FRENCH TROOPS AT KATERINA TO AVERT CONFLICT

Confidence Felt That Battalion Will Prevent Further Bloodshed.

DU FOURNET REBUFFED

Greeks Refuse to Co-operate in Guarding Against Submarines.

London, Nov. 5.—Arrival of a fresh battalion at Katerina, following an engagement between Greek Government forces and Venizelist revolutionists will, it is believed, do much to clear up the situation.

A dispatch from Athens, dated Friday, and received last night, stated that the Greek army had arrived outside Katerina from which the Venizelists expelled the royalists several days ago and that an engagement had begun, but a cable from Katerina, received tonight, says: "A French battalion arrived here today to occupy the town. It is believed that the Greek and Venizelist troops will depart immediately, and that this will solve the embarrassing situation which has arisen as a result of the conflict between the royalists and Venizelists."

Cabinet's Refusal.

Vice Admiral Du Fournet, commander of the entente fleet in the Mediterranean, has demanded that the Greek Government consent to the use of a light flotilla carrying the French flag and French crew as a protection against submarines, says a Reuters dispatch from Athens. The Greek cabinet held a meeting today under the presidency of King Constantine, the despatch adds, and decided that the vice-admiral's demand was unacceptable because consent to it would be equivalent to a departure from neutrality.

AUTONOMY FOR GALICIA IS RUMOR SET AFLOAT

Emperor of Austria is Said to Have Issued Instructions.

Amsterdam, Nov. 5.—It is said here that Emperor Francis Joseph has written Ernest Von Koerber, stating that it is his will when the new state of Poland comes into existence to grant Galicia the right to independently manage its own internal affairs. ## PERLEY'S NEW OFFICE SURPRISE TO LONDON

Canadian Cabinet Regarded as Overriding Decision of Hughes.

Canadian Associated Press Cable. London, Nov. 5.—The Manchester Guardian's London correspondent says Sir George Perley's appointment has aroused great interest here and has also caused some surprise, as it was thought another appointment had been made as a result of Hughes' scheme of readjustment. Apparently the Canadian cabinet has taken an independent line.

FOE GIVES POLAND FULSOME PLEDGES

Independent State to Be Established, Says Germany and Austria.

HEREDITARY MONARCHY

Constitutional Government and Other Tempting Bait Held Out.

Berlin, Nov. 5, via Saville.—The manifesto issued at Warsaw and Lublin today, announcing that the German and Austrian Emperors had agreed to establish an independent state of Poland, with a hereditary monarchy and a constitutional government, reads as follows:

"His Majesty the German Emperor, and His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, and Apostolic King of Hungary, inspired by firm confidence in a final victory of their arms, and prompted by a desire to lead the districts conquered by their armies under heavy sacrifices, from Russian domination, towards a happy future, have agreed to form of these districts a national state with a hereditary monarchy and a constitutional government. The exact frontiers of the Kingdom of Poland shall be outlined later."

Glittering Promises.

"The new kingdom will receive the guarantees needed for the free development of its own forces by its intimate relations with both powers. The glorious traditions of the ancient Polish nation, and the memory of the brave comradeship in the great war of our days, shall revive in a national army. The organization, instruction and command of this army shall be arranged by common agreement."

"The allied monarchs express the confident hope that Polish wishes for the evolution of a Polish state and for the national development of a Polish kingdom shall now be fulfilled, taking due consideration of the general political conditions prevailing in Europe, and of the welfare and the safety of their own countries and nations."

"The great realm which the western neighbors of the Kingdom of Poland shall have on their eastern frontier shall be a free and happy state, enjoying its own national life, and they shall welcome with joy the birth and prosperous development of this state."

CZAR RESUMES ADVANCE INTO TRANSYLVANIA

Russians Capture Heights on Front South of Dorna Watra.

WILL AID ROUMANIA

New Movement Threatens to Take Austro-Germans in Rear.

Special Cable to The Toronto World. London, Nov. 5.—Resuming their delayed march southward into Transylvania, the Russians made an advance in the region south of Dorna Watra, capturing in the process a series of heights between Mount Muntelu and the Village of Esolo, and southeast of Putna. From the Austro-German and concealing the newly won positions.

The scene of this operation is the region where the boundaries of Roumania, Bukovina and Transylvania join, and the news that Russians are resuming their forward movement is received here as an indication that they are proceeding with the invasion of Transylvania as a move to assist the Roumanians and to force the Germans and Austrians to divert troops from the south to the north to prevent themselves being taken in the rear and destroyed. On the Moldavian front, southeast of this point, the situation is unchanged, the Roumanians being able to hold the Teutons at bay.

In the wooded Carpathians, Capul Mount district the Russian artillery fire compelled an Austrian battery to abandon its position. It is expected that an advance will shortly be begun here also.

The Germans report that they captured Moschki, east of Goduzshki, and took 50 Russian prisoners and several machine guns and mine throwers. Concerning this operation, the Russians say that the Germans violently bombarded this village, which they call Movelki, with chemical shells, and they pushed the Russian detachments out of it. The Russian artillery opened a fire on this place, compelling the Teutons to evacuate it, and recaptured it. The Germans have also launched gas attacks north of Postavy.

ITALIANS DRIVE TEUTONS BACK STILL FURTHER

Capture More Strategic Points Along Roads Leading to Trieste.

BADLY PUNISHES FOE

Ally Takes Nearly Eight Thousand Prisoners in Battle.

Special Cable to The Toronto World. London, Nov. 5.—In fighting of the past four days the Italians have captured the whole of a strong line of Austrian positions on the Carso plateau, and southeast of Gorizia they are consolidating their positions and they are proceeding by regular steps towards the reduction of the next line. The total number of prisoners taken in the past four days of fighting on this front is 8992, including 270 officers. Since the offensive began on Aug. 8 the Italians have taken in all 40,255 prisoners, including 1093 officers.

The operations in the past two days have brought the Italian lines forward for a considerable distance to a line drawn a little east of San Grato and along the Oppacchiasella-Castagnievizza road to a point 200 odd yards west of Castagnievizza. From this point run two roads, one east to Terriccia, Lupa and Skerbinia and the other southeast to Ivanograd, and it is the immediate object of the Italians to seize these highways.

The Italians followed up this advance by extending their lines in minor attacks in the sector south of the road to Castagnievizza, taking 200 prisoners. They took 253 other prisoners in the operations north of the road. They also captured a battery of 4-inch howitzers with more than 1000 rounds of ammunition for each gun.

The Italian success has attracted to this front a great number of Austrian batteries, and they have opened an intensive bombardment on the front down to the sea with shells of all calibres. A whole transport column with large quantities of materials of all kinds, fell into the hands of the victors.

The Italians are now within long range artillery fire of the defences of Trieste and it is expected that they will open a bombardment of these as soon as they are in a position to aeroplane. The results of their fire by aeroplane.

It is believed here that they are on the point of striking the Austrians a heavier blow than any yet inflicted. Latest advice confirm the previous reports of the heavy losses sustained by the enemy.

GERMAN SUB TO START FOR HOME NEXT FRIDAY

At Least Such is Statement Made by Capt. Koenig.

New London, Nov. 5.—Capt. Paul Koenig of the German submarine merchantman Deutschland, which arrived here last Wednesday, indicated today that he would make his homeward dash next Friday—probably late in the afternoon. While the captain would not make a definite statement, there was plenty of evidence tending to show that preparations were being made for an early start back to Bremen.

BRITISH GAIN FRESH SUCCESS IN AFRICA

Fighting continues in this area."

BRITISH AND FRENCH TAKE MORE GROUND

High Ground Near Warlencourt, Village of Saillisel, and Part of St. Pierre Vaast Wood Taken in Series of Simultaneous Attacks Against Best German Troops, Who Could Not Withstand Tremendous Artillery and Hand-to-Hand Fighting—French Advance From Verdun and Take Damloup Village.

Special Cable to The Toronto World. London, Nov. 5.—Resuming the battle of the Somme in stormy weather today in the form of many isolated local actions, the British and the French made appreciable advances at many points on their front and captured much valuable ground, including the high ground in the neighborhood of the Butte de Warlencourt, the Village of Saillisel, and a great part of the strongly defended St. Pierre Vaast Wood.

