SYMONS ARRIVES IN TOWN

THE IMPORTANT WITNESS IN THE COAL CONSPIRACY CASE.

Detective Reburn Makes a Ready Journey from Detroit—What the New Arrivals Told a Reporter Before Leaving the City of the Great West.

When No. 8 express over the Grand Trunk Division of the Grand Trunk Railway pulled into Union Station at 7.40 on Saturday night the first to alight was a man of about 40, second was Charles G. Symons, the principle witness against the alleged coal conspirators. Symons looked a little pale and nervous. Almost as quick as a flash he was surrounded by the crowd and escorted to a covered carriage and was rapidly driven away from the depot. A crowd of reporters tried to get a word in edgewise but he was so well guarded by no less than a dozen men that they were unable to do so. Reburn's mouth had been hermatically sealed ever since he was given the case. It is said the cab was driven to the northwestern part of the city where it was carefully placed under a "cover," there to wait until he is introduced in the Police Court on Wednesday to give evidence in the case that has created so much excitement in Toronto and elsewhere.

Every precaution has been used to keep Symons out of the way of the "interviewers" and any one who has seen him has only seen him through the bars of the carriage. The prosecuting attorneys and men others as they may think fit.

Detective Reburn left Toronto at 11 o'clock on Friday night, arriving in Detroit early Saturday morning, and at 12.15 stepped on the cars at Windsor on his return to Toronto. He was accompanied by the necessary documents, and the Attorney-General's office, guaranteeing Symons a safe conduct and from the place of trial.

There is a great deal of speculation in the city as to the contents of Symons' confession. It is now in the hands of Mr. Justice O'Connor and his report will be given to the Attorney-General's office, guaranteeing Symons a safe conduct and from the place of trial.

IN A SEETHING STATE

A BANGUARY CONFLICT ON SUNDAY AT BELFAST.

The Combatants Ranged on Horse Top and Taking Deliberate Aim—Five Persons Killed and Several Others Seriously Injured.

LONDON, Aug. 15.—Rifling has been going on in Belfast from midnight last night until 4 o'clock this morning. A rioting has been in progress on the Shank Hill-road and the Old Fall-roads. One person was killed and many were wounded. The town is seething.

A detachment from Belfast says: "A sectarian strike has occurred in a deplorable cold-blooded fashion. Expert marksmen this morning conducted their fire from roof tops, chimneys, stocks and street corners. Immense crowds of partisans, who carefully kept out of range, were prepared to assist by supplying ammunition and removing the wounded. The sides were equal in arms and the shooting was brightly throughout the contest. The Orange men admit that one of their men, named MacDonnell, was killed and that two more named Smith and Johnson were seriously wounded. It is also stated that there were numerous men carried on their sides. They claim that they killed and wounded many Catholics, but the latter deny this. They say that the Orange men were the aggressors and that they were only defending themselves. They claim that they were only defending themselves.

THE FORESTERS AT CHURCH.
Rev. John Pearson Issues Some Practical Advice—Bural of a Brother.

The fourteen city "goats" of the Ancient Order of Foresters, "quintined" by their coat of arms has its own memorial service at the Temperance Hall at 2.30 yesterday afternoon and marched to the Church of the Holy Trinity, which was soon filled with the white-stained and green-headed members of the order. The Rev. John Pearson, the pastor of the church, presided. He addressed the members of the order and issued some practical advice. He said that the members of the order should be true to their principles and should be helpful to their fellow-men. He also issued a eulogy of a brother who had recently died.

THE BANKERS' MARCH.
The Bankers' March was held at the Metropolitan Church yesterday evening. The Rev. John Pearson presided and issued some practical advice. He said that the members of the church should be true to their principles and should be helpful to their fellow-men. He also issued a eulogy of a brother who had recently died.

THE TORIES ARE HOPEFUL

A SURVEY OF THE POLITICAL SITUATION IN ENGLAND.

Should There Be a Fall Session of Parliament?—The Return of Mr. Matthews for Birmingham—Mr. Michael Hicks-Beach's Success at Reading.

LONDON, Aug. 14.—Lord Randolph Churchill has been beaten in yesterday's Cabinet meeting, or perhaps he abandoned his scheme of having a November session in order to pass the new rules of procedure. The Times probably correctly informed when it affirmed positively—an unusual thing where cabinet papers are concerned—that the Liberal Government would not meet next year. All the ministerial papers take it for granted that projects of obstruction will be relinquished. They perhaps overlook Mr. Labouchere's quiet remark that there will be an autumn session for the ministry to choose whether it shall be now or in November. The truth is the Opposition cannot afford among themselves who the Tories mean or who will be the victors. The Liberal and Parliaments should follow. The comments on Lord Salisbury's speech at the Mansion House are a striking proof of the want of unity of views.

Mr. Parnell's silence remains unbroken, but some of his friends say that he does not regret the signs of the times as propitious for a policy of executive activity in 1914. He is, however, of course to do as he pleases. He is, however, of course to do as he pleases.

THE NEW YORK CLEAR MANUFACTURERS GIVE AWAY TO THEIR OWN EMPLOYEES.

New York, Aug. 14.—The clear manufacturers have surrendered to their old employees, who were ordered out of the shops because they refused to join the union. The men go back as union men, and presently will all be members of the International Brotherhood of Workers in numbers about 12,000. This is a triumph for the organized trades over the Knights of Labor, who since the Cleveland convention have been hostile to the open union.

CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—Packington is excited over a rumor that all the houses will follow the lead of Robert G. Gage and suspend hog killing until the regular packing season opens. The employers are said to be tired of fighting up full establishments at a loss, and they believe, too, that they can make better terms with the men on re-engagement. This would mean that the old men would be allowed to return to their former jobs.

CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—The report that Harriet, the Grand Trunk switchman, had been reinstated is denied by the officials of that company. Harriet was reinstated by the Grand Trunk for alleged participation in the strike. The officials say that Harriet was reinstated by the Grand Trunk for alleged participation in the strike.

CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—The Lake Shore Company continues to do its work at the Union Stock Yards under the protection of Winthrop. Some philosophical well wishers think it better for him that he should. He gets the worst of it on the Island, if he does a glass of beer. He is not rich enough, or does not possess the influence to give either of the clubs that flourish there, and consequently he does not drink beer, if he indulges in the beverage at all. He will be seen at the tables with a glass of beer, and consequently he is called "grover."
