URGENT APPEAL!

The G.W.V.A., finding that the number of billets offered by citizens and veterans in the city is by no means adequate to house the number of returned men who will arrive on Saturday, June 28th, confidently appeals to the public for assistance in this direction. Realizing that it is impossible for many private families to billet men, we would point out that we are able to place men in boarding houses at $1.50 per day, and that you can render splendid service by guaranteeing to bear the cost of one or more men.

If you could help in this way it would be greatly appreciated if you would notify the G.W.V.A. by 5 p.m. to-morrow.

At the Mouth of the Treacherous Pit

STORY OF LOVE, INTRIGUE AND REVENGE

CHAPTER VII.

There was silence for some moments. He found that, so far from having extricated himself from a false position, he had increased his difficulties.

"That is much to ask," he answered, gravely. "I must consider the question in all its bearings."

"What!" she cried. "Do you hesitate when I ask you?"

"I do not hesitate. I say it is a very serious question. A pledge of friendship given and taken in that fashion is as grave a matter as—"

He paused; for the words that rose to his lips would, he knew, lead him into greater complications.

"I know what you mean," she said, with a sigh and a smile that was irresistible—"you mean that it is as grave a matter as a promise of marriage."

The splendid, dark eyes raised suddenly to his face seemed to suggest the idea. Why did he not make that? He read the question in one glance, and he felt afraid of himself.

"Of course it is a solemn pledge," she continued, "but it is one that I think you need not be afraid of. What can one wish for more than to have a true friend? A man who rejected an offer of friendship would not be wise."

"I do not reject it, Miss de Ferras," the smile that flashed back to him from the girl's beautiful eyes rendered him almost speechless.

"So you say, Sir Karl; but you do not seem to be in any hurry to accept it."

"I repeat," he said, "that you are very good to me. You know what the poet calls friendship—love without wings. Your offer of it may be doubly valuable to me for this reason—I am not what is called a marrying man. I will tell you in all confidence that I loved once, and most unhappily. I have no heart to give, and knowing this, I ought to value doubly the friendship of a woman."

Her face paled at first as she listened; then a gleam of proud defiance came into her eyes, which, if he had seen it, would have put him on his guard.

"You are right," she said; "if you are never to know the love of woman, friendship is the next best thing. I should not have believed, Sir Karl, that you were one to love in vain."

"I did not love in vain," he answered, sadly.

"Perhaps," she said, "some day, when we know each other better, you will tell me the story."

"I think not," he replied, all his former distrust returning. "The past is buried."

The gleam of defiance deepened in the dark eyes.

"Perhaps you are right. I shall always respect your confidence, and never ask any questions. I am glad you have told me this—I shall understand you better. And from now we are to be friends, Sir Karl—from this day constant and faithful friends, loyal to each other at all times and in all places. Do you consent to this?"

How could he resist the sweet, thrilling voice.

"Yes, you honor me," he replied. "How can I help sealing such a compact gladly?"

She placed her hands in his.

"I swear to me that so long as we both live you will be my true friend."

"I swear it," he replied.

"That in your sorrow you will come to me, and in your joy you will seek me."

"I promise," he said, carried away by her beauty and her enthusiasm.

"You will not think of me any more as Miss de Ferras, but as your true friend Lola? Will you say these words to me?"

"My true friend Lola," he said, smiling; and the lovely face was almost transfused with happiness.

"You must promise me that from this very hour I shall take part in your life; that you will think of me often; that you will tell me your tastes, your likes and dislikes; that, when you are absent, you will write to me frequently, and that you will provide me regularly with your address, so that I may write to you. Promise to do this, holding my hands in yours."

"I promise," he replied, thinking that her ideas of friendship were very elastic, and then reproaching himself for the thought.

"Now I am happy," murmured Lola. "Let me tell you—and do not be shocked at my saying it—that I would far rather have your friendship all my life than the love of any other man."

"But," he said quickly, perceiving the danger at once, "my friendship will not supply the place of love."

"You do not know," she rejoined; "your friendship is worth more to me than the love of any other man can ever be. It makes me the happiest woman on earth, and it makes earth heaven to me."

"But, Lola, how am I ever to repay you or thank you? What am I to do in return for this wealth of affection that you lavish upon me?"

she added, "I hesitated long about it. It was I who persuaded mamma that those books must be of importance to you. She said the servants could take them; but I told her that as I was passing the lodge I might leave them; and then I did not think that there would be any harm seeing you for a few minutes to say farewell. I shall always be glad that I came."

She looked so happy that he could not find it in his heart to reproach her.

"How long will you be away from England?" she asked.

"His heart turned with loyal allegiance to Dolores, for whose sweet sake and for love of whom he was going into exile. He would come back when he had ceased to love her, but not until then."

"I cannot tell exactly," he replied. "With undisturbed good humor she asked: 'You will think of me very often when you are away? I wonder whether it will make you any happier to know that one faithful heart will comfort you to know that?'"

"Yes," he replied, almost hating himself because he could not feel more grateful for all this kindness.

"I must say good-by," she said, with fingering regret. "It is hard as death—I have found you only to lose you. Good-by, Sir Karl. Say to me some kind word which will keep my heart warm while you are away."

"The kindest words I have for you," he answered, "are the ones you have given yourself—my true friend Lola."

"When you return will you promise to come and see me before you see any one else, Sir Karl?"

"Yes, I will, Lola; I can easily promise that."

"And now it must indeed be good-by," she said. "Good-by!"

THE FILES.

Again I rise to swear the files, with unexampled fury; by my deities, your likes and dislikes; that, when you are absent, you will write to me frequently, and that you will provide me regularly with your address, so that I may write to you. Promise to do this, holding my hands in yours."

"I promise," he replied, thinking that her ideas of friendship were very elastic, and then reproaching himself for the thought.

"Now I am happy," murmured Lola. "Let me tell you—and do not be shocked at my saying it—that I would far rather have your friendship all my life than the love of any other man."

"But," he said quickly, perceiving the danger at once, "my friendship will not supply the place of love."

"You do not know," she rejoined; "your friendship is worth more to me than the love of any other man can ever be. It makes me the happiest woman on earth, and it makes earth heaven to me."

"But, Lola, how am I ever to repay you or thank you? What am I to do in return for this wealth of affection that you lavish upon me?"

"You must repay me in kind, you have said to me, I will trust you. I, like yourself, have loved some one so well that, if that some one never loves me, I shall go unmarried to my grave. See what comfort we can give to each other! This is the happiest day of my life, Sir Karl."

"You are very good, Lola, to say so. If I have added to your happiness, I am well pleased."

"You have not added to it; you have made it," she declared. "And now, Sir Karl, with the fear of all the offended proprietors, I must go." Still she held her hand fondly clasped in her own. "I am so glad I came," that will keep up their midnight yelling. I take no axe to swat the fake and guinea hens and cattle that hoot and howl and grunt and growl until the windows rattle.

Power of League Suddenly Grows

DUE TO NEW FRENCH GOV'T. FASCIST DELEGATES SNUBBED. GENEVA, June 18.—(A.P.)—Doubtless action taken by the Council of the League of Nations yesterday will mark a new orientation in the political affairs of the old world, tending to throw all European problems into the hands of the League for supervision and settlement. The transformation is explained as the immediate consequence of the advent of a new Government in France. The session broke up in the liveliest spirit of optimism over the day's developments.

While the council was reaching these important decisions the International Labor conference was naming the members of the sub-committee. It was voted to refuse places to Italian workmen delegates, on the ground that they are Fascist, and not freely chosen by the workers of Italy. The sub-committee are composed of representatives of the governments, employers and workers, each group having the sole right to designate its delegates.

Dr. Sousa Dantas, of Brazil, as chairman of the sub-committee handling the long-standing problem arising from the expropriation of the property of German settlers by Poland, announced that the Poles had agreed to pay the lump sum of 3,000,000 gold francs compensation.

This is the only chance to get snapshots of Earl Haig's visit to Newfoundland. Why not get your Camera now, and be a competitor for the prizes that are offering? — TOOTONS, The Kodak Store. — June 20, 21.

