SUFFRAGETTES TO RAISE HIGH JINKS Great Demonstration Tuesday at House of Commons THOUSANDS TO BE THERE Will Test the Mettle of Reginald McKenna, New Home Secretary—More Stories of Narrow Escape of War by England and Germany

(Canadian Press) London, Nov. 18.—The evening of November 21, next Tuesday, promises to bring forth a lurid and violent demonstration in Parliament Square. A section of the delegation of women who yesterday called upon the prime minister and the chancellor of the exchequer, left the ministers in white hot indignation and at once prepared a blood-curdling call to action, which has since been issued broadcast.

It announces that a deputation of women will go to the House of Commons on Tuesday and protest against the bill enfranchising all men and excluding all women. The war cry is signed by Mrs. Lawrence who will lead the deputation. The conclusion of the announcement and summons is as follows: "Men, women will be there by thousands. Come to Parliament Square to see fair play and protect the women from being brutally victimized by the police, as they were on November 18, 1910, when as the result of ill usage, one woman died and many were seriously injured."

The occasion will afford Reginald McKenna, the new home secretary, an opportunity to show his mettle for the first time since he took over the home office from Winston Churchill, the police being under the control of the home office. Non-official members of parliament continue their flesh-creeching political divisions of the subject, some of the narrowness of the escape of a war between England and Germany.

Mr. W. V. Fisher, who represents the Andover division of Hampshire, in a speech to his constituents yesterday assured them that the situation had been extremely grave and that it is true that there was a crisis. He declared that Winston Churchill, the home secretary, and Lloyd George, the chancellor of the exchequer, alone favored adhering to the treaty with France. He added a hair-raising story of the unpreparedness of the fleet.

The speaker referred mysteriously to a shortage of coal on the warships and declared that the government, realizing the situation, was taking steps to be added to the register of the admiralty. The British delegates to the International Opium conference at the Hague are Cecil Smith, who headed the British delegation to the conference of 1909; Sir Wm. Stevenson Meyer, formerly financial secretary in the government of India, and member of the royal commission on decentralization in India in 1907; and Wm. Grenfell Mac-Miller, consular embassy at the British legation at Peking. A fourth delegate will be selected next week.

Geo. W. Herbert Dead New York, Nov. 18.—Geo. Whiting Herbert, of the Westinghouse Company, widely known as a philanthropist, is dead at his home here after an illness of several weeks. He was sixty years old and a director in more than thirty corporations.

NOT MILLIONS BUT DEFICIT The $15,000,000 of Standard Oil Man Have Dwindled P. E. ISLAND ESTATE New York Girls, His Heiresses, Face a Deficit of $80,000 Instead of Receiving the Fortune Expected

New York, Nov. 18.—That the Misses Laura and Helen Stallo heiresses, will inherit from the estate of their grandfather, Alexander McDonald, who was one of the vice-presidents of the Standard Oil Company, a deficit of $80,000 instead of a fortune of $15,000,000, was the subject of a hearing of the inheritance tax case on the estate of the late Mr. McDonald. From the estate of their grandmother the Misses Stallo have inherited about $200,000. Until a few weeks ago it was generally believed that they were heirs to several millions.

WINTER PLANS OF THE YACHTSMEN AND POWER CLUB MEMBERS Smokers and Entertainments and Tournaments—Additions to Fleets for Next Year The cozy little harbor of the R. K. Y. Club at Millidgeville has taken on its winter appearance and an air of quietness prevails about the summer quarters where the yachts are now all yarded until the season of Happy Days re-commences. Safely covered and secure from the onslaughts of the elements the boats have been placed on the trolley line, so-called, and for the most part are snugly reposing in the yard adjoining the big clubhouse. Some, however, have been taken to Kothsay, Marble Cove, or other places of shelter, where they will remain until spring.

HEBERT CASE NOT TO GO ON Lack of Funds, Says Lawyer in Matter Involving Ne Temere Decree—The Situation (Canadian Press) Montreal, Que., Nov. 18.—As a result of the action of Eugene Hebert in withdrawing from the Hebert-Claoutre marriage annulment case yesterday afternoon, the principle at stake in the litigation will not be decided upon by the civil tribunal, involving the ne temere decree, unless new developments are forthcoming within a short time.

CASTRO DEFEATED London, Nov. 18.—The Venezuelan consular here received advice today from Caracas informing him that ex-President Castro, at the head of a considerable body of revolutionaries, has met with a disastrous defeat near San Cristobal. Castro's whereabouts had been a matter of considerable uncertainty for several months. The Venezuelan consular has allowed little news of him or of his present revolutionary movement to sift through. President Gomez has had 23,000 men mobilized near the border ready to fall on Castro as soon as opportunity offered.

TORONTO SURGEON DEAD Fatally Injured While on Auto Trip to Attend Patient Toronto, Ont., Nov. 18.—Dr. James W. F. Ross, a prominent Toronto surgeon, is dead from injuries received on Wednesday by the overturning of his automobile, while on his way to attend an out-of-town patient.

TWENTY-SIX ARE DROWNED London, Nov. 18.—A despatch to the Daily Mail from Copenhagen says the Russian steamer Letch, bound from Rotterdam for St. Petersburg, foundered in the North Sea during the recent gale and twenty-six members of her crew were drowned.

KALINSKY IS DEAD Baltimore, Md., Nov. 18.—Abraham Kalinsky, whose age was estimated at between 114 and 117 years, died here yesterday. He was born in Kiev, Russia and is said to have been the progenitor of fourteen children, twenty grandchildren, twenty-eight great grandchildren, five great great grandchildren and six great great great grandchildren. Some days ago he was reported living in destitute circumstances.

MRS. REGINALD VANDERBILT INTRODUCES "TURKEY TROT" TO NEWPORT SOCIETY

MRS. REGINALD C. VANDERBILT There is something new under the sun, after all, and Newport has it. It is a new form of entertaining, or rather a variation of an old one. It is a dinner and the "turkey trot" dance, with the dancing between courses rather than at the end of the meal. Just as soon as the guests have partaken of one course a signal reaches the orchestra and the "trot" follows. Mrs. Reginald C. Vanderbilt is the originator of the new form of entertaining.

QUICK TRIP OF C.P.R. TRAIN WITH DOCTOR More Than 55 Miles an Hour Between Montreal and Lennoxville

Montreal, Nov. 18.—Hitting the tracks for an average speed of more than fifty miles an hour a C. P. R. special train covered the distance between Montreal and Lennoxville yesterday in two hours and twenty-five minutes. The special train carried Dr. W. J. Jamieson of this city to Lennoxville to perform a critical operation on a patient in that place. Wind-swept station operating officials were given orders regarding the train at 11:45 a. m. One o'clock the train left the station alamy on time. It is one hundred and ten miles from Montreal to Lennoxville, and had it not been for the fact that the train had to stop at the Lehigh Bridge and slow down for a number of level diamond crossings the time would have been cut down a great deal lower. As it was the train reached Lennoxville at a quarter after three o'clock, having lost over fifteen minutes in stops. This is nearly an hour faster than the time made by the regular passenger train between these two points. Conductor Sheldon was in charge of the train, while Engineer Langstroth drove engine 919 for the distance.

GEMS WORTH MILLIONS UNDER THE HAMMER Sale of Jewels Found in Palace After Sultan of Turkey Was Dethroned Paris, Nov. 18.—The date for the sale of the jewels found at the Palace of Yildiz after the dethronement of Abdul Hamid has been fixed for November 25. They will be put up at auction at the Georges Petit Gallery, and it is certain that before has anything been seen approaching the quantity and value of the jewels that will come under the hammer. At a rough estimate made by an expert of the Rue de la Paix they have been valued at close upon $7,200,000, and a French literary man who was admitted to see them lately, declares that he could fancy himself in one of the fabulous treasure houses of the Thousand and One Nights as he saw the sparkling stones being gouged out into trays before him like marbles.

PLANS FOR REFORM OF MILITARY SERVICE IN THE DOMINION Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 18.—Radical reforms in the Canadian military system, especially with reference to the establishment of a system of universal training were advocated at the advisory military conference yesterday. Lieut. Col. Loggie of Hamilton, proposed the resolution for training along the line of the Australian system, where service in cadet corps commencing at 12 years, and lasting until 21, is essential. The resolution was not voted on, when the conference rose. The report of the infantry section presented by Lieut. Col. Winter, recommended a stimulus to regimental recruiting by an increase of pay to a minimum of $1 a day with extra allowances for good conduct, length of service and shooting efficiency, an increase in unit and company allowances, lengthening of the period of annual drill, more frequent issue of clothing and enlistment of public sympathy by the co-operation of national and patriotic societies. The report of the cavalry section submitted by Colonel Gwynne, of Regina, proposed that military service and attendance at instruction schools should count in the selection of officers, that the pay be increased to 75 cents a day, with certain increases, based on service, etc., to $1.25; that each regiment should have two Maxim guns and an extra wagon, that the allowances for horses be increased to $1.20 a day, that the sale of malt liquors in camp be authorized. Col. Gwynne said that military tactics were supplying German swords for uniforms since the duty had been removed. These cost $14, where as the British made sword was $17. He had sent a number of them, and insisted upon the British made article. Col. Hon. J. S. Headie in the artillery section report, suggested that each battery should be provided with a paid quartermaster sergeant for bookkeeping, etc., endorsed the educational committee's report and expressed sympathy with the aid movements. Respecting caissons, the section suggested that legal authority be secured for one or more caissons in each camp, to sell nothing stronger than light beer and that the usual caissons in officers' messes be not interfered with. Col. Rogerson, for the medical section, endorsed the selling of beer in camp caissons, advocated the enlargement of grant to military associations and the appointment of a commission to deal with the matter of clothing in winter.

