RAIDER SAID TO HAVE THREE SUBMARINES IN ATTENDANCE

No Further Victims of German Pirate Craft Reported—She is Said to Have Been Seen Off Coast of Brazil Going at High Speed

Rio Janeiro, Jan. 20.—The "Journal Pequeno" of Pernambuco asserts that it has information that the German raider is accompanied by three small submarines. These submarines are said to be six metres in length and an entirely new type.

Members of the crews of ships sunk by the raider and who have been held prisoner on board her are quoted as saying that the submarines have been brought into harbor as a prize says the English steamer Yarwoldale of 4,500 tons was brought into harbor on December 31 as a prize by a crew of sixteen men. She had aboard 469 prisoners, the crews of one Norwegian and seven English ships which were captured by a German auxiliary cruiser in the Atlantic Ocean.

Berlin, Jan. 20.—The official statement issued last night regarding the raider's movements is that she is being brought into harbor as a prize says the English steamer Yarwoldale of 4,500 tons was brought into harbor on December 31 as a prize by a crew of sixteen men. She had aboard 469 prisoners, the crews of one Norwegian and seven English ships which were captured by a German auxiliary cruiser in the Atlantic Ocean.

The cargoes of the captured vessels consisted principally of war material for use in Mexico and America and foodstuffs including 6,000 tons of wheat, 2,000 tons of flour and 1,900 horses. The raider had on board 117 motor lorries, one motor car, 6,800 cases of rifle cartridges, 3,000 rolls of barbed wire and 3,500 tons of steel bars headed a large quantity of meat, bacon and sausages.

Of the vessels sunk, three of the British were named. Among the crews of the captured vessels are 103 subjects of neutral states who, as well as enemy subjects have been removed as prisoners of war in so far as they had taken pay on arrested enemy vessels.

The command of the prize crew is held by Deputy Officer Baedewitz. The bringing in of the Yarwoldale has been kept secret up to this time for military reasons, which, in view of the British admiral's statement of January 17, are no longer operative. It is noteworthy that the British admiral resolved to announce to the public these losses, which date from some considerable time back only when the losses were known to the neutral world by the arrival of the Japanese prize Hudson Maru in a Brazilian harbor.

May Mean Trouble. Washington, Jan. 20.—The German admiral's statement that neutral subjects in the crews of vessels captured by the raider are being held in the Atlantic "have been removed as prisoners of war" will raise a complicated question of the rights of neutrals in the event of a British military mission headed by General Phillips and an Italian mission headed by the Italian admiral, the organization of the Greek police.

NINE BELOW IN ST. JOHN; MORE OUTSIDE

This is Coldest Day So Far Experienced Since Winter Set in. The mercury dropped to nine degrees below zero (official) this morning, establishing a record for this season. Towards noon it started to ascend and reached three points below zero, and indications this afternoon were for higher temperature. D. L. Hutchison, director of the local observatory, speaking to a "Times" reporter, said that the probability was for a light snow fall tomorrow.

Albans, Jan. 18.—On my return today from the province, where the general wish is to see the situation very greatly improved. The release of the imprisoned Venetians is a very important step. They were set at liberty in the course of the night by direct order of the minister of justice and the act aroused no opposition nor have they been molested in any way. This gives evidence of much calmer public feeling and other steps will be taken to carry out to the full the allied demands without disturbance.

Prepare On West For The Greatest Battle Of History

Feverish Preparations Being Made—Signal For Outbreak Depends Chiefly on the Weather Man

New York, Jan. 20.—A cable to the Tribune from London says: "Feverish preparations are going on along the west front for what both sides expect to be the greatest battle in history. The signal for the outbreak depends on the weather man chiefly."

Enemy Report. Berlin, Jan. 20.—The German official statement reads: "Western front—Near Wytchacote and west of La Bassac, attacks by British patrols last night were repulsed. Reconnoitering enterprises launched between Doller and the Rhine-Rhone canal were successfully carried out by Wurttemberg troops."

Paris, Jan. 20.—There was a violent artillery action last night in the region of Plessis-De-Roye. Otherwise, says the day's official announcement, the night passed quietly. The announcement follows: "Brief artillery actions of violence occurred in the region of Plessis-De-Roye, north of Lassigny. In the Argonne we blew up a small mine with success. In the sector of Bolante."

