in order and really got to work, settled the problem of German reparations, and reduced her armaments.

Maguire was said to have stopped in a San Francisco barber shop while on route to a golf tournament at Byron Hot Springs, seated himself in a chair and fallen asleep, to awake to discover his loss.

Sydney, N. S., April 21.—Daniel R. McNeil, the mailman who was blown out to sea when his motor boat became stalled in a small ice pack off Nellie Harbor, Wednesday night, is safe, according to a delayed message from the north. A rescue party from New Haven succeeded in reaching McNeil after he had been exposed to the elements in his open boat for several hours, and it is said he will experience no permanent ill effects. McNeil, who is an Englishman, was determined to deliver his mail and the roads being impassable made the calls along the coast by motor boat. When off Nellie Harbor he detoured some distance to sea to avoid an ice pack, and a sudden squall stalled his boat among the floes which were drifting seaward.

SCHOFIELD --- The One Safe Bet --- Trust Him!

His Record

Contrast his record with that of his opponent as a safe and successful business man. He has the reputation of carrying through what he attempts to do—not promising more than he knows he can do simply because it is a good vote-getter. His slogan is: "Be sure you're right THEN go ahead. He is making no promise just to get votes.

Schofield's Plan Guarantees Cheaper Light and Power.

Does McLellan's Guarantee or Only Promise?

His Promises

When Schofield gives his promise you may be sure he'll carry it out. He has promised that the Power Company will not get control of Hydro—that means that they will not if he has his way. His plan will bring a reduction in rates immediately and will not put the taxpayer's neck into a noose for thirty years. He does not believe in duplicating the system—economically and financially he feels it will be disastrous for the taxpayers.

The St. John Globe says it cannot support Mr. McLellan and that the thought of him as mayor is "APPALLING"

Mr. Campbell's Letter

In a letter to yesterday's Telegraph Mr. F. A. Campbell denies that Mayor Schofield has ever received from him a letter in his official capacity as President of the Trades and Labor Council. The Mayor wishes to state that he has this letter in his possession. The matter would not have been brought into discussion had Mr. McLellan not introduced a question of the Mayor and Labor in his speeches. The letter is headed St. John Trades and Labor Council, President F. A. Campbell, 127 Broad Street, Secretary A. D. Colwell, 268 Douglas Avenue, St. John, N. B. and is written on the stationery of the St. John Trades and Labor Council. It is addressed to His Worship Mayor Schofield and refers to the matter of the dispute between The Street Railway men and the Power Company. It concludes with the following paragraph: "Your kind offer to assist us is greatly appreciated by myself and the others on the committee. We shall never, at any time, lose sight of the valuable help you have already given us, and we are pleased to know that you are still interested. We shall call upon you if we need any further assistance. Thanking you for the interest you have shown in this matter and for your kind letter." It is signed, "I remain Yours truly F. A. Campbell, President of the Trades and Labor Council." If Mr. Campbell wishes to see the letter he may do so by calling at the Mayor's office.

PLAY SAFE--Follow Schofield!--Don't Be Stampeded!

Mayor Presents Campbell Letter

Dealt With Many Canvases Against Him -- Meeting Largely Attended Last Evening.

At his meeting held last evening at his headquarters in the Purging building, Mayor Schofield produced the letter written by F. A. Campbell in which he extended thanks to the Mayor for his help at the time of the street railway strike. This letter was on the official letter head of the St. John Trades and Labor Council, and was signed by Mr. Campbell in his official capacity. He dealt at some length with the many canvases being used against him and clearly showed up their falsity and absurdity. The big feature of the meeting was the large attendance of ladies, who took a keen interest in all that was said and who were judging from their expressions of approval, he a tower of strength to Mayor Schofield on Monday. After the public meeting the war workers gathered in groups and discussed plans for the campaign. There was a splendid spirit of optimism in the air, and the return of the Mayor with a good safe majority was freely predicted.

FIVE DRUNKS ARRESTED

Four drunks were arrested by the police last evening, and a fifth, a woman, was arrested on the street at an early hour this morning. The 23rd instant received and contacted noted re street railway men and the dispute with the Power Company. I beg to inform you that there is no immediate danger of any trouble, due to the fact that the manager and our committee agreed to practically all of the sections embodied in our agreement, with the exception of the wage scale clause. As this is a matter of only two pence, I feel sure that it can be easily adjusted. Both parties agreed to lay this matter over until after the report of board's finding at Ottawa is received by us, which should be not later than Monday or Tuesday of the coming week.

The late A. FitzRandolph, his father, also occupied the property. Mr. Colter declined today to discuss his purchase, but it is understood that he will occupy the residence himself. The furnishings being included in the transaction. The amount mentioned, in connection with the transfer, is fifty thousand dollars. COLLISION IN THE HARBOR YESTERDAY

Ferry Steamer Crashed Into the Sissiboo, Moored at Thorne's Wharf.

The ferry boat on the night trip from West St. John got out of the control of her navigators yesterday and crashed into the little steamer Sissiboo, which was moored at Thorne's wharf. The bulkheads of the Sissiboo were broken by the collision, but no other damage was done, and she was able to continue on her trip to Parridge Island. The mishap was due to the strong freshet running in the river, and high wind. The ferry while battling with these two elements suddenly got into slack water and the crash ensued before her engines could be sufficiently reversed to prevent it.

