29TH YEAR

WRECKMAN WAS KILLED BY THE CAPTAIN

Tragic Incident After Florida Rammed Republic—Italians in Steerage, in Panic, Started to Riot.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Within considerably less than 24 hours after the crash between the ocean liners Republic and Florida, off the Nantucket shoals, which eventually sent the latter to the bottom and reduced the other to an almost helpless state, the survivors of the thrilling accident have found a haven at last.

Another story is that the man dropped the wheel in a panic when danger impended. Both versions agree in saying that the commander led the quartermaster with an iron spike following what he must have considered the seaman's recalcitrance.

Stories told by the Republic's passengers show that the transfer of passengers from the Florida to the Baltic in the dark hours of Saturday night came perilously near resulting in a riot of the 400 Italian steerage passengers on the Florida, who believed that their vessel was in imminent danger of sinking.

RETIREES TO ENJOY LIFE

Chicago Broker Has Profitable Year and a Tidy Fortune. CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—Sidney C. Love of New York and Chicago, having amassed during a brief brilliant career fortunes said to be close to two million dollars, and having married a Chicago society girl, pronounced by Sir Philip Burne-Jones, the artist, to be the most beautiful woman in the world, quietly retired from business to-day.

FRIGHT KILLS BABE

Sudden Flash of Lightning Sends It Into Convulsions. BELLEVILLE, Jan. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. John Flagler of this city, lost their 8-month-old baby in a peculiar manner. On Sunday the mother was holding the baby in her lap when there came a vivid flash of lightning and heavy thunder. The child screamed and fell back to its mother's arms, going into convulsions of fright and dying this morning, the doctor said, of fright.

SCORE INJURED IN WRECK

Rails Spread With Train Going at 25 Miles an Hour, and Three Cars Go Over 20-Foot Embankment.

THE INJURED. J. W. BRADLEY, Toronto, cut lip, sprained ankle. STEPHEN BRADLEY, Toronto, cut on head. GEO. LEROUX, Callander, right ear cut, head hurt.

What Association Has Done. The insurance profession is more beneficial. The profession of business of the life insurance agent was probably the last to accept the idea of fellowship; and that long after all other branches of trade, commerce, professions, business, and even sport had adopted co-operation and association as a vital necessity to sustain business life, trade conditions, and secure proper consideration.

Over a score of passengers on the Cobalt special, which left here northward bound, at 8 o'clock this morning, were injured in the first wreck of a passenger train on the T. and N. O. Railway.

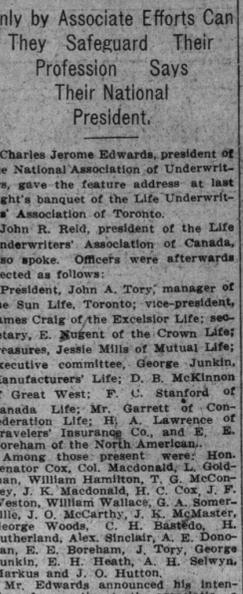

The engine and baggage car remained on the track and one Pullman was left perched on the top of the bank, while the second-class and two first-class cars crashed down the declivity with terrific force.

It is further proposed that an amendment to the insurance law should provide that no part of any premium, or any commission, or compensation of any kind should be paid to anyone for securing an application of life insurance other than the agent whose name appeared on the application.

BISHOPS TO OFFICIATE AT PRIMATE'S FUNERAL

Arrangements for Impressive Service at St. Alban's—Will Lie in State.

The death of Archbishop Sweetman was the chief topic discussed yesterday in Anglican Church circles, in addition to the widespread and sympathetic public interest manifested.

While the details of the funeral arrangements have not yet been completed, it was definitely decided that the service should be held at St. Alban's Cathedral to-morrow afternoon, the interment to be at St. James' Cemetery.

The remains of the late primate will be taken to the cathedral early on Wednesday morning and lie in state from 10 a.m. until 1:30 p.m.

The funeral service in the church will commence at 2:30. Archbishop Sweeney will to-day communicate with the various bodies which are entitled to be present, and their duly accredited representatives will be admitted before the doors will be opened to the general public.

