Grafton and Company's Store Entered Saturday Night,

And the Safe Broken Open in the Glare of Several Gas Lights-$250 Taken. Early Sunday morning some person or persons unknown affected an entrance into Grafton's clothing store, broke open the safe and got away with a considerable sum of money, over $350. The job was evidently the work of a clever and daring professional, who had familiarized himself mediation. with the premises. There are absolutely no traces of how the entrance was affected, and no clew to identify was left. The daring nature of the crime is apparent from the fact that the gas in the office, where the safe stood, left burnig all night. It was when Mr. Hickey, the manager, came down yesterday about 10 a.m. to turn the gas out that he discovered the burglary. The safe is of the old-fashioned pattern, with two doors, with a steel bar crossing them. The bar was fastened with a padlock, which was broken, and the doors were then opened with the two keys belonging to them, which had been left in the till. No papers were disturbed. About $315 were taken from the cash-box in the safe and about $35 in change from the till. quantity of coppers, small silver and stamps were left untouched, as was also a dollar bill in an envelope. money largely represented the receipts from sales made after banking hours on Saturday. The detective depart-ment was notified of the facts, and are now working on the case. Grafton came to the city from Dundas when informed of the burglary.

MISS GREEN TO MARRY A DUKE. New York, March 19.-It is given out by a close friend of the Duke de la Torre, of Spain, that Miss Sylvia Green, daughter of Mrs. Hetty Green, soon wed the duke. Miss Green has little property of her own. It is said that while she and her mother, the richest woman in the world, are on good terms, there has been very little communication between them for several years. The Duke de la Torre's income is said to be about $4,-

The Next Move Of the British

Important Operations May Take Place in Natal.

Conquest of Free State Virtually Completed-Burghers Surrendering Their Arms by Wholesale-Canadians Guarding General Roberts' Railway Connections-14,000 Boers in the Biggarsberg District.

The news from South Africa today sent for some one to come and accept their surrender quickly. They appear is satisfactory to the British public. to be scared of Commandant Oliver, Lord Roberts probably ascertained shoot Dormehel if he comes to Lady from Mr. Frazer, the new mayor of Grey. A number of rifles have been stacked at Herschel, but their owner-Bloemfontein, before dispatching Gen. Pole-Carew southward, that in all likehood the railway was clear.

THE NEXT MOVE will be to collect at Bloemfontein by railway sufficient stores for the immense army Lord Roberts will have when the Orange River forces have joined him. This will probably occupy two or three weeks. Therefore, the which Lord Roberts has sent to Thaba Nchu, 35 miles east of Bloemfontein, is Kroonstadt.

EARLY END OF THE WAR. Lord Kitchener is still quietly organizing in the northeast of Cape Colginning here that the war will be ended by the middle of May.

Dispatches from Durban, Pietermaritzburg and other South African towns describe most enthusiastically celebrations on St. Patrick's Day. A newspaper credits to Lord Roberts the suggestion to the Queen that the wearing of shamrocks be per-

LAYING DOWN THEIR ARMS. A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Bloemfontein, dated Friday, March 16. says: We are getting rifles surrendered faster than a factory could turn them out. It is quite certain that if a British official can reach the northern leagers with Lord Roberts' proclamation the whole Boer population will declare for peace.

A dispatch to the Daily News from Bloemfontein, dated Friday, March 16, says: Events have occurred which induce me to predict that the war will only last so long as it takes to march to Pretoria. The educated Boers, even the Transvaalers, are ready to

The Naples correspondent of the Daily Mail telegraphs an interview he has had with Webster Davis, United States assistant secretary of the itterior. According to this Mr. Davis said: "When I left Pretoria the Boers were becoming

DESIROUS OF PEACE.

President Kruger and Gen. Joubert were the strongest opponents of the peace party, but they were becoming exceedingly unpopular. I do not believe the Boers will resist much

The correspondent says Mr. Davis declined to speak regarding his mission, but that the general belief in Naples is that he is bearing peace terms and a request for American Spencer Wilkinson, in the London Post, says: The pacification of the Free State is progressing satisfactorily. Ultimately there will arise probably among the Transvaal Boers a strong peace party, who will point to the condition of affairs at Bloemfontein as an evidence that even in the British province of Pretoria life may be tolerable. It must not be too readily assumed that Lord Roberts will continue his advance by a direct line to Johannesburg and Pretoria. There are other routes with advantages that may be worthy of consideration.

'The Guards' Brigade returned yesterday from Norval's Pont. Several burghers have laid down their arms to Gon. Pole-Carew. The officer commanding at Belmont reports that some deserters have come in with a Maxim, a nine-pounder and another gun. Another nine-pounder has been brought into Colesberg. "The cavalry brigade has gone to Thaba Nichu in order to reassure the inhabitants of the district and to distribute copies of the proclamation to the Orange Free Staters. These pro-clamations are being eagerly sought

"Lord Methuen reached Warrenton on March 16. He was in tome to prevent the deviation bridge from being completely destroyed and to secure the Pont on the Vaal.

The English meil was dispatched from here by rail yesterday, and to-morrow the regular railway service with Cape Town will be reopened.

Mafeking reports that all was well on March 6.

Burghersdorp, Cape Colony, Monday,

London, Monday, March 19-4:30 a.m. | dant Dormehel's force of Boers have who, it is understood, threatens to ship has not been traced. At Berkley West 200 disloyal persons have sur-rendered to the justice of the peace and 250 more have given up their arms and ammunition at Herschel.

The Canadians.

Bloemfontean, Orange Free State, March 16 .- The Canadian troops were this morning ordered to the outskirts of Bloemfontein to guard the northern section of the line of railway between next important operations may be ex- this point and Springfontein. General pected in Natal. The cavalry brigade, Pole-Carew has arrived at Springfontein with a detachment of mounted infantry, and will patrol the lower portion of the line between here and destined to cut off some 2,000 Boers. who are escaping from the southward. way between Bloemfontein and Spring-The Boers are reported to have destroy- fontein is now in our hands, and there ed the railway in the neighborhood of tion between the late Free State capital and Cape Town.

There are a number of repairs to be made to the railway line between Bloemfontein and Springfontein, and the Canadians will be engaged in this ony. Predictions and bettings are be- work for some days. The dispatch ginning here that the war will be end- with which our men did similar work on the line of communication between De Aar and Kimberley has evidently impressed the British commanders the fighting qualities of the Canadian troops. 1,800 BOERS SURRENDER.

A body of 1,800 Boers have surrendered to the British, giving up their equipment of arms and ammunition, and asking to be allowed to return to their farms. A full camp equipment and a supply of new clothing for the Canadian troops has been ordered to be sent here by railway, so it would seem probable that we shall be occupied for some time in this neighborhood. It is not unlikely that the Canadians will be given almost exclusively the task of keeping open the railway communication between Bloemfontein and Cape Town, so that apart from occasional skirmishes with small bands of Boers in Northern Cape Colony we are not likely to see severe fighting again for some days.

Near Ladysmith.

London, Monday, March 19 .- Gen. called the Amazon corps. All the London, Monday, March 19.—Gen. members are uniformed in kilts and Buller is reconnoitering east and west of Ladysmith, and is in touch with the enemy. According to Winston Churchill, there are 14,000 Boers, with twenty guns, in the Biggursberg region. They will have to be caught sooner or later. The British troops are anxious to try, and the feeling is general that ere long they will be permitted to do so. A dispatch to the Times from Lady-smith, dated Sunday, March 18, says. Our advanced carpp River, two miles north of Elandslaugte The Boers hold two positions on the Biggarsberg range, about ten miles north. The strongest is on the Newcastle road, where several guns have already been mourited, and where they are digging extensive trenches. The second position, which is on the Dundee road, is not so strong.