These positions had been strongly fortified by the Germans with trenches constructed of the French pattern at Verdun. These types of defences had proved practically unbreakable to the Germans, and when the advance of the allies along the Somme became really formidable the foe remodeled his new defences on the pattern of those which had resisted so long at Verdun. But to the allied high command, these new German positions have proved no mystery to overcome.

The day was opened by the British with a burst of artillery activity, and the French batteries soon joined in the bombardment. Then the soldiers leaped from their trenches, armed with the deadly bombs, and went for the Germans. Before these missiles the Teutons fled, and the British and the French advanced to capture the high ground near the Butte de Warlencourt in order to surround this hill and capture it. This objective, once in their hands, the British will be able to enfilade the German batteries in the upper valley of the trench.

On a wide front. The advance made by the British centre upon the Butte de Warlencourt was on a front of 1600 yards. In addition they cleared a pocket of Germans on their extreme right and this enabled their line to advance with the French, who had become active on the front between Les Boeufs and Saillisel.

On this front of Les Boeufs-Saillisel-Saillisel the French made excellent progress over the sodden ground. The advance made here measured several hundred yards by nightfall and it brings them close to the pocket of Les Boeufs, which somewhat resembles a triangle, which retarded the allied progress in August.

East of Saillisel and the Bethune road, just across the way from the scene of the foregoing fighting, the French instead of driving north along the Bethune road, drove eastward. They captured the greater portion of Saillisel Village, from which they are still engaged in clearing the Germans, who are lodged in the last houses.

The fighting in Saillisel was pretty lively. The French bombers did tremendous destruction among the ruins of the houses with their explosives, and they fought the Germans as they attempted to emerge from their dug-outs. Next the French turned their arms against the strongly fortified St. Pierre Vaast Wood. There the Germans had dug deeply and constructed an almost unbelievable maze of trenches. But French bombs again did the work they were constructed for. The French infantry massed on three sides of this wood and they drove into it with great effect. The Germans had entrusted its defence to some of their best troops and these put up a bitter opposition. The French would not be stayed, but driving forward from the north and west they carried three lines of trenches, and driving in to it from the southwestern outskirts they overcame the whole line of the German positions. Seeing their best troops give way before the French onslaughts, the Germans sent forward troops to counter-attack the French. These were caught in a curtain of fire and were punished severely. They came on in great force and the French soldiers met them with the bayonet. The result was that the Germans went down to defeat.

So far these actions have brought the French 525 prisoners and the British an unstated number. As a great many of the Germans were still in their dugouts by nightfall and had not emerged, it is believed that the allies will triple the number of prisoners already recorded.

GERMANS RETIRE FAR TO REAR OF FORT VAUX

Foe Found Artillery Positions Untenable After Silencing of Ninety of His Batteries.

From a Staff Correspondent of The Associated Press. With the French army at the front, Nov. 5, 7 p.m.—French patrols have penetrated far beyond Fort Vaux into the lines hitherto held by the Germans, but were not able to get in touch with the former defenders. It appears probable that the Germans have retired their lines considerably to the rear, their artillery positions being untenable since the French drove them out of Douaumont after silencing 90 of their batteries. Military observers point out that the Germans were forced to withdraw from Fort

NINETY-ONE LIVES LOST IN IRISH SEA COLLISION

Retriever, Coal Laden, Hurlled By Wave Into Larger Steamer Connemara—Many Killed Instantly By Boiler Explosion—Only One Survivor.

Belfast, Nov. 6.—The death list as a result of the disaster to the steamers Connemara and Retriever Thursday night is now set at 91. Eighty-two persons lost their lives on the Connemara and nine on the Retriever. Sixty-nine bodies have been recovered. The collision occurred at 8:30 o'clock in the evening a mile off the coast.

The sole survivor, one of the crew of the Retriever, James Boyle, was in the water half an hour clinging to an overturned boat which was washed ashore. The disaster was due directly to a storm. The incoming Retriever and the outgoing Connemara were steaming the proper courses to pass each other in the narrow channel of Greenore harbor. The vessels were nearly abreast when a huge wave struck the Retriever, laden with coal, altering her course. Before she could recover her bow was driven amidships into the Connemara, which immediately began to settle, turning over five minutes later. The Retriever was so badly damaged that she sank in 15 minutes.

Explosion Killed Many. The collision was seen from the shore, but the sea was too rough to permit any assistance being sent to the ill-fated craft. Scores of rockets were sent up from the shore in the hope of drawing any ships in the neighborhood to the rescue, but apparently none was near as there was no response to the signals. The boilers of both steamers exploded after the collision killing a great number of those on board, as was made evident by the mutilated bodies washed ashore.

WAR SUMMARY

THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

BOTH the British and the French on the Somme front fought several successful local actions yesterday, and as a result they considerably improved their positions. The British centre progressed on a front of over one thousand yards, and captured the much sought-for high ground in the vicinity of Butte de Warlencourt. On their extreme right they cleared a pocket of Germans. The French, in several successful attacks, made a number of appreciable advances between a point south of Le Transloy and a point north of St. Pierre Vaast Wood. On the section between Les Boeufs and Saillisel-Saillisel they pushed their lines forward several hundred yards towards Le Transloy. East of Saillisel-Saillisel they captured a trench and the greater part of Saillisel Village. South of this point they attacked three sides of the St. Pierre Vaast Wood, capturing three trenches defending the northern horn, and the whole line of the German positions on the southwestern outskirts. Fighting was particularly bitter. Foe counter-attacks were repulsed.

The foregoing actions were fought in stormy weather, and the results achieved reflect great credit on the troops taking part. The Germans still show their inability to stand up to the assaults of the allied troops, and wherever they are caught outside of the protection of their heavy guns, the British and the French soldiers walk over them. The Germans admit a great recurrence of the allied bombardment. After they had gauged enough of the allies' plans to see that their object was not to make a break thru their front, but rather to reduce them by steady pounding, as announced several times in interviews with British generals as Sir Henry Rawlinson and Gen. Maurice, chief director of military operations, the German general staff has issued a communication, attributing other objects to

For When Milady Makes Her Evening Toilette

Some of the luxuries, some of the necessities, all of them alluring

HER MORNING toilette may be a hurried operation, but to the average woman her evening toilette is something of a ceremony—a preparation for looking her very best. In addition to the dressing table it comprises a chest of drawers and dresser, both with similar oval mirrors set in carved frames, showing the characteristic torch and quiver device slung between "pine apple" pilasters; a double bed with pineapple posts and oval panels, head and foot, and a writing table exactly like the toilet table; except that it is provided with tiny drawers and pigeon holes instead of a mirror. The entire suite is handcarved and since the price of such furniture has risen considerably since the war, it is very good value at $681.00. —Furniture Building.

HUNDRED AND NINETY AT CHURCH SERVICE

Regiment Under Major W. S. Dinick Parades to St. Paul's, Bloor Street.

STRUCK BY TROLLEY

Three Members Are Injured When Returning to the Armories.

Under command of Major W. S. Dinick, the 190th Regiment paraded 500 strong on Sunday morning to attend services at St. Paul's church, East Bloor street. The regiment left the armories at 10 o'clock and headed by brass and bugle bands marched to the church via King, Yonge, Queen, Jarvis and Bloor streets.

The regimental motto is Rex Vocat ("The King Calls") and by a coincidence this phrase occurred in the lesson for the day. Ven. Archdeacon Cody, taking "The King Calls" for his text, preached an impressive sermon. He spoke of the call for the last 13,000 men for active service overseas. It was his opinion, he said, that the only feasible way to obtain volunteers for the Canadian Expeditionary Force was to recruit from the aid of the militia regiments.

He referred to the important part the regiments had taken in the past in raising battalions of overseas troops, and the heavy responsibility they had shouldered in financing these recruiting efforts. The good feeling existing between the various city regiments was praised by the preacher. There had never been a strife, he said, when there was such unanimity between them as at present. This was proven by the announcement that the regiments were all pulling together in the work of forming the newest G.O.R. Battalion.

The parade of the 190th in returning to the armories after the service was marred by an accident, three of the soldiers being knocked down by a street car, one of them, Drummer Ayres, being so seriously injured that he had to be taken to the General Hospital for treatment, where it was found a rib had been broken.