SCIENCE OF SELLING LIFE INSURANCE

The science of selling life insurance was demonstrated to members of the Life Insurance Underwriters Association by two of their members last evening. The demonstration of the fine points of the art was given at a combined luncheon and business meeting held in Bonds restaurant. J. M. Queen presided, and in the short business session which followed the luncheon, two new members were elected to the association. J. J. Murray then undertook to sell Mr. Mackin, an educational endowment policy, and F. O. Condon followed with a demonstration of the selling of a limited payment policy to Mr. Shanklin. Speaks Highly of This Home Made Cough Remedy

Says It Acts With Unusual Speed—Loosens the Mucus—Relieves the Irritation and Stops the Cough

Costs Next to Nothing—for a Big Supply.

Whenever anyone in my family catches cold and begins to cough and sneeze, and hawls and breathes heavy, it doesn't take me many minutes to fix up a remedy that will drive away all such troubles in double quick time. It's no secret—anyone can make a half pint of the finest cough medicine in the world for a trifling sum. Get from any druggist one ounce of Parmit (double strength)—to this add a little granulated sugar and enough water to make one half pint—that's all there is to it. But now you've got a real medicine—mind you—the first spoonful you take acts directly on the membrane of the throat and nose, the tickling ceases almost instantly—the inflammation begins to disappear—up comes the stubborn mucus and often in 24 hours every trace of the cough that frightened you is gone. It's really remarkable how this home made remedy acts on the mucus membrane and that is one reason it is so helpful to thousands of Catarrh sufferers.

NEGOTIATIONS AGAIN BROKE DOWN

Employers and Amalgamated Engineers' Union Failed to Reach Agreement.

London, April 21—Canadian Press Cable—Negotiations between the employers and representatives of the Amalgamated Engineers' Union, which had been in abeyance for a while, were resumed today, but they broke down again just when there seemed encouragement for the belief that an agreement would be reached. The points of difference gross on the union representatives' suggestion that the lockout notices, which had been posted up some time since, be removed, and employers' proposal to withdraw them if the men would accept as a basis of settlement the terms in the letter accompanying the notices, namely, that the employers reserved the right to review the wage conditions. The engineers refused to accept. If the threatened lockout becomes effective about 1,400,000 men will be involved, it is said, as kindred trade unions are concerned in the engineers' trouble.

BOLSTERING UP TEMPERANCE LAWS

Legislation to Assist Provinces in Enforcement Introduced at Ottawa.

Ottawa, April 21—Legislation to assist the Provinces in the enforcement of their temperance laws was introduced at the opening of the House of Commons this afternoon by Hon. D. D. MacKenzie, Solicitor-General. Mr. MacKenzie stated that requests had been made by the Provinces for legislation of this character. Mr. Hon. Arthur Meighen, leader of the opposition, said that this was Mr. MacKenzie's first attempt at introducing a bill as Solicitor-General, but he did not think that the honorable gentleman should be allowed to get away without further explanation. Mr. MacKenzie explained that he had not expected to go into details at this stage, but added, as an instance of the provisions of the bill, that it prohibited the import of liquor into British Columbia except direct to the Provincial Government.

U. S. NAVY BLOCKADE MEXICAN PORTS

Such Move Advocated in United States Senate by Democratic Senator.

Washington, April 21—Blockade of Mexico and seizure of Mexican ports, until United States claims for damages to life and property in Mexico have been compensated, was advocated in the Senate, today, by Senator King, Democrat, Utah, in a lengthy address on the Mexican situation. Neither the Obregon nor any other Mexican Government should be recognized, Senator King declared, until guarantees are given for payment of damages "for nearly one thousand American men, women and children butchered and murdered," and for property losses which he estimated at nearly $500,000,000. Senator King said he was inspired to make his address because of the murder and eviction from Mexico of Mormon settlers, who, he said, had failed to get protection from their own government.

Your Employees

THEIR HOMES AND DEPENDENTS

The employee who knows that his firm is protecting his family from distress in the event of his death or disability has a load lifted off his mind.

He feels more like planning ways of doing his work better, of suggesting ideas for improving the output of the product—and so increasing his own earnings by cheerful co-operation with the management.

He has some of the load lifted off his own back, as he had his wages go farther for his regular expenses.

Our suggestion is that you buy Life Insurance, wholesale, for your employees, at group rates which are very low, and thus drive away the spectre of want from the widows and children—through Canada Life Group Insurance, which many, many times will be found to be

Their Only Protection

And not merely the only protection—but with us, the only possible life insurance with total and permanent disability benefits—because Group Insurance is obtainable without medical examination of the individual.

Thus there is created a strong tie of sentiment and interest between the employee, his family and the Business he works for.

Considering its low cost and its far-reaching effects, Group Insurance is one of the cheapest and greatest benefits that any business can have bestowed upon its help.

We know all this to be true from the experience of many Group Insurance units out with hundreds of firms all over North America.

It is indeed "a dividend-paying investment" of "business."

Digestive Troubles Cause Much Distress Are Nearly Always Due to Thin, Watery Blood.

Do not think that because your stomach is easily upset you are the victim of some serious ailment. One of the most common causes of indigestion is anaemia, or thin, watery blood. In fact it has become generally recognized that healthy activity of the stomach is impossible unless the blood is rich and red. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been found valuable in cases of indigestion, nervous dyspepsia and stomach weakness. Just because they are a blood builder and nerve tonic. The rich, red blood following their use not only impacts a healthy digestion, but carries color to the cheeks and lips, and gives vigor to the muscles. An important point to remember is that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain no harmful drugs or opiates and are thus to be preferred to preparations that merely stimulate for a time. Before you begin worrying unnecessarily about your state of health, try the tonic treatment of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. You will be surprised to see how rapidly your appetite returns and your debilitated system revives. Miss Sarah Farquhar, North Brookfield, N.S., who has proved the value of these pills in cases of this kind says: "For months I have suffered from indigestion, which seemed to carry with it a complication of other troubles. Every meal brought misery with it, as the eating was followed by severe pain in the stomach, causing at times nausea and vomiting, and at other times an accumulation of gas that caused severe palpitation of the heart and a smothering sensation. The result was that my general health was seriously affected and the least exertion would tire me out. I had taken much medicine, but did not get more than temporary relief. I was then advised by a friend to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which I took for a considerable time, with the result that I now enjoy every meal and am no longer distressed after eating. I find myself in every way enjoying better health, and I cheerfully recommend these pills to similar sufferers."

