EIGHT THOUSAND MEN IN PARADE IN CITY OF HAMILTON SATURDAY

Mounted Rifles Under Major Smith, the 84th Under Lt. Col. Stewart and 125th Under Lt. Col. Cutcliffe Showed Up Well.

Thousands and Thousands of People Were Present to See the Display of Some of Canada's Fighting Force, and March Was Made in Schedule Time.

Over 8000 men trained for overseas service, the two militia regiments of Hamilton, and the Hamilton Home Guards passed the reviewing stand Saturday afternoon before the Lieut.-Governor, Sir John Hendrie, who took the salute, and under the critical eye of Brig.-Gen. Lowe. The whole occasion was a wonderful event in the history of Hamilton. Never scarcely in the history of the city has such a crowd gathered as was seen lining the streets of the "Queen's town." Thousands upon thousands of people were present; flags, bunting and decorations were everywhere in evidence. Every window along the route was jammed with people. It was a good natured crowd, and very quiet. Only occasionally was cheering heard.

The day was bright but cold to stand about in for any length of time. The footing for the soldiers was none too good. The snow was not deep, but it was worn hard and was slippery. In front of the reviewing stand it was rather difficult to keep firm footing. Nevertheless the time made was extraordinarily good. The parade kept up to its schedule to the very second, and the leading files swung past the reviewing stand three minutes ahead of time.

With the exception of the staff officers leading about one hundred of the Mounted Rifles, the Battery and the C. O.'s of the 84th and 86th Battalions, all the soldiers were on foot. Cannon, hidden in mysterious places, fired salutes during the whole parade, but the horses never showed any nervousness. While passing the reviewing stand the boom of the cannon only served to show the steady nerves of the soldiers. Half a dozen times an officer would have his hand half way to his head in the motion of saluting when the cannon would fire off a shell. Yet in not a single case could be seen the slightest tremor; the motion of salute would be completed without even the pause of a fraction of a second. The "oh's" and "ah's" and little jumps of people in the crowd showed what amount of training they would have to endure to arrive at a like state of indifference to sudden and unexpected noise.

Sharp at 2 o'clock, the parade left the armories on James Street. Just two hours and 14 minutes later the leading files passed the reviewing stand. General Logie and Col. Mewburn dismounted and took their place on the stand. Gen. Logie with Sir John Hendrie, first in order of the Overseas service came the Mounted Rifles under Lt. Col. Brooks. The men marched steadily. About two were on horseback, the rest on foot. They all swung past in perfect time and with the easy bearing of veterans.

Right on their heels came the Brantford section of the 84th, under Lieut.-Col. W. T. Stewart. The 84th Battalion have always earned the reputation of being good on the march. On Saturday they sustained it. Line after line moved past in perfect order, there was not a stumble, or no man even slipped on the bad going. The band played a martial air, and after all the long march, there was no signs of fatigue.

The 86th Battalion, the Machine Gun Battalion, was next in order. The men carried rifles, as did the 84th, and the mounted men afoot, and there was nothing about them to in-

IN ONE OF THE VICIOUS VERDUN DRIVES BY THE GERMANS THE KAISER'S ARMY WON A LINE FOUR MILES LONG AND TWO MILES DEEP AND WERE REPORTED TO HAVE TAKEN MORE THAN THREE THOUSAND PRISONERS. THE TREMENDOUS STRENGTH OF THE GERMAN GUNS HAS SHATTERED EVERYTHING BEFORE THEM THUS FAR, AND FROM THE ACCOMPANYING PICTURE A GOOD IDEA CAN BE GATHERED OF THEIR STRENGTH. HERE IS SHOWN A SUPPOSEDLY IMPREGNABLE FORT, WHICH WAS RENDERED USELESS BY A SHOT FROM ONE OF THE TEUTON 15-CENTIMETRE SHELLS.

GREAT AIR RAID ON ZEEBRUGGE IS CARRIED OUT TO-DAY BY ALLIED FLEET OF 65 SHIPS

Place Germans Use as a Sub Base is Severely Bombed - All the Ships Returned in Safety - Report That Some One Tried to Kill Premier of Bulgaria.

LONDON, Mar. 20.—Sixty-five allied aeroplanes to-day bombarded the Belgian coast town of Zeebrugge. All returned.

Zeebrugge is on the Belgian coast, twelve miles northeast of Ostend. Since the German occupation this port has become of considerable importance, particularly as a German submarine base. It is one of the principal points from which submarine operations in the North Sea are directed.

LONDON, March 20.—The following official statement was made: "In the early hours of this morning a combined force of approximately 65 British, French and Belgian aeroplanes and seaplanes, accompanied by 15 fighting machines, left and attacked the German seaplane station at Zeebrugge and the aerodrome at Houtave, near Zeebrugge. Considerable damage appears to have been done. The machines on the average carried 20 pounds of bombs. All the machines returned safely. "One Belgian officer is reported seriously wounded. All the British machines referred to were naval."

A notable aerial raid was carried out early to-day on the German seaplane station at Zeebrugge, Belgium, and the aerodrome there, a squadron of 65 machines, aeroplanes and seaplanes, making the attack. The British official announcement declares that considerable damage appears to have been done by the bombs dropped. The machines carried an aggregate of about 6 1/2 tons of these explosives, the statement indicates.

ROUMANIA WILL JOIN. Athens, March 19, via Paris, March 20.—The impression prevails in high political circles at Athens that Roumania will shortly abandon her policy of neutrality in favor of the Entente allies.

SHOULD ROUMANIA ENTER THE WAR. Greek officials would be placed in an embarrassing position, the force of which already is felt. Military representatives of the Entente allies do not dispute the fact that at present they have no need for Greece and do not desire to assume responsibility for the maintenance and equipment of the Greek army unless they are assured definitely of co-operation in the event of an allied offensive in Macedonia.

5 OUNCES OF BUTTER PER WEEK

People of Berlin Thus Learn That Germany is at War.

