CHARGES OF NEGLIGENCE AGAINST ISOLATION HOSPITAL MANAGEMENT NOT SUBSTANTIATED BY EVIDENCE

It Has Been Found Absolutely Impossible To Prevent Cross-Infection in Hospitals, Says Judge Winchester in Submitting Report.

SOME CARELESSNESS CALLS FOR CENSURE

Judge Winchester's report on the management of the Isolation Hospital was forwarded to Mayor Geary last evening. It consisted of 63 typewritten pages, and after reviewing most of the cases in which negligence by the hospital authorities was complained of, as well as the other evidence submitted, the findings are, as a rule, in the direction of exonerating the authorities. As regards the complaints of cross-infection while patients were in the hospital, his honor comments: "I find with all the care that can be given by physicians and nurses in connection with cases of scarlet fever, diphtheria and measles, it has been found impossible in the English hospitals, with their new box and cubicle systems and modern equipment to prevent cross infection in the hospitals, all these cases are very greatly reduced."

It is absolutely necessary that every prevention that can be devised by medical skill and knowledge should be taken to prevent the spread of the disease, and notwithstanding that a number of the physicians who gave evidence before me stated that they did not consider that scales from a patient recovering from scarlet fever would carry contagion, and that infection was not received by mere exposure to the air in the room where the patient was, I consider that measures should be taken to prevent any possible infection by scales or otherwise.

Cough Conveys Disease. "It is admitted that cough of a scarlet fever patient will convey the disease by means of the spray to some distance, even to 20 feet away, and also by contact with the patient; that scales may be carried in clothing not exposed to light and air for an indefinite period, and then become active; that milk is a recognized vehicle for scarlet fever germs, and it may be for diphtheria germs. I consider that measures should be taken to prevent any possible infection either by scales or exposure to another in the room occupied by the patient or otherwise."

As to the medical health officer and hospital staff, he says: "I find that Dr. Sheard has been careful and attentive to the performance of his duties with reference to the Isolation Hospital, devoting his energies in his interests at all times, and without regard to any personal convenience. He has done, as some of the physicians stated, noble work, and deserves commendation for the manner in which he has performed his duties and provided for the wants of the unfortunate; they stated that the only surprise was that he was able to do so much with the small amount of money at his disposal in connection with the hospital."

With reference to Miss Matheson, the lady superintendent, the greater number of those who gave testimony with reference to the Isolation Hospital spoke highly of her ability and conscientious work in connection with the hospital. "In my opinion," says the work in connection with the hospital has become too exacting for a lady superintendent to have charge of all the details in connection with the same. The grossly careless manner in which the engineers admitted they performed not only their duties, but often work which was apparently not a part of their duties, should never have been permitted by the lady superintendent. "Dr. Hazlewood and his assistant perform their work in the hospital satisfactorily, as does Miss Taylor, the secretary."

"I find that the maids of both the scarlet fever and diphtheria wards committed without taking any precautions to prevent contagion, although the necessary clothing is in readiness for them. The reason assigned for not compelling them to do so is not in my opinion a good one, namely, that the medical health officer had no power to prevent them from attending in any manner they thought fit. He should have obtained such power."

Collection of Accounts. "I have," says his honor, "gone over the books of the hospital and health department from the beginning of 1906 to the present time, and I find that they are honestly kept, but the book-keeping system in force requires to be remodelled. I find a number of poor people who were earning small, very small wages and with large families, who were employed at the rate of one dollar a month, and some one dollar a week, in order to pay their indebtedness, while others who were well able to pay, and should have made the payments returned to the city treasurer, and that all sums paid by

That some person be especially appointed for the purpose of collecting the amounts due for treatment and maintenance; and that all accounts should be submitted to the local health officer and by him to the board of health before the same are deposited as uncollectible; all sums to be properly entered in a book kept for that purpose, and to be paid in to the city treasurer on the date on which the same are received; and that a proper system of bookkeeping be at once established under the direction of the chief city auditor."

Free Antitoxin. "That the city supply free antitoxin for the treatment and prevention of diphtheria to those who are unable to pay for it. I find that in the Province of Manitoba, the provincial government supplies antitoxin free throughout that province."

That the Ontario Government be applied to for a contribution towards the indigent poor who are treated in this hospital, by placing it on the list of hospitals entitled to receive per capita grants for indigent patients."

That no patient be discharged until the resident physician certifies in writing that the patient has fully recovered from the disease from which he suffered, and that he is entitled to be removed; that notices in cases of diphtheria and measles be forwarded to the discharged patient, and even to schools where the sick children had been attending. Notices of this character have been used with good result in England and Scotland."

Favors Milne Method. "That the methods used by Dr. Robert Milnes, medical officer of Dr. Barnardo's hospitals and homes in London, England, for the prevention of the spreading of contagion in scarlet fever cases be adopted, if found successful in this country, namely, pure eucalyptus oil for the first four days, to be rubbed all over the body, from the crown of the head to the soles of the feet, including the face and hair, twice a day, and then once a day until the tenth day of the disease; swabbing the tonsils with one in ten carbolic oil every two hours for the first 24 hours, and only after that when case is bad or treatment delayed, this treatment to be continued on the slightest suspicion of the disease."

That all windows and doors in connection with the hospital be covered with screens to prevent flies entering into the wards, and that no flies be permitted to disturb or annoy the patients."

Suggests Annual Report. "That the medical health officer issue an annual report containing all statistics with reference to the hospital, including the work of the different departments in connection with the same. That the staff at the hospital be reorganized, with a view of the prompt and careful performance of the duties required to be carried on in the institution. In that connection I would recommend the appointment of a housekeeper, under the matron, who would relieve the latter of the responsibility in connection with the domestic portion of the work; also an assistant for a branch laboratory to be established in the hospital, and an officer for the collection of all funds payable to the institution."

CHURCHILL'S LIVELY TIME CHALLENGE IS ACCEPTED At Colchester the Home Secretary is Mobbed by Jeering Crowd and Pelted With Fish and Eggs.

COLCHESTER, England, Nov. 23.—Riotous scenes attended the appearance here to-night of Winston Spencer Churchill. Thousands congregated in the streets, jeering and shouting. Many of them gathered around Mr. Churchill's carriage, at which they threw fish, eggs and other missiles. Many of the windows in the Liberal headquarters were smashed.

Monday night at Lambeth, Churchill said to supporters: "I am told that individuals are to be singled out for violence. If that is their language, there is only one answer, and that is, 'Come on.'"

