Fourteen Private Members
Bring Sensational Charges Against Both Parties.

AGREEMENT IS ALLEGED Counsel Accuses Government and Opposition of Wrongful Bargains.

[Canadian Press.]
Winnipeg, June 21.—Sensational charges were made before the royal commission this morning by C. P. Fullerton, K. C., of Winnipeg, who said he represented fourteen private members of the Legislature. Fullerton charged an agreement had been entered into between the two political parties in Manitoba some time ago through which the Roblin Government was to pay $50,000 to the Opposition in return for which all election protests were to be dropped. He charged that along in 1915 an agreement was entered into between the Government and certain members of the present Government, whereby a royal commission's inquiry was to be dropped and civil action instituted against Thomas Kelly & Sons. According to this agreement, he said, there were to be enough resignations of Conservative members in the Legislature to give the new Government a majority without an election. The Opposition, he claimed, was permitted to dictate the terms of the statement announcing the old Government's resignation.

His Statement.
Fullerton's statement follows: "Before the regular work of the commission is taken up, I wish to make a statement respecting certain matters of vital importance to the people of this province, I speak on behalf of private members of the Conservative party. "I have here a petition signed by them, which I propose to read to the commission, before doing so permit me to indicate to you in general my reason for appearing before you. You must be aware that for some time past rumors have been current, both in the press and on the street, to the effect that the present Government obtained power by an agreement entered into between the late cabinet and certain members of the Government.

People Concerned.
"The people of this province are concerned to know if there is any foundation for such rumors. I appear before this commission for the purpose of obtaining permission to present to you evidence which, in my opinion, will establish beyond a shadow of doubt that the rumor in question is thoroughly well founded, and that the present Government did obtain office by virtue of agreement made with the late Government. Briefly stated, the facts which, if given an opportunity, I am prepared to establish are the following:

[Special Cable to The Advertiser, by

Berlin, via The Hague, June 21.—Germany intends to discuss several points, covering the whole question of naval warfare, with the United States before making a definite statement of her future policy concerning submarine operations.

The next communication sent to Washington probably will open this discussion. Germany's reply is still in conversational stages. We learned today that thus far there have been no formal exchanges between the American embassy and German foreign office, such as prefaced the reply to the first American note.

The Kaiser is still at the Galician battle front. It is possible that he will not confer with Dr. Anton Meyer-Gerland, Ambassador Bernstorff's special envoy, until after the German reply is sent to Washington. This circumstance confirms previous reports that the next German reply will not be final, but will call for further interchanges.

Obstruction Only Removed a Short Time Before Fast
Express Came Through.

City detectives and Grand Trunk officials are today attempting to locate the persons who placed stones in the frogs of main line switches in the east end, that nearly wrecked one of the fastest express trains. The wedged stones were found by an employee of the road a few minutes prior to the arrival of the Chicago express. The stones had been placed in the frogs in such a manner that it would have been impossible for the engineer or fireman of the train to see them, and, according to railwaymen, they would have caused a serious wreck had one of the fast trains struck them.

Officials of the road swore out information against one juvenile who, they believe can tell who around the tracks by allways are blamed for placing the stones in the frogs, and the detectives are seeking a couple of youths whose description they have been furnished.

NEW WAR LOAN TO BE ISSUED TONIGHT

McKenna Announces This To Commons and Makes Strong Appeal.

MORE MONEY IS NEEDED

Deficit Between Revenue and Expenditure Is Now
$2,590,000,000.

[Canadian Press.]

London, June 21.—Announcement was made today by Reginald McKenna, chancellor of the exchequer, that the loan of $1,250,000,000 authorized by the House of Commons last week for war purposes, would be issued tonight. The new loan will be put out at par, and will bear 4½ per cent interest.

Mr. McKenna's announcement was made in the House of Commons. The Chancellor said the state would have the right to repay the loan at par in 1925, but in any case it must be repaid in 30 years.

Appeals to Patriotism.
The Chancellor emphasized the fact that, in addition to putting forward a business transaction, he wished to appeal to the patriotism of the country to "use its gigantic resources to carry on the war successfully for ourselves and our allies."

Holders of both the old war loan and the consols will have the right to convert their securities into the new loan. The conversion of consols will be on the basis of £75 of consols for £50 of the new loan.

More Will Be Needed.
In moving a resolution to authorize the treasury to borrow requisite money, Mr. McKenna said: "The time will come when the necessity of a further loan will become apparent, and a prompt decision is required, as it is undesirable that a big loan should be kept hanging over the market."

The Chancellor stated that the total realized deficit between revenue and expenditure up to last Saturday amounted to £218,000,000 ($2,590,000,000). The daily war expenditure now amounts to nearly £5,000,000 ($15,000,000), and is still rising.

Toronto School Filled and Has Long Waiting List
Already.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Ottawa, June 21.—More than a thousand Canadians have asked to be enlisted in the Canadian branch of the British Royal Flying Corps. A large number of them are taking training at the present time. More are waiting the opportunity to enter the training school. The first batch of Canadian-trained men will leave this country for England about the middle of next month, and after some further training in England, will enter upon active service in any part of the world to which the British naval authorities wish to dispatch them.

Pupils Doing Well.
The school which was opened at Toronto recently under the authority of the admiralty is proving a success. It is a boarding school for boys, and the men in charge of the school report Canadians apt pupils at the wing game. It is said that they will grasp the essentials of flying quickly, that they are steady, resourceful and competent. It is predicted that Canada will soon have at the front a substantial force of airmen equal to any in the world.

Some in U. S. A.
The aviation school at Toronto is filled to capacity and has a large waiting list. A number of young Canadians whose eagerness will not allow them to wait for their turn in the Canadian school, have gone to the United States and entered aviation schools there. They are taking thorough courses of instruction in flying. As soon as they have completed training, and are assured of the soundness of their competence they will return to Canada and pass an examination to obtain the British aero certificate, which Capt. Baldwin has been authorized to grant, and will then be dispatched across the Atlantic.

ONLY 300 OF PATS LEFT OUT OF 1,000

One Lone Officer Escapes Unhurt—First Division Has Fine Reputation.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Ottawa, June 21.—There is no doubt that the Canadian first overseas division made itself famous in Flanders; as one of the Princess Patricia's, who were not in the division, I can testify to this, was the statement of Major McKenney of Edmonton, who left Canada with the Princess Patricia Regiment, and is back in the division, to be cured.

"An officer of the second Canadian overseas division met in London an officer of the first Canadian overseas, and remarked that the second was having a hard time living down the reputation the first Canadians made at Salisbury Plains," said Col. McKenney. "Yes," was the reply, "and you will have a busy time living up to the reputation we made in Flanders."

Col. McKenney says the Princess Patricia's were among the first of the British regiments in the trenches. They wintered on the firing line, have been in many severe engagements and have conducted themselves well. There are less than 300 left of the original thousand. The officers all have been touched except Lieut. Papeau, who has gone through every fight, has led bomb-throwing attacks, and has come through without a scratch.

The Canadian equipment is equal to the British, and is being well cared for in the hospital at Oxford, to which he was removed after he was sent back from the front. Mrs. Butler says he seems very anxious to get back to the firing line.

Shipping at Tilbury Also Suffered As Machines Fled Homeward.

[Canadian Press.]

London, June 21.—The Zeppelin raiders who visited the east coast of England on the night of June 6, causing the death of five persons and the injury of 40 others, were turned back at Woodford, eight miles from the heart of London.

On their homeward journey they did considerable damage to the town of Gravesend and to shipping at Tilbury. An explosive bomb struck the Japanese liner Yasa Maru.

The bomb, loaded with shrapnel, exploded as it struck the water just under the stern of the liner, and the plates were riddled until they looked like a sieve. No damage was done below the waterline, but the stern and the rear superstructure were damaged severely. None of the crew was injured by the bomb. The liner was not due to sail for two weeks, and only a few of the sailors were on board.

A number of small craft anchored near the liner were struck by pellets from the bomb, but were not badly damaged.

BRITAIN FEELS CONFIDENT OF BIG MOVE SOON

Belief Still Held That Russia
Has Some Secret
Plans.

[Canadian Press.]

London, June 21.—The announcement that Emperor William has assumed supreme command of the operations in Galicia is interpreted here as an indication of complete German confidence in the final victory of the assault on Lemberg, now regarded as so near at hand that the generals who during the last two months have battered their way across the province wish the Emperor to participate personally in the expected triumph. Some of the claims put forward by the Germans and Austrians to really decide results have still to be substantiated, but there is no question that they have won new victories both west and north of the Galician capital.

Britain Disappointed.
The Austrian-German advance is still in progress through the Gdolek lines. The failure of the Russian line to hold these positions has been a keen disappointment to the British, who hoped that this strong and enterprising army would give them the example of the resiliency of Emperor Nicholas' forces, which has been one of the marked features of the war in the east. Nevertheless, it is questioned here that anything so vital as the flight of the Russian army, as indicated by Vienna reports, or a perilous break in the Russian front has occurred.

May Be Surprised.
The British experts are of opinion that the Russians are fighting rearguard actions while withdrawing their armies practically intact. They suggest that either the Russians have no intention of defending Lemberg to the last, or have prepared their main defensive line on positions not yet reported by the Germanic forces. With less than a score of miles separating the (Continued on Page Three.)

The Government is likely to realize that in the eloquent spokesman of the London dockers it has found one of the most effective recruiting instruments in the country.

Local militia headquarters was notified by telephone early this morning of the attempt to blow up the Windsor armories by dynamite. Shannon, divisional officer commanding, when telling of the information he had received. No action has yet been taken to increase the guard stationed at Windsor, but there is a likelihood that in view of the revelations of the morning at the border city such will be done.

Germans Suspected of Outrage by Which the Peabody Sales Corporation Factory Was Damaged and 27 Sticks of Dynamite Placed Under Government Building.

INDIRECT THREATS REACHED COMPANY MAKING UNIFORMS FOR BRITISH ARMY

(Special to The Advertiser.)