By Special Wire to the Courier. Berlin, March 20.—(By wireless to Seyville)—The new regulations in regard to distribution of butter and potatoes went into effect to-day, and the people of Berlin are now able to purchase these supplies only on presentation of cards. Each person will be permitted to purchase 135 grams (about 5 ounces) of butter weekly and 10 pounds of potatoes each twelve days.

It is understood this measure is a temporary one, to remain in force until the local shortage is remedied by better methods of distribution. For the third time in a few months the Birkenhead magistrates have been presented with white gloves.

"BIG BUSINESS ANGRY, TOO. The organizations of big business, such as the big six industrial leagues, which are behind the campaign, to force the Imperial Chancellor's hand on the annexation question, are showing Admiral Von Tirpitz with telegrams of condolence and assurances of their unshaken confidence, as well as hope that he may soon again resume his place at the head of the navy. Herr Basserman, member of the Reichstag, who is regarded as spokesman for this element, and who some Resignation of Von Tirpitz May Bring About Much Trouble in Political Life in the Fatherland.

Although the Chancellor's Hand is Strengthened Yet Many are Against Him Over the Matter.

By Special Wire to the Courier. Berlin, March 19, via London, March 20.—The resignation of Grand Admiral Von Tirpitz is to be regarded less in the light of its bearing on the submarine campaign than as an affair of international politics. Not the question of how and to what extent the submarine weapon was to be used, but the question of the homogeneity of the German Government is involved in the resignation of the powerful statesman, who for almost twenty years has ruled the German navy department with an autocratic sway and has suffered no interference or supervision from without.

CHANCELLOR ATTACKED. This statement by a careful, well-posted observer of German politics regarding the causes and results of the retirement of Admiral Von Tirpitz is borne out by the turn which the controversy over this withdrawal is now taking. The Conservatives and National Liberals, who have been admitted open opposition to the Imperial Chancellor almost since the outset of the war, suspecting that they not share their views regarding the extent to which the fruits of the war should be garnered, have seized upon the occasion to start a campaign in Parliament against the Chancellor.

The Conservatives, although sworn foes to all extensions of the Reichstag's prerogatives, have even by resolution exposed themselves to the charge of creating a precedent for the extension of parliamentary control in to the realm of military and naval command.

FRENCH FORCE ADVANCES OUT FROM SALONIKI

Attack Teuton and Bulgar Forces—Is Roumania Coming In? By Special Wire to the Courier. LONDON, Mar. 20.—A strong French column with light artillery from the Saloniki entrenched camp has attacked and occupied the villages of Macikovo, Karadah and Kozuna, which had been entered by Teuton and Bulgarian forces, according to a Reuter despatch from Saloniki, dated Feb. 18. The French had only a few casualties. Owing to the encroachments of the Teuton allies into Greek territory and the consequent advance of the French, the neutral frontier zone which had been agreed upon between the Greek and Bulgarian Governments is now eliminated. Forces of the central powers and of the Entente allies are face to face, the despatch adds, and shelling, sniping and grenade throwing are in progress in the neighborhood of the above-mentioned villages, about thirty miles north of Saloniki, as on the other fronts, where the adversary forces are in contact.

The Situation

The German offensive at Verdun has not only been checked for the present, but it is further announced that the French have assumed the offensive north of the place. It is estimated that the latter have over half a million men on the job, and the task upon which the Huns entered with so much assurance has now become stale on their hands.

Berlin claims that ground has been retaken by them from the British which they lost east of Verdun, on March 2nd, but the official despatches from the Fatherland have commenced to become exceedingly unreliable. They recently claimed that they had secured possession of a portion of Dead Man's Hill, but that assertion has since been proved to be a downright falsehood.

The retirement of Von Tirpitz from supreme command of German navy affairs is commencing to prove a sensation in Germany. Ill-health is given as the reason of his withdrawal, but nobody seems to believe it. There is a quite general impression that the continued inactivity of the German fleet has had something to do with his supersession.

The Russians have started a big offensive against the Germans on the Eastern front, and with regard to their Turkish operations have again resumed their march towards Sivas. The latter is an important city of Asiatic Turkey and capital of the region in which it is situated.

It is semi-officially announced that Roumania is likely to join with the Allies in May. There can be little doubt that ultimately the country named will be in line as stated.

The Huns have been doing some more murderous work in connection with air raids in the Old Land. Sir Conan Doyle recently urged that for every such raid there should be two over German soil, that such a thing would not be so much revenge as a salutary lesson in kind. He concluded: "The Hun is only formidable when he thinks that he can be frightful with impunity. Blood and iron is his doctrine so long as it is his iron and some one else's blood." Most people will be inclined to agree with him.

Since the above was written word has come over the Courier's leased wire of a successful airship attack by the Allies on Zebrugg.

Manufactured Gas

Natural gas is a commodity which only lasts for a certain time in connection with the effective supply of any community. For this reason, it is interesting to note what Indianapolis is doing with regard to a manufactured service.

The article in Indianapolis is supplied by the Citizens Gas Company, and the price charged is 55c per 1,000 cubic feet. To consumers taking more than 50,000 cubic feet, a reduction is made, and to those using 100,000 or more, the price is only 40c per 1,000. As against the price of 55c charged in Indianapolis, a Chicago company, with ten times the number of meters in use, charges 80c, or twice the minimum figure charged in Indianapolis. The Indianapolis company has not only to fight the influence of companies in other cities, but has just emerged successfully from a tussle with another large company in its field. Nevertheless, it has been able to pay 7 per cent. in dividends and to accumulate a surplus of about $300,000 in a few years. Of course the selling of coke and other by-products has much to do with the fixing of the price of the gas, and in Chicago the problem of disposing of the coke to advantage is a serious one. In addition, the price in Chicago is 80c. All the way round, whether a large or a small quantity of gas is used, a suggestion has been made that the price should be lowered to larger consumers, as in many other cities. In this way the more general consumption of gas for commercial purposes may be encouraged and the conditions brought about under which the cost per 1,000 feet may be reduced.