The service will be conducted by the bishops, assisted by Rev. Canon Macnab at the cathedral. Bishop Reeve is expected to officiate at the cemetery.

The bishops who are expected to participate are Bishop Dumoulin of Niagara, Bishop Mills of Ontario, Bishop Farthing, Montreal; Bishop Dunn, Quebec; Bishop Thorne of Algoma; Bishop Tuttle, the presiding bishop of the Episcopal Church in the United States, will be present.

The funeral cortege will be lengthy and imposing, and will include the mayor and members of the city council.

It is the request of the family that no flowers be sent. A resolution of condolence with the family of the late Archbishop Sweetman was passed on motion of Ald. Elkin, and ultimately Gowganda.

As the annual meeting of the exhibition board is to be held on Wednesday afternoon, when the funeral ceremonies are to take place, the mayor will ask adjournment for an hour or more.

Mr. Borden announced his election to sit for Halifax and resign his seat for Charlottetown.

Mr. Borden, resuming the debate on the address, declared that the return of so many Conservatives from British Columbia was a fact that the issues of "better terms" and Asiatic immigration had not been presented fairly to the people of the province by the Conservatives.

The question of opportunism had been created by the Conservatives 25 or 30 years ago. Both sides of the house must accept equal responsibility for the Japanese treaty.

ASIATIC POLICY DEBATED IN HOUSE

Ralph Smith Defends Government and is Vigorously Assailed—New Bills—The Waterways Treaty.

OTTAWA, Jan. 25.—(Special).—Sir Fred. Borden made his re-appearance in the house to-day after his conference with war office officials at the seat of the empire, and incidentally gave some maiden speeches by British Columbia Conservatives, and Glen Campbell of Gilbert Plains, Goodève (Kootenay) and Taylor (New Westminster) made a splendid impression.

Mr. Bickerdike (Montreal) introduced a bill to amend the Railway Act. Public opinion demanded some measure to protect the public at level crossings.

Mr. Lancaster: "How does your bill differ from mine?" Mr. Bickerdike said it was milder and applied chiefly to towns and villages, but gave the committee power to protect crossings anywhere.

Mr. Bickerdike also scooped E. N. Lewis by introducing a bill making it unlawful to carry deadly weapons.

Opening at Montreal

NOTE AND COMMENT

While private information was arriving in volume prior to the event being declared off, that Tom Longboat was the real good thing for to-night's race with Alty Shrub, that has been unfortunately postponed, some of them are now falling over each other in their efforts to tell that the Englishman would surely have won.

In Toronto there are decidedly two camps in the controversy, one in line with the Canadian, the other with the Indian. The more reasonable ask to wait till the swelling goes down from the little pro-Shrub, and Alty, too, seems imbued with his own ability to defeat Longboat, according to the following letter addressed to his friends of the press:

"Will you kindly state thru your paper that, owing to a very recent injury to my foot, I am compelled to ask for a postponement of the race on Saturday night. I do this with the greatest reluctance, but feel it is my bounden duty to the public. I will not run in this race in order to do justice to myself and the public. I am in great condition other than my injured foot. When I am in the best condition, but it will be impossible for me to run with the foot I have."

Tom Longboat is said not to have run at his best form Saturday night at Newark. On surveying the house he probably decided to give a hundred and twenty-five dollar exhibition.

According to the press matter sent out Shrub and Longboat engaged in heroic preparatory stunts for the race that has not yet come off. For instance, the following is a New York special in a Philadelphia evening paper:

Alfred Shrub, the English champion, and Tom Longboat, the Canadian Indian, who will meet in a Marathon contest at Madison Square Garden, next Tuesday night, are doing some of the most heroic stunts on the roads of New Jersey in preparation for the race. Shrub took to the roads about Montreal for a trial run, and challenged everything he met, excepting automobiles. He had one lively brush with a trotter and ran about twenty miles. Tom Longboat, the Indian, has been in a four-mile test he began to draw away from a four-mile race on a 10-mile course by a horse ridden by Jimmy Hefrest.

New York Herald: The New York League was just followed by a rumor that the Toronto and Montreal clubs of the Eastern League would be sold to residents of prominent New England cities, and that Hartig would secure one of the franchises. Hartig has shown no great interest in support professional baseball in a league smaller than the Eastern.