APPLICATION FOR LEAVE TO APPEAL. Supreme Court. Application was made yesterday to Mr. Justice Grimmer for leave to appeal from a decision of Dr. J. Roy Campbell, judge pro hac vice, in the estate of Joshua Goodwin, in the probate court, which Oliver B. Akers, the executor of the estate, had been given to him personally. Doctor Campbell decided against the contention of Mr. Akers, and appeal is being sought from this decision.

DAYLIGHT SAVING. The Amber's board of trade has advised the St. John board that it approves of the Daylight Saving scheme, provided it can be made general. The Charlottetown board of trade has given its opinion on the Daylight Saving plan, which would prove useful and valuable to all the inhabitants of that province, if it was generally adopted by all public offices, railways, and steamship companies.

POLICE COURT. The cold wave did not interfere with the police making arrests. One man was before the court this morning charged with drunkenness. Policeman Quinn testified that he had seen the man about the streets from nine o'clock last night until about five o'clock this morning. He was acting rather peculiarly, and was finally locked up.

VERY SUCCESSFUL. A dance given last evening by the Lancaster Red Cross on the West Side was a great success and was much enjoyed by the 200 people who attended. The affair was admirably arranged by Mrs. L. Hetherington and Mrs. J. V. Anglin, to whom a greater part of the evening's success was due. The proceeds were for Red Cross purposes.

CLERGYMAN TO WED. Mr. and Mrs. Tait of Brookville, N.B., announce the engagement of their daughter, Lillie Jamieson, to Rev. Robert Smart, the wedding to take place in Brookville Methodist church on February 6. Mr. Smart, who at present is stationed on the Canterbury circuit, will succeed Rev. Mr. Bertrand on the West-field circuit, at the close of the present conference year.

WILL LIKELY NOT TAKE THE MEN FROM THE FARMS. London, Jan. 20.—A ministerial conference of the highest importance was held yesterday to consider the question of man power for the army as well as for national industries. As a result there will probably be a modification of the plan to withdraw large forces from the agricultural pursuits, of which there has been severe criticism on every side.

High Cost of Living vs. Low Cost of Insurance

Midst all the increasing cost of living there's one thing that hasn't advanced—that's the cost of Imperial Life policies. In fact, an Imperial policy today requires no greater annual investment than a similar policy taken at a corresponding age a dozen years ago.

SOCIAL SERVICE

St. John is ripe for a social service campaign. Recent revelations concerning social conditions, of which only the fringe has been touched, have been such as to cause among thoughtful people a feeling that there is a good deal of veiling on the surface of our boasted Christian civilization.

LOOKING FOR AN ISSUE

The Standard devotes a great deal of space this morning to a statement alleged to have been made by Mr. Cannon, the Liberal candidate, who is opposing Hon. Mr. Seigny in the constituency of Dorchester.

Mr. Cannon's statement is in effect that Canada has done enough for England and that Canada cannot afford to injure herself by doing anything further.

A report of Mr. Cannon's speech that came over the wires yesterday quoted him as saying that he was opposed to conscription. In that he would not greatly differ from the Borden government, which loses no opportunity to declare that no conscription is intended by the national service programme, and which gives no sign of any intention to adopt such a measure—after two and a half years of war.

We do not know whether Mr. Cannon was correctly reported. In that regard, not but it may be taken for granted, without the slightest doubt or hesitation, that he never said Canada had done enough in this war, or that his leader, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, said anything of the sort.

The Conservatives are looking for an issue. They want to divide this country on the racial issue, setting English against French, in the hope of snatching a new lease of power. That is why the remarks of Mr. Cannon are distorted, and why the Standard waves the flag.

Whatever Mr. Cannon may or may not have said, we do know that his opponent, Sir Robert Borden's colleague, was in 1911 violently opposed to the naval programme, and supported the whole Nationalist programme, while another of Sir Robert's present colleagues was loudly shouting: "What has England done for us?" and asserting that in time past it was necessary to shoot holes in the British flag.

With Blondin, Seigny, Patenaude and others of their sort at Sir Robert Borden's elbow, any attempt to question the loyalty of Sir Wilfrid Laurier will not deceive the Canadian people. In due time we shall learn what Mr. Cannon really did say in his campaign speech in Dorchester.

The attention of the Standard is directed to the following official announcement from Ottawa:—"No measure of conscription has yet been under consideration by the government, and in any event compulsory military service could only apply to British subjects resident in Canada. Moreover, men working on farms or in industries essential for carrying on the war, such as munition factories, steel plants, and coal mines, are engaged in work of such importance for war purposes that even if compulsory military service should be adopted there is little probability that they would be disturbed."