GERMAN ATTACK WAS A FAILURE

Paris Announces Defeat of Hun Assault at Cote de Poivre.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Paris, March 20.—German forces have bombarded Malancourt, and an attack made by them on the French positions of Cote de Poivre has resulted in failure, according to the announcement made by the French war office this afternoon.

There has been an intermittent bombardment in the region of Vaux. The text of the statement follows: "To the west of the River Meuse, the enemy has delivered a bombardment of considerable violence in the region to the south of Melancourt. To the east of the river, after a preparatory fire from the German artillery, the enemy delivered against our positions at Cote de Poivre a small attack which resulted in complete failure. There has been nothing else of importance to report from the remainder of the front.

time ago had an open breach with Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, is the leader of the opposition in parliament, and is expected to make the principal speech on resolutions demanding the unlimited use of the torpedo in the warfare on commerce.

ADMINISTRATION IS SOLID. On the other hand, the elimination of Admiral Von Tirpitz seems to have brought the administration solidly behind the Imperial chancellor, the Bavarian minister, the influence of which is second only to that of Prussia, having twice taken occasion to express solidarity with the chancellor through publications in the official Bavarian Staats-Zeitung. The latest of these publications reads:

"The proposals evoke regret in the widest circles in Bavaria, too, insofar as by their form they might awaken the impression that in the midst of the world war in which the German nation is struggling for its existence, attempts are being made to infringe upon the prerogatives of the military command. We express the expectation of the entire German people in saying that the Reichstag, in the immediately impending budget debates, in speeches and resolutions, will certainly omit everything which, if discussed in the present parliament form, must work to the detriment of the Fatherland."

NO CHANGE IN SUB-CAMPAIGN

The parliamentary opposition makes more certain than ever, that the representative of the Associated Press was able to state from the most authoritative source upon the day Admiral Von Tirpitz retired, that a change in the ministry will not involve any abandonment or modification of the marine campaign against commerce, neither a weakening of the declaration of a regular submarine offensive, under which all ships, neutral or enemy, plying to and from England, would be subject to attack.

This idea of an unlimited torpedo campaign against which Count Von Reventlow and others have been contending for weeks, was being used, it is declared, to weaken the imperial chancellor's influence and prestige. The chancellor and Herr Von Jagow, the foreign minister, at the summit moment just the campaign, with a bold decisive gesture which forced a choice between themselves and the opposing faction, and apparently restored homogeneity in the government.

Admiral Sir Stanley Colville hoisted his flag at Portsmouth recently as Commander-in-Chief in succession to Admiral of the Fleet Sir Hedworth Meux, M.P.

dicating their peculiar organization. As to their training, however, there was every evidence, to the lay mind, they excelled them all. They even exceeded slightly, ever so slightly, but nevertheless exceeded, the 84th.

With the passing of the 98th Welland and Lincoln Co. Bat., the 47th Battalion, which marched without rifles, came the Brants. Bandmaster Bertram had his men performing the liveliest air, and the men of the 25th went past without a hitch.

"Who are those fellows? Where did they come from?" asked people in the crowd, and Brantfordites made haste to tell them. They were a fine looking body of men, and marched right up to the mark.

The coming of the Scottish 173rd and the stirring of the pipes brought forth cheers, and the men from the land of the heather had plenty of encouragement on their march. The militia regiments also were cheered. They seem to sit closely in the affection of Hamilton people, and moreover the fact of Sir John Gibson heading the 13th Regiment during the parade was heartily applauded.

The veteran old statesman and soldier marched as briskly as any of them, and when he turned in to the reviewing stand, he was rewarded by much cheering.

It was the Home Guard, however, which went to the hearts of the people. The home guard has no uniforms; its officers pin stars on their sleeves to show their rank. Old men are all sorts, sizes and conditions of men, marching briskly along, each carrying his rifle. They marched well, too. Their lines may not be perfectly straight, but each an every one was alert and untired to the very last step of the parade.

Dalley and the 1st Highlanders, and Major C. H. Powis and the Hamilton Home Guard.

The militia units and the Home Guard did not fall in until about half the course had been covered. His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, Sir John S. Hendrie received the salute on a specially erected dais, and the salute on the south side of the Gore Park extension. Among those at the saluting base were Col. William Hendrie, Lieut.-Col. C. Caldwell, E. O. Lieut.-Col. Alex. Fraser of the 12th York Rangers, aides to the Lieutenant-Governor; N. W. Rowell, K.C.; the Liberal leader of the Opposition, Lieut.-Col. W. F. Cockshutt, M.P.; Lieut.-Col. Harry Cockshutt, Major H. E. Snider, Capt. E. W. Sweet, Q. M. Ferguson, all of the 21st and others.

SATURDAY'S COURIER

The Courier on Saturday published photos of the 12th Battalion and both bands, and early in the afternoon the edition was sold out. So persistent was the demand, that additional copies were printed, and the Courier is pleased to announce that a few of these extra copies are now available to those who were unable to get them on Saturday. As these will assuredly not last long, parties desiring copies should phone and have them reserved, if they are unable to call at once for them.

SUCCESSFUL "AT HOME"

The "At Home" given by the Alexandra School League to all its members last Friday afternoon was a very pleasing and successful affair. The school was suitably decorated with white and green, and each member was given a paper shamrock leaf with his or her name on. This being hung to a button made it possible for every one to see who every one else was, and many new acquaintances were formed. The president, Mrs. McFarland, very heartily welcomed all. Inspector Kilmer was asked by Principal Foster to present the Strathcona medals to 17 cadets who won them in the shooting contest last spring. Mr. Kilmer congratulated the boys and reminded them that a member of their corps had won the gold medal for both cadet and ex-cadet this year and last. The boys present to get medals were: Hugh Sisson, Harold Vansickles, Stanley Fowler, Lloyd Cooper, Victor Wood, Kenneth Simpson, Harris Melson, Gordon Lambert, Ralph Dawson, Wilson Babcock, Alton Hall and Charlie Ellis. The other boys may get theirs from the principal. Refreshments of home-made cooking and tea were served and appreciated. The Board of Education was represented by the chairman, Mr. W. N. Andrews.