A New York turfman received a telegram from the Canadian which read as follows: The real fight against the anti-race track bill just passed by the assembly will be made in the senate. It will be some time before a vote is reached. For the railroad people are opposed to the measure, also the business men of Chicago, Los Angeles, Oakland and other cities. The bill is going to spend a lot of money to pull off the trick, but they will not have a cinch.

Tim Hurst, Marathon race referee in the winter and baseball umpire in summer, was playing poker day after day recently. A hand was being dealt just as the train shot into Tunnel. The referee, who had a full house or better, when said something, but the train had changed his seat he fired this parting shot: "No more tunnel, gentlemen, but no more tunnel for me."

Jeffries, when he heard that Langford had been matched with Johnson, did not seem pleased. In the senate, it is said, Langford was a dangerous man because of his terrific punching, and now he is matched with Johnson, who would stand a royal chance of putting Johnson away. Jeffries is taking up the matter rather than Johnson than Langford, for the reason that Johnson is a six-foot and a 200-pounder, who is only 5 feet 7 inches tall and can fight at 155 pounds.

Denver Ed. Martin easily outclassed Dr. B. Roller of Seattle in a six-round breaking house last Friday. The doctor, who showed a lot of raw spots in his work, which were brought out by the stronger because of the heavier blows played by the negro, who was in fine shape and showed some of his old-time form. Rolfe said before the bout he was going after the heavy-weight champion of the world, but he has learned a lesson. He will have to learn a lot about the game.

Tom Cahill, the St. Louis soccer footballer, who returned from abroad, where he went to England to play for an American team, says he can throw some of his old-time tricks. According to Cahill, who has married an English barmaid and has a fine residence near London, he is able to get into the ring with her when she returns to England to fight Langford. Cahill says Johnson has no intention of returning to the United States, but is convinced from the fact that Johnson's wife in this country only this week heard from him. As a matter of fact, Johnson was set for trial before the shooting of Mr. W. R. Foster was certainly creditable, he breaking 49 out of 51, and later the broke 24 out of 25.

Toronto Horses Second and Third Opening Day at Delorimier Park

Star Brino and Edith Win Pacing and Trotting Events - Pansy and Guy, Are in the Money.

MONTREAL, Jan. 25.—(Special).—The Montreal Driving Club opened its winter meeting here to-day under conditions that were not the most favorable. The day was soft and the track slushy, which made fast time next to impossible. Two races—the 2.35 pace (stake), $100, and the 2.35 trot—were down for decision and were raced to the finish. In the 2.35 trot, the chestnut mare Silverlark, that won the same class over at Ottawa, sold for the same amount against the field, which consisted of such good performers as Guy and Edith. The latter won the second-hand and fourth heats after Guy had landed the first. The chestnut mare was certainly made a bad mess in their decisions, as Guy was in the race in the third heat by a neck, and he was placed second. The finish of the second heat was also close, and the chestnut mare was placed second in the grand stand side of the track were divided in their opinions as to which horse had won. Edith, however, was the victor. The heat was not so close, as any competent judge could see that Guy was a neck to the good. The chestnut mare was the victor in the judges' blunder in the first heat, but when, after finishing sixth with Pansy, was placed back, which made him prove from the start that he was not a horse to be taken for granted. The chestnut mare was placed sixth in the first heat, but when she got third money only. Dan McEwen had Star Brino at his best to-day, and he was the victor in the 2.35 pace. MONTREAL STORM PARALYZED

Falling of Wires Puts Water Company Out of Service.

MONTREAL, Jan. 25.—(Special.)—Rah falling in a freezing atmosphere during Saturday, Sunday, and Monday caused greater damage to electric wires and trees in Montreal than has ever been known since electricity was brought into commercial use in the city.

By actual measurement trees and wires were coated with an inch and a quarter of ice, the weight of which was so great that the noise of falling branches and telephone wire was practically continuous, nearly all the busy streets in the city have a maze of high power electric wires above them, and where any of these broke and fell the roadways were lit up with electric flames.

The break down of the power lines left the Montreal Water and Power Company practically out of business, and from Saturday night until to-day all the districts supplied by this company, including St. Denis Ward north of Mount Royal-avenue, Westmount, St. Louis, Outremont and other municipalities were without water.

