Guelph Evening Mercury

MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 29, 1872.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS.

BASE BALLS.—The Maple Leaf Club will commence practice this evening on the Fair Ground. Those who wish to see the form of the champions should not fail to be present.

The Great Western Company is making all necessary arrangements for the extension of the siding accommodation at the Galt station. We understand the alterations are to be extensive.

There is a man in Fergus who will pitch any man in the County of Wellington a game of quoits—21 yards—for $10 or $50. Man and money ready on application at the Teumseh House, Fergus.

The Mount Forest Examiner and Harrington Tribune keep pegging away at each other on the proposed new county and county seat. As it is a family quarrel we beg to be excused from interfering.

Were we inclined, like our neighbour the Herald, to be hypercritical, we might write a short and facetious article on its account of the fire in town on Friday night, but being charitable we make all due allowance for the eccentricities of genius.

Pigs at Large.—At present there are a great many pigs at large, wandering about the streets, entering and destroying gardens, and doing a great deal of damage. It is the duty of the Town authorities to take steps for stopping this nuisance, and it should be done at once.

The Mount Forest Confederate is informed by a farmer from an adjoining township that one of his neighbors had a cow that was literally eaten alive by logs.
The cow had just calved when set upon by the logs and her inside was completely torn out. When found she was just alive.

WATSON CONDUCT.—On Friday night as a respectable old gentleman was on the roof of Mills & Goodfellow's Foundry, extinguishing the sparks that came from the fire, he was struck on the ankle by a stone thrown by some young scamps, and was lamed for a day or two. Such conduct deserves the severest rebuke.

The Fergus Express says that the Wilson & Lockman Company have during the past three weeks shipped over twelve hundred sewing machines from the factory in that village, to the old world, to two gentlemen. It also states that the necessary tools and apparatus are being prepared by them for the manufacture of the Singer Sewing Machine.

HURONWAY.—On Saturday evening the horse belonging to Mr. A. H. R. Kennedy ran off near Harvey's drug store, and a little boy who was in the wagon at the time was thrown out, and bruised about the face and shoulders. He was taken into the drug store and his wounds, which were not of a serious character, were dressed.

TRAINS OFF THE TRACK.—On Saturday night of Sunday morning a freight train on the G. T. Railway ran off the track between the freight sheds and the town, and another ran off near the gravel pit about two miles east of the town. It took some hours before the line was cleared, and several freight trains and the midnight passenger train from the west was delayed some hours.

THE AGRICULTURAL FARM.—The Hon.
A. McKellar, the Rev. W. F. Clarke, and Prof. Mills, of the Michigan State Agricultural College, proceeded to Mimico on Wednesday afternoon last, for the purpose of examining the soil of the proposed site of the Agricultural College and Farm. Prof. Mills took away a small quantity of the soil for the purpose of submitting the same to chemical analysis.

A FALSE REPORT.—The Orangeville Advertiser says:—There has been a good excitement in the neighbourhood of Arthur respecting a young man named Chisholm who disappeared very suddenly lately. It has been reported that he was murdered and the remains put in a box which was said to be sent to the railway station here. There was no truth whatever in the statement, and the probability is that the young man will turn up some of these fine days safe and sound.
It is no uncommon thing for a young to take such a freak into his head. We have no such mysterious murders in Canada, such as the trunk mystery in New York, and we trust we shall continue to be clear of them.

MAN SHOT AT MONO MILLS.—The Orangeville Advertiser says:—On Tuesday last, an affair occurred at Mono Mills which caused great excitement in the neighbourhood. It appears that a man named Daniel McLaughlin got into an altercation with another man named Hayden, and drew a revolver upon him, when Robert Hayden interfered to preserve the peace. McLaughlin, however, fired the pistol and the ball entered Hayden's shoulder. Constable Hand of this place was telegraphed for, and went down and arrested the would-be murderer, who was brought before Justice McManus, Allen and Campbell.
The case was adjourned to next Friday to await the result of the wound. It is expected that Hayden will recover. The prisoner was admitted to bail in $2000.