The return march was via Bloor, Queen's Park and University avenue. The accident occurred while the regiment was passing along Bloor street at Avenue road. A westbound street car, witnesses say, was going so fast the motorman couldn't stop it until he had reached the western side of the crossing. The three soldiers were knocked down while crossing Avenue road. Two of them were able to continue the march.

NO LIBERTY ENJOYED BY FRENCH-CANADIAN

Such is Le Droit's Bitter Comment on Bilingual Decision.

LETTER OF LAW ALONE

Law Lords Gave Strictly Technical Ruling, Says Paper.

By a Staff Reporter. Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 5.—In its editorial columns on Saturday, Le Droit makes the following comments on the decision of the Privy Council re-bilingual schools: "It is plain that the letter only of the law has been considered by the supreme authorities in giving their judgment and the final meaning of the judgment is that the provincial legislature can when it sees fit extinguish the rights and privileges hitherto guaranteed to the French language in Ontario, just as the Norris Government did in Manitoba.

"As French-Canadians, it would make a deduction of the judgment just rendered we see that we are entirely in the hands of the Government of Ontario, and we have no rights strictly guaranteed by the act of confederation.

"Senator Landry was right in saying that this act has not been an agreement of honor, but only a trap of infamy.

BEARS UP UNDER SEVERE STRAIN

Despite War, International Spirit of Salvation Army Remains Unbroken.

COMMISSIONER'S MESSAGE

Chief of Staff Delivers Inspiring Address to Big Massey Hall Audience.

That the international spirit of the Salvation Army will remain unbroken despite the strain to which it is being subjected by the war, and that national loyalty of its workers has been demonstrated thru the enlistment of tens of thousands, many of whom have been killed in action, formed the keynote of an interesting address by Commissioner Howard, chief of staff of the Salvation Army on "How Goes the Army?" before a crowd of 2500 people at Massey Hall, yesterday afternoon.

It was the second meeting of the annual Salvation Army Congress of the eastern division of Canada, and included in the attendance were 250 members of that religious body, representing every part of this district. The meeting was presided over by the attendance of Premier W. H. Hearst, of Ontario, who presided and who praised the work of the organization, lauded its efforts toward doing good during war times, and paid a tribute to Commander Booth. Prolonged applause was given the major after a brief speech. It had been learned previously that the major and council had favored a grant of $500 to the Salvation Army.

Commissioner Howard showed that the Salvation Army was "a going concern and a growing concern" by announcing 600 additional army corps 1200 additional officers and cadets, and the establishment of 200 more social institutions in the last four years. He said statistical records would show increase in many departmental matters if they were examined.

In closing his address he appealed for remembrance of the men and women of the Salvation Army, who are heroic in their sacrifices that they might save the world from what they see as the evils of war. He said they were angels of mercy, and many of them in making sacrifices paid for the souls which they saved with their own blood.

Cure of All Ill. He said the halt, the blind and the lame all came to the Salvation Army for aid, seemingly under the belief that it possessed a sort of Aladdin's Lamp for the secret cure of all ills. He said lack of money prevented the Salvation Army from doing all they would like to do.

The commissioner interspersed his remarks with occasional anecdotes and witticisms. He told the story of an instance in which a man was saved, telegram was received by a certain army corps which read: "Husband coming on next train. Meet, save, and take care of him." The order was filled and the wayward husband was sent back to his wife.

The Salvation Army has been especially affected by the war, the commissioner said, because it was international, not only in sentiment, but in fact. He said, the international spirit of brotherly love was under a great strain, but would exist despite the war. The army had contributed 550 officers, who were working in various ways, 1000 had been built by that organization, 40 motor ambulances cars, five of them representing Canadian contribution, had been given to the British army.

He lauded the late General Booth, declaring that he was not only intensely practical, but an idealist, and that his ideals were becoming realities in the progress being made in China and elsewhere. He said, however, that he had been made in Russia, he said, because of the government.

Commissioner Richards appealed for the help of more women in the ranks of the army. Mayor Church declared that the Salvation Army in Toronto had been one of the best recruiting agencies in the city. The chief of staff preached at the morning service and the evening service, too. Massey Hall was crowded at each meeting. Besides the speeches, music was rendered by 300 musicians.

LIKES STANDARD HOTELS. London, Ont., Nov. 5.—President-C. W. McGuire at the annual nomination meeting of the Ontario Commercial Travelers' Association here yesterday said that he looked for good results from the government's standard hotel system, and that it was well satisfied so far. All present officers were re-elected.

LIVING CHEAPER IN TORONTO THAN U.S.

Detroit, Particularly, Has High Prevailing Food Prices. RENTS ARE LOWER HERE Toronto Family Unable to Obtain Satisfactory Quarters in American City.

Windsor, Nov. 4.—For the benefit of the families now residing in Toronto who are working under the illusion that it is cheaper to live in Detroit, a comparison of prices was taken of Detroit and Windsor. The result showed that to live in Detroit one must have the income of Henry Ford, John D. or some of the other great financiers.

Food, in both quantity and quality, which graced Detroit dinner tables for a dozen years ago, would assume the proportions of a banquet on those same tables today, if the comparison can be taken at any point.

Prices in Detroit have been advancing steadily month after month, until at their present levels—prices still going up—they show an average increase of nearly 45 per cent. over prices prevailing less than a year ago. Many staples have reached figures which make them almost prohibitive in any other city than Detroit.

Not so many years ago the government at Washington pattered about investigating the cause of high food prices, which at that time were considered beyond all reason, but without returning any indictments or burning embers which were thought to have a grasp-hold on the public.

Windsor, in conjunction with other cities, has protested to the Canadian government against the high cost of living, because Windsorites claim that the labor bulletins issued by the Dominion department gives figures showing that food is higher in Ontario than any other part of Canada. According to their claim, it costs the average workman $15.00 a week for necessities of life for himself and family today, and that nothing is included for clothing, doctor bills, amusements, amusements, amusements.

A Married Man's Experience. A few days ago a young married man, who moved to Detroit from Toronto, called on the writer, stating that living conditions, rental and his inability to secure a flat because he had one small child, would force him to return to his home in Toronto.

"I had a nice flat in Toronto," he said, "and it only cost me $24.50 a month. Here in Detroit, where I looked and hunted for six weeks, I found that one cannot secure anything in a respectable neighborhood for less than $35. However, when I finally secured a flat, I had a little baby, he refused to rent the flat, saying it was against the rules.

"As to the food prices," he concluded, "I found that it required nearly $1.25 a day for each one of us grown people. This did not include any extras whatever. We merely ate the average workman's meal. I shall be forced to give up a good position."

The Obstacles. The Detroit mercantile committee to investigate the high rents, which had driven thousands of people away from the city, and hunted for six weeks, I found that one cannot secure anything in a respectable neighborhood for less than $35. ago, were quoted at 40 cents a dozen; today we find the Windsor grocer's tag reading 50 cents, while our American grocer's tag reads 45 cents for No. 1 eggs. General provisions—potatoes and tomatoes—are cheaper in Detroit, where they are quoted at 42 and 40 cents, respectively, while here they are 50-50.

A Comparative Table. The comparative table follows:—Retail Prices—

HIGHER PRICES FOR FOOD ARE TO BE EXPECTED

Opinion Expressed That Top of the Rise Has Not Yet Been Reached. PROFITS ARE SMALLER

Grocer Says Retailers Make Less Money Now Than When Prices Were Lower.

That consumers will pay even higher prices for foodstuffs than those now prevailing, is the prediction of William McKenzie, grocer, 1427 Yonge street, North Toronto, who, in a statement Saturday, declared his belief that the manufacturer and the wholesaler are responsible for the high cost of living rather than the farmer or the grocer.

He said that the abnormal conditions of business, caused by the war, created circumstances which, in the natural course of events, boosted the prices of food to some extent. But he added that he believed the prices were inflated for private gain.

Since wheat, flour, bread, potatoes and other necessities have advanced to an unprecedented height in cost, and the people have paid the additional prices with only an occasional protest, Mr. McKenzie expressed his belief that the cost would mount higher and higher. He was unable to say what goal would be attained or what action could be taken to avert relief to the consumer.