In St. Louis some of the local milkmen supplied residents with milk at ten cents a can.

This evening normal conditions prevailed.

TARIFF COMMISSION ASSIST COTTON TRADE TROUBLES

So Reports W. L. M. King—Suggests Plans for Promoting Peace Between Labor and Capital.

OTTAWA, Jan. 25.—(Special.)—Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, tabled to-day the report of W. L. Mackenzie King, who was commissioned to enquire into the series of disputes which affected some 6000 operators of cotton mills in the Province of Quebec during the summer of 1908. The main conclusions of the report are:

The ten per cent. reduction in wages, which occasioned the strike and lock-out in May, was not due to any peculiar severity on the part of the Canadian side, but to a tariff, or other special conditions, which was an economic consequence of general trade and financial conditions in Canada shared in common with the United States and Great Britain, and which affected the cotton industry in all parts of the world. Similar and even greater reductions in wages have taken place in the cotton mills of the United States, and it was a particular feature of the cotton industry during the past year has been a particularly hard one. The present depression is temporary and employers have promised a restoration of the former scale of wages when trade improves.

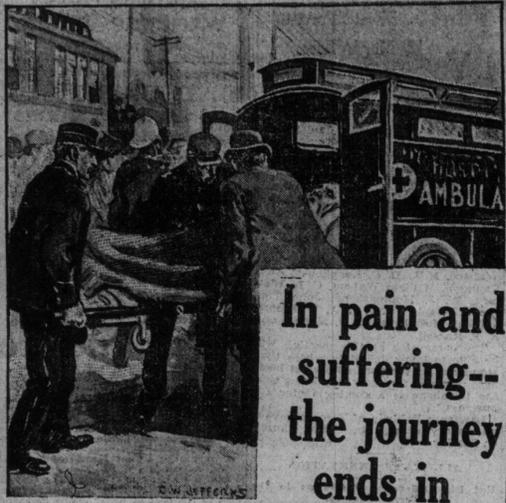

The strike in the Quebec mills, likewise an ill-timed and would not have taken place had the constitution of the labor organization been strictly followed. This companies were apparently cut in their notice of the proposed reduction, and the employees' interests suffered through jealousy among their leaders. Unnecessary strikes have caused great loss.

Employers on the whole have not been adverse to organization among the employees, and in the case of some individuals. But to secure confidence on the part of the employers, the unions must secure harmony within their own ranks and adopt a more conservative policy towards those with whom they are in dispute.

The hours of labor of women and children in the cotton mills are too long, and the law respecting the employment of women and children should be amended to leave no doubt in the mind of regulating the hours of employment. The law respecting the employment of women and children should be amended to provide against possible infractions in the future. In this respect, the responsibility devolves upon those who profit by the results of such labor.

Industrial peace might be preserved, and friendly relations between employers and employees promoted by the adoption of joint agreements between employers and operatives with some system of adjustment of wages by each of the parties being required to give at least one month's notice of any change in the contemplated change in important conditions of employment; by the adoption of permanent board of conciliation, and by the formation of a special labor co-partnership in which the joint interests of employers and employees are represented on each side by the most all that can be said of the lowering of the tariff so far as the actual experience of the cotton mills of Quebec is concerned.

HOW WIRELESS MESSAGE BROUGHT A QUICK RESCUE

Graphic Story of the Operators' Methods in Sending Succor to Injured Steamer.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—A man sat in his shirt sleeves, in a little room crowded with wire coils and choked with dusty battery cases, in a little shack down on a sand spit that points out into the Atlantic Ocean beyond the Village of Siasconset on the south shore of Nantucket Island. He fingered a key and the flashes of blue light that jumped from the hammock of wireless light over his head outside, streaked the blackness of the windowpane. This man, A. H. Ginnman, was talking with the ships out somewhere beyond where the waves piled up on the sand spit. That was his business.

Suddenly there came a break in the measured cadence of his tap tapping one key. Thru the thin rubber disc had clung around his head and over his ears there sounded an interrupting chatter. It was this:

"Ta-ta-ta-ta-tat-tat-tat-tat."

