Catholic Record.

us mihi nomen est Catholicus vero Cognomen."-(Christian is my Name, but Catholic my Surname)-St. Pacien, 4th Century

VOLUME XXXXI.

LONDON, CANADA, SATURDAY, JANUARY 25, 1919

The Catholic Record dies.

LONDON, SATURDAY, JANUARY 25, 1919

SANELY AND BRAVELY

We have often been impressed by the considerable proportion of people asking for advice, or for the comfort and support of sympathy, who are feeling that age is closing in gradually upon them and that life is becoming a restriction rather than an expansion. That youth should ask for advice or that those who are interested in youth should ask advice on its behalf is natural : and a warm response is assured, for beyond the good of the individual the good of the world is involved in the right guidance of youth; but to advise those who have passed their middle years may be regarded as somewhat intrusive. They have seen the world and presumably have registered its lessons. Yet we are convinced that friendly counsel and good cheer will be welcomed by many who are beginning to be conscious that the disadvantages of age are gathering more closely around them. If we are asked what we mean by age we reply that no time can be fixed to mark its coming. It is not measured by the number of our years but by our surrender to the various drawbacks which the years are certain to bring to us sooner or later. By letting demand. ourselves go we may grow old at any age ; by keeping young in spirit and acting witely in the exercise of our physical and mental resources we may postpone by tens of years that chill of age which paralyses man's being ; but if we are to keep freshness of heart and the alertness that enjoys life, we must bring ourselves to accept gradually, without useless repining, the natural accumulation of untoward consequences which accompanies length of years. That, unfortunately, is what numbers of people fail to do. They will not face the inevitable squarely. They rebel, "grouse," make themselves unhappy, become disagreeable, and so ally themselves with time against themselves. They, never think out once for all the question of growing old and adopt a settled theory of life that will lay the hobgoblins of Time. They are not adroit sting. enough to accommodate themselves to what must be, and then go on cheerfully holding every advantage

Yet the lesson of acquiescence in loss and readjustment to suit the altered conditions begin very early for most of us. It ought to be suggested by the first extraction of a tooth. That is a loss that admits of amelioration, but is without a cure. world seems wrong. As these possi-And it is the beginning of endless bilities both lie ahead of us it is a lessons to the same effect. On the physical side we can look backward or, if we are more fortunate, forward to innumerable occasions when resignation to unwelcome changes has been or will be demanded. The need for it comes with some loss of the graces of figure, some fading at which they have arrived, and in complexion, some falling away of they finish embittered by the loss facial contour, the arrival of gray hairs, the insidious creep of baldto have waged. ness, a recognised slacking in bodily These comments on age are not alertness, a weakening of the spontaneity with which our muscles once made co-operative combinations-the eye with the arms and feet in golf or football, the brain and eye with the hand and fingers in music and a financial reserve that will secure fifteen per cent. while the Ukrainians shorthand-nore serious, such as chronic mala- sequence of life an experience to and annexed by Lithuania and in the be welcomed, its disadvantages interest it passed with that prin-Our observation supports the view allowed for as they arrive, and its cipality to Poland. But the Ukrain-

that men and women who have made special enjoyments heartily enjoyed. up their minds that they will never For age, we must remember, has up their minds that they will never For age, we must remember, has be well again, but have to live out its own rewards for those who have they revolted and the bulk of them their days in some degree of suffer- filled their place in the world with regained their independence, the and open to happiness than those brings, or should bring, release from ing Eastern Galicia and Volhynia. ing, are usually far more contented fidelity, energy, and good sense. It who have greater hope, but who strain and stress, a time for the by Russia but, like the Poles cannot drag themselves from the quiet pursuit of one's most favored always hoped and strived for a day of dreary marshland of unavailing objects, a mellowed wisdom and deliverance and freedom. It is said that the feeling in the Ukraine today preparatory rest, and time to learn cheerful, the deat much less so - the great truth that "who the race

tion, whereas the deaf are inclined to encourage themselves with expectations of relief, and so postpone the time when they will settle down to making the hest they can of a life admittedly limited by an infirmity.

It is true that the deafness which is so complete that it almost shuts out speech on one side is a peculiarly harrassing condition. It brings a liability to misunderstandings and been the marvel of other suspicions. The deaf live in a region of half truths and guesses. They see so much they cannot fully under stand that they are sure to find themselves following clues which been put should have lead nowhere or to wrong conclusions; and we fear that the public generally fail to give them the sympathetic help which their limitations be any great objection. the population of which is preponder

Helpfulness for the blind is spon. taneous and universal, but sometimes the deaf are treated as if they of the Allies. were actuated by dulness instead of suffering from misfortune, and they are therefore the more liable to are therefore the more had to be driven become sensitive and to be driven whelmingly Ukrainian and the popuin on themselves. But these difficulties and dangers being very well known, it is particularly desirable that the deaf should be close students of a wise comportment; that they should, for instance, be frank has been for generations the intellect about their deficiency in hearing, cheerful and agreeable, and so draw out the better qualities of those with whom they are in contact. In short, by accepting thoughtfully the dis-ac Ruthenians or Little Russians, on a scheme of self government for advantage they cannot remove, they advantage they cannot remove, they may fit themselves more easily into their human surroundings than would otherwise be possible. Ills Government as the price of Polish Ireland, will reave for the most province. They have each other heartily. In 1867 the Austrian Government as the price of Polish Ireland, and counsel against impaborne with fortitude lose half their

to give up a piece from life's chess. It will be that we shall make our-board that they do not continue selves a nuisance to those about us, it is look forward with equanimity to a board that they do not continue mearly so well as they ought the contest with the pieces that are left. Yet the lesson of acquiescence in perament is developed, the spirit but the cases are not parallel. The said : grows less rebellious and its fires and the cleavage is over a difference physical encroachments have already shirk it. Our plea is for a frank been mentioned, and there are others acceptance of it as in the natural back as the ninth century. In the back as the ninth century it was conquered things considered, the Canadians that these exemplary Catholic Gan-

cheerful, the deaf much less so — the great truth that "who the race partly because the bind entertain of man doth love loves also Him As the population number some no false hopes, but accept the situa- above."

POLAND, GALICIA AND THE UKRAINE Everyone who loves liberty must rejoice with the Poles on their reentry, after so many years of bond-age, into the family of nations. The idealism and patriotism by which Poland has preserved her national life through more than a hundred years of suffering and oppression has fortunate peoples. Her well wishers cannot however do otherwise than regret that one of the first uses to which her new found freedom has been attempt to coerce others. Yet that appears to be what is happening. In so far as her conquests in Polish Prussia are concerned there cannot Territory atingly Polish should by all means be annexed to the Polish slate. That would seem to be the intention It is at all events in accordance with the principles of self determination. Galicis, however, is in a different position. The Eastern lation vehemantly objects to passing by force of arms and are already in possession of some of it, including the Ukrainian City of Lemberg, which ual and literary centre for the whole Ukraine. The total population of Galicia is about 8 200,000 of which

If we are not willing to accept with a good grace the necessarily Ukrainian language in the schools

ians never lost their intense feeling of nationality, and have not to this The Ukrainians were later conquered is unanimously in favor of independthirty-seven millions and the soil is extremely fertile the Ukraine should in that event constitute a powerful

The Ukraine has been sometimes spoken of as being infected with Bolshevism but for such a statement there appears to be no warrant. Immediately after the recognition by the treaty of Brest Litovsk of the independence of the Ukraine war was declared by the latter against Bolshevist Russia and hostilities have continued ever since. What has per-haps led to the confusion is the fact that there is in the Ukraine an acute agrarian question which the people are determined to settle. There are immense estates many of them thousands of acres in extent owned by foreigners, often Poles or Germans, and the people insist that these conditions shall be put an end to and the lands given to those who cultivate The demand will no doubt have to be eventually complied with. But this is very far from being Bolshevism .- The Ottawa Evening Journal.

SIR HORACE PLUNKETT

it.

COMING GOVERNMENT KNOWS ONLY THREE CLASSES OF IRISHMEN'

FOSTERS EXTREMISTS OF THE NORTH: COERCES EXTREMISTS OF THE SOUTH: AND IGNORES THE MODERATE MAN

London, Jan. 11.-Sir Horace Plun. Galicia is about 8 200,000 of which kett, who presided over the Irish the majority are Poles but about convention, which after long deliber Irish The two races however for the most Ireland, will leave for the United support in the Parliament at Vienna, tience, which, in his opinion, constihanded over the Government of tutes one of the gravest menaces in Galicia to the Poles and permitted view of the existing conditions.

"We cannot expect the world to be reconstructed in a few weeks after accumulating penalties of age, the and elsewhere and to pass other the ending of the war," Sir Horace that remains. They are so deeply accumulating penalties of age, the measures which the Ukrainians con- said to The Associated Press corres-out to the heart when they have quickly, the complicated Irish prob-lem, I fear, may lead to more serious

"The Government divides the grows less rebellious and its fires burn themselves out, a mellower contentment supervenes, though in occasional cases cantankerousness is accentuated and everything in the contentment Givides the of opinion between them as to how the country should be governed. Galicia in the sense that there is an Irishman. Galicia is a province with a tand the dowerne many should be governed. The Government divides the population into three sections— the extremists of the north, who are fostered; the extremists of the south, who are coerced, and the ignored."

made the best corps record of any troops who fought in this way. erals will do something now to make their influence felt by the unbelieving French Government leaders.

of these troops no inconsiderable ortion were citizens of the United States. For this reason, and perhaps -Catholic Herald. for others, the Canadian soldier ha THE PUPPET SHOW conceived a deep and sincere feeling of brotherhood for America. Froi the magnificent commander of the corps, General Sir Arthur Currie, ENGLISH PAPERS ASSAIL NEW LLOYD GEORGE CABINET down to the last private this respect and affection is shared by the Cana Special Cable to The New York Times dian forces. They all what afterward actually London, Jan. 11.—Lloyd George's new Ministry is the subject of strong predicted what afterward actually happened in the rapid development of the criticism in this morning's editorials. green American into an efficient Nowhere is complete satisfaction exoldier. The like thing had already pressed.

"A reshuffle when the country was looking for a reform, a careful balhappened to them in their experience of over four years, and they knew that the American was made of the ance of old party interests instead of a bold advance with like-minded men same stuff. If the warhad lasted another year from every party, so many palpable misfits and such a pervading air of staleness—it is impossible that there or two the American Army would have contained many corps precisely like the Canadian. The Americans and Canadians had the same qualican be any real permanence in a Government composed on lines like these. The Prime Minister, we susties ; that is to say, they had all the pect, fully recognizes that fact. "His notion is to carry on for the courage that any other soldiers had, plus, that resourcefulness and abili-ty to take care of themselves peculiar to the North American weed I recalled that when I visited Canadian Corps Headquarters, about his reconstruction program. If so, June 1-the darkest hour in the war he has merely postponed one set of -I found there a sentiment that difficulties while creating another. filled me with awe. The Canadians The final test will come when the were prepared for extinction. Not one of them expected anything ex-cept to sell his life as dearly as pos sible. The boche was thundering toward Paris, and apparently at that moment he could not be stopped. But every Canadian, officer and man, was ready to give himself to the end that, if and when Paris was reached, the Germans should be in such a state of exhaustion as to make their victory empty because they would not have strength enough to stand against the oncoming tide of fresh Ameri-cans. The Americans got in sooner than was expected and through their help at the Marne and else-where the Canadians were enabled to form the spearhead of a victorious advance instead of offering themselves up as a sacrifice. Their losses were heavy as it was, but the corps, with its replacements is still a corps. I say again that these brothers in arms from North America are the the best interpreters of the real Britain to America and the real America to Britain. "An appointment." An appointment," it says, "which makes us tremble for the future." It declares that to America and the real America to Britain.

HE IS LIKE A MONK

THE CATHOLIC GENERAL GOURAUD

Attention has been repeatedly called to the fact that the great French Generals are mostly staunch Catholics. In the current issue of "Studies" to sit down and deliberately assign Charles Baussan gives an interest. ing account of General Gouraud, a noted and fearless Catholic, whose to the posts concerned the public his nominations would probably name is now of world-wide fame for his great exploits in the late war. coincide very closely with those now published.' He is only fifty-one. When he was sent to the Soudan in 1894 he car ried with him a copy of the "Imita by friends of the Government) a shows some restraint. It says : tion of Christ" which his sister had changes in any event after the Peace priest) When the doctors decided that his right arm must be amputa Jonference when the public will have become familiar with fit and proper candidates for office who are

CATHOLIC NOTES

Catholic Tyrol is now a republic-It is governed by a National Assem-bly of Parliament of 110 members. Its capital is Innsbrueck, the seat of the great University.

The great Cathedral of Metz is un damaged. It is a Gothic structure, of the Rheims school of architecture, begun late in the thirteenth century. Its fine stained glass is of that century. Its tower is 387 feet high. The Rev. Wilfrid Moor, formerly an

Anglican minister, who was recently ordained in Rome has taken the Doctorate of Philosophy in the In-ternational College of the Dominican

Paris, Dec. 14.-A votive chapel of imposing dimensions is to be built on the battlefield of the Marne, on the spot where the German troops received their decisive defeat in 1914. The chapel will be in the fashion of a national memorial, and a commitee of prominent French Catholics has been formed to carry through the project.

The men of the Archdiccese of Boston, under the inspiring leaderperiod of the Peace Conference with ship of His Eminence, Cardinal mething like his old administra-O'Connell, have for many years con sidered it a point of honor to celebrate the Feast of the Holy Name of Jesus tion and then to see what comes of in every public manner that testifies to their reverence for the Name of The final test will come when the Prime Minister unfolds his detailed the Saviour and their detestation of blasphemy and profanity. Fully one hundred thousand men participated. domestic policy. We look forward to it now, we confess, with far greater Rev. Edward P. Tivnan, S. J.

pro fessor of chemistry and regent of the School of Medicine, Fordham University, has been appointed president of the university to succeed the Rev. Jos-eph A. Mulry, S. J, who has been obliged to retire because of ill health Father Tivnan is one of the youngis particularly opposed to the appoint-ment of Chamberlain as Chancellor of the Exchequer, Walter Long as est university presidents in the coun being only thirty-seven years try, old.

First Lord of the Admiralty, and In a statement concerning Col Winston Churchill as head of the joint War Office and Air Ministry. Roosevelt's death, Cardinal Gibbons said on Monday : "It was a terrible shock to me to learn of the death of The Daily Express Says : "In the main it is the old troupe former President Roosevelt. I had performing in slightly different roles. been intimately acquainted with It the Prime Minister had schemes him from the time he was elevated party machines have been too much for him." to the high office of President of the United States, and we were very dear and good friends. It is a terrible The Morning Post (ultra Tory) is loss to me and to the whole counseverely critical of Churchill's appointment. "An appointment," try."

Washington, Jan. 7.—The project to erect an arch of triumph in Washington to the men, who fought in France, has been indoised by the Churchill " is even more unsuited to direct the affairs of the army than Governors of a large number of the States, who have written to Robert The Daily News condemns the new list from top to bottom. It says : H. Harper, chairman of the Arch of "The easiest explanation of this Triumph Committee. The idea is to extraordinary list of new Ministers would have been that it was a malsecure an appropriation from Congress large enough to make the arch a fitting monument to the deeds, ignant joke played by an enemy who realized tha difficulties which beset which America's Army performed in the Prime Minister. If a man were the War.

> London, Eng., Dec. 19, 1918.-King Albert of Belgium, accompan-ied by his Prime Minister, visited Cardinal Mercier in his Cathedral city of Malines on Sunday last to in-vest His Eminence with the Grand Cordon of the Order of Leopold. The King thanked the great prelate for his devoted patriotism during the war, and after an hour's intimate conversation His Majesty inspected the damage to the Metropolitan Palwhich suffered considerably ace, from bombardment.

Msgr. Sigourney W. Fay, a distin guished former Episcopalian clergy. man, who on June 8, 1908 was re-ceived into the Catholic Church at Deal, N. J., died of pneumonia in New

2102

"The foot less prompt to meet the morning dew, The heart less bounding at emotion

new, And hope, once crushed, less quick a redoubled keenness.

to spring again."

As such changes as these are bound to find us out personally, it is well It adds weight to every cross. As that we should be prepared to accept for friendships, they thin out with favor. that we should be prepared to accept for friendships, they thin but with in the the propared to accept for friendships, they thin but with in the the propared to accept to for friendships, they thin but with in the the propared to accept to the propared to the propared to accept to the propared to accept to the propared to accept to the propared to as true, wise, and necessary as that needed, and ought to be sustained of growth. Only so can we hope to and renewed and reinforced with old Kingdom of Poland. This would preserve throughout life a reason sedulous care, for they are the best include not only Lithuania but the ably balanced happiness and avoid of all secular fortifications of the spirit when the stress of active life disillusionment.

Irishman. Galicia is a province with | ignored. arbitrary boundaries, the western portion of which, adjoining Poland, is wise forethought to grapple firmly inhabited almost exclusively by Poles with signs of age as they arrive and inaver to allow them to disturb or distress us. Some people fight a kind of despairing battle through a long series of years in hatred of the single province, is that any valid ex-the relations of the United States ingle province, is that any valid ex-the relations of the United States and the eastern portion of which, ad-timest exclusively by Ukrainians. The province thereforce lends itself read-ingle province, is that any valid ex-the relations of the United States and the British Empire, and with all that has been said and all the relations of the United States and the British Empire, and with all that has been said and all the misrepresentations which have the misrepresentations of forms a with signs of age as they arrive and and the eastern portion of which, adsingle province, is that any valid ex-cuse for handing over to Poland against the will of its inhabitants a territory which is overwhelmingly of a fight which they ought not Ukrainian? The Poles are also making claim to the Russian Province of Cholm, as-signed by the Brest-Litovsk treaty to offered to the sged alone. They the Ukraine, a proceeding which the concern youth and manly prime Poles characterised at the time as a as well. Particularly is that so in two respects—the provisions of for a second backward that will secure a modest independence of spirit and form sixty per cent. Again the Poles the winning and keeping of friend. ships that will endure to the end If this were only a temporary If this were only a temporary measure for the protection of the of life. Without these two safecountry against the Bolsheviki there could be little objection to it; but guards the disadvantages of age have that it will be confined to this is by Dependence is a fate that should no means clear. The truth seems to be that the Poles are not concerned be dreaded from our earliest years. with ethnological considerations unless when they tell in their own What they aim at, perhaps territory which once belonged to the whole of the Ukraine as well. But both the Lithuanians and the isillusionment. spirit when the stress of active life Ukrainians are bitterly opposed to being again subjected to the Polish

He maintains that the man who is identified with neither of the extremes has no means of making his opinion felt.

gone out, the Irish question forms a of Jeanne d'Arc which the great dangerous shoal in the way of those friendly relations.

This is no time to jump at conclusions. I hope to explain to the all ordinary acts of piety are Irishmen in America the phases of the situation which have been so to him. He is faithful to the devothe situation which have tion of the First Friday, he did not rapidly developing in the last few weeks, some of which doubtless are miss it even on the day of his operation obscure to them, and to emphasize convalescent were to the Commu to them what I believe—the neces-sity for the calm and careful conion rail. . . . General Gouraud does not conceal his faith. At Paris sideration of each problem as it arises.

THE CANADIANS AS INTERPRETERS

Chas, H. Grasty in N. Y. Times

in the effort for this good understanding, in which a large majority of thinking people on both sides of came to him every day. "He is like a monk," say some as they see him the Atlantic share, there is an interpassing along in Paris. His characpreter respecting the two points of view who could be brought in with ter is well summed up thus: "He has the generosity, the loyalty, the vast advantage. The Canadians are loyal Britishers and near Americans. sincerity, the deep faith of a true knight. He is a fervent Catholic in They are citizens of Britain with public as in private life"-and be-loved of all, especially his own solthe American temperament. This loved of war has somehow brought the Can-diers.

adians and ourselves closer together than ever before. No American soldier has come in contact with the out a French General here and a most certainly bring? Let us not defence against time remain. shirk the onlook. It is better to know beforehand than to be cast down by a surprise. Some of the when men and women fear age and women fear age and women fear age and the bulk of the optember 8th (Feast of the Nativity Over the names of the new Minisof Our Lady) in order to receive ters published in The Daily News is the heading, "The Puppet Show." chapel. In the hospital he used to NOTES regite the "Angelus" and make the

Jun. 1915.

Sir Robert Stevenson Horne, Minmorning meditation with the nuns. ister of Labor in the new Cabinet, was one of the discoveries of Sir Eric 'He took the greatest delight," we are told, "in listening to their hymns and had not forgotten them. In his Geddes, First Lord of the Admiralty. during the war. Sir Robert was largely responsible for the transporsick room he had an altar in honor tation system behind the British lines in Northern France. He never sat officials of State-the President, the Prime Minister and others-could in Parliament before, but was re not fail to notice on the occasion of turned in the recent general elec their visits. The Rosary, novenas. tions. familia belief in his good intentions than in his capacity to carry them out." The Daily Mail says the new Ministerial list makes it too clear that Lloyd George has succumbed to old influences which were too strong for him, and The Mail, like the Times,

any other Department of State.

en most manifestly unfit for them

The Chronicle (recently purchased

We all know that there will be

ent) alone

the place of General Smuts in the War Cabinet after the latter's return aisles. The height of square yards. to South Africa. Sir S. H. Sinha, Under Secretary his first steps as a For India, who is not a member of are proud of such a masterpiece; Parliament, will probably be elevated and prince and peasants have all conto the peerage so that he may sit in tributed their share to make it what it in the Church of Notre Dame des the House of Lords.

one of us needs a helping hand now 1880. The architect's and then, but if a man lies down it is known for centuries. a waste of time to try to carry him.of Arc with the hospital flowers that Roosevelt.

secret that no merchant prince was

York last week. He was forty-three years old. After he became a convert, Msgr. Fay attended the Catholic University in Washington. He was ordained to the priestbood on June 21, 1910, at the Baltimore Cath edral by Cardinal Gibbons, who later entrusted him with special mission ary work. Some months ago he went abroad at the invitation of the Red Cross. He was attached to the Archdiocese of Baltimore.

The Cathedral of Cologne is one of the great architectural wonders of Sir Eric Geddes is expected to take the world. The whole edifice covers an area of 7,570 feet wide with three It has a nave 45 feet long, five aisles, and a transept 282 feet, the Germans is-namely, the greatest Gothic struc-ture in Germany. Took over 600 years from the laying of the corner-If a man stumbles it is a good stone to the day when it was formally thing to help him to his feet. Every opened for public services October 16, 1880. The architect's name was un-would you like to know the secret sent this message on the justice of Ireland's demand for liberty to Cardarac. of happines—a secret that no navi. inal Logue, Archbisboot Armaghand "He gator ever brought from the ses; a Primate of all Ireland : "It is inconceivable that Ireland's right to Selfever rich enough to purchase? I Determination and Nationhood be will tell you. The secret of happiness not recognized by the free nations of is the appreciation of the beautiful in Nature; the appreciation of God's Your country, the most faithful and loved of all, especially his own sol-diers. In one way, it is a lamentable thing that we should have to single out a French General here and a General there, and say "he is a noble adherence to faith and nationality the most glorious record in history.'

Cardinal Mercier of Belgium has

Victoires near the altar on the Gospel side, plainly visible to the kneeling faithful, is this exvoto in white marble—A Notre Dame des Victoires en reconnaisance du 30 General Gouraud." He decorated the altar of Blessed Joan

TWO

A DAUGHTER OF THE SIERRA

BY CHRISTIAN REID

Co., St. Louis, Mo.

CHAPTER XIII-CONTINUED

INTO THE SIERRA 'Oh, no." he said, " that won't do know Lloyd. He isn't atraid of anything." He certainly isn't afraid of break-inghis contract," Armistead returned. "I found him, dead broke, in the streets of San Francico, and brought him down here with me on the under standing that he was to give me the aid of his knowledge of the country, the people and the language when ever I needed it. Yet now, when I need it most, he goes off and leaves pitality. me in the lurch—for what reason I can't pretend to say. Perhaps he wants to marry the Santa Cruz girl." That won't do either. Lloyd isn't a marrying man.

'I don't care what kind of a man is," Armistead said irritably, he is." further than that he is not the kind of a man that suits me, or who can be relied on to keep his word. So I want somebody-and want him at once-who has the qualifications I require. I believe that you have hem, so I offer you a rare opportun. Will you take it?

"I am not sure of possessing the qualifications you are good enough, to take for granted," Thornton an-swered. "You had better tell me what you want was to do."

what you want me to do." "The first business I shall want you to undertake will be to assist me in getting together a number of men take possession of the Santa Cruz Mine.

"By force ?"

'By the same kind of force yo would employ in ejecting a tenant from a house he refuses to leave. Trafford's title to the mine is good; but the people who are in possession of it now will neither resign posses ion nor accent any terms of compromise, so there is nothing to do but to eject them. I hope to accomplish this without a conflict, if I can succeed in surprising the mine. But I must have a force of men I can rely on, and some one who understands managing Mexicans. You, I think, are the man for the purpose; and therefore I offer you inducements which are very well worth your while to consider.

