STRAIGHT PARTY FIGHT FOR ALL N.B. SEATS

P. J. HUGHES TO OPPOSE R. B. HANSON

Liberal Is Nominated for York-Sunbury Contest

COMPLETES LIST

Saint John-Albert Proceedings Pass Off Quietly; Papers Duly Filed

FREDERICTON, Sept. 7.—There is to be a straight party fight between Liberal and Conservative candidates in every constituency in New Brunswick in the Federal elections, nomination proceedings today revealed.

This morning, Peter J. Hughes, of Fredericton, was nominated as Liberal candidate in York-Sunbury to oppose R. B. Hanson, Conservative, who represented the constituency in the last parliament.

This completed the list of nominations, all other candidates in this province having previously been in the field.

The determination to place a candidate in the field, it is said, was reached by the local Liberals over the week-end.

Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, leader of the Liberal party, insisted that a candidate be placed in the field in order that all constituencies be rounded out with candidates.

C. R. Hawkins was witness to the signatures on the papers of Mr. Hughes, and E. Allison MacKay is his agent.

The witness to the signatures on Mr. Hanson's papers was John M. Wiley. C. L. Dougherty is his agent.

The Liberal candidate is a distinguished member of the New Brunswick bar, and a member of the firm of McLellan and Hughes. He was Liberal candidate on a provincial ticket some years ago.

NOMINATION day proceedings passed off very quietly here today and there was no speech-making, and nothing unusual occurred.

The papers of R. T. Hayes and W. M. Ryan, Liberal candidates, were filed on Saturday, and those of Thomas Bell and Dr. Murray MacLaren this morning.

Percy D. McAvity appeared as agent for Mr. Ryan, and Charles A. Owens as agent for Mr. Hayes.

Those signing the papers of Mr. Hayes and Mr. Ryan were Hon. Walter E. Foster, Charles McDonald, W. B. Priddy, J. Fraser Gregory, W. E. McDonald, Sr., A. G. Potter, Richard O'Brien, T. A. Armour, H. A. Porter, Dr. L. M. Curran, Dr. A. F. Emery, Dr. W. F. Broderick, A. McMillan, W. P. McDonald, Jr., James T. Sharpe, W. E. Scully, W. J. Johnston, T. H. Eatsbrook, F. S. Thomas, George McAvity and S. B. Donovan.

CONSERVATIVE BACKERS The papers of Dr. MacLaren and Mr. Bell were signed by the following residents of Saint John city and county: W. S. Fisher, T. E. G. Armstrong, Walter G. Drake, Ida I. Prita, J. G. Harrison, C. C. Fraser, W. H. Harrison, M. L. A. Harold W. Kingston, Charles P. Hamm, T. E. Simpson, Dr. J. Herbert Barton, George T. Polly, James Lewis, M. L. A. Rupert, W. CANADA PASSES UP CLAIM FOR COUNCIL SEAT

League Delegation Makes Decision at Secret Meet

By HENRY WOOD United Press Staff Correspondent GENEVA, Sept. 7.—The Canadian delegation to the League of Nations met secretly today and decided to temporarily abandon its claim for a permanent seat on the League Council.

For the present, Canada will press her claim to a council seat, Sir George Foster told the United Press, although she will reserve the right to put forward such a demand in the future.

ACTION NON-COMMITTAL This decision, naturally, does not commit the other Dominions, which retain liberty of action. But, since Canada was considered to be the most prominent potential candidate for the seat, the British Dominions, by their absence from the scramble for a council seat, evoked the belief that all the Dominions would refrain from urging similar claims during this session.

Together with Canada, it was understood here that Australia might become a strong contender for a seat. The sentiment of the Dominion delegates indicated that they must be changed. Out of about two and a half million votes there was a negative majority of nearly 400,000. Five out of six states gave negative majorities on all questions. New South Wales only giving an affirmative vote in favor of the proposition to give control of industrial problems to the federal government.

BRITISH MARINERS' WITHDRAWAL ASKED Chinese Foreign Minister Demands Interference With River Traffic Stop

HONG KONG, Sept. 7.—The Chinese government's foreign minister has written the British consul general demanding the immediate withdrawal of British marines from the jetties near Shameen—the foreign residential settlement—the cessation of British interference with river traffic, and the retirement of British gunboats to their usual anchorages.

A naval detachment was landed Saturday on a British owned wharf to protect it. The detachment arrested some Chinese strike pickets who were indiscriminately firing on passenger and freight vessels plying to and from Hong Kong. Some of the bullets hit the United States gunboat Sacramento.

Sudden Blast and Light Blaze Startle Five British Counties

LONDON, Sept. 7.—A wide area of North Midland England was startled at 9:45 o'clock last night, by a mysterious explosion, accompanied by a sudden blaze of light, which lasted only two or three seconds. Just what happened is not known, but the general opinion is that a big meteor fell.

400-Year-Old Coffin Dug Up In England

Canadian Press BRATTLEBORO, Hampshire, England, Sept. 7.—Three coffins, one of which contains the skeleton of a soldier killed 400 years ago in the War of the Roses, have been uncovered at Brattlebury Abbey, in the heart of New Forest.

The soldier's coffin was made of oak and had undergone the centuries well. The discovery astonished archaeological experts, since it was not generally known that wooden coffins were used as early as the fifteenth century.

MOVE DEFEATED TO ALTER CONSTITUTION

Australian Voters Give 400,000 Negative Majority on Change Referendum

SYDNEY, Australia, Sept. 7.—The popular verdict in Saturday's referendum for an amendment of the constitution to give the federal government supreme authority in labor and industrial matters instead of the state governments as at present has emphatically declared against any change. Out of about two and a half million votes there was a negative majority of nearly 400,000. Five out of six states gave negative majorities on all questions. New South Wales only giving an affirmative vote in favor of the proposition to give control of industrial problems to the federal government.

Steamers Will Have Refrigerators, Passenger and Freight Facilities, Dalrymple Says

MONTREAL, Sept. 7.—The building of five new ships for the Canadian Government Merchant Marine for service between this country and the West Indies, in accordance with the terms of the West Indies Trade Treaty, is expected in local circles to be undertaken shortly, according to J. E. Dalrymple, vice-president in charge of freight traffic of the Canadian National Railways.

These will have refrigerators, passenger and freight accommodation. The vessels will be built in Canada, Mr. Dalrymple declared.

OFFER TO GOVERNMENT The offer to establish this new service has been made to the government by the C. G. M. M., and it is anticipated that some action will be taken as soon after the elections as is practicable, Mr. Dalrymple intimated.

If the offer is accepted, Montreal will be the summer port of the service and Halifax will be the winter port.

FIRE DESTROYS 8 HOUSES IN QUEBEC

Blaze Breaks Out During Political Meeting at Gentilly; Loss $80,000

THREE RIVERS, Que., Sept. 7.—Eight houses and their outbuildings were destroyed with a loss of about $80,000 in a fire at Gentilly, fifteen miles from here, last evening. The fire broke out at about 10 o'clock and spread from burning brush carried by the wind, and the village church was three times attacked.

Three Rivers, however, working with only chemical extinguishers, checked the flames. The fire broke out while a political meeting was in progress in the village.

Refused Bobbed Hair, High School Girl Shoots Herself

Father, Church Deacon, Said Cutting Was Against Word of God

BRIDGETON, N. J., Sept. 7.—Because her father, a church deacon, refused to permit Annabelle E. Lewis, 14, high school girl, to have her hair bobbed, Annabelle killed herself Monday.

All summer long she begged permission to have her hair bobbed. Howard F. Lewis, her father, said bobbed hair was against the word of God and refused. She brought school chums to her home to tell her father of the comfort of a bobbed head and to show him how stylish it was.

"I was unable to take her to a barber," the father explained, "she became sulky. When her mother asked her to help with the breakfast dishes she continued to read a newspaper. I scolded her. Without a word she went up stairs, locking the door. Then I heard the report of a gun and rushing to the second floor there was Annabelle's body on the floor of my bedroom."

Mary K. Browne, of California, to Tour U. S. With French Tennis Ace

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—Mary K. Browne, of Santa Monica, Calif., for 15 years an outstanding tennis star and former national champion, yesterday became a professional.

Ending a brilliant career as an amateur, which at one time found her achieving the remarkable feat of reaching the finals of the national golf and semi-finals of the national tennis championships in the same year, the versatile California player announced that she had agreed to oppose Miss Suzanne Lenglen in the French girls' projected professional tour under the management of Charles C. Pyle.

P. E. I. Horses Take Honors At Halifax

HALIFAX, Sept. 7.—Three Charlottetown horses, two owned and driven by Colonel D. A. McKinnon, garnered the major honors in the horse racing program at the exhibition speedway yesterday afternoon, in the presence of about three thousand spectators.

British Giner won the third, fourth and fifth heats of the 240 class in fast time, the Yank, another of McKinnon's entries, cleaned the field in five heats in the 225 class and Major S. owned by Claude McMillan of Charlottetown, took three heats in the 220 class.

In the feature event, the Free-For-All, Peter Stratton, owned by William Halpin of Moncton, after losing the first heat to Vera Grattan, owned by Frank Adams, came back to take second and third heats, and first money.

WANT LOCAL CONTRACTS TO PREVAIL

Stand Causes Breakdown of Parley With Government

PEACE IS SOUGHT

Operators Seek Right to Dictate Terms as Railroads Did

By HERBERT BAILEY British United Press.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—The determination of the mine owners not to make a national agreement with the Miners' Federation, which caused the breakdown of the conference with the government yesterday, is directly due to the fear that a settlement on this basis would give the Miners' Federation opportunity to continue preparations for another strike.