A Call for Help.

That means simply these three letters: "C. Q. D." In the continental Morse code used by ship and Marconi stations, these three letters mean what "S. S." means to Chief Croker of the city's fire department, what the collision signal means on a battleship. Those three letters are absolutely imperative.

When this operation caught the sense of those three letters, instinctively he reached for his key and sent rushing thru the dawn for 200 miles on every side of him, landward and seaward, a message that traveled at the rate of 180,000 miles a second.

The message read: "C. Q. D. Here, S. C. G." According to the code, those dots and dashes that were being recorded on rubber discs somewhere out beyond the surf line and back in the cwn yard at Charlestown were interpreted to read:

"Distress signal received at Siasconset wireless station. Go ahead."

Then, in a minute, came another message to the operator at Siasconset. It was: "We were struck by an unknown boat, engine room filled. Passengers all 70. Republic."

It Meant Business.

Mechanically, the operator took down the message that tapped into his ear. As soon as he had put down the final word, he reached for his key again. The coil Wireless Telegraph Co. of America read that, whenever an operator shall receive the "C. Q. D." signal or a upon ascertaining her locality, and the extent of her damage, send out to every ship and station that may be in the zone of a 500 mile radius about his station, word of her distress, even tho the original message that had passed from the crippled ship to the shore.

So Ginnman prefaced his message with the "C. Q. D." of alarm, then carefully repeated the message that had come to him from the Republic. That done, he sat back and waited.

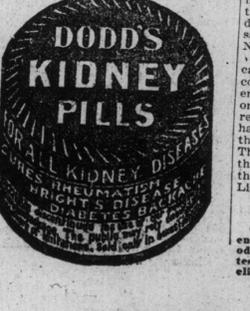

It Was Quickly Done.

This all occurred in less time than it takes to read these paragraphs. From out of the dark at 4:10 o'clock in the morning had come the distress signal of the White Star liner, Mediterranean bound, and 26 miles south of Nantucket lightship. Only the time that was occupied by the swift moves of the operator's fingers at Siasconset on its shore away from ship to shore on the moving ocean where rows of lights marked a ship equipped with wireless.

There was a ship at sea that was filled with water. Aboard her an operator named Binns had tapped a key at the dictation of the captain. The wires between the two masts had spluttered and hummed. Over 40 miles away Ginnman, the operator at Siasconset on the sand spit, had heard and with greater force of the batteries stowed away in his shack, he had hurried the message from the crippled vessel back and out to be caught by chance rescuers.

Rushing to the Rescue.

The operator at Siasconset did not have long to wait before messages from drum into his ears. First came messages from Chesapeake Bay and Newport, Boston, Vineyard navyyard, and Wood's Hall, all of which stations had caught the alarm sent out from Siasconset. Wood's Hall said that the revenue cutter Acushnet had started out on the rescue. From Boston came the report that the revenue cutter R. Greaves had the news and was leaving for the spot where the Republic drifted. The Mohawk and Seneca told Ginnman that they had picked up his flash off the coast and were off for Nantucket Light.

TO ELECT SCHOOL BOARD THRU OLD WARD SYSTEM

City Council Will Ask Legislature for Permission—Unanimous on Reduction Bylaw.

The city council yesterday decided to apply for legislation "to return to the ward system of electing a public school board of twelve members elected annually, two from each ward, and for an appointed high school board of nine members."

The chief advocates of the change were Controllers Hocken and Geary, Ald. Keeler and Church.

The mayor favored divorcing the technical school from the general scheme of control, giving its management into the hands of a special board.

Ald. Foster's motion to refer the proposal back was defeated. For—The mayor, Ald. Foster, McGhie, McMurrich, Vaughan, Boneough, Bredin, McGuire—3. Against—Controllers Harrison, Hocken, Geary, Ald. Keeler, Welch, Hilton, McMullin, Chisholm, R. H. Graham, Church, J. J. Graham, O'Neil—12.

Passed Reduction Bylaw.

The bylaw reducing the number of hotel liquor licenses to 119 was given its first reading without a word of dissent.

Ald. Keeler introduced the bylaw at 6:30 p.m. after the board of control's report had been disposed of, by which time the council chamber, which had been crowded earlier in the afternoon, was almost deserted.

