Mrs. Louis M. LeLacheur Dies; City Loses Gifted Musician

Passes Away in Her 29th Year—Had Studied in Europe

Citizens, particularly music lovers, were shocked to learn of the death, this morning at 11 o'clock, at the Evangeline Maternity Home, of Mrs. LeLacheur, wife of Louis M. LeLacheur, of the Photograph Salon. Mrs. LeLacheur, who was in her 29th year, has not been in the best of health for several months, but news of her passing comes as a heavy blow to her family and her many friends. A woman of high ideals, a devoted mother and a talented musician, Mrs. LeLacheur was beloved by all who knew her and her death leaves a gap in the ranks of local artists that will be hard to fill. The funeral will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from her late residence, 24 Pitt street. Rev. Hugh Miller, minister of St. David's church, and Rev. Robert G. Fulton, pastor of Centenary Methodist, will conduct the services.

Died This Morning

Previous to coming to St. John in 1917, Mrs. LeLacheur resided in Fredericton with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Grant, who survive her. Early in her youth, she showed a marked talent for singing and when 18 years of age went to Leipzig, Germany, and there studied at the Conservatory of Music under Madame C. Alves. At the outbreak of war, she hurriedly left Germany, arriving in England on the day she was declared. She married Mr. LeLacheur in 1918 and besides her husband leaves two little girls, Jean and Aida, an infant one week old. Her maiden name was Miss Gladys Christine Grant. One sister, Mrs. Cecil Cooper, also survives.

Prominent Contralto The late Mrs. LeLacheur was a leading contralto for many years in city churches, including Trinity, German, St. David's, St. Andrew's and others. In October, 1923, she went to New York and studied there for six months under Madame Alves, who had been her teacher in Germany. While there, she was offered and accepted the solo position in the choir of the Church of the Beloved Disciple. Returning home, she sang in St. David's church last June, that being her last public appearance as a singer.

Keenly interested in music, Mrs. LeLacheur freely gave of her wealth of talent to help any worthy cause and her charm of manner and glorious voice endeared her to many. Prominent artists throughout the city voiced their deep regret this morning on hearing of her death. The sympathy of a large circle of friends will be extended to the bereaved family.

Although the weather conditions were bad and several times the mountainous waves threatened to play havoc with the crippled vessel, the skill and courage of the officers and crew of both vessels enabled them to reach St. John's safely early this week.

The Manchester Hero, after seeing the Sachem safe in port left at once for Halifax, where she arrived on Sunday evening, arriving again delayed by a severe storm off the Newfoundland coast. The steamer discharged two electric locomotives and bodies for the Montreal Harbor Commissioners at that port. She left Halifax on Tuesday and reached here early this morning, after one of the most eventful voyages that the officers had ever experienced.

NEW BY-LAW ON CITY CHARGES ON GRAIN

Solicitor to Advise—Some Commissioners Say Bagged Should Pay More

The matter of charges on bulk grain and grain in bags was under discussion at the committee meeting of the council this morning when Commissioner Bullock introduced a harbor by-law to make effective the changes made in the recommendation of the port committee. As the charges on certain commodities. The by-law is presented by the commissioner made it clear that only bulk grain for export was to be charged at the rate of one per cent, a ton and bagged grain for export was to be considered as general cargo and pay 20 cents per ton.

Mayor Potts said that under the resolution as adopted by the council the shippers were entitled to the present rate and he did not know at the time the arrangement was made that any other rate was to be applied. He said the by-law was bound to apply the one cent rate on all grain.

Commissioner Wigmore said there was no doubt that bulk grain was meant when the reduction was talked of by the council, but the resolution adopted by the council did not say so.

Says Bullock Right. Commissioner Harding contended it had always been the custom to treat bagged grain as general cargo, and the harbor department were within its rights.

It was suggested by Commissioner Frink that before the council took action on the by-law it should be referred to the city solicitor for his opinion, and the by-law was recommended to request from the Shmonds Sewerage Board permission to run a sewer through Russell street, and asking that the city pay one-third of the cost of a sewer through that street, was read. This was referred to the Commissioner of Public Works for a report.