Windsor, Ont., June 21.—The entire civil and military forces of Windsor and Walkerville are searching this section today for a woman and two men suspected of being the German spy dynamiters who early today wrecked the plant of the Peabody Company in Walkerville and attempted to destroy the Windsor armory.

A suit case containing 26 sticks of dynamite connected with an alarm clock timed for 3:15 a.m., affords a slender clue to the identity of the bomb setters. This evidence was discovered under the east corner of the armory.

The police of all other Ontario cities are being warned to watch public buildings.

FUSE FAILED TO IGNITE STICKS.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

Windsor, June 21.—Only the failure of a time fuse saved the Windsor Armories from being wrecked at an early hour this morning by a large quantity of dynamite placed under the building, in spite of the guards' vigilance, supposedly by German sympathizers. No less than 27 sticks of the explosive were found all ready to destroy the building, in which 200 Canadian soldiers lay sleeping.

To Pte. Panton, one of the guards at the armories, falls the credit for finding the sticks. He was on duty over-night, and about 3:30 o'clock this morning he heard what he believed to be a pistol shot. With his fellow-guards he made a hurried investigation in the direction from which the sound seemed to come, but discovered nothing. Later he found the dynamite in a grip, 50 feet from where he had been standing when he heard the report. The bag had been concealed beneath the wall, to muffle the sound of the explosion, which made it difficult to find. A time fuse connected with the explosive had been set for 3:15 a.m., but was only partially burned, though it is supposed one stick must have exploded without firing the others, thus causing the noise which the guard mistook for a pistol shot.

The common belief in Windsor is that a German spy had managed to get across from Detroit and make the attempt on the military building.

WALKERVILLE PLANT BLOWN UP.

(Canadian Press.)

Windsor, Ont., June 21.—The overall plant of the Peabody Sales Corporation, Ltd., Walkerville, which has been working on a $1,000,000 order of uniforms for the British army, was partially destroyed at 3 o'clock this morning by an explosion believed to be due to a bomb placed by German sympathizers. The damage is estimated at $10,000. The entire front of the three-story steel and concrete building at the corner of Sandwich street and Victoria Road was blown out.

EXPECTED ATTACK.

J. O. Lennox, general manager of the Peabody Company, said he had expected for some time that an attempt would be made to wreck the plant because of its acceptance of British war orders. No direct threat had come to the company, he said, but there had been rumors that unless the company ceased turning out uniforms for the British the plant would be destroyed.

GERMANS BLAMED.

The police of Walkerville believe the explosion was caused by German sympathizers from Detroit and that they had fled back across the river as soon as they had done their work. Three foreigners, acting suspiciously, were arrested near the scene within half an hour after the explosion, but were soon released.

GRIP TOP BLOWN OFF.

[Canadian Press.]

Windsor, June 21.—Twenty-seven sticks of dynamite attached to a time fuse that had been set for 3:15 a.m. were found under the rear of the Windsor armory this morning. The fuse was attached to the dynamite had exploded, blowing off the top of the grip in which it was concealed. The main charge, however, had failed to explode. To this fact several men stationed in the armory at night probably owe their lives. The charge was heavy enough to wreck the whole building. It was at 3:15 a.m. that Pte. Panton, guard at the armory, heard what he thought to be a pistol shot a short distance away. With several other guards he made a hurried investigation, but found nothing. Later in the morning he discovered the grip fifty feet from where he had been standing when he heard the report. The bag had been concealed beneath the wall, muffling the sound and making it difficult to trace it. Police and (Continued on Page Three.)

Servians Occupy Durazzo; President Flees To Italy

LONDON, June 20. — 6:25 p.m. — A Reuter dispatch from Athens says it is reported there the Servians have occupied Durazzo, Albania. Essad Pasha, provisional president of Albania, and former commander of the Turkish forces at Scutari, is said to have fled to Italy.

Servian troops have been operating in Albania for some time and the Servian War Office has announced the occupation of considerable territory in that state, with Durazzo as their ultimate objective. Italy has not formally declared war against Turkey, which may explain the reported flight of Essad Pasha to Italy.

Chicago, Ill., June 21. — Men whose writings bristle on the advertising placards of the city, scattered here today from every state in the country and several from abroad to attend the eleventh annual convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World.

There were 10,000 delegates here, it was estimated, including a number from Canadian cities. Mr. Roster, president of the Ad Clubs of Sydney, Australia, was among the foreign delegates.

The convention will continue over Friday. Chief among the meetings today was a reception for William Woodhead of San Francisco, president of the association, reports of officers, and addresses of welcome.

Tonight there will be a monster advertising pageant in which 8,000 persons are expected to march.

The delegations were to be arrayed in multi-colored uniforms and were to have a miniature menagerie among them as mascots. The Texas delegation of 250 brought a crocodile, led by a silver chain. The California delegation had a small brown bear as a mascot.

GERMAN MOVES AT LEMBERG GATES

Kaiser in Charge of Campaign and Crisis Is Near.

BRITAIN STILL CONFIDENT

Believes Grand Duke Will Emulate Joffre's Example of Autumn.

[Canadian Press.]

LONDON, June 20. — 10:36 p.m. — After seven weeks of battering across Galicia, during which the Russians have been thrown back more than 150 miles, the Austro-Germans are today as close to Lemberg as were the Germans to Paris after their first dash across France last fall.

Never, perhaps, since before the battle of the Marne, have the Teutonic forces appeared so confident of success. Having failed in their original plan of Russia, they have reversed the order of their strategy and now, judging by the expenditure of life and ammunition in Galicia, they have planned their whole faith to so paralyzing the Russian army as to permit the throwing of a tremendous weight of men and metal into the western theatre, thence either to break through the Franco-British line or force an interminable period of sanguinary warfare.

Kaiser in Charge.

A dispatch from Copenhagen tonight says that the German Emperor himself has taken supreme command of the Galician campaign, establishing his headquarters in Silesia as near to the front as practicable.

Meanwhile, the German official communication records the further progress of the Austro-German forces toward Lemberg, both to the north and south of the city. It claims, as well, that the Russians have been cleared from parts of the Dniester to the south.

The great question England and her allies are asking is whether Grand Duke Nicholas, commanding the Russian forces, can successfully emulate Joffre's tactics of last fall and check the Austro-Germans at the gates of Lemberg.

Optimists point out that the Grand Duke checked them almost at the gates of Warsaw, just as Gen. Joffre stopped them before Paris, and Field Marshal Sir John French stopped them before Ypres, Dunkirk and Calais.

Russians Are Prepared.

It is argued, further, that even should Lemberg fall, the Russians can drop back to equally formidable positions, utilizing the rivers and swamps and other advantages of the terrain, and it is the British contention that they could thus hold out for months, England and France, in the meantime, sending their aid in men and munitions, if necessary.

Whether Russia has sufficient ammunition to sustain the present strain is a question which cannot be answered in England, although the London papers say frankly that the shortage is acute.

One of the Sunday papers characterizes the situation in Galicia as "Russia's supreme emergency" and public interest is centred in that theatre, notwithstanding the hard fighting in progress along the western front. The sound of guns is audible at Lemberg and possibly this week will see the culmination of one of the most interesting phases of the great war.

For two years she has been a pupil at Somerset House School, at East Cliff, Ramsgate. She has seen Zeppelins drop their flaming bombs with deadly effect, and has seen the futile efforts of the land sea anti-aircraft guns, to bring them down.

"My," she gasped, "it was exciting. We were chased out of bed almost every night by bells and sirens. It was the only exciting thing I did there in the whole two years. I'm mighty glad to get home though, for now I can sleep a whole night through without expecting a bell."

In Heart of Excitement.

Many of the Zeppelins, flying over the different sections of England cross in the vicinity of Ramsgate, and for that reason there are many alarms sounded, and the land and sea batteries eagerly on the grey, long, envelopes of gas that whirl so gently through the air. Hundreds of tongues of light from the batonships of the hovering and tilting towers on land split the night, and from all the heights there roar angry guns. And from above, speeding away from the aeroplane which make after them, the Zeppelins answer with their flaming bombs.

It was on May 17 that Miss Reis had her greatest and most exciting experience, after which she and the other girls refused to go to bed, until daybreak.

Saw Three at Once.

"It was 2 o'clock in the morning," she said, "when, my gracious, what a racket! Our bell just rang and rang, and all the sirens blew, and the teachers and maids called to us to get up quickly. Our clothes were arranged neatly for experience, and we dressed quickly and then went in to help the little children. You know that school is for girls from 1 to 50 years. Some of the other girls and I went to the window and got behind curtains and peeked out. We saw up in the sky three Zeppelins going along, with those bobbing cradles underneath, and from all of them were flaming streams of fire. After they left the Zeppelin a little ways they burst into flames and it up everything. The guns nearby and the guns from off the harbor fired and fired. For two hours it seemed they stayed around, and we were hurried downstairs, where we could not be harmed. Finally, at 4 o'clock, more sirens blew to assure everybody that everything was all over, and we were told to go back to bed. The little girls went, but I just couldn't, and some of us talked till morning."

Was Troubled With Eczema

Would Nearly Yell With Pain

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS CURED HIM

Mr. R. J. Swales, Harrison, Ont., writes: "I have been a great sufferer with eczema, I tried all kinds of salves, but they did me no good. Sometimes I would nearly yell with the pain, and would pass little white worms. I was told to get at the blood. I used four bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters, and it has made a complete cure."

It all skin diseases, such as eczema or salt rheum, itching or burning rashes, boils, pimples, eruptions, ulcers, etc., are all caused by the blood becoming impure, and that American Consul General Shandling, at Vera Cruz, had arranged to send several carloads of the Red Cross medicine, which had been shipped to him by the Red Cross.

The Red Cross announced that it would immediately ship three carloads of the Moscow Conservatory, in a report from Guadalajara said that thousands of persons would be in their graves before the end of the year unless assistance was given.

Home Dressmaking Easy With Adjustable Dress Form

You owe it to yourself, if you do home dressmaking to any extent, to use an adjustable form, which is more necessary to the home dressmaker who is well gown than is her mirror. Much of the "style" and "swagger hang" of the high-class woman's ready-to-wear garments is due to the fact that they have been tailored and fitted over one of these adjustable forms. You may produce just such "swagger" effects at less cost with your own home dressmaking by using a stylish standard pattern and fitting your garment over one of these adjustable forms.

