TERRIBLE DEED OF AN INSANE WOMAN

Mrs. J. A. H. Taylor Shot Her Daughter, Mrs. Norton, at Alexandria, and Then Attempted Suicide.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

ALEXANDRIA, Ont., Sept. 22.—An hallucination that somebody was attempting to kidnap her daughter, Mrs. Harold W. Norton, Montreal, and her granddaughter, Lulu Norton, is believed to have been the cause of Mrs. J. A. H. Taylor, Montreal, shooting Mrs. Norton, who died yesterday morning and Mrs. Norton, who is believed to be dying, at the home of her sons, J. A. H. Taylor, junior, and C. D. R. Taylor, whom she was visiting with her husband.

Mrs. Taylor, who unsuccessfully attempted to commit suicide after the shooting, was also constantly in fear of being tracked and often said that some one was following her and her daughter whilst the ywere out walking. The symptoms whilst looked upon by members of the family as not being calculated to cause anxiety, determined them to have her constantly watched and hence it was that she was rarely allowed to go alone. She had also been under a doctor's care.

A reconstruction of the fatal shooting by the police goes to indicate that the frenzied woman first shot her daughter. After the shooting Mr. Taylor, sr., and his two sons jumped from their beds and rushed down stairs. At the foot of the stairs Mr. Taylor, sr., found his wife with her face covered with blood. Calling his sons, he endeavored to quiet his wife, who was in a highly nervous state, but she seemed to be invested with maniacal strength and it took the combined efforts of all three men to empower her and to wrest the smoking-revolver from her hands.

THAW WILL RECEIVE HIS HEARING TUESDAY

CONCORD, N.H., Sept. 22.—The scene of the litigation over Harry Kendall Thaw shifts this morning to the New Hampshire capital, just across the street from the hotel where the Mattawan fugitive has been sheltered since last Wednesday. Governor Felker arrived today to make final arrangements for the extradition hearing before him to-morrow.

Pending the arrival of William T. Jerome, special deputy attorney general of New York, the petitioner, nothing will be made known concerning the arguments in support of the extradition petition. None of the New York authorities were here this forenoon.

The place for holding the hearing was one of the matters to be decided

TRACKS ARE LAID DURING THE NIGHT

Lake Erie and Northern Places Diamond for Grand Valley Crossing.

GALT, Sept. 22.—Trying every means to prevent the Lake Erie and Northern Railway Company from crossing their tracks and installing a diamond, the Grand Valley Railway went as far as to have its employees sworn in as constables and sent out on guard where the intersection was to take place, after this resulted in three police court cases here on Saturday morning. Where the lines cross is just below Galt. The Lake Erie and Northern Railway people were working under an order from the Dominion Railway Board, but this did not seem to satisfy the other company.

Three cases in the local court fell flat Saturday. Manager Kellett, of the Lake Erie and Northern Railway, was charged with unlawfully attempting to displace the tracks of the G. V. R., a criminal offence, and with trespassing on G. V. R. property. E. G. Munroe, an engineer on the new road, faced a charge of obstructing the free use of the G. V. R. tracks. Magistrate Blake heard the cases, and Mr. Brewster, of Brantford, represented the Lake Erie and Northern Railway, and Mr. Smoke, of Paris, the G. V. R. All three cases were dismissed.

The funny part of the whole affair is that the diamond went down, although Saturday night the G. V. R. people left a car where the intersection was to take place, but it was removed by a Lake Erie and Northern engine, and the diamond placed during the night, to the astonishment of the other people.

RAILWAY BOARD MUST DECIDE IT

In Meantime Brantford Township Farmer's Lands are Safe.

TORONTO, Sept. 22.—Acting on behalf of William Thompson, of Oakley Park, Township of Brantford, J. W. Bain, K.C., and M. S. Gordon, in single court before Judge Kelly, at Osgoode Hall Saturday, moved for an order restricting the Lake Erie and Northern Railway from performing further work, trespassing upon or injuring the lands of the plaintiff.

On the defendants, through their counsel, W. S. Brewster, K. C., under taking not to enter on the land in dispute, pending application in regard thereto to the Dominion Railway Board, the motion stands until such application can be made.

Mrs. A. A. Polly, of Brockville, fractured her skull by falling down her cellar stairs, and died immediately.

WHERE THE IMPEACHMENT TRIAL OF GOVERNOR SULZER WILL BE HELD.

SENATE CHAMBER IN NEW YORK STATE CAPITOL.

The impeachment trial of Governor Sulzer, of New York State, will take place in the Senate Chamber on September 18 at Albany, N. Y. The court which will hear the case is composed of the Senate and the Judges of the Court of Appeals. To effect the removal of the Governor a two-thirds vote of this court will be necessary. There are seven Judges of the Court of Appeals and forty-nine Senators, two places being vacant in the Senate. Thus it will need thirty-eight votes to convict Mr. Sulzer, or he will need nineteen votes to save him.

Assuming that he would get four out of the seven votes of the Court of Appeals—which is by no means a certainty—he would still require fifteen Senators in his favor. And for his direct nomination bill, a much less important proposition in the eyes of Tammany Hall, he got only eight Senatorial votes.

LIVELY TIME IN BRANTFORD POLICE COURT THIS MORNING OVER THE RAILWAY CASE

Grand Valley's Request for an Adjournment Was Vigorously Fought by W. S. Brewster, Representing the New Railway--Magistrate Orders That Peace is Not to be Broken Until Cases Are Heard on Thursday Next--Several Other Cases of Interest Heard This Morning.

