The Horse Woman---The Eaton Watch

The sway and occasional jar incident to equestrian exercise have no effect on the accuracy of the EATON watch. It is carefully adjusted at every point. You'll find it on the second after the ride as before.

A delicate compensating balance wheel provides against changing temperatures. A patent regulator makes possible an almost infinitesimal time adjustment; breguet hair-spring; jewels; hardened steel and screw settings, all do their parts in making the EATON a little gem of a watch.

You can please yourself from a collection of dainty cases.

Prices vary according to the number of jewels and quality of the case, which may be either gold-filled or solid, in the latter case being sold by weight.

Away They Go: Good H.B. Pencils at 12 for 7c

There must be a reason for such a ridiculous price for Pencils of really good quality. There is—if you examine the pencils you'll find imperfections in the finish. Doesn't affect the lead in any way, and what do a few scratches amount to when they reduce the price to half of maker's usual cost? We want to sell 200 gross Wednesday morning. We took that quantity to get the price; and if the children need pencils for school, if you need pencils for your office, then Wednesday is the day to buy your stock. Mostly H.B. Clearing price, per dozen, 7.

TUESDAY MORNING, APRIL 26, 1910.

REFORM OF THE CALENDAR.

Among the reforms that have little of the spectacular but would add greatly to the public advantage and be a distinct international benefit is the improvement of the calendar. Since the normal year consists of fifty-two weeks of seven days and one day over, the dates of particular days of the week change year by year, and time is continually being spent in looking up on what day fixed holidays or other definite dates will fall. Again the important church festival of Easter Day varies in its extreme dates by more than a month, and jumps about in bewildering fashion. Yet Easter Day regulates school holidays, affects trade, transit, hotels and industrial and commercial affairs generally. Another minor objection is the unequal and irregular duration of the months, which requires quite a number of people to resort to the old rhyme device first used to impress the peculiarity on their juvenile memories.

During the sessions of the Congress of Chambers of Commerce to convene next June in London, the deputies of the Netherlands Chamber will submit for acceptance a solution of the calendar difficulty on the lines of a proposal made by Herr S. S. de Clerk. It has been heartily endorsed by Dr. Ernst von Hesse-Wartegg of Berlin, to whom the adoption of some time on the continent of Europe was largely due. In brief, it is suggested that the first two months of each quarter shall have 30 days each, and the last month thirty-one—the odd day required to make up the 365 to be New Year's Day and considered an extra-mensural day. If this system is started in 1911, when New Year's Day will have the further advantage of falling on a Sunday, the following day, Monday, will become January 1, and all the other three quarters will also begin on Monday and end on Sunday. In this way the days of the week will always be associated with the same dates, the extra day in leap year not being counted, but inserted in the middle of the year, and being simply Leap Year Day.

Regarding Easter, which was appointed by the Council of Nicea to be held on the Sunday following the first full moon after the vernal equinox, various reforms have been proposed. Dr. Hesse-Wartegg opposes such of them as introduce other irregularities or require calculation and recommends an absolutely fixed Easter, which will average the present fluctuations and recognize the Christian sentiment regarding it to be on a Sunday. He suggests as part of the general calendar reform, that April 7, which will always fall on Sunday, the Easter Day, and points out that this fixed date will in no way disturb the other Christian festivals dependent on Easter. Dr. Hesse-Wartegg appeals to all chambers of commerce in Europe to instruct their delegates to vote for the adoption of the new system at the approaching congress, because if 1911 is missed, the next favored year will New Year's Day falling on Sunday will not occur till 1918. In this more enlightened age, there should not be the same prejudice that existed when the Julian calendar was reformed and the obvious advantages attending the proposed change should secure for it careful and impartial consideration.

BRITISH LABOR EXCHANGES.

Notwithstanding the attempt made to discredit the British Labor Exchanges that came into existence on February 1, founded on the result of their first operations, further experience has proved their value. Although only 100 exchanges are as yet open, out of a projected total of over 250, well over 30,000 applicants have been helped into employment thru their agency. In this they have been factually assisted by the councils of the greater municipalities and by employers who have both advertised the exchanges and utilized them to the utmost of their power.