Buy! Buy! Buy!

There was a time in our history when executed criminals were exhibited to the public gaze. We have outgrown that barbarity, and many people think it is time we outgrow the custom of displaying the carcasses of dead animals in our butchers' shops. It is not uncommon to see the carcasses of freshly-killed calves and bullocks, which present a sight which would be disgusting had we not grown accustomed to it.

But the question is also one of sanitation and public health. In the summer a butcher's shop, however careful the tradesman may be, is the resort of flies, and the food exposed for sale, having no protection from the outer air, is subject to serious contamination not only from flies but from road dust—and worse.

In many respects we are the most sanitary nation in the world, and yet this matter has never been adequately tackled by our authorities. One thing, at any rate, should be insisted upon, and that is that butchers' goods should be protected by windows, and that no meat should hang exposed in the open air. A greater reform would be that butchers' shops should be known by a special and prominent sign, and that no meat at all should be visible from the street.

Kodaks, Brownies and Premo Cameras are all reduced in price. Secure your Camera for the big Competition which commences on June 28th, and lasts while Earl Haig is on our shores. — TOOTONS, The Kodak Store. — June 20, 21.

Experiment in Suicide LEADS TO WIFE-MURDER.

BUDAPEST.—(A.P.)—Because the owner of Somogy Castle was seized by a morbid desire to experience the sensations of a man being hanged, he lost his life and his aged servant became his murderer.

One day Bela Martly, a Hungarian junker, was found dead in his study, with a rope around his neck and two heavy weights tied to the end of the rope. The coroner's verdict was suicide, but the family, which knew Martly to be intensely fond of life, declined to accept it. Their suspicions rested upon the servant, who finally confessed that he was in fact the murderer, though no thought had been further removed from his mind a few minutes before the act was committed.

Martly, it developed, had read an account the day before of a boy who hanged himself. Obedient to know how a man feels just before he is about to expire, he arranged that his servant was to stand near him while he tied a noose, at the end of which were two weights, about his neck. The servant was to lift up the weights, thereby relieving the pressure, at the moment it seemed to him that his master was about to expire unless relieved.

The servant declared that while he was awaiting this moment, his eyes fell upon his master's purse on the table, filled with bills of high denomination. Instead of relieving Martly the servant allowed him to die, and then possessed himself of the money.

Imperial Defence Committee to Consider Channel Tunnel Scheme

Canadian Commons Approve Principles of Church Union Bill—Governor A. E. Smith a Candidate for the Presidency.

NEW PROPOSITION MADE.
TORONTO, June 26. A new proposition has been made by the authorities at Ottawa to the postal strikers, said Gordon Jackson, President of the Federation of Postal Workers, at a mass meeting at the Toronto Postal strikers this morning. The Government's new proposition, he said, would be laid before the strikers at a closed meeting this afternoon.

NO SETTLEMENT OF POSTAL STRIKE IN SIGHT.
TORONTO, Ont., June 26. The predictions made yesterday by leading officials of the striking Postal workers here that important negotiations in progress would lead to a settlement of the differences between the employees and the Canadian Government within thirty-six hours, showed no signs of materializing this morning. No definite statements have been made by the Federation officials as to who the persons who are conducting the negotiations, but strikers are urged to be patient, promises being made of early developments of a favorable character.

MURDOCK EXONERATED.
OTTAWA, June 26. After a debate and divisions lasting till 3.30 this morning, the House of Commons adopted the report of the Committee on privileges and elections which exonerated Hon. Jas. Murdock, Minister of Labor, from the charge of having acted contrary to his obligations as a Minister of the Crown in withdrawing his deposit from the Home Bank two days before it collapsed. The vote for adoption was 119 to 44. Immediately the vote was announced Mr. Murdock, enthusiastically cheered by Liberals, again took his seat in the House. Ever since the charges were made against him the Minister had been unable to sit in the House.

RUM BILL TREATY HELD OVER.
OTTAWA, June 26. The rum treaty between the United States and Canada cannot be ratified until next session of the United States Senate, said Premier King in the House of Commons this afternoon in answer to questions by George Black, Conservative, Yukon. Communications are being exchanged between the two governments concerning the transporting of liquor on the Yukon River, through Alaska.

CHURCH UNION A NON PARTY ISSUE.
OTTAWA, Ont., June 27. The principle of the Church Union Bill was approved in the House of Commons at one a.m. to-day (Friday) when the Brown amendment to clause two, providing that the Bill would come into force June 30, 1925, carried the committee by a vote of 119 to 58. Clause two was defeated. This is the first amendment asking that the courts be asked to rule on the jurisdiction of the Presbyterian Assembly to present the Bill and of Parliament to enact it. Nearly two days' discussion in committee had resulted when the House rose to-night after the adoption of the first three clauses. The vote came at the end of a sultry debate which saw members of various parties divided against each other. The Government and Conservative leaders indicated that every member of the House was committed to no opinion but his own. The Prime Minister and his senior member of the Cabinet, Hon. George Graham, took opposite sides in the vote. However, Messrs. Meighen and Forke supported the Brown amendment as did the whole Progressive bloc. Premier King voted against it, having in mind his amendment to clause 23, which suggests reference of the question of jurisdiction to Supreme Court.

THE COST OF CANADA'S LONDON OFFICES.
OTTAWA, June 26. Canada employed in its permanent offices in London last year 115 employees. Their wages and allowance bill was $235,649. In addition to these permanent employees a large number of temporary workers are employed from time to time. The figures were tabled in the House of Commons to-day.

10 CANDIDATES PLACED IN NOMINATION.
NEW YORK, June 26. After seven days continuous session to-day, always noisy and sometimes tumultuous, the Democratic National Convention advanced its work to a point where ten candidates for presidency had been placed in nomination. It witnessed two more demonstrations of note, a renewal one for William McAdoo and a prolonged and original one for Governor Smith, Franklin D. Roosevelt's speech nominating Governor Smith, was a feature of the day's proceedings. Delegates who, four years ago saw Mr. Roosevelt standing before them at San Francisco, seconding the nomination of Governor Smith and winning the vice-presidential nomination for himself, had in their minds the picture of a young man in the flower of his manly vigor stepping briskly to the platform. To-day they saw him veritably carried there crippled by creeping inroads of infantile paralysis, and obliged to prop himself against the speaker's desk. It was noticeable that the convention paid closer attention to Mr. Roosevelt than it had any of those who preceded him with nomination speeches and he had his audience under control.

DEADLOCKED.
NEW YORK, June 26. Deadlocked in advance and its fighting fever mounting, the Democratic National Convention was called at ten thirty to-day to drive forward with nomination speeches while the platform builders, heavy headed, struggled on with their weighty problems.

SMITH A CANDIDATE.
NEW YORK, June 16. Governor Alfred E. Smith, of New York, was formally placed before the Democratic Convention to-day for the Presidency of the United States.

THE CHANNEL QUESTION A LIVE QUESTION.
LONDON, June 26. Hopes of the promoters of the Channel tunnel, which would connect England, were raised to-day by the statement of Premier MacDonald that he had decided to summon a special meeting of the Committee of Imperial Defence, next week, to consider the project. He said he would ask the Committee to report on the matter soon in order that he can make an announcement in the House of Commons within a few weeks. He added he would preside over the Committee meeting, because of the great importance the government attaches to the subject.

STORM STRIKES NEW YORK.
NEW YORK, June 26. A twenty-minute thunder storm and a seventy-two mile gale which struck New York late yesterday afternoon cost two lives, deranged the whole transit system and inflicted great property damage.

GOLF SCORES.
HOTLAKE, Eng., June 26. The British open golf championship was at stake to-day with the beginning of 72 holes of stroke competition over the links of the Royal Liverpool Club here. Jim Barnes finished the day's play at 36 holes with an aggregate of 155. Barnes had a 77 this afternoon. Other results were George Duncan, 153; Gil Nicholls, 153; Walter Hagen, 150.