A feature of yesterday's conference was the head-on collision between Winston Churchill, who is straining every effort to bring about peace, and Evan Williams, the representative of the mine owners, who adhered stubbornly to his policy of insisting upon district settlements.

OWNERS WANT GUARANTEE Williams and his associates are convinced that if the settlement is made as the government desires, the miners will not accept the result as a defeat but will not relinquish the right to strike in the future whenever a favorable opportunity occurs. The owners want some guarantee of peace in the coal industry and they declare that this can only come through district settlements, based on the local requirements of each mining area. They believe that they must dictate peace to the miners as the railroad companies did to the railroad workers after the general strike.

In spite of the deadlock yesterday, Churchill is still hopeful of bringing about a compromise.

CARS COLLIDE

An automobile, number 1916, driven by C. Bell, coming down Sydney street, and number 400 driven by F. McKensie, coming up Union street, collided at the corner last night at 11 o'clock. The car driven by Mr. Bell had the right fender broken while the McKensie auto had one of the front tires torn from the wheel and the spring broken from the axle. Both cars were able to proceed under their own power.

Quebec Anticipates Better Crop Results

QUEBEC, Sept. 7.—Reports received by the Department of Agriculture from many parts of the province indicated that the crop yield will be much better than last year in several districts. Cereals surpass expectations, especially in this section. Hay is said to be very abundant in all parts of the province. The fruit yield is also reported to be large, while garden products are proving to be not only larger in quantity than in 1925, but of better quality.

RECORD HOLIDAY CROWDS AT SAINT JOHN EXHIBITION

EXCEEDS USUAL TOTAL FOR LABOR DAY BY 2,000

Vaudeville Acts Before Grandstand Draw Large Patronage and Bands Furnish Musical Program

SHATTERING the usual Labor Day attendance of 2,000, approximately 22,000 citizens and visitors to Saint John passed through the turnstiles at the gates of the Saint John Exhibition yesterday. The crowds along the midway were so dense during the afternoon and early evening that progress could be made only at a snail's pace. Intermittent showers made the weather disagreeable at times and sent the crowds running for the buildings, but this did not detract from the enjoyment of the visitors, old and young.

Sergeant Detective Power said last night at the close for the day of the big show that his officers had had no occasion to report anything of a disturbing nature and that the crowds were most orderly. No complaints of pickpockets were made and no arrests were effected. Members of the police force and special constables were on hand all day to render any assistance needed. The parking of cars was capably supervised by Police Constables Gill and Corner.

The large grandstand was packed at both afternoon and evening vaudeville performances. The vaudeville acts are undoubtedly of a high class order and the music furnished by the Fusilliers' Band in the morning and by the Carlton Cornet Band at the afternoon and night shows, added much to the enjoyment. Older and more staid members of the family were continually dipping their hands in their pockets for the "dime" with which to purchase the peanuts, ice cream, pop-corn, balloons, whips and the Exhibition souvenirs that have an unflagging charm for the younger generation.

VAUDEVILLE ACTS.

Perhaps the acts on the vaudeville program that drew the greatest applause and were most thrilling were those of the Great Curran, who ascended a swaying perpendicular of steel pole and at the top, at a height of 85 feet, held the crowds spellbound with the daring of his acrobatics and May Collier, world famous high diver. This young lady performed the difficult and highly hazardous feat of diving from a height of 60 feet into a shallow water tank. Her other dives and fancy aquatic feats drew big applause.

TRIO IN TUMBLING ACT.

The Randow Trio were clever and comical in their tumbling act. The famous Flying Floyd, graceful aerial

Display of Women's Work At Big Fair Is of High Standard

"JIGGS AND MAGGIE" to the life and so natural that they almost speak are to be seen in an oval mat of hooked yarn made by Madame Blanchard, of Carquet, displayed in the women's Department of the Saint John Exhibition this year. The mat is one of the most admired of all exhibits this year and the whole display of women's work is undoubtedly of a higher standard than has been attained in previous years.

There seems to be a wider range of articles shown and not an overabundance of entries in any one section. Special booths and demonstrations in the women's section at the exhibition this year also afford a greater attraction than of recent years.

Thousands of interested and admiring visitors passed through the department yesterday.

THOUSANDS ATTRACTED.

The livestock show, comprising sheep, cows, horses and pigs, attracted thousands of exhibition patrons during the day and night. Farmers from a large number of Maritime Provinces districts have submitted their livestock for judging.

A demonstration in Acadian weaving was given yesterday afternoon at two o'clock in the women's department. The canning and preserving of fruits and vegetables was demonstrated by Miss E. A. Preston, of the fruit branch, at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Demonstrations in "Home Beautiful" women's department proved to be extremely popular with the lady visitors to the big show. All the demonstrators were highly interesting and instructive nature. So dense were the crowds in the women's department, while the demonstration was in progress that little or no headway could be made.

MANY VIEW ART EXHIBIT.

The art exhibits and the Natural History display were viewed by never ending streams of people throughout the afternoon and evening. These exhibits were the objects of unstinted praise on the part of patrons.

At a well arranged booth, decorated with small flags, the hospital committee of the Provincial Red Cross has in charge a sale of basketry, weaving and other work made by soldiers in hospital. Miss Keefe and Miss Brownell are in charge.

W. I. EXHIBITS.

The Women's Institute exhibits this year are for three distinct competitions, the sheep's wool puff, the best set of embroidered sheets with pillow cases to match and the best embroidered table runner and cushion to match. Some very beautifully made and very pleasing pieces are shown.

Miss H. Nutter, superintendent of Women's Institute in charge.

The sewing done in vocational schools in New Brunswick is shown in a special booth and the smart and neatly made garments are highly creditable productions. Some of the pupils are in color and design are especially interesting and one card informed the girl with red hair and freckled face just what cut and color of clothes were best suited to her type.

Miss Sarah Barnett, director of the home economics department of vocational education, is in charge of this booth.

PLAYGROUNDS ASSOCIATION.

The Saint John Playgrounds Association has a very appealing exhibit in a miniature playground with dolls enjoying the playground attractions of slides, swings, sand piles and other pleasures. The work done by the children of the city playgrounds during the last season is also exhibited and includes some very nice pieces of cut leather work, ornamented candles, lamp shades and other articles as well as examples of knitting, crocheting and sewing. Miss E. Heffer is in charge of this booth.

Adjoining the city playgrounds booth is that of St. Peter's playgrounds where little girls are specially pleased to stop and gaze in awe at row upon row of prettily dressed dolls, each lovelier than the last. Some doll electric lamp shades are also displayed in this booth.

SCHOOL PUPILS' WORK.

The work of the pupils of the city schools in the household science department is in a special booth and includes tables and in sewing dairy garments as well as in embroidery is shown in a separate booth in the centre of the women's section.

Mayor White, Hon. Lewis Smith and President F. A. Dykeman Speakers

The 1926 fair was officially opened on Saturday evening by His Worship Mayor W. W. White and short addresses were delivered by President F. A. Dykeman of the Saint John Exhibition Association and Hon. Lewis Smith, provincial Minister of Agriculture.

In opening the fair His Worship expressed the idea that Saint John was the home of a dissatisfied people but that they were calling attention to a state of affairs which had militated against them for too long a time.

Hon. Mr. Smith spoke of the educational value of exhibitions. Both he and Mayor White congratulated the association on the excellence of the fair and the fine exhibits which were shown.

Mr. Dykeman referred to the lack of a provincial grant this year and expressed the appreciation of the association for support from the City Council. All urged big attendance from city and province. There was excellent music by an orchestra led by Bayard Currie, and

CHARITY ADDED TO PIKE.

The pike is all that it has been in former years with the element of charity added this season. The Gyro Club were kept busy yesterday selling tickets for their warren. The proceeds of this booth will be used for charitable purposes. Friends of the New Brunswick Orphanage have a booth on the main pier and did a rushing business yesterday afternoon and last night. The proceeds from this booth will be added to the funds for Orphanage work.

Two side shows that attracted, and appeared to please young and old were the mechanical city still and the laughing mirror booth. The mechanical city proved as great a drawing card as in former years. The balcony of the laughing mirror house consists of an outside display of grotesque Mardi Gras figures. On entering the tent and gazing in its mirrors, one's figure, if stout, is suddenly slenderized to a marvellous extent. Other mirrors make you fat, some make you short and stout, and others give the figure a comically elongated posture.

CYCLIST CLIMBS WALLS.

The dared element is provided by a motorcycle drome where one may be thrilled by watching the cyclist climb the almost vertical walls of the drome with his "iron horse" motor going at breakneck speed.

The Ferris wheel, the merry-go-round, the whips and the aeroplane swings received their usual big patronage.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., SEPTEMBER 7, 1926.

DISCIPLINE AND THE DOCTORS

The dispute between Sir William Arbuthnot Lane and the British Medical Association emphasizes the alteration in medical ideas which have been changing gradually and almost unperceived for some time, but lately with greater rapidity.

Originally practitioners were healers pure and simple. A man fell sick and the doctors cured him to the best of their skill. With the increase of knowledge and research the doctrine of prevention rather than cure has assumed greater prominence.

The medical profession is by its very nature extremely jealous of its honor. Its utility is entirely dependent upon public confidence and it is always justifiable that public trust.