BOER REPORT OF LOSSES. of the intelligence department, Molen-graaf, announces that the feedral losses prior to the relief of Kimberley and Ladysmith were: Killed, 677; wounded, 2.129; accidents, sickness and other disabling causes, he asserts, brings the total to 4.351.

Mafeking.

London, March 19.-The relief of Mafeking is not yet amnounced, but is extremely probable that this is already accomplished by Col. Plumer's advance. Lady Charles Bentinck, at Cape Town, has received a telegram from her husband in Mafeking, dated March 12, saying that he expected to join her shortly. The actual relief movements have not been publicly developed in detail, but it seems that Lord Methuen only started very recently, and is rather engaged in dispersing the Poers of the district than aiming at actual relief. Col. Peakman has dispersed 500 Boers at Fourteen

Streams. Spencer Wilkinson, in the Morning Post, says: Probably Mafeking will be relieved by the approach of Col. Plumer before Lord Niethuen, who seems engaged in the work of clearing the country north of Blimberley, can arrive. RELIEF COLUMN BEATS BACK a few casualties. Lobatsi, Bechuanaland, Monday, March 12, via Lorenzo Marquez, March 17 .- The railroad is open to this point, and there is wire communications as far as Pitsani. The Boers who were at Seguani have retired to Rusten-berg. The relief of Mafeking is expected any day. Lobatsi, Saturday, March 10.—It is reported that Commandant Eloff, with commando has left Zeerust for Mafeking. Commandant with 150 men is threatening the railway near Asvogel Ko, north of Lobasti. A British patrol, which recon-noitered within fourteen miles of Mafeking, found the railway uninjured and the telegraph wire untouched north of Pitsani.

HOLDING ITS OWN. Lorenzo Marquez, Sunday, March 18. —A dispatch from Mafeking, dated Saturday, March 10, says: The gar-rison is holding its own. We have heard numerous rumors that the siege will be raised, but so far that is not the case. We are pegging away patiently on quarter rations, supplemented by the occasional capture of cattle. The Canadians Acted as Supports in the Poplar Grove Fight-Had No Casualties.

The following telegram was received at the Toronto Globe office on Saturday from its special correspondent with the Royal Canadian Regiment:

"Bloemfontein, March 17 .- The Canadians arrived at Bloemfontein on Wednesday, having participated in Lord Roberts' march. We had no casualties. We participated in the Poplar Grove fight, but, acting as supports, did not take part in the actual engagement. The health and spirits of the men are excellent. We are now getting an extra food allowance, which is much enjoyed after the hard campaigning. The regiment will probably

DELAGOA AWARD ABOUT READY

Improved Facilities With the Anglicized Transvaal Probable.

St. Patrick's Day in London-A Scrimmage in Dublin-Russo-Japanese War Talk.

London, March 19 .- Mr. Trehane sends to the London papers a letter he has received from the secretary of the Delagoa Bay railway arbitration tribunal, which is to the effect that the award will probably be officially proclaimed in about a month. The Standard says: "When the protracted arbitration has been settled, we shall be in a position to deal with Portugal on the entire subject, and we may possibly secure for the Anglicized Transvaal improved commercial facilities. It would be a welcome coincidence if the award should coincide with Lord Roberts' arrival at SHAMROCK DAY. Shamrock Day promises to vie with Primrose Day in the hearts of the people, judging from the enthusiasm with which, for the first time in the history of the nation, loyalists all over the United Kingdom celebrated the occasion. From Windsor Castle, where the Queen observed the day by wearing a spring of genuine four-leafed shamrock, to the east end shums of London where the ragged urchin of London, where the ragged urchin gloried in his morsel of green weed, nearly every one sported something in the shape of a green favor. A word from her majesty has turned the emblem of semi-disloyalty into a badge of honor, and has made the shamrock the most prized of all plants in the British Isles. At Aldershot, and at all other garrison towns the chamrock was donned by all the troops privileged to wear it. At reveille the Irish bands made a tour of the barracks playing "Garryowen," "St. Patrick's Day in the Morning," and "The Boys of Wexford." In front of the officers mess they played the National Anthem and cheered the Queen.

The usual lord mayor's procession took place in Dublin. The lord mayor of Belfast and the mayors of Cork participated, but a number of Nationalist mayors refused to accept the lord mayor's invitation to take part in the affair. The chief magistrates met with a mixed reception, and there were disorderly scenes at several points along the route of the parade. The supply of genuine shamrock was so small in London that half a dozen leaves sold readily for half a crown. The ancient ceremony of "trooping the colors," at Dublin Castle was performed in the presence of the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland; the Duke of Connaught, commander-in-chief of the forces in Ireland, and a brilliant assemblage. All the troops were the attracting much attention in Yoko-hama. Thus far there has seemed to be no foundation whatsoever for the rumor. The fact which now impresses the public is the arrival of representatives of some of the prominent New York papers, they having been sent for the express purpose of being on the spot when the outbreak comes. This, together with the activity pre-vailing in the Russian squadron in eastern waters assembling in force as it is in the Corean Straits, and the re-ports constantly coming in of the extraordinary doings at Port Arthur, have forced the conviction that where have forced the conviction that where there is so much smoke there must be some fire, and the people and press are correspondingly on the qui vive. In official circles, however, the utmost calm is manifest. In the meantime, one of the Chinese papers actually propounds the theory that Japan will be likely to take the opportunity furnished by the approaching naval maneuvers in the Corean Straits to strike a sudden blow at Russia.

FOR THE OLD AND YOUNG

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food Proves Itself the Greatest of All Restoratives-Two Interesting Cases.

THE OLD. As a builder of new nerve tissue and an enricher of the blood, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food stands without a peer, and for this reason it is of untold worth to old people who are weak, nervous and

Mrs. Margaret Iron, Tower Hill, N. B., writes: "My nerves were so weak I couldn't walk twice the length of the house. I couldn't work or sieep, and my hands trembled so I couldn't carry a pint of water. I thought there was no help for me, but after using five boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food my nerves are fully restored. I can walk o mile without inconvenience, and comy own work and considerable sewing, knitting and reading. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food did me a world of good."

THE YOUNG. Mrs. S. Dempsey, Albury, Ont., writes: "My, little granddaughter nine years old, was pale and weak, she had no appetite, and seemed to be gradually growing weaker. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food proved invaluable in her case, restoring health and color and making her strong and well." Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is a restorative of inestimable worth to pale, weak, nervous men, women and children. It builds up the system and positively cures nervous prostration, partial paralysis, epilepsy, and all diseases of the nerves and blood. 50 cents a box, at all dealers, or by mail, from Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

OLD PEOPLE

Find Spring a very trying season of the year.

They can preserve their health and strength by using Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

The breaking up of the winter and the advent of spring usually comes hard on the old. Their health seems to suffer severely at this time and many are hurried into their graves. But people advanced in years can prevent sickness and keep them-selves hale and strong and in the enjoyment of good health by ising Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. This remedy makes the blood vigorous, and the heartstrong, and should be used promptly on the first sign of declining health or strength. Mr. Samuel Lane, 31 St. Patrick St.,

St. John, N.B., writes: "I am now a man of nearly eighty years of age and enjoyed the best of health until a few years ago, when I began to feel distress after eating, and suffered greatly with indigestion, bad breath, etc.

"My friends recommended numerous remedies, but none of those I tried seemed to do me much good. "Finally I started using Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and before I had finished the box they brought relief, so that I now can eat anything set before me without the least inconvenience. I was run down and nervous before taking these wonderful pills, but they have regulated my entire system, toned up my nerves, and restored healthy action of the heart, so that I am now feeling vigorous and strong."

ton and staff, Lady Chesham and Miss Rhodes. A large gathering of friends bid Lady Roberts farewell. Lady Roberts was accompanied by her two daughters, all in the deepest mourning. Shortly after she entered her saloon carriage, the lord mayor presented the three ladies with bunches of shamrock. The departure of the train was the signal for a great out-burst of enthusiastic cheering, the waving of flags and handkerchiefs.