It was anticipated that on their first establishment, many would register for whom employment could not be obtained and whose need would have to be met by other means. The exchanges were not designed to create employment, but to provide facilities for moving labor to the points where it was in demand. They, therefore, appealed more to the skilled workmen, and it is this class that is now furnishing the greater proportion of the applicants, both men and women. It has been ascertained that the labor exchanges in Britain have arrived to stay, and that when they have expanded to the full scope authorized by the establishing act, they will be an invaluable factor in the country's industrial economy.

PROMOTION IN CITY SERVICE.

No possible objection can be raised to the principle of promotion as applied to the filling of vacancies in the civil or municipal services, other things being equal. But unfortunately it is notorious that very frequently the principle of promotion is made a cloak for doing things in which the equality of other conditions is utterly lost to sight. If promotions are made purely on their merits, well and good. But if promotions are to be made on the principle of the strongest lodge pull, or the heaviest line-up of friends in the council, with all the succeeding bitterness and departmental jealousy as a result, then the principle of promotion is strained beyond acceptance.

THE VICE-REGAL BOYCOTT.

A boycott is said to have been established by the Irish peers against Lord and Lady Aberdeen's vice-regal court at Dublin. Those who recollect the origin of many of the influential Irish noble houses will be amused at this development of the political situation. Before the Act of Union was accomplished in 1800, eighty-six titles had been distributed among the Irish who were willing to receive them from 1783 till 1800. Forty-three of these were given prior to 1797, and forty-three in the following four years, twenty-seven titles in 1800 alone. Naturally the descendants of these families are inclined to be haughty with a Liberal and home ruler' lord-lieutenant. Nothing better could be designed to promote Lord Aberdeen's popularity in Ireland.

BASIS OF LAND VALUES.

Sometimes real estate values take a sudden and unwarranted rise, and cautious business men speak of unreasonable inflation and unwise speculation. It is then that a prudential Politicus prophesies that "the last man in gets left." It is a variant of our childhood game of "counting out."

Whether the recent purchases of land north of Carlton-street on Yonge-street have given a more than fictitious value to property within and adjoining the purchased block, remains to be seen, but this much can be said, that land is as valuable as the purpose for which it is to be used. This block of land referred to has been bought for a specific purpose. Does it follow that land within striking distance of it is therefore enhanced in value? It certainly does not.

Fortunes have been made out of Toronto real estate and it is comparatively easy to persuade a man that fortunes will again be made. But because a purchaser puts a high value on land he needs for a special purpose, is no criterion on land not within the scope of that purpose. Anyone who wants the boom of fourteen years ago has no desire to see a repetition. While fortunes are in the making thru real estate, they will be made only by assessing values on the basis of the use the land can be put to, or for which it is needed by the purchasers.

Toronto is the municipal "tight-wad." The board of control will have to loosen up.

The hook-worm is on the way north. It has been discovered at Washington. First thing we know Dr. Sheard will find some in the board of control.

Canadians who have been ripping John Bull up the back for his lack of enterprise and old-fashioned methods ought to read the opinions of the royal commission on Canadian methods of doing business in the West Indies.

Electric capitalists can understand Hon. A. B. Aylesworth permitting Messrs. Bell and King to circulate classical literature, but they cannot see why that man Whitney should be allowed to disseminate such stuff as his hydro-power acts and documents.

Nebuchadnezzar was not so crazy after all. Upton Sinclair says that his monkey ancestors lived on raw food and that his alimentary canal is designed for the green stuff. Perhaps Nebuchadnezzar knew this and was merely Fletcherizing in the Babylonian style. The point is that Nebuchadnezzar recovered his reason on the green food, and Upton Sinclair says it has that effect. Could we induce the city government to adopt a diet of bananas and nuts?

THE CRICHTON FAMILY.

