HARVEST FESTIVAL AT BELLEISLE

Inspiring Annual Service With Special Music, Floral Decorations and Excellent Address

Those who were able to be present in St. Mary's Church, Belleisle, last Sunday afternoon will not soon forget the inspiring service.

The Church, as is always the case on this occasion, was tastefully decorated with flowers and "fruits of the earth", the presence of which lent additional meaning to the selected Scriptures, Psalms, and hymns.

For the musical portion of the service the full choir of the Parish Church (St. James', Bridgetown) was present and in addition to the harvest-hymns sang very beautifully, the Rev. G. I. Foster's setting to the magnificent and Nunc Dimittis, and Sir John Stainer's Harvest Anthem "Ye Shall Dwell in the Land", the soloist being Mrs. Harry Ruggles, and Mr. Thos. Handley.

The Rector of the Parish (Rev. E. Underwood) conducted the service and preached from the words "Behold a Sower Went Forth to Sow".

The Chapel Wardens and Congregation of St. Mary's desire to thank the organist and choir of the Parish Church for their kindly and helpful visit and to express the hope that this may be the forerunner of many.

OBITUARY

At his home in Hampton, on the 17th of September, William H. O'Neal, sixty-two years old, passed to his Heavenly home. He was the youngest son of the late Charles O'Neal, and was born April 23rd, 1860, at Outram.

In 1907 he sold his farm at Outram and, with his family, moved to Brooklyn, and from there to Hampton. In March he was taken very ill and all that medical skill and loving care could do was done, but he gradually grew worse. In May he went to the Victoria General Hospital, Halifax, thinking an operation would relieve his sufferings, but of no avail. He returned home and continued to fail until the end came and during all his sufferings no one ever heard him complain.

Mr. O'Neal was a member of the Mount Hanley Baptist Church thirty-eight years ago. He was a man with a genial kind-hearted disposition and had a large circle of friends which was shown by the beautiful floral gifts. Over twenty years ago he was appointed Justice of the Peace, and for twenty-one years of faithful service in military duties as Sergeant he won the long service medal.

He leaves to mourn their loss, a widow, formerly Miss Sophia Sprowl; two children, George, at home, and Mrs. Everett Mitchell, Hampton; two brothers, Simon, living at East Arlington, and George, Melvern Square; besides a large circle of relatives and friends.

The funeral took place from his late home on Tuesday afternoon and was very largely attended by those who came to pay their last tribute of respect to one who was honored and loved by all. The service was conducted by Rev. D. W. Dixon, who spoke comforting words to the bereaved ones. The funeral arrangements were in charge of W. E. Reed, interment being at Hampton.

We commend the sorrowing ones to the care of him who doeth all things well.

PRESENTATION OF HIGH SCHOOL PRIZES

Large Number Of Parents At Annual Presentation Last Friday--Good Programme--List Of Winners

The annual presentation of prizes in connection with the Bridgetown schools took place in the Primrose Theatre on Friday afternoon with a large attendance of parents and others, and the various rewards of merit were distributed to those having the highest standing in all classes from Primary to the last year in High School.

Dr. M. E. Armstrong, Chairman of the School Board, presided, and on the platform with him was Mayor Warren, Principal Archibald and Clergymen of the town, all of whom gave addresses of interest to the rising generation.

Dr. Armstrong, in the course of his address, referred to the step in advance made this year for the first time in the history of the High School in taking up the "A" work. This move came as the result of an insistent demand to which the School Board had acceded. Bridgetown was taking this advanced move in school work on the hundredth year of its founding. The doctor also made reference to the exceedingly satisfactory condition of the schools and also to the fact that letters were frequently received from various School Boards asking information on various matters calculated to increase the efficiency of their schools.

Rev. J. H. Freestone, Rev. C. W. Robbins, Rev. E. Underwood and Rev. Dr. Jost, all gave brief addresses of an inspiring and pleasing character with excellent and timely advice to the scholars.

Principal Archibald, in making references to the school work, stated that the enrolment for the past term was 256 and the average attendance 247. Seventy-eight pupils were doing High School work, a very large number for a town the size of Bridgetown. The donors of prizes and prize money had been most generous. Reference in the course of addresses was made to the great interest taken by Dr. W. Chipman of Montreal, in all that pertained to the advancement of Bridgetown, his old home. This year he had given $50 to be applied in prizes as Principal Archibald saw best.