Those particularly interested in health societies and kindred schemes for the dissemination of health rules and the advancement of elementary medical knowledge among the laity, as part of the general idea of preventive medicine, have long advocated the spread of information by those qualified to do so through the Press and by other means of publicity.

For instance, Sir William Arbuthnot Lane has been extremely active along the line of health articles, and his photograph headed one entitled "The Athlete's Diet" which article appeared on the menu of 250 odd tea rooms.

That is as may be, and furthermore it can be assumed that Sir William was inspired by the highest motives in acting as he did, and it can be granted that the great surgeon's reputation raises him above any need of advertisement.

An authority such as the British Medical Association is naturally conservative in outlook, yet it has never been accused of opposing progress or innovations having the good of suffering humanity as their aim.

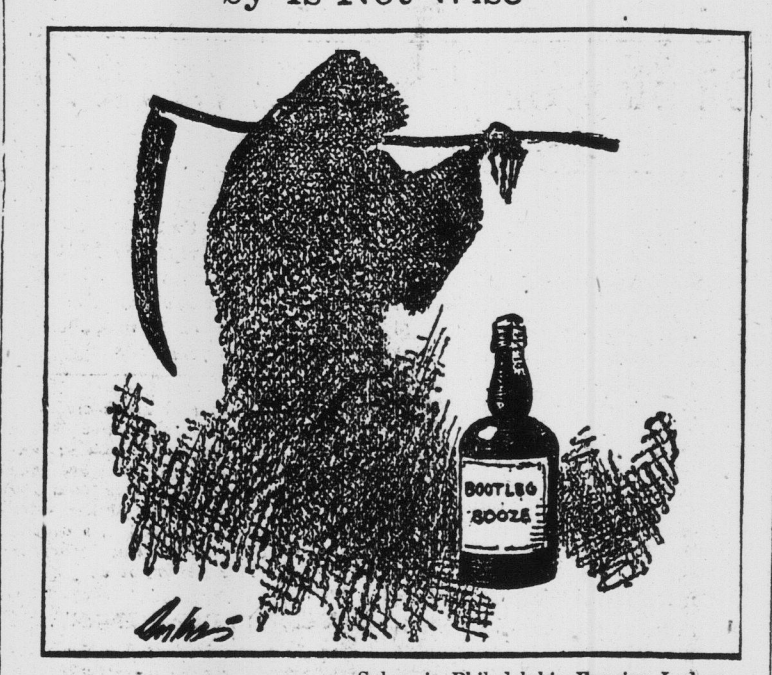

Doctors must go to discipline like others and, be it noted, it is very rare for a doctor to resist the authority of the British Medical Association.

Flying Fish.

By AUSTIN H. CLARK DO FLYING FISH really fly? Thousands of people every year ask this simple question.

Others say the flying fishes do not fly because they cannot. The muscles about the base of the wing-like fins, though large and strong, are merely used to keep the wings extended and serve no other purpose.

POEMS I LOVE

"Night," by Joseph Blanco White. HERE is one of the greatest sonnets in our language, and although the British author of it wrote several profound volumes on theological subjects, he will always be remembered for this single poem.

Mysterious Night! when our first partner was unable to meet his notes; Thee, from report divine, and heard thy name, Did I tremble for this lovely frame?

Who could have thought such darkness lay concealed Within thy voice, O Sun! or who could find, Whilst flower and leaf and insect stood That to such countless Orbs thou mad'st us blind!

Dorothy Dix

"Because She Contradicts Herself at Every Turn," Says Dorothy Dix, in a Futile Effort to Explain Her Sex, "Woman is the Cross-Word Puzzle That Man is Never Weary of Trying to Solve."

WHO shall understand woman, for her ways are strange and past finding out? She is the one thing in nature that never changes, yet is always changing. Even as our Mother Eve was, so are all her daughters to this day.

Yet the woman who was short and fat, and had black hair last year, this year may be a willowy living skeleton with hennaed locks.

Woman has little physical strength. She cannot emulate the prowess of man in lifting weights or making long marches, yet her constitution withstands daily a strain that would send a prize-fighter to his coffin.

Small little creatures dine upon lobster Newburg, pickles, ice cream and cake, and go about snowy streets in knee-length skirts, chiffon stockings and satin sandals. And not only do they live to tell the tale, but to repeat the performance ad libitum.

WOMAN is afraid of a mouse, but not of a lion. She will faint at a pin prick, but lie calmly down on a surgeon's table and let herself be cut to pieces.

She will sit down and cry her eyes out if her new skirt does not hang right when it is sent home from the dressmaker, but when her fortune is swept away she'll get up and go cheerfully to work to earn her bread and butter.

She heads all of the great humanitarian movements, and is the mainstay of the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, and a charter member of the Audubon Society. Yet she wears a baby lamb coat and a hat covered with feathers.

WHEN she goes shopping she will economize by lunching on a chocolate éclair and a glass of ice water and then pay 50 cents for a headache powder, and go home with a complacent feeling that she has saved money.

She takes thirty-dollar courses of physical culture and spends an hour every morning practicing with dumbbells and weights to keep her figure slim and supple, then hires a woman to make her beds and sweep her floors because she hasn't the strength to do her housework.

SHE breaks her back and puts out her eyes cutting out little holes in cloth and filling them in with fine embroidery stitches, and is always on a still hunt for some one to do her sewing for her.

She is agast at the idea of giving five dollars outright to a charity, but she will contribute ten dollars' worth of cakes or fancy work to a bazaar or church fair and give herself nervous prostration running it.

SHE weeps for joy, and her test of a good play is the number of handkerchiefs that she calls for. She also mistakes melancholy for morals and is suspicious of every woman who laughs much.

She will break her neck to catch a man, and the minute she has him she throws away the bait by which she lured him to the hook.

SHE may love a man well enough to be willing to die for him, but she will not take the trouble to make him comfortable or give him a good dinner.

When she sees that she is losing her husband's affection she undergoes the tortures of the damned, but she cannot stop nagging him and doing the thing that she knows is driving him from her.

WHEN duty calls, she will send the man she loves to the uttermost ends of the earth, cheered by her brave smile and wave of the hand, but when he's at home she will walk the floor in agony when he is five minutes late, fearing that he has gotten lost between his office and the house.

She thinks her husband the wisest man in the world and perfectly capable of running the universe, but she deprecates his judgment when he goes to pick out his neckties and is certain that he hasn't enough sense to change his shoes when he gets his feet wet.

Her ideal of a husband is a man who is a relentless tyrant, yet lets her have her own way in every particular; who is an oracle, but consults her for advice, and who is an iceberg to everyone else, but a seething volcano to her.

SHE believes her children to be perfectly beautiful, though they may have curly hair, no eyebrows, white eyelashes and faces as expressionless as a cream cheese. She is also sure they are geniuses, no matter how dull they may be.

She may have the most delicate perception of right and wrong, but where her children are concerned she is without morals or principle.

She would not for the world destroy your property, but if it annoys little Janie to scratch pictures with a pin on your mahogany table she thinks you are a selfish brute to object to it.

SHE cannot abide noise or dirt—unless it is her own children who are the offenders, and then she becomes as deaf and blind as the adder of the Scriptures.

In ethics she hates the sin and cuddles the sinner. She cries out for justice against the criminal, and the minute there is a chance of his being punished she goes around with a petition for his pardon, begging people to sign it.

She is an idealist, with the most human and faulty practices. It is because she contradicts herself at every turn that no man can ever guess what she is going to do next, and that makes her a crossword puzzle that he is never weary of trying to solve.

Look At A Lady And You Behold An Animal

Women are like animals, and upon that principle June Mathis, highest paid scenario writer in the world, casts them in her productions. Above, in the center is shown Miss Mathis. The types shown are dog, cat, chameleon and lioness. Look them over and see for yourself.

By DAN THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 7.—Women are cats.

Women are dogs.
Women are lionesses.
Women are baryard fowl.
There you are, girls!
But wait! Put down those bricks! It's all a compliment!

We have it on the highest authority that women are animals, the word of none other than June Mathis, screen-dom's highest paid scenario writer. And here is her statement, unadorned: "All women remind me of certain animals; I always use this method of casting them according to type in my productions."

"Take the cat. Note her queenly, independent manner. Ponder upon the sweetness of that sunny disposition. Look, too, for the sharp claws buried in those velvety paws."

HERE'S THE DOPE ON THEM
Go on to the other animals. Here are the characteristics Miss Mathis gives. Do any of them apply to you?

Monkey—light, frivolous and agile, whose primitive moving force is an ability to mimic those more capable than herself.

Cat—queenly, sleepy-eyed, but wide awake and capable. Under her gentle exterior is the quality that is self-protective.

Ferret—talkative, vain and unemotional.

Duck—aloof, proud and fussy about appearance and the friends she makes. Chantrelle—vain little creature who must crow about her accomplishments.

Mouse—sly, sensitive, peeping out at the world almost apologetically.

Pig—good natured and inclined to plumpness.

Donkey—stubborn, but capable of doing what she makes up her mind to do. Bulldog puppy—snippy, perky little thing with slightly upturned nose and a consciousness of her importance.

Lioness—bold, heroic and primitive with Jung-like attitude that speaks of a readiness to spring upon those who cross her.

YOUNG HUSBAND—Last night when I got home my wife had my chair drawn up before the fire, my slippers ready for me to put on, my pipe all filled and—

Old Friend—How did you like her new hat?