MANUFACTURES IN ELORA.—A meeting was held in Elora, on Monday night of last week, to consider the advisability of granting houses to manufacturers opening establishments and employing a certain number of hands in Elora.— Several resolutions were moved setting forth the value of manufacturers. A resolution was moved to the effect that the Council be petitioned to enact a by-law for the issue of debentures to the amount of $20,000, and apply the proceeds by way of loan in sums of not less than $1,000 or more than $10,000, on security satisfactory to the Council, and two sworn appraisers to be by them appointed, to parties willing to invest or have already invested in real estate in this village, and carrying on or binding themselves to carry on such manufacturing enterprise as to the Council shall seem worthy of assistance, but it was afterwards withdrawn, and the meeting was adjourned for a fortnight in order to give the ratypayers ample time to consider the matter.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT ON SUNDAY FORENOON.
—Early on Sunday several cars belonging to the Grand Trunk Railway had got off the track about midway between the Passenger and Freight Stations. In the course of the forenoon the workmen succeeded in replacing the cars upon the track and which were being backed up to the freight station, when a little boy, of the name of Edward McKague, (amongst a number of others) was crossing the track, and whilst doing so tripped his foot on the rail, and the wheel of the car went over his right leg thus exposed on the track and almost completely severed it from the upper portion of the limb. The little fellow's brother immediately dragged him from his perilous position and thus fortunately prevented any further injury. The injured leg was bound up as well as possible to stop further effusion of blood, by some of the railway men, until medical assistance was procured, the boy meanwhile being carried to a neighboring house. Drs. Keating and Herod were soon in attendance and the latter having administered chloroform to the sufferer did what the surgical necessities of the case required. The little fellow who is some 10 or 11 years of age was somewhat low after the operation, but we are glad to hear that having passed a tolerably good night he is wonderfully well this morning. We cannot but earnestly hope that this serious accident will prove an effectual warning to both parents and children in connection with so dangerous a pastime as playing on the railway track has unfortunately become.

FIRE IN ELORA.
THE WELLINGTON MILLS AND DIS-TILLERY BURNED.
Special to the Mercury per Dominion Telegraph.
Elora, April 29.—About 12 o'clock on Saturday night the large grist mill and distillery belonging to J. M. Ross, of Elora, was discovered to be on fire. The flames had made so much headway that it was impossible to save anything. Loss about $17,000. Insured in the Western and Liverpool and London for $9000.
Special by Montreal Line.

Elora, April 29th.—The North Wellington Mills at this village, together with the distillery and sheds, was totally destroyed by fire on Sunday morning about 1 o'clock. Loss estimated at from $15,000 to $17,000; insured for $9,000.
Not much stock on hand, valued at $2,000, insured for $1000. Cause of fire not known.

POLICE COURT.
Before T. W. Saunders Esq., P. M.
MONDAY, APRIL 27.
Mary Cushing was charged by the Chief Constable with being drunk. Fined $1 and costs $4, or 15 days at hard labor.
James Davidson was charged with a breach of Town By-Law by excavating stone on the Edinburgh Road. Fined $5 and costs.

NEWS ITEMS.
THE NEW GOVERNOR-GENERAL.—The London Telegraph of the 12th states that the friends and admirers of the Earl of Dufferin, in the north of Ireland, have resolved to entertain his lordship at a banquet in Belfast, during the Whitsuntide recess, prior to his departure from this country. The proposal, says the Telegraph, has been cordially received in the Ulster capital, where his lordship and the Countess are both extremely popular among all parties and denominations.

BITTEN BY A SNAKE.—The Caledonian Sachem tells the following queer snake story:—As Seotic Latham, an Indian, was on his way home from Keating's Hotel, the Willow Grove, on Saturday, the 13th, he had a tussle with a very large snake, which bit his nose off, close to his face.
The snake was of a copper color, nearly six feet in length, such as is frequently seen in these parts. We believe friend Latham is getting along finely, but his beauty is completely spoiled by his snake-bite.

