as the Roman Catholic, the Presbyterians three times as much, and the Methodists eighteen times as much.

Let us next take the actual increase of the same four denominations in Ontario from 1851 to 1891. We find Roman Catholics increased 37,000; Church of England increased 18,000; Presbyterians increased 45,000; Methodists increased 62,000; total, 115,000.

Surely the ever-watchful and nervous shepherds of the Roman flock will be filled with alarm at the dangerously rapid growth of the Methodists in Ontario! What new and wicked means will they introduce to compass the destruction of these heretics! Nothing short of a revival of the Spanish Inquisition would be equal to the emergency.

It is not contended, I believe, that the P. P. A. is to be an instrument for the conversion of Papists, or the saving of their souls. Its aim is to accomplish rather the temporal injury than the spiritual good of the two millions of members of that Church among us. It seeks to keep them out of employment in business, and to disqualify them from being eligible for any political positions.

To quote from the "principles" of the association as set forth in the Mail, we have this avowal:—

"6. It is in our opinion unwise and unsafe to appoint or elect to civil, political, or military, office in this country, men who owe supreme allegiance to any foreign king, potentate, or ecclesiastical power, and who are sworn to obey that power."

It cannot be denied that this extraordinary language is intended to refer to all our Roman Catholic fellow citizens. If it were necessary to prove that such is the intention, it could be done by referring to the form of oath which appears in the ritual of the association. The candidate for admission is made to swear—

"That I will not employ a Catholic in any capacity if I can procure the services of a Protestant," and "that I will not countenance the nomination in any caucus or convention of a Roman Catholic for any office in the gift of the Canadian people, and that I will not vote for, nor counsel others to vote for any Roman Catholic, but will vote only for a Protestant: that I will endeavour at all times to place the political positions of this Government in the hands of Protestants."

What can men who adopt those views and obligations suppose they have to attack? Surely such a declaration of war would only be approved by those who felt that the political rights of Protestant citizens were being trampled upon by Roman Catholics wherever these have a majority. I can show that, on the contrary, the political treatment of Protestants, where the Catholics have a clear majority, is far more generous than the latter receive from Protestants who have control. Take up the last census again and the Parliamentary returns, and we will find that in Ontario four constituencies with large Catholic majorities send Protestants to the House of Commons, and that only one Roman Catholic is elected by any riding with a Protestant majority. Then take Quebec, and we find that while seven Catholic ridings elect Protestant M. P.'s, not one riding with a Protestant majority sends a Roman Catholic to Parliament. Would it not be fair to tell these honest truths to a candidate before asking him to take so shocking and un-Christian an oath? I am sorry to say that it looks as if today the Protestant majorities are far less generous in their treatment of Roman Catholic candidates than they should be.

For the liberal treatment of Protestants by Roman Catholic constituencies the return to be made by the P. P. A. is to exclude all Roman Catholics from every elected or appointed position in Canada. It is necessary to point out the absolute folly as well as the wickedness of such a proposition. It would involve the disqualification and disfranchisement of over 40 per cent. of our fellow citizens who contribute to the support of the country—and that, of course, could not be done without civil war. Any attempt to disqualify a British subject on account of his religion would be promptly put down by the whole power of the British Empire, which claims to lead the civilization of the world, and would never permit any of its possessions to relapse into the state of barbarism proposed by the P. P. A. for this good Province of Ontario.

The Protestants in Canada are not an ignorant nor a disorganized body. They all have their freely chosen clergy, who are a competent and able class, devoting their entire energies to Christian work, and full of zeal for the principles of the Reformation. Are these moral leaders and teachers all to be superseded by a secret, political, self-constituted junta? No Protestant minister has abandoned his citizenship. His influence for good is felt in politics, and it was never before sought to supersede it until the P. P. A. was organized. Do they take the clergy into their confidence? Far from it, for they could not trust that educated class to co-operate with them in their dark ways and uncharitable aims. A minister is seldom so cowardly as to conceal his conscientious views upon public questions where either religion or morality is concerned, and therefore he needs no secret lodge in which to conspire.