MORE CATTLE COMING

This will mean that approximately 800 head will arrive. They are going to be used for the purpose of the meat and the S. S. Canadian Viceroy and are to be landed in England.

BABIES MUST HAVE MILK

High Price Hard on Wage-Earner.

When the price of some article of food reaches a prohibitive figure, the article can be cut off the housewife's want list. But this is not the case with milk. Milk the babies must have, and a high price throws a burden upon the shoulders of the wage-earner. However, although milk formerly was selling at a price that created a hardship in the homes of many citizens, the Purty Milk Company quickly came to the rescue, and forced down the price to the present low level. This action has won for them many friends, and also a few enemies. But the goodwill of the public is of a more vast importance than the ill will of a few competitors. Selling More For Less

It is the most natural thing in the world for the firm doing the biggest business to be able to buy better and cheaper than those whose orders run to small quantities.

A firm able to buy more and thus obtain lower prices can do either of two things—put it into their own pockets as an extra profit or hand it over to the public in the shape of lower prices than the public can get elsewhere. Especially if their location expense is low.

Marcus' prefer the latter. They gain more by it in the long run. People talk of them as the store where you see more and save more. That increases their trade.

The Marcus advantage in buying and in turn selling comes from having the largest patronage of all Furniture firms in the Maritimes.

Food for Thought

Starting with the fair supposition that a remedy costing 25 or 50 cents a bottle frequently saves a $300 fee. Imagine if you can the total savings effected by the many millions of bottles of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment sold since 1810.

There is nothing so positively good as this doctor's prescription for Grippy Colds, Bronchial Colds, Bore Throat, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. More than 100 years of splendid success has attended the internal and external use of this famous old family remedy.

It is not unreasonable to assume that many a 25 or 50 cent bottle of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment has saved a 25 or 50 dollar total expense.

HER HEADACHES WERE SO BAD SHE COULDN'T DO ANYTHING

Once the head starts to ache and pain you may rest assured that the cause comes from the stomach, liver or bowels, and the cause must be removed before permanent relief may be had.

There is no better remedy for headaches of every description than as it removes the cause of the headaches in a way that no other remedy will do. Mrs. Wm. Helgard, Lower Stewiacke, N. S., writes: "I suffered for a long time with my head. It would ache and ache until it made me so sick I could not do anything, but after taking four bottles of B.B.B. I feel that I cannot recommend it too highly to all those suffering from headaches of any kind."

Mowry; grand master of exchequer, W. A. Kinney; the president of the Past Chancellors Society, J. M. Jenkins; the district deputy grand chancellors, C. T. Green, St. John Lodge; John A. Internal cleanliness protects against disease

IN CONSTIPATION, say intestinal specialists, lies the primary cause of more than three-quarters of all illness, including the gravest diseases of life.

Laxatives and cathartics do not overcome constipation, says a noted authority, but by their continued use tend only to aggravate the condition and often lead to permanent injury.

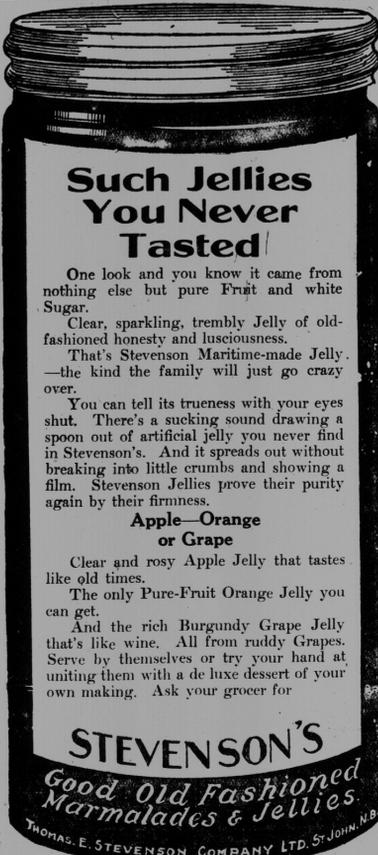

Why Physicians Favour Lubrication

Medical science has found at last in lubrication a means of overcoming constipation. The gentle lubricant, Nujol, penetrates and softens the hard food waste and thus hastens its passage through and out of the body. Thus, Nujol brings internal cleanliness.