FIRE.—Carter's Hotel and stables, corner of Dundas and Clarence Streets, London, were burned on Saturday morning Loss 2,000. A double brick house in Dundas, belonging to Miss Connelly, and tenanted by Messrs. J. Watson and Mr.
Moore, was burned on Saturday morning.
The cause of the fire is unknown. On Friday night the woolen mills belonging to the Messrs. Clifton, near Ashtree, County of Elgin, were burned together with about one hundred and fifty thou-saw of lumber. The loss is estimated at $12,000; insurance only $1,000. The origin of the fire is unknown.

On dit that a slave will be taken off each of the large counties of North Ontario and North Simcoe, and a new electoral division formed there, to be called Liber County.

BY TELEGRAPH

THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES

The Reign of Terror in Missouri.
Carlism Revolt in Spain.
Bismarck on the Alabama Claims.

Holden, Mo., April 28.—The reign of terror in Cass County instead of abating is on the increase. The civil authorities are perfectly powerless to enforce the law, and the lives and property of the people are at the mercy of the mob.

New York, April 29.—The Herald's Berlin special says: "Banerct Davis, now here, expressed his opinion, in the presence of Bismarck and Otto Russell, British Minister, that the claim for consequential damages would not be withdrawn from the American case by the Washington Government. Bismarck revultured his opinion that the American position is entirely correct."

A special to the Herald from Madrid states that 15,000 Carlism are in arms, that many skirmishes have taken place and that the City of Pamplona is menaced. The insurrection is spreading enormously and troops are demanded everywhere.

New York, April 29.—The French Internationals, at a meeting yesterday, adopted resolutions that the Alabama claims should be withdrawn rather than precipitate a war.

The Eruption of Vesuvius.
Rome, April 26.—At the sitting of the Chamber of Deputies, this evening the Prime Minister read a despatch dated Naples, this afternoon, saying:—The eruption of Vesuvius is increasing and becoming more serious. 200 persons have been burned by lava. The Terra del Grecio is in danger of destruction. People are flying from the town. Temporary provision is being made for them by the authorities.

NAPLES, April 26, evening.—A fresh crater opened in Vesuvius to-day. Ashes and lava threaten the villages on the mountain side, and the inhabitants are removing their household goods. Thousands are encamped in the fields. Ministers have been summoned from Rome, and are coming to make provision for the homeless people. The bay is covered with boats filled with spectators. The scene is grand and terrible beyond description. Flames at times shoot up to a great height, and masses of rock are ejected with earthquake shocks, which are distinctly felt in this city.

LONDON, April 27.—The Naples correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says that he has visited all the hotels of that city, to ascertain if any guests were among the persons injured by the lava flowing from Mount Vesuvius. He learned that none of them were missing, and that the fatalities were confined exclusively to the residents of the numerous villages on the side and base of the volcano.

GALES, April 27.—There is no abatement of the force of the eruption of Mount Vesuvius, and the lava continues to flow down the sides, destroying everything in its path. The explosion, as it is distinctly heard in this city. A great panic prevails among the inhabitants of the country around the mountain.

NAPLES, April 27.—The eruption of Mount Vesuvius continues with dreadful violence. The flowing lava has already reached Sabastiano, and threatens other towns. The explosions in the volcano are constantly heard in this city. The constellation among the inhabitants of villages and towns which are threatened with danger increases. It is re-asserted that many tourists were surrounded by lava and perished. King Victor Emanuel has sent aid to the persons who have been compelled to flee from their homes, and encamp in the fields.

The eruption is decreasing, but the villagers do not dare to return to their homes.

NAPLES, April 28—2 p. m.—A new orator has opened near Persigno, to-day, but the violence of every eruption seems to abate.