Nothing To Equal Baby's Own Tablets

Mrs. George Lefebvre, St. Zeno, Quebec, writes: "I do not think there is any other medicine to equal Baby's Own Tablets for little ones. I have used them for my baby and would use nothing else. West Mrs. Lefebvre says thousands of other mothers say, 'They have found by trial that the Tablets always do just what is claimed for them. The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which regulates the bowels and sweetens the stomach, and thus banish indigestion, constipation, colds, colic, etc. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.'"

Thousands Made Miserable by this Trouble

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Relieves It

What is indigestion and what causes it? As you know, solid food must be changed into a liquid by the stomach before it can be taken up as nourishment by the blood. The stomach acts as a churn. It is covered by a strong, muscular coat and lined with a soft, delicate membrane which secretes the gastric juice which digests or dissolves solid food. When food enters the stomach, the muscular coat squeezes and presses the food from end to end, or churns it, with the gastric juice to dissolve or digest it. But—if the stomach muscles are weak—or if the dissolving fluid is poor or insufficient—then food cannot be digested properly and you have indigestion.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" is the most wonderful medicine in the world for strengthening the stomach muscles and providing an abundance of pure, full-strength dissolving fluid to completely digest every meal. "FRUIT-A-TIVES" is a natural fruit extract which keeps the kidneys active, the bowels regular and the blood pure, which insures pure Gastric Juice.

Indigestion or Dyspepsia and enable you to enjoy every meal. Try it. 50c a box, 8 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

TWO ANNIVERSARIES.

Today, St. George's Eve, will be forever immortalized by Canadians as the anniversary of the Second Battle of Ypres, when the representatives of the Maple Leaf first disclosed their prowess to the world and incidentally retrieved the Allied fortunes at one of the crucial moments of the great war. Tomorrow there will be celebrated by all Englishmen the Festival of St. George, their patron Saint.

The curiously-minded, who notice the red rose worn in honor of the day, may ask themselves when this flower first became the emblem of England and it may be that some, even of those who wear it with pride, would be sorely perplexed to find an intelligent answer.

The choice of the red rose was probably made as a national emblem, we are told by antiquarians, with the commemoration of the Wars of the Roses, fought in the fifteenth century between the Houses of York and Lancaster. The former House wore as its badge the white rose, or rose argent; the latter the red rose, or rose gules. In battle every soldier of that day had his emblem in his cap. It is not quite certain whether these badges had been adopted previously to the war or in its early days, but there is a gracious tradition that, when it had been finally terminated through the union of the two Houses with the marriage of Henry VII of Lancaster to Elizabeth of York, a rosebush in a certain monastery in Wiltshire which, during the troubles of the land, had borne at once roses red and roses white to the amazement of all beholders, now bloomed forth with petals of mingled red and white. People are said to have come from far and wide to see the wonder, and to have heralded it as a joyful omen of peace and prosperity. To this day the parti-colored rose produced by artificial cross-breeding is called York and Lancaster rose.

The national flower came to England freighted with a wealth of legendary glory. It has long been regarded as the king of flowers. The rose was the Syrian emblem of immortality, and possibly some cognate idea makes the Greeks and Romans carved it on their tombs. In ancient Egypt it was the symbol of silence, and it preserved this significance in classic mythology, where Eros was represented as offering a rose to the God of Silence. Love delights in secrecy but, also, does strategize; thus we naturally find the rose appearing on Roman shields. In connection with the cross it was the device of Martin Luther and the symbol of the Reformation Order.

The Greeks held that the red rose derived its color from the blood of Venus when she trod on a thorn of the white rose while going to the assistance of the dying Adonis. The Turks say that it is colored with the blood of Mahomet and will never suffer one of its blossoms to lie upon the ground. Christian legend ascribes its origin to a holy maiden of Bethlehem who, being unjustly condemned to death by fire, prayed to our Lord, whereupon the fire was suddenly quenched and "the burning brands became red roses, and the brands that were not kindled became white roses and full of roses, and these were the first roses and roses both red and white that ever any man sought." Henceforth the rose became the flower of martyrdom. It was a basketful of roses that the martyr St. Dorothy is held to have sent to the notary Theophilus from the Garden of Paradise and roses, says the romance, sprang up all over the field of Bonnesvalles, where Roland and his peers had stained the soil with their blood.

Whatever its exact emblematic origin may be, centuries of association have made the rose as dear to the Englishman as is the heather to the Scotchman, the Shamrock to the Son of Erin, or the oak to the man of Wales. For the honor of the Cross of St. George and the Rose of England, men have lived and died like heroes in every age. Therefore it is but right that rose and cross should be specially honored by everyone through whose veins there pulses English blood on the occasion of this national anniversary that they celebrate to-morrow.

The Times sets a good deal of store by Mr. Herbert Phillips' statement showing that there would be no increase in taxes with civic distribution of Manuquash current. He has also shown that the Power Company can distribute this current at 4.22, as against civic distribution at 5.53. Mr. Phillips knows what he is talking about, or he doesn't. Which does the Times think it is?