"I beg leave, seconded by Controller Hocken, to introduce a bylaw reducing the number of hotels, taverns, and ask for the first reading," he said. There was dead silence, and Ald. Keeler asked for the yeas and nays.

"There's no need. It's carried unanimously," said the mayor, and that ended the matter. The second reading will be given at the meeting on Feb. 5, and the final reading Feb. 12.

Telephone Franchise.

Ald. Vaughan, with Ald. R. H. Graham as seconder, gave notice of motion to have the whole question of telephone service referred to the board of control.

Ald. Bredin objected to awarding a contract for valves to the Niagara Falls Machine and Foundry Co., urging that as the tender per valve, $120, was only 10c lower than that of a local firm, and as many workmen are out of employment, the work should be given to the Toronto foundry.

Against this view, it was argued by Controller Ward and Ald. McGhie that as outside firms were asked to tender it would be a breach of confidence to discriminate against them. Ald. Bredin's motion was defeated.

The broad statesmanlike utterances of Ald. Foster on the responsibility resting on the motion of encouraging the industrial pursuits of Chinese immigrants, failed to move the aldermen to upset the controllers' recommendation against giving laundry licenses to Gai Chong at 276 College street, and Hoy Jock at 1073 College street. Only Ald. Boneough voted with him.

$6000 for Relief Work.

Ald. R. H. Graham wasn't satisfied to vote merely $4000 for relief work in the city parks. He proposed $6000, and this was adopted.

It was decided to allow the market to be used for the auto and cement conventions.

The passing of the hospital bylaw was deferred. Controller Ward said some provision should be made whereby hospital patients could be attended by civilian physicians, and Controller Harrison thought the grant shouldn't be made until it was made certain that it would be used for the benefit of the poor patients.

Ald. Church's motion to reappoint the suburban service committee was unanimously adopted. The committee will consist of the mayor, Controller Hocken, Ald. Geary, Ald. Chisholm, Bredin, McMurrich, R. H. Graham, Adams, McGhie and the mover.

Council set aside Monday, Aug. 2, as Civic Holiday.

On Controller Geary's motion the board of control will proceed with the construction of the Rosedale ravine sewer from Bedford-road to Dupont street.

LIFEBOAT LAUNCHING DEVICE

New Invention on View at the Foot of Yonge Street.

Bolton to the wharf at the foot of Yonge street, beside the steamer Corona, is a model of a lifeboat launching device invented by F. B. Martin.

It is a one-man-power apparatus that ensures positive safety in the launching of boats from a vessel in a sinking condition. There is no possibility of the boat being upset in launching. In the way boats are now launched, it requires six men at each end. The apparatus consists of two tracks, two davits, on which the boat is hung, the traveling mechanism which permits the davits and boat to be run out to the edge of the deck, and the lowering gear which is composed of a friction brake run by a crank. The boat full of passengers can be lowered and cast off inside of a minute. The inventor demonstrated his device yesterday afternoon.

COBALT --- Higher Quotations Made for the Cobalt Securities --- COBALT

HIGHER QUOTATIONS MADE FOR THE MINING SECURITIES

Advance in Silver and Scarcity of Stocks the Market Feature - Watts the Weak Issue.

World Office, Monday Evening, Jan. 25. More activity and a larger volume of transactions occurred at the two local mining exchanges to-day. In almost every issue quotations showed some improvement over those of the close on Saturday.

Another advance in the price of silver bullion was perhaps the principal factor in the minds of to-day's purchasers, but the strong feature in the market was the limited amount of offerings on the market. Shipments from Cobalt for the week ending Jan. 23 were 884 tons and the output from ten different mines. The leading shippers for this week were La Rose, Right of Way and Temiskaming and Hudson Bay and Nipissing. Chambers-Ferland entered the shipping list again this week with a car of 62,000 lbs.

One of the strongest issues on the exchanges was Silver Bar, which sold up as high as 70. A good demand for this stock has developed at New York and other United States, and with this buying much of the local free supply of shares is being taken care of. Watts was heavily sold by those who had an inkling of what the annual statement will show. A despatch from New York to-day shows this company to be in poor financial shape and it is presumed that much of to-day's selling was on account of advanced information to this effect.