I admit that there often arises in Canada religio-political questions, such as those connected with Separate schools, and it is desirable that these should always receive the freest and fullest discussion. But in order that legislators and people may be influenced to arrive at wise and just conclusions, it is absolutely necessary that all arguments pro and con should be made in public. On delicate and irritating subjects of this nature the Press and the platform should spread abroad honestly and fearlessly, but with fairness and moderation, the different views of different sides, so that in the end truth and justice may prevail. Concealment of arguments show a weak cause. Secret one-sided discussion is the fertile parent of prejudice, falsehood, hatred and bigotry.

While the miserable programme of the P. P. A. is absolutely impossible of accomplishment, yet its system and efforts have a direct tendency to sow seeds of strife and rancour among mixed creeds and races. If all respectable and patriotic Canadians fail to unite and stamp it out by exposing its cowardly and odious mission, it may progress far enough to endanger Confederation. If it could succeed in lashing into a frenzy the latent evil passions of any important part of Ontario's population, Quebec might be driven out of Confederation. Quebec is the pivotal province of the Dominion from its geographical position, and its secession would smash Confederation into its original atoms, and the name of Canada would disappear from the map of the world.

At whose instigation has this useless and dangerous institution been planted in Canada? Why, it is a direct importation from the United States—a political organization transplanted, and to all appearance controlled from the other side of the line. The Mail article already referred to states that "at one time there were joint meetings of the supreme bodies of the Canadian and United States societies," but owing to too much Union Jack "they refrain from attending meetings of the Canadian Association." So there seems to be no doubt that the parent system in the United States, by joint meetings of the supreme bodies, nursed and controlled the Canadian offshoot, but, for apparent reasons of policy, they refrain from joint meetings now.

It is therefore clear that the members of the P. P. A. are the dupes and tools of a foreign political conspiracy. From its natural tendencies it is not possible to conceive that it could have been started by Canadian patriots, but if the object were to rend in sunder Confederation, and to weaken Canada as a rival power no better instrument could have been invented than this one. Let loyal Canadians stand firm under!

Yours, etc.,
J. D. EDGAR,

MIDNIGHT MASS.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION.

The beautiful church of the Immaculate Conception, Point Douglas, kept the Christmas celebration this year with great splendour. The celebration opened with a grand high mass which commenced precisely at midnight on Sunday with Rev. Father Noret, lately arrived from France, as the celebrant, the Rev. Father Lavigne as deacon, and the Rev. Mr. Zerbach, sub-deacon. The church was well filled. The choir sang Weber's mass in G. and the very difficult music of this mass was rendered in an almost faultless manner, proving which this church possesses a choir which is second to none in the city. The following is a list of the choir: Sopranos—Mrs. Lloyd, Mrs. J. Bernhart, Miss Frances Tobin, Mrs. Winifred Tobin, Miss Shaw; alto—Mrs. Buzzard, assisted by Messrs. Furstenberger and Vallejo; tenors—Messrs. J. Marsinski, O. Lanctot and W. Shaw; bass—Messrs. J. Stack, Lalonde and A. Picard. The organist and choir leader is Mrs. Geo. Germain, to whose efforts the present satisfactory condition of the choir is mainly due. The solos were principally taken by Mrs. Lloyd, who was in splendid voice. The Misses Tobin were entrusted with several solos, and proved themselves quite equal to the task. Mrs. Buzzard's voice was heard to perfection in the alto solos, especially in "The Agnus Dei"; and the other solos were distributed between Messrs. Marsinski, Lanctot, Lalonde and Stack, receiving full justice from them. One notable feature of the mass is the "Benedictus," arranged for a quartette; it was ably rendered by Mrs. Lloyd, Mrs. Buzzard, Messrs. Lanctot and Stack. At the offertory Lambillotte's Pastoral was sung, the solo part being taken by Miss Winifred Tobin. The grand mass was followed by a low mass celebrated by the Rev. Father Lavigne, during which canticles appropriate to the season were sung by the choir.

Later on several other low masses were celebrated at the church and high mass at 11 o'clock, at which the choir again rendered Weber's mass.

In the evening the vespers of the day were chanted, followed by a sermon by Rev. Father Charon, S. J., of St. Boniface college, who was heard for the first time in this city. Some special music was sung on this occasion, including Mozart's Magnificat, Milart's Ave Verum, Ave Maria by Battaran, Tantum Ergo by Berger, and Laudate by Zingarelli. The principal solos were taken by Mrs. J. Bernhart.