The volume of the stream of lava near San Sebastiano is sixteen feet deep, and the village is still in danger.

The King has gone to San Sebastiano to direct measures for the relief of the inhabitants. Thousands of acres of cultivated land have been overwhelmed by ashes and lava, and vineyards buried out of sight.

ROME, April 27.—At the session of the Chamber of Deputies held to-day Signor Sella, the Minister of Finance, read a despatch from the Prime Minister Lan-za, who proceeded to Naples last night, re-civing the estimates of the killed given in the despatch read yesterday. The telegram from the Minister stated that only twelve persons have been killed, and twelve injured by the running lava. The villages of San Sebastiano and Mazzolis-omma have almost totally destroyed; but all the inhabitants succeeded in getting away in safety. Lava is now advancing towards the villages of Pentielli, Cercola, Saint George, and Fortici, which have been abandoned by their inhabitants.
People living in the towns of Torre del Greco, Pesina, and Boscorecare have also fled from their homes, as those places are threatened with destruction. These homeless persons have been provided with temporary shelter. Yesterday the lava advanced at the rate of one kilometre an hour, but to-day its pace has been slack-ened, while there have been numbers of heavy explosions in the interior of the volcano. To-day there has been no trembling of the earth. The Chamber of Deputies have authorized the Government to take the necessary measures to provide for the comfort of the people who have been so suddenly deprived of their homes.

The tunnel under the Niagara River at Buffalo, to supply the city with water, has been completed for 700 feet, and an extension of 300 feet has been ordered.
The pier will be located in the Rapids.
The entire work is to be finished by January 1st.

Wellington Spring Assizes.

BEFORE MR. JUSTICE GAYNE.
April 27.

MCATLEY vs. LARIB.—Ejectment for first quarter of Lot 33, Township of Arthur. Claimant's father located the lot over 30 years ago, did settlement duties and took out patent in claimant's name in 1847. Claimant having an uncle of same name, his uncle mortgaged the lot, which came by different conveyances to the defendant. The question was to which Thomas McAuley the patent was issued. Verdict for plaintiff subject to reference to J. T. Anderson, Q. C. Mr.
Mitchell (Dr. McMichael, Counsel), for claimant; Mr. Biscoe for defendant.

JEFFERSON vs. ATKINSON.—Action of trespass to a lot of land in Luther, plaintiff charging defendant with having entered and trespassed on the lot in question; the declaration also contained count for conversion of plaintiff's goods. The defendant pleaded not guilty and that the land and goods were not plaintiff's. Verdict was taken for the plaintiff ($1,000) subject to the award of J. T. Anderson, Esq., Q. C. Mr. M. McCarty for plaintiff; Messrs. Frew & Jacob for defendant.

NEWTON (Official Assignee) vs. SWEENEY.
—An action brought by the Official Assignee in Kavanagh's (Fergus) estate to recover a stock of boots and shoes alleged to be fraudulently disposed of to the defendant Sweeney, whereby the creditors would be defrauded of their just dues.
Verdict for plaintiff. Mr. G. Thrie for plff.; Dr. McMichael and Mr. J. F. Cross for deft.

SMITH vs. McLELLAN.—An action brought by Henry Smith, executor under the will of the late Daniel McLeelan, his son-in-law, to recover certain property claimed and sold by the defendant, Angus McLeelan, who was administrator under his father's will. It appears that Daniel and Angus McLeelan were brothers; Angus being of a roving disposition had left the country, his father meantime making provision for him by will. About five years ago it is alleged he saw Daniel, his other son, a deed of the farm on which they were then living, on the understanding that Daniel was to provide for the old couple during their lives. The old man died upwards of a year ago, and Daniel, his son, in January last, Angus became administrator of his father's estate, and claimed certain chattel property, which he sold by auction in January last, and which were on the farm of Daniel at the time of his (Daniel's) death, who, in his will, provided that in the event of no heir appearing, the property was to be divided equally amongst his relatives; a posthumous child, however, was born, and the executor, under the provisions of the will, brought this action to recover the value of the property sold by auction by Angus, who had been appointed a co-executor with Henry Smith, but had renounced. Mr. M. C. Cameron, Q. C., and Mr. McDowell for plff.; Mr. D. Guthrie for deft.