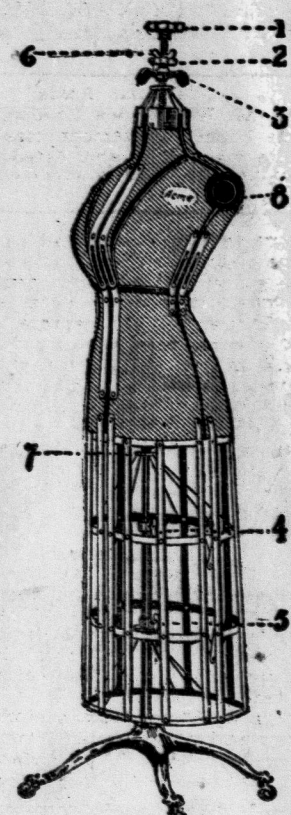

One Form Adjusts To Fit Every Woman in the Family

The adjustable form is the most economical, as the one form being adjustable may be reduced or increased in size to any proportion to suit every woman in the family. Even with dressmakers, a great deal of fitting and trying on is necessary, which is tiresome to anyone, while at home you may sit down while doing your own fitting on one of these forms; also for trimming, making over or repairing a dress, with a form you can readily get at every part of it and observe the effect as you proceed and avoid much ripping and doing over.

HUGE WAVE DRAGS SEVEN SEA BATHERS TO A QUICK DEATH

Strong Undercurrent Carries Them Far From Beach—Many Heroic Rescues.

ATLANTIC CITY, June 20. — Buffeted by a huge wave and carried into deep water by a treacherous undertow, seven bathers, including prominent members of the Philadelphia summer colony, were drowned in the surf here today. Scores of others were dragged to the beach in an unaccountable condition after life guards and other bathers had battled desperately to save their lives.

One man was drowned when he slipped from the beach into the sea. The dead are: Miss Marion Rhodes Craemer, 18, a student at Beechwood College, Jenkintown, Pa.; John Lysle, 25, a prominent member of the Junior bar, of Philadelphia; Philip Arnold, 18; Frank Brigham, 16; Charles J. Matlack, 28; James McKay, William Crowe, all of Philadelphia. Charles Green, the fisherman who lost his life, resided here.

Life guards say a storm caused an offset or gully between a sandbar 100 yards out and the beach. The offset extended the entire length of the beach, and with the development of the strong undertow, the bathers were swept into water of unexpected depth. Many heroic rescues were made by members of the beach patrol and by volunteers, and several persons gave up their lives in efforts to save others.

Crowned Attempting Rescue.

Arnold Crowe, McKay and Matlack plunged into the surf to assist Walter Margerum, one of the guards, who had been knocked unconscious by a buoy. All of the would-be rescuers were drowned, while Margerum was saved by another guard. John Lysle was talking with friends on the beach when he heard Miss Craemer's call for help. He immediately went to her assistance, but was carried away by the tide.

Earl Collins of this city succeeded in reaching the drowning girl, but she was pulled away from him, and sank. Collins, however, then caught his way to another girl, who was brought ashore. Young Brigham was drowned while his brother-in-law, Dr. John Coulter, was trying to bring him ashore. The physician stumbled unconscious into shallow water with the girl clinging to his neck. Brigham was swept away before the rescuers could reach him, and Dr. Coulter was barely alive. The latter was later revived.

THINKS ROSS RIFLE THE BEST IN USE

Wounded Soldier Says It Has Stood the Test in the Trenches.

OTTAWA, June 20. — That the Ross rifle used by the Canadian troops at the front is the best in the western war theatre, is the opinion of Captain S. J. Higgins of the 4th Battalion, who was wounded at St. Julien, Captain Higgins, who is one of the best known Canadian rifle shots and a British army veteran, although he has been in the thick of the fighting, returned home today to recuperate. Before leaving for the front he was a strong advocate of arming the Canadians with the Lee-Enfield, such as the British army uses and the Princess Patricia were armed with.

"I was opposed to the Ross rifle before I left Canada," he stated tonight. "I thought that it would not stand the hard usage, but I know differently now. In the trenches we found it a wonderful shooter. It was said that in the mud the sights would be clogged and we could not use them. We used them for days in the trenches with mud up to our knees and the sights were all right."

FIVE SHELLS FELL IN RHEIMS CATHEDRAL

PARIS, June 20. — Albert Dalimier, under secretary of fine arts, has returned from Rheims, where he went to see what further damage had been done to the cathedral by recent German bombardments.

"Five shells fell in the cathedral on Thursday, causing additional destruction," he said, in discussing his inspection. "Measures of protection naturally are restricted. Sand-bags have been hung around the base, and the most important parts of the interior have been walled around with planks, which save them from shell fragments, but afford them no protection from the explosion of entire shells. Everything movable has been taken to a place of safety."

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR DEAD COLONEL

Thousands of Soldiers Will Honor Memory of 7th Commander.

NO DATE IS YET FIXED

Canon Tucker Announces Plan to Revere Death of Lieut.-Col. H. C. Becher.

Canon Tucker, rector of St. Paul's Cathedral, stated last evening that a memorial service for Lieut.-Col. H. Campbell Becher, who fell in the recent fighting in France, is being arranged. It is planned to hold the service on a Sunday, but no date has yet been set. Thousands of soldiers from London and all over the district are expected to attend. No direct reference was made to Lieut.-Col. Becher's death yesterday at St. Paul's, but in a general way mention was made of the casualties which affected the whole Western Ontario district.

At last evening's service in St. Paul's Rev. Mr. Owen, rector of the Anglican Church at Gloucester, was present, with the entire choir of his church, and joined heartily in the singing.

Canon Tucker preached, pointing out that everyone in the world is either on God's side or against him.

"There is no such thing as neutrality in regard to God," he said. "Every man and woman either loves God and all things which are right, and hates all things which are wrong, or else he is with Satan and against God. God makes every effort to reach the sinners and bring them to him, and if he reaches them there is more joy in heaven than there is in the death of those who need no repentance."

At the close of the evening service a beautiful solo was rendered by Mr. Hamer.

VISITS WOUNDED LONDONER NOW IN LONDON HOSPITAL

Fred Young of 18th Battalion Describes Conditions in Old Land.

A description of a visit paid to Pte. William Chivas, a wounded Londoner, in one of the English war hospitals, is contained in a letter received today from Fred Young of the 18th Battalion, a well-known Londoner.

En route to Berlin, June 6, 1915. The axiom that "All things come to those who wait" is probably true enough, but it wasn't a popular slogan with the boys of the 18th Battalion, who had waited over four weeks for a "pass" to visit relatives in Morris England. When it did prove true, however, the lucky ones lost no time in presenting the magic paper at the "booking office" at the railway station, and were soon arrived at mighty London. If you are travelling any distance in England, you will surely pass through London. A bright moon and light clouds in the sky, and the sight of a chance of seeing Nelson's monument, Thames embankment, etc., under favorable conditions. Bright and early morning in Morris England. When the London cop sure lives up to his reputation in "directing" you to your destination. One feels that he would almost allow the Bank of England to be robbed under his nose, and not interfere until he had answered your question.

Free To Soldiers.
The Canadian soldier soon feels that he is an atmosphere of general sympathy in the big city, for he soon finds himself steered to a booth filled with eatables, tea, coffee and cocoa, where everything is free to the man wearing the King's uniform. "Salvos of 'Good luck' from lady waitresses follow him as he hits the trail.

At Paddington (G. W. R.), a young lady sells you your railway ticket, and we had scarcely got seated in the train, before a young lady with a "badge of inspection" on her arm, requested to see our tickets, punched them, and pronounced them all correct. Women are sure helping out in England. A few minutes later the train started on its journey, and a profound respect for the piano-box coaches we first alighted at on our arrival.

Warwick, in Shakespeare's country, was destination, and although only a flying visit, one soon got the impression that right here in the very centre of England geographically the people are intensely in earnest in doing their bit to lick the Kaiser. There are few homes in that district that have not sent their bravest and best to the front. Many have been officially notified that they will never return, for the Royal War-wickshire have been in the thick of it.

BISHOPS PREACH TO OVERSEAS MEN

Heads of Anglican and Catholic Churches Address Soldiers.

CELEBRATE FIRST MASS

Roman Catholic Soldiers Now Have Canvas Chapel On Parade Grounds.

The just cause of Britain in the present war, and the necessity for absolute suppression of Prussian militarism, was emphasized in sermons at Carling's Heights Sunday morning by Their Lordships Bishop David Williams of the Anglican Diocese of Huron and Bishop M. F. Fallon of the Roman Catholic Diocese of London.

The services were unusually impressive, and a large number of citizens took advantage of a new order which became effective yesterday, allowing them to hear two bishops conduct services held for soldiers.

For the first time since the establishment of the camp Roman Catholic soldiers celebrated mass at the Heights in the marquee erected by the Catholic Soldiers' Club. Prior to yesterday members of the units who are Roman Catholics, have attended services at the Roman Catholic Churches or St. Peter's Cathedral in the city.

Bishop Williams addressed the main body of the 33rd, the 34th, the 7th C. M. R. and "C" Section of No. 2 Field Ambulance, on the parade ground, his lordship preaching under a large shade tree in the centre of the square. The war is now a struggle for existence and a fight for the preservation of the ideals of civilization, he said.

"The cause of Britain is just. The men who have shouldered arms have consecrated themselves to their duty, and should lead the lives of men who have accepted a great burden," declared the speaker.

His lordship remarked on the fact that the commencement of the last three centuries has seen England plunged in war. Each time she has come through victorious. Britain has won for herself the splendid distinction of being the first nation to engage upon the strenuous responsibilities of warfare to keep her trust with all other nations.

Bishop Fallon urged the men who have enlisted to avail themselves frequently of the privileges of the sacraments of the church. He emphasized the justice of Britain's cause, and the necessity of preserving the ideals of civilization which militarism has set out to crush out of existence.