AT ST. MARY'S.
At midnight on Sunday, St. Mary's church was filled with a large gathering of those who were present to attend Christmas mass. The church was not decorated owing to the danger from fire but the tableau of the manger in Bethlehem and the arrangement of natural and artificial flowers in front of the altar were very pretty and interesting. High mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Fox, assisted by Rev. Father O'Dwyer, and the sermon was preached by Rev. Father Langevin, Superior of the Oblates. The choir was considerably strengthened and under the leadership of Mr. Richard Bourbeau. Mr. Albert Evans presided at the organ. The "Mass Royal" formed the principal music; a solo was sung by Prof. Barre entitled "Minuit Chretien." During the offertory Messrs. Bouche Bros. played two selections on the mandolin and guitar, "Song Without Words," Silvestri, and "Holy Lord" Rossetani. At the low mass which followed, "Noel," Gounod, was sung by Mr. Versailles, and "Adeste Fideles" by R. Bourbeau. The collection realized a large sum.

EDITORIAL NOTES. A distinguished author says, "I resolved, when I was a child, never to use a word which I could not pronounce before my mother."

Boys readily learn a class of low, vulgar words and expressions, which are never heard in respectable circles.

Such vulgarity is thought by some boys to be "smart," the "next thing to swearing," and yet "not so wicked," but it is a habit which leads to profanity.

It is next to an impossibility to keep track of all reports circulated as to the declining health of His Holiness, but it is noticeable that these adverse reports usually originate in the German papers.

It is thus that Sir James Grant, the newly-elected member of Parliament for Ottawa, designates the Protestant Protective Association. And well might he do so.

WORDS OF WISDOM.

Educational matters are agitating England as well as other parts of the empire. Many English Liberals are opposed to denominational schools.

When speaking at Preston, not long ago, the ex-premier of England laid down the principles which should be followed, in his opinion, in Great Britain.

"Numbers of persons have invented what I may call a patent compressible religion, which can be forced into all consciences with a very little squeezing."

These are the true and only just principles that should govern statesmen in dealing with this subject.

The proposition is, indeed, worthy of deep and thoughtful consideration, but the question that naturally arises to our mind is: What reliance can be placed on a government like that of King Humbert, to carry out such an international mail service during a war in which that misgoverned country was engaged?

The following paragraph is clipped from an Australian paper just at hand.

"The Sydney (New South Wales) Typographical Society has covered itself with glory by refusing to admit Miss Annie Hill to membership, on the ground that the rules never contemplated the existence of a female compositor."

"You may paint, you may play, you may teach, And may make a good doctor, perhaps; You may write, you may lecture and preach, And may rival those scientific chaps; As a scholar, proficient and ripe, You may stand, if you please, in the van; But to talk about picking up type! CATHOLIC NOTES.

Cardinal Gibbons spent his boyhood in the West of Ireland. His Eminence was born in Baltimore, Md., but crossed the Atlantic at an early age with his father who was an Irishman, and who had returned from America to settle down more in his native land.

It is rumored that Archbishop Kenrick of St. Louis will resign. If the venerable archbishop retires, it is generally understood that he will go to the Mullanphy hospital, and end his illustrious career in that institution.

The Church in France has lost since the beginning of the year eleven prelates, amongst whom were five Archbishops, comprising the Cardinals of Lyons and of Rennes, three Bishops, and three Vicars-Apostolic.

Archbishop Ireland and Bishops Broderick, McGolrick, Shanley, and Cotter celebrated the anniversaries of their consecration during the present month.

We are pleased to learn that the New York Tablet, temporarily suspended, will resume publication in January.

The State superintendent of public instruction of Pennsylvania has decided that public school superintendents in that State must issue certificates to nuns who are properly qualified to teach.

Bishop Keane, Rector of the Catholic University of America, delivered an eloquent lecture on "The Future of Religion," in Boston recently.

The Dominican Fathers at the Priory, Woodchester, England, publish a magazine called The Kosary, at the very low price of a penny a month.

Colonel Elmer T. Otis, who has just been made Brigadier General by President Cleveland, was a delegate to the Catholic Convention of the C. K. of A. in 1877.

The monastery of the Good Shepherd at Troy, N. Y., has received from the Chicago Exhibition Commissioners a gold medal for being a model reformatory.

There are about 160,000 negro Catholics in the United States, and 21 sisterhoods teaching in 108 schools over 8,000 negro children.