REFERENDUM IS FAVORED BY DALEFOUR

Best Method of Settling Deadlocks Between the Two Houses—Opposition Leader Addresses Great Meeting in London—Irish Unionists Protest Against Home Rule.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—The politicians of all parties are straining every nerve to crowd into a few days the work which in ordinary elections is spread over weeks or months. Nearly all the heavy guns were in action to-night.

Arthur J. Balfour, leader of the opposition in the house of commons, before a big meeting in Albert Hall, where he warmly supported the referendum described the government's proposal as a puppet show, and said that the government should be broken up and the country should be run by a committee of the people.

The issues are narrowing daily. The Conservatives make much of the menace of home rule. They proclaim that the plan of the Liberals for the reform of the house of lords means a single chamber and put to the front their new policy of referendum.

Factional Cleavage. An interesting factional cleavage has occurred in Balfour's party over tariff reform. The Spectator, which is the spokesman of the Unionist free traders, has proposed that the tariff reformers pledge themselves to submit the question to a referendum, if the party wins, is not being a leading issue of the campaign. The most ardent tariff reformers, led by The Morning Post, contend that it is the foremost principle of the party. "The Unionist party breaks into fragments," says The Post, "if a Unionist victory does not mean tariff reform."

Mr. Balfour to-night announced his willingness to leave it to a referendum. In the meantime, the leaders are making every appeal to the independent vote, believing that it controls the issue.

Defiance to Home Rulers. The Irish Unionist sent a message of defiance to home rulers to Mr. Balfour's meeting, and deputations from the Nationalist Association, the Non-Episcopal churches in Ireland, and a number of other organizations, in opposition to home rule.

The reading of the message from the Irish Unionist at Albert Hall caused much enthusiasm. "In all solemnity," said the message, "we now declare that home rule will bring Ireland, not peace, but the sword. If an Irish parliament is set up, the Unionists of the south, allied with the men of Ulster, will not acknowledge its authority. They will neither obey its decrees nor pay its taxes."

Mr. Balfour pronounced strongly in favor of the referendum as the best method of settling deadlocks between the two houses.

Police Want Him

A warrant has been sworn out by Superintendent Rogers of the provincial police for the arrest of Edward McIntosh, a braikeman on the G. T. R., and residing at 49 Galley-ave. The charge is that he did steal the $20,000 in unsigned Traders' Bank bills of which $800 was found in a furnace due to the house by a four year old child of the family that moved into the house three weeks ago.

McIntosh is 29 years of age, and with his wife and one young child, lived in the house from the time of the robbery last year till Nov. 7. Then they disappeared, but it is known that McIntosh was in Stratford on Sunday with a Darracq touring car, which it is believed he has since disposed of. The auto was a six cylinder touring car, with green body and seating seven persons.

What first directed suspicion against McIntosh is that he was known to have been investing heavily in real estate immediately before the theft of the bills. It is supposed a number of persons were involved in the robbery. For months the Galley-ave. house has been watched, and the neighbors became aware of it. It is thought that McIntosh got wise. He is thus described: About 5 ft. 6 in. in height, fair complexion, brown hair, weighs 160 lbs., prominent dimple in his chin, straight nose, and generally good looking.

Make Other Man Apologize. This was followed by another burst of opposition, charging with the speaker the upstart Mr. Foster. Mr. Foster shouted in stentorian tones, "Make the other man apologize. That's the only fair thing."

The speaker explained that the apology, when the Liberal member for Temiscouata used the expression "liar" he had not heard it. But, when he saw it in the paper the following day, he called upon Mr. Gauthreau to withdraw, and that hon. gentleman had done so.

Mr. Borden, evincing unusual anger, pointed out that the expression used by the member for Temiscouata had been reported in Hansard, yet the speaker had exacted no apology from him.

Mr. Foster: "Make him apologize." This was followed by cries of "apologize" from the Conservatives.

Sir Wilfrid stammered the melee of voices for a moment. He pointed out that the question whether the member for Temiscouata should apologize or not could not be discussed at that time. "When an incident has passed," he said, "it cannot be recalled. I am not prepared to say whether the member for Temiscouata should have been called upon to apologize or not."

Mr. Foster: "No, he is on that side." Mr. Borden: "I am not prepared either to say whether an apology should be asked in either case, but it has been in one, and not in the other."

Mr. Foster: "The apology will be given before the house does business."

All Men Fallible. Sir Wilfrid Laurier interjected that all men were fallible.

Cries of "Apologize" continued, and Mr. Borden brought forth renewed cheering from his side of the house, when he shot his ultimatum at the premier and the speaker:

"We may as well have this matter threshed out now."

An all night session seemed imminent. The opposition leader pointed out that no one in the house had asked for a ruling in this case.

Mr. Foster: "Let us have equal rights, no prejudice." The incident cannot be recalled in the midst of the debate. We must proceed with the debate.

The speaker reviewed his rulings and explained that he had not called upon Mr. Gauthreau to withdraw, only because he had not heard him using the expression, and he had heard Dr. Schaffner.

After more turmoil the speaker suggested that, if the member for Temiscouata considered it his duty to the house, he hoped he would apologize.

Mr. Gauthreau first said that he could not apologize, and then he said that a moment later said that, in order to restore peace, he would utterly withdraw his expression and apologize to the member for Jacques Cartier. He added, amid laughter, "I won't ask him to go into the corridor to settle that."

Mr. Crozier's motion to adjourn then carried and one of the most remarkable incidents of late years has been closed.

Royal Prerogative of Control. W. B. Northrup (Con., E. Hastings), who resumed the debate on Tuesday, said it was time for Canada to stop and take stock of her national prerogative. He would like to have seen the royal prerogative of control of the navy regarded as dubious, the government's expression of satisfaction with the increase in imports and exports during the past year, and argued that this was no indication of prosperity. By bringing the duty off coal, and rescinding

WHEN CITY WILL CELEBRATE

Niagara Power Display on Night of December 28. If it is not found necessary to alter present plans, the civic celebration to mark the coming of hydro-electric power into Toronto, will take place at the city hall on the night of Wednesday, Dec. 28.

W. R. Sweeney of the electrical department said that the city hall would lend itself to a scheme of illumination better than either the armories or St. Lawrence Arena, and suggested that powerful searchlights in the tower would be desirable.

Controller Spence opposed the idea of having a banquet and flow of oratory. W. K. McNaught and Engineer P. W. Sotiman of the hydro-electric commission were quoted as saying that the power would be here before Dec. 15.

Exquisite Creations. The gowns worn by Miss Flora Zabelle and Miss Mildred Elaine, the principal ladies in the Raymond Hitchcock company, playing "The Man Who Owns Broadway," this week's attraction at the Princess Theatre, are grand. In fact, the entire chorus is the best "dressed" and most effective that has ever been seen in musical comedy in this city.