GOSSIP OF THE CAMP
A company of the 34th Battalion started in to practice rifle firing at the miniature ranges today. The ranges have just been completed, and are being used by the 34th Battalion.

One recruit joined the 34th Regiment this morning. He was Thomas J. Mansfield. No men joined the 33rd.

C and D Companies of the 33rd Battalion will go on outpost duty at Merwyn Heights tonight. The men will remain on duty throughout the entire night.

The men detailed for signalling instruction corps are getting training in the new signals. These consist of abbreviated words, code signals, etc. Their progress, according to the instructors, is marked.

Ray C. Yeoman, of the Springfield, Mass., Y. M. C. A. Training School, has been appointed new physical director of the Y. M. C. A. military department at the Carling Heights camp.

GALT I.O.O.F. CEREMONIES.

"SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE"

This picture of half a back axle, one wheel and a Goodyear Tire shows "all that was left of an automobile struck by a shell somewhere in France." A laconic story, this recital of the few known facts. But imagination refuses to stop there. Racing onward, it seeks to fill in the questionable blank spaces. To whom belonged the vanished car of war? What was its errand? Was it a Red Cross ambulance bent on its perilous duty? Or did it carry a grim general and his aides, hurrying over the once smooth and peaceful highways? The question subs? as the Spaniards say. All we know is that an obliterating shell burst "somewhere in France."

FOR GOD AND HUMANITY

Motto Selected For Coat of Arms and Flag of the 33rd Battalion.

Pro deo et humanitate. Rendered into English, For God and Humanity. This is the new motto to be engraved on the 33rd Battalion coat of arms and the members of the regiment, and all others who have learned what the symbol of the regiment is to be, are more than pleased.

Lieut.-Col. Alex. Wilson, commander of the 33rd, evolved the words after anxious thought, and he is as much contented with the motto as the general feeling of satisfaction that the words express such noble sentiment and pure purpose. Many other symbols were thought of before the ones to be used were cast upon.

Capt. Dowdley is to be congratulated too on the splendid coat of arms he has drawn, and which will be reproduced on all regimental flags, stationery, etc. The idea is an oval, surmounted by a crown. Below the crown, and beneath the words "For God and Humanity," is the motto "FOR GOD AND HUMANITY."

The following day this was added to the letter:

"We moved last night, and we are now in a little village just about a mile and a half from the firing line. You would have laughed last night: after we got there, three of us went in search of something to eat. We took about half an hour to make bread and butter, and then we ate some."

Kiddies Continue Play.
This morning we have been swimming in the canal. The Germans have been sending shells over here all day, and the kids run around the streets, although the shells are liable to drop anywhere.

"They smashed a lot of houses around here last night. I saw a shell hit a big red brick house, and they sure make the dust fly."

NO MORE SHINES
New Army Boots Are To Be Waterproofed, Not Polished.

The new boots issued to the men of the 33rd and 34th Battalions must be shined, according to an order on the boards at Wolsey Barracks this morning. The order reads as follows:

"The leather in the new boots is treated with a waterproof dressing, and should frequently receive a coat of dubbin. Do not shine. The boots will then give more satisfactory service on no account put boots near stove or radiator when wet." The new boots seem to be giving good satisfaction.

HARWICH IS AHEAD IN EARLY CABBAGES.

BLENHHEIM, June 20.—Messrs. Grant and Eastman, early vegetable growers, who have erected a large hothouse plant on their farm, about two miles west of town, have demonstrated to the public that Harwich township can compete with the best in the growth of early cabbages. They have them on the market now, and are good ones to other parts some of their fine heads. They have a splendid showing of cabbages, and are shipping these days to other parts some of their fine heads. Big Program of Sports Are Planned For Next Saturday.

The 7th Overseas Regiment, C. M. R., under command of Major C. H. Reason, will hold a field day in Queen's Park on Saturday afternoon. A program of track and military events is being arranged and the members of the 7th Overseas Regiment, C. M. R., and other units, will be allowed to compete. Col. Shannon, officer commanding the 7th Overseas Regiment, has given his permission to hold the meet, and Major Reason and those who are assisting him with the arrangements will leave nothing undone to make it a big success. The men of the different regiments are showing a keen interest in the affair, and there is no doubt that the different events will be well filled with entries.

The military competitions will include the wrestling on horseback, tug-of-war and other novel contests.

COOL WEATHER HELPS WEEDS.
WABASH, June 20.—Owing to the frequent rains and cool weather, the farmers are experiencing difficulty in keeping down weeds in their corn and other crops. Being torn out by cultivating, they soon take root again in the damp soil, the sun's rays not being hot enough to scorch them.

PRESTON BEAT TAVISTOCK IN W.F.A. SENIOR GAME

[Special to The Advertiser.]
PRESTON, June 19.—In a senior W. F. A. fixture, played here this afternoon, the between Tavistock and Preston, the locals were successful in winning by a score of 1 to 0. The game was played in the second half, and was a long and hard-fought one. Preston, right wing, which was too hot to handle, scored the only goal in the game. A high wind was blowing, and the players were in a great deal of trouble. Only a small crowd was in attendance.

New Army Boots Are To Be Waterproofed, Not Polished.

The new boots issued to the men of the 33rd and 34th Battalions must be shined, according to an order on the boards at Wolsey Barracks this morning. The order reads as follows:

"The leather in the new boots is treated with a waterproof dressing, and should frequently receive a coat of dubbin. Do not shine. The boots will then give more satisfactory service on no account put boots near stove or radiator when wet." The new boots seem to be giving good satisfaction.

HARWICH IS AHEAD IN EARLY CABBAGES.

BLENHHEIM, June 20.—Messrs. Grant and Eastman, early vegetable growers, who have erected a large hothouse plant on their farm, about two miles west of town, have demonstrated to the public that Harwich township can compete with the best in the growth of early cabbages. They have them on the market now, and are good ones to other parts some of their fine heads. They have a splendid showing of cabbages, and are shipping these days to other parts some of their fine heads.

Big Program of Sports Are Planned For Next Saturday.

The 7th Overseas Regiment, C. M. R., under command of Major C. H. Reason, will hold a field day in Queen's Park on Saturday afternoon. A program of track and military events is being arranged and the members of the 7th Overseas Regiment, C. M. R., and other units, will be allowed to compete. Col. Shannon, officer commanding the 7th Overseas Regiment, has given his permission to hold the meet, and Major Reason and those who are assisting him with the arrangements will leave nothing undone to make it a big success. The men of the different regiments are showing a keen interest in the affair, and there is no doubt that the different events will be well filled with entries.

The military competitions will include the wrestling on horseback, tug-of-war and other novel contests.

COOL WEATHER HELPS WEEDS.
WABASH, June 20.—Owing to the frequent rains and cool weather, the farmers are experiencing difficulty in keeping down weeds in their corn and other crops. Being torn out by cultivating, they soon take root again in the damp soil, the sun's rays not being hot enough to scorch them.

PRESTON BEAT TAVISTOCK IN W.F.A. SENIOR GAME

[Special to The Advertiser.]
PRESTON, June 19.—In a senior W. F. A. fixture, played here this afternoon, the between Tavistock and Preston, the locals were successful in winning by a score of 1 to 0. The game was played in the second half, and was a long and hard-fought one. Preston, right wing, which was too hot to handle, scored the only goal in the game. A high wind was blowing, and the players were in a great deal of trouble. Only a small crowd was in attendance.

PLAY IN STREETS AS SHELLS BURST

French Kiddies Indifferent To Artillery Fire, Says Londoner.

WITNESSES GREAT CHARGE

Germans Did Not Run Far When British Soldiers Charged Them.

Indifference of the soldiers and the citizen population of France to the shell fire of the German artillery is illustrated by a letter received today by J. A. Little, 1234 King street, from his son Bruce, who is serving in the trenches with the first contingent.

Mrs. Little, whose brother Charles has now enlisted with the McGill University contingent, is a dispatch runner. Under the date of June 1 he writes:

"As I am just saying trenches, I will write again. The weather is fine and sunny, and when we were in the trenches the sun would beat down in the place if you had one. They must have lots of fruit in the fall in this country, for the trees are just loaded now. I started to keep a diary, but started missing some days, till I stopped, but I guess you know about where we are, as the Canadians made a big charge here lately. I am a dispatch runner now, so will have some sprinting to do."

"Did Not Run Far."
We had the chance to watch a charge, and you should have seen the Germans run. But some of them did not run far. Before the charge the artillery gave us their trenches, and you could see the dirt flying and the smoke from the machine guns.

"Last night a few of us went to a farmhouse and got a feed of eggs for the chickens. Have you been to Port Stanley? Gee, but I wish I had the chance. Well, mother, I'll stop now. I think we move this afternoon. Say if I ever get back I won't want to hear the word 'trenches' any more."

The following day this was added to the letter:

"We moved last night, and we are now in a little village just about a mile and a half from the firing line. You would have laughed last night: after we got there, three of us went in search of something to eat. We took about half an hour to make bread and butter, and then we ate some."

Kiddies Continue Play.
This morning we have been swimming in the canal. The Germans have been sending shells over here all day, and the kids run around the streets, although the shells are liable to drop anywhere.

"They smashed a lot of houses around here last night. I saw a shell hit a big red brick house, and they sure make the dust fly."

HE MAY RETURN TO TRAIN MEN FOR THE FRONT

MAJ.-GENERAL J. A. CURRIE, M.P. HIGH OFFICERS MAY COME FROM FRONT TO TRAIN CANADIANS

Gen. Hughes Seeks To Bring Home Major-General Currie and Col. Meighen.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
OTTAWA, June 20.—The return of Major-General John A. Currie, M. P., of the 15th Overseas Canadian Battalion, and of Col. Frank S. Meighen, of the 14th Canadian Overseas Battalion, has been requested by Gen. Hughes. He wants them to give a course of months to the training of Canadians assembled in the nine military camps of Canada.