SEE-SAWING ON BROADWAY

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—And it came to pass that upon a certain day in August in the year of our Lord, 1926, a wagon loaded with hay did cross Fifth Avenue, in the vicinity of 42nd street.

SUCH is the devotion to fashion of some Manhattanites that, not infrequently, martyrs appear.

Thus there is a certain gentleman of fashion who would as soon be caught at a public place with no clothes at all as minus his dinner jacket. It so happens that this young man is a saxophone artist of no small caliber.

During a recent very hot evening, the leader of the orchestra, decided, the custom could best be laid aside and told the players they could take off their coats.

Almost with horror the disciple of the shirt sleeves being revealed. Then he rose, gave a brief lecture on "good taste" and quit. Not for a moment would he countenance such a social break. He stalked from the roof garden.

WHEN Rudolph Valentino arrived in New York from Chicago some weeks before his critical illness, the newspapers were carrying lengthy stories of the challenge to duel the film star has issued to a Chicago writer.

A gift reporter, who writes a movie column for one of the tabloids, dropped in and interviewed Rudy. When she handed it in at her office that evening, the city editor growled his protest: "Say, this bird Valentino is getting too much space. I'm sick and tired of seeing his name in the paper. We've just been carrying his duel stuff all over the paper. I don't want any more copy on him for a long time. The only thing he can do to get his blanket-blank name in the paper is to up and die."

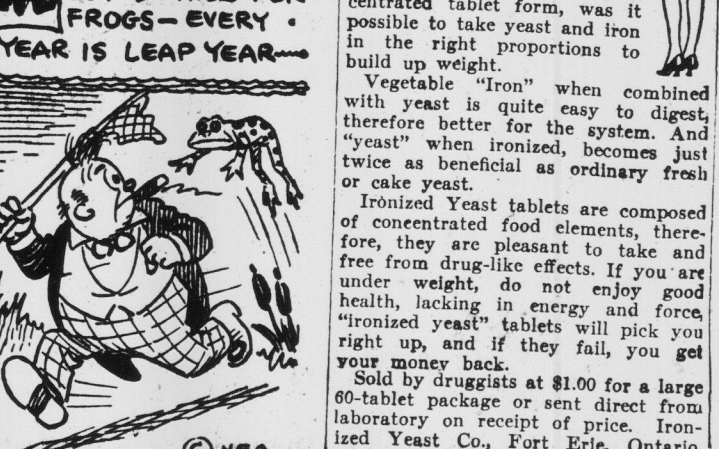

On the day that the sheik's fever hit 103 and the doctors were announcing that Rudy's life hung by a thread, the movie star's manager penned the following message to the paper: "Trying to do—est to accommodate you."

AMONG the unpublished telegrams in the course of days the girl reporter again encountered Valentino and his managerial forces. She was asked what happened to the interview and frankly related her editor's commentaries, ending with the admonition that the "only way Valentino could get his blanket-blank name in that paper was to up and die."

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST
By Allice Michaels

FILL each day with gladness at the first years fly, stoop not to complaining, scorn the foolish sigh; go your way with singing, mirth and laughter flinging to the echoes ringing, bid old Care good-bye. Give your joy and labor to each dawning day, lend to it your spirit, sweet and proud and gay; brave and happy ever, make your high endeavor all sad ties to sever; work drives griefs away. But in all your toiling do not dare forget there is one thing better, one thing dearer yet; leave a time for dreaming, dreams are golden-gleaming, dreams are sunny seeming, dreams can all regret. Work makes no life joyous save for dreaming, too; work brings no life blessings after dreams are through. Cling then to your dreaming, dreams like moonrays streaming brighten life's dull hur.

IRISH MOVIE HALL BURNS 60 PERISH

Women Trampled in Wild Stampede; Many Burned Alive

LIMERICK, Ireland, Sept. 6.—Fifty lives were lost and a dozen persons seriously injured Sunday night in a fire in a temporary cinema hall in the village of Drumcolleger, near here.

The moving picture show was being given in a hall over a garage in a wooden building. The hall was reached by one stairway. The projection machine caught fire and in the panic women and children were trampled and trampled in the frantic stampede to escape from the blazing hall and many were trapped to be burned alive.

The village has a poorly equipped water supply and the wooden buildings with the garage on the ground floor burned fiercely.

It was the first time the show had been opened to the public. There had been a trial showing the night before at which everything went well.

TRANS-ATLANTIC CABLE LANDS

The nineteenth trans-Atlantic cable, and claimed to be the fastest of them all, is landed at Far Rockaway, Long Island. The eastern terminus of the cable is Penzance, England. The cable line is indicated by the series of black cables seen in the photo, the man at the shore guiding in the last few feet of the cable.

With the garage on the ground floor burned fiercely. It was the first time the show had been opened to the public. There had been a trial showing the night before at which everything went well.

LARGE AUDIENCE AT SHOW.
The village of Drumcolleger has less than 500 population but the announcement of the showing of the film, "The Decoy," attracted an audience from all the hamlets, for such a show was an unusual event in these remote villages.

The fire started within 15 minutes after the opening of the show. The projecting machine was not protected by any screen and was placed within a foot of the only door. When it caught fire it was a seething mass of flames within a moment or so, and great panic seized the spectators, who had to pass through sheets of flame from the apparatus in rushing for the door. Men, women and children were knocked down and trampled in the terrible rush.

COMPLAINT MADE.
A complaint was made to Police Constable Bette yesterday that a man was annoying women by following them about Rockwood Park. The officer made an investigation and escorted the individual from the park.

SOON BECOMES FURNACE.
The wooden building soon became a furnace. Some managed to get through the door and hurried themselves down the narrow stairway. A few active young men climbed through a skylight and escaped to safety in the neighboring yard. A portion of the floor soon collapsed, dropping part of the spectators in the garage beneath, whence it was more easy to escape.

The fire burned itself out and the building was completely destroyed. Most of the bodies recovered from the ruins were burned beyond recognition. Throughout the night rescuers were engaged in the task of removing the St. James church was for many years the garrison church. Its rectors have been Rev. John Armstrong, Rev. William Armstrong, Rev. Canon G. Osborne Troop, Rev. A. D. Dewdney, now Bishop of Keewatin, Rev. E. Hand and the present rector, Rev. H. A. Cody.

N. S. Driver Dies In Sulky; Horse Continues Race And Finishes In Second Place

AYLESFORD, N.S., Sept. 6.—Harry C. Lydiard, of Centreville, N. S., 78-year-old veteran of the harness racing sport and known on many tracks throughout North America, gave the fans a final thrill today, when he died on the seat of his sulky on the speedway here and his horse, Briar Mac, ran alone to finish second in the first heat of the 2.20 trot and pace.

At a critical stage in the heat, when the aged hero of countless victories on the race track was urging Briar Mac to the front Lydiard suddenly threw up his hands and fell to the ground. Briar Mac had just passed Torpedo Lady, when the reins fell from the lifeless hands of his driver.

Hesitating only for a fraction of a second the horse swept on a beautiful stride on the pole. John McGregor, driven by a veteran of the track, Frank Foster, of Kingston, N. S., was ahead dragging, pulled up alongside and passed him, then levelled away for the lead horse, Aubrey The Great, while the spectators watched in awe. It seemed that the horse was being driven by the invisible hands of Aubrey The Great. Briar Mac, and the latter loped around the track again slowly decreasing his speed until he reached the stable, never breaking once.

DEATH DUE TO APOPLEXY.
Dr. Bensanson, of Aylesford, one of the spectators, examined Mr. Lydiard and pronounced death due to apoplexy. Shortly before the start of today's races, Mr. Lydiard told friends he was in the best of health and planned to enter in the Prince Edward Island meet on shortly.

When the starter, Sheriff Porter, had difficulty in getting the horses away for the 2.20, Mr. Lydiard drove to the stand and asked that the horses be scored by Briar Mac.

"I will next heat," promised the starter, but the next heat never came for the veteran. Seven years ago Lydiard displayed his gameness and he crawled out on the horse back and drove him to victory.

Two Slain And Pair Wounded In Revolt

MADRID, Sept. 6.—The first bloodshed in Spain's latest military revolt was reported today. A lieutenant and a private were killed and a sergeant and a private wounded at Pamplona, when they refused to surrender. All belonged to the artillery, in which section the mutinous movement also centred at Segovia and Valladolid. No untoward incidents have been reported elsewhere than at Pamplona. Dispatches received in the capital indicate the subsidence of the movement everywhere.

Miss Gertrude Verinder left this morning for Perth Junction to commence her duties as teacher of Beech Ridge school.

The story has not been made subservient to the scenic investiture, and although the spectators are not permitted to overlook the rich and wonderful costumes, gorgeous settings, lavish mounting and wealth of lovely and shapely girls, these are merely adjuncts to the absorbing plot.

Comedy, romance and thrills develop. They hinge on the efforts of a beautiful girl, aided and abetted by an enterprising press agent, to win a national beauty contest in order to boost complexion creams and lotions manufactured by her father.

How Bell and MacLaren contract to Right Our Wrongs and Build Better Times for all in Saint-John-Albert.

BACKED by the binding agreement won from their new Government Party at Ottawa, Mr. Thomas Bell and Dr. Murray MacLaren stand before the broad minded Electors of Saint John-Albert on the solid rock of solid facts and sound Remedies that none can talk back to with arguments that hold water.

Their Platform of Protection for Farm, Fishery and Factory in both Tariffs and Transport meets the situation exactly and no two ways about it.