FORCED APOLOGY IN CONGRESS FOR "LIAR"

Liberal Who so Styled Monk Has to Retract After Conservative Was Rebuked for Saying "Cowards"—Premier Defends Naval Policy in Sarcastic Speech.

OTTAWA, Nov. 23.—(Special.)—All hope of a division on the protracted debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne to-night was dispelled shortly before 11 o'clock, and a scene was enacted which culminated in an encounter between the two parties which rivaled the famous contretemps between Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hon. George E. Foster two years ago.

The incident began when Sir Wilfrid had finished his oration defending the attitude of the administration on the naval question, which has been under fire since the opening of the debate. The prime minister was heard by a crowded house, and as soon as speaker Crozier (Conservative, West Elgin) arose to continue, there was a general exodus on the part of Liberal members. The noise was great, and Mr. Speaker shouted "Order, order. No attention was paid to his remarks, and several Conservatives took up the cry, and in the confusion were heard such expressions as "Come back and take your medicine" and "I won't ask Mr. Speaker heard Dr. F. L. Schaffner (Cons., Souris, Man.) use the word "cowards."

The speaker at once called upon Dr. Schaffner to withdraw, and the speaker's attention was directed to the speaker. Speaker Macell then intimated that an apology was due to the house.

Hon. George E. Foster: "What about 'liar' the other day?"

Cries of "order" and "apologize" filled the house, and Conservatives gave full vent to their lung power and shouted to the speaker to leave G. A. Gauthreau (Lib., Temiscouata) apologize for saying "liar." Mr. Borden (Cons., St. John's) appealed for order, and Mr. Borden arose to say, amid the wildest kind of cheering on the part of his followers, "I regret to suggest that the word 'coward' is no more offensive than the word 'liar.'"

Make Other Man Apologize. This was followed by another burst of opposition, charging with the speaker the upstart Mr. Foster. Mr. Foster shouted in stentorian tones, "Make the other man apologize. That's the only fair thing."

The speaker explained that the apology, when the Liberal member for Temiscouata used the expression "liar" he had not heard it. But, when he saw it in the paper the following day, he called upon Mr. Gauthreau to withdraw, and that hon. gentleman had done so.

An all night session seemed imminent. The opposition leader pointed out that no one in the house had asked for a ruling in this case.

The speaker reviewed his rulings and explained that he had not called upon Mr. Gauthreau to withdraw, only because he had not heard him using the expression, and he had heard Dr. Schaffner.

Rugby Final Echoes

Note and Comment

Ed. Bayly is one of those who can safely say, "I told you so." Prior to Saturday he had not seen a Rugby game since...

At that a little luck would have given Tigers a victory. Mr. Bayly criticizes Varsity's method of passing the ball.

There were fumbles on Varsity's side that showed greenness in the players. Still, there was considerable clever passing among the backs.

Ed. Bayly was one of the many who pointed out that the quotation describing the Monday session at Varsity was from Tom Moore's melodies, and not by Thomas Hood.

The Hamilton Times says that football is a very painful subject up there these days.

Ottawa Free Press: When brave General Montcalm was told he was about to pass in his checks, historians credit him with saying, "Thank God, I shall not live to see the English defeat me."

Murray Kennedy, half-back of the Ottawa fourteen, and a former Varsity player, saw the Rugby final at Hamilton Saturday. After it was over Murray said: "The only thing I am thankful for now is that we didn't win the Interprovincial championship and have the humiliation of seeing Varsity beat us at Lansdowne Park as badly, if not worse, than they did Tigers. That's far and away the best team playing football to-day."

Mine Host Simpson and some others of Hamilton likely regret that some friendly force did not stop the Tigers out of the fray. For instance, had the Grey Cup trustees looked upon the situation as did the distinguished custodians of the Mann Cup, the Tigers and Kid Smith would have been eliminated from the controversy, and our own Argonauts would have welcomed a chance to meet the Varsity boys in the final.

THE 20th CENTURY SLAVE

Sir Walter Scott tells us in his "Ivanhoe" that men used to wear metal collars around their necks, to show to whom they belonged.

They were slaves in body and mind in those days. We are still bound by prejudice and custom. The smoker of "imported" cigars still wears the collar.

IF he smoked Davis' "NOBLEMEN" Cigar, he would save 50 per cent. without sacrificing one iota of quality.

"NOBLEMEN" Size, 2 for a quarter. "PANTELA" Size, 100 straight. "CONCHA FINA" Size, 2 for 50c.

TRACK AT BLUE BONNETS UNDER COVER FOR WINTER

THE BIG EVENT AT HOBBERLIN'S

Many Improvements Made Since the Racing Season Closed—Hundreds of Citizens Crowd the Big Tailor Shops—Reasons for the Big Sale.

MONTREAL, Nov. 23.—Altho the gates of Blue Bonnets have been closed to the ponies for a number of weeks back, there has been a good deal of work going on at the track in the interests of the patrons of the races that will add to the general comforts of this well-appointed race course in the future.

A large amount of money has been spent in the draining the paddock, which is a gravel walk, nicely curved to carry off the water, while the ditches along the sides have been tiled. This was a much needed improvement that will undoubtedly be appreciated by those who make use of the railway route to reach the course.

Since the races the track itself has also received proper care and attention and the running line has gone to sleep for the winter under a covering that will protect it from the frost and permit of that early work in the spring that will be required to give it that fast condition which maintained during the past season. The hosiery in general were loud in their praises of the track during the autumn meeting, when the absence of rain presented the opportunity of testing its speed qualities.

One does not have to look far for the result, and it is gratifying to those who are responsible for the maintenance of the track that they can now point to four exclusively Canadian records made at Blue Bonnets and one in which they share honors with Hamilton. Here they are:

4 Furlongs—B. G. Lewis, 2. 109 1907, Time .58.

5 Furlongs—Ragman, 2. 106, June 12, 1908, Time 1:28.15.

7 Furlongs—Jack Atkin, 6. 111, Sept. 17, 1910, Time 1:21.25.

1 mile—Lorette, 3. 103, Sept. 14, 1910, Time 1:28.15.

1 mile—Starbottle, 3. 107, Sept. 17, 1910, Time 2:01.

1 1/4 miles—Cruche d'Or, 5. 104, Sept. 17, 1910, Time 2:01.

Brown Tony ran four furlongs at Hamilton as a two-year-old with 116 lbs. up on June 11, 1905, in 48, equaling the time of Burt G. Lewis.