The absence of an important witness who is to be called on behalf of the Grand Valley Railway in connection with the charges preferred against E. K. Dunnell and Harman Devan of the L. E. and N. staff charged with obstruction and trespass and the counter charges preferred by the L. E. & N. officials against James Longhurst and A. E. Johnston of the Grand Valley Railway, charged with obstruction, necessitated an adjournment until Wednesday morning, when the cases were called in a postponement was granted by Magistrate Livingston, despite a strenuous protest from Mr. W. S. Brewster, acting for the L. E. and N. Railway. Mr. Harley acting for the Grand Valley, addressed the court, stating that Mr. Todd, an important witness for the Grand Valley, found it impossible to be present this morning, and he asked that all the cases stand until Thursday morning.

Mr. Brewster stated that he was quite agreeable to this arrangement, provided that the Grand Valley authorities would give their word of honor that in the meantime there would be no more trouble. He stated that already the Grand Valley special constables were preparing to continue the farge of arresting the L. E. and N. officials, thereby causing considerable inconvenience and annoyance.

Mr. Harley said that so far as he was concerned he could give no such bond.

Mr. Brewster therefore objected to any adjournment. The L. E. and N. men, he said, were now on the ground, ready to go ahead with their work, and he did not think it fair that they should be "bothered and annoyed" as they had been during the past few days. Mr. Brewster expressed the opinion that Mr. Todd's absence was simply a ruse to delay proceedings in order that an injunction against the L. E. and N. might be got out by the Grand Valley.

Magistrate Livingston expressed the opinion that if the Grand Valley were asking for an adjournment, they should agree that in the meantime there would be no repetition of these occurrences.

Crown Attorney Wilkes expressed the opinion that both parties should agree that there should be no breach of the peace until the cases were heard. He thought that the whole affair looked to him like playing with justice.

Mr. Harley stated that he had not been instructed as to the real cause of all the trouble between the L. E. and N. and the Grand Valley, but he understood that at the point where all the trouble occurred, the L. E. and N. were running their line so close to the Grand Valley's power house that it shut out the light.

Magistrate Livingston remarked that matters of this kind, if true, should be settled before the Board of Railway Commissioners. Regarding Mr. Harley's request for an adjournment, his Worship stated that he was forced to accept the statement that Mr. Todd was a material witness and he therefore postponed the cases until Wednesday morning. Magistrate Livingston demanded, however, that Johnson and Longhurst of the Grand Valley give bonds that they would cause no more trouble from now until after the cases are heard, and this was finally agreed to.

DUBLIN

HAS HOT OLD TIME

Seven Policemen and Thirty-five Civilians Had to be Taken to the Hospitals.

DUBLIN, Sept. 22.—There was another fierce riot here last night, as the result of which seven policemen and thirty-five civilians are in various hospitals, and many others were treated and sent to their homes.

After a noisy, exciting day, during which violence was threatened every hour, a procession of "about 10,000" formed at dusk outside of Liberty Hall, the headquarters of the Transport Workers' Union, and started to parade through the streets. Such parades have been an almost daily feature of the last few days, and they have been sanctioned by the authorities and the paraders protected by the police.

Two hundred constables escorted last night's demonstrators, who marched to stirring airs played by Irish pipers. Both banks of the Liffey were crowded with onlookers from Liberty Hall to O'Connell Bridge.

Street Cars Smashed

The passengers in the cars, among whom were several women with babies, covered below the seats and thus escaped serious consequences. The police tried in vain to single out the stone throwers, and began to "juggle the marchers along."

The mob appeared to be satisfied with having wrecked the cars. They did not loiter, but walked noisily along Grafton Street towards Dalkey. They moved brokenly and irregularly. It was soon seen that they were determined on further mischief, and presently they began to attack the police.

Batons Against Stones

The batons of the constables were swinging in a moment, while missiles of all sorts were hurled at the police. It is difficult to describe the progress of the fighting. It seemed to develop suddenly at many places. The mob advanced up the city streets, from which it rained stones, bottles and other articles on the police.

After the main mob had gone through College Green in an uproarious manner, the fighting became hard on Eden Street, and the clubs of the constables were mounted and on foot, which had been hitting to the scene ever since the trouble was reported, now arrived, and dashed among the rioters, amid screams and curses. The mob of men, women and children, on the occasion of those rashes would break and scatter and then reform elsewhere.

Women Participate

The melee went on in this fashion in several streets. Probably the worst tussle was in Townsend Street, where the rioters seemed to have arranged it so that the police would be drawn in for the purpose of hammering them. The houses on the street are a low class of tenements, all the windows of which were open, and occupied by screaming women and children, who pelted the constables with broken bottles, jars, and anything else they could find.

It was at this point that the police suffered the most, but they gave a good account of themselves. Hundreds were knocked down by the clubs of the foot constables and the flat ends of the swords of the mounted men. It is said that at times the ambulances were busy in every direction at the edge of the mob.

Between eight and nine o'clock the mounted men got ahead of the mob in Lombard Street, and with the help of the foot police broke up the rioters, who, seeing that they were being beaten, scattered to their homes. Many attempts to rescue men who had been arrested were made during the row.

DULUTH, Minn., Sept. 22.—A report unequalled since the establishment of the weather bureau in 1881, was made yesterday, when snow fell at nearly all points in Northern Minnesota and around the shores of Lake Superior. The earliest previous snow fall was recorded September 24, 1907.

Wintry scenes prevailed in the vicinity of Port Arthur, Ontario, and Grand Marais, Minn., where the ground was blanketed with snow. The average temperature at Duluth was 35 degrees.

So well were the bananas attached to the tree that Mr. Whitney was able to pull off a joke and have the laugh on a number of his friends.