The Manual Training Dept. had resumed this year and many thanks were due the Women's Institute for their interest and assistance in Library work. The piano had been paid for, books added to the library, surroundings of school improved.

This term it is proposed to establish a scholarship open to members of the grade "A" class, the value to be from $100 to $150, according to the amount of support the movement receives.

At the conclusion of the speeches Dr. Armstrong presented prizes as follows. The programme was made even more agreeable by school choruses at appropriate intervals:

PARADISE

Sunday morning, Sept. 10th, Rev. S. C. Freeman, of Parilkimied, India, gave the Baptist congregation an instructive and much appreciated address on the subject "India, a Great Country." Size, population, export trade, difficulties, number of religions, converts to Christianity and present day opportunities were among the outstanding features dwelt upon. Mr. and Mrs. Freeman with their family are leaving Canada soon to resume their work in India on behalf of the Canadian Baptist Mission to the Tehegus.

A chief regret in saying good bye to Sammer is that we must also bid farewell to so many of our young people. Among those leaving last week were Mr. Ronald Longley who will study at Harvard; Mr. Llewellyn Bowly, at Yale, and Miss Alice and Mr. Charles Longley, at Acadia, and also Miss Hazel Gillis, who goes to Hartford, Connecticut.

Another fire warning was sounded Wednesday evening, Sept. 13th, when one of the chandelier lamps in the vestry of the church fell, after causing a small fire in the ceiling. Fortunately the choir members were present, the fire was soon extinguished and no great damage was done.

Among the week-end guests were Mr. Gordon Longley, manager of the Royal Bank at Waterville, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Longley; Miss Ruth Kempton visiting her sister, Mrs. A. A. Jodrey; Miss Belle Marshall visiting Miss Leone Banks.

A bountiful harvest supper was served in the church vestry, Thursday, Sept. 14th, by the Church Aid Society. Over fifty dollars was realized including some pledges toward increasing the insurance on the church property.

Local solicitors are now out for funds on behalf of the School for the Blind, Halifax. This is a most worthy cause, and should receive our hearty support.

Mr. and Mrs. Church, of Falmouth, motored to Paradise Sept. 14th, to visit Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Covert, Mrs. Chas. Hines returned with them for a short visit.

The new picture of the parsonage was taken by Mrs. Tilly is especially good. Be sure to leave your order for one at the parsonage.

Mrs. H. W. Longley and daughter, Miss Vera Longley, visited friends in Halifax last week.

Mr. E. L. Balcom and family have the heart-felt sympathy of the entire community in the recent illness of Mrs. Balcom.

Mrs. Julia Gillatt, of Plainfield, New Jersey, is being entertained by Mrs. E. G. Morse and Mrs. Vernon Morse.

Mrs. Zacheus Phinney is the guest of her son and his wife, Mr. N. B., whence a trip will be taken up the St. John River.

HYMENEAL

WILSON-BARTEAUX

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester C. Bartheaux, Clarence, N. S., was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday evening, Sept. 20th, at eight o'clock, when their only daughter, Muriel Ermy, became the bride of Clyde Raymond Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wilson.

To the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. V. B. Messenger, the bride entered the parlor on the arm of her father and took her place beside the groom beneath an arch of green and white from which was suspended a beautiful bell. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. Steadman Smith, in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The bride was very becomingly attired in a gown of white silk crepe de chene, with bridal veil and wreath of star of Bethlehem, and carried a bouquet of pink and white asters.

The rooms were prettily decorated, with cut flowers and potted plants. After the ceremony and congratulations, a wedding supper was served to about seventy-five guests. The bride was the recipient of many valuable and useful presents, including furniture, money, pyrex, silver, china, linen and two beautiful oil paintings, the handwork of the bride's mother. The young couple will reside in Brooklyn. They have the best wishes of their many friends for a long and happy wedded life.

ATTRACTIVE INVESTMENT

From a strictly financial viewpoint the offer of the Minister of Finance to issue new 5 1/2 per cent. bonds running for either five or ten years, as desired, in exchange for bonds of the 1922 issue, is most attractive. Commenting on the advantages of the conversion, the "Financial Times" says: "The holders of these bonds have until September 26th to decide their course of action. From the showing already made, it appears as though a very substantial proportion of the holders will be willing to accept the new issue rather than the cash. This might be naturally expected in view of the scarcity of high grade bonds now offering in the market.