MAGGAN STATION FIRE Amherst, N. S., Nov. 18.—The large fire building owned by the Maritime Coal Railway Power Company at Maggan Station was destroyed by fire early this morning. The flames were first noticed between three and four o'clock by the night operator but the blaze was so far advanced that nothing could be done to save the building or contents. The loss to the company will be about $300 partly covered by insurance. The bodies were in the vault and it is hoped that they are safe, but much valuable correspondence was destroyed.

WILL OPPOSE HON. MR. GRAHAM

Hon. Mr. Cochrane, His Successor, is the One to Make Announcement of Conservative Plans (Special to Times) Ottawa, Nov. 18.—Hon. Frank Cochrane, minister of railways and canals, said this morning in an interview that under no consideration would the Conservatives allow Hon. George P. Graham to enter the house unopposed. The opposition of Mr. Cochrane to the ex-minister is considered somewhat significant as Mr. Graham would undoubtedly be the chief critic from his knowledge of the department over which Mr. Cochrane now presides.

SEA GIVES UP TWO ANTIGUAY VICTIMS Series of Ill Luck Followed Vessel Which Was Lost Near Quebec Quebec, Nov. 18.—So far two bodies of the two Antiguayan seamen who lost their lives in the foundering of the Martinique during Thursday night have been recovered. But three of the entire crew survived. When the ship drifted ashore, a blinding snowstorm was prevailing and the weather was very rough. The three sailors who were saved are being cared for by Vap Sante. When the ship went on the rocks she went to pieces, and it is considered remarkable that any one of the crew was saved. Captain Gustav Knudsen, the master of the vessel, who was on of twelve who lost their lives, was about fifty years of age and belonged to Christiania. Eight of the crew were English and the remainder Norwegians. Several of them were recruited in Quebec and sent down to the vessel last Monday, having to half of the regular crew owing to desertion. The Antiguayan vessel was loaded with wood destined for Glasgow and shipped by Richardson Ltd., of Matane. A series of ill luck events have followed the vessel on the voyage from Belfast to Matane. She experienced very rough weather, and was driven to the eastward. It took the vessel forty six days to make the passage.

REBELS' PLANS WELL LAID Advancing Upon Nanking From Three Directions—New Premier Reports a Check to Revolutionists Near Hankow—Foreign Consuls Take Action at Amoy (Canadian Press) Shanghai, Nov. 18.—It was expected here this morning that the revolutionaries and the imperial troops would soon to a clash before night somewhere in the district between Chin-Kiang and Nanking. If revolutionary forecasts are correct, this will be the beginning of the decisive battle of the war. The revolutionary strategists have planned their attack carefully. During the last three days a large body of rebel troops with guns, provisions, ammunition and horses, has been despatched from Shanghai for Chin-Kiang by rail, thence they are advancing today on Nanking, forty-five miles distant. Simultaneously, other bodies of troops are converging on the imperial outpost via the Yang Tze river and a small tributary from the interior with the object of delivering attacks from three sides.

EXPRESS MAN IS DISCHARGED; SLAYS TRAIN MESSENGER Scranton, Pa., Nov. 18.—William Peter Bibe, twenty-two years old, of Kingston, Pa., discharged on Thursday from the United States express service, was arrested this morning for the murder of express messenger, Irving Berger, on the Lackawanna Railroad between Taylor and this city last night. Bibe confessed to the killing. He was riding in the car with Berger's permission. Berger was seen by the trainhands at work in the car during the minute that the train stopped at Taylor. When the train arrived at the Scranton station four minutes later, Berger was lying dead in a pool of blood on the floor of the car, with his head battered in. Between $1,500 and $2,000 is missing.

BACKWARD IN MOVING FORWARD Winter Finds Saskatchewan Town Disjointed and Neither Here Nor There Forward, Sask., Nov. 18.—The town of Forward has been in transit to a new site, and the work of moving Forward was going forward at a fairly satisfactory rate when winter took a hand in the game and the cold snap held up operations, probably until next spring. While part of the town has been moved forward to the new site, and while part is still reposing in a state of lethargy on the old, another portion of the town is betwixt and between. The leading cause of Forward's predicament is the fact that the town is situated on a narrow strip of land, and the new site is still in the process of being laid out. Visitors may secure certain commodities in the portion of the town on the new site, and other luxuries of life on the old site. For certain articles it may be necessary to go on an exploration expedition through the fields and among the bluffs in order to find the desired emporium.

TWENTY-FIVE AUTOS IN OTTAWA BURNED Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 18.—Some $90,000 worth of automobiles were burned yesterday afternoon when the garage of Park & McAfee in Sparks street, caught fire by the explosion of a gasoline tank held by a mechanic on the premises. Fifty automobiles were stored, but half of them were saved.

MONTH IN JAIL FOR TRIFLE

Vienna, Nov. 18.—A business man named Max Trinczes has been condemned to a month's imprisonment at Lemberg on the charge of having defrauded the post office of four cents.

In Austria one is allowed to return letters which one does not accept, to the sender without paying any extra postage. Herr Trinczes had received four postcards from a firm announcing that they had sent goods ordered by him. As he had not ordered anything he wrote on the margins, "Return to the sender; nothing ordered," and threw them into the letter box.

The postal authorities regarded the words, "nothing ordered," as a new communication, but instead of asking for the double postage they prosecuted him on a criminal charge. The first court regarded the offence as merely formal and inflicted the minimum sentence of twenty-four hours but the public prosecutor appealed and the higher court increased the penalty to one month's hard labor.

SHOCKING STORY FROM WINNIPEG

Woman, in Husband's Absence, Made Slave of Negro Landlord. She Tells Court.

(Canadian Press) Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 18.—Declaring that by threats of murdering her and driving her children into the streets to starve, she was forced into a life of revolting slavery in the Chinese section, Mrs. Kate Kalk, a slim and pretty white woman, told a ghastly story in the assizes court yesterday. Prince Cleveland, a burly colored barber, is accused of being the woman's driver, forcing her into slavery, in the absence of her husband.

She made public a terrible story. Attired in a pale blue striped princess gown, evidently young, although her face was prematurely aged and wrinkled by her dreadful experience, she excited the sympathies of the crowded courtroom.

"My husband had left the city to obtain work," she said, "and he rented two rooms from Cleveland. He paid for a month's rent in advance and left me some groceries and a little money. He had not been gone for a day, when Cleveland said that he would not have a woman around the house, who would not make money for him."

"I swore that I would not, but when he threatened me, and said that he would also drive me into the streets, I did not know what to do. I knew no person and was afraid. He said that if I squealed he would kill me. He then took me to a few stoves then in their bareness, cards printed, which he widely distributed among the Chinese."

The witness said he would never let her out of his sight, and kept her children locked in a cupboard when any Oriental came near. It was also alleged that he beat the little man severely. She managed to elude the man and succeeded in making a complaint.

On Monday there will be special inducements in the sale of winter goods, such as coats, dresses, downy puffs, comforts, as well as extra bargains in dress materials and ready-to-wear dresses and coats. The sale closes on Tuesday at six p. m.

WEDDING. A very pretty wedding took place on November 15 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burns, 111 King street, when their daughter Edith Mary was united in marriage to William Frederick McNeil, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McNeil, of St. John. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William Lawrence of Zion Methodist church. The bride was dressed in white, and was attended by Miss Nellie Curran, who wore blue. The room was supported by George M. McNeil, the bride's brother, and very pretty presents. Mr. and Mrs. McNeil will leave on Tuesday for their home. The bride's travelling suit is of blue.

FOR THE CONGRESS. The fortieth anniversary of the Y. M. Kelly, while others taking part in the programme will be Alex. Simmons, John Lager, and David Higgins, soloists; R. Ryan and L. A. Conlon, readings; I. Garnett, harmonica solo, and Leo McQuigg and W. J. McManis, step dances.