"POET WITH THE COWARD'S PEN"

Like Rudyard Kipling, William Watson began life as a radical, but both poets have amassed wealth since then, and they give vent to the bitter cry of the man who has to pay taxes. Mr. Asquith appears to have a "falcon beak and eye" to Mr. Watson, when he thinks of his income tax. Then Mr. Watson knows that his "serpent tongue" has spoiled any chance of his getting the laureateship when the time comes for Alfred Austin's silver chord to be loosened. Alfred Noyes is likely to be the third Alfred laureate if the Liberals remain in power. So Mr. Watson allies himself with the "outs" since he is out with the "ins."

HARBOR GOVERNMENT.

It is to be hoped that a more cordial reception will be given by the board of control to Controller Spence's plan of a harbor commission to take up the development of the harbor and Ashbridge's Bay. Objections to the plan appear to be based on the presence on the commission of a member appointed by the Dominion Government. As the navigation of the harbor is wholly in control of the government, and as it is proposed to ask the government to surrender its control to the commission, and as it is further intended to ask the government to make a liberal grant of money to the commission, similar to that made to Montreal, whose harbor commission is entirely appointed by the government, the objections raised are far from having valid grounds.

Mayor Geary appears to have led the opposition to the harbor commission proposal, but he is understood to be in full sympathy with the plans for development. He owes the citizens a full explanation of his opposition and the promulgation of a better scheme than Mr. Spence's, which will meet all the conditions of the case as Mr. Spence's does.

STILL BACK OF THE BOGS.

Imagine Toronto Orangemen subscribing $50,000 to raise an arm regiment to defend themselves from paying any taxes imposed by the constituted government, and a parallel is created with the situation which is said to exist in Belfast. In politics Belfast lives in the past. It is almost a generation ago since Lord Randolph Churchill raised the cry, "Ulster will fight, and Ulster will be right." Belfast is just able to bring itself to the stage of Lord Randolph's development, which his son has long since outgrown. Belfast is one of the most progressive communities in the world commercially and industrially, but in politics, in philosophy and religion Belfast is still at the back of the bogs.

CHEAP SUBWAY.

Cleveland at the recent election sanctioned a subway franchise submitted for approval under the referendum. Sentiment in favor of the proposition that it would be commercially profitable was largely influenced by a new subway mechanism invented by A. B. Dupont which, according to the editorial correspondence of The Chicago Public, reduces the cost of construction fully two-thirds, besides a further saving in rolling stock and providing greater comfort for passengers. A half-mile full size model of the invention has been on exhibition in Cleveland and many prominent citizens and visitors from other states rode over the experimental length of track. It is explained that the construction of the Dupont car makes it possible to lay the subway only ten feet below the surface of the street, and thus avoid all the expense of tunneling.

RALPH CONNOR DEFENDS

Acrimonious Session of Segregation Commission.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 29.—(Special.)—Hon. Colin Campbell and Rev. C. W. Gordon engaged in acrimonious conflict this morning while the former was on the stand in the enquiry into Dr. Shearer's charges. After stating that in his opinion nothing could be further from the truth than the accusation of craft by police in administration of the segregation district, the attorney-general went on to characterize Dr. Shearer's statements regarding the morality of Winnipeg as the most bitterly cruel that every went before the public.

Rev. C. W. Gordon (Ralph Connor) took up the cudgels in defence of Shearer, and put the attorney-general thru a severe cross examination, in which there was a good deal of mutual recrimination. The attorney-general said he had formerly had a good opinion of Shearer, but in this case his zeal had run away with his judgment.

Ald. Adams shook his fist in the face of Rev. Chas. H. Stewart, and demanded that the latter take back the offensive statement that the name of Adams should be placed with that of "Daly, Evans & Co." over a house of prostitution in the segregated area.

Attorney-General Campbell, in speaking of the difficulty of obtaining conviction under the present criminal law, suggested an amendment permitting conviction on prima facie evidence.

No Smoking On Street Cars

On Thursday, December 1, the new by-law prohibiting spitting, smoking, or the carrying of lighted cigars, cigarettes or pipes on the street cars of the city comes into effect. The Toronto Railway Company desires that the public will co-operate with it in carrying out this reform. It believes that the consensus supports the move, for it has received many expressions of satisfaction from citizens following the announcement that the time had come to end the smoking and spitting nuisance on the back platform. Even the smokers themselves must admit that this practice, accompanied as it is by a crowding about the rear door that made entrance to the car difficult, must have ended some time, and now that the hour has struck, they are not likely to prove irreconcilable.

It is not the Toronto Railway Company, but the growth of the City of Toronto, that puts an end to smoking on street cars. Many things are tolerated in a town or small city that become downright nuisances as that city develops into a metropolis, and one of these things is smoking on the street cars. In most of the larger and more progressive cities of the United States it is forbidden, and the Toronto Railway Company is simply yielding to the tendency of the times in prohibiting this practice. Like riding on the steps and sideboards of cars, entering by the front door, and crowding around the motorman in the vestibule, it was bound to pass away as traffic increased; and six months after it has disappeared right-thinking citizens would no more restore it than they would revive any other anachronism.

Passengers are asked to remember that the by-law specifically prohibits the carrying of lighted pipes, cigars or cigarettes on the street cars, and anyone offending in this respect will be liable to a fine, even though he does not actual smoking. As to the fine, some criticism has been made on account of its severity. The matter of the penalty, however, is prescribed by statute of the Ontario Legislature. A twenty-dollar fine may seem unduly harsh, but it will at least show that the offence is not regarded as a trivial one. It is to be hoped that it will prove a matter of indifference to every citizen of Toronto whether the fine is a dollar or a hundred dollars. Nobody need care what the penalty is for violation of the "No Smoking" regulation if the proper spirit is shown and the Company receives the support it has reason to expect in bringing about a necessary and, indeed, inevitable reform.

JAMES GUNN, Superintendent,
Toronto Railway Company.

FORGED APOLOGY IN COMMENTS FOR KAHN

Continued From Page 1. The bounties on steel and iron, the volume of Canadian imports could largely be increased, but at the sacrifice of Nova Scotia's collieries, and the stifling of the iron and steel industries.

Touching the tariff, Mr. Northrup asserted that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had never recanted from his former advocacy of continental free trade. The country had no knowledge of the basis on which reciprocity negotiations were being conducted, he charged, and the prime minister was prepared to sit down and consider trade relations with the United States on the basis of commercial union or continental free trade.

Clinched Begin's Denial. E. W. Tobin (Richmond and Wolfe) produced three declarations from Mayor Tardif of Kingsley Falls, one of the meetings held at James Smith and J. B. Prefontaine, who were also at the meeting, bearing out the denial of Notary Begin of Richmond, Que., of the accusation of Mr. Monk that he had been a public platform during the Drummond-Arthabaska bye-election that the Canadian navy would be used to protect Great Britain.

