This is so very common a remark that men and women of forty years and upwards are directing their attention to the purchase of ANNUITIES giving, according to age, from six to sixteen per cent. per annum, on the money invested.

Endowment investment insurance, also, is both safe and profitable, in that it gives a large return in case of early death, and a satisfactory investment if the holder lives to the end of the term. BUT great care should be exercised when selecting a company in which to invest, and reference to the printed Government insurance report will satisfy any person, if the company selected is worthy of support. TORONTO:

JAMES BAIN & SON, 28 KING STREET EAST.

Entered, according to Act of Parliament of Canada, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, by JAMES
BAIN & SON, Toronto, in the Office of the Minister of Agriculture, at Ottawa.

PREFACE.

In presenting to the Society and Business people of Toronto our Elite Directory for 1894-95 a few words in reference to its various features and uses are in order.

The Directory contains the addresses of Toronto's leading people and most prominent citizens, arranged in two complete lists: the one in numerical order by streets, so that one can ascertain by a glance the name and number of the occupants of any particular residence; and the second, in alphabetical order, serving the purpose of the ordinary city directory, only in a more compact and satisfactory shape. It also contains the complete membership roll and list of officers of all the clubs of prominence in the city. This is an entirely original feature and of great interest to society people.

These addresses having been carefully selected and verified, are as free from errors as is possible in a city the size of Toronto.

The book also contains a large amount of valuable information, including socials vignettes, the At-Home days of our leading hostesses, with their telephone numbers; the addresses of leading physicians, dentists, artists, and other professional people of the city, as well as the cards of many of our foremost merchants.

It has been our aim to make the Elite Directory and Club Lists invaluable to those in whose hands it is published, excluding from its contents everything tending to increase its bulk, without enhancing its value, and our thanks are due, and are herewith tendered to the many friends who have kindly aided us in procuring information otherwise unobtainable.

By availing themselves of the facilities afforded by St. George's Hall, hosts and entertainers avoid much trouble to themselves, and overcrowding of guests, as well as all disturbance of their residences, with little if any additional expense.

Rent charges for any part of the building

The Secretary and the Caretaker will be pleased to show the building to visitors, and to give any information desired.

SENSIBLE ETIQUETTE.

ARMS AND CRESTS.

White or a very delicate tint note paper and envelopes indicate refined taste.

Unmarried ladies have not the right to use the family crest, their stationery should be stamped with their initials.

Those who use arms or crests should have them printed as simply as possible.

Married ladies use the arms of their husband's family.

LETTERS AND NOTES.

The size and shape of note paper and envelopes may change, but the quality must be the best.

Envelopes should always conceal the writing.

The custom of writing notes in the third person should be confined strictly to notes of invitation and orders to tradespeople.

Notes should be commenced about the third of the distance from the top of the sheet.

It is not admissible for a married lady to sign herself

"Mrs.," or a single lady "Miss."

In writing to strangers give your address in full.

Only the letters of unmarried ladies and widows are addressed with their baptismal names. All letters of married women should bear their husband's names as "Mrs. Alfred Parker."

It is not permissible to use one's titles in signing notes or letters to friends.

In writing to inferiors use as few words as possible.

Letters of introduction should be brief and carefully worded and never sealed.

ACCEPTANCES AND REGRETS.

Notes of invitation for evening parties are issued in the name of the lady of the house.

It is civil to send an immediate acceptance to an invitation, or regrets if you must decline, and equally civil, when an acceptance has been sent, to follow it with a note of regret before the entertainment, if at the last moment you are unable to go.

Toronto Elite Directory.

The word "polite" is no longer used, but in its place the Englishman of "kind" or "very kind invitation."

No abbreviation of names is allowed in invitations or in addresses, though initials may be used.

Invitations of a formal description can be sent out from ten days to two weeks before the party is to take place.

It is not considered good form to inclose one card of invitation to several persons.

Never use the word "avail" or "preclude" in notes of acceptance or regret.

The least formal of formal invitations is when the lady sends or leaves her own visiting card with the invitation upon it. An invitation of this sort is not to be answered unless R. S. V. P. is on the card. If you do not go, you call or leave a card as soon after as is convenient.

A laboured apology for non-appearance at an entertainment is not in good taste.

Dinner invitations are written or engraved in the name of the husband and wife.

In answering a dinner invitation use the words "for dinner," or "to dine," not "to dinner."

All answers are to be addressed to the lady who invites, not to Mr. and Mrs. Blank.

Dinner, opera and theatre-party invitations are to be answered as soon as received.

The initials R. S. V. P., are not used as much as formerly, it being considered unnecessary to remind a person of good breeding that an invitation requires an answer.

In accepting a dinner invitation, repeat the hour named in order that if any mistake has been made it may be corrected.

It is not usual to invite people to your house until you have first called upon them in a formal manner, and they have returned the visit.

CALLS AND CARDS.

Among people of the highest cultivation it is binding to show one's appreciation of a first invitation by a cordial acceptance if one desires to keep the acquaintance, and by allowing nothing that can be controlled to prevent one from going.