MARRIED IN WEST. A friend received by Mrs. Dodge, 129 Prince William street, word that the wedding of her daughter, Miss George B. Dodge, at the home of her uncle in a small town in New Brunswick, had taken place at seven o'clock last evening. The happy man is G. Hartley Colwell, formerly of this city. The telegram stated that they were married under an arch of evergreen, by Rev. Mr. Wright, who is probably a former minister of Trussell street Baptist church, here. The wedding was witnessed by between sixty and seventy friends, with whom their friends in St. John will unite in extending the best wishes for future prosperity. The bride was unattended, she was pretty attired in white with a tunic of lace with veil and orange blossom.

ST. JOHN'S OUTLOOK

The outlook in St. John for the coming year is bright. With the opening of spring the erection of the large new brush and broom factory in Fairville will be begun. The new theatre on King Square will also be erected next year. The completion of the new armory will give employment to many more. If Hon. Robert Maxwell's prediction in yesterday's Standard, that the erection of the new bridge at the falls will be begun within six months, is fulfilled, it will mean work for a large crew of men. It may be taken for granted that the real estate companies will continue to erect new cottages and tenements, or reconstruct old ones in various parts of the city. Moreover, the federal government and the C. P. R. will carry on some further development work at West St. John. There is also a prospect of the erection of a machine factory on the west side.

Then there is the development of Courtenay Bay. We shall know better how this matter stands when Premier Borden replies to Hon. Dr. Pugsley's questions presented in the house on Thursday, but we may safely expect that something will be done to make preparation for the business which the government press now tells us is destined to come over the rails of the Grand Trunk Pacific. If Mr. Borden will go on with the old government's Courtenay Bay programme the activity there will be greater than anywhere else in the city.

Whether much or little be done at Courtenay Bay next year, it will still be a busy year. We may hope that the lumber trade will improve, and that the mills will have a better year than the last. Should the proposed paper mill at Union Point materialize, it would mean another great forward step in the development of new industries. Doubtless plans for investment of which the public as yet know nothing, are being considered; for this city has been attracting a great deal of attention abroad during the past year or two. There is also the Valley Railway. Should the two governments come to terms and the construction of this road be begun in the spring, it would give a great impetus to general business. There is every reason to have faith in the future of St. John, and to anticipate a vigorous growth in the next few years.

It is also to be noted that next spring the city will come under the commission plan of government, and, if a strong commission is elected, the citizens may fairly hope for a better administration of all the civic departments, and better returns for the money expended on the various public services, with more satisfactory planning of the city's development in various directions. We cannot tell at present what will be the result of the effort to secure for the city cheaper light and power, but this also is one of the hopeful indications of the time. St. John, by the end of 1912, should show greater material progress achieved or in process of achievement than in any single year for a very long period. Hence the citizens should manifest a lively interest in all civic matters, and a spirit of cheerful optimism with regard to the city's future.

THE CHILDREN'S RIGHT

Has a child the right to play? We are all very jealous of our rights. If they are encroached upon by a neighbor there is trouble. Thrones have been overturned in the struggles of people for their rights, and the face of civilization changes with the centuries as the recognition of human rights is more and more enforced. Man insists upon the right to work, to business, to use the streets and other public conveniences, to think his own thoughts and develop his own manhood. When he is interfered with in the exercise of his legitimate right to the pursuit of happiness he protests, and the protest is promptly endorsed by fair-minded persons who seek a like freedom for themselves.

But the child is helpless in such matters. It remains largely the creature of its environment. It has a natural desire for play, which is a means of healthy development. Is it not also a natural right? And is not the community which denies children a place in which to play guilty of a crime against human rights?

The child who plays in the street is liable to arrest. Yet play he must, if his physical and mental development are not to be retarded. It is his main business in life up to the time when he enters school, and it is as necessary that the boy at school shall have playgrounds as that he shall have school instruction; for otherwise his nature cannot be properly developed.

Our trouble is that we forget the viewpoint of the child. We expect him to think as we think, although that is utterly impossible. It has been truly said that a child without education may grow up healthy, good, and in a sense happy; but without play he will be none of these. We insist that school privileges shall be provided for every child. Should we not with equal insistence demand play privileges for the child who plays? If not under healthy conditions and under good influences, then under wretched conditions and subject to evil tendencies.

Let us restore to the children of the cities their right to free play under wholesome conditions. By so doing we enable them to escape grave temptations and to give a right direction to energy that must find expression. The city of Chicago is spending millions of dollars to provide playgrounds throughout the city. St. John should at least be able to spend a

WOMEN ONCE MORE THREATENED BY RETURN OF WASP-WAIST FASHION

(London Mirror). Signs are not wanting that the wasp waist, so popular four years ago, is to return to favor—presently. As recently stated in The Daily Mirror, this is the first winter when women can wear toilettes a year old and still be up-to-date.

Not content with this, however, a few Parisiennes are endeavoring to disturb the comfortable reign of the "no change" fashions by adopting the wasp waist and making it once again popular. And, of course, a fashion popular in Paris always ends by becoming popular here.

Sensational waist sizes quoted in the heyday of the infatuation for the wasp waist are 15, 16 and 17 inches. "The smallest size corset we have been selling for some time is for a 19 inch waist," said a representative of a large firm of corsetiers yesterday.

Already there is a tendency to show the wasteline more distinctly, and belts are being worn again in narrow leather form of about an inch in depth.

But before deciding to adopt a new or a revived style of dress, a woman should get her doctor's approval and have a dress prescribed for her.

That is at least the opinion of a well-known doctor, whose attention was drawn yesterday to the statement recently made by Professor Franz Bergman, late of Heidelberg (Germany) University, that American women are becoming cold-blooded, like hards, and deformed because of their slavery to foolish fashions.

"Only medical men," he said, "can properly foresee the possible risks to health likely to arise out of some fresh style in women's clothes."

"In many ways present fashions make for the bad circulation of blood. Of these the prevailing high-tight-lacing and the wearing of tight boots and shoes are the most harmful."

"The hobble-skirt is also having its bad effect upon women. They cannot move about, exactly or freely in tight skirts, and this cramping of movement is showing itself in increased thinness among hobble-skirt wearers."

OCTOBER'S TAPESTRY

(Alice E. Allen in Lippincott's Magazine) By the mountain stands October, Like a weaver brown and old; For his warp he uses sunbeams—

Thousands of palpitating gold; And the loom spread out before him In the forest dim and green, While his shuttle, plying swiftly, Is the wind of Autumn keen.

For his woof he chooses colors—Amethyst and purple lot; In the blue of smoke and shadows, In the gray of early frost; Vivid carmine, saffron, amber; Faded tints the Summer left; Mauve and lilac softly blended—

All these from October's weft. All day long I hear the music Of his shuttle and his loom; All day long I watch him weaving Till the stars begin to bloom. And the figures on his fabric, As each day they brighter grow, See the forms and flower-like faces Of the June I used to know.

IN LIGHTER VEIN

Moncton has the natural gas from the Albert wells piped to the river bridge which crosses from the town to the Albert shore. The test made shows a good pressure. The commercial and industrial value of the new source of heat, light and power will soon be realized by the citizens.

Moncton is fortunate in many ways, and is a growing city.

The strike of the Montreal longshoremen at the very close of the season, when there was so little to gain and certainly something to lose, seems to have been ill-advised. Whatever the justice of their claims, the men's action alienates public sympathy in addition to the embitterment of their already strained relations with the steamship companies. Moreover, under the Lemieux Act, the course would seem to be unlawful.

The great mandatory conference to be held in this city next week is part of a wide movement of vast significance in the religious world. It has large aims, and behind them an earnest purpose. It will bring into harmonious conference members of churches which do not always unite their efforts, and may be regarded as another influence tending toward church union, although that is not at all its specific purpose. Men of splendid gifts and wide influence will be among the speakers, and it will be a privilege to listen to the messages they bring.

"SECRET" OF PALACE FOR THE KAISER

Cost Million and Half, Subscribed By Wiesbaden's Rich Men
A PEACE OFFERING
Although Necessary to Consult His Tastes About It, Yet Officially He is to be Staggered With Surprise at the Gift

(Times Special Correspondence.)
Berlin, Nov. 2-Incomparable Wiesbaden, between verdant Taunus and sapphire Rhine, seethes with infantile excitement. It is making up in rigid secrecy a birthday present for Kaiser Wilhelm. It has set to work in the way of Mr. Jones' favorite infant Dora when she prepares an oriental smoking cap or a fretwork pipestand for her pa. Everyone knows what Dora is doing, and pa knows best of all. But no one lets on that he has the slightest suspicion as to what she is doing.

The fact is Wiesbaden is troubled because Kaiser Wilhelm has begun to ignore it. For years he, and kindly Kaiserin Augusta Victoria paid it visits, drank its salty waters, bought its post-cards, and in the late years he has preferred inferior Hamburg. Reasons are many. Some say that Kaiser Wilhelm is bored with the town, and that he counts 139 millionaires, and though these are not pound millionaires or even dollar millionaires, still they have made their pile. They made it in running hotels, speculating in real estate, and selling picture postcards to visitors with fat purses and cartarral mucous membranes which it is Wiesbaden's business to cure. Until lately this easy process of piping up millions went on brilliantly. But of late business has been bad, and the Kaiser and the rich men have resolved that the only way to save their millions is to raise, in silence and mystery, a band new palace for Kaiser Wilhelm.