CANADA TO PROVIDE THE DOORS.
OTTAWA, Ont., June 26. Thomas A. Low, Minister of Trade and Commerce, and James Murdock, Minister of Labor, have recommended to the Government that the doors on the main floor of the new building being erected for the League of Nations at Geneva, be donated by Canada, and that a suitable tablet be placed in the entrance hall of the building to commemorate the gift. The material placed in the doors and the workmanship would be Canadian. The Ministers recommended that the Minister of Trade and Commerce be given authority to arrange for the manufacture of the doors in accordance with plans to be furnished by the architect and that the expense involved, $4,000, be charged against Commercial Intelligence Service.

ELECTED PRESIDENT.
ST. ANDREWS BY THE SEA, June 26. Hon. Peter J. Veniot, Premier of New Brunswick, was this afternoon elected President of the Canadian Good Roads Association to succeed Russell T. Kelly, of Hamilton. The selection was unanimous.

Are Women 100 Per Cent. Efficient

How many women do you know who are one hundred per cent. efficient? That means every nerve and sinew of the body pulsating with life and health as nature intended. Do you not know more who are half dead and half alive, with aches, pains, nervous, irritable and despondent, making themselves miserable and every one around them? Women in this condition should let Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound rebuild and restore them to a normal healthy condition which will make them one hundred per cent. efficient and life worth living. There are women in every section of this country who testify to its merits.

In Memoriam

The many pupils young and old in Newfoundland and abroad will learn with deep regret of the death of Mother Mary Francis Walsh at Presentation Convent, Renew, on June 23rd. This exemplary Religious belonged to an old and respected St. John's family which had the honour and happiness of giving three daughters to the Cloister. At the time of her death she had attained the age of 85 years, 65 of which were spent devotedly and cheerfully in the arduous labors of a Presentation Nun. Possessing in a high degree the many virtues which characterize a true religious, her most outstanding one seemed to be a beautiful childlike simplicity which wonderfully attracted all hearts, especially little children. Like her Divine Master among the latter, she found her delight teaching them to turn their young innocent thoughts heavenwards. Her death was the echo of life, a simple longing "to go home when God wills it." St. John's, Torbay, Ferryland, Fernsides and last Renew were the scenes of the fruitful work of Mother M. Francis. In these places from the hearts of those who were the happy recipients of gentle teaching and solicitude, we know many grateful prayers will ascend for her speedy entrance into life. R.I.P.—COM.

How Big is the Pacific?

Few people realize the immense size of the Pacific Ocean. Comparing it with the Atlantic is like contrasting the Serpentine in Hyde Park with Windermere Lake.

The Pacific is almost a hemisphere of water, and it is startling to think that, if the whole land surface of the globe could be fitted together like a jig-saw puzzle, the resulting surface would not be as extensive as this one ocean!

A few figures will show this. For instance, the well-traversed route from Liverpool to New York is 2,050 miles, but from Yokohama to Valparaiso, a similar southern trend, across the Pacific, the distance is 9,340 miles. Across this ocean's narrowest part, namely, from Vancouver to Yokohama, is 4,260 miles.

The Pacific stretches from the Arctic Ocean to the Antarctic Ocean, and contains seventy million square miles of area. In this vast area are tens of thousands of islands, some little larger than a London common, and others which would be called large elsewhere but are dwarfed by their situation.

Will take a real interest and make a success of the fine art of cooking if you provide her with the necessary equipment at home. Just because her grandmother used an old-fashioned coal stove is no reason why the young generation should be burdened down with it. If your kitchen is equipped with a "SMOOTHTOP" VULCAN GAS RANGE, fitted with a Modern Heat Regulator, perfect results are certain.

Try this recipe for NUT BREAD: 4 cups flour, 6 teaspoons baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 cup sugar, 1 cup English walnuts, 1 cup milk, 2 eggs. Mix and sift dry ingredients and add the chopped nuts. Add milk and well beaten eggs. Put in two buttered pans and let stand 20 minutes. Set your oven heat regulator at 375 degrees and bake for 20 minutes.

THE COMPENSATION.

"There is always a compensation," says Emerson.

If you gain one thing you lose another, if you lose one thing you gain another.

There are times when one doubts this law of compensation, and other times when the truth of it flashes across some commonplace situation and lights it up.

I thought of this law last night when we were talking about a married couple whom we have recently met.

The outstanding thing about this couple is the husband's unusual devotion to his wife. They have been married all of 15 years and yet he is much more devoted than the average husband who is only a year or two away from the courtship days.

Still As Easy As A Lover.

I don't mean that he is silly about it, he is just unusually attached to her. He always calls her up once or twice a day from the office; when he gets back to his house at night he hurries up the steps as eagerly as any young lover and is as disappointed if his wife happens to be out. When he is in a room and his wife comes in, his face lights up in a way that is beautiful to see.

And who is the lady who excites all this devotion? Is she extraordinarily beautiful or fascinating? No, I do not think her best friends would say that. She is a pleasant faced, cheerful little woman, a good homemaker and a pleasant companion, tactful and gracious, a perfect mistress of her "maitre de femme," as Stevenson puts it.

Why then this exceptional devotion? Well, here is an explanation which the Man Who Thinks advances. You may not like it, and again you may find it one of those light flashes that make obscure things clearer.

A Refuge From The World. It is not because the woman is exceptional that she means so much to her husband but because she is a refuge from a world that has been harsh to him. He is one of those men who, starting out with brilliant prospects and with good opportunities, has somehow failed to fulfill that promise. Either he is lacking in some quality necessary to success or he has been peculiarly unlucky. Now his wife is tactful and gracious. She undoubtedly makes for him an atmosphere in which he can recover the stature that he seems to himself to have lost before the world.

The Man Who Thinks says this is not an unusual case. He says that he has noticed many times that the less successful men, as the world rates success, are often the most devoted and dependent husbands. The woman of whom I write has to work pretty hard and does not have as many pretties as some of her friends whose husbands have been more successful in a worldly way. But I fancy some of them would exchange their pretties and their leisure for what she has.

The Successful Man's Fore-Critical.

When a man is successful he is very much inclined to grow more arrogant, more self-sufficient, more self-satisfied and more critical of others. His wife included. He's giving her a great deal, he says to himself. Is he getting all he should in return?

Furthermore, the successful man is frequently the target of clever women who are eager to draw his attention to themselves by flattery and by charm.

The wife of the unsuccessful man is not likely to have such rivals. There is always a compensation. If you gain one thing you lose another, if you lose one thing you gain another.

Horn Glasses an Atrocity

SAYS BRITISH EYE EXPERT.

LONDON, June 28.—Clement Jeffery, an eminent eye diagnostician, does not like the vogue which is fast gaining ground here of wearing horn-rimmed spectacles. Lecturing on "the nation's eyes," in London recently, he said that the wearing of horn-rimmed spectacles by adults was an atrocity.

Mr. Jeffery added that the chief cause of myopia was not near work as is generally supposed, but mental strain. If all lessons could be made interesting and teachers and parents were paragons of love and patience, then myopia would be wiped out of the nation's repertoire.

THE FEW.

The many travel the well-paved way. Content with the common lot. But the few break out from the crowd about

And go where the throng will not.

The few stand to the hazard's risk. And bend to the dreary load. The few will try for the hill tops high. And carve for themselves a road.

The many wait till the path be known. And the way shines smooth and clear.

But the few will turn with the will to learn. To fight with the thing called fear.

The many will never desert the old. Or fashion a path-way new. For the man who leads to the greater deeds. Comes always out of the few.

The many will sit at their ease by night. Content with joys they see. But the few are thrilled by the urge to build.

The greater joys to be.

His Mother's Spirit

A little boy, six years of age, recently ran away from his home at Aversa—about twelve miles from Naples—to escape from his stepmother, who ill-treated him.

Having searched for him in vain, his father informed the police. Soon Pasqualino was discovered at Naples with his grandmother. The latter told how, a few days before, she had heard a knocking at the door, and, on opening it, she had seen, to her astonishment, her small grandson standing there alone.

"Who brought you here?" she asked.

"A woman," answered Pasqualino. "What woman?"

