THE STANDARD.

ST. ANDREWS, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 6, 1844.

Rt. Hon. Richard Packenham.—The new British Envoy is thus described by a New York paper:

He is rather a young diplomatist, of the English school, being not more than forty or forty-five years of age, and is a connexion of the Longford family in Ireland. His father was the celebrated Admiral Packenham, who quelled the mutiny in the Nile during the French Revolution.

His uncle was the celebrated Gen. Packenham, who was killed at New Orleans in the battle with Gen. Jackson. The Duchess of Wellington, who died some years ago, was his aunt, and we believe he is allied to the high Tory party of which the Duke is the principle head. In some respects, Mr. Packenham is quite the reverse of Mr. Fox, who will, we believe, return to England and not go to Mexico, as was supposed. Mr. Packenham is a man of the world; a real Irishman from top to bottom; frank and generous and full of all the vivacity of his country, and withal a very skillful and practical diplomatist.

The new Roman Catholic Cathedral at Lambeth is the largest structure ever erected in Great Britain by voluntary contributions. It is now completed. The total cost is £100,000.

The Black Tongue.—The St. Louis Organ, states that this dreadful disease is prevalent in the neighbourhood of that city, and that some cases have occurred in the city. The first symptoms are a sudden inflammation and fever, if unchecked are rapid and fatal.

Modest Merit.—Bennet in some gratuitous advice to Webb of the New York Courier & Enquirer thus modestly speaks of himself:—“We established the Herald, which is now more widely circulated and more profitable than the Courier and Enquirer, on something less than $500, but we combined with that small capital, energy, industry, economy, morals, honesty, integrity, temperance, early rising—all of which united in forming a compound of genius, that never will be estimated till long after we are dead and gone.”

The Lords of the Admiralty have ordered six iron steamers to be built for Her Majesty's Navy.

It is said that an English Manufacturing Company have paid $60,000 for lands in South Carolina, for the purpose of establishing a branch of their business in the United States.

The New York Sun says:—Father Mathew, the distinguished Temperance Reformer of Ireland, having been kindly offered a free passage to this country in any of the splendid London or Liverpool packets belonging to Messrs. Grinnell, Muntz & Co., has accepted the offer in the same generous spirit in which it was tendered, and intends coming to New York in June.

The sch. Amistad case is revived, and a claim by the Spanish Minister for $40,000 for slaves and cargo, is now before the Congress Committee of Foreign Affairs.

Havana.—The launch of a New man-of-war Brig, at Havana of 18 guns, is considered an affair of some moment, but Cuba has been a great naval possession of Spain, as well as a most valuable Island, the income of which has greatly aided to defray the expenses of the Northern Country. From 1770 to the present time no less than 125 Spanish vessels of war, have been built and launched at Havana, among which were 47 line-of-Battle Ships, and 6 three deckers, the last Frigate built at that port was in 1797. It is now intended to revive the Spanish Navy and build a Frigate at Havana every year.

Unusual Scarcity of Wives.—It is said that in New South Wales an old maid is a much rarer animal than a black swan. It is asserted that the fair emigrants from England receive offers of marriage through speaking trumpets, before they land from the ship.

A new tri-weekly penny paper called the Chronicle has been started by the Editor of the Novascotian—devoted to liberal politics.

Twenty-two Planetary Orbs Visible.—A writer in the Courier des Etats Unis says that twenty-two planetary orbs are visible at this time on the same side of the heavens. These are Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, and Venus, with their respective satellites. They may be seen about eight o'clock in the evening, in the southern sky, near what are called the five zodiacal constellations.

ADDRESS TO SIR CHARLES METCALFE.

The House of Assembly of this Province have resolved upon an address to His Excellency the Governor General of Canada, as an approval of the course he has recently taken to maintain the prerogatives of the Crown in Canada.

The following is a copy of the Address:—
To His Excellency Sir CHARLES METCALFE, B. T., Govr. General, &c. &c.
The Humble Address of the House of Assembly of New Brunswick.