But apart from this Kaiser Wilhelm has grievances against Wiesbaden. It lodges him ill. When he and his Kaiserin visit the town they are put up in the ancient Pauline Schloss, a Moorish ruin, copied from the Alhambra. It lies in the middle of the town; and all night long street cars thunder past it, and banish sleep from the Kaiser's eyes. He is in the middle of the town; and all night long street cars thunder past it, and banish sleep from the Kaiser's eyes.

They Want Him Back
But as the Wiesbaden millionaires are loyal to the Kaiser and more loyal still to their millions, they have resolved to build a decent shelter for Kaiser Wilhelm. The soul of the business is a rich Dr. Borgmann. The first plan was to knock down the villas, restore the park in front and rebuild the palace on the lines of Schloss Miramar near Trieste, which was built by Emperor Maximilian of Mexico. Schloss Miramar is Kaiser Wilhelm's ideal. This enterprise would cost some $1,500,000, as the villas alone are worth $200,000. The designs were drawn by Prince Councillor Gommers of Berlin. The millionaires took oaths to pursue their plans in silence. They looked about with mysterious faces, talked in apocalyptic whispers and kept the secret so successfully that no one heard of it.

The Care of Silverware

Ever go into the home of a prosperous friend for dinner, and see the beautiful silverware arranged on the snow-white table linen and sideboard?

Ever in your own home notice how beautiful the silver looks after being properly cleaned, the different articles of jewelry, rings, toilet sets, silver handbags, etc.?

Ever stop to think of the hard labor and work it takes in the average household to clean silverware? All the rubbing, scrubbing and polishing.

Ever think of the cost of the silverware and consider that the rubbing and cleaning of it by the old method is a way more silver than the hardest ordinary use—rubbing it. Possibly damage to plated ware?

The average life of silverware is all the way from three months to a century according to the care that is taken of it. In some cases priceless heirlooms are handed down from generation to generation and the problem is always how to preserve the natural lustre and brightness without injury.

There is one ABSOLUTELY SATISFACTORY way to clean Silver, Gold and Plated Ware, and WITH NO RUBBING. Thus the articles are not scratched—the surface is not rubbed or injured in the slightest—in fact we guarantee Wonder-Shine Silver Cleaner in every possible way. It does the work perfectly in one-quarter of the time, and many articles can be cleaned at once.

GREAT LAYMEN'S CONVENTION; THE PLANS COMPLETE

Noted Speakers at Congress in Centenary Beginning on Monday—The Programme, The Men and What it is Hoped to Accomplish

laymen's missionary movement for the Presbyterian church; Rev. W. T. Gunn, missionary secretary of the Congregational church in Canada; H. K. Caskey, field secretary of the national laymen's movement in Canada; and Rev. J. T. Tucker of the student volunteer movement. The missionary educational movement will be represented by Rev. H. C. Priest, one of the Baptist leaders.

WORK ON THE C.N.R.
(Toronto Mail and Empire)

It is also likely that work will be begun on several parts of the Canadian Northern programme in Western Ontario as soon as the frost is out of the ground early next year, in the opinion of Sir William Mackenzie, as expressed yesterday afternoon. Though the president had nothing as yet to say of the company's plans for entering Hamilton, or of the terminal location in that city, he said that they were now ready to start construction from the Toronto end of the line, and proposed to commence grading the first thing in the spring.

It is also likely that work will begin at the same time between Niagara and Hamilton, and the whole road should be well under way by summer, as the right-of-way will present few engineering difficulties, following, as it does, the transmission line of the Toronto Power Company for most of the distance.

REV. DR. FLANDERS

Final arrangements were made at a mass meeting of city ministers and laymen in the Centenary church last evening for the great missionary convention which is to be opened in that church Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock and continue until Wednesday evening. The convention will be representative of all Protestant bodies in New Brunswick, and is sure to result in giving a great impetus to missionary effort in this province. With an attendance of more than 500 earnest-hearted men, and with an array of speakers such as have never been heard together in St. John for a generation, this great gathering is expected to be a memorable one. While Sir Andrew Fraser, K. C. S. I., late governor of Bengal, who nearly gave his life in the cause of British administration in India, and J. Campbell White, who has had twenty-five years' experience in missions, will be the outstanding figures at the convention, a glance at the programme will show the names of many men who have had far-reaching influence on the destiny of this Canada of ours.

The full programme for the convention follows:

Monday, Nov. 21.

General theme: "The Church and Her Task."

4 p. m.—In Centenary church, Chairman, T. H. Ballou, ex-mayor of St. John. Services of intercession, led by Rev. C. H. Flanders, D. D., chairman of the executive committee. Address, The Central Place of Missions in the Life of the Church, Rev. Dr. Sydney Gould, general secretary M. S. C. C.

8 p. m.—In Centenary church, Chairman, His Honor Lieutenant-Governor Tweedie, Chatham (N. B.). Devotional exercises, led by Rev. David Lane, M. A., D. D. Words of welcome, His Worship Mayor Frank. Response, Rev. F. W. Anderson, M. A., Toronto. Address, This Province: Its Opportunities and Responsibilities, Rt. Rev. Bishop Richardson, Fredericton. Offering. Address, The Unfinished Task in Non-Christian Lands, Sir Andrew Fraser, K. C. S. I.

Tuesday, Nov. 22.

9 a. m.—In Centenary church, Chairman, W. M. Jarvis. Devotional exercises, led by Rev. J. H. MacDonald, D. D., Fredericton.

11 a. m.—Theme: The Equipment for the Task. How Can We Create An Intelligent Home? Address, Rev. J. H. Aronup, secretary Methodist Laymen's Association. The Missionary Leadership of the Pastor, Rev. William T. Gunn, M. A., B. D., general secretary of Canada Congregational Union. The Primary Method of Solving the Missionary Problem, Rev. M. Edward Fletcher, secretary Maritime Baptist Foreign Mission Board. Effective Methods of Reaching Untouched Peoples, Rev. A. E. Armstrong, M. A., Toronto. Are Missions Successful? A Business Man's View, L. A. Hamilton, Toronto.

2:30 p. m.—Chairman, J. W. Spradley, Chairman of Maritime Baptist Foreign Mission Board. Subject: The Local Church. Is a Men's Missionary Committee Essential? D. M. Rose, general secretary Laymen's Movement in Anglican Church. An Educational Programme for the Local Church, Rev. H. C. Priest, Canadian secretary Missionary Educational Movement. How Can We Reach the Local Church in the Rural Districts? W. C. Senior, Toronto. A Financial Programme for the Local Church, J. Campbell White, New York. Question Drayer, Herbert K. Caskey.

5:30 p. m.—Mass meeting for ladies in St. John's (Stone) Church. Address by J. Campbell White and Sir Andrew Fraser, K. C. S. I.; Rev. G. A. Kuhring will preside.

General Theme: Our Church's Share of the Task.

9 a. m.—The Missionary Responsibility of Our Church (a) in Canada; (b) in Foreign Fields.

9:30 a. m.—Closing conference of the Centenary church, Chairman, Mr. Justice McKinnon, St. John. Devotional exercises, led by Rev. F. S. Porter, M. A., B. D. Resolution of Thanks, Judge Forbes, St. John. Adoption of Convention Policy, Rev. Joseph McLeod, D. D., ditor of Maritime Baptist, and J. R. Inch, LL. D., Sackville. The Task and Its Challenges, Rev. James Edgworth, B. A., Anna Offering. The Sufficiency of God, Sir Andrew Fraser, K. C. S. I.

White ladies will not be admitted to the general meetings in Centenary church they will be given an opportunity to hear Sir Andrew Fraser, and the meeting in St. John's Stone church Tuesday afternoon is expected to be so crowded that those who desire seats are requested to come early.

Sir Andrew Fraser, recently Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, India, is the son of an eminent clergyman of the Presbyterian church of Scotland. He received his education in Edinburgh and in 1871, when in his twenty-third year, he entered the Indian service. While in India he held many important offices. In 1898 he returned to Scotland.

J. Campbell White, while traveling secretary for the Student Volunteer Movement, J. M. C. A., secretary in India for ten years and lately financial secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement of the Presbyterian Church of the United States has achieved more than a national reputation as a brilliant speaker.

Rev. Canon Gould, for years a successful missionary to the Moslems and now secretary of the M. S. C. will present conditions in the Ottoman Empire and Dr. James Edgworth and Rev. E. W. Wallace will represent the Canadian north-west. Other speakers will be A. E. Armstrong, assistant secretary for foreign missions and F. W. Anderson secretary of the laymen's missionary movement for the Presbyterian church; Rev. W. T. Gunn, missionary secretary of the Congregational church in Canada; H. K. Caskey, field secretary of the national laymen's movement in Canada; and Rev. J. T. Tucker of the student volunteer movement. The missionary educational movement will be represented by Rev. H. C. Priest, one of the Baptist leaders.

WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write to Dr. Pierce and receive free the advice of a physician of over 40 years' experience—a skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women.

Dr. Pierce's treatment will cure you. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands, some of them the worst of cases.

It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician. The only one good enough that its makers dare to print its ingredients on its outside wrapper.

Calbraith P. Rodgers, transcontinental aviator, was severely bruised when his airplane crashed to earth at Compton, northwest of Los Angeles, Cal. Mr. Rodgers was flying from Pasadena to Long Beach, where thousands had assembled to see him, complete his aerial trip from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

Supervisor Ethel Perrin and her assistants in physical training are giving more attention than ever this year to the matter of outdoor games, the installation and use of playground apparatus and more outdoor courses in physical training.

HINTS FOR ST. JOHN

What is Being Done for School Playgrounds in Detroit

It will interest friends of the playground movement in St. John to read of what is being done in school playgrounds in other cities. Here, for example, is an article from the Detroit News Tribune telling of one phase of playground development in that city.

"Schools which have organized teams and are practicing regularly are the Columbian, Franklin, Fairbanks, Houghton, Thomas, Troubridge, McGraw, Van Dyke, Doty, Jones and Clippert. At the Capron, of which Miss Flora E. Miller is principal, each room has its own team, and there are in addition teams to represent the school.

"The first step toward what is hoped will result in a more complete equipment of the school playgrounds with apparatus was taken this year through the purchase of standard size and kind of apparatus for a number of the schools. To date, they have been installed at the Fairbanks, Doty, Troubridge, McGraw, Van Dyke, Goldberger, Columbian, Alger, Still, Parke and Berry.

"Under the direction of the department of physical training, regular rules have been suggested which are designed to secure the widest possible use of the apparatus and to eliminate the danger of injury. The children in all the schools are enthusiastic over the equipment, especially at the City. Greater freedom in the physical training movements and games is also encouraged by holding classes in kindergarten rooms and by conducting them in the basement playrooms.

"Another matter to which Miss Perrin is giving attention is the matter of the school which has no bathing facilities use the nearby schools that are equipped. Children of the Robert and the Van Dyke are permitted to go to the Bishop; from the Hartwood, Clinton, Everett and Jackson to the Capron; from the McGraw, Brownson to the Norvell; from the Capron to the Campbell; from the Poter, Owen, Dickenson, Criss and by the Chasney; from the Ferry and Parke to the Greusel; from the Lincoln to the Russell.

The Lancaster Lands

To the Editor of the Times: Sir—Having learned through the press that the council has referred the matter of Lancaster lands back to a committee, which will cause an indefinite delay, I venture to inquire what is the object of this delay. It is to gain time so that the sign promoters may come and ask for the land for nothing and an exemption from taxes and free water, or do they think that the laboring men will get tired of waiting and forget all about it? To my mind the delegation that waited on the safety board made their case plain when they stated that all they wanted was a place to build a home so that they could raise their families in peace and health and that they were willing to pay a reasonable amount for the privilege of improving the unoccupied land and also at the same time contributing something to the support of the city and county. To my mind the best way to increase our population is to anchor the family man on a piece of land and give him an interest in the country and keep our sons and daughters at home rather than to pay for immigrants who are foreign to our institutions, language and flag.

OH WHY?

At the request of the men, Miss Crosby spoke briefly to them on the wretchedness of a life of abandonment in the streets, and the peace and comfort and joy of the normal life to which the half starved cat-boys, whose roof is the blue sky, whose bed the hard floor of open doorways, and food the forage of ash barrels, eagerly assented.

OFFER TO WEAK MEN

I make this offer to weak men, particularly those men who have spent their earnings for years on dope (the drugs that make them feel like a young colt one day and like an old, broken-down hack the day after), those men who have tried so many things, that they are tired of fooling and want a cure. These are the men I appeal to, and to any man who will give me reasonable security I am willing to give my

Electric Belt on Trial Until You Are Cured

I claim that I can cure weak men; that I can pump new life into worn-out bodies; that I can cure your pains and aches, lumber up your joints and make you feel as frisky and vigorous as you ever did in your life. That's what I can do for you. I can give you a good remedy, and know it will do for you. I can take all the risk if you will pay me when you are cured.

No man can lose on this. If the cure is worth the price you don't have to pay me for it until you get it. When you are ready to say you are a big, husky and frisky specimen of vigorous manhood; that you haven't got an ache or pain in your whole body and that you feel better than you ever did in your life, I get paid. If you can't say it after using my Belt for three months then give me back my old Belt and I won't ask a cent.

A short time ago I took a case that I couldn't cure, and I didn't see why as I had cured hundreds like it. Anyway, my patient returned like the Bolt and said I hadn't done him any good. He said he thought I had treated him honestly and wanted to pay me the cost of the Belt, because it could not be used again. I refused, and told him that I had made a contract to cure him or get nothing, and I wouldn't take a dollar I hadn't earned.

I don't charge much for a cure. My Belts are as low as $5. That will cure some cases, and it won't cost a cent if it doesn't. Did you ever see a doctor who would agree to cure you for $5 and wait for his money till you were cured?

I've cured lots of men who had paid over a thousand dollars to doctors before they came to me.

Dear Sir—I now send you a statement as regards my Belt. It has done wonders for me. Since using it the pains are almost gone. I have gained in weight and cut out a great deal of my fat. I feel as if I have already proved itself to be all that you recommended it to be. I wish you every success in your good work.

Dear Sir—I am going to tell you how things went with me. I don't remember when I felt so well as I do now. I had not had an ache or a pain since I began using the Belt. I sleep well and when I awaken in the morning I am ready to spring out of bed. I feel so happy and well that I can hardly believe that I am the same person. Thanking you very much for your kind attention and for your Belt.

Dear Sir—Your Belt has cured me of rheumatism and sciatica. Your Belt is all right and anything I cannot get for you I am willing to do so. This is my statement. Your Belt is just as good as when I started, and I can state truthfully that your Belt is the best thing going for sore back and rheumatism and sluggish feeling. It rouses up the blood and drives aches away. Yours very truly, ROBERT CAMERON, Hood, C. B.

Get Some Life Into You

What's the use of dragging your legs about in a wooden man? Feel like a man of spirit. Away with the pains and aches; of with this stretched feeling as if you were seventy years old and had your feet in the grave. Come and let me give you a new supply of youthful energy. Let me make you feel like throwing your chest out, and your head up, and saying to yourself, "I'M A MAN!" Let me give you back that old feeling of youthful fire, vim and courage. I can do it, so that in two months you will wonder that you ever felt so slow and poky as you do now. Act today. Life is sweet, so enjoy every minute.

This is the Way They Feel

The men who had given up hope, who thought there was no cure for them, until they came upon Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt. Now they are full of life and overflowing with joyous spirits. Pains are gone, weakness has gone, and full vigor is in every action.

Do you want to feel like that? Then wear the grand life-giving appliance for two months at night. It will change every nerve with electric life, and you will feel rejuvenated and invigorated. It puts steam into your run-down body—drives away pain, and renews youth.

Tell me where you are and I'll give you the name of a man in your town that I've cured. I've got cures in every town. That's enough. You need the cure. I've got it. I'll give it to you or you need not pay me a cent. Come and get it now. The pleasurable moments of your life are too few to be thrown away. While there is a chance to be husky and strong, to throw out your chest and look at yourself in the glass and say, "I'm a man," do it, and don't waste time thinking about it.

FREE BOOK I've got a beautiful book, full of good, honest talk how men are made big and noble, and I'll send it to you, free, sealed, if you send me a stamped coupon. Office Hours, 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.; Wednesdays and Saturdays to 8.30 p. m. Write Plain.

responsibility, opened up with him some of the most important details of the case, which he says antedates the finding of the bodies of the two men in the water. As a man of education and culture, the barrister says he did not anticipate being obliged to subscribe to the same conditions which regulate the admission of ordinary immigrants. Anyway he intended to stay only long enough to see his fair counterpart and ascertaining if she was what she represented to be in the way of position, money and general eligibility as a wife. But Uncle Sam stepped in. Now he is awaiting the arrival of the woman from the foreign office to release him in the old country to go to his home.

Fanny Crosby

Fanny Crosby (the ninety-two year old blind poetess, whose appealing hymns have moved millions for years in every country where Christians worship, was the object of the attention of the other evening among the denizens of the underworld on the Bowery. The Bowery Mission, which is the headquarters of the Salvation Army in the Whitechapel district of London are to the English, commentators of the news, the nucleus of its organization with special exercises and invited distinguished persons to participate in them, among them the blind poetess.

The body of the auditorium was filled with the devoted of humanity, old and young, men, who, caught in the swirling labyrinth of society, had been literally picked up in the gutter, and through sympathetic treatment, clean clothes and a helping hand, had been put back on their feet.