Ralph Smith (Nanaimo), dealing with the speech made by Mr. Burrell, said that he, like his leader, was at variance with Premier McBride of British Columbia, spoken of as a probable leader of the Conservative party, because, on the arrival of the Rainbow at Victoria, Mr. McBride had declared that he was in accord with Laurier's naval policy.

Mr. Smith thought the people of Canada would remember that the government had carried out the naval policy on lines approved by the whole house, whereas the opposition had changed its policy every year and would likely do so again.

Borden's Variations. Sir Wilfrid Laurier opened with a reference to the Monk amendment, which, he said, contained nothing new, but Mr. Monk had been consistent. Borden's amendment was the only chapter in the history of his variations on the naval question.

In quoting Mr. Foster's resolution of March 29, 1899, Sir Wilfrid said "Canada should no longer delay." Mr. Borden, he said, had remained true to the terms of that resolution during the following summer, when he made speeches in England, and also on his return to Canada in the autumn.

Speaking in Halifax in October, 1899, Mr. Borden had declared in favor of a Canadian naval policy, and had said "To-day should be Nova Scotia's opportunity." There was no suggestion in that speech of a reference to the Monk amendment, he said.

Mr. Wilfrid referred to Mr. Borden's first speech during the debate, in which the leader of the opposition said that the government had accepted the advice he tendered last session. Then, remarked the prime minister, arose my hon. friend from Jacques Cartier (Montreal), the apostle of stagnation and negation, with an amendment. He had been told that Mr. Monk's amendment caused a feeling of embarrassment among the opposition.

Mr. Wilfrid said that the amendment was felt that, unless another amendment was moved, a number of the opposition members might vote with Mr. Monk, as they did last session.

Alliance With Nationalists. This did not fall into line with the argument by Mr. Borden that there was no alliance between his majority's opposition and the Nationalists. Between the two amendments there was only enough difference to make a party cleavage, and to enable him to say that there was no alliance.

"No one," said Sir Wilfrid, "pretends that there is a signed treaty of alliance. There was no necessity for such a link would be quite sufficient for that." The policy would be for one party to attack the government in Quebec, and for the other to attack it in the English-speaking provinces. In Quebec the war would be that the navy bill was an imperial measure, in the other provinces that it was a separate measure.

The object, of course, would be to destroy the government, and were they to succeed, they would be both at the death, falling upon each other's necks, rising and embracing in an ecstasy of delight that at last the government had been defeated. The defeat, however, would be followed by a jolly row, when the time came to discuss a policy and to divide the spoils.

Sir Wilfrid sketched a graphic picture of a naval battle, describing children as torn from their parents, and lying dead and mangled on the deck. He would want to refer the matter to the people? No. He would say "Down with it, we will fight to the end." Mr. Borden thought that the policy would lead to separation he would say the same.

A Subterfuge. Instancing the case of the National Transcontinental Railway, Sir Wilfrid said that the opposition did not oppose that bill because it was not submitted to the people. The present situation was entirely a subterfuge to escape responsibility.

Mr. Monk had accused the government of having passed a "secret order in council" on Feb. 10, 1899, approving a plan which was, in effect, an agreement that Canada should take part in the naval policy of Great Britain. Amidst Liberal cheers, Sir Wilfrid said that this order in council was but a confirmation of a resolution, passed at the previous imperial conference, providing for the establishment of a general staff. This order in council had been asked for in the house on Feb. 10, 1899, and had been tabled on March 3 following.

There have been accusations all over Quebec," said Sir Wilfrid, "that there was something from the house, that had been some mysterious intention. It was with such fabrications that my hon. friend (Mr. Monk) poisoned the minds of the people of Quebec. Misrepresentation there had been.

HER KIDNEYS WERE KILLING HER

Two years ago, the doctor made forty-four calls on me and then said he had done all he could for me. I was suffering with intense kidney trouble and severe inflammation had set in. Two other doctors were consulted and agreed that nothing could be done to help me.

On the recommendation of a neighbor, I took "Fruit-a-tives" and they cured me. To-day, I take "Fruit-a-tives" as my only medicine. I am in excellent health and my kidneys are excellent health and cured me after I had been at death's door for months.

I am glad to be able to give you this testimonial. It may benefit some other woman suffering as I suffered, as I believe that I would not be alive to-day had I not used "Fruit-a-tives."

but it was not on my part," continued the prime minister. Like Dan O'Connell. Sir Wilfrid rated his endeavor thru the twenty-two years of his leadership that race and creed considerations would not be involved. He compared himself to Daniel O'Connell, the first emancipator of Ireland, who in the end was attacked by a band of young enthusiasts, who had advocated separation of Ireland and England.

That agitation did not go far and many lives in Quebec would not live long. "We shall," said Sir Wilfrid in conclusion, "go to the end, because we are in the right, and the right will prevail."

PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS. The following telegram has been received by the manager of Massey Hall from Frederic Shipman, exclusive manager for Melba and Nordica: "I heard Nordica's New York recital last week. Capacity house, tremendous enthusiasm. Congratulate Toronto on opportunity of hearing such great artists Thursday evening." This is Nordica's program for to-morrow night: So tu m'ami (Pergolesi); Caro mio ben (Gloriani); Chi vuol la Zingarella (Rossini); Aria: Il por tu me donavi (Carmen (Bizet)); On Wings of Music (Mendelssohn); Who is Sylvia? (Hark! Hark! The Lark (Schubert); Polonaise (Chopin); Au printemps (Gounod); Vieille chanson (Bizet); Romance (Debussy); Aria: "Che gelida manina" La Boheme (Puccini); Long Ago a Maid Sing (Laird (McDonough); Serenata (Sinigaglia); Vieni amor mio (Lecocavallo). The plan is now open.

Maude Adams, who is to be seen here next week, is to present James Matthew Barrie's comedy of Scotch life, "What a Wonderful Woman Knows." The play is described as a work of exquisite brightness and charm.

Fresh from his New York success, which was only a natural complement of the triumph of his first season, the artist which he enjoyed in London, "The Little Domino," Moncton Joffe's delightful comedy of sentiment, will come to the Royal Alexandra Theatre Monday evening, continuing for the week. Seats $2 on sale to-morrow.

No play of recent times has achieved the fame of "The Thief," that stirring drama of love and jealousy, of a wife's jealousy and a husband's condemnation, which comes to the Grand next week.

The Star Show Girls will be the offering at the Star next week. The program is made up of two lively travesties, and a star-studded variety of songs. "To-morrow night is chorus girls' night and Friday amateurs' night."