Nujol is used in leading hospitals and is prescribed by physicians throughout the world. Nujol is not a medicine or laxative and cannot grip. Like pure water, it is harmless.

Take Nujol regularly and adopt this habit of internal cleanliness. For sale by all druggists.

DANGER THREATENED.

The news that Great Britain may place an embargo upon Canadian potatoes is somewhat disquieting. A short time ago, when the agricultural authorities of the British government decided that it was wise to place an embargo upon American potatoes in order that there might be no danger from the potato bug or the Colorado beetle, the growers on this side of the line might have been surprised, but had nothing to say, inasmuch as the restriction did not refer to the New Brunswick product.

These repeated difficulties in the marketing of the surplus stock of New Brunswick potatoes must necessarily impress the growers with the fact that mixed farming is safer than paying every possible attention to one product. The land on which potatoes are grown in the counties of Carleton, Victoria and Madawaska is splendidly adapted for other branches of agriculture, and yet there have been such profits in the past in the culture of potatoes, and prices were so far above normal one or two years during the war, that it is almost impossible to persuade the potato growers who have been thus favored, to devote a portion of their energy to dairying and stock raising or other lines of agricultural activity.

ONE REASON FOR DIVERSION.

The fact that the Saskatchewan Co-operative Elevator Company has recently decided to build an elevator at Buffalo rather than at a Canadian port has occasioned much criticism throughout the west as well as in the east. The London Free Press expresses it very aptly when it says that millions of dollars have been spent in building Canadian harbors, Canadian Canadian and Canadian railways, and it is hard business, to say the least, to have all this expensive transportation machinery standing idle, the preference being given to American ports. Many explanations have been given as to the cause of the situation. The Canadian Milling and Grain Trade Journal has no doubt as to answer. It says:—

It is quite clear that the agency which has led to the provision of an American port of call for Canadian grain is to be built by Canadian money for the handling of Canadian grain, which ought to be handled in this country by Canadian workers and transportation interests, is the lake shipping, and it is enabled to do this because it has been given a monopoly in the carrying trade between Canadian ports in the expectation that the interests of Canada will thereby be furthered. Protected by this monopoly the Canadian shipping companies carry the Canadian grain from the lake ports to Buffalo at the Duluth Buffalo rates; and then, to increase their general receipts, they charge a higher rate on Canadian grain from the lake ports to the eastern bay ports, though the distance is about two-thirds that to Buffalo. The differential at its minimum is half a cent, sometimes it goes higher; but it is sufficient to turn Canadian wheat more and more into United States channels, thus starving the Canadian ports and depriving Canadian railways of traffic.

If this is the situation, says the Free Press, then it is one that should be righted by Parliament and that without delay. The lake shipping companies should not be permitted to build up a monopoly at the expense of Canadian ports, Canadian railways and Canadian workmen. Canada has the advantage of the United States in the shortest route to Europe. American wheat should be moving through Canadian ports, rather than Canadian wheat traveling via American channels.

January 12 was the anniversary of the birth of John Winthrop, the first elected Governor of the Massachusetts Bay Colony, and John Hancock, the first signer of the Declaration of Independence. Hancock was born one hundred and eighty-eight years ago and Winthrop three hundred and fifty-seven. Winthrop was a loyal brother and Hancock was a rebel. All these things are all forgotten now.

TWO WOMEN GOVERNORS.

Much has been said and written about two women governors in the United States, Mrs. Ferguson, of Texas, and Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross, of Wyoming. The election of both ladies depended rather upon their husbands. Mrs. Ferguson's husband was governor of Texas until his political enemies impeached him and he lost the office. When he offered again the courts decided that he was not eligible, and then his wife, who was called "Ma" Ferguson all over Texas, entered the breach and became the Republican candidate. She was elected by a majority of over 100,000 votes, and now everything she does or says, or even thinks, is chronicled in the newspapers all over the Union. Mrs. Ross, the Governor of Wyoming, became a candidate in succession to her husband, who, while campaigning, died from appendicitis, and the Democrats, imbued with chivalry and with a desire to do a good turn for the widow of the governor, who was mourning in the executive mansion only a few blocks away, nominated her. She was elected by 7,000 votes. It remains to be seen just what kind of governors these two ladies will make. They may not be content to be mere figureheads in the administration of the affairs of their states. But any show of unusual independence will be very apt to get them into trouble.

