

THE NUMBERED TELLS IN DETAIL THE KILLING OF STRATHY.

Claims That He Had Been Forcefully Ejected by the Late Banker and That He Fired the Shot in a Moment of Excitement—Denies That He Is Insane—The Coroner's Jury Pronounces It Willful Murder

Barrie, Feb. 19.—(Special).—Excitement consequent upon the awful tragedy of yesterday has abated but the little and the big crowd of spectators, the details and wondering for the motive of the crime, which cost John A. Strathy his life, at 9 o'clock this morning, were met for the first time, the crowds of people who thronged the Court House and lined the streets between it and the jail, anxious to see the prisoner while he was being transferred to the Police Court. Prompt on time Brennan emerged from handcuffed to Detective Beardsley. He was also accompanied by Constable Marlan and a World reporter who endeavored to obtain from him the details of the killing.

"Did you pass a good night?" asked Beardsley.

"No; I did not sleep much; it was a miserable night."

"What was your motive in killing Mr. Strathy?"

The prisoner commenced to make a statement. Detective Beardsley interrupted and asked him to be a little better be careful of what he said. Brennan then exclaimed in almost a whisper, "I saw nothing; I can't speak now. I will tell all I know."

The Coroner's Request.

In the Police Court Coroner Ward was packed so tightly that some of the spectators had their coats burned by the heat of the crowd. He adjourned to the centre of the room. Coroner Wall-

He conducted the inquest, while the witnesses were sworn in. The witnesses after by Crown Attorney John H. Brennan were seated at the end of the room when Jenny Neely and wept convulsively when she saw the man who was her unwanted girl, who was the only woman in the room. The man appeared to feel his position, and the tears rolled down his face. The witnesses gave their evidence. The witness Joseph Morrin, the constable to whom Brennan surrendered, was F. M. Smith, ex-deputy sheriff, who was called in when Brennan came in and admitted that he had guided him to John Weymouth, a ballplayer, who he heard of, and he had four children, which he was well known to help the people of the country. He would not say if any man was in Michael J. Brennan's place when he would have acted the same as he did. Dr. J. J. Strathairn after the shooting was who, in company with Dr. Rose, gave Brennan to the post mortem, and Dr. C. L. Custy, of the University of Florida Hotel, who told that Brennan came to his place on Monday night, and that he was not in the room. Brennan, he had called and paid his bill.

Brennan Declined to Cross-Examine

"The coroner," said the examination of the witness, "cross-examined Brennan, asked the prisoner if he wished to cross-examine him, but he replied in each case that he was 'fine'."

"The evidence was in, Mr. Cotter asked Brennan if he was desirous of making any statement to the jury. The prisoner replied that he was not desirous of making anything."

"After a short deliberation the jury returned in a verdict of murder, and the prisoner was taken back to the jail, where he will remain, until Friday, when he will be taken to the gallows, where he will be executed. He will take place at the Police Court, at 10 o'clock, tomorrow morning."

At the request of Brennan, Inspector partment, who has been acquainted with him for over 10 years, went to the station on making an arrest on which I was present. The

"I was in
Mr. Strathman, as he grain to hhe knew couldn't teed me, and you've got to it and no tended to se if the knew they to the city.
ent to Baron of killin, and tell the and my far-make another ever had th

"I knew menacing, and I thought,
I would allow me to have po-

The Meeting in the Vestibule.

"I went to Mr. Strathy's house, and the servant girl had admitted me, waited for him a short time in the vestibule. When he came he opened the glass doors in the hall and said:
'The devil's drama, you here again?'
I replied, 'Yes, I'm here, and I want to know where my wife and children are.' You know all about them, and I want you to tell me.' He said, 'Get out here. I've told you I know nothing about your family.' He grabbed me by the collar of my big fur coat and started to push me, while he opened old on, Mr. Strathy, I want to tell you," but he shoved me out."

How the Poor Sister Was Fired.

"My head on the wall, and my back at the side of the walk. I stepped up and covered it, as Strathy was close behind me. I saw the redness of the liver, and, taking it from my coat pocket, fired directly at him, saying: 'I think that, if I don't think I can kill him, I will kill him, and I have had done so. I never would have fired at any only Strathy was a strong man, and I was not sure that I could hit him if I had not had been wearing my big fur coat. About it I could not be asked while I was trying to put me out of the vestibule.'"