Editor World: As I am at present, and have been for some time past, engaged in preparing a history of the whole family of Crichton (sometimes spelled "Crichton") and "Crichtons," I would be very pleased to receive from any member of that family such information as to the ramifications of its offshoots as may be in their possession. There are, I believe, in Canada many Crichtons who have long settled in the country. I accordingly crave the publicity of your journal in order to reach any of your readers who may hold private records, genealogies, notes in family Bibles or other information as to the various collateral branches of the family. FATAL FIRE AT WELLAND.

WELLAND, April 25.—Mrs. Sarah Haun, a widow in the employ of Alexander McAlpine, was burned to death in a fire early this morning, which totally destroyed the residence. Mrs. McAlpine, who is in an invalid, was rescued with great difficulty. The fire was first noticed by Gordon Haun at a quarter past three, and he at once aroused the household of six persons, including his mother, who, after coming out in the hallway, said she would go back to her room upstairs for a valise. In the excitement the incident was forgotten for some minutes, when the boy, aged 15, remarked to Jacob Wise that his mother was upstairs and he pointed to a window. Wise got a ladder and broke in the window, but the flames issued forth with such force that it was impossible to enter the room.

ALD. HEYD HAS A PLAN FOR CITY GOVERNMENT

Would Have Mayor and Four Commissioners Elected For Two-Year Term—5 Civic Depts.

Ald. Heyd, who will at the next city council meeting press his motion for the appointment of a special committee to investigate the merits of civic government by commission, has formed his own ideas as to the system best adapted to Toronto. His plan is:

- 1. City to be governed by a commission or council consisting of a mayor and four men elected every two years by the city at large. Three members shall constitute a quorum, the vote of three members shall be necessary to adopt any motion, resolution or ordinance or pass any measure. Upon every vote the yeas and nays shall be called and recorded. The mayor shall preside at all meetings of the council. 2. The commission or council shall exercise all executive, legislative and judicial powers and duties now exercised by the mayor and board of control and city council. 3. The executive and administrative duties shall be distributed into five departments: (1) Department of public affairs (embracing city solicitor, board of health and legislation and all other departments not hereafter disposed of); (2) department of finance and accounts (embracing treasurer's and assessment department); (3) department of parks and public property (property and public improvements works department and city architect); (4) department of waterworks and health (waterworks and sewage). Full publicity.

The mayor shall be the head of the department of public affairs. The council shall, at the first regular meeting after election, designate by majority vote one councillor to each department. The commission or council shall each month print in pamphlet form a detailed itemized statement of all receipts and expenses, and a summary of its proceedings during the preceding month, furnish copies thereof to city libraries, the daily newspapers of the city, and to persons who shall apply therefor at the office of the city clerk. The holder of any elective office may be removed at any time by the voters qualified to vote for the successor or desired may be submitted to the people in the same way as the above, upon petition of 20 per cent of the qualified electors.

BROADVIEW Y.M.C.A.

Boys' Institute to Become Part of the Larger Organization.

At a meeting held in the rooms of the Broadview Boys' Institute last evening, the young men and boys of East Toronto were given an opportunity to have a share in the Y.M.C.A. campaign that is to be launched next Thursday night. J. M. Godfrey presided and referred to the large part that C. J. Atkinson has taken in the work of the institute and how he had been one of the first to agree that the amalgamation of the institute with the proposed Y.M.C.A. for East Toronto was an excellent proposition.

G. W. Warburton, general secretary of the Toronto Y.M.C.A., explained that the Broadview Y.M.C.A. for the boys and young men of East Toronto will receive at least $75,000 of the $800,000 that is to be raised in the coming two weeks. The plan of the canvass was outlined briefly by C. J. Ward, international Y.M.C.A. secretary, who is directing the campaign. He said in part: "The new association buildings are to be erected by the people of Toronto, rich and poor, and many thousands are going to have a share in the raising of the money. The dollar will be a dollar, and the dollar will be a dollar when all give according to their means."

The concert under the management of Mrs. Mallon given last Friday night in Oddfellows' Hall was a decided success. Among the artists were the Loretto Glee Club, a recent vocal organization, which, under the direction of Mrs. K. J. Smith, gave some charming numbers.