SMITH vs. McLELLAN.—The hearing of this case was resumed this morning, when after hearing counsel the jury brought in a verdict for defendant.

McALPINE vs. STEPHENS.—An action brought by plaintiff, Mr. Archibald Mc-Alpine, of Halton, for false and malicious imprisonment and arrest by the defendant Stephens, who was an official detective on the Grand Trunk in reference to obstructions placed upon the track. Mc-Alpine was arrested and brought to Guelph in August last on a warrant issued by the Mayor of Guelph (in the absence of the Police Magistrate) and being brought before the Magistrate at the Police Court and remanded in jail for eight days, but was discharged from jail after three days, no evidence having been produced against him. It appears also that a man named McLaughlin had been arrested for the same offence, and entirely exonerated McAlpine from any participation in the act, but which even he (Mc-Laughlin) did not admit that he had committed. The defendant pleads not guilty.
Dr. McMichael and Mr. Guthrie for plaintiff; Mr. M. C. Cameron, Q. C., for defendant. The case is proceeding as we go to press.

HARRIS MAGAZINE FOR MAY, just laid out on our table by Messrs. W. E. Tunis & Co., Clifton, is full of the most attractive reading matter, profusely illustrated. The number opens with the second instalment of Porte Crayon's "Mountains," illustrated with a dozen of the authors most characteristic and effective drawings. In "For Jefferson's Pet," Mr. Schale De Verger gives the early history of the University of Virginia. We have the second and concluding portion of the "Story of Tammany," showing how that city grew to political supremacy. Mr. George M.
Towle gives a history of a model town in England—Saltaire, founded by Sir Titus Salt for the benefit of his workmen.
Eugene Lawrence contributes an interesting paper on "Inventor and Inventions." It is seldom that we find in a magazine an article so graphic in its descriptions, so timely, and so full of useful information, as is Mr. Charles Nordhoff's paper on California, in this number. Sir Titus Salt shows "how to go there, and what to see by the way." For the first time we have an accurate description of a journey by rail across "The Great American Desert." There is besides a large amount of reading matter of a most interesting character.
For sale at the bookstores.

MUNICIPAL HONOURS AT A DISCOUNT.— We learn from the Berlin Telegraph that on Monday last there was an interesting case at the Police Court here. Mr.
Samuel Mercer, Reeve of New Hamburg, acting upon a resolution of the Municipal Council of that village, laid an information before John Hoffman, Esq., Mayor of Berlin, in which he charged William Hunter, Esq., merchant, of New Hamburg, who was elected a Councillor of that village in January last, had not made the declaration of office and qualification required of him by the Act—in other words, had refused to serve in the office to which he was elected. A similar information by the same party, and for a similar offence, was also laid against Mr. John Payne, who had been elected by the Council at its first sitting to fill the office of Assessor for the same municipality.
Both informations were laid under the 186th section of the Municipal Institution Act of Ontario. After a patient hearing of the case, and able arguments by both sides, the Court imposed the lowest possible penalty, $8.00, and $5.00, costs of prosecution. It is said the defendants will appeal against the conviction.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.

The Creation of THE MERCURY is guaranteed to be three times more than that of any paper published in Guelph, or in the County.

Consequential Claims.

Vague reports have been current in some of the New York papers for the past few days, that the United States Government had given up its demand for consequential claims in reference to the Alabama question, and these reports have been strengthened by a despatch from Ottawa, which states that Sir John A. Macdonald has received a cable telegram from Sir John Rose, to the effect that Great Britain and the United States have reached an amicable settlement on the subject.