CANADIANS AND THE WAR

British Press Comment on the Work of the French-Canadians-Canadian Hospital at Kimberley.

London, March 19 .- The daily and weekly papers reflect the remarkable impression made upon English public opinion by the attitude of the French-Canadian subjects of the Dominion. The Times, commenting upon Major Girouard's indispensable railway en-gineering work with Lord Roberts, remarks that it is an interesting fact. eminently illustrative of the vastness and complexity of the empire, that a Canadian subject of the Queen, of French descent, who, as officer of en-gineers, has won distinction by the construction and management of Egyptian railways, should play so important a part in the Orange River campaign today.

In an unexplained fashion, although said to be caused through the vibra-tion, the chute at the coaling station which the train was passing, dropped down almost at the moment the train reached the place. The heavy iron pipe hung suspended in front of the engine, and the engineer was powerless to prevent a collision. The chute struck the roof of the cab, and tore it off, at the same time throwing Engineer Barlow throttle at the moment of the colli-sion, and as he fell his hand turned on the pressure still more, and the engine dashed ahead at full speed up the track, stopping only when it had reached Barclay street, because of the ex-haustion of steam. In Feeling Miserable When You Can Be So Easily Cured.

Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills have been a great boon to my daugh-ter Maggie. Prior to taking them she had been suffering from excessive nervousness for a long time, and her nerves were in a terribly shattered condition. The action of the heart was so weak that it did not have strength to perform its functions, causing violent palpitation and smothering after retiring. Frequently on account of this smothering sensation she was afraid to go to bed. Slight exertion exhausted her and caused shortness of breath. Her blood was improverished and lost vitality, and she had no appetite. She was wasting away and was very hypochondriacal, feeling de-jected all the time. Last December she began taking Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills, and she improved at once. Her blood became healthy and strong, and in six weeks her paired nervous system was restored to its normal healthy condition. Her heart responded to the healthy condition of her blood and nerves, and resumed its strong and healthy functions. She now sleeps without any of the dangerous, distressing, smothering and choking spells, her appetite is good and she has gained in flesh. Healthy color has replaced pallor, and she is now well and strong, thanks to Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills. I thank you, gentlemen, for the remedy that has restored my daughter to

AGONIZING STOMACH PAINS!

Messrs. RADWAY & CO.: Dear Sirs,-I know a business man on the east side of town who has for years been alling and suffering agonizing pains in the stomach The doctors from Prof. Jacoby down to others by the dozens, could neither effect a cure nor could they even tell what the malady was. He, a few years ago, crossed the Atlantic to consult German doctors, without result. I used to call at his store every few months and heard his tale of woe. He said while ill he was never able to retain his food, and at certain times of day he was attacked with an agonizing pain which lasted an hour or so, when he acted as a madman, breaking chairs, etc., and having to give up business for the time being. Food never stayed in his stomach longer than half an hour. Yesterday, after a lapse of eighteen months, I called again, and to my surprise he was still alive and looking well. I asked after his health. He said he has been well for over a year and has gained 40 pounds in weight. I wanted to know what doctor had cured him. This is what he told me: About a year ago or over a man came to his store telling him he had been sick very much the same as he was for some time, and tried Radway's Pills, which quickly cured him. He at once decided to use and Fireman Hutchings to the floor of the pills. The druggist did not have any, and the cab. Barlow's hand was on the tried to give him another kind, but as he insisted on Radway's, they were procured for him the next day. He only took one at night and he immediately felt better. He kept up for a time to take the pills, and from the first day to this day his malady never returned. S. H. G. ULRICH,

The contest will take place next Friday and Saturday under regulations and rules which governed all the four previous contests. These matches are played for the possession of a $1,000 trophy donated by Sir George Newness, president of the British chess club, London. In order to hold the trophy for good the team must achieve three successive victories. So far each side has won the trophy twice. In 1896 the Americans won it with the score of 4½ to 3½; in 1897 and 1898 the Britishers won, each time with 51/2 wins to 41/2; while last year the Americans won by 6 to 4 points. It will thus be seen that this country's representatives just won a match in time to save the entire loss of the trophy. The teams will be as

New York, March 19.—Maud S., the famous trotter, died at Schultz's farm, Port Chester, N. Y., Saturday morning. She was brought to the farm from New York a year ago, and it was intended to use her for breeding purposes. She was sick when she arrived here, and had been under the care of a veterinary surgeon. She gradually became worse, however, and all efforts to save the life of the valuable animal were fruitless. Maud S. was owned by the Bonner estate, and was 26 years old. The mouths of the panic-mongers have been stopped, and by a French-Several papers of fair standing have seriously been putting forward the possibility of war with France, and their sensations have been gulped down by a small section of the British pub-lic, though well informed persons were only amused. France, however, was not the only nation which it was as-serted meditated an immediate invasion of England, Russia, Germany and Austria, according to the fancy of the manufacturers of panics, had designs to take advantage of Great Britain's troubles. But M. Delcasse, the French foreign minister, spoke and the bogey of European hostility and interference vanished. Without the bias of friendship he disclosed the common sense with which France and other European powers were governing their relations towards Great Britain and bore home what has frequently been set forth in these dispatches—i. e., that no power had the slightest intention of going to war with Great Britain at present, and that no power was anxious to intervene in behalf of the Boers. BALKAN TROUBLES.

The pacific aspect which European matters assume is far more likely to be disturbed by trouble in the Balkans than by the South African war or anything in which Great Britain is chiefly concerned, though even the Balkan difficulty is most unlikely to result in any continental war. This latest trouble consists in the apparent determin-ation of Prince Ferdinand to declare himself king of Bulgaria and renounce Turkey's suzerainty. He would scarcely contemplate this without the backing of Russia, whence come Prince Ferdinand's generals, guns and his national loan. As the Spectator points out, for the sultan to refuse absolutely the rethe sultan to refuse absolutely the request of Prince Ferdinand, supported by Russia, and not negatived by the triple alliance, would be a very serious event indeed, "and it may occur sooner than we, who are all looking southward, instead of eastward, are ready to

FRANCO-RUSSIAN ENTENTE. The discussion of the question of mediation in the French Senate on Thursday gave M. London, Monday, March 19.

Premier Laurier's Great Speech. The great speech delivered by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, on the occasion of Mr. Bourassa's amendment to the contingent resolution is still subject of admiring comment on both sides of the Atlantic. When notice of motion of Mr. Bourassa's amendment was given, some were a little timid with regard to the effect of the discussion which might ensue. But it is the part of a great leader to take advantage of difficulties, and make them stepping stones to tri-

This was what happened on the occasion referred to. Those who had the privilege of being in the House during Sir Wilfrid Laurier's speech, had the opportunity of listening to what was probably one of the very finest speeches ever delivered in the Canadian Parliament. The Dominion Premier so carried the House, that those who usually are his opponents, like the hosts of Tuscany in Macaulay's ballad, could scarce forbear to cheer.

It is against the rules for those occupying places in the Parliamentary gallery to indulge in demonstrations of any kind, but on this occasion they broke into cheers, renewed again and

The London Times and other great English journals have pronounced Sir Wilfrid's oration one of the most perfect and powerful of modern times.

No man has done more to promote a true imperial sentiment than Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and if one believes in providential missions for men, the thought readily suggests itself that the broad-minded and eloquent First Minister of Canada seems to have been providentially raised up for the express purpose of welding into one harmonious community the various creeds and races which go to make up the population of our happy Canada.

The Abuse of the Flag.