"I don't know," said the child; who then told his grandmother that he had run away because his stepmother beat him, but had got frightened, not knowing where to go. While he was wandering about the streets of Aversa a woman came up to him and took him by the hand. Without speaking, she lifted him on to the electric tram that runs between Aversa and Naples, holding him closely to her all the way. At Naples she led him to his grandmother's house, knocked, gave him a kiss, and left him.

"Had you never seen her before?" asked the wondering grandmother.

"Never, but she was like that," said the boy, pointing to a photograph of his own mother that stood on the table. His mother had died when he was only a few months old.

270 Miles an Hour

A world's record air speed of 270 miles an hour is expected in the impending trials of a new British racing aeroplane which will represent this country in the international contest for the Beaumont Cup on June 22nd, at Istres, France.

Mr. H. P. Folland, who planned the famous aerial Derby winning Bamel, also designed this new machine, which is driven by a special Napier engine, and has incorporated in it a number of secret devices for lessening head resistance and increasing speed which will, it is calculated, make it miles an hour faster than even the swiftest of the racers produced so far by France or America.

Preserved by Burning

A flame-throwing device which was designed by Germany and used during the war is now being successfully utilized in New York States as a means of protecting electric light and telephone poles from decaying in the earth.

The pole before being set up is treated with the flame-thrower until a charcoal surface is formed. Creosote, which hitherto has been used alone, is then applied. This system of treating the poles, it is stated, lengthens their lives considerably.

Safeguards and Warnings for the Highways

With the motoring season in full swing and the number of cars on the road greater than ever, it is necessary that nothing should be left undone to reduce the risk of accidents to a minimum.

In a great measure this depends upon the attitude taken by the citizens of the community themselves. Recently we referred to the responsibility which rests with the pedestrians, and to the assistance they can render by paying strict attention to the traffic regulations.

While the great majority of drivers exercise every precaution, and are most anxious to maintain their reputations for carefulness and consideration for others, there are invariably a few who consider themselves lords of creation, who "hog" the roads, and are a menace alike to the pedestrian and to other motorists.

Let the public, be they pedestrians or motorists, decide that they will not tolerate the reckless or irresponsible driver, that they possess sufficient spirit to report or proceed against those whom they see flagrantly violating the traffic regulations, and it will not be long before we are rid of them, and our streets and roads made safe for all.

The following is a summary of the advice given to the public by the Toronto Safety League.

Do not take a chance. Save your children from being killed or crippled by automobiles. Teach them to be careful by being careful yourself.

Drive slowly where children play. Do not speed. Examine your brakes frequently. Do not trust the other fellow. Give trains the right of way.

When you are walking, use street crossings. Keep your eyes open. Walk for the traffic signals. Make haste slowly.

To parents the following instructions are issued as a guide to children's conduct in the street.

Encourage your children to play in their own yards, in adjacent and conveniently located playgrounds provided by the city (which, alas, with us are conspicuous by their absence), and in vacant lots. Keep them off the streets and roadways. Many fatalities occur on account of children being allowed to wander into the streets by themselves.

Children should not be allowed in the streets without an adult to look after them. Instruct them as soon as possible to always LOOK, especially before crossing the street, to cross at intersections only, not to cross between street intersections, to cross at the same time with vehicle traffic, to cross on what would be the sidewalk allowance if extended over the intersection; not to zig-zag, nor walk diagonally across the street (and also it may be added in our case, to stop, look, and listen at the arcways that lead into Water Street).

See the comic items the different warship's crews will provide at the Haig Sports.—June 27, 11

Following Ten Commandments are laid down:—

- 1. Always remember you are an engineer, fully responsible. 2. Always test your brakes when starting and have them inspected frequently. 3. Never pass a street car when it is stopping. 4. Exercise special care in crossing in front of a street car or in passing it. 5. Always signal with horn when slowing down, turning or stopping. 6. Look before you back and sound horn three times. 7. Use horn as a warning to pedestrians—not to startle them. 8. Remember the other fellow always has the right of way. 9. Drive with care where children may be playing. 10. Stop before crossing railway tracks. Keep to the left—Avoid Accidents.

An eleventh which is the slogan of the League might also be taken to heart—LOSE A MINUTE AND SAVE A LIFE.

Obituary

ANNIE DRUKEN. Death of the great reaper, visited the home of Mr. Michael Druken, Torbay, on June 26th, and claimed as one of its victims, their fair daughter, Annie. Though she had been ill for months past every hope was entertained for her recovery, but despite the attention of the physician, and the devoted care of loving parents, it was destined that this flower was to bloom in a higher sphere than this world's. Her death was attended in her last illness by Rev. Fr. Ashley, P.P., from whom she received all the consolations of Holy Religion, leaving as a precious remnant a young girl of sixteen. She had been one of the brightest pupils of the Convent school for eight years and held several Diplomas, both from the Trinity College of Music and C.H.E. Possessed of a very amiable disposition, she was a favourite with teachers and companions, and to-day there is sorrow in many hearts because of her early passing away. The funeral, which was one of the largest ever witnessed in Torbay, took place on Sunday afternoon. Preceding the hearse were the members of the Sodality of the Children of Mercy, of which she had been a zealous and devoted member. At the parish church the burial service was read by Rev. Fr. Ashley, who in touching language paid a last tribute to the virtues of the deceased. He dwelt on the uncertainty of life, and the necessity of being always ready to meet our Judge, assuring his hearers that as they may learn from the present, the happy youth in no guarantee of a long life. Annie is laid to rest near the shadow of the church and Convent, where her classmates passing daily by cannot fail to breathe a prayer for the departed. Many messages of sympathy have been received by the family, including several offerings for distress from the Sodality and school children. Left to mourn are father, mother, two brothers and four sisters, to all of whom sincere sympathy is extended. Western Star (plans) copy.

PEYPS BEHIND THE SCENES.

June 26th.—Up very betimes, being compelled by my wife to wash our motor coach with dust, she says, is so covered with dust as to make it unfit for her to use, almost. But Lord, 'tis a thing I shall not pay heed to her in again since no sooner did I have the coach washed, than it did pour rain from the heavens, and all my labor in vain. Indeed, going home, I did wet myself through to the very skin and needs must change all my clothes. Very little news all the day, but still much talk of the Customs, and what will be done there. I learn how Mr. A. Robertson and Mr. W. Barker do receive temporary appointments at the Examining Room, and the greatest bustle going on everywhere. Little news from Mr. Grace and the result of the election is certain, and in most circles, little hope that Mr. Archibald and Mr. Snow will serve their nomination fees. The War Memorial now in good shape, and will be a most beautiful ornament to the city, and is, indeed, worthy of that which it do represent. All preparations for my lord Haig's coming now made and will be the greatest week ever known here.

Official Visit by His Excellency

The H.M.S. Constance, Capt. Campbell, arrived in port this morning, 4 days out from Bermuda. Shortly after noon His Excellency, accompanied by his A.D.C., paid an official visit to the French ship Ville D'Ys. On leaving for shore, His Excellency was given a salute of guns. Following the visit, Sir William went on board the Constance and on returning, he received the customary salute.

Coopers' Union Representatives

A meeting of the fish exporters and representatives of the Coopers' Union took place at the Board of Trade Rooms yesterday afternoon, when the prospects of the fishing voyage and its relation to packages in which to ship the commodity were discussed. It was pointed out by the Coopers' representatives that at present there was a shortage of fish packages in the city and that the quantity of stock on hand is not large. The indications are that the fishery will be exceptionally good, and consequently there will be a demand for packages. A considerable number of coopers are out of employment and it was pointed out that it would be to the benefit of all concerned if they were authorized to proceed with the making of packages immediately. The merchants expressed a willingness to help out the situation and as a result a body of men who have been very hard hit by the trade depression of the past few years. Will again be busy with the trade.

Railway Wreck Cleared Up

Repairs to the roadbed one and a half miles east of Torbay caused by the derailment yesterday morning was completed by 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and all trains were allowed to proceed with the least interruption. The special train before containing the run to Humbermouth had three passenger cars sent out, replacing those derailed by the siding. The damages caused by the derailment is only very slight, and the two second class cars and day coach will be placed on the track today and forwarded to the car shops for repairs.