INQUIRIES FROM JAPAN The Secretary of the Board of Trade has received letters from Kyoto (Japan), and Yokohama (Japan), anxious to open business connection with Brantford with a view to business in (1) Japanese goods, and (2) canned crab, shrimp, fruits, vegetables, etc.

THREE INJURED Montreal, March 20.—Three women were injured in an automobile "skidding" accident, which occurred last night at the corner of St. Lawrence boulevard and Ontario street, and were taken to the General Hospital, here are:

MISS N. MARSAN, 31 years old, five ribs fractured, a possible fracture of the skull and two severe scalp wounds; Miss Juliette Richer, badly cut about the forehead, nose and mouth; and Miss Juliette Richer, suffering from shock.

The women who were crossing the street, were jammed against a hydrant by the car, which was owned and driven by Theodore Brauchand.

In Greece the bridegroom is lightly sprinkled with water before leaving the home for the ceremony.

U.S. ASKS FOR USE OF RAILWAY Want Mexico to Grant That Aid in Chasing Villa.

By Special Wire to the Courier. El Paso, Tex. March 20.—The problem of granting the United States Government permission to use Mexican railways to transport supplies to American troops pursuing Francisco Villa overshadowed everything else today. The reply of General Carranza to the request of the government for permission to use the railroads was expected to be sent forward to Washington today. A refusal will embarrass the operations of the American troops while the granting of the request, it was declared, would be bound to be seriously misconstrued by a considerable section of the Mexican people and to be exploited by the enemies of General Carranza.

The unexpectedly rapid advance of the expeditionary column under General Pershing has forced the railroad question to an issue. Americans familiar with the country into which the columns are now entering, assert that it is imperative that the railroads be placed at their disposal for the bringing up of supplies.

Dr. E. J. Bush, formerly chief surgeon of Madero's army, asserted today the speedy transportation facilities were essential to further progress by the American soldiers.

The course of the fighting at Verdun has produced a marked impression on even the most determined non-interventionists and the royalist press is changing its tone in regard to participation of Greece in the war. The feeling of allied diplomats seems to be that if Greece desires to enter the war now she will have to do so on her own initiative and with no conditions with respect to territorial compensation.

"Maggie Forest" will be the subject
taken up at the Story Hour to-morrow afternoon. The story is by Stewart Edward White.

GAVE GOOD SUM.
The employees of the Watson Mig-
Co. subscribed $723 to the Patriotic Fund. This item was omitted in the previous list that was published.

MANY APPLICATIONS.
Quite a number of applications for the band of the 215th have already been received. Lieut. Gliddon will arrive in town to-morrow night and organization will at once be started.

GOOD RECORD.
Lt.-Col. Cutcliffe stated after the parade Saturday, that he was very much pleased with the conduct of his men at Hamilton, not one of them
falling out during the whole route
march.

BIRTHDAY GIFT.
Lt.-Col. Cutcliffe was presented with a case containing three handsome pipes, by the sergeants of the 125th Battalion, on March 17th, which was the Colonel's birthday. This gift was very much appreciated by the recipient.

CITY COUNCIL.
The city council will meet to-night
By-laws will be introduced to amend the snow by-law. Also granting a switch to the Ham and Nott Manufacturing Company. Nothing else of importance will come up, but likely the figures for the Board of Works will be submitted.

RESIDENCE PURCHASED.
Says the Hamilton Spectator:—
The purchase by Mr. J. P. Bell, general manager of the Bank of Ham-ton, of the Chedoke avenue residence and property of Mr. W. J. Southam has recently been completed. In May
Mr. and Mrs. Bell will take possession of their new home, at which time Mr.
and Mrs. Frank Baillie, who have been renting the place for the winter,
move to their beautiful summer home
on the shores of Lake Simcoe.

ST. PATRICK'S TEA.
The "Willing Workers' Class" of Balfour Street Presbyterian Sunday School, held a most successful "St.
Patrick's Tea" in the church
on Friday evening last. The decorations were in keeping with the day,
being green and white, and the display of fancy work, home-made cooking and candy, was a credit to the class. A large sum was realized for the class treasury.

ALLOWANCES FOR SOLDIERS.
As well as the subsistence allowance, starting from March 1st, married men and all those entitled to the same amount, are to receive the same amount, is the announcement by military authorities to-day.
This means that besides the subsistence allowance and that of rations and quarters, separation allowance is also issuing and will be paid direct from Ottawa.

SOLDIERS CARED FOR.
The case of Pte. Robinson, who was discharged from hospital before he was recovered, has been brought to the attention of the War Office
in the convalescent home until better.
Pte. Jones, who is still at the home, is to receive pay and allowance as long as it is necessary. This information was given in a letter received by Ald. Dowling this morning from
Mr. W. F. Cocksbutt, M.P.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.
A very happy time was spent at the home of Mrs. Bygrave, 25 Brock St.
last Friday evening, when the members and friends of Rawdon St. Mission Bible Class, numbering about 25, met to celebrate the birthday of their teacher, Mr. A. E. Brown. The evening was spent in games, etc., followed by a dainty luncheon. Before the dinner was presented with an address and two beautiful volumes of poetical works. Miss Mildred Crowley read the address and Miss Majorie Secord made the presentation. The gathering dispersed after singing "For he's a jolly good fellow."

BULLETIN ISSUED.
The first bulletin of the Military Hospitals Commission has been issued from Ottawa. It sets out the lines on which the commission and its cooperating associations are working at present, giving a statement of the regulations governing pay, subsistence allowance and general matters. The personnel of the commission, which includes Mr. Lloyd Harris of this city, is also set forth. A list of hospitals placed at the disposal of convalescent soldiers by Canadians in Canada, shows that 17 have been so reserved, including two in Hamilton and one in London. The Bulletin was received at the office of the Canadian Patriotic Fund, Dalhousie street.