"Practically everything with a few very few exceptions, in the grocery line, have advanced to a figure heretofore unknown in the business," declared Mr. McKenzie. "Flour, butter, eggs, potatoes, all canned goods, are away out of sight."

Profit Gets Smaller. "The profit to the grocer who retails is getting smaller and smaller," he said, "and the retailer is being squeezed between the wholesaler and the consumer. The wholesaler is being squeezed between the manufacturer and the consumer. The manufacturer is being squeezed between the farmer and the consumer."

The profit in bread has been cut in half with the recent advance to 13 cents for a large loaf, and, considering that the grocer pays for the string, for the wrapping paper, which has doubled in price, and for the telephone call of the delivery of the parcel, the profit he makes in selling a loaf of bread is very small.

"Sugar is another item which has increased. It is now selling for ten cents a pound. In the past it has sold for 5 1/2 and 6 cents a pound. The operating expenses of grocery have increased, too, and it is the grocer who has to meet them.

"Some action of some sort should be taken, but I don't think the government is inclined to move in the matter." Strenuous objection is being made by consumers to the additional cost of bread, which recently advanced in price from 8 to 16 cents, to 9 and 18 cents for a large and small loaf respectively. The increased cost became effective the other day and was general throughout Toronto. Following is a table which shows the increases in the price of wheat and flour since the war began:

Table with 4 columns: Date, Wheat Price, Flour Price, and other details. Includes entries for Aug. 3, 1914, Aug. 2, 1915, Feb. 1, 1915, May 1, 1915, Nov. 1, 1915, Feb. 1, 1916, May 1, 1916, Aug. 1, 1916, Sept. 1, 1916, Oct. 2, 1916, Oct. 30, 1916.

HIGH COST OF FOOD HARD TO OVERCOME

British Investigators Make Suggestions, But Offer No Certain Remedy. PRODUCER IS BLAMED

Middleman and Contractor Held Less Responsible for Artificial Profits. By a Staff Reporter. Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 5.—A special report to the trade and commerce department dealing with the investigation into the high cost of living in Great Britain says:

Last June the government appointed an influential committee of economic authorities to "investigate the principal causes which have led to the increase of prices of commodities of general consumption since the beginning of the war and to recommend such steps, if any, with a view of ameliorating the situation as appear practicable and expedient, having regard to the necessity of maintaining adequate supplies."

This committee has now issued an interim report, which, while dealing broadly with the whole question and generally surveying prices and means so far used to control them, makes special recommendations for controlling the prices of three important commodities—meat, milk and butter. The report is a long and somewhat disappointing document, but while the recommendations make a number of recommendations, the main impression produced is that the direct cause for the high prices "ruling" for practically every kind of commodity is the in-household necessities as well as rents and taxes have advanced to unprecedented heights. Wages have decreased almost proportionately it is estimated.

Potatoes, beans, the best grade corn and currants are among the few commodities which have advanced more than 100 per cent. while flour, according to grocers, has almost doubled in cost and will have reached the 100 per cent. increase mark in a few days. Potatoes have increased about 171 per cent., butter 50 per cent., lard about 45 per cent., cheese 30 per cent., and canned vegetables 48 per cent. Rice, salt, dried fruit and similar lines of food have remained the same. Fresh meats, including beef, cost about the same as they did before the war. Bacon and ham are considerably dearer. A New York dispatch declares that the price of eggs will move upward in a few days, but they are now costing twenty per cent. more than heretofore.

Wholesale prices for fresh eggs in New York yesterday ranged from "kathered thirp" at 22 cents to "nice" at 62 cents a dozen. The cold storage prices ranged between 26 cents and 32 1/2 cents. New York refrigerator men said they had not less than three-quarters of their last year's supply. New York dealers annually bid against the Chicago jobbers for the supply, and this year Chicago won. It is in Chicago. New York consequently is 200,000 cases short of its normal supply, or 72,000,000 eggs. This is because of the advance for the advance to be made soon.

A soft coal shortage in the United States is causing a situation which, unless relieved soon, will mean a famine in that particular kind of fuel in Toronto. It has advanced to $9.50 a ton, an unprecedented figure. It increased $1 overnight. Bituminous coal is selling at a high price and anthracite is selling at $8.50, a figure quoted in September, which has remained unchanged. There is no present indication that hard coal will increase in cost.

More than 12,000 students are studying agriculture in the colleges of the United States. Twelve field parties will continue this year the government's survey of the natural resources of Alaska.

ter of the bag and have baked 46 loaves of bread, at 3 cents a loaf, which is $3.68. That will amount to $17.12 when I have used the whole bag. Why do persons say this city is the lowest priced bread when it sells in Winnipeg for 7 cents a loaf? If housewives would bake their own bread for a week or two, bread would soon take a drop. (Signed) A Constant Reader.

From first week November, 1914, to first week November, 1916. Bread, 3-lb. loaf, 10 cents, 3-lb. loaf, 18 cents; 80 per cent. increase. Flour, Five Rivers quarter bag, 93 cents; $1.45 per cent. increase. Pastry flour, quarter bag, 80 cents; $1.25; 56.25 per cent. increase. Family flour, quarter bag, 70 cents; $1.20; 71 per cent. increase. Monarch Flour, quarter bag, 88 cents; $1.35; 52.25 per cent. increase. Currants, 1 pound, 10 cents, 23 cents; 130 per cent. increase. Beans, 4 pounds, 25 cents, 50 cents; 100 per cent. increase. Canned vegetables, approximate increase, 23 per cent. Meat, approximate increase, 23 per cent. Milk 21 tickets, $1.00; 18 tickets, $1.00. Potatoes, a bushel, 55 cents, $1.52; 171.45 per cent. increase. Corn, 2 doz., 21 cents, 6 cents; 250 per cent. increase. Creamery butter, 1-lb. 30 cents, 45 cents; 50 per cent. increase. Sugar, one pound, 7 cents, 9 cents; 28.5 per cent. increase. Rolled oats, one pound, 49 cents, 56 cents; 12.25 per cent. increase. Lard, one pound, 15 cents, 22 cents; 46.6 per cent. increase. Eggs, 35 cents a dozen, about 45 cents; 28.5 per cent. increase. Cheese, one pound, 20 cents, 26 cents; 30 per cent. increase. This table compares the price of the chief foods which are bought shows an average increase in the cost of food of 60.15 per cent. The figures are as absolutely accurate as the prices varied in some stores in 1914 as well as at this time. But they are the main as approximate as can be obtained.

General cost of living in Toronto has increased at least fifty per cent. since the beginning of the war in August, 1914, and the prices of some commodities have advanced 100 per cent. or more, according to a tabulation prepared by the Toronto Chamber of Commerce. The report is an interesting, exhaustive and well-reasoned document, but while the recommendations make a number of recommendations, the main impression produced is that the direct cause for the high prices "ruling" for practically every kind of commodity is the in-household necessities as well as rents and taxes have advanced to unprecedented heights. Wages have decreased almost proportionately it is estimated.

The following are the recommendations: (1) Further efforts should be made to hasten as far as is compatible with naval needs the construction of merchant shipping, especially that required for the conveying of refrigerated meat. In case of dispute between builders and owners, the government should requisition and complete the ship. (2) In view of the danger of renewed dock and wharf congestion, immediate measures should be taken to provide sufficient men to attend to the necessary work. (3) Import Restrictions. The restrictions imposed upon unnecessary imports should be retained. (4) No animal in calf, lamb or pig shall be slaughtered and the offence made penal. (5) Upon considering whether the withdrawal of the embargo on the importation of live cattle from Canada would relieve the situation there seems to be no considerable supply available, even if the scarcity of the shipping did not make the importation of live, as against dead meat, uneconomical. (6) The government should develop its policy of direct meat purchase by increasing sources of supply. (7) On the disposing of meat which is purchased for civilian consumption, the government should impose conditions on retailers as well as upon wholesale sellers. (8) Supplies of meat from Brazil should be opened up by the establishment of refrigerating plants at convenient ports. (9) Persons who are not engaged in severe manual labor should voluntarily abstain from the consumption of butchers' meat on one day of each week. (10) The war office should again consider whether economy in the supply of meat to the army can be effected by improvement of methods of cooking and serving. (11) If additional summer milk can be imported from Ireland it might be we are in debt. No doubt about it! The man who, after paying his bills, buttons up his pockets and says that a just world can demand nothing further from him, is indulging in a very selfish outlook.