They are certainly very considerable inducements," Thorton replied, rising to his feet; "and I am much flattered by your opinion of my qual-ifications. But I'm obliged to de-cline your offer. I'll stick to the Caridad, thank you."

Armistead, rising also, regarded him frowningly. "What is the meaning of this ?" he keep sober.' asked. "I never thought that you were distinguished for indifference to your own interest." "Neither am I," Thornton an-

"I'm as keen for myown inswered. terest as most men. But there are some things a man can touch and some he can't. I mean no reflection on you, but I'll be hanged if I touch this business of the Santa Cruz. Good-morning. They'll be looking for me at the office." As he walked rapidly up the road, spoke. "Come to my room. can settle matters there."

Armistead gazed after him with a slightly sardonic expression.

Some things a man can touch and some he cah't !" he repeated. 'It's very plain, my good fellow, where scruples have been developed. Rivers has got in her work pretty well. What a fool a man is to believe that a woman thinks any the better of him for accepting her the better of him for accepting her opinions! Take a high tone, let her understand that she doeen't know what she is talking about, and go Las Joyas, and, with a constrast comopinions! Take a high tone, let her your own way—that's the only course to adopt with a woman." He turned

"Oh !" Armistead adjusted his eyeglasses and scrutinized the good look-ing, dissipation ravaged face before him. Of course he remembered the visit to the Silver Queen—a mine in Arizonia which had been offered to Trafford,—and the manner in which Training, and the manner in which he had been entertained by the staff of the mine, of whom Randolph was one. Armistead had thought that he knew something of the way in which managers of mines frequently spend the money of toiling capita-list-owners afar, but even his eyes had been opened at the Silver Queen. Such extravagance of expenditure and unchecked dissipation on the and uncessed discription of the part of all concerned he had never seen elsewhere. The staff had left nothing undone to give him "a good time," and the memory of it was not likely to be forgotten. He thought it the patio on a level. Unless sur-prised, the Santa Cruz could never be taken by force, if those who held it were minded to resist. And that they would be minded he could not probable that he should now have to repay a little of that exuberant hos doubt, knowing as he did the indomitable temper of one at least of the women who were its possessors. It was impossible not to smile at the thought that Trafford, whose pro-"I beg your pardon, Mr. Randolph!

he said politely but not more warmly. "Of course I remember you now: grees had been so triumphant for many years, and whose road to forbut you have-altered a good deal since I saw you then." tune had been marked by the ruin of "A little, no doubt," said Randolph, whoever opposed him, might now at last have a taste of defeat at the "Those were rare old times dryly. at the Silver Queen, but the bottom hands of his own daughter. fell out of that when you reported against the mine (rather shabby of stranger to ride unchallenged into you, by the by, considering all the their patio !" he thought impatiently, champagne we poured out to give you as he entered, and view of it): and since then I've a rosy scene of a kind very familiar to him found it rather hard to find or keep a good position."

-men bringing ore out of the mine ; groups of boys seated on the ground Armistead did not think this rerapidly breaking and sorting it into heaps, from which numbers of mules were being loaded, to carry all, save markable, but forbore to say so. "You have been long in Mexico? he asked.

work, if you have any to give."

Then he said slowly

CHAPTER XV.

AT THE SANTA CRUZ

through.

what was known as the export ore, down to the arrastras at the mouth "I've been at one or two mines but-didn't stay. Yes"-as he caught of the canon, for reduction by the ancient process of Mexico. Armstead's significant glance,course you can see what the trouble It was a busy and animated scene My habits are bad."

"That's a pity," said Armstead. 'No man with bad habits can keep and so absorbed was each person in his particular occupation that it was several minutes before any one apemployment very long, you know." "If I had ever doubted the fact, my proached the newcomer, who, draw-ing up his horse, quietly waited. Presently a young man, detaching experience lately would have con-vinced me of it, so I've sworn off-no himself from a group of men and mules, came forward. It was not alnot in the usual way. I believe I've a little will-power left; and it's life mules, came forward. together a pleasant surprise that he proved to be Arturo Vallejo, who on or death with me now to exert it. I have got as far down as a man can his nart was evidently astonished as go and not be a beggar. I haven' unpleasantly as possible by the sight come to that yet, though I've seen ever since I sat down here that it's what you are afraid of. Don't be of Lloyd. enos dias senor !" he said cold.

ly and with evident suspicion. "You have business here—in the Santa afraid. I've no intention of asking you for money ; but I would like some Cruz ? Else I should not be here, senor,' A singular expression came over Armistead's face. He did not reply Lloyd answered. "I wish to see your tather, Don Mariano Vallejo."

immediately, but gazed at the other "My father is just now in the mine, senor. But I am in charge of for a moment with eyes so keen an cold that they seemed searching him the patio. You can tell me your "It's a little odd. I am just now I would prefer to speak to Don in need of a man to do some work for me, and I have not known where to Mariano," said Lloyd. "With your permission, I will wait for him." find him. You might do-if I could The words were civil enough, but have any assurance that you would it was, perhaps, the manner of the other which exasperated Arturo. At "I can give you no other assurance all events, his reply was distinctly than my promise," Randolph answered. rude : But, as I've told you, it's a life and "It can not be permitted, senor, death fight with me now; and it I that you shall stay here. We do not allow strangers—who may be enemfail, the remedy's in your own hands. You can discharge me." "I should certainly do that with ies or spies-in our patio.'

A very good rule," returned out a moment's hesitation," said Armistead, coldly. "Meanwhile I'll give you a trail." He rose as he Lloyd, coolly ; " but it would be better if you took more precautions to enforce it. You should certainly not We permit a stranger to ride, as I have done, unchallenged into your patio."

The young man flushed angrily. The admonition, so plainly justified, would not have been agreeable com ing from any one. Coming from The Santa Cruz Mine, over which this source, it was intolerable such conflicting interests were strug-gling, and around which old wrongs,

"I stand in no need of advice from you," he said haughtily. "We are able to take care of ourselves. You exasperations and bitterness were waking to new life, lay deep in one would not have entered if the watchof those mountain fastnesses where man had not been off guard just Nature seems to delight in hiding he then. It is however, impossible that you can be allowed to remain."

'In that case," said Lloyd, with the same exasperating coolaess, "I will trouble you to say to Don Marimon in the Sierra, was as stern and he mine that I will see him at Las Joyas moment hoy ... that they never would. For, walked his hores along the narrow way, with the roar of the torrent be-low filing his ears, the stern heights encompassing him and the majestic cross dominating the wild grandeur of the scene, he saw how admirably situated the mine, com-situated the majer of the head of the manding as it did the head of the mand head as the portent manding as it did the head of the m

"My business certainly relates to the mine; but it was because I was unwilling to disturb your mother and yourself that, instead of going to Las Joyas, I came here to see Don Mariano." "Whatever concerns the mine concerns my mother and myself first of all, senor," she replied; " and you need not have hesitated to disturb us. What is your business? Do you, perhaps, bring some message from the man who is trying to take the mine from us?" "No, senorita. I have no connec tion with Mr. Armistead in the mat ter of the Santa Cruz, and bring no "But they should not allow a the of the Santa Orthe, and Orthe had message from him. I shall be glad to tell you what I have come to say to Don Mariano. But"—he glanced at the people around them—" can we not find a more quiet place in looked over a which to talk ?" At this moment Arturo approached them "I have told the senor that he can wait for my father in the office,' he said stifly to Victoria.

It is not necessary that he should wait : he can speak to me." she rejoined, with an air of authority which somewhat amused Lloyd Give your horse to José." she said to the latter, indicating the boy who had taken her mule; "and we will find a place to talk." She turned as she spoke, toward the office as he expected, but in the opposite direction,-toward dear. the outer edge of the patio, which. being enlarged by the vast accumu-lation of waste rock from the mine, sharply overhung the mountain side. Here, on a pile of timbers awaiting use, she sat down. There was no thought of the surroundings in her mind, but Lloyd could not but be struck by them : the great heights towering into the burning blue of the jewel like sky, the thunder of leaping waters, the strong sunlight smiting the rocks, and pines and wealth of verdure in the wild gorge below. It all made a frame of stupendous grandeur and picturesqueness for the busy scene around the mouth of the mine and for the figure of the girl, whose face looked up at him out of the blue folds of her rebozo with steady dark eyes.

you not sit down, senor?" . "This is a good place to she said. speak, for no one can overhear you here.

Thanks, senorita !" he answered. And as he seated himself beside her on the timbers, he drew from his pocket the pale gray note with its faint violet iragrance, which seemed to bring Isabel Rivers' personality before him. "As I have said, I did not expect to have the pleasure of meeting you," he went on; "but, nevertheless, on the chance of doing so, I thought it best to bring this.'

With a wondering expression she took the note; and the wonder had evidently deepened when, after read-ing it, she looked at him again.

TO BE CONTINUED

remember her."

This," she said, "is from the orita Americana-the daughter of the Gerente of the Caridad, with om I travelled up the quebrada?" 'The same," Lloyd answered "Miss Rivers remembers you so well that she hoped you would also said. And what she swore was that neither the man who claimed it nor any one whom he sent should ever possess the Santa Cruz. At this moment Lloyd, too, could have sworn that they never would. For, as he walked his horse along the narrow way, with the roar of the torrent be-Phone Main 6249. After Hours: Hillcrest BELS Society of St. Vincent de Paul Special Attention Given to Employment 25 Shuter St, and then the roof. John had cut a narrow passage way upward from the porch so that he and his wife could go up to the surface by steep, hard-packed snow steps. People on snowshoes walked over one another's houses and in some places over the snow-buried electric-light wire. In the hemlet the lectric light wires. In the hamlet the long, covered snow shed that had been built years before for the children to built years before for the children to use in going back and forth between home and echool was in constant use. Leading off from it at intervals were smaller sheds that connected the this winter " Molly muttered. "Heap snow! Big, big snow—more than for long time. Me? I know various houses with that main artery Injuns know 'bout big snow. Old Eagle slide-mebbe kilt." of passage. Thus the women could visit one another without exposing Alice Gordon laughed. " Mercy !" themselves to the cold and the snow she'said. "Are you a witch, Molly ? How do you know there'll be big sifted into the sheds through th sifted into the sheds through the snow this winter ?" "Injun buck kill bear last weekopenings that had been left for light and in time you had to bend almost much fat, heap fat. Injuns know. Can't fool old Molly." Mumbling to herself, she shuffled life in the darkened, buried house awkwardly down the path. When John Gordon came home from work that night, his young wife would have been much less endur able. No shed connected John Gor ful mof Huckleberry Molly's dole ful prediction. "Well," he said, "I guess if any one don's house with the main artery, but there was a hard packed path weil, he said, iguess it any one knows, it's an Indian. People up here say they never fail. Seven years ago was the last big snow-more than twenty feet deep on the twenty homes in the place had its twenty homes in the place had its level. own Christmas tree, and there were clear over the roof of this house !" "I should say so !" John Gordon replied smiling. "This house is only rotary snowplough and the one store replied smiling. "This house is only fifteen feet high. We're likely to get snowed under if we stay here, but fear of famine as yet, but no one there's no danger of Old Eagle's sliding. There've been plenty of knew at what moment a slide more disastrous than the others might cut slides round here-the railway knows off the supplies from outside all about them -- but Old Eagle has At last, a week or two after Christ the snow keeps sloughing off and doesn't stay on long enough to form fell without ceasing. A warm chinan avalanche. So don't you worry, ook wind had blown up from the south and the snow began to loosen

Alice laughed incredulously. "How happy gatherings, good dinners and Why, twenty feet would be r the roof of this house !" ens had been brought in on the absurd !

After supper they took the baby on the mountain sides. The men in out on the cool porch, and sat in the dusk swinging slowly in the hamthe village became anxious. More than one would have given much mock. The baby in his white nightcould he have sent his wife and chil gown was asleep on Alice's arm. Their young hearts were full of condren out of the place, but no trains had been running for three weeks tent as they watched the stars come Several families had moved to the out one by one in the small patch of schoolhouse to sleep; the seats had sky over the high peaks round them. been taken up and school dismissed until conditions should become At first when the young railway man had brought her to this wild, better. deep nook in the mountains, Alice had been filled with something Anxious eyes were lifted to Old Eagle, the tallest and steepest of all the mountain peaks. But many sloughs and minor slides that ocalmost like fear. From the pleasant. level stretches of southern California, to which she had always been accustomed, to these deep, dark canons and towering crags of the High Cascades had been for her a marvelous and not altogether pleasing change ; but gradually she had become used but gradually she had become used steps of the Gordon's house. The old squaw to the place, and had grown to love Alice opened the door, the old squaw the great gray rocks and the hardy stood looking at her strangely. "Yon come!" she said. "Wrap green ferns that grew round them, green ferns that grew round them, the swift cascades, from which the baby. I carry. You get what you mountains got their name, and the wild, unconquered flerceness of it all. August with its hot, dreamy days melted into September and the Alice stared at her. She refused smoky, hazy days began. Far off to be alarmed; she even felt a little there were mountain fires. Some indignant with the old squaw.

Then October came and with it the whether there is any danger. And flaming colors of changing leaves, baby is sick, too-he had a touch of Old Eagle was afire with red and croup night before last. I shouldn't yellow. Early in October, Alice rose one

Old Eagle the wonderful colors were suddenly blotted out by an expanse always know. You come. Old Eagle

curred renewed the feeling of confidence. Old Eagle could not slide. On the sesond day of the rain Huckleberry Molly clambered awkwardly down the steep, narrow snow Some indignant with the old squaw. yellow "Why, Molly," she said, "I should days the sun shone only as a yellow ball and at night the moon was red. say not! I guess my husband knows think of taking him out in this rain. There isn't a particle of danger morning and, looking from her window, could not repress a cry of wonder and delight. Halfway up Old Eagle the wonderful colors were window, could not repress a cry of Unckleberry Molly listened patient. Jy. Then she repeated stolidly.

audenly blotted out by an expanse of glistening white. It was the first snow that Alice had ever seen, and for long periods that day she stood at the door and locked up at the mountain peaks. John enjoyed her childish delight in the spectacle. "It was the first snow that Alice had day she stood at the door and locked up at the mountain peaks. John spectacle. "It was the first snow that Alice had are seen, and for long periods that day she stood at the door and locked up at the mountain peaks. John spectacle. "It was the first snow that Alice had are seen, and for long periods that are seen, and for long periods that are seen, and for long periods that up at the mountain peaks. John spectacle. "It was the seen we have a set a set are seen we have a set a set are set are set are seen. "It was the first snow that Alice had are seen and set are s

It's come early," he said, with a say so laugh. "Here it is only the 7th of October and the first snow! I guess Huckleberry Molly hesitated a moment, and then pushed her way Huckleberry Molly knew what she into the house. "Where baby?" she was talking about, all right. It's asked. "Go get blanket. I wrap A Sequel to "Lucky Bob" was talking about, all right. It's asked. Cloth, with Frontispiece likely to be a tough winter. The him up-carry him. You come there'll be trouble a-plenty on the with vexation. "Molly," she said, $1.00 Postpaid In this new story the vividly inter-esting young hero comes into his own at last, after a year of adven-ture in a large city. railway, just as there was seven "you go away! I promise you that years ago when not a wheel except if I hear any noise that sounds like a the rotary snowplough turned for slide I'll take baby and go. I'll run down through the snowshed." "You no hear slide—all this snow Alice looked at him with shining

Cable Address : "Foy Telephones (Main 794 Main 798 Offices : Continental Life Building CORNER BAY AND RICHMOND STREETS TORONTO Box 2093 Phone M 4175 H. L. O'ROURKE, B.A. (Also of Ontario Bar) BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY P. O. Box 2098 Money to Loan Suite 5, Board of Trade Building 231 Eighth Avenue Wess CALGARY, ALBERT DAY, FERGUSON & CO. James E. Day John M. Ferguson Joseph P. Walsh TORONTO TORONTO, CANADA Reilly, Lunney & Lannan BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIME CALGARY, ALBERTA DENTISTS

JANUARY 25, 1919

TORONTO

Bureau of Information

PROFESSIONAL CARDS

WATT & BLACKWELL

Members Ontario Association ARCHITECTS

Sixth Floor, Bank of Toronto Chambe

LONDON, ONT.

M. P. MCDONAGH

BARRISTER. SOLICITOR, NOTARY. ITO.

U. A. BUCHNER

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTABY

SPECIALTIES :

Estates Collections Money Loaned 428 TALBOT ST. LONDON, CANADA

FOY, KNOX & MONAHAN

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, Sta

Hon.J.J.Foy, K.C., A. E. Knox, T. Louis Monabar E. L. Middleton George Keorge

LONDON, ON

Office Hours 9 to 4

425 RICHMOND ST.

DR. BRUCE E. EAID Room 5, Dominion Bank Chambers Cor. Richmond and Dundas Sts. Phone 5831

St. Jerome's College Founded 1864 KITCHENER, ONT Excellent Business College Department cellent High School or Academic Department cellent College and Philosophical Department

REV. A. L. ZINGER, C. R., PH. D., PRISIDER

Funeral Directors

John Ferguson & Soma 180 KING ST. The Leading Undertakers & Embala Open Night and Day Telephone - House 373 Factory 548

E.C. Killingsworth FUNERAL DIRECTOR Open Day and Night 583 Richmond St. Phone 3978

You certainly will enjoy staying at the

King Edward Hotel

next time you go to TORONTO

Father Finn's Latest Book His Luckiest

Year

By Christian Reid

A Daughter of the Sierra

367 Pages 60c. Postpaid

"The story of the Santa Crum Mine is admirably told, and the denouement is just what one would wish."-Ave Maria, Notre Dame.

The Catholic Record

LONDON CANADA

THE CATHOLIC RECORD

and went on toward the town. "Evidently there's no help to be had from anybody connected with the Caridad," his thoughts continued ; 'so where the deuce am I to turn for the assistance I need ?"

It was a difficult question to answer, and he was considering it as he walked down the long, narrow street of the town, past the open doors of the one-storied dwellings and shops, until he reached the flowery plaza. Here he sat down on flowery plaza. Here he sat down on a bench; and, still absorded in the consideration of his problem, did not observe any of the longears. not observe any of the loungers-few at this hour of the day-who occupied the other banches in sight.

ed the way, and where, high in the side of this height, lay the Santa But one person who lounged on a seat not far off observed him closely. This was a man, evidently not a Mexican and probably an American, of the gorge, into which the stream, Cruz Mine. but about whom there hung the in-definable and almost ineradicable air of a gentleman. Presently he rose, walked deliberately over to the banch where Armistead was seated, and sat down beside him.

by an enormous dump of waste rock. How do you do, Mr. Armistead ?" And here, crowning a mass of bouldhe said in a refined and educated ers, stood a tall cross, the first object to meet the gaze of any one advanc-"I didn't know you were in Mexico. ing up the canon.

Armistead started, turned around. "In hoc signo vinces !" Lloyd murmured to himself, as he rounded and with a single glance took in the condition and probable needs of the man who addressed him. Figuraa turn of the gorge and caught sight of the great symbol, so high uplifted man who addressed him. Figura-tively, he buttoned his pockets, as and so impressively relieved against he said coldly : the mountain side. He felt himself

"I don't remember having met suddenly thrilled, not only by its you

marvellous picturequeness, tower-ing at the head of this mountain de-file, and by the poetry of the faith which placed it there, but also by a conviction that it stood as an omen "Probably not," the other answered with a faint, bitter smile. 'limes have changed with me since "Times have changed with me since we met last. But you'll probably re-member me when I tell you that my connected with the Silver Queen Mine when you visited it three years memory. "I swear by the holy cross that is and over the mine to be also dismounted and advanced quickly toward her. "Dona Victoria," he said, "I am happy to meet you!" She started as she turned toward him, extreme surprise in her face wild of aspect as the plain was gentle and pastoral. A narrow road or trail —it was no more than the last, worn by the passing feet of innumer able mules and  $m \in n$ , wound along the side of the canon, with precipitous heights rising above ; while below there was a sheer drop of hundreds of feet to dark, green depths, into which no ray of sunlight ever pierced, and where an unseen stream filled the chasm with the tumult of pouring waters. Wild enough at its outset

a natural cul de sac, where a great mountain, like a couchant lion, clos

leaping in a white cataract down

an arroyo, plunged with a thunder ous roar, was the arched entrance of the main tunnel into the mine; and before this the patio for the sorting of ores, buttressed on its 'outer side

This was something Arturo had not anticipated. "At Las Joyas!" he repeated violently. "It is impossible—you can not venture to intrude there !"

Lloyd smiled. 'You may be in charge of the patio of the Santa Cruz, Don Arturo,' he said, 'but I hardly im agine that you are in charge of Las Joyas. Kindly give my message to your father." He was about to turn his horse, when the young Mexican laid a quick hand on the rein. "I may not be in charge of Las you can wait in the office yonder"— bors, got a little tired of Molly's he waved his hard toward a small building beside the mouth of the tunnel—" until he comes out of the tunnel—"until he comes out of the mine." "You are extremely kind," said Lloyd, with subdued sarcasm; "but I think it will perhaps be better if I go—" "To Las Joyas," he was about to add when the words were stopped on he line hy the annearance of a form. Huckleberries thick over the line hy the annearance of a form.

his lips by the appearance of a figure there. You want some more ?" which suddenly rode into the patio. Alice Gordon considered. "Well, Ance obtain considered. Well, I've got sixteen quarts put up already. That ought to be enough, with the rest of my fruit." Without a word Huckleberry Molly reached for her basket and began to slip the supporting band round her forehead It was a feminine figure, rebozo-shrouded about the head and shoulders, but not so closely that it was possible to mistake the beautiful face and eyes of Victoria Calderon. As she entered, she halted, lightly and easily without assistance from her saddle to the ground, and called a boy from one of the ore heaps to take her mule. At the same moment Lloyd also dismounted and advanced

HUCKLEBERRY MOLLY

Huckleberry Molly trudged up steep path to the little house at the foot of the mountain. The long basket on her back, partly supported by the band of cloth that passed across her forehead, was half full of huckleberries. As she sank down wearily on the top step she slipped the heavy basket from her shoulders Alice Gordon came out on the small porch. Her cheeks were flushed and there were berry stains on her apron. The pleasant odor of boiling Joyas, senor, he cried, " but I feel it my duty to prevent such an intru-sion on the ladies who are tuere alone. If you must see my father, you can wait in the office yonder"-life !

in an avalanche and wrecked a long bridge over a ravine.

reached for her basket and began to slip the supporting band round her forehead. "Wait!" said Alice. "I think I will take them, Molly. I'll get a pan and you measure them out. How "U and you measure them out. How "Not the supporting band round her "Wait!" said Alice. "I think I will take them, Molly. I'll get a pan and you measure them out. How clear as possible. The railway men worked long tatalities, and the men unconcern-edly went on keeping the road as the tried to assure herself. The railway men worked long tatalities, and the men unconcern-edly went on keeping the road as the tried to assure herself. The railway men worked long tatalities, and the men unconcern-edly went on keeping the road as a way through that awful barrier file, and by the poetry of the faith which placed it there, but also by a conviction that it stood as an omen of victory for those who held the mine beneath it. The words of Dona Beatriz recurred to his memory. "I swear by the holy crosses that stands over the mine !" she had the trans surprise in her face in the fac over house! Rain now-much rain make snow loose on Old Eagle.

"Oh," she said, "what an experi-ence! How glad I am there's to be lots of snow this winter! Thick, John, I never even touched it in my come-please !" The Indian woman began to coax. "We go down to depot or somebody's house down there." "Molly, I tell you once for all-no! October slipped into November These other people who ran away from their homes—they're afraid ! I'm not afraid ! I shall stay here!' The days were short and dreary, and each brought either rain or snow. Early in December the snow began to fall in earnest. Flakes of almost incredible size floated down steadily Without a word Huckleberry Molly gathered her blanket close round her and went out.

all day and all night and all day again. Trains became irregular, and at last stopped running altogether. That night at 8 o'clock when John Gordon should have come home, Alice went to the door; she thought Six miles below the mountain bamlet a freight train was stalled between two slides, and while stand She opened the door and gave a low ing there it was caught by another cry of horror. Before her rose slide and carried bodily down into a canon seven hundred feet deep. A few days later a mountain side covered with green timber tore down in careful and the rain had turned it to ice.

JANUARY 25, 1919

John's turn tonight to be out on the snowplough—or something might have happened - a slide! She thought of Huckleberry Molly, and said to herself. "Oh, why did-n't I so. Whe did to the total of the solution of n't I go! Why didn't I go!" With her hands clasped together and her heart full of sudden panic, she walked up and down the room. Laddie, the big collie, evidently sharing her excitement, stalked beside her. She imagined that she heard a queer mufiled noise - a sliding, rum bling sound that meant-that could mean nothing except death !