Takes Gamble
 From Potatoes

A year ago the Cuban market for Potatoes went back on us. Why? Foreign competition, dumping an overproduction on our ground.

In desperation we turned to the middle and Western Canada market. We were saved from disaster for a brief time, despite freight rate handicaps. Then what happened? Potatoes from the middle American states crowded us out, favored by cheaper freight hauls and a Canadian Tariff that leaves the door wide open to them at 35c. a hundredweight—while these very Americans all over their land slam their doors in our faces by taxing our Farmers FIFTY cents a hundredweight. The American consumer prefers our quality of potatoes, but he prefers protection to his own sons of the soil, so many thousands of whom were raised here only to move there, where their Government gives all toilers a chance with a Protective Tariff.

MacLaren and Bell will Right this Wrong, backed by Meighen and His Men who mean Business. They submit you a contract, made good by your vote, which will give you more Potato markets, cut your freight costs and make your profits YOURS instead of the Railway's.

Makes Sheep Pay Big

Pronounced perfect for growing and weaving wool by the best British experts, the idle, abandoned lands and empty pastures of Saint John-Albert should swarm with sheep, making the city here eat lamb and mutton instead of so much Western Beef, as it does today in alarming disproportion. Canada buys yearly 70 million pounds of wool, importing all but a miserable 15 millions. Why? Because the Tariff favors the outsider instead of our own people, driving our own over the border to real Protection.

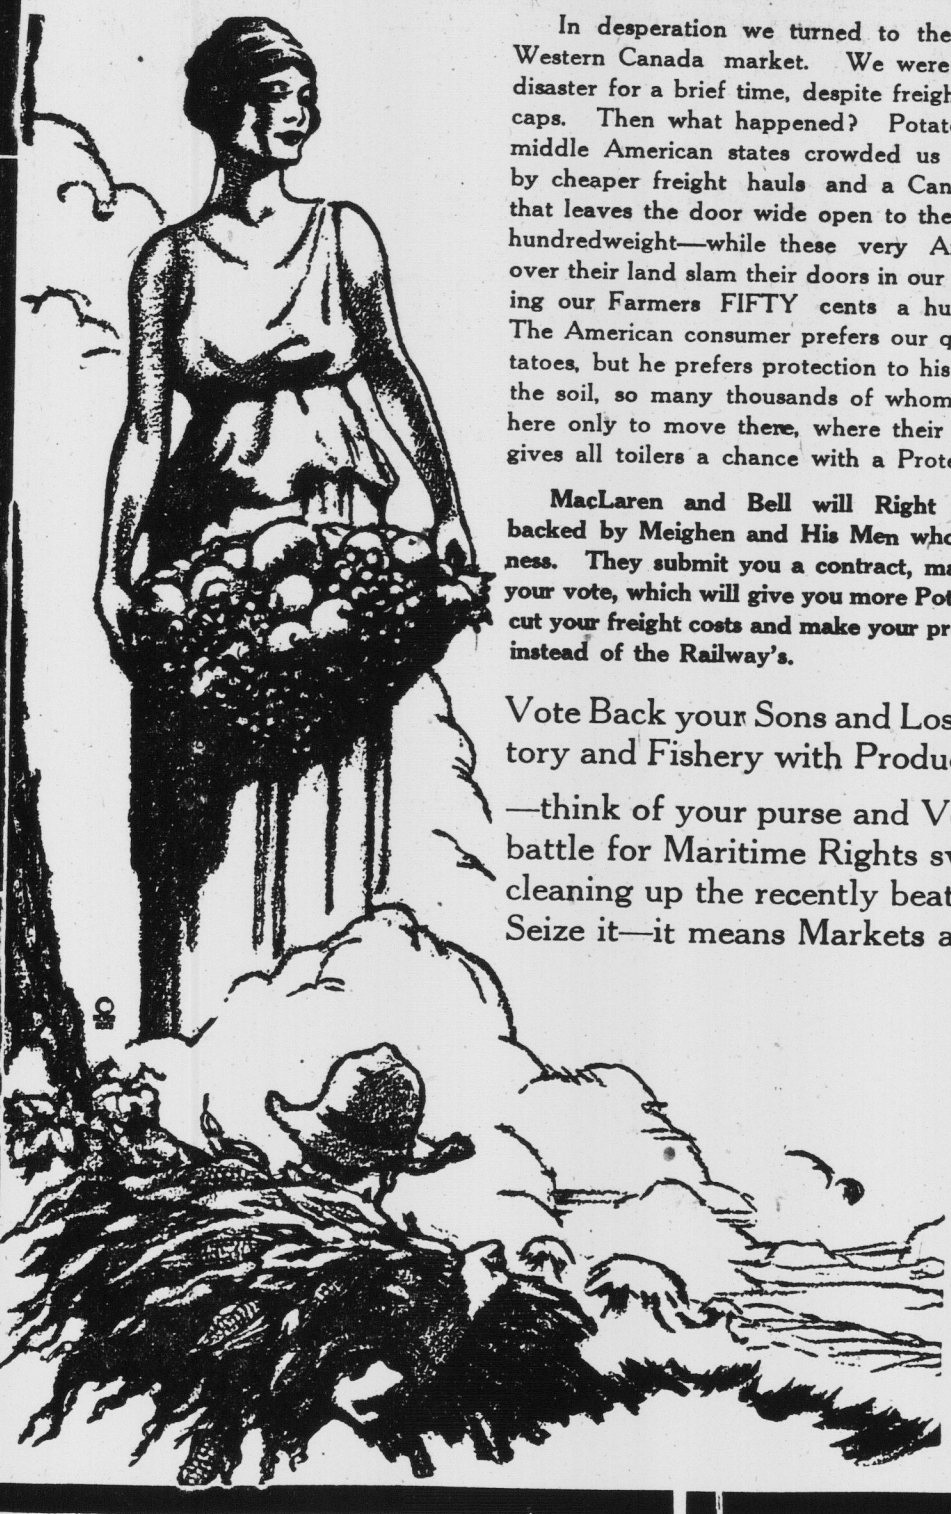

BUTTER, ETC.

A perfect country for dairy products, Saint John-Albert is held back by the American Tariff charging us three times what our Tariff charges their Butter entering here to drive down prices paid our Farmers. These Tariffs hit the Maritime Farmer going and coming.

In Cheese, in Eggs, in Fruit, in Fish, in early Vegetables and in Hay, the Liberal Tariff takes it from the American lying down. We are the ones that suffer, we are the ones who lose our sons, who later lose our living here and get driven over the border where there's proper Protection.

Bell and MacLaren have the whole Conservative Government Party pledged to their plan to Right these and other Maritime Wrongs.

Vote Back your Sons and Lost Ones. Vote Back your Markets, Vote to fill Farm, Factory and Fishery with Production, Protection and Prosperity. Forget Party Politics—think of your purse and Vote according to your Conscience. The Conservative battle for Maritime Rights swept the Maritimes last election, the Conservatives are cleaning up the recently beaten Liberals elsewhere. Final Victory lies in full view. Seize it—it means Markets and Money to us all.

MANY NEW YORK BUILDINGS TAKE CURIOUS FORMS

Planned According to Odd Streets Laid Along Old Indian Trails

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—Some of the most curiously shaped buildings in the world are located in New York without one of them being planned as a freak. This condition arises from their having been planned according to streets, which originally were laid along twisting roads or Indian trails.

NUMEROUS "FLATIRONS"

The Flatiron Building is the best known, with its knife-like edge facing north while the southern exposure is widened in the space between converging streets. Broadway has a similar-shaped building every few blocks up to Times Square.

Broadway bisects Manhattan Island from the southeast corner to the northwest. The remainder of the main streets are laid out in rectangular squares, which causes the odd-shaped lots to appear at each intersection.

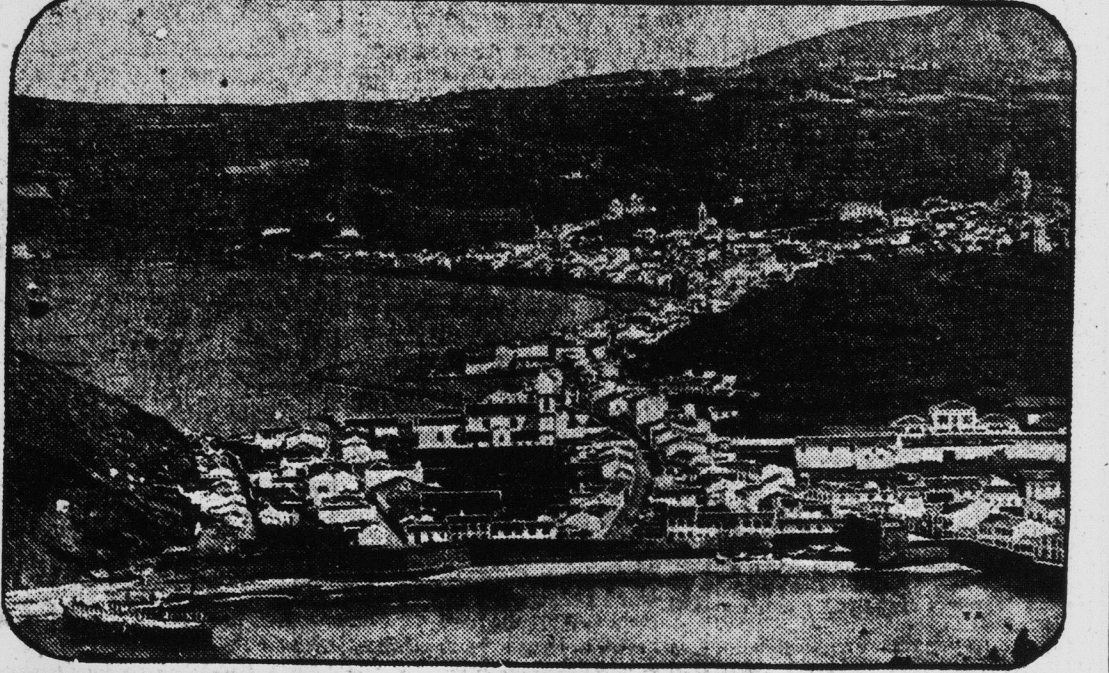

TIMES SQUARE FORMATION

Times Square itself is formed by a junction of this sort, and is anything but square, being rather more the shape of a diamond, as Broadway crosses Seventh Avenue there from the east and then turns north.