May it please Your Excellency, We the Representatives of the people of New Brunswick, in Parliament assembled, deem it a duty we owe alike to Your Excellency and the loyal constituency of this Province, to express our high admiration of the constitutional principles promulgated by Your Excellency in the recent memorable conflict with your Excellency's late advisers.

If this had occurred in a Colony unconnected with British North America, we might have abstained from a declaration of our sentiments but considering ourselves as a portion of Your Excellency's Government, we cannot refrain from offering an assurance of our firm determination to uphold your Excellency in maintaining the prerogatives of the Crown, invaded as we conceived them to have been by the extraordinary claims of your late Council.

We appreciate too highly the inestimable blessing we enjoy under our benign Government where the rights and privileges of all are well known and defined to disregard any attempt at infringement whether it be aimed at the Crown or the people, and we therefore hesitate not to express our firm belief that if the extravagant demands made upon Your Excellency had been granted, Monarchical Institutions on this Continent must soon have ceased to exist. We indulge the confident expectation that the noble stand Your Excellency has taken will meet the approbation of our most Gracious and beloved Queen, and that the loyal people of British North America will be found ever ready to rally round Her Majesty's Representatives in maintaining principles so conducive to the happiness of the subject and the safety and dignity of the Crown.

A. L. BOTSFORD, Chairman.

Committee Room, 22d February, 1844.

Ordered, That the House be put into a Committee of the whole to-morrow, to take the said Bills, and the Report of the Select Committee thereon, severally into consideration.

New Defamation and Libel Act.—On Wednesday the new act came into operation. It extends to England, Wales, and Ireland, the only exclusion being Scotland. The preamble declares that it is framed, for the better protection of private character, and for more effectually securing the liberty of the press, and for better preventing abuses in exercising that liberty. In future cases a defendant in action for defamation may prove that he made an apology before or after the action, which evidence will be considered in mitigation of damages. In an action against a newspaper for libel the defendant may plead that it was inserted without malice and without neglect, and may pay money into court by way of amend in the same manner with regard to the pleading and costs as in a personal action. By the third section it is enacted that the publishing or threatening to publish a libel or proposing to abstain from publishing any thing with intent to extort money, shall be punished by imprisonment and hard labour for any period not exceeding three years. In the two following provisions maliciously publishing a defamatory libel, knowing it to be false, shall subject the offender on conviction to both fine and imprisonment in the common gaol or house of correction for two years; and for maliciously publishing a defamatory libel, (without knowledge of its falsity,) to fine or imprisonment, or both for a period not exceeding one year. The House of correction is omitted in the second clause. Upon the trial of an indictment or information the defendant having pleaded a plea similar to the plea of “justification” the truth of the matters charged may be enquired into, but shall not amount to a defence, unless the publication was for the public benefit. The prosecution may deny the plea, and on conviction the court in awarding punishment shall consider whether the offence has been aggravated or mitigated by the plea. A defendant may rebut a prima facie case of publication, and show that it was made with his knowledge, and that the said publication did not arise from the want of due care or caution on his part. On a prosecution for a private libel a defendant, on acquittal, shall be entitled to his costs from the prosecutor, and on a special plea of justification, if the issue be found for the prosecutor, he shall recover the costs incurred by such plea, to be taxed by the proper officer.

Scotch Thrift.—A young lady, who is zealous non-resistance, and an active cause for the Free Presbyterian Church, called the other day upon a poor man in the Links of Kirkcaldy to solicit his mite; and after in vain trying her ingenuity to find some means by which he might save a penny a week, to be given for the sustentation of the minister, she asked, “Do you shave yourself?” No madam. How much does your shaving cost you? Two pence a week. Could you not learn to shave yourself and then save the two pence, which you might give to the sustentation fund. Deed, I'm over auld to learn, but I'll tell you what I'll do, if your minister will come and shave me, I'll give him the tip-pence.

In the matter of Joseph Pratt, a Bankrupt.