The British flag stands for good government, for liberty wisely enjoyed, and justice fairly administered. It required great and continuous courage on the part of our fathers to make that flag respected abroad, but it required perhaps even greater courage to make it at home the emblem of unity in diversity. The flag is the property of the whole empire, the symbol of the Queen's sovereignty, and of certain great principles which are maintained in all her wide domains. It stands for the same principles in Canada as in England, in India, as in Australia. It is the duty of all free subjects of the empire to honor it and to refrain from its abuse. In Britain, when Gladstone proposed his great home rule measure, some sections of the Conservative party. used the national flag as a party badge and declared that they would resist to the death the "dismemberment of the empire." They had a perfect right to oppose Gladstone and to criticise severely his proposals, but they had no right to use the flag as a party emblem. It is to be fifted above all mere sectional divisions and strife of factions. We in Canada have proved to the world that home rule under proper conditions does not mean the dismemberment of the empire, but rather its consolidation. We have seen the same at an election in Canada, party politicians rallying to the polls with the cry of "the old flag," and thereby insinuating that one-half of the country was disloyal, and that their particular party had a monopoly of loyalty. If a party can purchase a little temporary advantage in that way it is bought at too high a price. In Britain itself men sprung from different races live at peace under the same flag. The purpose of the flag is not to make all think and speak exactly alike, but to insure liberty for men to have that reasonable amount of difference without which life would be a very stale thing. Because we have the British flag, we should have the British ideal, which is that so long as men keep the law they shall have the right to think and speak freely. It is, then, the duty of all good citizens to honor the flag by lifting it above personal squabbles and party strife.

There never was a time when this duty was more imperative than now. Canadians of English, French, Irish and Scotch extraction have shed their blood on South African soil for the cause of liberty, and we treat their memory with discredit if we bring disgrace upon the cause of liberty. Liberty and loyalty to law stand together; they cannot be divorced. The flag insures my liberty by teaching me to respect the rights of others. Let the British flag once become the monopoly of any party or clique, and it will lose its power in the face of the world. We believe that it would never have been carried into the territory of the Boers if they had not invaded British territory, or if they had shown the least respect for the principles it represents; but, carried there by our brave soldiers, it will mean, not tyranny, but freedom.

It is highly dangerous for anyone to advocate reforms in government in China. The emperor has just authorized the issuance of an edict offering 100,000 taels for the capture of the reformers Kang Yo Wei and Liang alive or dead. A further edict has also been issued commanding Li Hung Chang. now in high favor at court to desecrate and destroy the tombs of the ancestors of Kang Yu Wei. This is about the severest punishment that can be meted out to a Chinaman, as the remains of ancestors are invariably kept most

"A Cheerful Look Makes a Disha Feast."

"Cheerful looks" depend just as much upon physical well-being as upon natural disposition and temperament. If the blood is disordered, the brain is starved, and no "dish is a feast," for the reason that the vitalizing elements do not reach the proper spot.

A step in the right direction is to purify the body by the use of a natural remedy. Hood's Sarsaparilla is Nature's remedy. It acts upon the blood, and whether the seat of the dislorder is brain, stomach, liver or kidnevs, the purifying process of this medicine is equally sure and successful. It never disappoints.

Great Builder-"Have used Hood's Sarsaparilla for indigestion, constipation and finds it builds up the whole system and gives relief in cases of catarrh." WILLIAM E. WELDON, Moncton, N. B.

Sour Stomach-"My system was out of order. I suffered from headache and sour stomach. Took Hood's Sarsaparilla, my health improved and I gained 18 pounds." Maxwell D. Shangraw, Colebrooke, Ont.

Bad Cough-"My sister was troubled with a cough which caused pain in her left side. She was confined to her bed. We gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla and in a few weeks she was able to sit up in bed, her appetite improved and the cough and accompanying pain disappeared." LILY WALKER, 24 Cottingen Street, Halifax, N. S.

Dyspepsia—" My husband suffered with dyspepsia. Physicians did not benefit him. Two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla relieved him. My husband's father and our little boy have been wonderfully benefited by this medicine." Mrs. O. F. CHAMBERLAIN, Glen Button, Que.

Run Down-"My system was run down. I could not sleep nights and my appetite was poor. Hood's Sarsaparilla restored an appetite and strength and has made me feel like a new woman." Mrs. S. E. Dryden, Amherst, N. S.

Backache.

Nothing that was ever offered the sufferer for Kidney or Biadder troubles ever reached the top rung of the lad-der of success so rapidly as DR. PITCHER'S BACKACHE KIDNEY TABLETS, and as evidence of that fact we do not refer you to some one unknown to you, in some out-of-theway place that you cannot reach for can easily prove for yourself, were given willingly and without reward.
This sort of testimony is a radical departure from all previous methods, and naturally bears the stamp of honesty. If the simple reading of the following testimonial of a resident of your own town does not convince you, go and ask them. This is but one in the many hundreds on file, that bear convincing evidence of the sterling worth and efficiency of DR. PITCH-ER'S BACKACHE KIDNEY TAB-

We called on Mrs. A. Risdon, of No. 172 Wortley road, South London, to ascertain if DR. PITCHER'S BACK-ACHE KIDNEY TABLETS that Messrs. C. McCallum & Co. are selling, had done her any good. Mrs. Risdon speaks of these tablets as follows:
"DR. PITCHER'S BACKACHE KID-NEY TABLETS have relieved me of pain and aching in my back. I have not taken them regularly, but they have removed that constant pain in the small of my back, nevertheless. I have used not quite a bottle, and I am not having those dull headaches as I did. They have strengthened my kidneys, so that I am no longer troubled in that way. I am not having dizziness, nor that tired feeling mornings. I can speak of them in the highest terms, so far as I have used them.' Price 50 cents per bottle. A free sample of DR. PITCHER'S BACK-ACHE KIDNEY TABLETS mailed to every applicant. If you doubt the testimony of your neighbors you can prove for yourself-get a sample absolutely free. Send stamp to The Pitcher Tablet Co., Toronto, Ont.

Beecham a Lonefactor.

The following paragraph has been appearing of late in nearly all of the leading English papers, and as a result thousands of boxes of Beecham's Pills have found their way to the fighting line in South Africa, and a great benefit to the soldiers has result-

The proprietor of Beecham's Pills desires us to state that he will be pleased to send a gratis box of his wellknown productions, postage paid, to any individual soldier now on active service in South Africa, if any reader will send to St. Helen's an address which will find their absent friend at the seat of war. He has adopted this course in consequence of having received so many letters complaining that this medicine cannot at present be obtained at the front.' Mr. Beecham's public spirit is constantly asserting itself. It was only the appetite, backache, nervousness, head-other day one read of his bidding for ache and tired, run-down feeling, but, the manuscript of the now famous "Ab-sent-Minded Beggar," and of the honors which his town had bestowed upon him as mayor of St. Helen's. Small wonder that thousands who have benefited by his medicine regard him as a personal benefactor rather than a misty personality only known by reason of the world-wide popularity of the article which bears his pame

ON TO PRETORIA!

Mafeking's Relief May Be Announced Together.

London, March 19 .- 2:15 p.m .- Neither the advance by way of Fourteen Streams nor Col. Plumer's movement have yet resulted in bringing news of Mafeking's relief; from Bloemfontein and Natal there are apparently no serious developments, and public interest remains centered in Col. Badenproof, except by mail, and days of waiting, but to some one in your own of greater military importance. However, it appears likely that the converging of the troops towards Mafeking indicates a much more serious purpose than merely its relief.

Judging from Lord Methuen's presence at Warrentown and the capture of the near by passage of the Vacl at Fourteen Streams, keen observers believe Lord Roberts meditates an advance in force on Pretoria by way of Rustenburg. This might start either from Fourteen Streams or Klerksdorp, and would probably coincide with an advance via Bloemfontein and Natal. Thus Lord Methuen may be given the chance to redeem his reptutation, as done with Gen. Gatacre.