Next Week's Sporting Attractions

At a meeting of the G.W.V.A. Entertainment Committee held this morning, it was decided to hold an exhibit Boxing Tournament, between the British and American warships now in port. This event will no doubt be one of the chief sporting attractions and will take place in the Prince's Rink on Thursday night next. It has also been arranged to include in the sports programme a series of baseball contests between the American warships, and a football match between a picked eleven from the city, against the H.M.S. Constance. The Constance has some excellent footballers on board.

Rotary Club

The speaker at yesterday's Rotary Club luncheon was Dr. Liddy, of Mt. Allison University, who gave a most interesting address on "The Treatment of Criminals." The speaker touched upon his experiences in dealing with criminals in Dorchester Penitentiary and at penitentiaries and jails in the Maritime Provinces.

He expressed the belief that most of the crime committed at the present time is due to feeble-mindedness of the party committing them. It often occurs that a man or woman who is strong physically is of a much lower mental age, and as this condition cannot easily be observed it follows that there must be in each community people at large who may be criminally inclined because of the low standard of intelligence.

People have contended that punishment for crimes committed should be in the nature of revenge on the part of the state rather than by an individual, or with a view to the reformation, but a feeling is growing that the primary object of imprisonment should be the ultimate reformation of the prisoner so that he may become once again a good citizen. Most jails and penitentiaries are so conducted as to remove all hope of reformation, but the modern penitentiaries attend to the proper education and employment of prisoners so that their minds may be developed and they may realize the duties to their fellow citizens.

All men are subject to intervals of mind aberration and many crimes are committed by people while in that state. The only possible prevention against such a state of mind is the cultivation of right examples of thinking and living.

Dr. Liddy also spoke strongly in favor of juvenile courts and he pointed out the advantages of these courts to young people who early in their lives disobey the law.

Rotarian James Ayre, who presided, expressed the thanks of the Club to Dr. Liddy for his brilliant and instructive speech and the usual vote of thanks was carried with much applause.

Short addresses were also given by Rotarian Fred Bond and Harry Pickings of Halifax, A. Solomons of Savannah, Georgia, and by R. W. Bartman, of Columbia University, who is in St. John's in connection with the Rotarian boys' playground movement.

Other guests included Rev. S. Bennett, Grand Falls, Rev. R. W. Fairbairn, G. A. Bartlett, Burin, J. Jardine and J. W. N. Johnstone.

Hungry Hair Seals

Threaten Heavy Loss to Salmon Fishers.

Vancouver, B.C.—Destruction of one-sixth to one-third of the average spring salmon pack in the Fraser River by hair seals, has caused local fishermen to fear the fish will become extinct and a large revenue be lost.

So clever are the seals that it is a race between them and the fishermen every time a bobbing cork on the net shows that a salmon has struck it. The seals generally win. Wolf-like, a seal goes for the throat of a fish, and unusually a head is all that is left in the net. Fishermen have tried spreading a "blind" net to protect the actual fishing net, but the seals, evidently learning the trick drive salmon into the net to make capture easier.

Not only do seals live on salmon, but when their hunger is appeased, they kill for sport, tossing the fish out of the water as a cat plays with a mouse. A seal can throw a 30-lb. salmon clear of the water, the fishermen declare.

SYNOPSIS.
"On the Bank of the Wabash" is a dramatic photoplay based upon the famous song by Paul Dresser. It depicts on the screen life in Cranberry Corners, a typical Indiana town. The unrequited love of Tilda Spiffen, the town's spinster, for "Cap" Hammond, retired owner of a stern wheel-er, inspires her hatred for Anne Bixler who is the finest type of womanhood in the eyes of "Cap" Hammond. Anne, husband Paul, is an aspiring artist, whose vision is hindered by the narrowness of Cranberry Corners. Paul and Anne plan to go to Paris, with their children, Lisbeth and Bobby, but Anne is led to invest all her savings in a fake real estate deal contrived by Wesley Spiffen, Tilda's brother. All her money is lost. In a fit of despair she upbraids Paul, who thinking her love at end disappears. A year later "Cap" Hammond's son, David, invents a radio device and goes to Chicago to sell it, leaving Lisbeth, hopeful of winning him. There David is vamped by Ivonne. A terrific rainstorm comes up and the swollen Wabash River imperils the town. "Cap" Hammond starts his old stern wheel boat, which had been tied up at the wharf for years, and sets out to rescue the inhabitants. The boat steams down Main Street picking up men, women and children menaced by the flood. David, who is injured in his experimental shack, is saved by Lisbeth. Paul, who had returned by that night, rescues his wife from their burning home. Tilda Spiffen retracts her slanderous statements against Anne and her brother is compelled to disgorge his crafty gains.

Proceedings of the Diocesan Synod

THURSDAY, June 26.
The session opened at 11 o'clock, the Lord Bishop presiding. Prayers were read by the President, the Minutes of yesterday's session read, and the House proceeded to business.

Rev. Canon Field presented the report of the Diocesan Board of Religious Education, and moved and it was duly seconded that the report be received and adopted. Members of the Synod spoke in appreciation of the work of this Committee during the past two years, and that the many laymen and lay women of the church who are endeavoring to instruct the children of the church. Mention was also made of the very excellent publications and Sunday School materials published by the Society for promoting Christian Knowledge and it was suggested that some of such literature be distributed to the clergy during this session with a view to an enrichment of the work of the Sunday Schools of the Church.

The report was adopted. Dr. Blackall, Superintendent of Education, presented the report of the Diocesan Synod Education Committee, which dealt with the work of the allocations for the erection of schools or enlargement of schools in some 19 localities; and also referred to the work of the Normal School in the Biennial Period. At the closing hour the discussion was not concluded when on motion the debate was adjourned. On motion the House adjourned.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The session was resumed at 3 o'clock when Rev. Canon Bolt moved the House into Committee of the whole to consider and receive the report of the Select Committee to redraft the bill to amend Chapter XVII "Home and Foreign Mission Fund" of the Constitution and Rules of the Synod. The motion being duly seconded it was agreed. The House went into Committee.

Rev. Canon Bolt explained that the Committee thought it best to redraft the whole Chapter, and their report consisted of an entirely new act, in substitution of the old. After some debate it was proposed and seconded that the bill be passed. This was agreed.

Rev. Canon Bolt moved that the Committee rise and report the bill passed without amendment. This was agreed. The Committee rose, and the House resumed.

Rev. Canon Bolt gave notice that he would on to-morrow move that the Bill be read a third time and passed. Rev. Canon Bolt moved the third reading of the Bill to create a Budget Fund. On being seconded this was agreed, and the bill was declared passed.

The House resumed its discussion of the report of the Diocesan Synod Education Committee. The report was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Facey moved the report of the Directors of the Church of England College for the Biennial Period, 1922-24. The report showed that during the biennial period two students of the College had been advanced to the Priesthood, and that five students had been admitted to the Disconate. That one student had been sent to St. Augustine's College, Canterbury, making three members of the College now studying in England, and that another student was being sent in September. Although no special appeal had been made for funds the sum of $3000.00 had been forwarded from friends and well wishers toward endowment funds and that the Canon Smith Memorial Fund now amounts to $2100.00. The total endowments of the College now amount to $45,750.00 in addition to the trust funds held by the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel.

The staff during the period had been strengthened by Rev. E. A. C. Donaldson, M.A. of Sydney Sussex College, Cambridge, as Vice-Principal and S. S. Horsley, M.A., classical scholar of Merton College, Oxford, as classical lecturer.

Rev. J. Meaden, a former student, had successfully passed the M.A. examination of Durham University.

On being seconded, it was agreed. Mr. E. C. Outerbridge read the report of the Managers of the presentation fund 1922-24 and moved that it be received and adopted. The report shows an increase on account of capital from $73,690.00 invested to $77,866.00, with a balance of $543.97 in hand. A very strong expression of opinion having been previously in the Synod that the capital of this Fund should be increased as a means of improving the income of the Church in this Diocese, Mr. Outerbridge on behalf of the Managers told the Synod that they were sympathetically inclined to consider the matter. The report was adopted.