Suddenly she became aware of a rasping sound outside. John ! John digging his way in ! Flinging open the door she cried out, but only the rasping sound answered her. Sud-denly, as she watched with dilated eyes, two fists broke through the crust of ice and snow and in a moment Huckleberry Molly had forced her way through the wall. This time she did not stop to talk.

Her big, coarse hands were cut and but she took no notice. bleeding, she shuffed into the bedroom and own threshold; nay, within the nar-catching up the sleeping baby, row boundary of our own home? catching up the sleeping baby, wrapped him in his blankets. His little fair head drooped sleepily upon her shoulder and she lifted a fold of the blanket and covered it. Then she pointed to a heavy coat that hung on the wall.

Put on!" she ordered. "Your man-he no come home tonight--heap big slide-snowplough no come back. You come now." Mechanically Alice put on the big The home is the true garden where children should grow up. Not one helpful feature in the kindergarten coat and wound a scarf round her Huckleberry Molly looked round. "Money? You got money? You take 'em! Take clothes for babyhurry!

As in a dream Alice Gordon obeyed. She called the big collie, at hand in every simple, well-ordered and lighted a lantern. Then the strange little procession started. Hackleberry Molly carried Boys and girls of fourteen so trained the bundled sleeping baby on one that they work intelligently, obey shoulder and the lantern in her other hand. Alice followed with a suit case hastily stuffed with clothes for the baby. Behind them came the dog.

Somehow they clambered up to ate who lacks one or more of these he level and out into the open. the level and out into the open. essentials is not educated. It is Ahead of them a short distance was neither possible nor desirable that the entrance to the snowshed. all become Senators, but it is highly Alice looked round. The rain had desirable and possible to educate ceased. All the world, apparently, every normal child into a good up-was one great expanse of snow. Not a house roof was visible! And over zen. To attain this will be worth all, high and menacing, towered Old any trouble, any anxious care, it may Eagle ! cause. It will be attained as soon as

Suddenly panic seized Alice. It Suddenly panic seized Airce. It particle state the the the second could see something moving, far up there under the pale light of the moon. Everything was still, but she imagined that she heard a distant muffled sound. Oh, hurry ! Hurry !" she cried to its lights, upon the foundation given the dark figure before her. Crouching low, they entered the mouth of the long enowshed, which the lantern feebly illuminated. Several times Alice, less sure footed than the old squaw, fell into the snow that banked the narrow path. The baby woke and cried. A projecting shelf of snow along one side had struck him in the face. To the frightened girl the quarter mile that they slowly traversed through the dark, low shed seemed interminable.

At last Hickleberry Molly turned into a side passage that led from the main shed. A gleam of light shone through the cracks round a door, and the squaw stumbled toward it. The baby still cried and Alice was calling : "O Mrs. Maloney, open the door, !

The door was at once flung open, and a broad good natured Irish woman looked out. "My soul, 'tis Mrs Gordon!" she have learned. cried, "Come in! Come in!" She caught the baby from Huckleberry It is far more important that the caught the baby from Huckleberry Molly's arms and cuddled him against her motherly shoulder. Then she reached out and pulled Alice into the warm kitchen. "Come in, Molly," the warm kitchen. "Come in, Molly, you, too!" she cried. "Now, then

"You good to me long time," she aid, with a wide gesture. "Me? Can you teach them Mother Goose said, with a wide gesture. "Me? I good to you little short time. Ugh! rhymes? The printed capital letlers?

Nothing much." 'Come now," broke in Mrs. Mal-oney. "Look at this smokin-hot Can you teach them to answer the question you ask, and not a question that you did not ask? Can you make them think before answering? breakfast, Sit up to the table, ivery one of you, and thank heaven you're Can you, and this is not so easy, can you make them see things as alive to eat me good griddlecakes !" -Harriet Crocker Le Roy in the they are and describe exactly what Youth's Companion. they see ? If you can do these things, or can earn to do these things, you can also EDUCATION IN THE learn to do the other things that will be required of the teacher mother. be required of the teacher mount. The mother need not sacrifice long hours to give book instruction to her mother writes: "I HOME

THE FOUNDATIONS MUST BE ACQUIRED AT HOME

have been teaching my children at home, but it has taken me such a " If only I could give my children a good education," laments many a discouraged mother, "I would gladly work my fingers to the very bone. But there is no opportunity in this place, and we cannot afford to send them away from home." Why look afar for what lies at our home, but it has taken me such a little while each day to do what the teachers spend all day in doing, that I was afraid there was something wrong with my teaching." There is no need to spend money for costly de vices, patented apparatus and multi-farious books. The very best teach-ing a little child can have is that given by the mother who does her given by the mother who does her own housework. The very best les-sons are those dealing with home surroundings, the child's world which Home life is the greatest educational agency in the world, for good, if the home is good ; for evil if the home is may seem common place to us, but in the eyes of that child are new bad. In it all physical, all mental, all moral qualities take root and grow. If the soil is good, and if the and wonderful.-John Stevenson in America. young plants are tenderly and care-fully nurtured by the mother, the

TRUTH IS MIGHTY; IT MUST PREVAIL

ENGLISH JOURNAL CALLS FOR ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF DEBT DUE IRELAND

troduced into our public school system, nor one helpful feature in From the Westminster Gazette, London Englishmen who have been accusthe primary school, that is not ready med to believe that Ireland had "done nothing in the war," and is "local to believe that Ireland has "done nothing in the war," and is sullenly hostile to the Allied cause, will rub their eyes on reading of the scenes of enthusiasm reported from tome. Education is not book knowledge. Dublin and many other parts of Ireland recently. They are, nevertheless, quite genuine, and few Irishmen will be sur-prised at them. For, in spite of all pass a sixth grade examination. On the other hand, the university graduthe troubles and controversies of the last three years, Ireland has made a great contribution to the war.

Out of her population of 4,000,000, not less than 250,000 men have fought for the Allied cause, and if we add the Irish in the Dominion contingents and the Irish who have served with the Navy-to say noth-ing of the Irish who have come over with the Americans—the total would probably be not less than half a parents realize that they are the true million. When conscription was proposed for Ireland, competent judges, who the way he should go." The home, and the home only, can made fair allowance for the fact that the great majority of the population successfully educate. The school, at its best, can only build, according to was agricultural, placed the addi-tional number that could be obtained by this means at not much, if at all, more than another hundred thousand. cannot remodel the child that has It would be a gross injustice if the made a false start at home. Men and failure to obtain this last hundred women are what they are, because the home trained them aright, or thousand caused us to forget that the great majority of Irishmen did failed to train them aright. The teacher mother has been, is, and will their duty as manfully and gallantly as Englishmen, Scotchmen, or ever be the greatest educational assat Welshmen.

of mankind. Every mother who does not have to support her children The Irish regiments have by comshould herself teach them until they mon consent fought splendidly, and it will be a thousand pities if some public opportunity is not taken of are prepared to enter, say, the third grade in our grammar schools and can with credit to the mothers and themselves, take their places in these acknowledging the debt that the country owes to them. Nothing could be more embittering to men who have loyally served to the utmost than to listen to the Now as to the results of such home teaching. It relieves the conjection in the lower grades, just where massindiscriminate abuse which it is now the fashion in some quarters to teaching is most destructive ; it preheap upon Ireland in utter forgetpares the children so that they will advance safely in school because they fulness of the part which hundreds of thousands of her sons have have learned how to work and because they understand what they played.

"THE RETURN"

a moment of tragic pathos the out

With a delicate sense of the yearning of the great world's human

THE CATHOLIC RECORD

the loss will not have been in vain. from which they will not be ousted Perhaps there was no other way for wayward, wilful, blinded man to real-ize the sublimity of the sacrifice of there in consequence of Spiritism the Redeemer and his love for His children, except by treading in His blood stained footprints up to the summit of Calvary.—America.

through the tunnel at a until he had given the last imperiling his life.-Buffalo Echo.

POWERS OF DARKNESS.

ones from their families has given a attempt.

it can be done.

and a materialist.

mental and moral wrecks.

is convinced that they cannot not possibly be known to others.

impressed on our mind.

eart

show all the signs of domains obses-sion or possession. In reference to Spiritism, then, it is necessary to strictly observe the "Hands off I"—S. in The Guardian.

DRIVES NINETY MILES TO MAKE SICK CALL.

Few persons suspect that in the The Rev. C. F. O'Farrell, Rector of Oathedral church of Notre Dame, Paris, is a bell contemporaneous with Joan of Arc —"the blessed bell" St. Mary's Church at Montrose, Colo., recently drove an automobile seventy. six miles, then rode a horse fourteen which sounded the tocsin in August miles at night to administer the last 1429, and Paris was besieged by the rites to a dying miner. Several English. times during his priestly life Father

AN HISTORIC BELL

This historic bell, referred to by Victor Hugo in his "Notre Dame de Paris," was given to the Cathedral in 1400 by Jean de Montaign. It O'Farrell has displayed remarkable heroism. On one occasion, during an accident in construction of a great irrigation tunnel, he rode on a hand was refounded in 1686, and then re-baptized under the name of Emman about uel Louise Theresa of Austria.

when every person around about fully expected him to be killed in the So, if the bell is not the same bell which the heroine of Domremy But the priest merely remarked that he would not die at least heard, nevertheless the same metal vibrates today at the great religious ments to some men dying at the other ceremonies of the metropolitan end of the tunnel-men whom he could not reach in time without church. In view of later events it seems rather more than coincidence that when all the other bells of Notre Dame were destroyed by the revolu tionists Joan's bell should have been spared.—Catholic Transcript. The war that tore so many loved

RELIGION POPULAR

new impetus to the fad of spiritism. It is claimed that we can enter into communion with the souls of the dead, hear them, see them, speak to It is very gratifying to hear from the publishers of religious books that them and get messages from them. the American public is buying and The desire to do so, if it could be realized, would seem to be a legitreading their publications to a greater extent than ever before. Not only imate expression of affection, and men of no mean distinction say that do the avowedly religious publishing houses report a great increase in their sales, but even the secular pub-lishers report that their sale of re-Mr. Godfrey Raupert, a member of the Oxford University, our best Catholic expert on this subject, who is now lecturing in the United ligious titles has shown a marked in

In a word, the tendency of the States, says that two things have reading public, at least of that por-tion of it which is considered been established by psychic research as incontestable facts : the occur thoughtful, is toward the reading of rence of abnormal phenomena, which religious books. The more one thinks of it the less surprised he is. allow no natural explanation, and the existence of extraneous disorgan Why should it not be so? We have been living in times that tried men's ized or spiritual agencies. The material gonception of the universe has received a death blow. Hence-forth no one can be both a scientist souls.

Before the War amusement played a big part in our life. And that search for amusement continued into Quite another question is this, whether these spiritual agencies are the realm of literature. People read to be amused. The result was an outpouring of popular books and magazines. The world had for a long time lost its standards. the souls of the dead or something else. What the scientists, like Sir Oliver Lodge or Prof. Barrett of Dublin, who champion Spiritism, do not tell us are the baneful consequences Who remembers many of the books that a decade ago were hailed as entailed on those who practice Spir-itism. They become physical, masterpieces? They are forgotten. We lived in a make believe world, and our literature of the popular Add to this that the answers given by the kind was a reflection of that world supposed deceased relatives are But happily a change has come. ostly frivolous, often contradicting, Men who have faced sorrow and sacrifices have had their ideas changed in regard to life. They and always mischievous in their final consequences. Nor has science been able to raise the identification have come to see that man does not of these spirit agencies to any degree live by bread alone. Their thoughts have been turned to God. of certainty. Now apart from many marvelous

Again the master-writers of today have turned their talents to religion. phenomena that seems clearly be-yond the powers of disembodied One need but instance the spirit of present day poetry. It is no longer souls, can such effects as the above mentioned reasonably be traced to them as their source. Mr. Raupert the fashion of poets to rail at the spiritual. The soldier poets especial If ly have been singing of the eternal thinge.

it is urged that the appearing spirits identify themselves by their acquaint ance with particulars that transpired so exclusively between them and A reading public that has appre ciated Joyce Kilmer is not ashamed their interlocutors that they could to be found reading religious books Then, too, the innumerable sketch For books that have come forth from the this difficulty Mr. Raupert has a war, such as those of Tiplady. Kettle plausible explanation. All the knowl-Redmond, not forgetting the classic edge we get through the various of the young soldier Borsi, have been caannels of information is indelibly saturated with religion. What we In a multi tude of ways there has been a redo not actually use is kept stored up in the recesses of the subconscious mind. Whether we are able to recall vival of religion, and it is not strange that that revival has been evident in it upon our effort or not, it is there. literature.

Locking at the matter from the and sometimes bubbles up spontane-

TIME

Standard Library

60c. Each Postpaid

Aunt Honor's Keepsake, by Mrs. James Sadlier. As interesting story with a strong moral purpose. The characters are met with in every walk of Ameri-can society, in every trade and calling, in every nook and corner. They are real, alvira, or The Heroine of Veauvius, by Rev. A., O'Reilly, A thriling story of the seventeent century.

century. etween Friends, by Richard Aumerle Joe Gavis is a leader among the boys of st. Nicholas board school and the hero of the story. He is an orpha-and, thinking of the past, becomes so unhappy tha-he runs away. He has many experiences in the city, is arrested as a thick, sent to a reformatory from which he escapes, and finally gets back to 9:

Nicholas'. Circus-Rider's Daughter, The. By F. von Bracke. A high-class novel—a love story that every reade will feel better for having read. Captain Ted by Mary T. Waggaman. Captain Tec is a Catholic college boy forced by circumstance to leave beloved St. Elmers and plunge into the battle of life. His youth is against him, but his honesty and perseverance win him a place at the top.

and the Mix out all series and plunge into the honesty and perseverance win him a place at the honesty and perseverance win him a place at the top.
Children of the Log Cabin, by Henrietts Eugeni. Delamare. The story of a struggling home, bright thoughtful children, and all the trials and hard series at the story of a struggling home. In the story of a struggling home, bright thoughtful children, and all the trials and hard series at the story of a struggling home. The story of a struggling home, bright be contained by "Lee." Clare's cutting up at home determines her doing parents to send the among the gentle nuns, there to have her harum 'seatum propensities sobered, if possible. Clare's begins to happen were the story of the story

Crever one, it is well constructed and evinces i master hand. A tabsorbing tale of real adventure-poung, freed vital. To the boy who loves the romance which bow hurst tropical forest, a journey "In Quess for four tropical forest, a journey "In Quess instruction Chest" will fire his ambition to

to the boy who loves the romance which broods over ocean pathways as well as the myster jous lure of tropical forest, a journey " in Quese of the 'colden Chest' will fire his ambition to many decis.
In Goots Goeta Time. By H. M. Ross. This is a main the sample of the 'colden Chest' will fire his main and good.
In Goots Goeta Time. By H. M. Ross. This is a theory of the 'colden Chest' will fire his main and good.
Jack Hildreth On The theart, stirring in it the live hise the sympaty of the theory has been received as a chief among the Athe story, has been received as a chief among the Athe story, has been received as a chief among the Athe story has been received as a chief among the Athe story has been received as a chief among the Athe story has been received as a chief anong the Athe story has been received as a chief anong the Athe story has been received as a chief anong the Athe story has been received as a chief anong the Athe story has been received as a chief athonest.
Juniors Of St. Bede's, The. by Rev. Thos. H. Brycos An excellent story in which the rough poorly bred bad minded boy puts himself against the boy of steriling character to this own discomfuture. This is a new style of Catholic tale.
Wee find a cat. A by Eleanor C Donnelly. Here we find a cat. A the Pleanor C Donnelly. Here we find a way a holiday. Tha thing, or otherwise idlung away a holiday. Tha thing, or otherwise idlung away a holiday.
Lady Of The Tower, The ; and Other Stories by George Barton and others. This is a collection of short stories which will please the most fastidious taste. The volume comprises fitteen stories whiel are worthy to live in short-story literature. Mos of them are delicate little love tales; the other stories of adventure or mystery.
Will Aveing, by Saar Trainor Smith. The story of a helples young girl's bearing her cross whiel are success of their holidays.
Willy Aveing, by Saar Trainor Smith. The story of a helples young girl's the West Indies. "It is a ratifing good boyy book"-sailing starting up on a sailing good boyy book"-sailing good boyy lind Agnesic by Cacilia Mary Caddell. Few tales in our han basse can compare with this sweet Boys Gwu Boos. A complete encyclopedia o sports, containing instructions on the camera, fencing, baseball, football, gymmastics, rowing, sailing, swimming, skating, running, bicyclins, etc., and how to play over fity other games. Burden of Honor, The. By Christine Faber, A story of mystery and entanglements so interworse as to create new difficulties in rapid succession. As in all Christine Faber's books, the action is drama-tic sudden and severe. Carrol O'Donoghue. By Christine Faber, A the sudden and severe. Carrol O'Donoghue. By Christine Faber. A story of penal servitude in Australia. Catholic Crusoe, by Rev. W. H. Anderdon, M. A. The adventures of Owen Evans, Esq., Surgeon s Mate, set ashore with companions on a desolate Island in the Carribean Sea.

Island in the Carrows sca. Chivalrous Deed, A. By Christine Faber, "Kind-ness Begets Kindness and Lore Begets Love," is the keynote of this tale, interwoven with delight-ful delineations of child life and child character.

to it is Mayfair all Drightness, where live the people who are destined to penetrist the secret that have such a blighting effect on its owner. Mystery Of Cleverity, The by George Sarton. Tells of a Career of a youth who is thrown upon his owner. Mystery Of Cleverity, The by George Sarton. Tells of a Career of a youth who is thrown upon his owner. Mystery Of Cleverity, The by George Sarton. Tells of a Career of a youth who is thrown upon his owner. Mystery Of Cleverity, The by George Sarton. Tells of a Career of a youth who is thrown upon his owner. Mystery Of Cleverity, The by George Sarton. Tells of a Career of a youth who is thrown upon his owner. Mystery Of Cleverity, The adventures, by the sudden desth of his father unde a downer and downs and downs and downs and downs and the state interventing a downer and wholesome mannet. The second at the series of the state interventing and his sister winnel in an interventing and his sister of the state interventing and his sister of the state interventing and the source of the state interventing and the series and wholesome mannet. The series and his sister of the state interventing and the series and the sister of the state interventing and the series and his sister winnel in an interventing and the series and the series and wholesome mannet. The series and not above an occasional bit of mischief.
Brunowe. A jolly story. There is a convent is an entertaining romance of two young girls, and obave an occasional bit of mischief. By Keislous of the Society of the Holy Child and shows how uncertain are the smile of fortune. By Marine Mystery, The series and wholesome how store story, showing the pewer of a box who is a millionaire twice over, for ransom How the plotters are captured and the boy rescued makes a very interesting and the boy rescued makes a very interesting and the socy which is an it to clease the young folks.
Boverna, by Kers, Janeer Sandier, Andre Story of a First Communion. By the state of the secre and the state intervert a Playwater Point The by Mary T. Waggaman. There is a plot on foot to abduct Lester Leonard, a sick boy, who is a millionaire twice over, for ransom How the plotters are captured and the boy res-cued makes a very interesting story, which is sure to blesse the young folks.

A Fair Emigrant, by Ross Mulholland. A Daughter of the Sierra, by Christian Reid. Beasy Conway, by Mrs. Jas. Sadlier. boun and Fisc. By Jean Connor. A new story by an author who knows how to write a splendidly strong book.

60c. Each Postpaid

THREE

or D'Arcy's Struggles. By W. M. Bertholds, ovel that depicts to us in vivid colors the les of life which a noble family had to unter, being reduced to penuy through rovident speculations on the part of the father. Double Knot, A; and Other Stories, by Mary T Waggaman and others. The stories are excellent and contain much pathos and humor.

Fabiola. By Cardinal Wiseman. This edition of Cardinal Wiseman's tale of early Christian times s much more modern and decidedly more attmact litive than the old editions.

Fabiola's Sisters. Adapted by A. C. Clarke. This is a companion volume and a sequel to "Fabiola." Fiendly Little House, The; and Other Stories, i Marion Ames Taggart and Others. A library short stories of thrilling interest by a group Catholic authors that take rank with the b writers of contemporary fiction.

winters of contemporary fiction. Gianettis, by Roes Mulholland. Light Of His Countenance, The. By Jerome Harte. A highly successful story. The plot is flawless, the characters are natural, their conver-sation is sprightly and unhampered, and there are bursts of genuine comedy to lighten the tragic darker shades.

farcella Grace. By Rosa Mulholland. The plot of this story is faid with a skill and grasp of details not always found in novels of the day, while its development bears witness at every page to a complete mastery of the subject, joined to grace and force of diction.

and force of diction. Aiss Erin. By M. E. Francis. A captivatin Irish life redolent of genuine Celtic wit, mathing and charming in the true Cathol Irish life redolent of genuine Center pathos, and charming in the true Catholic spirit that permets every page. Monk's Pardon, The, By Raoul de Navery. An historical romance of the time of King Philip IV.

My Lady Beatrice. By Frances Cooke. The story of a society girl's development through the love of a strong man. It is vivid in characterization, and intense in interest.

Other Miss Lisle, The. By M. C. Martin. A power-ful story of South African life. It is singularly strong and full of action, and contains a greest deal of masterly characterization Outlaw Of Camargue, The. By A. de Lamotha, This is a capital novel with plenty of "go" in it Rose of The World. By M C. Martin. A very sweet and tender story, and will appeal to the reader through these qualities.

und fable of French Catholic Novelists, &

Cound ratie of French Catholic Noveliss, a charming selection of brief tales by the foremost French Catholic writers. Secret Of the Green Vase, The. By Frances Cooke. The story is one of high ideals and strong charac-ters. The 'secret' is a very close one, and the reader will not solve it until near the end of the hook.

book. aadow Of Eversleigh. By Jane Lansdowne. is a weird rale, blending not a little of the su natural with various stirring and exci

Women of Catholicity. Memoirs of Margaret O'Carroll, Isabella of Castile, Margaret Roper etc. Sketches of six women remarkable in Cath-olic history.

85c. Each, Postpaid

Ambriton's Contest, By Father Faber, The story of a young man who starts out in life to be a statesman, loses all his religion, but iffining through the prayers of others, receives the grace of God and is called to the prisehood. Billy Glenn of the Broken Shutters, By Anthony Yorke. Illustrated. A story of boy life in the downtown section of New York, narrating the adventures of Billy Glenn and his companions of The Broken Shutters, a boys club of their neigh-borhood. The book is full of adventures, including a thrilling rescue of a child from a burning building of Weither and a scilling the sailing weed to the Weith an exciting thip on a sailing weed to the Weith and the start of the sailing weed to the Weith and the sailing weed to the weith a subling down the sailing weed to be weither a box Coefficient Sailing wood boys book "--Pilot what does it mean?" Alice told her.

My soul alive! ' cried Mrs. Maloney. "I thought there wasn't a livin' soul up on the hill to-night! I beard you had left and-'

Mrs. Maloney broke off and held up her hand. "What's that! Hark! 'Tis a slide somewhere!" she cried in great excitement. "I know the sound-I was here seven years ago. Listen!"

A long, low, rumbling, sliding, grinding sound came dully to their ears—a vibration, a roar—an ever-in-creasing volume of sound that finally died away into silence.

The next morning John Gordon, haggard from lack of sleep and filled with terror at the thought of what might have been, came up from the station where he had heard the and walked into Mrs. Malnews, and walked into Mrs. Mai-oney's warm kitchen, never thinking to knock. He beld his wife and baby in his arms and looked at Huckleberry Molly, who was sitting beside the stove. "It's all gone, little wife," he said.

"There's nothing left-everything buried under tons of snow and rock ! But I never was so happy in my life. At the end of the week a train's coming through and I'm going to take you and the baby out until spring. If you had stayed in the house ten minutes longer-"

He left the sentence unfinished, and shuddered at the thought that filled his mind.

Alice went over to the stove and put her arm round the Indian woman's shoulders. "I'd be there, John," she said. "I'd be there now-if it hadn't been for Molly. She-she-"

She-she-" Huckleberry Molly's small, black eyes shone and her swarthy cheeks trees and flowers growing near your home? The common garden vege-tables? The six primary colors?

-

thing to one who has been trained to at the close of the frightful conflict the best teacher cannot teach one hast blood of all races of the inguith condict the best teacher cannot teach one hast blood of all races of more any any best blood of all races of men, cruwho has not been trained to learn and therefore does not want to learn. saders who have fought that oppres sion might end and freedom might Natural ability, ambition, eagerness to excel will not bring success to the spread from shore to shore. Scribner's has placed as the frontispiece of its first issue of the New Year, a drawing pupil untrained at home. No greater injustice can be done the child than which for its deep spiritual signifi-cance might well have served as a to place it in school before it has learned how to learn, to obey, to obsymbol of the entire life-work of the serve, to attend, to measure, to an-Pontiff who died of a broken heart as the war began, so well does it sum up swer questions, to memorize, to read. understand and correctly form simple his restaurareomnia in Christo. Even more forcibly does it crystalize into sentences. These are the founda-tions for all ideal, real and practical schools.

education. But are the mothers qualified to give such instruction? No mother who can read, is justified in saying pourings of the soul of the present Father of Christendom and those of his children in every land weary with the suffering of the past four years that she does not know how to teach her own children. She can learn and more.