Denies that He Is Inmate.

"I'm not an inmate," said Strathy, "I pulse the moment," and now I'm trying I did not."

With tears in his eyes Brennan told the court that he had never been arrested when reminded of the sorrow he

Where He Got the Revolver.

When he got the revolver and asked him, Brennan replied that he had it, Brennan replied that he purchased it on York-street, Toronto, for $12.50 in order to protect himself against some men on York-street, who had twice waylaid him on the street, while he was hunting for his family.

Proving the Murderer's Story.

The world representative accompanied Inspector Greer and Crown-Attorney Potter to the home of the murderer this afternoon. Inspector Greer was in his possession the murderer's army boot. The former fitted exactly an impression in the snowbank

T. EATON CO. LIMITED

190 Yonge St. Canada's Greatest Store. Toronto.

Friday Bargains.

The evolution of the Friday Bargain idea is a study of Nineteenth Century progress. You and we can remember when Friday was the dullest day of the week. Now it requires the smartest clerks and best facilities to handle the crowds when such inducements as these are offered:

GROUND FLOOR—YONGE STREET.

Gloves and Hosiery

Ladies' 4-button French Kid Gloves, in black, all sizes, 30c a pair; regular, 50c.
Children's Black and Colored Cashmere Socks, all sizes, 5c a pair; regular, 10c.
Ladies' Fine Black Cashmere Jersey Gloves, 10c a pair; regular, 25c.
Boys' Heavy Ribbed Wool Hosiery, sizes 5 to 10, 10c a pair; regular, 25c to 40c.
Boys' Extra Heavy Ribbed Wool Hosiery, sizes 10 to 14, 25c a pair; regular, 50c to 75c.

Laces and Vellings

12 and 18 inch Plain, Fancy, Cheviot, and Cheviot and Vellings, in black, 10c a yard; regular, 15c and 20c.
Ladies' and Misses' Square and Diamond Shaped Lace Collars, 50c a yard; regular, 75c.

Real Laces (hand-made) Tulle Laces, 30c a yard; regular, 50c.

Handkerchiefs and Ribbons

Men's Large Size Irish Lawn Handkerchiefs, 25c a dozen; regular, 50c.
Men's Fancy Striped and Pique Dot Handkerchiefs, 25c a dozen; regular, 50c and 60c.
Men's Heavy Cotton and Pique Handkerchiefs, 10c a dozen; regular, 25c.
All Silk and Satin Reversible Ribbons, 5c a yard; regular, 10c.
All Silk and Satin Reversible Ribbons, 10c a yard; regular, 25c.

Motions

Eight-foot Berlin Wool, in slate, scarlet, violet, magenta, pink, rose, green, and blue, 4c a foot; regular, 5c an oz.
Cotton and Vellings, in black, 10c a yard; regular, 15c.
Perfect Cut Holders, 5c a pair; regular, 10c.
Embossed Glove Darners, 10c a pair; regular, 25c.
White Metal Photo Frames, in fancy designs, cabinet size, 10c each; regular, 25c.

GROUND FLOOR—QUEEN STREET.

Men's Furnishings

Silk and Satin Ties, four-in-hand, bow, and knot, all sizes, 10c a yard; regular, 15c.
Men's Heavy Ribbed Wool Hosiery, sizes 10 to 14, 25c a pair; regular, 50c to 75c.
Men's Heavy Ribbed Wool Hosiery, sizes 10 to 14, 25c a pair; regular, 50c to 75c.
Men's Heavy Ribbed Wool Hosiery, sizes 10 to 14, 25c a pair; regular, 50c to 75c.
Men's Heavy Ribbed Wool Hosiery, sizes 10 to 14, 25c a pair; regular, 50c to 75c.

GROUND FLOOR—JAMES STREET.

Dress Goods

Fancy Meltons, mottled and tweed effects, 25c a yard; regular, 35c.
Fancy Mixtures, mottled and tweed effects, 25c a yard; regular, 35c.
10-inch All Wool French Serge and Diagonal, medium and light shades, 10c a yard; regular, 15c.
10-inch Black Cheviot, in the trim, with bright lining, 10c a yard; regular, 15c.