WHEREAS under the Provision of the Acts of the General Assembly of this Province, in relation to Bankruptcy in this Province, Joseph Pratt, of Saint George, in the County of Charlotte, Lumberer, hath been declared a Bankrupt, and hath accordingly surrendered himself to me, Now therefore, I do hereby give Public Notice, that by virtue of the power and authority to me given in and by the said Acts, I have appointed Harris H. Hatch, of St. Andrews, in the County of Charlotte, Esquire, Provisional Assignee of the Estate and Effects of the said Bankrupt, and I do hereby require all persons indebted to the said Bankrupt to pay to the said Assignee on or before the eleventh day of January next, all such sums or sums of money debts or duties as they may owe to the said Bankrupt, and all persons who have in their possession power or custody, any property or effects of the said Bankrupt, to deliver the same up to the said Assignee on or before the said eleventh day of January next, and I do further hereby require all the Creditors of the said Bankrupt resident in the said Province, or in any other of Her Majesty's North American Provinces, or in the West Indies, or in the United States of America, within three months from the day of the date hereof, to deliver to the said Assignee, or to prove to my satisfaction their respective claims and demands, whether the same be actually due or to become due against the said Bankrupt.

A NEW RACE OF AFRICANS.

The Rev. Mr. Krapf has written a curious paper [which a correspondent of the Morning Herald states is published in the Monatshefte der Gesellschaft für Erdkunde, zu Berlin, August 1842] on a singular race of pigmies called Dokos inhabiting a part of Eastern Africa to the south west of the River Gochob, the existence of which was first made known to us by Dr. Beke, recently returned from Abyssinia. “The country of Dokos is a month's journey distant from Caffa, and only these merchants who deal in slaves go beyond Caffa. The most common route to Dokos passes Caffa in a south westerly direction; leading to Dimbar, thence to Koottha, Koollo, and thence passing the river Omo [a large tributary of the Gochob] to Toofie, where they begin to hunt the slaves in Dokos. The people of Dokos of both sexes are said not to be taller than boys of nine or ten years of age. They go quite naked, their principal food is ants, snakes, mice and other things not used by other nations as food; they are so fond of this food that they cannot be prevented from digging in the ground for snakes and ants, after they have become acquainted with the better food of Caffa and Guarea. The skin of the snakes are worn by them around their necks as ornaments. They also climb trees with great skill in search of fruit. In doing this they stretch their hands downward and their legs upwards. They are in extensive forests of bamboo, which are so thick that the slave hunters find it difficult to follow them in these retreats. As soon as a Dokos begins to cry, he is killed from the apprehension that this, as a sign of danger, will cause the others to take to their heels. In a few minutes a great many may be captured. The Dokos lived mixed together. Men and Women unite and separate as they please, which may be some reason why this tribe has not been exterminated; as a single slave dealer will frequently return home with a thousand of them. The mother suckles the child only as long as it is unable to find ants and snakes; she abandons it as soon as it can feed by itself. No rank or order exists among the Dokos. No one cares for the welfare of the nation.

They have no other means of defending themselves than by running away. They are as quick as a monkey, and are very sensible of the misery prepared for them by the slave-hunters, who frequently encircle their forest, and crive them into the open plain. When they are pressed, they are often heard praying (!) They put their heads on the ground, and stretch their feet in the air like divers, and cry in a pitiful manner ‘Yer! Yer!’ Thus they call the Supreme Being, of whom they seem to have some notion; and they are said to exclaim—‘If you do exist, why do you suffer us to be who do not ask for food or for clothes?’ They frequently quarrel among themselves, and the weaker is often killed by the stronger, by being thrown from a tree. In the country of Dokos it rains almost incessantly from May to January, and all through the year the rain never entirely ceases. The climate is not cold, but very wet. The traveller, in going from Caffa, Dook, must pass over a high country, and cross several rivers which fall into the Gochob.”

Scotch Thrift.—A young lady, who is zealous non-resistance, and an active cause for the Free Presbyterian Church, called the other day upon a poor man in the Links of Kirkcaldy to solicit his mite; and after in vain trying her ingenuity to find some means by which he might save a penny a week, to be given for the sustentation of the minister, she asked, “Do you shave yourself?” No madam. How much does your shaving cost you? Two pence a week. Could you not learn to shave yourself and then save the two pence, which you might give to the sustentation fund. From the Daily Reporter.