Commandant Olivier has accepted another step in his retreat from Northern Cape Colony, evacuating Rouxville and going towards Kroonstadt, where President Stevn is.

Cape Town, March 19.—Owing to the quarrelsomeness of Col. Schiel, the German officer in charge of the Boer artillery, who was wounded and taken prisoner at the battle of Elandslaagte. he has been removed from the prisoners' camp to a transport.

Wolseley's Prophecy.

BRITISH TO BE IN PRETORIA MAY 15.

London, March 19, 6 a.m.-Special to Toronto Globe.-The military correspondent of the News records an interesting prediction by Lord Wolseley. Bloemfontein, he said many weeks ago, would be occupied on March 15, and Pretoria, if the Boer resistance maintained, on May 15. Lord Wolseley as a military prophet stands high, so that his guess with regard to the of considerable interest.

MUST RELIEVE MAFEKING. Lord Roberts has troops to spare, and will probably not take the risk of sending a weak column, especially as Mafe-king can be made the base for an effective turning movement of the Boer positions on the Witwatersrand ridge. Entirely apart from the urgent necessity for relieving the garrison, which has made such a gallant defense, there is a group of officers serving under Con. Baden-Powell, whose deliverance is eagerly awaited in London, where they are well known. Among them are Lord Edward Cecil (son of Lord Salisbury), Col. Hore, Lord Charles Bentinck, Chicago, March 19.—Another meet-Major Vyogen, Major Anderson, Major ing will be held here this afternoon Godley and Captain Fitz Clarence, or evening between the executive comwhose social connections in England are most influential. LABOR DISPUTES

Advance on the Transvaal Capital and | New York Cigarmakers Vote $10,000 a Week to Chicago Strikers-Printers Thrown Out by the Federation of Labor - 100,000 Machinists May Strike.

Chicago, March 19.—Typographical Union, No. 16, composed of the print-ers of Chicago, has been thrown out of the Federation of Labor. By a large majority the motion carried which un-seated the thirteen delegates in the union and expelled them until such time as they are ready to "apologize." By their action the leaders of the big organization saved themselves from being charged with violating the conling political offices. The printers had come prepared to make the charge, but were unseated before occasion could be found to debate the question.

New York, March 19 .- Twen'ty thousand cigarmakers were represented at a meeting held yesterday in this city. It was decided to give $10,000 a week to the 2,200 striking men and women employed by Kerbs, Wrotheim The money for the strikers will be taken from the cigarmakers' strike fund, which amounts to $250. and every man who is working will contribute 50 cents each week to the strike.

Chicago, March 18 .- President James O'Connell, of the International Machinists' Union, declares that 100,000 machinists in all parts of the United States and Canada will be ordered on strike within the coming month, as the result of a disagreement between the manufacturers and machinists, who closed a joint conference in Chicago at 1:30 this morning. President James O'Connell declared that the strike would be called immediately in all parts of the United States and Canada, causing a shutdown for an indefinite period of plants having an aggregate capital of millions of dollars. Chicago labor troubles are responsible for the disagreement, which is expected to precipitate the general machinists' strike. At the meeting the manufacturers submitted to the machinists a proposal to arbitration substantially as follows:

All strikes and lockouts to be called off; an arbitration committee, consisting of the presidents of the two organizations and two members of each association, who shall arbitrate all present and future differences, and whose decision shall be accepted as final by both parties to the agreement. On the second proposition the two associations were united. The labor leaders after holding a meeting, refused to duration of the war in South Africa is agree to the first proposition, and submitted a demand for immediate and separate arbitration of the Chicago difficulty. This the manufacturers re fused to ratify, and the conference broke up, both sides making what amounted to a formal declaration of war The members of the executive board the Machinists' Union refused to call off the Chicago strike, as they de-clared that if they did the Chicago men would secede from the international association.

The Chicago union of the International Association of Machinists met today and indorsed the action of the national officers.

mittee of the Inland Association of Mechanics and the Administrative Council of the National Metal trades' Association, and a last effort made to agree on a basis of settlement. There seems to be little prospect of an agree-The Chicago Times-Herald says: 'Unless a body goes to its last resting place in a union-made coffin it will be refused burdal in the cemeteries of Chicago and vicinity, if the plans of the unions to organize a grave-diggers union are carried out. Already they have compelled the placing of the union label on every cradle manufactured, and it is the avowed object of the unions to unionize everything from the cradle to the grave inclusive. A committee has been appointed by the woodworkers to unionize the coffin factories. To enforce the use of union coffins the woodworkers, as soon as they have unionized the factories, will attempt to organize the grave diggers into a union, and have them refuse absolutely to inter a body unless it is encased in a union-made casket. Secretary John Lee, of the woodworkers, says: "It is to the interest of labor men to have every article used from the cradle and have a new lease on life." Only 50c. to the grave union made. ROMANTIC STORY.

Richard Thurlow, Taken Away by His Name After 28 Years.

Woodstock, March 19 .- A romantic story came to light Saturday night, when Mr. A. W. Thurlow, secretary-treasurer of the Woodstock fire department, was visited by a brother, Richard, who had long been lost to his family, and of late given up for dead. Mr. Thurlow's father formerly lived in Til-

On May 25, 1871, he eloped with a Mrs. Johnson, who had been employed in the household as domestic, taking his son Richard, who was then 4 years old, with him, and leaving behind his wife and the other children. The three went to Ingersoll, presumably to sell a team of horses, but never returned. Inquiries of all sorts were made, but without success. The family moved eventually from Tilsonburg, and nothing was heard of the fugitives.

It now appears from the story that Richard Thurlow tells that the pair took up land near Chatham under name of Roberts, which Richard was taugh to believe was his own. Later they moved to Belle Isle, from there to Detroit, back to Chatham, and finally to Salem, Mich. One child who grew up, and is married in that state.

Two years ago the father died. Mrs. Johnson, in August of last year, married a German named Wit. Richard himself had married and settled on a farm near Rochester, Mich. Recently Mrs. Johnson's conscience began to bother her, and she revealed the secret of Richard's identity. He immediately started for Tilsonburg and after making inquiries there, came on to Woodstock, where he hunted up his brother Their mother lives at Bolton, north of Toronto, and has been telegraphed for.

Swallows migrate to Central America and the southern part of Mexico. They like it pretty warm. Along about this time of year they begin to appear in the Southern States, but they seldom get far north until the latter part of April. The robins don't care for such a warm climate, and very few of them get as far south as Mexico.

London Streets the Subject of Severe Criticism by Chief Justice Meredith

In His Address to the Grand Jury at the Opening of the Spring Assizes.

The spring assizes for the county of Middlesex opened at the court house at 1 p.m. before Chief Justice Sir Wm R. Meredith. S. F. Washington, Q.C. of Hamilton, is present as crown prosecutor. A. W. Augustine, of West Williams, was chosen as foreman of the grand jury. After the grand jury had been sworn in, his lordship proceeded to address them. The cases coming before them, he said, were not numerous, numbering only three, but were of a serious nature, the punishment for two of them being death, if found guilty. He then outlined the known facts of the three criminal cases to come up, and commented strongly upon the fact that in the list of persons confined in the county jail, 25 in all, two should be charged with insanity, one of them having been committed in May, 1898. Insanity was not a crime, but a misfortune, and some remedy should be found for this condition of things. It was the duty of the grand jury to visit the jail and other county buildings, and all charitable institutions receiving government money. Among these would be the new hospital, about the management of which there had been considerable discussion lately. If they could find their way clear, after an examination of the place, to make some suggestions looking to the im-provement of the conditions, they should do so. As a grand jury, it was their duty to bring to the notice of the municipal and federal authorities any matters of public interest. One of these should be the disgraceful condition of the city streets at the present time. The sidewalks are almost impassable, and citizens have to take the middle of the road. It is cruel that women and children should be compelled to tramp through inches of slush and water. He was not sure whether they should indict the city authorities, but they should at least be severely censured. The legislature had some time ago enacted that a municipality could be held responsible for injures from the condition of the walks only in cases of gross neglect; but if the legislature could visit London at the present time they would doubtless repeal that law. It was small encouragement for the legislature to endeavor to assist municipalities when the latter so wan-tonly neglect their duties. The grand jury was then dismissed to the performance of their various functions. The case of Jarvis vs. the London Street Railway, to be heard before a jury, was then taken up. It will occupy a good portion of the afternoon. The suit of Blow vs. the Petrolia Bar-

Trades and Labor Delegates Interview the Premier-Their Grievances Will Receive Attention.

