Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

Correspondents are requested to make their inquiries as brief as possible, and to write on one side of the paper only. It is impossible to give replies within a stated time, as all letters have to be answered in turn. No letter can be answered privately.

Who Was Greatest? Dear Miss Grey—I am 15 years old, and would like some of those flags offered for girls of 15. I, too, am coming to you for help. Here are a few questions:

- 1. Who was the greatest strategist, Napoleon Bonaparte or Lord Nelson? 2. Where could I obtain the following books, and at what price: "The Two Keys" or "Miss Margaret Houghton," "Mildred," "The Master-Key Mine," "The Plains of Silence," "Jean Val Jean," and "The Runaway Bride"? 3. Where could I obtain the music of "Harney McCoy" and the words and music of "Keep the Home Fires Burning"?

Ans.—I have not studied the matter sufficiently to say. Ask your school teacher.

Have you asked at the bookstores? No doubt you come to the city sometimes. None of the titles you give are familiar to me.

Country's Average Good. Dear Miss Grey—I have kept silent for a long time, but when I saw "Hepzibah's" letter the other night, suggesting a debate on "Why Are There More Emigrants From the City Than the Country," I could no longer sit still.