There are further claims to be settled—claims which rest upon every man, and fall upon each according to his ability to shoulder them. Claims which, compared with the trivial bills of a lifetime, are as a mountain to a molehill. No one can hope to settle them in full. But there is satisfaction in the thought that claims of this kind can, in a measure, be capitalized and provided for by means of life insurance.

Prices Not High Enough. Dear Sir: In your issue of Friday you publish an article by Thomas Chee, grocer and butcher, Queen street. While I am quite agreed with him in many of his statements, there is one that is positively wrong. "Fresh meat is just as cheap as it was last year." With the exception of beef, all kinds of fresh meats are dearer. Take prices at the present time and compare them with prices of the same time last year. My books show an increase in pork loins of 2 1/2 cents per lb.; pork butts, 3 1/2 cents; hogs, 2 1/2 cents; calves, 4 cents; lambs, 4 cents; also in sundries, shortages 5 1/2 cents; lard, 6 cents, and butter 11 cents. These prices are all taken from my own book and are the public's charges in proportion, it might have caused to complain. It does not realize what we are up against. It is to believe we are robbing the people, instead of which we endeavor to be their salvation by buying at lowest prices, so as to let our customers have their meat at a reasonable price. As a practical butcher with 50 years experience, let me say that during the past two years the public has not been charged as heavily by the retailers, who are worse off than their employees. I have been losing money besides. For proof take notice of the number of butchers who have been forced out of business. Trusting you will publish this, I am, George Dann, 384 Harbord street.

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED. The officers for the current year for the Crippled Children's Home, are: president, Mrs. G. L. Robinson; hon. pres. Mr. H. Hough; vice-presidents, Mrs. F. J. Stewart, Mrs. G. Tower Ferguson; treasurer, Miss Marie Buchanan; secretaries, Mrs. C. Herron, Mrs. R. A. Donald.

Division of Opinion. Supplementary recommendations (signed by only seven members of the committee). The present circumstances being altogether exceptional and abnormal, lend themselves readily to the inflation of the prices and the making of large profits and the evil cannot be effectively checked without government action. Therefore the government should more and more enlarge its purchases of meat and bacon from outside sources and where possible become the sole purchaser and should insist upon the purchasing public getting the full benefit of advantageous buying. The government, having already exercised a large measure of control over prices, notably in the cases of coal, house rents and the wool clip, public control should also be assumed over the home supplies of meat, bacon and other primary foodstuffs in the sale of which too much profit is being made by home producers. A large measure of control should be exercised and reasonable prices be affixed. In regard to the milk industry, for instance, a committee of men and women, acquainted with the conditions of trade, might be appointed to regulate prices, taking all the factors fully into account and endeavoring to act fairly as between the farmers, the distributors and the public. Possibly the most noticeable feature in the conclusions reached is that, contrary to the general experience, it is the actual producer of the commodities who is responsible for the greater part of any artificial profits which arise, rather than the much abused middleman and contractor.

Military Drill for Scholars

There has been an immense amount of discussion in the board of education and elsewhere of the drilling of pupils at the public schools. A great deal of the discussion has been utterly wide of the mark, and a great deal of it has been concerned with misapprehensions and with apprehensions that need not be entertained.

Better things are to be anticipated of our boys than this, and we think better things of their teachers. No one has the slightest idea of turning Ontario into a new Prussia, where every man, woman and child is under military discipline and lives in a perpetual attitude of salute!

The advantages of having the elements of military drill implanted in the boy are so numerous that it is rather odd to find anyone supposed to be familiar with boy nature, to raise objections. As a first step, there is more to be gained than from years of schooling. In the development of the co-operative spirit, esprit de corps, the sense of organic union, there is more to be learned than in any other way physically.

When Baden-Powell began the Boy Scout movement years ago. Those who, for several years before the war broke out, observed the growth and spread of the Boy Scout movement in Great Britain, breathed more easily when they thought of the coming storm. Had it not been for Baden Powell's boy scouts, Kitchener's army would never have been such a magnificent realization.

Nothing is likely to be done in Toronto without authorization from the department of education, and if the movement be guided on wise lines, and the boy scout model rather than the cadet corps be kept in view, nothing but good can be the result.

"Madmen"

Nothing has given more offence to those who have favored the entente allies and their cause than President Wilson's comparison of them with drunken rowdies fighting in a bar. Mr. Wilson makes no difference in his public utterances between the brutes who ravaged Belgium and the Belgians who fought to protect their country. Those who assisted, French, Italians, British, Russians, Serbs, Roumanians, he lumped together as the "madmen" fighting in Europe. History will scarcely endorse this verdict, but whatever be the verdict of history, it cannot be expected that this judgment can be accepted by those who are fighting, as they believe, for the most sacred principles of human action. If it be neutrality to regard the criminal, the police officer and the judge as all equally guilty of disturbing the peace, then human reason rejects the view. But this view does not seem to have appealed to thinkers of any wide repute except the president himself. One ex-president has gone on record a few days ago in marked disapproval of it. Theodore Roosevelt speaks quite plainly:

"President Wilson has referred to the men fighting in Europe as 'madmen.' He has not differentiated in any way among them. Such failure to differentiate is in itself a gross offense against international morality. If the Belgians fighting for Belgium are 'madmen,' then the men of Bunker Hill and Yorktown were lunatics indeed. Either President Wilson does not mean what he says or else he condemns all struggles for freedom as sinful, including our own struggle."

Will the United States Ever Try the Experiment of Free Trade?

In its November number Current Opinion discusses the trade future of the United States after the war. It is pointed out that the allied nations will remain allies commercially long after the war is over. Great Britain, for example, may be expected to draw her food supplies from her dominions overseas, and from Russia to the exclusion of the United States. Already Canada is preparing thru her co-operative export association to reap the benefit of preferential treatment for her exports after the war, not only from the mother country, but from Russia, France and Italy, as well.

It is taken for granted that the central powers will establish a like Zollverein for their own protection and prohibit or restrict imports from the entente powers after the war is over in much the same way as those powers may be trusted to prohibit or restrict imports from the nations with which they are now at war. How far Germany and Austria, if defeated, may be allowed to control their own fiscal policies remain to be seen.

But assuming that two powerful groups of nations divide Europe into two hostile camps commercially, it must almost of necessity follow that they will oppose high tariff barriers against neutral nations. A preference to Canada as against Germany, for example, would evidently be worthless unless coupled with a similar preference as against her principal rival in the export trade. Hence it may be easily seen that American manufacturers seeking entrance into the markets of the entente powers, will have to form Canadian corporations and establish plants in Canada.

The American exporter of agricultural products, however, could resort to no such device, for evidently the Canadian farmer could not benefit by the preference afforded him in Europe. If grain and other products grown in the United States could be shipped into Canada, lose their original identity and then be transhipped to any of the entente powers.

Canada, as one of the entente powers, would have to maintain a stiff tariff against neutral as well as against nations and especially against the United States. United States observers fear that both groups will go after foreign trade with determination and success. They will start with the advantage of state-owned railways, with industries mobilized under state control, and with the disposition to subsidize shipping. The United States, they say, will be fairly driven out of the South American market, a task by no means difficult in view of the slipshod manner in which United States exporters have been carrying on their trade with Latin America during the war.

Scarcely any weapon of reprisal seems to suggest itself to our neighbors except the old device of raising the tariff. In this way they may constitute a Zollverein among the states of the union, but while that, to some extent, might placate the manufacturer, it holds out no promise of hope to the producer and exporter of food.

Some slim consolation is extracted from the philosophical reflection that trade should be governed by economic laws and not by sentimental or political considerations. That, however, would bring the United States perilously near the experiment of free trade. Something like free trade might ensure to the advantage of the United States also it would certainly be a revolutionary reversal of the policy to which, up to this time, she has attributed her wealth and prosperity. But so many changes are being wrought by the great war that we may yet see Great Britain heading the column of nations adhering to a high protective tariff while the United States harks back to the teaching of Cobden and Bright and tries the desperate experiment of free trade.