[Special to The Advertiser per C.P.R.] Ottawa, March 19 .- A delegation from the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada waited on Sir Wilfrid Laurier in his office this morning and presented to him questions in which the labor party is interested, and which they desire the government to look into. The delegation composed: J. A. Flett, Hamilton; G. W. Dower, Toronto; J. H. Fitzpatrick, Toronto; P. M. Draper, Ottawa; J. C. Scott, Quebec; J. B. Mack, Montreal, and E. P. Bremner, British Columbia. The delegates were introduced by Mr. Puttee, M.P. They called attention to the desirability of having inspectors for the gear and and tackle of ships; to Mr. Mulock's fair wage resoluton, which they approved of, and also to the exclusion of Chinese and the operation of the alien labor law. The last two questions were the principal ones which the speakers dealt with. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in reply, thanked the delegation for the valuable infor-mation laid before him. The principal grievances of labor men, however, were two, namely, the Chinese and the alien labor act. The government intended introducing a bill in regard to the Chinese. In respect to the allen labor law, the cases that they were asked to improve were few. He admitted that there were difficulties in the Slocan district from the importation of Batho (London, England). Strange Cases of Kidney Direase Reported in Smith's Falls.

Smith's Falls, March 19 .- One of the most remarkable cures ever performed by Dodd's Kidney Pills was that of Mrs. George Barnes, of this town. Mrs. Barnes was afflicted with Female Weakness and Urinal Trouble resulting from kidney disease. The disease had also a serious effect on her senses of sight and hearing, for at times Mrs. Barnes would be exceedingly deaf and shortsighted.

Mrs. Barnes gives an account of her case for publication: "I have consulted a doctor," she writes, "who gave me medicine that seemed to make me worse at times. I was told of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and I got one box. I used part of the box and am completely cured, and strange to say, both my hearing and eyesight are now

Spring Millinery.

A store, always pretty, but today made more so with moorish rugs and decorations in rose and violet; colors richly comingling with colors; all the latest, the daintiest of millinery; these were potent factors in the success attained by Mrs. McLeod, in her opening this morning. There was no place in the city more cosy, more irresistibly attractive to women. So it was found by the large number of ladies who attended, and who so admired the dainty creations that will be worn this spring. Especially noticeable were the beautiful pastelle shades; the pinks and pale blues in clair de loom and the automobile rosettes which are so popular. A violet hat, with a large automobile in front and pastelle buttons excited the admiration of many, but equally attractive were the little Hobbs hats, with Spanish spangles, matched by an immense shore of shaded violet, pierced with daggers. Another hat of exceeding beauty was of French pattern, in pastelle gray, with trimmings of crimson, with American Beauty roses and a sash of honiton lace, fastened at the back with pastelle buttons, and trimmed at front with Prince of Wales' tips. Of the untrimmed hats the Roslyns, with sash veilings, were shown a great deal. The Knox, Sailors and Empires were sought after as much as usual. Mrs. McLeod was showing many of Retrussans' swellest pat-terns, selected recently while in New York. It was the oft expressed opinion of many ladies who attended, that no prettier shapes or shades have been on view for many seasons. Certainly there has been no more successful processed. ceseful opening.

"FAVORABLE AUSPICES." This is the month that came first in the Roman calendar, and therefore the great warrior-nation of antiquity gave it the name of their war-god, Mars, the redoubtable. Most appropriate it is that under such auspices Ladysmith should be relieved, and "Little Great Bobs" should march into an enemy's capital, Bobs, who is winning laurels that mean no fading wreath of lame, but a giorious old age, and a resting-place in Westminster Albbey.

'And through the centuries let a people's voice, In full acclaim,

A people's voice, The proof and echo of all human fame. A people's voice when they rejoice, At civil revel and pomp and game, With honor, honor, honor to him, Eternal honor to his name."

"THE TITMICE OF NEWBERN." Of the battle of Newbern, a quaint story, with a moral for us of today, is told. The soldiers of Fort Thompson employed many of their leisure moments by feeding a couple of titmice, who, unalarmed at the implements of warfare, had built a wee nest-where do you suppose? Why, right in the mouth of a great cannon; and here they lived and loved and brought up a happy family. But war does not wait on the convenience of titmice, and the fort was attacked, and the cannon brought into use. Strange to tell, how-ever, the first shot from the enemy's guns frightened the titmice into the woods. But, behold! a shot dismounts the deserted cannon, and back fly the titmice. When the battle is over, when the fort has passed into the hands of the enemy, the soldiers find the titmice once more building in the cannon. Little cared they for the fortunes of war, besiegers or besieged. All alike harmless individuals so long as they fed them with crumbs. Such things as feuds between men were beneath the consider ation of titmice.

'Was this an auspice of what would come After the hush of rifle and drum,

When war and its horrors have passed away?" As north and south fought togethe and died together in Cuba and the Philippines, will a brighter day see English and Dutch in South Africa, side by side, not in war, but in the greater arts of peace, bringing the light of a twentieth century civilization into the dark continent? Let us not hinder this brotherhood-to-be by cruel words against our enemies of today, which many rankle in the hearts of our fellow-citizens of tomorrow.

"For I dipt into the future, far as human eye could see, Saw the vision of the world, and all the wonder that would be Till the war-drum throbb'd no longer, and the battle-flags were furl'd, In the parliament of man, the federation of the world." THE SAINT OF ERIN.

Like Homer, St. Patrick is a gentleman over whom there has been some dispute. Scotland, England, France and Wales all claim the honor of having given him birth, but it is probable that Scotland, which generally manages to get all the good things in this world. got him. Strange to say, his career can be traced by the devotion of his A regular craze seems to have dwelt in their minds in regard to the naming of places after him, and appelation, then it is pretty nearly certain that here the saint was to be found at one time of the saint was to be found at the saint was to be saint was to be found at the saint was to be saint was to be found at the saint was to be saint was t one time or another. There are Irish people who firmly believe that St. Patrick rid Ireland of snakes, and this is considered by them as his greatest miracle. They told me he did so by beating a drum, and that the devotion of the saint to this task was so great that he beat a hole in the drum, and the miracle nearly feared to come off on this account. But an angel mended the drum, and the strument long remained in Ireland a. holy and much admired relic.

There is a dreary and hardly accessible lake in the Galtee Mountains. near county Cork, called Lough Dil-neen, and here the peasants declare that a monster serpent was chained by the saint, who promised the disappointed monster that he should be released on Monday. I am sorry to say the saint did not keep his promise, and the monster is in the habit of calling out every Monday morning, "It's a long Monday, Patrick." As he speaks in Irish, I cannot vouch for the truth of the story, although it was Monday when we drove past, and we all listened very hard.

A RUINED MONASTRY. There are many ruins in Ireland that tell of the monastical orders who succeeded St. Patrick. In the midst of one of the beautiful lakes of Killarney is a lovely island, which contains the interesting remains of an old monastery. Only the gaunt walls stand now, and one tree is actually growing where the monks talked and prayed of yore. Under the grand trees outside the walls these dead and gone monks sleep under grass-grown grave stones. The peasants have a strange fear of these places, and will not visit them after sun-down; but to us it was holy and most peaceful among the crumbling gray walls and the rustling branches of "the venerable brotherhood of trees.