For several days past a sinister rumor has circulated in this city and in Washington. We regret to say that there is good foundation for the statement that the Administration has already abandoned its attitude in relation to the Alabama question; that the Secretary of State has written to Gen. Schenck, expressing his regret at the misunderstanding that has arisen, saying that the claims for indirect damages were inserted in the Case because we conceived we had the right to include them, under the Treaty; that the Case cannot be amended or withdrawn, because the Treaty contained no provision for the amendment of the Case except by a Counter Case; but that we expected no award to be made for them; that we do not wish any that in the interest of the United States and of England we desire that some way be made; and in consideration of the available dispositions of our, we hope that Her Majesty's Government will permit the application to go forward. If now the British Ministry should refuse to listen to this humble prayer, they are indeed hard-hearted.

This, then, seems to be the foundation of those breathless dispatches, full of mystery and good will, which for the last forty-eight hours have been coming to us from Washington, intimating that a satisfactory and honorable conclusion of all our difficulties has been reached. It cannot be denied that such a solution would be highly satisfactory to all concerned.

Mr. Gladstone's "E. and C. review," who will have obtained it by a further expansion of all sorts. But if the people of the United States are going to regard it in that light, they are entirely wrong in their character of interpretation. It is the Administration had foolishly allowed us to drift into war, it would have been a deep disgrace. But even that would have been improved if no more in a single breath than this unbridled and uncontrolled exhibition of incapacity, timidity and bad enough, but treachery is worse; and what shall we say when both characterize the Government? If this Administration can do nothing else, at least it can say it has exceeded all its predecessors in getting into quarrels without cause, and out of them without dignity.

The New York Times of Saturday contradicts this report, and states that it originated with some political intriguers. It says,—"Indirect claims are not withdrawn, and they will not be withdrawn unless Great Britain makes such concession inside or outside of the Geneva Tribunal as will grant the point for which they were inserted, to wit—a settlement of the 'Alabama' involved." It is at present quite impossible to say which of these statements is correct, but we incline to the latter, and believe that the matter has been settled, and an amicable understanding come to between the two Governments.

EDITORIAL NEWS.

The Government of Prince Edward's Island have resigned, and a new ministry has been formed.

The Pacific Railway.—In our Parliamentary report will be found the Government scheme for building the Canadian Pacific Railway.

The London Advertiser is gratified to learn that it is the intention of the Ontario Government to appoint an Immigrant Agent in that city.

The reporter's gallery at Ottawa shows the largest representation of journalists since the first session under Confederation.

The St. Catharines Times says that there is a strong feeling in Niagara to run Mr. John M. Currie for the Commons. Should he consent to be a candidate the days of Angus Morrison are ended.

A Tory contemporary says Sir Francis Hincks seriously contemplates risking his desperate fortunes in East Elgin. His present constituency on the Ottawa will have none of him. Neither will East Elgin.

We believe that the W. G. & B. Railway Company have fully and finally declined the arrangement for running powers with the T. G. & B. as proposed by the Government, and are proceeding with the work without Government aid.

DUAL REPRESENTATION.—The Ottawa Government, through Mr. Costigan, have introduced a bill to oblige members of the Local Legislatures in the Provinces where dual representation is not allowed, to resign before becoming candidates for seats in the Commons. We agree with what the London Advertiser says on this subject that such a bill, framed for the one purpose, apparently, of temporarily inconveniencing the Ontario Cabinet, is a small business for the great Dominion Government. We prohibition of dual representation becomes the law of the Dominion. We can stand it as well as the Tories. But for the Ottawa Government to intermeddle with a law which as yet is local to Ontario and New Brunswick, simply for the gratification of petty ends, is an impertinence which will be resented in this Province.