The Toronto Globe says:—"The people of Germany, who in the earlier stages of the war bitterly resented interference with their supplies of beer, had to choose between beer and food, as the people of the British Isles may have to choose before many more weeks have elapsed. The Germans have chosen food."

There has been considerable discussion during the past year relative to the establishment of a Young Women's Christian Association in St. John. The annual report of the Bangor Y. W. C. A. gives some idea of the activities of the association in that city. In addition to ordinary Travellers' Aid work, many persons coming to the city write in advance and board is secured for them where their comfort and safety are secured. The association is handicapped in not having a building, but it carries on some educational work, such as millinery and dressmaking classes, conducts an employment agency, and has a lunch room where women and girls get meals at a low price as possible. There are also social and religious activities, and clubs are formed among girls with the motto: "To learn something, to do something, and to have a good time." The association hopes soon to be provided with a home of its own, for wider work. It expended last year the sum of $7,700.00, but of course the lunch room accounted for a considerable portion of this amount. The sum of $3,142.35 was paid out in salaries and wages. The whole cost, apart from receipts from the lunch room, etc., is provided by private benevolence.

The appeal of the female teachers of the city for an increase in salary ought to be complied with, if there is any possible means of providing the money. Their services have never received fair recognition. We hand our children over to them, and as a rule never go near them have been fighting for a free, a cleaner, and a better world. We hope that prohibition will aid greatly in improving social conditions, but there are evils not closely allied with drink which must be removed before the delicate and the young. When we have learned to put first things first we will not hesitate to pay generous salaries to the teachers of our children. The school board will be doing but a simple measure of justice if it grants the prayer of the teachers of St. John.

If Germany continues her raiding policy at sea, arming captured vessels and converting them into raiders, she may get into trouble with not only the United States, but the South American republics. Meanwhile there is the possibility that she may do a great deal of damage although we may take it for granted that British cruisers are sharpening the lookout for the raiders.

Addressing the Prussian Diet, Dr. Von Heydebrand said: "The town peoples are suffering grievously. It is sad to see how long women have to wait for a couple of potatoes, and how, for the simplest necessities, town dwellers must pay absolutely exorbitant prices. These prices must also continue for a long time after the war." This is a significant admission. The British blockade is doing its work.

Sir Sam Hughes is out for universal military service. He says enlistment should no longer be voluntary. But Sir Sam no longer speaks for the Borden government.

A tax rate approaching $2.50 and the prospect of higher rents may be regarded as somewhat substantial evidences of the need of economy during the current year in St. John.

If Sir Wilfrid Laurier is responsible for what Mr. Cannon may have said, was not Sir Robert Borden responsible for what Blondin and Seigny said in 1911?

The situation in Greece is now declared to be satisfactory to the Entente Allies. This means much in relation to the Salonika campaign.

Loyal India will raise an unlimited war loan for war purposes. This is India's answer to the intrigues of Germany.

The report of the chief of police for the last year is a document worthy of a careful perusal by the citizens.

Well, Halifax will probably have a good train service.

Apologised for Breaking Truce

Some Fraternizing at Front This Christmas In Spite of Rigid Orders

But Canadian Colonel Took Rifle From Private and Shot Him Who Had Been Unmolested

With the Canadian Army Corps in France, Dec. 29.—There was nothing to remind me of the fact that Monday last was Christmas day as I took a long and fatiguing walk in the trenches held by a brigade, which included Montreal troops. The rain of the previous evening had ceased but left the roads muddy and the duck-boards in the trenches slippery. It was a grey sort of morning, and the weather was reflected in the faces of the men seen in the trenches. They knew that the great festival was nothing to them, that they must "carry on" and kill as usual. But the real spirit of the day was strong in the minds of some men, and they were inclined to lay down their rifles and offer Fritz a cigarette. "Why don't you put that fellow," demanded a colonel, who noticed that one of his men ignored the presence of a Boche, who was wandering about the Man's Land. "Oh, it's Christmas, sir," was the answer, "and we don't want to spoil it." The colonel took the man's rifle, and in a moment the indiscreet Boche fell. "There you carry on," he retorted, as he restored the weapon. "Brutal! yes, especially as one thinks of the strains which were ascending at that hour of the day in thousands of churches—the strains of 'Peace on earth and mercy mild.' That fraternizing business was all very well in the first Christmas, remarked the brigadier-general who told this incident, "but the U-boat and Zeppelin outrages have put the Han out of our civilization. Our business here is to kill Hun, and not to celebrate anything until we have done the job." In fact, the purpose of this brigadier's visit of inspection that morning was to see that invitations to Fritz to "come and have a cigarette" were nipped in the bud. In another part of our line I heard next day that the attempt got under way, and that in one case where a German rifle went off, the officer in command sent an apology to our side for this serious breach of Christmas etiquette.