The House went into Committee of the whole on Incorporations. Hon. Colonel Shore in the Chair.

Hon. Mr. Johnston asked how many directors there were intended to be for the Charlotte County Bank under the new act, he thought five would be enough.

Hon. Col. Wier—there were nine directors under the old law, but there will be only seven under the new, he would be sorry to see a less number.

Hon. Mr. Botsford did not profess to understand a great deal as to the working of Banks, but as Chairman of the Committee he would be willing to reduce the number of directors to 5, if the Committee would agree to it.

Hon. Mr. Johnston asked whether there could be found 7 competent persons in the town of St. Andrews to act as directors. He knew Mr. Crookshank of St. John was formerly a director.

Hon. Col. Wier, said Mr. Crookshank had taken a great deal of pains to get the Bank established and made a most excellent director, but there would be no difficulty in finding 7 competent persons in the town of St. Andrews to act as directors, he had been connected with the Bank ever since it had been established and would be sorry to see less than seven directors.

On motion of the Hon. Mr. Botsford, the chairman left the chair, and reported the bill as agreed to.

Hon. Mr. Hatch by leave presented a petition from L. L. Copeland, praying for Legislative aid for running a stage between Saint John and St. Andrews, and Fredericton and St. Andrews. Moved that the petition be received and ordered to lie on the Table.

Extraordinary Case.—In Dublin a man named Malony, an Auctioneer, formerly residing in Bellintra, has been sentenced to transportation for seven years, for forging a draught of about £130. After he committed the crime he went to America, and while there learning that he was heir to £50,000 in dispute in Ireland. He returned and speedily made good his claim, but immediately after was arrested, tried at the present commission, and convicted. (The treasure is of course confiscated to the crown. Baron Lefroy, in passing sentence, intimated that, if any application were made to the crown, the property might be granted to the child-reu.

Exchange no Robbery.—An "interesting youth" named Jerome B. Cutting was arrested in Warsaw, Wyoming co., a few days since for robbing a dry goods store. On his way to jail, in custody of two constables on horse-back, Cutting started off at full speed, but not having the leading nag was soon come up with. A moment previous to the officers seizing him he jumped off and made for the woods. Here his pursuers followed after fastening their horses at the road side. By a fair start and circuitous turn, the thief, came out to the road again unobserved, and taking the best horse put off for a second feat. In due time the constables gave up searching the wood and returned to their horses, when the discovery was made that Mr. Cutting had cut their acquaintance, and cut for Canada. He was, however, retaken at Lewiston, and finally lodged in jail for trial in Wyoming.—Buff. Com.

(From the Halifax Morning Post.) Saturday, Feb. 24.

The House waited on His Excellency with the Address, in answer to the Speech, at three o'clock.

The House opened subsequently, and the Speaker called attention to His Excellency's answer to the address, which was read from the chair as follows:—

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:—

"I thank you for your address, I am gratified to learn that you have, after the most mature consideration, arrived at the same conclusion as myself, on a subject of such deep importance to the country, as that of Party Government; and I feel assured that the result of your deliberations on the various matters which will be brought before you, during the Session on which we have now entered, will be as beneficial to the country, and as satisfactory as your cordial concurrence with me in opinion is on this occasion."

A Good Shot!—A man at Jodore killed twenty-four blue-wing Ducks at a single shot, one day last week. He fired from his boat, the sea running so high at the time that he was fearful of swamping, every moment.—Yarmouth Herald.