The closing hour having been reached on motion the House adjourned.

EVENING SESSION.
The House resumed at 7.30. Prayers were read by the President and the House was called to order by the chair.

Rev. Canon Bolt moved for the appointment of a Committee to submit names of persons to serve on the Standing Committee of the Synod. On being seconded this was agreed. The Committee was nominated. Rev. H. L. Pike moved that the report of the Literature Committee 1922-24 be received and adopted, which was duly seconded.

The report showed that the Committee had reluctantly in January of this year been forced to increase the subscription of the Magazine to $1.00 in order to make it pay its way. As a result the Committee was able to show a credit balance of $139.54 up to the end of June, although they regretted the fact that the subscriptions had fallen off from 2348 in 1923 to 1486 in 1924. After a lengthy discussion the report was adopted.

Arising out of the discussion on the report of the Literature Committee the following resolution was proposed by Mr. Llewellyn Colley and seconded by Rev. J. B. Elliott, Rector of St. Thomas:

"This Synod is of opinion that when the subscription list of the Diocesan Magazine reaches 4000 copies, the subscription shall be reduced to sixty cents." The Synod agreed.

His Lordship the Bishop made the following announcements:

That the election of the Executive Committee will be taken at 9 o'clock to-morrow night.

That he wished to remind the Synod of the Queen's College Commemoration Day on Saturday, details in relation to which have already appeared in the press.

Several notices of motion relating to various matters were read and laid on the table.

At 10.30 the House rose on motion duly seconded and carried to meet again at 11 o'clock to-morrow.

The House closed with the Bishop's Blessing.

Important Facts About Buick.

In 1923 Buick sold 215,286 motor cars for which the public paid $302,752,950, not including U.S. tax or freight.

Since the introduction of its 1924 models, Buick has broken all production records, including its own, for the manufacture of fine motor cars.

The Buick Motor Company is now well on its way to the manufacture of its two-millionth motor car—a record unsurpassed by any other manufacturer of fine automobiles.

Buick has held first choice of space at the National Automobile shows for six consecutive years—an honor awarded to the manufacturer member of the N.A.A.C. with the largest volume of business.

Do you realize that Buick and practically all other fine car makers in America and Europe include four-wheel brakes as standard equipment? To-day Four-Wheel brakes are as essential to safety as lights and a horn.

After using four-wheel brakes you will never go back to a car without them.

Why does Buick use four-wheel brakes on all models? Because they provide the greatest safety for the owner and his family.

The morning committee with Dr. Liddy, Pr Mount Allison week, gave a dress based on Christ the living presence no fault of those who speak with its spaciousness. The afternoon of reports gave the report Fund Committee to the good corded. Mention was made of Joyce, S. Stranger's See would be glad Methodists meeting to the host Dr. Darby, ence Archivist. The doctor granted $81 per week, $30, Que Newfoundland. Such a compact deal of leaway school was a world war was schooling. Am largely due to schools. Methodist Conference

The morning was mostly spent in committee work, but at 12 o'clock Rev. D. Liddy, Professor of Philosophy at Mount Allison, Sackville, New Brunswick, gave a very fine devotional address based upon the fact that for Christ the Father was a continuous living presence. The reporter through no fault of his own was absent. It will have to be sufficient to say that those who did have the privilege speak with unmeasurable delight of its spaciousness and grace.

The afternoon saw the commencement of reports. Rev. R. E. Fairbairn gave the report of the Contingent Fund Committee. A balance of $118 to the good was most cheerfully recorded. Mention was made that Mrs. Robert Joyce, Springdale Street, was Stranger's Secretary for the city and would be glad to have the names of Methodists moving to the city or coming to the hospitals.

Dr. Darby was appointed Conference Archivist.

The Conference reaffirmed the wisdom of using women as lay-readers, and welcomed the report of good work already done during the past year. A daily roll call was agreed upon. Democratic administrative assemblies are always in danger of passing such a check, and yet the Conference was not hinting at a belief in a more automatic method.

The question of war or pacifism came up. The first two speakers Messrs. Young and Wilkinson, one on either side. Mr. Young for Quaker principles were very good indeed. Both were quiet men deeply moved. Dr. Curtis gave his report, showing increases all along the line, 4 school buildings, 8 rooms, 15 teachers and 45 children. Methodism was more than ten per cent. of scholastic honours, including two of the three out-of-school scholarships. The third scholarship was also won by us, but lost on account of the age limit upon the pupils.

The doctor showed that Nova Scotia granted $31 per pupil, New Brunswick, $30, Quebec, $40 per pupil and Newfoundland spends $14 per pupil. Such a comparison indicates a great deal of leeway to be made up. The school was a mighty power. The world war was a result of German schooling. American Prohibition was largely due to teaching in the public schools.

The Normal School is a monument unique in Newfoundland, to the co-operation of Roman Catholic, Anglican and Methodist Superintendents of Education. It is a beautiful building and not a bit too good for the giving of professional training to the teachers of a new Newfoundland. This splendid co-operation is a prophesy of even greater advantages to be obtained in the future. The writer has heard Dr. Curtis time and again, but never to greater advantage. His plea that Newfoundlanders should be given a great chance to be more than havers of wood and drawers of water was voted with great passion. The Conference was greatly encouraged by other hopes foreshadowed in that direction.

Conference was unanimous on three points, in disapproving any cut in teachers salaries, in approving of the Normal School training and compulsory education. The following resolution was also passed:—

WHEREAS the dissemination of learning is essential for Social Progress, and

WHEREAS the school system of Newfoundland dividing as it does small communities is a hindrance to that progress, and

WHEREAS such improvements as compulsory education would be further, and

WHEREAS the re-union of churches would be helped by the union of schools.

THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Conference reaffirm its belief in a united school system and readiness to co-operate with any other body. An important question was asked touching on imputation against one of our school boards. It will be recalled that the Walker inquiry showed that the sum of $300 had been paid by the Pitt Prop Account to the West End Methodist Board of Education, St. John's.

The story as told at the inquiry was the first that the board as a whole knew of the unauthorized action of some of its members.

Conference greeted with hearty clapping the answer of Dr. Curtis that the board concerned had ordered the unconditional return of the whole amount. Conference hoped that this action would get as wide publicity as the event so heartily disavowed.

EVENING SESSION. The Conference instructed Dr. Curtis to draw up a fraternal greeting to be sent to the Synod of the Anglican Church now in session in the city.

Rev. W. H. Wilkinson presented the report on "The State of the Work." In spite of the efforts of schism and removals due to business depression, carefully considered membership lists gave an increase of over one hundred. Rev. Sidney Bennett opened the discussion by stating that the membership was being built up at the expense of the work of regeneration. There was no shade of pessimism in his remark. It was rather the skilled stroke of the surgeon shedding blood but saving life. The church must live on her knees above the world plane. "While Jesus bled his disciples slept."

His challenge was "Is this to be said of the church to-day?"

J. W. Windsor whose dress and face alike seem to have a military class inside the pithy and brief comment of a soldier. Prayer and Faithful sowing by other pastors had resulted in some 300 decisions. Rev. Edwin Moore is a fine illustration of a practical mystic. There is no doubt of the mystic strain in him. He is also a scholarly member of the board of examiners and a strong administrator of discipline. His shout was:—

May God sanctify us till we are not too reasonable to have a revival.

Mr. Andrew Vatcher spoke quietly of the great movement seen in Blackhead reaching men from childhood to extreme old age. The movement was evidently as quiet as the speaker, but it was because men do strong and as quiet had "stood by the stuff." Rev. C. R. Blount told how Mrs. Blount had had to go into the pulpit with him every Lord's Day to read for him. In Passion Week they had followed Jesus from the Upper Room to the Cross and over a hundred had united with the church. Rev. W. J. Morris rejoiced over a steady work for three years. Rev. Geo. L. Mercer, a native of Bay Roberts, reported 65 young people received at Greenspond. These narratives provided a full cup of refreshing.