BREAK A CHILD'S COLD BY GIVING SYRUP OF FIGS

Cleanses the Little Liver and Bowels and They Get Well Quick

When your child suffers from a cold don't wait; give the little stomach, liver and bowels a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When cross, peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat not naturally, if breath is bad, stomach sour, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours the dog-gone-up congested waste, sour bile and undigested food will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

If your child coughs, snuffles and has caught cold or is feverish or sore throat give a good dose of "California Syrup of Figs," to evacuate the bowels no difference what other treatment is given.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. They also know a little given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

FOOD SOURING IN STOMACH CAUSES INDIGESTION, GAS

"Pape's Diapepsin" ends all stomach distress in five minutes

Wonder what upset your stomach— which portion of the food did the damage do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if you are gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a danger instead of a help; remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful; it digests food and sets things straight, so gentle and easy that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.

The value of lost property recovered during the year reached $10,118.60. The work of the police matron has increased considerably over that of the previous year on account of the number of cases being cared for by the Children's Aid Society.

Bread Inspector John O'Neill, in his report to the chief, finds that the bread law is being well carried out and that all proprietors are willing to adhere to its conditions.

As has been stated before, there were a total of 2,291 arrests in the city for 1916. Three hundred and six of these have been by the detectives. The arrests for other cities number sixteen.

The report contains two important recommendations:—First, as to the act passed in 1895 in regard to second-hand dealers. The chief recommends that this act be amended so that the second-hand dealers be compelled to make out and deliver reports of their transactions.

Cleaning Up. The report referring to the Children's Aid Society says:—A great amount of work was accomplished during the last year, which has fallen very heavily on my detectives, and the police generally.

In this regard I cannot speak too highly of the assistance rendered by the Rev. Father Duke, and the supervisors of the Roman Catholic institutions of the city, who have shown their willingness to do all in their power to assist in the care of children regardless of creed.

Nuxated Iron to Make New Age of Beautiful Women and Vigorous Iron Men

Say Physicians—Quickly Puts Roses Into the Cheeks of Women and Most Astonishing Youthful Power Into the Veins of Men—It Often Increases the Strength and Endurance of Delicate, Nervous "Run-Down" Folks 200 Per Cent. in Two Week's Time.

A Wonderful Discovery Which Promises to Mark a New Era in Medical Science.

Dr. Schuyler C. Jacques, Visiting Surgeon of St. Elizabeth's Hospital of New York City, said: "I have never before given out any medical information or advice for publication, as I ordinarily do not believe in it. But in the case of Nuxated Iron I feel I would be remiss in my duty not to mention it. I have taken it myself and given it to my patients with most surprising and satisfactory results. And those who wish quickly to increase their strength, power and endurance will find it a most reasonable and wonderfully effective remedy."

NOTE—Nuxated Iron, which is prescribed and recommended above by physicians in such a great variety of cases, is not a patent medicine nor secret remedy, but one which is well known to druggists and whose iron constituents are widely prescribed by eminent physicians both in Europe and America.

"Works Both Ways"

The getting of two distinct values when purchasing one article applies pretty generally in the field of merchandise. These times, extending even into liniments. While most articles of this nature are intended for external use only, a notable exception is the famous Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. Powerful enough for every requirement of outside application when needed for sprains, strains, muscular rheumatism, all aches, pains, and soreness, it is, in addition, a wonderfully effective preparation for internal use in the case of colds, coughs, sore throat, cramps, chills, etc., when necessary that its remarkable soothing and healing qualities go direct to the seat of an inward trouble. Thus, in Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, you get two in one—internal and external use—the double value liniment as it is known. Over 100 years of splendid service to humanity has made Dr. Abner Johnson's prescription a household word, and present day users speak of it as "an angel in disguise."

Tried the Mail Order System

The kick in a certain Scottish village was in urgent need of repair, and Sandy McNab, a very popular member, had been invited to collect subscriptions for the purpose. One day the minister met Sandy walking irresolutely along the road. The good man at once greeted the cause. "Man, Sandy," he said, earnestly, "I'm sorry to see ye in this state." "Ah, weel, it's for the good o' the cause," replied the delinquent, happily. "Ye see, minister, it's a' through these subscriptions. I've been down to the glen collectin' fun', an' at every house they made me hae a wee drappie." "Every house! But—but—surely, Sandy, there are some of the kirk members who are teetotalers?" "Aye, there are; but I wrote tae those."