THE ADVANCE OF SCIENCE.

The progress which scientific research and development has made during the past quarter of a century has been so great that people have now arrived at that stage when they cease to wonder very much when any further discovery is announced, no matter how remarkable it may be. Wireless telegraphy, which was considered to be a wonderful achievement, has since been followed by wireless telephony, which is even more wonderful still. Before we are very much older, the chances are, that the wireless telephone will be just as much a part of the household equipment as the ordinary 'phone is at present.

The movement to inaugurate a Radio Club in this city, which has been started by the Commercial Club, promises to prove very successful. The subject is certainly a fascinating one, and is likely to "catch on" among the younger people particularly. Certainly the younger generation in these days have many advantages in a scientific way that their elders would very much have appreciated in their youth. We recall the "scientific researches" of our own boyhood days, when hair-raising effects were often accomplished with home-made apparatus of which crudeness was the leading feature. Professor Pepper's handbook on scientific experiments was held in far greater esteem, we fear, than even Holy Writ, and a close study of his methods frequently led to most amazing results.

Radio, of course, is something quite new, and there is no telling to what lengths its development may go. But it is unquestionably a great achievement to be able to hear music being played a thousand miles away, and even voices speaking. One is almost tempted to wonder whether or not "roamin' in the gloamin'" will be a lassie by one's side will not become rather a risky pastime, if conversations are to be so readily heard as they seem able to be.

AN ERA OF FALLING PRICES.

The interesting address which Mr. C. H. Macintosh, the President of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, gave to a large number of business men yesterday, contained a considerable amount of information of value. Not the least valuable of this was his statement that the world is facing an era of falling prices, which will not touch bottom for twenty years or so yet. Commercial history it seems, repeats itself, and it goes to show that trade prices revolve in cycles, of about fifty years, twenty-five being occupied in approaching a peak, followed by twenty-five more on the downward grade. Moreover, as he reminded his hearers, high prices and prosperity are by no means synonymous terms, as is frequently thought to be the case; on the contrary high prices mean as a rule a falling off in buying which will in turn certainly not stimulate production.

Mr. Macintosh's remarks being addressed to business men, were naturally of a nature which appealed solely to that class, and were largely directed towards showing how customers may be induced to purchase more than they intended to buy when they entered the store. From the standpoint of the storekeeper, this sort of thing is fine of course; but there are doubtless a goodly number of heads of households who will be inclined to feel that it is energy wrongly directed, and that prices dropping it is likely to become a nuisance if too universally adopted.

What evidence is there to support the statement of The Times that "Each year would see an enlarged market for the current and a reduction of rates that would soon be both large and permanent." Not a particle. On the contrary, all the evidence—the reliable evidence that is—is to the effect that it is very doubtful whether the Manuquash plant will be able to develop at all seasons of the year, even the minimum volume of current that is needed to supply ordinary consumers at the present time. We shall be very much surprised too if time does not show the reduction of rates that The Times talks about to be as mythical as the enlarged market.

The Deputy Minister of Justice has just given an opinion, which is concurred in by the Minister himself, Sir Lester Gouin and also by the Solicitor General, that a Wheat Board would be unconstitutional. Certainly, if the Royal Commission to investigate the Grain Trade was regarded as ultra vires of the Dominion Government by Western Grain Growers interests, a Wheat Board must be considered to be in the same category. It would have control over property.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

Wood the Real Leader?
(Edmonton Journal.)
That Mr. H. W. Wood is the real leader of the farmer movement in Canada, and not Mr. Crerar, is the statement of the Calgary Albertan, which could never be accused of unreasonableness or either. Recent developments at Ottawa have convinced it on this point. But the cleavage was apparent in Alberta at least, as long ago as the Medicine Hat by-election last year, when the president of the U. F. A. constituency organization, Mr. Harris, definitely repudiated Mr. Crerar's "open door" idea and stated that in Medicine Hat they were solidly behind those of Mr. Wood.

The Albertan states that "Mr. Crerar seems more in line with Mr. Drury, Premier of Ontario, and there is a wide gulf between him and Mr. Wood." How wide is this gulf is apparent from a close study of the speeches of the three on the question of political organization. Mr. Wood has not only definitely for group politics. The broadening out programme enunciated by Messrs. Crerar and Drury has never been accepted in this province at least. While the farmer members sent from Alberta are described as "Progressives" at Ottawa, it was not under that caption that they were elected. It was a remarkable thing that the general election could be fought without this disagreement being accentuated to a greater extent than it was. Both elements concerned themselves simply with bringing about the overthrow of the existing government and paid little or no attention to the points of difference between themselves. However, it looks as if these must now be taken into account. Mr. Crerar can hardly be expected to continue to carry the responsibilities of party leadership and still have his opinions overruled to the extent that we are informed this is being done.

Mr. Barnjum's Work.
(Ottawa Journal.)
Mr. Frank J. Barnjum, of Annapolis Royal, who is devoting much of his time and means to the cause of forest preservation in this province in Canada, is extending his methods in directions that should furnish examples of provincial and municipal authorities. He has now announced his readiness to purchase a tract of pine and spruce in Nova Scotia located on main highways or adjacent to railways which he will preserve as examples of scientific forestry and as a reminder of the people of the beautiful forests of times past.

Another move of Mr. Barnjum may not be unanimously endorsed by his more familiar friends with the woods. He is offering a bounty on porcupines killed in his province, claiming that they are a source of widespread destruction. Porcupines are not agreed on the destructiveness of the porcupine. They do not eat the bark from trees, it is admitted, but it is claimed by many that their number is so small that the damage they do is relatively light.