LETTER FROM MR. SCHELL.
Mr. F. Stanley Schell writing from the Royal Flying Corps, Wantage
Hall, Reading, under date of March 15th, states that the Canadian aviators expected to be sent away from there that week. Mr. Schell, who is a well-known golfer, has in company with other of the flying men been playing a number of games on the well-known Sounding course, which is three miles away. A team of seven flying men recently played a Sounding course being defeated by 8 to 2. Mr. Schell who gave three strokes beat his opponent by 1-2 points, and, therefore,
accounted for nearly all the points
for his side. In the four ball match and his partner, Bayot, also won out two up. Mr. Schell, it will thus be seen is worthily upholding the honors of the Brantford Golf Club, of which he is a scratch player.

ALD. A. SECORD
ANSWERS CALL
OF THE EMPIRE

Has Left For Kingston to Qualify to Serve in the Artillery.

Alderman Arthur O. Secord left yesterday morning for Kingston to take a course in artillery so as to qualify as an officer in that branch of the service with a view to going overseas.
Ald. Secord is the first alderman, as alderman, to leave to go and serve at the front.

Ald. Secord is a Brantford boy, son of the late Dr. L. R. Secord, corner
Market and Nelson streets. Ald.

Secord was educated in the Brantford
Public Schools and Collegiate Institute, later taking an engineering
course at the Faculty of Applied Science, Toronto University. For the last four years he has carried on an insurance and real estate business in this city, his office being in the Temple Building.

Mr. Secord was first elected as alderman for Ward 3 a year ago last January, heading the polls. Last January he repeated the trick and again was returned ahead of all others. He is a member of the Manufacturers Committee and the Railway Committee of this year's Council.

With his engineering training and the knowledge of mathematics which accompanies it, Ald. Secord should make an excellent artillery officer, as such training in civil life as he has fits him especially for that branch of the service.

DR. CLEGHORN

Is Seriously Ill With Pneumonia at Bramshott
Camp.

A telegram was received in the city yesterday by Dr. Cleghorn, 20 Albion street, from the Adjutant General, Ottawa, in which he stated that word had been received from England that her son Capt. Allan Cleghorn, 20 months ago, had died of pneumonia at Bramshott military hospital, England.
Dr. Cleghorn left some three months ago to take service with the Royal Army Corps and expected to ultimately go to the front.
His many friends here will hope that some encouraging news will be received later.

CLOSE CALL

For Campbells of Burch in a Street Car Mishap—In-diverly Horse Struck.

About noon on Saturday, an accident occurred in Eagle Place, near Peachey's store, in which a farmer's sleigh and a street car figured. There might easily have been a fatality, but fortunately such was not the case.
The car was in charge of Motorman
P. Cunningham, and Conductor Wm.
Hunt, and in the sleigh were two sons and a daughter of Mr. David Campbell, of Burch. The motorman says that he sounded his gong and that the sleigh turned off the track, but suddenly turned on again, it is supposed because the lines got crossed. Anyway, there was a crash and the occupants were thrown heavily out.
Ellis Campbell looked to be very badly hurt and he was carried into Dr.
Robinson's office. Examination showed that he had a bad bruise on the head and that a blow on the chest had knocked the wind out of him, but he soon came around. The others escaped with severe shaking up.

HORSE HIT.
On Saturday also, a car on Alfred street hit the delivery rig of Mr. Mc-Gregor, grocer, 53 Richmond St. Two boys were in the rig. It is said they pulled right in front of the car. A piece was taken out of one of the shoulders of the horse.

materials. The display will consist of the finest
British and French materials, such as Serges, Gabardines, Venetians, Broadcloths, Whipcords,
Covert Cloths and Velvets for Suits. For Gowns
there will be shown Crepe de Chines, Crepe
Granite, Crepe de Poplin, Armures, Poplins, Satin Cloths, and in silk fabrics for afternoon
and evening wear, Chiffon Taffetas, Failles, Faille la Reine, and many others.

All these will be artistically displayed on the fourth floor, and arranged in such a manner that one may form a good idea of how the materials will look when made up, as forms and figures will be draped to represent the made-up garments.
In the Sun Room a display will be made of scores of dainty fabrics in daylight, while others will be on display in the Dark Room under artificial light.
Every morning and afternoon a short and interesting talk will be given on "Fabrics—
Their Origin and Use."

ANNUAL LUNCHEON
OF LIT. SOCIETY

Seventy-Five Members Participated at It Saturday Afternoon.

WAITRESSES IN
IRISH COSTUMES

Interesting Toast List and a
Menu That Was Truly
Irish.

The annual luncheon of the Literary Society, held on Saturday afternoon in the Y. W. C. A., was a most successful event. About seventy-five members sat down to luncheon at the little round tables, which were centered with Jonquils, the decorations throughout repeating the colors of the Irish flag. The placards, decorated with Shamrocks, and a tiny bunch of shamrocks on each serviette.
At each plate, cunning individual cups
of green and gold, filled with bob-bons and a favor for each guest.
Much amusement was caused by the quotation on the toast list, "Blessed is he who expects nothing, for he shall never be disappointed." A bevy of charming waitresses, becomingly attired in Irish costumes, looked to the comfort of the guests. The following is the toast list:

1st, "The King," proposed by Miss Best.
"Here's to the King and a lasting peace."
To faction an end, to wealth increase."
The King, the Empire, fathers, husbands, brothers, sons who are fighting for the honor of King and Empire. The entire company then rose and sang the National Anthem,
and "Our President" fall thick in
"The deus of heaven" fall thick in
"Blessing on her."
Proposed by Miss Carlyle, in a few well-chosen words. She highly eulogized the work of the president in connection with the club.
Mrs. Buck very happily responded, saying it was a great pleasure to her to celebrate St. Patrick's Day, and that she was proud of her Irish ancestry, Tom Moore being one of her favorite poets. She was very proud of the work the club had done

throughout the year, and in conclusion said she hoped that nothing would prevent its continuation next year. "Our Guest."
"Receive our welcome too, whose very tongue springs from our hearts."
Proposed by Mrs. Frank Howard, who in a very graceful manner voiced the welcome of the club, to which Mrs. L. A. Hamilton responded in a very able and convincing speech.
Mrs. Hamilton, who is a woman of many interests, said she was delig-ted with her reception in Brantford, and it was with great regret that she had to leave that day, as the reception accorded her she felt was a welcome and sincere. She commended the club on its work, throughout the past trying season, and wished it every success and prosperity in the years to come. She spoke at length of the ever-widening sphere of woman and the new problems of opening up new paths for her daily. Old prejudices, conventions, she had naturally outgrown and cast behind her, and must now take her rightful part in the world's work.