The market for the time being, while generally firm, is one of specialties and speculators are experiencing difficulty in picking the issues which are selected for immediate advances.

WATTS' MINE IN DEBT

Annual Statement Shows Small Earnings for the Year. The annual statement of the Watts Mining Co. was available to-day and the statement is not altogether in the interest of this Cobalt camp. Strong objection is taken to the profit and loss account of this company, which shows that mining expenses for the year were $70,466.62 and general expenses $13,197.14. Against this there were credited sales of ore amounting to $131,583.62, from which had to be deducted for smelting and other charges $14,204.83. The income account therefore shows that this mine only made $18,244.40 for the year.

Another strongly objectionable feature in the statement is the fact that the Watts Mining Co. at the end of the year, Nov. 30, owed the King Edward Mining Co. $98,802.05, and other creditors $11,077.76, a total of nearly $110,000.

The annual meeting of the company will be held here on Friday next and some interesting developments are expected from pertinent enquiries from shareholders.

GEORGIAN BAY CANAL
Project for Biggest Fresh Water
Vessels in History

OTTAWA, Jan. 25.—The final report of the board of engineers appointed by the department of public works to ascertain the feasibility and probable cost of the Georgian Bay ship canal has been presented to parliament by the minister of public works.

It is stated that a 22-foot waterway, the largest lake boat 200 feet long and 20 feet deep, can be established for $100,000,000 in ten years, and that the annual maintenance of the same will be approximately $800,000, including the operation of storage reservoirs for the better distribution of the fresh waters of the Ottawa River.

The distance from Montreal to French River on the Georgian Bay is 440 miles, which would require the construction of twenty-seven locks and eighteen main dams, twenty-eight miles of canal excavation and sixty-six miles of channel dredging.

It is asserted that the probable time taken by a lake freight boat of twelve to fifteen thousand tons, from French River to Montreal would be 70 hours, and that the season of navigation will average 210 days from May to November.

The engineers have found that with a storage system as planned, and the tributary basins thereto required for the navigation project, a reliable supply is secured at various dams, amounting to 1,000,000 horsepower, which can be developed for about $50 per horsepower.

The board recommends that an understanding be arrived at between the federal and provincial governments interested governing the disposal and control of all water power, rivers, lakes, and islands of the proposed route in view of the possible canalization of the river.

SENTENCE DAY IN SESSIONS

Seven Women Go to Jail—Sentences for Assault.

It was sentence day in the sessions yesterday. Seven women were sent to jail, most of them for shoplifting. Two of them were hysterically weeping. Brown, for horse theft, got five years in the penitentiary. J. J. Perry, who assaulted Dr. Morhouse, was sentenced to a month in jail on non-parole to do as you did, but I think that you were gonaded on by your wife. If the statements made to you by her were no truer than those made in the box, they were false," said the judge.

Robert Young and Thomas Noble, who had been on suspended sentence for an assault committed from French employees of the Moffatt stove works, and who were found guilty of a subsequent assault, were sent to the central for six months each. They were deeply affected.

Other penalties were: Harry Plant, theft from street railway, six months; Della Williams, pocket-picking, six months in Mercer; John Jackson, assault, suspended sentence; Frederick Soraka, theft, suspended sentence; B. M. Muench, obtaining money under false pretences, suspended sentence; Archibald Reid, theft, suspended sentence; Catherine North, theft, 30 days; Lily Potts, theft, 30 days; Giuseppe Caruso, theft, five to 60 days; Madge Singlecane, theft, five to 60 days; George J. Adams, theft, one year in jail; Samuel Beermom, selling obscene postcards, 60 days; Edith Riley, theft, ten days; Kate Hewitt, theft, ten days; Robert Gillespie, theft, suspended sentence; William Anderson, theft, suspended sentence; Fred Toozie, theft, suspended sentence; O. H. Latrehouille, assault, 60 days; James Robertson, assault, three months; Albert Donnelly, theft, suspended sentence; Wesley Benson, receiving stolen goods, six months; Leonora Russell, theft, suspended sentence; Charles Baldwin, grave, theft, six months; Alexander Nelson, assault, four months; N. E. Williamson, forgery, suspended sentence; Thomas Hobbs, theft, suspended sentence.