An apartment house located at Riverside Drive and 116th street is built inside of a long curve of the latter street, which makes the building a triangle with one side "ballooned" outward. The building across 116th street, a companion to this one, is built with the curve inward. If the street could be joined they would dovetail.

The new buildings, in conforming with the building laws, also have created a sky-line which in the case of each building is beautiful but seldom noticed from the street.

City In Azores Wrecked By Quake

Troops to maintain order, engineer corps to aid in reconstruction and medical detachments have been sent by the Portuguese government on three warships. All of the islands felt the shock.

The buildings above the sixteenth or twentieth stories are pyramided to allow as much light as possible on the street, but the streets are so narrow that no proper perspective can be obtained to view the upper portions.

One of the few buildings not so hidden is the American Radiator Building south of the Public Library grounds. This tower is done in orange and black stone, each insert of the pyramid marked so that when the tower is illuminated at night it has the appearance of a great pile of coals.

OXFORD GETS BACK ANCIENT GATEWAY

Over 600 Years Old, Sale to Americans and Canadians Denied

LONDON, Sept. 7.—Balliol College, Oxford, has bought a gate. It is not a new gate, nor even a second-hand one; and it used to belong to Balliol. In fact, Balliol owned it for a little matter of 800 years.

The old oak gate, almost certainly the oldest in the country, was built for Balliol in the year 1288—the record of the purchase is in the college books.

It did its duty well and truly until the old front quad was demolished towards the end of the 18th century. For 500 years various generations of porters grumbled as belated undergraduates kicked its scarred timbers unceremoniously, as a signal that they were waiting to get it.

It was Ridley and Latimer burnt in Broad street, so close by that the fire must have scorched the wood.

WAS GIVEN UP.

Then it went into retirement. Dr. Harding Newman, a Fellow of Magdalen, Oxford, took it down to his home at Nettes, in Essex, and since his death it had been given up for lost.

Eighteen months ago it was discovered in the garden of Nettes, overgrown with ivy, by J. Rochelle Thomas, of the Georgian Galleries, King street, St. James'. It was wonderfully preserved, and an inch-deep in iron-hard paint—100 coats of it.

Americans and Canadians at once made offers for it, as was to be expected, but Mr. Thomas did not like the idea of its leaving the country.

Then a short time ago a group of old Balliol men heard of the gate, and as a result the ancient gate is going back to its old home.

"Too much dancing, irregular hours, and too little exercise impairs the health of many college women," declares college professor. But, professor, since when has the Charleston ceased to be exercise?

ARE REMARRIED FOR GOLDEN WEDDING

London Couple, Both Stage Artists, Repeat Ceremony of 50 Years Ago

LONDON, Sept. 7.—A man of 28 and a girl of 19 were married 50 years ago. The girl, who was on the stage as a singer, persuaded her husband to join her, and so started one of the truest romances the most romantic profession has ever known.

It was celebrated the other day when the husband and wife were remarried at St. James' church, Twickenham.

There was no particular reason for the second wedding, except that this delightful couple were so enthusiastic about their marriage that they thought they could not better celebrate 50 years of it than by, as the husband says, "renewing the lease."

Joseph Tyson is the lucky man. Mrs. Joseph was Beatrice Deer before their marriage.

DRIVER HELD FOR MOTOR CAR MISHAP

Gerald Gould, Amherst, Faces Manslaughter Charge

AMHERST, Sept. 6—Gerald Gould, the driver of the car in which Gilbert Lever, a young Amherst man met his death while in a collision on Sunday morning, has been placed under arrest on a charge of manslaughter preferred by the crown prosecutor, F. J. Milnes, M.C. The coroner's jury returned an open verdict and the crown at once instituted proceedings against Gould.

Gould was arrested early this morning and the preliminary examination was commenced today before Stipendiary Magistrate A. G. MacKenzie. It was adjourned until Sept. 20.

ADMITTING TAKING DRINKS.

In the course of the evidence taken at the inquest before Dr. J. A. Munro,

Gould admitted that he had two drinks of liquor and that he had been warned by a police officer to go home.

Another witness named Gallant also declared that he had observed Gould taking a drink at a public dance on the Highlands.

The party of six had motored from the dance to a local restaurant and had spent an hour or so dining around town. They were en route to a garage to secure more gasoline when the car struck an electric light pole and young Lever, an occupant of the vehicle, met the injuries that resulted in his death.

The car, as stated in the evidence, had swung into the left hand ditch in Laplanche street and as Gould, the driver, endeavored to guide it out the rear had swung into the pole. Lever was sitting in the rear seat and received the full brunt of the blow.

POWER BOAT CLUB ENJOYS SPLENDID LABOR DAY CRUISE

Trip to Erb's Cove and Back Most Enjoyable Event

The Saint John Power Boat Club fleet returned to the club house last evening at 8 o'clock and the members agreed that the 1926 Labor Day cruise to Erb's Cove on the Belleisle, which was just completed, had been one of the most successful ever held. The weather was ideal throughout the trip and there were no accidents or mishaps of any kind to mar the expedition.

About 50 of the power boat club boats went on the cruise and they were accompanied by some of the R. C. Y. C. yachts and by St. Mary's Band. Commodore J. Fraser Gregory was in command.

After the club house on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock and after about four hours sail under ideal weather conditions anchored off Erb's Cove and set about the important business of preparing supper. The Ganong residence, which is empty, was used first as dining room for St. Mary's Band which accompanied the fleet and then as a dance hall and dancing formed into a dance hall and dancing was enjoyed for several hours. Then a large bonfire had been built, gathered around the fire the club members joined in a sing song. It was a lovely warm night.

On Sunday about 100 automobiles parties from the city and surrounding districts gathered at Erb's Cove to join with the boat crews in the holiday program.

At 8 o'clock in the afternoon an open air service was held on the lawn of the Baptist church about 500 yards from the beach. St. Mary's band provided the accompaniment for the singing. Rev. O. E. Steeves conducted the service and preached an eloquent sermon. Douglas Thorne sang a solo that delighted everyone. A special offertory was taken and the sum, which amounted to $48.10 was given to the local church for church expenses. Following the service the band played a number of selections of sacred music. Sunday night the band gave a sacred concert in the church which was filled to capacity. After the church service the band furnished the accompaniment and all of the assembled club members and their friends joined in the hearty singing of hymns as they sat on the beach.

SUNDAY CONCERT

The program of the Sunday concert was as follows:

Opening remarks, Commodore J. Fraser Gregory, chairman; selection by St. Mary's Band; quintette, Messrs. Rowley, Ring, Garret, Smith and Thorne; solo, Mrs. Edgett; selection by the band; reading, Miss Muriel Curran; solo, L. Rowley; selection by the band; solo, Grenville Ring; solo, Miss Edna Turner; band selection; solo, Douglas Thorne; quartette, Messrs. Smith, Ring, Thorne and Garret; band selection; speech by Commodore.

modore James W. Barnes, of the R. C. Y. C.; God Save the King. Douglas Thorne and Mrs. Edgett were the accompanists of the evening. A collection for the New Brunswick Protestant Orphanage was given and amounted to $9.

Yesterday morning at 10:30 a baseball game between St. Mary's Band team and a team composed of the Power Boat Club members afforded much excitement and was an exhibition of good ball. The bandmen won by a score of six to five. The batteries were: For the winners, O'Connor and Dalton, and for the losers, Beckett and King.

DINNER SERVED.

After the game the crews repaired to the boats where dinner was served and then there were social calls among the members before the fleet set out on the homeward stretch, leaving Erb's Cove at 2:55 p.m.

There was no rain on the return trip and only a slight mist before the city was reached. When the club house was reached Vice-Commodore Edward Hartshorn fired one shot announcing the return and the band played "God Save the King." So ended the most successful cruise the club has ever enjoyed on any Labor Day week-end.

Mrs. Buckley, 238 Union street, entertained most enjoyably at her residence on Friday night in honor of Miss Dorothy Stevens, whose marriage is to take place shortly. Delicious refreshments were served.

2,400 people may converse with ease through a small lead tube

IMAGINE the roar of 2,400 voices confined within the walls of one huge room!

Imagine the babel of confusion if the people in that room should try to shout messages across to each other! Yet, through a lead tube, only 2 1/2 inches in diameter, 2,400 people may converse at the same time with ease, without confusion and in strict privacy.