Silks

25-inch Japanese Wash Crepes, evening shades, 10c a yard; regular, 15c.
25-inch Colored Satin, all sizes, evening shades, 25c a yard; regular, 35c.
10-inch Colored Satin, all sizes, evening shades, 25c a yard; regular, 35c.

Woolens and Linens

10-inch Heavy English Twilled Flannel, extra soft, 10c a yard; regular, 15c.
10-inch Extra Fine Flannel, extra soft, 10c a yard; regular, 15c.
10-inch Heavy English Twilled Flannel, extra soft, 10c a yard; regular, 15c.

FIRST FLOOR.

Coat Department

Ladies' Wrappers, made of American Percales, fast colors, light shades, 10c a yard; regular, 15c.
Ladies' Waterproof Coats, in rubber lined, 10c a yard; regular, 15c.
Ladies' Waterproof Coats, in rubber lined, 10c a yard; regular, 15c.

SECOND FLOOR—HOUSE FURNISHINGS.

Furniture

Bedroom Suits, ash, antique and maple, 10c a yard; regular, 15c.
28 inch bed plate mirror, large bedstead and combination washstand, 10c a yard; regular, 15c.
Parlor Tables, solid walnut, 10c a yard; regular, 15c.

Carpets

Best 4 and 6 frame Brussels Carpets, 5c a yard; regular, 10c.
Very Fine French Brussels, 10c a yard; regular, 15c.
Brussels Carpets, slightly soiled at edge, 4c a yard; regular, 10c.

BASEMENT.

Hardware

Hardwood Folding Tub Stands, 90c each; regular, 125c.
Good Iron Brooms, 5c each; regular, 10c.
Glassware and Chinaware
Crystal Lenses, 10c a pair; regular, 15c.
Royal Crown Glass, 10c a pair; regular, 15c.

THE TORONTO WORLD

NO. 83 YONGE STREET, TORONTO.

TELEPHONE 123.

Business Office 1734.

Editorial Rooms 1734.

ONE CENT MORNING PAPER.

SUBSCRIPTIONS:

Daily (without Sunday) by the year $3 00

Daily (without Sunday) by the year $2 25

Sunday Edition, by the year $1 00

Sunday Edition, by the year $1 00

Daily (Sunday included) by the year $5 00

Daily (Sunday included) by the month $1 45

WHOLESALE NEWSDEALERS:

F. W. Beebe, 201 Spadina-avenue.

George Messer, 707 Yonge-street.

Mrs. Mortality, 1430 Queen-street west.

H. Bagg, 655 Dundas.

W. Duggan, 262 King-street east.

G. R. Ezzard, 767 Queen-street east.

HAMILTON OFFICE:

No. 13 Arcade, James-street north.

H. E. SAYERS, District Agent.

BIKES AND STREET IMPROVEMENTS.

It is probable that before the current year is closed bicycles will be used by occupants in more than one-half the houses of Toronto. The making of suitable paths for wheelmen, therefore, one that will effect a larger section of the community than almost any other municipal question. The bicycle itself has been brought to a high state of perfection. The loss of energy through friction and the heavy weight has been reduced to a minimum. The only field where improvement in connection with the bicycle is possible to any extent is in the construction of the roads on which this highly perfected machine is to be used. It is only a question of time when the residents of every street will demand a suitable bicycle roadway. There is room on every street in the city for wheelmen, pedestrians and vehicles if the roadway is properly proportioned and each class kept to its respective limits. The ordinary street is sixty-six feet wide. A street where there are no car tracks a division of the space must be made. It follows: Sixteen feet reserved for one side for pedestrians and wheelmen; the remainder of the street, a space of 34 feet, for the exclusive use of wagons. The sixteen-foot strip on each side being on the outer side, one-half being allowed for pedestrians and the other for wheelmen. The bicycle path would then be on the same level as the sidewalk, the curbstone being on the outer side of the sixteen-foot strip. All danger from collision with vehicles, except on the streets where there are cars, would be obviated. It would be cheaper to make and maintain a street laid out on this principle than to alter the system that now prevails. The eight-foot strip on each side for bicycles would involve little original outlay, and its maintenance would necessitate but a trifling extra cost. The paving of the street would be confined to the thirty-four foot strip in the centre, which is ample for all the requirements for vehicular traffic. As a matter of fact, this strip might be reduced to thirty feet thereby still further reducing the expense of maintaining a good pavement. The plan suggested would not interfere with tree planting or the erection of telephone poles. It is evidently the duty of the City Engineer to investigate the possibilities of our streets and determine how they can be best divided. It is the duty of the City Council to make the necessary appropriation for the improvement of our streets, and to involve as little expense as possible. Before starting on any improvements in this direction we ought to agree on some plan of general development.