MIXED WESTERN FARMING.

It was Mr. E. W. Beatty, the President of the Canadian Pacific Railway, who strongly advised in a recent communication to special editions of Montreal and Ontario newspapers that there should be more mixed farming in the west, and as an evidence of the enterprise of some of the farmers in Saskatchewan, it is stated that while four years ago only 16,000 acres of land in that province was under corn, last year the area planted with that cereal was 66,000 acres. The growing of corn is good for ridging the soil of weeds, and a good corn crop may be got in a year of drought that is unfavorable to the wheat crop. Thus the means of developing the live stock industry are increased. The Western people are coming to look more to the possibilities of their own natural resources and to their own efforts. The president of the Saskatchewan Agricultural Societies said at this Corn Show: "We are blaming our Governments and our industries for things which are under our own control, for we should raise more sheep and spend less time looking for goats on which to lay the blame for hard times." The wallers have had their day. The country has no use for them.

EASY MONEY IS EASILY SPENT.

The distribution of liquor profits and pari-mutuel receipts among the municipalities in the Province of British Columbia has been characterized as an attempt to placate those bodies and to excuse the encroachment of the provincial government upon municipal sources of taxation and revenue. It is said that such diversion of unusual revenue is not and cannot be satisfactory, and while it is pleasant, of course, to receive a cheque every six months from the provincial government, a cheque, the size of which cannot be estimated, has not the value that the same sum raised in the home town would have. It is looked upon in many quarters as a gift, as found money, and as it comes easily, it goes easily. In any case, the amount is so uncertain that it discourages accurate budgeting and careful and painstaking budgeting lies at the very basis of sound finance in all business. It would be far more to the point, say the objectors, if the Provincial Government retained the racing receipts and liquor profits and withdrew from the fields of taxation which it has usurped.

It is almost impossible to remember too many figures, but such outstanding ones as the amount of the debts of France to the United States and Great Britain are worth making mental notes of. In dollars France owes the United States $3,634,000,000, and in pounds she is indebted to Great Britain to the amount of £567,039,507. Her debt to the United States is the greater, but neither of them compare with her internal debt, long term and floating, which is the huge amount of 270,000,000,000 francs, which, divided by a little more than eighteen, would bring it to dollars, as the franc is worth about 5.40 cents, and in dollars, roughly calculated, would be $18,000,000,000. Great Britain is paying three per cent on its debt to the United States for the first ten years and three and one-half per cent for the remaining fifty-two years, and reducing the principal amount every year until it is wiped out.

A furrier was selling a coat.
"Yes, madam," he said, "I guarantee this to be genuine skunk that will wear for years."
"But suppose I get it wet in the rain," asked his fair customer, "what effect will the water have on it? Won't it spoil?"
"Madam," answered the furrier, and there was a wealth of sincerity in his dulcet tones, "I can only answer: Did you ever hear of a skunk carrying an umbrella?"

After many conferences had been held by the board of directors of a small town bank about buying a new water-cooler, a groggy old member had this to say:
"Gentlemen, before we adjourn, I move that our next conference be held on a merry-go-round."
And, as they looked at him in astonishment, he added the tag of explanation:
"We never get anywhere."

Letters to The Editor

THIS CITY'S NAME.
To the Editor of The Times-Star:—Sir:—In regard to the question of a more distinctive name for St. John, I would suggest calling the city simply—John.

It would make a very distinctive, masterful name fit for the capital of the world, and there would be no danger of confounding with other places. What if they did call us "Johnnies?"

BULL CHARGES WINDOW.

GIFT PRESENTATION TO MISS. H. DYKEMAN

is Honored by Home Nursing Class at Westfield, as Lessons End.

The closing lesson for the home nursing class conducted at Nerepis under the auspices of the Westfield Red Cross Society in co-operation with the Women's Institute of Nerepis was held last night in the community hall and the members of the class presented a very handsome pair of sterling silver candlesticks to their teacher, Miss Hulda Dykeman, acting director of public health nursing services in the province.