ANNUAL MEETING OF QUEEN SQUARE SUNDAY SCHOOL

The annual meeting of the Queen Square Methodist church Sunday school was held at the residence of the pastor, Rev. Hammond Johnson, Pagan Place, last evening, with twenty-four of the officers and members in attendance. The superintendent, R. D. Smith presented the 107th annual report of the school showing that the last year was one of the most prosperous in its long history. The secretary's report showed a total enrollment of 281, a gain of forty-six, divided as follows: Cradle roll, seventy-three; Junior, twelve; secondary division, forty-seven; adult Bible class, seventy-seven; teachers and officers, thirty-seven; home department, fifty-four. The average attendance for the year has been 125, or a gain of two over the preceding year. There were 128 times that classes had perfect attendance. A report submitted by the treasurer showed that $418 had been raised during the twelve months. Reports were also read from representatives of various other committees and other departments and showed the school to be in a very flourishing condition. The election of officers resulted as follows: R. Duncan Smith, superintendent; L. V. Lingley and F. C. McLean, associate superintendents; R. S. Stephenson, secretary; William Weisford, and Harry Dunlap assistant secretaries; Mrs. A. B. Gilmore, treasurer; A. Turner Howard, assistant treasurer; Arthur Robertson, librarian; C. M. Lingley, assistant librarian; Miss J. Betts, superintendent of the home department; Miss M. Thompson, assistant superintendent; Mrs. E. L. Smith, superintendent of the cradle roll department. Teachers who had served during the past year were re-elected, and Miss Gladys Morrison added to the force. The committee will be: Missionary, F. C. McLean, Mrs. Blizard, Mrs. Dickinson; Temperance, L. V. Lingley, Miss Pratt. The following grants were also made: Library, $25; free kindergarten, $2; N. B. S. S. Association, $15; S. S. Aid and Extension Fund, $15. A special collection will be taken up in the school for the Children's Aid Society. A special resolution approving the prohibition move was also passed, and will be sent to the government. Following the business of the meeting, the members spent a social hour with the pastor serving as host.

LUDGATE LAKE PROPERTY To the Editor of The Times-Star: Sir—I would like to say in answer to Commissioner Wignorn's reply to Pro Bono Publico that I am one who is interested in the property of Ludgate mentioned. I have a good share of taxes to pay and I must say that too much property is not a good thing to have just now, as from all appearances the assessments will use large figures to make the assessments for this year. The commissioners never had this property bought, as I understand it. If he will glance over the bargain made at the time he refers to he will remember that 33 (thirty-three) feet around the lake was mentioned, and when Mr. Murdoch staked it off he discovered it was not enough to cover the idea for which it was intended, and they wanted as much more of the ground for the price then mentioned and disagreement followed, and there the matter stands. Now, is it up to the commissioners to throw cold water on the property and discourage the owners and home-seekers who want to purchase the ground? And can he further explain why Ludgate would not develop into a beautiful and healthy suburban residential section, as the ground is high and commands the view of the country around. Moreover, I don't think there is any law in Canada at present, and I don't think there will be any legislation that will prevent landowners from disposing of their property. We are not holding this site for any particular individual. A Sharpening of Swords, Instead of Peace. A stiffening of the resolve to fight on to victory or the bitter end, would seem to be the chief result of President Wilson's efforts to hasten the end of the war in Europe. This conclusion is reached after reading the Entente Allies' reply to President Wilson's proposal for peace negotiations, although in some quarters it may be felt that there is still a loophole for a continuance of peace discussion. Lloyd George, the British Premier, supplements the stiffness of the Allies' answer by saying in his Guildhall speech that "The Allies are still convinced that even war is better than peace at the price of Prussian domination over Europe," and that before anyone can "attempt to rebuild the temple of peace, they must see that the foundations are solid." IN THE LITERARY DIGEST for January 20th, the leading article deals with the Entente Allies' response to President Wilson's request to the warring Powers, and in the form of quotations from statesmen and leading newspapers gives an all-sided presentation of public opinion on the subject. With the destiny of our whole social and governmental system hanging in the balance we are so deafened by the clamor of the advocates of these two conflicting parties that we find it hard to know which to follow, or what are the actual rights and wrongs of the questions involved—Here THE LITERARY DIGEST comes to our aid with its cool and sane discussions of these world-shaking events along absolutely impartial lines, quoting from all sorts of periodicals without a shadow of bias. Are you subject to "Colds" and "Grippe"?