There Are Others

One of the laws governing the Boy Scouts is that no member of that organization is supposed to accept any patron for any service done. A lady had the misfortune to lose her ticket for the theatre, but the same evening had a call from two boys, the elder of whom, aged fifteen years, at once handed over the ticket, explaining that he had found it in the street. The lady, delighted at the prompt return of the property, offered the boy a quarter. The lad refused to accept, explaining at the same time that he was a Boy Scout. The coin was just about to be placed back in the purse by the lady when the boy suddenly blurted out, "But my brother is not a Scout."

Raw Milk is Unsafe

The following is an extract taken from the Mail and Empire of Wednesday, September 19th inst:

NEW YORK, Sept. 18—One hundred and forty-seven cases of typhoid fever reported since the first of September in the lower East Side were traced to-day to infected milk. The Health Department found that all this milk came from one company and immediately ordered the company to cease selling anything but pasteurized milk.

What is pasteurization?

Pasteurization is a process of heating to a temperature sufficiently high to kill all disease organisms, holding at that temperature for a certain length of time, then rapidly cooling and holding at low temperature until delivered.

The object of Pasteurization is defeated unless all steps attendant on the process are carried out constantly under the most sanitary conditions and with the best equipment.

Objects of Pasteurization.

1. Primarily the object of Pasteurization is to absolutely destroy all disease organisms. Rapid cooling should immediately follow the heating and the low temperature be maintained to prevent the development of other organisms in the milk.
2. The secondary object of pasteurization is to enhance the keeping quality of the milk. The souring or putrefaction of milk is caused by bacteria. Pasteurization destroys 98 p.c. of these organisms, and the low temperature prevents the remainder from developing.

Pasteurized milk to be had in Brantford only from

A PROUD RECORD

The Borden Government has now been two years in office, and the record of actual and practical achievement exceeds that of any former government during a like period, and especially that of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

When the overthrow of the Liberal Administration took place on Sept. 21st, 1911, apologists for that side after they managed to catch their breath, described it as a fluke.

As regards its production the area is unique. It is not only the world's greatest producer of silver, but it absolutely controls the market for Cobalt, has a large output of arsenic, and is among the three or four areas that have the largest output of nickel.

Veins in the vicinity of Cobalt station were apparently noticed by men employed on railway construction in the spring of 1903, but they did not realize the immense store of riches of which they were the indication.

The largest producers during 1912 were as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Location and Silver production in ounces. Includes Nipissing (4,686,670 oz), Cobalt (3,703,942 oz), etc.

There were paid out in dividends by silver mining companies in the Cobalt camp over seven million dollars in 1912. The total distribution of profits since the beginning of the camp has been close upon 41 millions of dollars on a gross aggregate return for sales of silver of $81,777,260.

Two years of Canada's most marked progress under Conservative administration.

When agitator Mann attempts to publicly blackmail King George he is not in any sense living up to his name.

British postmen are threatening to strike unless they get certain demands. If so, this will be another case of bringing down the mailed fist.

In a neighboring city the marriage is reported of a Miss Bridle. The groom later won't be able to claim that he didn't know what he was getting.

A Chicago fireman makes confession that he had been turning in fire alarms in order to amuse his mother-in-law. Perhaps she suffers from heart disease.

That French aviator who is doing the loop the loop in mid air can have all he likes of the game. To scoop the scoop is quite good enough for the average newspaper man.

In addition to the other things to be placed under the foundation stone of Brantford's new public building, how would it do to include the city hall?

The local grit organ in its Saturday's issue published an alleged picture of Hon. R. Rogers. In reality the physiog was that of Mr. Good-ey, who used to be member for Kootenay. However, they're both good lookers so we'll have to let it go at that.

Varden and Ray, the great British Golfers who were picked to fight it out together for the U. S. championship, when defeated by quite a strippling, took their reverse as men should: It is of the very essence of true sport for losers who have done their best, to extend the congratulatory hand to the victors. As for Quimet he has, and all credit to him, He was up

This growth in the commercial services shows that the system is now established in the confidence of the citizens generally. The surplus earnings from the inception of the system to the end of June have enabled provision to be made for the whole of the sinking fund; obligations accruing to the purely construction period, and to leave a net surplus over and above of nearly $35,000. In addition thereto a fund has been created of nearly $122,000, for the purpose of meeting the replacements that will be necessitated from time to time from the action of depreciation.

And in addition to all this kind of thing, the fact has to be remembered of what Hydro Electric has meant all around in the matter of preventing ring and monopoly charges.

ONTARIO AS A SILVER PRODUCER

A report just issued of the Ontario Bureau of Mines with reference to Ontario as a silver producer, makes reading of the Arabian Nights variety.

As regards its production the area is unique. It is not only the world's greatest producer of silver, but it absolutely controls the market for Cobalt, has a large output of arsenic, and is among the three or four areas that have the largest output of nickel.

He Didn't Suit. A horseowner was trying to sell a wind-broken horse, and was trotting with him around for inspection. The owner stroked the horse's back, and remarked to the prospective buyer: "Hain't he a lovely coat?"

Years of Suffering. A Desperate Case of Catarrh in the Head.

"My father had catarrh in the head for a long time. It was such a desperate case that he didn't know what to do, but one of his friends recommended Hood's Sarsaparilla. He got a bottle immediately, and as soon as he commenced taking it he felt relief and after the use of two other bottles he was completely cured. He was so well pleased he has ever since recommended Hood's Sarsaparilla." Delie Aline Berin, Levis, P. Q.