The St. John A. Macdonald Chapter, Daughters of the Empire, will hold a musicale at the residence of Mrs. Taylor, 890 Spadina-avenue, on Thursday evening, May 5. Invitations have been issued by the Trafalgar Daughters (graduates of the Ontario College, Whiteby) for a luncheon at the St. Charles Hotel, May 4, at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Arnold Ivey, 141 Isabella-street, is secretary.

AT THE THEATRES

Royal Alexandra

"The Christian." "That Hall Calme's dramatized version of 'The Christian,' first produced in 1888, has qualities sufficient to sustain public interest was distinctly shown by the audience that assembled at the Royal Alexandra last night. No doubt the contrasts are somewhat crude and one misses the intensive development which is the mark of the really great dramatist, but the author has not erred in providing the situations which create and sustain popular attention. The story is strong, the characters sharply differentiated, and the emotional conflict is one that appeals strongly to the better instincts of average humanity. The moral may be conventional, but all the more so that accuracy is calculated to win popular approval.

The play had an entirely satisfactory presentation last night. Miss Maud Pease as the heroine, a young girl of noble birth, who has been brought up in a convent, is a fine example of the actress. Her performance was excellent. The supporting cast was also very good. The production was well staged and the scenery was excellent.

Princess

"Rambles Thru Ireland." Some of us who remember with heart stirring the old dramas of Ireland, and who have seen the world went to the Princess last night with keen expectations. Moving pictures of Ireland, with Irish harp music and so forth would draw any Irishman or half-Irishman. Did you ever hear Nellie Hayes sing "Will You Buy a Box of Specimens" or "Impudent Barney O'Hea" in Dr. Corry's entertainment? Even if it were forty years ago, you could not forget it.

Well, the show did not forget it. It is more American to begin with, and if the pictures of Ireland were as good as those of New York it would be a tragedy. And they are not chiefly moving pictures at all, but lantern views—some of the best, but not strikingly so. Mr. Dempsey has a splendid opportunity, but he is not Irish enough to understand. The American Irishman is just a little bit different, and like Mr. Dempsey, cannot say Glendalough like a native. Pictures like the round tower at Ardmore, the Galway groups, and those from Mayo, Cong Abbey and a few more, were out of the beaten track. The traveled idea of what the tourist goes to see.

Some harp and violin music was provided, the Cavalleria Intermessa on the violin and the Irish jig on the harp. "Believe me if all those endearing young charms" being very well played. That every genuine Irish audience never be satisfied until Ireland possessed the absolute freedom aimed at by Robert Emmet, and that the more loudly applauded in the United States than in Canada.

Grand

"The Squaw Man." Edwin Milton Royle's interesting character play of the west, "The Squaw Man," was presented here by Mr. Faversham, and was a success. Grand this week, and the opening performance last night was witnessed by a large audience, who showed their appreciation of the work of the company by demanding the appearance of the various members before the curtain at the end of the second act. The first scene of the play is laid in England, and tells the story of Capt. James Wynnegate, an army officer, who for sentimental reasons takes

FORTIFIED AT FIFTY

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Bring Health and Strength to Women at a Critical Time.

Few women reach the age of fifty without enduring much suffering and anxiety. Between the years of forty-five and fifty health becomes feeble, and acute weakness arises with rheumatic attacks, pains in the back and sides, frequent headaches, nervous ailments and depression of spirits. The secret of good health between forty-five and fifty depends upon the blood supply. If it is kept rich, red and pure, good health will be the result, and women will pass their critical stage in safety. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills help women of mature years as no other medicine can, for they make the rich, red blood that means good health, and brings relief from suffering. Mrs. C. Donavan, Newcastle, N. B., says: "About two years ago I was greatly run down and very miserable. I did not know what was wrong with me. I was hardly able to drag myself about, had severe headaches and no appetite. I felt so wretched that I hardly cared whether I lived or not. I had often read of what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had done for others and I decided to try them, and I can now truthfully say I found them all that I was in need of. Under their use my health gradually regained back; I could eat better, sleep better and felt stronger in every way, and before long I was enjoying as good health as I ever had done."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure by going to the root of the trouble in the blood. They correct the new blood. That is why they cure such troubles as rheumatism, neuralgia, indigestion, kidney troubles, headaches, sideaches and backaches. They are especially good for growing girls and women of old years. Sold by all medicine dealers, or by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50. Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

