A man in his carriage was riding along, A gatly dressed wife by his side; In satin and laces she looked like a queer And he like a king in his pride.

A wood sawyer stood on the street as they passed;
The carriage and couple he eyed;
Andsaid, as he worked with his saw on a log,
'I wish I was rich and could ride." The man in the carriage remarked to hi

Presently two people came down the garden walk together and entered the arbor; Ellice did not hear their steps. But when a man spoke she heard that. It was Charles Vane's voice that was sounding in her ears, and he had called the name of Maud Danforth. These two were conversing about no commonplace subject. No! and if Miss Danforth was only flirting with Vane, she had secured her victim firmly; and if it was more than a flirtstion on her part, she had achieved a victory, for he was pour ing forth passionate words.

For Severe Coughs and Hoarsene PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 1, 1876.
MESSRS. SETH W. FOWLE & SONS:

A Dismal Tale of Shipwreck and Loss of Life—How the Vessel was Lost.

In a case before an English Probate Court, a few days since, Mrs. Wright propounded the will of her late husband. In 1876 he executed a will, by which all his property was left to his wife, and gave it into her care. Some time afterward, in a sufferer from a severe cough and hoarse-pool with a general cargo for St. John, N. B., and after discharging proceeded thence with lumber to Australia. She sailed from Sydney, N. S. W., on the 25th of May last for Shanghai, where she arrived on the 25th of July. On the 18th of August last she left in ballast for Portland, Maine, and as already stated was wrecked on the 10th of October on the West coast of Vancouver's I-land. She broke up very rapidly, and no hope is entertained.

druggists. —The examination of W. Harding, for bigamy, commenced at St. George, N. B., at 17th, before Justice Young, but owing to the inability of the alleged second wife, to appear and testify, the prisoner was red manded to gaol at St. Andrews till the 2 ist. The father of the alleged wife No. 2 gave evidence, and produced a certificate of the second marriage by Rev. Mr. Crowley, of St. Andrews, on 22nd of August last, the Harding's first wife is now living and has five children.

C. R. Hall, Grayville, Ill., says: "I have sold at retail, 156 bottles of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, guaranteeing every bottle. I must say I never sold a medicine in my life that gave such universal satisfaction. In my own case, with a badly ulcerated throat, after a physician penciling it for several days to no effect, the Eclectric Oil cured it thoroughly in twenty-four hours, and in threatened croup in my children this winter, it never failed to relieve almost immediately."

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. Because in politics it has fought for a doze years, without Intermission and sometimes almos alone among newspapers, the fight that has resulted in the recent overwhelming popular verilict agains Robesonism and for honest government. No matter what party is in power, The Evn stands and will be people against the anbition of bosses, the et croachments of monopolists, and the dishones schemes of bublic robbers.

All this is what we are told daily by our friends One man holds that The Evn is the best religious newspaper ever published, because its Christianit; is undiluted with cant. Another holds that it it the bost Republican newspaper printed, because it has already whipped half of the rascals out of the party, and is proceeding against the other half will undiminished vigor. A third believes it to be the best measured by the control of the party, and is proceeding against the other half will undiminished vigor. A third believes it to be host measured by the proceeding against the other half will undiminished vigor. A third believes it to be host in the world of thought. So every frien of The Sux discovers one of its many sides that appeals with particular force to his induvidual liking. If you already know The Sux, you will observe that in 1833 it is a little better than ever before. I you do not already know The Sux, you will find it to be a mirror of all human activity, a storehouse of the choicest products of common sense and imagination, a maintaxy of the cause of honest government a sentinel for genuine Jeffersonian Democracy accourage for wickedness of every species, and at uncommonly good inventment for the conning. A New Doctrine.

Just Received, a Fresh Supply to the Iditor of the Posht. To the Iditor of the Posht.

I was thinking it was no great complimint to Sir Albert, to find the Iditor of the Transcript houlding the doctrine that the ponderosity of the corporeal system and a good pidegree are cheap ingradients in a wise mimber of parliament.

Hear what he says. "Thefe was once a conversation between a stunted, nobleman and his thoroughbred bull." "Well, said the nobleman, "but you are a noble fellow!" "So might you have been" CROCERIES, &c Raisins, Currants, Dried Apples, Sugar, Molasses, Tea, Rice, Beans, Split Peas, Pearl Barley, Tobacco, Cigars, Lemons, Coccanuts, Confectionery, &c., &c.

"So might you have been "replied the bull, "if there had been as pains taking in selecting your ancestors as there was with mine." This he applies espicially to the mimber for Wistmorland, and the pidegree, by inference, to all mimbers of parliament. This gintale introduction. Fish. Codfish, Pollock and Smoked Fish.

mimbers of parameters of the power of aintale journalism. It's a fine idaah, that of diricting the attintion of the public to more care in the pidegree of mimbers and the devilopemint as it runs, murmurs around blocks of muscle. The power of the press is a great lever and wid the assistance of great lever and wid the assistance of aintale journalism he must take public Woodenware, Hardwar, &c. Butter Trays, Butter Prints, Pails; Rolling Pins and Pounders; great lever and wid the assistance of gintale journalism he must take public opinion along wid his in the ind.

If he could get a law enacted, that no frahoulder should be illigable for a sate in parliament wid less weight than fifty-four pounds to the quarter, making the whele mimber equal to two hundred pounders, for at laist three ginerations, it would be a fine thing for the country. We'd have finely deviloped almibers for the Commons,—broad and deep in the chest, wid straight back, and a hip and loin that yees could turn your mind to.

a hip and loin that yees could turn your mind to.

As he makes no mintion of brains it would be nicessary to be bedered wid it.

It appears unrasonable for the Iditor to be ixpicting much before his skame is fairly before the public. It will take years of patient waiting.

I was saying to Tim, his riference to ancistory before the people were iducated in his new skame was not gintale or to the oldest men, amid the solemn sinsible.

Why not? siz he. How do yees know but he's the desindant of some huge lord by hook or crook? and it would be rasonable for him.

There's no saying, siz I, and if he intinds to improve the breed of mimbers, sure he can't withold his skame from Grit frahoulders and Grit Iditors and the like.

like.

That's true for yee's, Mick, siz he.

If he chates yees out of the widdy, siz I, it will be azy to make a beginning wid Iditors of the Transcript, we might be ixpecting 'a few thoroughbreds in some rasonable or unrasonable time not far off.

Tim sed niver a word to this, jist gave a spit over his shoulder and dropped his pipe in his pocket. a spit over his shoulder and dropped may pipe in his pocket.