The Argentine department of agriculture has an appropriation of more than $200,000 for the purpose of fighting the locust plague, to be done by means of a natural pest enemy which has been discovered.

STATUTE REPEALS POWERS IN TOTO

No Provision Made for Return of Authority to Separate School Boards.

PURE TECHNICALITY McGreggor Young, K.C., Gives Point of the Privy Council Decision.

McGreggor Young, K.C., who represented the attorney-general before the privy council in the bilingual case on which judgment was delivered last week, said yesterday that the whole point of that part of the judgment adverse to the province on the legality of the statute constituting the separate schools commission to take over the functions of the elective school boards in Ottawa, was that their lordships found the statute to be ultra vires, in that it abrogated the powers of the board in toto, and for an indefinite period, making no provision for the return of the board's power in normal times.

Mr. McGreggor Young said that it was evident that there were omissions and errors in the cable of the judgment printed in "Toronto" papers, so it would be wiser to reserve comment upon it until the certified copy of the judgment was received here. It is evident from what Mr. McGreggor Young said that their lordships took an entirely technical view of the matter, confining their attention solely to the legal question involved and refraining from considering the question of difficulty of framing a statute which would give the commission power over only those functions which the recalcitrant board refused to fulfill and only for such a time as would be required to fulfill them. It is evident from what Mr. McGreggor Young said that their lordships would appear that the statute's legality might have been saved if it had contained some provision whereby the board should have regained its powers automatically as soon as it conformed to the requirements of the law. It is probably within the truth to say that the decision of the privy council makes it clear that in this country a government cannot abrogate the powers of an elective body to an appointed body save for the period during which and to the extent to which the elective body refuses to comply with the law.

"SONS OVERSEAS"

Editor World: We are having a great deal of talk about conscription and various schemes to induce men to enlist now. The best way I can see is to give them some reason to enlist. While the government retains in its employment men who should be in the army they cannot expect other employees to act differently, and it is time they let the shirkers know in no uncertain way that they are expected to do their share. I have myself heard men say let those fellows that have jobs in the city hall and different government services do their share, and hint it is because their gull saves them that they are kept on. Now let an act be passed, first dismissing from all public services all unmarried men and married men without children, and if they refuse to enlist disqualifying them from being employed in such services. 2nd: Disfranchise any such men and disqualify them from ever being elected to parliament or any municipal council. 3rd: Prohibit their employment in any capacity by any person whatever. If these men ever want any such thing let them show now when they are needed that they feel they own a duty to the state to maintain it, and if they won't do that they are not fit to hold citizen's rights in it. As a father whose sons are all overseas and all in the casualty list, I feel sure that I am showing in this mild method that would be suggested by a great share of our people, and it would dispel the idea that is becoming general that pull is keeping many a young man from being in his proper place. EIGHT MEN DEAD IN WEEK END LIST

Seven Reported Killed in Action, But Several of These Not Named by Ottawa.

FROM PRIVATE TO MAJOR

Major J. P. Girvan Was in Ranks Going Overseas and Won Promotion in Field.

In the week-end casualty lists the names of fourteen Toronto men appear. Seven are reported as killed in action, but several of these do not appear in the official lists, being based on private messages received by relatives. One soldier has died of wounds, one is missing and one previously reported missing, is stated to have rejoined his battalion. Since Sept. 15 a total of 3482 Toronto names have appeared as casualties. Major John P. Girvan, who left Toronto with the 15th Battalion (8th Highlanders), received gunshot wounds in chest on Sept. 27. This is the first time he has appeared in the casualty list, although he had been in the trenches for over a year and a half. Major Girvan enlisted as a private and won his promotion in the field. Official word has just been received from Ottawa by his parents at 1130 Dufferin street, that he is now on his way home on sick leave.

Lieut. Chas. T. Croucher, reported as wounded in the field and now in the hospital at Boulogne, before enlisting was assistant-secretary to Alex. Lewis, of the Toronto Harbor Commission. He went away with the 8th Battalion, but was drafted to another Canadian battalion at the front. He is 22 years of age, single, and resided with his father at 15 Irene avenue.

Pte. Eric W. Cousins, who is reported to have died of wounds, was a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Cousins, 123 Clinton street. He went overseas with the 8th Battalion. He was formerly employed as a drug clerk in Bowlinville.

Pte. James Geddes, 137 Sherbourne street, has been killed in action. He was with the 20th Battalion. His father, who is at present in England, has sent word to his wife in Toronto that Pte. Geddes came to his death on Sept. 25.

Pte. J. H. Culver, 40 Cowan avenue, who enlisted with the 20th Battalion, has been killed in action. His name appeared some time ago in the casualty list, but as no official notification had been received, his wife retained the hope that he might still be alive. Official notice, however, has just been received confirming the previous announcement. He was formerly employed with the T. Eaton Co. and besides his wife, leaves six children.

Pte. W. Hurley, reported killed in action, is not known to any Toronto address of his next of kin given in the casualty list. Gunner E. D. Barry, who is reported to have been killed in action on Oct. 8, was the eldest son of the Rev. John Barry of Meaford. He was formerly employed by the firm of Eden Smith & son, architects, and resided at 61 Albany avenue. On the day prior to his death he was informed that he had been recommended for the Military Cross for bravery in repelling air-entanglements and carrying water to the wounded under heavy fire.

Pte. Norman Cunningham, reported killed in action, enlisted with the 8th Toronto Battalion and trained at Exhibition Camp before going overseas last May. His home was in Oakland, Ont. Pte. A. J. Fletcher, reported missing since Sept. 15, is now believed to have been killed in action, according to word just received by his wife, who resides at 24 Sellers avenue. He went overseas as a bugler with the 8th Battalion. Before enlisting he was with the Consumers Gas Co. Corp. R. A. Bolin, brother of J. W. Bolin, 17 Trizeil avenue, has been killed in action. He went overseas as a signaller with the 8th Battalion, and went to the front with a British Columbia unit.

Pte. Arthur R. Bush is reported as missing since Oct. 14, in a telegram received by his sister, Mrs. Martha Cannon, 73 Water street. Before enlisting he worked for the Wm. Davies Co. He left Toronto with the 37th Battalion.

Pte. Clark Saunders, 77 Pears avenue, is reported wounded. He enlisted at Ottawa with the 8th Battalion, and prior to enlisting was employed with a local undertaker. He was unmarried.

Sgt. W. A. McArthur, 195 Sackville street, has been wounded by a gunshot in the back and is now in a hospital at Caen, France. He is married and was employed as a teamster before enlisting.

Pte. E. W. Hart, previously reported missing, is now officially reported to have rejoined his regiment. He left for the front six months ago with the 15th Battalion. He was formerly a shipper in a Toronto factory.

MARGARET NYBLOC BACK FROM LONDON

Beautiful English Actress Tells of Conditions Abroad. IN 'HOBBSON'S CHOICE' Original 'Bunt' to Be Seen as Bossy Maggie Hobson in New Success.

When once one has seen the piquant beauty and fallen under the spell of Margaret Nyblöc's charm in her impersonation of Maggie Hobson in the delightful comedy of English provincial life, which is this week on view at the Alexandra, one is inclined to doubt the sincerity of William Mossop's hesitation in becoming her bridegroom, for despite her dominating personality, there is something mighty winsome about the heroine of this quaint Lancashire comedy as portrayed by Miss Nyblöc.

Even in the most dictatorial moments of her "bossy" career there is a flash of smile like golden sunshine and a tender light in the great dark eyes of the English beauty that prove quite irresistible to those who look on while she leads her pretending bridegroom to the altar, revolutionizes his life and finally brings peace and order out of chaos in her father's deserted house.

Miss Nyblöc was the original "Bunt" of the London stage, and has but just returned from a similar triumph in the title role of "Kitty Mackay," with the shadows of war deepening the pathos of her dark eyes.

Speaking of the theatre in that great metropolis across the sea, Miss Nyblöc says that never in the history of the world was amusement more needed as part of the audience in London are composed of soldiers.

"Here it is impossible to realize the grim horrors of that bloody conflict in Europe. No one here knows the number of our boys who have been and are in the hospitals, because in England the censorship does not allow half the news about the killed and wounded to pass on to the public.