Reclined in whole or in part, with the faint of their swollen and bloodshot eyes, they presented a pathetic picture of the proletariat struggling for regeneration with the help and encouragement of his stronger brother. In honor of his stronger brother, she has made internationally famous were sung. Some old reverts who were present say they never heard them rendered with more spirit and fervor.

Those who observed her noticed a flash of elation on the pale and wrinkled cheeks of the nonagenarian authoress as the man delirious in the auditorium joined in the swelling chorus. Although she could not see the faces of the unfortunate, she might have long and varied career around her, moved by the stirring words and music of her hymns, the scene was described to her by a companion and she herself expressed herself as intensely pleased.

At the request of the men, Miss Crosby spoke briefly to them on the wretchedness of a life of abandonment in the streets, and the peace and comfort and joy of the normal life to which the half starved cat-boys, whose roof is the blue sky, whose bed the hard floor of open doorways, and food the forage of ash barrels, eagerly assented. Following the ceremony the men were led down into the basement where they were treated to sandwiches and large doses of hot coffee, and boring lodging houses for a sound night's rest. For Miss Crosby it was the greatest night of her long and varied career around her, moved by the stirring words and music of her hymns, the scene was described to her by a companion and she herself expressed herself as intensely pleased.

The Horse Show Among the rank and file of society in London in the 27th and 28th shows, which opened today in Madison Square Garden, will largely centre in the competitive competitions by the military officers of Great Britain, Canada, Belgium, Holland and the United States. IRISH BOY SCOUTS TO AID HOME RULE

Mr. Redmond, speaking at Ballynaggs, County Wicklow, a couple of days ago said that the Irish party had come to Ireland after the last session of the greatest political triumph of the century to their credit. He went on to say that he had lifted promotion in support of the same cause. He said that the promoter left his office for parts unknown. His associates who have been arrested, charged with operating a "get rich quick" scheme, are trying to put the case on him.

The officials of the department of justice feel that it will be easier to locate Hayes than they can find the woman, who according to a statement made by her sister, was in London ten days ago. He said that if he knew of an isolated case he would go to the source and source it. The amendments suggested by the Irish party to the Insurance bill, which would decrease what was suffering among the laboring classes.

THE SECRET

All true success is the outcome of reciprocal interest and genuine endeavor. You may be designing a battle ship or you may be thinking out a bright idea for a new business, or a commission or prize, or anything else, but you must have in your mind a picture of the man who is to profit by it. You must know his name, his address, his habits, his tastes, his likes and dislikes, his weaknesses and his strengths. You must know him as well as you know yourself.

Quincy Adams Hunt, rural mail carrier on route No. 4 out of Terre Haute, Ind., has just completed six years' service in the post office, and he has covered more than 45,000 miles in the six years.

Suffered Greatly With Her Heart. Became So Weak At Times Could Hardly Walk.

Many people may be unaware of having anything wrong with their heart, but some excitement, work, or confinement in an office, or over-crowded room, or long standing makes them feel faint and dizzy.

On the first sign of weakness of the heart or nervous, striking energy or physical break-down, you should not wait until you become desperate before you avail yourself of a perfect cure by using Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mrs. D. McGilvery, Fairhurst, N.B., writes:—Just a few lines to let you know what Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have done for me. I suffered greatly from nervous prostration, and became so weak that I could hardly walk. A friend of mine advised me to try your Pills, which I did, and soon found great relief. They are the best medicine I have ever taken for heart trouble.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup Cured Him.

Too much strain, and he lay on the bed that when a person catches a cold it must be attended to immediately, or serious results are liable to follow.

There is only one way to prevent pneumonia, and that is to cure the cold as soon as it appears.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup will do this quickly and effectively. Mr. Hugh Melville, Esterhazy, Sask., writes:—My little boy took a very severe cold, and developed into pneumonia. A doctor said he would not cure him, and that he would die. I bought a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and he began to improve. Now he is a strong, healthy child, and shows no sign of it coming back.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 25 cents. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

POLICE STOP HIS PROGRESS

$7.50 a Week Clerk Was Rapidly Accumulating a Fortune

$100,000 IN A YEAR

Man Leading Double Life All the Time—Gained Confidence of Victims, Then Swindled Them Profoundly

Berlin, Nov. 17.—Hans Muller, a copy clerk in the law courts, with $7,500 a week, has discovered a new high-road to success. His progress along which has, ever, been suddenly stopped by the police. To moneyed acquaintances he told tale of a friendly high official in the court office through whose mediation he was able to do a profitable business in the flotation of marketable inventions. His stories were supported by plausible manner, remarkable readiness in lying, a number of ingenious expedients. For instance, he was wont to inform the eyes of his intended victims that through ne mysterious association of which he was a member, he was able to purchase visions at specially advantageous rates, they expressed a desire to share in the benefits, he would buy the goods sold for at current rates, pass them on to the delighted housewives at a fraction of the same, and for the time being deny the difference out of his own pocket. He also profuse with opera and theatre tickets, which he professed to obtain through his high connections, but which he really bought at the box-office, and any ordinary mortal.

By such devices he won the confidence of small capitalists, and induced them to trust him with money for his patent inventions. Their lively investments were always prepaid with handsome profits, which increased their avarice, their confidence and their speculations. This eye of Muller's proved enormously remunerative, for his takings from it, so far as he has discovered, amounted to no less than $100,000 in the course of a single year. When he was arrested he had $25,000 on his person.

A curious feature of the case is that in the circle of his victims he was, for an assumed name, boasting of his court connections, and spending his nights and days, he was at the same time living, with his mother and sister, a careful and modest life of a copy clerk.

THE CAMORRA AND ITS WORK

Society Has a Tremendous Hold Upon Italy

DIFFERS FROM MAFIA

Facts Developed in the Long Drawn Out Trial—Crime Necessary to Admission to Membership—Little Concealment Practiced

(Times Special Correspondence)

Rome, Nov. 8.—The sensational opening of the Camorra trial and the length of the yet undetermined proceedings, have aroused in the public a sense of the interest and the importance attaching to the subject of secret organizations in Southern Italy. Different from the Mafia, which refers to a mode of life rather than to an organization, the Camorra is a secret society, deriving its ritual from Spain, and having taken its rules direct from those of an association of thieves which flourished at Toledo in the fifteenth century.

It was imported into Naples at the time of the Spanish occupation, and has flourished since then as a smuggling, blackmailing, and thieving organization. The mystery as to how it has been able to achieve its present strength is partly explained by the fact that in 1862 several of its members were enrolled in the police force, and in this connection it is significant to notice that the arrests in the case of the present trial were made not by the police, but by Captain Fabbri, a captain of the "gendarmarie," who came to Naples with a well-established reputation won in Sicily.

The members of the Camorra for the most part belong to the lower middle class. Large numbers of them keep grain and harness shops, and levy a regular blackmail on all of the coachmen in Naples. Their connection with politicians and others in positions of considerable importance, secures their immunity, as was shown by the fact that Captain Fabbri was hampered in his investigations by the police.

The protection afforded to the gang was so large-faced that soon after Captain Fabbri's arrival, several lawyers, themselves members of the Camorra, started a paper in which they made repeated attacks upon him, and upon the methods he employed. The openness of their procedure is, indeed, one of the most remarkable facts about the organization. It was shown strikingly by the set that led to the whole inquiry. A certain Cuccolo, a basista, one of those who plan robberies for the others to execute, began giving information about some of his fellows, and at a meeting of the gang he was elected head, Riccio presided, it is charged that they decided that he and his wife were not to do so. To the delight of the occasion they held a banquet, and it was while they were holding this that the murder was executed, for the double murder of the present trial. The strength of their organization is shown in many ways. Those of their members who are in prison levy blackmail on the other prisoners, and death is the price of a refusal to submit to their demands. Robbery and crime generally are kept strictly to members of the gang, and the outsider who encroaches on what they regard as their preserves is very soon put out of the way. A crime of violence was a recent instance, for the double murder he is charged with, and which he is charged to have committed, was done by a man who had been a member of the gang, and who had been expelled from it for a crime of violence.

Another sign of the disregard they show for the law is the annual pilgrimage they make to Monte Virgine, a place about four days' journey from Naples. They travel in cars, gaily decorated with ribbons and bells, and no one interferes with them, though their identity is well known.

The issue of the present trial is still doubtful. The accused were five years in prison before the case ever came into court, and it is very doubtful after all this time whether it will be possible to get sufficient evidence for a conviction.

Just as the Camorra is an institution from which Italy must be purged, and the present trial is encouraging as showing that the government, which directly intervenes to support Captain Fabbri, has evidently realized that it is time to take effective steps to suppress what really amounts to a petty state that thinks nothing of setting the government at defiance to gain its vile ends.

Frank White Vice-President.