Some woodsmen contend that the porcupine is one animal that should not be destroyed for the reason that it is the only one that may be easily killed without a gun and so is an emergency source of food for men who become lost in the forest.

Perils of the Street.
(New York Times.)
The District Attorney's office has solved the mystery of the shooting of Mr. Crane, an innocent bystander who was killed during the pursuit of a suspected thief. A policeman shot him, but, says the report, "was most unfortunate that Mr. Crane got in the way of the bullet. It appears that if the fugitive had not left the sidewalk the moment he did he would have been shot, as was the intention of the officer."

Who is responsible, then, for the death of Mr. Crane? Obviously, the miscreant who dodged the bullet that was intended for him. There ought to be a law forbidding fugitives to dodge when the police are shooting at them, unless we want our streets to be unsafe for peaceful citizens. Indeed, with so much gunplay going on, it may be said that the chief security of peaceable persons now lies in the fact that the odds are so long ago as when George Ade wrote "The College Widow." Since then the situation has improved considerably, and it is likely to improve further under the action of Princeton authorities in barring from the college teams three students who had been taking loans from the college athletic war chest. The action is taken under the agreement by which Princeton, Yale and Harvard have undertaken to break up the practice of subsidizing athletics to play on university teams.

College Athletics.
(Brooklyn Eagle.)
Maintaining hockey football and baseball players' college and allowing them to take "snap" courses in order to maintain athletic prowess was a scandal and a joke as long ago as when George Ade wrote "The College Widow." Since then the situation has improved considerably, and it is likely to improve further under the action of Princeton authorities in barring from the college teams three students who had been taking loans from the college athletic war chest. The action is taken under the agreement by which Princeton, Yale and Harvard have undertaken to break up the practice of subsidizing athletics to play on university teams.

ELECTION CARD

ELECTORS OF ST. JOHN

I regard the opinion as expressed by the citizens at the polls on the 10th inst. as decisive so far as it indicates the feelings of the electors in respect to the city acquiring and distributing the electrical energy from the Musquash developments.

Holding this view, I am now prepared to vote for the city to take power from the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission and will support civic distribution of such energy in order to give the citizens light, heat and power at the lowest possible rates.

Like many other citizens, I presume, who have given serious consideration to this matter, I have experienced much anxiety in my endeavors to find a solution of the difficulties which I encountered and which I had confidently hoped might be smoothed away when the engineers, who were employed to study and report, presented their findings. Unfortunately these reports were of so conflicting a character that I found it impossible to reach a conclusion sooner. The citizens have spoken their minds in this matter, and as their servant and representative, I am bound to respect their wishes and am ready to accept the results.

JOHN B. JONES

WITH bagpipes striding and a smile of happy anticipation on every face these fifteen stalwart lads from the Hebrides first set foot on Canadian soil on April 3rd. They arrived on the Canadian Pacific liner "Tunislan," and at once went on to Chatham, Ontario, from where they will be distributed among the farms of Kent County to learn the intricacies of Canadian farming. They are Highland farmers and North Sea fishermen, and the finest type of immigrants Canada can have, and the advance guard of 150 others just as good who will soon arrive.

Macintosh. To add to the Scotch flavor they were conducted by Father MacDonald, special colonization agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway. All are veterans of the Imperial army or navy, and many have been decorated for bravery during the great war. They were glad to be away from the land of labor strikes and unemployment, and not even the prospect of a ten-hour day, after their eight hours in the old country, dampens their enthusiasm for Canadian farm life. So far they are very favorably impressed with this country, and have not the slightest notion of ever getting homesick. Later on, when their farm experience warrants it, they intend to buy farms of their own.

Maritime Religious Education Council Takes Exception To Reports Made

This is the time of year when the Finance Committee of the M.R.E.C. does most of its worrying, trying to get in the funds promised them, in sufficient amounts to keep the work of the organization in a condition to finish, with the energy and enthusiasm, the winter season, to bring about successful summer activities and inspire the individual congregations to plan and organize for starting full sized programmes in the fall.

If a number of treasurers are not prompt in sending in their contributions, it means that a temporary financial stringency arises, money must be borrowed from the bank with the consequent expense of interest charges, and at times even this will not suffice and the staff cannot be fully paid their salaries. This is not good business and is disheartening to the staff who must partially neglect the programme of religious education while going out after funds.

The Ministerial Association of Halifax has extended an invitation to the Maritime Sunday School Convention to meet in Halifax October 17-19.

Cases Dealt With In Police Court

William C. Radcliffe May Go on Suspended Sentence—Evidence Heard in Other Cases.

In the police court yesterday morning, William C. Radcliffe, formerly an agent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, pleaded guilty to a charge of stealing about $300 from the company, while in their employ last summer, and consented to submit to the jurisdiction of the court. The magistrate said that he would make some inquiries about the young fellow's getting by with a had return to the company, advising him that he would be allowed to go on suspended sentence.

Mr. McLean, Jr., appearing for the insurance company, said that Radcliffe had a good record, and was a returned man who had been awarded the Military Medal and a commission on the field. Mr. McLean accredited the commission of the offense to the young fellow's getting by with a had return to the company, advising him that he would be allowed to go on suspended sentence.

There is no remedy so equal to your clearing up the cold, making the breathing easy, loosening the phlegm and soothing and healing the lungs and bronchial tubes.

protection, so far as the account was concerned. Were we not doing exactly the same thing for Mr. McLean and Mr. Phillips? In the first instance, we had carried this gentleman for his tax account from August till the last day of this season that would enable him to pay taxes and become a candidate, and in the case of Mr. Phillips we had carried him for his 1919 and 1920 taxes up till February of 1922, in exactly the same way, except that we had no contra account. I do not think they were justified in their criticism of the actual facts that took place in this case.