POPULAR COUPLE WEDDED SATURDAY

Miss Clara Phyllis Sharp United in Marriage to Mr. Charles S. Bothamley

St. James' Church, Bridgetown, Annapolis County, was the scene on Saturday morning of a wedding of unusual interest to the town and immediate neighborhood, Mr. Charles S. Bothamley, of "The Pines", West Paradise, being united in marriage to Miss Clara Phyllis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. E. Sharp, of North Williamston. Both bride and groom came from England some eight or ten years ago, the former from Melton Mowbray, Leicestershire, and the latter from Rainhill, Lancashire, and during the intervening period have made a host of friends.

As Captain of the Bridgetown Cricket team, Mr. Bothamley is also well known throughout the Annapolis Valley.

Saturday was an ideal Autumn day and the church was filled when the hour of the ceremony (11 o'clock) arrived.

The Altar was resplendent with an exceptional collection of Autumn flowers beautifully arranged, the colors perfectly blending. These were contributed by Mr. A. F. Hiltz and Dr. M. E. Armstrong, of Bridgetown, and Mrs. Jarvis of West Paradise, and as the rays of the sun slanted through the stained glass of the East window the effect was very striking. This was heightened by clumps of Cosmos arranged as if growing on the Chancel steps.

Punctually at the hour appointed the bride entered the church on the arm of her father, whilst the choir sang Keble's beautiful hymn—"The Voice that Breathed Over Eden". At the Chancel steps she was attended by her mother as Dame of honor, whilst the groom was supported by Mr. Ferdinand Cauter as "best man".

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. Underwood, Rector of the Parish. The second hymn was Dorothy Frances Gurney's "O Perfect Love, All Human Thought Transcending", to Sir J. Bamba's setting, and that during the signing of the Register—"Lead us, Heavenly Father, Lead Us" by James Edmeston to F. Hiltz's tune "Mannheim", after which the bridal party left the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Miss Foster, the organist of the church, and took the West-bound train on route to St. John, N. B., whence a trip will be taken up the St. John River.

WEDDING

PARKER-MORTON

A pretty wedding that is of interest to many in Regina took place in St. Andrew's Church, Lumsden, at 4.30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Margaret Morton became the bride of Dr. Parker, of Regina. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. W. Davidson, the church being prettily adorned with garlands of Autumn flowers. White asters and sweet peas formed the large wedding bell under which the bridal couple stood during the ceremony. The bride was given away by her father. Dr. and Mrs. Fletcher Longley were the attendants. Miss Ethel Sneddon sang very pleasingly the solo "I Love You," and Mrs. Patterson played the wedding march. The bride was very attractive in brown broadcloth with brown duvetyne hat. She carried a sheaf of pink and white roses. The groom's gift to the bride was a rope of pearls and a silver tea service. Dr. and Mrs. Parker left on the Canadian National, traveling by the Lake route, for the former's home in Nova Scotia. On their return to the city, they will reside at 2131 Angus Street. # An Improved Gasoline at the Same Price

Starts even more quickly than Gasolines which cost more and is a better
all round Motor Fuel —

Many gasoline users in the Maritime Provinces have been paying much more than they should for gasoline due to the fact that they have bought it on the basis of quick starting ability regardless of price or the loss of power and mileage which invariably attends the use of such a gasoline.

Realizing this, our experts have been working for years to produce a motor fuel which would at least equal higher priced gasolines in quick-starting ability and at the same time embody the other qualities of a perfect motor fuel which these gasolines have lacked.

The new Imperial Premier Gasoline, now being made at our Imperoyal Refinery, is the result of this research and experiment. It starts even more quickly than Queen Gasoline which some engine owners have been using in spite of the fact that Queen Gasoline was a special lighting plant fuel and never entirely suited to motor use.

The new Imperial Premier Gasoline is a properly balanced motor fuel. It is full of "pep" and power. Every fuel charge burns clean in the combustion chambers. There are no heavy ends which might remain behind to cause pre-ignition or hasten carbon formation. Every drop of the new Imperial Premier Gasoline vaporizes completely and is easily converted into power and mileage.

The new Imperial Premier Gasoline is now available throughout the Maritime Provinces. Believing as we do that this is the best gasoline we can possibly make for motor use we have discontinued the manufacture and sale of all other grades. Stop at the Red Ball sign and fill with this new improved gasoline. You will find it even more satisfactory than other gasolines which may cost up to 5 cents more per gallon.