FINANCE COMMITTEE LOOKING OVER SCHOOLS

Demand From School Board for $60,000 Causes the Enquiry.

The members of the finance committee, headed by Ald. Spence, are making a round of the public schools to-day. The object of the trip is to investigate school conditions in view of the request made to the city council for the passing of a by-law to raise $60,000 for a new school in the East ward. A visit will be made to Dufferin school, the newest one in the city, to enquire if some of the trimmings in school construction cannot be eliminated. In view of the general financial stringency the committee is desirous of proceeding carefully, and to make enquiry if the need is as reported by the school authorities is a pressing one at this time.

HARVEST HOME AT ST. JUDES CHURCH

Ven Archdeacon Mackenzie's Regret at Ill Health of Rector.

Harvest Thanksgiving services at St. Jude's Church yesterday were attended by large congregations. The church was tastefully decorated with flowers, grain and the fruits of the season. In the morning the Rev. H. A. Wright preached a thoughtful and instructive sermon, selecting for his text the parable of the rich fool. In the evening the Ven. Archdeacon Mackenzie spoke and prefaced his discourse with a kindly expression of sympathy for the rector, Rev. Rual Dean Wright, whose ill health has compelled him to retire temporarily from active work, taking for his text, Gen. 28 "The Lord God planted a garden."

The choir which contains a number of very good voices did much to make the services enjoyable and reflected much credit upon Mr. Farnsworth, the leader, who is indefatigable in his efforts on their behalf, as well as upon Teddie Foster, the organist, who is steadily growing in favor. Special settings to the Psalms and Chants were rendered, the offertory anthems being "Ye shall dwell in the land" and "Praise the Lord O my soul." The offertory was larger than for a number of years.

SIGNED NEW NOTES FOR HIS OWN BANK

Tyrus Cobb, Apparently Belonged to the Financial World.

[Canadian Press Despatch] WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Collectors doubtless will be on the lookout soon for some national bank notes which were signed a few days ago by "Ty" Cobb, centre-fielder of the Detroit Baseball Club. When the star player was here the other day, he visited the Treasury Department. While being shown through he asked to see some of the bank notes of the "First National Bank of Tawonia, Georgia." On informing the officer in charge that he was a director in that bank and as such entitled to sign money printed for that institution, the bank officer placed his signature to several sheets of the notes.

BRANTFORD POLICE APPEAL CASE GOES

Appeal Will be Proceeded With it is Announced.

That the appeal against the decision in the trial against the Brantford police held in Simcoe this spring will be proceeded with, was the announcement from solicitors in the case today. Just when the case will come up at Toronto, however, is not known. Mr. W. T. Henderson was asked as to when the appeal would likely be heard and he replied that it was difficult to find out. "Frequently," said Mr. Henderson, "we have to depend upon newspaper announcements for notices as to when cases are to be heard in Toronto, and I have at times just had a few minutes time in order to catch a Toronto train."

"A Shirt, A Shirt, My Wedding For A Shirt"

The absence of a white shirt played a prominent part in a marriage ceremony which took place on Saturday afternoon.

The groom had asked his room mate to bring along a shirt to the home of the bride on Terrace Hill, but in the excitement he forgot to do so and when he arrived at the scene of the wedding he was accosted by the groom and asked, where in blankety blank was the shirt?

"I forgot it," said the groom's friend. "I can't be married without a shirt," said the groom.

Not to be daunted the groom and his friend made a race for the latter's boarding house in Eagle Place.

When the two arrived there the "boarding mrs." had locked the house and had gone to the city to do some shopping. The two could not get in.

What was to be done? The happy thought struck them—"a ladder." The neighborhood was searched for a ladder and finally one was secured and the same was raised to the window, and the two entered the house.

In the "post haste" everything in wearing apparel was found but a shirt. The beads of sweat began to pour down the face of the groom as he thought, "no shirt, no wedding!"

Finally one was found and away the pair scooted out, as Eagle Place for the scene of the wedding on the hill. They arrived just in time for the ceremony. The wedding march was played and the parson united the couple in the holy bonds of matrimony, and the thrilling affair which would make a great hit for a moving picture show finally resulted in a happy ending.

BAND TROUBLES IN CITY NOT YET OVER

The Old City Band Members it is Alleged, Have Grievances.

From what could be learned this morning there is trouble brewing in the ranks of the 25th Brant Dragoon Band. The Courier was told this morning by a former member of the Dragoon band that when the organization formerly known as the City Band forsook that name and became the band of the 25th Brant Dragoons, certain obligations were to be met by the officers of the regiment, which, it is said, were not met. The gentleman in question stated that a number of the members of the band are beginning to become uneasy and want to know what is what. The gentleman who gave the information to the Courier stated that he had lifted some of the instruments belonging to the old City Band which were being used by the Dragoon Band and that there would be a meeting called shortly of the old band to decide whether they would remain in connection with the Dragoons or reorganize the old City Band. If they decide to remain with the regiment then the old uniforms will be offered for sale. Should the members decide to break away from the regiment then they will reorganize the old City Band. There was also an agreement over $100.00 in connection with the old uniforms that has never been straightened out, and over which the trouble is supposed to have arisen.

FIVE YEAR SENTENCE WAS HANDED DOWN

Young Man Who Robbed Rev. W. B. Caswell in Winnipeg is Punished.

Five years was the sentence meted out to the young man who robbed Rev. W. B. Caswell, a former Brantford pastor, in Winnipeg. It will be remembered that Mr. Caswell proved the good Samaritan to the young man. He took him in, clothed him and fed him. Then Mr. Caswell and his family were leaving on their vacation and had to close house. The young man stole a key and esconced himself luxuriously in the parlor of the parsonage. An idea struck him to raise money by selling the furniture. He did so, then shook the dirt off his feet in Winnipeg. He was captured across the line, brought back and confessed. He now goes to the penitentiary for five years.