AN all too prevalent condition with many of us. Know the reason. You are lacking that quality called "reserve power." Your body is unable to resist the sudden changes in weather. You probably feel "run down"—"not up to the mark"—then comes a raw damp chilly day and you have another cold. Healthy people don't catch cold. Their reserve power is sufficient to resist the inclemencies of our peculiar climatic conditions.

What you must do to replenish the waste which is constantly going on in the human economy. Build up your "reserve power."

Sanagen does just this. That is why it is so strongly recommended by physicians throughout the land. Sanagen consists of the most energy producing proteins, combined with organic phosphorus, a necessary element of the brain and nerve tissue. It not only supplies the very elements your body needs but it also assists you to extract all the nutrients from the food you eat.

Commence today to build up your "reserve power" with Sanagen. It is available at all drug stores.

BASEBALL. May Trade Bush and Schang.

Philadelphia, Jan. 18.—Connie Mack has busted up the "triple holdout league" according to a statement issued by one close to affairs at Shibe Park. The team leader, it is said, has decided to retain most Strunk, the speedy outfielder, and allow Joe Bush and Wally Schang to hold out as long as they desire.

In other words, Connie will grant Strunk an increase in salary, but "Bullet Joe" and Schang must sign the original 1917 contracts or go some place else.

It is certain that both Bush and Schang will be traded to some other club. Schang is wanted by Boston and, according to reports here, there is a chance of trade for "Dutch" Leonard.

Bush pitched one of three no-hit games last year.

No Increase for Maranville.

President Houghton, of the Boston Nationals, Thursday summarily refused to increase the salary offered Walter Maranville, the Braves' crack shortstop. Returning to the club offices after several days' absence, he found Maranville had refused to sign a contract for next year at the terms of the past two seasons, understood to be $6,500 a year. "Maranville will sign at the salary I offered him or he will get out of baseball. That's final," Houghton announced.

Maranville, who was in Boston on a visit, would not comment on the president's statement, beyond saying that his refusal to sign had nothing to do with the Players' Fraternity.

Weghman Means Business.

Chicago, Jan. 19.—Charles H. Weghman, president of the Chicago National, Friday added emphasis to his policy announced early this week in dealing with ball players who refuse to sign contracts and offered the case of James Archer, catcher as an object lesson. The veteran catcher refused a contract calling for $4,000, saying that the cut from $7,000 was too great. Mr. Weghman said that he had sent Archer a second contract, "calling for considerably less than $4,000."

Mr. Weghman said that the Chicago club's salary list last season was $145,000, and asserted that $80,000 or $80,000 is all a big league club can afford. He reiterated former statements, replying to threats by David L. Fultz, president of the Baseball Players' Fraternity, to call a strike of the Chicago players on Feb. 20, that the club's special train would leave for the training camp at Pasadena, Calif., on that date, "if there is no strike on hand."

Will Form New Team.

President Tener says that none of the clubs of the National League has taken any steps to collect new players to use in the event of the fraternity members carrying out their threat to strike. The American League men do not hesitate to say that they will go ahead and build up new teams to take the place of the strikers.

In taking their present defiant stand against organized ball the players firmly believed that the National Commission would be forced to step in and use its influence with the major league officials to grant the demands of the minor league players. Both President Tener and President Johnson believe that this is an action which will absolutely not be taken. They maintain that it is purely a minor league matter, which has nothing whatever to do in any way with the major leagues or their players.

As far as the fraternity is concerned, President Fultz said that the players had taken their stand and will sit tight and await developments. Mr. Fultz insists emphatically that the minor league grievances are of vital interest to the major league players. He points out that the personnel of the major leagues changes completely about every eight years, and it will only be a few years before the majority of the men now playing in the majors will be back in the minors. To insure their future after their major league usefulness is gone, Fultz argues that the players were compelled to take their present stand to insure their future welfare.

Collins Will Report.

Philadelphia, Jan. 17.—Edward T. Collins, who draws one of the biggest salaries among baseball players, said today that he would report to the White Sox training camp on time next spring. "I am not a member of the fraternity," explained Collins, "and am, therefore, not subject to any orders from the union. I am working under a long-time contract with Mr. Comiskey and will be the most enthusiastic man in the country when reporting time comes."