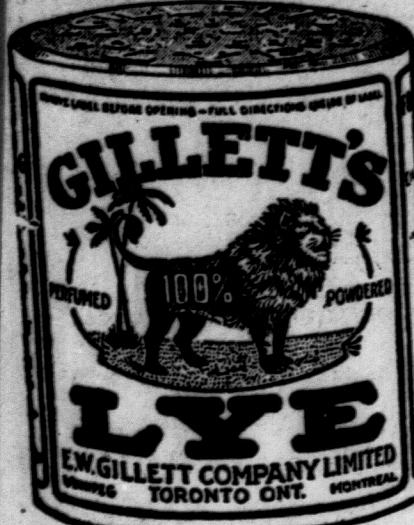

It is desired that Canadians now under arms should have the best possible instructions before they embark for the front. Officers such as Col. Currie and Col. Meighen, who have had the most active experience at the front, are regarded as most suitable men to instruct in the niceties of war the men who are now training recruits in Canada.

The application for furloughs for these two Canadian commanders have been cabled to the war office.

Empire's Men Will Soon Need Warm Clothing

English Woman Writer Urges Workers at Home to Begin Now On Warm Knitted Things For Autumn.

Following are extracts from a woman's editorial to women, appearing in a recent issue of the London (Eng.) Daily Mail:

"We have a letter this morning from a woman just back from France, who, like most of her sex, thinks ahead. There are many matters in which women have far greater vision, far more foresight, far greater intuitive perception of dangers to come. Men are always telling women that they are 'building bridges to meet trouble.' That is part of woman's strength. This woman writes:

"As a woman of England working in France, I make this appeal to my country's sisters to begin now, in their spare time, working for our men and officers, so that we shall have warm things for the cold nights beginning by the 15th of September on sea and land. They will have need of every single thing for next winter, and women working quietly in their own homes, without the excitement and interest of being in a war country, will be adding with every stitch to the debt of gratitude felt by our men. Our men are giving their best for us. Let us in return send every spare minute for them. Begin today."

"If you have a man at the front, write and ask him what he will want in the winter, and start making the things he requires. At the beginning of the war all sorts of useless articles were sent out.

"Do not waste time in unnecessary effort, but write to your man and ask him what he and his friends will need. There are many of you in your peaceful homes who cannot get out into the hurly-burly of life and take part in greater movements. You will be doing your share, and a splendid share too, if from this day forward you make something that will be wanted."

"In the Times the other day a traveller in Germany, giving his impressions, reproduced the notice that in the time of the German railway carriage. It is as follows:

KRIEG UND KUECHE.
(War and the Kitchen.)
Kocht die Kartoffeln in der Schale (Boil potatoes in their skins).
Kauft Kriessbrot (Buy war bread).
Kauft Keinen Kuchen (Buy no pastries).

[Correspondents are requested to make their inquiries as brief as possible, and to write on one side of the paper only. It is impossible to give replies within a stated time, as all letters have to be answered in turn. No letter can be answered privately.]

He Writes Again.

Dear Miss Grey:—Please pardon me for writing so often in such a short time, but I must say my sympathy went out to "Another Who Is Lonely" when I read her letter tonight. She wants me for a next-door neighbor; well, I don't just know where she lives, so cannot very well move at present, but if she would care to have me write to her I would be only too pleased to do so. Can you not arrange to exchange our addresses? We could forget our loneliness to a certain extent when each knows that he or she is not the only person who sacrifices popularity for the honor of being quiet. Thanking you very much for your favors through The Advertiser, I remain, sincerely yours, LONELY.

Ans.—Why did you not set the example by enclosing your address, Lonely? I am still in the land of the living, and even if the maiden did consent to a correspondence and mail me her address.

This Is Rose Time.

Dear Miss Grey:—I have been greatly helped by your column in the paper. I cut out the recipe for making beads, but have failed to locate it. Would you be so kind as to send it to me? Please pardon the paper, as it is the best I have, and oblige.

Ans.—Since this is rose time I suppose it is the rose beads which you desire a formula for. Am glad to reprint it, for your benefit, and any other reader's as well.

Three quarts rose leaves are necessary for making a necklace of ordinary size. When the leaves are still fresh put them through an ordinary meat chopper eight times a day for three successive days, putting the paste so formed between times in a roaster or roasting pan or iron pot of some kind, to give them the rusty black look required. Then measure a thimbleful of the paste for your largest bead, or in proportion. Roll the beads on the hand, and run a pin or needle through it, sticking it on a large sheet of cardboard to harden. Graduate the other beads proportionately for your necklace. If you wish to make a rougher surface prod them lightly with soft with a wooden toothpick.

Free of Charge.

Dear Miss Grey:—Can you give me the address of some place in Canada where I can get, free of charge, plans for house building, also where I can get material already in shape for buildings? Sincerely yours, READER.

Ans.—I do not know of any such place unless you write to the Sovereign Consulting Company, C. P. R. Building, Toronto, Ont.

When a Boy Travels.

Dear Miss Grey: I wonder if you would help me with a few suggestions.

What could I give to a little boy, eight years old, who is going on a long railroad journey? I mean something to amuse him and put in the time while travelling.

Thanking you, yours in anticipation, "THEO."

Ans.—1. A child of this size is almost too old for any toy unless it be a mechanical puzzle of some description. If he was fond of drawing, a set of water color paints might be interesting for him, as he could draw pictures en route, and color them. Perhaps books of the bright "boy" type would prove best of all if there were no objection to his reading while on the train. The Horace Alger books are always entertaining to a boy of this age, or an illustrated volume like "Chums" or "The Boys' Own Annual" might be prized.

Little Boy Sings.

Dear Miss Grey:—Will you kindly favor me with a reply to the following questions through your columns?

1. Some time ago I noticed in the Inquirer a notice about a girl going out again for me? My neighbor told me her daughter in Montreal has gone, so I would like to pass the cure on to her.

2. My little boy is a nice singer, and sings at different entertainments, and has quite often excelled himself, so as to surprise his teacher. On going out of a concert hall, people will come to me and say: "My, what a lovely singer he is," or "Your boy did well," and lots of other remarks. I feel lost to know what to say. Kindly tell me what would be nice for me to say to such remarks.

3. What will kill or drive away bedbugs in a house? Thanking you in advance, MOTHER.

Ans.—1. I am sorry, but nothing has been received from the reader who promised to let us have the cure,

BETTY BROWN
FINDS FASHION HAS SENSIBLE MOODS

Dame Fashion has her sensible moods as well as her flights of frivolity—here the coat suit to prove it.

Mme. Anna Ripley, president of the Fashion Art League of America, who devised this sensible little gown, showed me a charming model in olive green serge, with blouse of sand-colored chiffon cloth.

The skirt is box-pleated, with narrow straps set horizontally around the hips, and there is a girlish collar of black satin and an ornamental pocket of the serge.

As a three-piece suit it is just the thing for shopping or general utility—take off the coat and you have a charming little frock, pretty enough for a tea or a matinee, and cool enough for the warmest summer day.

—BETTY BROWN.

and repeated requests have failed to elicit any response from her.

2. I don't think any other response than "Thank you," is really necessary, but here are two or three replies you might make: "So glad you were pleased with him," "It's nice of you to say so," or "The credit's due to his teacher."

3. Dear lady, just about a month ago we had a perfect siege of bedbugs—pardon me, bedbug destroyers, in the Mail-Box. I really hate to have the horrid things be subject of discussion again, but if you will just send me your address, shall mail you clippings of the various suggestions given.

Training for a Nurse.
Dear Miss Grey: 1. Will you kindly tell me what age a girl must be in order to train for nursing?

2. What steps must she take to enter a hospital for this purpose?

3. Do all hospitals take nurses to train?

Thanking you, I remain, SCOTTY.

Ans.—1. Twenty-one years.

2. Write for information to the lady superintendent of whatever institution she wishes to enter.

3. All hospitals of any size do, except some of the private hospitals.

For the Private.

Ans.—If the young man is really interested in you he will make a way to let you know of his affection. Considering that he is younger than you, and that you are of different religious beliefs, it may be just as well that he does not make more advances. If I were you I would not indulge too much in building air castles, for you really have not much foundation upon which to build them. Just be friendly with him. If he shows you any particular attention, just accept them and enjoy them for what they are. He probably likes to chat with you and have a pleasant visit, but means nothing more serious.

Husband in France.

Dear Miss Grey: As I read your page quite often I thought I would write you a few lines and ask a few questions, as most others do.

1. I am married and have one child. My husband is fighting in France. Would you advise me to take some rooms by myself or board with some one?

2. What is the nature of a child with blue eyes and red hair? Also a person with red hair and brown eyes?

3. What is the meaning of the name Marie and Daisy?

4. How old should a child be before walking?

5. What is good to remove freckles?

6. What you please give me these songs: "Just Before the Battle, Mother," and "Just Break the News to Mother."

7. What do you think of my writing? I only had two years' schooling. Well, as this is my first letter I am hoping, wishing you all success. Hoping to see this in print soon. I remain, yours, LULU.

Ans.—1. Sorry, but I do not know how you could trace your mother's whereabouts. Are there not some old friends living in England who might know where she resides?

2. It seems to me that you would find it cheaper to rent rooms and provide your own meals.

3. I do not think the color of the eyes or hair is any particular indication of character. Some think a red-haired person possessed of a quick temper, but I have known both fair and dark people with the same traits. Haven't you?

4. Marie is a French form of Mary, which means "bitterness"; Daisy is a name which signifies innocence.

5. Children differ so much in this respect it is difficult to say; some commence their toddling footsteps when about eleven months or a year old; others are fifteen months or even eighteen before walking.

6. Lemon juice or buttermilk applied to the face daily are good agents to get rid of freckles.

7. It is very well what opportunity you have had. You are a brave little woman, I am sure, and have my best wishes for your soldier-man.

Prevent Diseased Teeth and Gums and General Health Will Be Benefited

TEETH AND HEALTH

If people would really keep their teeth clean, and have them examined regularly by a dentist twice a year, then they would have little trouble from their teeth. But most people only keep their teeth half clean and won't go to a dentist until toothache drives them and so their teeth decay, and although general health is seriously impaired.