MURPHY JUMPED BROOKLYN BRIDGE

And When Arrested Fell Fast Asleep in a Police Cell.

[Canadian Press Despatch] NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—"Dare Devil Murphy," as Jos. P. Murphy is known because of his high diving feats, took what he called a practice jump off the Brooklyn bridge yesterday, was picked up unarmed by three of his friends in a row boat and afterwards went calmly to sleep in a police station cell, where he was placed on a charge of "attempted suicide." Murphy made his 135-foot jump clad in a bathing suit, which he wore under his street clothes, discarding the latter on the bridge promenade and leaping off the railing in sight of the Sunday bridge crowds before a policeman, who ran for him, could get near him.

FIRE DEPARTMENT OUT SATURDAY NIGHT

Barn on Mt. Pleasant Street Went Up in Flames.

At 10 minutes after 10 o'clock on Saturday night the central Fire Department was summoned to extinguish a fire which had broken out in a frame barn at 35 Mt. Pleasant Street, owned by A. McPherson of Mr. Pleasant, and was completely destroyed. The fire secured such headway before the department arrived that the building was almost burned down before they arrived on the scene.

Two streams of hose were played on the building, which soon extinguished the fire. The hose was also played on the roof of the frame house nearby, which was slightly scorched and was in immediate danger.

The barn fortunately was empty and was leased by man named Smith. Chief Lewis stated this morning that it had very appearance of a case of incendiarism. At the time of the fire there was a great reflection in the sky and citizens by the hundreds flocked over to West Brantford, who were of the opinion that the Screw Factory or the House of Refuge was on fire.

Church News For the Sunday

With the Lutherans.
An impressive service was held last evening by St. Matthews Lutheran Church, worshipping in Willard Hall, when Miss Sara Stinson, C. D., was confirmed and Mr. and Mrs. Lipskey and family were received as members of the church by transfer. The service was held by Mr. N. Williams, the acting pastor, and the sermon based on Jno. 8: 31, was preached by the Rev. M. J. Bieber, field missionary, who also administered the rite of confirmation and later Holy Communion to the congregation. At the conclusion of the service the church council, at the request of Mr. Fissette, offered the use of the hall on Sunday afternoons, and the co-operation of the congregation for holding Sunday School among the children of the foreigners within our city gates.

The congregation under Student Willison, who is now a Senior in the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Waterloo, has made excellent progress. A class of six young people is under instruction, the Sunday school, Missionary Society and Lutheran League are increasing in membership and the services of the congregation are well attended. The annual Harvest Festival will be held next Sunday.

Congregational Church.
All the services for the day were most interesting and largely attended. In the evening the pastor preached a most impressive sermon on the subject "Turning away from a bad past." The musical numbers were most enjoyable, consisting, Anthem, "Seek ye the Lord"; duet, "Love Divine"; Quartette, "Crossing the Bar." Solo, Mr. Green.

At Colborne Street.
The annual rally of the Colborne Street Methodist Church, brotherhood was held yesterday morning, when 125 were present. Rev. Llewellyn Brown addressed the meeting, taking for his subject "A Man's Job." The speaker dealt with the duty of the men as Christians. It was their duty to go out and win others to the faith. This work, the speaker believed to be one of the greatest professions. From a number of apt illustrations he drew striking lessons as to how the work could be accomplished.

Mr. Stewart Sanderson rendered a solo.

A Bit of "Ould Ireland" Come to Brantford

GOOD LINENS—IRELANDS BEST. Yes, there are good Linens and poor Linens. The good Linens are all Linen—all Linen well made. The other kind, by courtesy or in trade terms, called Linen, may be anything. Don't forget that the fine flax fibre, of which Linens are made, SHINES LIKE SILVER; beware of a dead dull fibre.

Ireland makes the best Linens in the world, and the mention of Irish Linens brings to the mind pictures of emerald green bleach fields and the prettily saucy faces of the operatives. Then there's the genius behind it all which designed the artistic patterns and directed the weaving and finishing of the lovely damasks and the other dainty lines they send us.

Ham and Nott Softballers, the winners of the second series, defeated the Beavers, the champions of the first series, Saturday afternoon at Recreation Park and are now champions of the city and winners of the Newman Cup. The game was a grand one to witness. Stewart pitched good ball for the shomen and had a shade the best of the argument, his experience at soft ball in the armours and the support his team mates gave him, winning the game for the screen boys.

Synons had a couple of bad innings but pitched good ball; his support was not as gilt edged as his opponent. Players:

crowd back, which had been a drawback in previous games. A bumper crowd and a good game—muff sed.

Manager Dave Lyle of the Beavers is a hard worker.

Knight and Stewart landed on the big pill for a home run; Knight also had a 3-bigger.

The players of the Ham and Nott team will each receive a gold locket from the league.

Stuart pitched his best game this season and used good judgment and only walked one.

Lottidge's catch of a low foul fly and doubling Woolman at first was one of the features.

Earnie Marlatt's fielding and hitting was his best performance in the four softball league.

Ham and Nott's bunched the hits in the fifth and 9th. Innings; they put four runs over the pan in each innings by their timely clouting.

Manager Legacy did not like to beat the Beavers but was contented in knowing that the Newman Cup would remain in the East Ward for the winter.