61st Battalion Easily Wins the Round From the Regina Victorians.
Winnipeg, March 20.—The Allan Cup remains in Winnipeg in the custody of the Sixth-first Battalion team. The soldiers defeated the Regina Victorians on Saturday night, by eight goals to two, thereby winning the round by thirteen to three. The challengers were expected to make a better showing under the Saskatchewan rules, which divide the play into three twenty-minute periods, but the soldiers were too fast and took the lead at the start, and were never headed. They led at the end of the first period, three to one, at the end of the second, five to one.

ALEX. ROMERIL THE STAR.
The victors showed more speed perhaps than any other Winnipeg team in years. The moral of the Allan Cup games this year is that challengers will have to develop more speed if they hope to lift the trophy. Romeril, formerly of Toronto, scored two goals for the cup holders. He was a marked man and was badly cut up. He fell heavily on his head, later received a swipe over the head from Boucher's stick and got a bad cut in the jaw from a skate near the close of the game.

GEORGE GOULDING MADE NEW RECORD

World's Amateur Champion Walked Two Miles in 13.37.

New York, March 19.—Whether or not George Goulding, the great walker of Canada, will be allowed the record he hung up last night at the A. A. U. championships is a matter of conjecture. There is no doubt about the time. He traveled the two miles in 13.37, clipping one and one-fifth seconds from his own world's figure, but one of the judges declared after the race that the great walker ran the last 25 yards. This judge was Herman Oberbussing, a member of the Metropolitan district. While Oberbussing made this claim after other officials who were on the floor near the finish said he had passed the clockers at the tape, Frederick W. Rubin, chairman of the A. A. U. record committee, said last night that he would make no decision until he had thoroughly investigated the case. Spectators many of them athletic experts, who were near the tape, were positive that the Canadian walked every step of the route.

AIR RAID ON ENGLAND SUNDAY KILLED 9 AND INJURED 31. RAID WAS FROM DOVER TO MARGATE

Four Airships in the Attack and One Brought Down in the Sea on the Way Home to Germany—Bombs to the Number of 48 Were Dropped Over an Extent of Territory of 20 Miles.

London, March 20.—Nine persons were killed and 31 injured yesterday by bombs hurled from four German seaplanes which raided the coast from Dover to Margate. One of the raiding quartets was brought down, the first of the new type of German planes to suffer this fate. It was forced to descend into the sea after having been pursued for 30 miles from shore and engaged for 15 minutes by the British aviator in a one-seater aeroplane. The observer of the German machine was killed. The four planes dropped altogether 48 bombs. The coast sector visited by the raiders stretches about 20 miles from Dover northward to Margate. Bombs were dropped first upon Dover harbor, then on the town, whereupon the raiders, travelling in two pairs, bombarded Deal, nine miles, Ramsgate 10 miles and Margate 15 miles from the British Channel port, one of the machines visiting Westgate, a few miles west of Margate, but dropping no bombs. All of the places raided are popular English watering places in time of peace. Sunday's raid affected the smallest radius bombarded by German planes or Zeppelins since the war began.

DETAILS OF THE DAMAGE.
Despatches from the Kent coast towns received here yesterday gave some details of the raid. One of a dozen bombs dropped on the town of Dover hit an orphanage, and did much damage. One child was killed and several others injured. The basement and escaped. Another building was wrecked, much glass being shattering. Many bombs fell into the streets and gardens. The number of deaths in Dover were four or five. British airmen ascended quickly and sharp firing followed. One raider in hurrying away dropped four bombs in the sea. The only death at Deal was that of a chicken, but much damage was done to property. An automobile was hit. A moment later a bomb plunged into the seat of his car. Ten bombs were dropped on Ramsgate, the chief damage there was done to a number of workmen's cottages, which were wrecked. Most of the victims were children going to school. Several houses were killed, among them a brother and sister, aged four and eight respectively. Several were wounded. All bombs thrown by the raiders were explosive. No fires resulted from the raid, however. A bomb dropped on Margate struck a residence, damaging it slightly. No one was injured. THE OFFICIAL STORY.

The following official story was issued: "Four German seaplanes flew over East Kent to-day. The first pair appeared over Dover at a height of five thousand to six thousand feet, one at 1.57 p.m., the second at 2.02 p.m. The first dropped six bombs in the harbor, then went north-west, dropping bombs on the town. The other raider, after passing over Dover, appeared over Deal at 2.13, and dropped several bombs. The second pair appeared over Ramsgate at 2.10. Here several of our aeroplanes were up in pursuit. No bombs were dropped on Westgate. The total casualties so far reported are: Killed, 3 men, 1 woman and 5 children; injured, 17 men, 5 women, 9 children. As far as ascertained, 48 bombs were dropped altogether. One bomb fell in the Canadian Hospital at Ramsgate, causing damage, but no casualties. Material damage done: Several houses, the homes of artisans, and cottages were wrecked. Flight-Commander Bone, Royal Naval Air Service, in a single-seater aeroplane, pursued one German seaplane 30 miles out to sea, where, after an action lasting a quarter of an hour, he forced it to descend. The German machine was hit many times and the observer was killed. According to a despatch from Ramsgate, the two German seaplanes which carried out a raid on that place were attacked at sea by a French machine before reaching the coast. The seaplanes, however, arrived over the town and dropped a number of bombs, one of which killed a man and four children. So far as can be ascertained the two German casualties total one woman and eight children slightly wounded. CRASHED INTO ORPHANAGE. The first bomb dropped in Ramsgate fell squarely on a motor car, killing the driver and setting fire to the gasoline tank. Pieces of the bomb flew among children on their way to Sunday school, killing four of them. Other bombs hit a business block, a barber shop and several residences. One bomb fell through the gable of a hospital to the floor below, but no one suffered any injury. Having been taken to the cells at the first alarm. One of the raiders dropped four bombs into the sea as he was starting in pursuit. At Deal bombs also were dropped and some damage was done to property. There were no casualties. The raid had only a few minutes warning of the approach of the aircraft. Most of the inhabitants rushed into the street where they had an excellent view of a fight in the air between the raiders and an English air squadron which rose in pursuit. With the aid of a telescope it was possible to distinguish a great number of machines, twisting and turning in every direction in their manoeuvres to get quickly to the required altitude to combat the invaders. As this strange Sunday afternoon entertainment proceeded, the people, regardless of danger, flocked to street corners open places and to the water front. One of the machines in the air suddenly turned towards Deal and flew across the town, its passage being marked by the explosion of a number of bombs. The first three bombs fell at virtually the same moment, whereupon half the crowd in the open places fled to shelter. Later three other bombs fell at intervals of about thirty seconds. Thanksgivings services were held during the evening in all the local churches. Flight-Commander Bone, who brought down one of the raiders at sea, won his pilot's license at Eastbourne in 1913.