Kicked by a Horse.—The Berlin Telegraph says: On Wednesday evening last a serious accident occurred to Abraham Weaver, aged 16 years, son of Widow Benjamin Weaver, who resides between Bridport and Breslau. He was leading a young horse to water when the animal became unmanageable and broke away, in doing which it kicked out wildly and struck the boy over the right eyebrow. The blow knocked him down, but recovering almost immediately he went home and thought the injury received was but trifling. Soon after, however, he was seized with faintness, which was succeeded by fits; and on Dr. Bowly being summoned it was found that the skull had broken above the eyebrow, and the poor lad now lies in a very critical state, but the Dr. entertains hopes of his recovery.

GRAND ORANGE LODGE.—The Grand Orange Lodge of Canada will meet in Montreal on the third Tuesday in May this year, in order to avoid interfering with the attendance of Orangemen at the various military camps throughout the Province. It has been usual heretofore for the body to assemble upon the third Tuesday in June.

Messrs. Harvey & Korman have commenced operations on the harbor works at Godorich, and they want a large number of men who will receive employment for the whole season.

A farmer named Nesbitt, residing near Onondaga, was gored by his own bull on Thursday last and died from the effects of it shortly afterwards.

The water in the Georgian Bay is lower this year than it has been since 1850. We have heard recently of several severe cases of spinal disease cured by John's or Jaudy's Liniment; one case of a man forty-five years old, who had not done a day's work for four years. The back should first be washed, then rubbed with a coarse towel. Apply the Liniment cold, and rub in well with the hand.

"HORSE-MEN," and others who pretend to know, say that the following directions had better be observed in using Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powder: Give a horse a tablespoonful every night for a week; the same every other night for a fortnight; the same for a month, and twice as much for an ox. The addition of a little fine salt will be an advantage.

HELEN MOIR

OR LOVE AND HONOUR.

A TALE OF THE CLYDE.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

THE VOYAGE AND ITS TERMINATION. Bridgenorth hung over her in speechless tenderness and pain, mitigated only by being mingled with rage. He had no intention of ridding himself, and resolved to keep watch over Helen's slumbers, but gradually and insensibly drowsiness came upon him, and he, too, sank into a sleep which for a time was deep and dreamless. Then it became confused, and full of noise and peril. He thought he was in Australia, fording, as he had often done, a swollen river on horseback, and the wood on either side were roaring and crashing with the winds, while the red surging waves of the swiftly flowing current carried his horse to and fro, as it gallantly strove to reach the opposite bank.

His imagined danger grew so great, and the excitement consequent thereon increased to such a pitch, that he awoke. His first waking moments seemed to realize but more vividly the circumstances of his dream, for the roaring, rushing, sound continued, while harsher noises overhead, made by the tramping of feet and human voices, added to the confusion, and a violent heaving motion made the sensation still more alarming. In a very few moments full consciousness returned to Bridgenorth, and with it the knowledge that the vessel was labouring in a violent storm. The increasing breeze which had carried them steadily forward all the previous day had evidently grown into a hurricane. The sea, too, seemed to have risen into something like angry madness, for the waves over which they sailed were tossed with a huge character, judging by the way which the nose and fell and pitched and reeled.

He sprang up, and in the faint morning light saw Helen sitting opposite with clasped hands and a pale but composed countenance, from which all great alarm had vanished.

"My child, are you awake?" was his first exclamation. "I have been awake for the last half-hour," she replied; "and the tempest has been raging all the time. I have to cling to the seat to keep from falling."

"Why, this is fearful," said Bridgenorth, as they rose on a tremendous crest, and fell into the trough with a violence that made every fibre creek and shiver. "We had nothing like this on the long voyage from Australia. This little shell of a thing will never stand it, and they seem to have the same idea on deck, to judge from the noise they are making. Ha, I verily believe we are to go down."

With great difficulty he crossed the cabin and clasped her in his arms, only to be filled with wonder at her quiet composure.

"My darling," he murmured, "I am glad to see you so calm. This is a situation which appals most hearts."

"I am calm, father," she replied, "because I think it may be Heaven's method of working our deliverance."

"And bringing retribution on the authors of the outrage," he added, "it seems very like it. Can they not find a port into which they may run for shelter? If they do not, my darling, then I fear the worst must come."