The gift was accompanied by an inscribed address which set forth in terms of appreciation the gratitude of the class for Mr. Dykeman's interest and careful instruction and for the kindness and enterprise of the Red Cross Society in the organization of the home nursing classes.

In the address was the following paragraph: "We had become accustomed to expect to find in all communities those skilled to instruct us in spiritual and educational matters, but it has remained for the Red Cross to bring to our attention the very great importance of our physical well-being and to send us an exponent to instruct us in the prevention and care of our physical ailments. The presentation was made by Mrs. Wallace.

RECALLS DAYS WHEN SOCKALEXIS PLAYED WITH ST. JOHN TEAM

KING OF INDIAN BALL STARS WAS WITH THE ROSES

Was Dreaded Batter and Sensational Field- er in His Prime

Baseball fans in St. John, who can recall the great contests between the Sid Roses and Alexei, will be interested in an announcement that the Yankees have signed an Indian named John Lovi and the manager in the major leagues are wondering if another Sockalexis has been unearthed. He came here about 1900 and remained for one season with the Roses and his great hitting and sensational fielding both on the old Shamrock and B. & A. grounds will be recalled by many.

Born in Maine, Sockalexis was a native of Oldtown, Me., and for several years was a member of the Cleveland American League club and was one of the most spectacular fielders in the game. While a youngster he was on the famous Fond Spring team, one of the first sensation teams in Maine, and his sensational fielding and great throwing attracted the attention of scouts. He later appeared on Holy Cross and Notre Dame teams and after this experience was signed by the Cleveland club. One of the reasons he was such an outstanding figure in the major league was undoubtedly due to a fact that he was an Indian. In addition to this, however, he was a hard and dangerous hitter, very fast on the bases, a good fielder and possessed one of the best throwing arms in the league.

He usually played in right field and was noted for the position he took during the game. He would stand farther back than the ordinary fielder and if he came his way and a runner was on third it was the rule, and not an exception, that he caught him man at the plate. Almost instantaneously with the catch he would throw his body into position and the ball would leave his hand like a flash. His work in this won for him the reputation of

Skating Distances Have Been Changed

IN THE official rules published by the International Skating Union some changes have been made, which are considered imperative if the skaters in America are to be in a position to compete with those in Europe. The change has to do with distance events, the three mile being eliminated and a two mile and a five mile race added. The other official distances are the 220, 440, 880 yards, three-quarters mile and one mile. The experience in the Olympic championships is said to be responsible for the changes.

Young Stribling Defeats Wallace

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Jan. 15.—Young Stribling, Macon, Ga., light heavyweight boxer, took a well earned margin on points over Mike Wallace, Cleveland, Ohio, in a 10 round no decision bout here last night, according to newspapermen.

The ball traveling with great force and wonderful accuracy and usually landed in the catcher's glove like a fast throw from an indolent. Occasionally one would get by the catcher and it never stopped until it crashed into the grand stand. In his prime he was a great player. St. John fans only saw him after he had been dropped from the majors. He did not take the best care of himself and as a result his playing suffered. Despite this he was one of the fastest fielders imported here by the Roses. He was also very popular with the fans. Some will recall seeing both he and Bruce McParlane start after a fly and as Bruce would get under it, Sock would close in on him and as the ball came down Bruce would duck and Sockalexis would scoop it apparently off his back. In those days he was still fast, but those who had seen him in his prime acknowledged that his eye had dimmed, his feet had lost their great speed and he was no longer a terror to the pitchers. Sockalexis has been dead for several years.

Along the Sport Trail

By RAY HANSEN

HERE'S A RATHER GOOD ONE on the C. N. R. Roundhouse bowling team. In a recent match on Black's alleys against the Electric's railway team lined up with four live ones and one dead one—a dummy. The four players present strove valiantly to topple over the pins and make up for their missing comrade. Skirts at they might the pins refused to fall and the old ball was apparently running in a groove—right down the centre or dangerously close to the gutters. While they fought it out box after box their opponents were crashing down spares and strikes galore. When the string ended the four live ones on the C. N. R. team found themselves away up in the seventies, while their silent comrade—the dummy—being entitled to the lowest score of the opponents came through with an 83. Determined to make a better showing in the second string they grit their teeth and silently vowed to show the "illumination and wiring experts" that when it came to speed the C. N. R. was in a class by itself. They succeeded in this, but to their chagrin found the ball sailing straight for every hole on the alley. As a result they failed to make any better showing than the Electric's were making bowling history in the 101. That is with an exception to the dummy.

