THE FATHERLESS. SPEAK sofily to the futherless

And check the harsh reply That sends erimson to the cheek, The tear-drop to the eye. They have the weight of loneliness In this rude world to bear; Then gently raise the fullen bud,

The drooping floweret spare. Speak kindly to the fatherless ! The lowliest of their band God keepeth, as the waters, In the hollow of his hand.

Tis sad to see life's evening sun Go down in sorrow's shroud, But sadder still when morning's dawn Is darkened by the cloud

Look mildly on the fatherless Ye who have power to wile Their hearts from sadened memory By the magic of a smile. Deal gently with those little ones, Be pitiful, and IIe,

The friend and father of us all, shall gently deal with thee ! WHAT'IS HOPE !

BY MRS. J. WEBB. What is Hope! The morning gale,

That bears upon its wing The perfume of the thousand flowers Of life's fresh blooming Spring.

What is Hope ! Life's noontide sun. Iu Summer's blushing prime, That, with its tints, so brightly gilds The fleeting wings of time

What is Hope ! . The mellowing breath