The Right Rev. Edward G. Bagshawe Roman Catholic Bishop of Nottingham, England, is dead. He was consecrated in 1874.

More than two thousand American Indians were received into the Catholic Church last year.

Archbishop Ireland preached to an audience of five hundred colored people at St. Peter Claver's church last Sunday evening on the occasion of the first anniversary of the church's dedication.

According to the newspaper reporting the Rev. Father Tierney, parish priest of New Britain, Conn., has been selected as the next Bishop of Hartford, and successor to the late Bishop McMahon.

Father Richard Brennan, pastor of the Catholic church of the Holy Innocent of New York, is dead. He was the oldest, as well as one of the most prominent priests of the diocese of New York.

We are informed that an A. P. A. paper published in the United States which ordinarily prints 1500 copies weekly, tried an experiment of 10,000 copies last week, and that the rag man is looking with an envious eye on the pile of unsold copies.

The A. P. A's tried their hand in the Mayoralty contest at Boston the other day. Result: Mayor Matthews re-elected by about 10,000 majority and the American Protective Association "turned its face to the wall."

Sister Marie Josephine, whose worldly name was Anna Livingston, died last week of consumption, at the convent of Mount St. Vincent, New York.

Livingston was a daughter of Ludlow Livingston, and was educated at the convent, her parents dying when she was very young. She spent several years in society after her education was completed, and then forsook the world for the veil, giving all her money to the convent.

A colossal statue of the Blessed Virgin the work of Duchesse d'Uzes of France, whose son recently died in Africa, is to be erected upon one of the loftiest summits of the Hoquengue Mountains.

The statue, which will be visible to passengers on the line from Paris to the situation is one of the most picturesque in that mountainous region. The enterprise is under the patronage of Cardinal Bourret, the Bishop of the diocese, and of thirty-four prelates. The work will not be completed for four years.

Chauncey M. Depew has had an interview with Pope Leo—the first layman in twenty years to be honored as he was on the occasion. He was given half an hour of the Holy Father's precious time. Mr. Depew was made the medium of a pleasing message to the American people and declares to be a man of great intellectuality, in good physical condition and alive to the interests of the church the world over, and especially here. When Mr. Depew spoke of Archbishop Corrigan and of the labor encyclical, the Holy Father was specially well pleased.

Catholics who do not subscribe to a Catholic publication may profit by the striking contrast presented in the following paragraph: "Bishop Gilmour's enthusiasm for Catholic journalism was manifested by his founding the Catholic University, which in the course of time cost him forty thousand dollars."—Very Rev. Mgr. T. P. Thorpe.

This learned man and convert had forty thousand dollars for the support of that power for which many born in the faith have not two dollars a year—Northwestern Witness.

The organ of the A. P. A. the Chicago Mail, was out on Tuesday last with a most insidious though labored attack on Mr. Hopkins. The only charge it could bring against him was that his middle initial is P. and it assumed of course that it stood for Patrick.

It is only the A. P. A. who dislike that name, and why wouldn't they? It was the original Patrick who cleared the Irish soil of just such vermin.

The Mail is obliged to admit however, the splendid ability of our next mayor, John Percival Hopkins.

THE GRIPPE EPIDEMIC.

A SCOURGE MORE TO BE DREADED THAN CHOLERA.

Medical Science Powerless to Prevent Its Spread—It is again Sweeping Over Canada With Great Severity—How Its Evil Effects Can Best be Counteracted—Only Prompt Measures Can Insure Safety

It is stated on high medical authority that an epidemic of the grippe is more to be feared than an outbreak of cholera. The latter disease can be controlled, and where sanitary precautions are observed the danger can be reduced to the minimum.

When, a few months ago, it was announced that cholera had broken out in Grimby, one of England's important seaports, it was feared that it would reach this continent, yet this once dreaded scourge was checked and exterminated with a loss of not more than half a dozen lives.

Mr. George Rose, Rednersville, Ont., says—"I am well to-day, and do not hesitate giving Dr. Williams' Pink Pills the credit of saving my life. I had three attacks of the grippe, and was so reduced in flesh and strength I could hardly stand alone.

Mr. James McKay, Tiverton, N. S., says—"I had the grippe about three years ago and that tied me up pretty well. I wasn't fit to take charge of a ship, so sailed south as far as Milk River, Jamaica, as nurse for an invalid gentleman.