In a little chapel there rises a how, even though she has had only primary schooling herself. At work in her home school, she becomes some half burned votive candles. At clever as she never was clever before the foot of the Cross, clinging to the She learns by teaching. Her instinct, wood in a posture of agonized relief. her patient and understanding love. a lonely, solitary soldier is kneeling; his head is bowed with the air of one as she watches her children's growth and development, guide her to find who has made his way through im-measurable trial but in the end, be the right way to take her all import-ant part in their education. She does not need a rigid system. She yond his fondest hopes, he finds peace, where there seemed no hope of peace. Every line of the drooping soldier tells of inutterable does not need much theory. She is not dealing with theoretical children but with children as they are.

fatigue and bis whole figure seems to be crying out: "Oh Christ, 'was Here is a test of the mother's ability to conduct her own kindergarten there no other way?" The Saviour and primary school : Can you teach your children the is gazing down with infinitely gentle compassion on his brother in arms. Lord's Praver ?

Lord's Prayer? Can you teach them to sew on but tons? To tie a knot? To set the table? To use a broom? To draw a straight line? Can you teach them the names of and seems to be answering; "Hast thou, indeed, found Me at last?"

the birds that visit your yard? The trees and flowers growing near your ously or flashes into consciousness Catholic point of view it is encourage ing. Catholic devotions, Catholic d ctrine, Catholic history have been in a crisis much as a danger of death.

Under normal conditions the con. popularized. Our Catholic soldier have had a chance to get in touch scious mind of man has control over with the best in their Catholic literthe subconscious region, opening or shutting the 'trap-door' between the two at will. But when the conscious ature.

The habit has been formed in many of our people of reading spirit-ual books. They will not readily give up the habit, for they have mind has surrendered its control and become passive—which is a con-dition without which there is no found that apart from the benefit to their souls from such books there is success in spiritualistic experiment -the subconscious mind is open for invasion to spirit intelligences. nothing more entertaining than lit-There they can read all the impreserature

The future is full of promise for sions, all our past experiences, and Catholic literature. It is for us all to unite in helping the cause. And since every encounter of ours with our departed relatives is recorded there, it is plain how they can startle us with the rehearsal of situthe best way to help is to read and thus create the demand. We have the writers in abundance; let us ations that were strictly private. Since then departed souls would not be parties to the mischief done have the readers .- Boston Pilot.

gaunt figure of the erucified Christ dimly lit by the flickering flame of all their surviving relatives, and since all their proofs of idem fica ion are all their proofs of ident fica ion are lacking the force of demonstration, the spiritists are obviously dealing with another kind of spirits. That A blade of grass which has sprung up amid the sand bends towards the they are not good spirits is shown by the baneful effects of communing brook; and each wave, as it passes shakes the blade of grass, which falls with them. To the Christian who has firm faith their messages destrucand rises to fall once more. . This blade of grass is man, who is tive of Christianity are proof incontossed about by the billows of life, testable. We have therefore in Spir and who is, in turn bowed down by itism a revival of paganism when the "prince of this world" had sway over The blade of grass yields little by "prince of this world" had sway over "ba hearts and minds of men. Christ the Saviour being discarded, the Liar from the beginning is coming into his own again. This is the meaning of Spiritem.

of Spiritem. All men, Catholics as well as others, need to be warned against this frightsuccumbs. That rapid water, which is called time, tosses him about, up roots him, and hurries him on toward No other picture has caught with such tremendous power the supreme signifiance of the fearful struggle, morphine on the body. Before a man Poverina, by Evelyn Buckenham. This is an opti mistic, entertaining story that will appeal to girls of all ages. In the beginning of the tale every-thing is at sizes and sevens, but after passing for Poverina and her friends.

nor rovering and net triends. Jucen's Provering the by Mary T. Waggaman The little heroine in this story, after being takes from her convent home by her uncle an inveter ate bisot against everything Catholics. Succeeds in finding an approach to his iron-bound heart. She is finally reunited to her fact, a supposed victim of a storm at sea, and her way is opened to life, love and happiness.

to life, love and happiness. Bihipmates, by Mary T. Waggaman. Pip a boy of twelve, is lying at death's door, without hope of relief, in close, unwholesome city quartors. A shack on the coast is rented, and there the family tak" up their quarters. How the excursions in his little bost, which brings back the roses to Pip's cheeks, get them acquainted with Roving Rob, and the results, makes very fascinating reading.

Tailman, the ise treating, makes very fascinating reading. Tailman, The, by Mary T. Waggaman. The young here of this story is mixed cp with the saving of the famous Connecticut charter ; preserves the town of Hartford from an Indian massacre and is taken prisoner. Note: The Twitiskit, by Mother M. Salome. Mother Salome has gone to the Lives of the Saints and the volumes of early Church history and has gathered a great variety of episodes and adventures. Temptingly they are laid out the source is Dragon, The ; and Other Stories, by Marion F. Nixon-Roulet and other leading Catho lie authors. A volume of stories which make very interesting and profitable reading for young and old out Transplanting of Tessio, The by Mary T. Waggs-man. Theinfluence which a little girl, educated in religious princip'es, may exercise in a circle where such influences have not previously beer at work, is the ground idea of the story. It is most interestingly worked out through a suc-cession of dramatic incidents. Treasure of Nuscey Marian The A Maria

Pressure of Unusity Incidents. Pressure of Nusget Mountain, The. by Marion A Taggart. The ride for life from the lake of petroleum with horse and rider clogged by the fierce unreason of the boy Harry, is a place of the language. building of the language.

Tablidden Guest, The. By Frances Cooke. A tal of hearts that love, suffer, and win. It is a uniquely conceived tale, full of unexpected com plications, and with a heroine who is so truly Catholic as to be an inspiration.

catholic as to be an inspiration, that is no duly vination, the Apache Knicht, by Marico A. Taggart In the present volume Jack Hildred goes West, meets Winnerbu under tragic circum-stances, is captured by him and schemed to dic How he excapse and how they become fast friends is shown through chapters of breathless

Ask for Quantity Discount The Catholic Record

LONDON, CANADA

story reprinted from The Messenger of The Sacut & Heart. Lisbeth. The Story of a First Communion. By Mary T. Waggaman. A story of great interes, strong faith and earnest simplicity. Louisa Kirkbridge, by Rev. A. J. Thebaud, S. J. A dramatic tale of New York City after the City War, full of exciting narratives infused with a strong religious moral tone. Margaret Roper. A very interesting historical novei by Agues M. Stewart. Moondyne Joe. By John Boyle O'Reilly. A thrill-ing story of heroism, and adventure in which most of the action takes place in the Penal Prisons in Australia to which Moondyne Joe has been con-torces the section takes thrill, a series of dare-devil adventures.

More Five O'Clock Stories, by a Religious of the Holy Child

Holy Chuc, A. By Christine Faber. A Catho-lic story of the trials of a widow whose only son is innocently accused of murdering an enemy of her family. When all seems lost, the real murderer filled with remores, contesses his crime.

New Lights. A very interesting tale by Mrs. Jama

O'Mahony. The Chief of the Comeraghs. A tais of the Irish Rebeillion of 1798, by D. P. Cos-yngham, L. L. D.

Old and New. Or, Taste Versus Fashion. A novel written in a fascinating manner. By Mrs. James Sadlier.

Sadner. eaping the Whirlwind, By Christine Faber. Full of incidents, strange, startling, sensational and of incidents, strange, startling, sensational and tragic, which move quickly. ed Ascent, The. By Eather W. Neill. It is a fine stirring story.

Red Ascent, The. By Eather W. Neill. It is a fine stiring story. Red. Juce, Juce. By iderard A. Reynold, A drama tic story of the Boxer Uprising in China, narrating, the exciting experiences by a group of Buropesna whe band together for self-protection There is a captivating charm in the way this tale is told, and it is done with a force that gives the dramatic parts so pronounced a realism that the reader feels him-self a part of the life of this far-off country, siding with the unprotected Christian, a real participast in decine of their life. Dense. In this novel Miss Alice Dease, favorably known through bas stories of Irish life, has ventured on a new field, and in Reining Pirce. The intest and undoubt-fortunes of two DK, sets before us the life and for the story is remarkably were yeal thoughto us the story is remarkably were yeal thought out the story is remarkably were to the fire on the fire-ongs to bels the steration of the reader from the fire-uage to the last. Rosemary, by J. Vincent Huntington. This nove i, though written many years ago holds its place among the best stories we have to-day.

outhern Catholic Story. By Minnie Mary Lee. A novel full of interest and example, trayed from the Fold. By Minnie Mary Lee. A solendid Catholic story with a very strong moral,

Ask for Quantity Discount

The Catholic Record LONDON, CANADA

Bygin and of the thartor studged interprints on the salave to a habit be manking finding its way through much tribulation to the feet of Christ. Should this lesson be fully impressed on all men, the pain and darkness man gives them a possession impression of the the spirits of the salave to a habit be cannot shake off any more. So by opening the mind to the spirits of darkness man gives them a possession interprint of the salave to a habit be promises will get you friends, but non-performance will turn them into enemies.—Franklin.

FOUR

The Catholic Record

Price of subscription-$1.50 per annum. United States & Europe-$2.00. and Proprietor, Thomas Coffey, LL. D. tors { Rev. James T. Foley, B. A. Thomas Coffey, LL, D.

inte Editors { Rev. F. J. O'Sullivan. H. F. Mackintosh. rer-Robert M. B

ments for teachers, situations was marriage notices cannot be

tti, late N.Y.

agents : M. J. Hagarty, Vincent S. Miss Jessie Doyle : resident agents : M. J. Avan-Miss Jessie Doyle : resident agens Smith, Halifax ; Miss Bride Saundi Iss L. Heringer, Winnjorge : E. R. C. 8th Ave. West, Vancouver, B. C. ; S 211 Rochester St., Ottawa ; Miss I 7, 149 D'Aguillon St., Quobec ; Mrs. 2398 St. Urbain St., Montreal, M. J. Steal : B. F. O'Toole, Lebret, S Steal : B. F. O'Toole, Lebret, S ohn, N. B., single copies may be pur-m Mrs. M. A. McGuire, 249 Main Street.

Massed from mis. and John J. Dwyer. In Sydney, N. S., single copies may be pur in Sydney, N. S. Bookstore. Montreal single copies may be purchased J. Milloy, 241 St. Catherine St., West.

LONDON, SATURDAY, JANUARY 25, 1919

THE COW-PUNCHER

There is a war-picture by Lady Butler, already famous as painter of ation from the present War. A group get inspiration from this. The of wounded soldiers-walking casestrudging their painful way along a road in France come to a way-side can't see the woods for trees. We and sacrifice; for that key is love; shrine where the life-size figure of have talked "education" without God is love, Infinite Love. the Christ on the Cross preaches with silent elequence the old yet term. The War has opened many ever new story of Calvary. "Eves Right !" At the word of command each war-weary and war stricken sol- lectual supremacy" of Germany, and Edith Duncan, of religion : dier turns reverent eyes toward the not merely in words. The Germans symbol of that divine love and were regarded as the most highly divine sorrow which explains and illuminates and sanctifies human love world; to them we had to look for and human suffering. There is here nothing of the pomp and circum. important matter. Now we are agreed that it was precisely his "edustance of war ; but there is somecation" that put the German beyond thing greater ; the dignity and worth and personality and individuality of the pale of civilization. We have begun to realize that education is a each nameless Tommy. Democracy may be a much-abused term ; but mighty power for evil as well as for we think amongst other and perhaps gool. "We must no longer," said the know.' better things "Eyes Right" interprets the real progress of the human race in true democracy. And we feel that the age of chivalry is not dead ; for in all the pictures of the past painted by brush or pen there is nothing of which the common every day man it will mean an educational "revoluhas not proved himself capable; nothing of knightly valor which the average man has not in these latter drill into you," said Dave's tutor, "is that education is not a thing of books or studies or formulae of any kind.

In literature, too, this truth is It is the whole world; particu making its way. We may still need to meditate on Barns' emphatic assertion : "The rank is but the guinea stamp, the man's the gowd for a' that," but it is coming to be accepted as a matter of course.

These reflections were suggested by a new Canadian novel, by Robert J. C. Stead, The Cow Puncher : for here again it is the common man who is the hero of the tale. Born on a run-down ranch, forty miles from school or church, his only companion. ship that of a father broken spirited them to be well informed." through drink, Dave Elden grew up to active and vigorous youth without the subject. "You like fruit ?" education or religion ; at least without either the one or the other in the ordinary acceptation of the Wien you go into a fruit store do you stand and say, 'I can never eat terms. This fact affords the oppor- all that fruit ; crates and crates of tunity of considering, almost com

fame and social position. 'The only thing worth while,' he said, 'is to clamours for destruction. You see clamours for destruction. Fou see it in the child pulling his toy to pieces, or in a mob wrecking build-ings. Destruction is easy and pas-sionaté, but construction demands give happiness. . . Every man who lives long enough and has brains enough comes to know this in skill and patience." time. "I have been at some of their To Dave's observation that money meetings," said Dave. "They lay great stress on the war between and position were necessary as a means to make people happy Mr. Labour and Capital-Duncan replies :

cess; he is a failure.

failure still."

the night.'

"Between husband and wife in the family of production," interrupted "That is a good thought but not a Mr. Duncan "Nothing is to be quarrel. I admit the conclusive one. In reckoning the happiness a man gives we must sub-Mr. Dunban, Autoral, I admit the gained by that quarrel. I admit the husband has been overbearing, offen-sive, brutal, perhaps; but the wife tract the unhappiness he occasions. . . . And I am disposed to think that many a philanthropist, if weighed in that balance, would be has been slovenly, inefficient, shallow. Neither has yet learned how found to have a debit side bigger than his credit. No matter how hopeless is the case of one without the other. Doctrines and policies are helpful to the extent to much wealth a man may amass, or they help men to think, either how wisely he may distribute it, we cannot credit him with success if he directly, or by creating environmen conducive to th ought; has oppressed the hireling or dealt unfairly with his competitors or with but they will never bring the golden age of happi ness. That can come only through the destruction of selfishness, which the public. Such a man is not a suc-In his own can be destroyed only by the power soul he knows he is a failure, that is, of love. provided he still has a soul, and if not, as I said before, he is a greater In the matter of religion Dave's first experience in church was un-"Out of this discussion Mr. Duncan fortunate. The preacher, unlike evolved the copy line : 'The success of a life is in direct proportion to its the doctrine of the Atonement in net contribution to human happiness;' and Dave sat writing it far into reballing at the thought of putting Now we submit that the teacher the Roll Call, which takes its inspir. trained in the latest methods might sins of which others were guilty, the youth walked out of the church. He trouble with the ex-professo treatises had been given the wrong key to the is that they lack inspiration-you understanding of vicarious suffering > having any clear conception of the Years later dying on the field of Courcelette curious as to "what was eyes to this fact. A few years ago on the other side" yet reverent, he the world was conceding the "intelspeaks to the nurse, his old friend

"They lay

> "I never seemed to get the form-What is the formula ? nla. I mean "educated" people in the civilized the key-the thing that gives it all in one word ?' In one word—sacrifice." leadership and guidance in this all-

"I walked out of church once because of some doctrine about sacri-fice," he continued. "I couldn't go it. And yet—there may be some-n it. It's sacrifice here, Edith. thing in it. War is sacrifice. Sacrifice for other people. It's not all on the surface. There's something deeper than we

Minister of Education for Ontario the He had begun to see as through a other day, "interpret education in glass darkly what he was on the terms of knowledge, nor even of inverge of seeing face to face. tellectual development, but rather in Before he had left home while in terms of character." If Dr. Cody can the throes of a great temptation to impress that ideal on all concerned kill a despicable enemy who had ing in from all sides. done him grievous wrong, Edith tion of values" devoutly to be wished. had persuaded him to forgive. It is "One thing I have been trying to a passage that tempts one to quote ; but we yield only to the extent of a pregnant sentence or two: "Nothing it seems to me is so few.'

much misunderstood as forgiveness pression. It is not a flower in the garden of life; it is the garden itself, The popular idea is that the whole benefit of forgiveness is to the person who is forgiven. Really there is a very much greater benefit to the perwith its flowers, and its perfumes, Yes, larly

the world of thought, feeling and ex-strange sense of inadequateness.'

"I can never, read all those books,"

he said. "I suppose one must read

Mr. Duncan appeared to change and its sunshine and its rain

sects and worms."

asked.

and its weeds, and droughts, and inson who forgives. "Is that Christianity," Dave ventured ? This about reading we cannot re-"It is one side of Christianity. frain from quoting. Mr. Dancan The other is service. . . Creeds after all, are not expressed in words, took Dave one day to a public library where he was overcome with "s but in lives.' Which by the way is but a para phrase of what every child learns in Butler's Catechism in answer to the question "Are we justified by faith alone ?" The answer is taken from St. James' epistle: "No; as the body without the spirit is dead so also faith without good works is dead." truth that "good works must be en-

THE CATHOLIC RECORD

had probably no idea of mak- death," and help to bring low and gratitude. There are some bright ecclesiastical education will meet crush forever the empire of the olics. The novel for the majority is Evil One. one of the greatest mediums of edu-The Protestants are wide awake cation good or bad. From the religto the opportunity of making proseious point of view the Canadian lytes in China, and send many misnovel and the English painting point sionaries and much money there for the same moral: " Eyes Right !" in that purpose. We read in the daily reverent salutation to the great sympapers under the conspicuous headbol of love and sacrifice. line : '

tive "- Will raise quarter million in Toronto for Chinese Missions. FATHER FRASER'S LETTER Toronto, Jan, 4 .-- A quarter of a We gladly give editorial prominmillion dollars is the objective of nce to this letter from Father Fraser which needs no comment of ours to help it carry its vital message to a meeting of the representatives of Then there was the Family Compact

the second se

Almonte, Ont., Canada, while they were still worshipers of has fallen so low in China that land's solicitude for Canadian interidols. The three kings from the east a dollar is not worth there now more ests has been manifested in the the Order in the United States, represent at the Crib of Christ the than half what it was worth before Ashburton Treaty, the Alaska Boundsad spiritual plight of those multi- much more than was given for mistudes of our brethren of the gentile sions by all Canadian Methodists races. We may also add that of twenty years ago."

those who still sit in darkness and important as to vastness of numbers, and more for the spread of true religand as a keystone to the whole de- ion. And here is our opportunity-giant strides; in the United States the Foreign Mission Society of Amermain, ica has chosen China for the scene of in our own dear Canada the work of organizing a China Mission College to train missionaries for China is making favorable progress. Letters of sympathy and approval are com-

Rt. Rev. D. J. Scollard, Bishop of Sault St. Marie, writes : "I have heard about the Mission College which is started at Almonte. I hope it may be a success. The harvest is great in many countries but especial.

ly in China and the laborers are so Very Rev. H. Carr, C. S. B., Superior of St. Michael's College, Toronto, says : - "You are quite right that the need of such an institution is very great. You have the prayers and tunities at home, will ape the good wishes of the college staff, and the students." Very Rev. H. P. MacPherson, D.D.,

President of the University of St. Francis Xavier's College, Antigonish, from them. Nove Scotia, writes : "I was very glad to learn that your China Mission College is now a reality. Congratulations. You deserve infinite that generations of Canadians have praise for your faith and energy. I received in our Public and High hope you will meet with great suc. Schools. Those of us who have The correlative and complementary cess. . . . we shall be very glad will remember the hours we spent in to see you any time you come. I will remember the hours we spent in cess. . . . We shall be very glad passed through those institutions by an enthusiastic standing vote at religion a department of the State. the missionary committees of the that ruled Canada from Downing churches in the city, held at Sher Feast of the Epiphany, 1919. bourne Street Church last night izement. Then came the burning of Fellow Catholics,-The feast we The reason for this groat advance the Parliament Buildings at Montreal selebrate today reminds us of the in aim, which is more than double by an ultra loyal mob and the threat, first tidings of the light of the Re- the objective of 1918, when $114,000 a la Carson, to cast their lot with the deemer's coming to our forefathers was the mark set, is that exchange new Republic to the south. Eng-

Methodists Set Big Objec-

the Redeemer Himself, presented gentile races, who have since that the War. The intention was to raise ary Award and the perpetuation of time been so highly favored by God the aim of the Methodists of the a trade policy that is in direct contrahard light of sheer justice; and in sharing the inheritance of His whole Dominion next year from vention to the laws of nature. And chosen people, and even in supplant- $1,000.000 to $2,000,000, but Toronto now we have the apotheosis, the the innocent to death because of the ing them. We have, however, still has decided not to wait till next Premier of a nation that has contribmany millions of gentiles, who have year to double up, so it has set for uted billions of golden treasure and not yet shared in the privileges we 1919 as the aim for this city's nearly half a million men to the enjoy, the highest privileges that God churches one-quarter of what is cause of world freedom, sitting, as can bestow upon man, and surely being asked this year from the whole Dooley would say, on three inches of this is an opportune season of the of Canadian Methodists. This ob- a stool in one of the outer halls of year wherein to call attention to the jective of $250,000 for one city is the peace palace at Versailles. As we listened recently to an

The example of non-Catholics

and thus enable a number of stud-But we were disappointed. The only reference to his policy was the for your continued generosity, I redeclaration that returned soldiers

J. M. FRASER.

THE CRINGING SPIRIT OF

CANADA The thing that strikes most forcibly an intelligent visitor to our country is the little pride that Canadians take in the land of their birth. There are few if any countries in the world that can compare with sterious manner was to secure the Canada in natural beauty, in the variety and extent of her resources and in the romantic charm of her history. Notwithstandingthis, Canadians will grow enthusiastic over the green fields that are far away, will lament the lack of business opporeyes of the world ? manners, customs and speech of their less favored neighbors, and will bask in following in the wake of other nations. the borrowed glory of a nation one thousand leagues of ocean removed that the words of our national anthem might find a responsive echo What, we may ask, is the cause of in the hearts of the rising generathis unpatriotic spirit ? The cause is not far to seek. It is the training on Canada's fair domain."

tion : "O Canada land of our forefathers ! thy brow is crowned with glorious wreaths, for thine arm knows how to wield the sword and to carry the Cross. Thy history is an epopee of the most brilliant exploits, and thy valor, steeped in faith, will proJANUARY 25, 1919

spots in that period of our nation's with hearty sympathy wherever the growth, but they have been contriapostolic work of the Redemptorists buted largely by Canadians whose is known-and where in Canada is it loyalty, as it should, began at home, not known? For over thirty years and by English statesmen like Carlethese zealous Fathers have gone up ton, Durham and Elgin who were and down the country preaching worthy exponents of a sane view of penance and the remission of sin. colonial politics. What is the record The importance of that work and its of England and her satellites' deal- rich results cannot be overestimated. ings with Canada since 1759 ? For There are thousands of people in fifty years, that is until the War of every part of Canada who owe their 1812, there was a determined effort conversion or spiritual rejuvenation to impose the penal laws upon the to Redemptorist missions, and who, Toronto Methodists for 1919, adopted new British subjects and to make now that an appeal is made to place the Canadian Province of the Order upon a substantial, self-sustaining basis, will as some sort of return, Street in return for its own aggrandhowever inadequate, give it their enthusiastic countenance and support

THE TRAINING of Redemptorist priests in Canada is a new departure. Hitherto all their Canadian subjects have had to depend upon colleges of Canada until recently having been included in the American Province. This, unavoidable as it was under the circumstances, had in many ways its disadvantages, which recent developments have been intended to obviate. The widening of their sphere of labor in Canada, the prospects of still further extension, and the increase in the number of Canadian recruits to the Order have rendered it necessary that such subjects should be trained in Canada. address by the new Minister of Edu. This of course involves the purchase cation on the occasion of a High of properties, the erection of suitable the shadow of death, none are more ought to spur us on to do as much the impressions hidden in our it is to make provision for this that memory of early school days and of an appeal is to be made to the Cathothe old time teacher were revived lics of Canada. That such appeal , tary, to hear something enlightening have at heart the interests of the in regard to educational matters. Church and of humanity.