Red Cross Branch Monthly Meeting

Supervisors of Junior Red Cross Work Appointed—Reports Received Most Encouraging.

At the monthly meeting of the New Brunswick branch of the Canadian Red Cross, held yesterday afternoon in the depot, Prince William street, it was decided to appoint Mrs. Harold Lawrence and Miss Jessie Lawson joint supervisors of the Junior Red Cross work in the province and the introduction of junior studies in the schools. It was reported that good progress was being made on the recreation hut, and it was decided to issue an appeal for funds for the furnishing of the building. Reports from the district nurses showed increased interest in this work. The matter of a disaster and relief committee was broached and C. B. Allan appointed convenor of a sub-committee to make a further report. Mrs. F. S. White reported a big falling off in the number of cases applying to the local branch for relief.

The secretary reported on the activities of the month past as follows: This month has seen much activity at the depot, a great deal of sewing and knitting are being done by the branches, both senior and junior. Our relief donations have included our little sick Red Cross boy in the hospital; 2 layettes to the Soldiers' Settlement, to East St. John 6 razors; to West St. John 50 pairs of pyjamas; to Jacques River to relieve a trisected young fellow's getting by with a had return to the company, advising him that he would be allowed to go on suspended sentence.

Our Junior work is progressing nicely. A splendid parcel of work was received this week from Netherwood, also the sum of $21 which the children had raised. Witanstede have still been most helpful rolling bandages and sending comforts to the young fellow's getting by with a had return to the company, advising him that he would be allowed to go on suspended sentence.

The treasurer reported expenditures for the month of March amounting to $1,991.14. Among the items were district nurses, $675; port work $139; depot $166.34; grant to local Red Cross $500; grant to hospital committee $500.

Among the correspondence were letters from Miss Bertha Riddick, congratulating the branch on the success of the Junior movement; A. C. Skeaton, thanking the branch for half of the local for the grant of $500; Dr. Craig, of Halifax, expressing thanks for kindness extended to Mrs. McManus on her visit to the port workers; Lancaster Hospital convey-

Don't Grow Old Before Your Husband

Science Now Shows What Often Causes Premature Loss of Youth, Beauty and Attractiveness and Makes Women Fretful, Nervous and Run-Down

If Your Face is Haggard, Thin, and Pale, Try This Simple Home Remedy Which Often Makes Women Look and Feel Years Younger and Surprisingly Increases Strength and Energy

Thousands of women are like the woman in this picture. They have grown old much more rapidly than their husbands. The roots have faded from their cheeks, they are weak, pale and nervous at a time of life when they should still be filled with buoyant health and radiant with youthful beauty—pale, thin, watery blood has fastened its grip upon them and is gradually sapping their health, vitality and beauty. In most cases men safeguard their health, better than women by eating coarser food, being more out of doors and leading more active lives, therefore keeping their blood strong and vigorous. For want of good blood a woman may look and feel old at thirty; pale, haggard and all run-down—while at fifty or sixty, with good health and plenty of rich, red blood, she may still be young in feeling and so full of life and alertness as to defy detection of her real age.

ing thanks for the prizes in the checkers tournament and from the Minto Red Cross asking who assistance the Provincial Branch would give in the matter of salary of a district nurse. In connection with the latter it was decided to have Miss Meikeljohn and Miss Jarvis take up the matter and make the best possible arrangement.

Mrs. B. R. Taylor reported for the Military Hospital that $293.80 had been expended during the month, the usual Easter treat had been provided and through the efforts of Mrs. Doody the men had been given their usual automobile rides. She suggested an appeal for funds to furnish the recreation hut, which Mr. Allan said it was hoped to have ready in June, and it was decided to write all the local branches in the province and also other organizations having donations for this purpose. Mr. Allan told of society which had already spoken of a donation for this purpose.

A recommendation from the executive that Miss Jessie Lawson and Mrs. Harold Lawrence be jointly appointed supervisors of the Junior Red Cross at a salary of $100 per month was adopted by the meeting, their services to begin on May 1. Miss Meikeljohn reported for the month of March 956 home visits; 12 child welfare clinics with an average attendance of 7 babies; 251 child welfare home visits; 34 pre-natal visits; 22 tuberculosis visits; 83 sick patients; 383 sick nursing visits; 30 school children visited; 2,000 children examined; 78 health talks given in schools and health meetings and 9 committee meetings. The work was going on well at all the centres with the exception of St. Stephen, where it was dragging a little. For the V. D. work Dr. McCarthy reported 30 new cases, none among children.

The sewing committee reported 88 garments given out and 173 garments received. Mrs. J. F. Robertson reported for the Bulletin, that it had been published about three weeks ago. The report of the port committee was presented by Miss Gregory. For March there had been 5 ships coming in with 47 infants and 341 children; 14 had been given minor treatment and 5 dressing done; 180 welcome cards and 36 follow up cards had been given out.

Johnny And Polly Grow Thin And Lively

Peter Rabbit waited patiently for Johnny and Polly Chuck to recover their tempers. Neither had even looked at him, and in the present state of their minds he wasn't excited that they should. They were very bad indeed. Peter knew better than to say anything to them. He understood it perfectly. He knew that Johnny and Polly had just awakened from their long sleep and were hardly yet fully awake. They were not yet glad that they were awake. Both felt that they would rather have remained asleep, so both were short tempered.

I will just show folks, I'll show them who is who in the winter time."