TEMPERANCE FESTIVAL.—This pleasant and rational entertainment came off on Friday Evening last, at Beckwith's Hall. The Hall was decorated with flags and otherwise tastefully fitted up for the occasion. The Rifle Band was in attendance and their performances, executed with much taste and judgment, formed interesting interludes between the addresses. The piano of the Choral Society, whose meetings are held in the same building, was also put in requisition, and under the skillful hand of Master Lockwood, (a pupil of Mr. Gardiner's,) was made to "discourse sweet music." Upwards of two hundred persons were present, and all appeared to enjoy themselves under the influence of "the cups that cheer but not enebriate." Addresses were delivered by the Hon. L. A. Wilmot, Mr. Francis, Rev. Mr. Hall, Mr. End, and His Worship the Mayor of St. John.

COMMUNICATION.

To the Editor of the Standard.

Sir,—It appears that the Petition from the Inhabitants of this Town to the Legislature of the Province, praying that an Act might pass, authorizing the establishment of a Board of Health in this County, has been rejected. This is much to be regretted, as the frequent arrivals of vessels having infectious diseases on board, render an efficient Board of Health absolutely necessary, to guard against the spreading of such diseases; but it seems that our (so called) wise Representative thinks otherwise, and pays more deference to the opinion of one person (if report says true) who happens to be his friend, than to the united voice of a large number of the most respectable inhabitants of the Town.

The people of this town are certainly placed in a very singular position, so far as their interest in the Legislature are concerned. The Members of the House, who would under other circumstances be anxious to do common justice to their rights and interests on all local questions, are often precluded from so doing, from the course pursued by the member—who happens to reside in the shire Town, and whose motives for the course he pursues, are best known to himself. It is to be hoped that the time is not far distant, when the people living in this town, will not have their feelings and interest so often misrepresented in the Legislature of the Province, by any man holding the station of their Representative.

Terrible Disaster at Washington.—The Boston Advertiser of the 1st inst., says:—

"We received yesterday the intelligence of one of the most distressing accidents that we have ever been called upon to record. During an entertainment on board the United States steamer Princeton, on Wednesday last, at which the President, the heads of departments and many other distinguished guests were present, the large gun in the bow of the boat burst at the moment of its discharge, spreading destruction among those who were standing around it. Mr. Upshur, the Secretary of State, Mr. Gilmer, the Secretary of the Navy, Commodore Kennon of the Navy, Mr. Virgil Maxey and Col. Gardner of New York, with a colored boy named Henry, a servant of the President, were immediately killed.—Several others were severely wounded, among whom were Capt. Stockton, the Commander of the boat, and Mr. Senator Benton, of Missouri.

It was fortunate that this accident happened at the third discharge of the gun, when many of the guests had satisfied their curiosity with regard to it, and had retired from its neighborhood.

Publishers of the Loyalist in Gaul.—A report has been in circulation in this city throughout the present week, that Messrs. Doak and Hill, publishers of the Fredericton Loyalist, had been committed to gaol there, by order of the Speaker's warrant. We learn, from a friend from Head Quarters, that they were brought before the House, and asked whether they acknowledged themselves to be the authors and publishers of a certain article alluding to some speech delivered in the House, by that honorable man—L. A. Wilmot; of course, they replied in the affirmative; they were then ordered to retire in the custody of the sergeant at arms, while the House occupied themselves with closed doors, in discussing the propriety of imprisoning them. It must have been agreed to, as at the last accounts both of those persons were in confinement, although an order had been passed for their release, provided they would make an apology; they had declined doing so; it is said they would come out under a writ of habeas corpus, and try the question with the House, as to how far that body were legally authorised to take the course they have thought proper to adopt. Great sympathy prevails here and at Fredericton, in behalf of those parties.—St. John Herald.

Since the above was in type we received the Loyalist confirming the report. The course pursued by the House, can neither add to its dignity or command the respect of the country generally. So far as we are able to judge from the sentiments freely expressed in this community, the conduct of some members is roundly censured and some expressions made use of by Mr. Wilmot receive unqualified disapprobation.

By reference to our Shipping List, it will be seen, that the vessel in which the Rev. Dr. McLean took passage, was water-logged and abandoned at sea. The Doctor we are happy to learn, was in good health, and left New York in the Packet ship Oxford for Liverpool on the 1st inst.