"And the theatre is like an oasis in the desert to the wounded and convalescing soldiers. It is a godsend to them as well as to others, for it diverts their attention from the awful tragedy going on around them. The one thing the managers in London want to be sure of is that they offer the American success, for it breathes a freshness of life, a quality of environment, and projects across the footlights so much of genuine humor that one cannot sit thru a performance without forgetting whatever they may have of care and trouble," commented this petite bit of feminine charm, whose visualization of Mr. Brighstone's latest stage heroine has been of such exquisite grace and charm.

At the Star Theatre, beginning with the matinee today, the management has prepared a production of burlesque which has already been well received in this form of entertainment in this country. RACING IN CANADA CLOSERS WINDSOR DEVONSHIRE MEETING AT WINDSOR

LONG ONES IN FRONT LAST DAY AT WINDSOR

Great Crowd in Attendance—Final of Canadian Racing of the Season.

Detroit, Nov. 5.—Windsor's final racing meeting of the 1916 season came to a close on Saturday afternoon with a crowd of probably 7000 persons in attendance. It was one of the busiest for a Canadian track, that ever gathered on all afternoon. The stand was well filled, at the same time, there being an unusually large number of ladies present.

First Race, starting in a field of twelve on the fifth race, which proved to be the best of the day, paying $54.30, $22.20 and $14. Viley was the one that the bettors seemed to want, but the gelding finished back in the rack. Butcher was the only one to pay, but he failed at the head of the stretch. Palm Leaf caught Ellen Smyth, which had been running second, and won on a good finish.

There were two handicaps on the card, and in each there was difference of opinion between the little and the big bettors. The latter, in the fifth race, which proved to be the best of the day, as it should, occupying the feature position, went strong to the Zollicoffer entry, All Smiles and Christie, while the small bettors preferred Hauber and Hanovia. The latter did not figure, but Hauber came on and won after Christie had made the pace to the last turn. The entry ran two-thirds.

In the third race, also, it looked like the big bettors knew something. While the small bettors were investing in Palm Leaf, Dignity and Harry L., the $10 contingent was pouring the money in on Fruit Cake. This filly is a two-year-old, by Dick Wells, and was the only two-year-old in a field of eleven horses, going in an all-geld race. The filly ran in the first three of all the way to the stretch, and then came on and took command. Fruit Cake paid $20 on straight tickets.

Racing through the day was good, nearly all of the finishes being close. The purse was big, there being an actual starting average of twelve horses to the name of the spectators thinking that Swift Fox, finishing second, was roughed by Crepuscule, the horse that won. Asama was a pretty good thing in the sixth race, paying $14.20, and winning in a stretch run. The final event went to Fairy Legend, which paid $12.20. In this race, Royal Tea paid $10.10 show money.

Summary:
FIRST RACE—Purse $600, for all ages, 5 1/2 furlongs, selling, handicap.

Pitcher Nabors Losing His Last Twenty Games, and Browns Pulling Triple Play on a Grounder.

Two major world records were created during the 1916 season, one by the Yankees when they dashed a triple play against St. Louis, which resulted from a grounder, for rare as triple plays are, they mostly occur on line drives. Pitcher Nabors of Philadelphia established the other record by losing his last 20 games pitched. The schedule saved him from further losses.

Thanks, old man, for telling me about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

It has given me back my old time vigor and made me strong and well

This is the way people feel about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. It arouses the enthusiasm of those who use it because of its remarkable restorative and up-building influence.

It lifts them out of the tired, nervous and helpless condition resulting from exhausted nerves, restores health and vigor and makes life worth living.

Sleeplessness, irritability, nervous headache, indigestion, and all the warning symptoms of nervous collapse disappear when this great food cure is used to nourish the nerve cells back to health.

Nervous Collapse

Mr. Victor Higgs, Windham Hill, Cumberland Co., N.S., writes:

"My case was a peculiar one. It was one of those strange nervous diseases which are so difficult to describe. The doctor said that my nervous system was all run down. I experienced that uncertainty in walking which indicates the approach of paralysis and locomotor ataxia, and I now realize that I am greatly indebted to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for the great good it has done me.

"I could not work, read or write, or do anything requiring energy or the concentration of mind. Before using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I could not get an hour's sleep all night. My brain and nerves seemed to be all unsettled. I sleep well now, and believe that my nervous system has been fully built up by this splendid medicine."

Sciatic Rheumatism

Mr. W. J. Talbot, Edenwold, Sask., writes: "It is a great pleasure for me to recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food as a cure for sciatic rheumatism. The pain I have suffered from sciatica has been well nigh unbearable. It would start in the hips and run down the legs to the toes, gradually getting worse. The nerve contract until one is practically useless. My doctor tried many different treatments, but could only afford relief for a time.

"For about five years I was subject to this trouble, with severe attacks which would last about two months. The last attack I had was shortened to two weeks by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills used in conjunction with it. This treatment was continued until I was satisfied that the cure was lasting."

This statement is endorsed by Mr. H. E. Woolley, J.P.

It rests entirely with you as to whether you benefit by these experiences of others. If you could talk with persons who have used this treatment and note their enthusiasm you would not be long in putting it to the test in your own case.

HIGHER TARIFF IF HUGHES IS ELECTED

Summary of Latest Conditions in U.S. Election Looks Like Defeat for Wilson.

HIS SUPPORTERS ANXIOUS

Wilson's Eight-hour Bill Comes in for Some Severe Criticism.

New York, Nov. 4.—Political excitement grows as election day approaches. This is especially the case in labor union circles, where Mr. Gompers' course in taking up the fight on behalf of President Wilson, is much discussed. In defending the course of the chief officer of the Federation of Labor, the following case was made out from the standpoint by one representative of organized labor. He said: "Numerable are the Hughes speakers who are denouncing President Wilson for putting an eight-hour bill into existence. The Hughes speakers promised to repeal it if their candidate is elected. Yet, as Wilson said, when addressing congress on the question, 'A man's time is not a commodity, but is that portion of a man's life.'"

"In paving the way for the repeal of the eight-hour bill, so confident are the Republicans of winning, that the corporations are already circulating petitions among employees not intended in the present eight hour law petitioning for its repeal as very unjust in its operation to them. The employees are practically forced to sign the petitions."

"Two American soldiers were recently killed in the rounding up of bandits in Santo Domingo, and Hughes speakers declare this proves that the United States has war under Wilson."

"Wilson put into law the Federal Banking Reserve Act. By this the banks have to pool a certain proportion of their deposits and in the case of the failure of any one of the banks, the United States manufacturers' funds on the dollar in the reserve tend to which all the banks subscribed. Mr. Hughes is expected to cause this law to be repealed as unconstitutional."

"Mr. Hughes' election will also mean that the United States manufacturers will be given such a high tariff that they will be the most highly protected in the world. One Hughes' speaker in the financial district of New York City said that a Republican victory would mean compulsory military training. The speaker said he believed the workmen of the United States needed military discipline as they felt they would learn to have proper respect for the rights of the employer."

"In New York City the belief that President Wilson will be defeated appears to be growing rapidly. Some supporters of Wilson are so alarmed that they say the corporations have given the Republican national committee a campaign fund to buy up Ohio and New York, and that his election means first war with Mexico, and then war with England, for the annexation of Canada. The general opinion appears to be that Mr. Hughes' election would be chiefly marked by an increase of the tariff with an effort to steer clear of foreign competition of consistent with what appeared to him to be the rights of the nation."

FRENCH PAPER ROUNDS ON THE POPE'S LETTER

Le Pays Makes Vigorous Protest Against Alleged Irish Influence at Rome.

VATICAN MILLIONAIRE

His Holiness so Referred to by Infuriated Writer in That Paper.

Special to The Toronto World. Montreal, Nov. 4.—Le Pays is out today with the statement that the recent papal letter "is the most formidable blow to French-Canadian influence ever given in this country, as well as being the greatest triumph ever placed to the credit of the Irish clergy in Canada. It could not have been worse," continues the same paper, "had the document been signed by Fallon, Doherty and Fitzpatrick."