The report on Social Service and Evangelism went through so far as completed with unexpected unanimity as follows:—

WHEREAS there is in our Statute books a Prohibitory Law in regard to the use of liquor as a beverage and

WHEREAS since its passage, except for a few weeks, there has never been an honest attempt to enforce the law and

WHEREAS in many instances liquor has been sent out by the case even to members of the House of Assembly in utter disregard of the act and

WHEREAS this violation of the law on the part of law makers and those charged with the enforcement of law is an incitement to the violation of all law and

WHEREAS sale by the bottle with or without script has become an open scandal, therefore

RESOLVED that this Conference once more assert its position in favour of the most stringent Prohibition and demands that no amendments be made in the present law until an honest effort shall have been made to carry out the Act and the Rules and Regulations issued thereunder, and under the supervision of a Controller sympathetic with the principle of Prohibition.

WHEREAS the law forbids the sale to or use of cigarettes by boys of ages up to 15 and

WHEREAS the use of cigarettes by boys of such ages is excessively harmful, therefore

RESOLVED that Conference ask the Department of Justice to call the attention of all police authorities to the need of enforcing this law and further

RESOLVED that Conference through the Secretaries of Education ask all Sunday Schools to take up the work of education in this matter and further

RESOLVED that our Superintendent of Education be asked to co-operate through the day schools.

WHEREAS negotiations have been carried on between the Governments of Great Britain and the United States of America whereby the smuggling of liquor from Great Britain to the United States of America has been discouraged;

AND WHEREAS similar negotiations between the Governments of Canada and the United States of America have had a similar effect in the smuggling of liquors from Canada to the United States of America;

AND WHEREAS Newfoundland in common with the United States of America is subject to a prohibitory law respecting the importation, manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage;

AND WHEREAS both countries are meeting great opposition in their endeavours to carry out the provisions of their respective enactments in this matter;

AND WHEREAS the General Assembly of Newfoundland on August 14th, 1923 amended the Customs Law, and as a result of such amendment the smuggling of liquor from Newfoundland to the United States has become possible;

AND WHEREAS this Conference learns that a substantial revenue is thus being derived at the expense of our National honour

BE IT RESOLVED that this Conference strongly protests against the amendment to our Customs Act which makes this smuggling of liquor from Newfoundland to the United States possible and its use to augment the revenue of this country and demands its immediate repeal.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Prime Minister of Newfoundland and his Minister of Finance and Customs with the request that these matters have their early and careful consideration.

WHEREAS the amendment to the Lottery Act which permits Lotteries, by permission of the Magistrate, has resulted in a widespread abuse of the privilege, and tends to foster the spirit of gambling, to the demoralization of the community;

RESOLVED that this Conference strongly urge the Government to repeal the amendment, and revert to the original law.

WHEREAS the Methodist Church in the policy adopted by the General Conference declares itself emphatically opposed to lotteries and gambling of every description.

RESOLVED that all our pastors be urged to instruct our people in the true nature of this evil.

Of course there were some flashes of fire. Especially in regard to Lotteries the words scandals, shame and sin were used. Rev. W. W. Cotton of Victoria took the floor on the adjourned anti-war debate. He was pacifist. Mr. Peters followed on the other side. Rev. Samuel Soper with a voice restrained but vibrant with passion among other things pointed out that 60 per cent of the students of Canada were pledged against war.

The whole evening was worthy of a great deliberative assembly. The level of debate was on as high a plane as the writer has heard in a score of years in Methodist Conferences. It was remarkable that a group of young men previously not prominent led the slashing attack on war while older men were on the other side. Miller of Westville, a returned man fairly towarded. Dr. Darby was duly candid. The debate was adjourned. Mr. Brothard will speak at 9:30. W. M. S. report will be given at 2:45 by Mrs. Lindsay and Mrs. J. Peters. To-night, the centenary celebration

Historic British Wooden Warship

MAY SAIL AGAIN—PAGEANT OF CORNWALL'S LANDING IN HALIFAX HARBOR CENTURIES AGO.—STRIKING PLANS LAID FOR CARNIVAL TO WELCOME SQUADRON.

HALIFAX, N.S., June 18.—(Canadian Press)—A reproduction in pageant of the historic event on June 21, 1749, when Col. Cornwallis brought his fleet of warships and transports into what became the city, is promised as one of the features of the land and aquatic carnival during the first two weeks in August. The carnival will be of varied attractions, according to the programme, and will mark the visit of the British world-cruising squadron and the finish of an international yacht race from New York to Halifax.

While there will be some form of amusement to suit every visitor's taste, it is anticipated that the pageant of Cornwallis' landing will be one that will appeal to all.

Colonel, the Hon. Edward Cornwallis, as history named him on that day 175 years ago, flying his flag from His Majesty's ship Sphinx and followed by 13 other tall wooden warships with such picturesque names as Merry Jacks; Fair Lady and Brotherhood, dropped anchor inside McNab's Island, it is believed, on the opposite side of the harbor from what was to become the citadel city of Halifax. It was a huge fleet for that age and had braved the summer swells of the Atlantic for long weary months. On board were soldiers and settlers with their families, to the number of 2,500.

History describes that June as "beautiful beyond description" and the promoters of the carnival are hoping that August will bring similar benevolence from the weather man. A liberty of nearly two months is being taken with the anniversary dates in order to make the pageant coincide with the carnival, but otherwise it is planned to make the landing as realistic as possible.

As Founder Saw It.

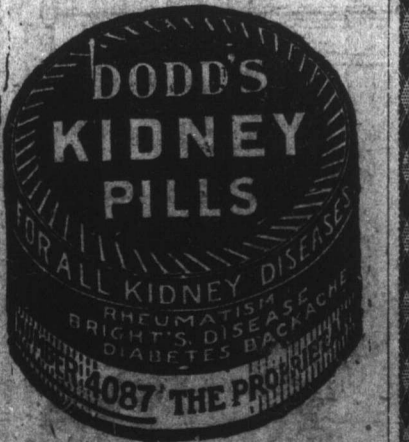

While it will not be practicable to reproduce the entire fleet, at least there will be a replica of the Sphinx. Where the Sphinx dropped anchor 175 years ago are now the piers of a monster and rather odorous oil works, a miniature city in itself. But it is likely that the landing will be made on some spot along the shores of Pt. Pleasant Park, where the densely wooded slopes must bear the nearest likeness to the primeval wilderness that greeted Cornwallis and his hardy men.

Clad in the picturesque trappings of 1749, the founder of Halifax will step ashore with his entourage and proceed to some of the many glades to be found in the park, or possibly to the grounds of Dalhousie University, and there will go through the pantomime of laying the foundation of what proved to be a mighty fortress in the troublous days when Britain's dominion was being established in America. Indians and French will be present in costume of the old days and the various stages of the city's growth from that time to the present will probably be represented in costume and pageant at the scene of the "founding."

Throughout the carnival the spirit of commemoration of the city's natal day will be emphasized in the various entertainments and it is likely that the replica of the Sphinx will play a prominent part in all aquatic events. There will be yacht races, military tattoos, regattas, athletic displays, horse races and many other events, coupled with the celebration of Dartmouth's natal day, and the unveiling of the Cross of Sacrifice, a striking memorial placed on the headlands of Point Pleasant Park, a tribute to Nova Scotians who died at sea during the world war.

A committee is at work selecting those who will impersonate the historic figures in the pageant, raising funds and engaging in research work, and if their plans are carried out they will turn back the pages of history nearly two centuries in the most ambitious effort that has been attempted in this city in many years.

Your chances for winning any of the prizes are as good as any others. Why not compete for this competition?—TOOTON'S, The Kodak Store.—June 20, 21

Find of Sapphires

DISCOVERED IN CEYLON FIELD.

COLOMBO, June 17.—The largest sapphire ever made in Ceylon in the world, is reported to be found at Polmadulla, about 50 miles from Colombo. The find is in a paddy field of an area of about two acres. The sapphire is yellow, gold, and blue stones varying in size from 20 to 700 carats. Some of the report states, weigh about one pound and are marvellous in size. One of the best known Colombo finders in precious stones declares that an unprecedented one, but thinks the stones are too large. What dealers now want in sapphires are stones that weigh between 4 and 20 carats, as the demand for large pendants is gone, as are the days when crowned heads and wealthy collectors would pay high prices for a single stone.