John W. Booth, Newcombe Mills, Ont., says—"Words cannot express the gratitude I feel for the great good I have received from the use of your Pink Pills.

strengthened, and I am feeling better than I have done before in years.

Mr. W. A. Marshall, principal of the Clementsport, N. S., Academy, says—"I had a bad attack of the grippe which left me weak, nervous and badly used up.

Mr. B. Crouter, Workworth, Ont., brother of Rev. Darius Crouter, who some years ago represented East Northumberland in the House of Commons, says—"Two years ago I had an attack of the grippe which nearly cost me my life.

Scores of other equally strong recommendations might be quoted, but the above will suffice to prove the undoubted efficacy of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in removing all the evil effects of the grippe of influenza, and those who have in any degree suffered from this dangerous malady should lose no time in fortifying the system by the judicious use of Pink Pills.

In the case of a business man failing twenty-four times the next time would be his silver-bankruptcy.

It does not always follow that a young man is religious because he goes regularly to church. It may be the young lady who is the religious one.

The Milwaukee printers have unanimously decided to debar the A. P. A's from membership. To guard against these spies and traitors in labor or other organization, is simple self protection.

A horse attached to a Dominion Express Company's rig bolted yesterday noon in Main Street, while the driver was temporarily absent. Fortunately the animal was stopped before any damage was done.

ARCHBISHOP Ireland has been invited by the Jesuit Fathers in charge of the church of the Sacred Heart, Chicago, to deliver a lecture on education. He has accepted and the date will soon be announced.

MOR Satolli's critics remind us of the man who pelted a stone wall with snowballs in the hope that he might batter it down. The Apostolic Delegate is proof against every criticism and attack made upon him.

On behalf of John Patrick Hopkins, Mayor of Chicago, we tender to the Apsists and the Canadian Orangemen, the compliments of the season.—Chicago New World.

THE new mayor-elect of Chicago, John P. Hopkins, is a member in good standing of the Catholic Order of Foresters, Holy Rosary Court No. 131, of Fullman. He has twice been sent by his Court as a representative to annual sessions.

NEWSPAPER life appears to be very exciting in Russia. An editor in Kuroh recently discharged a proof reader. Later in the day the man returned, killed the editor and then opened fire on the staff. Two were killed and the others escaped by jumping out of the window.

In a fit of desperation, an editor dashed off the following: "The wind bloweth, the water floweth, the farmer soweth, the subscriber oweth and the Lord knoweth that we are in need of our dues. So come a-runnin' ere we go a-gunnin', this thing of dunnin' gives us the blues."

The surest sign of having good luck for the coming year is by paying the printer. We never knew an instance of a man thriving in business who did not pay for his paper. A bad subscriber is always remarked to be a bad father, a bad husband and a bad citizen—and worse we do not wish him.

LAST week we mentioned in our local columns that Mr. E. McCarthy, of Regina was in town on business connected with the recent fire at his stores at Regina. We inadvertently stated that the worth of the stock in the stores at the time of the disaster amounted to $1,150. This should have been $11,500 and we hasten to correct the error.

It would be useless on four part to try to describe the beauty and magnificence with which a large majority of our Catholic exchange send forth their Christmas numbers. Among others we make special mention of The Catholic Citizen, published at Milwaukee, Wis., not only for the valuable Christmas reading matter it contains, but for the noble and fearless stand taken in exposing that anti-Christian association known as the A. P. A.

If a merchant desires to let the public know what kind of goods he has for sale he immediately makes his way to a newspaper office and imparts the information to the populace. If an aspirant for civic honors desires to let the electors know he is in it he should put his card in the papers and let the populace know it. In many cases the candidate who lets the people know his intentions through the press has a long lead on the candidate who was playing the "dark horse."

There are still some signs of summer found in the cloudy skies, A pleasant nap is sure to wake A few belated flies.

Oh, these are the nights when young lovers and themselves in a terrible state; Just a little too warm for the parlor And a little too cold for the gate.

The condition of the sidewalks in Main Street at the present time calls loudly for the attention of the civic authorities. The storekeepers have attended to the clearing of the path in front of their doors but in some places where stores are untenanted there are banks of snow nearly a foot high, and pedestrians—especially women—clamber over these heaps with considerable difficulty. The one amusing circumstance of the case is the exactitude shown by certain business men in just clearing up to the line of their store and leaving the rest to take care of itself. It will be well if they are always as scrupulous.