The twenty-fourth annual meeting of the Amateur Skating Association of Canada was held Thursday evening at the M. A. A. club house. James Taylor was re-elected as president of the association, while Major Freeman, Frank White, of St. John, and Louis Rubenstein were returned to fill the positions of first and second vice-presidents and secretary-treasurer, respectively. Sir Montague Allan, Dr. H. B. Yates, Major W. H. Doidge, F. W. Barlow, P. D. Ross and W. C. Findlay were elected as an executive committee.

The international races will be held in the United States this year. The location will be determined at the annual meeting of the International Association, to be held about the last of this month. At this meeting action will be requested by the Canadian organization for races.

Hogan Defeats Brown.

New York, N.Y., Nov. 17.—"One round" Hogan easily had the better of seven of the ten rounds in a bout with "Knock-out" Brown at the Madison Athletic Club tonight. It is the second time that Hogan has been credited with a victory over Brown.

Melody in a Draw.

Adams, Nov. 16.—Honey Melody of Boston and Young Nitchie of Philadelphia went to a six-round draw in a fast bout tonight. Nitchie substituted for Andy Parker of Philadelphia. The fight was even all the way through, and the decision met with general approval.

Two More Hops to Meet.

New York, Nov. 16.—No recent bout between heavy-weight fighters has aroused the interest among the fight fans as the one arranged between Tom Kennedy and Al Paiser, who will meet in a 10-round go at the Royale A. C., in Brooklyn, Nov. 29. Paiser won the elimination tournament at the National Sporting Club early this season, while Kennedy won amateur honors. Then they fought, and honors fell to Paiser. Both men have been anxious for the return bout, and efforts are being made to match the winner with Joe Jeannette or Jim Flynn.

Boxing Notes.

Young Ahearn and Jack Dorman will meet in Brooklyn, Nov. 27. Bill Hurley and Al McClosky will meet in Pittsburgh next Monday night. Young McDonough and Dave Deahler have been matched to box in Manchester, N. H., Nov. 22.

Doc Kroes of Chicago announces that he has signed Con. Connolly, to meet Carl Morris in Kansas City next month. Joe Jeannette's manager wants $5,000 for Jeannette's end to box Jim Flynn in San Francisco, but promoter Coffroth cannot see where Jeannette is worth such an amount.

Willie Fitzgerald wants it understood that he will have to be defeated before any of the welterweights lay claim to the title in that class.

Bat Nelson has signed to box DeFauville, the French boxer, whom Frank Erno is tutoring. The battle will take place in Buffalo, on Nov. 27. After the bout Nelson will go to Toronto and box Billy Allen for the Canadian lightweight championship belt, now held by Allen.

Pittsburg will be done twenty-seven hours before going into the ring. This will make each boxer do some close figuring, just the other fellow has an advantage in weight going into the ring. Some boxers gain more weight after fighting in than other boxers, so that when making the match the boxers will have to stipulate the weight to be at such a low figure when the weighing is done, that the gain made in the twenty-seven hours will not give any of them an advantage going into the ring. Boxers agreeing on catchweights will not have to weigh in.

Johnny Coulon, bantam-weight champion, has been matched tonight to box George Kibon, of New York in Kenosha, Wis., on Nov. 29.

After his meeting with Chicken Roan at Lowell on Nov. 21, Albert Belmont, a Boston bantam-weight, will meet Benny Faulkes at Watervliet, N. Y., on Nov. 24. Abe Attell had the meeting with the New Yorker, but passed up the match. Belmont and Faulkes will meet at 118 pounds ringside. These matches will be easy compared with the several that Manager Billie Cox has arranged for Delmont. The elimination bouts at New Orleans, in which Frankie Burns defeated Jimmie Smith, will have a different bout as a contestant. A match with Johnny Coulon is what Delmont is after and from present indications it is not very far off.

Johnny Connolly, a little Scotch champion, continues to win. Connolly's recent victory over Peter Sullivan, a seasoned general of the ring game, was one of the best evidences of his coming along.

Baseball

After the Season.

The Athletics will not go to Cuba this year as it is against the rules of the national commission for world's champions to go on a barnstorming trip. Having made a little extra money in playing in exhibition games the Athletic players have disbanded. Frank Baker, Harry Davis and others have gone on a shooting expedition along the shores of Maryland. They have a houseboat and their trip will be a small edition of the famous annual shooting parties taken out by Charles Comiskey, owner of the White Sox. As soon as the shooting trip is over, Baker, who has declined offers for vaudeville, will go into business at Philadelphia. He will engage the services of Harry Davis and Connie Mack was a very sad one. They have been together for years, but hereafter they will appear on the diamond as enemies. Davis will take up his duties as manager of the Cleveland team just as soon as his duck shooting trip is over and he will not appear again as a member of the Philadelphia team, which he helped to win championships as well as the world's series. Harry Davis was a stenographer when he broke into baseball and he has been one of the most successful players that the game has produced. He slowed down two years ago and it became necessary for Connie Mack to put a faster young man at first base. The Athletics think a lot of Davis and they regret to see him leave them.

AMUSEMENTS IN ST. JOHN: WHAT THE PLAYHOUSES OFFER

NICKEL.

This afternoon and tonight the Nickel has a good bill, the management says, for those who usually put off their entertainment disputation until the week-end. The Vitagraph Co. have a fine picture, Messrs. Costello, Bunny, Miss Tapley, the Costello kiddies and others in the cast; the Biograph has a serio-comic story called "The Unveiling, and there are two good English subjects, The Tall Traveler and Making Fireworks.

Monday and Tuesday the Nickel promises to out rival the excellent bill of the same days last week when the Lyric drama, The Colleen Bawn, was shown to record crowds. This new feature is the story The Two Orphans, produced under the direction of Otis Turner after the version of this play used by Kate Claxton. It takes three whole reels of film to depict the story complete and from beginning to end it is said to be replete with thrilling episodes and pathetic incidents, portraying the adventures of the orphan sisters in the great city of Paris with a vividness hardly possible except in real life. The Nickel staff is making special preparations to have all who go to the theatre see this great feature and it is urged that ladies and children—as many as possible—attend the matinee; in fact, the management will adhere strictly to the rule that children under 14 years of age unaccompanied by adults, will be refused tickets in the evening. The Two Orphans picture play will be appropriately set with special music, giving full value to the mute action of the story.

LYRIC.

The Shelly Trio, which are to open three days engagement at the Lyric on Monday, are said to be singers and dancers of some note. As an additional attraction the management offer The Battle of Trafalgar, the Edison's superb production

UNIQUE.

The engagement of the Dramova Company talking pictures has been extended for a second week, owing to their success Monday and Tuesday they will be heard. It is promised, in a charming dramatic gem, entitled The Dagger and the Rose. This picture play is said to be a marvel of motion picture photography, the entire action of it taking place during a terrific storm, during which one rain lash falls into a tempest and the lightning is vividly seen. A comedy and comedy drama will complete the bill.

Genuine gold bricks were on sale at a very low rate for a short time in the vicinity of Golconda, Haldarabad in India where permission was granted to a company to make bricks from the refuse of some ancient gold mines which had been abandoned many years ago. After these bricks had been on sale for some time their bright yellow color attracted the attention of some investigator who found that they were rich with gold. Immediately the government seized the precious pile and revoked the privileges which had been given. Gold is now being taken in paying quantities from the ancient refuse piles.

John Perret of Belle Fourche, S. D., prospector, stepped into a newspaper office in that city last week and paid his subscription in gold dust. Gold dust has not been used as a medium of exchange in that city for more than twenty-five years. Perret is a pioneer placer miner of that region and still works a claim.

LEST WE FORGET.

It takes a motley crowd of folks, And some are fools they say, To keep this old world up to date And every part to play; One class of actors I regret Who may be others seem, Are those who in their daily walk Forget what they have been.

Sometimes the poor besotted wretch Who missed a drunkard's grave, Will pass an erring brother by, Whom he might stoop to save, He dare not soil his spotless soul, In company so mean, Though once as bad, he has alas, Forgotten what he has been.

See yonder youth and maiden fair Bodeyed in gaudy style, Withholding from a plain-dressed pair, Whom he might stoop to save, Such arrogance but ill befits The example they have seen, While blind assumption shows they have Forgotten what they have been.

Sometimes a despot you can find Placed o'er his fellow man, Though from the ranks he only rose, He makes his he can, His merit failed to put him there, On influence he did lean, But yet his actions show he has Forgotten what he has been.

Our souls by subtle foes are oft Beset on every side, But single-handed none assail So cunningly as poor old Society all round it strikes, With poisoned weapons keen, And make both rich and poor alike Forget what they have been.

S. S. "Pandora," Capt. Wright, from Colastine for Rio Janeiro, arrived at Rosario on Nov. 10.

NEW CITIZENS.
Registrar J. B. Jones this week reports thirty-five births, twenty-two boys and thirteen girls. Eight marriages were registered.

REPORTED.
F. A. Dykeman & Co. and F. W. Daniel & Co., have been reported by Policeman Lucas for having signs projecting over the street, contrary to law.

