

A Judge of Good Clothes.

There is a measure of pride in satisfying a man who is a good judge of clothes, even though he be very critical.

The critical man will find that our clothing conforms as closely to the 'custom standard' as any ready-to-wear clothing made.

By the 'custom standard' we mean the perfection of tailoring seen in the masterpieces of talented tailors, who are the recognized experts, not the 'merchant tailoring' of the 'suits-while-you-wait' concerns.

MONKEYS WHISKEY EXPERTS

Effects of Malt and Patent Still on the Monkey.

There was a distinctly humorous side to the evidence yesterday in the great whisky case at the Clerkwell, London, sessions, where two North London licensees are appealing against police court convictions for 'unlawfully selling Scotch and Irish whiskey, which was not of the nature, substance and quality demanded.'

Mr. Hunter, a fellow of the Institute of Chemists and a public analyst, caused much laughter by his recital of the experiences of two monkeys.

'I experimented on them with alcohol,' he said, 'in order to ascertain the physiological effects of pot and patent still whiskey.'

'One was filled with malt, and he got peacefully and beautifully tight, and behaved just like a perfect gentleman.'

HENRIE DEAD USEFUL CAREER ENDED

Was One of Canada's Most Noted Railway and Turfmen—Succumbs After Long Illness.

Hamilton, June 27.—(Special.)—William Hendrie, sr., died this afternoon about 2.30. He had been ill for several months, and many times during that period it was thought that the end was near, and that he could not possibly live more than a few hours.

Mr. Hendrie was born in Glasgow, Scotland, and was educated there, studying law for two years. In 1848 he began his career as a railway man. He was first connected with the Glasgow Southwestern Railway, and afterwards with the Northeastern Railway at Newcastle-on-Tyne. In 1855 he came to Canada, and was identified with the Great Western Railway.

During his early career in Canada, Mr. Hendrie was a prominent contractor. Among the contracts he carried out were the building of the Hamilton waterworks system; the extensions of the Great Western Railway, west of London; the Wellington, Grey and Bruce Railway; the Harrington-Brantford-Canfield-Wendland and Allanburg-Clifton branches. With his sons and others he also built the Northern and Pacific Junction, and station grounds of the Great Western Railway, west of London; the Wellington, Grey and Bruce Railway; the Harrington-Brantford-Canfield-Wendland and Allanburg-Clifton branches.

It was in 1855 that he established the big cartage business carried on by Hendrie & Company. When the Toronto branch was opened in 1856 it had only three teams. Since 1862 the company has had the contract of carting the freight of the G. T. R. at western points.

Mr. Hendrie was also interested with his brother George, in the Detroit Cartage Agency. Among the businesses with which Mr. Hendrie was connected are the following: President of the Toronto, Hamilton & Bruce Railway; director of the Hamilton & Northwestern Railway; director of the Ontario and Quebec Railway; president of the Ontario Cartage Company, and the Ontario Qu'Appelle Land Company, director of the Canada Life, the Toronto Ferry Company, the Hamilton Gaslight Company, and the Detroit Street Railway.

Mr. Hendrie was one of the most prominent Canadian turfmen, a short time previous to his death being elected to the position of president of the English Jockey Club. He was one of the fathers of the Ontario Jockey Club and when a young man he organized a crack ride in the Hamilton Jockey Club.

His Survivors. Mr. Hendrie was twice married. His first wife was Margaret Walker, who died on July 14, 1873. In September, 1874, he married Miss Mary Murray, who with the following family, survives him: Lieut.-Col. the Hon. John S. Hendrie, member of the Ontario cabinet; Major William Hendrie, Forty-Eighth Highlanders, Toronto; George M. Hendrie, Detroit; Mrs. J. D. Hay, Toronto; Mrs. A. D. Bradshaw, New York; Mrs. A. H. Eckford, High River, Alberta; Mrs. Henry Leydard, Detroit; Miss Hendrie and Miss Phyllis Hendrie. The funeral will take place Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

CATARACT MAKES OFFER FOR RIGHTS AFTER 1928

Asks Council to Join in Seeking Legislation to Override Railway Act.