upon himself the onus of a crime he has not committed, and flees to Wyoming, where he takes up ranching under another name; how he meets an Indian woman, Nat-Ritch, who saves his life and how, in gratitude, he marries her. The subsequent proceedings with that of his famous predecessor, Phyllis Kory, is a high priced, but can well be imagined. The scenes are vividly contrasted and many of the situations are of high dramatic value. The play is always so effective on the stage. Frank E. Pease, as "Jim Carleton," the squawman, is a fine example of the actor. His performance was excellent. The supporting cast was also very good. The production was well staged and the scenery was excellent.

Majestic

Summer Vaudeville. The big reduction has been made in the prices at the Majestic, there is no falling off in the standard of articles and Manager Leslie has provided his patrons with a capital bill. Silver and Sands do some clever patter and get rid of a line of original patter. The imitations of Harry Lauder are superb. Dixon and Hanson in their comedy show these plenty of hilarity, while a good strong-armed product put on by the Lamberts, who get a great reception for their hand-balancing feats.

At the Country Club is one of those beautifully drilled and splendidly staged plays which the audience is sure to enjoy. The play is a comedy and is full of fun and frolic. The leading part is played by a young man who is a fine actor. The supporting cast is also very good. The production is well staged and the scenery is excellent.

Shea's

Fun, Fun and Then Fun. There is fun aplenty at Shea's this week. Lulu McConnell, with Grant Simpson, has a delightful sketch by finding the first time throwing a ball. Lulu is eccentric, and she knows how to use every talent given her. At the Country Club is one of those beautifully drilled and splendidly staged plays which the audience is sure to enjoy. The play is a comedy and is full of fun and frolic. The leading part is played by a young man who is a fine actor. The supporting cast is also very good. The production is well staged and the scenery is excellent.

Star

Moulin Rouge Burlesques. Also known to a great extent, "The Moulin Rouge" is a noted cafe in Paris, is fairly well depicted at the Star this week. The play is a comedy and is full of fun and frolic. The leading part is played by a young man who is a fine actor. The supporting cast is also very good. The production is well staged and the scenery is excellent.

The Bascom W.C.T.U. The Bascom W.C.T.U. are giving a reception to new members at their new headquarters, 618 Ontario-street, tonight. All are cordially invited.

Gayety

The Star and Garter Show. "The Star and Garter Show," which opened a week's engagement at the Gayety Theatre, is one of the best of the kind. The play is a comedy and is full of fun and frolic. The leading part is played by a young man who is a fine actor. The supporting cast is also very good. The production is well staged and the scenery is excellent.

Additional trade was acquired at the expense of relatively more energy. The important fact was to get the expense ration down to the lowest point consistent with efficiency. While not prepared to go exhaustively into all the elements that enter into the operation of a business, the speaker stated that a house doing business of $1,000,000 yearly and turning over its stock seven times a year, has practically 1.7 million dollars of stock tied up. To this sum, interest, insurance rates, bad debts, travelers' expenses, cartage, shrinkage, samples, and many others must be added. The speaker, said Mr. Kitson, in conclusion, might be of some service in making manufacturers realize the value of the wholesaler trade as a selling medium.

The retail grocer is the greatest philanthropist in the country," said C. H. Smith, in reading a paper prepared by John Dillon, London, on "How to preserve the interest of the retail trade." He emphasized the need of less cutting of prices amongst the retail merchants, who often sold at a loss in order to secure trade.

"Gentlemen, you must decide how long you are willing to continue handling proprietary lines the margin upon which is not nearly sufficient to pay the cost of handling. It is certain the manufacturer is going to use you just as long as you will let him," said H. G. Beckett of Hamilton, speaking of the cost of living, he said: "A careful investigation of the products handled by the wholesale grocer, covering a period of twenty years will show and does show that prices are on the average, to-day considerably lower than they have been during that period."