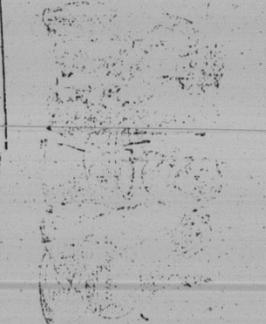

"Oh no, father, not the worst," rejoined Helen. "The worst would have been to have lived and remain in the power of Dukeauque. I welcome death since it saves me from that. But you, father—I give you that this fate should overtake you."

"Life without you," he rejoined, "would be to me a curse rather than a blessing. I would save you, my darling—oh, I would die to save you to love, and to Her ann; but if that may not be then let us die together."

"Poor Hermann," sighed Helen, her thoughts being set by her father's words to her lover, left forlorn and desolate. Then they relapsed into silence, waiting, as they thought, for the moment when the ship should go down, for the storm raged with unabated fierceness, and the vessel heaved and pitched with undiminished violence—the waves sometimes dashing over her in thunder and spray, or else lifting her on their crest to bury her next moment in their depths—every time she descended causing the fear that she would not again rise.

Taus, amid alternations of grey light and gloomy darkness, father and daughter held by each other, and looking into each other's faces with love and tenderness, not knowing but every moment as it came might give them the last earthly glimpse, and find them struggling together in the cold and pitiless arms of death. Leaving them thus, let us ascend to the

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

OTTAWA, April 26.

Sir John A. Macdonald laid on the table the correspondence with the Imperial Government respecting the Fenian Invasion of Canada; also correspondence respecting Lieutenant-Governor Archibald's intercourse with Rich.

Sir G. B. Cartier introduced a bill respecting the Canada Pacific Railway. The Government was found by the Senate of union with British Columbia to build this railway, and to commence it within two years from the date of union, and complete it within ten years. They were also under obligations to commence the line simultaneously from each terminus. British Columbia on her part, agreed to give towards the railway twenty miles of land on each side of the line. Then there was another condition: that the line should be built by Government, but by a subsidized company, and that it should be run by a company. The bill also provides that two companies might amalgamate for the purpose of building the railway. The Government, however, would require that any company making taking of land, should have a capital of ten million dollars, with ten per cent of that amount paid into the hands of the Receiver General. The bill would also provide that in case the Government could not agree with any company, the Government would be authorized to receive the offers of capitalists to build the railway, and give them a charter under Orders in Council based on the general railway act. The bill had therefore a threefold character. The Government would prefer that the railway should be in the hands of one company. Therefore the Government proposed to have at their disposal 20,000,000 acres of land, in order to be able to make an agreement with that company. The land was to be granted in alternate blocks of twenty miles in depth to the company. The Government would reserve its alternate blocks, with a view to their sale for the purpose of reimbursing themselves for the money subsidy which they intended to grant. They proposed to make the eastern terminus of the line at Lake Nipissing. The distance, as would be seen from the reports of the Exploratory Survey to be brought down from Lake Nipissing to the Pacific coast was about 2,500 miles, or at the utmost, 2,700. He now came to the money grant. He would say that the principal burden which would fall on the country would be the land grant. The Government asked for the small and modest sum of $30,000,000 (thirty, four, and laughter). By the sale of the land they expected a great part of this sum would be reimbursed. The Imperial guarantee, also, would effect a saving of two per cent on the sum that would be borrowed; but, suppose there was no Imperial guarantee, Canada could, without increasing the taxation of last year, pay interest and establish a sinking fund to pay off the whole debt in thirty or thirty-eight years.

Hon. Mr. Tilley moved that the House go into a Committee to consider a resolution for the promotion of third class, or junior second class clerks to any other class or rank in the Civil Service.

Sir F. Hincks moved the second reading of a Bill to amend the act relating to the issue of Dominion notes.

Several notices of motion were given.