Rose Sybell and her "London Belles" are attracting large crowds to the Gayety Theatre. Her latest production, "What a Wonderful Woman Knows," will make its annual appearance next Monday.

Eczema is Not Fatal. But its Torture Increases as it Spreads Over the Body Until it Makes Life a Burden—It is Cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

So many have eczema of one form or another and do not know it. The constant itching annoys them, but they scarcely realize how the disease is gradually spreading and becoming more aggravated.

Particularly during cold weather, when exposed to sudden changes and dampness, this ailment becomes more severe, and during the night, when the body is warm, suffering is intense and sleep almost impossible.

This is a cure in the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment. This healing, soothing preparation brings almost instant relief from the distressing itching.

In the course of a few days the healing process sets in, and it is only a question of time and persistent application of the ointment until cure is effected.

Mr. Fred W. Clark, Petworth, Adair County, Ont., writes: "My mother had eczema in both legs for about twenty years. She doctored for a long time, and tried everything for it, but got no relief until a friend advised her to use Dr. Chase's Ointment, which she got.

"She found that Dr. Chase's Ointment gave her great relief, so she got some more and continued in its treatment faithfully, until now she is entirely cured of eczema. I don't think anyone could have this disease worse than she did.

REFERENDUM IS FAVORED BY BALFOUR

Continued From Page 1. The two houses without requiring the reform of the house of lords, and it would be a great change. This election would be a great change. This election would be a great change. This election would be a great change.

Tariff Reform. "Some people seem to think," he continued, "that asking whether I would submit tariff reform to a referendum would put me in a hole. I frankly say that tariff reform would be a great change. This election would be a great change. This election would be a great change. This election would be a great change.

Great cheering followed this statement. Mr. Balfour denied that the veto conference had been broken up by the holding attitude of the lords. He asserted that the government was threatening a revolution, based on the wants of one particular section, who desired that they had not yielded an inch from the position of lords.

Irish Wire Pullers. He ended by declaring that the cabinet was governed by its noisiest members, who were governed by John Redmond, who was governed by Patrick Ford, who was governed by Patrick Ford, who was governed by Patrick Ford.

J. H. Seavern, who was member of parliament for the British division of Lambeth in 1894, and who was at one time a resident of Boston, has become the Liberal candidate in the same constituency against Davidson Dalziel, Unionist, once a member of New York.

Lord Joicey, who was created a peer by the Liberals, has announced his defection from that party because of its failure to provide for the defence of the country, and for its alliance with the Socialists. It is stated that several other Liberal peers are tending in the same direction.

Acquith's Meeting. READING, England, Nov. 29.—Mr. Acquith's meeting to-night was disturbed frequently by suffragist sympathizers, the majority of whom were thrown out.

After discussing the various questions at issue, the prime minister said: "We are told that dissolution was forced on the government by John Redmond. Take it from me, Mr. Redmond had no more to do with the dissolution of parliament than the man in the moon."

Mr. Acquith taunted the lords with becoming so alive to the urgent necessity of reconstruction, that they had produced the specification of an entirely new chamber in one week, after an unbroken slumber of many years.

If the Tories came into power tariff reform for the time being could not say there was a mandate in this election would be adopted without a referendum.

WENT FOR DR. PATRICK FOR ALLEGED INSULT. Winnipeg's Police Magistrate Runs Foul of Presbyterian Professor at Vice Enquiry.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 29.—(Special.)—Another stormy session characterized the sitting of the thesaur investigation committee. Hon. T. M. Daly, after giving his main evidence, took exception to the questioning of Principal Patrick, declaring, "I do more for moral than men of your stamp, and now, Mr. Patrick, I have restrained myself all the way thru and I don't intend to answer any more questions from this platform Sunday."

The outbreak brought a burst of applause from the gallery. The series of questions of Dr. Patrick's which evidently nettled the magistrate culminated in the question, "What is the ultimate authority in the city for the preservation of morals?"

"I don't think so," was the reply, and then Daly made the above statement. He stated that the name "Evans Daly and Co." should be placed over the door of every house on Albany street, and Dr. Patrick later averred his esteem for Daly's private character, saying he only referred to his public connection with the state of affairs.

Hon. Mr. Daly stated that, after closing up the Thomas-street resort he found, as magistrate, the state of morals in the city intolerable. He was informed of 23 houses on Albany street, and a number of houses of assignation, one of which he considered worse than thirty houses of assignation. Numerous cases of seduction were brought to his notice, a large number being mere children.

The case of the Thomas-street resort he found, as magistrate, the state of morals in the city intolerable. He was informed of 23 houses on Albany street, and a number of houses of assignation, one of which he considered worse than thirty houses of assignation.

Referring to the state of affairs after breaking up of former Thomas-street resorts, he stated that none of the people and deputations who complained of disorderly houses in the neighborhood of their homes could ever be induced to appear as witnesses against Thomas-street keepers, rendering conviction very difficult. Mr. Daly did not consider a segregated area conducive to white slavery.

A DANGEROUS CRIMINAL. Federens Murdered Priests and Peasants as Well as Police.

OTTAWA, Nov. 29.—Whether or not the man whom the Russian Government is trying to extradite at Winnipeg is the real Sava Fedorokho, the latter is shown by the records sent out by the Russian state officials to be one of the most dangerous class of criminals.

The charge on which they are endeavoring to extradite him is the murder of two policemen, but behind this charge lies a record extending over some years. Fedorokho, the real one wanted, is shown to have been the leader of one of the worst bands that ever infested a certain district in Russia. Besides the two policemen, events have transpired which have brought home to the band the murder of a priest and several peasants, and a series of highway robberies.

LET YOUR STOMACH HAVE ITS OWN WAY.

Do Not Try to Drive and Force it to Work When it is Not Able or You Will Suffer All the More.

You cannot treat your stomach as some men treat a balky horse; force, drive or even starve it into doing work at which it rebels. The stomach is a patient and faithful servant and will stand much abuse and ill-treatment before it "balks," but when it does you had better go slow and it will not attempt to make it work. Some people have the mistaken idea that they can make their stomachs work by starving themselves. They might cure the stomach that way, but it would take so long that they would not get through for a stomach when they got through. The sensible way out of the difficulty is to let the stomach rest if it wants to and employ a safe medicine to its work. Sturt's Dyppepsia Tablets do this work. The work of your stomach for you and digest your food just as your stomach would do when it was well. You can prove this by putting your food on a glass jar with one of the tablets and sufficient water, and you will see the food digested in just the same time as the digestive fluids of the stomach would do it. That will satisfy your mind. Now, to satisfy both your mind and body, take one of Sturt's Dyppepsia Tablets after eating—eat all and what you want—and you will feel in your mind that your food is being digested because you will feel no disturbance or discomfort in your stomach; in fact, you will forget all about having a stomach, just as you did when you were a healthy boy or girl.