Gray Whiskers Has An Adventure

Gray Whiskers was a little squirrel that lived with his father and mother and brothers in a tree in the woods. One day when his parents were away from home, Gray Whiskers ran down the tree trunk to the ground and began to look around for nuts. "You had better come back," called his brothers. "Father told us not to leave the tree while he was gone."

Mrs. Starfish Tells A Strange Story

"Just as sure as you see me sitting here, I've told you the truth," said Mrs. Starfish, lifting first one of her star points, then the other. "As true as I'm sitting here."

The Early Bird

"My Dear," said Mr. Robin Redbreast to his wife one morning, "if you do not stop feeding those youngsters they will never be worth anything. Why, they open their mouths as soon as they open their eyes in the morning and expect us to drop into them all the food they can hold."

Little Jimmie Skunk

Mr. Fox stopped and looked back at Jimmie Skunk. As a rule he did not care to be within speaking distance of him, but now he thought it was a black and white pussycat. "What is the joke?" he asked, being careful to step backwards as he spoke, for one can never be sure of Jimmie Skunk's temper.

Smile, Kiddies, Smile

Two beginners went one day to fish. They sat down on a dock and cast their lines and waited. Presently one grew weary of waiting, so he said to his friend, "Will you stay here while I go for a stroll?"

"To which the boy replied: "I ain't Tommy Jones."

Among a number of notes received by a school teacher in excuse for the absence of children was the following: "Why, some one had stood on it; it was flat!"

"Dear Teacher—Kindly excuse Missie for having been absent yesterday, as she fell in the mud on her way to school. Her mother and you will oblige. Her Mother."

The Radio Club of New Brunswick

Formally Organized Last Night at Largely Attended Meeting—Will Install Receiving Set.

At a most enthusiastic meeting held in the Commercial Club rooms last evening, The Radio Club of New Brunswick was formally organized and given a fine start on what promises to be an active career. The meeting was called by the Commercial Club largely for the purpose of ascertaining whether there is sufficient interest in the development of this branch of science to justify united action. The response left no doubt whatever. Between seventy and eighty enthusiasts attended, which group represented every interest in this work in the city. The attendance included a number of ladies, and it is the desire of the officers that any other who were unable to attend last evening shall send their names to the secretary so that they may be notified of future meetings.

Many of the amateurs had related their experiences as proprietors of receiving sets, after ideas had been exchanged as to possible changes or improvement in equipment, and after many suggestions had been made as to the possibilities of establishing a broadcasting station in St. John, the gathering unanimously decided to organize. The general desire was expressed that all phases of interest should be represented, and this idea was carried out as far as possible in the selection of officers. The selection resulted as follows:

Honorary President—Hon. W. E. Foster. President—Chas. F. Sanford.

Vice-President—James H. Robinson. Secretary-Treasurer—H. V. MacKinnon. Committee to complete organization—Alton Noble, W. L. Ellis, John B. Jones, Jr., J. Thomson, Mrs. Blanche E. Malin, Leslie Codner, George M. Robertson, Fred J. Nisbet, Kenneth White, Albert Dyer and Sidney F. Malin.

This organization committee will report to a full meeting to be held next Friday evening, when an executive or managing committee will be selected and definite plans arranged for the activities of the club.

It was decided to get in touch with the best available sources of information on radio and to secure such publications as may be of service to members. For the present the Commercial Club rooms will be used. The secretary of the Commercial Club was able to announce that within the next ten days an up-to-the-minute receiving set will be installed for demonstration purposes and for study, and that in the next couple of weeks, as soon as official arrangements are completed, a sending equipment of sufficient power to meet all the requirements of this territory will also be set up. When that is done every the simplest apparatus will prove almost entirely satisfactory to the amateur.

The meeting considered that very gratifying progress had been made and certainly the attendance and the enthusiasm shown were ample indication that radio had taken a remarkable step in this territory. This was probably the largest number of persons to be received from persons residing in other parts of the Province who are anxious to get into the game for themselves.

Health Regulation Has Been Adopted

Physicians, nurses and mid-wives or other persons attending maternity cases will be obliged in future to treat the eyes of newly born infants with a solution of silver as a preventive of blindness. A regulation to that effect was adopted at a meeting of the executive of the Provincial Government which was held in the city yesterday.

The regulation was adopted on the recommendation of Hon. Dr. Roberts, Minister of Public Health, who stated that fifty per cent. of the blindness occurring at birth could be reduced by the adoption of this method.

Hon. P. J. Venot announced that the restrictions on motor traffic over several roads in the vicinity of the city would be partially lifted by his department.

WEARY WILLIE SEEKS PROTECTION

A gentleman tourist, or knight of the road, arrived in the city last evening after a tour of Nova Scotia, and drifted into the Central Police station. There he walked up to the man at the desk, and greeted him with, "May I sleep in your jail tonight." Impressed by his appearance an expectant reporter standing by, was all ready to have heard him ask for "a room without a bath," but the tourist was quite modest, and having been trapped through the rats of the day before, the idea perhaps never occurred to him.

He was met with a courteous policeman, and the city's entire suite of free bedrooms, were placed at his disposal. The visitor, who must have been a miles manager once, judging from his knowledge of cell doors, was taken to a room with a southern exposure, and without running water.

He carefully examined the wooden mattress, which some good and gone City Father had once thought of putting the Osternmore people out of business with, smoothed out the knots and splinters, and told the attending cop, "Gee, that would do. As the officer went out the door, Weary Willie tipped him—a wink, and having unbuttoned for the night, by taking out his cap, went through the motions of tussling down the bed clothes and smoothing out the pillow that wasn't there. Then with a great heave of satisfaction he slumped into bed and nestled himself down in every nook, to dream of miles and miles of pillow, and unbuttoned numbers of "hand-outs." Of course the reporter didn't see him do all this but he was quite sure that a man with so good a make-up would have done so, so he gave him the benefit of the doubt.