GLYCERINE AND BARK PREVENT APPENDICITIS

The simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-Ika, astonishes Brantford people. Because Adler-Ika acts on both lower and upper bowels, OMT SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE, constipation, sour stomach or gas. It removes such surprising food matter that a few doses often relieve or prevent appendicitis. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. THE INSTANT, easy action of Adler-Ika is astonishing. Baseball

THREE IMPORTANT SUBJECTS.
By Special Wire to the Courier.
New York, March 20.—Three important subjects before the meeting of the directors of the International League of baseball clubs here to-day are the signing of Federal League players who jumped contracts, reconsideration of the $3,500 monthly salary limit for each club and adoption of the playing schedule for this season. At a meeting here some time ago the league adopted a rule fixing the salary limit and stipulating that no player should receive more than $350 a month. This has aroused some criticism and club owners question the advisability of putting it in force. Some of the clubs are having difficulty in signing their veteran players owing to the new salary limit.

TOO MANY WANT TO BE OFFICERS

Big Need is For Men to Go in the Ranks, Says Hon. G. W. Brown.

Toronto, March 20.—"Americans have formed a battalion of their own to fight against Germany for no other reason than that it is just," declared Hon. George W. Brown, ex-Lieutenant-Governor of Saskatchewan, in his strong recruiting appeal at the La Plaza Theatre last night. "Now it is up to the young men of Canada to realize their duty to their country and come forward at once. We are not so safe that we can afford to overlook our danger. Lord Kitchener has called for men and more men, and now Canada is called upon to send almost one out of every two men who are physically fit."

Hon. Mr. Brown said that there were many reasons why men did not want to go to the front, one of the chief being that there were too many who wanted to go as officers. "You want to go as officers," he said, "but you forget that there are at present almost five hundred officers at the front with nothing to do. He described them as misfits, and said that men were wanted that would go in the ranks. "Then," he continued, "if you deserve promotion you'll get it."

"You do not want conscription," neither do I," said the speaker. "But unless we get men it may come to that."

Lieut. Harvey Fuller, of the Bantam Battalion, spoke of the high standard of the Bantam Battalion, and said that they would prove just as good fighters as the men who had gone before them. Capt. Asa Minard, of the American (87th) Battalion, and Sergt. I. B. Andrews, of the 3rd Battalion, who was invalided home, also addressed the meeting, while Major James, of the Headquarters Staff of the Exhibition Camp, acted as Chairman.

THE DIAMOND FROM THE SKY

"There is a purple ribbon on the typewriter over there," she whispered. "It seems the same type of the machine. This telegram was copied on. In purple also. If the word 'not' were added at the end of the first line the message would read:

"Answering your wire, Miss Esther Harding is not in Los Angeles. Edgar Harding continues to improve."

"Vi, you are a genius!" cried Blair. "They placed the telegram in the typewriter. Vivian firmly struck the keys and the entire import of the message was changed. Then Blair carefully looked in the envelope and sent it by the office boy to Mr. Powell at his home."

"That will convince him he is dippy, for sure!" cried Blair. "But he must be pretty cunning at that to get a telegram out to Blake without Durand or the Vaux knowing of it, for they watch him like hawks."

"Since the diamond from the sky turned up so tragically at the circus, Durand has forgotten his partner," said Vivian. "I believe Durand might have been on the level if it were not for one thing, diamonds!"

"He certainly is a bug on them," remarked Blair. "Here is all this business—millions at stake—and Durand does not question whether I will cheat or play fair when we divide. All he thinks of is the diamond. He would sell his soul for a diamond, a big diamond like the diamond from the sky!"

"Who would not?" murmured Vivian. "I have sold my soul, and you have sold yours for the diamond from the sky. And it has never rested in our grasp."

"But it will!" cried Blair fervently. "It belongs to us, to you and me. I am Stanley and the fightful heir, and you are my wife. As for that smooth swindler, Durand, and his shadow, De Vaux, the diamond from the sky shall never be dirty spoil for them."

"You want to be careful and cunning and daring, then," said Vivian. "I know Durand of old. He goes through blood and fire for a diamond of price. It is an obsession with him. He was born so marked. His mother was a waiting maid to a French baker's wife and murdered her mistress for a diamond necklace a few months before Durand was born. He was born in prison."

"He's likely to die there," remarked Blair grimly. "He had better keep his hands off the diamond from the sky."

"And we had better get our hands on it," said Vivian. "What witchery is on it? It comes and goes like the devil's talisman."

"It will only rest and stay with a true Stanley," muttered Blair. Vivian regarded him strangely, but said nothing. If this were true, why had the diamond from the sky avoided Blair as though it were a living thing that wriggled from his grasp?

Arthur was clasp in the hands of the conspirators again when the doctored message from Blake reached him. Arthur believed now that it was true, as those around him inferred his obsession. That Esther was near—was a symptom of recurrent insanity. He shuddered and grew sick at the thought.