Some of the stones found have been valued at about $75,000, rough polished. One sapphire, perfect in every respect, of excellent quality and color, free from flaw and cut perfectly, sold for $250 a carat.

The largest finished sapphire ever set out of Ceylon was one sold to the late J. Pierpont Morgan in 1908. This stone, said to be the largest in the world, was found at Gurawita Korale near Ratnapura in 1908, and weighed 460 carats after being cut and polished.

The find in the paddy field has caused a sensation in Colombo and has attracted many visitors to the place where sapphires are still being taken out, the yield being practically unlimited.

Be sure that in garnishing meat you do not make it difficult for the carver.

Household Notes

Be sure that the fish you purchase in warm weather is perfectly fresh. It is a wise rule to use a plain rag with printed curtains, and vice versa. Serve veal kidneys with melted butter sauce, delicately seasoned with lemon.

Mix all the dry ingredients of salad dressing before adding any liquids. A shallow copper bowl is most effective for arranging very delicate blooms. If silk shows milk stains, soak in sour milk for twelve hours, rinse and sun. Chopped celery to be used in salad should be bleached in water to which a little lemon juice has been added. Garnish a broiled beefsteak with broiled mushroom caps and halved tomatoes. The housewife appreciates the dairy service that covered beuillon cups afford. Aluminum utensils are generally considered most practical for the camp cooking. On your camping trip carry a reliable flashlight or an unbreakable folding lantern. Eggplant, sliced, dipped in melted butter and broiled is nice on a hot sea-food platter. Stuff green pepper cases with breadcrumbs seasoned with a little chilli sauce and bake.

If your ice cream and frozen custards are coarse grained the freezing has been too rapid. The pulp left when making currant jelly can be combined with raisins in a delicious jam. Sponge cake is nice flavored with chocolate. Heat the milk and chocolate together and cool before using. A few chopped green peppers and a little tomato give a nice flavor to scrambled eggs. Garnish with bacon. Tomato cases are nice stuffed with shredded crab-meat or shrimps, and serve on lettuce with mayonnaise. Serve hot gingerbread, with sweetened whipped cream. A pacifist is a man whom the duty of peace blinds to the danger of war. —Boston Herald.

A SPEEDY YOUNGSTER.

The Peter Volo, filly, Sister Volo, now a member of Trainer Harry Brault's stable at Windsor, Conn., where she recently showed the Windsor Locks reinsman a 32 1-4 quarter, and so enthused him that he declares she can beat any two-year-old in training, was picked up for $110 at the New York sale last fall out of the Walnut Hill Farm consignment by Squire Bros. Hartford. She is out of Sister Germaine (half sister to Nathan Axworthy 2:09 and Howard Mann 2:17), by Maurice E. 2:07 1-4; grandam, Bertha Bennett 2:14 3-4, by Fredrick 2:16; third dam Laurel B (dam of Lauretta 2:08 1-4 and grandam of Baron Atta 2:05) by Sable Wilkes (3) 2:18—American Horse Breeder.

FINAL MEETING HAIG SPORTS COMMITTEE.

All Preparations Finalized For A Successful Day.

A meeting of the G.W.V.A. and N.A.A.A. Sports Committee was held in the G.W.V.A. rooms last night, when all preparations for the successful conducting of the big sports day for Earl Haig, on the afternoon of July 1st, were finalized. The programme of events, eighteen in number, is a well selected one, and arranged to suit the requirements of all athletes who will participate in one or more events. The entry list from the city is very encouraging indeed, and with additional entries from the outports, together with those from the British and American warships, about to arrive, competition is bound to be keen in all events. The International Relay Race, over a course of one mile, will be one of the many features. Messrs. S.P. Cullen and A. H. Thomas will place in the field the four best local runners available. In the event of St. John's winning the trophy, it was decided at the meeting last night that it be competed for again at the A.A.A. Sports, under the same conditions, but as an Inter-Club relay race, and the Club winning it may retain it. The Newfoundland tug-of-war, for the handsome cup, kindly donated by Earl Haig, will be a special feature. Five teams have entered, viz: Corner Brook, Bell Island, Grand Falls, and the Guards and C.C.C. of the city. The preliminaries were drawn and resulted as follows:—

1.—Guards vs. C.C.C.

2.—Corner Brook vs. B. Island.

Grand Falls, bye.

The preliminary pulls will take place at St. George's Field on Monday night.

Eight teams have entered to compete in the Football Sixes. The preliminaries will be run-off at St. George's Field in the following order, tomorrow (Saturday) evening, commencing at 7:15:

1.—Star vs. Guards.

2.—Feldians vs. B.I.S.

3.—Cadets vs. C.L.B.

4.—Saints vs. C.E.I.

Winners of (1) vs. (2).

Winners of (3) vs. (4).

Special arrangements have been made for the accommodation of patrons and several new entrances will be made so as to avoid any congestion in entering or leaving the field. Arrangements for the parking of cars have also been made. A military guard of fifty men will do special police duty around the field. A large marquee will be erected at the western end of the field for competitors alone and all contestants will be on the field whenever their event is scheduled. In this manner no time will be lost in conducting the programme. On arrival of Earl Haig the massed bands will play several airs after which the bands will separate to special places appointed for them and a programme of music will be continued throughout the afternoon. With the large number of entries from the city and the additional ones expected, the sports will be the biggest event ever seen here.

The following officials were appointed:—

Field Captain—Hon. W. J. Higgins.

Starters—S. P. Cullen, C. J. Ellis, Herald—C. Belbin.

Timekeepers—J. M. Tobin, C. Hall.

Judges, Track Events—C. E. Hunt, W. J. Martin, J. J. Vincombe.

Weight Events—T. Curran, J. P. Crotty, F. Pippy.

Flag-of-War—Hon. W. J. Higgins, H. J. Wynn, P. Spence.

Track Supervisors—W. Noel, A. H. Thomas.

Recorder—F. J. Grace.

Medical Officers—Dr. C. Macpherson, Dr. W. H. Parsons.

TO-NIGHT'S GAME.

The Saints and C.L.B. are the teams playing to-night's game. The following are the teams:—

SAINTS—Belbin, goal; Roberts and Burridge, backs; Elton, Foster, Squires, halves; McNeil, Young, Sawyers, Hopkins, Curran, forwards.

C. L. B.—Baker, goal; Hussey and Noonan, backs; Hookey, Good, Goudie, halves; LaFosse, Stevenson, Smith, Keats, Hennebury, forwards.

ARRANGING CRICKET MATCH.

Arrangements are now being made for a cricket match to be played between teams representing the city and the H.M.S. Constance, whilst the ship is in port. One of the city's leading sports is organizing the St. John's team.

LAST NIGHT'S FOOTBALL.

Feldians 3 Goals; Star 1.
Only a fair attendance of fans and spectators turned up at St. George's Field last night to witness the football game between the Star and Feldian teams. The game, which was a very good one throughout, ended in a victory for the Feldians by a score of two goals to their opponent's one. In the first half the Feldians did the only scoring. Upon changing ends the game took on a new lease of life, and although the Feldians had set up an almost impregnable defence, the Star boys staged a rally five minutes after the continuation of play, when Flynn scored the equaliser. From this on play waxed warm, and many were the narrow escapes on the opposing goals. After about twenty minutes of play the Feldians scored the winning goal when Withers, on a pass from Martin, placed the ball safely behind McGrath. During the balance of play several attacks were made by both sets of forwards, but no further scoring resulted. Mr. Fred Brien controlled the game.
In future all boys must pay an entrance fee of five cents.

RUGBY FOOTBALL.

A rugby game has been arranged between a city team and a fifteen from H.M.S. Constance, now in port. The game will be played on the Ayre Athletic Grounds at 4.45 p.m. to-day. Last year the Constance defeated the City by a narrow margin.

Ten prizes are offered for Earl Haig's Competition. Why not be a winner?—TODON'S, The Kodak Store.—June 20, 71