This test will convince you;—after your tank has been filled with the new Imperial Premier Gasoline have your carburetor adjusted to use this fuel properly. You will find you can run on a leaner mixture and avoid operating trouble and get better results from your car in every way at a lower cost per mile than ever before.

WEDDING

MERCER—LONGLEY

At ten o'clock on the morning of Wednesday, Sept. 6th, at Hillside Farm, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Longley, of Paradise, their daughter, Mary Evangeline, was married to Rev. William Seeley Mercer, of Bay Roberts, Newfoundland.

The officiating minister was Rev. F. Stewart Kinley, of Windsor, an uncle of the bride, assisted by her pastor, Rev. W. Steadman Smith. About seventy guests witnessed the beautiful and impressive ceremony, which took place in the drawing room under an arch of fern variegated with Autumn flowers. The unusual beauty of this arch with its back ground of woodland green was due to Mrs. W. Steadman Smith.

Punctually at ten the bride's sister, Mrs. Ewart Morse, began the wedding march, and the bridegroom entered, escorted by Mr. Robert Longley. Then down the stairs came two little fairy flower girls, Jean Mason and Mabel Longley, nieces of the bride, after them the bridesmaid, Alice Longley, and then the bride, upon her father's arm. She had all the modest loveliness of the old time bride and all the wholesome strength of the modern girl. Her gown was of ivory crepe embroidered with pearls. She carried a beautiful shower bouquet of American Beauty roses, sweet peas and maiden hair fern and she wore a bridal veil with orange blossoms. The bridesmaid was lovely in pink crepe de chene.

After the ceremony in which the double ring service was used, a wedding breakfast was served.

There was a rich display of presents in the upper hall. Mr. Mercer's gift to his bride was an elegant coat of Labrador seal with beaver collar and cuffs, to the bridesmaid a necklace of pearls, to the pianist a gold brooch set with pearls, and to the flower girls initialed silver napkin rings.

Mr. and Mrs. Mercer went away on the East-bound express to Halifax. After spending a short time visiting in Nova Scotia, they will leave for Mr. Mercer's pastorate at Fogo, Newfoundland.

Mr. Mercer, since his college course at Mt. Allison University, has been doing mission work in Labrador. Miss Longley, who is a graduate of High School teaching in Pichebunk, Alberta, for the past two years.—Ed. Monitor.)

AT PRIMROSE THEATRE
THURSDAY, SEPT. 28th
1st Episode "The Hope Diamond Mystery"

In the year 1642 there was located in Burma, on the road to Mandalay, the half-trained temple of the Goddess Rama-Sita, who, according to Buddhist religion, held sway over love and virginity.

There suddenly appeared in the little village a French traveler, Jean Baptiste Tavernier, who, in order to purchase Bibi, a nautch girl, desecrated the temple and stole a magnificent pure blue white diamond of enormous size from around the neck of the Goddess.

The high-priest of the temple thereupon laid a curse upon the stone whereby everyone who came in possession of it would meet disaster in some form or other.