Raymond Baby was allowed by Judge Winchester to go on suspended sentence for assaulting Mrs. Jennie Taggart. He left a cheque for $100 with the crown attorney to pay Mrs. Taggart's doctor bill.

MARKET IS NARROWED DOWN TO THE TRADING ELEMENT

Wall Street Fluctuations Are Insignificant, Scarcity of Offerings the Feature of the Toronto Market.

World Office, Monday Evening, Jan. 25.

A small amount of business was transacted on the Toronto Stock Exchange to-day, most of the trading being at about the closing prices at the end of last week. The market was lacking entirely in initiative and displayed an apathy not altogether explanatory.

At several local brokerage offices to-day it was reported that numerous enquiries were being made for local stocks, these in most instances being from actual investors rather than from speculators who operate on margins.

Generally speaking, to-day's prices showed a marked rally. To mention individual stocks it might be stated that Mackay common recovered further from its recent slump. Toronto Railway sold higher; Twin City was in excellent demand on a party with last week's prices, and Northern Navigation sold in small quantities at an advance of three points.

There was a borrowing enquiry for Mexican Light and Power stock, but this did not go so far as to cause purchases of the shares, and it was presumed that considerable of this stock is being awaited from London.

In the other foreign transactions Rio was decidedly firm, Sao Paulo was inactive and only steady.

The investment issues were quiet, but in no one instance had prices to be shaded in order to effect sales. Consumers' Gas is in unusual demand and a 10 share lot was dealt in at 205 on the afternoon board.

With the exception of dulness the market to those who are looking for higher prices, was entirely satisfactory, and it is believed that greater activity will develop on account of the gradual appreciation in prices.

Reported New York Central rail order for 1908 delivery will go to U. S. Steel Corporation and Lackawanna Steel Co. Baltimore and Ohio also said to be about to close contracts for requirements for the year, said to aggregate 100,000 tons.

London: Announcement is made of the suspension of the London-Paris Exchange. It has long been expected, and consequently had little effect on the stock market. It is reported that reconstruction is being arranged concerning which an official statement will be shortly issued.

The total earnings of Consolidated Gas, of all sources, during the year 1908 aggregated $2,800,000. Deducted interest payments and other fixed charges amounting to $1,894,727, and divided at the rate of four per cent on the company's capital aggregating $3,249,363, leaving a total of $806,273, amounting to about four-fifths of one per cent on the stock of the company now outstanding.

There is discussion in the Brooklyn Rapid Transit board of directors regarding the dividend announcement, according to reports just coming to hand. It is said that if a dividend is announced now, there will be highly important resignations from the board. Directors who are stated to be strenuously opposing a declaration have handed in such an ultimatum, if the story referred to is true.

London: For the first time in many months the Bank of England secured the gold from the Transvaal mines available on the market to-day to the extent of $665,000. There was no continental competition. The fact that the Bank of England is now in a position to obtain gold in the open market possibly will avert a further increase in the bank rate at present.

Advantage should be taken of buying opportunities afforded on this recession. United States Steel should again advance this week. Information is very favorable to Southern Pacific and Reading. The Hill following is reported but on Great Northern and Northern Pacific. St. Paul can be pushed against the shorts any time with good results, and a news note says a car shortage menaces the new extension Union Pacific should be bought on declines. Philadelphia sources advise the purchase of Norfolk and Western and Chesapeake and Ohio on reactions.—Financial Bulletin.

MARKET IS UNEQUIVOCALLY FIRM.

World Office, Monday Evening, Jan. 25.

Absence of speculation was the prominent feature at the Toronto Exchange to-day. From the transactions there appeared to be few buying orders in brokers' hands, but the firmness of selling quotations indicated that holders are not anxious to dispose of stock unless they get their price. Mexican and Rio were strong. The contest now on in connection with the Mexican L. & P. Co. is sufficient to account for the demand of the first named. Twin City sold extended equal to par, but was a point higher at New York. With the balance of the market the investment shares were dull, but with a good undertone. The market as a whole is unequivocally firm.