"There are some who have a yellow streak," he said. "Such men have little sense of honor in their make-up. They always look with pride at any advantage they think they can gain over their competitors. These men are the ones who delight in breaking away from the legitimate rules of business. These men are price-cutters. They bribe the buyer. They have a degree of dishonesty that does not appeal to the honest man. This policy of deceit practiced in trade has undoubtedly made money for some who have broken away from the legitimate rules of business, but they have not had such license very long if we had years ago such a gathering of manufacturers and merchants as is taking place at this convention."

Price Protection a Safeguard. "To-day this is a live issue in all lines of trade. Price protection, if wisely carried out, and scrupulously adhered to, is a means of safeguarding the manufacturer's goods, and his reputation against the evil effects of price cutting. FARMERS STILL HOLDING MUCH OF 1909 GRAINS

Official Estimates as Compiled at Ottawa—Live Stock in Good Condition.

OTTAWA, April 24.—(Special.) A bulletin of the census and statistics office issued today shows that at the end of March the quantity of wheat in farmers' hands in Canada was about 18.28 per cent of the crop of last year.

The charm of distinction is a valuable feature of these luxurious garments, and there is only one of each kind. Horsemen Prefer Fawn Burberette Rain Coats

THE new cloth for fashionable Rain Coats is not rubberized in the old sense of the word at all. And yet it is waterproof. Burberette is woven so closely, it is so fine, that a chemical treatment containing rubber in solution is worked into the cloth like dye. The result is not only a shower-proof cloth—you have a cloth just as soft and as odorless as tweed or worsted, and which will shed rain all day long if necessary.

Men's Medium Fawn Rain Coats, an imported English Burberette cloth, cut in the fashionable single-breasted style, with Presto collar, which can be worn with the military stand up collar, or with the lapels folded back. A handsome and useful coat, suitable for rain or sunshine, beautifully tailored and perfect fitting, sizes 36 to 46.

Men's Rich Olive, Fawn Waterproof Coats, single-breasted style, with double front, making it thoroughly storm proof, finished with neat Prussian collar, wind cuffs in sleeves and patent rainproof pockets. Sizes 35 to 46, $12.00.

Men's English Paramatta Raincoats, thoroughly rubberized, in a handsome light fawn shade; single-breasted style, with neat military collar, slash pockets and wind cuffs in sleeves. Sizes 36 to 46, $15.00.

Rengo Belt Reducing Corsets

FASHION's most insistent demand is still for long, graceful and sweeping lines. Stout figures have to be moulded to produce this symmetry of form. Wouldn't you rather wear a corset which supports rather than compresses the figure? The Rengo Belt is just such a corset. It is made from fine materials, by experienced experts, and moulds the figure with perfect ease to its own lines of style and grace. We will be pleased to demonstrate the Rengo to you Wednesday.

Model Waists from Paris

WE describe six examples. We particularly emphasize one fact about these models, taking for granted their Parisian grace and charm of style, and that is the extreme beauty of the needlework—the very finest of hand sewing. The daintiness of the materials used is another feature which commends these waists to ladies of refinement.

An exclusive model of white silk chiffon; the yoke is prettily designed with silk embroidery and Yal. lace, collar and lovely sleeves, of dainty-tucking and lace insertion, at $15.00.
The daintiest New York model of white lingerie; lace yoke and collar of fine French Val., front is elaborately trimmed with panels of baby Irish, clusters of baby tucking, new princess sleeves, beautifully finished to match waist. Very special $5.50.

The Desirability of Natural Shantung

WE advocate natural Shantung this season, in the first place, because it is fashionable. But apart from its vogue, there is a pleasure in recommending Shantung due to the natural charm of raw silk, and its very general usefulness. Natural Shantung looks well, and it certainly is a useful fabric. For dresses, coats, children's dresses, or waists, it is equally delicious. It goes and comes to the laundry and no complaint is heard. It weaves well and it does not crush. On Wednesday we offer:—

- 3,000 yards of 34-inch Shantung at 35c per yard. (Compare this silk with 75c Shantung you see elsewhere.)
300 yards of Natural Knobby Shantung, 34 inches wide, at 73c per yard.