"I once belonged to the fraternity, but permitted my membership to lapse for the simple reason that I was not enthusiastic about it. I never had a grievance against the fraternity. The Athletics and Connie Mack always treated me right, and Comiskey is doing the same thing. Now, don't think I am antagonistic to the fraternity. I am not, but am simply explaining my position."

Jennings Opposes Players.

Seranton, Penn., Jan. 17.—Manager Hugh Jennings of the Detroit team tonight went on record as saying that the ball players are wrong in their present strike attitude, and that if the movement is carried out, as threatened, the men are bound to suffer in the end. In terms one of the players' demands, unmet for he said: "In my long experience in the major leagues, both as a player and a manager, I never heard of a big league manager refusing to pay a player who was hurt in the service of his employer."

Jennings believes the rank and file think too much of their jobs and the money to resort to a strike. However, he said if the strike is called the owners are in a better position to stand the losses than the players and that the moguls are sure to win.

A SAD CASE
Secretary S. M. Wetmore of the Municipal Home board had a cold drive this morning. He had to gather together a supply of provisions and go two or more miles out the Boat's Head road, to relieve a family in want. The family consists of man and wife and seven bright children. The father, laborer, has had pneumonia and as a result of his long illness, their distress became acute. Further aid must be provided.

The Man In The Street

On a day like this, the title of the man in the street is misleading; the one time man in the street is today hugging the hottest radiator he can find.

And, by the way, if he repeated all the knocks and kicks which are submitted to him for publication that editor would be changing the name of this column to "The Semi-Weekly Grouch," or something like that.

Even Kipling is Bored
Harland Observer—Once again The Observer must repeat that it does not, under any circumstances, print obituary or other original "poetry."

So Careless of Him
An evening contemporary publishes the picture of a notorious citizen of the United States "who attempted to commit suicide by cutting his own throat." It would have made a still better story if he had attempted to commit suicide by cutting some other person's throat.

A Long Wait
A German statesman remarks that "it is sad to see how long women are waiting for a couple of potatoes." It is still sadder, for them, to think how long the average German will have to wait for a juicy beefsteak.

That's Good News
The morning government organ makes the frank admission that it was "scooped" on the sensational developments at the Westmorland county council. If they thought it necessary to apologize for all the news they miss there would not be room for any they might happen to get.

Real Economy
France is so enthusiastic about last year's daylight saving scheme that they are talking of introducing the plan again on February 15. At that rate, they should save enough daylight this summer to last them all next winter.

On the Brink
Soon we'll have to dig up that well-worn head line "On the Brink of War" for the benefit of Sweden and Switzerland and on the brink of the long that the directories will be giving that as her permanent address.

Won't We Need it Again?
The decision of the authorities to convert the army into a hospital for returned soldiers, looks up a ration of reflection on the physically fit men of the city who have not enlisted.

Safety First
Premier Borden seems to have learned a lesson from Caesar, judging from his elevation of Hon. Mr. Hazen over the head of Hon. Mr. White. As Shakespeare makes the remark say:
"Give me men about me that are fat; Sleek-headed men, and such as sleep of nights;
"Yond Cassius has a lean and hungry look;
"He thinks too much; such men are dangerous."

GLAD HE WENT; WOULD GO AGAIN

Halifax Soldier, Here Yesterday, Speaks of War—Sees Germans Finally Beaten Next Summer

"I am glad to be home, am glad that I went and would gladly return was the way that Private J. McDermott, of Halifax, expressed himself when interviewed by a Times representative yesterday afternoon, after spending one year and a half on the western front.

Private McDermott went overseas with the 53th Battalion and crossed to France with the first draft from that unit, which was attached to the 25th Nova Scotia Battalion. "My experiences while at the front," he said, "were too many to enumerate, but I can truly say that the 25th Battalion, as have other Canadian units, has shown up well."
"It was in the great battle of the Somme that the Germans put me out of commission by placing in my back a piece of shrapnel, yet with all that, I am one of the fortunate ones." He was of the same opinion as others who have recently returned, that the war will be brought to a close during the summer of 1917, and added, that within the last twelve months the Germans have been surrendering in all quarters and crossing to the Allies lines with hands up. "It is not necessary for me to tell you that this was not the case. When I crossed to France—about eighteen months ago, in those days it was a fight to the finish."
"The morale of the German army," he said, "was undoubtedly broken, and it was not only the battle of the Somme that had done it, as we so often hear said, but also the battles of Ypres and St. Eloi. It was in these battles that the enemy found that we meant one thing, and that was victory. Our artillery have them from every standpoint, in the placing of shells, in guns and in ammunition, which, by the way, is one of the greatest factors in the winning of the war. All one can see on the way from the Somme front back to the coast is guns and ammunition. Our airmen have the enemy hands down and while at the first of the war it was an every day occurrence to see German airplanes over our lines, it is now a very rare thing. We have also put the drop on the Zeppelins, and they are fast becoming in the same class as the German navy, that is, they stay where man or gun cannot reach them."