That waved and made the sign of the cross, And whispered their benedicites."

THE TRIUMPH OF TRUE LOVE

CHAPTER XVII.

Lord Vivian Selwyn little realized how often, and in how many different shapes, that idea came to him-wishing his wife was more like Beatrice Leigh. The Lady Violante was sweet, gentle, and of a most loving disposition. She was gifted with a refined mind, a cul-tivated and poetical taste; but there was no mistaking the fact-she was not, and never would be, a "woman of the world."

That might not have been a matter of much moment if she had not been so diffident in herself. She had been nearly two years married when they went to London, and yet she had not learned to take the head of her own table without blushing. The time came when Lord Vivian thought it necessary to return the hospitalities that had been lavished upon him, by a grand ball, to be followed by a series of din-ner parties. Will he ever forget the horrified face of his wife when he first told her of his intention?

"We will take one thing into consideration at once," said Lord Vivian, smiling, "and then we may hope to succeed. The ball will occupy all your thoughts, Violante; you must try and manage it yourself."

sitting alone in the They were sitting alone in the pretty breakfast-room of Thornleigh House—a room gay with rose-colored chintzes, and stands of fragrant flowers. They had been breakfasting together, for neither Mrs. Selwyn nor Miss Leigh were down. The windows were open, and through them came a soft, western wind, perfumed with the breath of mignonette.

'First," continued Lord Vivian, ignoring altogether the expression of his disappointed in her. wife's face, "you must write out a list of those you intend to invite. Head it with the Duchess of Roxminster." "That dreadful old woman, with her bare shoulders. Oh, Vivian, I do not like her!" she cried.

"Like and dislike are two words left out of the vocabulary of the great world, Violante." said Lord Vivian. "That dreadful old woman, as you call her was the reigning belle for many her was the reigning belle for many years; even now she has more influence than any other lady in London." "She must be sixty, if she's a day!" replied his wife, "She ought to be thinking of another world, instead of living for this. I pray heaven, when I am sixty, Vivian, I may have ceased to care for the world at all."

to care for the world at all."

He could not even feign anger, for knew that she was right, and the lovely face wore such an expression of purity and devotion, he could only her, and whisper that she was an

I am not an angel, Vivian," replied the young wife, who was accustomed to take every word literally as it was said; "but these old women who pretend to be young disgust me."
"We are forgetting the ball," he said.
"When your list is made out, you had better see Gunter over the supper and Stray over the band. Let us have the very best of everything, darling, so that people may say when Lady Sel-wyn gives a ball, she knows how to make it succeed."

Her sweet face grew absolutely white. At Oakside the largest entertainment she had ever managed was when her father invited the curate and his wife, with the curate's brother, to tea and supper. That had been a great effort, but she had managed it. a young girl used only to birds and flowers and books, the entertainment of the human species is a serious undertaking. Now she was coolly asked to manage, or superintend, or "see to," as she in her own mind phrased it, the supper and the dancing—the amuse-ment of two hundred, at least, of the most fastidious men and women in London. Her hands fell nervously on

"I never can do it, Vivian," she cried. "I am only just twenty, and I never even arranged a dancing party in all my life. What shall I do "

His face grew dark with anger. "Violante," he asked, "do you intend always to remain a child? When do you purpose to assume the duties that belong to you as my wife?"
"Do not be angry," she said, piteous-

"I will do my best; but, indeed, I have no notion, no idea even how to

"I could sooner do anything in the world," she said, "than amuse a whole room full of people. I should not know in the least what to say. I always speak the truth, and do wrong, you know. I cannot invent polite false-hoods. I shall have to look that terrible old duchess in the fact, and tell her I am charmed to see her. She will know directly it is not true."

"You are incorrigible, Violante," said Lord Vivian, despairingly.
"I know I am," she replied. "I would give anything to do as I should do, to be what you wish me to be, but I cannot. I do try, but it is not in me. My simple home habits are too strong." 'It is nonsense," said Lord Vivian; "you are young, graceful, clever; quick to learn, apt to imitate. Why can you not learn to fulfill your duties? They seem to me simple enough." "Because you are accustomed to tem," she replied. "All that seems easiest to you is hardest to me. Oh.

been happier if you had left me at Oakside. I ought never to have been here."

And for the first time Lord Vivian heard such words without reply. Usually he tried to reassure her; to tell her that nothing mattered, now that she was his wife; that he valued her more than all the world beside; but now he said nothing of these things. sow he said hothing of these things. She looked at him with such pretty pleading in her eyes and face—he never saw it. He was thinking, and it was the first time he had entertained that thought, that perhaps, after all, Violante had been right when she stood under the laburnum trees that summer evening. There might have been some truth in what she said—his world was not hers; the habits, the manners, the customs of his world were not like those of hers.

Perhaps, after all, it had been a terrible mistake; and if so, there was now no remedy. So he looked blankly into the beautiful, sorrowful face, a dreadful conviction dawning upon him that he had made a foolish mistake. "Do not look so, Vivian," said Lady Selwyn; "I will do my best. Mrs. Sel-wyn will help me."

"That is the very thing," said Lord Vivian; "I want you to learn self-re-liance. You will not always have my mother and Miss Leigh to help you. Miss Leigh will marry some day; then what will you do?"

"Feel heartily glad of it," replied Violante, abruptly; and that answer did not quite please Lord Vivian. He had not the faintest idea that his wife was in the least degree jealous of Beatrice. Such a thought had never occurred to him. He imagined her slightly envious of Miss Leigh's social to shots at him, but only three or four balls struck him. He will die, or four balls struck him. He will die qualities; but that Violante should be jealous of her never occurred to him. "Well you will do the best you can,

Violante," he said, as he rose to leave the room. "You must come to me if you find yourself in difficulties." When he had gone she cried to her-self in a passion of despair. In such scenes as these she had foreseen when Lord Vivian first asked her to be his wife, and now her fears were all verified. She was not equal to her duties -never would be, and her husband was

The evening of the ball came. If the man does not stop the cough the cough stops the man; stops his appetite, his sleep, his pleasure and his work. So called "cough remedies" sometimes relieve but they don't go deep enough to cure. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures coughs and diseases of the respiratory organs perfectly and permanently. It stops the cough. It heals the lungs, stops the hemorrhage, if the lungs are bleeding, and by purifying the blood and increasing the action of the blood-making glands enriches every organ with the good blood which alone will make a good body. Medical Discovery cures coughs and good body.

"My husband had been coughing for years and people frankly told me that he would go into consumption," writes Mrs. John Shireman, of No. 265 25th Place, Chicago, Ill. "He had such terrible coughing spells, we not only grew much alarmed, but looked for the bursting of a blood vessel or a hemorrhage at almost any time. After three days' coughing he was too weak to cross the room. The doctor did him no good. I stated the ease to a druggist, who handed me a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. My husband's recovery was remarkable. In three days after he began using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery he was up and around, and in two more days he went to work. Two bottles cured him."

TONY DECKER

Attemped Suicide in His Cell-He and Pal Taken to Kingston.

Woodstock, Ont., March 19 .- Anthony Decker, the counterfeiter, who was sentenced to five years in Kingston penitentlary, tried to end his life at the jail Friday night by attempting su-cide. He hid his dinner knife away several days ago, and had in some way sharpened it to a razor edge Friday night he sent for Bertrand Steinberg, the Montreal court interpreter, who was a witness on the trial, to make he will. This startled Steinberg, and he remained with the prisoner all night.