Sturt's Dyppepsia Tablets act in a natural way because they contain only the natural elements of the gastric juices and other digestive fluids of the stomach. It makes no difference what condition the stomach is in, they go right ahead of their own work. They do their work. They know their business and surrounding conditions do not influence them in the least. They thus relieve the weak stomach of all its burdens and give it its much-needed rest and permit it to become strong and healthy.

Sturt's Dyppepsia Tablets are for sale by all druggists at 50 cents a box. They are so well known and their popularity is so great that a druggist would not soon think of being out of alcohol of quinine or of them. In fact, physicians are prescribing them all over the land, and if your own doctor is real honest with you, he will tell you frankly that there is nothing on earth so good for dyspepsia as Sturt's Dyppepsia Tablets.

LOSE $1,000,000 YEARLY Through Building By-Laws

Builders Will Press For Revision—Four Farmers Charged With Selling Deteriorated Milk.

TO-DAY AT THE CITY HALL.

11 a.m.—Board of control. 3 p.m.—Legislation and reception committee. 4:30 p.m.—Special meeting of city council.

Notification that, at the beginning of the new year, the building interests of the city will insist on a thorough revision of the city's building by-laws was given in a letter from C. R. Young at the meeting of the fire and light committee yesterday. Mr. Young, speaking for a committee of 40 builders, said the amendments proposed by the city do not cover the main defects complained of. It is declared that the by-law is prejudicial in that it constitutes an obstacle to permanent and high-class fireproof construction, and that at least $1,000,000 spent on building in a year at least $1,000,000 is wasted because of unreasoned requirements.

Chairman Aid. Dunn suggested to the chief that he include in next year's estimates provision for an auto hose wagon for Howland-avenue station. The chief replied that he had already determined to do so.

In view of the requests made from residents on different streets for iron pillars and cluster lights for street illumination, Controller Church suggested that if residents get up a petition showing willingness to be assessed for the extra cost that they be given pillars instead of cement poles, the electrical department will report.

Assessment Commissioner Forman wants a few days to prepare a fresh estimate of the cost of land damages or Eloor-street viaduct. Only a slight change from last year's $150,000 estimate is expected.

May Not Be a Loss.

Some fear is being expressed that, as the new electrical pumps for the main and high level pumping stations are not, under the contract with an English company, to be delivered here before Dec. 31 of this year, the city may lose money, not being able to use at the outset the supply of hydro-electric power for which it has agreed to pay. The city's electrical department estimates that about 4000 horsepower will be required for the station and at $18.10 per h.p. per year, this would mean that, with power here this month, the delay would cost the city about $6000. However, it is thought that during January the hydro-electric power may only be able to deliver enough power for street and public illumination. Waterworks Engineer Fellows says that the pump-houses permitted are unfinished and that the building is completed. To this the vice-commander, A. N. Mowat, Pincher Creek, Saskatchewan, says that the time has been lost since the P. G. McEwen is already vigorously canvassing in the sixth ward and is distributing campaign buttons.

Civic Tube Planned.

With the object of paving the way for an underground entrance of radial lines on such terms as the city cared to dictate, Controller Spence, at yesterday's meeting of the board of control, moved to instruct the city engineer and city solicitor to prepare all plans, specifications, estimates and conditions necessary to enable the city to advertise tenders from parties willing to undertake the construction and operation of an underground railway along Queen-street, from the city hall to the city limits, with any underground, elevated or surface extension which they consider would be immediately practicable.

It would provide an entrance for radial railways.

W. J. Gage wrote requesting that the proposed by-law to grant $200,000 in aid of the consumptive sanitarium be not concurred on Jan. 1, and the board concurred.

A Petition Based Somewhat on Single Tax Principles is being circulated among business men. It calls for a reduction in assessments on buildings, business and income, and corresponding increase in land assessments.

The city engineer suggests that, in cases where city workmen absent themselves from work on the plea of illness, the medical health officer should examine their condition.

The mayor thinks the city should do

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—A black picture of prospects for the railroads unless they are allowed to raise their rates was painted before the Inter-State Commerce Commission today by C. C. McKay, chairman of the Trunk Line Association of New York, an organization of eastern carriers. He declared that the wages of the railroad employes and the whole railroad industry had been threatened by the involuntary reduction of rates.

All Business Suspended for Entire Day.

The late Michael Cudahy, who died last Sunday from pneumonia, was the founder and president of the Cudahy Packing Company, manufacturers of "Old Dutch" Cured Ham. The funeral will take place on Wednesday, Nov. 30, on which date the factory at West Toronto will be closed all day, as will be the Cudahy Packing Company's factories and plants.

Word has been received at the offices of the Canadian Northern Railway that the steamship Royal Edward made a new record across the Atlantic between Great Britain and Halifax. She left Bristol on the 23rd at 11 p.m. and arrived at Halifax yesterday morning at 11 o'clock.

This is five hours faster than any previous record made by any boat crossing the Atlantic, and was made despite the very stormy weather on the Atlantic the past few days.

A Damaged Suit.

M. Singer yesterday sued the Toronto Railway Company for $30, the price of a new suit. He claimed a defect on a car had torn his coat sleeve and ruined the suit. "Upon my word," exclaimed Judge Morson, inspecting the damage, "are you really serious about this, having her here wearing a hair injured? Ten cents would repair it all. Take a pair of scissors and snip off the protruding hairs. A tailor wouldn't charge more than 50 cents at the outside. He gave judgment for $1.

COMMERCIAL TRAVELERS.

Members of the Commercial Travelers' Association of Canada:

Your votes are respectfully solicited for your humble servant as treasurer of your association for the year 1911.

Some six years ago you placed me in this honored position; during that year a great amount of time and labor was expended, but has been asked to make by-laws, which were adopted at the next annual meeting, by which it is expected a maximum mortuary benefit of one thousand dollars is made permanent.

Our success the past years in increased membership, enhanced interest, reports and improved rental from offices in our building has exceeded the expectations of many of us, and by economical management of our expenditure we now find that instead of the being a heavy drain on our pocket, it is now in a position to keep it down to about one dollar for each member, although the ground occupied is enlarging every year.

I have given your business the past year as treasurer and chairman of the property committee, my very best attention, and am assured that I possess the confidence and support of the members of the members of the present board of directors, and might be considered to rest my chance of success on this fact, but have been asked to make this appeal, that the response may be such as will encourage your officers to continue giving your business such attention as it is very properly demands.