The most serious result of neglect of one's teeth is a disease called pyorrhea—which causes the teeth to become loosened from the gums and are inflamed and sore. Unless treated in time people suffering from this disease will lose their teeth entirely.

Why Marie Wouldn't Sew

I was spending the day with Mrs. West—a wet, drizzly spring day, one of the kind that makes it necessary for the children to be in the house. To 3-year-old Marie West being shut within doors was a punishment indeed. "If only it would stop raining!" and "I don't see why the sun don't shine," she complained miserably, her nose pressed flat against the dripping window pane.

"Why don't you bring your dolly's sewing and sit here with Mrs. Farwell and me?" her mother finally suggested. Plainly the idea did not appeal to the child's enthusiasm, but in a desperate need of something to do she went for her dolly and a basket of sewing materials. In her absence Mrs. West confided to me, "I cannot understand just why it is that Marie does not like to sew when she is at home. She and her little friend, Julia, will sit in their playhouses by the hour, and sew on their dolls' clothes, but Marie never will sit with me to sew if she can possibly find anything else to do. I simply cannot arouse her interest, and I am so sorry, too, for that would give me such a good opportunity to teach her to do nice hand sewing. Why, I learned almost all I have ever known about sewing by making clothing for my doll. Within the next hour I am sure I could have explained to my friend just why it was that her little daughter had been a happy, busy sewing time."

Barely was the child seated and her needle threaded when her mother said: "Marie, dear, won't you please run to

People afflicted with this disease also suffer from stomach trouble, for their gums and teeth are so sore that they chew the food well is practically impossible. Added to this the system is apt to be more or less poisoned by the discharges from the inflamed gums. By having the teeth examined frequently the dentist can detect signs of pyorrhea in time to treat the teeth and gums and to check the disease, but where pyorrhea is allowed to go neglected until it has reached an advanced stage then it is curable only by the exercise of much fortitude and patience.

At this time of the year many people are poisoned by eating strawberries or other fresh fruits. One person's food in this respect is another's poison and when a person develops one of these food rashes he should try this and that until he discovers which it is that is a poison to him and then avoid it.

Canadian Verse

THE DOUGLAS FIR.

Proud monarch of the West's green-fringed hills,
Majestic pillar of the sunset sky,
In grim, dark grandeur thou dost raise on high
Thy tapering head to where the glory fills
The firmament. The roseate radiance
My soul not more than that weird melody
The ocean breeze awakens mysteriously
Among thy boughs whenever that it wills.

Long centuries have scored thy rugged sides
With gashes rude and deep; thy wounded heart
Has shed great tears and these compelling, hide,
Or strive to hide, these gaping rents in pain;
And centuries more thou still mightiest stand in pride;
But evensong now claims thee for his mart.

—Donald A. Fraser.

THE WAIST LINE.

The fashion magazines speak of a tendency toward a smaller waist line, and some of the newest model costumes show that feature. But that old pinched waists will ever return to favor is surely impossible. Women who have played golf and tennis, and indulged in the delights of any other outdoor sports, will never be willing to give them up and return to the state of cramped helplessness that many women were reduced to formerly.

Will perhaps give the effect of the smaller waist, it will be because there are curves introduced into them in place of the former straight-line effects. But the curves follow the figure without compressing it.

True greatness is not in what we have, but in what we are, and that greatness, with God's help, is in our own hands, under our own control.

SAYS RUSSIANS ARE IN RETREAT ON ENTIRE FRONT

Vienna Intimates Defence of Lemberg Is Being Abandoned.

EXODUS FROM CAPITAL

Teutons Claim They Are Advancing at a Rapid Pace.

[Canadian Press.] VIENNA, June 20, via London, June 21.—(4:40 a.m.)—The Russians have been in general retreat since 3 o'clock this morning along their entire front after having been forced out of their position on the Wereszyca River, a short distance to the west of Lemberg.

FLEEING FROM LEMBERG. LONDON, June 21.—(2:15 a.m.)—An exodus of considerable proportions has already begun from Lemberg, says the Morning Post's Petrograd correspondent. The correspondent says that for June the weather has been exceptional. There have been persistent rains over the greater part of Russia and Galicia during the month. The rivers are out of their boundaries and, owing to the wide extent of the marshy ground on either side of them, the discomforts for the attacking armies are increased.

GRODEK OCCUPIED. VIENNA, June 20.—Grodek, seventeen miles west of Lemberg, the Galician capital, and Komarno, twenty miles southwest of Lemberg, have been taken by the Teutonic allies, according to an Austrian official statement issued here tonight.

The text of the statement follows: "Russian war theater: The Galician battle continues. Attacking combined Russian forces on and north of the Wereszyca River, the Teutonic allied troops captured position after position. "Grodek and Komarno are taken. An End To The Curse of Wearing Worthless Trusses

No More Rupture Troubles. 60 Days' Trial To Prove It

You Don't Have To Risk a Penny Here is something absolutely guaranteed to keep your rupture from coming out. And you can try it sixty days—make a thorough prove-it-to-you test—without having to risk a penny. If it doesn't hold—if it doesn't keep your rupture from bothering you in any way—then it won't cost you a single cent.

The Only Thing Good Enough To Stand Such a Test.

You know as well as we that you can't tell anything about a truss or anything else for rupture merely by trying it on. That's the worst of going to a drug-store or local truss fitter. A truss or so-called "appliance" may seem all right when you first put it on and afterwards prove utterly worthless. The only way in the world you can make sure of exactly what you're getting is by a 60-days' trial—a thorough day-after-day test.

And our guaranteed rupture holder—the famous Clute—is the only thing of any kind whatever for rupture that you can get on sixty days' trial, the only thing good enough to stand such a long and thorough test.

Something Nothing Else Does.

The Clute is so utterly different from anything else for rupture that it has received eighteen separate patents. It provides the only way ever discovered for overcoming the weakness which is the real cause of rupture. Just how it does that—entirely automatically—is all explained in the free book.

Will Save You From Operation.

The Clute has so utterly proved its merits that physicians in all parts of the world and surgeons in the United States army and navy now recommend it instead of advising operation. It has brought complete recovery in hundreds of cases after operation has proved a failure.

the vicinity of Szawla and Augustowo were beaten off. "Our advance in small divisions resulted in the capture of advanced positions of the enemy near Budbrzyseki and Zalesie, east of the Przasnys-Myszyniec road.

Southeastern theatre: "South of the Pilica troops under Gen. Von Woychik have taken several advanced enemy positions during the last few days. "The armies under Gen. Von Mackensen have taken the Grodek position. Early yesterday morning German troops and the corps of Field Marshal von Arz commenced an attack upon strongly entrenched enemy lines. After stubborn fighting lasting until afternoon, enemy trenches, one behind the other, almost along the entire front extending over a distance of 35 kilometres (24 miles), north of Janow (eleven miles northwest of Lemberg), Blaputa and Obodymski and southeast of Rawa Ruska (32 miles northwest of Lemberg) had been stormed. In the evening the enemy was thrown back behind the high road to Zolkiew north of Lemberg, and Rawa Ruska. Under pressure of this defeat the enemy also is weakened in his communication. Between Grodek and the Dniester marshes the enemy is hard pressed by Austro-Hungarian troops.

"Between the Dniester marshes and the mouth of the River Stry the enemy has evacuated the southern branch of the Dniester."

ELLIS ISLAND HOLDS WEALTHY MAN'S CHILDREN

Arrive in Charge of Governors, Which Does Not Meet Law's Requirements.

NEW YORK, June 20.—Three girls, all under 4 years, daughters of F. L. Hammond, a wealthy resident of Winnipeg, who is with his own Red Cross unit in France, were held up on the liner New York yesterday, and will be taken to Ellis Island today. They were in charge of Mrs. Bertha Harten, their governess.

Despite the pleadings of Mrs. Harten, the immigration officials applied the law that no children under 18 years can be allowed to land except in custody of close relatives. The children, Francis, Lois and Edith, will probably be held on the island until their mother arrives, or until the resident Canadian immigration officer can obtain their release. Mrs. Harten has friends on Staten Island, but was not allowed to leave the ship.

VENICE IS PREPARED FOR MORE AIR RAIDS

VENICE (via Chiasso and Paris), June 20.—(4:30 p.m.)—Reports having been circulated that the Austrians are preparing to make an air raid over Venice, the authorities have ordered that stricter precautionary measures be adopted by the police. A military order has been issued that windows shall be so screened that the light will not show through them. If a light is shown at a window the military guard will order it extinguished. Failure to comply with the order of the guard will result in a shot being fired through the window.

ITALIANS CAPTURE IMPORTANT HEIGHTS

Achieve Objective After Two Days' Fighting—Suffer Heavy Losses.

ROME, June 20.—An official statement from main headquarters of the Italian army, most of which is devoted to details of the two days' struggle for the heights on the left bank of the Isonzo River, near Plava, says that the Italians took the last of these heights remaining in the hands of the Austrians on June 17, and that while the Italian losses were heavy the results attained were important. The communication says that on the Isonzo, which the Italians "passed by main force," the Austrian positions have been taken one after another by assault. The statement follows: "Artillery duels and engagements between small bodies occupied several points on the front on June 18. In Carnia the enemy made fresh attacks on Freilofel and attempted to approach the head of the Valonia Pass. They were repulsed in each case.

Bridged River at Night.

"New details now have been received of the struggle which continued two days and a night for the heights on the left bank of the Isonzo River, near Plava, which the Italians took the last of these heights remaining in the hands of the Austrians on June 17, and that while the Italian losses were heavy the results attained were important. The communication says that on the Isonzo, which the Italians "passed by main force," the Austrian positions have been taken one after another by assault. The statement follows: "Artillery duels and engagements between small bodies occupied several points on the front on June 18. In Carnia the enemy made fresh attacks on Freilofel and attempted to approach the head of the Valonia Pass. They were repulsed in each case.

Heavy Guns Concealed.