HOSE RACING ENTHUSIASTS in this city will be interested to learn that there is talk of N. Averell Harriman, a young New York financier and sportsman, buying 20 of the late Major August Belmont's racing thoroughbreds for $250,000. The lot includes Larkin, conqueror of Epsom. A sale of this magnitude is not only of interest to horse racing fans in New York but all over the world.

AMBITIOUS YOUNG SKATERS desirous of taking a fall out of a particular opponent appear to be numerous this winter, judging from the number of challenges received at this office. No one desires the element of personal combat more than the spectator all down through the ages but in these modern times, a thick coating of civilization greatly restricts human nature in this respect. Once in a while it crops out as in the case of these boys eager to match their skill and prowess with another. In this, they are only following the dictates of Mother Nature just as their hairy ancestors did thousands of years ago when they clabbed and fought their way to victory over their enemies, oft times dragging a fair young damsel to their lair as the reward of conquest. Coming down to the point of this comment, we regretfully call the attention of these young men to the fact that the rules of the Amateur Athletic Union, such as matched races, the particular association must be open and to conduct such events, the particular association must have affiliation with the New Brunswick Amateur Skating Association. Furthermore, if these meets are held without a sanction of the skating association, the contestants are liable to suspension of their amateur card. Mention of cards reminds us that each skater must secure one of these cards from the association to compete in these events and failure to do so only bars him from recognized meets. These cards are given free to boys under 14 years of age. Over that, a fee of 25 cents is charged. There is not anything new in this. The same rules held good last year and are still in force this year. We understand there have been few applications for the cards and merely call the attention of the boys to this point for their own guidance. It is necessary to do all this to have some kind of control over the game. The N. B. S. A. is affiliated with the International Skating Union and represents the international body in these parts.

BOXING FANS in Sydney are already manifesting great interest in the proposed bout between their local pride, Jack McKenna, and John McIntyre of this city. The bout is scheduled for January 29. It is conceded that the North Sydney waterweight will be stacking up against one of the "hardest nuts" he has ever attempted to crack. Fans in this city know that McIntyre can fight when he wants to. In McKenna he is to meet a rugged boxer and a very aggressive one and if he hopes to live up to his reputation he will have to be in and in the nick of time and ready to travel at top speed from the tap of the gong until the end of the tenth round. Sydney fans anticipate the bout will be the greatest in years and it is now apparently up to Johnnie to see that they are not disappointed.

PLAN TO BOOM SPEED SKATING IN LOCAL RINKS

St. John A.S.A. to Hold Elimination Contests —Then City Meet

At a meeting of the St. John Amateur Skating Association held yesterday afternoon, plans were decided on to boom the speed skating game here this season, and the programme will give the lovers of fast skating over five weeks of real competition. The meeting yesterday was for the purpose of discussing plans for the season, and a wonderful ride in this direction was accomplished. The first matter decided on was a big membership drive to boost the skating game here, and there is no reason why every lover of good clean sport in the city of St. John should not be a member of the local association.

Elimination Races.

The association decided to ask the New Brunswick Association for a sanction to hold a city championship meet. This will take place after five weeks of elimination contests and should prove to be one of the most interesting meets ever held in the city outside of the National and International features.

The elimination contests will be held two or three times a week for the period of five weeks, two evenings and an afternoon each week. The plans decided on are for two sets of races, viz., 220 yards, 440 yards, 880 yards, three quarters of a mile and three miles. There are to be two races in each of these classes.

The plan is to have the local rinks managers co-operate with the association in the handling of these elimination races and undoubtedly they will be pleased to assist in every possible manner.

For the Finals.

A group of the highest point winners in the different elimination events will be eligible to compete at the final meet for the city championships trophy, and those who fail to make the eligible class will not be overlooked as there will be a series of novice races for them in all classes.