Hamilton, June 27.—(Special.)—The finance committee and board of works had an important meeting this evening on the Cataract Power Company's terminal station project. The company, which threw up the project before the council, with the council refused to allow the whole radial railway bylaw to fix the terms upon which it should be operated in the city after the expiration of the franchise period in 1928, made a new proposition. It said that it did not want the radial bylaw interfered with, but would be satisfied if the city would give it permanent running rights over the street railway tracks from the corner of Sanford-avenue and Wilson-street along Sanford-avenue, and up King-street, to the terminal station at the corner of Catharine-street.

It admitted that under the new Railway Act the city had not power to grant its privileges for a period exceeding twenty-five years, but it asked that the council should join it in seeking special legislation overriding that provision in the act. The company offered to pay one mill a cent for every passenger carried for the running rights over the street railway after 1928, the minimum yearly payment to be fixed at $2000. The aldermen did not feel like committing themselves on the question, and will have another meeting before the council meets on Wednesday. The city solicitor will draw up a bylaw.

Col. Gibson addressed the special committee on the subject of the matters in dispute between the city and the company. He explained that the newspapers were down on the company, and he intimated that they would not find things all that rosy. He said that the company was in a bad way, because a commission in Massachusetts, after which the Ontario board was modeled, had decided that a street railway in the state violated its agreement and raised the fare from five to six cents was justified because it was not making money. He declared that the Ontario Railway was not making any money. He promised that if given some concession the company would put its tracks and rolling stock into good shape. This committee will meet again, probably next Thursday, and decide finally whether the company is to be given any concession or not. He promised to give the city a better lighting rate.

Get Full Amount. The inspectors have finished their work on the ruins of Central Presbyterian Church, and have awarded the congregation the full amount of the insurance carried on the church. He claimed that the church could be restored on the present site for that amount, some of the congregation favor other sites among the number mentioned being the corner of James and Maria-streets, and the corner of Hannah and Caroline-streets.

George B. Bristol bought nearly a block of land between Main and King-streets, east of the G.T.R. station. It is rumored that he has bought the business block, the number by Lucas, Steele & Bristol, and that he will erect a big warehouse on the property he has acquired.

Will Go on Ballot. While the city hall authorities are not sure that W. T. Armour was regularly nominated as a candidate for the board of education in Ward 4, they will not take the responsibility of putting him out of the running. The ground of objection to the nomination is the fact that the second does not live in the ward. The city authorities say they cannot tell from the Public School Act whether the nomination was regular or not, whether the voters' consent was limited to the ratepayers in the ward.

George Wilson Dead. George Wilson, 22 Wood-street, a well-known cigar maker, died this evening. The Toronto Daily and Sunday World delivered to any address in Hamilton before 7 a.m. daily, 25c a month; Sunday, 5c per copy. Hamilton office, Royal Hotel Building, Phone 865. B.C. WILL INVESTIGATE CONDITION OF ABATTOIRS Public Attention Drawn to Them by Warning Letter to Greenwood People.

Vancouver, B.C., June 27.—(Special.)—This province has resolved to investigate conditions in abattoirs. A resolution was presented to the legislature at the last session by Mr. Hawthornthwaite, member for Nanaimo, and carried with this end in view. The resolution read:

Whereas the condition of certain private slaughter houses in this province is such as to endanger the health of the community;

Therefore, be it resolved, that in the opinion of this house the government should take into immediate consideration some method that will remedy this condition of affairs.

Mr. Hawthornthwaite speaking in support of the resolution said that so much of the time lately had been taken up in discussions on Kaitum Island and other contentious matters, that things of more vital importance to the welfare of the people had been lost sight of.

This matter was of the greatest importance to the health of the people, and it was well known that the condition of slaughter houses in this province was not what it should be. It would at the same time be incorrect to say that all private slaughter houses were not properly conducted. In fact he knew that most of them were handled very carefully, and with a view to protecting public health. He knew it was so in his own town, where the inspector's report on the premises of Messrs. Hemans & Wamsley, showed them to be one of the very best institutions of the kind in the province.

Nevertheless it had been proved by experience, and had been proved by reports that private slaughter houses on the whole were not conducive to the public health. To prove that, he would only refer them to the very best of the United States for 1906.