"Numerous heavy guns, even twelve-inch guns, were concealed in command positions which were difficult for our artillery to reach. Nevertheless, supported by the fire of our batteries our troops succeeded by repeated bayonet charges in debouching on the enemy's first line towards evening. During the night the enemy tried several times with sudden dashes to deprive us of the ground conquered. He was always they were thrown back. "On the 17th our troops completed their success by carrying the heights still in the hands of the enemy. The latter then concentrated on them violent artillery and machine gun fire, which was followed up by another counter-attack by fresh troops. He was decimated and definitely driven back at the point of the bayonet. We made over 150 prisoners, including four officers, and captured a quantity of rifles, munitions and one machine gun.

Great Turning Movement To the North of Grodek

LONDON, June 21.—(12:46 a.m.)—A Reuter dispatch from Petrograd says: "Russian military critics point out that the Austro-Germans, in forcing their way through the passages of the lakes to the north and south of Grodek, apparently hoped to find the Russians demoralized after their rapid retreat. However, both on this front and on the Tanev line the grouping was accomplished with equal efficiency and celerity. "The Austro-Germans advance westward and to the southwest of Rawa Ruska is regarded as initiating a great turning movement to the north of Grodek and Lemberg."

ALPINE SOLDIERS CLIMBED PERPENDICULAR ROCKS AND SURPRISED ENEMY AT NIGHT

Remarkable Achievement of Italy's Fighters Carried Them Within Six Feet of Austrian Trenches in Surprise Attack.

[Canadian Press.] PARIS, June 20.—The Rome correspondent of the Havas Agency, writing under yesterday's date, says that "further details of the fighting at Monte Nero bring out the brilliant achievement of the Alpine troops of the Italian army."

The correspondent continues: "The objective of the attack, the northern side of Monte Nero, had been strongly reinforced by the enemy. The Italian officers carefully surveyed the ground and decided that the only way was to scale the almost perpendicular rocks at night and take the enemy by surprise, attacking two sides at once. "The Alpine soldiers took rifles with fixed bayonets and grenades. They were ordered not to fire if they possibly could help it, so as to avoid giving an alarm. Some detachments took off their shoes and wrapped their feet in cloths.

"Two columns, one operating on the Vrata slope of Monte Nero, and the other to the northwest of Monte Potoce, at dawn got within six feet of the enemy's trenches without being observed. They leaped in, and after a brief hand-to-hand encounter became masters of the first line of trenches. Then they carried the line behind, capturing two companies at the advance posts and two others in support.

"When success on the Monte Potoce became assured a Hungarian column was sent advancing from Planinapoli to counter-attack. The Italians allowed them to approach close and then poured in a violent concentrated fire which almost annihilated the battalion. They took prisoners the colonel of a Flamed regiment and thirty other officers.

GERMANS PLAN For Offensive Against Italy

Heavy Mountain Artillery and First Line Men Being Rushed to Front.

BRESCIA (via Chiasso and Paris), June 20.—(4:15 p.m.)—According to statements made by Austrian prisoners, the Austrians are completing their armament by transporting over the mountains heavy artillery of the 305-millimetre class. The Italians already have their heavy guns in position, having transported them to the front in unmounted sections.

Austrian soldiers made prisoners by the Italians show by their age that first line men from 18 to 28 years old have been substituted for the middle-aged reservists along the Italian front. Prisoners report that the railways in southwestern Austria are crowded with troop trains headed for the Italian front.

FRENCH WIN VICTORY IN CE-TRAL AFRICA

Enemy Capitulates After Battle Lasting Seventy-Two Hours.

PARIS, June 20.—The French minister of colonies has received the following from the Governor-General of French Central Africa: "As the result of heavy fighting from May 24, which lasted day and night for 72 hours, a Sangha column forced the enemy to capitulate at Monso after taking position after position. The squadron took many prisoners, including many white troops, officers and infantry, and also many quick-firer munitions and valuable correspondence."

NORTHUMBERLAND COUNTY WOMAN DIES AT 102

WARKWORTH, June 20.—Mrs. Rose McQuire, Seymour Township, is dead, in her 102nd year. Up to the last she retained possession of all her faculties. She was born in County Clare, Ireland, in 1812, and came with her late husband 60 years ago to Canada.

GERMAN PRINCE BANISHED ALONG WITH HIS WIFE

Latter Related to Well-Known Russian and French Families.

PARIS, June 20.—Prince von Radolin, former German ambassador to France, and the Princess von Radolin, the Petit Journal says, have not been formally arrested as was reported from Milan last week, but have been banished to their estate at Jaroschin, Posen, which they are not allowed to leave.

According to the Petit Journal, the reason for their banishment is that the princess, who is related to the Radziwill family of Russia and the Talleyrand family of France, manifested sentiments which were resented in high circles in Germany. The prince aroused equal enmity when he took her part.

GREEKS INSIST ON BULGARIAN ROUTE

Think This Is Only Way To Take Constantinople, Says Washington.

WASHINGTON, D.C., June 20.—Conditions in the Dardanelles reported in press dispatches yesterday and indicating that Constantinople is in no immediate fear of occupation by the Allies, created a deep impression in Balkan diplomatic circles here. In this connection, unofficial reports from Russia announcing that a change of the campaign against Constantinople was one of the requirements exacted by Greece for support of the Allies were widely commented on.

The Greek Government, it was said, declared in a note to Russia that the approach along the Gallipoli peninsula was impossible, and that an overland attack through Bulgarian territory was the only means which the Greek general staff would consider in case of Greek participation. In Bulgarian quarters here, it was said this probably would never be permitted unless the Allies guaranteed sufficient territorial cession from Roumania, Greece and Servia. Offers already reported in the press as having been made were declared to be hardly sufficient to shake Bulgarian neutrality. Any violation by the Allies of Bulgarian neutrality, it was insisted would force her to join the Teutonic allies.

PORTUGAL MINISTRY COMPLETE. LISBON (via Paris), June 20.—The ministry has been completed by the appointment of Fernandes Silva as minister of the interior, and Victorino Gama as minister of finance. Premier Castro took the portfolio of minister of marine provisionally.

700 BUILDINGS IN MOSCOW WRECKED

Damage Done Amounts to More Than Twenty Million Dollars.

ATTACKS ON GERMANS

Hundred and Thirteen Austro-German Buildings Are In Ruins.

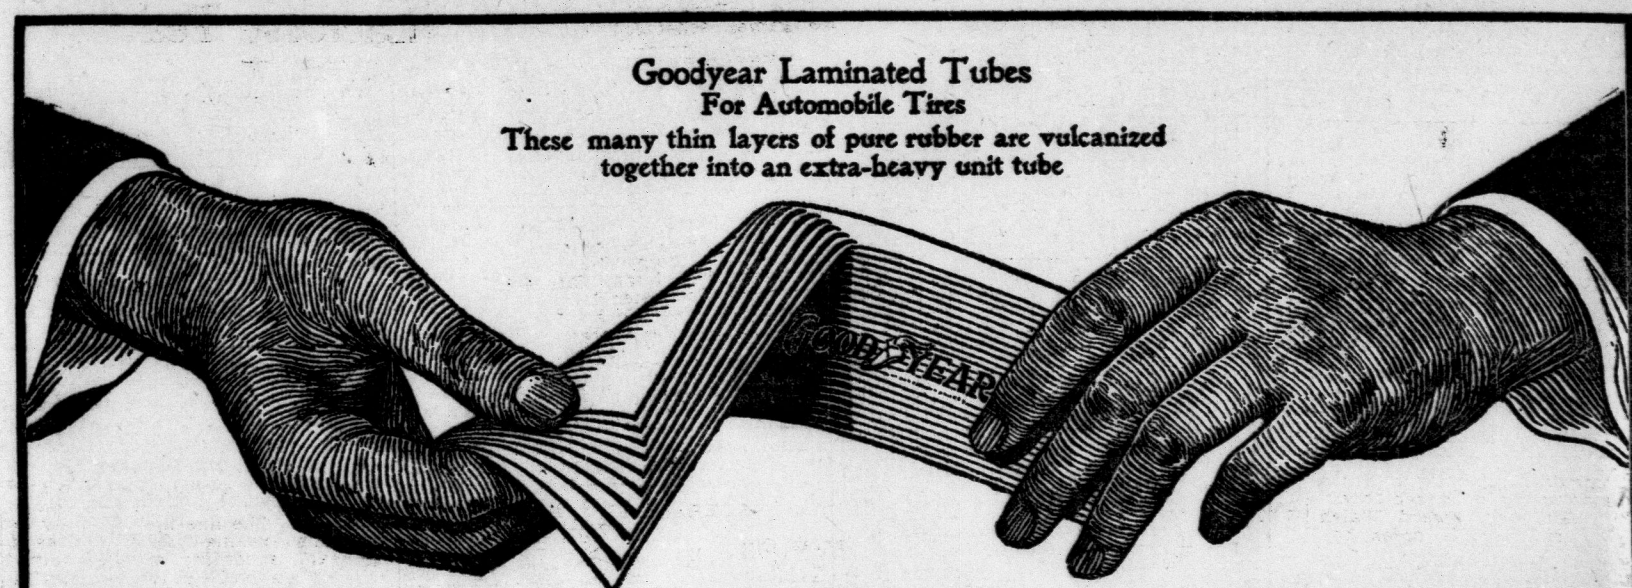

PETROGRAD (via London), June 21.—(12:40 a.m.)—Moscow suffered damage to the amount of $20,000,000 during the recent anti-German demonstrations, in which nearly five hundred stores and factories, and more than 200 private lodging houses were totally wrecked.

The infuriated mobs turned the city into wild disorder, according to eye-witnesses. From music stores, pianos and other musical instruments were hurled into the streets until the piles of wreckage made progress through these thoroughfares impossible. The rioters, heaped with liquor, which they found in the demolished wine stores, became reckless in their pillaging, setting fire to and destroying many stores, and apartments, the owners of which were Russians. Of the total number of buildings destroyed only 113 belonged to Austro-German subjects. The demonstrations, beginning early on June 9, lasted more than twenty-four hours. Buildings burned and crumbled to ashes and the fire department, although active throughout the disturbances, found it impossible to cope with the flames, so extensive were the conflagrations.