> WHILE THE work of the Redemptorist Order has largely lain in would be given the preference in the settled communities it has an honselection of teachers, because they orable share also in the foreign were best qualified to inculcate the mission work of the Church. Since virtue of patriotism. The whole the taking over of the Philippine burden of his speech was "Ba Islands by the United States the sons British." He dwelt upon the paltry of St. Alphonsus have carried on sacrifices that Canada had made in very successful work among the comparison with those borne by the native tribes there. This began with Motherland during the War, and the foundation of a mission at Opong reminded his youthful hearers that in the Island of Mactan in 1906 they were not so much prospective This town, which is separated from Canadian citizens as units in a Cebu by a narrow cana', forms part greater entity that in some mys- of the diocese of that name. Their second establishment was made at peace of the world and safeguard Malata, near Manilla, on the Island their liberties. Is this man, we of Luzor, in 1913, and, as we learn asked ourselves, the victim of a from the Annals of the Propagation policy that has so long dwarfed the of the Faith, from these two bases of national ideals of our people, and operation the influence and activity that would perpetuate that cringing of the Fathers has extended throughattitude that has belittled us in the out the whole Archipelago through the missions which they preach with It is surely high time that Canada, unwearying zeal.

declared for self determination, so THE PROMINENCE given by a Toronto daily paper to certain alleged spiritualistic manifestations in that city and to a book embodying some account of them, is at once significant of the chaotic state of religion in non Catholic communities, and a real menace to the very foundations of religion and morality among a class of people whose hold on revela-plorable situation than are the great let us make the China Mission Coluncounted multitudes who inhabit lege a great success by endeavoring at such a time and from such a digni- is devoutly to be wished by all who However, a brighter day seems to be dawning for China. In Ireland ents to prosecute their studies for the Irish Mission to China is making the Chinese missions. Thanking you pels the consideration of what essentially constitutes these mighty forces tem and let it go at that. Now, just more than half understood. which in other circumstances both author and readers might take for granted. Now we are not going to granted. Now we are not going to give it one new thought to wrestle detail the plot nor summarize the with every day, and let the rest go. history of David Elden. We shall . . . Ob, I know that there is a ally didactic; it is a stirring story of dip here and there into the story and certain school which holds that deep human interest, clean, wholehistory of David Elden. We shall . give a taste of its quality.

1

Yours gratefully in the Babe of its first missionary labors, and here Bethlehem.

After his father dies the youth that author, or this book or that book, you are hopelessly uninformed working as a coal-freighter comes under the influence of Mr. Duncan, than it can digest. Gluttons, both of an educated gentleman, who with the true Western spirit of hospitality and brotherhood, which one cannot that they do not read to think, but to help feeling is very closely akin to Christian charity rightly understood, ing. The mind, left to itself, insists prophetic vision D'Arcy McGee saw undertakes to supply the deficiency of Dave's education.

His methods may be worth thinking about even in these days when methodology and pedagogy are reduced to exact sciences. "Reduced" is the word, for they often have less soul than mathematics.

"Mr. Duncan placed the first and greatest emphasis on learning to write, and to write well. They had many philosophic discussions, in "What about Socialism ?" asked he said : "We must treasure up which the elder man sought to lead Dave, still unspoiled by "education," every gleam of Canadian literature." the younger to the acceptance of fresh, eager, open-minded, truths that would not fail him in the strain of later life, and when a conclusion had been agreed upon, it was clusion had been agreed upon, it wasMr. Duncan's habit to embody it in acopy for Dave's writing lesson. Oneevening they had a long talk on suc-stripped the glamour from wealth,succurve. But there is a destructivebrand of Socialism which seizes thestangpointed and dis.realization of one of his ardentlypatriotic hopes and aspirations.IIevening they had a long talk on suc-stripped the glamour from wealth,onequality in all human nature whichrealization of one of his ardentlypatriotic hopes and aspirations.IIin the succurve interesting lesson. Onecoses, and Mr. Duncan had graduallystripped the glamour from wealth,onequality in all human nature whichrealization of one of his ardentlypatriotic hopes and aspirations.IIin the succurve interesting lesson. Onegruntled men and women, and bidsthem destroy. There is a basicquality in all human nature whichrealization of one of his ardentlypatriotic hopes and aspirations.IIin the succurve interesting lesson. Onegruntled men and women, and bidsthem destroy. There is a basicIIIIin the succurve interesting lesson.gruntled men and women, and bidswomen, and bidsIIIin the succurve interesting lesson.gruntled men and women, and bidswar picture to which we referredgruntled men and women, and bids it, and carloads more in the ware-house?' Of course you don't. You charity" if not so fully grasped is eat enough for the go ood of your sys-If we have dwelt, for reasons which will be, perhaps, obvious, on its moral tone, we would not have it understood that the book is pedanticunless you have read this author or some and well told. This is true After his father dies the youth comes to the cow-town—soon with Western magic to be transformed into a modern city—and here while even of the love-interest of perennial can assimilate is morally on a par with a stomach that swallows more pen-pictures of the Great West, affords a pleasing and effective back them. Read as much as you can ground for the story. think about, and no more. The There is another r There is another reason why we trouble with many of our people is extend a hearty welcome to the save themselves the trouble of thinkupon activity. So they chloroform the marvellous Canada which is now actually before our eyes ; if they are

Such passages make us suspect seeing eyes. The marvels of D'Arcy that the proverbial breezy Western McGee's vision may otherwise beviews are merely the letting in of a come matter of course commoncurrent of fresh air on ill-ventilated places, unappreciated and uninspirtraditions and conventions. ing.

And we might learn to readjust In one of his eloquent addresses our view-point of the thousand and this Irish Father of Canadian Conone things that go under the elastic federation gave wise counsel which of our country we strained every term of Socialism. is yet sound. Amongst other things in Mr. Stead's Canadian novel a new "Very good, insofar as it is constructive. But there is a destructive realization of one of his ardently learning all about the character and livened by faith that worketh by this quarter. We shall have your the genealogy of the many disrepuhope you will get some support from prayer recited by the boys." table vikings that have disgraced the Father McPhail, the famous Rethrone of England. We knew by heart the date of every domestic demptorist missionary, writes from Montreal to the parish priest of skirmish and border foray from Stam-Almonte : " I just read you are to ford Bridge and Chevy Chase to Marshave a college to form missionaries for China. I was always expecting some extraordinary work like this of Britain's fleet and the prowess of would yet fall to you some time or other.

"The idea is grand and the location should be ideal. It may take a little time but all great works began on very small lines. How ever, I wish and pray that God may bless the undertaking."

would not approve of sending mis- the Monks of the West, as the his- up to the traditional standard. sionaries to China, and do all in his tory of Canada, in which a few power by prayer and alms to train begrudging paragraphs are devoted

Let us then all pull together, and intrepid valor of her colonizers, who Rome Messrs. Kenedy will commence as in our battle with the enemies planted the lilies of France beside by hundreds of millions, let us leave to the Rio Grande in the south. nothing undone until we see Catho- Every impartial historian must

lic missionaries going forth in a con- concede that as far as England is It is not a Catholic story ; but the tinuous stream to preach the Gospel concerned the history of Canada to these peor creatures, who still since the Treaty of Paris does not "sit in darkness and the shadow of evoke undiluted sentiments of filial

tect our hearths and our rights." THE GLEANER

> -----NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE PRINTING of the new Canon ton Moor and the Pass of Killiecrankie. new departure in the issuance of We were fed up on the glorious deeds Pontifical publications, may be re- trous to its spiritual well being, and garded as a direct result of the Great her armed men ; but we learned very War. Owing to the disturbed state circle of credulous and weak-minded little about the country of our birth. of Europe and the enforced inactivity To all intents and purposes the history of Canada began for us when : of ecclesiastical publishing houses in France, Belgium and Italy, it was

"In days of yore from Britain's shore, Wolfe the dauntless hero came And planted firm old England's flag

As well may we learn the history In fact it would be hard to imagine of civilization without any reference issued by Messrs. P. J. Kenedy & Cow-Puncher. Over fifty years ago in a person with a Catholic mind who to the Martyrs of the Colliseum and Sons, for example, is in every respect

> WE NOW learn that the same house men for that work. As the Bishop to the labors and the sufferings of has been authorized to publish the of the Name of the Redeemer of manof Peterboro remarked to me : "I the early missionaries, the zeal and newly revised "Missale Romanum," do not see how a person could be the wisdom of her pioneer bishops, the type matter of which is in course a Catholic, and not sympathize with the foundations of her institutions of preparation by the Vatican Press. of learning and charity, and the Immediately on arrival of this from to condemn the whole affair in the work upon it, so that this monuthe symbol of redemption every. mental work will appear in exact "What about Socialism ?" asked he said : "We must treasure up important battle with the powers of tended from Acadia in the east to the ly with the Roman edition. This nerve to win, so now in the more where throughout a land that ex. duplicate in New York simultaneous darkness in that great nation, where Rocky Mountains in the west, and event signalizes a new epoch in the Were he living to day he would see Satan rules supreme and is adored from the Hudson Bay in the north matter of Catholic publishing in America.

tion is tenuous in the extreme. The immediate effect of the free advertising which the book has had is, we are informed, an immense sale, and an appalling increase in the sale of "ouija boards,"-that monstrous invention, we might almost say, of the Law in America, which marked a Evil One himself. The result upon the community cannot but be disaspeople.

CATHOLICS, TOO, sad to say, need to deemed expedient and desirable to be reminded of the warnings of their entrust the work to publishers on Church in regard to this unholy this side. The departure has already thing. According to theologians of been amply justified : The volume authority, spiritualism, faked or real, is quite the most dangerous thing for anybody to trifle with, and should be shunned by all who value their immortal souls. As to the Toronto kind with blasphemous unbelievers and scoffers of the Voltaire and Ingersoll types, should be sufficient minds of decent people.

to the mental balance of a large

Knowing human frality, Jesus did not hesitate to teach us to walk warily. His own prayer in Gethsemane is the exact counterpart of this peti-tion. He shrank from the trial whose shadow was deepening over His life yet He did not decline to meet it. The bravest are not those who know no fear. He who alone of all men congregation of Our Most Holy Re-that the only way to be safe was deemer of a campaign for funds for never to be over confident.

THE LAUNCHING by the newly established Canadian Province of the

JANUARY 25, 1919

THE OPENING AGE

Edward F. Garesche, S. J., in America

From every Catholic heart the cry and prayer should go up without ceasing these momentous days : "God give us men to guide the opening age !" With the advent of peace and the release of the immense energies which have been directed with such earful efficiency to the work of des truction, there will come a great reulsion in the minds of men and a feverish activity to rebuild and restore what the war has pulled down, or rather to rear better and more perfect things in place of those destroved

After some fire or earthquake there comes a desire for reconstruction that sometimes carries the city far beyond the glories of its former

The world is recovering now from | it to Catholic forms. the shock of a stunning cataclysm, and all the vital forces of mankind will react with tremendous energy build up and beautify the earth This reconstructive energy is to go out into every field. In statesman. ship the cry is democracy, and here the war has only hastened the agelong tendency fostered by the Church. There must be vast social reforme. Justice and individual opportunity are to be given to families and indithat will sift out much of the chaff. though the sound wheat of Catholic principle which alone can be not entirely uncovered. In liter would had simply known as an impossible and eager would had simply known as an impossible and obsolete survival of old superbe not entirely uncovered. ature, in art, in science, in every urge of human effort, there will be new life, motion, energy. Consider the profound reactions and the stimulus of past wars in every field revolution it is in their thoughts to of effort and then conjecture what concede that she is a living force for we shall see in all human proba-bility now that this struggle is  $\epsilon$  nded. is theirs — on the earth. their crusted idlenesses, what can we interchange and counterchange of expect from this greatest of all wars ideas begins, these newly awakened expect from this greatest of all wars has made ancient battles folk will begin too to inquire what dwindle into skirmishes, and made the Church has to say and to suggest even the French laugh at Waterloo.

In the obvious order of things this nation should bear a part altogether glorious and great in the opening era atter the war. For we have been by the great fire of conflict. The best youths of England, France, the great the due war is the speech and with the illus-but in the speech and with the illus-but in the speech and with the illus-trations of contemporary life. What thaly, and the Allies and enemies in we need is Catholic intellectual this struggle lie muldering on the leadership to interpret in a way they glorious fields where they lived all can understand the deep, eternal their young lives in one tremendous truths of Catholic ethics, dogma, hour and died with their songs un which are a guide to the reconstruct spoken and their deeds unlived. our youth, immensely moved, charging a jot of the lunch angeable matured, instructed, disciplined, inspired by their part in this conflict, are still splendidly alive and will come home, by the grace of God, that will catch the ear of the in-with a new outlook on life and on telligent non-Catholic, give him in w outlook on life and on Something of the old cul. the world. patience, of her love of beauty, of the simple eloquence that truth aditions that make her very ruins always has when presented in the lovely and give her cities almost a soul, will have, even imperceptibly, The thrilling opportunities of the soul, will have, even imperceptibly, yet greatly, leavened their minds and their hearts. They will have seen our soul's capacity for enthusiasm, that the tremendous rush for material comfort and prosperity that and neart is not altogether worthy of a great people. They will have caught from the quiet Catholic atmosphere of rural France the sweet infection of old Catholic sweet infection of old Catholic thoughts and feelings that will work, in their young, passionate blood, into a great fever of holy admiration for all that is true, lasting, beautiful, wholesome and serene. Our country has never seen a hen the full appeal of Cath

ing age.

lic doctrine, principle, tradition could be brought so strongly to bear on the fine and true spirits outside the fold as now, when the war has shown the

It is only our cowardice and sloth that put all the glorious pages of the Church's history in the past. Why should there not be erast to come of blights. Connecticut should be more shining and magnificent with Catholic achievement than any that have gone ? Granted leaders who can inspire and then guide and sus-tain, we have the material of hearts, intelligences, imaginations and all else that matco great men with which to reproduce here in this new world all the greatest glories of the cld. Our one vast need will be con-summate leadership. We shall have to besiege Heaven for brave men like those mighty ones of old, who could fire a whole people with faith and courage, and then work out in the agonizing trials of petty details the shining fabric of success. The young men are ready as never before: ours to seize the glowing hour the metal cools, and fashion Among those who have stayed at home there is likewise a new re ceptiveness to Catholic teaching and mature pode be left on the vines suggestion. A vast curiosity at least is in the rear of men's thoughts concerning the true meaning and teach-irg of this age long Church which efficacy and vigor, here and in other warring lands. Old barriers of in-like the pearut vine is something like the pearut is bat the pearut soperable prejudice have stallen down, unremarked in the swift rush viduals as to nations, and there will be a searching of principles and a weighing of theories in social spheres that will sift out much of the chaff bing their eyes as they looked at the undeniable efficiency and obvious holiness o' an institution which they good almost unequaled-the "almost"

> adequate return for the millions spent.-E. C. R. on every ethical and religious prob-Paul L. Blakely, S. J., in America

But ive activities of all time. Without can be given to Catholic dogma, morals, ethics, with explanations the local public school. Association," according to the same energy and sacrifice. Our response should be a great increase of per-sonal effort in all the unselfich ways easy to effective of all forms of personal effort, prayer for great leaders of the Church and the nation in this open WHY THE FARMERS

writhing back. writhing back. Unhappily, however, the evil issue of the Smith bill for the federaliza-tion of American admention now. All that the Smith bill requires is our national sin. The Church as a MISPLACED INFORMATION tion of American education, now pending in the Senate, does not come out in the open. It would be quite unfair to assert that Senator Smith is moved by hatred of the private, or, more specifically, of the parochial school. It is altogether possible that any consideration of the inevitable effect upon the religious school of State-controlled education has never entered the Sena-tor's mind. It is also possible that those Catholics whom the bill has not jarred out of their customary indifference are likewise unaware that it will, humanly speaking, make the maintenance of the par ochial school a burden to which even the largest and wealthiest of our city parishes will scarcely equal. And the extinction of the parochial school means much more than the cessation of our educational equal. these young men are open as never before to the Catholic religion. When they come home again, their energies immense, their desire of they have seen in Europe, their The article religion to prove the second to be a contary hence, and cathedra's that a foot or so of snow on the surface, crop next Summer as poultry feed. The article religion to four educational activities. It means empty churches a century hence, and cathedra's that as vast tombs of their former glory. Today six out of every ten Ameri-cans have no affiliation whatever with any kind of religion, and there diminution of this irreligious majority. All indications point the other way. Where do our 25,000,000 Amer-ican children, the rank and file of the next generation, receive religious

THE CATHOLIC RECORD

Sunday school all that it should be, it "happens" but once a week, and series of bad Sundays, followed by an outbreak of measles and other

Earnest non-Catholics are

'weather-permitting.'

Destroy the Catholic parochial

United States by the year of our

And education is one of those matters. 'I he fear that the Smith bill will by degrees overturn the consti-

Socialistic, paternalistic spirit seeking to confer powers which every Lord 2020?

States, but the grasshopper is not a burden here.—Hartford Courant.

Nothing is more important to farmers and to the entire country than as a result the typical non Catholic agricultural information based on child regards Sunday school as a scientific investigation; but there curious survival of the Puritan Sab appears to be room for common sense improvement in the matter of its distribution. An American farmer told us the other day that Washing-ton, suddenly waking up to the im-get into the heart. Even were the portance of the peanut crop, sent to southern farmers and posted in pub- then only lic places an official document pointing out the serious loss from harvest-juvenile plagues, may put an end to the religious education of the chiling immature peanuts along with the fully ripened ones ; and advising dren. recognizing these shocking condi tions, and some among them, notably the Lutherans, the Jews and the until matured. The reason why the growers laughed and scoffed at the Episcopalians, are endeavoring to official advice was not immediately correct them by founding the equiv. has suddenly showed such young apparent to a Canadian. It appears alent of parochial schools. But the passage of the Smith bill subsidizing the public school will completely pods are low down and strike into will mean in the long run the complete triumph of education without God. school, the only complete system in the joke, just as farmers here would the United States which dares if told when digging potatoes to teach the child something about leave the small ones on the stalks God and His rights over His creauntil they grew to a reasonable size ! tures, make other religious schools equally impossible, and how much Christianity will be left in these Canada spends several million dollars annually in Agricultural Departments, federal and provincial : when farmers take a more direct, personal, and intelligent interest in this department of government, and It those lesser conflicts loosened the souls of men and shock them from stir of rebuilding comes, and the country will get a much more Add the Federal tax under the Smith an active part in its control, the

> THE FEDERALIZED SCHOOL

Bigotry dies hard in Michigan. of the parish priest and of all who do But, be it said to the honor of the citizens of that great State, for several years the legislature and the which teach them that God is a gas, votors alike have done their best to a subject not to be mentioned in hasten the day of its dissolution. Last month the legislature again polite society, will be almost as futile as Mrs. Partington's attack on refused to pass an amendment to the State educational law, which the tides. Catholic opposition to the Smith would compel all children between the ages of five and sixteen to attend The sole American citizens, those Catholics purpose of this measure, urged by an who have given serious thought to anti-Catholic group styling itself a the subject hold that if this country Civic Association," was, in the is to continue to be what it has ever words of the Adrian Telegram, "to abolish all church schools." The been in the pass, one of God's great est gifts to the world, the rights of single and abiding purpose of this the respective States in those mat ters over which, by the Constitution, journal, is to awaken and spread religious fanaticism. Happily, the issue in Michigan was so plain that it at once aroused the quiet but determined opposition of every fairminded man in the State. The Michigan bigots had set out to destroy the parochial school and made no secret of their plan. It is usually kill the snake that wriggles across the garden path. It is only the snake in the grass that is dan gerous. Nag, the cobra in Kipling's tale, crawled in through a drain and thereby set the fashion for nine out of ten anti-Catholic zealots. But occasionally, as in Michigan, the tenth comes out in the open, and then Rikki-tikki tavi, the American then Rikki-tikki tavi, the American spirit of fair-play, easily breaks his ruithing had is Mayor. During the period of his Of municipal activities he may have est- made mistakes, but these are triffing when compared to his splendid rec-ord in the public service. He is credited with introducing Lindsay's are represented as conducted by superintendents and teachers whose waterworks and sewerage systems, the organization of the fire brigade equipment on modern lines. record in relation to perma permanent roads can be seen in the miles of good, substantial pavement laid down as a result of his efforts. It is inforbath, and finds his sole source of religious education a bore and a nuisance, a thing to be shunned tunate, indeed that the town loses the services of one who has served faithfully and well. In his retirement Mr. Kylie leaves a record which is in-deed worthy of emulation — The

Lindsay Post.

tion rather than multiplying organ-izations. We are living in an age of Mayor Kylie is the father of the efficiency through co operation. Fas est ab hoste doceri.—The lesson coming from our separated brethren late Professor Edward Kylie whose death three years ago at the early should strike home. One has to go West to see the feverish activities of age of thirty six was so great a loss to the Church and to Canada.-E. C.R. the different denominations in that new field. Ask the mission organiz

His

THE CATHOLIC CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY OF CANADA

THE RESPONSE OF THE EAST Has the Church at large in the these organizations which are sup plying field secretaries, teacher social workers to our foreign Cath East heard the call of the West? Has that voice of distress gone through the ranks of our Catholics olic settlements, then you will begi like a shrill cry of the bugle call? Has it awakened our Catholics from their lethargy and quickened their sense of responsibility? Has the call the apathy of the good."-The mas of evidence, which can be had by th been answered, or has it gone out simple reading of the non-Catholi mission reports, as to their activitie like a cry in the wilderness, lost in the noise of our busy world, stifled in Western Canada is nothing sho of staggering. What examples What lessons! Should they not tur by the clamor of other voices, buried under other diocesan and parochial out apathetic Catholics into enthu claims? Even as matters now stand there iast apostles, stir them into watch In the Church of Canada there are very few Catholic parishes that do not find great difficulty in providfulness and actions? And why have always been generous and noble could we not do with more unity souls for whom the missions of the ing teachers, buildings and suitable West have had a mysterious attrac tion. Who can real without emotion of the heroic deeds of the first Jesuits bill, increase the already heavy State who followed the explorers and courtax; open in every ward new pub ic reurs des hois in their perilous ad schools housed in magaificent bu ld. ventures? What tribute of admira ings; staff them with officers whose words are a; music in the cas of tion and gratitude do we not owe to should he addressed : the Oblate missionaries who lived and died with the wandering children careless or climbing Cathol cs, one day to merit the pana'ty of eternal of the plains, who have kept the punishment for scandalizing their children, and what will be the result? fires of Faith burning from the of the Red River to the Pacific Coast from the winding shores of the Missouri and Mississippi to the ever-Just this: The heart breaking toil Previously acknowledged .... $1,119 A Friend, Hamilton ... not wish the children in schools lasting enows of the Arctic. Their lives of heroism furnish a bright Mrs. P. Connolly, Holden..... M. P., Halifax..... a myth, or a prejudice, and religion J. O. C.... A Resder.... splash on the rather drab and bleak Mrs. Fader, Halifax.....

landscape of what was known as the North West Territories. The Church of Canada will ever remain indebted to these noble pioneers of the cross, bill is not mere special pleading. In first hour; their saintly lives are for-dependent of the special pleading. In first hour; their saintly lives are for-Canadian history ; the western trails murmur their names in gratitude and the children of the prairie still bless their memory by the dying fires of their camps.

As Canon Ritchie reminded hearers, in his notable sermon Indeed the Province of Quebec for years sent her money to help the struggling schools of Manitoba. The Glasgow, Scotland, recently, over they have exclusive jurisdiction must be upheld in their integrity. Catholic Church of Canada has pledged itself in the plenary Council of Qaebec to help the Ruthenian cause; the Catholic Church Extension Society of late years is enlisting tutional balance of power between the sympathies of eastern Catholics Federal and State authorities is not for our western missions; with the a monster conjured up for the occahelp of their motherhou our sion. It is an actual and present menace, the embodiment of a semivarious sisterhoods have dotted the West with convents, schools, hospitals and charitable institutions. We all recognize the beauty and the community worthy of freedom must heroism of their Catholic charity and reserve to itself, upon a governmen-tal bureaucracy. Governments, as apostolic zeal. Notwithstanding these noble efforts can we safely state that the Church of Eastern governments are organized nowa-days, know very little of God; He Canada, as a whole, is deeply interested in the Catholic welfare of the has no vote and is not a corporation; West? Have we kept pace with the changing conditions the last decade

FATHER FRASER'S CHINA MISSION FUND

Each diocese is a constituted unity in itself, but not for itself alone.

Like each particular organism in the human system it exists for the benefit of the whole. The Catholi-

energy on itself; in the mill race bodies how much money comes from the East to support the struggling churches of the West; visit their im possible. They were not forgotten in our rejoicings, nor will they be forgotten.-St. Paul Bulletin.

will fall behind you .- Whitman

Dear Friends,—I came to Canada to seek vocations for the Chinese Missions which are greatly in need of priests. In my parish alone there are three cities and a thousand vilcity of the Church implies this idea of solidarity whereby the strong help the weak and the rich come to the rescue of the poor. Never perhaps has the Church suffered so much lages to be evangelized and only two priests. Since I arrived in Canada from the wastefulness of energies. The torrent if not directed spends its a number of youths have expressed their desire to study for the Chinese mission but there are no funds every drop counts. One of the great lessons the War to educate them. I appeal to your charity to assist in founding burses has given to the world is the absolute necessity of contralized effort and the advisability of central organizafor the education of these and others who desire to become missionaries in China. Five thousand dollars will found a burse. The interest on this amount will support a student. When he is ordained and goes off to the mission another will be taken in and so on forever. All imbued with the Catholic spirit of propagating the Faith to the ends of the earth will, I am sure, contribute generously to new field. Ask the mission organizers of the various non-Catholic this fund.