Le Pays says in effect that the Pope has been deceived cruelly by the Irish Catholics and influenced by their powerful artful friends in Rome and elsewhere. The article contends that the papal declaration claiming that the French-Canadian priests are not well enough versed in English to look after their Irish parishioners, adding that the very contrary is the case. It also claims that the Pope intimates that the French-Canadian children should learn English perfectly, while the smallest knowledge of French is quite sufficient for their wants. It continues: "Think of the perfection to which English is taught and then of the small bones thrown to the French-Canadians and one realizes the crying injustice of the Pope's letter, which speaks of perfect English and passable French."

"To complete the Pope's goodness," says the writer, "his holiness asks the bishops, those who caused all the trouble, to settle the conflict. What zeal Mr. Fallon will employ in rendering justice to the French of his diocese! He will enjoy silence upon journalistic writers and the newspaper."

Following a quotation from L'Action Catholique, asking everyone to admit Le Pays says: "No hypocrisy if you please. The Pope speaks out freely on our national questions, badly informed if you will, and under Irish influence he knocks us down and then says nothing because of our respect for religion. We consider that the Pope has been absolutely unjust towards the French-Canadians in this matter and if no one speaks out how are we going to obtain justice? Since this Ontario school question is a national question, we do not see why we should be silenced by this strange request of the holy father. Since when are those who are assassinated supposed to keep silent. We have been knocked by the Irish clergy who succeeded in their intrigue with the provincial government, and after being robbed of our sacred rights we are supposed to keep silent. If we bow to the desire of the Pope, who makes no difference between those who attack and those who defend, and if we cease to combat, it signifies the letter, yet with that hypocrisy characteristic of the race, all of our newspapers and public men have humiliated themselves to the last degree. There are, in fact, but two exceptions. Mr. Sam Genest and Armand Lavergne, the latter stating that the letter served Irish interests before those of French-Canadian, although he added, 'the Pope will never force me to be an Englishman.' The Droits of Ottawa backs down and thanks the Pope for having allowed them to learn French. Only one paper, Le Devoir, has remained in line, although its silence may be golden eloquence. We long, however, to hear from Mr. Bourassa."

"In a word the papal letter has created general deception in French Canada, and proves beyond a doubt that the Vatican is completely under Irish domination. We are all right when we go to the Champ de Mars to protest against the news of Mayor Nathan against the Pope, but when his holiness sacrifices us to the Irish element we are not in a hurry to go there with our archbishop at our head. Now, French people, continue to send your money to the millionaire of the Vatican, and you will see that it pays as well as going to the Champ de Mars. If the French Canadians were men they would leave their churches rather than listen to the reading of this document."

"Death to Americans," They Cry As They Swoop Down Foothills.

USED VILEST OATHS

Captured Two Places and Promise to Take Another Very Soon.

El Paso, Nov. 4.—"Death to Americans," was the cry of the Villa bandits who charged down from the foothills of Laguna on the Mexican Central passenger train Monday night, Dr. S. Hafner, the German physician, who was a passenger on this looted train, declared upon his arrival, here last night from Chihuahua City.

Dr. Hafner was told by one of the Villa chiefs in command of the bandits that Villa troops had captured Santa Rosalia, Jimenez and would take Chihuahua City within ten days, after the railroad to Juarez has been destroyed. Hafner, who had practiced medicine in Chihuahua City many years, recognized some of the bandits as former patients and called them by name after he had established his identity as a German subject.

"I am sure I would have been killed had I not been recognized as the German doctor who had lived in Chihuahua City so long," he added. "The bandits came thru the train crying 'Death to Americans' and using the vilest oaths in reference to the 'Gringos'."

THE RECAPTURE OF VAUX WAS NOT UNEXPECTED

Paris, Nov. 4.—The recapture of Vaux Fort, also expected from day to day since the fall of Douaumont, caused no less the deepest satisfaction, as thus the victory of Oct. 24 is entirely ratified. It was known that the position was becoming daily more untenable for the German garrison. The French commander, after the Douaumont victory, had the certitude that Vaux was doomed. He decided, however, to avoid a spectacular success, entailing large sacrifices and preferred to hammer down the German resistance, thus once more proving that the French artillery can beat the German at its own game.

BRITISH PAPERS IN GERMANY.

Berlin, Nov. 4.—(Via Sayville.)—A report which had gained currency in Europe that recently all British newspapers had been prohibited in Germany was denied today by the Overseas News Agency. ### KEY FURNISHED TO TREASURE HOUSE!

How Best Aid to Wonderful Information May Be Secured.

What vast and mighty treasures of words full of rich meaning lie locked up in our language—hidden away from common use, and enjoyed only by the learned few. It is as if, possessing the mineral wealth of Canada, mined, smelted and ready for the mint, we turned, scornfully aside, reeling in a voluntary poverty.

A dictionary constitutes the treasure house of a language. As a people, we needlessly deprive ourselves of the helps at our command. In our daily tasks, not one of which can be performed without the use of words, we possess only the most primitive tools, when we might be equipped with the keenest and most efficient. If the dictionary be the barred and bolted treasure house we have mentioned, then the coupon we print daily in The World is its key.

The coupon will appear only a few more times. This marvelous distribution draws to a close. Readers are advised to consult the coupon now, read the display announcements and ascertain at once how this great New Universities Dictionary can be secured practically as a gift. It may be examined at The World office, 40 W. Richmond street, Toronto, and 49 St. McNab street, Hamilton.

BOTH SIDES SURE OF A VICTORY

Republican and Democratic Headquarters Both Issue Statements of Unqualified Confidence.

GERMANS DESERT HUGHES

Last Minute Announcement Claims Labor and Foreign Vote for Wilson.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—Republican and Democratic national headquarters concluded their work today which marked the close of the presidential campaign in the territory between Ohio and the Pacific coast. Nearly all the department heads left for their home to vote next Tuesday. Alvin T. Hart, manager of western Republican national headquarters, issued the following statement: "It is my belief and that of all the other members of the western Republican campaign committee, that Hughes and Fairbanks will have many more than 200 votes in the electoral congress."

Harold L. Ickes, who has been in charge of work among the Progressives at western Republican headquarters made this statement: "Reports that come to me from all thru the west show that from 85 to 95 per cent of the Progressive vote of 1912 will be cast this year for Republican candidates. This means success for Hughes and Fairbanks."

Senator Thomas J. Walsh, manager of western Democrats' national headquarters, issued the following statement: "Wilson will be re-elected by a greater popular vote than has ever heretofore been given a presidential candidate. The conditions impress themselves upon the mind of every one who has followed the campaign, namely, that an enormous number of Republicans will vote for Wilson, and only a negligible number of Democrats will vote for Hughes. As to the independent vote, so far as it has been vocal at all, it is for Wilson. The labor vote is for Wilson. Among voters of foreign birth a surprisingly large number are for Wilson, as high as ninety per cent, in the case of Bohemians, Poles and citizens of Slavic extraction. The Scandinavians are particularly friendly to the president. The German defection, on which so many hopes for Hughes were built, has faded away."

WHEAT RECEIVES CLOSING SETBACK

Arrivals of Canadian Product at Minneapolis Still Continue.

ARGENTINE PRICE OFF

Buenos Ayres Market Undergoes Decline of Seven Points.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—After being alternately depressed and raised today by varying news in regard to crop conditions in Argentina the wheat market finally underwent a setback, due largely to falling off in export sales and to continued arrivals of Canadian wheat at Minneapolis. Prices closed weak, 1/4 cent lower, with December at $1.24 1/2 and May at $1.24 1/4. Corn lost 1/4 cent and oats 1/4 cent. Provisions closed from 50 down to a rise of 10.

It was evident throughout the session that the holders of wheat did not take kindly to the fact that prices were being set on a basis of the consequent tendency to act on all hand spots was maintained, but as the market was not particularly active, the closing quotations at Buenos Ayres showed a slight increase, from $1.25 1/2 to $1.26 1/2. This was a word that signs pointed to a considerable rise in South and Central Argentina. Consequently, a sharp decline in values here, however, was temporarily offset by a great degree by later reports that the Buenos Ayres market had advanced, and that exporters there were at Buenos Aires, and that exporters there were at Buenos Aires, and that exporters there were at Buenos Aires.