Cobb Now Has 11 Points Lead Over Jackson

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Cobb, of Detroit, with an average of .383; Jackson of Cleveland with .372; and Speaker of Boston with .366 are making neck and neck finish in the race for first batting honors in the American League. Cobb's eleven point lead and the approach of the season's end make him favorite now. Places in the .300 class of the American League are held mainly by veterans. Henrikson of Boston, whose illness has kept him out of practically all the games of the latter half of the season, pounded the ball for an average of .351 while he was playing his 25 games, and that percentage is enough to keep him in fourth place.

Next in order are Eddie Collins, Philadelphia, .322; Lajoie, Cleveland, .310; Baker, Philadelphia, .333.

Pitchers records in the American League show Johnson ahead as usual. The first six rank—

W.	L.	P.C.
Johnson Wash.	33	7	.825
Hourke, Phila.	12	4	.759
Falkenberg, Cleve.	22	8	.733
Wood, Boston	12	5	.706
Bender, Phila.	21	9	.709
Walsh, Chicago	7	3	.700

Jake Daubert of Brooklyn has attained the honor of holding undisturbed the top notch among the National League batters. His percentage of .361 puts him ahead of Earl Yinging, who holds an average of .347.

Zimmerman, champion batter last year, is slowly climbing, but is still number ten, and probably will not be able to reach the top this year.

The pitching record in the National League shows the first five to be—

W.	L.	P.C.
Vaughn, Chicago	4	0	.100
Demaree, New York	15	3	.833
Humphries, Chicago	14	3	.824
Cooper, Pittsburg	6	2	.750
Luhren, Pittsburg	3	1	.750

Results of Saturday's Great Football Games

Courier Cup Series.
Dufferin Rifles 2, S. O. E. 1.

There was only one football game on Saturday, the Dufferin Rifles defeating the Sons of England team 2 to 1, the half time score being 1 to 0 in favor of the winners.

The game between the Y. M. C. A. and Cocksmit's United was called off on account of rain.

Courier Cup Game.
The Duffs just nosed out a victory from the Sons of England eleven on Saturday defeating them by one goal, 2 to 1. It was one of the best games played this season, from a spectator's point of view. Many fast hard rushes were pulled off by each team. There were several brilliant individual plays executed and the large crowd which attended the game were treated to some real good football. The Duffs broke away in the first half and notched one goal. After the half time rest the Duffs repeated the feat. The S. O. E. players jumped into the game with more energy and put one goal through. The game from that time on was stubbornly fought but try as they could, the Englishmen could not score on the Duffs' defence. In the dyin g stages of the game the S. O. E. became desperate and made several well meant rushes on the Duffs' goal, but of no avail, the soldiers' defence being equal to the occasion and held the English forwards safe. When the whistle blew for full time the Duffs had scored 2 goals and the S. O. E. 1.

The Duffs now go into the semi-finals along with Y. M. C. A., Cocksmit United, All Scots.

QUIMET WON FROM VARDON AND RAY

Surprising Victory of Young American Amateur—Praised by Britishers.

BROOKLINE, Mass., Sept. 22.—Another name was added to the "America's list of winners in international sport on Saturday, when Francis Quimet, a youthful local amateur, won the nineteenth open championship ornament of the United States Golf Association.

The winning was lifted to an international prominence due to the sensational circumstances of play and to the calibre of the entrants whom Quimet defeated during his four days' march to victory. The boy trailed the leaders in the first half of the championship round, tied with Harry Vardon and Edward Ray, the famous English professionals, for first place in the final round, then completely outplayed them Saturday.

Quimet won with a score of 72 strokes, two under par for one of the hardest courses in the country. Vardon finished five strokes behind Quimet with 77, Ray took third place with 78.

The slender youth just past his teens, outplayed and outwitted not only Vardon and Ray in the play-off, a wonderful feat in itself, but succeeded in battling his way through the largest and most remarkable field of entrants that ever played for an American title. The lists contained Motherwell 2, Aberdeen 2, Hibernians 0, Patrick Thistle 2, Rangers 0, Dundee 1, Airdrieonians 3, Kilmarnock 1, Clyde 2, Harts 2, Morton 0, Celtic 1.

Big Matty a Free Agent in Order That He May Secure Job as Manager in League

(London Advertiser)
Matty Matteson, the London catcher, is running a strong favorite for the management berth on Tom Nelson's Brantford Canadian League team at present, and it will not be surprising to see Matt at the head of the Red Sox when next season rolls around. The Brantford club will not appoint a new manager until after the first of the year, but Matteson is being negotiated with in the meantime.

Matty is Free Agent.
The London club will not stand in Matty's way should he land the berth. In fact, the local directors are lending assistance in securing the job for the big catcher. Matty is a free agent at the present time, the local club having granted him his release in order to give him free rein in securing a better berth. If the Brantford club wants him as manager, it will not have to first buy his release from the local management, but can make arrangements direct with him. However, should Matty not land the berth, he will come back to London next spring. It is not likely that Matteson will be placed on the reserve list. When in London a week or so ago, he informed The Advertiser that he had a couple of chances to land a manager's berth, but if he failed to get them, he would play for Ribe Deneau next year, provided he could put up the article of ball he put up this past season.

Dad is Free Also.
It is also doubtful whether "Dad" Steward will be placed on the reserve list of the London club. If all rests with "Dad," if he can land a manager's berth also, the local club will not stand in his way, but if he does not, then he can report to the London club next spring if he so desires.