THE PATRONS AND EXEMPTIONS.

If the Government decides on amending the Assessment Act in any respect this session it should not neglect to consider the question of exemptions. It has been submitted to the Assembly that the abolition of exemptions. Public opinion is becoming stronger every day in its demand for the removal of the unjustified exemptions from the assessment of municipal property. The principle of equal rights is the motive that should run through every act sanctioned by the Legislature or the House of Commons. It is the proper duty of the Government to make the Remedial Bill obnoxious to so large a section of the community. The principle that gives pecuniary advantages to different classes of property, churches and other organizations in the shape of exemption from taxation, is exactly the same principle as that in virtue of which the Catholics of Manitoba insist on separate schools. The Government is not to be benefited. Those who express their indignation at the pretensions of the Catholic minority of Manitoba ought to be equally indignant at the demand of the Catholics to be exempted from the payment of the present unfair Assessment Act. Our friends, the Patrons, who are sticklers for the principle of equal rights, would win the esteem of the general public if they took up this question of exemptions and insisted on wiping the ink of the statute book. The quickest and most effective way of dealing with the problem is to pass a bill abolishing exemptions. It is not a question of whether or not we should be in order for any class of the community that feels aggrieved to come forward and show cause why an exception to a general act should be made in its favor. Very few, if any, would be able to advance rational arguments to support such a contention.

DEATH OF REV. D. J. MACDONNELL.

Probably no man in Toronto was ever held in higher esteem or more beloved by those among whom he moved than the late pastor of St. Andrew's Church, Rev. D. J. Macdonnell. He was full of the milk of human kindness. He was intensely sympathetic. The exuberance of his sympathy and his love of his fellowmen overflowed and forced its way into the hearts of his congregation and of a wide circle of loving friends. His passing away will be deeply mourned by all who knew him, either intimately or from a distance. The World strongly opposed the rev. gentleman's attitude on the question of public schools, but his sincerity in any movement in which he was interested was so pronounced that he never failed to command the respect of opponents as well as the praise of friends. The World regrets with the rest of the community at the loss sustained by the city and by the country at the untimely death of so true a man and so loyal a citizen.

WHY MURDER IS RIFE.

There have, of late, been several murder trials in Toronto and the neighborhood which the people persist in regarding as escapes from the gallows. The punishment of death, meted out by Divine law to him or her who taketh man's life. East of Toronto, too, a murderer has not been done to death,

WHETHER WENT THE MONEY

MR. HARCOURT EXPLAINS THE EXPENDITURE OF $5,750,000.

The Amount About $200,000 in Excess of the Receipts for the Same Period, but Still a Large Sum, as a Comfortable Surplus—Mr. Hardy Proposes to Revitalize Municipal Government.

The Legislature got down to hard work yesterday afternoon. The standing committee of the House were struck, and Mr. Harcourt delivered his Budget Speech.

Several questions and notices of motion, including the one to the Aqueduct Commission, for one reason or another, laid over.

Mr. Marter moved for an order of the House for a return showing the names of all persons, firms or companies indebted to the province since the date of the last return made to the House, an account of timber dues, ground rent or bonuses for timber lands; the amount of indebtedness in each case, the name of the person, firm or company, and the date of last return, and the total amount of indebtedness on the first day of January, 1896.

The Government a Poor Collector.

Mr. Marter said that in 1893 a return had been brought down to the House, but, though he had tried to get a proper place to obtain it, he had so far failed. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it.

He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not been able to get it. He had been told that the return was in the hands of the collector, but he had not