Next morning, which the turnkey went in to tell the proper to prepare for his trip to King and Stelnberg gave him a sign, and they both seized Deck-er, and on him was found the knife. He then confessed that he had intended to commit suicide during the night. Decker and his son Paul were safely landed in Kingston penitentiary in the afternoon. Steinberg was allowed $20 witness fees, which he presented in gold to the Woodstock hospital. PRISONER SHOT IN HIS CELL.

Marietta, Ga., March 19 .- A mob of 125 men battered down the door of the jail here at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, and went to the cell where John Bailey, a negro, was confined, and fired about 100 shots at him, but only three or four balls struck him. He will die.

FAIR MOVEMENT

Dominton.

Bradstreet's trade review weekly

summary: At Montreal the recent millinery openings were not as largely attended as in former years, owing chiefly to the stormy weather. The trade, how-ever, reports a fair demand for spring novelties. Manufacturers in all lines are kept busy, and the cotton mills are also working full time.

London—Good snow roads in the country have tended to improve business at London. The grain deliveries have been fair at country markets, and the demand from the retailers is

Pacific Coast-Trade continues somewhat dull, but the outlook is considered bright. There is a good deal of building going on. The outlook in the mining camps is more promising. Winnipeg-The trade situation has not shown much change. Considerable shipments of spring and summer goods are coming forward. Hamilton-There has been a fair movement in trade circles here, and the prospect for business continues promising. There is a good deal more industrial activity in the city than former years at this date; labor is well employed and payments are satisfactory.

Toronto—The conditions of trade are sound, and the prospects point to a successful season's business. Values continue firm for all classes of goods. For the Dominion of Canada the clearances last week were: Montreal, $11,781,371, a decrease of 25.8 per cent: Toronto, $8,906,385, an increase of 5.4 per cent; Winnipeg, $1,585.074, an increase of 7.6 per cent; Halifax, $1,468,-390, an increase of 20.2 per cent; Hamilton, $730,670, a decrease of 7 per cent; St. John, N. B., $532,464, a decrease of 2.4 per cent; Vancouver, $735,896, an increase of 30.7 per cent; Victoria, $501,785, a decrease of 14.2 per cent.

SAFE AND SOUND

Steamer Was Icebound 37 Hours-Burned Corn Meal to Keep Up Steam-Had 27 Passengers.

St. Joseph, Mich., March 19.-The steamer Louisville arrived in port at 5 o'clock Saturday evening after being 37 hours ice bound five miles off this place. The tug Andy broke the ice for four hours in the morning under favorable winds, and when the vessel was reached the crew was put to coaling the steamer while the passengers were treated to a first-class meal. At 12 o'clock, for fear the vessel could not make the harbor, the 27 passengers, among whom were four women and two children, were given shelter in the tug Andy, where they were made comfortable. In the five hours' plowing through the ice, the president of the company, a recognized expert tug master, took his place as captain of the tug.

Smith, of Chicago, accompan-led by his wife, en route for Hopper-town, says: "I am a plumber and they had good use for me, for in sev-eral instances the pipes froze up, and had I not tendered help the state of affairs would have been serious. The wind was blowing 60 miles an hour and the mencury showed 6 below zero.' C. H. Godfrey, a wealthy factoryman of Benton Harbor, says: "The pas-sengers received the best of attention. Out of fuel we were compelled to burn cornmeal, thus it looked serious, as there was only 1,000 sacks on board."
The arrival of the tug and steamer was greeted by 2,000 anxious citizens.

Wabash to Pay Half the Cost of Their Employes' Uniforms-Tourist Cars Cut Into Puliman Eusiness.

It is reported that Mr. Dalrymple, ommercial agent of the Grand Trunk in this city, is slated for a higher position in the company's service in The Wabash is purchasing additional right of way between points where its traffic is heaviest, for the purpose of double-tracking the road between such points. It is understood that officers of the Pullman Company are objecting seriously to the inroads that are being made on their first-class sleeping car service travel by the increasing use of tourist or low-rate sleepers. During the last two years the tourist car has come to be a popular institution. Twenty large freight engines have been ordered by the Union Pacific Railroad from the Baldwin Locomotive Works, for delivery in May and June. The weight of each is, engine in working order, 180,000; tender, 105,000 pounds; total weight, in working order, 285,000 pounds. They are known as compound consolidation engines.

A short time ago the Wabash announced an advance in the wages of trainmen, and now the road is about to make a move that will amount to another increase. Hereafter the company will pay half the cost of uni-

If you are suffering from blood poison, eczema, erysipelas or scrofula in aggravated form; or if you are troubled with facial blemishes or any minor form of skin humors, you need OUR NATIVE HERBS. This great blood remedy contains nothing but the curative properties which Nature furnishes in herbs, roots and barks. It is composed of mandrake, wormwood, juniper, elecampane, sassafras, boneset, spearmint, rhubarb, liver wort, balmony, sarsaparilla, yellow dock, and other medicinal herbs. These are prepared in the most scientific manner, and compounded by expert chemists in the exact proportions necessary to achieve the right results. The following is an example of thousands of letters received from those who have been permanently cured by the use of OUR NATIVE HERBS:-

> "My little boy, aged five, was entirely cured of eczema after taking a part of one box of Our Native Herbs. He had been suffering from this disease for three years; and during the winter his face would be covered with large sores. Nothing that I tried seemed to help him until I was induced to try Our Native Herbs-with the above result. I can truly recommend it as a great blood purifier." MRS. J. ROWE, Petrolea, Ont.

OUR NATIVE HERBS is sold both in tablet and powder form by druggists everywhere at $1.00 a box. Each box is sufficient for 200 days' treatment—a part of the boxful is usually sufficient to effect a cure. The balance can be used as a sure preventive. Every box is registered, and contains a registered guarantee which insures the return of your money if you are not benefited.

Up to the present all efforts to settle the tourist trouble between the Grand Trunk and the Vanderbilt lines has failed, and it looks now like a pitched battle. The controversy has now been going on for several months, and neither side shows any indication of weakening. The Michigan Central and Lake Shore intend selling tourist lickets to Portland via Roston and the tickets to Portland via Boston, and the Grand Trunk will sell to Boston via Portland. In addition to this the latter road announces that it will put into effect a $38 rate from Chicago to Albany, via Montreal. In order to protect themselves, it is expected that the Wabash. Erie and Baltimore and Ohio will put in round trip rates from Chicago to New York. The matter has been up at several conferences, but without reaching a settlement.

Mr. W. R. Hobbs Resigns His Directorship-Movement to Have the Governor-General Visit the Western.

The Western Fair Board met Saturday afternoon to strike the committees for the year and deal with other matters of interest. The fact that a movement is on foot to have the governor-general come to the city to present colors to the Seventh Fusiliers was spoken of, and a committee consisting of Col. Gartshore, W. J. Reid and George Taylor was appointed to co-operate with the Fusiliers, if possible, to have the presentation made some day during fair week. The governor-general's presence is greatly desired by the board, and it is believed that if he comes to the city earlier in the year to present the colors he will not come to the fair Owing to the pressure of business Mr. W. R. Hobbs resigned his position as director. The resignation was accepted, and Mr. Thos. A. Browne was elected a director and appointed chairman of the printing committee in Mr. Hobbs' stead. Col. Gartshore ex-ressed the board's regret at Mr.

Smith's Falls, London and King-ston. Men from these places said Tobbs' withdrawel. The dates set for holding the West-ern Fair this year were Sept. 6 to 15. A it was easy to get enough, and many were rejected. Most of the recruits are members of militia corps, who have been caught by the military barrack life. A DINNER PILL - Many persons suffer excruciating agony after per-taking of a hearty dinner. The food partaken of is like a ball of lead upon the stomach, and instead of being a healing nutriment, it becomes a poison to the system. Dr. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are wonderful correctives of such troubles. They correct acidity, open the secretions, and convey the food partaken of into healthy ment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with indigestion.