Newark Lands International League Pennant

NEWARK, Sept. 22.—Newark won the 1913 championship of the International League here Saturday by taking Jersey City into camp in both games of a double header, 2 to 1 and 4 to 3, the second ending in the 7th by agreement. This is the first time Newark has won the pennant in this league. Newark was taken into the Eastern League, which was subsequently renamed the International League, in 1902, with Walter W. Burnham as manager. The nearest they ever got to the championship was second place. The last championship Newark won was in the Atlantic League in 1896 when they took a double header from the Athletics of Philadelphia on the last day. Rochester made a desperate attempt to overtake Newark in the last month of the race, cutting the lead of twelve games down to one and a half games. Rochester practically lost all chance of catching the Indians on Friday, when they lost the second game of a double header to Toronto. Last year Toronto developed a streak near the close of the season and beat out Rochester for the flag.

It is all over. Newark deserved to win the International pennant and did so. Rochester was just due a crack, and did so.

There was no change in the American or National League standing on Saturday, outside of the Athletics gaining another game on Cleveland and Washington tying it up with the latter club. Clark Griffith's boast that he will finish second looks plausible at this distance.

That horse, Hodges, is some high. He has been running everywhere in the Canadian circuit, and on Saturday beat the crack Southern Maid.

That horse, Hodges, is some horse. He has been running everywhere on the Canadian circuit, and on Saturday beat the crack Southern Maid at even weights. The iron men paid over 6 to 1 on Hodges, while Southern Maid looked so good, the price was 1-2. 'Twas ever thus in the sport of kings.

Ham and Nott softballers are first time champions. The League looks to be a go, and the boys have had a lot of fun out of it this year. In Hamilton the game has taken a decidedly strong hold. Congratulations to the Bed Makers.

As a golfer, this boy Ouimet seems one of the phenomenal wonders produced every now and then by the American nation.

If the wishes of a majority of British sportsmen are followed, Great Britain's last appearance in the Olympic games will be at Berlin in 1916. This sentiment is steadily growing, and public opinion would favor withdrawing from the Olympic organization immediately except for two reasons—First, the Germans might construe the withdrawal as due to anti-German prejudices; and second, other nations might think that, after the poor showing the team made at Stockholm, Great Britain was unable to hold its own against the teams of other countries.

The policy advocated by the most influential men in the English world of sport is to send a representative well trained delegation to Berlin, and then withdraw gracefully. The reasons behind this policy lie in the belief that the Olympic games are becoming semi-professional contests, and that, instead of fulfilling the purpose of their founders, which was to create international friendships, they have the opposite effect.

The response to the appeal for $50,000 as an Olympic fund for the British athletes continues apathetic. Less than $10,000 has been subscribed. The discussion over the appeal has brought forth more expressions of opinion against the Olympics than favorable to them, most of the opposition coming from the old university men.

Talk about putting one over on a crowd, the members of the Athletic Lacrosse team of St. Kitts, which has just returned from a joy trip to Chicago tell the funniest one.

The Athletics went to the Windy City to play an exhibition game of lacrosse with the Calumets, a lacrosse team of that town. The Calumets are willing to learn, but of course are not much up on the Canadian national game just yet. The Athletics won as they played in a game which was something of a burlesque.

One of the Calumets is Bill Harris, an old time Athletic player of this city, who many years ago laid down

SAGE TEA PUTS LIFE AND COLOR IN HAIR

Sage Tea Puts Life and Color Don't Stay Gray! It Darkens So Naturally that Nobody can Tell.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50 cent bottle of "Wyer's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, says a well known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray becoming faded, dry, scraggly and thin have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful—all dandruff goes, scalp itching and falling hair stops on.

"This is the age of youth. Gray haired, unattractive folk aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyer's Sage and Sulphur tea-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days. Agent, Geo. Bowles.

His stick for good it was thought, by virtue of age and fat. Harris will be remembered by old time lacrosse fans as "Sleepy" Harris, but that name belied him, for when he was in his prime he was anything but that.

"Sleepy" was induced to don a Calumet uniform Saturday, and the former Saints of Chicago, who engineered the game, put him at the important position of point.

Well, the game went on and Harris was the star for reasons most obvious to one who understands lacrosse. Between quarters the Athletics arranged a great coup, in which Harris was to be the hero. Harris fell into the plot with glee. So, when play was resumed, and both teams had got a little warmed up, the coup was pulled off.

Harris was allowed to have the ball, and, holding it in his stick, he started a triumphant rush down the field. The Athletics stood and watched him go, not a man trying to stop him, for the simple reason the whole thing had been prearranged. When the big fellow got near enough to shoot he sent the rubber through with his old time accuracy. Goals in goal, stood aside and smilingly bowed as the ball whizzed through.

But did that crowd of four or five thousand Chicagoese catch on? Not a bit of it. They broke loose when they saw the big Canadian start down the line. Before he got half way every man and woman in the Red Sox grand stand vied on his or her feet shouting and waving something, and when Harris made the goal the uproar was something tremendous.

Harris had to go before the grand stand and bow his acknowledgement of the ovation. And next morning the Chicago Sunday papers spoke of the phenomenal Harris play, and most of them put him in the heading.

PRINCE GEORGE, B. C.

The first sale of lots in the townsite of Prince George, B. C., owned by the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, was held in Vancouver Wednesday, Sept. 17, the results being most gratifying. The total sales amounted to a quarter of a million dollars. The highest price paid was for lots No. 13 and 14, block 43, which brought $13,000. The lowest price paid was for lot No. 21 block 33, $2000. Another sale of lots of this townsite will be held on Wednesday, Sept. 24, at Edmonton, Alta., and the following week a sale will be held on the ground at Prince George to enable the residents to obtain locations.