MR. DONAHOWER, United States marshal for Minnesota has resigned. His successor has not yet been nominated.

SUBSCRIBERS about to move to another locality, would do us a favor and avoid delays in the delivery of their paper, by sending us a card, stating both their new and old addresses.

A negro named Lem Allen was lynched by a mob in Holmes County, Miss., for the murder of a farmer named Nabors. Before being hung he confessed his guilt.

At a wedding near Hazelton, Pa., a riot took place between the bridegroom's party and a number of Austrians. During the fight the bridegroom was shot dead and eleven others seriously wounded.

It is pleasing to note the intelligent manner in which some of the Protestant clergy of Toronto Ottawa and other eastern cities take in denouncing that shameful underground secret society called the P. P. A. of which there can come no good.

PERSONS having clothing of any description, no longer in use, can do an act of charity by placing them at the disposal of the St. Vincent de Paul Society. If they are left at the presbyteries of either St. Mary's or the Immaculate Conception parishes they will be handed over to the society for distribution.

A REMARKABLE woman died the other day. She bequeathed her whole fortune to the editor of a newspaper because she had had so many hours of enjoyment from the perusal of its columns. We do not wish to learn of any remarkable women dying, but at the same time we would not object were they to do us in like manner.

The South bound passenger train, No. 12, on the Iron Hills division of the Missouri Pacific railway, which left Coffeyville, Kansas, at 6-30 o'clock on Sunday evening, was held up and thoroughly robbed by five masked men at Seminole Indian Territory. The robbers are still at large.

A PECULIAR advertisement appeared recently in an English paper. A woman describing herself as "a lady with spare time daily" offers to play bezique with invalids or other persons desiring a partner in the game. She wanted remuneration, and concludes by asking "what offers?"

A DEAD negro was found hanging to a line in the Pelahatchie swamp Rankin county. A bullet hole was found in his head, and around his neck were four pigs' feet. Near his body lay a dead hog. The supposition is that he had stolen the hog and been killed for the crime.

We regret to announce that the Rev. Father J. Teston, O. M. I. of Green Lake, had his feet frozen in journeying from Green Lake to Muskeg Lake, where he is now under the kind care of Rev. Father Paquette. We sincerely hope that this devoted missionary will soon be able to return to his home none the worse from his present affliction.

THE New York Freeman's Journal came out last week in a bright, artistic new dress. We think, however, that it made a mistake in changing the lettering of its name. The old was beautiful, and it had grown so familiar to Catholic readers and admirers. It is a pity it was changed. All men are like Charles Lamb in that they love "the old familiar faces."

If the church of Rome were thoroughly understood, we should have no A. P. A's, anarchists and no socialists. We have yet to hear of Catholic anarchists. Catholic children are taught from their earliest years that it is contrary to the Divine will to antagonize legitimate authority or try to tear down the established order of things. The A. P. A's are doing that and are an annex to the anarchists.—Catholic Sun.

At eight o'clock on Sunday morning a Pacific Express messenger named McCullough was knocked down on the station platform at Marshall, Texas, and robbed of his pouch, containing an amount estimated at between $5,000 and $8,000. At least fifty people witnessed the robbery, but were too astonished to interfere, and the robber escaped in the darkness.

THE "young English man" wanted for the murder of James Williams and his wife in Toronto township, on Thursday night Dec. 14th, of which we gave details in our last issue turns out to be Scotchman, William Walter McWhinnel, alias McGuire, a crook with a provincial record. McWhinnel's present whereabouts are unknown, but as it is not believed he has left the country, his arrest shortly is considered a certainty.

We have received the Christmas number of the Winnipeg Saturday Night, and we congratulate the Saturday Night Company on the success which has attended their efforts. The number is satisfactory from every point of view. It is well printed, the illustrations are good, and the reading matter possesses above the ordinary degree of interest. With each number is presented a splendid colored plate.

About midnight on Saturday the Los Angeles and San Francisco express train on the Southern Pacific railroad was held up by two masked men about twelve miles north of Los Angeles, near Burbank, a small station. After an attempt to blow open the safe in the express car, the robbers relieved the engineer, fireman and express messenger of what money they had in their possession, mounted their horses, which had been left near the scene of the robbery, and made their escape. Up to the present no arrests have been made.