This report distinctly proved that private slaughter houses to a great extent were unwholesome, and what was said with regard to that country to a certain extent prevailed here. The report stated after reviewing all the conditions that a well regulated system of slaughter houses was as necessary to health as sanitation in the public schools, or any other method of preventing the spread of contagious or infectious diseases. The sale of impure or diseased meat gave rise to the spread of tuberculosis, diphtheria and other bacterial diseases, and should be guarded against most stringently.

Points the Moral.
 To show that in British Columbia we were by no means free from dangers of this kind, he read a letter from E. W. Dynes, of Greenwood, a well-known and respectable man who was undoubtedly incited by honest and conscientious motives in writing this letter, and drawing public attention to it in this way.

Dynes' letter is addressed to residents of Greenwood and vicinity, and states:

"Many of you, no doubt, remember the plague of hog-cholera that prevailed in the vicinity of Greenwood during the summer of 1903, and that Dr. Armstrong, Dominion government veterinary surgeon, quarantined hogs on two ranches, and that these hogs were afterwards killed and burnt by his order. The plague, however, does not appear to have been confined to the ranches, but hogs at P. Burns & Co.'s slaughter house were also diseased. I was at this time in their employ and therefore had an opportunity of knowing something of the conditions that prevailed.

From about the tenth of April until early in August, three car loads of hogs, all more or less diseased, were killed and sold. Hog carcasses were carefully looked over daily, and if any hogs showed symptoms of disease at first opportunity they were killed and dressed for the market. In pursuing this course, the loss sustained by the company was very small. At times, however (so quickly would they sicken and die), two or three would be found dead in the evening, altho, that same morning, all that had appeared sickly or diseased had been killed. At this time, the local officials were greatly concerned lest the public should in some way learn of the conditions prevailing.

IRON MAKES NEW BLOOD

There is more or less mystery and doubt as to the specific action of many drugs, but it is positively and definitely known that iron forms new red corpuscles in the blood, or, in other words, makes the blood rich and nourishing.

But iron alone cannot be taken into a delicate stomach. The great secret of the success of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is in the way iron is combined with certain other restoratives so as to make a preparation that can be used with the greatest benefit by even the most weak and delicate person.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is also slightly laxative as well as tonic in influence, and while building up the system ensures the regular and healthful action of the digestive, filtering and excretory systems.

If you would enrich the blood, strengthen the nerves and replace weakness and disease with health and vigor use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food: 50 cents a box, 3 boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

valling, and they took every precaution to provide against such a contingency.

"As you can easily understand, dressed pork soon began to accumulate because the demands of the boundary retail market were not sufficient to make use of the supply of pork that was being killed almost daily. As a solution to the difficulty, the work of curing was started, and in this way hams, shoulders and sides, were disposed of while the remaining portions were sold by retail.

Afraid to Tell.
 "As I stated in the first part of my letter, Dr. Armstrong, Dominion government V. S. quarantined hogs on two ranches in the vicinity of Greenwood, which were afterwards destroyed by order. But, the curious fact is, how he learned of the disease being prevalent on these two ranches without knowing that the hogs at P. Burns & Co.'s slaughter house were also diseased. However, the fact that in one case the hogs were the property of men in ordinary circumstances, and in the other of a man of means, worth millions at their back, might probably explain the mystery.

But, no doubt, many will wonder why I did not make any protest, for to have made a protest would have meant loss of employment.

On July 22, 1903, a storm visited the Boundary Creek Valley, which was of sufficient violence to upset the smelter smoke stack, break large plate glass windows of the Russel-Law-Caulfield Co.'s store and do other serious damage. Four of Burns' cattle, which had been struck by lightning during the storm, were dressed as soon as possible after their condition was noticed, and then brought to Greenwood market and sold. This beef presented a very dark appearance and was disposed of in various ways, but for the most part was made into sausage. One of the best looking quarters was sloughed off on a nearby mining camp, but the cook was forced to throw the greater part of it away.

WHERE DOES CONSUMPTION BEGIN?