With Edged Tools

By Henry Seton Merriman, Copyright, 1894, by Harper & Brothers

Joseph had a rough knowledge of soldiering and a very rudimentary notion of fortification. But he had that which served as well—the unerring eye for covert—a marksman. He was a dead shot at any range, and, knowing what he could hit, he also knew how to screen himself from the rifle of an enemy.

More all, perhaps, was the quiet assurance of a man who never flinched, either in anger or in fear, in the heat of a fight.

"It seems, sir," said Joseph to his master later in the day, "that you've kinder stump'd them. They don't understand you."

"They must be kept in check by fear," he replied.

"Yes, sir. Those sort of men," Meredith made no answer, and after a little pause Joseph repeated the words significantly, "inagranmatikally."

"What do you mean?"

"Slaves," replied Joseph sharply, touching his hat without knowing why.

"Slaves! What are you talking about?"

"The man came a little nearer," said a forty man—leaving thirty men—that we brought from Mexico. Mr. Durvov's men that cultivate this 'ere simlucine, as they call it. They're different from the rest, sir."

"Yes, of course they are. We do not hire them direct; we hire them through Mr. Durvov and their wages to him. They are of a different tribe from the others—not fighting men, but agriculturists."

"All—Joseph paused. "Strange things, sir, but I've not seen 'em handling any of their pay yet."

"Well, that is their affair."

"Yes, sir."

Having unburdened himself of his suspicion, the servant retired, shaking his head ominously. At any other time the words just recorded would have aroused Jack Meredith's attention, but the singular situation that seemed to be creeping over his intellect was already acting as a clog on his mental energy.

The next morning he was unable to leave his bed, and lay all day in a state of semi-somnolence. Joseph explained to the men that the leader was so disgusted with their ungrateful conduct that he would not leave the tent. In the evening there was a slight attack made from the southern side. This Joseph was able to repulse chiefly by his own long range firing, assisted by a few picked rifles, but the situation was extremely critical. The roll of the big war drum could be heard almost incessantly, rising with weird melancholy from the forest land beneath them.

Despite difficulties the new crop of simlucine, the second which was made, has been picked, dried, and stored in cases. Without on the plateau stood the bare trees, affording no covert for savage warfare, no screen against the deadly bullet. The camp was placed near one edge of the table land and on this exposed side the stockade was wisely constructed of flimsy strength. The attacks had hitherto been made only from this side, but Joseph knew that anything in the nature of a combined assault would carry his defense before it. In his rough and ready way he doctored his master, making for him such soups and strength giving food as he could. Once, very late in the night, when it almost seemed that the shadow of death lay over the little tent, he pitched up some of the single simlucine leaves and mixed them in the brandy which he administered from time to time.

Before sunrise the next morning the alarm was given again, and the little garrison was called to arms.

He took his station on the roof of a hut in the center of the little stockade, and from there he directed the fire of his men. Crouching beneath him he had a disabled native who loaded each rifle in turn, and just by way of encouraging the others he picked off the prominent men outside the stockade with a deadly accuracy.

If Joseph detected anything like cowardice or carelessness, he pointed his rifle with a threatening frown toward the culprit, with immense effect.

Presently, however, things began to get more serious. This was not the sudden assault of a single chief, but an organized attack. Before long Joseph ceased to smile. By sunrise he was off the roof running from one weak point to another, encouraging, threatening, fighting and swearing very hard. More than once the enemy reached the stockade, and, amidst a sigh, one or two of their dead lay inside the defense.

He was everywhere at once urging on his men, kicking them, pushing them, forcing them up to the stockade. But he saw the end. Half dazed, the objects fought on in silence.

In the midst of it a hand was laid on Joseph's shoulder.

"There," cried a voice, "that corner. See to it."

Without looking round, Joseph obeyed, and the breached corner was saved. He only knew that his master, who was almost dead, had come to life again. There was no time for anything else.

For half an hour it was a question of any moment. Master and man were for the time being nothing better than madmen, and the fighting frenzy is wildly infectious.

At last there was a pause. The enemy fell back and in the momentary silence the sound of distant firing reached the ears of the little band of defenders.

"What's that?" asked Meredith sharply. He looked like one risen from the dead.

"Fighting among themselves," replied Joseph, who was wiping blood and grime from his eyes.

"Then one of them is fighting with an express rifle?"

Joseph listened.

"By heaven!" he shouted, "By heaven, Mer—sir, we're saved!"

The enemy had apparently heard the firing too. Perhaps they also recognized the peculiar sharp snarl of the express rifle amid the others. There was a fresh attack—an ugly rush of reckless men. But the news soon spread that there was firing in the valley and the sound of a white man's rifle. The little garrison plucked up heart, and the rifles, almost too hot to hold, dealt death around.

They held back the savages until the sound of the firing behind them was quite audible amid the heavy rattle of the musketry.

Then suddenly the firing ceased—the enemy had divided and fled. For a few moments there was a strange, tense silence. Then a voice—an English voice—cried "Come on!"

The next moment Guy Osgood stood on the edge of the plateau. He held up both arms, as a signal, to those within the stockade to cease firing, and then he came forward, followed by a number of blacks and Durvov.

The gate was rapidly disencumbered of its rough supports and thrown open.

Jack Meredith stood in the aperture, holding out his hand.

"Osgood did not seem to take so cheerful a view of matters. He scrutinized Meredith's face with visible anxiety.

"Then suddenly Jack reached up against his rescuer, grabbing at him vainly.

"A minute Osgood was supporting his back toward his tent."

"It's all right, you know," explained Jack Meredith very gravely. "I'm a bit weak, that is all—I am hungry, haven't had anything to eat for some time, you know."

"Oh, yes," said Osgood shortly. "I knew all about it."