The Moscow council at a meeting, held on June 16, took measures to quell the disorders and prevent a repetition of the rioting. The number of fatalities is not known.

ENDS LONG JOURNEY.

PARIS, June 20.—3:30 p.m.—The Hamburg-American Line steamship C. Ferd Laeisz, which was captured in the China Sea by the French at the opening of hostilities, has arrived in Marseilles to discharge her cargo.

Leak-Proof Inner Tubes

That Outlast Any Tire

14% Heavier—20% Lower Priced

Layer on Layer

Here is something every motorist should know.

Goodyear Laminated Tubes are not built of one thick piece of rubber. In a single piece of thick rubber flaws may be hidden. And the flaws may go clear through.

Goodyear Tubes are made of many thin layers—each of pure rubber—vulcanized together in one solid, extra-heavy tube.

In these thin sheets any tiny flaw shows up and we correct it at once.

These thin, perfect sheets, wrapped layer on layer, make a tube that can't leak. And the valve patch can't leak. It is part of the tube, not stuck on.

Please remember that. Many a tire trouble is due to a leaky tube.

Made Extra Thick

Goodyear Laminated Tubes are also extra-thick. They were always so.

But this year we have added an extra 14 per cent on the average—all pure rubber.

"N. G." CHECK MAN WANTED IN LONDON; IN ST. THOMAS NOW
Admits in Port Stanley Lack of Bank Funds.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
ST. THOMAS, June 20.—A guest at the Invererie Hotel, Port Stanley, for the past few days, giving the name of E. T. Wright, tendered a check for his bill today for $40 on the Bank of Toronto at St. Thomas. After deducting the amount due, Proprietor Kingston gave him $20 in change.

A few minutes later, a man from London happened in the hotel and informed the hotel proprietor that the man was wanted by the London police for passing a fraudulent check in that city. Mr. Kingston charged the fellow with giving him a fictitious check and he was taken to the police station.

The police at this place were notified by telephone and arrested him upon the arrival of the car. When searched, letters were found on him addressed to Ray Beckett of St. Thomas. He was brought before Squire Hunt for examination Sunday night and remanded until Wednesday.

The authorities in London also want him.

New casualties to the district of Western Ontario reach over a score, of which half are of men killed in action, and six of whom are officers—captains and lieutenants.

In the wounded list are three officers. There are also two officers missing.

The official list that came through on Saturday included the name of Lieut. Col. H. C. Becher, whose death had been previously recorded through private messages.

Pte. Arthur Dean, whose name is mentioned as one of the wounded in the casualty list, enlisted in London, and resided with Albert Higgs, 884 Waterloo street. Pte. Dean was a member of G Company, 7th Fusiliers. During his residence in the city Dean was an employee of the Ontario Spring Bed and Mattress Company. This is the second time that Dean has been wounded since the outbreak of the war.

Lance-Corp. Donald Campbell, of 884 Richmond street, London, is officially reported ill in this morning's list. His parents were notified from Ottawa recently of his condition.

FIVE BLENHEIM MEN KILLED OR WOUNDED.
[Special to The Advertiser.]
BLENHEIM, June 20.—Word has been received by friends and relatives of the first five Englishmen who went to the war from this town that all of them have been either killed or wounded. They were:

Fred Wilkinson, a reservist, who received word at the outbreak of the war to report, as he belonged to an Essex regiment in England. He has since been reported killed in action.

John Colford, another reservist, who belonged to a Sussex regiment, was called to report at the same time. He has since been reported killed.

Albert Fox, another Englishman, enlisted in the first contingent, has been reported wounded.

Alfred Denington, another of the first contingent, and who, up to a few weeks ago had a wife and child here, was reported to be in an English hospital, he having been wounded in action.

His wife and child have gone back with the hope of finding him. It was he who reported that Wilkinson and Colford were dead.

Joe Ling, the last reported, is an older old country lad who went from here. He is reported wounded in the thigh.

All of these had come out to make their homes here, but when the call to arms came their love for country took them to help the flag.

CHATHAM CAPTAIN AND LANCE-CORP. FALL.
[Special to The Advertiser.]
CHATHAM, June 20.—Private messages received the city tell of the death at the front of two Chatham men, Capt. George L. Smith and Lance-Corp. John Murdoch.

The message telling of Capt. Smith's death was received yesterday, and a cable informing relatives of John Murdoch's end came today.

Capt. Smith, while at Salisbury Plain was promoted to the rank of major. He leaves a wife and son residing in this city. He left here with the first contingent and was the first officer from Chatham to volunteer his services. Plans are now being made to hold a memorial service in his honor.

Prior to joining the first contingent, Capt. Robinson was captain of "G" Company, 26th Middlesex Light Infantry, whose headquarters are in Strathroy.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson are keeping up wonderfully under such a terrible shock.

Another son, Lieut. Bernard S. Robinson, is now with the Duke of Cornwall's Light Infantry in the Dardanelles.

A little over a year ago Lieut. Robinson was employed on the staff of Hay Co. as an accountant, and during his residence in that city he was a member of the 22nd Regiment, where he was quite popular.

LIEUT. JOHN McDONALD REPORTED MISSING.
[Special to The Advertiser.]
STRATFORD, June 20.—Sergeant McDonald of the armories today received official word from Ottawa that his son, Lieut. John McDonald, was missing following the recent severe fighting. Lieut. McDonald was formerly company sergeant-major, but was granted a commission for gallantry on the field.

He was born in Scotland and employed at McLagan Furniture Company. He was a member of the 28th Regiment.

Word has been received in the city that Capt. Delamere, commanding officer, 1st Battalion, who was wounded, is now in a hospital in London, England, and is "doing fine."

MT. FOREST OFFICER BRAVE AS HIS MEN.
[Special to The Advertiser.]
HARRISTON, June 20.—Lieut. Fred W. Campbell of Mount Forest, mentioned in yesterday's list of casualties, as being seriously wounded, is a married man with five children. Previous to enlisting in the first contingent he was a successful farmer and captain of No. 5 Company, Wellington Rifles. In that battalion he was popular with officers and men, and in shooting held the record of making a possible 100. He is a veteran of the South African campaign, and in the present war had charge of a machine gun, several of the Harristons men being members of the company, who all commend him for bravery as a soldier.

PTE. MERCER OF YORK ST. MISSING.
Mrs. Martha Mercer, of York street, has been notified officially from Ottawa that her son, Pte. John Carson Mercer, who went to England with the first contingent as a member of the 15th Highlanders, of Montreal, and who afterwards was transferred to the 48th Highlanders, of Toronto, before proceeding to the front, was among the missing between April 24 and April 29.

The war already has taken one of Mrs. Mercer's sons, Robert H., who was killed while assisting in the attack on the Highlanders, of Montreal, and who was where they were in danger of being captured by the Germans. He was a married man, and lived at 7 Bathurst street.

The news that John was missing, Mrs. Mercer said today, came rather in the nature of a relief to her. She feels that if he had been killed the authorities would have known before now, and she is hopeful, therefore, that he is alive and a prisoner of war. As she had not heard from him since April 27, she had begun to fear the worst.

CONGREGATIONALIST DROPPED FROM PULPIT
Rev. Bryson Simmons, recently of Burford—Brantford Minister Goes to New Hamburg.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
BRANTFORD, June 20.—Rev. Bryson C. Simmons of the Congregational Church, Burford, has been dropped from the role "because of regrettable indiscretion."

Mr. Simmons resigned the Burford charge about May 24 to go to Forest and since then an investigation by the ministerial authorities was held with the above result.

This was his first year on the pastorate.

Methodist Pulpit Change.
Rev. Mr. Snyder will be removed from the Sydenham Street Methodist Church to New Hamburg, consequent upon the petition of the board of that congregation. His place will be taken here by Rev. W. Smythe of Bridgeburg, who has served in several good charges, including Welland avenue, St. Catharines.

The Sydenham Street Congregation had desired to secure Rev. Mr. Wolitz of Springfield.

The change of pulpits is to take place at once, Sunday, July 4, to be the date the pulpit is to be occupied by the new incumbent.

INGERSOLL.
Ingersoll, June 20.—Saturday's market was well attended with only minor changes in price. The principal fluctuation was in butter prices, which have dropped slightly. They ranged from 22c to 24c per pound. Eggs sold at 21c to 22c per dozen. Chickens from 90c to 95c each. Potatoes were slow at 50c a bag.

THRICE THWARTED IN DESPERATE DEEDS
Edward Patey Dragged From Assaulting Wife—Razor Taken From Him.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
WINGHAM, June 20.—After he had viciously assaulted his wife and had been subsequently relieved of a razor, Edward Patey was again thwarted this morning in an attempt to hang himself, but not until he had got himself strung up and was so far gone that it required several minutes of resuscitation work to bring him to.

He is now locked up in the Wingham jail and will appear before Magistrate Morton at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning to answer for all the above capers. He was arrested shortly before noon by County Constable G. Phippen, who answered a hurry-up call to the residence of Patey, who had been called by a wife laborer four years ago. His wife has recently been attending Mr. Ward's wife, who is seriously ill. This wet is now affecting the crops. Over morning Patey went to Mr. Ward's house and asked his wife if she was coming home. She said she could not leave the patient till she had improved. Patey, on a second refusal, attacked his wife, threw her to the floor and attempted to choke her.

A neighbor named Everatt had dropped in to inquire concerning Mrs. Ward, and he and Mr. Ward, after a struggle, pulled the infuriated man from his prone wife.

Patey seemed to quiet down, but later he was observed to take a razor from his pocket, and he was about to open it, the two men disarmed him. He then ran from the house, and jumping into a rig which he had borrowed, drove down the road. Fortunately a call had been sent for Constable Phippen.

When some distance from Mr. Ward's house, Patey stopped the horse, took a bride rein from the harness and suspended himself to a tree or post.

A passerby saw him hanging, and gave the alarm. Mr. Everatt and Mr. Ward, who had followed the fleeing man, came up, and the hanging man was cut down. The three men by respiratory methods, succeeded in restoring consciousness by the time Constable Phippen arrived.