That first little tickle becomes a cough, the cough grows severe, is neglected and travels down to the lungs. Treat throat trouble before it gets severe. Catarrh of the throat, always inflammation, cures throat and bronchial trouble quickly. A marvel worker is Catarrhoxone, which prevents thousands of Catarrh victims from contracting consumption. Recommended by doctors, proved by time to be unfailing. Catarrhoxone is just what you need. 25c and 50c; sold everywhere.

eat-eaters can easily be imagined. It might, perhaps, be difficult to estimate how much disease might be traceable to this source.

In the spring of 1904, the disease again broke out, and as the weather became warmer grew worse and worse. Nothing better could be expected when the hogs were put into the same pens, previous, and they could not other than catch the contagion. Competent medical authorities state that the disease germs will remain in pens and yards for years, and that the only way to stamp out the disease is to burn down all premises where diseased hogs have been kept, and not allow any hogs to be brought within a certain distance of said premises for a stated length of time.

To Save Trouble.
 So, in the spring of 1904, by putting hogs in pens which were contaminated, nothing was done in the way of taking precautions to guard against disease. At times when only one hog appeared likely to soon die, it was killed and skinned, the same carcass had been pursued in 1903. This was done rather than go to the trouble of heating water for scalding purposes. During the early part of July the disease was making such ravages that the local management had decided to kill off all the hogs then on hand (about 35 or 40) and attempt to slough them off as quickly as possible. This plan was not carried out for the following reason: Some of the diseased meat had been sent to the Union Meat Co., Phoenix, and they promptly reported the fact to the Dominion government V. S., who quarantined hogs on Sunday, July 10, and ordered them killed and burnt a few days later.

However, it had been stated by those who informed the inspector of the fact that the inspector could be prevailed upon to take action. After quarantining the slaughter house premises for ten days no further action was taken, and after this period hogs were again brought in put in the same contaminated pens and slaughtered went on as usual. The inspector did, however, order the premises to be whitewashed, but this order was not complied with for almost two months afterwards.

Inspectors, But No Law.
 At present, altho we have inspectors, there is no law compelling them to attend anything in the way of a regular inspection of such premises. Such a system prevails in Denmark, and disease among swine is almost unknown. No doubt similar results could be obtained by its application here in British Columbia. By reading this letter you can easily see the danger you may be at any time exposed to unless some change is brought about.

You can never feel certain that you may not again be made victims of conditions which I have outlined. But, by taking prompt action you may be able to have the present evil conditions remedied. Write to your local parliamentary representative and demand that he take some action when the British Columbia house meets next month in Victoria. Demand that he take some steps to have a law providing for a systematic inspection of all house premises placed up on the statute books of our province to the end that the public in no part of the province may ever again be made the victims of capitalistic greed in this way.

Sulphites in Sausages.
 Kansas City, June 27.—A chemical analysis of Hamburger steak, sausage, loose sausage, Polish sausage, Frankfurters and wieners, bought in the open market from three leading packing companies, has convinced Dr. B. W. Lindberg, professor of chemistry and toxicology in the Kansas City Hahnemann Medical College, that the samples contain sulphites. In two out of five of the samples, sulphites were found.

For Tommy Atkins' Sake.
 New York, June 27.—Lt.-Col. Percy Eyre Hobbs, chief instructor of the English Service Corps School at Aldershot, who arrived here to-day on the steamer Carmania, comes here as the representative of his government to inspect the meat intended for use in the British army. His appointment was a direct outgrowth of the investigation of the packing industry made by the United States government and the reports of the investigation which were published a few weeks ago.

REFUSE TO ANSWER.

Public Accounts Committee Fail to Learn Cost of Supplies.
 Ottawa, June 27.—In the public accounts committee this morning Geo. T. Mervin was recalled, and was once more asked the question what the various articles cost which he sold to the department of marine and fisheries. He was examined by Mr. Northrup. The witness said that he had gone to the office in Montreal he located last fall, but was unable to find his old papers. The old ledger was thrown away, so he had no record of the prices which he had paid for the goods. He mentioned to his partner, Mr. Brooks, that he might get duplicate invoices, but Mr. Brooks thought it would not be good policy.