SCHOONER REPORTED.
A. W. Adams received word today that the schooner Minnie Slauson, which was reported to have fared badly in the storm a few days ago, was reported at Provincetown on Wednesday last.

SEVERAL CARLOADS HERE.
Already about fifty or sixty carloads of grain have been brought to the city for the starting of the I. C. R. motor on Monday next and it is expected that a busy season will result.

FROM JAIL TO HOME.
Sarah Moran, who has been serving a sentence in jail, was removed this morning in the ambulance to the Municipal Home. She is suffering from a general breakdown and her removal was ordered by Dr. James Christie, the jail physician.

EVERY DAY CLUB.
Rev. H. A. Cody will be the speaker at the Every Day Club tomorrow evening at 8.30. His subject will be "Mankind's Sins" will be sung by Mrs. George K. Bell and Alex. Simmons. The girls' quartette of Brussels street church will also sing.

FIRST STEAMER TUESDAY.
It is now expected that the Athenia, the first steamer of the winter season here will have arrived by Tuesday evening next. The Athenia was reported eighty miles east of Cape Race at eight o'clock this morning.

STEAMER NOTES.
The Donaldson liner Saturnia sailed today from Glasgow for St. John direct, with passengers and general cargo.
The C. P. R. steamer Montrose was reported yesterday at 2.30 p. m., eleven miles east of Belle Isle, and is due at Quebec at one o'clock p. m. today.

TEMPERANCE.
The members of Thorne Lodge, I. O. G. T., will commence their Sunday afternoon temperance meetings in the Haymarket Square hall tomorrow afternoon. Rev. W. C. Gietz will be the speaker. These meetings will be held every Sunday afternoon throughout the winter. All are welcome.

CIVIL SERVICE.
The civil service exams which were conducted by Dr. G. U. Hay in the post office building, were concluded last evening. In all twenty-seven young men and five young women took the examinations. Of the young women, four took the qualifying and one the third-class. The results will be made known in about three weeks. One of the candidates wrote exams for naval cadetship.

AT CHUBB'S CORNER.
The wet weather caused a slump in the real estate market today and bidding was slow when A. J. F. Potts offered two Queens county farms at auction on Chubb's corner. The two farms, one of 300 and the other of 100 acres were knocked down to J. V. Hann for $400. Sixteen shares of the stock of the Canada Wooden Ware Co., Ltd., par value $100 each, were drawn at $22.50 each.

CHARTER SMOKER.
The charter of Branch 482, C. M. B. A., of North End, has been received and the members are planning to hold a smoker next week, on Wednesday, at which the charter will be unveiled. An interesting programme is being arranged for the entertainment which will be held in St. Peter's hall, Elm street, and to which prospective members are invited.

THE C. P. R. WORK.
The work of erecting the new C. P. R. buildings in Mill street, opposite the depot, is being pushed ahead with remarkable quickness, and already the lengthy concrete wall has been completed, while the building in which the offices will be located in the front facing the street, is well advanced. A large crew of men have been at work and the progress made has been a source of commendation from the citizens in general.

MAY NOT MEET MONDAY.
There is some uncertainty as to whether or not the meeting of the common council, adjourned from last Monday evening, will be held on Monday night. The report of the investigating committee of the board of works for the reception of the board of works, for the reception of which the meeting was adjourned, will not be ready and it is doubtful if enough of the aldermen to form a quorum can be brought together for the purpose of dealing with the report of the committee on the mayor's inaugural address on the subject of taxation reform.

HYPOCRITES OR LIARS?
In the rooms of St. Peter's Y. M. C. A. tomorrow afternoon an interesting debate is looked forward to in a discussion as to whether a hypocrite or a liar is the more despicable character. The affirmative supporting the contention that the hypocrite is the more despicable will be championed by E. R. Hansen, Joseph Smith and Edward McBratney, while the negative will be taken by J. J. McDonnell, J. F. Rooney and Leo Dever. W. D. Shea will act as judge.

EVANGELISTIC.
The evangelistic services which have been conducted in the Victoria street Baptist church by Rev. A. D. Paul during the last week have been very successful. They will be continued every night next week with the exception of Saturday. Three services will be held tomorrow. In the morning Rev. Mr. Paul will take for his text, "Measuring God." In the afternoon at half-past two o'clock he will speak to men only on "God Touched Men." In the evening his text will be "Why Men Fall in Christian Life." There will be special music at all services.

COL. TUCKER BURNED IN SUMMER HOUSE FIRE

Oilstove Upset and Fluid Ignited — Is Not Seriously Injured

The upsetting of an oil stove in his summerhouse in Sandy Point road yesterday afternoon resulted in Col. J. J. Tucker being painfully burned about the head, and some of his furniture and fixtures in the parlor being destroyed by the flames, caused by the oil lighting. His friends were pleased to know that the injuries were not serious. Had it not been for the timely arrival and action of his servants, however, the results might have been different. His house-keeper, Mrs. Phillips, was burned about the hands and her hair caught fire as well.

The loss to the furniture and fixtures was covered by insurance, but considerable damage was done before the flames could be extinguished with the aid of water procured from near by ponds.

MORE ABOUT NEW SARDINE BUSINESS

C. P. R. Declared Interested in Factory to be Started Near St. Andrews

The Eastport correspondent of the Bangor Commercial, says that rumors of important changes in sardine circles are rife in Eastport, and it is reported that a company has been formed for carrying on the sardine business more extensively on the Canadian side. The interested parties are prominent residents of St. Andrews, the C. P. R. and one of the prominent officials of the Seaside Canning Co. of Eastport. It is the intention of the new company to erect a large plant at Chamcook, N. B., near St. Andrews, and the materials for the foundation are now being procured at St. George. It is expected the work of construction will be pushed along rapidly so as to be in readiness to take care of the spring run of fish. The majority of the work near St. Andrews are under the control of Durrell Grimmer of St. Andrews, who is one of the promoters of the new enterprise and as about all the fish usually put up in Eastport in the early spring come from there, the effect on the business in Eastport will be seriously felt by the packers and employes alike.

GOES HOME WITH HUSBAND

Young Wife Arrested in Charlotte Street Last Night

Two women occupied seats on the prisoner's bench in the police court this morning being charged with drunkenness and the other with street walking. Mabel Thomas, aged twenty-four, was charged with drunkenness. Policeman Henry told the court that he found the woman lying in a shed off Highway St. Patrick street. She was remanded to jail.

Jessie Jones, aged twenty, arrested by Policeman Kane on charge of wandering about in Charlotte street last night and not giving a satisfactory account of herself, pleaded guilty. Her husband was in court and said that his wife had left home in Musquah about two weeks ago to come to visit relatives here. Since then he had been given to understand that she had gone away with another man. She was given a severe reprimand by His Honor and allowed to go home with her husband.

Michael Uguhart was fined $5 or thirty days in jail on the charge of drunkenness.

INJURED IN RUNAWAY

John Chaloner of Kingston Thrown From His Wagon at Golden Ball Corner

A rather serious runaway accident occurred this morning between eleven and twelve o'clock at the corner of Waterloo and Union streets when a horse owned by John Chaloner, a farmer of Kingston, N. B., ran away. Mr. Chaloner was driving, the time in coming down Union street the horse took fright and started to run. When it reached the corner of Waterloo street it collided with another express team and Mr. Chaloner was thrown out. He struck on his head and shoulder and was badly bruised.

He was carried into E. Clinton Brown's drug store, where he was attended by Dr. McVeigh. Besides receiving a bad scalp wound, and it was feared that one of his shoulders was broken. The ambulance was summoned, but it happened to be out at the time, and the police patrol was secured and the injured man was taken to the hospital in a taxi.

Later Doctor McVeigh said that Mr. Chaloner's collar bone was broken, he had sustained a laceration of the scalp and there was a possibility that his skull was fractured.

SEAMEN'S INSTITUTE.
The ladies' auxiliary of the Seamen's Mission Society wish to thank all those friends and the press for helping to make their tea such a success. Through a mistake in giving out the names, the following were inadvertently omitted: Mrs. Archibald, Mrs. Dearness, Mrs. Rutherford, Mrs. Letich, Miss Lane, Miss Hoar, Miss Harding, Miss Keith, Miss Beattie Woodley, Miss Keefe, Miss Nina Lewis, Miss Duff, Miss Olive Harding and Miss Daniels.

DEATH OF ROBERT BECKETT.
Robert Beckett, aged sixty-four, died this morning at the home of his son-in-law, Peter C. Rourke. For some years he was a resident of Richibucto and was firm in E. O'Leary's mill. He had many friends both in that vicinity and in St. John, who will regret to hear of his death. He is survived by a wife, who is present in Lawrence, Mass., and four daughters—Mrs. P. C. Rourke, of St. John, and Mrs. Charles C. Rourke, of Lawrence, Mass. and Eva in Lawrence.