"Oh, God, spare me from madness!" he prayed in agony. "Let me recover in body and mind to make a man of myself, to return to Esther whole and sound and clean and honorable, as I promised her and my poor mother I would."

"Base, unworthy, prodigal as I have been, my gypsy mother sacrificed her youth and every happiness in life, and she now lies in a madhouse, as I lie mad in a mansion."

And then in his weakness and in his strength he nestled with the drug dealer that clutched him by the soul—he battled and lost.

That afternoon the soft California air of late summer brought the spice of fruit and flower across the green lawns of the shining new Powell mansion where dwelt the "Golden Man." Luck and fortune had been his, except an accident from the injuries of which, the newspapers stated, his friends were pleased to learn he was recovering.

This afternoon John Powell, the "Golden Man," goes to the races on his costly and shining tallyho. Four thoroughbred notch horses in gold mounted harness toss their heads in pride. An English coachman and a guard to blow the yard of brass" add swagger to the turnout. With the convalescent millionaire on his tallyho party to the races go his closest friends. These are his private physician, the eminent Dr. Frank Durand; his cousin, Mr. Blair Stanley, an eastern capitalist associated with Mr. Powell and managing his affairs during his convalescence; the Count de Vaux of Paris and Miss Vivian Marston, who, it is rumored, is a young woman of splendid family from New York and who has taken up nursing, and who was called into the case by Dr. Durand and who aided that skilled physician to restore his patient to health again.

This and much more the papers say. And this and much more Esther reads. These are fine friends, she thinks. Fine friends indeed, and he, the gypsy changing, lords it well among them! For the first time a sense of injustice and indignation burns Esther's bosom. She will make the test and prove him what he is. He is the gypsy and she is the true Stanley. She will go as the gypsy and confront the so-called gentleman, who once again bears a name that is not his own! She dons her gypsy dress and takes her tambourine and walks afoot beside Quabba, the humble mountebank. The daughter of the Stanleys, the fair young mistress of Stanley Hall, walks in the dust with a mountebank and a monkey, beside the mountebank's pony and street organ.

She goes to meet a gentleman with his coach and four. But as she goes she wonders bitterly if the mountebank is not the gentleman and the gentleman the mountebank. For Arthur Stanley, as "John Powell," has been called the "Golden Man," but the poor hunchback who trudges in the dust beside her has in honor and loyalty to her proved he has a heart of gold!

Toward them comes the tallyho. Arthur, in high spirits despite his recent injuries, demands to drive the horses, and sitting beside Vivian, displaces Blair. Vivian smiles at Arthur and hands him a rose from the bunch at her belt.

And then Esther steps by the wheel horse and cries up to him, "Arthur!" He draws the horses to a halt. A look of glad, wild joy comes to his eyes, succeeded by a glare of horror. Vivian lashes the off horse with the whip she has seized, the rose falls from Arthur's nerveless hand and the horses dash away—and the coach is gone in a cloud of dust.

In the dust of the road lies the rose. Quabba stoops and lifts it from the dust and hands it to the broken hearted girl who leans in her gypsy finery against the pony cart and weeps. The rose in the dust to a rose in the dust! Far down the road raccoons in other equipages see a ragged man clinging to a tallyho. "Whip behind" is the cry. The lash flies back and Luke Lorak returns for blackmail and revenge; drops from the coach to which he had run and clung and shakes his fist and curses the more exalted gypsy who is master of a coach and four.

But the master of a coach and four has sunk fainting back among his friends. "What use is wealth to a madman? He has seen a flower by the wayside and a rose in the dust, and he deems what he has seen are but the visions of a mind diseased."

That night Quabba's pony in his stall munches his hay and knows naught of human heartaches. The rats scamper and annoy him, and something falls half from the hayrack and dangles at his nose. The pony nibbles at it, but it is not good to eat. A foolish thing, indeed, the pony regards it, and yet it is that baleful thing for which huddle loving men and women have bartered and taken life.

The diamond from the sky. Into whose hands will next it come? [TO BE CONTINUED.]

Our Safety Valves. The invention of the safety valve for steam engines has saved thousands of lives and millions of dollars in property. It is an invention that stands prominently to the front in this age of mechanical progress. But nature of mechanical progress with a safety valve which for effectiveness works better than any made by man. If we did not have this safety valve we could not live twenty-four hours. This safety valve is the perspiration or sweat gland, and to make sure that we should not run short of the supply she has furnished the body with some two and a half millions of them. If our temperature rose 7 or 8 degrees we should die within a few hours, and yet we could not run, row, indulge in any athletic exercises, or even walk safely any distance without increasing our temperature to the danger point if we had no safety valve provided so ingeniously by nature.

SHERIFF MAY SEIZE CEMETERY AT WINDSOR

Company Has Not Paid Award of $10,000 by Arbitrators For Land Bought.

Windsor, March 20.—Dr. Abraham Soper of Detroit, has caused to issue a writ of execution against the Windsor Cemetery Company for non-payment of $10,000, the amount of an award made in August of last year by a Board of Arbitration as the purchase price of land acquired by the Cemetery Company for an extension of the cemetery.

Early in 1915 the Cemetery Board commented expropriation proceedings to obtain several lots adjoining the Windsor Grove Cemetery, but Dr. Soper and the trustees were unable to agree on the purchase price. The Sheriff of Avignon may seize any property of the company, including the cemetery. The writ will be issued to-day.

IN FIVE MINUTES NO SICK STOMACH, INDIGESTION, GAS

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache, you can surely get relief in five minutes.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases of "Pape's Diapiesis," then you will understand why dyspeptic troubles of all kinds must go, and why it relieves sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. "Pape's Diapiesis" is harmless; tastes like candy, though each dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many "Pape's Diapiesis" cranks as some people will call them, but you will be enthusiastic about this splendid stomach preservative, too, if you ever take it for indigestion, gas, heartburn, sourness, dyspepsia, or any stomach misery. Get some now this minute and rid yourself of stomach misery and indigestion in five minutes.