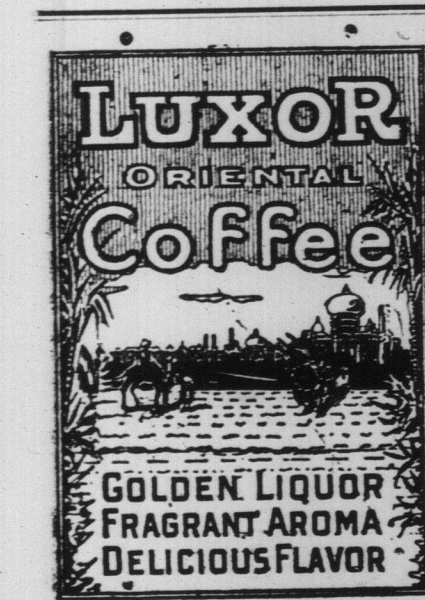

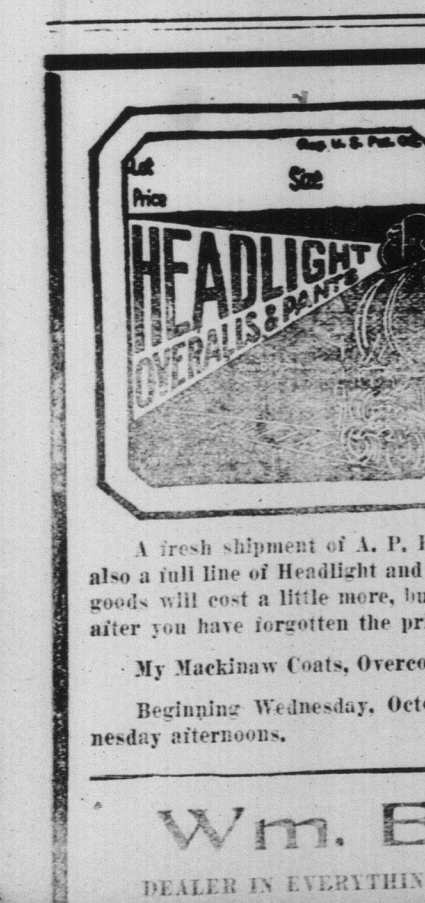

The jewel had come down through the ages, passing from hand to hand, until at last it came into possession of James Maroon, a wealthy collector of rare and precious stones.

Immediately after the jewel came into his possession strange events began to happen and at last Maroon became fearful that the curse of the diamond would fall on him.

He hurriedly journeyed to England and entered into negotiations with Sir Francis Hale for the purchase of the stone. At the time the story opens Lord Francis had been recently married to a favorite of the musical comedy stage and his every thought was to gratify her slightest whim.

Lady Hale, however, not satisfied with the devotion of her husband, was carrying on a violent affair with Richard Travers, an American of good family, whose only thought and ambition in life was to make love to the beautiful wives of other men.

Sidney Atherton, also known as Nu Feng, is the head of a gang of international crooks, who had long been on the trail of the stone. When Maroon returns from his visit to Lord Francis, Atherton confronts him at his hotel apartment and demands the diamond. Maroon tells him that he has just sold it to Lord Francis, but

"THE QUEEN OF THE BASIN"

"Or out in the Maple woods where companies Of sombre trunks lift the soft light between. And little sunbeams steal with ruddy eyes, Sitting down the canopies of green".

—Willred Campbell.

As October approaches and with it the open season for moose, plans and preparations are being made on all sides: rifles taken down, cleaned again and tested. The pack basket put in the sun to air, tents and tent stoves and gear dug out of attic, barn or garage—canoes patched and with the blood of the hunting season tingling in the veins inspired by the hunters moon. Old men become rejuvenated and young men experienced as they tell and retell the stories of hunting success of days gone by. Here in the heart of a moose country where trophies of the chase adorn the verandahs, halls and rooms of many residences. (It is worth noting that the original of the moose's head on the National Railways turntable was shot by Mr. W. M. Romans, Manager Royal Bank, Bear River, and is now above the fire place in his drawing room). It is only natural this enthusiasm should prevail. This year waterways will extend further inland than ever, meaning fewer portages and easier trips. Here is wishing success to the hunters.

Mr. Mills, the organizer, from Truro, was present.

Congratulations to Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Campbell. We wish them joy and happiness through a long and useful life. Dr. Campbell is well known here, and to his wife we extend a hearty welcome to "The Queen of the Basin."

CORRESPONDENCE

To the Editor, Bridgetown Monitor.
It was Sunday morning after the Centennial Celebration of the French and English settlement of our town and so many have asked me to give some expression of gratitude in this issue of your valuable paper for the historical records with which we have been favored by Dr. Armstrong, Mr. Gaudet, and Dr. DeWitt, that I am writing this small article even at the risk of breaking our Sunday laws.

The untiring and unselfish zeal of these men in digging up and preserving records to the coming generations will certainly be an enduring monument to their memory, much more lasting than marble slab or polished monument of stone, but we do not want them to wait for that, there is too much of that kind of thing. We want through the columns of your valuable paper now to give them the glad hand of thanks so that they will know that their efforts have been appreciated.

I was prevented from hearing Dr. Armstrong and Dr. DeWitt the evening they presented their papers at the Court House, but I will hear them and I have certainly heard of them.

One thing more, at the risk of trespassing on your valuable space, and perhaps I would not venture on this were it not Sunday morning. We boast of the Christian civilization of this and preceding centuries, but such scenes as were brought to our notice by the history of the expulsion of the Acadians, almost makes us doubt whether we are civilized or not. A little of the spirit of "Do unto others, etc." on the part of the English and the French and all this suffering privation and death could have been avoided. There is room enough in this beautiful Valley for both French and English if they behave themselves and try to help one another live, but Cain and Abel had the whole wide world to themselves and it was not big enough for them to live happily in when they, or even one of them had made up his mind to kill the other.