This lead tube (illustrated in section above) is the casing of a Northern Electric telephone cable, made up of over 1,200 pairs of insulated wires, each pair connecting at one end with a telephone instrument and at the other with a central exchange. In the larger Canadian cities there are scores of such telephone cables.

The rapid development of the telephone created the need for unusual equipment and devices—telephone instruments, exchange equipment and special wires and cables.

Fortunately, Canadian enterprise undertook the production of this great volume of material. Already over one million telephones have been made in Canada by Canadian workmen, and nearly three-quarters of a million miles of wire manufactured into underground cables.

In one department alone of the Northern Electric Company plant, telephone wire is made at the rate of a thousand miles a day. The maintenance and growth of telephone service in Canada, apart from its other benefits, must be considered a very direct stimulant to Canadian industry.

Imperial Potentate Says Scenery Here Cannot Be Excelled Anywhere

Luxor Temple of the Mystic Shrine of Saint John has been entertaining Imperial Potentate of North America, David W. As Luxor Temple intends holding a ceremonial towards the latter part of November there is little doubt that the Imperial Potentate will be in Saint John on that date.

Kitchener Myth Recalls Other Similar Stories In England's Earlier History

LONDON, Sept. 4.—The official statement issued by the Admiralty disposing of the many "spy" stories associated with the death of Lord Kitchener. But myths and marvellous tales have persisted in all ages, for nothing is harder to destroy than a fantastic legend.

The Kitchener myth, with its melodramatic "atmosphere" of sinister plots encompassing his death and a hint of some great mystery that officialdom was endeavoring to stifle is a characteristic example of the marvel that lives on while simple truth is disregarded.

The frenzied times of war are of course, peculiarly favorable to the birth of the "absolutely true" story, whispered confidentially, that will eventually crystallize into a myth and pass into history.

It was the same in days gone by. In January, 1854, the country was hovering on the brink of war with Russia. Lord Palmerston adopted the jaunty "John Bull" attitude of defiance, while the Prince Consort and the Queen were undoubtedly sympathetic to Russia, although when the Crimean War came their feelings changed.

Resentment against the supposed reasonable attitude of the Prince Consort reached its climax when it was rumored that the Queen's husband was "in chains in the Tower." More than this, it was fervently believed by the ignorant populace that the Queen was also to be incarcerated. Large crowds assembled on January 24, 1854, in the vicinity of the Tower, to see the "Royal prisoner arrive."

Subsequent events re-established the Prince in popular regard.

Strange stories concerning the re-appearance of famous people after their death provide an interesting number of myths that refuse to perish.

Just as Lord Kitchener was supposed by many people to be alive in Germany during the war, so the late General Hector MacDonald was credited with existence after his death.

Wellington's gigantic funeral was not sufficient to bring conviction as to his death. For many years afterwards a rumor credited him with being "kept a prisoner" in Apsley House. Many visitors to the Metropolis would peer wondrously at the imposing exterior of the mansion in the hope of catching a glimpse of the captive "Iron Duke."

It was but natural that the butchery of the Czar and his family should breed legends of a marvellous character. Just as "the Czar's youngest daughter" is reported alive in various parts of Europe, there are hundreds of thousands of Russians who credit the myth that the late Czar is living as a Moujik or peasant monk, devoting himself to charitable deeds.

It is but a few months ago that a story appeared in several newspapers in Cussia reporting that a monk appeared in Moscow. After showing kindness to a poor Jew he is reported to have revealed himself as "he who was once called 'Czar.'" Such a tale will persist for years.

The term "happer" when speaking of a modern girl has taken a back seat in favor of "radio girl"—you can pick her up anywhere.

FREAK STORM SWEEPS LOUISIANA'S "SUGAR BOWL"

The "Sugar Bowl" districts of southern Louisiana are visited by a storm the force of which is but vaguely realized by the outside world until actual pictures are produced. Property valued at $50,000,000 is lost. Here are some of the first views of the wrecked region. The upper picture shows St. Matthew's Episcopal church at Maumela, La., which is damaged beyond repair. Lower photo shows a part of the wreckage about the Maumela Catholic church, the steeple of which was wrenched free from the base of the building.

JUDGES BUSY MAKING AWARDS AT EXHIBITION

Rainy Morning Makes Concentration of Activities in Buildings

Wheat Shown Wins High Praise of Visiting Officials

Rainfall outside calling a halt to cattle judging and other outdoor activities at the Saint John Exhibition this morning contracted strongly with the busy atmosphere inside, where judging of grain, vegetables, women's work, dogs, poultry and other departments proceeded apace. A record was set by Professor Blair of Sackville in the plant exhibit, when on his arrival here last evening he set to work, completing his task late last night. This morning, S. J. Moore, T. Truro, of the seed department of the Federal Department of Agriculture, assisted by Lloyd Black, one of the inspectors from Amherst, started on grain, and to a Times-Star reporter Mr. Moore said that in his extended experience he had seldom seen such splendid examples of wheat as was on exhibition this year. Judging of apples was completed yesterday. Some excellent varieties were shown. The apples were judged by G. H. Vroom. Judging in the women's department also is well under way. Miss Pauline Baird is the judge. Results from this section are expected about Thursday.

Tuesday of Exhibition Week usually is a slack day, and Manager Porter and his associates viewed the rain today without comment. Toward noon it cleared and a start was made in judging cattle. In the dance hall last night a large number attended. The music was excellent.

FLOWER SHOW JUDGING
W. Sackby Blair, of Sackville, has made a quick job of judging at the flower show at the exhibition. Mr. Blair arrived last evening and immediately set to work judging, completing his work late last evening and leaving on the Digby boat this morning. The dahlias, it was announced this morning, would be judged on Thursday.

The feature of the 1926 flower show was the splendid collection put in by D. A. Duffy, West Saint John. Mr. Duffy was high point winner in flowers, winning $25 with his collection. Mrs. J. V. Letteney, Saint John, also did well, getting $24 Mrs. G. A. Stubbs, 2nd Mrs. F. V. Hamm, Fairville, 2nd, Mrs. G. A. Stubbs, city, 3rd, Mrs. G. A. Stubbs, city, 4th, Mrs. G. A. DOYLE DENIES RESPONSIBILITY FOR CANCELLING OF GAME HERE

DECLARES ONLY ORDERS TO MONCTON WERE TO AWAIT WORD OF CONFERENCE HERE

President of M. P. B. Promises Statement in Reply to Charges Made by A. W. Covey About Annual Meeting in Amherst

STIRLING THREATENS TO RESIGN

Big Stir Caused in Local Amateur Circles Over Postponement—J. C. Chesley Says He Will Have Further Details for Sporting Public Over M. P. B. Annual

A FLAT denial that he was in any way responsible for the cancellation of Monday afternoon's game here between Moncton and the Water Department was made over the long distance telephone this morning by the Times-Star by S. F. Doyle, president of the Maritime Provinces branch of the A. A. U. of C.

Mr. Doyle had been asked for his views by telephone yesterday but did not reply and this morning efforts to get his version of the affair over the telephone were successful.

The postponement of this game, after it had been advertised extensively in good faith by The Telegraph-Journal on Monday morning without the newspaper being given a chance to inform the sporting public of the change, has caused the biggest stir in years in amateur circles here and has drawn from W. E. Stirling, New Brunswick vice-president, a statement that he will resign unless given full control.

It also roused the ire of A. W. Covey, president of the local City League, who makes grave charges regarding the annual meeting of the M. P. B. in Amherst, where, he says, two professionals sat as delegates.

President Doyle has promised a reply for tomorrow on these matters.

In conversation this morning, President Doyle confirms statements of Mr. Stirling and Mr. Covey that he told the Moncton people to await word from him. "When I reached Moncton," says Mr. Doyle, "I was waited on by Messrs. Blakeney and Gillespie, who told me that Moncton was not going to meet two Saint John teams in a play-off. They referred to the Martellos' case. Although I had told Mr. Stirling he was in charge in New Brunswick, I felt this matter was important enough to again confer personally with him with the result I told the Moncton people to wait until they heard from me. I did not tell them that the game was cancelled.

"My brother, Eddie, who plays with the Moncton team, informs me that he asked the manager of the team on Saturday regarding Monday's game here and he was told that it had been called off by Mr. Doyle, and that it would not be necessary to bring his uniform to Saint John for the holiday. On Friday night, I had received a telegram from Mr. Blakeney of Moncton, advising me that the Moncton team would be here on Sunday at 6:30 o'clock and to make hotel accommodations. This I did, and I think this shows that Moncton had every intention of coming until Mr. Doyle appeared on the scene.

"Mr. Doyle phoned me from Sussex on Sunday about the meeting here, and I asked him what he meant by cancelling the Monday game. He said he had not cancelled it but had merely told the Moncton people to await word from him. He told me that Messrs. Blakeney and Gillespie appeared before him and said they would not play two Saint John teams in the play-off. I thought Mr. Doyle might have backed me up in my ruling, but apparently he changed his mind. At the conference here he finally came to the conclusion to uphold my stand and asked me to advise Moncton to come.

Mr. Covey's version agrees with Mr. Doyle's but the local man takes the stand he had no right to interfere and that his interference originated all the trouble at Moncton would have been here had Mr. Doyle not told them to wait word from here. Mr. Stirling declared that he was in charge in New Brunswick, and that he had been called off by Mr. Doyle, and that it would not be necessary to bring his uniform to Saint John for the holiday.