Gratefully yours in Jesus and Mary J. M. FRASER.

	churches of the West; visit their im mense printing establishments which are producing and distributing the	I propose the following burses for subscription :
	literature you will find on the table	SACRED HEART BURSE
	of the lonely Western settler; study	Previously acknowledged $795 92
	these organizations which are sup-	In honor of S. H., Little Bona 4 00 plying field secretaries, teachers,	Arthur J. White, Little Bona., 5 00 social workers to our foreign Cath- olic settlements, then you will begin	Bernard Montague, Belling-
	to understand this word of Pius X:	ham 100 00
1	"The strength of the enemy lies in	Friend, North Sydney 2 00
	the apathy of the good."-The mass	Rev. Geo. W. O'Toole, Cantley 10 00 of evidence, which can be had by the	J. O'C 1 00 simple reading of the non-Catholic	Mrs. S. Kinlin, Trenton mission reports, as to their activities	Mrs. Fader, Halifax 1 00 in Western Canada is nothing short of staggering. What examples!	QUEEN OF APOSTLES BURSE
	What lessons! Should they not turn	Previously acknowledged $1,172 50 out apathetic Catholics into enthus.	Mr. Benfillers, Almonte 5 00 J. O. C 1 00
	iast apostles, stir them into watch-	J. O. C 1 CO
	fulness and actions? And what	ST. ANTHONY'S BURSE
1	could we not do with more unity of action ?	Previously acknowledged $91 10
		James Robert, Ottawa 50
	Donations may be addressed to :	J. O. C 1 00
	REV. T. O'DONNELL, President,	A Friend, New Aberdeen 2 00
	Catholic Church Extension Society 67 Bond St., Toronto,	Mrs. Fader, Halifax 1 00
		IMMACULATE CONCEPTION BURSE
,	Contributions through this offer should be addressed :	Previously acknowledged $139 00
1		A Friend, B. C 5 00
1	EXTENSION, CATHOLIO RECORD OFFICE.	J. O. C 1 00
1	London, Ons.	Mrs. Fader, Halifax 1 00
8	DONATIONS	COMFORTER OF THE AFFLICTED BUBSE
1		Previously acknowledged $49 00
	Previously acknowledged$1,119 25 A Friend, Hamilton 2 00	J. O. C 1 00
	Mrs. P. Connolly Holden 1 75	ST. JOSEPH, PATRON OF CHINA, BUB38
	Mrs. P. Connolly, Holden         1         75           M. P., Halifax         1         00	Previously acknowledged $199 50
	J. O. C	Miss H., Toronto 7 00
	A Resder 500 00	Rev. M. J. Carey, Toronto 2 00
1	Mrs. Fader, Halifax 2 00
	MASS INTENTIONS	BLESSED SACRAMENT BURSE
,	A Reader, Ottawa 5 00	Previously acknowledged $56 50
3	E. G. P., Ottawa 4 00	Jos. Dobberthein, Webb 1 00 Mrs. D. C. Macdonald, Antigonish 2 00
2	THE COST OF MICTORY
3	THE COST OF VICTORY	ST. FRANCIS XAVIER BURSE
1		Previously acknowledged $50 50
z	Catholics least of all will forget at	Mrs. H. Mathewson, Arnprior 5 00
	what price this victory has been won. As Canon Ritchie reminded his	HOLY NAME OF JESUS BURSH
r	hearers, in his notable sermon at	Previously acknowledged $57 00
8	Glasgow, Scotland, recently, over 51	HOLY SOULS BURSE
8	millions of men had been face to face	Previously acknowledged $113 50
8	with death; over 27 millions had	LITTLE FLOWER BURSE
n	become casualties. The English	Developed a shared and an on
-	losses in dead were over 650,000, and	Previously acknowledged $91 00 Eleanor E. Dray, Little Bona 1 00
g	those of our enemies are numbered	N. J., Iona 1 00
8	in millions. Twenty-five thousand
e	priests of France alone had shown on the field of battle what Catbolic A man can combine patriotism and patriotism is, and their casualties too had been heavy. "These brave men," said King George, "have died profit by increasing and improving his flocks and herds.

for Right and for Humanity. Both have been vindicated." Would they have had it otherwise ? So with our "Breed for quality that will produce maximum weight in shortest time," says the Live Stock Expert. Te Deum goes our prayer for the men Every ordinarily unused nook and that made the song of thanksgiving corner of the farm should be brought to growing feed for stock next spring.

Raise two crops of pigs a year. It Keep your face always turned to. is the common practice in the East-ern and Central States and might ward the sunshine and the shadows well be a more common practise in Canada body in the United States and has brought the flower of our young men in intimate contact with Catholicism abroad. The word Catholic has a new meaning in the minds of a million young men, who have seen the wayside crucifixes of sweet France, the village shrines and the populous cathedrals, and marked how intiwoven is the Catholic Faith with all the life of the people whose every noble trait blossoms brightest in the shadow of their cathedrals and next Summer, and this information their shrines. In Belgium, France, Italy, these shrewd young American eyes will not have failed to observe that the people for whom they were fighting, the common people who make the nation, are profoundly Catholis. And it is the people whom they love and admire and not the accidental persons whom they find in showy places or in formal cereenergies immense, their desire of achievement heightened by what they have seen in Europe, their powers deepened and their industry whetted by long abstinence from the activities of civilian life, if we can we are told that they are rich in but catch them up in some vast movement of truly Catholic recon. of them. This brings to mind cer struction, guide their keen interest and their high aspirations along those Heaven given courses which only can bring enduring accomplishment, put them in possession of the rich, secure achievement of Catholic thinkers and planners in the past and send them out into the nation. balanced, secure, with a compass and a rudder of faith and principle, then we may hope to see even in our day a revival of something of that union a revival of something of that union is not a grasshopper producing State? of deep faith and high achievement There is no need for making contrivmade the best days of the Middle Ages so glorious.

FIVE

BEGETS CONTEMPT No department of the Federal Government is more generous with its advice than is the Department of Agriculture, for, when it comes to conclusions regarding the culture of cotton or sugar cane in Mississippi, it spreads the glad tidings in Maine, Wisconsin, and Montana. Within a few days it has suggested that if low temperatures continue in the North will be sent to the Southern States. Now, however, The Courant and other folk in New England are told that a plague of grasshoppers may be expected in Indiana next Summer, Because of this we of New England be put to confusion if the farmers will plow and harrow their fields

SMILE

tain memories of John the Baptist and suggests the possibility that the department is preparing to suggest that our little friends Melonoplus and Locusta are to be dehydrated and utilized in unexpected ways, but further developments along these lines may be awaited calmly. But why must all this wealth of information as to the grasshoppers be lavished upon Connecticut, which There is no need to harvest a crop of insects of this sort, because the crop instruction? In the home? The cry of religious and social leaders is that the home is disappear ing. Of course there are thousands of real homes in which Christian fathers and mothers have a care over those of their household; but in the average non Catholic family, and ceasingly for its advancement. in too many of our own, religious Twenty-nine years ago Mr. Kylie en-training does not seem to hold an tered municipal life and for fifteen acknowledgment of the sovereignty whole has not awakened to its reof the Federal Bureau of Education. sponsibility, as individuals, as parishes, as dioceses, Catholics here

Furthermore, Catholics believe, with other millions of Americans, that and there have nobly done their duty. As a body, as a living Church of Canada we have failed to help the this country cannot safely afford to neglect any factor which will pre-serve it, as it has been declared to struggling West as we should have done. We have not thrown all the be by the Supreme Court, a Chris tian nation. The Catholic parochial energies of our great living, organ school, in their belief, is the greatest izing Church into this Missionary work. The Catholics of our Eastern torce in the United States, next to the Church herself, which today Provinces are not yet united in one great generous effort to protect and actively works to that end. That no other school system even pretends to spread the Kingdom of God in their own fair Dominion. The Call of the Church in the be founded on the precepts of Chris tianity is plain. We are not asking, as conceivably

West has not been heard !

West has not been heard ! Never has the importance of the West loomed up before the public mind as it has since the beginning of the War. To realize this you have we might, either our share of the school funds, or exemption from the tax. We only ask not to be crushed by further taxation, State and Fed-eral, for the maintenance of schools only to remark its growing influence in our political life. It cannot be otherwise; the possibilities of the which we cannot in conscience use, and we protest the injustice of special governmental favor towards West are so great and so numerous. all schools which formally disavow God and His Christ. We will pay Immense virgin prairies are still waiting for the plough. After the war, during the period of reconstrucfor our own schools, poor as we are, and we will pay gladly. They are tion, necessarily so pregnant of great events, the growing powers of our agricultural West will be tremendpart of our contribution as Americans to the true prosperity of our balayed country, and the monument ous. This is therefore a trying period for the Church in the West. ous. which we raise to the glory of the one true God. Beyond the waving wheat of the prairie we should contemplate the ripening harvest of souls. Like a growing youth the Church in Western Canada needs more than ever help and support from the Mother Church In the retirement of ex-Mayor Kylie from municipal life, the town of the East. The assistance in this stage of the Western Church is a loses the services of a gentleman who worked enthusiastically and un pressing duty of conscience, not only for the individual Catholic but particularly for the Church as a whole, in Eastern Canada.

MAYOR KYLIE RETIRES

This duty is the duty of the hour.

SIX

FIVE MINUTE SERMON

THE THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

TEPIDITY

"Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the paley." (Matt. vivi, 6.)

As leprosy is frequently, my dear rethren, spoken of as the figure and type of sin, so pairs represents tepid-ity. As the man afflicted with the palsy lieth at home powerless of limb, unable to move, dependent on Triends for food and comfort, so the tepid man is sluggish in the service of God, useless, and at a standstill in virtuous work and all that concerns his salvation. It is the opposite to the fervour of Divine love. Te-pidity is a languid and miserable dejection, which causes a man to have no zest in prayer, or in any spiritual or virtuous exercise.

Tepidity commonly arises from sloth, which is fed on idle leisure; has a repugnance towards and cursloth tails anything, prayer or services, which is for God; flies self-denial hates work, but loves comfort, selfindulgence, and the good things of life. So to the tepid spiritual and Divine things have no savour, and even become loathsome, but foolish and vain things are a delight. Spiritual bread begets a loathing, sinful poison, so it is pleasant, a craving.

And the growth of tepidity is rapid, though insidious and un-noticed. The palsied man, lying useless, makes no note day after day that his limbs grow more powerless; that movement is more and more an impossibility; that each day might be called more truly a living corpse

Death is a release to the palsied, but there is no release for tepidity, un-Its effects are mortal sin. checked. an evil life, repentance put off time after time, callousness to sin, and a bad death, when God's patience is worn out. St. Jerome says : "Through tepidity man loses all the gifts of graces and Divine love, is satur-ated with vice, loses his time-the time for repentance-becomes the sport of the devil, amd is eternally

It is in our very nature to be tainted with this vice. And its growth is so imperceptible, its effects such utter ruin, that it is of the most urgent necessity that we do our utmost to free our souls from this spiritual palsy. Let us cast off this accursed vice, and become prompt, strenuous, and fervent in the service of God before it is too late

To enable us to do this, remember the honor and privilege it is to be called on to serve God. A soldier does not regard the hardships, the danger to life and limb, when chosen for some heroic task, but the glory and honor of having been chosen, and the still greater glory if he is cles of an old and distinguished fam successful.

Miserable creature comforts, paltry pleasures, satisfy, or, rather, pre-tend to satisfy, a tepid man in this life, and he forgets to lift up his eyes and see the eternal reward awaiting those who obey the Caurch, practice virtue, and are earnest in every good work for the sake of their Divine Master. "For I reckon," says St. Paul, " that the sufferings of this time are not worthy to be compared with the glory to come." (Rom. viii. 18.) Oh the joy and the eternal glory rewarding the light, the short labors of this life !

And remember, above all, the necessity to begin at once. Do not plan for the future, but lay your hand to dures through all; in good repute, in any good work waiting for you. Begin, and begin strenuously; do not fear, do not delay. Remember how abundantly and lovingly God comes to the help of those who call upon Him, and seek Him with all their hearts. Implore His aid; begin like men. at once, lest delaying, you sin afresh and perish. "Know ye that no one hath hoped in the Lord and net be be brought to think him all un-worth hath been or

to Take "Fruit-a-tives"

78 LEES AVENCE, OTTAWA, ONT. "Three years ago, I began to feel run-down and tired, and suffered very much from Liver and Kidney Trouble. Having read of 'Fruit-atives', I thought I would try them. The result was surprising: I have not had an hour's sickness since I commenced using 'Fruit-atives', and I know now what I have not known for a good many yearsthat is, the blessing of a healthy body and clear thinking brain". WALTER J. MARRIOTT.

50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

uishing in tepidity. How short the future may be, we know not. We cannot trust it. It is now at once that we must turn to Thee, and in all humility and faith pray Thee to come and heal us. Bid us arise, and with new strength and zeal give ourselves to Thy service and perse vere to the end.

HOME AND MOTHER

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL THING IN LIFE IS A MOTHER'S

LOVE A man may own a handsome and well furnished residence and yet may not possess a home-that is, a home in its best and purest sense, where domestic felicity reigns supreme : for only amid such surroundings can we find the happy home. So understood, there is no sweeter word in the language than "home," and one has well said, "Few words in His Name. lie nearer the heart than the word 'home'." To those of us who were trained in good homes, how deep, how heartfelt is the pity we feel for those who were deprived of that moral and social stimulus that is the concomitant of the happy home ! "Where is your home ?" a little boy was asked by an acquaintance. "Where mother is," the little fel-low replied, as he looked lovingly across at her.

The little boy's philosophy would be endorsed by many of maturer age. Undoubtedly the mother of a family, the mistress of the house, has much hand. ily says: "Of our mother I cannot think of anything to say. She is just

But, first and foremost, matrimony the mother-our own dear, patient, loving little mother ; unlike everyone else in the world, and yet it seems as if there was nothing to say about her by which one could make anyone understand what she is." In other words, the "dear, patient, loving little mothers" are sweetly indescribable. Washington Irving must have known the full and abiding faith of the true mother heart when he wrote; A father may turn his back on his child, brothers and sisters may become inveterate enemies, husbands may desert their wives, wives their dures through all; in good repute, in bad repute, in the face of the world's female? And he said: For this cause shall a man leave father and mother and shall cleave to his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. Therefore they are not now two, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined to condemnation, a mother stil loves on, and still hopes that a child may turn from his evil ways and repent; still she remembers the infant smiles that once filled her bosom with raptgether, let no man put asunder."

THE CATHOLIC RECORD

consistent champion.

Catholic.-Catholic Transcript.

SANCTIFICATION OF

THE NEW YEAR

further cohabitation between the afflicted, mind or body; for all poor prisoners, and for all helpers of each and every degree.

parties to a marriage becomes unadvisable, or even morally impossible. In justification of the step that she By the saving virtue of the Blood By the saving virtue of the blood of the Lamb, ever living, yet ever immolated by the holy faith and hope and charity given by Him, O God, your God, hear our prayer! O grant that each one may do, by Thy grace, his duty as he ought, strong and hrave, eaching away despair! O In justification of the step that she may see fit to take in such cases, the Church, through the Council of Trens decreed that "if any one shall say that the Church errs, when she, for many causer, decrees a separation of man and wife in respect to bed and dwelling-place for a definite or an inand brave, casting away despair! O grant, Father of mercy, all compas-sionate, that Thou Thyself be with definite period, let him be anath-ema." Such is the separation men-tioned by St. Paul in his letter to the us, to Thy glory and the salvation of our souls. O hear our cry for France, for her friends and for her loviathians, in which he demands If she depart, that she remain up enemies, too, within and without ! Do Thou from heaven help us, and narried, or be reconciled to her hu band." There is here, of course, n relation to what is known in th by Thy Holy Spirit send true peace on earth, and good will amongst men: that all may love Thee, and world today as divorce, for here the marriage bond remains intact and infor Thy sweet sake that all may love dissoluble. their fellowmen ! Amen. The permanence of marriage, set

Heart of Jesus, have pity on us down by the natural law for the all! whole human race, and confirmed and ratified by Divine ordinance, has 'Queen of heaven, hear our cry !'

DIVORCE

It is not a rare thing for the even ng paper, in its recountal of the day's happeninge, to record a list of granted divorces quite as long, if not longer, than the accumulated list of marriages of two or three days. The divorce question in the United States has been an alarming one for some time, and its dangers have been pointed out by men and women who, while not of the Catholic faith, em-phasize that the Catholic doctrine with regard to marriage and its indissolubility, is the only remedy for the bideous disease which is eating away, with cancerlike growth, the life of the family and of society. While treating of the Sixth Commandment, which lays such empha-sis on the sacredness of Christian marriage, it cannot be out of place to say a word with regard to this foul, moral plague, the origin of which can be traced to a widespread disregard, or indeed, defant con-tempt, for the law of God and the teaching of the Church which speaks

Every person who calls himself a Christian must recognize that marriage is not merely a human con-tract. It is that, too, but only in a certain sense. Inasmuch as the well being and prosperity of human society as a whole is dependent on the regulation of the families that go to make it up, certain measures are obviously necessary to preserve the order and harmony of the family units. Viewed in this sense only, the various regulations in various communities concerning the union of individual couples, the formalities for obtaining a license, et ... the laws of inheritance and the division of property, give matrimony the nature of a civil contract, in the guarding of which the State must have a is a Sacrament. It is the sacrament by which Christian man and woman are united for life in the bond of lawful marriage. Its holiness is traceable to its very institution by God Himself, Who, after He had made man and woman, joined them together with the injunction: "Increase and multiply and fill the earth." And when the Son of God, the regenerator of human society, gave forth His teaching regarding matrimony, He inauguarated no with it. new principles in its regard. "Have ye not read," He told the Pharisees, "that he who made man from the beginning made them male and female? And he said: For this cause night, Having been made a Sacrament, alelled application of His reparation one of the seven channels by which and infinite merits. It is, moreover, the Blood of Christ was to be poured the total gift of Himself that Jesus

the Blood of Christ was to be poured into the souls of His faithful, Matrimakes i mony, together with the other ment to an innumerable multitude mysteries of God, was given over to the guardianship and custody of the Church who along one lain the state of them an abundant source of

"SALADA"

In infusion is worth every cent of its cost, the flavor is Delicious and the strength Abundant.

Beyond All	The Heat
Question	Tea Obtain

humility and charity in which nature dominates or the supernatural is en-tirely absent! Of what value is all that for eternity?

many words have crossed my been maintained by the Church from the beginning. However weighty have been the forces brought to bear So lips! Have they profaned those lips that should pay to God the so well earned homage of adoration, grati tude, and prayer ? Of what value is all that for eternity ? against her stand, the Church has al.

ways refused to sanction the parting of those who have been joined by And my actions, all that fills up God in a fully completed marriage. Had she been ready, in the sixteenth my hours, my days—what now re-mains of them before God? Ot century, to profane the Sacrament of Matrimony by allowing Henry the Eighth to enter the second of his what value is all that for eternity? Oh, how worthless! If at this many "marriages," she would per-haps have avoided the separation of noment, we could retrench from our life all that has not been for God and according to Gcd, what would remain? And yet, perhaps tomor-row, an account of it will have to be England from its allegiance to the True Faith. She preferred, however, to suffer the loss that she has since endured, rather than countenance a violation of the marriage bond. rendered !

Let us at the feet of Our Lord shed bitter tears, we who have mingled so much self love with His love, so Incidental to our consideration of the Sacrament of Matrimony, refer-ence was made in these columns to so much sentrove with his sorvice, much tepidity with His service, hearkened so little to His inspira-tions, given so little return for His graces, showed so little courage to the conditions under which that Sac-rament could be validly received. Where, through some essential flaw in the marriage contract, the Church eventually declares that there has follow Him, above all to Calvary and upon the way of discouragement and been no marriage, i. e., that the con-tract has been null and void from Let us above all, weep at this hour over the remembrance of our want of thought, our negligence, our fidelity, even our ingratitude toward Our the beginning she is not countenanc ing divorce, but rather emphasizing the holy and solmen nature of Christian marriage, of which she alone, and always, has been the stout and Lord truly present through love for us in the Most Blessed Sacrament. Let us deplore the hours of adora-

As Catholics we cannot place too high an estimation upon the sanct-ity of marriage, the holy nature of tion too frequently made without preparation or fervor, and the tepid Communions in which routine taken the place of love, and which, which is so frequently overlooked in the world today, that married life is being brought more and more into consequently, have been without consolation for the heart of Our Lord, and without profit to our own degradation. Nor can we fail to see that the one great hope of society, soul.

threatened as it is more and more After shedding tears of regret, let us now, beginning the New Year, ask God for a heart of good will. Oh, how good, how infinitely good is our by the evils of divorce, lies in that aception of Matrimony which is so uniquely and characteristically God, and His mercy is never ex-hausted ! It "endureth forever" even Lever Brothers Limited, Toronto in the face of ingratitude. From those hands that we have forgotten, from that heart that we have de-spised—behold a new year, which means new graces. A new fountain has jetted up from His bosom, and Here we are at the end of another to it He invites us in these words of inexpressible tenderness : "Come year. Like all that ends, forgetful-ness will soon enshroud it, and on the morrow of its last day with radito Me, My friends, come to Me! You who thirst, I shall refresh! You who hunger, I shall nourish! You ant countenance and light heart friend will greet friend, neighbor who suffer, I shall relieve !" Wee to him who again turns a will exchange bright smiles and good wishes with his neighbor, promising themselves long and happy years deaf ear to the voice of the Father of oar days and the Master of our years! God is not obliged to allow filled with endless joys. But for every earnest and thinking man the Himself to be always despised. Time it is true, is all for mercy. He thought of the past year is a very serious one, since just that much more of his life has passed away has left His justice on the threshold of eternity. But this year may bring of eternity. But this year may bring us to the threshold of that kingdor

The closing year means number less, priceless graces of Heaven. It is the Heart of God incessantly showering upon us a rain of love and into the hands of that singdom and into the hands of that justice into which it is terrible to fall ! Then, while a little light still shines upon us, let us walk on. While a patient God, because He and benefits that far outnumber our days. For Eucharistic souls, the closing loves us, allows us a little time, let tas do good without deferring it un year is more especially the immola-tion of the August Victim of our til the morrow-for tomorrow be-longs to God alone-without waiting Altars, unceasingly renewed day and for the evening which, it may be, we shall never reach, without putting off till that fatal night on which, bringing with it the unpar-

no man can work." Among the tears of Jesus men-

JANUARY 25, 1919

117 Yonge St. TORONTO

CANDIRS

Bookkeeping Shorthand Subjects Taught in THE

By Expert Instructors 84th Year. Send for Free Catalogu J. W. WESTERVELT, Principal.

DENNISTEE Lockers Save Time, Space and Money! CANADA'S industrial leaders use our all-steel lockers and shelving, because they find it pays. The locker shown herewith is particularly suited for use where space is limited and many employees must be accommo-dated. Thiefproof, rotproof, vermin-

FIREPROOF Indestruct e-a good permanent DENNISTEEL products are used by Can-adian rail-ways, de-partment

Kidney and Bladder Troubles don't attack you suddenly. Chronic diseases of these organs are generally the re-sults of neglect. Nature gives you nlenty of warning when your Kidneys

A CONTRACTOR

THE health of your

ant for y u to be careless ant for v u to be careless about the bath soap vou use Keep the skin ciear and smooth and prevent skin troubles by using

LIFEBUOY

It is the best of all soaps-

yet it is more then a cleanser it disinfects too

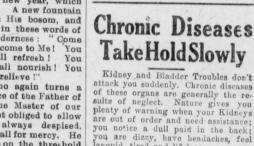

in Lifebuoy is a sign of its protect-ive qualities—van-ishing quickly after sults of neglect. Nature gives you plenty of warning when your Kidneys are out of order and need assistance; you notice a dull pain in the back; you are dizzy, have headaches, feel languid, tired and lifeless. There is no mistaking the symp-toms, and when Nature warns you-obey-or later you will regret it. Putting off never cures. Gin Pills do. At the first sign of Kidney or Bladder Trouble, buy a box of Gin Pills and take them. They will help your Kidneys to perform their proper function and renew your previous strength and vigor.

HEALTH SOAP

strength and vigor. Among our hundreds of testimonials is one from Mr. B. C. David, King's Co., N.S. Mr. David writes:

"I was suffering from a dreadful lame back and hips, so much so that I could hardly straighten up. I got a box of Gin Pills and they helped me immediately. I have hath continued in His commandment and hath been forsaken, or who hath called upon Him and He de-spised him? . . They that fear the Lord will seek after the things that are well pleasing to Him.' (Eccles. ii. 11, 12, 19.)