SAYS YPRES WAS HARDEST FIGHT

Soldier Creamer of Aylesford, N. S., Home From War, Reached Home Yesterday

Of the thirty-four maritime province men who returned to Canada by steamer yesterday, perhaps none could tell a more interesting story of experiences than did Private Ernest Creamer of Aylesford, N.S., who went overseas with the first contingent as a member of the 1st Divisional Train, Army Service Corps.

He said that in all he had spent about fifty months at the front and during that time had seen what at one time looked like defeat for the allies on that front change into what might be called a sure victory, but the victory he added, would not be won until the summer of 1917.

"This is not only my opinion," he said, "but the opinion of practically all the men at the front including the officers. For one to be able to make this remark he must have been at it since the beginning of the war and, believe me, the change is wonderful in the conditions at the front at the present time to what they were when the first contingent of the Canadian boys arrived on French soil."

When asked as to what he thought was the fiercest and most deadly battle that took place from the time the Canadians arrived on the western front up to the time he was wounded, he named the first battle of Ypres, the inhabitants of the city of Ypres, which numbered, he would judge, about from sixty to sixty-five thousand people, had been warned to get out of the city, but they delayed. The trenches which were held by the Canadians were about three miles beyond the city and the fighting had been going on for a few days with nothing more, but the exchange of sniping fire until one day the German artillery opened fire on the city and began to shell the city.

"The 8th battalion, which was entrenched about three miles from the city, held their trenches, while the trenches on both the right and left flank were taken by the enemy. This left the 8th battalion surrounded and they fought for three days without food, until the 10th and 16th battalions had made several bayonet charges and succeeded finally in relieving the 8th. Too much could be said for the members of this unit for they practically held a German army for three days. His unit was ordered to take up rations for the unit, also hand grenades, and while going through the city, it was all one could do to keep from falling over in a faint because of the sad sights."

"Did anyone ever tell you about the old Maxey? Well, he was most sensational officer on the western front. He was in command of an imperial field artillery battery, and, by the way, was an airman. The airplane had placed at his disposal an airplane and with his own hands he had seen him come down within 100 yards of the German trenches, take their positions and then, with a few shells blow a German trench to atoms. He is known by all the boys on the western front. He was wounded just recently."

Private Creamer, in speaking of the spirit of the men who have spent from one to two years at the front, said that it was surprising the way these men go into the trenches. They are always wearing a smile and exchanging jokes. He added that a man that can smile after spending some time on that front could be decorated.

SISTER AND BROTHER RESIDENTS OF ST. JOHN

Particulars of Death of Private Cady of Chatham Received

Mrs. Henry J. Kelly, of 15 Brooks street, received a letter Wednesday informing her that her brother, Private Alfred Cady, had died in a hospital in France, December 28, as a result of gas poisoning. He left Canada attached to the 53th Battalion and was transferred to another unit in England. Word of his death was received by his mother, Mrs. Cady, of Chatham, N. B., from Father Fitzpatrick, a priest, who prepared the unfortunate man for death. He wrote that he had been with Private Cady to the last and had been present at his burial. Father Fitzpatrick said that Private Cady had been in the hospital only five hours when he succumbed from the effects of the poisoning.

The news of his death came as a great shock to his family, as his mother had received a letter from him recently. Private Cady had sailed from Canada only a few hours when his father passed away.

Private Cady was a resident of Chatham and was well known in that town. He played for several years on baseball teams. Besides his mother he is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Henry J. Kelly of this city, and Mrs. John Clancy of Chatham, also three brothers, George Cady of St. John, Robert at home and Joseph with the 182nd Battalion in France.

HIS ANKLE SPRAINED.
When returning home from work last evening about seven o'clock, Cecil R. McKiel of Prospect street, Fairville, fell on the ice near his home and badly sprained his ankle. Doctor Allingworth was hastily called, as it was feared at first the leg had been broken, but it was found that the accident had resulted in a very bad sprain. Mr. McKiel will likely be confined to the house for several days.