NEW ASSURANCE COMPANY.

Ottawa, June 27.—The committee on banking and commerce this morning reported a bill to incorporate the General Accident Assurance Company of Canada. The incorporators are: Sidney Finlay McKinnon, Reuben Millchamp, John Platt, Alexander Archibald Allan, Oliver Adams and Herbert Henry Beck of Toronto; John Knox, Hamilton, and Francis Moore Miller, of Perth, Scotland. The capital stock is one million dollars, and the head office Toronto. An act to incorporate the Chartered Bank of London, Canada, with head office in London, England, and a capital of $10,000,000, was also reported.

THE CAUSE OF SORE FEET.

Examine them carefully and you'll probably find corns. Whether hard, soft or bleeding, apply Putnam's Corn Extractor. It's painless, it's sure and above all, quick to act. Insist on only "Putnam's."

RAILWAY BILLS REPORTED.

Ottawa, June 27.—The senate railway committee to-day passed bills respecting the Windsor, Essex & Lake Shore Rapid Railway Company; to incorporate the Burk's Falls & French River Railway Company; respecting the Montreal, Ottawa & Georgian Bay Canal Company; to incorporate the Temagami, Cobalt & Temiskaming Railway; to incorporate the Cobalt Range Railway Company.

PARENTS IN ODD PANIC SCHOOLS HAVE TO CLOSE

Simple Surgical Operation on Few Scholars Leads to Startling Rumor.

New York, June 27.—Because of a report circulated among parents in the lower east side today, that the pupils attending the eight public schools in that district were having their throats cut in the schools, thousands of angry parents to-day surrounded the buildings and fought their way into them to rescue their children.

A large force of policemen was sent from three stations to restore order. The majority of pupils in the eight schools had to be dismissed to appease their frantic mothers and fathers.

Doctors from the board of health called at the schools yesterday and removed from a number of children's mouths adenoids, a fungus growth at the back of the mouth and nose. The operation is simple and harmless. It is supposed that this was what caused the dire rumor spread abroad this morning.

The public spread until 15 schools, with 25,000 children, were closed for the day.

Finish Game After 42 Years.
 Yankton, S. D., June 27.—At the state G. A. R. Encampment here just concluded a checker game begun 42 years ago was finished. At Atlanta, in 1864, N. H. Hopkins of Company A, 31st Wisconsin, was engaged in playing the rubber in a series of checker games with Sergt. Milo Strong of the same company. A hurry order broke up the game, and it so chanced that the two never had an opportunity to finish it till they met in the encampment here. Then they replaced the checkers and they remembered them and Hopkins won the match.

APPROVES CHOICE OF MR. LESTER.

Premier Whitney has received a copy of a resolution passed at a meeting of the counties council of the united counties of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry warmly endorsing the Ontario government's action in creating a railway and municipal board, and heartily commending the selection of James Leitch, K.C., of Cornwall as its chairman.

TORONTO MARKET ACTS AS A WALL ST. PARASITE

And Responds to Another Dip in Quotations at New York Exchange.

World Office, Wednesday Evening, June 27.

The Toronto stock market evidenced its existence as a parasite of Wall-street again today. With a continuance of the manipulated slump in the New York market, the local institution completely collapsed and became subservient to matters entirely foreign to local values. Toronto traders as usual were paralyzed when thousands of shares were supposed to be thrown into the Wall-street mainstrom and refused to bid for local specialties, except under force. Fortunately, outside holders exercised more common sense than those who are supposed to have a much more intimate knowledge of the value of securities and kept their stocks of the market. One unfortunate was anxious to get out of a 25-share lot of Sao Paulo and his go-between sacrificed the offering at a two loss. There were some reactions which were described, but these represented no change in actual outside conditions and were accomplished for specific reasons. The market through was weak, but liquidation was comparatively light. Twin City was rather heavily handled, but was viewed as under inspiration. Mackay dropped at various points again, but lost the extreme rise in these shares this was not at all surprising. The only issue to show strength today was Whampoa Electric, which was under the influence of an immediate rate for Sunday cars. The more gold-fingered shares were not so much as they were at current quotations.