It will be our duty in the future to extend a friendly hand to any of the Acadian French who settle among us, and by making them welcome to make amends for the mistakes of our ancestors in the past, "so mote it be."
O. S. MILLER.

WEDDING

RITCHIE-MILLS

The home of Capt. and Mrs. Samuel Mills, Granville Ferry, was the scene of a very happy event Saturday evening, September 1st, when their youngest daughter, Eva Blanche, was united in marriage to Ralph Ritchie, of Annapolis. Rev. A. W. Watson performed the ceremony in the presence of friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The bride looked lovely in a gown of cream French voile, hand embroidered in yellow, with flowing veil caught with sweet-heart roses, and carried a bouquet of cream roses and maiden hair fern.

As she entered the parlor which had been beautifully decorated in white and yellow, on the arm of her brother, Carmen Mills, who gave her in marriage. Little Miss Marguerite Banks and Miss Hetty Austin, niece of the bride, acted as flower girls. Mendleson's wedding march was played by Miss Ruth Mills.

The groom's gift to the pianist, a beautiful bar piano to the flower girls, rings. After the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served.

The happy couple then started for Milford, N. S., where they will spend their honeymoon.

The many and valuable presents of silver, cut glass, aluminum ware and etc., testified to the bride's popularity.

Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie will reside in Annapolis.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Alline Huntington, of Schenectady, New York, on the birth of a son, Sept. 5th. Mrs. Huntington (nee Marguerite Hicks) is a former resident of Bridgetown.

The Philaetha Class of the Baptist Sunday School won out in the quarter attendance contest with the Brotherhood and as a result the gentlemen are organizing to give the ladies a picnic as forfeit. A committee was appointed Sunday and arrangements will be made at once.

It is understood to be the intention of the town authorities to prosecute to the limit parties found defacing the bridge and writing thereon indecent and obscene words and remarks.

Campaign For the BLIND

SUPPOSE YOU WERE BLIND

Suppose you, having come to adult years enjoying the priceless privilege of sight, were to be suddenly deprived without warning of this most valuable of all senses.

Suppose you could no longer discern the faces of your loved ones; the brilliant azure of the sky at high noon; the deep red of the bluish rose blooming in your garden.

Suppose you could not see your way across the room.

We tell you on the authority of thousands of blind adults that all these deprivations, bitter as they would be, would not affect you as would the feeling that you were of no longer any use in the world.

"I'm blind and no good!" that is the terrible feeling which makes the blind miserable, hopeless, lost!

But the cry of misery need no longer be heard. There is no reason now why even a man or a woman deprived of sight should not still become a useful, honored, prosperous and happy citizen.

And it can be done.      It is being done.

In Halifax, a great work for the blind has been going forward for two years. The Maritime Branch of the Canadian National Institute has for two years operated a workshop in Halifax where blind adults are trained to become self-reliant, happy and useful citizens.

Once we can achieve that, we have taken a great load of trouble from the shoulders of the afflicted blind.

"Help the Blind to Help Themselves"

The cost of operating this workshop is about $2,000 a month. There is a debt on the building of $35,000.

For two years the bulk of this cost has been borne by the Canadian National Institute, from funds supplied largely by the people of Toronto.

Nova Scotia owes Toronto a great deal more than money in this connection; Nova Scotia owes Toronto a debt which cannot fully be discharged in money.

We think that it is time Nova Scotia took the responsibility of the education of its own blind into its own hands. We feel that it is not just or desirable, purely from the Nova Scotia viewpoint, to ask Ontario people to carry this responsibility for us.

It is our job!      Let us do it.

You can bring these blind fellow citizens into the light of day

The increased cost of everything since the war period came upon us has made it impossible for this work which is being done to help the blind in Nova Scotia to be carried on without a public appeal for funds.

The death took place at West Paradise of Mr. Daniels in the forty-eight year age, after an illness of years. She leaves to her loss, mother, Mrs. Harry of Bear River; husband, daughters, Mrs. Edward, Miss Maud, both of West One son, Harold, predecessor years ago.

The services were conducted by Rev. W. Steadman Smith, Rev. Dr. Jost and favorite the deceased including "In den", "Nearer My God to Thee" sung feelingly by the West Choir.