P. P. C. cards are not sent out when the absence from home is only for a short time.

The elder lady pays the first call, unless she takes the initiation by inviting the younger one to call upon her.

Cards should be left at a house within a week after the entertainment to which the person leaving the card has been invited, whether she has been able to accept the invitation or not.

When a lady announces her day at home it is not permissible to leave cards without going in on that day, or to make a formal call upon any other day.

Only calls of pure ceremony are made by handing in cards, nor can a call in person be returned by cards.

When the yearly call due to an elderly person is not made, no invitation for the year can be expected from her.

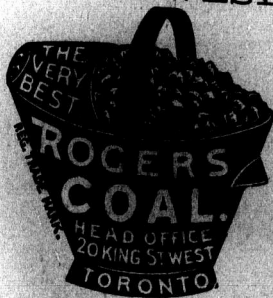

A gentleman invited by a lady to call upon her, cannot, without showing great discourtesy, neglect to pay the call within a week.

A call upon a person in mourning, and all cards of condolence, should be returned with mourning cards, when the family begin to make their appearance in public.

Until the cards of formal acquaintances have been returned by cards of the bereaved, it is not well to repeat the call. Cards of congratulation must be left in person.

Calls in person must be made upon the newly married, and upon the parents who have invited you to the marriage.

AND PIANOS TO RENT.

When a formal announcement is made of a betrothal, by friends and relatives on both sides, calls of congratulation follow.

A lady should never keep a visitor waiting without sending down to see if the delay will inconvenience the caller.

Servants should be instructed to return, in all instances, to announce to the one waiting that the lady will be down immediately.

If, on making a call, you are introduced into a room where you are unknown to those assembled, at once give your name and mention upon whom your call is made.

When an elderly married lady invites a young married one to call upon her the call must be made within a few days and returned at once, if both ladies desire the acquaintance.

Gentlemen, as well as ladies, when making calls, send in but one card, no matter how many members of the family they may wish to see.

A gentleman's card bears his address on the right-hand corner, unless the name of some club, when it is placed in the left-hand corner.

A lady's reception day is engraved on the lower left-hand corner.

P. P. C. are the only cards it is considered universally admissible to send by post.

A lady who is not in her own house does not rise either on the arrival or departure of ladies, unless such ladies are her superiors or her seniors.

When two ladies are introduced, it is the younger who is presented to the elder.

It is not etiquette to introduce lady callers to each other.

It is proper to converse with strangers at a reception if your hostess is engaged, the acquaintance need go no further.

DINNERS.

Invitations to dinner should be answered as soon as received, and if accepted, the engagement should on no account be lightly broken.

The host should offer his right arm to the guest of honor. The lady whom he escorts should be seated at his right.

The hostess is escorted by the eldest gentleman or the greatest stranger, or some one whom she wishes to place in the seat of honor at her right.

Servants hand the dishes to the left of guests when passing the courses. It is not compulsory to take wine.

St. Leon MINERAL WATER

Nature's Greatest and Most Perfect
Regulator

SELECTED TESTIMONY

I have found St. Leon Water the very best thing to drink while in training, and have used it every morning with the most satisfactory results during the past couple of seasons. It keeps the system in good condition, and is superior, in my judgment, to all other drinks for the athlete. With best wishes,
I remain, sincerely yours,

M. CARMAN,
164 Sherbourne Street. Champion Cyclist of Canada.

I have been drinking St. Leon Mineral Water regularly for four years, and consider it the very best thing to drink while in general training. It is an excellent regulator, having completely cured me of constipation and kidney trouble.

W. H. HASLITT,
385 Manning Avenue. Champion Pedestrian of Canada.

The WESTERN ASSURANCE COMP.'Y

OF TORONTO

Was incorporated in the year 1851, and, under its charter, power was conferred upon it to transact Life, Fire, and Marine Insurance. It has never, however, up to the present time, availed itself of the privilege of doing life insurance, but carried on an extensive business in the Fire and Marine branches in Canada and the United States, where it has agencies in all the principal cities and towns. The Company has a half of which is paid-up, and cash assets of over $2,400,000, and its business has grown to such an extent that the income for the year 1893 exceeded the sum of $2,350,000. The losses paid since organization amount in the aggregate to a sum in excess of $18,000,000.

Subscribed Capital of $2,000,000

In 1880 the Company erected the beautiful structure on the north-west corner of Wellington and Scott Streets (a cut of which appears above), and has, since that time, occupied it as the Head Offices of the Company. The rapid progress which the Company has made, and its present high position as one of the leading fire insurance companies of the country, are largely due to its successful management and to its able board of directors, which since its organization, has comprised many of the most prominent financial and business men of Toronto. The following gentlemen constitute the present Board:—A. M. Smith, President; George A. Cox, Vice-President; G. R. R. Cookburn, M.P., Hon. S. C. Wood, Robert Beatty, W. R. Brock, H. N. Baird, George McMurich; and J. J. Kenny, Managing Director.