Yours respectfully, E. Fielding.

This is the last day for smoking on the street cars.

Smoking is cut out on the street cars to-morrow and after.

No smoking on the street cars after to-day.

The Porcupine Syndicate, Limited, is formed for the purpose of exploring, examining, sampling and developing properties in the newly-discovered gold-bearing areas, known as the Porcupine District of Northern Ontario, and to secure for the purposes of the Syndicate such properties as may, on the approval of the most competent engineers, seem worthy of development.

The Syndicate then advances the funds:

1. To judiciously develop these properties for the purpose, when the values are reasonably established, of organizing companies to mine them, retaining a proper amount of shares in the newly-organized company, and securing a cash compensation to reimburse expenditures made, and providing a generous profit;
2. To buy and sell properties;
3. To develop and dispose of claims;
4. To carry on mining operations, and to conduct its business with the dominant purpose of taking advantage of the opportunities presented in the development and growth of the Porcupine District.

Irrefutable evidence is rapidly piling up as to the wonderful deposits of gold in the Porcupine District, and the tale of millions made by the famous gold mines of the world is about to be rewritten.

Advantages of the Syndicate

It is an established fact that syndicates of this nature seldom fail to prove of immense profit to their members, while a great many ordinary mining companies, being limited in their scope of operations to one particular property, are often doomed to failure—perhaps as the result of this feature alone.

A Conservative and Safe Mining Investment

This Syndicate will appeal at once to the thinking investor as being free from the undesirable features of many mining companies. While having a broad charter, enabling it to secure and develop mining claims, and to conduct the business of this industry in general, it is organized without the common encumbrances of promotion stock or pooled shares. Each and every share is to be sold at par. None have been, nor will be, given for properties, services, etc., and the treasury receives cash for every share disposed of, the money being deposited in the Syndicate's bank for its chartered purposes.

These methods establish the Syndicate on a sound and business-like basis, mark the way to success in any line of industry, and commend the Syndicate to those desiring to invest in mining securities, as holding out the smallest possibilities for loss, together with strongest probabilities for gain.

Early Returns to Shareholders

It is expected that as soon as any properties under development will justify the organization of subsidiary companies, this will be done, and the shareholders of the Syndicate will receive a disbursement in the shape of a cash dividend from the profits, or a proportion of shares in the new companies, perhaps both.

Extensive plans are laid for the immediate commencement of active operations, and a number of claims having promising locations are being considered. In a short time properties should be under development, and the full winter season taken advantage of to transport supplies necessary to carry on work until better facilities, which are now under way, are provided for getting freight into the Porcupine region.

The Syndicate is securing the services of the best mining engineers and experts that can be obtained, and no properties will be taken up except under the best advice available. Only persons with unlimited capital have been able to do this in the past, and it will be readily recognized that the smaller investor is given the means by this Syndicate of being placed in the same position as the experienced and wealthy mine operator.

As soon as a generous distribution of the shares has been made, application for listing of the stock on the various mining markets will be made. With the splendid possibilities of the Syndicate, and its operations in full swing the stock should then sell at a good premium.

Owing to the fact that the entire capital will not be required immediately, only a portion, 20,000 shares, are now offered at par, $10.00, and for the same reason the shares may be paid for 50 per cent. with application and balance in payments of 10 per cent. per month. This offer of arrangement for monthly payments is, however, subject to withdrawal without notice, as it is expected, owing to the high character of the investment, and the great interest already shown by those already having knowledge of the Syndicate and its purposes, that the above offering will be oversubscribed.

Cobalt--Mining Stocks Generally Hold Their Own--Public Trading Slow

Cobalts Continue Hidebound By Dulness of Public Demand

Mining Market Shows a Tendency To Brighten Up, But Buying is Not Sufficient To Warrant Higher Prices.

World Office, Tuesday Evening, Nov. 23.

Mining issues moved along in the even tenor of their way on the local markets to-day. Trading was fairly well maintained, but there were no indications of any improved demand for securities, and prices were very little influenced as a result of the day's transactions.

Whatever changes in value occurred were in most instances too insignificant to call for more than passing comment. Several of the cheaper Cobalts brightened up a little, and prices in these cases were fractionally firmer than those ruling during Monday's session, but there was not enough alteration in quotations to show any material change in the market's position.

Wellaufer gained several points from the early sales, but did not reach his recent level; Temiskaming, Right of Way, Beaver and Bailey were all firm spots, while McKinley and Peterson Lake showed a disposition to ease. Values in most instances were about unchanged from the previous day at the closing call. Liquidation was not a factor of such importance in affecting sentiment, good buying of most of the active stocks being in evidence. The movement still lacked initiative, however, and the demand was not broad enough to warrant higher prices.

It is believed that a comparatively large short interest has been built up on the recent decline, and should an attempt be made to cover, the market would quickly make a decided turn. Short sales are still in evidence on any signs of firmness, however, and until those who are willing to assume commitments on this side of the market become apprehensive of their position, the situation is not likely to clear up to any appreciable extent.

BLOCKADE RAISED

And Traffic Into Porcupine Camp is Now in Full Swing.

COBALT, Nov. 23.—The blockade in the Porcupine camp has been raised. The first teams went thru the completed sleigh road on Saturday and by now the traffic is in full swing. From this time on there will be no let-up or hindrance to the pouring in of the stores that the camp has been starved for during the past summer.

There has always been enough to eat and drink in the camp and stores of hardware must be entirely imaginary or the result of the carelessness of prospectors going on too long trips on foot short supplies.

Men coming out of Porcupine state that the road is quite passable and good, with the exception that it has as yet little or no bottom as there has not been enough frost. On Saturday fourteen passenger teams, loaded with men and 40 freight teams, weighed down with provisions, were met or passed on the 25 miles of the Porcupine trail. This is but an earnest of what the trade along the route will be during the remainder of the winter.

Little Nip, Rochester, Bailey

IN MY OPINION LITTLE NIP IS A GREAT BUY AT PRESENT PRICES.

Rochester directors sent out the report and financial statement of the company for the past year. One of these days you will wish you had bought at these prices to average up or otherwise.

Bailey has a smelter and has leased Cobalt Central. Concentrator samples of rich ore are on exhibition here. It is a buy.

Getting Ready to Return

Cobalt stocks have pretty well exhausted themselves on the down grade. Several are scraping around bottom and would move up quickly but for the pressure still being exerted by the bears. The buying will ultimately tell, and the shorts will pay for the advances as they did before.

It is a good time to pick up Peterson Lake, Beaver, Bailey and Gould. Write us if you want information.

I'm going to steer my folks toward this store for men. I never saw better selections or better values."