England's Patron Saint Anniversary

St. George's Day Will be Fittingly Observed by Englishmen Throughout the World—Local Society's Programme.

Tomorrow is the day of days to the Englishman, no matter whether at home under the Oaks of Old England or in some part of the far flung Empire, thousands of miles from the land of his nativity, and just as dear to all descendants of the "Hearts of Oak," who have made their homes in other parts of the world. In this "Loyalist City" the day will be observed by a church service at St. Paul's and on Monday a dinner will be given by St. George's Society at the Union Club.

There is also a second reason for joy and celebration on the part of all of English blood of April 23, for on that day, 1918, the ships Intrepid and Iphigenia were sunk at the entrance to Zebruge, one of the most glorious feats of our navy.

The feelings of all Englishmen for the land of their birth is well expressed in the following lines: England, O England, dear land of our birth, Land of the fair and the brave and the free, England, dear England, the first of the earth, Some price is forgiven us stinging of thee, To arm like iron and a muscle like steel.

A heart set a friend that can at ways feel; A will once made no man can repeal, That's what an Englishman's made of.

St. George was a great warrior and one of those who suffered martyrdom for the Christian faith. The story of the slaying of the dragon is believed to be true, he bravely slaying the beast to free a princess of Beruit who has been condemned to death.

It was during the Crusades he was first brought to the attention of the English. Richard I., claiming it was through St. George he had been able to obtain his victories. During the reign of Edward III, St. George was made the patron saint of England and the order of the Garter instituted in his patronage.

The cross of St. George is the real flag which for a thousand years has braved the battle and the breeze and which now forms the chief charge on the Union Jack, the flag of the British Empire today. The cross of St. George is also the emblem of that noble band of warriors, The Red Cross Association.

In the olden days the rallying cry of the longwinded of England was "St. George for England," and on many a hard fought field has this cry struck terror into the hearts of the foeman.

The local society is over one hundred years old, having been founded in 1802. St. George's Society has ever been to the members raised over $1,000 for the Red Cross, Patriotic Fund, Royal Navy, The Navy League, Green Hospital for Sailors, etc. etc. while in addition the members subscribed over $100 out of their own pockets for a machine gun which did good service. The bust of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, of glorious memory, in Trinity Church was placed in 1857 in honor of her jubilee by St. George's Society.

The motto of the society, "Fides Patriae Salus," freely translated is: "God faith is the salvation of the country." The St. George's Society of St. John has been in existence since 1802. The officers for the current year are as follows:

President—James Manning, D. D. S. Vice Presidents—R. G. Schofield; H. W. Rising. Chairman—Rev. J. V. Young, L. S. T. Treasurer—F. E. Hamilton, (Past President).

Secretary—James U. Thomas. Assistant Secretary—Guy L. Short. Historian—Colonel E. T. Sturges, (Past President).

The annual services will be held tomorrow evening at the Mission Church, Paradise Row, when the Chaplain, the Rev. J. V. Young will preach; the annual dinner will be held at the Union Club on Monday evening.

Citizens are asked to fly their flags tomorrow in honor of the occasion.

Mayor Resents Attacks Made

His Worship Replies to Chairman E. A. Smith, Electric Power Commission.

The Mayor's reply to Chairman E. A. Smith, Electric Power Commission, is: I have read the statement printed in the Telegraph, under date of Friday, from Dr. E. A. Smith. Permitt me to say that it is far from my idea to have any quarrel of any kind with the Electric Power Commission.

Any attitude that I have assumed on account of presenters of the case by Mr. Smith, one of the highest authorities in the country, and I think any one can realize that in the position I am placed—one of responsibility—would be forced to have some one expert in the line to fall back on, and if the commission have any one of the same nature and one who is not directly engaged in the construction line, would have supposed they would have immediately produced it in rebuttal of the man whom we are pledged to follow.

Notwithstanding all this, you will have observed that I proposed to depart from the engineer's position as far as I consistently could, and take well I will simply leave the thinking to the construction line, and have supposed they would have immediately produced it in rebuttal of the man whom we are pledged to follow.

So far as an engaging advisers is concerned: This was simply by resolution of the Council, and there is no good reason why the Mayor should be attacked on this.

As to the requirements of Moncton: I have all the proof that is necessary that Two Million k.w.h. is what Moncton would be prepared to take at the present time, at least so far as is authoritatively reported to me.

So far as the statement I made that the Commission admit they have no market other than this. This remark was simply made to me by Mr. Phillips, and though if Moncton themselves are willing to contract for Five Million at cost, and there is another Six Hundred Thousand, according to the Chairman, required along the way, according to the Commission's estimate of their development, Twenty-one Million k.w.h., it still leaves more than Fifteen Million k.w.h. to be taken up by this market, or three-quarters of the whole.

I am surprised, however, in view of the attitude that I have tried to take, notwithstanding the reports of the only engineer I could get who would sign his name to a report, wherein I have made every effort to assist the Commission by a scheme to enable them to market the Hydro at once, that I should be attacked in this fashion, while the only other alternative suggested by the Times and Telegraph was that the power would be sold elsewhere the Commission would go to the Lepreau and develop further power, we pay the cost, in which would be involved the purchase of the rights on the Lepreau from the N. B. Power Co., represented by their common stock and Two Millions of Dollars.

Why is working most for the N. B. Power Company? The Times and Telegraph and their candidate in going to the Lepreau for more power at cost.