And, lastly, break with sin, guard-ing against even small and habitual falls. They lead, if carelessly indul-ged in, to mortal sin. And after being warned and forgiven by God so often, even one more mortal sin, the outcome of tepidity once again, might anger God so much that death hot go to Christ, who is the good friend, the centurion, who will go and bring Him to us? The centur-ion did not ask our Blessed Lord to come to his servent, and expressed his unworthiness when our Lord had said : "I will come and heal him." The centurion, then, is the had said: "I will come and heal him." The centurion, then, is the embodiment of humility and faith. These are the graces we need, and then we shall be cured of tepidity. Humility arising from the knowl-edge of our sad state. Helpless, pow-erless of ourselves, waiting hour after hour for the approach of death, surely we can be humble and ary for my sins; for all the needs of Holy Church: for my sins; for all the needs of Holy after hour for the approach of death, surely we can be humble and Jry for mercy. "This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him." (Ps. xxxii. 7). And faith we need—faith in the goodness * and willingness of our Blessed Saviour. "I will come and heal him." It all depends on our faith. "As thou hast believed, so be it done to thee." O Lord, there is urgendy in our request. The sight of the past fills us with fear. Years we have spent idly, uselessly, lang.

"The instruction received at the mother's knee, and the paternal les sons, together with the pious and sweet souvenirs of the fireside, are the guardianship and custody of the Church, who alone can claim the right of declaring what are the connever entirely effaced from the soul. -Buffalo Echo ditions for constituting a true and valid marriage in the sight of God.

When it attempts to touch the bond of marriage, the essence and sub-PRAYER OF MARSHAL stance of the union between Christian FOCH

Befitting the man who brought victory to the Allies and saved the world from materialistic forces and might be allowed to overtake us. the truits of man made religion seek And death in even one mortal sin is ing the destruction of Christianity, atternal ruin. If tepidity is spiritual pa'sy, and we are powerless to move and can-not go to Christ, who is the good friend, the centurion, who will go man and wife, the civil power is inerfering in a matter outside the limits of its authority. It is acting beyond its jurisdic ion, and the Church, however insistent she be that unto Caesar shall be rendered the things that are Caesar's, will suffer no tampering with a matter that is peculiarly and directly God's.

Hence her unchangeable attitude in the question of divorce. The Catholic Church teaches that where Christian marriage has taken place and has been consummated, shall weep over the past year-we shall weep, not so much for the life shall weep, not so much for the life that is, where the lawfully married that is escaping from us, as for the uselessness of that life. parties have been living together as man and wife, nothing but the death

Lat us today examine whither its of one or another of them can dis solve the bond and set them free to marry again. In her eyes, therefore, and actions, examining them in the those so-called "divorced" persons light of the Gospel, weighing them who marry again are not living in in the scales of conscience, seriously lawful wedlock, but in sin, the sin asking ourselves: Quid hoc ad that is expressly prohibited by the aternitatem? Of what value is all Sixth Commandment, whatever de this for eternity ?

cree may have been issued by any So many thoughts have passed vil authority, or whatever the civil through my mind, so many dreams We are speaking here of what is known as "absolute divorce." Quite another thing is what is sometimes the first the most forgotten.

the first place, soaring above all others? Of what value is all that abother thing is what is sometimes use first plac termed "limited" divorce, more gen-erall referred to as "separation," in which there is no dissolution of the marriage bond, but a temporary or grossed my l

So many sentiments have en-grossed my heart! Can I without permanent separation of the married blushing acknowledge them all be parties from married life. It is posparties from married life. It is pos-sible that conditions may arise where Alas ! how many thoughts against acra. tioned in the Gospel, the most bitter were shed over the abuse of time allowed by mercy; "Jerusalem, ah ! allowed by mercy; "Jerusalem, ah ! if thou didst know the value of the time that remains to thee, and the light, strength, holiness, and devotedall the liberality of the God Man. inter the transition of the state o upon thee !" May Jesus never weep over us ! Let us be thinking ourse ves seriously before bidding adieu to this year that is gliding into eternity. Let the first moment of the New Year be His, and may the last find Let us begin by a glance toward Heaven, a glance that will carry us still faithful! It will bring to us many blessed bours laden with graces and favors. Ah, when these beneficwith it our whole soul with this word to God: "Thanks!" And in those days when all who love one ent clouds pass over our heads, may they pass not over indifferent souls ! another visit cne another, when the most forgotten benefits are recalled, May prayer attract them ! May they rain on hearts, become good ground ! May they fructify by patience and let us endeavor that the Divine Benefactor, He the first, the most lov-ing, the most constant, may not be for the eternal years! Thus the New Year will be a good year.—The Sentinel of the Blessed Sacrament. If we are grateful, a far different sentiment will fill our heart. We

FOR PROFIT

Yonge and Gerrard Sts.

Dept. C. R.

my God.-St. Francis.

and other sufferers." Mr. David's case is only one of the many to which Gin Fills have brought immediate relief. Sufferers from Kid-ney or Bladder trouble should heed what has been done in such cases and ter Gin Fills. try Gin Pills.

try Gin Pills. Sold almost everywhere throughout Canada-50e a box. A free sample will be sent you if you write to The National Drug & Chemical Co. of Can-ada, Limited, Toronto, Ont. U. S. residents should address Na-Dru-Co., Inc., 202 Main St., Buffale, N.Y. 276

WORKS CO. LIMITED LONDON

Montreal Ottawa eg Calgary Vand

JANUARY 25, 1919

CHATS WITH YOUNG MEN

FORGET NOT THE FIELD Forget not the field where they perished, The truest, the last of the brave ; All gone-and the bright hope cherished

Gone with them, and quenched in the grave !

Oh, could we from death but recover Those hearts as they bounded before ; In the face of high heaven to fight over That combat for freedom once more !

Could the chain for an instant be riven interior. Kindness and considera-tion for others. Remember you riven Which tyranny flung round us then, Oh, 'tis not in man nor in heaven To let tyranny bind it again !

But 'tis past, and though blazoned in story The name of our victor may be,

Accurst is the march of that glory Which treads o'er the hearts of the free !

Far dearer the grave or the prison Illum'd by one patriot name, Than the trophies of all who have risen On Liberty's ruins to fame ! THOMAS MOORE

GOOD MANNERS

The following is a talk which the late Archbishop Ireland delivered to his students at St. Paul Seminary. His advice is equally valuable to every Catholic boy. The New Year is a good time to act upon it.

Manners maketh the man," or rather character maketh the man. Both sayings tell a truth but incom plete and partial. Courtesy is the outward expression in our social relations of consideration and regard for others. It adds to the charm and grace of social life. Courtesy improves character, enlarges oppor-tunity and beautifies life. If you were not brought up in an atmos-phere of good breeding and good and have not courtesy naturally implanted in your person ality, it must be acquired.

Politeness is a Christian virtue. It implies humility, a little opinion of oneself, charity or regard for others and self denial. The college man must be a gentleman. We man must be a gentleman. Americans have not much of a repu tation for politeness among Euro-We are in a new land of frontiersmen and cowboys, they say. And it is true to a certain extent that American manners will bear improvement. The American youth not over polité. He lacks the spirit of reverence. At sixteen he knows more than his father-at least he thinks he does. In Manila Uni-versity there was a department devoted to "Urbanitata" which puzzled the Americans very much when they went to the Philippines. They discovered that the young men there were taught urbanity or polite-

You may say that this courtesy is merely external and covers inward deficiencies. But by the law of reflex action the practice of courtesy Sammy Slacker spent his cent for reflex action the practice of courtesy will make you what you seem. In a genius we may overlook breaches of good breeding as a privilege of great. did not help the Government and was good breeding as a privilege of greatness, but we do not excuse them. A man with good manners gets along better in society, he pleases people and makes a good impression. It always pays to be a gentleman. The of the old school was al ways courteous. The world, where might is right and the selfish rule, is losing its courteey. Egotism runs riot. It is My shoes don't look very bright, but wonderful what disrespect and lack of courtesy many young men display towards their elders and superiors. The young should show respect, reverence and a certain deference, cusly to see what you are going to get. Hold your knife and fork properly. The napkin is laid on the lap, not istuffed down one's neck. Toothpicks are not used at table but Adore Him as God. Consider His perfections, which He renders sub-servicent to your happiness; His greatness abasing itself to you; His immensity reduced to the smallest in private. Don't leave the table charged with food. Doctor will tell you it is had for the stomach. Many proportions, His power which in the tabernacle reverses the law of nature. His great tenderness, mercy, and compassion, His inexhaustible and incomprehensible love, all yours—all. young men ruin themselves for life by overeating. Be kind and attontive to your neighbors at table. Young men should have mutual consideraat your service. Ask for grace to at your service. Ask for grade to overcome the many dangers to which you are constantly exposed; ask for an upright mind, a humble spirit, a Christian heart; ask for a true hatred of sin and freedom from human retion for one another. Therefore cultivate the courtesy Be thoughtful and kind and the soul spect. Pray for those near and dear to of unselfishness. Have your courtesy not as a mere gloss on interior crudi-ties. Let the exterior reflect the you, ask Jesus to sanctify them, to surround them with His mercies and benefits, and to give them all the penetries, and to give them and the graces necessary for their sanctifica-tion. Pray for poor sinners, and don't forget the suffering souls. Keep a watchful guard throughout the day over your heart, your senses, must cultivate courtesy if you wish a successful career. It is essential and does not come on the spur of the moment. It should find most congenial soil on the soul and heart of a Christian gentleman.-Catholic especially your tongue, that so you may not offend God. On the course of your actions frequently recall His

THE PRESIDENT

ABROAD

OUR BOYS AND GIRLS OUR BOYS AND GIRLS

A LULLARY The stars are twinkling in the skies, The earth is lost in slumbers deep; So hush, my sweet, and close think At a state banquet, unsurpassed

And let me lull thy soul to sleep. Compose thy dimpled hands to rest, perhaps in regal splendor during the reign of the present ruler, King George formally welcomed Presi-dent Wilson. Among other things And like a little birdling lie Secure within thy cozy nest the King said :

Upon my loving mother breast, And slumber to my lullaby, So hushaby-O hushaby. The moon is singing to a star

The little song I sing to you ; The father sun has strayed afar, A haby's sire is straying too. And so the loving mother moon Sings to the little star on high ; And as she sings, her gentle tune Is borne to me, and this I croon For thee, my sweet, that lullaby Of hushaby--O hushaby. This is a little one asleep . That does not bear his mother'

Transcript.

come you for yourselt as one whose insight, calmness and dignity in the discharge of his high duties we have watched with admiration. We see in you the happy union of the gifts of song; But angel watchers—as I weep the scholar with those of the states-man. You came from a studious, academic quiet into the full stream of Surround his grave the night-tide long. And as I sing, my sweet to you an arduous public life, and your de-liverances have combined breadth of Oh, would the lullaby I sing-The same sweet lullaby he knew view and grasp of world problems with mastery of a lofty diction recall While slumb'ring on this bosom too--Were borne to him on angel's wing ing that of your great orators of the past and of our own." In reference to the late conflict So hushaby-O hushaby.

-EUGENE FIELD THRIFT SPENDING AND SPEND.

The American and British peoples have been brothers in arms and their arms have been crowned with victory. We thank with all our hearts your THRIFTING Peter Patriot had a penny. Sammy Slacker had a cent. Peter put his penny in his pocket valiant soldiers and sailors for their splendid part in that victory, as until he had twenty five and then he thank the American people for their bought a Thrift Stamp. Thus Peter had saved twenty five noble response to the call of civiliza-tion and humanity. May the same cents for himself : he had loaned brotherly spirit inspire and guide twenty-five cents to the Government; our united efforts to secure for he had permitted the Government to world the blessings of an ordered buy twenty five cents worth of goods or services to win the war; he had helped business himself, his country. freedom and an enduring peace."

the King said :

THE PRESIDENT'S ANSWER After thanking the King for his gracious words" and stating what had always emphasized in his addresses abroad that wha ever strength and authority he had, he simply selfish Sammy Slacker. Peter's purchase paves paths to possessed it only so long and so far as he expressed the spirit and pur-permanent prosperity ; Sammy's silly pose of the Amercian people, President said in reference to It spending signifies sorrow some day. -Catholic Columbian. main purpose which has brought him DOING THINGS WELL to Europe: "I have had the privilege, sir, of conferring with the leaders of your own Government and with the spokesmen of the Government of no matter. Who cares?' "Whatever is worth while doing at France and of Italy. And I am glad to say that I have the same concepall is worth doing well," said his father, who had heard the boy's care-

tions that they have of the significance and scope of the duty on which especially to superiors. A certain man just out of college recently came continued: words "right" and 'justice," "My boy, your shoes look wretched. Pick up the brush and make them shine; when you have finished come now we are to prove whether or not we understand these words and how they are to be applied to the partic into the house." As soon as Harry appeared with ular settlements which must con-clude this war. And we must not his well-polished shoes his father

THE CATHOLIC RECORD

OUR CHIEF WORK

- is in acting as Executor under Wills and as Administrator of Estates. Ask for our Booklet: "The Will That Really Provides," or consult us and we will gladly give full information. Correspondence invited
- We Pay 4%
- We Pay 5% Interest on stated sums of money for investment for terms of from two to five year
- We Collect
- Rents, attend to repairs and assume entire charge of pro owners at ordinary agency fees. We Act as Business Agent
- for persons who desire their investments attended to and the, income them through our Company.
- We Rent Safety Deposit Boxes at $8.00 per annum.

Capital Trust Corporation

Write us for free advice on any financial matter.

Dangerous Antiseptics and Germicides Are Unnecessary

A dependable antiseptic has come to be considered a necessity in most homes. Especially is this true since Absorbine, Jr., has had such a wide introduction, because this limiment is not only a pow-erful antiseptic and germicide, but it is absolutely safe to use and to have around the house. It is not poisonous and it cannot do harm even if the children do get hold of it. That is a big point to consider. Absorbine, Jr., is concentrated and is therefore economical. It retains its germicidal properties even diluted one part Absorbine, Jr., to 100 parts water, and its antiseptic properties, one part Absorbine, Jr., to 200 parts of water. The antiseptic and germicidal proper-ties have been repeatedly tested and proven in many prominent chemical anterseries.

'This is a historic moment and your visit marks an historic epoch. Nearly fifty years have passed since your Republic began its independent life, and now, for the first time a President of the United States is our ties have been repeatedly tested and proven in many prominent chemical laboratories. Detailed laboratory re-ports mailed upon request. Absorbine, Jr., combines safety with efficiency. $1.25 a bottle at most drug-gists or postpaid. Send 10c. for liberal trial bottle. W. F. YOUNG, P. D. F., 299 Lymans Bldg., Montreal, Can guest in England. We welcome you guest in England. We welcome your to the country whence came your ancestors and where stands the homes of those from whom sprang Washington and Lincoln. We wel-

There is

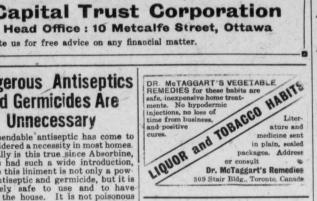

MONE

BIG

the

to the

We have used great

CATHOLIC Home Annual 1919

Every Catholic Home Should Have It

Contains a complete list of the Feast contains a complete list of the Feast and Fast Days, Movable Feasts, and Holy Days of Obligation. A sketch of the lives of many Saints : also a Saint for every day of the year, and the Gospel for each Sunday.

LIST OF SHORT STORIES

After Many Days. Sermons in Stone. In a Life's Living.

> The Humming - Bird. OTHER ARTICLES

A Christmas - Eve Vigil. The Correct Thing. The Seven Sorrows of Our Lady. St. Francis Xavier, Apostle of the

The Visit of St. Joseph. The Crusades. The American Cattle Ranch A Sermon of St. Francis.

The Miracle of Bolsena. PRICE 259

POSTAGE PAID

Catholic Record LONDON, CANADA

333334

FREE Hallam's Trappers' Guide - 96 pages; illustrated; English or French; tells how and where to trap; what bait and traps to use; is full of useful informa-Hallam's Trappers' Supply Cata-Hallam's Trappers' Guide, traps, animal bait, headigits, fish nets, and all necessary trappers' and sportsmen's supplies at low prices. Hallam's Raw Fur News-Gives Jacks prices and advance information on the raw tur market. Write to-day. Address giving number as below.

Late Miss Holingford, by Rosa Muholland simple and delightful novel by Miss Muholla who has written a number of books for yc ladies which have met with popular favor. Leopard of Lancianus The, By Maurice Fri

Standard Library 60 Each Postpaid

Microsoft and the second secon

Fullerion. An interesting Catholic story for young people. The. By H. M. Ross. A story thas grips the heart. The well constructed plot, the breazy dialogue, the clear, mapid style, carry the reader away. Challa, by Abbe A. Bayle, An interesting and instructive tails of the Fourth Century.

Their Choice. By Henrietta Dana Skinner. Its characters are cleverly drawn, and its pages are full of shrewd wit and delicate humor.

85c. Each Postpaid

urial Selwode, by Emily Bowles. Wovan with strands of history are dark threads of jealous, plots and forgerics; but there are also bright weavings of love; and, of course, all's well thes ends well.

ends well. Borrowed From The Night, by Anna C. Minogos. Miss Minogue has a way of showing her readers the delightful Southern character in all is charm and gentility. No one will read "Borrowed from the Night," without being fascinated with Mis Martinez, whose early life is surrounded with so much interest.

Cardinal Democrat, The; Henry Edward Manning by J. A. Taylor, It is a true portrait of the Cardinas whose own ideal of a good bishop he surely realized.

60c. Each, Postpaid

Round Table of American Catholic Novelists, A delightful symposium of short stories by represen-tative American Catholic novelists, Round Table of Irist and Ringlish Catholic Novelists A pleasing collection of novelettes by sminest Catholic authors of England and Ireland, Catholic authors of Englind and Iraland, Rences Marriage, From the French of Martha Laschese, By Miss Fauline Stump, (An admira-ble story to be read with both pleasure and profit, in which the immense advantages accruing from a convent education are clearly shown.) z60 pages. Bealed Packet The, By marcon J, Brunowe, A cleverly contrived story which carries an unexcep-tional moral and some delightful pictures of School Life. An excellent book for either School or Home Library. Bine of Society, The; by Bernard Vaughan, S. J. Words spoken in the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Maylar, during the Sesson 1916. Sister Of Charity, The; by Mrs. Anna H. Dorsey, The story of a Sister of Charity who, as a nurse, attend a non-Catholic family, and after a shipwreck and recue from almost a hopeles situation, brings tha family into the Church of the is sepecially interesting in its descriptions. So As By Fire. By Isen Connor. After living a life

Acolyte, The The story of a Catholic College Bu Adventures of Four Young Americana. By Hearies E. Delamare, This book describes the stirrin, times during their trip abroad, and the experience of Johanny who was lost in the Catacomba. Alley Moore. A tale of the times, by Richard Baptis O'Brieu, D. D. Showing how eviction, murder and such passimes are managed and justice adminis tered in Ireland, together with many stirring inco dents in other lands. The story tells of the heroi lives of our Irish grandfathers and grandmothen There is no lack of incident and accident. Fo those interested in Irish history of these later day Alley Moore in a new dress will serve a gorf purpose.

purpose. Alchemist's Secret, The ; by Isabel Cecilia Williams This collection of short stories is not of the sou written simply for amusement; they have their simple, direct teaching, and they lead us to thial of and to pity scrows and trials of others rates than our own.

of and to pity sorrows and trials of off-we ratio than our own. Atthes, by D. Ella Nirdlinger, A delightful stor, giving some of the author's home experiences and the plays of her happy childhood. It is a merzy company of four brothers, a sister, and thei belowed parents. Alias Kitty Casey, by Marie Getrude Willnam Kitty Casey is in reality Catherine Carcew, a gi: threatened with misiortune, who is an endear to soclude herself, and at the same time enjoy the advantage of the country in summer time, accept a menial position in a hotel, taking the position or waitress relued by her maid. Kitty Casey. The story is well written, and a romance cleverly tole Arabella, by Anna T. Sadiler, Back to Rome, by Scruttator (]. Godfrey Bupert.]

Back to Rome, by Scuttator ( J. Godfrey Rupert, Being a Series of Private Letters, etc., addressed an Anglican Ciergyman. Beech Bluft, by Fanny Warner. A tale of th South before the Civil War, Two other storie are contained in this volume : "Agnes," and "Fo Many Days."

Many Days. Blakes and Flanagans, by Mrs. James Badlier. Thi book is the masterpiece of the illustrious author whose writings have made her name a househole word among the Catholics of America.

word among the calibrates of America. Slownie And I, by Richard Aumeric Brownie is college dog who chumas with the new boys as soo as they arrive and is with them in all their sport He even succeeds in winning the decisive baseba gime of the year. Boys, girls, and grownup of two years of a college boy's life.

Thus of snrewd wit and delicate humor. For Victories, The i p. Rev. T. J. Potter. A story of the conflict of faith in a non-Catholic family and their entrance into the Catholic Church. Figranes, by Rev. John Joseph Franco, S. J. Am absorbing story of the persecutions of Catholies in the fourth century, and the attempt of Julias the Apostate to restore the gods of Homer and Virgil Woodbourne Be Colonel Lee Maco. A Novasio. Woodbourne, By Colonel Jos, Mayo, A Novel of the Revolutionary Times in Virginia and Mare land By The Grey Sea, by Herbert Spring. Callista, by Cardinal Newman. A tale of th Third Century; attempting to imagine an express the feelings and relations between Chris tians and heathens of that time.

Catholic Pioneers of America, By John O'Kan Muray, New edition revised. From the birth o Christopher Columbus 1435, to the death of Fath-Badin, 1853. Arnoul, the Englishman, by Francis Aveling. Arican Fabiola, The ; translated by Finder Avening. Arican Fabiola, The ; translated by Right Res. Mgr. Joseph O'Connell, D. D. The story of tha Life of St. Perpetua, who suffaced matryrdows together with her slave, Felicitas, at Carthage is the year 203. One of the most moving in the annals of the Church.

Badin, 1853. Cinesa, by J. M. Villefranche, A study of civilias tion and a comparison of Christianity, not onl; with Paganism and purely human philosophy but with Judaiam alao, towards the close of the reign of Nero. The scenes are laid in Rome and to meet and analyze the different conditions any situations, including the burning of Rome, the author has created imaginary characters such a C neas of the Roman Guard around whose con version to Christianty the plot of the story is worsen.

woven. Clarence Belmont. By Rev, Walter T, Leahy. Th is a fine college story, full of healthy vitality an it will amuse all the boys who are lovers of the adventures of a college boy. Commander, The; by Charles D'Hericault. As historical novel of the French Revolution. Conscience's. Tales, by Hendrick Consciences Thoroughly interesting and well written tales or Plemish life, including. "The Recruit." Minin Host Gersendonck. "Blind Ross," and "The Poor Nobleman."

whose own local of a good bishop he surely realized, Cardome, by Anna C. Minogue. A Romance of Kentucky. Much has been written of the trouble-some times from 1860 to 1865, but seldom has a Catholic author taken this historic half decade as material for a story. Miss Minogue is a resident of Kentucky, and in Cardome presents a clear picture that state. The story is admirnibly presented and bristles with romance and adventure. bristles with romance and adventure, presented and Captain Roscoff, by Raoul de Navery. A thrilling story of fearlessmess and adventure. Faith, Hope and Charity, by Aconymous. An exceedingly interesting tale of love, war and adventure during the exciting times of the Frenck Revolution.

Host Gensendonck, "Blind Ross," and "The Poor Nobleman." Damsel Who Dared, A; A novel, by Geneview, Irone.
Dest Fiends, by D. Ella Nirdlinger. A home story and in that lies its special charm. There are darl days and bright days pictured, just as they come to every home, and love is the source of the more to every home, and love is the source of the more to every home, and love is the source of the more to every home, and love is the source of the more to every home, and love is the source of the more to every home, and love is the source of the more to every home, and love is the source of the more to every home, and love is the source of the more to every the little house.
There lines, "It's habout the subork housed to get the to a self-accificing elder sister whose service in a lottle will be accessed to be the local customs incidentally introduces many of the local customs "ve of Diamonds. By Mrs, Guthrie, An interestia, novel full of and Stard, an adventure during the exciting times of the Frencis Bevolution. Fernciiffe. Ferncliffe is the name of a large setste in Devonshire, England, the home of Agness Falkland who with her family and adopted sister Francis Macdonald, turnish the interesting events and the secret influence of which Agnes Falkland is the innocent sufferer. Giannella, by Mrs. Hugh Fraser. Happy-Go-Lucky, by Mary C. Growley. A collec-tion of Catholic stories for boys, including "A Little Heroine," "Ned's Baseball Club," "Terry and His Frinds," "Ine Boys at Balton," and "A Christmas Stocking." In The Crucible, by label Occilia Williams. These stories of high endeavor, of the patient bearing of pain, the sacrifice of fell for others' good, ark keyed on the divine true story of Him Who gave up all fou us and died on Calvary's Crose (Sacrod Hear Review.) Magic of The Sea, The : or, Commodore John Barry refinement. Gertrude Mannering, By Frances Noble, Thischarm ing novel has been regarded as a model love story showing the tremendous influence of a pure whole some convent-bred girl, ascrificing her life for the conversion of her infield lover. Harp of Many Chords, A.; by Mary F. Nixon, Hawthorndean, by Clara, M. Thompson. A story of American life founded on fact.