Old Christmas Talk.

After Christmas comes Lent. A light Christmas, a heavy sheaf. A white Christmas bringeth a green Easter. A black Christmas maketh a fat churchyard. The devil makes his Christmas pie of lawyers' tongues and clerks' fingers. He that maketh at Christmas a dog his larder, and in March a pig his gardener, and in May a fool a keeper of wise counsel, he shall never have a good larder, fair garden, nor well-kept counsel. If Christmas day on a Sunday fall, A troublous winter we shall have all; If Christmas on a Monday be, Then a great winter we shall see.

REGINA NOTES.

We had hoped to be in a position by this to chronicle the establishment of a C.M.B.A. Branch here, but it appears we are once more doomed to disappointment. Letters to district deputies are unanswered; petitions for charter share the same fate; and the active (whilst here at any rate) interest taken in our case by Winnipeg members waxes no echo loud enough for our ears, and in the meantime we just drop into other societies more or less tolerated by proper authority.

The front pew looks rather lonesome without the punctual presence of Governor Royal and his family, and we doubt whether our loss will be an equivalent gain to some other Regina congregation.

Carling and skating rinks are in operation, and their devotees are getting down to work in good style.

The old station house has been vacated and its former inhabitants and office holders are beginning to feel at home in their comfortable quarters in the new building. A gang of men are employed in moving the old station-house to where it will be used as a freight shed beside the new depot.

Howson Bros. have purchased the wholesale liquor business of the Western Milling Company, and have now a monopoly of that particular trade in the town.

Mrs. Arnold has purchased the Lansdowne Hotel from the J. Sibbald Company for a sum exceeding $20,000.

The Normal School session for first and second class certificates is just drawing its three months term to a close, and whatever may be the merits of the Mowat school ordinance, allowed or otherwise, there can be no division of opinion as to Mr. Goggins' ability to drill a large class of would-be pedagogues.

Mr. W. H. Lucas and family have gone West. This leaves a void in our church choir which it will be hard to fill. Mr. E. McCarthy's visit to Winnipeg resulted in a very satisfactory settlement with the insurance companies.

OUR FRIENDS THE ENEMY.

We have received a copy of "The Canadian Annual" the Christmas number of the Winnipeg Daily Tribune. It is a most interesting and entertaining specimen of Christmas literature, well printed and well illustrated. Among other articles is a contribution from the pen of George B. Brooks, on "Episodes of the Riel Rebellion," from which we take the liberty of quoting. Referring to the different Catholic missionaries in the far Northwest, he says:—"He who has travelled through that vast portion of the Dominion must have often met with educated white men dwelling in the midst of a savage people whom they tend with a strange and mother-like devotion, upheld in their life of denial by a simple faith which seems something more than human. And what is true in one case seems to be true in all, whether the priest be stationed in Winnipeg or in some far remote mission north or south, far in advance of trader or settler have gone those fragile men, brought up amid the sunny scenes of St. Lawrence or Old France, scenes they are destined never to see again in this life. It is a curious contrast to find in that far distant lonely land men of culture and high mental excellence devoting their lives to the civilization of wild Indians. I care not what particular form of belief the onlooker may hold, he is but a poor man who can witness such devotion and abnegation of self through the narrow glass of sectarian feeling and see in it nothing but the self-interested labour of persons holding opinions foreign to his own." It is pleasant but rather curious to read such comments on Catholic missionary work in a publication bearing the imprimatur of the Tribune. We only wish such information as this could be more widely diffused among Protestants—then there would be an end to A. P. A's, P. P. A's, O. U. A. M's Orange lodges, "escaped nun" impostures, and all the other endless farrago of ignorant absurdities.

SALE EXTRAORDINARY!!!

GOOD-BYE, PROFIT

We have started out to make this the banner month, and we have succeeded so far. New inducements have been offered each day in Clothing and Men's Furnishings. Special bargains have been sought and brought to add to the interest and swell the enthusiasm. Old customers brought their friends and many new faces made up the daily crowds. We have had a royal time of it selling goods below the market and adding to the store's reputation for good values. To-day the interest will continue. Nor are we inclined to stop so soon. If sales can be doubled one week, why not two? Just so long as you have needs and we have bargains there will be every-day activity, and nothing can interfere with your coming. These goods are on sale to-day, and will remain at the prices until sold.
