The past year commenced with a comparatively small stock of square pine, and prices were then steady but receded with fall of freights and ruled low throughout the Summer and Autume, but though they recovered a little towards the close of the season, yet the business of the year has resulted in a serious loss to importers. Quebec pine timber has been also materially affected by pitch pine, the abundance and cheapness of the last named having forced is into consumption in substitution for Canadian wood to an extent hit experienced in all other. Mr. J. G. Forbes and Mr. Wm. Elder aspired to the vacant seat in the House of Assembly. Mr. Forbes deemed him- mark: self entitled to the support of the party that carried the last general election. Leonidas is around."

"Things has got to git up 'n howl when Leonidas is around." that carried the last general election. and Mr. Elder claimed its support for himself. Mr. Elder, it must be understood, has no personal ambition to become a member of any Legislature, but is simply solicitous that "at this crisis, a pronounced free school man who is able to deal with the school question should be in the House," and is willing to sacrifice his time and talents for the public good. Mr. Forbes, not deeming Mr. Elder the only able man in the party, proposed to be a candidate him. nimself. Mr. Elder, it must be underparty, proposed to be a candidate himself, and there was a general expression of opinion in bis favor. Finally the rival candidates agreed to summon forty leading members of the party to decide between them, and they personally summoned ten each and a mixed committee of their appointing summoned twenty more. Thirty of these gentlemen met at the Victoria Saturday evening, and selected Mr. Elder by a vote of eighteen to twelve. So Mr. Elder is in the field and Mr. Forbes will not offer. The question that was decided was merely a personal one between the two gentlemen of twenty and personal one between the two gentlemen of twenty and personal one between the two gentlemen of the point of the party to decide between the two gentlemen of the party to decide between the two gentlemen and the personal one between the two gentlemen of the party to decide between the two gentlemen of the party to decide between the two gentlemen of the party to decide between the two gentlemen of the party to decide between the two gentlemen and the personal sale of particles. Mr. Nowlan, member for Galway, regretted that rearly all the Irish members had left the house, believing that business was over. He called attention to the fact that the Government did not arrest Mitchel when he was in Ireland last year.

Mr. Disraeli gave notice that he would move next Thursday a resolution doclaring that as John Mitchel has been adjudged guilty of felony and sentenced to the asportation, as he has neither endured the penalty nor received a pardon, he is incapable of election to the House of Commons, and that a fresh writ of election be ordered for Tipperary county, Ireland.

Mr. Nowlan, member for Galway, regretted that the fact at the next Session of the Local Legislature of New Brunswick, application will be made for an Act of Incorporation for the Udd Fellows' Building Associat on feble 4w.