Heiress of Kilorgan, by Mrs. J. Sedlier. History an fiction combined ; very interesting.

Her lourney's End. By Francis Cooke. A story o mystery, of strife and struggle, of petty jealousy and of sublime devotion.

and of sublime devotion. Jack South and Some Other Jacks, by David Bearns, S. J. Elders as well as i puinors may read it with both profit and pleasure. Kathleen's Motto, by Generivere Walah. An inte-esting and inspiring story of a young lady who, b-her simplicity and honestry, succeeds in spite o discouraging difficulties. Lady Amabel And The Shepherd Boy, by Elizabeti M. Stewart. A Catholic tale of English family is ridicide In the course of time various opportunities presen themsolves which bring him before her parents in a more favorable light, and results in her marriage Late Miss Holingford, by Roes Mulholland. wealthy but eccentric uncie, who professes no religion and is at odds with all the world. It follows them through their many trials and exper-iences, and contrasts the effect on the two distinct characters.

collection of stories for Catholic children, including " Little Beginnings." "Bind Apple Woman, " Polly's Five Dollars," " Marie's Trumpet," and " A Family's Froite." Mystery of Naples, The ; by Rev B, P. Grahame With six illustrations. Orchids. A novel by Lelia Hardin Bugg. Pollices. Using The to B for Labor Taibet Smith for young Solitary Island, The; by Rev. John Talba As mysterious and fascinating in its plot to see me, sat down, crossed his legs and said : "Bright day." "Yes," I said, "but it would be brighter if you weren't here.

Some young men are like the porcupine — all very quiet and good his natured till some one comes near it, then at once it is all bristles—and I one as much as says: "Don't come near me, I am Mr. Porcupine." They take offense at the least thing said and are ready to find said take offense at the least thing said and are ready to find a pretended affront or slight. Always interpret what is said for the heat. If interpret what is said for the best. If injured took pains to do everything well, no have sufficient self respect and self. There how unimportant it seemed.

have sufficient self respect and self. denial not to take insult. It takes two to make a quarrel. A student should always be a gentleman whether alone or in com-pany. The extemporized gentleman always fails. Modesty of bearing and consideration for others always and then a partner in the business and consideration for others always win respect. The bold, forward, He is now a rich man and anxious proud man is disliked by everybody. that his son Harry should practice Always aim at simplicity and mod. the rule which made him prosper."

thing that bespeaks foolishness, is intolerable in a gentleman. He must dress well and be clean. He must keep shaven and brush his clothes, keep bis shoes polished and his nails, keep thand hair clean. Table manners indicate your breed-ing and betray whether you are a gentleman or not. Eating is an animal function and we should make it as less so as possible. Don't be clude this war. And we must not only understand them, but we must have the courage to act upon our understanding. Yet after I have uttered the "courage" it comes into my mind that it would take more courage to resist the great moral tide now running in the world than to beaten so singularly in unison before. Men have never before been so con scious of their brotherhood. Men have never before realized how little difference there was between right and justice in one latitude and in another, under one sovereignty and under another. And it will be our high privilege I believe, sir, not only to apply the moral judgment of children and elderly persons. The dress of a gentleman is always simple and clean. A dirty, slovenly man is disliked and loses respect and wait at table, and do any service man is disliked and loses respect that was required of me. By doing Nothing is more disgusting than a man who lacks personal cleanliness. On the other hand, going to the opposite extreme is equally detesta-ble. Extravagance of dress, any-thing that bespeaks foolishness, is

Retire from the holy table with nodesty and peaceful joy. Remain restrate in silence at the feet of our fied me in leaving the important tatks which fall upon me upon the other side of the sea-nothing but the consciousness that nothing else compares with this in dignity and importance."- America.

it as less so as possible. Don't be affectionately, as you feel drawn to greedy, heaping your plate up with do so. Offer your homage to Him in more than enough. Don't look anxi. the sincerity and purity of your faith.

Ursuline College, "The Pines" Chatham, Ontario

Under the Patronage of the Right Rev. M. F. Fallon, D.D., Bishop of London

An Ideal School for the Education of Young Girls

Excellent situation, splendidly equipped class rooms, comfortable living and sleeping apartments, magnificent grounds for sports and games.

College, Preparatory, Art and Commercial Departments Complete Course in Home Economics

SCHOOL OF MUSIC affiliated with Toronto Conservatory

New Term Opens January 7, 1919

Egan. There are eight stories and every one o them has a very interesting plot worked out with dramatic skill.

dramatic skill. Lost Lode, By Christian Reid and Stella's Discip-line, By F, X, L, in one volume, The '' Les Lode'' is a story of Mexico, strong, interesting, and like everything from the same pen, charmingly written. The second story is another specimen of wholesome light literature, and we deem fi judici ously coupled with the former beautiful story. Maiden Up-To-Date, A. by Genevieve Irone. Mantilla, The; by Richard Amerle. The Man-tilla is a tomantic taile of insurrectionary Cubs, with Bob Weldon, engineering student and foot-ball king, as hero; and Mary Dunleaven Merca-deres, otherwise Corita, for heroine.

Master Motive, The; by Lurea Conan. A Tale o the Days of Champlain. Translated by Theres A. Gethin.

A. Gethin, Gerchant Of Antwerp, The, by Hendrick Conscience A novel of impelling interest from beginning to en-concerning the romance of the daughter of a dia-mond merchant, and Raphael Banks, who, througi the uncertainties of fortune, earns the parenta approval of their marriage, which had bees withheld on account of difference in socia position. fesalliance, A. A Novel, by Katherine Tynan.

Mirror, The; by Mary F. Nixon. Nelly Kelly. By Henritet E, Delamare, Nelly is s little mother to her brothers and sisters and suc ceeds wonderfully well in meeting the difficultie that arise. Old House By The Boyne, by Mrs. J. Sadliet Picturing scenes and incidents true to life in as Trish Borough.

Trish Borough. Orphan Sisters, The ; by Mary I. Hoffman, This is an exceedingly interestings story, in which some o the doctrines of the Catholic Church are clearly defined.

the doctrines of the Catholic Church are clearly defined. Parting of the Ways, The; by Florence Gilmore, Pearl Of Antioch, by Abbe Bayle. A charming affe-powerfully written story of the early ages of the Church. Philip, A Tale of the Coal Regions. By Rev Patrick Justin McMahon, A thrilling and well told story of the days, of the Molle Maguires Well written and conceived with an admirable unity of plan, the story is unraveled so as tr intensity the interest as the reader passes from chapter to chapter, 560 pages. Ronald's Mission, By Henriette E, Delamar, Ronald's Mission, By Henriette E, Delamar, Ronald's Mission, By Henriette B, Delamar, Ronald's the brave little fellow persevered wit a courage beyond his spear, until he had fulfille his mission, of the sensitional productions of Archibald Claves-ing Gunther, and it contains portraits which would not shame the brush of a Thackersor or Dickens. Tangled Paths, by Mrs, Anna H, Dorsey, "As a novel Tangled Paths is admirable, and if the author will compare this very satisfactory production with her earlier work. The Student of Bienheim Forest, for instance, she can almost sing the Nunc Vimitis," for her improvement is so marked that he seems in her work to have almost reached its climaz."—Avs Maria.

Rose Le Blanc, by Lady Georgianna Fullerton. A thoroughly entertaining story for young people by one of the best known Catholic authors.

Ask for Quantity Discount

The Catholic Record LONDON, CANADA

Review.) Magic of The Sea. The : or, Commodore John Barry in the Making, by Captain James Connelly. It is a historical novel, and well fit to take its place beside "Richard Carvel." Marian Elwood, by Sarah M. Brownson. The story of a haughty society girl, selfah and arrogant, whe awakes to the shallowness of her axistence through the appreciation of the noble character and religi-ous example of a young man whom she afterwards matrice.

May Brooke, by Mrs. Anna H. Dorsey. The story of two cousins who are left in the care of their very rry Hearts And True, by Mary C. Crowley, oblection of stories for Catholic children, includ

Maria. The Waters Of Contradiction, by Anna C. Minogua. A delightful romance of the South and Southers people, and so strong in its interest that the resder's situation increases to the very last chapter, novel of the inner life of Queen Elizabeth. So interesting that the reader will be loathe to lay it down before finishing the entire story. Tempest Of The Heart, The. By Mary Agathas Gray. A story of deep feeling that centers around e young monk musician.

Trammelings and Other Stories, by Georgina Pell Curtis.

urn Of The Tide, The. By Mary Agatha Gray

There is a complexity in the weaving of this story, that will keep the reader in suspense till the very end. Towers of St. Nicholas, The. By Mary Agaths Gray, A story of the persception of Catholics during the reign of Queen Elizabeth. Within and Without the Fold. By Minnie Mary Lee.

With A Pessimist in Spain, by Mary F. Nixon With 13 illustrations.

$1.00 Postpaid

glar, or From Atheism to the Full Truth, by Louis You Hammerstein, S. J. Some of his books have gained a world-wide renown and spread his name far and wide as a first-class apologis, who is up to-date in every branch of Protestant controversy. In this translation he gives us a new proof of his apologetic genius and enterprise,

Ask for Quantity Discount

The Tatholic Record LONDON. CANADA

The Paschal Lamb, which is slain for the salvation of sinners, is the Redeemer Himself whose Flesh we daily eat, whose Blood we drink. This banquet is daily celebrated; daily the Father welcometh His Son, for the faithful continually is Christ offered. Which is greater, to pray or receive the Body of Christ? Certainly the latter.

EIGHT

CATHOLIC SOCIOLOGY

BY HENRY SOMERVILLE

St. Francis Xavier University, Anti-Requests are often made for lists of books that may be recommended as suitable for Catholic reading. It is not difficult to frame a list of first-rate Catholic books belonging to the department of imaginative literature. There are the works of Catholic authors whose high rank is acknowledged by all, authors such as Canon Sheehan, Robert Hugh Benson, John Ayscough, Henry Harfand, and Hil-aire Belloc. It is hard to leave out the name of G. K. Chesterton, for though he is not yet in the Church his writings have a fine Catholic character. These novels, romances and essays of these writers will have a universal appeal. No reader of ordinary intelligence and good taste need fear finding any of their authhigh brow.

With Catholic books on social questions, written in the English language we are not so well provided. There is a magnificent sociological literature in French, and those who read that language will find a wealth of fine books in the publications of Bloud and Co., Paris, and the Action Populaire, Rheims. The annual re ports of L'Association Catholique de la Jeunesse Francaise contain most inspiring and informing addresses on Catholic social principles and action. Dramatic situation follows tions.

translated, in English, the first and performance. most important document for the Catbolic social student is the Encyc. lical of Pope Leo. XIII. on "The Con-dition of the Working Classes." This is the classic statement of Cath-olic social doctrine applied to mod-ern conditions. The questions of Wages, Property, the Family, Trade Unions, State Intervention, Socialism, are dealt with by the Pope in a most illuminating way. No Catho lie student can a ford to do without this encyclical which is published by the Catholic Social Guild of England and costs only five cents. There are two other pamphlets of the same price published by the Catholic So-cial Guild which are valuable as in-troductory reading for the Social roductory reading for the Social student. They are, "The Catholic Doctrine of Property," by Dom Mo-Lauchlin, O. S. B., and "Catholic Principles of Social Reform," by Dr. Alayander Moonay.

There is great need for an elemen-tary text book of social science, bearing particularly on American and Canadian conditions. The near est approach to a satisfactory book that I know is "A Primer of Social Science," written by Canon Parkin-son, D. D., Ph. D., and published by the Catbolic Social Guild at 75 cents the Catholic Social Guild at 75 cents. A more advanced book, and economic rather than sociological, is Dev-as' "Political Economy." This is a masterpiece of its kind. Devas has also written. "The Key to The esteemed citizens of the city in World's Progress," in which he traces the connection between the Obverh and secular history. Prof. of the late Madame Rheaume lay mic rather than sociological, is Devalso written "The Key to The World's Progress," in which he Church and secular history. Prof. O'Hara's "Introduction to Econo-mics " is as good an elementary book on that subject as could be de-sired. Next to Devas there is no Catholic Next to Devas there is no Catholic Next to Devas there is no Catholic liah on Economics that Dr. John A. Ryan, of the Catholic University of Anwrica. Dr. Ryan's chief book "A Living Wage," is published by the Ryan, of the Catholic University of America. Dr. Ryan's chief book "A Living Wage," is published by the MacMillan Company at 65 cents and for sheer usefulness to the Catholic social student it is second only to Pope Leo's Encyclical on "The Con-dition of the Working Classes." Dr. Ryan not only treats the question of the living wage exhaustively but he Ryan not only treats the question of the living wage exhaustively but he gives the clearest possible treatment the living wage the clearest possible treatment of the fundamental Catholic doctrine of natural rights, and his lucid anal ysis of Rent, Profit and Interest, for general economic theory than he would get from most of the text quently happens, I am asked to re books on Economics. When as fre-quently happens, I am asked to re commend books on Socialism I al-ways feel disposed to ask in reply, "Which Socialism ?" There are so many varieties of Socialism that a book directed against one kind will have no relevance against another. Socialists complain, and with good always misrepresent them. But it is equally true that Socialists very often misrepresent themselves. There are two chief schools of Socialism. The revolutionary, Marxian School and the evolutionary Fabian School and the evolutionary radian School. On the first I would rec-ommend "Socialism," by Victor Cathrein, S. J., and on the second "The Servile State," by Hillaire Pellos — The Castat Belloc.-The Casket.

Mr. P. A. Wallace, Superintendent Mr. P. A. Wallace, Superintendent of Plumbing and Heating on the Transcontinental Railway from Que-bec to O'Brien is a 3rd degree Knight of Quebec Council. Mr. J. J. Wellace, Bunk Clerk To degree Knight of North Cobalt Coun-

of Quebec Council. Mr. J. J. Wallace, Bank Clerk, re-cently discharged from the Royal Canadian Air Force, son of J. W. M. Wallace, is a 3rd degree Knight of Onebec Council. BLANCHFIELD At his late resi-dence, 830 West 53rd Place, Chicog., Ill., on November 25, 1918, John Blanchfield, aged twenty one years. Quebec Council. May his soul rest in peace.

"SWEET INNISFALLEN"

When the noted Irish tenor, Ber when the noted frish tenor, ber-nard Daly, appears at the Grand Opera House, London, next Friday and Saturday, January 24th and 25th, in his famed success "Sweet Innis-fallen," theatregoers will have the concentuative of heaving him sing

O'BRIEN.—At her home in Vinton, Que., on Monday, Jan. 6th, Emma Kavanagh, beloved wife of Thomas J. O'Brien, aged twenty-two years. May her soul rest in peace. BASLER. - At Hesson, Ont., De-ember 31st, 1918, Joseph M. Basler, dearly beloved son of Mr. and Mrs Joseph Basler, aged 19 years. May his soul rest in peace. opportunity of hearing him sing "Believe Me of All Those Endearing Young Charms," "Mavis," "Foggy Dew," "Hide and Seek," "Wearing of the Green," "Sweet Innisfallen," BASLER.--At Hesson, Ont., Jan-uary 2nd, 1919, Oatherine M. Basler, dearly beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Basler, aged 16 years. May her soul rest in peace.

Dew," "Hide and Seek," "Wearing of the Green," "Sweet Innisfallen," "Song of the Dove" in his own inim-itable manner. It has been said of Mr. Daly that, once having heard his songs, audiences have clamored for him to repeat them so that they will be stamped in the memory of his patrons. The play is perfectly cast, possessing a company carefully sel-QUINN.—At her late residence, 9 Sophia St., Ottawa, on 13th Oct. 19 1918, Florence May Quinn, aged eighteen years and six months. May her soul rest in peace

WATTERS.—At Ottawa on Thurs-day, January 2nd, 1919, Virginia Lane, wife of Lawrence Watters, aged twenty-three years. May her soul rest in peace.

DIKNOETHER.—On Monday, Jan. 15, at his late residence, 88 Askin street, London, Ont., John Martin Diknoether, dearly beloved husband of Frances Diknot of Frances Diknoether, and father of Mrs. John Loughlin, in his seventieth year. May his soul rest in peace. MACNENNY .- At the family resi-

MRS. JANE HALLORAN After a short illness, the death of dence in West Luther Township, on December 29, 1918, Mrs. James MacNenny, aged seventy eight years. Mrs. Jane Halloran occurred at her home, 91 Barton St. E, Hamilton, on Saturday, January 4. Mrs. Halloran was born in Co. May her soul rest in peace.

HALLORAN.—At 91 Barton St., Hamilton, Jan. 4, 1919, Mrs. Jane Halloran, widow of the late Patrick Halloran, aged eighty-seven years. May her soul rest in peace. Sligo, Ireland, in 1832, but had been resident in Hamilton for the past seventy-four years. She was a well-known and highly respected member of St. Mary's Cathedral Parish.

She leaves to mourn her loss four sons, James, at home, John of Seattle, Wash., Patrick, of Anaconda, IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT The Editors of The Catholic Encyclopedia announce a supplement con-taining revisions of the articles on Canon Law, additional material and some new articles, in accordance May her soul rest in peace.

MADAME S. N. RHEAUME

OBITUARY

Ottawa Press Journal, Jan. 13th

The Encyclopedia contains a com-The Encyclopedia Contains a com-plete treatise on Canon Law. In-deed, it is the only complete treatise in English on this subject. It has over 400 articles in Canon Law Reverent and solemn to a superlative degree were the services which marked the obsequies of the late Madame Rheaume, Saturday morn-ing. Surrounded by her sorrowing relatives, the orphans of St. Joseph Ornhanage, whom she loved so well proper, an article on every notable Canonist, and numerous other articles giving the canonical provisions Orphanage, whom she loved so well for administering the sacraments, with the new Code.

即 SKIN SCALP D.D.D. CO.

many others.

THE CATHOLIC RECORD

DIED BLANCHFIELD .- At his late resi-

for divine worship, education, etc. All this is treated historically as well as scientifically. Many of the articles in Canon Law were written after parts of the Code had already, been published, and

Herewith will be found the picture of an Aviator who has just dropped a bemb on a pile of Shells. At first glance the Aireplane and the Explosion appear to be all there is in the picture, but by careful study the faces of several soldiers will be found. There are 7 of them in all. Can you find them? It is noteasy task but by patience and endurance can be accompli-abed. ILPAN B

You may win a cash prize by doing so, Many have done this as will be shown by he names and addresses which we will said you. If you find the faces mark each one with an X, cut out the picture and each it to us, together with a alip of paper on which you have written the words" have found all the faces and marked hem. Write these nine words plainly ind mestly, as in case of ties, both writing and neatness are considered factors in his context.

This may take up a little of your sime not as TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS in sah and many merchandise prizes are tiven away. It is worth your time to take little trouble over this matter. Remem-er all you have to do is to mark the faces attout the picture and write on a separate face of same the words. "Thave form paper the words, "I have aces and marked them."

All the faces and marked them." WE DO NOT ASK YOU TO SPEND ONE CENT OF YOUR MONEY IN ORDER Send your snawer at once we will reply usswer is correct one, and we will send names and addresses in the index will send names and addresses the persons who have the cently recently recently recent one will be index must be fulfilled. (This complitions min colve the spending of any of your money.) Winners of cash prizes in our focur money.) Winners of cash prizes in ear badeabted itsrity, where de-tave mainess men of andeabted itsrity, where de-Send Your Reply Direct to Send Your Reply Direct to

GOOD HOPE MANUFACTURING COMPANY 46 ST. ALEXANDER STREET, MONTREAL, CAN.

D. D. D. is the logical remedy. It is a pene-D. D. D. IS the logical remedy. It is a pene-trating liquid. It works its way right into the tiny pores where the disease germs are lodged, and cleanses them of impuri-ties. The relief is instant. As soon as you apply D. D. D. to that burning, biting, then it will bring cool comfort and rest. Now you can get D. D. D. in a small trial boths. Mail the coupon today. Hundreds of grateful people all over the World are recommending it to their friends. Prove to yourself what others eavy is true, but don't wait. Get instant relief. Send the coupon today sure.

A FAMILY OF KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Prof. J. W. M. Wallace, C. E., Principal of Wallace College, Quebec, is a 4th degree Knight of Quebec Council.

Rev. M. J. Wallace, M. A., formerly Professor at St. F. X. University, Parish Priest of Louisburg, N. S., ie a Srd degree Knight of Sidney Council. Mr. L. F. Wallace is a 4 h degree Knight and Past Grand Knight of Monoton Council. Rev. S. S. Wallace, M. S. H., Pro-

Monoton Council. Rev. S. S. Wallace, M. S. H., Pro-fessor at St. Joseph's College, North Cobalt, at present Chaplain with the American Expeditionary Force at Haute Marne, France, is a third

The spiritual and floral offerings were many and a number of letters and telegrams of sympathy were received.

LAUDS CHURCH'S LOYALTY

During the epidemic in Philadel-phia Dr. Krusen received a letter from the Rev. Robert Johnston, rector of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Saviour, in which the minister patients or uncart and coming minister refers to priests and semin-arians digging graves. His letter in part reads as follows :

"If the painful fact of our unburied, our hurriedly buried, our inadequately buried dead, were wide-Rev. E P. Wallace, Parish Priest of ampbellton, N. B., is a Charter tained by the thoughtful and Chris-Campbellton, N. B., is a Charter Member and 4th degree Knight of Chatham Council. P. J. Wallace, M. D., C. M., of Cove-dale, N. B., is a Charter Member and Srd degree Knight of Chatham Coun-cil.

Read Amazing Indorsements from Grateful People:

I was a great sufferer with eczema, the weeping kind, about two years ago. Was liad up all winter. Tried all the doctors in reach and got no help. Saw an ad. of D.D.D. the first bottle helped me, but I was ao bad one bottle did not last long. both hands, arms, and legs to my knees of contained a start of the same start of the of the same same same start of the same same of an well of the twenthed seeses now but I keep D.D.D. close at and.

PETER MERCER. Pt. Burwell, Ontario.

Would my few lines help some sufferer om skin disease. A year ago I was a dy, T would not put a pin on my whols dy, I would not put a pin on my whols. I dy did not sleeve and discretistic tit des sand, it is several doctors. At t they sand, it is several doctors. At t dee of thookvale sand, ""Thon Mrs. helped me and I thunk it will hold the sed two sample bottles and three doctors titles and I thunk I am cured as I have and so your wonderful D.D.D. was advertisement enough and after I was cured the teacher came to see if I con would cure her of the san to'I her D.D.D. She use is back in her school teach sign of eczema.

JOHN M. CLARK, Brookvale, N.B.

D.D.D. COMPANY 27 Lyall Street Dept. R 59 TORONTO, Ont.

Address

Gentlemen: Please send me trial bottle of D. D. D. Prescription. enclose 10 cents to cover cost packing and mailing.

Thad been troubled with eczema off and broke out on me açain. I was a complete with constraints and four years ago it was not seen and the second sec If this letter is of any use to you, you ay use it in any way you like. There is other in my family that suffered with the me disease and was cured by D.D.D. RUFUS GARRETT, Chesterville, Ontario.

With our baby the rash started on his els. Later on the leg, then it appeared

With our baby the rash stored on his checks. Later on the loc, then it appeared on his writts. We tried loctors and salves for more than a year. He became worse and worse. Fils writts were awful to look the list forehead was covered and from ear to early the standard lock of the loctor static list. I spent $50,000 pt him from senatching. I spent $50,000 pt him from senatching. I spent $50,000 pt him from senatching. I spent $50,000 pt him from senatching the causes of eczema and the directions for using D.D.D.I commenced its use and soon as a change. In about three weeks the sores were healed. He has been purfactly well now for a year. His face and hands are like velve. t enough for Chesterville, cured there was a school ee if I could tell her what if the same disease and I She used it and now she hool teaching and not a a perfactly well now for a year. His face hands are like velvet. I would feel if I norlected to return aks to the D.D.D. Company, I should he one of the nine lepers.

f the nine lepers. Mrs. W. H. SPENCE, McGrego:, Manito

Do this today. For a limited time only we will make this offer. We do it because we know that D. D. Will do the same for you that it has done for othera. Read above how this wonderful remedy has been of unapeskable benefit to others. See their signed letters and prove it to yourself before you turn this page. Send for D. D. D. and as soon as you apply it to that burning itch it will bring instant relief. Send today. D. D. D. COMPANY, 27 LYALL STREET ONT.

Friday & Saturday Evgs, 8.15 Jan. 24-25

ENGAGEMENT OF THE SWEETEST SINGER ON THE STAGE

Fires Break Out

and thieves break in. Don't risk the first, or invite the second, by keeping money in the house.

Put it in The Merchants Bank, where it will be safe from lossalways available-and earn interest at highest current rates.

$15

E MERCHANTS BANK B: Montreal, OF CANADA Established 1864

2 Branches in Ontario, 32 Branches in Quebec, 19 Branches in Manitohs, is in Suskatchewan, 53 Branches in Alberta, and 8 Branches in British serves Rural Canada most effectively. Write or call at Nearest Branch.