We are informed that the Bankrupt Law will be repealed—a resolution to that effect passed the House of Assembly on the 1st inst., and it is said will also pass the Council.

A letter from Barrington says, the two young men who were rescued from the wreck of the "Sarah Lovett," are recovering slowly. J. Lawrence, has had one foot partially and the other totally amputated, J. Cutting, of St. Stephen, has had one partially, the other has healed.

Wesleyan Missionary Meeting.—On Wednesday evening last, the Annual Wesleyan Missionary Meeting took place in the Methodist Chapel in this Town; after singing and prayer—D. W. Jack Esq., was requested to take the Chair, and explained the object of the meeting to be, to make a collection in aid of the Methodist Missionary Society. The Rev. Messrs. Pickles, Johnston, and Daniels, severally offered resolutions which they supported in heart-stirring speeches, setting forth the great objects to be accomplished by the aid of Missionary Societies, and also making honorable mention of the various Societies of other denominations engaged in this important work. The Chapel was crowded to overflowing—and the singing was good, and appropriate to the occasion. The meeting was concluded by prayer. Not having received a copy of the resolutions we are unable to publish them.

The Bill to incorporate the Bolton Brook Navigation Company was lost in the Legislative Council on the 27th ult by a majority of 3 against the bill. hon. Messrs. Black, Robinson, Atty Genl. Owen, and Minchin.—hon. Messrs. Hatch, Wier, and Botsford, for the bill.

It gives us pleasure to state, that Douglas B. Clarke, Esq. formerly a resident here, has been appointed a Deputy Commissary General.

Civil Appointment.—Charles R. Hatheway, Esquire, appointed a Commissioner for taking Bail and Affidavits in the Supreme Court.

MORNING POST.—We omitted to notice in our last, the receipt of the first number of the weekly "Halifax Morning Post, and Parliamentary Reporter," a journal independent of Sect or Party, and containing the best reports of the debates in Nova Scotia Legislature.—Summary of general News and Literature.—The typographical appearance is faultless, and the price of subscription only 12s 6d per annum.—Persons desiring of seeing a copy of the paper and subscribing for it, can do so by calling at our office.

DIED.
At his residence in St. Andrews, on the 2d inst. the Hon. JAMES ALLANSHAW, in the 52d year of his age, greatly regretted.

Mr. Allanshaw was a native of Berwick-upon-Tweed, but a resident of this County for the last thirty years, and one of its most prominent Merchants, and Magistrates; and for many years a member of the Legislative Council of the Province. He was endowed, by nature, with a high order of intellect; maintained great independence of character; lived a life of usefulness, and died in the full possession of public confidence, and respect.

His remains have been conveyed to Digby, to be interred in the family vault, where the funeral takes place this day.

Of Consumption, on the 11th ult., at Lexington, Kentucky, in the 36th year of his age, Mr. ALEX. C. McLEAN, (only brother of Wm. McLean Esq., of this town,) leaving a disconsolate Widow to mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate Husband. The deceased was a native of Inverness, Scotland, but had resided in Kentucky for the last six years, for the benefit of his health; during which time he made many warm and devoted friends among its Citizens. Early in life he made a profession of religion and united himself to the Baptist Church, in that place, in communion with which denomination he remained until his death. His numerous friends and connexions will be gratified to learn, that he received every attention which affection could render during his last illness; that he died most joyfully in the triumphs of the Christian faith, and that a large concourse of Mourning friends and acquaintances followed his remains to their last resting place.

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." At Eastport, on the 28th ult., LONISO F. WHICKLER Esq., aged 36 years, deeply and universally regretted.

At Yarmouth, on the 17th ult., Robert Timpany, Esq. in the 102d year of his age a native of Newtownards, County Down, Ireland, and a Major in the British Army during the American Revolutionary War. His remains were conveyed to Digby for interment.

At Shelburne, on the 18th ult. after a long and painful illness, Susanna, daughter of the late Mr. James Muir.

At St. John, on the 1st inst., Mrs. Ann McCullough aged 80 years, leaving a large circle of friends to lament their loss.