Cardinals Retain Five-Point Lead In Fight For Pennant

Telegraph-Journal Demands Inquiry, Under Oath, Of M. P. B. Annual

THE TELEGRAPH-JOURNAL demands in the interest of clean amateur sport in the Maritime Provinces a complete and thorough investigation into the annual meeting held in August in Amherst. This paper takes this stand, not with the idea of hurting the M. P. B., but with the view to cleaning up the present imperfect situation that exists in New Brunswick.

At the annual meeting in Amherst last August, The Telegraph-Journal is informed by A. W. Covey, member of the national registration committee, that two professionals sat in as delegates at this meeting and voted on matters of interest to amateurs. These representatives are Messrs. McCarthy and Mooney, both from Cape Breton. The first-named was ruled out of the annual meeting in 1921 and Mooney a few years later. Mooney was granted amateur status in 1921 and Mooney a few years later. Mooney was granted a card by A. C. Mills in 1923 but on September 6 and 7, 1924, played with a professional outfit in Halifax and was again suspended. McCarthy's application was turned down at the last annual meeting. Mooney's was never filed.

No professional can hold office in an amateur club but when professionals sit in and vote on matters of interest to amateurs AT THE ANNUAL MEETING, it is time to call a halt.

Did President Doyle know that these men had never been reinstated at the annual meeting? If he did, he was derelict in his duty in allowing them to vote. If he did not know of it, it was his business to know. And how about the president of the M. P. B. who has no evidence beyond what is talked about in this meeting that proxies were used at this meeting THAT WERE NOT AUTHORIZED BEFORE THE MEETING and that among the clubs involved were TWO SAINT JOHN CLUBS. Is this the kind of talk that the M. P. B. desires about its annual meetings? If so, is it not time that a complete reorganization is made. If it does not desire such reforms, it will grant a request for an inquiry under oath to say that such talk is absolutely false and untrue. Would it not be in the interests of amateur sport in the Maritimes to see that this is done?

Such a condition of affairs must strike the average onlooker as peculiar to say the least. A. W. Covey, a vice-president of the Canadian Union, charges that a "certain clique is out to favor professionalism in the M. P. B. and that the annual meeting of the M. P. B. is the M. P. B. going to the dogs under that charge? It is up to President Doyle and his executive to say the charge is false or true. Which course does the executive prefer—on this charge which means that it is true, or a complete vindication that the M. P. B. is not charged with professionalism? Only an inquiry under oath can definitely establish such facts.

Prior to the annual meeting of the M. P. B. there was some agitation in New Brunswick for a complete breakaway from the M. P. B. with the right being given to New Brunswick to govern itself in sport matters. It came to a vote at a meeting here and half the clubs wanted one thing and half the other.

Here is how they voted at that meeting: In favor of a separate branch—St. Rose's, 2; Water Department, 2; Martello's, 1; Y. M. C. L., 3; Wanderers, 2; East Saint John, 2; St. John's, 2; St. Peter's, 2; Y. M. H. A., 1; U. N. B., (Fredericton); Woodstock, 1; St. Stephen, 1.

Against—M. A. A., Moncton, 3; C. C. J. A., Moncton, 3; C. N. R., Moncton, 3; Atlantic, Moncton, 3; South End, Saint John, 2; St. John's Baptist, Saint John, 2; Saint John Hockey Club, 2; St. Peter's, 1; Devon, 1; Sackville, 1.

What are the clubs who favored a separate branch on the grounds of advancement of amateur sport a few months ago now going to do in the face of what the talk is regarding the M. P. B. annual?

One-sixth speak for the entire body. Is that a healthy condition of affairs? In view of these circumstances, an investigation under oath is the only course consistent in maintaining the integrity and future of amateur athletics in New Brunswick.

on this I did, but later Mr. Blakeney advised me that he had been called off by Mr. Doyle, and that it would not be necessary to bring his uniform to Saint John for the holiday. On Friday night, I had received a telegram from Mr. Blakeney of Moncton, advising me that the Moncton team would be here on Sunday at 6:30 o'clock and to make hotel accommodations.

"Mr. Doyle phoned me from Sussex on Sunday about the meeting here, and I asked him what he meant by cancelling the Monday game. He said he had not cancelled it but had merely told the Moncton people to await word from him.

He told me that Messrs. Blakeney and Gillespie appeared before him and said they would not play two Saint John teams in the play-off. I thought Mr. Doyle might have backed me up in my ruling, but apparently he changed his mind. At the conference here he finally came to the conclusion to uphold my stand and asked me to advise Moncton to come.

Mr. Covey's version agrees with Mr. Doyle's but the local man takes the stand he had no right to interfere and that his interference originated all the trouble at Moncton would have been here had Mr. Doyle not told them to wait word from here.

Mr. Stirling declared that he was in charge in New Brunswick, and that he had been called off by Mr. Doyle, and that it would not be necessary to bring his uniform to Saint John for the holiday.

Trains and Drives Her Own

YES, folks, this is a girl, even if she doesn't look like one. She is Miss Helen Davis of Vacaville, Calif., who has been wild about horses since she knew what one was. Today she is one of the very few, if not the only, girl racehorse trainer and driver in the country. At any rate she's the youngest.

Miss Davis' favorite horse is Lady Belle D and most every day finds her over Lady Belle D taking a few jumps around the oval (as depicted in above layout). The other scene shows Miss Davis and her "pal" just after a strenuous workout.

The youthful trainer and driver has entered Lady Belle D in the 218 race at the California State Fair to be held at Sacramento Sept. 8.

LEADERS SPLIT DOUBLE-HEADER AT SMOKY CITY

Reds Also Divide Honors With Chicago Team, 7-4, 2-0

St. Louis is facing Pittsburgh in a series that may win or lose them the pennant, and yesterday fought the Buccaners to a standstill, before 37,000 fans in two games. The Cards took the morning encounter, 8 to 1, but lost out in the afternoon, 4 to 2.

Similarly the second place Cincinnati Reds met a golden opportunity in the Chicago Cubs, and in two games achieved the same result as the leaders. This time Cincinnati came from behind winning the afternoon game, 7 to 4, after the Cubs had licked them 2 to 0 in the morning. The Reds are still half a game behind St. Louis, with Pittsburgh 17 points back of second place.

The dividing complex held the rest of the league in its power yesterday with Brooklyn and Philadelphia splitting another double header.

The Robins hammered their way through the first game 8 to 2, but lost the second game 8 to 2.

YANKS CLINCH FLAG

Mathematically speaking, the New York Yankees have practically made certain of winning the American League pennant. The Yankees are six full games ahead of the second place Cleveland Indians and each team has 20 more games to play to complete the league schedule of 154 games. Six of their games, including postponements, will be played on Cleveland field starting September 15, with the Indians as hosts and the Yankees beligerent visitors. Thus if the Yankees break even, winning 10 and losing ten of their remaining games, Cleveland must win 17 of its 20 to win the pennant or 16 to tie it. If the Yankees have been visiting friends in Prince Edward Island.

SYDNEY, N. S., Sept. 6.—Steve (Kid) McDonald was awarded the referee's decision over Chris Newton, of Toronto, at the Alexandra Hall here tonight. McDonald weighed 138 and Newton 132.

The match was the most evenly matched contest seen here for some time, both boys living up to their reputation and providing action all through the 10 rounds.

Chicago alone was able to win more than one game in the day, taking two from Detroit by scores of five to four, and seven to five.

The Washington Senators won their tenth straight game by beating Boston of the Red Sox by a host of Boston again two to one, and tied for third place with Philadelphia.

The second scheduled contest was postponed.

SEE THE FALLS

At high tide the water of the Bay of Fundy reaches a higher level than the water of the Saint John River and forces its way through the gorge of the Falls, creating a "Falls" of running water.

At low tide the water in the Bay recedes so much lower than the water of the river, that the fall of water is reversed and flows down river into the Bay.

At high tide, when the level in the Bay and River are about equal, the "Falls" disappears entirely and the water at the Falls becomes smooth as a mirror.

To fully appreciate this wonder of the world it should be seen at all the seasons.

The best time to view this phenomenon is:

MAJOR ROBERT RANKINE DIES; ILL NEARLY YEAR

Passes Away at Lancaster Military Hospital—Overseas in Great War

Robert Richey Rankine, younger son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Rankine, passed away in the Lancaster Military Hospital at 8:30 this morning. Word of his death came as a great shock to many friends, as although he had been in poor health for nearly a year, he had seemed to be regaining strength and had been able to be about until a week ago. Of a quiet and retiring nature, he made many firm friends, his sterling qualities greatly endearing him to all who came to know him.

He was educated at the Saint John schools and the University of New Brunswick. Military life always greatly appealed to him, and he served in the militia previous to the outbreak of the Great War. When war was declared he was on the list of reserve officers of the 62nd Fusiliers, having held the rank of captain in that unit. He immediately got back into active service and accepted a commission in the 35th Battalion. While the battalion was at Quebec, he was promoted to be captain and received his majority in England. Major Rankine was loaned to the Imperial forces for duty in France and was retained for court martial duty in England for nearly a year after the war, being demobilized in September 1919. He was on active service for four years and a half. He had resided in Montreal, Boston and Canada. Besides his wife, who was formerly Miss Marion Rietzen, of Fredericton, he is survived by two sisters, Mrs. R. R. Cleland, of Springfield, Mass., and Mrs. Stephen McAvity of Saint John, and one brother, Thomas Rankine, residing in the United States. Mr. Rankine was a Mason, a member of Union Lodge of Portland.