Ontario & Western declares a dividend of 10 per cent. This is an increase of 1/2 per cent.

Norfolk & Western declared usual semi-annual dividend of 2 per cent on its preferred stock.

The Philadelphia & Reading Coal and Iron company will close down its mines the first week of July. It is expected that the other coal mining companies will do likewise. This action is taken on account of a falling off in orders for the prepared sizes and the accumulation of steam sizes.

The announcement that St. Paul directors had taken no action with regard to the expected issue of rights this afternoon started general speculation, but the stock by the room traders and the price declined to 17 1/2. This decline caused a development of extreme weakness all around the room and stocks were offered for sale in large amounts for both long and short account.

There seems to be a lot of very good buying in steel common around yesterday's closing level, while the price is materially decreased. In view of the fact that about all the possible bear arguments that the decline in steel issues, while the good news has been about our points, carrying over to the rest of the list. It was expected that the St. Paul directors would announce some financial plan today, but no action was taken and the stock declined sharply. New York, Ontario & Western received fair price for their dividend, but this had little beneficial effect on the shares. A report was current that American Smelting Company would receive an increased dividend, but this is not generally credited and the stock was not in demand. The closing Reading Company's mines, which led to over-production, was not calculated to help the general feeling. The weakness developed most acutely about two o'clock when prices generally slumped a point or two in quick order. This was followed by a feeble recovery and an uncertain and hesitating market. The outlook is not encouraging. There seems little warrant for such a severe and long continued decline as has been experienced, at the same time there are few buyers for stocks even at the present level and the continuation of this slump. Closing was near lowest for the day.

NEW MINISTER NOT FAVORED

Islington Methodists Have Protested to Conference President Over Appointment.

Islington, June 27.—Dissension, the outcome of which has been a pointed resolution sent to the president of the Methodist conference, has lately arisen in the Islington branch of the Methodist communion. That branch, exercising their right of selection, extended an invitation to Mr. Lee to occupy the ministerial vacancy. When the nominating committee met it was understood that the selection made by the Islington Methodists would be confirmed; instead of which, and at the eleventh hour, Mr. Lee's name was struck out and that of an old gentleman substituted. That so automatic a ruling in direct opposition to the wishes of the Islington church, should arouse indignation and protest, is not, therefore, surprising; and a resolution has been forwarded to the president, informing him that in view of the stand taken by the stationing committee, the members of the church decline to be held responsible for the salary of the gentleman they had chosen; and adds, that if the appointment is ratified, conference will have to pay the salary in connection therewith.

Here, then, the matter stands at present, and it is the feeling of those interested that if the spiritual work of the church's minister is to be successful, the present unpopular appointment will have to be canceled.

TORONTO JUNCTION.

Toronto Junction, June 27.—The business men played a game of lacrosse at the Annette-street grounds this afternoon, which was won by the south side team by 11 to 7. W. Hall and T. J. Sheppard led the scoring for the south side, while on the north scorers were E. B. Wright 4, N. Winters 2, and W. Sampson 1. Joseph McGraw of the north was the star player.

The executive committee met to-night. Joseph Barret offered to install a plant to supply water to the town, which he is granted a 25 years lease. It was recommended that the tender of Fred Savage be accepted at $12.20 for the year. Council will inquire the solicitor to prepare a by-law re smoke on Pacific. A motion was lost to allow the Grant Manufacturing Co. to build an ironclad structure on the Weston-road, and that tenders be invited for to pave Keele-street on the west side.

AT THE RESIDENCE OF J. F. KENDALL, superintendent of the Wilkinson Plow Works, 90 Cooper-avenue, a nuptial was solemnized between his daughter Mary and Chris. Woodburn, by Rev. G. W. Dewey, pastor of Davenport Methodist Church. The parlor was decorated with palms and roses. The bride was given away by her father, Miss Mattie Kendall, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Miss Irene Kendall was flower girl. The groom was assisted by Charles Rountree. The bride was dressed in cream silk undine, embroidered chiton and carried a bouquet of pink roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid wore white silk null trimmed with Valenciennes, and carried pink roses. The groom's present to the bride was a pearl sunburst; to the bridesmaid a ruby and pearl ring; to the groomsmen a pearl fleur de his pin. Mr. and Mrs. Woodburn left for Buffalo, and on their return intend to take up their residence in town.

AT THE RESIDENCE OF Mrs. E. Ketcher,

12 Pacific-avenue, this afternoon, her youngest daughter, Lena Myrtle, was united in marriage to Wilbur H. Horner, choir master of Annette-street Methodist Church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Haselwood, pastor of the church. The bride wore a dress of cream crepe de Paris over taffeta, silk trimmed, with baby lace and carried a shower bouquet of crystal roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Helen Fern McKay, wore a dress of emerald crepe de chine over silk and carried pink roses. The groom was assisted by his brother, Leslie T. Horner. The parlor was decorated with ferns and daisies. The groom's present to the bride was a pearl sunburst; to the bridesmaid a pearl ring; to the groomsmen a monogram ring, and to the pianist, Miss Ida Bagehaw, a pearl fleur de his pin. The young couple left for the 800, and on their return will reside in town.

EMPIRE HOTEL.

North Toronto.

T. Hopkins, altho blind, is assisting in putting a new roof on his residence. Yesterday afternoon, while on the scaffold, he missed his step and fell on the scaffold on to the roof of the verandah, and then down to the ground, a distance of about 20 feet. With the exception of a few bruises and a shaking up, Mr. Hopkins was not hurt, and went up the ladder again to work.

There is a decided dissatisfaction in town in regard to the change of time of the mail. It is talked about that a petition is to be circulated and presented to the postmaster-general, to have the old time reinstated, or even made earlier in the morning. As the mail opens now at about 8:40 a.m., this time is decidedly too late for business men to wait.

Wychwood.

The members of the Church of Christ held an excursion to Hamilton yesterday.

Capitalists around here are investing their spare cash in the scheme of the "Imperial Motor Coach," and the hope is entertained that citizens of this district will receive a regular service of the "coach line," which would be as beneficial as a street car service.

On Tuesday evening at St. Cyprian's Church, Annie, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay of Wychwood, was married to Llewellyn Prince of Toronto. Rev. C. A. Sessar officiated. The bridesmaids were Miss Eva Lindsay, sister of the bride, and Miss Gertrude Doones. Mr. Sam I. Prince was best man. The bride was dressed in white silk trimmed with valentia lace, ornamented with orange blossoms, and carrying a bouquet of white roses. After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the residence of the bride's parents, at which there were some 75 invited guests.

OPEN AIR HORSE PARADE

THE PROGRAM AND JUDGES

Monday's Procession Will Be Miles Long and Over 550 Entries Will Be Inspected.

Four trumpeters will lead the hounds and the huntmen, and the largest horse parade ever held on the continent in Toronto next Monday. The committee of the Open Air Horse Parade Association met last night at the King Edward, and completed arrangements. There are 550 entries, which means over 700 horses to make a procession of an estimated length of four miles, some of the horses three abreast. J. J. Dixon presided over the meeting, Marmaduke Rawlinson was appointed chief marshal, and all the other marshals and judges were finally decided upon as given below. T. J. Macabe was made corresponding secretary. Mr. Beardmore, M.F.H., offered a prize for a class for farmers' sons, but the committee was entirely in sympathy it was too late to make any addition this year. Dr. Young made a very satisfactory report of subscriptions received. The bands of the Queen's Own Rifles and Royal Grenadiers will be in the procession, and will play in the park during muster.

Route of Parade.

The muster will commence in Queen's Park at 8:30 a.m. Officials and directors will report at the reviewing stand in front of Sir John A. No temporary advertisements of any kind, either on the horse or vehicle, will be permitted, and no freight of any kind is to be carried on any vehicle.

The judging will commence sharp at 9:30 o'clock, and at the conclusion of the judging and the awarding of the ribbons, the parade will take place along the following route: College-street and Carlton-street to Sherbourne, down Sherbourne to King-street, on King-street to Simcoe, up Simcoe to Queen, along Queen to Spadina to College, thence to the park, and once around the park, after which the medals and prizes and money will be distributed in front of the reviewing stand.
